City Is Formally Handed Full Title To Naval Station

Plans Made By Sanford Officials To Utilize Facilities Of $4,350,000 Plant

In a brief but impressive ceremony this morning at 10:00 o'clock, a large wooden key, symbolizing the Sanford Naval Air Station, was presented to Mayor H. James Gut by Capt. F. T. Ward, chief staff Naval Air Advanced Training, and control of the station which had been officially commissioned on Nov. 3, 1942, pursuant to the City of Sanford in a revocable permit.

On the platform in the flag hanger where the presentation was made were Comdr. W. R. Neblett, head of Administration, Capt. W. C. Wingerden, director of Public Relations and Lieut. Comdr. C. H. Sigley, chief staff under Admiral Hatch Division in his capacity as commander of Naval Air Stations in the Seventh Naval District. The group arrived exactly on time by plane.

Commander H. H. Wheeler, who has had command of the station since it was put on a caretaker basis, opened the program before a mass gathering. "We meet here today for the Navy to turn over this station to the City of Sanford," he declared, "since Mar. 1, when the station was placed upon a caretaker basis, he had been working toward the transfer which 'stepped beyond the horizon' but due to progress through the cooperation of Mayor Gut, City Manager H. N. Sawyer and Chamber of Commerce Manager Edward Higgins (all present on the platform) they had been able to achieve this goal.

He thanked the City for the use of its title, the use of the USO and other facilities made available for personnel in the station. He outlined the condition of the revocable permit issued by the Bureau of Yards and Docks of the revocable permit issued by the City until such time as ultimate disposal is made by other government agencies. He introduced Capt. Ward, who came in place of Admiral Division in making the presentation, due to the fact that the latter was unable to leave his duties in Washington, D. C.

Capt. Ward thanked the people of Sanford for the hospitality and "wonderful treatment" given to the citizens to the more than 1,500 men who had trained here. He pointed out that a modern airport is a "must" in a growing community and that it was only fitting that it be turned over to the City. He then presented the key to Mayor Gut.

"Capt. Ward, the acceptance of this key to the Sanford Naval Air Station to a source of great pleasure to me," declared Mayor Gut. He then briefly outlined the history of the airport from the time in September, 1940 when City officials conceived the idea of starting a flying school for the training of pilots, followed by the purchase of 875 acres of land then came the application to WPA to build the flying field, certified in July, 1941, and plans for runways approved on Jan. 24, 1942. On May 1, the Navy took over and started construction on May 18. The station was commissioned Nov. 3, 1942 by Admiral A. B. Cook.

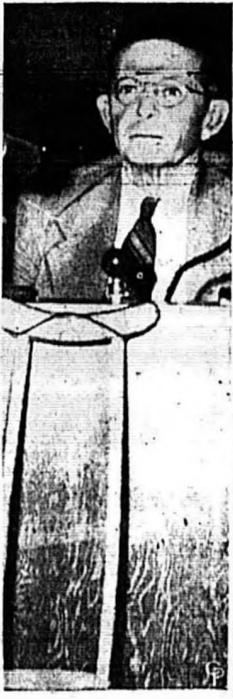

He also stated that relations with Naval personnel had been cordial and that "We are very proud of the men who trained here."

"Yesterday was the anniversary of our victory in World War II," said Mayor Gut. "We hope in the years to come to use the splendid facilities of the station for the common good of the citizens," he added.

Commander Wheeler then read his detachment orders and thanked officers and men for helping him get the task of turning over the station to the City completed. He declared that he felt it a privilege to end his Naval career in the City of Sanford. "My official and personal relations have been most pleasant," he asserted. He then introduced Lieut. Clarence Ames, NIS, who will be in command of the Naval facilities remaining in storage.

Lieut. Ames declared that it was a pleasure to find the station in good condition for which he thanked Comdr. Wheeler, Naval and civilian personnel, and declared that all systems of his predecessor would remain in effect.

Jaycees Desire Truck Route For Heavy Vehicles

Body Fails To Act On Removing Rent Controls In Area

The Seminole County Junior Chamber of Commerce voted today to authorize President Jack Batigan to appoint a committee to cooperate with other civic organizations in the city with regard to establishing a truck route. Debate at today's weekly lunch meeting revealed that semi-trailers and trucks over 35 feet in length are hindering the normal flow of traffic on Park Avenue, which is U. S. highway 17 and 92.

Ben Wright introduced the discussion and pointed out that truck traffic should be routed towards the Sanford State Farmers Market. However, it was pointed out that the establishment of a truck route and the prohibition of heavy trucks on Park Avenue would bring protests from local business houses that are furnished freight transportation by trucks from warehouse to storeroom door.

Pending further investigation of the rent control situation in this area, the Jaycees today refrained from taking action on a motion presented to indorse the senior Chamber of Commerce plan to request removal of rent control in Seminole County.

Following the presentation of the motion to indorse the senior trade body's action which was taken during last Tuesday night's meeting of the board of directors, the Jaycees intimated that inequities do exist in this area but members were of the opinion that an attempt to make adjustments rather than request removal of rent ceilings altogether, be made.

Visitors at today's luncheon included James Tew, recently placed in inactive status by the United States Navy, and Jack Thorpe of Orlando.

CIO Maritime Workers Start Walkout Today

Strike Threatens To Tie Up 360 Ships; Seaman Picket Big Great Lakes Ports

CHICAGO, Aug. 15 (AP)—Striking CIO maritime workers today are picketing at major ports of the Great Lakes in the first day of a walkout which threatens to tie up 360 vessels. Joseph Curtan, president of the National Maritime Union, Joseph Curtan said in Cleveland that the union's lake members number about 4,000 and another union leader predicted that between 1,000 and 2,000 other seamen would join the stoppage.

A union spokesman in Washington declared that his organization had admitted its demands. He explained that originally the demands were for a 10-hour work week, wage increases and preferential hiring, but that now the chief gains sought are a 11-hour week and maintenance of union membership. In Detroit, a representative of the Great Lakes Transport Company claimed the walkout was just an organizational matter which broke a contract which was to have run until December.

Another CIO group, the which that employees of the International Paper Company today walked out to enforce demands for a pay raise of 15 cents an hour and other benefits. The company announced its intention to continue operating in notices posted in plants at Auburn, New York, Chicago, Canton and East Moline, Ill.

Still another CIO union, the American Communist in Assin, is in the ninth day of its strike in New York against Press Wireless, Inc. Both unions have rejected various proposals to settle the dispute which has hampered the flow of foreign news messages.

Meanwhile, Bakery strikes have continued to restrict the bread supply in Philadelphia and Chicago. These developments took place top CIO officials met in Washington to chart a wage policy. The strategy conference was called as three big CIO unions talked of making new wage demands to make up for recent price boosts. The threats were made by the packing house workers, who have been negotiating with Swift and Company, the executive board of the United Auto Workers, which has been negotiating at Fort Worth.

Col. E. R. Bradley, Famed Sportsman, Dies In Kentucky

LEXINGTON, Ky., Aug. 15 (AP)—A veteran sportsman whose major stake in America died today. He was Col. E. R. Bradley, known to sports lovers as the nation's premier turfman. Bradley died at his late hour farm at Lexington. He was 86 years old.

The sportsman's horses have won four Kentucky derbies. Thoroughbred racing was his hobby, and his famed Idle Hour farm was considered a model breeding establishment. Bradley had amassed a fortune in real estate and other investments, and from the income from an elaborate casino at Palm Beach, Fla. He had spent his winters at Palm Beach and his summers in New York and Maryland.

Bradley was born at Johnston, Pa. He left home as a young man to seek his fortune in the west. He had been a coal miner, a cowboy and a scout for General Nelson A. Miles during the war on the Apache Indians.

Fields Cited For Contempt By Group

WASHINGTON, Aug. 15 (AP)—The House has made good its threat against contract broker Benjamin Fields. The Surplus Property Committee today cited the Washington promoter for contempt because he refused to produce records showing how he split profits from the sale of excess war goods.

Committee Chairman Roger Slaughter had warned yesterday that the contempt action would be forthcoming unless the elderly broker gave the representatives the information they wanted. Re-called to the stand today, Fields again refused to testify, and legislators had given them all the data he could find and that he's preparing a detailed record of his surplus property transactions as requested.

Communists Blame Marshall For Failure Of Negotiations

SANFORD, Aug. 15 (AP)—DIPLOMATS from China, Korea and other Communist-occupied areas today reported that the Communist underground was planning disturbances. An H. H. P. M. to disseminate has been increased and "theater, dance, and other amusement places have been raided."

Other changes in policy have stepped up their attacks on the United States and England. Communist propaganda in the Manchurian capital, Chungking, and in other Communist-occupied areas, has been stepped up. Communist propaganda in the Manchurian capital, Chungking, and in other Communist-occupied areas, has been stepped up.

Meanwhile, a Communist propaganda paper has charged that General George Marshall is not doing his job for the United States in the Far East. The Communist propaganda paper, the "New China," said that Marshall is "not doing his job for the United States in the Far East."

Justice Jackson Ends Speculation On Future Plans

WASHINGTON, Aug. 15 (AP)—Supreme Court Justice Robert H. Jackson has ended speculation about his future plans today. He said he expected to return to his home in Oxford, Ohio, next week on Oct. 1.

"There had widespread speculation and rumors about Justice Jackson would resume his seat on the bench in view of the controversies with the majority," said Justice Hugo Black today. "Justice Jackson plans to return to his home in Oxford, Ohio, next week on Oct. 1."

Negro Veteran Is Hospitalized After Being Shot By Wife

A bullet in his right leg, William Lee Martin, a veteran of 1914 Bay Avenue, was rushed to Fernald Langston Memorial Hospital where he is given emergency treatment by Dr. Orville Barka and his assistant, Deputy Sheriff Jack Holt. Martin's wife, Florence, was placed in the County Jail, pending charges in connection with the shooting of Martin. According to police report, the shooting occurred about 8:00 o'clock last evening. Martin's mother was said to have been a witness to the shooting which was done with a pistol belonging to Willie Lee Mike, father of the arrested woman, and at whose home on Willow Avenue she was arrested.

Dr. Barka reported today that the condition of Martin was satisfactory.

Model Aircraft Club Plans Reorganization

A reorganization meeting of the Sanford Model Aircraft Club will be held tomorrow evening at 8:00 o'clock at the Community House according to an announcement today by J. E. Alexander, a former member of the club.

Mr. Alexander said that all former members are urged to attend and also those persons interested in the construction and operation of model planes, boats and racing cars.

New Price Decontrol Board Opens Hearings

WASHINGTON TO DETERMINE whether price controls should remain off dairy products and soy bean products after Aug. 20 are shown getting underway today before the new Price Decontrol Board made up of 11 members. The board will hear testimony from interested parties and will make recommendations to the War Relocation Authority and the War Relocation Administration.

Pvt. Nick Kenis Serving In Japan

WITH THE EIGHTH ARMY IN JAPAN, Private Nick Kenis, 29 year old paratrooper, from Sanford, Fla., expects to spend the remainder of his time overseas with his present unit, the 124th Airborne Division, now stationed at Morotani, Japan.

Pvt. Kenis has a choice of a great many recreational activities here in the 124th Airborne Airfield Battalion and during his back racing, fishing trips and all kinds of sports. The unit school of the 124th Battalion has a well chosen list of sports that may be taken by any man in the battalion.

County School Heads To Attend Conference

GAINESVILLE, Aug. 15 (Special)—County school superintendents from all parts of Florida are expected here next Monday for a three-day conference, and study course sponsored by the University of Florida College of Education and the State Department of Education.

Sixteen county superintendents will take part in the program of the conference which will be supervised by some of the state's most prominent educational leaders.

Britain Told To Go Ahead With Action Deemed Necessary Under Conditions

JEERUSALEM, Aug. 15 (AP)—Terrorists have threatened for the second time in the past 24 hours to blow up the General Consulate of Palestine. Today's threat came through a telephone call. The building was emptied and communications were disrupted throughout Palestine for more than an hour while a search was made. No bombs were found.

LONDON, Aug. 15 (AP)—An authoritative British spokesman today announced that President Truman has rejected the British-American committee plan for federating Palestine. He added that, as a result, Britain now feels she will have to look for a new solution of the Palestine problem.

At the same time, Secretary of State James F. Byrnes today said that the United States will not support a plan for federating Palestine. He said that the United States will not support a plan for federating Palestine.

BIBLE VERSE FOR TODAY

THE LEAVEN OF THIS SAY-ING HAS BEEN WORKING A LONG TIME TO GIVE WOMAN
A DIGNIFIED STATUS, AND MORE TIME IS NEEDED TO ELIMINATE UNTOUCHABLES
FROM ALL LANDS. There can be neither Jew nor Greek, there can be neither bond nor free, there can be no male and female, for ye are all one in Christ Jesus.—Gal. 3:28.

The population of the United States is now estimated by the Census Bureau at 141 million, and is still growing vigorously.

The Orlando Sentinel wonders who will succeed Marshal Stalin when he dies. Senator Pepper of our man.

Republicans decided at a weekend conference that Truman will be "easy to beat." They were terrified when somebody suggested the democrats might dig up another candidate.—Fort Myers News Press. We doubt if there would be much terror if they dug up Henry Wallace.

Infantile paralysis is reported by State Health authorities to be on the downgrade in Florida. The prompt action taken by cities, health officials and the public alike in improving sanitary conditions, eradicating flies and other insects and the generous use of such effective sprays as DDT particularly around garbage cans and city dumps is credited in large measure with being responsible for the improved situation.

Henry Balch, editorial director of the Orlando newspapers, tells Clermont Kiwanians that the United States will have no war with Russia in this generation.
Balch speaks not without authority on the subject after a long period of service in the European theater, though Senator Pepper says we are heading straight for war. But we doubt if the Russians want a war any more than we do and even Joe Stalin and his little clique will stop in their arbitrariness somewhere short of a fight.

Senator Pepper seems to be convinced that Harry Truman will be renominated for the presidency in 1948, but the Florida senator himself infinitely prefers Henry Wallace, the CIO candidate for vice president in 1944. Furthermore, Pepper insists he will not support anyone who is not a Liberal for vice president. The most logical Liberal for the vice presidency, it seems to us, would be Senator Pepper himself, though it is not often that the Democratic party has found it necessary to go below the Mason-Dixon line for a vote catcher.

The United States Navy turns over to the City of Sanford today on a revocable permit the Sanford Naval Air Station. And thus comes to a conclusion an important chapter in Sanford's history and its major contribution to the war effort. Several thousand of America's finest young men were trained out there to fly, first, Ventura bombers and, then, Grumman fighter planes which wreaked such havoc on the Japanese in the carrier warfare.
And several hundred Sanford citizens who worked out there during the war made an equally noteworthy, though perhaps not so heroic, contribution to the winning of the war.

Race riots in Athens, Ala. and other sections of the country are a bad sign on the national horizon which brooks no good for either blacks or whites. There is no one who profits from mob violence or racial disorders. Since most clashes of this kind are not premeditated, but develop from relatively minor friction between different groups or comparatively trivial incidences between individuals of opposite color, it behooves everyone, black and white alike, to try to avoid stepping on each other's toes, even if it means increased segregation, or being particularly polite in apologizing when someone's toes are stepped on, even if the apology must be directed to a black man.

Your Nickel's Worth

The majority of a newspaper's readers accept it casually on its face value—a medium for conveying information, opinion and entertainment and always useful for lining garbage cans. They are rarely critical; if they perceive its excellence, or its shortcomings, they are moved neither to joy nor to wrath, for, by and large, any newspaper is worth considerably more than the nickel it costs.

But there are some readers who believe, correctly that the nickel they pay for a newspaper gives them a proprietary interest in it. These are the readers who give the editor his scattered moments of pleasure, and who also hasten the development of his ulcers. These are the authors of the letters that appear in the mail bag; sometimes they aim past the editor in an effort to influence the public, but more often they direct their praise, their criticism, or their observation on human behavior at the newspaper itself. And, curiously enough, there develops between an editor and these readers he has never seen a relationship that is as warm, and as honest, as it is impersonal.

Some of our voluntary editorial correspondents take pen in hand only rarely, when they are deeply moved by something we have written, or haven't written. Others are regulars, and their letters provide a fascinating and invaluable running commentary on our life and times.

Stolen Children

In war, the most innocent victims of all are the children, who are powerless to protect themselves and too young to understand what is happening. The Nazi business of stealing children according to carefully calculated plan comes out in a story from Berlin by Marjorie Avery in the Pittsburgh Post-Gazette.

The Germans took children in countries they occupied, to weaken those countries, and to strengthen the population of Germany. These children were given mental and physical tests. Those who qualified were given to loyal Nazis or put in children's homes, and those who were considered of less future value were put in labor camps, used for medical experiments or killed. Today posters in Berlin convey the anguish of Dutch parents still hoping to find their small sons and daughters.

Tracing missing children is one of UNRRA's responsibilities in Europe, and a difficult, discouraging task it is.
Some of those children are no longer alive, and of those who are, many may never be found to be returned to their families.

Americans from coast to coast are deeply disturbed at a story about one kidnaped child. To the Nazis, traffic in children was an approved program.

Etiquette For Hunters

If you want to always have the pleasant company of a good shooting companion, the pleasure of shooting over his dogs and the knowledge of his favorite quail, grouse or pheasant covers, the sincere observance of a few simple rules of field etiquette will turn the trick.
Here are some of them:

Don't try to handle your companion's dog and never criticize the dog's faults. Praise his good points; give the dog a chance to retrieve your bird. Look for it yourself only as a court of last resort.

Find out which side your companion prefers to shoot from and take the other side; never shoot at birds flying your companion's way; don't claim birds you are not absolutely sure you killed; give your companion all the breaks.

Never hunt in your friend's favorite spot which he has shown you, unless he is along or you have his consent; alternate on single shots; above all never take a chance. Observe all the rules of safety.—Baker County Press.

Four Women Given
Rare Hands During Recent Card Game

DUNEDIN, New Zealand—Four women members of the Dunedin Bridge Club received the shock of their lives when they were each dealt a complete suit.

The deal occurred in the third hand of a rubber. The pack used was the same one used in the first deal when the players threw in their hands. The women are convinced the freak hands were the result of chance.

The dealer called seven knades,
the others gasped and passed.
A club member said mathematicians have estimated that if the cards are shuffled correctly, such a deal should occur only once in a million players played 25 deals a day every day for 250 quadril-lion years.

Black Marketeers
In Britain Using
Gangland Methods

HONG KONG This British colonial government admitting its whole price control organization has been undermined, has declared war on a huge black market ring which has been using gangster tactics in getting hold of imports of vital commodities.

Warning that it intends taking action against those who permit the stocks to reach black market sources, the government said it may take over the entire distribution of essential commodities.

The black marketeers employ spies to watch withdrawals from bond. The gang leads then visit the importers or wholesalers and demand supplies—sometimes the entire shipment for which they pay cash.

Often threatened, the importers or wholesalers prefer not to report the incidents.
The gangsters distribute goods to street hawkers who add a small percentage of profit. The government feels it is useless to deal with the hawkers on a big scale, because for each hawkler arrested,

another two take his place.

Seminole High Gridders To Report August 29

Kettles Announces Fred Ganas To Be New Grid Assistant

Coach "Gene" Kettles of Seminole High School Celery Field announced this morning that Fred Ganas, local grid star during the 1936, '37, and '38 seasons at Seminole, has been named assistant football coach after playing football at the local high school, and attending the University of State Teachers College in Murray, Ky., where he played end on the college eleven.

SPORTS LAUGH

Five or 6 years ago, the football team of St. Johns Military Academy in W. was preparing on the practice field. A young 110 pounder was late for the first day's work, and the sprinted through the gate, the clubhouse and was given a uniform. He ran out onto the field and, minutes later, he dashed back with a checky grin and told the trainer "I quit. Look at those guys out there. They're taller than I am. I don't want to get killed."

Moss And Haynes And Williams Win Softball Contests

The curtain came down on the City Softball League last night when the Sanford Herald was defeated by the Moss Amusement Company in a steadily played game at the Lakeland Park by a score of 13 to 0. The Mossmen took a home run pitcher, Herb Moss, who pitched and collected 11 runs in the first three innings. The Herald took over the game in the fourth, but Moss' aggregation held for 11 runs to their already mammoth score.

Believe It Or Not, A Bird Of A Story

CONCORD, N. H., Aug. 15, (AP)—A featherman had a bird of a fishing story today. He is George A. Anderson of Providence, R. I., who cast 53mg netting a presumpuous Pleasant Lake instead of a fish. Anderson cast a large brown owl on the line. According to director Ralph Carpenter, II, of the fish and game department, the owl swooped out of a tree and snatched the plug from the water. The owl dropped the plug after eating a short worm.

Jews In Holy Land Plan To Strike Sunday

Action To Be Taken In Protest Of Deportation Of Immigrants To Cyprus

WASHINGTON, Aug. 16, (AP)—President Truman has announced that he may ask Congress to pass special legislation permitting the entry of European refugees—including Jews—into the United States.

JERUSALEM, Aug. 16, (AP)—Sunday will be a big day in the Holy Land—not just from a religious standpoint—but because on Sunday the National Jewish Council has called for the start of a non-co-operation program.

This action will amount to a strike in protest against the deportation of Jews from Palestine to the island of Cyprus. Britain has decided to hold firm in its policy to stop illegal immigration of Jews from Europe into Palestine. Consequently, British military forces throughout the Holy Land are doubly on the alert. They not only have the task of enforcing the immigration blockade but also they are faced with the threat of a general Jewish uprising in Palestine.

Word has been received from the Jewish city of Tel Aviv that approximately 200 illegal Jewish immigrants landed in that area during the night and disappeared before they could be apprehended. In Jerusalem, young Jewish men have been sentenced to death for a bombing raid several weeks ago on the Haifa railway station. Four young Jewish women received life sentences on the same charges.

When the sentences were pronounced the defendants were proclaimed hymns of nationalism. Palestine today appears to be waiting for the major developments expected Sunday when Jews are expected to begin a non-co-operation strike. Whether it will be violent, or in the form of Gandhi's non-resistance idea, remains to be seen.

15 Persons Killed As Result Of Riot Today In Calcutta

CALCUTTA, Aug. 16, (AP)—At least 15 persons were slain today and 250 injured in fighting between Moslems and Hindus in Calcutta. A British dispatch put the death toll at 25, but not confirmed.

The riots broke out during a Moslem League demonstration against the British plan for Indian independence. The league—the second largest political party in India—called a nationwide strike for today. Shops and markets closed and business and industry halted. Some houses and cars which tried to operate, were stopped by Moslems.

The casualties resulted from fighting in various parts of the city despite the efforts of leaders of the Congress party, the Moslem League, and the Communist party to maintain order.

Nationalist Troops Fight Off Red Attacks

BEIJING, Aug. 16, (AP)—Chinese Nationalist troops say they have fought off nine large-scale Communist attacks against one of the few government outposts in the entire defense of Tientsin. According to Chinese dispatches, the Communists threw their full strength into the assault, moving 20,000 troops from southwest of the besieged town to reinforce the attack. Social Welfare says 100,000 Communist troops have pushed westward to within ten miles of the capital of Honan province after capturing the town of Lanfeng.

FINAL BITES

LONDON, Aug. 16, (AP)—Final rites were held today for the noted British author and historian, H. G. Wells, who died last Thursday in London. In a brief eulogy, novelist J. B. Priestley described Wells as a man whose work was light in a thousand dark places. Only a few relatives and friends attended the service. Wells' body was cremated.

Reds In Reich Seek To Set Up Socialist State

McNarney Says Communists Want To Destroy Capitalism

BERLIN, Aug. 16, (AP)—The commander of American occupational forces in Germany has summed up his views of what the German Communists hope to make of the beaten Reich. The American commander, General Joseph McNarney, said today that the German Communist party seeks to destroy the capitalist system and to set up a socialist state with a classless society.

General McNarney made that statement in an official report on conditions in Germany. He said the Socialist Unity party set up by the Russians in the Soviet zone is out for the same thing as the German communists. McNarney described the program of the German Communists as falling into two sections—a so-called minimum program to be attained as soon as possible and a long-range maximum program of ultimate objectives. Immediate aims of the Communists, he said, are to win political power in post-war Germany by setting up a so-called anti-fascist parliamentary democratic republic. Also included in the immediate program are far-reaching land reforms in keeping with the Marxist point of view. This goal, McNarney added, means social and economic revolution aimed at destroying the economic basis of the capitalist system, and its replacement later on by a planned economy. He declared that in the long run, the German communists might resort to revolutionary means to attain their objectives.

President Prepares For Vacation Cruise

WASHINGTON, Aug. 16, (AP)—President Truman has cleared his desk of the work left by the 79th Congress in preparation for his departure for an 18-day vacation aboard the yacht Williamsburg. The cruise in New England waters will be the first official vacation for Mr. Truman since he entered the White House. The last of the legislative business was cleared up when the president refused to sign a bill which would have abolished the Parker Wild Life refuge in Massachusetts. His failure to sign automatically killed the measure through what is known as a pocket veto.

A series of emphatic arguments in a suit seeking to wipe out the county system and invalidate results on recent Georgia primary elections.

U.S. Moves To Fight Against Higher Prices

Justice Department Investigating Artificial Meat Shortage, Price Fixing

WASHINGTON, Aug. 16, (AP)—The Justice Department today moved into the fight against higher prices. An investigation is being made of price fixing and artificial meat shortages with an eye to anti-trust prosecution, if necessary.

A Justice Department official working on the study disclosed that since OPA meat controls were taken off by Congress, the department has received many complaints of various illegal trade practices. A good many of them have come from within the industry, which shows that meat handlers frown on the illicit operations and wish to have no part of them.

Besides the meat study, the department is looking into a large number of complaints of price fixing agreements on other items no longer controlled by the OPA. The Justice Department official declined to name these industries, but the items specifically exempted from price control along with meat are dairy products, fuel, soybeans and cottonseed. The final say on clamping ceilings down on these products now is up to the three-man de-control board, which concluded four days of hearing, yesterday.

The Justice Department is investigating complaints that retailers are forced into making purchases which means they are forced to buy articles they do not want from wholesalers, in order to get fresh meat. Some meat wholesalers are said to be moving into the retail business. The anti-trust division must ascertain to what extent this threatens the survival of the corner butcher.

The Justice Department is investigating complaints that hides are being withheld from the leather market in an attempt to force OPA either to increase ceilings or drop them altogether. The Civilian Production Administration has been pursuing this angle for some time in an effort to avert a threatened collapse of sheep production.

St. Johns River Line Officials To Inspect Warehouse

Officials of the St. Johns River Line are expected soon in Sanford to make a survey of the local warehouse on Lake Monroe with a view to making repairs to the structure which appears to be in very bad shape with many of the supporting timbers nearly rotted away.

One portion of the building is rented by Tamiami Tours, Inc. which operates two trucks between Sanford, Tampa, Jacksonville and other points. The St. Johns River Line discontinued its river service several years ago. At one time passenger boats docked at the wharf and plied between here and Jacksonville.

Senator Connally Leaves For France

Vital Materials Continue Moving On Great Lakes

Press-Wireless-Propose 3-Man Board To Probe Walkout

WASHINGTON, Aug. 16, (AP)—The CIO's bitter veto Workers Union will re-open its wage agreement with Chrysler Corporation. The union also plans to act where contracts with other companies permit re-opening to wage claims.

CHICAGO, Aug. 16, (AP)—The shipment of vital industrial materials still continues on the Great Lakes today but it is too early to tell whether traffic will be halted by the strike of CIO maritime workers. A strike on the second day of a union spokesman said that most of the 400 American-Flag cargo vessels were idle.

During the night CIO strikers and A. F. of L. seamen met in a fist fight at a port-line in Detroit. However, the CIO claimed A. F. of L. support in some lake cities, especially Milwaukee. N.M.I. strike headquarters has been set up in Detroit where Union President Joseph Curran arrived today.

In another strike, at Press-Wireless in New York, the company has submitted a compromise arbitration plan to federal conciliators who have been trying to settle the dispute with the U. S. American Communications Association.

Press-Wireless proposed that the "American" plant be set up to decide whether the union had violated its contract calling the strike. Representatives of 10 discharged employees will hinge on the decision of the panel. After this matter was disposed of, arbitration would proceed on proposed wage reduction. The union has not yet made any comment on the proposal.

Meanwhile, a strike threatened on the Southern Railway Railroad system. Eight thousand members of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen are expected to walk out at some time Wednesday. However, the National Mediation Board has stepped into the dispute, and a strike conditions, and the action program, a hope that Railway Mediation Act procedure would be invoked. If it is, the strike will be delayed at least 60 days.

Throngs Cheer As American Vessels Steam Into Lisbon

LISBON, Portugal, Aug. 16, (AP)—Eight American vessels steamed into Lisbon harbor today. The warships were en route to Portugal's capital by throngs of cheering citizens who lined up along the banks of the Tagus River. One of the agitators was killed King Umberto of Italy. The fleet commander, Admiral H. K. Hewitt, waved to the monarch while coming ashore from the cruiser Houston. Admiral Hewitt will make a round of official calls on President Carnot, Premier Salazar, and Portuguese naval authorities.

The fleet included the giant aircraft carrier Franklin D. Roosevelt. It is taking a Mediterranean cruise which possibly may end with joint maneuvers with the British Navy.

The arrival of the American ships at Lisbon was viewed by the Portuguese press as a "step forward" toward strengthening Atlantic policy on which the future peace of the world now depends.

L. E. Tew Resigns As Legion Official

Due to the resignation of L. E. Tew as vice commander of Campbell-Lanning Post No. 53 of the American Legion, the Post will elect a new vice-commander at the business meeting at 8:00 o'clock Monday evening at the Legion Hut. Mr. Tew resigned due to the fact that his business will keep him out of Sanford much of the time. One of the duties of the vice-commander is to act as chairman of the membership committee.

Mayor Takes First Air Trip Over City

After receiving the key to the Sanford Naval Air Station yesterday, Mayor H. J. Gut got his first ride in a plane when he was taken up by Harry K. Robinson in a biplane. Mayor Gut afterward commented Mayor Gut afterward "I got a better picture of Sanford in a few minutes than during 20 years on the ground." City Manager H. N. Sayer also was taken for an air trip. Mr. Robinson and H. J. Browning manage the Sanford School of Aviation.

Whenever a community has need for enthusiastic, vigorous young men of action, the "Junior Chamber of Commerce" is the place to look. The Junior Chamber of Commerce, he added, is open to all young men 21 through 35 years of age. It wants all young men of good character from every walk of life who desire to improve the communities in which they live and who would like the leadership training that only the Jaycees can offer.

INVESTIGATION HALTED

TOKYO, Aug. 16, (AP)—The Japanese government today dissolved the Japanese committee for investigating causes of the Pacific war. There was no explanation. Earlier, the Russian member of the Allied council for Japan had recommended that General MacArthur get rid of the committee. The British member said he doubted the wisdom of approving the group. However, the US member said he saw no ground for objection.

Turkey Is Preparing Reply To Red Demand

ANKARA, Aug. 16, (AP)—Diplomats in Turkey have learned that an answer to Russia's demands is being prepared. The government of Turkey is said to be certain to force the Soviet demand for an equal share in the control of the Dardanelles. Such a demand would give Russia military bases at the very heart of Istanbul. Turkish sources said that before the reply is sent to Moscow, the Turkish Foreign Office will consult with the United States and Great Britain. Ambassadors Edwin Wilson of the United States, Sir David Kelly of Britain and Gen. Maurice of France called at the Turkish Foreign Office today, but made no comment on their discussions.
