

Good Guys Wear Black Hats

By CHARNER LEONE

It takes nine good men to make a team — and one policeman, in this case. The nine men are the Caselberry team, and the policeman is Chief Donald S. Brumley. Policewoman Cora Kanner rounds out the team. Her duties encompass those of receptionist, record keeper and police matron.

Caselberry's crime rate is low, a fact these keepers of the law take pride in. Presently the ratio of policemen to population for the community of 8,000 is one to 800. Recently they were budgeted for four more men, so at full strength there will be a total of 14 men on the force. Five years ago the staff numbered only two or three.

Chief Brumley has been on the job here since February. Prior to that he was associated with the Sanford Police Department for eight years.

A look at Brumley's men shows the average policeman in his early 30's (from 22 to 48 years old), married, and attending classes (or completed) at Seminole Junior College for an intensive course of studies in law enforcement.

These are the men who make an average of 200 or 300 calls a month in the line of duty. Although they have no quota, arrests are about the same as in surrounding communities. They make from 100 to 150 arrests a month (most in the winter months when night life in the area swangs).

They have several tests to administer before deciding to make an arrest. Administered under the able hands of Sergeant Harold Peck and Patrolman Gilbert Hughson, they can give the breathalyzer test to determine the amount of alcohol in the system, the lie detector test and identification tests such as fingerprinting.

They often administer these tests for other police departments in the area that do not have such facilities. Two or three cars are out at all times. "The bulk of the men are on the night shift — this is when the action is," said Chief Brumley.

These "men in blue" are looking forward to the day next fall when they will take possession of the new police building that is now under construction only a few hundred yards from the old facility.

The modern facility will house 20 calls instead of the present two and is designed specifically to enable this fine team to perform their vital chores at peak proficiency.

So wave when you see the "black hat team" of Caselberry. They're the "good guys."

THE FEELING OF COMRADIE is high on the force of 10. Here Patrolman Charles Hagsasmis, Sergeant Harold Peck and Patrolmen John Henry and Pete Tamburo prepare to answer one of the 200 or 300 calls that come in every month. Hal Granberry, another patrolman, wasn't present for the photo. (Photos by Charnier Leone)

A NEW CAR and new radio equipment is on order now to help Caselberry's police force perform their job even more proficiently. Patrolmen Gilbert Hughson and Jason Leman are familiar figures to the children in the area. They visit the schools to acquaint the children with the work of the department.

POLICEWOMAN CORA Kanner reaches for the phone that rings all day and night. Chief Don Brumley takes a look at the records that are so vital to the smooth functioning of the department.

Drivers Face A Dent In Their Pocketbooks

MIAMI (AP) — Florida's motorists face a deeper dent in their pocketbooks through recommended insurance rate hikes averaging 8.8 per cent.

Announcement of the rate hike recommendations Wednesday coincided with plans disclosed in Jacksonville for a stiff legislative investigation of Florida's insurance industry.

The rate guidelines proposed by the Insurance Rating Board varied according to geographical location, with policy holders in Miami, Tampa, Orlando and Pensacola in line for the severest being.

Miami automobile owners would pay an average of $40 more annually under the plan submitted to 86 Florida members of the board and 135 subscribers.

Rep. Jerome Pratt, D-Palm Beach, hounded by House Speaker Fred Schultz in Jacksonville to lay plans for the probe of Florida's insurance organizations.

First meetings were scheduled Aug. 21 in Jacksonville. "We are planning an in-depth study of proposed increases in automobile rates," said Pratt.

He said the legislative study would include a review of $40 more annually under the plan submitted to 86 Florida members of the board and 135 subscribers.

Under the controversial California Plan, insurance companies do not have to seek the commissioner's approval before boosting rates. However, he may send his agents to check company records to see if the hike was justified.

The board said the average claim paid for bodily injury went from $801 to $1,171 between 1966 and 1968 and property damage averages rose 17 per cent to $220 per accident.

During that span, accidents increased 8.8 per cent, injuries went up 10.4 per cent and traffic deaths skyrocketed by 15.4 per cent.

Florida has 3.7 million licensed drivers, an increase of 5.3 per cent for the two years.

Members of the brotherhood said they first agreed to the demand, but after taking the case to the state attorney, they backed off. Austin later filed, but retracted information against the three militants.

'Government-In-Sunshine' Law Sheds Light

Editorial Comment

We of the Fourth Estate are going about our task of learning the news and reporting it to our readers with even more confidence today than we did yesterday.

For the re-affirmation of the Florida Supreme Court of the basic justice of the "Sunshine Law" has further clarified, even to those who would rather not know, the rights of the people to know what takes place when governmental bodies meet.

In simple terms this ruling which was made July 2 by the supreme court said to the elected officials in Florida who were put in office by the people and who are spending the people's money to let the people know what is going on. No more suspicion of "hanky-panky."

Specifically the court stated: "Regardless of their good intentions, these specified boards and commissions through devious ways, should not be allowed to deprive the public of this inalienable right to be present and to be heard at all deliberations wherein decision affecting the general public are being made."

Now the court in denying a petition for a re-hearing put its finger on the one point which seems to produce controversy when meetings of such commissions are held. This was made when the initial decision extended the law to cover even those meetings which do not arrive at decisions but involve only discussions.

We are making this comment at this time as the mis-understanding of this gravely important broadening of the existing "government-in-sunshine-law" has resulted in local confrontations between officials and reporters which need never have taken place.

Put into perspective this support of the reporters' function does give substance to the journalists' responsibilities but also makes the covering of governmental bodies a duty even beyond that which every responsible reporter assumes when he goes out on assignment.

We do not mean to encourage any feeling that this field of journalism — governmental affairs — is paramount. Indeed, it is not. But there are seasons when it must be followed closely and reported in depth.

These are when elections are at hand, budgets are to be approved or major municipal decisions are to be made which would affect the future of an area.

Elections in Sanford will come up in the fall. Budgets are at hand now. And the very puzzling decisions which have to do with the future of our Sanford Airport must be understood by the public to deserve the public support they must have to succeed.

We also would like to repeat that the policy of The Sanford Herald, the only daily newspaper published in Seminole County, is to print the news, work hard to get the news, play no favorites in making these reports and do everything possible to further the growth of our city and county.

Silence will not fulfill this duty. Yet there have been and will be times when the overwhelming necessity of avoiding premature disclosures will guide. Our reporters are covering a wide area where there are developments, not linked with governmental actions, which are under constant scrutiny. This is private initiative, private money and private accomplishment.

We are delighted when such stories-in-depth can be printed. Yet we must, in this conscience, pursue the path of complete coverage where governmental actions are concerned.

To this end, the "government-in-sunshine-law" lends the strong light which the people deserve to have shed on such affairs and which we are committed to reporting!

Lonely And Lost

A small boy was lost recently in the wilderness of the Great Smokies, and more than a thousand men went into the deep woods looking for him. Nothing wrings the heart more than the thought of a child, alone, hungry and frightened, who can't be found.

The shepherds come to search from far away. Sometimes the story ends in joy, sometimes in grief.

However it turns out, for a while one little life is infinitely precious to thousands who share in the common sense of loss, that men can still feel responsible for one another.

There is something to remind us, also, how many are lost, every day, just as completely, while we look without seeing and listen without hearing.

An old lady, living down the street, too proud to say she would like someone to talk to her.

A youngster, without a father, who needs a manly pattern on which to shape himself.

A weary artist, imprisoned in a painful body, shut in from the green and growing world that dully greets those hunched shoulders.

Those victims of a witless Nature's cruel jokes, cut off from the normal world at birth by chance defects of mind or body.

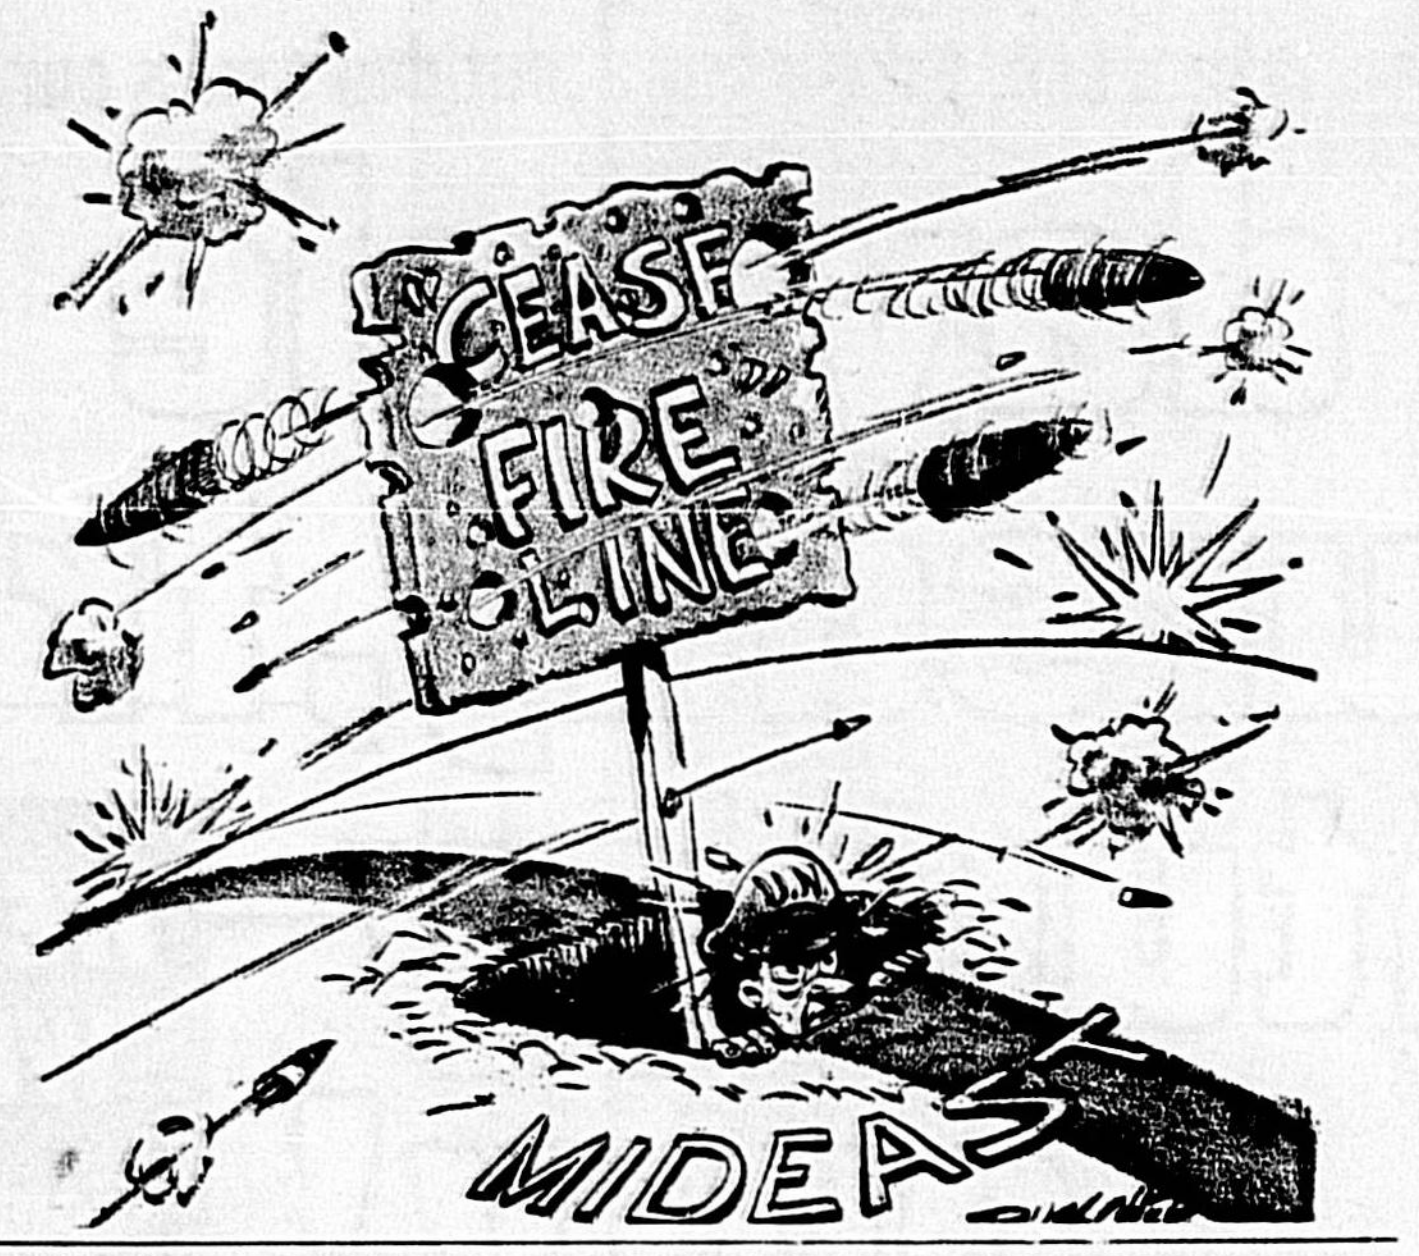

Young people looking for guidance and never taught to respect a parent's firm authority.

The shy ones, in need of a friend; those with a burden of worry, needing understanding and a helping hand.

The poor, their pride long dragged in the dirt.

The lonely and the lost are everywhere. They are not hard to find at all. It is we who are willing to look. — Asheville (N.C.) Citizen-Times

A Brave Man

The truck driver who was awarded the "Driver of the Year" trophy doesn't think much of women drivers.

"I just don't believe women are as good drivers as men," he said. "Whenever I see a woman driver I take extra precautions."

We would suggest that he also take extra precautions at home after that statement. — Dallas (Tex.) Times Herald

Social Pressure By 'Kiddies'

By GEORGE W. CRANE, Ph.D., M.D.
CASE K-594: My son Philip is known to millions of you TV fans, for he is the conservative American history professor who is often asked to debate the liberals on social issues.

But his independent attitude must have started early.

For when he was seated at the dinner table when he was just two years of age, I reprimanded him.

For Philip was using the fingers of his left hand to push the mashed potatoes and gravy upon the spoon which he held in his right hand.

"Philip," I suggested, "why don't you use a piece of bread as a 'pusher' and thus keep your fingers from getting messy?"

Maybe I was a little abrupt, for Philip replied, quite positively: "Everybody does it this way!"

So when he tried to refuse my advice, he was saying in effect, "Two billion people do it!"

Now that number "two" was the highest digit that Philip knew at that time.

So when he tried to refuse my advice, he was saying in effect, "Two billion people do it!"

The childhood episode brings out a very important point with reference to parent-child relations.

Children often try to coerce their parents by suggesting that "Everybody in my class has a bicycle!"

Or, they may also endeavor to stampede their parents by saying: "Two billion people do it!"

Thus, when a divorced couple are shutting their child back and forth, the youngster routinely "feeds" his mother the language he knows she desires by saying: "I don't want to spend the weekend with Daddy."

But when Sunday afternoon arrives and divorced daddy is to take the youngster back to mamma, the child will deftly say: "Daddy, I don't want to leave you. Do I have to go back to Mamma?"

Such kiddies also learn to show off the favors or concessions and toys that daddy gave them so they can tempt their mother to raise the ante, as it were, and give them even more concessions.

Too many parents treat their kiddies as human "toys" instead of rational individuals.

Domestic Comment: Nixon's Slow, Methodical Way

By RAY CROWLEY, NEA Washington Correspondent
WASHINGTON (NEA) — Adding to the confusion over President Nixon's leadership, purpose and direction is one basic fact affecting all his activities.

The President is a slow, methodical planner. He wants everything well-prepared, documented and briefed. He wants each point argued through, he wants to be sure he is fully aware of the consequences of his actions. He is unwilling to impose his own will and his own decision until all sides have been heard, and sometimes heard again. He wants all ends neatly tied up. This makes him seem like an overcautious planner. It certainly gives an appearance of not making up his mind on the spot for the charge that Nixon cannot make up his mind on a number of key domestic, social and economic problems.

It has led to the resignation of at least one key member of his administration, the black capitalism program in the Small Business Administration, and the resignation of a number of other officials.

Nixon was accused of being reactionary when his aides considered virtually wiping out the Economic Opportunity Act as it was constituted. It turned out only that Nixon men had received so many reports of failure in the program that they believed a thorough revamping was necessary.

The energetic and imaginative young man Nixon finally put in charge of the program is certainly not the type a President would put at the helm of an organization he was attempting to destroy.

The difficulty seems to be that the Kennedy and Johnson years so many programs were started and funded so rapidly that, however laudable their objectives, they were an advanced state of disorganization. This reporter has heard the harshes of criticism firsthand from Negro and other disadvantaged groups these programs were intended to aid.

The plan fails if it is some of these programs were allowed to go on as in the past money scandals of the greatest magnitude would have exploded in Nixon's ears within the next two years. To this end, the "government-in-sunshine-law" lends the strong light which the people deserve to have shed on such affairs and which we are committed to reporting!

Interpretive Report: New Asian Policy Forming

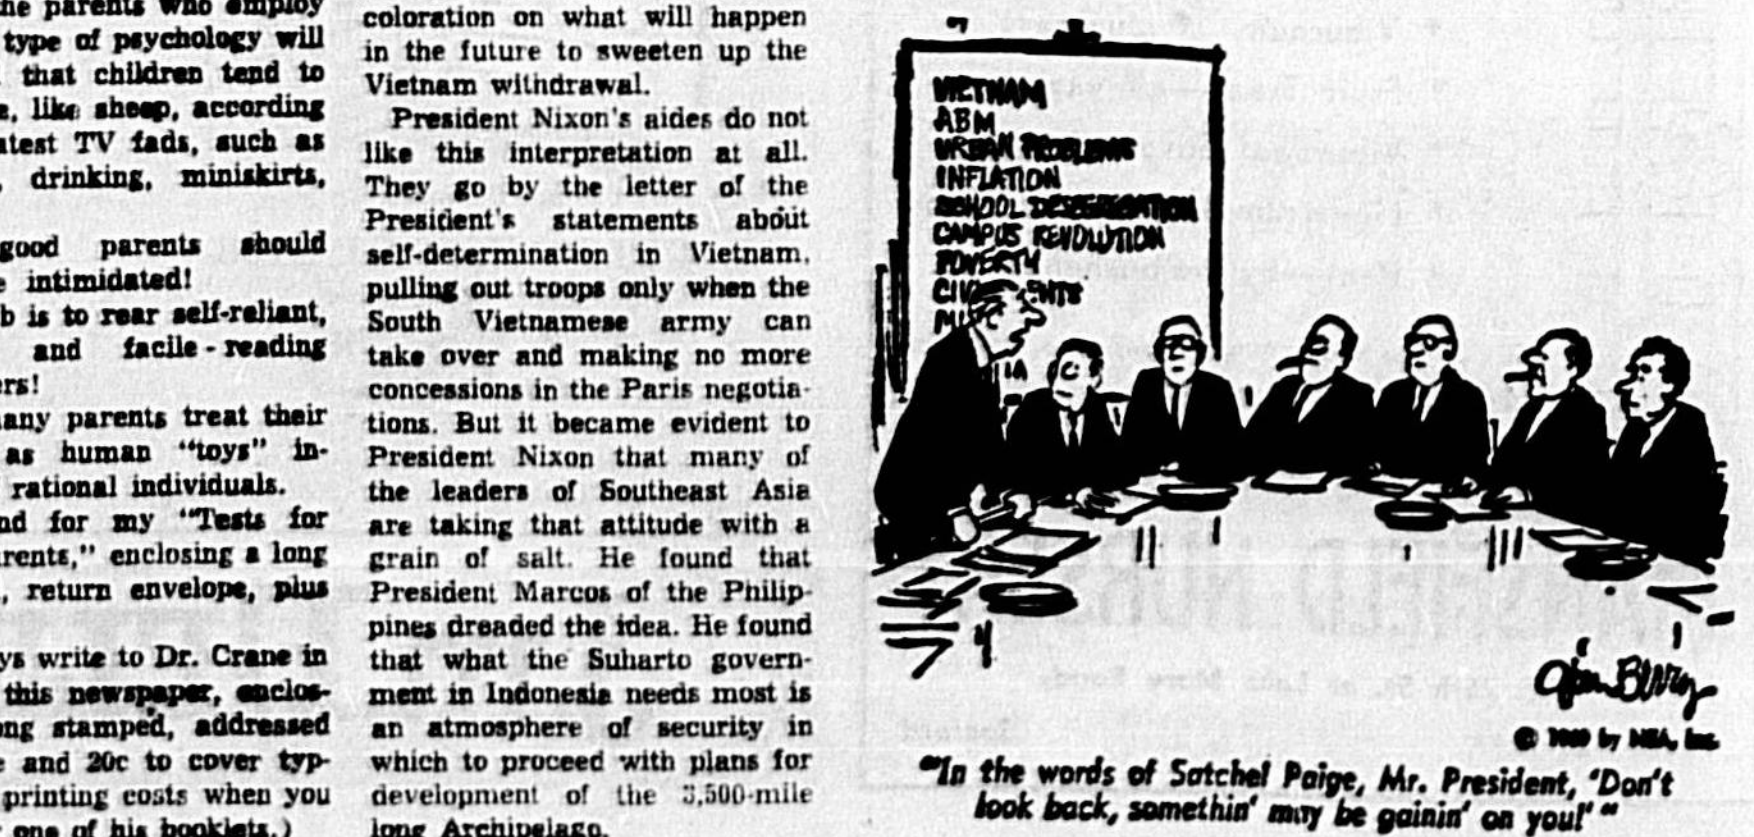

By RICHARD WILSON, DAIKART, INDONESIA — On the island of Java in what was formerly the Dutch East Indies, President Nixon tried to lay the foundations of his new Asia policy. This policy is based on support for private and public economic development without military intervention.

One could see here how difficult it will prove to be. Once the American military presence in the Southeast Asia region is eliminated the governments in this vast area, with its huge populations and rich potentials, will be on their feet to sink or swim in a sea constantly churning with pressure waves from Red China.

Theoretically, it could work. The United States could get out of Vietnam without a disguised defeat and then be the permissible ally father for nations like Indonesia, South Vietnam, Thailand and the rest of Southeast Asia. But it is all visionary until the Communist movement is eliminated. The strongest impression is that Nixon wishes first to get out of Vietnam all the while placing an optimistic coloration on what will happen in the future to sweeten up the Vietnam withdrawal.

President Nixon's aides do not like this interpretation at all. They go by the letter of the President's statements about self-determination in Vietnam, pulling out troops only when the South Vietnamese army can take over and making no more concessions in the Paris negotiations. But it became evident to President Nixon that many of the leaders of Southeast Asia are taking that attitude with a grain of salt. He found that President Marcos of the Philippines dangled the idea. He found that the Suharto government in Indonesia demands in which to proceed with plans for development of the 3,500-mile long Archipelago.

President's Asian Tour Thousands Of Indians Greet Nixon

By FRANK CORMIER, Associated Press Writer
NEW DELHI (AP) — President Nixon arrived in India today for a friendly and tumultuous welcome in 56-degree weather, and then set down alone with Prime Minister Indira Gandhi to discuss the problems of the world's largest non-Communist nation.

Nixon got off to a good start with his Indian hosts by telling them at the airport that the United States wants to work with them "for the goals you believe in."

The American President also recalled that in 1858 Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru, Mrs. Gandhi's father, told him that India wanted "a generation of uninterrupted peace."

"Our major goal now is to see that stream Mr. Nehru had been a generation of peace for India, Asia and the world," Nixon said.

"We want our generation to be remembered as the generation that set foot on the moon and as the one in which we had uninterrupted peace and justice for man on the earth."

Thousands of friendly Indians greeted the President along his route into the city, but at one point about 400 young demonstrators waved black flags at him and shouted slogans against the Vietnam war.

Ignoring the hecklers, Nixon got out of his limousine and shook hands with cheering persons nearby, then returned to the car and drove on as the demonstrators surged toward him.

Nixon flew to the Indian capital after a three-day visit in Thailand and a side trip to South Vietnam. India is the fourth stop on a global tour that ends Sunday after more stops in Pakistan, Romania and Britain.

Steel Prices Hiked

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The steel industry's peacemaking U.S. Steel Corp. has posted price increases average 4.8 per cent on a range of big-tonnage products that are used for such items as cars, refrigerators and tin cans.

Wednesday's move, the boldest since Bethlehem Steel Corp.'s 5 per cent across-the-board hike was whittled to 2 per cent by the White House last August. U.S. Steel met with cautious silence by other producers and major users and drew only a mild rebuff from the U.S. Steel said the principal reason for the price hikes was to pay increases that some 400,000 steelworkers will get Friday under a contract negotiated last summer. The increased labor cost has been estimated at 6 per cent.

Ted Kennedy Will Continue

By WALTER R. MEARS, Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Edward M. Kennedy is coming back to work—and Democrats strategists already are planning to make him a leading man in next year's congressional election campaign.

The Massachusetts Democrat was due at his office, and on the Senate floor, today after announcing he will not resign his seat.

Kennedy, in a statement released Wednesday at his Boston office, said he will remain in the Senate until the end of the next year and, if he wins, will serve a full six-year term.

"That would side out any 1972 bid for the presidency which his brother, John, won in 1960 and which his brother, Robert, sought in 1968. Both were assassinated."

Edward Kennedy's announcement: "Sen. Edward M. Kennedy is returning to Washington to resume his duties as United States senator and assistant majority leader."

"He is grateful to the people of Massachusetts for their expressions of confidence and expects to submit his record to the election by the people of the state in 1970."

The commissioner cautioned the SISTER group and merchants interested in the relocation of the Sanford Zoo on a site near the sewage plant on the lake front to "keep their eyes open and watch the zoo committee being set up to look after the relocation as several people would have no control over the appointment of each civic club, chaired by Mayor Lee P. Moore and included are City Manager W. E. Knowles; Cliff McKibbin, zoning commission chairman; A. B. Peterson Jr., Scenic Improvement Board chairman; Cal Conklin, city engineer and Gerald Duke, city planner.

The merchants elected Dot Powell to represent them on the zoo group and Alex Serrano, Merchants chairman, suggested SISTER could be well represented by Val Colbert, their president.

Assassination Attempt On Secretary Rogers?

TOKYO (AP) — A young Japanese man armed with a knife tried to attack U.S. diplomats at Tokyo International Airport today, but police said it was not clear whether his target was Secretary of State William P. Rogers or Ambassador Armin H. Meyer.

Rogers, Meyer and other U.S. diplomats were at the airport for Rogers' departure for Seoul. All escaped injury, but Meyer was knocked down.

The husky assailant, identified by police as Shigetatsu Hamanaka, 21, was disarmed by security guards. Police reported at first that Meyer, 55, was his target. Later police said Hamanaka refused to talk and they feared whoever his target was Kennedy.

Rogers was in Tokyo for a three-day meeting of U.S. and Japanese cabinet ministers that ended today. Some officials said earlier they were surprised that the conference did not result in any major leftist demonstrations against the United States.

The attack at the airport was swift, and some officials were not aware of it until afterward.

U. S. Suffers Only Meager Losses

By RICHARD PYLE, Associated Press Writer
SAIGON (AP) — The battle lull in South Vietnam reduced the total of American combat dead last week to the second lowest level in nine months and cut the reported number of enemy killed in action to the lowest total in 18 months.

The U.S. Command in its weekly casualty summary reported 116 Americans and 1,963 North Vietnamese and Viet Cong were killed last week. But the total of South Vietnamese combat dead was down only slightly from the week before, from 285 to 290.

The American toll was the lowest since last Oct. 26 except for the week of Dec. 28-Jan. 4. The New Year's cease-fire was in effect then and 101 Americans died in combat.

Special Session Now Minus 10-Holding

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP) — Most legislators apparently would rather await the final work product of a House-Senate special session before moving toward a special session to decide primary election dates, says Senate President John Matthews.

Matthews in an interview, offered no possible dates, but the Legislature might meet to resolve the question.

If the current law is allowed to stand, the 1970 primaries will be held while the regular session is in progress.

A special House-Senate committee has been studying the problem and seeking to resolve differences between the two chambers.

ABM Vote Expected To Come Early Next Week

By CARL P. LEUBSDORF, Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Both sides in the long Safeguard debate have agreed to a Senate vote next Tuesday or Wednesday on whether to bar deployment of the defense missile system.

The outcome of the showdown remains in doubt with the Senate divided almost equally on an administration proposed amendment limiting the Safeguard program to research.

Sens. J. W. Fulbright, D-Ark., and Albert Gore, D-Tenn., who blocked an earlier vote, said they are ready for a vote next week.

The Senate laid the anti-ballistic missile-ABM-measure aside late Wednesday for the first time since July 8 in order to work today on the income surtax.

As soon as that is finished, the Senate is to return to the military procurement authorization bill which includes $750 million for Safeguard.

As the ABM showdown neared, Safeguard opponents claimed their 30th vote—one short of that needed to approve an amendment if the entire Senate should vote. The office of Sen. Warren G. Magnuson confirmed that the veteran Washington Democrat would oppose the ABM.

Although Magnuson was listed as leaning strongly against the ABM, he had not been included in the 40 votes claimed earlier for the amendment of Sens. John Sherman Cooper, R-Ind., and Phillip A. Hart, D-Mich.

"We do have people to consider other than legislators," Matthews said.

Soviet Writer Defects West

By JOHN WEYLAND, Associated Press Writer
MOSCOW (AP) — The defection of Soviet writer Anatoli V. Kuznetsov will probably lead to a further crackdown on the arts in the Soviet Union.

Executive department officials are citing the relative lull in the fighting as pointing toward a potentially substantial American pullback.

The Kremlin is expected to try to make sure that no other writers critical of the Soviet system attain enough standing to be able to embarrass the Kremlin.

Kuznetsov disappeared Monday night during a visit to Britain, and the British government announced Wednesday that he had been granted permission to live permanently in Britain. The writer said he defected because he feared reprisals if he returned to Russia.

The leadership that ousted Nikita Khrushchev in 1964 has shown a consistent pattern of restricting the few remnants of liberalism that remain in Russia.

Writers Andrei Sinyavsky and Yuli Daniel were given stiff prison sentences in 1966 for their anti-Soviet writings. This was a clear warning that the Khrushchev thaw had ended.

Democrats Hope To Extend Surtax

By JOE BAL, Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate Democrats hope to push through a six-month extension of the 10 percent surtax today only hours before it is due to die.

Rep. J. C. East, however, planned an 11th hour attempt to squeeze through the full 12-month surtax extension sought by President Nixon.

Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield, while standing pat on his contention there should be only a temporary surtax extension until work is completed on major tax reforms, released somewhat Wednesday night and agreed to a surtax debate.

Mansfield said he was confident the six-month bill would pass his branch, but the Montana Democrat conceded there were other pitfalls to concluding action on the measure before midnight.

Sen. John J. Williams of Delaware, senior Republican member of the Finance Committee, had made it clear he would try to meet the Democratic plan by offering two amendments.

One would provide the full year's extension as in the House bill, and the other would repeal the 7 per cent investment tax credit.

Mansfield said Democrats were pledged to repeal but would try to defeat the amendment at this time.

There was no guarantee the House, which has approved a year's extension, would go along with the Senate on a six-month bill, and Nixon previously rejected all Democratic proposals for anything less than a full year's extension.

Congress was working under the tightest possible schedule with the pay check surtax with holding rates due to expire at midnight. Most members of Congress agreed that if the surtax withholding rates were allowed to rise tonight, it would be impossible to revive the surtax itself.

The Democratic leader moved to put aside the Safeguard missile defense debate temporarily so the Senate could call up a bill which would be used for the surcharge extension.

Maybe A Slim Glimmer That Costs Go Down

WASHINGTON (AP) — The American consumer may be seeing a glimmer of light at the end of the long tunnel of inflation as new government figures indicate the soaring cost of living is slowing down.

The Bureau of Labor Statistics reported Wednesday a dramatic reduction in the upward trend of wholesale prices, most significantly in the cost of cattle.

Statistics showed cattle prices for the month that ended July 1 were down $1.60 per hundredweight from the mid-June figure of $3.60—an 18-year high.

In anticipating this drop, Agriculture Department economists said earlier in the week a fall off in the cost of cattle would lead to some reduction in the price of meat sold over the butcher counter.

However, several notes of caution have been introduced.

"You have to be careful about placing too much significance in one month's figures, but it does seem fairly significant," Arnold Chase, assistant commissioner of the Bureau of Labor Statistics, said.

And, Chase went on, it could be several months, perhaps not until October, before the drop in cattle prices will percolate down to the housewife in the form of lower meat costs.

Other, nongovernment, economists also entered a pessimistic note, saying consumer demand — fed by inflation and rising spending power — could override the cattle price drop at the retail level.

Last month, the average price for choice sirloin steak was $1.40, a point representing a 4.5 per cent jump over the previous month's cost of meat, poultry and fish. Last December sirloin cost $1.39 a pound.

All Average Taxpayers May Get A 10% Break

By EDMOND LEBRETON, Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — House tax reformers, working to give average taxpayers a better break, are considering either increasing the 10 per cent standard deduction or upping the 8000 personal exemption.

Their decisions on tax relief will complete the broad reform bill scheduled for voting in the House next week.

Although more than half the House membership has expressed interest in raising the exemption, sentiment in the Ways and Means Committee apparently favors reviving the standard deduction which would cost the Treasury much less revenue.

A $100 exemption increase, it was estimated, would reduce tax yield nearly $3 billion, raising the standard deduction from 10 to 14 per cent and the ceiling on it from $1,000 to $1,800 was estimated to cost $1.2 billion.

Meanwhile, the committee has softened somewhat its proposed crackdown on the use of farm losses to reduce investors' nonfarm taxable income and on the use of certain oil industry preferences by well-to-do individuals.

Decisions to slash the oil depletion allowance and related benefits, however, were reaffirmed.

'Love Of Life' Soap Opera Star Is Himself A Lover Of Life

By JOY STILLKEY
AP Newsfeatures Writer

Idol of millions who watch him on the daily soap opera, "Love of Life," Zane Bua is himself a lover of life—especially now that he is launching a new career as a recording artist.

"I love being 24," declares the strikingly handsome 8 foot 1 actor who plays the part of Bill Trenton in the (CBS-TV) soap opera. "I'll love being 30 and I'll love being 30. Each age brings its own thing."

Bua (whose name rhymes with view-a) recently cut his first album on the MGM Heritage label. Also called "Love of Life," the record features a song by that title and others on the theme of love, performed in his low-key style that has been compared with Perry Como's.

Already a veteran of stock, off-Broadway theater, movies and television, Bua is hoping to branch out into concert tours. A brief singing spot on the serial brought such response from fans that the story line was changed to give him more frequent opportunities to sing. His role is now that of a married college student who strums a guitar and sings while waiting on tables in a restaurant.

"I've always been interested in singing," he said, crossing his long legs and chewing carrehearses with script from 2 to 8 p.m., they study their lines at night and at 8 the next morning are back at work in the rehearsal hall. At 9 they go on camera and run through the show until 12:20 to get camera angles and solve light problems. From 12:20 to 12:50 the show is taped. "Then it starts all over again at 2 if I'm on the next day's show," he laughingly complained.

fully through his dark hair which he wears slightly long "not to prove anything, but because it just happens that I look terrible in short hair." Bua attempted to explain the popularity of the long running serial, which he joined in June 1967.

"What we do is try to present very human problems that people at home have also and can empathize with," the brown-eyed actor ventured. "People like to see sadness because then the joy is greater when it comes. They like to muddle through your problems so they can be happy when the good things happen.

"There are no small problems on our show. They are monumental," he continued, snapping his fingers rapidly to emphasize the point. "Fans usually have a solution, though."

Subject matter of Bua's fan mail ranges from giving advice to seeking it, such as one letter which said: "I'm engaged to be married but I don't know what to do because I'm in love with you. Do you think it's okay to go through with it?"

"I copied out on that one—didn't answer her question," he admitted. "I didn't know if she was putting me on, but I just sent her a picture and said thanks for writing."

Bua, who is divorced, isn't averse to trying marriage again but right now he's busy getting on with his career. "I'd like to do a really great play some day," he said. "I know I have a hamlet in me if I can find it in my life."

Would he appear in a show? Bua, who is divorced, isn't averse to trying marriage again but right now he's busy getting on with his career. "I'd like to do a really great play some day," he said. "I know I have a hamlet in me if I can find it in my life."

Pre-Nuptial Party Honors Miss Tina Davis

By DORIS WILLIAMS
Society Editor

In a charming bridal setting at the Washington Drive home of Judge and Mrs. Volie A. Williams Jr., Mrs. Jimmy Williams, their daughter-in-law, entertained at a miscellaneous pre-nuptial party on Friday, July 20, honoring Miss Tina Davis, Aug. 30 bride-elect of Dickie Smith.

The bride-elect greeted the guests wearing a cascade-like textured cotton frock, fashioned along the Empire silhouette, with dainty lace edging the Peter Pan collar and high-rise waistline. Enhancing her outfit was a corsage of pink carnations, a gift from the bride-elect.

Key Hairs, Spees

For gals who wear plaques, try this tip for the perfect hair style for you. Wear your glasses during a styling and shaping. This way your hair style can incorporate and complement your specs.

A soaking first in hot water, then in cold will give tired, over-created feet a pickup. Dry briskly to encourage circulation. Then smooth on skin cream to soften rough spots and to moisturize skin.

Bear Lake Personals

By MARYANN MILES

Mr. and Mrs. George Hayter and their sons, Mark and Earl, have returned home after a conducted tour of the government buildings and White House in Washington, D. C. By sending for a pass for the family, they were allowed to visit a number of various places that they would not have been able to without the pass.

Most impressive was a visit to the Senate, which was opened by the vice president of the United States.

During their week there they visited a number of museums and saw many beautiful monuments, the most impressive for the family was the monument of Jefferson.

Upon returning to their home, they had houseguests from Savannah, Ga., Mrs. Robert Hayter, sister of Mrs. Hayter, and Mrs. Harvey's son, Romeo. Last weekend the family were guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. McDade, Miami. Mrs. McDade is a sister of Mr. Hayter.

Sanford Personals

While vacationing in West Virginia, Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Lawson enjoyed the performance of "Honey in the Rock," the nation's first Civil War musical drama, at Grandview State Park, near Beckley.

Fat, Fair Female And Over 40

There is a full saving, which some doctors quote, to the effect that the typical diabetic is "fat, fair, female and over 40."

Dr. J. W. E. De Lawyer, of Georgetown University, Washington, D.C., has reported on 1,821 patients in this category (although not all women) who were treated with oral anti-diabetic drugs. Sixty-five percent responded satisfactorily, he said.

Phenformin (DBI-TD) is the oral drug of choice in obese diabetics who need to lose weight but do not respond to dietary management, Dr. De Lawyer stated. He explained that patients taking other oral drugs tend to maintain the same weight.

The J. L. Wards Enjoy Northern Vacation

By LIZ MATHIEUX

Rev. and Mrs. J. Lawrence Ward are back at the parsonage after an extended vacation which took them up to St. John's, Mich., and Newark, Ohio, where they visited with their son, Frederick and daughter-in-law, Mrs. Harriet Lambere.

Also on their agenda was a reunion with life-time friends, the Gordon Barkleys of Belleville, Canada. Mrs. Ward says that the good person just had to "drop a line out of the door" to catch a fresh fish and I know that he enjoyed it since he enjoys fishing so very much.

While in the northern country, the Wards visited with the Kenneth Taylor who has purchased a farm in Gettysburg, Penn. Mrs. Ward was most enthralled with the beauty of this country and more especially the cherry orchards and the magnificent rolling hills.

Visiting the Taylors at the time of the Wards' arrival were their daughter, son-in-law and little granddaughter, Mr. and Mrs. Teddy Chalfant and Donna Jean of Rest Haven-on-Lake Harney.

The Burtons Entertain At Rehearsal Dinner Party

HAPPY ABOUT it all are Miss Susan Scott of St. Petersburg and her fiancé, Herman Arthur (Buddy) Burton, right photo, who are shown at a dinner party following their wedding rehearsal, Friday night in St. Petersburg, given by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Burton, IV, of Sanford.

Miss Vicky Lynn Penley and James David McGough were united in Holy Matrimony, July 21, in a candlelight ceremony at First Baptist Church of Sanford.

Candlelight Rites Unite Miss Bernal, J. D. McGough

Miss Vicky Lynn Penley and James David McGough were united in Holy Matrimony, July 21, in a candlelight ceremony at First Baptist Church of Sanford. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Penley of Sanford and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Marion Mahan of Lake Monroe.

Rev. Joe Douhitt was the officiating clergyman before the altar accented with potted palms, two pedestal baskets of mums and glads and standing candelabra.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose for her veils a lace and embroidered organza floor length gown over peau de soie. Fashioned with a voluminous skirt, the gown featured a scalloped neckline, tapered sleeves, which terminated in Gothic points at her wrists, and a sweeping train, bordered with a self buffer.

Her bouffant veil of imported silk illusion was secured by a cluster of lace petals and she carried a formal cascade of white sweetheart roses.

Miss Kathy Ryals attended the bride was maid of honor, wearing a pink chiffon floor length gown and carrying a Colonial nosegay of white carnations.

The Burtons Entertain At Rehearsal Dinner Party

Mr. and Mrs. John Burton IV, entertained at an elaborate dinner party July 18, following the wedding rehearsal of their son, Herman Arthur (Buddy) Burton and his bride-elect, Miss Susan Scott of St. Petersburg.

Site of the dinner was the post-house restaurant of Holiday Inn, Gulf Avenue, St. Petersburg.

For the occasion the lovely blonde bride-elect chose a printed voile dress, fashioned along the slim silhouette with self-ruffles enhancing the oval neckline and long sleeves and complemented with a double orchid corsage which identified her place setting.

In the striking black and red dining room, an arrangement of red and white carnations, interspersed with silver and white wedding bells, centered the head table. Guest places were marked with dainty green and white bridal place cards with black tablecloths and red napkins completing the picturesque dining scene.

The menu included champagne, fruit cup supreme, individual bouffant burgundy casseroles, vegetable de Jour, chef's salad and chocolate parfaits.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Penley wore an orchid organza dress complemented with white accessories and a corsage of orchid-tipped white carnations.

Mrs. Mahan, mother of the bridegroom, chose a blue silk enhanced with white accessories and a corsage of white carnations, tipped in blue.

Immediately following the ceremony, the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry G. Penley, entertained at a reception at their home, 116 W. 17th St. Assisting at the reception were Mrs. Vincent Cara, Mrs. William Harvey Jr., and Mrs. Edwin Butler.

The newlyweds will reside at Oceanside, Calif., where the bridegroom is stationed with the U.S. Navy at Camp Pendleton.

Mariner Closeup Pictures Of Mars 'Fascinating'

By RALPH DIGHTON
AP Science Writer
PASADENA, Calif. (AP) — Mariner 7, the first of the two Mars orbiters, today, its cameras snapping closeups that would be "fascinating."

What the pictures contain was not immediately known but scientists were sure the quality was excellent that they ordered them displayed on monitors for newsmen as soon as they are received at Jet Propulsion Laboratory starting at 8:26 EDT tonight.

"They earlier had planned to study the pictures for 24 hours and then release selected prints."

"We don't know exactly what we will see," a spokesman said, "and some of it may be confusing, but we are sure that much of the pictures will have fascinating details never seen before."

Mariner 7 and a sister spacecraft, Mariner 6, ran into technical problems overnight.

Mariner 7's trouble was mis-shipment of a device designed to sense the chemistry of the thin Martian atmosphere.

The extent of Mariner 7's difficulty was not immediately determined. It went silent for several hours but technicians later picked up a weak signal from the spacecraft.

The spacecraft's also appeared to be rolling.

"We don't know what the trouble is or whether it will affect Mariner 7's ability to send pictures when it comes within camera range Friday," a spokesman said.

Mariner 6, after television late Wednesday night, a series of approach photographs showing that Mars may be as cratered as the moon, made a 15-minute camera run above the Martian equator shortly after midnight.

Its path was over a band of dark areas thought to be some form of vegetation.

Twenty-four pictures were snapped and stored on tape for transmission earthward tonight.

Mariner 6 was still in the field of view of the cameras when vast desert-like areas which earth telescopes show are traversed by thin lines long called canyons, and dark areas with curving boundaries which seem to glow green in the spring and fade in summer.

Mariner 6 was not designed to determine whether any form of life presently exists on Mars, only whether life could survive in its apparently hospitable climate.

The pictures to be displayed tonight might well show, how temple ruins or other structures, any large geometrical or of an ancient civilization — if structures—such as pyramids, each exist.

Apollo 11 Moonmen Free Of Space Dust

By PAUL REEVE
AP Aerospace Writer
HOUSTON (AP) — The Apollo 11 moonmen, free so far of any discernible effects from lunar dust, discuss their great adventure to the moon with fellow members of the astronaut corps—some of whom hope to make moon trips themselves.

Neil A. Armstrong, Edwin E. Aldrin Jr. and Michael Collins, scheduled a day-long seminar on their experiences talking from behind the walls of their quarantine chamber.

Dr. Ross Taylor of the Australian National University said measurements showed about 10 chemical elements in pinches of dust he tested.

He added that the soil was not heavily mixed with meteoric matter.

This description lent strength to the theory that many craters on the moon were formed by volcanic rather than meteoric activity.

Another scientist, Dr. Gary Latham of California University, said a sedimentation left on the moon has picked up the tremors of the moon which he believes were moonquakes.

Obscene Caller Is Now Behind Bars

A 29-year-old Longwood married man has been charged with three counts of making lewd and obscene telephone calls to a 24-year-old unmarried woman living in English Estates.

George Michael Farley was captured early today by Seminole Deputy Duane Harrell, who was hidden in the woman's home.

According to Harrell, the woman had gone along with county officers and made a date with the man for 6 a.m. this morning after receiving at least three telephone calls from a man calling himself "Mike" who made obscene propositions to her.

The woman had reported the calls to Sheriff John E. Polk's office and Harrell was staked out in the darkened house just in case the caller filled his date.

The chief deputy said Farley's light colored rap was answered by the woman and the man entered and stated, "I'm Mike!"

At this point, Harrell made his appearance and arrested the man.

The complainant signed warrants for the three obscene calls and Judge Wallace Hall set bond at $500 in each count.

C of C Takes Action

Seminole Chamber of Commerce president George Touhy told The Herald in an interview today about his and the chamber's feelings on recent county actions taken by the county commission in slicing the chamber's county funds for next year.

Touhy stated, "We heartily support the Commission in their desire to use tax money judiciously, but feel that at this time of growth and keen competition within the Central Florida area in particular, this is no time to eliminate funds to be used by the one civic organization that has done most to advance the county's interests."

Where else can they get the highly capable, hour upon hour effort of civic minded, dedicated business men that work so diligently for Seminole?

"So far as I know, there has not been one word of criticism of C of C accomplishments from any county commissioner in the years I've been associated with the C of C."

"It must logically be presumed that the results given the county for its financial support have proven that the funds are a well-paying investment. It is entirely reasonable in the face of this to expect the Commission to continue for the coming year the same allocation of funds that they have wisely disbursed to the C of C in past years. They will get more than their money's worth for the citizens of the county."

SANFORD-SEMINOLE JAYCEES IN ACTION

Jaycee Approach Coming

In a special board meeting last night, the Sanford-Seminole Jaycees voted unanimously to approach the Seminole County Commission Tuesday on a matter. The action came after the commission had terminated the Jaycees' annual appropriation of $2,100. The Jaycees will request that the commissioners overturn this decision.

The Herald also learned today that the South Seminole Jaycees will have a meeting Sunday to decide what action they will take after the commission also altered their funds last week. It is expected that the South Seminole organization will take action similar to the Sanford group.

The Sanford-Seminole Jaycees released the following resolution after last night's meeting:

Over Annual Budget Cut

Be it resolved by the Board of Directors of the Sanford-Seminole Jaycees that the Sanford-Seminole Jaycees in opposition to the action taken by the Board of County Commissioners of Seminole County, Florida, in terminating the annual appropriation of $2,100 to the Sanford-Seminole Jaycees for the operation of the County Tourist Information Center, do hereby petition the Board of County Commissioners to restore the annual appropriation of $2,100 to the Sanford-Seminole Jaycees for the operation of the County Tourist Information Center.

The cost of operating, maintaining, and staffing the Tourist Information Center is nearly three times the amount of the annual budget for the operation of the Center. The County certainly has been given its money's worth in the quality of operation of the Tourist Information Center.

All of this without mention of the nearly two hundred other five civic projects of the Sanford-Seminole Jaycees annually. This is not to mention the thousands of young men and adults that are entertained annually at the Jaycees Fourth of July Fun Fair, including other events that directly affect more than 30,000 people annually.

The Sanford-Seminole Jaycees operate on a relatively small annual budget for the amount of service it provides, and accordingly, the Jaycees have been caught off guard by the unexpected action of the Board of County Commissioners with no forewarning or council.

The President of the Sanford-Seminole Jaycees is hereby authorized to go before the County Commission and ask that Board to reconsider its decision or in the alternative to continue the appropriation for the next fiscal year to allow the Jaycees to make other arrangements for financing the continuation of the quality service it has been providing the citizens of the County, and the County of Seminole.

This resolution was made, seconded and passed by the Board of Directors of the Sanford-Seminole Jaycees at a special meeting held on 31 July 1969.

Longwood's Loan

By DONNA ESTES
Tide may have turned in the effort of the Longwood city government to gain short-term financing with South Seminole Bank for water improvements.

In an hour and one-half long discussion last night the finance committee of Council, in a 5-3 vote, approved the loan. Mayor Brown and B. H. Ferrell, revealed the city has some $21,000 in reserve water revenues which could be used in part to secure the loan.

Further with attorney Larry Carroll and a bank employee representing the banking house, the governing body left no doubt that it has no intention of pledging all revenues of the municipality or in fact any money, except those of the water department for the proposed $25,000 short seven-year loan at 5 1/2 percent interest.

Payments on the loan would be some $1,285.71 per quarter year with interest computed on the unpaid balance in addition. Council agreed that it would be willing to place $10,000 of its excess water money in certificates of deposit as a back up for the loan or to pledge in addition to direct water revenues the water utility tax.

Carroll told the Council that the bank cannot request or allow pledge of all the city revenues for the loan and that he would carry back to the bank directors the city's offer.

Court Litigation In Offing

Court litigation may be in the offing as the result of a leasing this morning by the Sanford Industrial Commission of a 20-acre orange grove located on Sanford Airport property.

Cause of the action hinges on whether the grove had been legally leased a month ago to G. A. Anthony Inc., an out of town grover, for $1,500 a year, and then re-leased later by an SIC action after an issue was raised that grove should have been leased to the highest bidder.

Today, the SIC approved what they called the "best of three bids" and leased the grove to William Garrison White of Sanford for high $2,011 bid for each of the first four years and $2,500 fifth year.

Other bidders included Edward Pelt, who offered $500 first year and $1,000 per year remaining four years to a five year lease.

Anthony also submitted a $2 per year bid on the property he offered $1,500 for each year. City Manager W. E. Kincaid quipped "for the $2 bid, we can lease him (Anthony) the first tree in the northeast corner of the grove."

Knowles also informed the SIC that S. Joseph Davis, Anthony's attorney, had advised that he had about the city's decision to rescind the sale and intimating a suit might be filed against the city because of the rescinding.

The vote to lease the grove was unanimous and came after the problem and this would allow the court ruling to come from the Orlando federal court rather than deal with the Justice Department in a series of Washington confrontations.

Pat Bule, board member, and an advocate of the board ascribing a school plan to the health, education and welfare's latest designation edicts, abstained from voting on the question.

William D. Rowland, Orlando lawyer, filed two months ago a conspiracy charge in this court against the federal court, against Mrs. Jean Bryant and Ray Stenstrom, board members, who have pressed for the freedom of choice school plan submitted by the county to the HEW for operation of county schools during 1969-70 school year.

The HEW has since turned down the plan and subsequent actions were taken against both Mrs. Bryant and Stenstrom by the federal court, asking that school board be allowed to enter the case. The attorney said he thought several things would be accomplished by the board's action.

One of these would be the possible dismissal of the suit against Stenstrom and Mrs. Bryant, he advised.

School Board Approves Lawsuit Intervention

By BILL SCOTT
Seminole County School Board yesterday by four to nothing action approved a suggestion by Douglas Stenstrom, board attorney, to intervene in the conspiracy suit against two board members filed by over 600 plaintiffs in the Orlando federal court.

Board agreed to enter the suit after Stenstrom informed that sooner or later the board would be involved in federal court on the problem and this would allow the court ruling to come from the Orlando federal court rather than deal with the Justice Department in a series of Washington confrontations.

Pat Bule, board member, and an advocate of the board ascribing a school plan to the health, education and welfare's latest designation edicts, abstained from voting on the question.
