

Kate Strengthens; Gulf Coast On Alert

MIAMI (UPI) — Kate swelled to a 115-mph hurricane today in the Gulf of Mexico after a 16-hour assault on Cuba and a hurricane watch was posted for the storm-battered Gulf Coast from Florida to Louisiana.

"With winds of 115 mph, this is a very respectable hurricane. If you live in the area, don't board up yet but know where your shutters are," hurricane forecaster Mark Zimmer said.

At 8 a.m. EST, the center of Kate was located about 300 miles south of Apalachicola, Fla., near latitude 25.3 north, longitude 85.4 west.

Civil defense officials hurriedly began making preparations for the relentless storm, which threatened to become the first November hurricane to hit the U.S. mainland in 50 years and the fourth hurricane this season to pound the Gulf Coast.

"Oh buddy, I'm scared to death. This is getting old," said Bill Viertel, owner of Cedar Key, Fla.'s Gulf Side Motel, which has been damaged by two hurricanes since September.

The late-season hurricane clawed 250 miles of Cuba's northern coast with 110-mph winds Tuesday, skirted Key West and plunged into the Gulf.

The National Hurricane Center issued the hurricane watch from Cedar Key to Grand Isle, La., at 8 a.m. EST today as Kate moved northwest at 10 to 15 mph.

"A hurricane watch means there is a hurricane threat and you need to monitor the progress of the system carefully and be prepared to take action in case the threat materializes and warnings are necessary later today," chief hurricane forecaster Neil Frank said.

Kate was weakened to a 95-mph hurricane by its Cuban landfall but the storm's top winds swelled to 115 mph early today and Frank said. "Further strengthening is possible during the next 24 hours."

Forecasters said the storm gradually was turning north toward the central Gulf Coast, which was battered in August by Hurricane Danny, on Labor Day by Hurricane Elena and in late October by Hurricane Juan.

At 8 a.m. Kate's eye was 300 miles south of Apalachicola, near latitude 25.3 north, longitude 85.4 west.

If City Applies, Gets Grant

$650,000 Could Revitalize Cluster Of Sanford Homes

By Karen Talley
Herald Staff Writer

The conference room of a recently restored turn-of-the-century grammar school on West 7th Street provided appropriate backdrop for the Sanford City Commission to consider applying for a state grant to revitalize other parts of the city.

The commission elected to hold its workshop at the Seminole County student museum "to show it off and give us a chance for a tour," said Mayor Bettye Smith who, along with Commissioner John Mercer, sat on the task force that spearheaded its founding.

After completing their journey into Sanford's past Monday afternoon, the commissioners set their sights on the near future, where the possibility of another restorative effort exists. The aesthetic benefits of this one, however, will be coupled with "a bureaucratic nightmare," City Manager Frank Faison said.

He told the commission that Sanford is qualified to apply for a $650,000 Federal Housing and Urban Development (HUD) small cities grant that would open "a window of opportunity" for residents. The commission, however, "can expect a lot of headaches" from HUD's "extremely difficult" administrative and accounting stipulations, he said.

According to Faison, HUD requires the city to be legally accountable for the grant, although it's management would also be handled by a citizen's advisory committee and an administrator hired by the city.

"This," Faison said, "makes thing difficult. You have to involve a lot of people and that can lead to a lot of problems."

However, Faison said, if applied for successfully, successful application of the grant will enable certain residents to revitalize their homes. These efforts, he said, could be undertaken either through outright grants or low interest loans. If the city were allocate the funds through loans, Faison said the grant "will last practically forever."

Faison said HUD acknowledges the grant's "complex administrative structure" by allowing $130,000 of the $650,000 to go for management

Salfi To Hear Land Lawsuit

By Karen Talley
Herald Staff Writer

Seminole County Circuit Judge Dominick J. Salfi has agreed to hear Sanford's Yankee Lake condemnation proceeding, the Honorable Clarence Johnson, Seminole-Brevard chief justice who supervises case assignments, said today.

Johnson said in light of the two judges that already disqualified themselves from the suit, "before signing another order of assignment, I called Judge Salfi to find out if he would have any problems with it. He said he didn't know any of the parties involved, so it's his now."

On Tuesday, Johnson said Judge Kenneth M. Lefler would be asked to take the suit. However, when contacted by The Evening Herald, Lefler said if he received the assignment, he would also have to recuse himself.

"I wouldn't be able to take it," he said. "I know some of the principals involved on both sides."

Lefler also said because he normally hears criminal cases, "The (condemnation) suit is out of my line."

Salfi is also a criminal division justice, his assignments involve juveniles and domestic relations. However, the Seminole circuit's only two civil court justices, S. Joseph Davis Jr. and C. Vernon Mize, were already assigned the suit, but recused themselves citing possible conflicts of interest.

Mize, who served as Sanford City Attorney for eight years, disqualified himself on Nov. 8, the date the case was filed. It was then assigned to Davis, who recused himself a week later. The delay, Davis explained, was because he was unaware the property was owned by Jeno Paulucci, whom he had represented while in private practice as an attorney.

The suit does not name Paulucci. It was brought against his agent, Nicholas Pope of Orlando, and the property's lien holders, Freedom Savings & Loan of Winter Park and First American Bank and Trust of Palm Beach. Davis said his recusal was prompted by Evening Herald articles which addressed Paulucci's involvement.

The condemnation proceeding was filed by the Sanford City Commission three days after Seminole County authorized purchase of the 2,867-acre Yankee Lake site. Both governing bodies sought the property for their wastewater management programs and through the condemnation proceeding, Sanford hopes to invalidate the

Construction Injury Fatal For L. Monroe Man

A Lake Monroe man critically injured Monday when his head was pinned to the ground by a one-ton road compacting device died Tuesday at Orlando Regional Medical Center.

Claude Runyon, 24 of Orange Boulevard, west of Sanford, died around 4 p.m., according to hospital spokesman Joe Brown. Cause of death was internal head injuries, he said.

Runyon was injured around 8:30 a.m. while he was working on the flat-bottom compactor at a road construction site west of Sanford, according to a sheriff's report. The construction was being done by Briar Construction and Paving Co. in Longwood.

Runyon was adjusting the hydraulic line which provides pressure to lift the pavement-pressing weight when the pressure failed. The dropping compactor, attached to the back of a grader, struck Runyon.

A foreman freed Runyon by raising the dropped compactor with the bucket of a front-end loader. Runyon was transported to the hospital by helicopter.

Overtime Law Doesn't Solve Compensation Issue

By Sarah Nunn
Herald Staff Writer

Seminole County Administrator Ken Hooper today reserved praise for new legislation which allows local governments more leeway in how they compensate their employees for overtime.

Although Hooper called the bill signed by President Reagan recently a "positive benefit for the county," he said the county may still incur expenses in attempting to comply with the law.

The bill overrides a Supreme Court decision earlier this year, which restricted state and municipal governments to paying their employees in cash for overtime work rather than awarding compensatory time.

The new law allows public employees to be paid in either compensatory time off or cash, both at time and a half.

Further, the bill restricts the amount of compensatory time workers can accumulate to 480 hours per year per person for police and firefighters and half that for other employees. Beyond that, employees could not receive compensatory time, but would instead have to be paid money for overtime hours they work.

Hooper said the two main areas affected in county government are public safety and the sheriff's department.

In the past, the county paid most of its employees for overtime work, the majority of them working 40 hour weeks, he said. Employees who accrued more overtime because of their schedules, such as sheriff's deputies and firefighters on shift duty, were given compensatory time, Hooper added.

With the new legislation, the county has more flexibility in how it compensates employees for overtime, but in the case of Seminole County, awarding overtime pay rather than compensatory time may not be the least expensive way to go.

The number of county employees in the two departments may not make it cost-effective to award time off and meet the restrictions the bill imposes on compensatory time, Hooper indicated.

"There may not be enough employees to award time off," he said.

The possibility that the county will have to hire more workers in the public safety and sheriff's departments rather than pay overtime will be included in a recommendation which Hooper said he hopes to present to the county commission within two or three weeks.

Deputy's Query Leads To Arrest Of Maine Homicide Suspect

By Susan Loden
Herald Staff Writer

A 19-year-old Maine man was being held in the Seminole County jail today for that state on a homicide charge. He also faces Seminole County charges of possession on a concealed firearm, giving false information and having an improper license tag.

Seminole County sheriff's deputy James Virgin reported spotting the man and a couple at about 8 p.m. Tuesday on a boat ramp at the Wekiva River Bridge west of Sanford, an area where deputies report a lot of problems and persons there are routinely asked to identify themselves.

Virgin asked the three for identification and the suspect had none and reportedly gave Virgin a false name, a sheriff's report said.

The license tag on the Datsun truck the three were near belongs to Bob Dance Dodge in Longwood auto dealership, according to information Virgin received from the sheriff's department.

Virgin took the suspect into custody and reported spotting a handgun in the truck. He reported his find to the sheriff's department, giving a description and serial number of the loaded, .22-caliber automatic pistol.

Sheriff's investigator Terry Huffman overheard Virgin's description of the gun and reported back to Virgin via radio that Maine lawmen had issued a report saying that gun had been used in a homicide and that he possibly had a homicide suspect in custody.

Huffman had received information from Maine Tuesday afternoon on the gun, the suspect, who was known to

Execution Date Looms

'Crazy Joe' Asks To Be Spared

By Deane Jordan
Herald Staff Writer

Facing death by electrocution in 13 days, woman-killer Joseph R. "Crazy Joe" Spaziano has asked that his life be spared, and a request for a stay is expected to be hand-delivered Thursday from Tallahassee to a Seminole circuit judge.

The motion for mercy from the once-defiant Outlaws motorcyclist is to be made before the same judge to whom Spaziano obsequiously uplifted his middle finger when the death sentence was pronounced.

A hearing time may be set for 2 p.m. Friday before Circuit Judge Robert B. McGregor who twice sentenced Spaziano to death and overruled a jury recommendation that the 40-year-old biker get life in prison. Spaziano's death sentence was upheld by the U.S. Supreme Court on July 3, 1984.

Joseph R. 'Crazy Joe' Spaziano

He is scheduled to be executed 7 a.m., Dec. 3, at the state prison in Raiford.

The state's Collateral Appeals Coordinator, Larry Spaulding, said one of Spaziano's appeal attorneys, Mike Mello of West Palm Beach, is preparing a motion to ask McGregor to vacate the death sentence.

Spaulding, a governor-appointed attorney whose job is to find lawyers to represent death row inmates set for execution, said he was not sure what reasons will be given in asking for the stay.

He said his office was still editing the motion so he could not list the reasons but he did tell the Evening Herald that they would include the argument that Spaziano had intellectual counsel at his trial.

Spaziano's murder-trial lawyer, Ed Kirkland of Orlando, said earlier that he expected that argument to be raised as a matter of course and is not offended by it. Kirkland, who opposes the death penalty, said Spaziano's attitude about the affair is "if they kill me, they kill me."

Spaziano was convicted of killing Laura Lynn Harberts, an 18-year-old hospital clerk from Orlando. Her mutilated and decomposing body was found in an Altamonte Springs garbage dump Aug. 22, 1973. The body of another woman also found sprawled on the heap, but no

8 Days To Thanksgiving

FLORIDA IN BRIEF

Vice President Bush Speaks At Caribbean Conference Today

MIAMI (UPI) — Vice President George Bush scheduled two hours of meetings with the president of Venezuela and the leaders of a half dozen Caribbean nations today to discuss bilateral trade policies that could help revive lagging Caribbean economies.

The meetings are a highlight of the four-day ninth annual Caribbean Conference which began Tuesday.

Bush was scheduled to address the conference at lunch Wednesday and then spend two hours meeting privately with Venezuela's President Luisinchi and the prime ministers of Barbados and of Trinidad & Tobago.

Cabinet: Tag OK With Gator Hue

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — A sun-and-sea design submitted by a Hollywood grandfather was tentatively approved to grace Florida's 12 million license plates.

The design was one of six finalists chosen by a special panel from among more than 3,500 entries in a contest sponsored by Gov. Bob Graham and the Cabinet.

Graham and the Cabinet granted tentative approval Tuesday after two ballots and some quibbling over color. The new tags should begin showing up on Florida's highways by next summer.

Doyle Conner had objected that the sun hovering above the pastel blue brine in the Ax design looked more like a California lemon than a Florida orange, but Ax agreed to allow state officials to tinker with the hue.

Graham and the Cabinet then tentatively adopted the design on a unanimous vote, pending final approval of the sun's color.

'No First Leak' Accord

All Quiet On Geneva Front

GENEVA (UPI)—The news blackout prevented much speculation by U.S. and Soviet aides on the outcome of the summit talks. In a brief photo session before the third meeting began, both leaders reinforced that policy.

But Gorbachev did say he thought the meetings were being handled in a "frank, business-like, and I think responsible way."

Today's session began as a mirror image of Tuesday's event, except Reagan traveled to the plain, square concrete Soviet mission instead of hosting the talks in the ornate 19th century mansion where Tuesday's session was held.

Gorbachev welcomed the president at the end of a red carpet and then led him up three flights of stairs into the mission. On the way in, the two men smiled and chatted, with Gorbachev making animated gestures mimicked by Reagan's interpreter.

Once Reagan went inside there was the unusual sight of Red Army soldiers guarding a limousine with the seal of the U.S. president and flying the American flag.

Tuesday, the scheduled 15-minute "ice-breaker" meeting was extended to one hour and 58 minutes during the morning and afternoon sessions — including a surprise stroll through the woods.

Their last scheduled encounter was to be at a dinner hosted by the Reagans in the Geneva "White House" — the 18th century lakeside chateau Maison de Saussure.

The only agreement so far has been a "no first leaks" accord — a blackout on substantive information on the talks.

Both leaders seemed almost friendly, judging from the warm public smiles and their long private chats Tuesday in front of roaring fireplaces.

But neither tipped his hand. Both were cautious in assessing the talks, with their spokesmen describing them as "business-like."

Soviet spokesman Vladimir Lomeiko went a bit further, saying of Tuesday's session, "It was in a friendly atmosphere."

At a dinner hosted by the Gorbachevs Tuesday night, a reporter asked the Kremlin leader, "Are you and Reagan getting along well? You seem to be getting along well."

Gorbachev's answer, through an interpreter, was a curt: "That is your judgment."

Had he and Reagan reached any agreements? "We are working on that," the Kremlin leader replied.

Asked how the talks were going, Reagan responded: "We're still smiling, aren't we?"

First Black Movie Star Dies At 83

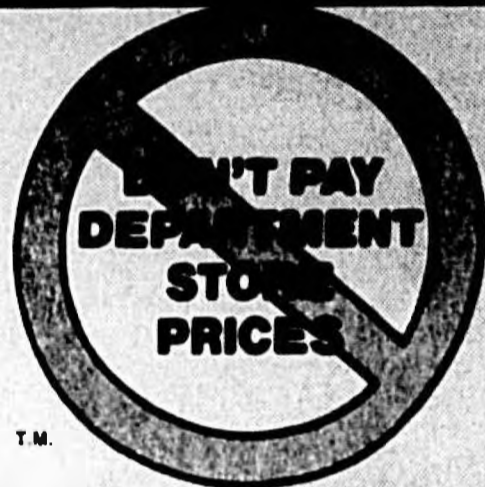

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — Stepin Fetchit, who made and lost a fortune as Hollywood's first black movie star but was criticized by later generations for playing racial stereotypes, has died of pneumonia and congestive heart failure.

The pioneer black actor died Tuesday at the Motion Picture Country House and Hospital, where he had lived since 1977, a spokeswoman said.

Fetchit, whose real name was Lincoln Perry, made $1 million playing slow-shuffling, dialect-talking black characters in the racially segregated 1920s and '30s. He was criticized by later generations of blacks for allegedly playing to the racist stereotype of their race as shiftless and uneducated.

He was born Lincoln Theodore Monroe Andrew Perry in 1902 — some sources say the year was 1892 — in Key West, Fla. He ran away from home at 14 and toured the South with "plantation shows" for black field hands, minstrel shows and carnivals, singing, dancing and telling jokes.

Pennzoil Awarded $10.5 Billion In Suit Against Texaco

HOUSTON (UPI) — A jury slapped Texaco Inc. with a record $10.5 billion damage judgment for sabotaging a merger agreement between Pennzoil Co. and Getty Oil Co., saying it hoped to show "the idea that in business anything goes is dead."

Texaco said it would appeal Tuesday's verdict, and U.S. District Judge Solomon Casseb set Dec. 5-8 for arguments before entering a final judgment.

Pennzoil sued Texaco for $15 billion, claiming Texaco officials were aware of an existing Pennzoil-Getty merger agreement when they offered a higher price for Getty. Texaco purchased Getty for $10.2 billion in January 1984, the second-largest merger in U.S. history.

Researcher Plans Quake Study

STANFORD, Calif. (UPI) — A Stanford University earthquake researcher plans to place seismic measuring instruments in a hole more than 3 miles deep alongside the San Andreas fault.

He said the effort is needed to investigate the deeper regions of the earth's crust, where many earthquakes along the fault originate.

WORLD IN BRIEF

More Volcano Survivors Found Amid Threat Of More Eruptions

ARMERO, Colombia (UPI) — The Nevado del Ruiz volcano that buried Armero in mud, killing 25,000 people, could erupt again in a "colossal explosion," unleashing an avalanche of hot ash, a French volcano expert warned.

Volunteers and civil defense teams, meanwhile, concentrated on combating disease and preventing epidemics in the wake of a Nov. 13 eruption that sent a wall of mud oozing over Armero, some 60 miles west of Bogota.

Red Cross officials said six people were rescued from the Armero area Tuesday but it was unclear if they were pulled from the mud or simply evacuated from previously unreachable areas. Unconfirmed radio reports said a British-French rescue team, using sensitive life-detecting equipment, found five survivors.

Four South Africans Killed

JOHANNESBURG, South Africa (UPI) — Police shot and killed four blacks and found the charred body of another as representatives of striking black hospital workers warned the walkout could grow, causing a breakdown in health care.

The striking staff of the Baragwanath Hospital in the black township of Soweto near Johannesburg — dismissed Monday for refusing to return to work — took their case for reinstatement to the Supreme Court Tuesday. Lawyers said a decision was expected today.

Waite Renews Release Efforts

BEIRUT, Lebanon (UPI) — Terry Waite, the Church of England envoy seeking release of four American and four French hostages, returned to Beirut with some "very important things to say" to their fundamentalist Moslem kidnappers.

"At this time, the eyes of the world are on two places, Geneva and Beirut," he told reporters upon his return to Beirut Tuesday, the opening day of the U.S.-Soviet summit in Geneva. "Never could there be a better opportunity for the dignity and honor of Islam to be shown to the whole world than now."

Waite returned to Beirut Tuesday after talks in London with Archbishop of Canterbury Robert Runcie and unidentified U.S. and British officials and in Paris with French officials.

Two Area Banks Robbed

Two separate bank robberies occurred in the south Seminole County area on Monday afternoon according to a Federal Bureau of Investigation spokesman at the regional office in Tampa.

Dave Melroy, media relations spokesman for the bureau, said the two robberies were apparently unrelated and both are presently under investigation. He said the bureau usually works with the local law enforcement agencies involved in the cases and can't release any other information to the press than that contained in office memos.

The first robbery occurred at 2 p.m. at the Liberty National Bank, at 520 W. 436, in Altamonte Springs. An Altamonte Springs police spokesman said a single white male entered the bank and drew a large black revolver and demanded money. An undetermined amount of money was taken, she said.

Melroy said the man, described as being in his 30's to 40's, gave the teller a note and then drove away in a blue Cadillac automobile with an undetermined amount of money.

Melroy described the man as 6' 1" tall and weighing 170 lbs. He was wearing a white T-shirt and blue jeans. He had salt and pepper beard, moustache and hair and the Altamonte P.D. spokesman said he was wearing sunglasses, had no weapon and fled on foot. The Altamonte spokesman also said the robbery is under investigation.

The second robbery occurred at 3:10 p.m. at the Freedom Savings and Loan, 750 S. Orlando Ave., Winter Park, which is just inside the Orange County line. Melroy said the single white male entered the bank and gave the teller a note demanding money and then after being given an undetermined amount of cash he fled on foot.

Melroy also said it is believed that some of the money the robber was given was "ball money" or marked to be recognized as being from that bank.

The man is described as 5' 1" tall and weighing about 125 lbs with "fuzzy brown hair," according to Melroy. No one from the Winter Park Police Department was available for comment on the investigation.

County staff will review the current budget as well as the new legislation to determine which route the county will take -- whether to pay overtime or use the compensatory time system, he said.

"We need to make sure what has occurred and who will be affected," Hooper said. "We need to measure how much compensatory time can be awarded versus paying overtime and the impact this will have on the services of the departments."

The county will also take a look at how the law will affect the amount of money it has budgeted for personnel services this fiscal year. In the sheriff's department, the county allocated an additional $1.5 million for personnel costs and $600,000 extra in public safety, he said.

Overall, Hooper said he was "pleased to see something happen in this area" with the passage of the new overtime legislation.

"At least now we have an option," he said.

have been in Seminole before, and the truck, which belonged to the homicide victim.

Huffman arrived on the scene and confirmed through Maine lawmen that the man Virgin had captured was the suspect they were seeking.

In addition to the firearm, false identification, and improper tag charges the suspect was arrested on the Maine homicide warrant. Maine authorities allege the suspect shot Russell Stevens on Nov. 15.

The suspect, who reportedly has been living in a tent in woods behind the Sunland housing development south of Sanford, claimed Stevens tried to shoot him with a rifle, according to deputies.

He also reportedly said the Maine license plate from Stevens' truck had been discarded in the woods near his campsite, Virgin's report said.

Raphael Neil Bradley Jr., of Waterford, Maine, was being held in lieu of $4,500 bond on the Seminole County charges.

Spy Flew Coop For Soviet Coup

Even in the cold world of espionage, where fact and fiction are equally bizarre and often intertwined and indistinguishable, the case of Soviet KGB officer Vitaly Yurchenko is uniquely mind-boggling.

When Yurchenko, said to be the fifth-ranking member of the Soviet spy hierarchy and the head of the KGB's North American department, defected to the United States last summer in Rome, he cited disillusionment with communism as being his chief motivation. The CIA instantly proclaimed a monumental intelligence coup.

But as all the world knows now, Yurchenko and the Soviets turned this supposed triumph into a galling defeat for the United States.

In a melodramatic news conference at the Soviet Embassy, Yurchenko said he had been kidnapped on the streets of Rome, drugged, tortured, and held against his will in the United States until he was able to escape; he asserted his wish to return to the Soviet Union. Yurchenko's assertion of U.S. mistreatment is a preposterous falsehood, as his easy walk to the Soviet Embassy proved. In any event, after U.S. officials determined that he had made his decision of his own free will, the defector was permitted to redefect.

The big question in Washington these days is whether Yurchenko was a genuine defector who changed his mind or a Soviet plant, a clever ruse to obtain inside CIA information and to discredit the United States on the eve of the U.S.-U.S.S.R. summit at Geneva later this month.

Common sense and emerging evidence suggest Yurchenko's defection was a contrived fraud. We must conclude the man was on a sophisticated KGB assignment in furtherance of Soviet policy.

In the first place, can anyone believe a defector from the top ranks of the KGB would voluntarily return to the Soviet Union to face a firing squad for high treason? Does anyone doubt that Soviet authorities would make a terrible example of a genuine defector in order to discourage would-be defectors?

And did this "gold mine" of information, as the CIA once boasted of Yurchenko, produce any real nuggets? We have the word of President Reagan himself that the "information he provided was not anything new or sensational ... pretty much ... already known."

What is not known is the extent of damage to the United States. Intelligence experts have voiced concern that Yurchenko would clearly have learned a great deal about CIA's method in handling defectors. Such intelligence could be helpful to the KGB in planting double agents or in recapturing real ones.

George Carver, former deputy director of the CIA, has warned that the Yurchenko episode "is going to provide the KGB with a lot of details about the agency practices and locations of safehouses." And Sen. Patrick J. Leahy, D-Vt., vice chairman of the Senate Intelligence Committee which is investigating the affair, spoke of an "out-and-out calamity" if Yurchenko turns out to be a double agent. But of course, whatever inside information Yurchenko has taken back to Moscow is no less calamitous if he were a genuine defector.

The latest CIA fiasco is distilled in the incredible circumstances surrounding Yurchenko's escape from U.S. jurisdiction. He simply walked out of a restaurant in Georgetown where a single CIA operative had taken him to dinner — conveniently close to the Soviet Embassy.

CIA Director William Casey cannot avoid answering for such recklessness. But given the President's well-known reluctance to drop the ax, not much may come of this. Nevertheless, when the Yurchenko case is added to other CIA blotches, the time has obviously come for a thorough housecleaning of the Central Intelligence Agency, from top to bottom.

Major Shift In Strategy In War On Cancer

WASHINGTON — A recent analysis of the National Cancer Institute's $12 billion war on cancer, which finds little progress on the treatment front, urges a major shift in strategy: a greater effort in cancer prevention and less emphasis on chemotherapy.

"When any major disease is tackled on a national scale, the chief effort should be to prevent its occurrence," writes Harvard microbiologist Dr. John Cairns in the November issue of Scientific American. "To put most of the effort into treatment is to deny all precedent."

Throughout modern medical history, none of the important causes of death has been primarily controlled by treatment. The scourge of cancer, which kills 462,000 Americans a year, has proved no different.

"It remains a depressing truth," says Cairns, "that fewer than 50 percent of cancer patients can be cured by surgery." Despite more than $1.2 billion spent each year on federally funded research, the gains from other forms of treatment have been limited. The record of successful chemotherapy advances has been largely confined to unusual cancers like Hodgkin's disease and childhood leukemia, which account for only a small fraction of cancer death rates.

"Whether any of the common cancers can be cured by chemotherapy has yet to be established," says Cairns.

NCI officials prefer to measure progress in terms of five-year survival rates, rather than simple mortality statistics. They attribute steady increases in the fraction of cancer patients who are still alive, five years after diagnosis, to improvements in methods of treatment.

But Cairns finds such calculations misleading when applied across the board to cancers that, when left untreated, are not invariably fatal. "It turns out that we have no certain way of estimating how many lives are waiting to be saved," he observes. For example, the reported increase in survival of men with prostate cancer is due to more men being classified as having cancers of the prostate (90 percent of which are small, nonfatal and produce no symptoms), rather than to fewer men dying from the disease.

Because of changes in the definition of what constitutes disease, Cairns concludes that the "comparison of the survival of patients in different eras is not, in general, an acceptable measure of therapeutic success."

In addition, NCI survival statistics since 1973 have been calculated from a different data base than four decades of previous National Cancer Surveys, and are not strictly comparable to the latter.

Whatever yardstick is used, the gap between hopes and results in cancer treatment research remains large.

The sad truth is that most of the widely touted theoretical advances in NCI-supported cancer research remain years away, at best, from widespread practical implementation.

Thus, Cairns argues, while we await new treatment discoveries — and continue basic research — we should turn our attention to the screening and prevention of cancer. This, he suggests, could cut cancer deaths significantly.

DON GRAFF Mineral Imports Mislead

The United States imports 99 percent of the manganese it consumes.

Also 82 percent of the chromium, 94 percent of the cobalt, 57 percent of the zinc, a full 100 percent of the sheet mica and similarly significant proportions of many other strategic minerals.

That means we'd really be up against it if supplies from overseas were interrupted for some reason — like, say, war. Right?

Not necessarily, according to the Center for Defense Information, a Washington-based organization headed by retired military officers that monitors defense activities. CDI has come out with a detailed study of the strategic minerals situation that questions several long-popular assumptions on the subject. These include the theories that excessive reliance on imports places the United States in a dangerously exposed position, and that we are engaged in a "resource war" with the Soviet Union for access to the world's vital raw materials.

As CDI sees it, the perils of our position have been greatly exaggerated. To start with, we import, in many instances, not because stingy nature compels us to, but because it is good economics. The United States is richly endowed with most resources essential to its industrial and military needs. Many, however, are not exploited because supplies can be bought more cheaply elsewhere.

"Reliance on imports is not in itself dangerous," the CDI study observes. "Import reliance becomes a vulnerability only if there are no alternatives and if supplies are dependable."

With a very few exceptions, that last does not describe the American situation. A third of all the minerals we now buy abroad, for example, comes from a very dependable supplier — Canada. And in the cases of other sources, where interruption of supplies is a possibility, there are ways of dealing with the problem.

The likeliest interruptions of those lines, CDI suggests, would result from a regional war or an internal disorder in a single country. The cutoff would likely be short-lived and, in any event, could be dealt with.

But what about the ultimate interruption, war with the Soviet Union? Complete severance in that case would not cripple U.S. military capability since alternatives would be available to meet immediate needs. And that is all that would be necessary.

Chinese Criminals Target Police

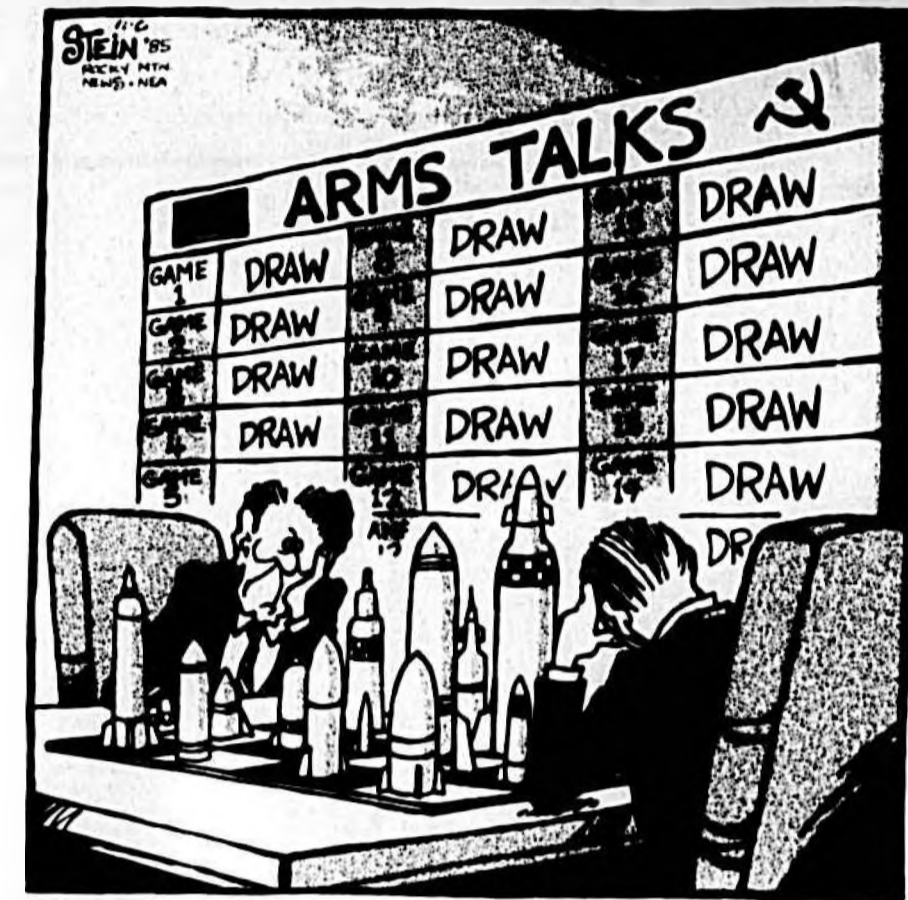

By Jack Anderson And Dale Van Atta

WASHINGTON — Undercover agents have made an alarming discovery about Chinese criminal gangs in the United States: They're targeting police officials for assassination.

This ominous development was uncovered by a joint FBI-New York City police operation that succeeded where other attempts had failed: infiltrating a major Chinese gang — in this case the United Bamboo Society.

The gang, headquartered in Taiwan, is believed to have 15,000 members worldwide. It was implicated in the murder last year of a Chinese-American journalist and critic of the Taiwan government, Henry Liu, in a San Francisco suburb.

New York City police were able to infiltrate the Bamboo Gang, and then participate in a "sting" opera-

VAT May Rise Again

WASHINGTON (NEA) — Proposals that Congress declares "dead forever" often resurface. So, as tax reform is dying, the value added tax is gaining new life.

The value added tax has existed in Europe for decades. It operates much like a sales tax, but is applied against a good or service at every step of the production and distribution chain.

With a car, for example, the iron ore would be taxed when sold to the smelter; the resulting sheet steel would be taxed when sold to the auto-parts manufacturer; the finished part would be taxed when sold to the car maker; and the whole car would be taxed when sold to the dealer, and taxed again when bought by the consumer. In each step, the tax would be on the added value of the material.

The VAT is now under discussion because real U.S. tax reform seems to be in serious trouble due to the lack of political will and popular support.

The lack of will was evident in a recent vote of the House Ways and Means Committee. Earlier this year, when the spirit of tax reform was alive and well in Congress, the committee gave tentative approval to eliminating some tax breaks for banks. The bankers' lobbyists rallied, and when the proposal came up for a final vote, it was defeated — and some new loopholes for banks were added.

The lack of support is obvious from new polls showing that the public is indifferent to tax reform, despite President Reagan's travels to sell it. A recent Cambridge Reports poll found that, while a majority favors tax reform in the abstract, half its supporters would change their minds if tax reform increased the deficit. Large majorities opposed the elimination of deductions, such as those for state and local taxes.

Members of the House Ways and Means Committee are concerned that it's politically impossible to eliminate many deductions, but they still want to cut back on marginal tax rates, as Reagan has proposed. They're considering having some type of limited VAT help pay for the tax breaks in Reagan's tax package, if they can't be paid for by eliminating deductions.

Senate Finance Committee member William Roth, R-Del., proposed his own VAT plan — although he avoids calling it that. It would lower individual and business tax rates, but would keep key individual and corporate tax deductions. These cuts would be offset by a broad-based business tax that would be levied at various stages of production.

The VAT's opponents come from both ends of the political spectrum. Conservatives — such as Bruce Bartlett, Heritage Foundation economist and former director of the Joint Economic Committee — charge that it's a "hidden tax" that would be added on top of the present tax system and would result in a tax increase.

ANTHONY HARRIGAN Porno Fan Pans Anti Smut Acts

The smut-peddlers have friends in the libertarians.

If anyone doubts that, he should read the article "Porn Busters" distributed by the Reason Foundation in Santa Barbara, California. This article, written by Ted Galen Carpenter, is an attack on anti-pornography efforts in general and Indianapolis' anti-porn ordinance in particular.

In the view of Mr. Carpenter, the Indianapolis anti-pornography ordinance "marked the culmination of a trend toward repression that has been mounting for more than a decade." Most Americans are likely to find that a peculiar statement. They don't regard the control of the social evil of pornography as repression in the accepted sense.

Mr. Carpenter is indignant that "conservatives have long constituted the principal force behind movements to ban smut." He would leave the smut-peddlers alone. Indeed he makes clear in the article that he also opposes anti-drug laws, saying that "Advocates of legislation limiting freedom of expression on this issue embrace the same logic" employed by drug-law proponents. He dismisses the idea that prohibiting marijuana is justified because some people commit destructive acts while under its influence.

Mr. Carpenter finds it unacceptable that "a certain group in society should be able to invoke government power to suppress the expression of values they consider demeaning or offensive." Society, of course, always has relied on governmental authority to prohibit practices it finds morally repugnant. A society without the exercise of such power would be a moral jungle.

Mr. Carpenter also is very unhappy with the feminists in Indianapolis who insist that pornography should be defined as a form of sex discrimination actionable under civil law. While the Indianapolis ordinance may not be the best way to deal with the smut-peddlers, it most probably is as valid a civil rights approach as any other form of civil rights action embodied in contemporary law.

Mr. Carpenter argues that any type of action against the smut-peddlers results in "less freedom, more tyranny."

The authors of the First Amendment surely didn't confuse license with freedom, as Mr. Carpenter and other libertarians do. The framers of the First Amendment had in mind serious discourse on public issues, faith and the moral order.

Woman Charged In Knife Attack

A four foot tall Sanford woman allegedly used a six inch butcher knife to stab a friend in the chest Friday at their rooming house on East 13th Street, Sanford, according to the police report. The reported victim left the house and was found by Sanford firemen half a block away in front of the Tip-Top Market, the report said.

According to police, an all day dispute between the couple culminated at 10:10 p.m., when the woman stabbed the man on the right side of his chest, causing a four inch deep, three inch long wound.

Robert Ervin, 54, of 1205 1/2 West 13th Street was treated and released from Central Florida Regional Hospital, Geneva Phoenix, 40, of the same address, was charged with aggravated assault and was being held at Seminole County jail in lieu of $5,000 bail, the report said.

GUN THREATS

Sanford police charged a Sanford man with aggravated assault and grand theft — possession of a stolen gun after he allegedly pointed a gun at a couple following a fight at Subway, 2927 Orlando Ave.

The dispute between two men reportedly occurred around 2:40 a.m. Saturday. Police met Timothy Steven Strine, of P.O. Box 1305 Sanford, as Strine and a woman were driving out of the restaurant's parking lot, a police report said.

Strine pointed out a suspect, whom he said he had been in a dispute with and whom he alleged had pointed a gun at him and his companion. He said the man had discarded the gun outside the building when he saw the police, the report said.

Police reported finding a loaded .38-caliber handgun gun beside the building. Records showed the gun had been reported stolen on March 23, the report said.

The suspect who was inside the restaurant was confronted and arrested.

Donald Keith Hunt, 28, of 1000 Maple Ave., Sanford, has been charged in the case and was being held in lieu of bond.

CAR SHOT

A 33-year-old Oviedo man who allegedly fired three shots at the car of a Longwood man has been charged with aggravated battery.

Oviedo police reported receiving a report of gunplay outside Browdy's Market, State Road 419, at about 1 a.m. Saturday. After questioning witnesses in the area police were told by Carlos Teal of 241 Church St., Oviedo, that a man he had borrowed $10 from had gotten angry and had shot at his car hitting the windshield and the hood, a police report said.

After Teal went to the police station to file a report he returned to the station to tell police the suspect was at Browdy's, the report said.

Police arrested Albert Wilson, 33, of 112 Ave. B., at Browdy's at 2:07 a.m. Saturday. He was being held in lieu of $5,000 bond.

FLED BUT CHARGED

A Seminole county sheriff's deputy who saw a hit-and-run accident involving two vehicles on Marquette Avenue in Sanford pursued the suspect's fleeing pickup truck and the driver and two passengers in the vehicle have been charged.

There was no report of injuries in the accident. The driver has been charged with fleeing to elude police, driving under the influence, driving with a suspended license and leaving the scene of an accident.

The passengers have been charged with obstructing an arrest and all three may face drug related charges pending the outcome of test on a substance found in the truck, which deputies believe is marijuana, a sheriff's report said.

The suspect's truck was pursued by the deputy and Sanford police until it stopped on Myrtle Avenue in Sanford at about 7:38 p.m. Monday, the report said.

The driver, Faunce Levon Pearce, 23, of P.O. Box 815 Pine St., Casselberry, was being held in the Seminole County jail along with his companions, Robert Tunstall, 27, and John Dewey Fella, 26, both of 150 Pine St., Longwood. They were being held in lieu of $500 bond each.

ONE ARREST & ANOTHER

Sanford police pursuing a suspect who allegedly sold two packets of bogus "marijuana" to an undercover policeman for $5 per packet nabbed that man in Joe's Pool Hall on 13th Street. They also reported charging, in connection with possession and sale of cocaine, another man who ran out of the pool hall when they arrived.

The first suspect who allegedly sold the packets of leafy material to the officer was arrested at 4:30 p.m. Monday at Joe's, Rodney Marshall Hillsman, 20, of 26 Castle Brewer Court, Sanford, has been charged with sale of less than 20 grams of counterfeit pot. He was being held in lieu of $8,000 bond.

The other man who ran when police arrived at Joe's has been charged with possession of cocaine and possession with intent to sell cocaine. Sanford Police Chief Steve Harriett said police found a quantity of cocaine in the area where that man had been when they walked in.

Rodney Lewis Woods, 28, of 2350 Dollar Way, Sanford, was arrested at 4:40 p.m. outside Joe's. He was being held in lieu of $8,000 bond.

BAD DEAL

An 18-year-old Sanford man who reportedly tried to sell back items he allegedly took from a Sanford home has been charged with burglary and dealing in stolen property.

Leon Hampton of 2250 Rightway Ave., reported to Seminole County sheriff's deputies the suspect reportedly offered to return a kerosene heater and two televisions to him, which were stolen from his home Nov. 11. The items were offered in exchange for $30 or a .22-caliber pistol, a sheriff's report said.

On Nov. 16 the suspect allegedly offered Hampton the deal and took him to a wooded area behind Midway Elementary School where the goods were stashed, the report said.

Larry Collier Crosby of 3711 Washington St., was arrested at the sheriff's office at 11:50 a.m. Monday. He was being held in lieu of $12,000 bond.

BURGLARIES & THEFTS

Three cameras, a class ring and other jewelry and binoculars with a total value of $4,380 were stolen from the home of Victor J. Gustin, 34, of 990 Alberth St., Altamonte Springs, on Sunday or Monday. Deputies have the name of a suspect.

John David Lopes-Greno, 21, of 2100 Howell Branch Road #53-E, Winter Park, reported to sheriff's deputies his 1985 Kawasaki motorcycle worth

$3,300 was stolen from his home between Nov. 11 and Monday.

A fabricated reinforcement steel culvert worth $1,269 was stolen between Oct. 15 and Nov. 15 from State Road 46, just off Airport Boulevard in Sanford, according to a report owner Hubert S. Thompson, 56, of St. Cloud, filed with sheriff's deputies on Monday.

A thief raided a storage room at the YMCA, 974 Park Springs Road, Longwood, between Nov. 15 and Monday and stole three air rifles worth $35 each, $120 worth of arrows, $15 cash and $15 worth of postage stamps, a sheriff's report said.

Nancy Stone, 39, of 6304 Hallyard Court, Winter Park, reported to sheriff's deputies $2,500 worth of jewelry was stolen from her home between Nov. 11 and Monday.

Henry D. Craven, 48, of Orlando, reported to sheriff's deputies a $700 stove was stolen from a construction site at 1730 Markham Glenn Circle, Longwood, on Nov. 15 or 16. And at 1719 Markham Glenn Circle, Scott L. Philpot, 34, of Longwood, reported a carved door and 12 sheets of paneling with a total value of $330 were stolen. At 1787, William M. Cox, 32, of Longwood, reported three light fixtures including a $450 antique were stolen from a construction site, a sheriff's report said.

Agnes Dobbs, 56, of Winter Haven, told Seminole County sheriff's deputies her purse and contents with a total value of $135 and a pistol, radar detector and tools with a combined value of $1,012 were stolen from her car while parked at San Pedro Center, Dike Road, Casselberry, between Nov. 10 and 18.

A thief took $400 worth of items including a wallet, a bag, binoculars and 20 cassette tapes from the car of Daryl P. Calliano, 23, of 404 Highland St., Altamonte Springs, on Sunday or Monday, a sheriff's report said.

USTA Salutes Sanlando Park As Sanford Drags Its Racket

Congratulations to Seminole County's Sanlando Park tennis facility for being selected as one of the top public tennis facilities in the U.S. The United States Tennis Association (USTA) named the facility as one of its winners at the National Teachers' Conference in New York.

The conference was held the last week in August and is an annual conference for tennis teachers from all over the U.S. Sanlando Park was the winner in the category of Large Tennis Centers with 11 courts or more.

The intention of the USTA in recognizing such outstanding facilities is to encourage and to get high standards for the construction and/or renovation of tennis facilities throughout the country.

The criteria for selecting the winners include 1) overall layout and adaptation to site, 2) excellence of court surface and lights, 3) ease of maintenance, 4) accommodations, casual seating for spectators, and 5) aesthetics, graphics, use of signs and landscaping.

Since its opening in 1978, Sanlando Park has grown to include 14 lighted tennis courts, six lighted racquetball courts, two outdoor basketball courts, a playground area, plene area with two pavilions, and an office/restroom building with a security residence apartment. There was an awards ceremony held Nov. 13 at the park. The facility was presented with a plaque and complimentary membership in the USTA. In addition, certificates of appreciation was made to the Seminole County Board of Commissioners, the park's advisory board, and to those individuals who are responsible for the design, construction and upkeep of Sanlando Park.

Sanlando Park and Red Bug Park are indeed two fine Seminole County tennis facilities. They offer the best in instruction, tournament play or just recreation play. Many, many young players are being developed at these fine Seminole County tennis facilities.

It makes one wonder why we in Sanford are not blessed with the same type of tennis set-up. Are we not in Seminole County? Actually, as far as public tennis facilities are concerned, Sanford is still in the Dark Ages.

We have several tennis courts spread all over town in groups of two or three but we have no central tennis center, no pro, no developmental programs, few organized tournaments, no clinics, no ladders — public tennis programs and facilities in Sanford are miles behind what we find in South Seminole County. Why?

Smith, Brinson Hold The Lock, 6 Others Open

By Sam Cook
Herald Sports Editor

Rushing and scoring? Don't ask. Tackles? Don't bother. Receiving? You're getting warmer. Passing and sacks? Turn up the flame another notch. Punting and fumble recoveries and interceptions? Now the heat's really on.

With just one game remaining on the regular season prep slate, three categories for the Seminole County Prep Football Leaders are already decided. Six others, however, are hotly contested entering Friday's games.

●First, two of the far-gone conclusions. Oviedo's Andrew Smith has a lock on the rushing and scoring titles. Smith, a 169-pound senior halfback, has rushed for 1,460 yards and scored 13 touchdowns and a two-point conversion for 80 points. His next goal is Marvin McClenon's school record of 1,601. Smith needs 142 yards. He is averaging 162 per game and has only been held below 100 yards twice.

Lyman junior Robert Thomas has 888 yards and 48 points for a distant second. Smith, though, may not be the only runner to crack the coveted 1,000-yard mark. Thomas needs just 112 yards. Lake Mary sophomore John Curry (887) needs 113 yards and Lake Howell senior Mark Schnitker (837) needs 163 yards.

Four runners breaking the 1,000-yard barriers would be quite a feather in the Seminole Athletic Conference's first-year hat. More remarkably, all four will be on two fields Friday night. Thomas and Curry square off in the District 5A-4 showdown at Lake Mary. Schnitker and Smith go helmet to helmet as Lake Howell invades Oviedo.

●Second, Seminole's Brian Brinson has wrapped up the title for tackles. The 205-pound senior linebacker 92 solos and 55 assists for a total of a 147, average of 16.3 per game. Lake Mary's Brett Moller is 20 behind with 85 solos and 42 assists. Seminole plays DeLand Friday.

"Brian (Brinson) has got to be the best defensive player in Central Florida," Seminole coach Dave Mosure said. "He goes sideline to sideline making tackles every week and he's the most consistent and hardest working practice player we have."

Getting to the lukewarm, Lake Brantley senior Sammy Sears shrugged off a dislocated finger

last Friday in the Patriots' first win (a 14-7 decision over Lake Howell) to snare six passes and increase his receptions for the year to 32. Lake Mary senior Ray Hartsfield, who had been within two catches the week before, hauled in three more and a touchdown to run his total to 27. Seminole senior Dave Rape is a longshot with 20. Lake Brantley finishes the season at Boone.

Yardage-wise, Lake Howell sophomore Craig Derington is averaging 20.8 yards per grab on 13 catches. The Silver Hawk speedster suffered a sprained ankle and in practice two weeks ago, however, and coach Mike Blasegla said he is through for the season.

Lyman senior Ralph Philpott (15 for 20.0), Rape (20 for 19.8), Oviedo senior Mark Stewart (14 for 19.6) and Hartsfield (27 for 18.1) are all within striking distance. Philpott really increased his average with two grabs for 111 yards against Satellite last Friday. Lake Howell junior Bill Wasson has caught four TD passes while Rape and Derington have three each.

Moving up to the young men who throw the ball, Seminole sophomore Jeff Blake and Lake Mary junior Shane Lettrio are locked in a tight race for passing yardage. Blake has 937 while Lettrio has 926.

Lake Howell junior Mark Wainwright leads in touchdown passes with seven. Blake and Lettrio each have six while Lake Brantley senior Dave DeLiaccio has five. Wainwright leads in interceptions with 12. Blake and DeLiaccio have 10 apiece while Oviedo junior John Morrow has nine.

Lettrio has been the most accurate, completing 56 of 111 throws with seven interceptions for a tad over 50 percent. Wainwright has hit on 71 of 154 for 46 percent.

Defensively, as expected, there are tight battles in interceptions, fumble recoveries and sacks.

Faculty Trims Renegades Orlando USFL Players Are Optimistic About 1986

By Chuck Burgess
Special to the Herald

The Orlando Renegades came to town Tuesday night to play the faculty of Seminole High School in a fund-raising basketball game that resembled football as much as basketball before 50 fans at Seminole High School.

The Renegades, who are awaiting the longest layoff of any professional sport due to the USFL's new fall schedule next year, ended up losing to the old band of Seminole warriors in the last three minutes, 86-81.

The Renegades are doing a series of fund-raising basketball games with community teams. Along with the Renegades' game with the 'Noles, they have already played Boone and Jones high schools and the Orange County Sheriff's Department. Next on the agenda for the Renegade traveling basketball team is Wymore Tech, Lyman High, Lake Brantley High and the Orange County Police Department.

"We started this team to raise money for charitable organizations," said coordinator-player-wide receiver Joey Walters. "All the money we raise tonight will go to the Seminole High Athletic Department."

Keeping active to get his mind off of the office pressures and the long wait, Walters is doing everything to ensure fun while playing basketball. "You have to adjust to the situation,"

Basketball

Walters said. "We're using basketball games to help us keep in shape and have a little fun."

Walters was accompanied by linebacker Calvin Atkins, defensive end Kevin Kelvin, wide receiver Wilfred Morgan, quarterback Steve Piskiewicz and defensive tackle David Graham.

The Renegades' Graham — all 260 pounds of him — scored 14 of his game high 30 points in the first period. Graham, who is a branch manager for Freedom Bank in the off season, scored eight of the 'Gades' first 12 points to take a 12-point lead going into the second period.

Graham, known as 'Slamma and Big Juice,' was no rookie on or off the court Tuesday night. "I went to school in Tallahassee and played on state championship teams in both football and basketball," Graham said. "I've played with the (Dallas) Cowboys and the (Seattle) Seahawks in the NFL and switched to the USFL and was an All-Pro at Pittsburgh in the USFL."

Graham, who feels the the Orlando community has paved a good foundation for the Renegades, says the Renegades are better then their 3-13 season last year attests. "You feel the pangs of a

Lady Seminoles Eye Turkey Win

By Chris Flister
Herald Sports Writer

The past two years, Seminole High's Lady Seminoles have finished third and second in the University of Central Florida Thanksgiving Tournament. This season, the Lady Tribe hopes to ascend to the top spot in the 1985-86 season-opening tourney.

The tournament, sponsored by the Winter Park Rotary Club, runs from Wednesday, Nov. 27, through Saturday, Nov. 30 with Thursday (the 28) an off day for Thanksgiving. The opening game Wednesday, at 4 p.m., will pit Seminole against Oviedo.

Joining Seminole and Oviedo in the high school tourney include Lake Howell and Lake Brantley from Seminole County along with Winter Park, Edgewater, Colonial and Cocoa Beach.

Seminole High is expected to have one of its strongest teams ever with three returning starters and a number of outstanding young players. The returnees include Temika Alexander, Catherine "Kitty" Anderson and Kim "Big Wheel" Johnson.

Yolanda Robinson, last year's top junior varsity player, adds strength inside while freshmen Aretha Riggins, Liz Long, Adrian Hillsman and Leticia Strickland are expected to see plenty of action.

Oviedo's top returning player is Stephanie Nelson but she probably won't be 100 percent ready since she just finished playing volleyball. Leading the way for Brantley is senior Sherry "Ice" Asplen while Patty Rae and Jolee and Kellee Johnson lead Lake Howell.

The college portion of the tournament will feature host UCF, Furman, Mississippi College and Northern Illinois.

The college tournament begins Friday night at 7 and ends Saturday night with the finals at 9. The high school finals will be Saturday at 3:30.

Meanwhile, the Lady Sunshine Basketball tournament is scheduled for Friday, Nov. 29 through Saturday, Nov. 30 at Lake Mary High.

The high school portion includes host Lake Mary, defending champion Titusville Astronaut, Gainesville Eastside and Sarasota Riverview.

Lake Mary's top returning player is Karen DeShetler while the Rams also will rely on the ballhandling of Anquetette Whack and the inside play of 6-3 Teri Whyte.

The college portion will feature Division I teams North Carolina, Auburn, Virginia and Mercer. Former Lake Mary High standout Kim Averill plays for Mercer.

The Lake Mary Rotary Club is sponsoring this year's tournament. For more information, contact Ken Patrick (321-0872) or Bill Moore (323-2110 at Lake Mary High).

Lady Patriots' Quartet Promotes All For 1 And 1 For All

By Chuck Burgess
Special to the Herald

Being young and going to one's first state meet can be a tough combination. But for the Lake Brantley girls' quartet, which will travel to the Justus Aquatic Center this weekend to partake in the Division 4A State Championships, the combination is just what the doctor ordered.

The Patriot foursome, which is directed by head coach Clay Parnell is comprised of freshmen Kristen Pauley and Manda Davis, sophomore Lisa Moon and senior Michelle Gruse.

"We're like a little team of our own," Gruse said referring to the closeness of her three counterparts. "We're even going to do something together on Thursday to get psyched up for state."

Getting psyched up this past weekend at the Class 4A District 5 Championships this past weekend at the Sharidan Aquatic Club didn't seem to be a problem for the three youngsters and the veteran.

"Clay (Parnell) knew we all would make state," freshman Pauley said. "We didn't even taper or shave (makes swimmers swim faster) like other schools did."

Even without shaving down or tapering, the Patriot girls all qualified automatically by placing in the top three at the district meet.

Pauley, who has swum competitively since age nine, qualified in the 200 free, 2:01.93 and the 100 breast,

Swimming

1:11.51 by scoring third places in both events.

"My times weren't that great," Pauley said. "If I can get them down lower at state, I could place in the top six."

Davis, on the other hand, felt her times were superb as she made state in the 100 breast, 1:10.46 and the 100 fly, 1:03.24 placing second and third, respectively.

"I did my best time in the 100 breast," Davis said ecstatically. "I want to get my Junior National qualifying time (1:07.89) in the breast at state."

Moon, who journeyed to the state meet last year to finish eighth in the 50 free, hopes to continue her success this year. Moon qualified by placing third in the 100 free, 56.49 and received an at large bid to swim at state in the 50 free where she placed fourth in the district with a time of 26.07.

"I placed exactly how I did in districts last year," Moon said. "I'm working on my sprints at practice this week, so I should place in the somewhere in the top six."

Because of South Carolina's lack of high school swimming, Gruse was unable to compete most of her high school career competitively. So, the senior backstroker moved to Florida where she is splashing her way to success.

"I kind of wish my high school (in S.C.) had a team," Gruse said. "I could probably have been better this year."

Gruse, who wants to drop her previous best time by two seconds, qualified in the 100 back by placing second with a time of 1:07.29. "I want to go about a four or a five at state," Gruse said. "If I do, I could be in the top 12."

The girls from Patriot town started as a close knit team early this week as they each had practice this past Sunday in preparation for the big meet.

"Clay (Parnell) felt we needed to work on perfection," Davis said. "We have to work out every day this week because it's getting down to the nitty gritty."

Gallagher, Morris Lead SCC Escape From Lake-Sumter

LEESBURG — Label this one "Escape from Lake-Sumter."

Seminole Community College's Raiders, trailing by 13 points early in the second half, put together a furious rally behind guard David Gallagher and forward James Morris to pull out an 82-78 victory over Lake-Sumter in junior college basketball Tuesday night at Leesburg.

The victory extends the SCC winning streak to six games without a setback while the hosts dropped to 2-3. The Raiders travel to Temple Terrace (near Tampa) to play always tough Florida College Saturday.

Ironically, it was Lake-Sumter which upset the SCC en route to four victories last year. And the feisty Leesburg school almost did it again except for four frantic free throws by Tony Roberts and one by Gallagher.

"It's called not playing," assistant coach Dean Smith said about the lackluster effort. "They just didn't want to play until (coach) Bill (Payne) read them the riot act at halftime."

That halftime oratory came after the Raiders fell behind, 47-34, after 20 minutes. Steady double-figure scoring by Lake-Sumter built the lead. Adrian Evans, Jon Sherwin and Trey Crawford each finished with 14 points while Thor Shaffer added 13. All four hurt SCC from the perimeter in the first half.

Even after the pep talk, Lake-Sumter maintained its lead. It wasn't until 10 minutes remained that the Raiders cut the deficit to nine points. Four minutes later, a four-point play sliced it to five.

Then Morris, who bailed out the Raiders with three buckets Saturday against Brevard, and Gallagher went to work. The 6-3 Morris, who finished with 16 points, combined with Gallagher to bring the Raiders within one.

"Then we had five chances to go ahead and we couldn't do it," Smith said. "I didn't think we'd ever get into the lead." Ever finally came with 1:09 left. Again, it was Morris. This time, he ventured inside the top of the key to sink a 16-footer for a 77-76 lead with 1:09 to play.

Roberts took over from there. The court-wise transfer from Western Kentucky stole the ball and was fouled with 40 seconds to play. He converted the two free throws for a 79-76 lead. On the inbound pass, Roberts again stole the ball and was fouled but missed the free throw with 32 seconds left.

Sumter's Crawford then canned 25-footer with 25 seconds left to cut the deficit to 79-78. SCC inbounded the ball and Roberts was again fouled. He coolly converted both free throws for an 81-78 lead with 19 seconds left.

On the next possession, Lake-Sumter's Bruce McCrary missed a 12-footer from the right side and Morris snatched the rebound with seven seconds to play. He outletted to Gallagher, who was intentionally fouled with five seconds to go. He made one free throw to provide the final margin of victory — and escape.

"We just hope we got the bad one out of the way. Somewhere along the way you'll have a bad one like that," Payne said. "Maybe they'll realize they can't win on talent alone."

"Our defense came alive and got two or three steals and turned the game around." Smith said Payne had a premonition the Raiders might come out flat. "He had an inkling before the game," Smith said. "When our team see an easier win after a big win, they don't come out and play hard."

David Gallagher Willie Mitchell

Gallagher, though, was playing hard. The 5-10 guard, feasting on many breakaway opportunities, converted 12 of 15 field-goal attempts and 1 of 3 free throws for 25 points.

Along with Morris, 6-8 Vance Hall had 16 points and collected seven rebounds. Sophomore Greg "Slim" Johnson, who was bothered by foul trouble, converted just 2 of 10 shots but snared his usual 10 rebounds.

Roberts, the Raiders' leading scorer with 16 points a game, missed all five floor shots but connected on the free throws in the clutch. Roberts handed out four assists while the Gallagher brothers (David and Darris) each doled out three.

David Gallagher also played a superb defensive game, coming up with eight recoveries. Roberts and Morris chipped in with four.

MILLER, MITCHELL HIT HIGHS

Elsewhere in junior college action, Sanford's Willie Mitchell and Fred Miller scored career highs to lead Daytona Beach to its fifth consecutive victory, a 93-85 decision over Indian River at Daytona Beach.

Miller, a Lake Mary High grad, poured in 22 points while Mitchell, an ex-Seminole High standout, followed up with 20 and nine boards. Sanford's Darryl Merthie added 10 markers.

McGill Drives Sessions By TRC Into First Place

Softball

Ben McGill drove in four runs with a two-run homer and Chuck McMullan and Don Causseaux slugged solo homers as Sessions Well Drilling edged the Tim Raines Connection, 8-7, in the battle for first place Monday night in Sanford Men's Fall Softball League play at Pinehurst Field.

Sessions ran its record to 16-2 with the win while the Connection now stands at 15-3. Both teams have three games left in the season.

In other games Monday, McKee Development thrashed Thorne Land Clearing, 15-8, and Brown Boveri Electric jolted Sunniland, 15-9.

Sessions jumped out quickly Monday with four runs on three hits in the top of the first inning. With two outs, Ray Bowling drew a walk and McGill followed with a two-run homer. McMullan and Causseaux followed with consecutive solo homers for a 4-0 lead.

The Connection came storming back with five runs on six hits in the bottom of the second. Ned Raines led off with a double and scored on Eddie Jackson's double. Rodney Turner then singled and both Jackson and Turner scored on Lloyd Wall's base hit. Fred Washington then stepped up and drilled a two-run homer that gave TRC a 5-4 lead. Sessions came back to tie it at 5-5 in the top of the fourth when McGill singled and later scored on an error.

A three-run fifth frame gave Sessions an 8-5 cushion. Bowling's RBI single and McGill's two-run triple were the big blows.

Sessions held its 8-5 lead going into the bottom of the seventh when the Connection made a desperation comeback. Joe Benton's two-run, two-out homer brought the Connection within 8-7 but Ernest Shuler grounded out for the final out.

In McKee's win over Thorne Land Clearing Monday, a seven-run first inning paved the way. Brett Von Herbulis, Mike Rotundo and Bobby Von Herbulis all had two-run doubles in the inning. Brett Von Herbulis was 4 for 4 for the game and added a solo homer in the sixth. Otis Raines and Stan Brumley had three hits each for Thorne Land.

Brown Boveri rolled up 12 runs in the first three innings and coasted to victory over Sunniland. Roger Kinnaird drove in three runs with a pair of doubles. Manny Silver had two hits and drove in two runs while Russell Holloman, Bob Kunkle and Robbie Hanrahan added two hits each. Darryl Riggins drove in three runs for Sunniland.

Lemon, Defense Key Lady Raiders' Romp

By Chris Flister
Herald Sports Writer

Basketball

Seminole Community College's Lady Raiders have been relying on a tough defense in the early going of the 1988-89 season while the offense has been trying to get acquainted with the basket.

Tuesday night, the Lady Raiders played another strong defensive game and sophomore Kim Lemon and the basket were practically inseparable in a 62-43 rout of Polk Community College at Winter Haven.

Lemon, a Lyman High graduate, poured in 23 points and grabbed 13 rebounds as SCC ran its record to 4-1. Also hitting double figures in the scoring column for the Lady Raiders were sophomore Elizabeth Dietrich with 12 points and freshman Carol King with 10.

The Lady Raiders return to action Friday in the SCC Tournament. The first game Friday night pits Broward against defending state champion Pensacola at 6 while the Lady Raiders take on Miami-Dade South 8. The finals will be Saturday night at 8.

"Defense has really been carrying us," Gallagher said. "We haven't had anybody take charge offensively so far. Kim (Lemon) and Elizabeth (Dietrich) picked up the slack tonight and I'm looking for more from them offensively."

SCC got off to a slow start Tuesday and clung to a 25-23 lead at halftime. But, with Lemon dominating the inside offensively, and the defense smothering Polk's offense, SCC pulled away in the second half. Lemon hit 11 of 20 shots from the floor for the game.

"We were very sloppy in the beginning," Gallagher said. "It took us three or four minutes before we scored. We picked it up some in the second half."

Freshman Lisa Starks contributed seven points and ripped down 12 rebounds for the Lady Raiders while Dietrich grabbed 10 rebounds.

SCC's defense held Polk to just 31 percent shooting from the floor. Polk, which fell to 1-3 with the loss, had just one player in double figures, Michelle Lattimore, who pumped in 15 points.

"Defense can't carry us all the way," Gallagher said. "We have to start scoring more."

Nets Build Big Lead, Tip Blazers, 108-102

United Press International

The New Jersey Nets finally found a nice place to visit and the Portland Trail Blazers were the perfect hosts.

The Nets built a 22-point lead in the second quarter and held on for their first road victory of the season Tuesday night, a 108-102 decision over the Trail Blazers, who were without center Sam Bowie for most of the game (injured left big toe) and swingman Clyde Drexler (stress fracture, left leg).

Until the triumph, New Jersey had lost all seven of its road games and won its six home games.

"It really feels good to finally win a road game," Nets coach Dave Wohl said. "But we've played well enough to win on two of the four games on this trip."

The Nets' early surge was led by the rebounding of Darryl Dawkins and Buck Williams. New Jersey outrebounded Portland 41-32 for the game.

Williams, who finished with 22 points and 16 rebounds, and Mike O'Koran, who came off the bench to add 19 points and 10 assists.

Nuggets 127, Rockets 113

At Denver, NBA scoring leader Alex English hit a career-high 54 points to snap Houston's seven-game winning streak. Mike Evans and Calvin Natt each added 18 for Denver. John Lucas scored 25 and Akem Olajuwon 23 for the Rockets.

Knicks 98, Bullets 94

At New York, Ken Bannister scored 23 points and Pat Cummings, playing for injured Patrick Ewing, had 16 to help New York to its third straight victory after eight season-opening losses. Ewing left the game with a left ankle injury in the first quarter, and was taken to the hospital where x-rays proved negative.

NBA Roundup

Warriors 110, Cavaliers 104

At Richfield, Ohio, Joe Barry Carroll hit a 10-foot turnaround to snap a 102-102 tie with 10 seconds to play, lifting Golden State. Purvis Short led the Warriors with 32 points and Carroll finished with 28. World B. Free paced Cleveland with 21.

Bulls 121, Pacers 114

At Chicago, Orlando Woolridge scored 35 points, including a three-point play with one minute left, helping Chicago break a four-game losing streak. Quintin Dailey played for the first time since returning from drug rehabilitation and scored two points for the Bulls.

Mavericks 123, Suns 119

At Dallas, Rolando Blackman scored 32 points, including four free throws in the final 11 seconds, and Mark Aguirre had 36 to rally Dallas. Phoenix was led by Walter Davis' 34 points, his second straight 30-point game. Larry Nance added 20 for the Suns.

Kings 103, Spurs 99

At San Antonio, Texas, reserve guard Mike Woodson hit 22 second-half points to lift Sacramento. Woodson finished with 26 points. Mike Mitchell hit 18 for the Spurs and Artis Gilmore finished with 17 points and 11 rebounds.

2 TEAMS COVET NIXON

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Their first offer sheet to Norm Nixon termed invalid by all parties involved, the Seattle SuperSonics are prepared to offer another one to the free-agent guard.

According to sources close to the negotiations, Seattle general manager Lenny Wilkens was in Los Angeles Tuesday, meeting with Nixon's legal representatives. The Sonics appear willing to re-work the 5-year, $2.7 million offer sheet the 6-foot-2 guard signed Thursday.

Sanford Gymnastics Qualifies 3 For Class IV State Competition

The Sanford Gymnastics Association competed in the USGF Class IV Sectional Meet this past weekend in Jacksonville and came away with three state qualifiers.

Out of 10 Sanford gymnasts who competed, Cynthia Wongsuwan and Shana Prestigracom qualified for state in the 9-11 age group and Angie Lewis qualified in the 12-14 division.

The Class IV State Meet will be held Dec. 21-22 at Lake Brantley High School in Altamonte Springs.

Wongsuwan, a fifth grader at Winter Springs Elementary, was the top performer for the SGA over the weekend as she recorded an all around score of 32.00. Wongsuwan's top routines included a 10th place on the vault (8.35) and a 10th on floor exercise (8.65). Prestigracom qualified with an all around score of 31.35. A score of 30.0 was required to qualify for state.

Other scores for Sanford gymnasts in the 9-11 age group included Sherri Ziegler (28.70), Brett Leckie (27.55), Samantha Wongsuwan (27.00) and Abbie McClintock (26.80). Leckie turned in the best individual routine of the day as she took fourth on the balance beam with an 8.60.

Lewis, from Titusville, earned her trip to state with an all around score of 30.30 in the 12-14 age group. Her top routine was an eighth on the floor exercise (8.45).

Other scores in the 12-14 group included Ginger Skees (27.50), DeAnn Davis (27.35) and Sue Daugherty (26.35). Davis took ninth place in the vault with an 8.2.

Rams Host Soccer Jamborees

The Seminole County Soccer Jamboree will be held Monday (Nov. 25) and Tuesday (Nov. 26) at Lake Mary High.

On Monday, the county boys teams will play with Lake Mary going against Lyman at 8 p.m., last year's state (4A) runnerup Lake Brantley facing Seminole at 7 and Lake Howell squaring off against Oviedo at 8.

The girls' jamboree will be Tuesday night with Lake Mary facing defending state champion Lyman at 6, Lake Brantley taking on Seminole at 7 and Lake Howell battling Oviedo at 8.

In both jamborees, games will consist of one 40-minute half. Admission is $2.50 for adults and $1.50 for students.

Some of the players to watch on the boys side include Lake Mary goalkeeper Greg Griffing (14 shutouts a year ago) and Jerry Meyers (16 goals), Lyman's Brian Cascek and Pat Howard (both scored over 20 goals last season), Lake Brantley goalkeeper Aaron Kindel (15 shutouts), Seminole's Matt Albert and Lake Howell's Eric Reeseaman.

On the girls side, Lyman has all but one starter returning from last year's state championship team. Leading the way are Alyson Barnes, Sheila Mandy, Dawn Boyesen, Karen Abernethy and goalkeeper Lisa Chatman.

Lake Mary has one of the top scorers in the state in Kelly Broen who pumped in 29 goals a year ago. Brantley's Pam Anderson is one of the top defenders in the state.

Gators' Neal Injures Hamstring

GAINESVILLE (UPI) — Florida wide receiver Frankie Neal, who caught six passes for 110 yards and one touchdown in the Gators' 15-13 win over Kentucky, suffered a hamstring injury in practice, coach Galen Hall said Tuesday.

The severity of Neal's injury will not be determined until he is examined later this week by team doctors, Hall said. The Gators suffered several minor injuries in the victory over Kentucky, Hall said. Starting fullback John L. Williams sat out Monday's practice as did offensive tackles Jack Gerzina and Earl Hiott.

Williams is suffering from a hip pointer, while Gerzina has a sore ankle and Hiott a sprained back. All are expected to sit out the rest of the week to allow their injuries time to heal, Hall said.

The Gators, 8-1-1, are idle this week and close out their season at home Nov. 30 against Florida State.

Schrader Tops NASCAR Rookies

DAYTONA BEACH (UPI) — Ken Schrader of Fenton, Mo., is NASCAR's rookie-of-the-year, edging out Eddie Bierschwalde by 16 points, it was announced Tuesday.

Schrader, with three top 10 finishes, had 231 rookie points to Bierschwalde's 215. He will receive a $10,000 bonus for winning the award, as well as a $1,000 bonus for each race he runs in next year.

Schrader is the second straight Missouri native to win the award. Rusty Wallace, also of Fenton, won it last year.

"This being our main goal at the beginning of the season, I feel awfully good about it," Schrader said. "When you consider some of the guys who have won this before, it is really an honor."

Gibbs: Theismann Will Be Back

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Washington Redskins coach Joe Gibbs insists Joe Theismann will return to riddle NFL defenses.

The league's oldest starting quarterback is recovering in Arlington Hospital from surgery to repair a gruesome compound fracture of his lower right leg — a potential career-ending blow — suffered Monday night against the New York Giants.

"He definitely told me, 'You're not rid of me yet,'" Gibbs said Tuesday.

"He's got everything going for him," Gibbs added. "He's got a great body, he's physically strong and he's mentally tough."

King Knocks Out Tax Charge

NEW YORK (UPI) — Boxing promoter Don King stepped into the ring with the tax man and scored a knockout.

After two days of deliberations, a federal jury Tuesday found King innocent of 12 counts of attempted income tax evasion, conspiracy and filing false tax returns. His business associate, Constance Harper, was found guilty of three counts of attempted tax evasion.

King, who had been accused of conspiring with Harper to conceal up to $1 million in light revenues from the Internal Revenue Service, had beaten the rap on all counts.

Sanders Makes All-Region Team

Andre Sanders, a 1985 Lake Mary high graduate, was named to the National Junior College Athletic Association All-Region Soccer First Team. Sanders is a freshman at Brevard College.

Second Team selections include Tom Misuraca and Steve DeLong, also of Brevard College. Misuraca graduated from Lake Mary and DeLong from Lake Brantley in '85.

Sanders was also a First Team All-Conference selection while Misuraca, Steve DeLong and Larry DeLong (an '84 Brantley graduate) were second team selections.

Dolphins Dominate Districts

After the last splash of the Class 4A District 5 swim meet this past weekend, one would wonder if any team could show as much domination in the water as the Winter Park Wildcats.

The answer may come as a surprise, but there is one team that put more people in the Class 3A and 4A state meets which will be held this Friday for 3A and Saturday for 4A at the Justus Aquatic Center in Orlando.

Unfortunately the team I'm talking about isn't a perennial high school powerhouse. Instead it is an AAU team called the Justus Dolphins of Orlando, which is known throughout the nation for its excellence.

The Dolphins, coached by senior head coach John Woods, dominated the districts by qualifying 26 individuals from 10 different high schools to represent Central Florida in the two state meets.

The list includes Seminole's Jaime Bojanowski (500 free), Lyman's Millette Webber (200 and 500 free), West Orange's Peter Schuyten (50 and 100 free), Jack Jackson (200 I.M. and 100 fly), Alex Fishberg (100 fly), Ange McFarlane (100 and 200 free), Lianna Schuyten (200 I.M.), Kathy Cruciger (500 free), Edgewater's Christie Lindgren (200 I.M. and 100 fly), Natalie Stewart (200 I.M.), Brian Nelson (100 back), Colonial's Jeff Cronk (100 breast), Winter Park's Andre Dieffenthaler (100 fly) and Ryan Aycock (50 and 100 free).

Along with William Campbell (200 I.M. and 100 back), Joe Reardon (100 free and 100 back), Kristen Rose (200 and 500 free), Dawn Maisenholder (200 and 500 free), Oak Ridge's Jenny Huges (50 and 100 free), Scott Harness (100 breast), Boone's Carolyn Amberntson (50 free and 100 back), Trinity's Robbie McMichael (100 fly and 200 free), Austin Lindsey (500 free), Rachael

Chuck Burgess
SWIMMING WRITER

Weightman (200 and 500 free), Lloyd Aspinwall (100 breast), Lauren Aspinwall (200 I.M. and 100 back) and St. Cloud's Charlie Fry (200 and 500 free).

These young swimmers, the large percentage who practice with Woods all year round, will vie for the state title in their respective events.

With such dominance of one team, one would question why so much talent on one team and why aren't all schools blessed with swimmers that qualify for the state meet.

"The basic statement is for kids to get involved in a good all year round club," said Woods who also serves as the West Orange Warriors head coach during high school season. "I really wasn't surprised by the number of kids from our team (Justus Dolphins) to make the meet (state)."

"It just shows the talent that can be produced from kids who swim all year long."

Because more and more people are swimming, Woods feels the younger generation will take over as the stars of the swimming world. "Some of our younger kids — like Jaime Bojanowski (sophomore), Austin Lindsey (seventh grade) and Robbie McMichael (sophomore) — have really come along," Woods said. "They're starting to show why they'll be the contenders and stars of the future."

CHUCK'S TIP — Here's a little tip on the teams and people to look for at the state meets this weekend.

Pondering the overall team results in the 4A meet, look for the Winter Park Wildcat boys to clinch their 17th title in the last 18 years. However, in the girls competition, it will most likely be the Seminole team from Seminole near St. Petersburg.

As far as the 3A meet goes, I'll have to go with the Trinity Prep Saint boys over the defending state champion Jacksonville Bolles. In the girls final tally, Pinecrest looks like a sure winner after defeating the mighty 4A Wildcats previously this year.

Top national swimmers to look for will include Trinity's sophomore distance stand-out Rachael Weightman. Weightman will look to eclipse her season with duel state titles in the 200 and 500 freestyles.

Winter Park's All-American, Joe Auer, will be a great one to watch. Auer is the defending state champion in the 100 and 200 freestyles.

If Auer and Weightman are to be victorious, they will have to dispose of the Olympic duo of Michelle Richardson and Anthony Neate.

Richardson was a silver medalist in the 1984 Olympics in the 800 free and is also the National Champion in the 1500 free, while Neate was a junior member of the Surinam Olympic team.

Congratulations to John and Jan Woods. Early last Thursday Mrs. Woods gave birth to a six-pound, four-ounce baby girl who they named Sydney Claire.

Demon Wood Rescues Mice

Outfielder Cindy Wood turned in the defensive gem while Gina Ambrosio and Colette Beasley provided the key runs batted in as Tub-Master's Mice nipped Nuckoll's Slick Chicks, 13-12, in Oviedo Women's League Softball Monday night.

"Cindy was a demon in the outfield," Mice coach Mickey Norton said. "She was diving and catching everything."

The Mice (5-3) took a 4-0 lead in first inning but Slick Chicks (5-4) came back to go ahead, 10-5, after fifth inning. Tub-Master's Mice nipped Nuckoll's Slick Chicks, 13-12, in Oviedo Women's League Softball Monday night.

Stephanie Nelson, who came on in third, picked up win. Ambrosio and Jan Williams had two hits each. Lori Greene scored four runs. Defensively, Wood speared a single on one hop and turned it into the game-inning forceout in the bottom of the seventh.

Susan Hill was 2 for 2 with a double and Robin Golaszewski had three hits for the losers.

The Slick Chicks bounced back in the second game to outlast Cig's Misfits, 10-7, as Sally Jackson picked up the win. Kathleen Green led the way with three hits while Jackson, Jennifer Bostick, Hill, Debbi Pegel and Jackson each whacked two hits.

For the Misfits (4-5), slugger Mary Wilson homered over fence for the second time before being intentionally walked the last three times. Bobbie Bazler and Kim Chapman stroked two hits each.

In the third game, Don Covey (8-0) remained unbeaten with a 13-3 win over Dynamic Control. Sandy Leman, T.L. Dancy, Ruth Tempesta ripped three hits each for the winners. Tempesta was the winning pitcher. For Dynamic Control (1-8), Becky Thomas, Tina Hannaman, Cathy Griffith, Betty Tuscany all had two hits each.

Seminole Regains Top Spot

By Sam Cook Herald Sports Editor

Seminole High School, on the strength of its convincing 27-6 victory over New Smyrna Beach, has regained the top ranking among Seminole County prep football teams, according to the Dunkel Index.

The Seminoles, 4-5 with DeLand slated as the season finale Friday, are ranked 121st in the state with a 50.5 rating. Lake Mary, 7-2, which blanketed hapless Boone, is 141st at 48.2. Lake Brantley, 1-8, which upset Lake Howell last week for its first win, is 158th at 46.0. Lyman (168th, 45.2), Lake Howell (181st, 44.3) and Oviedo (195th, 43.0) are next in line. All three lost last week.

Ratings aside, Lyman and Lake Mary meet in the biggest game of the year Friday at Lake Mary. Both are 2-1 in the District 5A-4 and the winner will represent that district in the state playoffs against the District 5A-3.

The 5A-3 district is a mess. The Jacksonville area has three teams tied for first place and the district could conceivably finish in a four-way tie. Jacksonville's Terry Parker and Fletcher are 3-1 along with Lake City Columbia. Jax Sandalwood is 2-2.

Fletcher has beaten Parker. Columbia has beaten Fletcher and Parker has beaten Columbia. Fletcher plays 0-4 but highly regarded Jax Wolfson. Parker plays Sandalwood and Columbia plays Jax Jackson on Friday. Wolfson, Sandalwood and Jackson wins would produce a four-way tie among the 3-1 and 2-2 teams. Columbia wins needs Parker to lose. Parker, vice-versa, Fletcher needs Columbia to lose.

Here's how Dunkel ranks them: Fletcher (53.1), Sandalwood (50.6), Parker (48.8), Columbia (48.3), Jackson (43.1) and Wolfson (40.0).

new organization," Graham said. "But the Orlando organization is sound and the fans have really been good to us."

A fan who has really been behind Graham and the Renegades is his wife Audrey. "She's my biggest fan," Graham, who will be a father sometime in February, said. "She sits on the sidelines (of the basketball court) and yells louder than anyone."

Kelvin, a stock broker for Payne-Webber on the off season, hasn't really lived in Florida all that long and agrees with Graham about the team and community support. "The fans are great down here," Kelvin, who tried out with the Washington Redskins the year before they won the super bowl, said. "I really like it down here. I got married down here and decided to settle down in the Orlando area."

Playing charity basketball to help keep in shape during the long layoff, Kelvin feels that he'll be ready when the time comes to put on the helmet and shoulder pads.

"Most guys may just think of the layoff as a vacation time," he said. "I think that the real pros will be the ones who come into training camp next season in good condition and ready to work even harder."

"Moose", as Kelvin is called, wants to use the basketball season to make his football career better. "I love basketball," Kelvin said. "For me it's a good chance, to develop some strength and improve my quickness."

One Renegade who definitely needs to work on his speed is Pisarkiewicz. "Zark," as his friends call him, is the veteran of the Renegade football and basketball team.

"I've played with the (St. Louis) Cardinals, Green Bay (Packers) and the Philadelphia Stars before coming to Orlando," Pisarkiewicz said. "I just finished my ninth season and am ready for another one."

Pisarkiewicz, who works for the Miller's and Coors Corporation, plays with the touring group of 'Gades to get acquainted with his teammates. "We just jumped into the season last year and didn't really know each other," Pisarkiewicz said. "Playing basketball is a good chance for everyone to get to know each other better. I think we're already coming closer and that will pay off during the football season."

Someone who paves his own future is linebacker Atkins. Awaiting not only the beginning of a young football career after playing a season with the Renegades, Atkins will also have to wait until March for his wife, Belinda, to give birth to their first child.

"I can't wait to start playing," Atkins, who works for a landscaping company the nine months he's not playing football, said. "But right now I'm really looking forward to the baby."

Morgan, who played with the Tampa Bay Bandits before signing with the 'Gades, wants to prepare for the post-playing days next year. "I'm going to finish my senior year of college at Bethune Cookman," Morgan said. "I'm going to major in physical education and get my degree."

Even though Graham has already received his degree from the school Martin Luther King graduated from, Morehouse College, he was still giving a lesson on scoring to his opponents and teammates.

Graham scored 14 of his game high 30 points in the first period to pace the visiting Renegades to a 30-18 lead after the end of one. Graham scored eight points in a row as he put the 'Gades up, 12-4, only 3:36 into the game.

After the Renegades pushed the score to 40-27 in the second quarter, the Seminoles Sylvester Wynn sparked a late surge with an earth-shattering slam dunk that shook the entire gym.

After leading the half, 47-40, the Renegades decided to go with their bread and butter man that resembled a mack truck rather than a refrigerator. Graham responded with 10 points in the third to put the Orlando team up, 72-60.

However, the third period ended the charity bowl and the two tribes went to war as the Seminoles staged tried to stage a major upset.

Limiting the Renegades only nine points in the final period and using the likes of Alex Holcomb, Houston Malcom, LaMarr Richardson, Ron Merthie, Wynn and the clutch performance of Bobby Lundquist, the Seminoles overcame a 12-point deficit to pull out the game in the closing seconds.

With the score tied at 80-80, Lundquist fired a 12-footer that hit nothing but net to put the faculty up by two with only 1:52 left in regulation.

But, the Renegades still had some fight left in them when Walters hit the front end of a one-and-one bringing the 'Gades to within one. That margin was short-lived as Wynn hit a lay-up and Lundquist hit both ends of a one-and-one to give the faculty breathing room.

Wynn put the game away with 48 seconds left by ramming the ball through the net with another spectacular slam.

Radcliff, Oviedo junior Willie Gaine, Lake Brantley senior Steve Stark and Seminole senior Dennis Lawrence each have four interceptions. Stark and Lawrence picked off a pass last week. Stark, in particular has had sticky fingers, getting a theft in each of the last two weeks. Seminole senior Daryl Taylor and Howell's Wesson each have three interceptions.

Oviedo sophomore Pete Lingard and Lake Howell senior Ron Campbell are deadlocked for the lead in opponent fumble recoveries with four apiece. Lingard pounced on most of his early while Campbell has picked up one every now and then. Seminole senior Theron Liggins, who also has two interceptions, is third with three.

Seminole sophomore Earnie Lewis has been the yearlong leader in sacks but Lake Mary senior Shannon Porter has made a big move the past few weeks. Lewis, who is third in total tackles with 113, leads with eight. Porter has seven while teammate Scott Ross has six. Seminole's Brinson has five.

While several of the above categories figure to be closely contested because of the smaller numbers, there hasn't really

Cook Of The Week

Baked Cranberries Different Side Dish For Holiday Meal

By Dorothy Greene
Herald Correspondent

With Thanksgiving just around the corner, our Cook of the Week, Gwen Howell, offers something a little bit different as an accompaniment to the holiday meal — her Baked Cranberries. A delicious change from the conventional stove top method, Gwen's recipe is sure to please your family and guests.

Gwen and her husband, Kenneth, enjoy entertaining friends and neighbors in their lovely Winter Springs home. "We have a Christmas party every year," says Gwen, "and since it's just the two of us, we splurge and serve lots of fresh shrimp and some favorites like liver pate and sausage rolls." Gwen uses honey quite a bit in her cooking, and when a recipe calls for sugar and puts the measurement in half, "It's never missed, and it's much better for you," she says. Gwen's interest in cooking started in high school when she took a home economics course.

"And, of course, when you come from a large family and have to stand and peel a peck of potatoes for a meal," says Gwen, "you learn to cook. I helped my mother a lot, but I think I really taught myself. I have about 50 cook books and used to collect them as a hobby."

When it comes to caring about people and sharing her time and talents with others, our Cook of the Week wins hands down. Gwen is very positive about her commitment to the Retired Senior Volunteer Program of

Seminole County and says, "It's been a very important part of our lives and still is."

Gwen and her husband, Kenneth, are making the most of their retirement years and she refers to RSVP as "a bridge from people to people. My first priority is my husband," says Gwen, "and he comes first. We try to do everything together. We joined RSVP first, and then I joined as soon as I was old enough." Gwen started out on the advisory council and is still on it after three years. "We have met so many nice people," says Gwen. "When we go to the mall, or shopping, invariably we will meet someone we know."

Gwen also gives of her time to work at the Agricultural Center on Monday mornings, "but I go in more if I'm needed," says Gwen. "I took the Master Gardening course which was offered by the horticulturists there, so now I'm able to answer questions when people call in about their lawns and gardens."

Saturday mornings are taken up with teaching a photography course to a group of 4-Hers and this is where Ken's 33 years with the Kodak Company in Rochester, N.Y. is put to good use. Both Gwen and her husband are talented photographers and enjoy sharing their knowledge. Ken's photography has been entered in many competitions and has won awards, says Gwen, and both were actively involved in Kodak's International Salons in which entries from all over the world were judged.

Not too many people have the privilege of being a member of "two families," but Gwen goes on to explain that she and three older brothers were born in London, England, before her father came to America to find a better job and prepare a home for them. Four more children were born to her parents in this country, "so we have the English family and the American family," says Gwen. "Mother is 89 years old and still lives in Webster, N.Y. near Rochester." Gwen's mother is a very active lady who is also involved in the RSVP Program in her area, and Gwen says, "She is busy knitting hats and scarves for the annual Christmas sale." Next year Gwen's family is planning a reunion to celebrate their mother's 90th birthday.

Vague memories of childhood in London come to Gwen's mind now and then, but, she says, "This is my life, and this is my country." Gwen's father was an auto mechanic in England and was one of the team that worked on the renowned "Chitty-Chitty-Bang-Bang" race car over there. In America, he worked for the Packard Company and was an expert at trouble shooting. "I can remember him lying on the running board of the car while someone else drove it, and he would listen to the engine, diagnose the problem, then take it back to the shop and repair it," says Gwen.

Many fond memories come to mind when Gwen recalls her childhood in Rochester, especially her relationship with Ken. "I went to grade school with Ken's sister and he went to Boy Scouts with my brothers. It wasn't until I was 20 years old and we attended his sister's wedding that he realized I was not just his kid sister's girlfriend, and I realized that he was somebody other than Ken Howell. So we've known each other most of our lives," says Gwen.

Married in 1943, Gwen remembers that during World War

II gasoline was rationed, "and you were limited as to how many times a day you could use your automobile. If we had driven the car to church, then we could not use it to drive to the reception held somewhere else, so we went to a hotel and got married in a banquet room. We had a minister from the Colgate Divinity School perform the ceremony, and he later went on to become a Bishop of a Cathedral in Washington, D.C.," says Gwen.

Retirement in 1979 brought the Howells to the Central Florida area and we are fortunate to have them as neighbors. When some knowledgeable friends who were familiar with this area showed Gwen and Ken around, Gwen says, "We were taken with it. The Orlando area offered us everything we wanted, the concerts, the art galleries, the museums. We wanted the culture and it's right here."

Gwen's dedication to the RSVP Program is commendable and keeps her quite busy. "Helping others is our main interest," says Gwen. Right now, the organization is gearing up for the "Christmas Store" Commerce building in Sanford. "All year 'round our volunteers knit and sew, and the men make little bird houses and toys so that the needy children can shop for everyone in their family, from baby on up to Grandma and Grandpa. For one dollar, if they can afford it. Head Start children and first-graders can buy anything they want. All our items are brand new, we don't have any used merchandise. Right now, our biggest problem is acquiring new gift items for men."

An all-out effort is made to bring happiness to needy families and, Gwen says, "It's really a sight to see. The children come in with their paper bags all decorated, and they all have name tags with each member of their family listed on the back and their ages," says Gwen. "And every item is gift wrapped. We have about 12 volunteers who just stand there and wrap all the gifts."

With a busy lifestyle like Gwen's, she still finds time to prepare home-style meals which contain that all-important ingredient, love. "I'm not a gourmet, just an ordinary cook. I don't go in for fancy foods or the decorating. And I'm not ritualistic in my cooking such as pot roast on Wednesdays, meatloaf on Fridays, etc. Ken never knows what he's getting, and neither do I until about 3 o'clock in the afternoon, then I'll start figuring out what I have and what I feel like getting into," she laughs.

Below is just a sample of Gwen's culinary magic to perk up your recipe collection:

BAKED CRANBERRIES
Wash 2 cups fresh cranberries and spread an even layer on the bottom of a shallow (2 inches deep) baking dish. Sprinkle with 1 cup of sugar (or drizzle with 3/4 cup of honey). Cover tightly with aluminum foil and bake in a preheated 350° oven for 1 hour. Stir occasionally during the baking period. Cool before serving.

MOCK LIVER PATE
1 lb. liverwurst
1/4 cup brandy
1/2 cup sour cream
1/2 cup grated onions
1 teaspoon prepared mustard
Mash the liverwurst. Add the rest of the ingredients and mix until smooth and well blended. Chill for at least 2 hours. Serve with your favorite party crackers.

CHICKEN PIE DELUXE
(May be used with leftover holiday turkey)
1 1/2 cups packaged prepared herb seasoned stuffing mix
1/2 cup butter or margarine
1/2 cup milk
1 can cream of mushroom soup
1 1/2 cups cooked, boned chicken cut into pieces
3/4 cup cooked peas
1 tablespoon minced onion
Dash of pepper
3/4 cup packaged, prepared herb-seasoned stuffing, finely crumbled parsley

Mix 1 1/2 cups stuffing with butter. Press mixture to bottom and sides of 9 inch pie plate. In saucepan, stir milk into soup; add chicken, peas, onion, pepper. Heat and turn mixture into pie shell. Bake at 425° about 10 minutes or until bubbly. Remove from oven, then arrange a border on top of pie with the 3/4 cup stuffing. Sprinkle center with parsley. Serves 6.

SHRIMP-RICE CASSEROLE
1 1/4 lbs. shrimp
1/2 large onion, chopped
1 tablespoon margarine
1 can mushroom soup
1/2 tablespoon lemon juice
Dash of garlic salt
Salt and pepper to taste
3/4 cup cooked rice
1/2 cup commercial sour cream
3/4 cup shredded cheese
1/2 green pepper, sliced
Cook and clean shrimp. Sauté onion in margarine until tender. Make a sauce by adding soup, lemon juice, and seasonings. Fold rice and shrimp into the sauce. Fold in sour cream and pour mixture into a 1 quart buttered baking dish. Sprinkle shredded cheese on top and decorate with green pepper rings, parboiled for 2 minutes. Heat in 325° oven for 30 minutes. Serves 6.

CHECKEN WITH RICE
1 cup uncooked rice
1 can cream of mushroom soup
1 can onion soup (not creamed)
1 can water
1 frying chicken, cut up
Place rice, soups, and water in a 9x13 inch pan. Mix. Place chicken pieces on top. Bake at 325° for 1-1 1/2 hours till brown.

Glowing Citrus Souffle Majestic Combination

Help holiday spirits soar with the lofty elegance of a souffle. Glowing Citrus Souffle is a majestic combination of lightness and flavor that can make the season bright. Stiffly beaten egg whites leaven a ricotta cheese/sour cream base sparkling with a sunrise-fresh orange flavor.

It's easy to make your culinary reputation rise by successfully serving a souffle. Simply beat the egg whites just until they no longer slip and slide when the bowl is tilted. Pour the yolk mixture onto the beaten whites, then gently fold until no streaks remain and the mixture has a uniform texture throughout. Organize meal preparation so the oven can remain closed for the first 20-25 minutes of baking time. (Otherwise, your swelling souffle may sink!) For convenience, if you like, prepare, cover and refrigerate the unbaked souffle for up to two hours before baking. But, be sure to scot the souffle from oven to table, so family and friends can enjoy this entrancing dish at its supremacy.

Glowing Citrus Souffle can dazzle guests as a delicate dessert or shine as a fancy brunch course.

Butter
Sugar
1/4 cup butter
1/2 cup all-purpose flour
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 cup (8 oz.) part-skim ricotta cheese
1 cup (8 oz.) dairy sour cream
6 eggs, separated
3/4 teaspoon cream of tartar
1/2 cup sugar

3 teaspoons grated orange peel
1/2 cup orange juice
1 teaspoon vanilla
Preserves, jam or jelly, optional

Butter 1 1/2- to 2-quart souffle dish or casserole. Sprinkle with sugar. Prepare collar by making 4-inch wide band of triple-thickness aluminum foil long enough to go around dish and overlap 2 inches. Lightly butter 1 side of band and sprinkle with sugar. Wrap around outside of dish with sugared side in. Fasten with tape, paper clips or string. Collar should stand at least 2 inches above rim of dish. Set aside.

In medium saucepan over medium-high heat, melt 1/4 cup butter. Blend in flour and salt. Cook, stirring constantly, until mixture is smooth and bubbly. Beat in cheese and sour cream. Reduce heat to low. Cook and stir until mixture is smooth and thickened, but not boiling, about 10 minutes. Set aside.

In large mixing bowl, beat egg whites with cream of tartar at high speed until foamy. Add 1/2 cup sugar, 2 tablespoons at a time, beating constantly until sugar is dissolved* and whites are glossy and stand in soft peaks. Thoroughly blend egg yolks, orange peel and juice and vanilla into reserved sauce. Gently, but thoroughly, fold yolk mixture into whites. Carefully pour into prepared dish. Bake in preheated 350°F. oven until puffy, delicately browned and souffle shakes slightly when oven rack is gently moved back and forth, about 40 to 50 minutes. Serve immediately with preserves, if desired.

*Rub just a bit of meringue between thumb and forefinger to feel if sugar has dissolved.

Fascinating Recipes Come From Italy's Famed Cucina Povera

In rural areas all over the world, you can find wonderful recipes that make a wholesome meal with just a few simple ingredients. Often, there is a basic recipe augmented with part of the newly harvested crop so that the fresh natural flavor enhances the dish.

Some of the most fascinating of these recipes come from the Cucina Povera, the poor man's cuisine of Italy. They have a series of bread soups, called Pancottos, which are hearty soups, served hot or cold, and sometimes so thick they can be eaten with a fork. Some are fish soups, some vegetable, and one recipe simply calls for bread and garlic in a broth.

Orange Pancotto alla Veneto is an adaptation of one of these delicious concoctions, calling for less bread than the original and taking advantage of the abundance of fresh tomatoes in the market. The broth is enlivened with Florida orange juice which adds a soothing sweetness to the soup. Orange juice complements and enhances the flavor of tomato and adds a delicate piquancy. Freshly grated Parmesan cheese finishes the dish. Followed by a green salad and fresh fruit, this makes a healthful, satisfying meal, guaranteed to be a hit with the men in the family.

Another great recipe with Italian flavor, Sausage and Peppers Adriatic, celebrates the pepper crop — golden, jade green and brilliant orange-red globes of color. This quick and easy saute is made in minutes with sweet Italian sausages, peppers and onions redolent of the flavor of Florida orange juice. Serve it with Italian bread to sop up the delightful sauce, and mangia!

ORANGE PANCOTTO ALLA VENETO

- 1 loaf Italian bread (approximately 18 inches)
 - 3 cups chicken broth
 - 2 cups Florida orange juice
 - ¼ cup olive oil
 - 2 tablespoons red wine vinegar
 - 2 large ripe tomatoes, peeled, chopped (about 3 cups)
 - ¼ cup chopped scallion
 - 2 cloves garlic, chopped
 - 1 tablespoon dried leaf basil, crumbled
 - ½ teaspoon salt
 - 1 teaspoon pepper
 - 1 cup grated Parmesan cheese, divided
- Cut enough bread into cubes to measure 2¼ cups. In large saucepot combine bread cubes, broth and orange juice; let stand 20 minutes. Break up bread so that mixture is a mushy consistency. Add oil, vinegar, tomatoes, scallion, garlic, basil, salt and pepper; bring to a boil. Reduce heat, simmer 20 minutes, stirring occasionally. Add ½ cup Parmesan cheese; simmer 10 minutes longer. Meanwhile, slice remaining bread into ½ inch slices; arrange on baking sheet or broiler tray; sprinkle with remaining ½ cup Parmesan cheese. Toast bread under broiler until cheese melts and is golden. Float bread slices on top of hot soup. Yield: 6 servings.

SAUSAGE AND PEPPERS ADRIATIC

- 2 pounds sweet Italian link sausages
- 1 large onion, sliced (1 cup)
- 2 cloves garlic, minced
- 1½ cups Florida orange juice
- 2 tablespoons prepared mustard
- 1 tablespoon honey
- 1 teaspoon dried leaf oregano, crumbled
- 3 medium size peppers, seeded and cut in strips (red, green and yellow)
- ¼ cup dry vermouth
- 2 teaspoons cornstarch

In large skillet over medium heat, brown sausages on all sides (10 to 15 minutes). Remove sausages; set aside. Drain off all but 2 tablespoons fat; saute onion and garlic about 2 minutes, scraping up bits from bottom of pan. Stir in orange juice, mustard, honey and oregano; mix well. Simmer, uncovered, 3 to 4 minutes. Return sausages to skillet. Cover. Simmer 10 minutes. Add peppers. Simmer, covered, 10 minutes longer until sausages are cooked through. Combine vermouth and cornstarch; add to skillet, stirring until mixture boils. Cook 1 minute longer. Yield: 6 servings.

Publicity Procedure

The Herald welcomes organization and personal news. The following suggestions are recommended to expedite publication:

1. Releases should be typed (lower and upper case), double spaced, and written narrative style (third person).
2. Do not abbreviate.
3. A contact person's name and phone number is necessary.
4. Keep releases simple.
5. Organization releases (the program should lead the meeting account) must be submitted no later than two days after the event.
6. Advance notices should be submitted one week prior to publication date.
7. Photographic coverage requests should be made one week in advance.

Plan For Yuletide Celebrations

Buche De Noel and Holiday Rum Balls make festive treats.

'Tis the season when family and friends gather for traditional yuletide celebrations. Along with nanging the stockings, trimming the tree and wrapping the gifts, sharing special holiday foods is a cherished Christmas custom. The annual array of festive foods, especially the homemade sweet treats and desserts, are as eagerly anticipated as the season itself.

Traditional desserts and treats which sweeten the spirit are especially easy to prepare with the help of a "secret ingredient," marshmallow creme. A trusted standby for experienced cooks as well as beginning sweetmakers, Kraft marshmallow creme streamlines dessert preparation and insures perfect results every time.

One Christmas favorite enjoyed year after year is show-stopping Buche De Noel, the traditional French yule log cake roll. This special holiday dessert is an elegant finale to a festive dinner, yet the preparation can be surprisingly uncomplicated. The moist cake, luscious filling made velvety smooth with marshmallow creme, and the rich glaze are a chocolate lover's dream come true.

Always welcomed at festive celebrations, no-bake Holiday Rum Balls are a must for impromptu entertaining and gift giving. These chewy and "spiced" treats are a fast-to-fix blend of vanilla wafers, pecans, cocoa and a hint of rum, lightly sweetened with marshmallow creme. For a lively change-of-taste, replace the rum with coffee liqueur. Prepared in advance, these "sugarplums" may be frozen until it's time to thaw for serving with a holiday cup of cheer or packing in a Christmas tin to please a special friend.

BUCHE DE NOEL

- 4 eggs, separated
- ¾ cup granulated sugar
- ½ teaspoon vanilla
- ½ cup flour
- 1 teaspoon baking powder
- ½ teaspoon salt
- Powdered sugar
- Chocolate Creme Filling
- Chocolate Glaze

Spread log with Chocolate Glaze; decorate as desired.

- ### Chocolate Creme Filling:
- ½ cup margarine
 - 1 7-oz. jar Kraft marshmallow creme
 - ½ cup semi-sweet chocolate pieces, melted
 - ½ teaspoon vanilla
 - 1½ cups sifted powdered sugar
- Beat margarine; blend in marshmallow creme, chocolate and vanilla. Gradually add powdered sugar, beating until light and fluffy.

- ### Chocolate Glaze:
- ½ cup semi-sweet chocolate pieces
 - 2 tablespoons margarine
 - 1 tablespoon light corn syrup
- Melt chocolate with margarine and corn syrup over low heat, stirring until smooth.

HOLIDAY RUM BALLS

- 1 7-oz. jar Kraft marshmallow creme
 - ¼ cup rum
 - 3 cups finely crushed vanilla wafer crumbs
 - 1 cup finely chopped pecans
 - 2 tablespoons cocoa
 - Powdered sugar
- Combine marshmallow creme and rum, mixing with electric mixer or wire whisk until well blended. Add combined crumbs, pecans and cocoa; mix well. Shape into 1-inch balls; roll in sugar. Chill.
- Approximately 3½ dozen
Variations: Substitute 1 teaspoon rum flavoring and 3 tablespoons water for rum.
Substitute coffee flavored liqueur for rum.
Make Ahead: Prepare as directed. Wrap securely; freeze. Thaw, wrapped, in refrigerator.

Miss Phillips, J.L. Cronister Repeat Vows

Jacqueline N. Phillips and Jan LaRue Cronister exchanged wedding vows in a double ring ceremony in the Church of Christ of Deltona on Aug. 10. The marriage was performed by the Rev. Floyd L. Long.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Neil C. Phillips Jr. of Sanford. The bridegroom is the son of Jerdene V. Schoen of Pennsylvania Furnace, Pa. and Kelly J. Cronister of Sanford.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride's gown was off-the-shoulder, with a sweetheart neckline. The fitted waist was made of white crepe satin with layers of ruffled lace on the skirt and train. Her lace sleeves were puffed below the elbow and button-cuffed to the hand. A lace-covered cap complemented a veil of tulle. She also wore a cameo-on-irrigree necklace, a family heirloom. A bouquet of white carnations, white daisies and red roses completed her ensemble.

Irene Collins of Sanford attended her cousin as maid of honor. Her gown was smoky lavender with lace sleeves and yoke, similar to the bride's gown. She carried a bouquet of white carnations and white daisies. A band of carnations and daisies accented her headpiece. Bridesmaids were Margaret Moses and Lory Johnson, friends of the bride. Their gowns and flowers were identical to the honor attendant's.

Thomas Crockett served the groom as best man. Ushers were Samuel Owens and Neil C. Phillips III, the bride's brother.

Jenny Leigh Fontaine, cousin of the bride, was the flower girl. Timothy Andrew Phillips, the bride's nephew, was ring bearer.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Florida Power Clubhouse in Deltona.

Music was provided by Jessica Anderson, the bride's sister. The guest book was attended by the bride's aunt, Gloria Wade. Flower bouquets were provided by Margaret Moses. Decorations at the wedding were by Douglas and Marshallyn Phillips, the bride's brother and sister-in-law. Leslie Frazier the bride's cousin, and Gloria Wade, the bride's aunt.

Following a trip to New Smyrna Beach, the bride will reside in Sanford while awaiting her husband's return from sea duty on the USS Saratoga, in March 1988. When he returns, the couple will live at Cecil Field, near Jacksonville.

Mr. and Mrs. Jan LaRue Cronister

Stew Welcome Focal Point When Temperature Dips

When the temperature begins to dip, a hearty stew is one of the smartest and most welcome focal points for the evening meal. Besides being a rich meld of ingredients, aromas and flavors, stews are also easy to prepare. Once assembled, they cook themselves with little attention.

Aegean Lamb Stew celebrates the vast variety of Middle Eastern country stews. It features lamb, the meat par excellence of Greece, where sheep have been raised since prehistoric times. Lamb is perfect accompanied by tomatoes and eggplant, both favored vegetables in that region. The dish also includes cloves, brought to the Aegean coast by Arab caravans, and cinnamon, two highly aromatic spices commonly used with meat. The flavors of the ingredients are heightened and blended with TABASCO pepper sauce, a convenient way to add full-bodied piquancy. This one-pot dish tastes better made a day ahead and freezes well.

AEGEAN LAMB STEW

1 tablespoon vegetable oil
2 pounds stewing lamb with bones, cut into large pieces

1 large onion, sliced (1 cup)
2 cloves garlic, minced
1 can (2 pounds) tomatoes, undrained

1/2 teaspoon ground cinnamon
1/2 teaspoon turmeric
1/2 teaspoon TABASCO pepper sauce

1/4 teaspoon salt
Pinch ground cloves
6 new potatoes, cut in pieces
1 small eggplant, cut in 1-inch pieces (about 2 cups)

1 zucchini, cut in 3/4 inch pieces (about 1 1/2 cups)

In large heavy skillet heat oil over high heat; brown lamb, a few pieces at a time. Arrange lamb in a 3-quart casserole.

Drain off all but 1 tablespoon fat from skillet; saute onion and garlic until tender. Add tomatoes with liquid, stirring up bits from the bottom of the skillet. Stir in cinnamon, turmeric, TABASCO sauce, salt and cloves. Pour mixture over heat. Stir in potatoes. Cover. Bake in a preheated 350°F. oven 30 minutes. Stir in eggplant and zucchini. Cover. Cook 45 minutes longer or until meat and vegetables are tender.

YIELD: 6 servings.

Lifetime of Good Health Begins Without Any Butts

DEAR READERS: Tomorrow will mark the Ninth Annual Great American Smokeout, an upbeat, good-humored, one-day campaign to encourage smokers to quit smoking for 24 hours — just to prove they can do it.

The idea was conceived by the American Cancer Society, which insists that anyone who can live without a cigarette for 24 hours can quit forever. So, if you're hooked on cigarettes (or cigars) and you really want to quit, why not start tomorrow — for just 24 hours?

The following information may motivate you: According to Dr. William G. Cahan, attending surgeon at Memorial Sloan-Kettering Cancer Center in New York, lung cancer is the single largest contributor to the total cancer death rate. It accounts for 25 percent of all cancer deaths in the United States. It is estimated that 85 percent of all lung cancer cases are due to cigarette smoking. As a smoker, you are 10 times more likely to die of lung cancer than a nonsmoker.

This year there will be 98,000 lung cancer cases among men and 48,000 among women. Of these, 87,000 men and 38,000 women will die of the disease. The number of women who will die of lung cancer is increasing at an alarming rate. Breast cancer used to be the biggest killer for women — now it's lung cancer!

A word about smoking-related diseases — emphysema, chronic bronchitis and heart disease. This year an estimated 350,000 will die from one of these. This total exceeds the number of U.S. deaths in World War II; it is eight times as many people who die in automobile accidents.

A congressional study has just reported that health costs from the adverse effects of smoking have reached a new high of $65 billion a year in increased medical bills and lost productivity. The loss in death and disability cannot be measured. (And how does one measure the amount of heartache, remorse and guilt suffered as a result of a preventable, self-induced tragedy?)

What about "secondhand" smoke? Is it actually damaging to non-smokers to be in the presence of those who are smoking? According to Dr. Cahan, the answer is yes. Furthermore, studies reveal that children of smokers are more prone to lung problems and allergies than children of non-smokers.

For years I have begged my young readers, "If you smoke, quit now. If you don't smoke, don't start!" Yet, an estimated 3,000 to 5,000 kids light up for the first time every day. Why? Peer pressure, no doubt.

"How about the rights of smokers?" you ask. Of course they are entitled to smoke if they wish. But they will have to find a place where they can smoke to their hearts' content without offending those who can't tolerate it.

"Quitting cold turkey" is the hardest way to quit, but my readers have told me it's the most effective, and in the long run, the easiest way. Cutting down is less traumatic, but the temptation to smoke is often too powerful to resist while smoking just one, two or three cigarettes a day. Those who are heavily addicted may require professional help to break the habit.

So, if you're hooked on cigarettes or have been telling yourself, "One of these days I'm going to quit," why not start tomorrow — for just 24 hours?

It won't be easy, but I can promise you, it will be the best Thanksgiving present you can give yourself — and those who love you.

The American Cancer Society has put together a wonderful booklet, "How to Stay Quit Through the Holidays." It's free. Pick one up at your local American Cancer Society office, or write for one, and please include a stamped, self-addressed envelope. The address is in your telephone book.

P.S. A favor, please? If you quit tomorrow even for 24 hours, I want to hear from you. Then write again and let me know how long you were able to stay clean. Good luck. Keep me posted.

DEAR ABBY: I am a male U.S. Marine, stationed in Okinawa, Japan. I read "Dear Abby" in the Pacific Stars and Stripes and consider you a personal friend.

Being stationed in a foreign country, far from family and friends, presents problems. Many servicemen drink more than they should out of boredom and loneliness. I try to keep busy with my work, lifting weights and reading, but the brightest spot in my day is when I get a letter from home — which is not very often.

I live with a platoon of young Marines who are desperately waiting for mail from home. The folks back home seem to have forgotten us. Abby, please tell your readers who have a son, daughter, husband, wife, girlfriend or boyfriend in the service to please write. And if any of your readers want to correspond with a guy or a gal (there are women in the service here, too), they can write to me. I promise to distribute their letters to Marines who would appreciate a pen pal. Thank you, Abby.

MEL IN OKINAWA

DEAR MEL: Well, you asked for it. Readers, if you want a pen pal, write to: Operation Dear Abby, c/o Mel Hebert, HQ CO HQ BN (NBC), 3rd Marine Division, FPO San Francisco, Calif. 96602.

You may not hear from Mel, but I'll bet you hear from another lonesome Marine. Readers and Mel, please keep me posted!

Holiday Party Calls For Festive Florida Favorites

When it comes to party and refreshment time, what better way is there to celebrate than by using recipes from Florida products?

The following recipes were submitted by Division of Marketing, Florida Department of Agriculture, Consumer Services, Tallahassee, 32301.

MOLDED CHICKEN PATE

3 Florida eggs, hard cooked
 ¼ cup chicken broth, divided
 1 envelope unflavored gelatin
 1 4-oz. can mushroom pieces, drained
 2½ cups cooked Florida chicken, coarsely chopped
 ½ cup mayonnaise
 2 tablespoons Florida lemon juice
 4 drops hot pepper sauce
 ½ cup Florida celery, chopped
 ¼ cup fresh Florida parsley, minced salt to taste
 pepper to taste

Chop eggs, one at a time in blender. Empty into bowl and set aside. Pour ¼ cup chicken broth into blender container; sprinkle gelatin over it and soften for a minute or two. Add ½ cup boiling chicken broth; cover and blend about 10 seconds on low, then 20 seconds on high. Add remaining ingredients including eggs, and blend on high until well mixed. Stop blender often to stir ingredients with rubber spatula. Pour into oiled 4 cup mold and refrigerate, covered, overnight. To serve unmold and garnish with parsley and radish roses. Serve with crackers. Yield: 4 cups.

CHEESECAKE BARS

½ cup butter, softened
 1 cup confectioners' sugar, divided
 2 cups flour
 12 ounces cream cheese, softened
 2 Florida eggs
 ¾ teaspoon almond extract
 8 ounces plain or vanilla yogurt
 1 cup raspberry or apricot preserves

Stir together butter and ½ cup confectioners' sugar. Work in flour. Pat mixture into a 13x9 inch baking dish. Bake 25-30 minutes, or until slightly golden. In a preheated 350° oven. Meanwhile in a large mixing bowl, mix together cream cheese, eggs, ½ cup confectioners' sugar and almond extract until smooth and fluffy. Stir in yogurt. Spread on baked crust. Return to oven. Reduce heat to 325° and bake for 25 minutes. Cool and refrigerate. At serving time spread with preserves and sprinkle with almonds. Cut into squares. Yield: 24 2x2-inch bars.

BUTTERSCOTCH MELTS

½ cup butter
 ½ cup Florida sugar
 2 Florida eggs, beaten
 3 cups vanilla wafers, finely crushed (measure after crushing)
 1 cup shredded coconut
 1 cup Florida pecans, chopped
 1¾ cups butterscotch pieces
 ½ cup Florida peanut butter
 Pecan halves

In top of a double boiler melt butter with sugar and eggs; cook over medium heat an additional 5 minutes. Cool slightly. In a large bowl combine crushed vanilla wafers, coconut and pecans. Pour butter mixture over and stir until completely moistened. Press into an 8x12-inch baking dish. Using the same peanut butter. Spread on top of cookie. Immediately place a pecan half in the center of your anticipated squares. Cool in the refrigerator 30 minutes before cutting into bite-size squares. Yield: 40 1½ x 1½-inch squares.

SAUSAGE MUSHROOM CRESCENTS

½ pound Florida bulk pork sausage
 1 cup fresh Florida mushrooms, chopped
 1 8-oz. package cream cheese
 2 8-oz. cans refrigerated crescent rolls
 1 Florida egg, beaten
 ¼ cup poppy seeds

In a large skillet saute sausage and mushrooms until sausage has browned. Drain excess liquid; stir in cream cheese until well mixed and set aside. Separate crescent dough into 8 rectangles; press perforations to seal. Spread sausage mushroom mixture evenly over each rectangle of dough. Starting with the long sides, roll up each rectangle jellyroll style; pinch seams to seal. Cut each roll into 1-inch pieces; place seam side down on an ungreased baking sheet. Brush with beaten egg; sprinkle with poppy seeds and bake in a preheated 375° oven for 10-12 minutes. Yield: 4 dozen.

CHOCOLATE POUND CAKE

1 cup butter-flavored shortening
 2 cups Florida sugar
 4 Florida eggs
 3 cups all-purpose flour
 ½ teaspoon baking soda
 ¼ teaspoon salt
 5 tablespoons unsweetened cocoa

1 cup Florida buttermilk
 2 teaspoons vanilla extract
 Cream shortening; gradually add sugar, beating until light and fluffy. Add eggs, one at a time, beating well after each addition. Combine flour, soda, salt and cocoa; mix well. Add to creamed mixture alternately with buttermilk, beginning and ending with flour mixture. Stir in vanilla. Pour into a greased and floured 10-inch Bundt pan. Bake in a preheated 300° oven for 1½ hours or until tests done. Cool in pan 15 minutes; invert onto wire rack and cool completely. At serving time, dust with confectioners' sugar. Yield: one 10-inch cake.

TOMATO AND BACON SPREAD

1 8-ounce package cream

cheese, softened
 2 teaspoons prepared mustard
 ¼ teaspoon celery salt
 6 slices bacon, crisp-cooked, drained, and crumbled
 1 medium Florida tomato, peeled, seeded, and finely chopped
 ¼ cup Florida green pepper, finely chopped
 assorted vegetable dippers
 In a small bowl stir together softened cream cheese, mustard, and celery salt. Stir in bacon, tomato, and green pepper. Cover and chill. Serve with vegetable dippers. Yield: 2 cups.

RADISH RING APPETIZERS

2 3-oz. packages cream cheese with chives, softened
 ¼ teaspoon dill weed
 1 clove garlic, finely minced
 1 tablespoon Florida milk

10 slices wheat bread
 1 small bag Florida radishes, thinly sliced (about 24 radishes)
 In a small bowl mix softened cream cheese, dill weed, minced garlic and milk until smooth and well-blended. Using a 2-inch cutter, cut out 3 rounds from each slice of bread. Spread each round with about ¼ teaspoon of cream cheese mixture. Cover the rounds by overlapping radishes in circle fashion, and placing one small radish topped with a small sprig of parsley in the center. Chill for 15 minutes before serving. Yield: 30 appetizers.

CHOCOLATE ZUCCHINI BREAD

3 cups all-purpose flour, sifted
 2 cups Florida sugar
 ¼ teaspoon baking powder

1 teaspoon baking soda
 ¼ teaspoon salt
 1 teaspoon cinnamon
 ¼ cup unweetened cocoa
 3 Florida eggs, beaten
 2 cups Florida zucchini squash, grated
 1 cup vegetable oil
 1 teaspoon vanilla
 1 cup Florida pecans, chopped
 Sift dry ingredients together in a large mixing bowl. In a medium bowl combine eggs, zucchini, oil, vanilla and pecans. Stir zucchini mixture into flour mixture. Spread in two well greased and floured 9x5x3-inch loaf pans. Bake in a preheated 325° oven for 1 hour or until knife inserted in center comes out clean. Wrap and store overnight for easier slicing. Yield: 2 loaves.

sauc. Yield: 40-50 meatballs.
MARINATED MUSHROOMS
 1 pound medium-size fresh Florida mushrooms
 ¾ cup salad oil
 1½ teaspoons Florida lime peel, grated
 ¼ cup Florida lime juice
 1 teaspoon oregano, crushed
 1 teaspoon garlic salt
 ¼ teaspoon pepper
 Parsley for garnish
 Clean mushrooms with damp paper towels. Cut lengthwise into 3-4 slices, about ¼-inch thick. In a large bowl combine remaining ingredients; add mushrooms, cover and refrigerate. Marinate several hours in refrigerator, stirring occasionally. Drain before serving on a platter surrounded with parsley sprigs. Yield: 1 pound.

Microwave Magic

Chili Romertopf Hits The Spot On Chilly Days

A clay pot is an excellent cooking utensil to use in the microwave oven. It combines two good cooking methods that are very compatible. The clay pot (Romertopf) is porous and needs to be soaked in water before each use. Usual soaking time is 15 minutes. It then slowly releases the water (steam) during the cooking and tenderizes meats and vegetables in a simple and delicious manner. If the clay pot is new and never been used it takes longer to soak, then just follow the basic rules for microwave cookery. All of the clay pots I have seen have been safe for the microwave oven. If you are unsure about your clay pot try the one minute test by placing an empty clay cooker in the microwave for one minute on 100% power, with 1 cup water. If the clay pot is hot to the touch at the end of the time period, the pot is not designed for use in the microwave.

All recipes in this column are designed to be microwaved in a clay cooker.

This is especially good these chilly evenings.

CHILI ROMERTOPF

- 1 pound ground chuck
- 1 large onion, chopped
- 1/2 green pepper, chopped
- 1 cup celery, chopped
- 2 cloves garlic, minced
- 1 (16 oz.) can tomatoes, mashed
- 1 (8 oz.) can tomato sauce
- 1-2 tablespoons chili powder (depending on how hot you like it)
- 1 can (12 oz.) V-8 juice

- 1 cup water
- 1 teaspoon basil
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 1 teaspoon paprika
- 2 (1 lb.) can beans, drained and rinsed, pinto or kidney
- Place ground beef, onion, pepper, celery, and garlic in water soaked clay pot. Cover and microwave on 100% 7-10 minutes. Drain off excess liquid. Add remaining ingredients, except beans. Recover and cook 30 minutes on 50% power. Add beans and stir. Continue to cook 10 minutes on 50% power. Let stand 5 minutes before serving. Serve with accompaniment of chopped onion, sour cream, grated cheddar and soda crackers.

This is a favorite all-in-one meal that has great flavor and is oh, so easy.

PORK CHOP AND SAUERKRAUT DINNER

- 4-6 pork chops
- 1 onion, sliced in rings
- 1 large (27 oz.) can sauerkraut
- 2 large potatoes, sliced
- 2 large apples, sliced
- 1/2 cup white wine, can use apple juice
- 2 teaspoons instant chicken bouillon
- 1 teaspoon caraway seed
- 1 tablespoon parsley flakes
- 1/2 teaspoon pepper
- 4 ounces salt pork, finely chopped, can use bacon instead of the salt pork
- Place all ingredients in the water soaked clay pot. Stir well. Place pork chops on top of the mixture. Cover with water soaked lid. Microwave on 100% power 15 minutes. Trim pork chops and stir mixture gently. Reduce power to 50% and microwave for 45-55 minutes or until pork chops are tender. Let stand 5 minutes before serving.

The meat is tenderized and the flavors blended in this clay pot stew recipe that will be especially good served with cornbread

- 1 1/2 pound beef stew meat, cut in 1 inch uniform cubes
- 3 medium potatoes, cubed
- 3 carrots, sliced
- 1 large onion, chopped
- 1 garlic clove, minced
- 1 (8 oz.) tomato sauce
- 1 cup water
- 1 teaspoon Worcestershire Sauce
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 1/4 teaspoon pepper
- Place all ingredients in a water soaked clay pot. Stir and cover with water soaked lid. Microwave on 100% power 15 minutes. Stir and recover. Microwave on 50% power 45-50 minutes, or until meat is tender. Let stand 5 minutes before serving.

Children can help in the preparation of this old recipe. It can give plenty of practice on measuring.

FORCUPINES

- 1 pound lean ground beef
- 1 medium onion, chopped
- 1/4 teaspoon celery seed
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 1/2 teaspoon garlic salt
- 1/2 teaspoon pepper
- 1/2 cup uncooked rice
- 1/4 cup green pepper, chopped
- 1 teaspoon Worcestershire Sauce
- 1 (10 oz) can tomato sauce
- 1/4 cup water
- Mix all ingredients except tomato soup and water in mixing bowl. Shape into meatballs, about 1 1/2 inch diameter. Put meatballs in water soaked pot and cover with water-soaked lid. Microwave on 100% power 5 minutes. Drain off excess liquid. Mix soup and water and pour over meatballs. Recover and microwave on 50% power 30-35 minutes, or until meatballs are done. Let stand 5 minutes. Serve on fluffy whipped potatoes.

This convenient method of cookery can turn an ordinary meal into gourmet fare. This is true of the chicken and wild rice that follows:

- 13-pound fryer
- 1 box (8 oz.) quick-cooking long grain and wild rice
- 1 1/2 cups water
- 2 stems fresh parsley
- 1 medium onion
- 1 rib celery, chopped
- 1/4 cup currants
- Stuff chicken cavity with parsley, onion, and celery. Place chicken in water soaked clay pot breast side down. Cover with water soaked lid. Microwave on 100% power for 10 minutes. Remove chicken. Add wild rice mix, currants and water to cooker and stir to blend. Place chicken breast side up. Microwave on 85% power (Med-Hi) 30-40 minutes or until chicken is tender.

Grazing Popular

Food-trend observers report that the latest phenomenon is "grazing". This refers to the practice of feeding on smaller, lighter meals and snacks in place of three traditional sit-down spreads each day. While adults may have the know-how to nibble nutritiously, kids often end up filling up on empty-calorie foods at a time of life when good nutrition is especially important. Frosty Fruit Sipper is a protein-rich fruit drink with a sprightly tang that can help fill in the gaps between square meals.

- FROSTY FRUIT SIPPER
- 3/4 cup prepared limeade, chilled
- 3/4 cup apple juice, chilled
- 2 eggs
- 1 halved lime slice, optional
- Place all ingredients except lime slice in 5-cup blender container. Cover and blend at medium speed until smooth, about 40 seconds. Pour into 2 (10 to 12 oz.) glasses. Serve immediately garnished with lime slices, if desired.

More Effects Of Smoking

Everybody more or less accepts that smoking cigarettes causes lung cancer; many scientists are convinced that tobacco is also linked to heart attacks, hypertension, arterial spasm, vascular disease, peptic ulcer, bronchitis, emphysema and an astounding array of minor and major diseases. It also transforms the effectiveness of a wide variety of drugs.

Here is the continuing list of such drugs and what happens when users combine them with smoking:
— PENTAZOCINE: Sold as Talwin, this painkiller can be so effectively neutralized in smokers that other types of analgesics may have to be used or much larger doses of the drug will have to be administered.

— PHENOTHIAZINES: These potent tranquilizers are more commonly known as Thorazine, Compazine and Phenergan. The drugs' effects are reduced in smokers.

— PHENYLBUTAZONE: This is a powerful anti-inflammatory agent used for arthritis, bursitis and tendinitis. It is marketed as Azolid or Butazolidin. The metabolism of the drug is almost doubled in smokers, who may require much higher (and more dangerous) doses.

— PROPOXYPHENE: Darvon is a common non-narcotic pain reliever. Its effects are reduced by cigarettes.

— PROPANOLOL: Inderal and other beta-blockers are useful for heart disease, angina and hypertension. Tobacco smoke has been reported to negate the beneficial consequences of the medicine.

— THEOPHYLLINE: This drug is present in more than 60 prescribable compounds and is a mainstay of treatment for asthma. Although asthmatics have no business smoking in the first place, theophylline blood levels are reduced in smoking patients. Understandably, the therapeutic benefits are thereby compromised.

— VITAMIN B12: This essential nutrient is vital for normal nerve functioning and blood production. B12 blood levels are lower in smokers, a fact of particular significance in patients who tend to be malnourished for whatever reasons.

In summary, tobacco has far-reaching effects, many of which doctors and the public are just beginning to recognize.

WIN AT BRIDGE

By James Jacoby
Declarer had a high opinion of his own skills, particularly when end-play positions were involved. Finding himself in four hearts, he trumped the opening spade lead and led the nine of hearts, letting it ride. East gathered in the king and returned a spade. South ruffed, led a heart to the queen and ruffed another spade. Then he played the jack of clubs from his hand. He played low from dummy and East won the queen. East next cashed the club ace and then played a low club back. What now?
Declarer was certain that West had seven spades for his vulnerable pre-empt. Because West had already shown up with one heart, it was very unlikely that he had more than three clubs. If this analysis was correct, the odds favored East to have the club nine, so South put in the eight. That lost to West's nine, and now there was no way for our skillful declarer to avoid the loss of a diamond trick.

Declarer serves his purposes better if he first leads a low club rather than the jack. East will win the king with the ace, but he can do no better than to cash the queen, and declarer will have two good clubs on which to shed dummy's small diamonds. If West should have the club queen, South can force it out by playing his jack on East's club return, and now West would either have to lead into declarer's 10-8 combination or have to lead away from the jack of diamonds to allow declarer to avoid a diamond loser.

HOROSCOPE

What The Day Will Bring...
YOUR BIRTHDAY NOVEMBER 21, 1985
You are now in a good material growth cycle, and increases in your holdings are likely in the year ahead. Unexpected spurts forward will occur each time things seem to be slowing down.
SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) Today a co-worker might try to take credit for something you did. Step out of his shadow so the boss can see who was the real performer. Major changes are ahead for Scorpios in the coming year. Send for your Astro-Graph predictions today. Mail $1 to Astro-Graph, c/o this newspaper, Box 1846, Cincinnati, OH 45201. Be sure to state your zodiac sign.
SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) You may find yourself competing with someone who always tries to upstage others. But he won't steal your limelight today.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) Do not let self-doubts give you negative vision pertaining to the outcome of events today. Everything is going to work out fine. Just believe in yourself and your abilities.
AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) You'll be a welcome addition at any social gathering today. But be sure that a sensitive friend who may tag along feels included.
PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) Your possibilities for personal gain look encouraging today. You are not apt to be handed things on a silver platter, but you will get all you deserve.
ARIES (March 21-April 19) Today will not be without.
LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) If you show a willingness to be cooperative today, all will go well in your one-to-one deS (April 20-May 20) It's admirable to feel inclined to help those who require your assistance. Today two people who can't manage things for themselves will be leaning on you.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) Before attempting new projects today, think out all of their aspects in advance. This will help you make wise judgments.
CANCER (June 21-July 21) If your goals are clearly defined today, your chances for success are better than usual. Be single-minded regarding your objectives.
LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) Plans that are exciting to you should not be discussed today with people who are negative thinkers. Instead, talk to those who could help enhance your ideas.
VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) Joint ventures look promising today, provided neither you nor your associate have unrealistic projections. Stay within the realm of reality.
LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) If you show a willingness to be cooperative today, all will go well in your one-to-one dealings. The key is to treat the other guy as you would like to be treated.

Data From Police Chiefs' Seminar On Line In Sanford

By Karen Talley
Herald Staff Writer

A five-inch thick docket of law enforcement information whose content includes guidelines for conducting criminal investigations and promoting community awareness is being applied by 32 police chiefs throughout the state, including Steve Harriett of Sanford, Wade Hancock of Oviedo and Ron Seacrist of the University of Central Florida.

They spent a week earlier this month discussing the data in Tallahassee, as the charter class of a week-long seminar for recently appointed police chiefs.

Sponsored by the Florida Police Chiefs Association in conjunction with the Florida Department of Law Enforcement, the "intense and comprehensive" workshops included presentations from seasoned law enforcement officials as well as guest speakers like Governor Bob Graham and state Attorney General Jim Smith.

The information gleaned from five days of nine hour classes "was pertinent and on-track," according to Harriett, who's headed Sanford's 77 member police force since May 1. He said he's already begun applying the data through discussions with shift supervisors and that they, in turn, will pass it along to patrolmen.

At the seminar Harriett said he and his peers "spent the entire week being educated and trained in dealing with problems faced by law enforcement administrators."

Hancock, Oviedo's chief of police for two years, described the classes as "like being under a waterfall—the information just kept coming."

Among the workshops offered were establishing department policy, community involvement in crime prevention, crime lab services, police chiefs' relationship to municipal government, working with the media and maintaining positive working relationships with citizens, local government and within the police department, Harriett said.

And, although attendance at the seminar included chiefs from departments with 200 plus personnel as well as those with less than 10, "The information applied to us all," Seacrist said. "Publics are the same no matter what the area."

Seacrist, who has headed the UCF police department for three years, said his 20 man force serves "a city unto itself," and that crime generated by the development of surrounding areas is being felt at the university. "We're seeing a lot more felonies on campus than we did two or three years ago," he said.

The university's closest neighbor is Oviedo and that city's police chief concurred with Seacrist. "Right now we're going through a period of rapid change and it's already putting pressure on our police department," Hancock said.

His 12 man force is facing "a situation like Sanford did a few years ago," according to Hancock. "We're quickly going from rural to urban and the growth has led to more criminal activity."

Increased population, said Hancock, has also resulted in "a lot more traffic on our streets." To illustrate his point, Hancock discussed the results of a traffic impact study the department undertook last May. It showed that 36,000 cars a day travel through the city's main intersection at state roads 434 and 426 and it indicated to Hancock, "We've got to deal with the difficulty of being the crossroads for northern Seminole County."

The three chiefs concurred that information gleaned from the seminar will assist them in keeping abreast of current law enforcement concerns as well as those that lie in the future. "What we received is up to the minute and on-target," Harriett said. "And it's as valid for tomorrow as it is for today."

In the past, said Seacrist, "Of course I encountered the same situations, but now I'll be handling some of them differently."

This "contemporary application," he said, involves "timing yourself and looking at ramifications to avoid making premature evaluations."

"Any new chief," he said, "already knows from experience all the problems a police department faces. But what's important is the approach he takes when dealing with them."

"Before responding to a situation, you have to use logic to think it through," said Hancock. "That has to be part of your normal thought process no matter what the scenario."

The seminar "reinforced certain approaches we already take and also provided us with alternative courses of action," Harriett said. "One (course of action) might not be any better than another, but what's important is the thought process that leads you to that conclusion. Only after you've reviewed all your options do you act."

All three of the charter class members said they are looking forward to the benefits that will result from application of the seminar's information to their day to day responsibilities. They have also already volunteered to speak at the next seminar for new police chiefs, as seasoned veterans of law enforcement concepts it seeks to instill.

Everybody more or less accepts that smoking cigarettes causes lung cancer; many scientists are convinced that tobacco is also linked to heart attacks, hypertension, arterial spasm, vascular disease, peptic ulcer, bronchitis, emphysema and an astounding array of minor and major diseases. It also transforms the effectiveness of a wide variety of drugs.

Here is the continuing list of such drugs and what happens when users combine them with smoking:

PENTAZOCINE: Sold as Talwin, this painkiller can be so effectively neutralized in smokers that other types of analgesics may have to be used or much larger doses of the drug will have to be administered.

PHENOTHIAZINES: These potent tranquilizers are more commonly known as Thorazine, Compazine and Phenergan. The drugs' effects are reduced in smokers.

PHENYLBUTAZONE: This is a powerful anti-inflammatory agent used for arthritis, bursitis and tendinitis. It is marketed as Azolid or Butazolidin. The metabolism of the drug is almost doubled in smokers, who may require much higher (and more dangerous) doses.

PROPOXYPHENE: Darvon is a common non-narcotic pain reliever. Its effects are reduced by cigarettes.

PROPANOLOL: Inderal and other beta-blockers are useful for heart disease, angina and hypertension. Tobacco smoke has been reported to negate the beneficial consequences of the medicine.

THEOPHYLLINE: This drug is present in more than 60 prescribable compounds and is a mainstay of treatment for asthma. Although asthmatics have no business smoking in the first place, theophylline blood levels are reduced in smoking patients. Understandably, the therapeutic benefits are thereby compromised.

VITAMIN B12: This essential nutrient is vital for normal nerve functioning and blood production. B12 blood levels are lower in smokers, a fact of particular significance in patients who tend to be malnourished for whatever reasons.

In summary, tobacco has far-reaching effects, many of which doctors and the public are just beginning to recognize.

WIN AT BRIDGE

By James Jacoby

Declarer had a high opinion of his own skills, particularly when end-play positions were involved. Finding himself in four hearts, he trumped the opening spade lead and led the nine of hearts, letting it ride. East gathered in the king and returned a spade. South ruffed, led a heart to the queen and ruffed another spade. Then he played the jack of clubs from his hand. He played low from dummy and East won the queen. East next cashed the club ace and then played a low club back. What now?

this analysis was correct, the odds favored East to have the club nine, so South put in the eight. That lost to West's nine, and now there was no way for our skillful declarer to avoid the loss of a diamond trick.

Declarer serves his purposes better if he first leads a low club rather than the jack. East will win the king with the ace, but he can do no better than to cash the queen, and declarer will have two good clubs on which to shed dummy's small diamonds. If West should have the club queen, South can force it out by playing his jack on East's club return, and now West would either have to lead into declarer's 10-8 combination or have to lead away from the jack of diamonds to allow declarer to avoid a diamond loser.

HOROSCOPE

What The Day Will Bring...

YOUR BIRTHDAY NOVEMBER 21, 1985

You are now in a good material growth cycle, and increases in your holdings are likely in the year ahead. Unexpected spurts forward will occur each time things seem to be slowing down.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) Today a co-worker might try to take credit for something you did. Step out of his shadow so the boss can see who was the real performer. Major changes are ahead for Scorpios in the coming year. Send for your Astro-Graph predictions today. Mail $1 to Astro-Graph, c/o this newspaper, Box 1846, Cincinnati, OH 45201. Be sure to state your zodiac sign.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) You may find yourself competing with someone who always tries to upstage others. But he won't steal your limelight today.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) Do not let self-doubts give you negative vision pertaining to the outcome of events today. Everything is going to work out fine. Just believe in yourself and your abilities.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) You'll be a welcome addition at any social gathering today. But be sure that a sensitive friend who may tag along feels included.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) Your possibilities for personal gain look encouraging today. You are not apt to be handed things on a silver platter, but you will get all you deserve.

ARIES (March 21-April 19) Today will not be without.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) If you show a willingness to be cooperative today, all will go well in your one-to-one deals (April 20-May 20) It's admirable to feel inclined to help those who require your assistance. Today two people who can't manage things for themselves will be leaning on you.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) Before attempting new projects today, think out all of their aspects in advance. This will help you make wise judgments.

CANCER (June 21-July 21) If your goals are clearly defined today, your chances for success are better than usual. Be single-minded regarding your objectives.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) Plans that are exciting to you should not be discussed today with people who are negative thinkers. Instead, talk to those who could help enhance your ideas.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) Joint ventures look promising today, provided neither you nor your associate have unrealistic projections. Stay within the realm of reality.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) If you show a willingness to be cooperative today, all will go well in your one-to-one dealings. The key is to treat the other guy as you would like to be treated.

Data From Police Chiefs' Seminar On Line In Sanford

By Karen Talley
Herald Staff Writer

A five-inch thick docket of law enforcement information whose content includes guidelines for conducting criminal investigations and promoting community awareness is being applied by 32 police chiefs throughout the state, including Steve Harriett of Sanford, Wade Hancock of Oviedo and Ron Seacrist of the University of Central Florida.

They spent a week earlier this month discussing the data in Tallahassee, as the charter class of a week-long seminar for recently appointed police chiefs.

Sponsored by the Florida Police Chiefs Association in conjunction with the Florida Department of Law Enforcement, the "intense and comprehensive" workshops included presentations from seasoned law enforcement officials as well as guest speakers like Governor Bob Graham and state Attorney General Jim Smith.

The information gleaned from five days of nine hour classes "was pertinent and on-track," according to Harriett, who's headed Sanford's 77 member police force since May 1. He said he's already begun applying the data through discussions with shift supervisors and that they, in turn, will pass it along to patrolmen.

At the seminar Harriett said he and his peers "spent the entire week being educated and trained in dealing with problems faced by law enforcement administrators."

Hancock, Oviedo's chief of police for two years, described the classes as "like being under a waterfall—the information just kept coming."

Among the workshops offered were establishing department policy, community involvement in crime prevention, crime lab services, police chiefs' relationship to municipal government, working with the media and maintaining positive working relationships with citizens, local government and within the police department, Harriett said.

And, although attendance at the seminar included chiefs from departments with 200 plus personnel as well as those with less than 10, "The information applied to us all," Seacrist said. "Publics are the same no matter what the area."

Seacrist, who has headed the UCF police department for three years, said his 20 man force serves "a city unto itself," and that crime generated by the development of surrounding areas is being felt at the university. "We're seeing a lot more felonies on campus than we did two or three years ago," he said.

The university's closest neighbor is Oviedo and that city's police chief concurred with Seacrist. "Right now we're going through a period of rapid change and it's already putting pressure on our police department," Hancock said.

His 12 man force is facing "a situation like Sanford did a few years ago," according to Hancock. "We're quickly going from rural to urban and the growth has led to more criminal activity."

Increased population, said Hancock, has also resulted in "a lot more traffic on our streets." To illustrate his point, Hancock discussed the results of a traffic impact study the department undertook last May. It showed that 36,000 cars a day travel through the city's main intersection at state roads 434 and 426 and it indicated to Hancock, "We've got to deal with the difficulty of being the crossroads for northern Seminole County."

The three chiefs concurred that information gleaned from the seminar will assist them in keeping abreast of current law enforcement concerns as well as those that lie in the future. "What we received is up to the minute and on-target," Harriett said. "And it's as valid for tomorrow as it is for today."

In the past, said Seacrist, "Of course I encountered the same situations, but now I'll be handling some of them differently."

This "contemporary application," he said, involves "timing yourself and looking at ramifications to avoid making premature evaluations."

"Any new chief," he said, "already knows from experience all the problems a police department faces. But what's important is the approach he takes when dealing with them."

"Before responding to a situation, you have to use logic to think it through," said Hancock. "That has to be part of your normal thought process no matter what the scenario."

The seminar "reinforced certain approaches we already take and also provided us with alternative courses of action," Harriett said. "One (course of action) might not be any better than another, but what's important is the thought process that leads you to that conclusion. Only after you've reviewed all your options do you act."

All three of the charter class members said they are looking forward to the benefits that will result from application of the seminar's information to their day to day responsibilities. They have also already volunteered to speak at the next seminar for new police chiefs, as seasoned veterans of law enforcement concepts it seeks to instill.
