Special olympics games set

LAKE MARY — The Seminole County Special Olympics spring games will be held at Lake Mary High School, 655 Langwood-Lake Mary Rd. in Lake Mary, tomorrow morning beginning at 9 a.m.

The event, for physically and mentally challenged athletes will consist of various track and field competitions.

The Special Olympians are all students in Seminole County schools.

The event is free and open to the public.

It's Road-e-o time

WINTER SPRINGS — The annual Seminole County School Bus Safety Road-e-o will be held tomorrow at the school transportation facility, 822 E. State Road 434 in Winter Springs.

Competition, which uses several tests to test driving and safety skills begins at 8 a.m.

Spectators are welcome to attend the free event.

Humane Society gets big gift

SANFORD — Helen Wolk, president of the Humane Society of Seminole County, said a not-so secret $112,000 bequest received last month will bolster the struggling animal protection operation, but end their problems.

"It's going to help, but without good fund-raising we can't keep going," Wolk said.

The society operates an animal shelter and adoption center on County Home Road south of Lake Mary. Society officials say the operation costs about $25,000 each month and is supported solely on donations, membership fees and bequests. A $15 or $20 check from a concerned animal lover is a frequent form of donation.

"We've received bequests before," Wolk said. "But nothing like this before."

Wolk said the bequest would be used to pay for repairs at the shelter and to fill sagging society coffers. Wolk said the society is currently planning to hold a fund-raising auction by this summer.

Lake Mary OKs walks

By NICK PFEIFAU
Herald Staff Writer

LAKE MARY — Only four out of a proposed nine sites for building streetwalks were approved by the Lake Mary City Commission during its Thursday night meeting, with several citizens voicing concern over the lack of sidewalks near schools.

Approved for construction was 400 feet of sidewalk near Teer Laboratory at 159 North Country Club Road, 300 feet along Main Road leading to Webster Street, 900 feet on Webster from Main to Lake Road, and 700 feet along an easement from Woodfield Estates to Lake Mary Woods, south of the Seminole Community College area.

A total of 6,850 feet of possible sidewalk construction was turned down. The reason for the final selection was the lack of money with which to construct everything on the entire list.

Sidewalk areas turned down included Wilbur Avenue from Country Club Road to 5th Street, 5th Street from Wilbur to Lake Mary Boulevard.

Ruckus erupts at Sanford's police station

By VICKI DeSORMIER

SANFORD — Ambulance and fire rescue officials responded to the Sanford Police Department at about 1:30 this morning after a dog, working as a member of the department's K-9 unit, bit a suspect in the course of his arrest.

Hubert Martin, 20, of 3000 E. 20th St. in Sanford was bit on his right leg by Jammer, who had been sent by his handler, Bill Wixon, to apprehend the subject.

Martin was wanted in connection with the Feb. 17 armed burglary of Seminole Sporting Goods, 2484 S. Sanford Ave. in Sanford.

In that burglary, Martin, a convicted felon who was on house arrest, took four handguns from the store's display case, authorities said.

He allegedly sold two of those guns for $40 to an individual known for buying stolen arms. The guns were allegedly valued at $550.

The other two guns were valued at $257.

Last night, Martin was involved in another incident being investigated by Sanford Police, but he was using the alias of Hubert Williams," police said.

When an officer familiar with the other case arrived on the scene Martin ran away and the K-9 unit was called in.

Jammer located him under a house at 1400 W. 15th St. in Sanford. In an ensuing scuffle, Jammer held Martin's leg with his teeth causing some minor puncture wounds, police said.

Martin was treated at the scene before being transported to the John E. Polk Correctional Facility where he is being held on $4,500 bond.

Perrault named principal at Heathrow

By VICKI DeSORMIER
Herald Staff Writer

LAKE MARY — Beverly Perrault has been nominated to be the first principal at Heathrow Elementary School, on Markham Woods Road.

The school is scheduled to open in November.

It approved by the school board, Perrault, who currently serves as principal of Lake Mary Elementary School, 132 Country Club Rd., Lake Mary, would take the new position beginning this summer.

The district believes the new principal will need time to organize programs and work with instructors before the facility is ready to accept the youngsters.

The search for a new principal at Lake Mary Elementary School will not officially begin until Perrault is approved by the board for the Heathrow position.

Officials do not expect any opposition to the appointment from the board.

Perrault has been principal at Lake Mary Elementary School since January of 1989.

Prior to that she was an assistant principal at Winter Springs Elementary School, 701 W. State Road 434 in Winter Springs, for several years.

With the opening of Heathrow Elementary School next fall, the overcrowded conditions at Lake Mary Elementary School, Wilson Elementary School, 985 Orange Blvd. in Sanford and Idylwild Elementary School, 430 Vilhen Rd in Sanford are expected to be eased. Heathrow, however, will open with its facilities being used almost to capacity.

Mike Townsley, principal at Sterling Park Elementary School in Casselberry has been nominated to be the first principal at Partin Elementary School which will open in Oviedo in November.

The vote on the approval of the two nominees will take place at the school board meeting on Tuesday evening March 26 at 7 p.m.

Seminole band ends competitive drought

By VICKI DeSORMIER
Herald Staff Writer

SANFORD — The Seminole High School Band took top honors at the district competition held last weekend at Lake Brantley High School.

They will now move on to state-wide competition. That contest will take place the second week in May in Jacksonville.

"I am thrilled beyond description," band director Jeff Jordan said of the band's accomplishments.

The group earned a superior rating at a contest in November, but prior to that it had been more than 20 years since they had earned a top score in competition.

Jordan attributes the winning ways to a renewed pride in the school.

"We've had a lot of renovations here over the last year and the band has new uniforms that the kids are really happy with," he said.

He noted that with the renewed satisfaction with themselves and their abilities, the band "really gelled" this year.

Last week's competition pitted Seminole's band against groups from 31 high schools in Seminole and Orange counties. They worked for three days to eventually end up on top.

Jordan said the competing bands had to choose two pieces of music and a march to perform for three judges.

"They are judged on a scale of one to five with one being the highest and we consistently earned ones," Jordan said.

Weak tax collections make shortfalls

TALLAHASSEE — State tax collections now are projected to come in nearly $900 million below original estimates for this fiscal year, including a new $163.3 million shortfall triggered by the recession.

The 1.8 percent reduction reported by state economists Thursday in the fiscal 1990-91 budget will wipe out state government's $150 million "rainy day" working capital reserve fund. It could force Gov. Lawton Chiles and state lawmakers to look elsewhere to make up the rest of the deficit.

But Chiles repeated Thursday that he doesn't intend to cut any more government services this year, which has seen tax collections fall $878.3 million below what was predicted when the budget took effect last July. Chiles intends to spend the working capital fund.

State economists also reduced the estimate for tax collections for fiscal year 1991-92 by $83.8 million. If the working capital fund is used to offset the shortfall, it will have to be replaced next year — meaning the total loss for the next budget could add up to $246.7 million.

Lawmakers OK bottle bill

TALLAHASSEE — A bottle bill that would require deposits and refunds within three years has finally made it through a committee in the Florida House.

History was made Thursday when the bill cleared the House Natural Resources Committee on a 22-4 vote, but environmentalists said the legislation was so distorted it may amount to little more than a hidden tax.

Meanwhile, lawmakers also considered exempting eight of Florida's biggest sports stadiums from some growth management requirements, and voted to shift some of the Legislature's power controlling education funding to local school districts.

The bottle bill, which has always met stiff opposition in the Legislature, next moves to the Finance and Taxation Committee.

The bill (CS-HB 619) would require the deposits and refunds by 1994 — if local recycling goals contained in a 1988 law aren't met.

NASA space lab module damaged

CAPE CANAVERAL — A pressurized laboratory to be used on a May space shuttle mission was damaged when a technician removed a latch too soon and the module tilted and hit a tray, NASA said.

The accident Thursday came as workers were preparing to lift the space lab module from a stationary test stand. NASA had planned to install the module into the shuttle Columbia this weekend.

NASA spokesman Mitch Varnes said damage appeared to be minor and was not expected to delay Columbia's scientific research mission in late May. The flight already was running up to a week late because of trouble in assembling the shuttle's two solid rocket boosters.

The module's insulating thermal blanket was torn in the accident and the section probably will have to be replaced, Varnes said. The pressurized work station for astronauts was being checked for further damage.

Martinez confirmed

WASHINGTON — The Senate, by a vote of 88-12, on Thursday confirmed former Florida Gov. Bob Martinez as the nation's drug control policy director.

A pleased Martinez, 56, said afterward he looked forward "to working with members of both the Senate and the House to achieve full funding and enactment of our anti-drug strategy."

The drug strategy drafted by the staff of Martinez's predecessor, William J. Bennett, seeks $11.7 billion in 1992, an increase of 11 percent at a time of scarce federal funds.

Martinez encountered some criticism from Democrats who said his drug-fighting program in Florida was lopsided in favor of law enforcement and prison expansion, with too little emphasis on drug prevention and treatment.

Kemp touts conservative war on poverty

TALLAHASSEE — Housing and Urban Development Secretary Jack Kemp has declared what he calls a conservative war against poverty in the wake of the military victory over Iraq.

"Now that we've liberated Kuwait, we've got to liberate our own inner cities, we've got to liberate our own pockets of poverty, we've got to help people get boots and straps with which they then can exercise some self-help," Kemp said in an interview Thursday.

He was in Florida's capital to address the second annual public policy dinner of the James Madison Institute, a conservative think tank based in Tallahassee.

His subject was the new war on poverty. The first order of battle is to get the economy moving again, Kemp said. He said economic growth is essential for meeting the needs of poor people.

NEWS FROM THE REGION AND ACROSS THE STATE

Missiles tests asked over state

Associated Press

JACKSONVILLE — The Navy is planning to launch Tomahawk cruise missiles from submarines and ships off the Atlantic coast, flying them across North Florida to the Panhandle.

As many as 12 Tomahawk missiles a year would be fired off Ponte Vedra Beach and fly at 1,800 feet and 500 mph across the state to Eglin Air Force Base in the Panhandle.

The missiles, about the size of a canoe, would fly over St. Johns, Duval, Clay, Bradford, Union, Columbia, Suwannee, Lafayette, Taylor, Gilchrist, Dixie and Alachua counties. The missiles were used successfully in the Persian Gulf war.

The Navy said attempts have been made to avoid populated areas in the flight path where two Navy jet chase planes will create ground noise levels of 83 decibels.

Pilots of the planes could take guide the missiles by remote control in case of a guidance system malfunction.

Security would prevent advance public notice of the launches, which would be limited to 12 a year. In other parts of the country, protesters have attempted to disrupt cruise missile tests over land.

Susan Boyd, a spokeswoman for the Executive Office for Cruise Missiles and Unmanned Aerial Vehicles in Washington, said the Navy wants to begin the tests this fall.

The project already has received regional approval from the Federal Aviation Administration in Jacksonville.

The Missile Programs Office of the Naval Air Test Center in Maryland has notified the state by sending an environmental assessment of the project to the Florida State Clearinghouse in mid-February.

A lot-o cash Sanfordite picks five in Lotto

SANFORD — Marie Cowan thought she was ready to retire Saturday night when she began reading the winning Florida Lotto numbers her husband jotted down from the television drawing.

"When I first looked at the numbers, I said 'I think I have three numbers,'" said Cowan. "Then I got the ticket and started reading them. I was very calm really, but filled with mixed emotions. We missed only one number by two. We had 35 and they drew 37. I guess someone up there decided somebody needed the big prize more than we did."

Cowan, an advertising secretary who lives in Sanford with her husband Ralph, a retail personnel manager, matched five of the six winning numbers from the March 16 Lotto drawing. The ticket became one of 429 sold in the state with five correct numbers, each worth $2,152.

Cowan said she doesn't play Lotto much, maybe a ticket or two but no more than three during a week.

She said she plans to use the windfall to pay off a few bills and have extra spending money for a trip to the beach this summer. She said she will retire the number 3-7-21-28-35-40 that she has played "quite a while."

"We're looking for a new number," she said. "That one'll never come up again."

Cuban MiG may have arrived undetected

By RICHARD COLE
Associated Press Writer

MIAMI — A Soviet-built fighter jet flown into Key West by a defecting Cuban pilot apparently remained undetected until it was circling a Navy base attempting to land, and U.S. air defense officials want to know why.

Eight years ago the MiG-23 Flogger was among a group of planes set to attack the Turkey Point nuclear plant south of Miami, according to Cuba's highest-ranking military defector, Brig. Gen. Rafael del Pino Diaz.

Fidel Castro feared at the time that the United States would act against Cuba during the 1983 invasion of Grenada, del Pino said in a telephone call to a local Spanish radio station.

A Navy source who spoke on condition of anonymity said that when the MiG arrived Wednesday at the Key West Naval Air Station on Boca Chica, tower officials were unaware of it until they saw it circling the airfield.

"The pilot tried to radio the tower using an international frequency, but he could not come up with it," the source said. "When the tower spotted the plane, they tried to contact him on the same frequency, but they couldn't come up with him either."

Scrambling interceptors is normal procedure when an unknown plane is detected, but no U.S. planes took off to escort the MiG to the base, said Maj. Thomas Niemann, a spokesman for NORAD, the nation's air defense agency in Colorado.

Public urged to demand better kids' aid

By JACKIE HALLIFAX
Associated Press Writer

TALLAHASSEE — Babies in Hong Kong and Singapore are more likely to survive than babies in Florida. A baby in Costa Rica or Jamaica has a better chance of reaching its first birthday than a non-white baby in Broward County.

Those conclusions were contained in a report on the welfare of Florida's children that was presented Thursday by Supreme Court Justice Rosemary Barkett, who chaired the Study Commission on Child Welfare.

"We need the public to understand that they're the ones who are going to have to make the choices," she said at a new conference attended by Gov. Lawton Chiles and Senate President Gwen Margolis.

The governor and lawmakers are called upon by constituents to satisfy all sorts of competing needs, Barkett said.

"We have to put the ultimate responsibility on the public to rise up and say we think prenatal care is much more important than this building or that building," she said.

Infant mortality, the rate of babies who die in their first year of life, is tied in large part to the amount of prenatal care mothers receive. Florida ranks 39th in the country in infant mortality.

The commission was created after the widely publicized death in July 1989 of a Lakeland toddler who was fatally injured when his stepfather dunked him repeatedly head first in the toilet.

POLICE BRIEFS

Drivers license violation charged

Guadalupe Caudillo, 2503 Elm St., Sanford was arrested on Tuesday and charged with driving with a suspended driver license.

Caudillo's driver license was suspended in 1988 for driving under the influence of alcohol and in 1990 for failure to pay traffic fines.

Police officers familiar with Caudillo's driving record allegedly had warned her not to drive on several occasions in the past.

When she was seen driving again, she was stopped and taken to the John E. Polk Correctional Facility where she was booked.

She was held on $1,000 bond.

Prostitution charged

Bertha Ann Hall, 25, of 1303 E. 4th St. in Sanford, was arrested in Casselberry on Wednesday and charged with prostitution.

Hall allegedly entered a car driven by an undercover officer and the two drove for a short distance and talked before she agreed to have oral sex with the officer in exchange for $20 in cash.

She was transported to the John E. Polk Correctional Facility where she was held on $100 bond.

Aggravated battery charged

Joe Henry Mobley, 34, of 81 Seminole Gardens in Sanford, was arrested on Wednesday.

He was charged with aggravated battery in connection with a March 18, 1991 incident.

Mobley allegedly struck LaDonna Hillman on the back of the head with an unknown instrument causing some injury to the victim.

He was transported to the John E. Polk Correctional Facility where he is being held in lieu of $5,000 bond.

Close call brings arrest

Frank Robert Cammarata, of 801 Magnolia Ave. in Sanford was arrested on Wednesday.

He was charged with driving with a suspended drivers license and with failure to maintain a single lane.

Allegedly, Cammarata left his lane of traffic on Lake Mary Boulevard near 15th Street and nearly hit a Lake Mary Police officer's car in the other lane.

When the officer pulled him over, the officer discovered that his license had been suspended until 1994.

Cammarata was transported to the John E. Polk Correctional Facility where he was held on $500 bond.

Warrant arrest made

Harvey Lee Rogers, 37, of 122 Country Circle in Sanford was arrested on Wednesday.

He was charged on a warrant with tampering with a witness.

He allegedly threatened or intimidated Lynette E. Cantrell last month when she was to be a witness against him in a battery trial.

Rogers was arrested at his home.

He was transported to the John E. Polk Correctional Facility where he was held in lieu of $1,000 bond.

Jail returns to normal after recent uprising

By VICKI DESORMIER
Herald Staff Writer

SANFORD — Despite a series of fights between angry inmates at the John E. Polk Correctional Facility on Tuesday night, the situation has remained calm for two days.

"Things have returned to normal," George Proechel, public information officer at the Seminole County Sheriff's Office, said this morning.

An internal investigation is being conducted into the situation which exploded around midnight on Tuesday when guards turned on normally unused lights in the cellblock.

Black inmates accusing white inmates of putting the guards up to turning on the lights allegedly began systematically beating white inmates and stealing their property.

"They (sheriff's office investigators) were in there all day yesterday conducting interviews with the inmates," Proechel said.

He declined to speculate how long it would take to complete the internal investigation, but said it could take as long as several weeks.

Investigators will also interview jail officials to see why the lights were turned on and why it took so long to quell the disturbance.

A criminal investigation is taking place simultaneously and, if necessary, charges will be brought against those responsible for the attacks.

"So far, we haven't charged anyone with anything," Proechel said.

Proechel said that there had been some "reshuffling" of the inmates in the cellblock in an attempt to diffuse the tension created by the disturbance.

Proechel said the cellblock had not been segregated, but that certain inmates had been moved to other areas.

Hospital wins 3-year renewed accreditation

SANFORD — Accreditation for Central Florida Regional Hospital has been renewed by the Joint Commission on Accreditation of Healthcare Organizations, the hospital announced.

The three-year accreditation demonstrates the hospital's commitment to the Joint Commission's nationally recognized healthcare standards, the hospital said in a press release.

Roy C. Vinson, CFRH Administrator, called the accreditation "proof of our organization-wide commitment to meet the highest standards set by the Joint Commission."

He said in the press release: "I am proud of the members of our employee, nursing and medical staff who work so hard to meet our goal of providing quality health care to our community."

China trade

China continues to exploit its most-favored status with the United States by building up huge surpluses through unfair trade rules. Beijing's refusal to practice free trade threatens to sour its already strained relations with Washington.

Last year, the Bush administration headed off a congressional effort to revoke China's MFN status in the wake of the brutal government crackdown in Tiananmen Square. Because of Beijing's recalcitrance on trade, however, the administration appears to be less inclined to resist calls to downgrade China's trade status.

The U.S. trade deficit with China is expected to reach $15 billion this year, up sharply from $10.4 billion in 1990 and $6.2 billion in 1989. This is quite a turnaround from a decade ago, when China ran a $2.7 billion trade deficit with the United States. In fact, only Japan currently has a larger trade surplus with the United States than China.

The growing trade gap with China would be less alarming were it not for evidence that Beijing has pursued a calculated strategy of boosting its exports through subsidies, targets and other government intervention. At the same time, it has restricted imports from the United States and other countries through tariffs, quotas and other protectionist measures.

One result of China's interventionist trade policy is that American imports of Chinese goods increased from $11.9 billion in 1989 to $15.2 billion last year. Conversely, American exports declined from $5.8 billion to $4.8 billion.

The American textile industry has been the most adversely affected by China's unfair trade practices.

Another contentious issue during recent Sino-American trade talks were intellectual property rights. China is one of the few nations that does not honor patents, copyrights or trademarks. The U.S. software industry estimates that Chinese piracy costs American companies as much as $400 million a year.

Most-favored-nation status should logically be reserved for countries whose trade practices are not inimical to those of the United States. Beijing's refusal to forswear practices that enable China to build up artificially high surpluses with the United States hardly satisfies this criterion.

Grudging British justice

Britain's deadliest terrorist incident happened on Nov. 31, 1974, when a bomb killed 21 people and injured 162 others in a Birmingham pub. Six Irishmen were arrested.

The Irish Republican Army, while taking responsibility for the bombing, said it didn't even know the six men, who pleaded innocent. But in the face of forensic evidence and four signed confessions, the so-called Birmingham Six were convicted and sentenced to life in prison.

Yet something was wrong: By all the evidence unearthed since then, the men aren't guilty. Independent investigators proved three years ago that their confessions were coerced by police beatings, and that chemical traces on the suspects' hands could as easily have come from playing cards as from explosive material.

British authorities have been forced to drop charges or overturn convictions in three other recent terrorist cases in which evidence was fabricated. A British TV program even named four other men alleged to have committed the pub bombing.

Still the attorney general refused to reopen the Birmingham Six case — until a year ago, when an appeals court finally ordered a new inquiry. The result: The public prosecutor now says there's no evidence to sustain the convictions, and would not object if the appeals court sets the convicted men free. A decision is expected at any time.

Britain's treatment of suspected Irish terrorists has provoked denunciations from the Council of Europe, and its increasing tendency to suppress publication of defense and intelligence information, even material freely available in other countries, has led to the formation of a British human rights movement.

Conceivably the next step could be legislation giving stronger protection to those wrongly accused. Yet public outrage continues with the newest IRA act of terrorism at London's Victoria Station.

Democracy proves itself only when it's put to such hard tests. Britain may have passed such a test in the Birmingham Six case, but hardly with flying colors: no one can give back those 16 lost years.

New isolationists split conservatives

A new split in the conservative movement is attracting the attention of both those who wish it well and those who don't.

Although it's fair to call the split "new," because it has not previously existed in the 40-year history of the modern conservative movement, the roots of the disagreement go back much further than that. They are embedded, in fact, in America's very history as a nation.

It was, after all, George Washington who, in his Farewell Address as president, warned his countrymen against "entangling alliances." It was good advice. Europe, he pointed out, had a series of longstanding internal controversies that were none of our affair. The United States — 13 newly liberated ex-colonies far away on the eastern coast of the North American continent, bound together in a new federal republic — should avoid involvement in them. For a century, with negligible exceptions, America followed Washington's advice.

When, however, after defeating Spain in a war over European meddling in this hemisphere, the United States took over the Philippines in pursuance of what President McKinley called our "manifest destiny," it was clear that America's concept of its role was expanding. And when Woodrow Wilson led the country into the First World War, and then dominated a peace conference that drastically redrew the map of Europe, he was signaling that we had left our 19th century isolationism far behind.

Not without a fight, though. In fact, the Senate handed Wilson's policy a stunning defeat when it refused to authorize American participation in the League of Nations. Nearly 20 years further on, the country was almost evenly split between "isolationists" and "interventionists" when France fell and Britain was left to fight on alone against Hitler. Only the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor ended the battle — in favor of the interventionists. When the Second however, it seemed inevitable that the United States would henceforth play a major role — probably the leading role — in world affairs. It was, as it has just now again become, indisputably the greatest power on earth. Planes and electronic communications had shrunk the globe drastically, and seemed to make the very concept of "isolationism" obsolete. There was little domestic resistance when the United States helped to found, and then joined, the United Nations.

World War ended,

But when the Cold War broke out between the United States and the Soviet Union (both possessing nuclear weapons), and President Truman sought to make the United States a signatory of the North Atlantic Treaty and hence of the NATO military alliance, isolationist sentiment surfaced again. Senate Republican leader Robert Taft opposed U.S. membership in NATO, warning against "entangling alliances." But the treaty was ratified anyway, and soon isolationist sentiment was smothered in the unanimous determination of the new conservative movement to resist international communism.

For a century America followed Washington's advice.

"I guess this makes the start of Spring Break official."

War highlights best and worst

WASHINGTON — It's been said that everyone learns to live with gross elements during war, and one of them surely is delinquency. The conflict in the Persian Gulf has been a raw example. The hostilities gave rise to patriotism and good intention, but they also brought out the thugs, varlets and other usual suspects.

Consider: After watching her husband fly off with his unit, a military wife at Fort Stewart, Ga., is reported to have received a call from an old high-school chum. The friend said he wanted to cheer her with recollections; following a glum assessment of war and inevitability, however, he tried to sell her a cemetery plot.

Nor did the simpleton rascals act alone. The workaday scaramouches were joined in the villainy by some of the nation's best and brightest. There is a story in this town that the White House advised Chief of Staff John Sununu to lie low during the war because his Lebanese family originated as Palestinian Arabs.

And et cetera: Hypocrisy. When public misgivings developed over the armed service policy of sending single parents to the front, and in some cases couples with children, Defense Secretary Dick Cheney said — tut, tut — it was militarily necessary. This is the same D. Cheney who, during the 1960s, skillfully ducked out of the Vietnam draft by hiding behind a hardship plea that his wife was expecting.

Elitism. The hardship today, on the other hand, may be birthright. There were stories printed during the war that addressed the question of why the swells were seriously underrepresented in uniform. Several college men said the answer was elementary, and one put it this way: "It's just not in our national interest to send the finest brains in the country to be fried with Iraqi gas."

Gratitude. Oh, well, the unwashed classes got the job done anyway. And there are promises that the bulk of them will return home to marching bands and kisses in the street. Many will come back to bleak futures, too. The post-Cold War Pentagon is planning to cut troop strength by up to 500,000 people in four years, and great numbers of the triumphant Persian Gulf GIs will be retired involuntarily.

Arrogance. Then again, they may be lucky at that. The increasingly imperious services are increasingly Tory as well. James Madison, who's he? One newsman asked to interview the husband of a deployed wife at Fort Bragg, N.C., early in the crisis, and was told: "Don't ask him if he's scared for her, and don't ask if he misses her. We don't want anyone to think our morale is low."

Capitulation. Walter Cronkite reminded us that the Nazis chained the news media before killing the Jews in World War II. But trusting Americans weren't much interested in hoary history. The author Paul Fussell says Washington always tries to capture the press during war; and though some few reporters escaped, the media organizations chose to spend this battle behind barbed wire.

Politics. The opportunists and windbags were likewise incarcerated. The 1992 presidential campaign was placed almost entirely on hold, and it will, mercifully, get its latest start in memory. The downside was that the lull gave former Sen. George McGovern a headline or two: The man who lost the presidency in 1972, by 49 states, announced that he was — groan — ready to declare again.

Downside 2. Despite the political quiet, utilitarian Florida Republicans said they may ask Gen. H. Norman Schwarzkopf to run for the Senate. He is a fellow who has not previously been thought of as a statesman. He is a fellow who spent 35 years in the service without being thought of at Profit. In addition, Schwarzkopf is being wooed by industry. Ah, commercialism. There was a merchant peddling Desert Storm items during the war with scratch-offs that smelled of cordite. The Wall Street Journal offered telephone updates on the killing for 95 cents a minute. And who has the paint contract to return the 100,000 battlefield vehicles to their original olive drab color?

Merely. Shopkeepers aren't alone in the matter of wartime self-preservation. Saddam Hussein is still alive because the American president guards himself. The last four presidents have promoted an executive order forbidding the assassination of foreign leaders: the plain and unmentioned reason is that if we do it, all nations will do it, placing Oval Office occupants at greater risk.

Wimps. And yet, George Bush is no George McGovern. Lyndon Johnson, maybe. The president did nothing during the hostilities to discourage the Arab bashing and the hate mongering of pacifist sentimentality. When told of anti-war activities by the newly elected senator from Minnesota, Paul Wellstone, the president of the United States, a very tough man, reportedly called him a "chickens-t."

Mr. Bush can afford some vulgarity, of course.

Cheney skillfully ducked out of the Vietnam draft.

Ethics committee missed key points

WASHINGTON — The Senate Ethics Committee curiously found only one villain in the Senate's role in the savings and loan scandal — Alan Cranston, D-Calif. The committee decided to pursue disciplinary action against him alone among the "Keating Five" senators who got mixed up with S&L high-flier Charles Keating.

Keating's Lincoln Savings and Loan collapsed in April 1989 and left American taxpayers with the bill of nearly $3 billion, the largest in the thrift debacle.

Keating also sold more than $200 million in now-worthless junk bonds to some 20,000 unsuspecting customers in Southern California.

Keating was able to run amuck for so long because he applied pressure in high places. The Ethics Committee failed to zero in on these pressure points. One of Keating's minions, attorney-lobbyist Margery Waxman, was handled by the Ethics Committee with kid gloves despite the fact that she was Keating's representative in Washington.

Waxman, once a high level official of the Treasury Department, left public service and ended up at the Washington office of the Chicago law firm of Sidley and Austin, part of Keating's stable. (Some of the buyers of Keating's junk bonds were convinced that Sidley and Austin shared the blame for their losses, and named the law firm as a defendant in a suit brought over the junk bonds.)

Much of Keating's lobbying money was spent trying to keep federal regulators out of his hair and stop them from imposing new regulations that would curb his speculative operations. He bought Lincoln in 1984 and converted it from a traditional home-mortgage company to what many federal regulators consider to be a federally insured casino. Within a few months, the Federal Home Loan Bank Board proposed regulations that would have rolled back many of the investment options that tempted Keating into the S&L business in the first place.

Keating would later say that he spent more than $55 million in his war against federal regulators. A chunk of that went to lawyers like Margery Waxman. What did those lawyers do for Keating?

We have already reported on some of Waxman's tactics. In 1988 when Keating was trying to get the Bank Board to transfer the oversight of Lincoln away from the San Francisco regional office of the Bank Board, Waxman wrote in a memo to Keating: "You have the Board right where you want them. I have put the pressure on (Bank Board Chairman Danny) Wall to work toward meeting your demands and he has instructed his staff: 'If they mess up this time ... it's all over.'"

Now our associates Michael Binstein and Tim Warner have found another letter from Waxman to Keating laying out a battle plan. The letter, dated Jan. 22, 1988, advises Keating against suing federal regulators before he gives the lobbying process time to work.

At the time, both the Justice Department and the Securities and Exchange Commission were investigating possible wrongdoing in the Lincoln operation and the junk bond sales. An examination by the Bank Board's San Francisco office had left plenty of questions unanswered about Lincoln's operations. The examiners had recommended that Lincoln be shut down, and Keating was demanding a new examination from another regional office.

Waxman told Keating she didn't want to discourage him from bringing a lawsuit, but that there were other options:

If they mess up this time ... it's all over.

Sheriff buys new cars

By VICKI DeSOMMIER
Herald Staff Writer

SANFORD — No, it's not the Don Ealinger Auto Mart.

Thirty-four shiny new cars are lined up along the back of the parking lot of the Seminole County Sheriff's Office at the Central Florida Regional Airport and it looks like a new car lot.

The cars, all of which are white, are slated to be painted and decalced with the sheriff's department insignia soon.

"They'll be plain old marked cars," said George Proechel, public information officer for the department.

In addition to the cars, there are three Ford trucks which are replacement vehicles for three older vehicles being retired by the technical services division.

The trucks will not be marked with the department logo.

Thirty-one of the 34 cars are 1991 Chevrolet Caprice four door sedans with 5.7 litre, V-8 engines.

"Good, sturdy cars," Proechel commented.

There are also three Ford Mustangs with five litre engines in the parking lot. They will also be painted the department's standard green and white.

"Those will be used by the traffic division," Proechel said.

Here are some of the new cars.

"They are good cars for that job!"

Twenty-six of the new cars are being used to replace the same number of 1987 vehicles with more than 100,000 miles each. Though they are well-maintained, and inspected daily, the cars are retired when they turn over 100,000 miles as standard procedure.

The older cars will be returned to the Board of County Commissioners where they will sold at public auction in November.

Proechel said the Caprices were purchased at a cost far below the $19,789 sticker price.

Proechel said the cars are purchased for about $13,000 each, but an additional $6,000 must be spent getting them ready to take on the road.

"We get them at a state bid rate," he said.

He added that the additional $6,000 is spent on radios, special gun racks, finger print kits, halogen lamps, painting, decals and other extra features that are not part of any "extras" packages that one can get through the dealerships.

Proechel wasn't sure when the cars would be painted and ready for use on the street.

Sidewalks

Country Club Road from Frederick Avenue to the Church, and portions of State Road 427 from Woodfield Estates to Jennifer Court and from Jennifer Court to Hampton Park.

In presenting the proposal to the commission, Lake Mary Public Works Director Rod Stroup explained the city has only $14,839 available to construct new sidewalks. The total of those areas which were approved Thursday amounts to an estimated $12,900. Cost of building the five sidewalk areas that were turned down is $41,100.

The discussion on sidewalk locations was listed high on Thursday night's agenda, and a number of citizens had planned to speak on the matter. But an earlier report on the master paving and drainage plan presented by Dyer, Riddle Mills and Precourt, occupied the first 2 1/2 hours of the meeting, and several of them left before the sidewalk subject was brought up.

Of those who remained, several managed to be heard on the matter before the Commission made its final decision. The biggest concern of the citizens was the need for sidewalks for use by children walking to the school. Stroup explained however, "The consideration of sidewalks going to the elementary school is impractical at this time, as they would have to be torn down again when new roads are built in those areas."

Commissioner David Meador told the audience, "I assure you, sidewalks for the school areas are definitely one of our areas of concern, and we will be considering this in the near future, but we can't build them now and have to tear them down in a few years for road construction projects."

Lake Mary resident Sheila Sawyer blamed the city for concentrating only on the newer sections and not improving the older areas where residents have lived for years and deserve some improvements. After the meeting, Sawyer said, "It irks me. They just don't seem to have their priorities right."

Mayor Randy Morris explained that 4 of the city's 5 Commissioners live on unpaved streets without sidewalks, and he felt they were well aware of the needs to improve the older sections.

Stroup said those sidewalk areas that were on the original listing but not approved by the Commission are still considered as highly needed and will be included in the next sidewalk construction request. Regarding those areas that were approved, Stroup said, "We'll be starting on those projects within the next thirty days." He added, "The area on Country Club Road near the Teer Laboratory will be started first, and we might begin that work sometime next week."

News on home front discouraging

By MARTIN CRUTSINGER
AP Economics Writer

WASHINGTON — The Bush administration is counting on the quick victory in the Persian Gulf War to translate into a quick end to the U.S. recession, but so far the reports from the domestic front have not been encouraging.

The latest bad news came Thursday when the Labor Department said new claims for unemployment benefits shot up to 519,000 in the week ending March 9. That was 45,000 above the previous week and the highest total since Jan. 8, 1983, when the country was pulling out of the steep 1981-82 recession.

Economists, who had been hoping to see the layoff picture begin to brighten, said the big jump in unemployment claims in the week following the end of the allied ground war against Iraq showed that March got off to a lackluster start.

Samuel Hahn, chief economist for Fijl Securities Inc. in Chicago, cautioned that weekly unemployment claims can be volatile, but he noted that averaging the number for four weeks at a time showed a steady deterioration since December, suggesting a "continuing weakening of the economy."

Analysts predicted the big jump in jobless claims at the beginning of March almost assured that the unemployment rate for the entire month will climb upward from the four-year high of 8.5 percent hit in February.

In another disappointing sign, the Chamber of Commerce said Thursday a new survey of 8,390 businesses nationwide found them decidedly more pessimistic than they were last September.

The number of businesses forecasting that they would have to fire workers in the months ahead climbed to 21.7 percent, up from 18 percent six months ago, while 33.9 percent forecast that their sales would decline, up from 28 percent in September.

"Clearly, business confidence about the future has deteriorated," said Richard Rahn, chief economist for the chamber.

Consumer and business confidence in the economy dropped sharply following Iraq's invasion of Kuwait last August, and administration officials have expressed the hope that, with the war over, both groups would start making purchasing decisions again.

Paul Getman, senior economist at Regional Financial Associates, said a number of analysts had been lured into predicting a quick end to the recession by the big gains in the stock market since the beginning of the year, traditionally an early sign of an economic turnaround.

But he said the stock market was responding to the euphoria of the allies' Persian Gulf success and ignoring the major problems facing a number of U.S. companies. He said banks, retail stores and airlines are still laying off thousands of workers because of the hard times.

"People have declared this recession dead too early," Getman said. "The truth is that we are in a recession of average duration and average intensity."

In its Economic Report of the President released in February, the Bush administration insisted that the current downturn is likely to be milder and shorter than the 11-month average for the eight previous recessions since the end of World War II.

The administration so far is sticking with a forecast that the current slump will end between April and June of this year and growth will quickly rebound to healthy levels.

But Democrats on the congressional Joint Economic Committee released their own, less upbeat view of the economy on Thursday, charging that the administration had been content to make "complacency the centerpiece" of its policies.

"While we have some optimism that the economy will weather the current period of adversity, we believe that these risk factors justify increased attention by the Congress, the president and the Federal Reserve to policies that could stimulate economic recovery, should the optimistic consensus be proven wrong," the Democrats said.

Jordan said that he is confident that the students will do well at the state competition in eight weeks.

"I'm sure they'll get superior there too," he said.

Many of Jordan's band members will be returning next year so he believes that the two decade drought is over.

"We've got some very talented kids in this band," he said. "The winning ways will go on."

Safety of sun tan lotions questioned

By NANCY BENAC
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON — The cosmetics industry is rejecting a consumer group's claim that some of the very products that people use to protect themselves from the sun contain an ingredient that may promote skin cancer.

The Cosmetic, Toiletry and Fragrance Association said the ingredient in question, urucanic acid, is used in very few sun screens and cosmetics, and has not been shown to adversely affect human health.

"It's very important that people not be frightened about using sun screen," said Eileen Malbin, a spokeswoman for the association.

The Consumer Federation of America on Thursday said more than a dozen cosmetic products have been sold containing urucanic acid, which it said has the potential in sunlight to promote the growth of tumors by suppressing the immune system.

Is It Fun To Be Surprised?

When each new experience springs forth like a jack-in-the-box... and your fondest possessions are toys... and your chief concern is to squeeze out of every hour the last ounce of amusement—then it's fun to be surprised! But when you've grown too old for toys... when life is laced with serious challenges... when happiness depends on a thousand social, economic and moral decisions—then surprises can be devastating! It is elementary that our early education must prepare us for the later surprises. The knowledge, habits and skills we acquire must be adequate for meeting the unexpected as readily as the expected. And because religious faith and moral fortitude are our chief resources in the unheralded crises of adult life, we must nurture their development in our children. Support, encourage, serve God's cause in its vital efforts to mold the character of today's youth—tomorrow's adults.

FROM THE PULPIT

The decision is yours, make it

By REV. JAMES F. BROWN

Joel 3:14 "Multitudes, multitudes in the valley of decision: for the day of the Lord is near in the valley of decision."

Decisions, decisions, how many do you make in a day, week, month, year or a lifetime?

You wake up and decide what to wear, what to eat. You decide how to respond to the trials in your life. You decide when to buy a house, where to buy it. On and on the decisions grow. We cannot escape them. They mold and shape the course of our life.

But regardless of what the decision involves, we learn that we must pay for each decision. There is a price to pay.

In Matt. 16:13-18 our Lord asked his disciples a very important question. A question that every man or woman on this earth must answer at some point in their life. "Whom do men say that I, the son of man, am? They gave answers like, John the Baptist, Elijah, Jeremiah or one of the prophets.

Man is basically giving the same answer

Make a decision to turn all of your cares over to Him and He will give you in return — Peace, Joy and a sense of purpose in your life.

— Rev. James F. Brown

today. A prophet, a teacher, a good man. Not much has changed in the world's view of Jesus. But listen to Peter's response to that question. "Thou art the Christ, the son of the Living God."

Have you responded to that question yet? It is a decision you must make. If you decide that Jesus is who He said He is, you must confess it. Rom. 10:9-10 says "That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved."

Make that decision today to ask Jesus into your life. And then make a decision to turn all of your cares over to Him and He will give you in return — Peace, Joy and a sense of purpose in your life.

Yes, we have a multitude of decisions to make in our life. But the vital one, the one with eternal consequences, is who do YOU say that Jesus is? The choice is yours, the decision is yours.

Matt. 7:13-14 "Enter ye in at the strait gate: for wide is the gate, and broad is the way, that leadeth to destruction, and many there be which go in thereat: Because strait is the gate, and narrow is the way, which leadeth unto life, and few there be that find it."

As you make that decision to enter the strait gate with Jesus, make a decision to go to a local church and become a part of that glorious Body of Christ. "Now may the Peace of God that passes all understanding keep your hearts and minds thru Christ Jesus."

Rev. James F. Brown is chaplain at the John E. Palk Correctional Facility, Sanford.

Devotionals scheduled for Holy Week 1991

Five congregations in the Lake Mary area will offer a noon time devotional experience during Holy Week 1991.

Each day a different church will host the service from 12:20 to 12:50 p.m. This time was selected to enable people who are employed in the community to attend during their lunch period.

The themes for the meditation will be "Last Words of the Lord." They will be sayings of Jesus from the Cross and His words to His disciples the night before.

The schedule of host church and pastors is as follows:

● March 25, Grace United Methodist Church, 499 N. Country Club Rd., Lake Mary. Dr. Richard Albury, pastor.

● March 26, Calvary Baptist Church of Lake Mary, Country Club Road, Lake Mary, Rev. Joe Webb, pastor.

● March 27, Holy Cross Lutheran Church, 760 Sun Dr., Lake Mary, Rev. Paul Hoyer, pastor.

● March 28, St. Peter's Episcopal Church, 700 Rinehart Rd., Lake Mary, Rev. Beverly L. Barge, rector.

● March 29, Markham Woods Presbyterian Church, 5210 Markham Woods Rd., Lake Mary, Dr. Don DeBevoise, pastor.

Community egg hunt set for Sunday

LAKE MARY — The entire Longwood/Lake Mary community is invited to an area-wide Easter Egg Hunt and Diaper Derby to be held Sunday from 2 to 4 p.m.

The event will be held on the soccer field behind the Driftwood Plaza, 549 West Lake Mary Blvd. There will be over 500 eggs with 5 golden eggs having special surprises. All children and their families are invited to participate.

The Diaper Derby is a relatively new event with the object being the fastest baby to crawl to its parents wins a $25 gift certificate from Toy's R' Us. Babies up to 11 months are invited to participate.

In addition to the Easter Egg Hunt and the Diaper Derby, there will be a Crazy Olympics with events like the egg toss, potato sack race, etc. Also, for all to enjoy, there will be free hot dogs, pop, and ice cream. The first 50 children will receive a free helium balloon.

The event is sponsored by Son Life Community Church, Lake Mary, and local businesses of the area. For more information, call Rev. James Cox, pastor, at 324-1726.

Singing praises

Joe Ponzillo Music Ministries presented a concert of gospel, bass/baritone classical and sacred songs at the First United Methodist Church, Sanford, recently, which resulted in a

NOTICE OF INTENT TO ADOPT A POLICY
 Notice is hereby given that the School Board of Seminole County, Florida intends to adopt a policy creating an attendance zone for Parlin Elementary School and amending the present attendance zone boundaries for Geneva Elementary, Lawton Elementary, Red Bug Elementary, and Stenstrom Elementary of Seminole County, Florida.

The proposed policy will establish attendance zones for Parlin Elementary School and amend existing attendance zone boundaries for Geneva Elementary School, Lawton Elementary School, Red Bug Elementary School, and Stenstrom Elementary School.

The proposed policy results from the planned opening of Parlin Elementary School for the 1991-1992 school year and the necessity to realign existing elementary school attendance zone boundaries.

Current fourth grade students will be permitted to stay in their present school if promoted or assigned to fifth grade for the 1991-1992 school year if parents agree to provide transportation to and from school. Parents must apply to the Special Appeals Board on the appropriate form by June 1, 1991. This can be accomplished by contacting Dr. Hortense Evans at the District Office, 1211 Mellonville Avenue, Sanford, Florida 32771. This provision does not include siblings.

With the exception of increased transportation costs associated with bussing of those students living further than two (2) miles from their assigned school and other students for which the Board is required to provide transportation, the proposed action will have no determinable economic impact on the School Board of Seminole County, Florida in that the adjustment of student bodies and instructional and non-instructional staffs will not appreciably increase or decrease actual or anticipated costs. The adjustment of student bodies and instructional and non-instructional staffs will simply realign present and anticipated costs from school centers with decreased enrollments due to rezoning to Parlin Elementary School. It is anticipated that the enrollment at Geneva Elementary School, Red Bug Elementary School, and Stenstrom Elementary School will decrease. Enrollment at Lawton Elementary School will increase to meet requirements for Year-Round Education.

The specific laws being implemented are FL Statutes 238.11, FL Statutes 238.22, and FL Statutes 238.23(4).
 The proposed policy is available at the Office of the Superintendent, District Office, 1211 Mellonville Avenue, Sanford, Florida 32771. Persons desiring to obtain copies or review same prior to April 30, 1991, may do so

YOUTH BASEBALL

Southeast Seminole set to start

OVIEDO — The Southeast Seminole Babe Ruth Baseball League, serving the Oviedo/Tuskawilla areas, will open its second season of play on Saturday. Ceremonies will be conducted at Oviedo High School's field beginning at 9:30 a.m.

There are four divisions of play within the Southeast Seminole organization: Peanuts (T-Ball), PeeWees (coach-pitch), Bambino (10 to 12-year-olds) and Babe Ruth (13 to 15).

Coaching teams this year for Southeast Seminole are (by division):

Peanut — John Best (Yankees), Don Bledsoe (Cubs), John Eichner (Mets) and Gerald Rybicki (Cardinals).

PeeWees — Ron King (Yankees), Bill Law (Mets), Wayne Boyle (Cubs) and Mark Sardo (Cardinals).

Bambinos — Bob Scott and Chris Richards (Yankees), Frank Scucci, Bryan Hart and Chris DeJulio (Cubs), Jerry Golsteyn and Rick Piotrowski (Cardinals) and Mickey Norton, Ryan Alkire, Nick Sciortino, Eddie Norton and Al Isoue (Mets).

Babe Ruth (which will play in a league with three teams from the Longwood Babe Ruth organization) — Joe Scutero (Mets) and Mario Ambrosio, Chris Keene and Todd Woodard (Yankees).

COLLEGE BASEBALL

Knights bounce back with win

ORLANDO — The University of Central Florida Knights, 23-8, received strong pitching from freshman Marc Roberts and senior Pat Hubbard to key a 6-1 win over Bradley, 4-6, in the Dr. Pepper UCF Classic Thursday night at the UCF Baseball Complex.

Roberts, a right hander, earned his first college win by pitching five innings and scattering six hits. Hubbard picked up his first save of the season, allowing just two hits over the last four innings.

UCF scored five runs in the first three runs and was never seriously challenged after that.

The losing pitcher was starter Doug Sholtis, who gave up six hits, five runs (all earned) in five innings.

The Knights will play Bradley again this evening at 7 p.m. while Princeton, an 11-2 winner over Missouri earlier Thursday, will face the Tigers again today at 1 p.m.

Top-ranked FSU rolls on

TALLAHASSEE — John Wasdin and two other Florida State pitchers combined to shut out Northern Iowa for the second day in a row, giving the Seminoles a 3-0 victory Thursday for their 15th straight win.

Wasdin (3-0) got the win as he faced only 15 batters in his five innings of action. LaWhit Lizzmore struck out four and allowed only a hit in two innings, and John Nedeau struck out three over the final two innings for top-ranked Florida State (25-3).

Brandon Murray (0-2) walked three and struck out four over seven innings for Northern Iowa (0-11).

BASKETBALL

Heat's Sherman put in cast

MIAMI — Sherman Douglas, the Miami Heat's leader in scoring and assists, had his ankle placed in a cast and will not play at least two games, the team said Thursday.

Douglas sprained his left ankle in Wednesday night's loss to Indiana, and the cast was placed on it by the team physician.

Douglas will miss Friday's game against San Antonio and will not travel to Atlanta for Saturday's game against the Hawks. On Monday the cast will be removed, and Douglas will be day-to-day thereafter, according to a team release.

AUTO RACING

Spring 200 this weekend

BARBERVILLE — The traveling NASCAR Busch Grand National Series will return to Florida for the final time in 1991 to make its only short track appearance in the state for the Spring 200 at Volusia County Speedway this Sunday.

The 200-lap race will offer posted awards of $93,628, the largest purse ever paid for an event at the half-mile oval.

The March race date will be a departure for the speedway, which has hosted a late June-early July event for the Busch Series the past two years. Another change will be a Sunday afternoon race, scheduled to start at 2 p.m., instead of a Saturday night event.

The 32-car starting field for the race will be determined in time trials at 7 p.m. on Saturday.

Compiled from wire and staff reports.

Lion girls, Ram boys have sights on conference titles

By TONY DeSORMIER
 Herald Sports Editor

ALTAMONTE SPRINGS — Through the end of play last night at Sanlando Park, there were no surprises in the Seminole Athletic Conference tennis tournament. And if that continued this morning, Oviedo's girls and Lake Mary's boys are now the 1991 SAC tennis champions.

Play was to pick up this morning at 8 a.m. with the singles championship matches. The doubles semifinals should have begun sometime around 9:30 a.m. with the championship matches beginning about 11:30 a.m.

Both the Oviedo girls and Lake Mary boys came into the two-day tournament prohibitive favorites and both played like it Thursday, the two squads being represented in all five of their respective singles finals this morning and both schools' two doubles teams advancing to the semifinals.

If the Lion girls took care of business this morning, they won their third consecutive SAC title. The Ram boys were faced with the challenge of having to live up to the reputation that had been built for them by word of mouth during the course of the season.

"We're trying to fill the big shoes that everybody's created for us," said first-year Lake Mary boys' coach Scott Reagan. "People heard that we were getting a couple of players and suddenly we had this reputation as a strong team. Now we have to prove it tomorrow." Standing in the way are the Lake

Brantley Patriots, who are represented in three of the five singles finals and still have both doubles teams alive. But Patriot Coach Frank Gooch is one of those who have been singing the praises of the Rams this season.

"We will have to play outstanding tennis tomorrow if we expect to win," said Gooch. "They (Lake Mary) are strong. They're one of the strongest teams I've seen."

Head-to-head matches between the two schools include Lake Mary's Jason Appel facing Lake Brantley's Jon Johnson in the finals at No. 1 singles. Lake Mary's Jason White playing Lake Brantley's Scott Ryan

Raiders split with St. John's

By PHIL SMITH
 Herald Correspondent

SANFORD — For the second time in three days, the Seminole Community College Raiders could not put two good games together, splitting a women's softball doubleheader with St. John's River Community College Thursday afternoon.

SCC won the first game 9-1 but lost the nightcap 6-3.

SCC, 13-6 overall and 12-6 in the North Central Conference, could do no wrong in the first game, pounding out 17 hits and playing superb defense.

The Raiders started out strong, scoring twice in the bottom of the first inning. Marie Peters led off with a single and went all the way to third when the ball was misplayed in the outfield. She scored on Julie Barton's ground out.

Gerry McCory then tripled to deep center field and scored on Jennifer Thomas' sacrifice fly.

Leading 5-1 in the fifth inning, SCC put the game away with a four-run outburst. Barton led off with a single and McCory followed with a single to right, taking second on the throw to third. Barton then scored when the throw from second was dropped by the catcher.

Thomas followed with a single scoring McCory. After Denise Howell singled, Bobbie Osborne doubled to left, scoring Thomas and Howell.

SCC did a complete 180-degree turn in the second game as the Raiders could do nothing right, committing nine errors on defense that led to six unearned runs.

"You can't make nine errors in one game and expect to win," said SCC Coach Ileana Gallagher. "Those type of mistakes will kill you every time."

The Raiders will travel to Cocoa to participate in the Brevard Community College Tournament on Friday and Saturday afternoons before returning to their conference schedule Tuesday afternoon with a trip to Ocala to face the Central Florida Community College Patriots.

Lyman girls blank Oviedo

From staff reports

OVIEDO — Staked to a 2-0 lead in the top of the first inning, pitcher Susan Willis made the advantage stand up as she threw a shutout to lead Lyman to a 2-0 win over Oviedo in a Seminole Athletic Conference softball game Thursday at Redbug Lake Park.

The win improves Lyman's record to 5-3 overall, 3-3 in the SAC.

Jennifer Forston was 3-for-4 to lead the Greyhounds' attack. Michelle Bishop was 2-for-4 with a run scored as Jodie Beland went 2-for-4 with an RBI. Willis scored the other run while Jennifer Krueger had the other RBI.

Barbie Bartels suffered the loss for the Oviedo Lions.

The closest the Lions came to scoring was in the bottom of the sixth, when they put runners at first and second with one out. The next batter hit a ground ball that the Greyhounds tried to convert into a double play. They got the force at second but the throw to first was wild.

Lyman first baseman Carrie Scranton quickly retrieved the ball and made the throw to catcher Wendy Bacey, who was able to tag out the runner trying to score from second on the play.

The Greyhounds' next game will be a home contest next Wednesday against the Lake Mary Rams at 4 p.m.

Seminole Community College's Gerry McCory (No. 18) hit a triple and scored a run in the first inning to help the Raiders to an early lead over St. John's River Community on Thursday.

Greyhounds pound Creek

From staff reports

PORT ORANGE — Doug Porter and Andy Spolski hit back-to-back two-run singles to highlight a six-run second inning, sparking the Lyman Greyhounds to a 12-2 rout of host Spruce Creek in a high school baseball game played Thursday night.

The game was stopped after five innings by the 10-run rule.

After spotting the Hawks a 1-0 lead in the first inning, the Greyhounds exploded for six in the top of the second. Frank Harner began the rally by drawing a walk. Shane Odom followed with an infield hit before Donny Bazler hit the first of his two doubles, scoring Harner.

After Shawn Stuckey was hit by a pitch to load the bases, Porter stroked a single that scored Odom and Bazler. Spolski followed with his two-run single and later scored the sixth run of the inning.

Stuckey launched a three-run home run to highlight Lyman's four-run rally in the fourth inning.

Lyman finished with 13 hits. Stuckey had a single to go with his home run while Bazler had two doubles, an RBI and three runs scored. Porter contributed a double, single and two RBIs. Spolski added

Group learns to thwart crime

Sanford Historic Waterfront Association met Tuesday at Christos Restaurant to listen to Sanford Police Chief Steve Harriett, (right) who spoke on crime prevention.

Quilters to meet

The Central Florida Quilters' Guild will hold their monthly meeting at 7:30 p.m., March 28, at the Sanford Chamber of Commerce in downtown Sanford.

The program will be "Getting around the Corner" in which demonstrations will be presented on mitered corners and bindings.

Guild membership encompasses the entire Central Florida area including Seminole, Osceola, Orange, Lake, Volusia and Brevard counties. Visitors/aquels are always welcome.

SIB offers free trees

The Scenic Improvement Board of Sanford is offering free trees to residents within the city limits for a limited time until supplies are exhausted. The Master Gardeners of Seminole County will plant the tree for you at no cost, but your obligation will be to keep the tree watered for the next few months and fertilize it once after one month. Most of the trees available are Flowering Crape Myrtles; however, some small Oaks and other trees will be available. The choice of tree will be at the discretion of the Master Gardner planting the tree to put the correct tree in the best conditions for optimum health and growth. Trees will be planted in the road right of way or in the front yard where they will be visible from the street to enhance, beautify and environmentally improve our City.

To sign up for a free tree or get further information, call 330-5681 weekdays from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Nutrition class to be held

Seminole County 4-H is sponsoring the third in its Special Interest Food & Nutrition Classes on Thursday, March 28 at the Seminole County 4-H Office from 10 a.m. — Noon at the Seminole County Extension Office at Five-Points. The Class, "Sunny Side Up," will give participants ages 8-18 years of age the opportunity to make simple fast and easy breakfast items. Cost for the class is $2 to cover materials. Class size is limited so pre-registration is required. Call the Seminole County 4-H office at 323-2500, Ext. 5550 to register. Seminole County 4-H is the youth development program of the Cooperative Extension Service and is open to all regardless of race, color, creed, or national origin.

Ranks swell at area yacht club

By LAGY DOWNE
Herald People Editor

SANFORD — They meet near a historic Indian mound, from which their name comes, on Chickawaw Drive in Sanford. Their concerns are many, from boating safety to the protection of manatees living in the St. John's River.

And they like to have fun. Members of the Indian Mound Yacht Club met recently to elect officers for the club's second year in existence.

Officers elected to the board this year are: Walter "Woody" Woodard, commodore; Warren Sellers, vice commodore; Jim McAllister, rear commodore; Mary Lou Connor, secretary and Dick Stokes, treasurer.

Coupled with serious business, members enjoyed a meal of dinner that volunteer cooks had prepared, sang songs with vocalist Barbara McCauley and generally had a good time.

Woodard, elected to his second term, said the club began as an informal dock party last March.

"We share a common interest: boating," he said.

Woodard said a capacity crowd of about 80 people usually gathers at the clubhouse that is leased from the marina behind it. New members must have a boat. Regular members must live within a 10 mile radius, but associate members can live anywhere. Woodard said the club's function is to encourage and teach boating safety.

"We also push for legislation, such as the no wake zones for manatee safety," he said.

Two of the club's future goals are to become a member of the Florida Yacht Club Council and to be able to keep the clubhouse open every weekend for members and guests.

The club has another serious concern members agreed.

"We're serious about having fun, too," member Norma

Adamcyck revealed. "This is one of the nicest bunches of people you could ever meet," Bill Sharp said.

"These are people from all walks of life," George Connor Jr. said.

"Everyone is great. There are no snobs here," he added.

Ex-spouse must pay half of college costs

DEAR ABBY: I just read the letter in your column from a minister who is "flat broke" and doesn't think it's fair that he has to pay college tuition for his two children who live with his ex-wife.

Abby, you should have checked with the Missouri Bar Association before you told him that "nowhere is it written that a parent who is flat broke must pay to put his children through college." No doubt my ex-husband, on reading your reply, will be on the phone with his attorney, quoting you.

Please be assured that it is written somewhere. My ex would do anything he thought he could get away with to avoid supporting his children. He presently works in a job paying one-third of his former annual income so that he could "poormouth" to the judge when it came time for the court to order him to pay support. The judge can't force him to get a job at the salary he is capable of earning as long as he's employed somewhere full time. Guess who loses in this situation?

In Missouri, the non-custodial parent who pays child support must pay the equivalent of half the total cost of state university for four years — tuition, room and board, books — no matter where the student matriculates.

ST. LOUIS WOMAN
DEAR WOMAN: I'll take your word for it. Who said it's a man's world? It's not — if he's the non-custodial parent and lives in Missouri.

DEAR ABBY: Just before my only child's passing away, he informed me that while he was in college (a medical student) he had been a frequent sperm donor. I cannot begin to tell you how priceless it would be for me to locate some of my genetic grandchildren?

There are many registries for adoptees and their natural parents, but to my knowledge, there are none for sperm donors and their donor offspring. I am hoping to develop such a registry in an effort to locate these precious children and help

Celibacy is not medically harmful

DEAR DR. GOTT: In your column about celibacy not being harmful, you assumed that celibacy refers to abstinence from sex. Wrong! Celibacy means being unmarried or living in a single state. The vow of celibacy means a vow not to marry. I believe a number of regular readers (myself included) were shocked to see you place their choice not to marry in a sexual context.

DEAR READER: It certainly doesn't take much to shock you. While celibacy is often defined as being unmarried, by common usage it has taken another primary meaning: abstinence from sexual intercourse. The reader's question (to which I responded) implied this more modern interpretation - which, incidentally, is listed in Webster's Third New International Dictionary.

DEAR DR. GOTT: My husband has suffered from headaches for the past 18 years. He's been treated for sinus infection, tooth infection and cysts. He's been to our local physician and a chiropractor. Where do we go from here?

DEAR READER: The cause of headaches can be difficult to identify because so many medical - and dental - disorders are associated with this symptom. For example, hypertension, migraine, stress-related muscle contractions, fever, sinus infection, brain injury and infection, and hereditary factors are common reasons for headache. Similarly, temporomandibular joint syndrome (a disorder of the jaw joints), dental abscesses, ill-fitting dentures and bruxism (tooth-grinding) are dental conditions that often cause headache.

Since your husband has had sinus inflammation and dental infection (which can lead to sinus infection and cysts), I believe he needs a thorough examination by a dentist to determine if the headache are originating from problems in and around the oral cavity. For example, deep abscesses under the upper teeth can cause little or no pain, but may burrow into the maxillary sinuses (in the cheeks) to produce headache.

Answer to Previous Puzzle

WIN AT BRIDGE

By James Jacoby

When you appear to be in a hopeless contract, don't give up. If you run a long suit, an opponent might not keep the right cards.

Today's hand is another from the Cap Gemini Panda World Top Tournament. Two pairs reached the apparently hopeless seven-heart contract. In the auction given, five clubs showed either all four aces or three aces and the heart king.

Against the mercurial Brazilian Gabriel Chagas, West led a low club. Chagas won with dummy's king, played a club back to his ace, ruffed his club loser in the dummy and ran his seven trump tricks.

Before South cashed his last heart, West was holding king doubleton in both spades and diamonds. Dummy had the A-Q of diamonds and Q-10 of spades. What should West discard when the final trump is led?

We can see that he must throw a diamond, but what if declarer has the A-J of spades and a diamond remaining? Then West must release a spade to give South a guess.

East should have helped his partner by signaling his length in spades and diamonds, but West was not certain of the position and threw the spade eight. The diamond queen was discarded from dummy; the spade ace dropped the king, and dummy took the last two tricks for plus 2210.

Krzysztof Martens of Poland was also in seven hearts. But he faced the diabolical lead of the spade eight from Canadian Eric Kokish. Not unnaturally Martens finessed dummy's nine, and East's jack drew the ace. Now it was easy for Kokish to keep his spade king in the endgame. If declarer had a diamond, he would be forced to finesse. (C)1991, NEWSPAPER ENTERPRISE ASSN.

HOROSCOPE

By Bernice Bede Osof
YOUR BIRTHDAY
March 23, 1991

Your ingenuity and resourcefulness will come into play whenever you're confronted by serious challenges in the year ahead. Your methods and tactics may amaze others, as well as yourself.

ARIES (March 21-April 19) In an important situation where the end is in sight, don't make sudden, impulsive changes. It could destroy everything you've attempted. Know where to look for romance and you'll find it. The Astro-Graph Matchmaker instantly reveals which signs are romantically perfect for you. Mail $2 to Matchmaker, c/o this newspaper, P.O. Box 91428, Cleveland, OH 44101-3428.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) Steer clear of a debate with a friend over a volatile issue today; you might treat this event more emotionally than logically and jeopardize the relationship.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) There is a possibility at this time that you might suffer some form of loss from a misplaced trust. If you are watchful now, this result can be minimized.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) You may feel comfortable about making snap decisions today, but this does not automatically assure the worth of your judgments. Hasty assessments can be erroneous.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) Time you delegated to yourself may be usurped by some unexpected problems. They will be thrust upon you by someone who should be able to handle such matters without assistance.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) There is a possibility that someone you recently met, and with whom you've become involved, might suddenly make a quick exit from your life. Actually, you two have little in common.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) If you are going to be successful in your endeavors today, you cannot do things in fits and starts. You must define your objectives and proceed methodically.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) A rule which you feel strongly about might need a bit more work at the drawing board before you try to impose it upon others. Save your push until your precept is perfect.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) An arrangement in which you're presently involved tends to favor the other party more than it does you. When profits are to be distributed, inequities could surface.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) It might be easier for you to make promises today than it will be for you to fulfill them. Don't get wound up in things you may not be able to unwind.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) You have some confidential information of interest to another. This individual is a skillful inquisitor and, if you're not careful, will get you to reveal it.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) If you start treating a new acquaintance better at this time, a sensitive friend's feelings may be hurt. Include your old pal in your new involvement.
