Friendly Nuclear Talks On

GENEVA (UPI) — The nuclear test ban talks—only major East-West negotiations now in session—resumed today without even a mention of the U.S. spy plane incident that poisoned the summit conference.

All three chief delegates—American James J. Wadsworth, British Sir Michael Wright and Semyon K. Tsarapkin of the Soviet Union—described this first nuclear conference session since the Paris blowup as either "normal," "businesslike" or "useful."

Wadsworth said there were "no recriminations—not even an echo" of the spy plane incident, an indication the nearly 18-month-old negotiations here were running just as smoothly as when they recessed May 12.

Tsarapkin told the 26th meeting that the Soviet Union has "no intention of carrying out any nuclear explosion" in the framework of the three-power research program designed to perfect control of underground tests.

He asked that the United States provide foolproof "safeguards" to ensure that these nuclear shots, which the Soviets have accepted in principle, will be used solely for research purposes and not for test weapons.

Washington Economic Aid To Stop

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The United States announced today it will cut off all economic aid to Cuba in 180 days. This would be about Dec. 1.

The State Department said President Eisenhower determined last Saturday that continued aid to Cuba would not be in the national and hemispheric interest.

It was the first major U. S. reprisal against Premier Fidel Castro's government and the first time aid has been cut off to any Latin American country.

JAMES BEUSSE is class valedictorian.

NAS Officer Wins State Toastmaster Contest

Lt. Cdr. Jack Langford of the Sanford Naval Air Station took top honors in the statewide toastmasters speech contest held in Sarasota.

Representing the Seminole County Toastmasters Club and other central Florida clubs, Langford took first place competing against six other area winners.

Langford's prize winning subject was "World Disarmament."

The contestants were unaware of their topic until a few hours prior to the speaking. At that time, the contest judges gave three topics to each speaker with instructions to select one for the competition.

Langford's top rated effort stressed the evil of Communism and the need for free world arms to resist Communism.

Langford will now compete in the Southeastern contest scheduled to be held in Jacksonville June 11. Toastmaster champions from four states will compete.

Langford is currently serving as administrative officer of Heavy Attack Wing One at NAS.

According to President Chester Query of the local club, the only speech training Langford has received has been in the toastmasters organization.

Soviets Continue Bitter UN Debate On Spy Plane

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (UPI) — U. S. Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge today accused Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko of deliberately distorting President Eisenhower's report to the nation and said the president's "love of peace is a household word throughout the world."

Gromyko told the Security Council Thursday night that Eisenhower had brought "mankind to the brink of war" by declaring in his Wednesday night speech that the United States "intended to continue its policy of military espionage and sabotage against the Soviet Union."

Lodge said that "any honest reading of the president's speech shows that he said no such thing."

Lodge's remarks were a continuation of the bitter exchange over Soviet demands that the Security Council condemn U. S. spy flights. The demand was voted down 7-2 Thursday.

At Washington, Secretary of State Christian A. Herter acknowledged today that Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev might have found it impossible to torpedo the summit conference had it not been for the American spy plane incident.

It is debatable whether it would have been possible for Mr. Khrushchev to devise another pretext for so radical and violent a position," Herter told the Senate Foreign Relations Committee.

Herter, lead-off witness at the committee's historic inquiry into the events leading to the summit collapse, cited two other major factors which in "combination," he said, probably impelled Russia to scuttle last week's Paris Big Four meeting.

Khrushchev's apparent conclusion that in the face of Western unity, especially on the Berlin issue, "there was little likelihood of his having his way" at the summit.

"Serious questioning" and possibly outright opposition in the Soviet hierarchy to Khrushchev's personal diplomacy and so-called "softer" line toward the west.

Today Western diplomats were predicting that Gromyko now would veto a small power appeal for resumption of East-West peace talks under UN auspices, even though he conceded the resolution had some merits.

Lodge suggested that Gromyko "regretted" Eisenhower's decision to stop the spy flights.

"The only other possible explanation," he said, "is that Mr. Gromyko has taken leave of his senses, and I don't believe this is so."

Lodge said the United States never had engaged in sabotage "and Mr. Gromyko cannot cite one instance of sabotage by the United States."

"The structure of the world is not perfect, but it is not so fragile that war can break out because of a single mistake in international relations," he said.

Gromyko's claim Thursday night the Soviet resolution's main effect would be to shield America's "Hilferich" policy of aggression, Lodge called this "a fantastic allegation."

Board Assured Road Projects To Be Completed

County commissioners met in brief session today and discussed their county road program for the balance of the year and were given assurance the majority of the projects started would be finished by January.

County Engineer Robert Davis told the board that work will start on a portion of Banana Lake Road and Cecil Drive in the near future. He added that work is finished on paving Willy Ave. and Lake Mary Road.

"The rest of the money in the road budget will be used for maintenance and repair work to finish up the winter program," Davis said. "The way it looks now the entire road program will be carried out."

In other business during the special session, the board agreed to ask the State Road Department to pipe a ditch on Onora road to prevent flooding.

Agreed to contact the SRD to proceed with widening SR 427 from Altamonte Springs to Longwood as the program has been included in the SRD budget.

Put off until next Tuesday okaying a plat of the Longside subdivision and authorized Commissioner Lawrence Swiford to check with the Mayor A. R. Lormann of Longwood on the boundaries of the subdivision.

Turk Army Seizes Control

ATHENS, Greece (UPI) — Pro-Western army officers seized power in Turkey today in an apparently bloodless coup that toppled the strong-man regime of President Adnan Menderes. They promised to give Turkey "free elections" and keep it faithful to Western alliances.

Menderes, President Celal Bayar and National Assembly President Refik Koraltan were reported arrested.

The armed forces seized radio stations and other communications facilities, sealed off the border and set up a "committee of national unity" under Gen. Cemal Gursel, commander of Turkish land forces, to run the country.

The takeover slminated more than two years of domestic unrest and a month of riotous student-led protests against Menderes' government.

The students apparently were inspired by the student uprising which toppled Byngman Rhee's government in South Korea.

With most communications to the outside world cut off immediately after the army takeover, reports of the coup came from army broadcasts over the Turkish radio and diplomatic dispatches to other world capitals.

The Iranian government was informed by its representative in Turkey that Menderes was in custody and would stand trial.

The armed forces said Turkey would stand by its international obligations and remain "completely loyal to the United Nations charter and to the principle of human rights."

"We believe in NATO and CENTO and we are faithful to them," the original communique announcing the coup said.

Turkey is the strongest military power in the Middle East and a vital Western base.

It guards Russia's outlets to the Mediterranean from the Black Sea and forms the Western front-line between NATO and CENTO, the former Baghdad Pact, which allies Iran, Pakistan, Turkey, Britain and the United States.

The army which seized control is U. S.-equipped and trained and fought valiantly with the United Nations in Korea. It received heavy U. S. aid. The army numbers roughly 30,000 officers and 200,000 men.

U.S. Aid To Chile On Way

SANTIAGO, Chile (UPI) — A 34-plane U.S. air fleet carrying nearly 500 men and 400 tons of medicine and equipment was on its way here today to aid survivors of this week's disastrous earthquakes.

The mercy task force included the officers, men and equipment of the 300-bed 7th U. S. Army Field Hospital. It left the United States shortly before dawn Thursday to fly here by way of Panama and Peru.

Earthquakes continued to rock southern Chile and a 10th volcano was reported in eruption, but the worst of the disaster that is believed to have taken more than 3,100 Chilean lives appeared to have passed.

Fourteen persons were reported dead or missing Thursday in the Liffen area, 13 miles south of Valdivia, but it appeared they were victims of Sunday's earthquakes not heard of earlier because of disrupted communications.

Reports that a number of looters had been executed in Puerto Montt, one of the cities most heavily damaged by Sunday's quake and the tidal wave that followed, were denied by officials here.

Maj. Mander McAdams, assistant U.S. air attaché here, who made an emergency flight to Valdivia Thursday in a U.S. embassy plane, said people there are still "terribly distressed."

"Every time we land at Valdivia airport scores of people are waiting, willing to do anything to get out of there," he said. "It's still raining. There are still rum-

Lost Toe Sewed Back By Doctors

SILVIA, Ill. (UPI) — Austin Kinney lost his toe in a lawn-mower Thursday, but doctors sewed it back on.

Kinney, 28, was mowing his lawn when his left big toe got caught in the machine and the blades cut it off.

Doctors at a medical clinic summoned police, who sped to Kinney's lawn, found the toe, and rushed it back to the medical center.

Doctors performed an emergency graft to re-attach the toe. They said it will take five or six days to determine whether it will work.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL ... ALL FOR THE CHURCH
The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four good reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Only four strings! But these four strings offer endless possibilities of tone and harmony. They open to man new horizons of beauty and happiness. And yet, improperly played, these four strings can bring forth unbelievable discord! There are four strings in life — with similar possibilities. Mind ... Character ... Courage ... Faith! The truths that fill our minds, the ideals that mold our character, the purposes to which our courage is given, the realities in which we believe; these can fill our lives with rich beauty and happiness or drag ugliness and sorrow. For centuries the Church has been the maestro of these strings of life — helping men to bring from their own souls the harmony and beauty God has put there. You can find music in everyday living through participation in the work of the Church.

Hendrix Says Collins Support Defeated Carlton

OLDSMAR (UPI) — Ku Klux Klansman Bill Hendrix, an unsuccessful candidate for governor, said that Gov. LeRoy Collins' endorsement of candidate Doyle Carlton Jr. led to Carlton's defeat.

Hendrix, head of the Southern Knights of the KKK, is a long-time bitter opponent of Collins. He said Thursday that when Collins endorsed Carlton in the runoff with Farris Bryant, it was "the political death call" for Carlton.

The Klan chieftain also said that Bryant's nomination "gives Florida the chance to stand up with other great states of the South."

Collins' endorsement, said Hendrix, "drew thousands to the polls who would not have gone, but on Tuesday after the Collins' television speech there was a big rush that gave Bryant a great protest vote."

Hendrix was eliminated in the first primary May 3. He ended up eighth in a 10-man field in the race for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination.

A MOTHER-DAUGHTER banquet was given by the Girl Scouts of neighborhood No. 2 at the Pinecrest School, followed by a court of awards. Some of the girls who received awards and their leaders are from left, Cheryl Jones, Susan McKaskill and their leader, Mrs. Haney Smith, from Troop 296 and Mrs. W. W. When the Queen Mary sails out of New York City next Wednesday there will be two Sanford families aboard her. And this fact was not known to either one until this reporter began her usual inquisitive questioning this week!

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Southward and Mrs. Manuel Jacobson are the Sanforadians who will spend two months abroad.

The Southwards will fly to New York City Monday where they will have two days of sight-seeing—they have tickets to two Broadway hits, "Miracle Worker" with Anne Bancroft and "The Sound of Music" with Mary Martin. They also are fortunate to have reservations for the "Passion Play" in Oberammergau, Germany and the "National Flower Exhibit" in Amsterdam, Holland, both outstanding events not held annually.

Before ending their tour in Paris, they will have visited several countries including Ireland and Scotland which they will see in a rented English Ford.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacobson will leave Sanford on Sunday. Saying "Bon Voyage" to them on the Queen Mary will be their son, Dr. Sherwood A. Jacobson and his family who live in New York City. Their first tour will be of Paris—then to Rome where they will fly to the Holy Land for seven days. Later they will see Australia, Belgium, Switzerland and Holland before going to London, and then home. Their return trip will be on the Queen Elizabeth.

MRS. BAKER

NOT GOING ABOARD, but seeing a good bit of the east part of the States, will be Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Baker. They will leave by train on June 2 for a vacation that will join them with many friends and relatives.

Their first stop will be in Chatham, N. J., next Pittsburgh, Pa., and then on to Charleston, W. Va. In Louisville, Kentucky, they will visit their son, Bob, who is pastor of the Appliance Methodist Church there. After that visit Mrs. Baker says they will be so tired that they'll come dragging back home!

LORETTA (Mrs. Leonard) MUNSON, seen about town with a blonde hair-do and driving a new white Thunderbird, left yesterday with Dr. Munson for New Orleans. They will see their daughter, Betty Ann, receive her Fine Arts degree from Sophia Newcomb. After a two day stay back in Sanford, Loretta will leave for Natick, Mass., to see another daughter, Bobbie, graduate from Walnut Hill prep school. From there she will visit in Northampton and New York City before returning home.

Betty Ann Munson will go to New York City following her graduation—probably to pursue a career in Art and Bobbie will enter the University of Wisconsin next Fall.

REPRESENTING SANFORD GARDEN CLUBS at the President's Spring Conference in Winter Garden, Wednesday, were Mrs. Eric Vihlen, Mrs. Fred Ganas, Mrs. Volie Williams Jr. and Mrs. Ralph Jarvis.

"Hoist The Sail" was the theme of the district 7 conference and two consecutive years, Mrs. Nance has appeared before various civic organizations in Winter Park, Orlando, Tampa, Fernandina and once gave a benefit concert in this city. She has also been heard over radio stations throughout the state. She directs the Tolar School of Piano of this city.

Woman's Club Plans Installation

New officers for the coming year will be installed at the General Business Luncheon meeting of the Sanford Woman's Club, Wednesday starting at 12:30 p. m.

Mrs. H. C. Echelberger and her committee will be in charge of the luncheon. During the business session, members will vote on the recommended changes in the by-laws.

Mrs. Bryan A. Wright of St. Cloud, who is the new director of district 7, will serve as installing officer.

Reservations for the luncheon must be in no later than Tuesday noon. Call Mrs. Albert Hardesty at FA 2-5048.

Mantle May Be Headed For Bench

NEW YORK (UPI)—Sluggish Mickey Mantle may be headed for a seat on the New York Yankees' bench.
Manager Casey Stengel hinted as much after Thursday night's 2-0 victory over the Baltimore Orioles in which Mantle went 0-for-4 and stretched his string of hitless at-bats to 16.
"I ain't sayin' who," said Stengel, "but somebody's headed for the bench. I'm thinkin' of makin' some changes."
Mantle's average has dipped to a .235 and after Thursday night's game he admitted, "I'm swingin' like a rusty gate."

WEKIVA RIVER CATCH is shown by L. H. Bjortvedt, ADZ, of VAH-3 power plant division, who said he was "getting the meat" for a squadron fish fry. Bjortvedt was among many fishermen who put in at Camp Seminole this week and landed a nice string. Bream and shell crackers were plentiful and bass were being landed. (Herald Photo)

Stengel Happy All Over Again As Ford Comes Through In Clutch

United Press International
Casey Stengel wants it clearly understood that "Whiskey" is back on the beam and the Yankees are still in the American League.
Breathing defiance after Thursday night's 2-0 victory over the Baltimore Orioles out of first place, Stengel sounded more like a manager on a 16-game winning streak than one whose team had just ended a two-game losing skid. But it turned out his optimism was based on the fact that he'd been checking last year's race in addition to the fact that Ford once again looks like the Yankee "meal ticket."
That the Yankees are, for even though they're in fourth place they're only two games out of

Bait Box

You've got to get up early right now if you want to catch the bass, Bill Hiley advised fishermen today. Hiley reported that bass are being taken in Lake Jessup on shiners and plugs, but just about all of them are landed in the early hours.
Lake Jessup bream are active now and good catches are being strung up by groups using fly rods late in the afternoon, Hiley said. The bream should be in their regular beds after Thursday's new moon and pan fish lovers should do real well in the lake, he said.
Traffic on the Wekiva River has been thick the past couple of weeks and bream and bass catches have been exciting. Shell crackers weighing a pound were brought in to Wilbur Brewer's Camp Seminole during the week.
Space is limited in most outboard boats and when a family or a group of fishermen pile aboard with all their gear for a day of fun afloat, it's a big help if things are stowed so they will be out of the way, protected, yet easily reached when needed.
Mercury outboard authorities offer these suggestions for orderly stowage:
Wet, weedy, muddy anchors and lines are a perpetual problem. Buy a plastic dishpan, put the anchor in its center, and coil the line around it. Keep the pan under the a seat, out of the way, when not needed. No mess, no tangle, no scratched interiors, no bad tempers.

If you boat has a center deck, you may be able to attach hooks up under the deck to suspend life jackets dry, clean and out of the way. Tie loops of string around the jackets and slip the string over the hooks. Should you want a jacket, it can be yanked free instantly.
Give each child his own canvas bag for toys, candy and other small belongings. Establish a rule that items not in use shall be kept in bags.
Put a row of cup hooks under each seat, or screw several coats to a strip of wood and attach it to the cockpit side. Either makes a good place to keep sinkers and lures while fishing and removes a dangerous clutter off the cockpit floor.
Keep watches, key cases, wallets and other valuables in a one-quart plastic food container while swimming or skiing. Such a container will keep things dry, and will float if accidentally dropped overboard.

'Fun After Graduation' Starts Tonight After SHS Exercises

Tonight's the night that many Seminole High graduates have been looking forward to for many months.

'Fun After Graduation' gets underway immediately after graduation exercises for the 1960 graduating class.

Everything is in readiness for 9:30 p. m. as the doors to the Civic Center open wide for the formal reception.

Silver candelabra holding red and white tapers will grace the main serving table overlaid with heliolum linen. Satin ribbon carrying out the words 'Class of '60' will grace the front panel of white.

White linen cloths will also be placed on the individual tables. Floral arrangements matching the centerpiece of the main table will add the finishing touches to the stage arrangements and form a complete color scheme of red and white throughout the party area.

Mrs. Raymond Ball, caterer, will serve gourmet delights—sandwiches, cookies, punch, minis and nuts. Place cards will be arranged on the smaller tables.

At the close of the reception, the graduates will journey to the Ritz Theatre. Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Edge and their committee have made arrangements for a special showing of 'Never So Few' featuring Frank Sinatra and Gina Lollobrigida.

Returning to the Civic Center, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Miller and their committee have arranged for a special 'Dance' to be held between 1:30 and 3 a. m. in the morning.

At 8 a. m. breakfast under the chairmanship of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Wilson and their committee will be served.

Sanford Pools Set To Open Full Time

Starting Memorial Day and continuing to Labor Day, Sanford's two swimming pools, at Fort Mellon Park and Goldboro will operate on a full time basis.

Entertainment And Representation Worlds Apart For Overseas Officials

WASHINGTON (UPI)—When a foreign aid official buys a drink for someone in this country, it's called "entertainment." When he buys a drink overseas, it's called "representation."

Things like this confuse our congressmen, whose job it is to keep track of how foreign aid funds are spent. I'm not certain I understand it either.

However, I would give William J. Crockett, a State Department budget official, credit for making a valiant effort to explain it.

Crockett was one of a number of administration officials who testified before a House appropriations subcommittee recently in behalf of the new foreign aid budget.

As usual, the subcommittee spent a lot of time quizzing the witnesses about the money set aside to enable foreign aid officials to observe certain social amenities while on duty abroad.

In diplomatic circles, these funds are known as "representation allowances." In Congress, they are more commonly called "whisky funds."

Subcommittee Chairman Otto E. Passman (D-La.) noted that some funds were marked for "representation" and some for "entertainment."

Mr. Chairman, the witness replied, "representation is always used in the connotation of entertainment overseas, while entertainment is used in the connotation of domestic entertainment. We do not use representation domestically."

This subtle distinction apparently was lost on Passman who observed that "you have about the same amount of fun" either way.

Crockett, however, insisted that entertainment and representation were not the same thing.

"The representation item is abroad," he said, "may also include tokens of one kind or another that are considered appropriate in the case of, for example, the death of a foreign official."

Nixon Faces Pre-Convention Chore

By LYLE C. WILSON
 WASHINGTON (UPI)—Vice President Richard M. Nixon's toughest pre-convention chore is a farm belt speech booked for June 30.
 He will speak before the North Dakota state convention of the American Legion. Nixon agreed about a week ago to appear there, having previously refused to go into North Dakota in June. The vice president may have changed his mind because he is an organization politician who believes in answering distress calls when they come.

Republican distress in North Dakota centers around a June 28 special election to name a successor to the late Republican Sen. William Langer. North Dakota is a Republican state with maverick instincts.
 The June 28 special election will be a valid test of farm state voter sentiment just a month before the Republican national convention meets in Chicago. Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Taft Benson and the price of farm products are the prime North Dakota issues.
 That is what makes it tough for Nixon. It is not likely that he can get in and out of North Dakota without taking a firm and public position on farm policy. An American Legion speech can be devoted wholly to national defense and related matters, but there will be new conferences and huddles with local political leaders.

Gov. John E. Davis is the Republican senatorial nominee; Rep. Quentin Burdick the Democrat. If Burdick likes Davis, the practical politicians in both parties will hold Benson responsible. Republican farm belt candidates for House and Senate would judge that result to mean that they must repudiate Benson to survive.
 For Nixon and the Republican Party, the election of a Democrat to fill Langer's seat would be damaging to morale. Nixon would be further hurt by a Democratic victory following his appearance in the state.

The vice president may meet this situation by repudiating Benson as, for example, by announcing that Benson would not be in a Nixon Cabinet.
 That would be big political news because it would represent a major break with the Eisenhower administration.

Golfer Killed By Lightning

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (UPI)—One of five golfers knocked flat when a bolt of lightning struck a golf course died Thursday night and one of his companions remained hospitalized today.

James J. DeGrauw died in the recovery room at Baptist Hospital where he was receiving oxygen and blood transfusions.
 Doctors cut open DeGrauw's chest and massaged his heart after he and his four companions were scattered "like ten-pins" when the bolt ripped down on the McCabe municipal golf course Thursday.

Robert Sutton, 38, was listed in good condition at St. Thomas Hospital.
 Walker Felts, a golfer who had taken refuge in the clubhouse before the storm, said he saw the lightning strike.
 "It looked like it hit in the middle of them," he said. "There were five of them. It scattered them like ten-pins, knocked all of them down."
 "Four of them got up and the fifth man (DeGrauw) tried to, and he fell back over," said Felts. "They had to carry him in. He was unconscious but he appeared to be breathing."

Felts said DeGrauw's brother, Jack, administered mouth-to-mouth artificial respiration in an effort to revive the victim.

A Family Affair
 LYNDONVILLE, Va. (UPI)—The general psychology class at Lyndon Teachers College has been turned into a family affair. Attending classes are Mrs. Virginia Eaton, 39; her daughter, Mrs. Frank Pollett III, 19, her husband, 24, and his 21-year-old brother, Harrison.

If H-Bomb Dropped On Hollywood, Producers Would Be Too Busy To Run

HOLLYWOOD (UPI)—If an H-bomb were dropped on Hollywood, producers would be too busy to run for shelter.
 The U-2 incident which put the entire world in an uproar has had reverberations in Hollywood—in the form of a stampede to capitalize on the significance of the event.
 One writer-producer, James Clavell (best known for his science-fiction epic, "The Fly") already has filed a "U" for his version of the reason for the summit meeting collapse.
 "How do you like this for a title—The True Story of Francis Powers, American? He's the pilot who was captured by the Russians."
 "I've talked to his wife, Barbara, down in Milledgeville, Georgia, and she's very interested in the idea I have to bring Powers' story to the screen," Clavell said. "Apart from the drama and consequences of Powers and the U-2, a picture of his life might help win his freedom."

 Clavell didn't have any concrete plans as to how his movie might get Powers off the book, but he believes the world should know more about the man who currently is at the mercy of the Soviets.
 "This could be one of the great mystery stories of our time," he added.
 "Did he land in Russia purposely? Was he a Russian agent? Was he double-crossed by a counter-spy? Why didn't he use the suicide kit? Why was he engaged in the work—for money, patriotism or what? These are just a few of the questions that come to mind. I hope to answer them."

 Whatever Clavell's motives, he will have to hurry if he doesn't want his project buried in a rush of low-budget quickies based on an American spy being shot down behind the Iron Curtain.
 He realizes the competition is racing to get to the screen first. "They're just interested in exploiting the story," he said. "That isn't my intent. I am interested in telling the moving story of a man swept up in monumental events and to show his contributions and reactions to what has happened."

Unemployment compensation benefits paid during 1959 amounted to slightly more than $2.25 billion, according to Commerce Clearing House. The total compared with payments of $3.3 billion in 1958.

WASHINGTON CALLING

by Marquis Childs

WASHINGTON—On the day the summit blew up the London Times had in its Letters to the Editor column a communication with some wise things to say about this business of reacting to the Russians. The writer, William Sargant of the Department of Psychological Medicine of St. Thomas Hospital in London, pointed to the way in which the Soviets succeed in keeping the West off balance by taking first one line and then another by shouting peace one moment and aggression the next. He suggested that this was a deliberate technique patterned after the discoveries of the great Russian scientist Pavlov, showing how animals can be broken down by conditioning them to one set of signals and then deliberately altering those signals. Pavlov's dogs went berserk when the lights flashed on and off in a different pattern than that to which they had become conditioned at feeding time. In the West took the Russian soft line on peace and now there is evidence of frenzied reaction to the hard line. The analogy is too close for comfort.

Once again we are reacting to the evil deeds of communism as though we had not long ago had every reason to understand the real nature of the Communist challenge. The Kremlinologists are dredging up old flesh-creeching tales of Stalin's death and Khrushchev's ruthless deeds. It is as though the boogymen had to be taken out of the closet to frighten the children again.

Surely this renewed preoccupation says something about the direction—or lack of it—of the West. In the void that has been created there is an opportunity for self-examination.

The stress from the Eisenhower administration has been almost entirely on the production of more goods for a consuming public engaged in the pursuit of happiness through gadgetry. Western Europe seems to be following the American lead. With the spread of installment buying a consumer goods boom is developing that resembles the American boom. While many in the older generation wring their hands over the "Americanization" of Europe it is proceeding apace, with snack bars and hot-dog stands and traffic jams rivaling ours.

Obviously, the West should not and could not, in meeting the Communist challenge, imitate the austere garrison society of the Soviet Union. Khrushchev, in his avowed intention of exceeding the American living standard, has spoken almost anxiously of the "burn of plenty that spills out in the West. But, nevertheless, a large question remains as to how this lush, free-wheeling society reacts to the new signals out of Moscow. It is to be just "you're another," with that nuclear chip piled higher and higher on the shoulder?

The nuclear test talks which have been going on in Geneva for 18 months are a case study. After the solid months of concentrated effort that have gone into them, with all three negotiators—James Wadsworth for USA, Sir Michael Wright for Britain, and Semyon Tsarapkin for the Soviets—deeply desirous of achieving an effective system of control and inspection to end testing, neither side wants to be responsible for breaking off the talks. But because political decisions had to be taken at the top on major issues these talks cannot now succeed, and it is vain delusion to pretend that they can. The forces in Washington and in Moscow opposed to even such a small beginning at controlled disarmament have been strengthened.

In Washington the pressure will certainly be great to begin weapons tests, looking to the smaller nuclear arms that are the goal of those arguing for pushing on with the program. There should, however, be no illusions about the consequences if the decision is taken to go on with military testing. The Soviets will immediately follow suit.

Their tests have been massive and dirty and they will be massive and dirty again, with no nonsense about "clean" bombs. Because of the pattern of air currents from Siberia the fallout will again be greatest over Canada and the Northern tier of states.

In playing the game of the nuclear chip-on-the-shoulder the Soviets can always win because they have no inhibitions of conscience about "winning" in any way. Their propaganda will be to the effect that since the United States started it they were forced to follow suit. If weapons tests are resumed the administration in Washington must have no delusions about the consequences. The price of further development will be high.

The outlook for the 10-nation disarmament conference is even more certainly failure—just possibly the nuclear test talks can be kept flickering alive for the next six to eight months while disarmament is bound to grind to dreary propaganda halt. Due to resume on June 7, the conferees had expected that they would get from the summit a new directive, limiting the objectives in the first phase to what might be at least remotely possible. Without such a directive they will take up where they left off, which was nowhere. That is to say in a propaganda stalemate, with the Soviets demanding sweeping overall disarmament and the West insisting on a step-by-step approach with controls applied at each step is taken.

WASHINGTON—Take it from an old spying hand, there are pitfalls in the art. . . .

Former undercover man Sen. Everett Dirksen (R., Ill.)—who looks less like a spy than the Statue of Liberty—gave us an inside chapter on a rare World War I spying blunder.

He came up with this "me-too" tale moments after he left the Senate floor where he defended the U-2 mission.

Ever since the U-2 plane incident, Dirksen has been trying to convince people around him that spying isn't anything new. Only the Encyclopedia Americana tops him in age-old spy stories, such as his account of the Greek Histiaeus of Miletus, who fell into Persian hands.

This Greek character, so the story goes, solved the problem of communication by having a slave's head, writing on the scalp and sending the slave to the Greeks when the hair was regrown. The Greeks shaved the slave's head to find the message.

But the Dirksen spy story is modern history. The setting is Germany during World War I when the young Army officer from Illinois, then in his early 20s, was assigned to G-2.

As we crowded around him, Dirksen mellifluously recounted the first person story about "Everett" and the Spy Girl. "This was a routine, he shows how meticulous one must be in carrying out his duties.

Paraphrased, this is the never-before-told mellerdrammer of Everett the Spy:

"I was assigned this rather interesting mission in view of my fluency of the German language. I was to shadow a young woman who was known to be spying for the enemy.

"I came upon her in a restaurant. She was with her mother. I took a seat nearby. Presently, she caught my eye, and—fortunate for me—she asked me to join them. She mentioned that she hadn't the money to pay the check and I was happy to oblige."

The raconteur paused, ran his fingers through his sparse tufts of white hair, and we listened spellbound.

"Then she invited me up to her place for tea. Conveniently, her mother went in another direction. "While I sipped the tea, she looked up at me and said: "Young man, they should see to it at your headquarters that before they send you out on an assignment they give you more training."

"I replied," said the senator, "What do you mean? And she smiled and shook her head in disdain.

"Whereupon I looked down and to my horror discovered a most embarrassing oversight."

The senator was attired, for this spring occasion, in civilian clothes—naturally. But he had forgotten to change his tell-tale russet military shoes!

No congressional investigation ever came out of this G-2 bungling, but the crowd of reporters nevertheless urged the senator on. "What did you do then?" one of them asked.

"Why, I had another cup of tea, naturally. . . ."

Mr. Billopp

When a man meets a person from another city he may be reminded that he has a friend there. It is natural that he should ask the person just met if he knows the friend.

If the friend is known they can remark on how small the world is and discuss him at great length to the enjoyment of both. There need be no hunting around for a topic of conversation.

A man's family will object strongly to this practice. They will tell him that it is provincial to ask persons from other cities if they know friends there. They will point out that the city is a large one and the person met and the friend may live miles apart and live in different circles of society and that it bores other people to deal in personalities.

They will say there are so many other important things to discuss. He could talk about books, or music or art. He could provoke a discussion over the choice of a President. He could bring up the matter of progress made in recent years in the field of electronics and inquire of the newly introduced person whether he thinks the Soviet Russians are ahead of us, and if so how large is the gap.

They will say that any subject of conversation is better than dealing in personalities. They will remind him that in spite of repeated warnings he continues to do it and as a result gives the impression of being unsophisticated.

So the man takes the advice of his family to heart and keeps away from personalities. But what is surprise when, as he hesitates whether to omit the conversation with art or electronics, the sophisticated person from another city, learning what city he comes from inquires "Do you by any chance know my friend Jim Smith there?"

WORRY CLINIC by Dr. G. W. Crane

CASE E-471: Donnie B., aged four, is left handed.

"Dr. Crane, what should we do?" his worried mother began.

"I have heard that it makes a child stutter if you try to change him from using his left hand and convert him into a right hander."

Many many tools and musical instruments, as well as school desks, are built for right handers, aren't they?

"So wouldn't it be better for Donnie to become right handed?"

Perhaps five percent of people are left handed. That's 1 in 20.

Some people used to think it was due to left vs. right sided brain dominance.

Changing a lefty (southpaw) into a right hander has no ill effects if you do it in a tactful manner and don't keep yelling at the child incessantly.

It was the yelling and consequent nervous tension that caused a larger percentage of left handers to stutter.

One theory of right vs. left handedness, is the fact that before birth, while in the mother's womb, most babies have the right hand free but the left is more constricted.

And anything which causes one hand to be used more than the other, predisposes the child to use the more experienced hand.

Suppose, for example, that your baby uses both hands equally during the first day after his birth.

You can then make him a lefty or right hander just by the tactful way in which you upset that 50-50 balance.

"On the other hand, the reason they may not be growing is because you planted the seeds upside down"

POSTCARDS by Stan Delaplane

A few romantic days ago in Honolulu, one of the professional kissers made a public protest:

"To many people come now," he mumbled. "Lips get tired."

The professional kisser was a man with a little mileage on him—he was 65, the way I heard it. He had been kissing incoming tourists for 30 or more years.

A professional kiss is Hawaii's equivalent of the key to the city.

You arrive in the Paradise of the Pacific. You expect a little romance. Friends meet you. They hand a flower lei around your swan-like neck. They give you a big smooch. . . .

Not all of us who arrived in these coco palm lands have local friends. So the Waikiki hotels sent out professional kissers with armfuls of leis.

"Aloha!" they said. Smack. "Aloha!" Smooch.

"This worked out very well in the old days—when the big day every two weeks was Boat Day. On that day, the Lurline sailed in with a thousand new un-kissed tourists and look a thousand sun-kissed people back to the mainland."

Now with the jet airplane, the kisser's job is ten-fold.

United Air flies ten flights a week into Paradise.

Pan American has 18 planes each kissing week.

And the Qantas flights to and from Australia; Canadian Pacific planes; Northwest, Japan Air Lines and Flying Tigers; the charters and the noskeds.

Each jet carries 115 un-kissed (but willing) passengers.

It is enough to put a fat lip on the most conscientious kisser.

"No kisser can work a straight 8-hour day," said Gus Guslander, who runs the new King Kamehameha Hotel on the Big Island. "We are going to have to work out new shifts."

When I said no, she left me standing there with my lips puckered up. . . .

This has left newly opened Tahiti in a favorable position to compete with over-kissed Hawaii.

"You are confirmed on your flight to Tahiti," said the lady at South Pacific Air Lines. (The old Dollar Steamship Line is now airborne. It flies direct to the islands of Gauguin.)

"Let me ask you a question, ma'am. Do they kiss you on arrival in Tahiti?"

"Yes. Every passenger on South Pacific Air Lines is guaranteed one genuine Tahitian kiss. We intend to compete in every way with Hawaii."

"Are they professional kissers?"

"The profession of kissing is not native in Tahiti. Our kissers are not—shall we say experienced?—as the Hawaii kisser who has been bussing the tourists for so many years.

"However, I think you will agree that, in kissing, it is the spirit that counts. Tahiti has that spirit. Do you know the difference between the Hawaiian hula and the Tahitian hula?"

"The Tahitian hula bumps more. The girl looks like she is going over a corollary road in a jeep."

"That is the way it is with the Tahitian greeting kiss. We predict that once you have had the Tahitian kiss, the Hawaiian smooch will not satisfy."

There was no kiss waiting for me at the Royal Hawaiian when I checked in. But the manager sent up a fresh-cut pineapple.

Pineapple never gets tired. And it has no union.

Three Minutes A Day

By JAMES KELLER

A fruit store worker was robbed of the $1,400 that he had saved and borrowed to bring his wife to see her ailing mother in England.

While waiting for a subway to go to pick up plane tickets at a travel agency, three young men who had probably seen him take the cash from the bank appeared and threatened him at knife point.

In a matter of seconds this hard-working man lost the treasure that had taken years to accumulate. Those bent on stealing were alert. They trailed him until they found him an easy prey in an unguarded moment.

Avoid jeopardizing a lifetime of good by taking unnecessary risks. Not only is your temporal welfare involved, but your eternity is at stake.

Do more than protect your own personal interests. Those who remain on the defensive seldom accomplish much good and sometimes lose the very treasure they try to defend. Follow the example of Christ who urges us to work for the good of everyone and thereby serve our own best interest.

"He who does the will of God abides forever."

(1 John 2:17)

Let Your love for all men, O Master, be the driving force of my life.

Happiness Through Health Sinusitis

(By DR. F. LEO KERWIN)

Sinuses are cavities in the bones of the face, filled with air, opening into the nasal passages but not part of the nose. When there is sinus trouble, the membranes lining the sinuses become thickened and there is an excessive secretion. Acute cases are usually accompanied by pain. There may or may not be pus formation. Normally you have eight sinuses (four pairs). Trouble may be present in any one or any combination of these.

Once the sinus trouble is permitted to become chronic, symptoms are constant and annoying.

Chiropractic adjustments reach the sinuses through the nervous system, thereby removing congestion of blood and increasing circulation. Adjustments have usually been successful in correcting many cases of sinusitis. If you have sinus trouble, don't neglect the condition, try Chiropractic.

One of a series of articles published in the public interest to explain and illustrate the practice of scientific Chiropractic, written by Dr. F. Leo Kerwin whose office is located at 201 S. French Ave. and his telephone number is FAirfax 2-7442.

New Babe Ruth Imitates Babe's Mighty Power

PITTSBURGH (UPI) — Huge Frank Howard, the kid some scouts call the "new Babe Ruth," picked the 25th anniversary and the place of the Babe's last homer to imitate his tremendous power Wednesday night. Howard, the Los Angeles Dodgers' $108,000 bonus player, hit a homer in the second inning of the Dodgers' 5-1 victory over the Pittsburgh Pirates. It was estimated that the blast over the left field wall traveled 860 to 870 feet in the air.

NOW LOOK WHAT CORVAIR'S GONE AND DONE!

The same Corvaire that tallied a chumping 27.88 miles per gallon* in the Mobilgas Economy Run... went right on to climb Pikes Peak earlier in the spring than any car has ever tried!

We wanted to show you what the fabulous traction of Corvaire's rear-engine design and the sure-footedness of four-wheel independent suspension really mean. So the identical Economy Run car went right on to 14,110-foot Pikes Peak—and right up to the top of that savage mountain, on April 15, still deep in winter's snow and ice. No other car—even specially equipped—had ever been able to conquer that nightmare alpine road so early in the spring. But Corvaire (with United States Auto Club officials aboard to certify that not one nut or bolt was changed) purred right to the summit without chains or even snow tires! That just underscores the fact that Corvaire is totally unique. But you'll find that's not all. You'll find five minutes you're at the wheel!

Holiday Death Toll Climbing

Sanford Girl Killed; 269 Die Over Nation

An 11-year-old Sanford girl was killed and three others injured in a two-car collision Saturday night on Hwy. 17-92 as Florida and the nation's accidental death toll soared today with the homeward rush of traffic from the Memorial holiday weekend still to come.

A United Press International survey showed 14 dead in Florida. Eleven died in traffic, two in drownings and one in a fire. Sharon Glover, 801 Rosalia Dr., died of head injuries shortly following her arrival at Seminole Memorial Hospital, Sheriff J. L. Hobby said.

The girl's mother, Mrs. Gloria Glover, her brother, Willard, 10, and sister, Suzanne, 12 months were injured. The father, Willard Robert Glover, 39, was uninjured.

The Glover car was rammed from behind sending it reeling into a power pole and crashing 105 feet away into Ratliff's garage on Hwy. 17-92, south of Sanford, according to Deputy Roy Alford.

Harold D. King, a 22-year-old sailor, driver of the other car, was charged with manslaughter and driving while intoxicated, Sheriff Hobby said.

The Glover car was totally destroyed, and King's auto received $750 in damages. King is being held on bonds of $5,000 and $300. Services for the 11-year-old girl will be held in the Church of God, French Ave., at 3 p. m. Wednesday with the Rev. Joel Brown, officiating. Grambow Funeral Home is in charge.

United Press International counted 269 traffic deaths over the nation since the three-day holiday began at 6 p. m. Friday. In addition, 58 drowned and 40 were killed in miscellaneous accidents for an overall total of 376.

Ohio led the nation in highway deaths with 26. North Carolina and New York had 17, Michigan and Alabama 15, Indiana and Pennsylvania 13 and Georgia, California and Illinois 12.

"It might be armed with a hydrogen bomb," he said. He said the Soviet Union had all it needed to strike such a retaliatory blow "at a political satellite and at a leader no matter behind which ocean they were hiding."

"This is not a threat, but a warning," he added. Malinovsky referred to the incident of the U-2 spy plane shot down over Russia May 1 and said Western powers did not know the Soviet Union had an aircraft guided missile.

He said Soviet rockets could hit a target "much higher" than 65,000 feet at which a U-2 can fly. He said there was no plane with such a high ceiling "as to be unreachable for our rockets."

Malinovsky again blamed the United States for the collapse of the summit conference. He said that if a Soviet plane ever had violated the territory of another state it was unintentional and "we, like honest people, apologized and punished those guilty."

Marion County deputies said they traced the truck to R. E. Williams Jr. of Live Oak, who admitted leaving the boy at the hospital. Williams was charged with assault with intent to murder. Shaffer had been living with Mr. and Mrs. Hilton Scott of Goldenrod. The Scotts said he left for Indiana after he got a letter from his grandmother, Mrs. Alva Shaffer, telling him she was sick.

Williams said he had picked the boy up north of Orlando when he saw him hitch-hiking. But he denied shooting him. He said he did not know Shaffer was hurt until the boy asked his arm as they were riding and said "get me to a hospital." Deputies said they found a bullet hole in the window of the door on Shaffer's side of the truck.

Jaycees Urged To Ignore Mediocrity In Outlook

State Jaycee President Teony Johnson urged local Jaycees not to be satisfied with "mediocrity" and to do their best to aid Sanford's community growth.

Johnson spoke to over 120 Jaycees and their wives at the organization's installation ceremonies Saturday night.

Acting as installing officer, Johnson installed John Alexander as Jaycee president for the new year. Johnson told the Jaycees that "less than your best is worse than nothing." He added that being average was no help. "You all must strive to be above average and give back to the community what the community has given to you."

He said that community betterment should be the goal of every Jaycee. Alexander, replacing Mason Wharton as president, asked Jaycees for their cooperation in making this year the best in the local organization's history.

Citrus Growers, Shippers Plan Meeting June 14

The Growers & Shippers League of Florida will hold its 37th annual meeting in Orlando June 14-16, Gordon C. Stedman, executive vice president, announced today.

J. J. Parrish, Titusville, president of the league, has issued the call for the annual gathering of growers and shippers. He said "and the San Juan hotel will be our headquarters."

The Growers & Shippers League is the official representative of the Florida Citrus Commission, Florida Citrus Mutual, Citrus Processors Association and the Florida Express Shippers Association in traffic-transportation business. The league is a non-profit organization.

A meeting of the league's executive committee will be held at the San Juan at 2 p. m. to start the sessions June 14. There will be a cocktail party, sponsored by Central Truck Lines, at 5 p. m. The annual banquet and business meeting starts at 6:30 p. m. Last item on the agenda will be the annual election.

"A most interesting meeting is being planned," Stedman said in making his announcements, "with many matters concerning transportation up for discussion, such as 'piggy back' operations by railroad carriers, the latest in mechanical refrigeration, the new produce market for New York City in New Jersey, plus considerable more affecting Florida's fruit and vegetable industries."

The speaker for the evening at the annual banquet will be announced soon, Stedman said.

Memorial Day Service Draws Sparse Crowd

A sparse crowd gathered at the Sanford Bandshell today to attend special Memorial Day ceremonies in memory of the war dead.

Approximately 30 Sanfordites heard solemn prayers and speeches given by members of the First Baptist Church, Branch 147, the Ladies Auxiliary, and the principal address by William Holcomb, local investment broker.

Chaplain R. M. Laurensano of the Sanford Naval Air Station conducted the devotional services. Vic Arnett, president of the PRA and Libby White, president of the Ladies Auxiliary, conducted the wreath service.

Similar ceremonies were being held throughout the nation and around the world. Speakers at scores of Memorial Day gatherings stressed the need for a strong defense in the new period of cold war tensions.

Rep. James E. Van Zandt (R-Pa.) said in an address at Atlanta, Pa., that "until universal peace is assured there could be no more willed folly than to lower our guard and relax our watchfulness."

"Even were we willing to abandon eternal vigilance and thus assume as terrible a risk for our own generation—we have no right to expose our children and their children to a future of unspeakable possibilities," he said.

The American Legion said that legionnaires residing in France, Belgium, England, Holland, Italy, Tunisia, Luxembourg and the Philippines would place flags on graves in U. S. military cemeteries in those countries.

The speaker for the evening at the annual banquet will be announced soon, Stedman said.

FSU Suspends Star Halfback

TALLAHASSEE (UPI)—Two Florida State University football players, including star halfback Jack Kespenship, have been suspended from school, the university announced today.

Kespenship, who would be a senior this fall, and sophomore end Lamar Lee of Live Oak were suspended "for disciplinary reasons."

FSU officials said the suspensions were recommended by the university disciplinary committee because of violation of university regulations. No further details of the violation were disclosed.

Police Recover Stolen Auto

A car stolen from an Orlando dealer last May 9, was recovered by Sanford Police Saturday after the car had been wrecked.

J. Flynn, Central Florida Motors told police Willie Lee Brown, a Negro from Sanford took the car to try it out and never returned. Police spotted Brown Saturday on Sanford Ave., and apprehended him after he had been on a chase in Colony Ave. The chase ended when Brown rammed into a stone bridge.

News Briefs

Rhee In Seclusion
HONOLULU (UPI)—Syngman Rhee, former president of the Republic of Korea, was in seclusion today after leaving his homeland—perhaps forever. The 85-year-old former ruler and his wife, Francesca, arrived Sunday aboard a chartered plane.

Red Spies
STORNOWAY, Scotland (UPI)—Russian spy ships were reported operating today off Britain's secret Hebrides rock range and jamming vital radar communications. British newspapers carried the reports in bannerline stories but the British government declined to confirm or deny them.

King Acquitted
ATLANTA (UPI)—Negro leader Martin Luther King Jr., Sunday called his acquittal of tax perjury charges by an all-white Alabama jury the "dawn of hope" for just treatment of Negroes in the South. The civil rights advocate cautioned he saw "no miraculous conversion" in Alabama, where he led the successful Montgomery bus boycott in 1955.

Search Off
JACKSONVILLE (UPI)—Officers called off a two-state search Sunday after a 17-year-old girl admitted her story of being kidnapped, beaten and robbed was not true. Janie Charlene Mosley, who works at a Jacksonville supermarket, said she made up the story to cover her absence from work Saturday when she went out on a date.

Runoff Called
RALEIGH, N. C. (UPI)—Dr. I. Beverly Lake is expected to make an official call today for a run-off with Terry Sanford for North Carolina's Democratic gubernatorial nomination in a hotly drawn square along racial lines. Sanford, a 48-year-old Fayetteville attorney who tried to avoid bringing the question of integration into the first primary, won about 41 percent of the vote in Saturday's first primary.

Ike Criticized
MIAMI BEACH (UPI)—A double-barreled blast of criticism against the Eisenhower administration, issued today from the Amalgamated Clothing Workers of America union conference. Frank Don James Sr. pointed out all of the administration's in a keynote address and the union's general executive board issued a 120-page report echoing his sharp protest.

2 Dead; 25 Hurt As Grandstand Falls At '500'

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (UPI)—Two persons were killed and an estimated 25 more injured today when a temporary grandstand on the northeast turn infield collapsed at the 500-mile race.

The Indianapolis Motor Speedway confirmed the accident and said "eight or 10" spectators were injured and taken to the field hospital.

The hospital declined to give any information on casualties "because we're so busy right now." But track reporters said it was confirmed that two persons were dead and many others hurt.

Word of the collapse came less than 10 minutes after the race started. The infield seats are bleacher-type structures without a covering.

Quake Torn Town Starts Rebuilding

CONCEPCION, Chile (UPI)—The 150,000 citizens of Concepcion have started rebuilding this earthquake-shattered city even while the ground continues to shake under their feet.

Concepcion had to rebuild once before—in 1939 when an earthquake wrecked the city. Now it must do the job all over again.

Two tremors shook Concepcion Sunday while bulldozers were clearing rubble and heavy cranes were knocking down towering walls. The first, at mid-morning, caused no alarm but the second, at the dinner hour, sent residents scurrying into the streets.

Several walls of buildings damaged when the first big shocks hit the city nine days ago collapsed in a cloud of dust.

The latest count of the dead in Concepcion stands at 138. More than 200 houses were demolished and many others damaged beyond repair. Thousands of persons are homeless.

Fisherman Reels In His Dead Son

CLARKSVILLE, Tenn. (UPI)—A soldier who had taken his family on an outing discovered Sunday that his young son and daughter had drowned when he pulled in his son's body on a fishing line.

"At first I thought I had a fish and started reeling it in," Thurman H. Jenner, 31, said, "but it was very heavy and I began to think it was a log or a branch. When it was about three feet away, I saw it was my boy."

"I reached down and grabbed an arm. My wife got hysterical," Jenner, of Truman, Ark., stationed at Ft. Campbell, Ky., had taken his wife and children on an outing and was fishing while his wife prepared lunch and the children, Robert 11, and Sharon, 16, played.

Jenner tried artificial respiration in vain on Robert's body while rescue units dragged for his daughter. Jenner theorized Sharon fell down a bank and Robert, who could swim a little, went in to save her.

Poisonous Snake Bites 'Expert'

MIAMI (UPI)—Snake expert William E. Haast apparently won his 53rd battle against the bite of a poisonous snake today.

Haast was rushed to Children's Variety Hospital Sunday in critical condition after being bitten by a diamond back rattlesnake while preparing to extract venom from the serpent.

Clean Up

This is Clean Up, Paint Up, Fix Up Week in Sanford and Mayor Earl Higginbotham has urged residents, businesses and organizations to take part in brightening up the town.

The garden circles already have a program of planting underway and some businesses have made renovations before the spring season began.

The city has completed painting the library and the police station.

The Herald is running some Clean Up, Paint Up Fix Up suggestions this week. They are on Pages 6 and 7.

City Board Okays Zeuli Extension

City commissioners, at a special meeting Saturday, gave Philip Zeuli permission to begin construction on a proposed extension of Scott Ave., on the south side of Eighth St.

This was the third vote on the plat of Zeuli's subdivision which recently was annexed by the city. The location of the street in question had been protested by F. D. Scott, who argued that its extension as proposed by Zeuli would devalue his property.

The street, to be constructed approximately 100 feet west of the original Scott Ave., which would face Scott's property.

Scott, who said his property would lose value because the lights of the oncoming cars on the proposed extension would directly face his home, suggested that Zeuli construct the road at an angle or curve.

Zeuli argued he could not do so, because he would lose a lot if he did. City attorney W. C. Hutchison told the commissioners that Zeuli had a legal right to construct the road on his property as long as he was in compliance with the health, welfare, and safety of the community.

City Manager Warren E. Knowles pointed out that a straight road was less hazardous than the other curved or angle roads suggested.

The plat as originally presented by Zeuli was then approved in a split vote. Commissioner J. H. Crapps and Joe Baker cast a dissenting vote, while Al Wilson and Robert Brown voted in favor of the plat. Mayor Earl Higginbotham broke the tie as he joined the ayes.

Action on the enforcement of the no parking rule on Ninth St., near the Catholic Church, was withheld by the commissioners, pending further study.

Russian Rocket Forces Alerted To Defend Areas

MOSCOW (UPI)—Soviet Defense Minister Rodion Malinovsky has ordered Russian rocket forces to attack any base from which a plane takes off and violates Soviet air space, Tass news agency said today.

Tass said Marshal Malinovsky announced the order in an outline of Russia's defense potential at a resumed conference of Communist labor shockworkers in the Kremlin.

Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev attended the session.

Malinovsky said he had ordered the commander of Soviet rocket forces "to strike at a base from which a plane would take off and violate the air space of the U.S.S.R."

Tass said the defense minister insisted it was a lawful decision because it could not be known what an intruding plane might be carrying.

"It might be armed with a hydrogen bomb," he said.

He said the Soviet Union had all it needed to strike such a retaliatory blow "at a political satellite and at a leader no matter behind which ocean they were hiding."

Malinovsky referred to the incident of the U-2 spy plane shot down over Russia May 1 and said Western powers did not know the Soviet Union had an aircraft guided missile.

He said Soviet rockets could hit a target "much higher" than 65,000 feet at which a U-2 can fly. He said there was no plane with such a high ceiling "as to be unreachable for our rockets."

Malinovsky again blamed the United States for the collapse of the summit conference.

He said that if a Soviet plane ever had violated the territory of another state it was unintentional and "we, like honest people, apologized and punished those guilty."

U. S. Recognizes New Turkey Regime

ANKARA, Turkey (UPI)—The United States and Britain and a number of other nations recognized the revolutionary government of Gen. Cemal Gursel today.

The notes of recognition came as Gursel met for the first time with his new cabinet to start charting the course that will bring this country back to constitutional rule through free elections.

Before the session began, Gursel learned from a window in the cabinet room and waved to a cheering, weeping crowd.

Throughout the country Turks started catching up with recent history through newspapers and radio stations freed from the controls and restrictions imposed by ousted Premier Adnan Menderes.

The Ankara radio reported that Namik Gedik, who was interior minister in the Menderes cabinet, committed suicide Sunday night. The report said Gedik leaped from a window of the War College building in Ankara where he was being held.

Newspapers freely printed editorials and newscasters quoted headlines of papers regarding political affiliation.
