WIRTS RED' SCARE SAID BASED ON JOKE

Berle, Telling Inside Story Of 'Terrible Scandal' Says 'Boys' Kidded' Doctor

PRINCETON, Apr. 9.—(AP)—Adolph Berle, Jr., New York City chamberlain, in an interview published in today's issue of the Daily Princetonian said that charges of a Red plot to overthrow the government were the result of a joke played on Dr. William Wirt.

"By some of the boys."

The boys were unidentified in the Princetonian. Undergraduate classes had otherwise Berle said what he described as the inside story of "the terrible scandal."

When questioned about the alleged plot of the "Brain trust," recently unshrouded by Dr. Wirt, Mr. Berle broke into a broad grin, the Princetonian said, "We just heard the inside story on that terrible scandal. The good doctor was at a party with some of the boys who are connected with things down at Washington. Wirt started asking questions about the Roosevelt revolution. He was hearing so much about them they were all in pretty good spirits and they released holding the credulous old buffer. Thinking that Roosevelt was a Negro they said he was just waiting for the right time to start his revolution. After two years, there would be a Stalin who would take over the government."

Further questioning, Berle said made the boys decide to take Wirt for a "Good, long ride," when unfolded the details.

Carron's Attorney Makes 1st Motion Offered At Trial

WASHINGTON, Apr. 9.—(AP)—A defense motion that the government be required to submit a bill of particulars was overruled today in District Court at Columbus.

Judge James Cannon, Jr., and Miss Ada Burroughs went on trial for conspiracy to violate the federal corrupt practices act in the 1928 Presidential campaign.

Albert McNeill, the Southern Methodist churchman's chief counsel, insisted that the government be required at least to set forth "when, where, and by what means" Adams Burroughs conspired with Cannon to fail to report a contribution of Edwin Johnson.

Cannon and Miss Burroughs are charged with failure to report $48,000 of a $65,000 contribution made by Jameson, president of a New York insurance company in the anti-Smith campaign.

Judge Peter Gordon held the defendant "dead" when it sufficiently advised the defendant of the acts or a charge so that he may go to trial.

Star Mail Route Will Be Resumed Shortly

WASHINGTON, Apr. 9.—(AP)—The Post Office Department said Saturday the star air mail route from Daytona Beach through Orlando, Tampa and St. Petersburg would be restored as soon as air mail service from Jacksonville to Miami was resumed.

The new route, running air mail via automobile between these points, was established when the route was taken off the line by reorganization of the air mail routes.

Under present plans, the Department, said, the automobile service or mail connecting with the stars at Daytona Beach should be resumed within 20 days after April 20, the date bids for permanent contract on the New York to Miami line will be opened.

General Onslaught Of Court Action Faces All Violators Under Frank Late Ruling

WASHINGTON, Apr. 9.—(AP)—A general onslaught of court action against NRA code "chiselers" was ordered yesterday by Hugh S. Johnson.

"The time has come," said NRA's administrator in letters to all code authorities and field representatives, "when uncertainty as to enforcement by legal proceedings must end.

"We must not proceed on the basis that one who is violating the code and who is not ready and anxious to convey and make restitution when informed of his non-compliance, must be brought swiftly and surely before the enforcement agencies of government."

To suit action to the word, John said:

Ten days hence, state compliance directors will begin handling all clearcut violation cases directly to their federal district attorneys, instead of first asking advice in

Blind Veterans To Get More Cash Than Those Losing Legs

WASHINGTON, Apr. 9.—(AP)—The Veteran's Administration today laid down the rule that blind veterans of the World War are entitled to nearly twice as much as for the soldier who lost a leg in action.

In answer to a written question, it said that a blind veteran restored to the rolls by the new veterans' legislation is entitled to $150 per month plus $50 for a nurse or attendant even though his blindness resulted from "willful misconduct."

A World War veteran with "Disarticulation of the leg as a result of combat with the enemy can receive a maximum of $119 per month," the Bureau said.

Auto Labor Board Called Into Action To Settle Strikes

(Continued from Page One) led their efforts to settle a strike in the Nash Motors Company plants in Kenosha and Racine, and in the affiliated Seaman Body Company, in Milwaukee. That strike was believed settled late last week, but these hopes were blasted Saturday by an adverse vote on the terms by representative employees.

Matthew J. Smith, general secretary of the Mechanics Educational Society of America, an organization of tool and die makers, announced that he would meet Wednesday with representatives of 60 Detroit job manufacturers in an effort to avert a strike that has been voted to start Thursday.

The tool and die makers, who are not affiliated with the American Federation of Labor, voted Saturday to strike at midnight Thursday if no agreement is reached on demands for a 20 percent wage increase. About the only cheer for the labor board in this situation lay in the fact that the threatened strike, first scheduled for Monday, had been deferred until Thursday, giving three more days for mediation efforts.

J. Oliver Black, president of the Peninsular Metal Products Corporation, Detroit, announced that wage increases averaging about 25 percent had been granted 600 employees.

The labor board had before it a list of 4600 union employees of the Fisher Body Corporation plant in Cleveland, presented Saturday by Louis F. Spiek and Ralph Rocco as a basis for collective bargaining. Rocco said the union membership constituted 64 percent of the plant force, and that "our problem is one of obtaining proper representation in bargaining."

The board also had in its files a list of 8000 union members in the Hudson Motor Car Company plant, Detroit, submitted by Arthur E. Greer, president of the Hudson local, also as a basis for collective bargaining.

Production in the Hudson plant will be resumed Monday, officials said, explaining that an inter-

ATTORNEY FOR CANNON DENIES FRAUD CHARGE

McNeill Says All Of Unreported Anti-Smith Contribution
Was Spent By Group

WASHINGTON, Apr. 10.—(AP)— Robert McNeill, attorney for Bishop James Cannon, Jr., told a criminal court jury today that "Every dollar" of the unreported part of the 1928 Presidential campaign contribution to the churchman "was spent under the management" of the Virginia State anti-Smith Committee.

He told the jury that the question before it was not whether the money was "misused," which government counsel yesterday said would be shown, but "The only thing you have to consider is was there conspiracy to hide it."

Bishop Cannon and Miss Ada Burroughs, who was treasurer of the Virginia Committee, are on trial charged with a failure to report the entire contribution of $66,500, made by Edwin Jameson, New York insurance executive, to the anti-Smith campaign fund.

A government attorney told a criminal court jury yesterday he would prove Bishop Cannon, conspired to conceal part of the 1928 campaign contribution because the money was "converted and appropriated by the defendant Cannon for his own personal use."

This opening statement of the prosecution, made by John J. Wilson, assistant United States district attorney, came as the churchman and Miss Burroughs, went on trial before a jury of one woman and 11 men.

The trial began in an atmosphere of the mingled elements of religion and politics. The objective of the committee which Bishop Cannon headed was described as defeat of the 1928 presidential nominee, Alfred E. Smith, member of the Roman Catholic Church.

The jurymen, as they were chosen, declared there existed neither religious nor political prejudice to bias their ultimate verdict.

President Opposes Frazier-Lemke Act On Farm Mortgages

WASHINGTON, Apr. 10.—(AP)— Speaker Rainey told newspapermen today that he was authorized by President Roosevelt to say that the Executive would not approve the Frazier-Lemke bill for refinancing farm mortgages. Signatures were being obtained to force the bill out of committee.

Rainey said he received authorization last night from the White House to make the President's position clear.

The bill contemplates government issuance of securities for refinancing farm mortgages at one and one-half percent on principal, and one and one-half percent on interest.

The petition has 180 of necessary 148 signatures to force House consideration, but leaders hope to head off the movement.

State Citrus Control Body Petitions Wallace To Take Action Against 'Chiselers'

ORLANDO, Apr. 10.— War was declared on "chiselers" at yesterday's session of the Florida Citrus Control Committee.

In a lengthy session at the San Juan lounge room—which was well attended by an audience of shippers and growers—the Florida citrus czars found themselves right in the middle of a high-powered debate on a lot of citrus problems, including the problem of how to cope with violators of the citrus marketing agreement, who were blamed for bringing about recent declines in prices at the auction markets.

C. C. Commander, general manager of the Florida Citrus Exchange, and a member of the committee in the exchange group, first hurled the charges against the "chiselers."

He called for immediate action by the AAA to prevent all future violations and "to vigorously prosecute the suspected violations heretofore reported by this committee."

The committee is without power to enforce the marketing agreement. Enforcement must come through Secretary Henry Wallace's office at Washington.

A resolution calling for immediate action was passed.

City Fathers Almost Made A Poor Swap

Among the several amusing incidents which arose during a meeting of the City Commission last night, the reading of the following letters which explain themselves, produced the greatest laughter:

"Dear Sirs: Some months ago one of your park men was at my place (in Tampa) and wanted to exchange me a fawn for a mule. After I told him I was not in the notion to swap, you can come get the otter and bring me the fawn. Let me know at once if you want the otter."

Mr. Starkey said that his letter had proved through parishes made from New York commission houses that the sale price frequently is misrepresented to the farmers.

W. H. Martin, potato authority of the New Jersey Experimental Station and secretary of the Potato Growers of America, insisted a protest against any cutback of acreage. He said that any surplus could be checked by allowing only first grade potato on the market.

Wilbur K. Muffett, head of the Allied Dairy Farmers Association, announced that a mass meeting of Eastern farmers would be called here within two weeks to protest against Secretary Wallace's milk control plan.

They will ride back to Washington with the President and map out any new steps necessary for the national recovery campaign.

Despite 'All That Money,' Young Wife Of Reynolds Plans For Six Children

BALTIMORE, Apr. 10.— "The rich get richer, and the poor get children."

But Elizabeth Dillard Reynolds, 25, wife of Dick Reynolds, who has just inherited $25,000,000 of the Reynolds tobacco fortune, plans to get richer both ways.

In fact she said yesterday she intends to have six children.

The Reynolds came here from Winston-Salem, N. C., to effect the transfer of the 25 millions from a trust fund to their own coffee. By his father's will the money was kept in trust for Dick until his 28th birthday last week.

Aside from the freedom money gives in planning to raise a family, she is afraid of wealth. Mrs. Reynolds, bride of a year, declared she said:

"Money—too much money—can become a Frankenstein."

She waved a sheaf of letters remarking:

"See these? They are all appeals for money—and all from perfect strangers. Every man brings more. I worry so much about the financial plight of others, I can't buy even the simplest dress without misgivings."

"Some girls telling me how lucky I was to be marrying money. They said they couldn't marry the man they loved for lack of it. But we can't give money away indiscriminately in efforts to relieve suffering. It must be put to directed good."

"There's one compensating thought—we can have all the children we want. We're both crazy about them, and we're going to have as least six."

STRIKE AT AUTO PLANT IS SETTLED BY TREASURY

Men Agree To Return To Work Today At 10 Percent Boost In Their Salaries

DETROIT, Apr. 10—(AP)—

American Federation of Labor members at the plant of the Motor Products Company last night announced settlement of labor trouble, agreeing to return to work Tuesday at a 10 percent increase in wages. The strike, involving 1600 employees, was considered the key to the main dispute in the motor labor field.

The announcement was made by William Collins, American Federation of Labor leader. The agreement was reported ratified at a meeting of 500 strikers.

Collins said that in addition to the wage increase, the settlement provided for protection of workers through the recognition of seniority rights and for arbitration of disputes arising from the piece rate payment.

"The difficulty arose out of the failure of the company to pay some employees the wage agreed upon by the plant managers, the replacement of men by lower paid women on some operations and because of the low wage structure of the plant," Collins said.

"The union insisted that these conditions be changed before work was resumed and presented to the management through the automobile labor board the demands covering all three points."

After long negotiations the committee compromised on a wage increase of 10 percent in order to have earnings more than the piece rate prevailing in the city.

Bankruptcy Held As Resort City's Only Relief From Debts

ATLANTA, Apr. 10—(AP)— City Commissioner Louis Kuchline, Director of Parks and Public Property, advocated yesterday municipal bankruptcy as the only relief for Atlanta City's financial ills.

His suggestion that the city default on its obligations, totaling about $10,000,000, came after a series of conferences between local committees, city officials and groups representing holders of Atlanta City bonds.

Efforts to effect a compromise refunding agreement were reported today to have failed. Henry Bruce, president of the Bowery Savings Bank of New York, is chairman of the bondholders' committee.

"The negotiations can blow up if the bondholders wish," Kuchline said. "It's their funeral." The city cannot collect enough money for running expenses, so what are they going to do about it?"

About $8,750,000 is owed to the city by taxpayers, according to records at the office of the city controller.

DETROIT, Apr. 10—(AP)—

Interest on issue of April 15 to end that date, Morgenthau warns all holders

The burden of debt carried by the taxpayers of this city will be lightened in the sum of $1,000,000. City Clerk F. S. Larson told the City Commissioners last night, with the arrival here, probably late this week, of a single receipt for a portion of this sum.

WIRT TELLS HIS STORY OF REVOLT PLOT

Educator Names Brain Trustees As Those Who Let Him In'On Planned 'Rebellion'

WASHINGTON, Apr. 10—(AP)—

Naming "Brain trustees" and their satellites" as his informants, Dr. William Wirt indicated today that he traces back to Rexford G. Tugwell, Assistant Secretary of Agriculture, his conviction that a plot exists to "Overthrow the social order."

For two sensation-studded hours, he recounted his fears to House investigating committee while a massed crowd followed his words.

The story started with an account of a dinner attended by him, two men, and three women who are associated with the Administration, and a representative here of the Soviet news agency Tass.

The latter was quoted as saying that President Roosevelt was "in midstream," and could not turn back without "Revolution."

It ended with the Indiana educator unable to complete his testimony today, suggesting that the Committees summoned Lewis Douglas, Director of the budget, and W. L. Westervelt, Chicago business man formerly with the farm administration.

They, Wirt asserted, could throw more light on the alleged plotting to bring communism.

Those cited as present at the September dinner were Robert Bruce, Chairman of the Textile Code Advisory Committee, David Coyle, Public Works administrator, Hildegard Kneeland and Mary Taylor, Department of Agriculture economists, Alice Barnes of the Department of the Interior Education Bureau, and Lawrence Todd, representative of Tass. The dinner was at the Barnes home in Virginia near here.

For most in the counter attack upon the anti-bonus majority was the Rev. W. J. Jardine de Forest, chaplain of the American Legion.

Infant Johnson Buried In Lakeview Cemetery

FUNERAL SERVICES FOR JOHN J. JOHNSON JR., six weeks old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Johnson, 305 East 2nd Street, were held at the graveside in Lakeview Cemetery this afternoon. Rev. Wm. P. Brooks Jr. of the First Baptist Church officiated and the Erickson Funeral Home handled funerary arrangements.

The petition was filed by Josephine Crabb, mother of the missing, who said that he himself was unemployed. It alleged that his father retired from business in 1925 after Judge Carter had promised to support his parents, and stated that they are both in bad health and unable to support them selves.

Judge Carter disappeared in August, 1930, without any trace and has never been heard from since.
