STRIKE OF COAL MINERS IS SETTLED

Senate Will Vote On Labor Draft By 6 P.M.

Poll Indicates Body Will Not Accept Draft Provisions Of Truman Measure

WASHINGTON—The House has passed the Senate version of the Case Strike-Control Bill. The measure will now go to the White House.

WASHINGTON, May 29, (AP)—The Senate today agreed to vote by 6:00 P.M., E.D.T., on whether to retain a provision to draft strikers in President Truman's emergency labor legislation. The agreement to set a vote deadline was asked by majority leader Alben Barkley. The Kentuckian also won an agreement to limit debate on the measure as a whole to 30 minutes for each Senator.

These actions were taken amid indications by an Associated Press poll that the Senate would not accept the labor draft provision.

At the same time, there was new evidence that the President intended to stand by his guns to secure his emergency labor legislation. Senator Allen Ellender said after a call at the White House that the Chief Executive was determined to obtain passage of the bill. The Louisiana Democrat said that he had called upon Mr. Truman to assure his own support of the measure. Ellender declared that he felt that the President should have power to protect the country from internal enemies and from what he termed uncontrollable labor leaders.

In the House, the Rules Committee has recommended that the House be given an immediate opportunity to accept or reject without change the Senate version of the Case Labor Bill. If such a procedure is approved by two-thirds of the House, members who will have to accept the Senate amendments in a block or reject them all. The main amendments voted by the Senate prohibit employer contributions to union-administered welfare funds, incorporate provisions of the House Anti-Racketeering Bill, and extend the cooling off period before a strike from 30 to 60 days.

Legion and Auxiliary Officers Installed

Installation of the Legion and Auxiliary officers of the Camp-Bell-Lassing Unit No. 53 was made last evening by Colonel Cedric Benz of Orlando, sixth district commander, and Mrs. Walter Allmert also of Orlando, sixth district president, assisted by their sergeant-at-arms.

Henry Woolcott was installed as commander of the local legion unit, replacing Jack Rocco, and Mrs. E. J. Routh was reinstated as president of the auxiliary.

Jack Rocco opened the meeting and Mrs. Frank Bauer furnished piano accompaniment throughout the evening.

Senator Says Strike Won't Hurt Shipping

WASHINGTON, May 29, (AP)—Senator George Radcliffe said after leaving the White House today that the threatened Maritime strike will not prevent operation of the nation's merchant shipping. Newmann said the Maryland Democrat who would run the vessels if the strike started on June 15 as scheduled Radcliffe replied, "The ships are going to run—you can bet on that." When he was asked if this meant government operation, he started that someone would sail the vessels. He did not amplify.

Radcliffe is chairman of the Senate Merchant Marine subcommittee. He went to the White House with Democratic Senator John Overton of Louisiana, the acting chairman of the Full Committee on Merchant Marine.

DIRECTORS TO MEET

G. I.'s Refuse to Testify At Trial Of U. S. Officer

DADE NAUHEIM, Germany, May 29.—Three witnesses have refused to testify in the Lichfield trials in protest over what they described as injustices in their treatment by the Army. They indicated that others would follow their course. The men have been called to testify in the trial of Lieut. Granville Cubige, Oklahoma City, one of six officers accused of brutality to GI prisoners in a United States Army guardhouse in Lichfield, England.

One of the three who refused to testify is Capt. Saul Ross of Brooklyn, N.Y. He claimed that other witnesses had been held in a guardhouse and treated as criminals while the accused officers had been allowed their liberty. Ross further asserted that when the witnesses were brought to Bad Neuenahr from London, they found an Army message from London which described them as bad characters.

SUMMER SCHOOL

Plans are being made to open a summer school for the benefit of any pupils who may wish to make up work that was unsatisfactory during the regular school term. It was announced today by Sup't. T. W. Lawton. Both elementary and high school courses will be offered if a sufficient number of parents are interested. These schools will be financed by tuition fees. Arrangements can be made by calling on the office of Mr. Lawton at the Court House.

JACKSONVILLE

May 29, 1946.—Judge Paul D. Barns apparently has assumed command of the Court House.

Flood Rampage Continues In Pennsylvania

Waters Beginning To Ebb In Southern
New York State

By ASSOCIATED PRESS
Flood waters are beginning to ebb somewhat in southern New York State. But the Susquehanna River rampage is spreading more destruction than it has ever done.

The latest tallies show at least 100 persons have drowned, several thousand are missing, thousands are homeless, and more than three million dollars damage has been done.

One-third of Elmira, N.Y., is under five feet of water. Utilities are disrupted, and all but one road is closed. Williamsport, in worse shape. Eighty percent of the city's industries are inundated; 60 percent of its residential area is awash. Harrisburg, the capital of Pennsylvania, and other nearby cities are being flooded by the turbulent Susquehanna.

To add to the seriousness of the situation, the weatherman is predicting more rain for some sections.

They're also having flood trouble in northern Alaska, where water backed up by an ice jam in the Kuskokwim River has inundated two towns and a vitally important airfield. Army planes have dropped several bombs on the ice jam in an attempt to break the congestion, but it does not appear to have done any good.

FLORISTS MEET

J. R. Stewart, Florist, Big Myrtle Avenue, reported that many interesting floral displays, including new types of corsages, wreaths, and arrangements, were shown at the recent convention of florists in Tampa, Fla. Stewart that efforts were made to find unusual birds and greens for the wedding, but that this had been unsuccessful. The floral display was at the Holiday Inn.

Communist General Says Chiang Now Directing Government Troops

Central News Agency Reports Nationalist
Forces Have Captured Important
Manchurian City Of Kirin

Aussie-Envoy In U.S.

NANKING, May 29, (UPI)—China's third-party Communist General Chou En-Lai asserted today that Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek personally has taken over direction of the government's Manchurian campaign. Chou says there is a "critical turn" to the situation in the area, now being fought over by the central government and the communists.

General Chou made his statement to newsmen a few hours after the government's Central News Agency reported that National troops had captured the most important Manchurian city of Kirin—also known as Yungki—from the Communists. General Chou is the Communist party's negotiator in the peace discussions with government officials and with General George Marshall, United States envoy to China.

Even as he spoke, members of China's third-party Democratic League were arranging to resume peace talks with the government party (the Kuomintang). They were handicapped by the continued absence in Mukden, of Chiang Kai-Shek, Communist leaders and at this critical stage, any discussions would have little validity.

U. S. Army Newsmen Request Transfers

MANILA, May 29, (AP)—The entire staff of an Army newspaper—the Dally Pacifician—has requested transfer to other duties. The G. I.'s have stated that superiors required them to twist, mutt, bury and deceptively present the news. Under that policy, they assert the publication no longer could serve as a free and honest newspaper.

The assistant chief of staff of the Western Pacific Command—Brigadier General E. J. McGraw—says that control is necessary.

Seven Diplomas Given Students At Geneva School

Seven diplomas were presented by Principal W. L. Sieg to pupils graduating from the eighth grade at the Geneva School, Tuesday evening, and pins for 4-H Club achievements by girls were presented by Miss Emma Stevenson, acting home demonstration agent for the county in the absence of Mrs. Odilia Wilson, now recovering from illness. Leadership pins were presented to Mr. and Mrs. Sieg.

Graduates receiving diplomas were Fred Provatt, Jr., Jeanette McMahon, Hal Lee, June McMahan, Richard Brockman, Ruth McMahan, Donald McPhee, now taking a 4-H club course in Gainesville, was unable to be present to receive his diploma. A short address was given by Capt. T. W. Lawton to the class.

Music was by boys and girls in the Sears Garden Contest, was presented by Principal Sieg. The 4-H boys and girls told of their work. Mrs. Sieg read a poem "A Tribute to 4-H Club boys and girls" and also introduced people in the audience. Band selections were played. The 4-H boys and girls reviewed the club colors, and gave the 4-H pledge forming the 4-H clover emblem and singing club songs. Exhibits in sewing, food preparation, baking, dairying, poultry, honey, gardening and flowers were shown. Refreshments were served.

"The Am. Fed. of Labor, along with other unions, has been brought to the front in the fight against inflation. It is a fight that must be won."

Building operations in the Miami area, according to the Miami Herald, have been brought to a virtual standstill as a result of the strike against the building program which does not include the tender mercy of the unions.

And the smaller papers seem to feel pretty much the same way about it. "But this strike, led by the Am. Fed. of Labor, is being fought by the Am. Fed. of Labor," says Senator Pepper, for instance.

Building operations in the Miami area, according to the Miami Herald, have been brought to a virtual standstill as a result of the strike against the building program which does not include the tender mercy of the unions.

The Florida visitors of Foreign

Wards in a distant conference in Miami, were asked by Senator Pepper to support Senator Pepper's bill to support President Truman's labor legislation. It was agreed to do so.

Mr. J. C. Davis, son of Senator Pepper, said that he would be present to see Senator Pepper's reaction.

The government is planning the early construction of a four-lane super highway from Miami and east to Fort Lauderdale, $72,000,000. Eventually there will be a similar highway running through South Florida and running through Sanibel.

The Republicans are getting even with the Democrats by not supporting President Truman even when he is right. In Washington for leadership and remedial action." The Senate sees in the situation "Our industrial Pearl Harbor" and adds that "unless the Government of which Mr. Truman is now head provides leadership, it has ceased to be a Government."

The St. Louis Star-Times declares, "An administration which was all too vacillating in its approach while this disastrous situation was taking shape, now must rise to heights of resoluteness and firmness."

The Memphis Commercial-Appeal says that "Neither days to pass before providing effective checks on willful Government nor Congress will dare permit many more labor leadership gone mad."

Labor monopoly the Pittsburgh Post-Gazette says,

"Has challenged the might of the United States—and for the moment successfully."

Miami is having a tough time with polio this year. It is said not to have reached epidemic proportions, however, they have sprayed the entire area with DDT and a Jacksonian about as good as shooting at mosquitoes with cannons in a malaria infested area. No one seems to know what is the best thing to do about polio, but one thing is certain, it is a terrible harm to get rid of flies and mosquitoes and keep away from dirt anyway.

Phillip Murray of the CIO charges that President Truman's labor legislation is an un-American attempt to impose his own democratic and constitutional guarantees and threaten the freedom of speech. He is very much concerned about the sanctity of the Constitution now and the future of the country. Any sleep over that when the Supreme Court was being packed in order to get around the Constitution. It is unconstitutional to outlaw strikes against the government, which should be the right of all.

leaders in the critical Civil War period from Longstreet, but even in recent years the most courageous opposition to the South has stemmed from such bold Virginians as Glass and Bryan. Virginians manage to keep their political feet on the ground.

Press Comment

We have no doubt that some of our subscribers are tired of reading what we think about the state of affairs in this old nation of ours, and particularly with reference to the recent coal and rail strikes, and so we have decided to give them a little summary today of what other newspaper editors are thinking. Not all of them agree with us of course, but we agree with most of them, and if these executives seem a little out of place it is only because opinions on the other side are so hard to find.

Now you can take Senator Pepper, for instance: he has been almost universally condemned by the press of the state. The sole exception is the Tampa Tribune, who have endorsed Senator Pepper in shrinking from what he is doing. Senator Pepper is in shrinking from what we are not going to lie down and see labor crucified. His attempts to prevent any modification of existing labor laws, in order that wage controversies may be settled quickly without disastrous results, may power by union heads, have cost the consumers double.

Kettles And Payne To Face Saints In Twin Bill Tonight

St. Augustine Captures Wild 10-8 Contest Of Celery Feds Last Night

Manager Ed Levy announced this afternoon that Goose Kettles and Jim Payne will be given the hurling assignments tonight in the twin bill with the St. Augustine Saints at the Municipal Park. The double header gets underway at 7:30 P.M.

Kettles will hurl the first contest which will be played off the game rained out earlier this month. This contest is slated to go seven innings. The regularly scheduled game will follow with Payne on the hill.

In order to avoid a rush on the box office, Sanford Association officials this morning urged that fans come as early as possible. A crowd of approximately 1,200 is expected to witness tonight's games.

Should the Feds take both ends of tonight's dual bill, Sanford would then take over second place in the league standings.

on second place in the Florida State League here last night when they captured a wild contest over Manager Ed Levy's Celery Feds at Francis Field by a score of 10 to 8.

Jim Schantz, Sanford right-hander, started on the mound for the visitors, but was ejected in the fifth inning by Vampire Davis for protesting too vigorously a decision at the plate. Another righthander, Cal Blanc, took over the roundabout duties and hurled for three innings. Blanc was credited with the loss. Buddy Lake, left-fielder, tossed the eighth frame.

The three Fed hurlers were picked for 13 hits by the big bats of the Saints. However, Sanford rapped out 11 blows, three St. Augustine pitchers, Jim Ketcher, Tom Smith and Ed White.

The Saints gathered in a single tally in the opening frame, 1-0, in the second and produced another in their half of the third. However, Sanford opened its scoring hostilities in the fourth by pushing over a single marker. The Feds racked up another in the fifth but the Saints came back to score one also. Three Sanford runs in the sixth knotted the count at 5-all. The Feds went into the lead in their half of the seventh, with another three-run barrage but Blanc was unable to stop the Saints who came back in their half of the stretch frame to score four times and take a 9 to 8 lead. Another run by the Saints in the eighth was added to the St. Augustine margin.

Buddy Lake captured hitting honors for the evening with a single, double and a triple in four official trips to the plate. Dave Blodget connected three times in five trips. Levy recorded a single and a double in four appearances.

INSIDE SPORTS REPORT

By JULIAN STENSTROM

BASEBALL AND ORLANDO

The recent column on the Sanford Celery Feds by Charlie Wadsworth in the Orlando Morning Sentinel caused a great deal of talk among local baseball fans.

In fact, some of them have openly remarked that Wadsworth practically handed Sanfor the pennant. This is not quite the point that Wadsworth pointed out. He wrote that Sanfor was the hottest ball club in the league and one of the reasons why they were was because of the support local fans were giving Manager Ed Levy's fighting Feds.

We agree with Wadsworth 100 percent. But as to Sanfor winning the flag that is strictly another story.

Wadsworth, if you will remember, also proved the ability of the one time amazing Senators before they began their current slide. The same thing could happen to Sanfor.

To Promote the Progress of America;
To Produce Prosperity for Sanford.

U. N. Report On Franco May Not Be Ready

Huge Stack Of Evidence Having Bearing On Spain Case Submitted by Three

NEW YORK, May 30. (AP)—The United Nations Subcommittee on Franco-Spain may not be able to report back to the security council in time for tomorrow's deadline. Because of a huge stack of evidence submitted at the last minute by the United States, France and Britain.

The latest material supplied by the United States alone contains a great mass of confirmation plus 50,000 microfilmed pages of documents captured from German archives. This and the information provided by Britain and France, must be sifted by the Committee before it can complete its report. The committee now has closed its books to further evidence on the Franco question.

While the Franco subcommittee may not be able to report its findings to the Security Council tomorrow, indications are that the report will be ready before the council meets again. The council's next meeting may not be held until late next week however. Council members are now studying Shant's protest of so-called unprovoked aggression by French troops from Indo-China. There is no sign that the Chinese complaint will go before the council in the near future.

The Chinese protest was sent to the Secretary General of the UN. Trygve Lie. It is understood that similar protests have been forwarded to President Truman, Prime Minister Attlee, Premier Stalin and Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek.

The French version of the Indo-China fighting is given to night in an official communiqué. The communiqué says French forces recently entered Shan in pursuit of rebels who had raided French Indo-China.

Graves Of U. S. War Dead Decorated Today In Observance Of Memorial Day

WASHINGTON, May 30. (AP)—of the graves of those who did not return from battle, the rubble of Manila, Philippines. Commissioner Paul McNutt asserted the need for an end to racial intolerance.

Observances in 36 countries in seven European countries, all bid the familiar stamp of floral tributes and American flags buried there, as well as 18,418 still listed as missing.

From Chief Executive to humble citizen, the nation paused to pay respect to the dead of all wars. President Truman placed a wreath on the tomb of the Unknown Soldier in Arlington Cemetery. Patriotic, civic and veterans organizations likewise placed flowers on the monument erected to the bravery of those who fell on the battlefields of democracy.

Both at home and abroad, small flags were waving over the graves of men who lost their lives in the struggle for peace, security and national honor. This afternoon special Marine Corps observances were held at a monument on Constitution Avenue depicting the raising of the Stars and Stripes over Iwo Jima.

In the Pacific area itself, various American commanders in charge supervised the decorating as being observed.

WASHINGTON, May 30. (AP)—Starting early next month, the nation's housewives are going to have pay approximately a cent more a quart for milk, 11 cents a pound more for butter and an additional six cents a pound for cheddar cheese.

Economic Stabilizer Chester Bowles says these price increases he has authorized will add $250,000,000 annually to the nation's food bill. Bowles predicts even sharper hikes after July 1 if Congress eliminates or cuts food subsidies.

Bowles says the exact amount of the present price increases will be announced on the date they go into effect.

Britain Will Keep Drafting 18-Year Olds

Women's Branches Of
Army, Navy, Air Force To Continue
On Voluntary Basis

LONDON, May 30. (AP)—Britain's Minister of Labor and National Service, George Isaacs, announced today a British policy of continued conscription of 18-year-old men. Isaacs said the policy was to maintain a draft of armed forces until mid-1950. He explained that all men drafted during 1945 will serve two years. In 1946, the conscripts' length of service will be reduced progressively each two months so that those called up in the last two months of 1948 will serve only a year and a half.

Isaacs told Commons that the women's branches of the Army, Navy and Air Force will be continued on a voluntary basis.

He said that all men already in uniform by the end of this year will be mustered out on present age and service basis. He added that all new serving will be released by the end of 1948 and all men were drafted before 1944 will be let out by the end of 1947.

It was declared that the 18-year-old draft was expected to yield 180,000 men a year in both 1947 and 1948. The drafting of married and pregnant heads of households will be delayed long enough after the war to facilitate an increase in the couple of the new mothers.

Sanford, go off to a good start in the big game with a win in the 13-13 frame. Dave Bradt captained the Silvermen and Fred Simms to produce the victory. The Balts grabbed one in the fourth frame and three men scored and the sages were full behind Charley Bisson, newly around the bases, was called into the office and out the door. Bisson was effective in the ball park. Bisson gave only one hit in the next three frames but in order to hurt nothing, run him back to the tenth frame. Bisson was hit in the leg, came with a bang in the 13th frame. Dave Bradt singled to produce the victory. The Balts tallied on two singles and the second, but the two walks in the second.

Sanford went wild in the fourth when six singles and a walk produced five runs. The Balts added two in their half to end the game. Sanford pitcher, Jerry Simpson, continued on Page Four.

Grandstand Falls At Automotive Jubilee

DETROIT, May 30. (AP)—The Grand Jubilee, the automotive industry's largest health fair to more than a score of persons in the exhibition of a section of the grandstand. Four of the injured have been hospitalized as a result of the mishap in Detroit's Grand Circus Park.

Officials said the stand was made of steel-pipe framework with plank flooring. While police struggled through the bystanders to assist persons trapped under the wreckage, the program continued without interruption. As a result, only nearby spectators realized what had happened.

There was said to have been no pane among the 175,000 jammed into the arena to watch the unveiled of a 90-foot transportation symbol.
