

Some May Miss Earnings Credit, Patton Warns

Some workers are not getting social security credit for all of their earnings, according to Colonel Byron R. Patton, district manager for social security. Colonel Patton pointed out that this may keep these workers from getting social security at retirement or in case of disability. It can also affect the benefits paid to his family in case of the worker's death. In some cases it can cause the loss of all benefit payments in others, it may result in lower payments. The loss could run to thousands of dollars. Colonel Patton said that two simple rules, if followed, can assure every worker of proper credit for all his work.

First, whenever he reports to a new job, the worker should show his social security card to his new employer, timekeeper or whoever keeps the payroll records. If the worker has lost his card, he should go to the social security office or to the post office for an application for a duplicate card. Second, every worker should check his social security account every three years. The social security office furnishes free post card forms for this. All the worker has to do is fill out the card and mail it to the social security records office in Baltimore. The records will send the statement to the worker. If the statement doesn't match up with the worker's withholding statements or other records, he should tell his social security office. The social security office serving this area is at 2520 North Orange Avenue in Orlando.

Forestry Safety Award Given

ALBERT HARRIS

By Jane Camberly

The Seminole County contingent of the Florida Forest Service has received the Florida Board of Forestry Safety Award for the second year in a row for the best employee accident record for the year ending June 30 in District IV.

The award, won in competition with the nine other counties in the district, was presented recently to County

Ranger Albert Harris by Leonard D. Davis, of Jacksonville safety specialist for Nationwide Insurance Co.

The purpose of the annual award is to help make employees more safety conscious and promote accident prevention. This record of no time lost as a result of accidents was not easy to come by due to the dangerous nature of fire fighting work.

Harris reported that 21,000 fire prevention leaflets are being enclosed in monthly statements and mailed out by the four banks in the county as a public service.

Isbell Hits Dry Tortugas, Aims At Everglades

80 MPH Winds, Heavy Rains Batter Keys

MIAMI (UPI)—Hurricane Isbell mounded 100 miles an hour winds in a strike across the Florida Keys today but its peak fury apparently missed the population centers in the island chain.

MIAMI (UPI)—Hurricane Isbell, leaving at least four dead and heavy property damage behind it in Cuba, moved through the Florida Keys with 80 mile an hour winds and heavy rains today. Peak fury of the season's sixth hurricane hit the nearly uninhabited Dry Tortugas Islands about 10 a.m. (EST).

Fire Engine - For Free

A bonanza is in the offing for tax-supported fire departments in Seminole County, commissioners were told yesterday. Lake Mary may be the first to get it.

Albert Harris, county ranger for the Florida Forest Service, outlined details of the program to commissioners—a plan which would allow departments to get valuable equipment to augment existing equipment and without charge.

He explained Florida is one of five "pilot states" in the country to get into the act. Surplus fire protection equipment from closed military bases has been made available and can be had by the department making a formal request for it.

There is no charge, Harris said, and the machines are used by the individual department until no longer useable or needed. It then is returned to the Forest Service.

A crash truck, estimated by Commission Chairman James P. Avery to cost $35,000, will soon be in use by the Lake Mary Fire Department. Only minor details are to be worked out before the delivery is made, Ranger Harris said.

Any tax-supported department or political group may obtain the equipment as it is available and this sparked commissioners to move quickly.

By unanimous vote they asked that a legislative act permitting the county's participation be drawn up at once and submitted to the Legislature at the next session.

Harris assured commissioners they can "use the equipment as you see fit" in fire fighting or could offer it to any other group which may not qualify as tax-supported but which is organized to fight fires.

Avery summed up the feelings of other commissioners when he said he is "astounded that the federal government came up with such a program."

Top Paper In Miller Area Endorses LBJ

NIAGARA FALLS, N. Y. (UPI) — The Niagara Falls Gazette, leading newspaper in the home district of Republican Vice Presidential Candidate William E. Miller, Tuesday endorsed the Johnson-Humphrey ticket.

It was the first time in the newspaper's 110-year history it endorsed a Democratic candidate for president.

In an editorial, the Gazette said, "we believe Mr. Johnson proved his stature when he rose to the challenge posed by the assassination of President Kennedy. He guided the nation through a severe crisis and since then he has been a good president. He deserves election in his own right."

The paper said of Miller, "Mr. Miller has somehow become the victim of unwise campaign planning. He has acquired a reputation for hitting-below-the-belt politics, not an attractive image earned or unearned for one who aspires to the vice presidency."

The Gazette supported the election of Miller to Congress in the past.

Local disaster officials late this morning were studying the advance of hurricane Isbell and the machinery will be set in motion should conditions warrant later today. A. B. (Bart) Peterson, Civil Defense disaster director, reports all in readiness should the need arise as it appeared late this morning.

The center passed 39 miles to the west of Key West where 50,000 residents hastily prepared for the worse but apparently were spared any major destruction.

"It's raining like hell," a newsmen for Key West radio station WKWF said by telephone. "It's coming down in sheets of water. We just recorded a wind gust of 65 miles an hour."

The broadcaster reported no apparent damage. The streets of the island city were deserted, he said, as residents remained in their boarded up homes and in about a dozen shelters opened by the Red Cross, and civilian agencies and U. S. Navy, opened 44 shelters equipped to handle 10,000 persons.

The Navy entertained its personnel in shelters with returns of the old "Victory at Sea" movies.

As the hurricane crossed the island chain heading for the Everglades at the southern tip of Florida, Dry Tortugas reported winds of 80 mph at 10 a.m.

The Tortugas are the site of the Civil War's Fort Jefferson where Dr. Samuel Mudd, the physician who treated President Lincoln's assassin, was imprisoned.

Only a man or two connected with the national monument and possibly a few fishermen live in the Tortugas Islands.

As Isbell's winds moved into Florida Bay, the weather bureau extended hurricane warnings to Lake Okechobee and from Fort Lauderdale to Vero Beach.

Irish Age DUBLIN, Ireland (UPI)—President Eamon de Valera spent his 82nd birthday quietly today with his family at his official residence.

Board Votes Fund For County Census

Seminole County will have another nose-count soon but without the actual counting being made.

County Commission yesterday agreed to supply "up to $300" for cost of the census which may pave the way for additional circuit court judges to serve the Ninth Judicial Circuit.

Population increases in the seven-county district since the 1960 census caused bar associations in each county to call on Gov. Farris Bryant to give an executive order for the count.

Carl R. Schilke of Sanford will head the Seminole poll.

Schilke said the governor has called for each of three census commissioners to "obtain from the U. S. Census Bureau an outline of proper criteria other than by actual counting of individuals . . . to determine the population of the circuit."

A public hearing will also be held by each commissioner

Sanford C. of C. Conservation Activity Begins

The Sanford Chamber of Commerce Tuesday began preliminary observation of the Florida Conservation Week activities scheduled for Oct. 26-31 with presentations of awards to movie producer Walt Disney and Supreme Court Justice William O. Douglas.

The award of the plaque to Walt Disney was made by Mayor A. L. Wilson and Sanford Chamber President A. B. Peterson Jr. who flew to Hollywood, California to make the presentation. It was understood that the presentation was to be filmed. Disney was named recipient of the award because of the many films he has made dealing with America's flora and fauna.

At the same time, State Rep. Joe Davis was to fly to Washington, D. C. to present a similar award to Justice Douglas in his chambers at 2:30 p. m. today. Justice Douglas is the author of many articles and books on conservation.

The awards consist of a wooden plaque upon which is mounted a brass scroll. The scroll reads: "To promote and preserve our natural heritage unspoiled that future generations of Americans may experience the wonder of nature in balance."

Other awards were to be made to "Smokey the Bear," for fire prevention work; Governor Farris Bryant, proclaimer of Florida Conservation Week; Secretary of State Tom Adams, noted proponent of better conservation practices; Russell Mason, executive director of the Florida Audubon Society; Don McAllister, well-known television personality in the field of fish and game conservation and Field and Stream Magazine.

October 26th will mark the opening of Florida Conservation Week activities in Sanford, host city for the first annual seminar-exposition.

Main speaker for the opening ceremonies will be Tom Adams, with large displays from both private and government groups expected to fill the Civic Center. Outdoor demonstrations and exhibits will be staged at Lake Monroe Industrial Park.

Merchandising Seminar Scores With Sanford Area Businessmen

By Harry I. Johnson, Managing Editor

"Do we have the courage to meet the challenge of a change? Or are we static, complacent?"

"Talk at the level of the customer. The customer tells us what to merchandise. . . . tell us how to sell it."

"Create an on-the-ball store image; keep the display area fresh, neat in housekeeping."

These and many more expert bits of advice were given to more than 130 Sanford area merchants last night at a Merchandising Seminar sponsored by the Florida State Bank.

Bank President T. E. Tucker and his executive vice president, Loring Burgess, were hosts for the seminar which attracted many more merchants and retailers than expected. Last minute arrangements were made to serve additional dinners to the group during intermission midway through the program.

The speakers were three top officials of Jordan Marsh Orlando.

They were Henri Guertin JM vice president and general manager; David Jacobs, JM sales promotion manager, and Richard Hedenberg, JM display manager. They were introduced by Burgess.

News media in this area had displays of their operations in the bank lobby.

Guertin cited several principles necessary for a successful business, urging local merchants to "determine the type of business you want to run" and "set a certain standard for your business."

"A booming economy" is no assurance of success, he warned, saying "competition walks in the front door when we sunbathe on the rear patio."

He urged his audience to "have faith in what you've got and sell, sell, sell."

"Do we have the courage to meet the challenge of a change?" he declared. "Change is the fun of a business. Do you invite the challenge?"

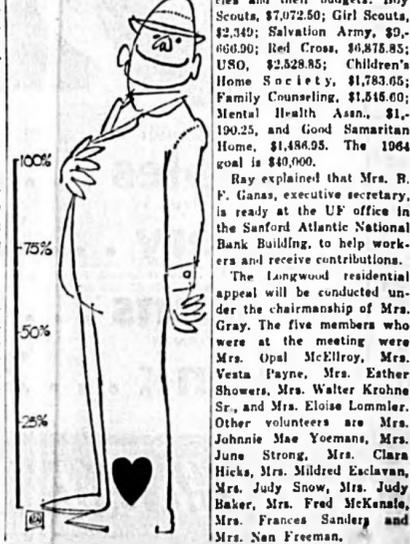

Some merchants, he said, "just ride the coattails of others. They'll do all right. But how much better they would be if they would take advantage of the opportunities."

The JM official urged his

'Bobrow Matter' In 'Hands Of Attorneys'

Lawrence Swofford, Democratic nominee for a seat on the Board of County Commissioners, said today that accusations by George Bobrow, made in a letter to the Editor of The Herald, were incorrect and that he had placed the matter in the hands of his attorneys.

Swofford declared: "The letter to the Editor over the signature of George Bobrow appearing in the Oct. 8, 1964, edition of The Sanford Herald has been called to my attention."

"Mr. Bobrow's statement that I reduced my property assessment by $12,000 is false. The mayor of Altamonte Springs," Swofford continued, "has no power over the assessment of his property or anyone else's property."

Swofford explained that according to the charter of Altamonte Springs the mayor, although a member of the Town

Architect Proposal Rejected By City

A request that state laws requiring an architect on all public or commercial buildings and on residences in excess of $10,000 was turned down by City Commissioners Monday.

The request came in the form of a letter from John

Burton IV, local architect who asked that the provisions of the state law be enforced in the issuance of building permits.

"It is not the function of a municipality to enforce state laws of this nature," City Attorney William Hutchison advised the city commissioners.

Commissioners also noted that the city does not have the manpower nor proper setup to handle such matters, which properly come under the jurisdiction of state law enforcement agencies.

 North Carolina Republicans plan to monitor some precincts with movie cameras during the presidential election to guard against voting irregularities.
 "The best way to keep people honest is not to give them a chance to be dishonest," said J. Herman Saxon of Charlotte, chairman of the North Carolina GOP.
 Saxon said GOP workers would be stationed at selected precincts with 8-MM cameras and briefly photograph each voter to prevent double voting.

 Tyler, Miss.: Manly Molpus, chairman of the Mississippi Young Republican Federation, said hundreds of youths in Mississippi colleges are being denied the right to support Goldwater because of the fear of reprisals by some school officials.

Birmingham, Ala.: Acting GOP Chairman Tom Brigham Tuesday accused the national AFL-CIO union leadership of sending more than $175,000 to Alabama to defeat Goldwater and GOP congressional candidates.

Thinking Out Loud

By Julian Steinman
Sports Editor

John Baker, manager of the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce and a former president of the Florida State League has had a particular interest in the World Series.

Baker has been keeping an eye on one of the participants—the Yankees—but strongly enough to let his own players, Steve Linn, Earlhart, one of the umpires.

Earhart, as you no doubt know, is a former hurler for the St. Louis Cardinals. But when Earl retired from the game back in the early '50s he decided he wanted to stay in baseball and work his way up the ladder again. The only way he could do it was to become an umpire.

Now had a conference with National League Umpire George Barr who at that time was running his annual school for umpires here in Sanford. Barr advised Earl to come on to his school. Earlhart did and Earlhart, president of the FFL that year, picked Earlhart as one of his umpires for that season of the Florida State League.

After a successful season here in Florida, Earlhart went to the Texas League for a season and then Krieger before Earlhart went to the American Association. From there, he got back into the major leagues and has been doing a creditable job ever since.

"I think he looked real good," says Krieger.

If you're not among those who have "given up" on the Seminole—and let us assure you those who have are few in number—you'd better get those tickets again for Friday night. Local high school officials are again expecting another top crowd when the Seaside High Braves move into Sanford's Memorial Stadium for another Metro fracas with the SHS gridder.

We understand tickets are on sale again this week at McReynolds, Liggett, Touchton's and Rounhill and Anderson's. They are adult tickets only, available at these spots. For children's tickets you'll have to visit the high school's administration office.

Last Saturday night Florida A & M's Batters defeated Central State of Ohio 56-25. Wonder what the score might have been if the Batters' speedster, Bob Hayes, had been there instead of Tokyo for the Olympics?

Florida lineman Allen Trammel and FSU quarterback Steve Tensi have been named players of the week by the Florida Sports Writers Association. Well, you can't deny that they deserve it.

South Seminole Whitewashes Oviedo's Cubs, 35 To 0

Dennis Garrett Gets Three TD's For Hurricanes

By Jim Boehlen

Everybody knows hurricanes and wet weather go together. And they went along like bread and butter at Lyman Field in Longwood last night when Dennis Garrett, a South Seminole Junior High halfback, scored three touchdowns and ran for four extra points to pace the Hurricanes to a 35 to 0 victory over the Oviedo Junior High Lion Cubs.

The rains which drenched Seminole County last night appeared to have no effect on the Hurricanes and Garrett as they won their second game of the season to go with that tie with Sanford Junior High's Braves. About midway in the first period Garrett moved into pay dirt from the 10-yard line to put the Hurricanes on the scoreboard for the first time. Late in the same period he "busted" through the Lion Cubs' secondary and raced 32 yards for the club's second marker. On both occasions he registered the PAT's on dashes.

In the second stanza, the two clubs played fairly even football until the last minute. The Hurricanes moved to the Oviedo 30-yard line and with 12 seconds left on the clock halfback Bill Sharr romped the distance for a third South Seminole touchdown and Garrett again ran the extra point. The score remained 21 to 0 until late in the fourth quarter when Garrett posted his third touchdown on a 12-yard journey and he immediately picked up his fourth conversion by blasting through the Oviedo line for the two yards. But the Hurricanes weren't through yet. With only seven seconds remaining in the contest Dave Drueding, a South Seminole tackle—being used as a fullback post for the first time—plowed 47 yards for the Hurricanes' fifth score.

Drueding's spectacular run was highlighted by the devastating blocking of end Bruce Stewart. For the extra point Richard Rubright went the two yards. The Lion Cubs were never able to gather enough momentum to threaten the Hurricanes. Only once did they ever get the ball into South Seminole territory. Score by quarters:

Stenstrom Keeps Hi-Nooner Lead

Stenstrom Realty won three from Nationwide Insurance to maintain their margin in the Hi Nooners League at Jet Lanes. All four members of the Stenstrom team were bombing the pins and Etta Dorman lead them with 177/477. Carolyn Sallee backed her up with a 168/465 and Kathy Gray and Libbie Whitehead contributed 175 and 179 respectively.

For Nationwide it was Ulla Ganderton setting the pace with 180/465. Southern Air took over second place after sweeping four from Hunt Realty as Mary Elmore blasted 184/498 and Bev Kreeck hit 188/434. Behrens Tractor Service latched onto the third spot with a three-game win over Wilson-Maler as Helen Padgett stroked 176/479. Margaret Price backed her up with a 167/463 and Claudette Behrens contributed a 162 game and Bertha Neville a 173.

Helen Edwards won high series honors with 178/510 and Rose Patrick rolled 189/494 while bowling for the Wilson-Maler team. M and B Bar won three from Art Brown's Pest Control despite some fine rolling by Dot Button and Thelma Unger. Dot shot 169/432 and Thelma a 171/458 series.

In the final match of the day, Joe's Laundry swept four from Jet Inn as Bev Meeks shot a 173 game. High games were rolled by Lenore Price with 151, Lorraine Spotts a 154, Mary Elmore 166 and Helen Edwards a 184.

Strikes And Splits

Twelve Pins Separate Men And Women Leaders

By John A. Spolski
Let's be name droppers this week! The easiest way of handling this situation is to scan the results of many bowling leagues now well into fall schedules.

Checking in with the Wednesday evening Ball and Chalmers, there was only a 12-point spread in high series between the men's and women's totals. Leading the men was Marion Gonterman with games of 190, 197/562 and for the 'Chalmers', it was Mary Meek's turn to smile because of her 187, 208/540 series.

Lucy Polk wasn't missing that head pin very often. She put a couple of 'em together for a nifty 196 in her 320 series. Top series for the Singles Classic, which bowls four games, was Phil Roche's 212, 202/753. A tug-of-war continues for the top spot in this league between Big Jack Kanner and Johnny Bridges.

Kanner split with Harry Pentecost as Johnny Bridges made a clean sweep of Garry Fox. Lots of good games were rolled by the women in Thursday's Mixed League. For example we offer Sue Jackson's 183, the highest, followed by Erna Anderson—175, Carolyn Betts—160, Darkis Owens—150, Carol Kerr—154, Helen Kaelin—152, Teen Arms—152, Fran Morton—148, Eleanor Anderson 159 and Verna Bolton 167. Anderson, Workman and Duggan were the 'heavy guns' for the girls with Verill a top-dog with a 202/532. Bob had a 193/537 and Pete came through with a 194/533. Bowling along side the Mixed League is the Kegler's group which had a couple of hot-shots exploding with Big 'uns, too.

Likeable Sam Faron stepped to the fore with his 190/561 series. One of the money-men from Sanford Atlantic Bank, Brown really tore 'em up with a 223 but it wasn't enough as Faron Bulkers picked four-points from SANB.

Others bowling in the 'charm circle' included Blondi with a 203, Mathews 201, Fry tied him with a 201, one pin higher was Ken Martin's 202 and John Hines kept that book of his off the two-pin and plastered the right side of the lanes with his 217.

In between world series scores, the Hi Nooners' Wednesday had a couple of 'homers' from the powder-puff pin-pounders (now cut that kind of talk out, John!) in the forms of Helen Edward and Bev Kreeck.

Guthrie's 639 High In City

The City League found the bowlers rolling pretty good games, but leading them all was Bob Guthrie's 199, 247 and 193 for a nice 639 series. With Bob's help Cook's Corner took four points from Sanford Manufacturing. Willie (Firecracker) Magito also had a nice series for Cook's with his 201/578. Fred Hollen was high for the Manufacturers with a 205/532.

In other league action, Pryor's Insurance ripped the Rose and Wilk's for four points with Big Ed Callan rolling his bomb to a 571. Jerry Parella also had a 211/550 series. George Swann was high for Rose and Wilk's with a 212/538. Bob's Restaurant with the help of Bob Combs big ball won four from Wisdom's Sid Service.

Bob rolled a nice 234 game and a 594 series while mate Don Dorman rolled a 216/558. Roger Jones was high for Wisdom with a 195/520. Jet Lanes held first place with a three-point win over Harry's Bar. Gerald Behrens was high for the Lanes with a 201-203/587 series followed by John Spolski and Jack Kanner with 221/560 and 199/576, respectively. Bill Kazee rolled a 203/504 for Harry's and his team mate Bud Kretzer had a 200/522.

SHS Statistics Still Thought Respectable

By David Higginbotham

Although the Seminoles have posted only two victories in four games, they still have a respectable record in the statistics department.

For example, the SHS gridder have racked up 30 first downs, they've limited their four opponents to 21 and they posted 720 yards on 149 plays while the opposition has been limited to 388 yards on 127 carries.

By the same yardstick, Sanford has lost only 44 yards rushing while they've outback the four opponents a total of 22 yards.

This is certainly to the credit of the Seminoles' defensive tactics. But perhaps the one department where they have "slipped" is in the pass defense category.

Offensively, the Tribe has racked up 185 yards in the air. Not too many pins behind Beverly was mate Mary Elmore of Southern Air with her 184. Guners were Bertha Neville's 173, Claudette Behrens' 162, Margaret Price's 167, Helen Padgett's 176, Ulla Ganderton's 180, Carolyn Sallee's 188, Kathy Gray's 173, Libbie Whitehead's 179 and Beverly Meek's 173.

Saturday officers were elected for the coming bowling season with these 'sharpest' leading the helm: President Jim Woods; first vice president Bonnie Unger (who is the only one from the Bantam Division) and the secretary-treasurer Don Nicholas.

Incidentally, whereas we once had quite a number of substitutes for replacements, we're presently down to about three or four. So, if you'd like to have either your son or daughter participate as one of these 'junior bowlers', send them out Saturday around 9:15 a. m. League bowling begins at 9:30.

One of the prime upsets in the City League happened as Pryor's State Farm Insurance Company team slapped Rose & Wilks Restaurant, taking four points from the restaurateurs.

Leading the attack was Ed Callan with two 195 games and a 571 series. George Swann continued to bowl well for R & W as he finished with a 212/583 set.

This Sunday, Jet Lanes will host the Knights of Columbus men's traveling league and also will be featuring 10 teams of women bowlers of the Central Florida Women's Traveling League.

Action starts at 1 p. m. come on out and watch 'em.

Cards Pin Hopes On Curt Simmons

By Tom Moriarty
UPI Sports Writer

ST. LOUIS (UPI) — The St. Louis Cardinals sent veteran Curt Simmons to the mound today in an effort to wrap up their seventh world championship in 10 tries while the New York Yankees called on bulldog Jim Bouton to "keep the World Series" alive and stretch it to its maximum limit of seven games.

The weather was clear and sunny at the 2 p. m. EDT, starting time at Busch Stadium with the Yankees favored at 6-5 to win. Although the Cardinals are the 11-5 choice to take the series, St. Louis fans, convinced the Cardinals would follow up their dramatic last-day victory in the National League pennant race by upsetting the Yankees in the series, were paying $50 to $75 for tickets priced at $8 each.

This city was prepared for its greatest celebration of a baseball victory since the Cardinals won their first world championship by beating the Yankees in the 1926 series.

"We're in good shape no matter who wins today," said Manager Johnny Keane of the Cardinals.

"I feel we've won three of five games without playing our best ball. We can play better than we have."

Manager Yogi Berra of the Yankees maintained the calm that characterized his approach to various crises throughout the American League season.

"We've won two straight games a lot of times," he said.

"There's no reason we can't win today and tomorrow."

In Simmons, the Cardinals were sending to the mound a 35-year-old lefthander whom they rescued off baseball's scrap heap four years ago. A one-time $65,000 bonus pitcher, Simmons was cut loose by the Philadelphia Phillies in 1960 because he had a chronic sore arm.

The Cardinals took a chance with him and almost miraculously he developed into a crafty, pinpoint pitcher who has won 59 games for the Cardinals over the last 4 1/2 years and had an 18-9 record for them this season.

Simmons, who went out for a pinch-hitter after holding the Yankees to one run in eight innings in New York's 2-1 victory last Saturday in New York, said he was confident he can check the Yankees' home run power in small Busch Stadium.

Bouton, a native of Newark, N. J., who has an 18-13 record during the AL season, was the victor in Saturday's third game.

He is the buldog of the Yankee staff — a medium-sized righthander without a big fast ball who fights the hitters with a variety of pitches and changing speeds.

The big question seemed to be whether the Cardinals could continue the momentum of the drive that carried them to the NL flag against the Yankee team that has not played well mechanically in this series and doesn't seem to be sharp.

The Cardinals, with the richest World Series tradition of any National League team, always seem to play well in the series.

The Yankees, of course, have dominated the World Series more than any other team in baseball—but over the last 10 years have actually been a less-than-500 team in classic play.

They have lost 10 of their last 16 World Series games dating back through the 1962 series with the San Francisco Giants and stand 27-29 in World Series competition going all the way back through the 1935 series.

Beginning today, they'll have to play 1,000 baseball to take the winners' end of this World Series melon.

The Lake Monroe Homemakers Club Has Varied Informative Program

By Mrs. W. L. Johnson
The program on "Medical Quackery," with Mrs. Audrey

Roberts in charge, was the main feature of the regular monthly meeting of the Lake

Monroe Extension Homemakers Club. The meeting, held at the Monroe Community Building, was presided over by the president, Mrs. C. E. Hunter.

Mrs. Roberts told of the meaning of the word "quackery." It is defined as a pretender to medical skill. In popular terms "quack" is considered to be a medical swindler. Quackery is a major health problem. It cost the public a billion dollars a year. There are three kinds (major) of health frauds which violate the Federal Food, Drug and Cosmetic Act: quackery in the promotion of so-called therapeutic devices; quackery in the marketing of food supplements and so-called health foods, and false claims for drugs and cosmetics.

After her talk, three members of the 4-H Handy Helpers Club gave a pantomime skit on the subject. This was enjoyed very much by the group. The girls were Joy Wilson, Charlene and Betty Baker. Various chairmen gave reports on their projects. Mrs. Mae Rahn gave a report on safety; Mrs. Joanne Dubois and Mrs. Marion Lee, creative arts; Mrs. Mable Carroll, sunshine, and Mrs. H. L. Johnson, 4-H.

The club will have a booth in the coming American Legion Fair in November and will work on this on Oct. 22, starting at 7:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Hunter.

An open council meeting will be held in Geneva on Oct. 15.

Mrs. Mable Carroll and Mrs. Daisy Dowell will represent the club at the T.B. stuffing party in Orlando on Nov. 4. The club will be the official hostesses at the annual installation and Christmas party on Dec. 4. It will be held in the educational building of the Ursula Presbyterians Church on Country Club Road, starting at 7:30 p.m. and Mrs. Johnson will be chairman.

Mrs. JoAnne Duffois was elected delegate to finish out the term of Mrs. Irene Hawkins, who had to resign because of ill health.

Miss Myrtle Wilson, County Home Demonstration agent, spoke to the club on situations and needs of the community. Hostesses appointed for November are Mrs. Dowell, Mrs. Duffois and Mrs. Lucille Fitzgerald.

Refreshments of cake and coffee were served by the hostesses, Mrs. Rahn, Mrs. Alice Nordgren and Mrs. Betty Blackwelder, to 17 members, four guests and the agent, Miss Wilson.

The American Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals (ASPCA) cared for 268,051 animals in the 12-month period ending April 30, 1964.

WES SAYS:

Do you believe that all coin laundries are alike? If you do, just ask yourself these questions: Where I wash now, can I: 1. Wash CLEAN 8 double sheets AND 8 pillow cases in ONE 23c MACHINE? 2. Wash 10 pair of work pants AND 10 work shirts in ONE 25c MACHINE? If your answer is NO, then you owe it to yourself to try the WES-KAY WASHETERIA. Wouldn't you go a little farther to wash MORE clothes, CLEANER & CHEAPER? Stop In. And Make Me Prove It To You!

Expenditures for medical research in this country amounted to about $1.4 million last year, the Health Information Foundation reports.

Gelatine Valuable Weapon In Battle Of The Bulges

NEW YORK (UPI) — Unflavored gelatine can be a valuable weapon in the battle of the waistline bulge. It's especially useful for making fancy desserts to fit low-calorie diets.

Following are three recipes in which the calorie counts per serving range from 57 to 110. The gelatine itself, which is pure food protein, contains 24 calories per envelope.

A single serving of apricot snow without custard sauce contains 57 calories. Add 10 more for each tablespoon of the skim milk sauce. To make the snow, drain liquid from one 8-ounce can of water-packed (dietetic) apricot halves into measuring cup. Add water to make 1/2 cup. Pour into medium saucepan. Sprinkle liquid with 1 envelope of unflavored gelatine. Stir constantly over low heat, about 2 or 3 minutes, until gelatine dissolves.

Remove from heat. Stir in 1/2 teaspoon of salt, 1 tablespoon of lemon juice, 1 teaspoon of grated lemon rind and enough non-calorie sweetener equivalent to 1/2 cup of sugar. (Brands differ in sweetening power; each label gives equivalents). Purée apricots in blender or force them through a sieve. Add to gelatine mixture.

Chill until mixture mounds slightly when dropped from a spoon. Beat egg whites until stiff but not dry. Gradually add sugar and beat until very stiff. Fold into chilled gelatine mixture, turn into a 1 quart mold or 6 individual serving dishes. Chill until firm. Unmold to serve.

For custard sauce, blend 1 teaspoon of cornstarch with a little milk in heavy saucepan. Add enough milk to measure 2 cups, and non-calorie sweetener equivalent to 1/2 cup of sugar. Place over low heat. Stir often until milk is very hot but not boiling. Beat 3 egg yolks slightly in medium bowl. Gradually stir in hot milk. Return to saucepan, cook over low heat, stirring constantly, until mixture is thick enough to coat a spoon. Remove from heat. Add 1 teaspoon of vanilla. Makes 2 1/2 cups. Leftover sauce may be served plain or with fresh fruit.

Strawberry ginger mold contains 60 calories per serving and serves 4. Sprinkle 1 envelope of unflavored gelatine over 2 1/2 cup of cold water in saucepan. Stir constantly over low heat about 3 to 4 minutes, until gelatine dissolves. Remove from heat. Add one 12-ounce can or bottle of low-calorie gingerale and enough non-calorie sweetener to equal 1 tablespoon of sugar.

Pour into a 1-pint mold or four individual molds. Chill until firm. Unmold and serve with 1 pint of strawberries, washed, hulled and sweetened to taste with non-calorie sweetener.

Even chesapeake can be relatively low in calories. Sprinkle 2 envelopes of unflavored gelatine over 1 cup of skim milk in medium saucepan. Beat together 3 egg yolks and 1/2 cup of milk. Add to contents of saucepan, along with non-calorie sweetener equal to 1/2 cup of sugar, and 1/2 teaspoon of salt.

Following supper a lively skit was prepared on the rear patio, and music filled the mansion as the young ladies returned to the gallery rooms.

Kitty Williams, national field secretary, and Brenda Bramlitt, president of the DeLand chapter, guided the rushees through their ritual. Finishing at 8:30 p.m. they returned to DeLand by motorcade, with memories of the famous old Mansion House uppermost in their thoughts.

For many it was their first trip to DeBary and the mansion, but they vowed to return another day.

Expenditures for medical research in this country amounted to about $1.4 million last year, the Health Information Foundation reports.

Phi Mu Sorority Fetes Rushees At DeBary Mansion

By Mrs. Frank White
Phi Mu Sorority of Stetson University, DeLand, held a "rush party," Friday evening, Oct. 9, at the DeBary Mansion House.

The old mansion came alive with the beautiful young ladies in their evening gowns and jewels, who attended the rush party, escorted to the mansion by a caravan of cars, driven by students from Stetson and a police escort. Trenches were placed at the entrance gate, and the rushees were ushered up the front steps into the main room off the front veranda.

Phi Mu Sorority is the second oldest women's sorority, founded in 1832, at Wesleyan College, Macon, Ga. There were 26 rushees and 25 sisters at the party, and at 6:30 p.m. they gathered in the former ball room at the Mansion House, where a buffet table, overlaid with a white cloth and centered with a floral arrangement and large crystal punch bowl flanked by silver candelabra holding three white tapers and trays of dainty tea sandwiches, cakes, nuts, mints and coffee, completed the table.

Following supper a lively skit was prepared on the rear patio, and music filled the mansion as the young ladies returned to the gallery rooms.

"United, there is little we cannot do..."

HERBERT HOOVER "The true hope of progress is in the spiritual field, and these are the helpful actions in the world and the worthwhile things in the community. The Community Chest stands for this spiritual growth. It occupies a position that must constantly be built stronger if we would build the spiritual side of American life..."

CALVIN COOLIDGE Among the first Presidents to endorse the United Way of voluntary support of community health, welfare and recreation services while in office. He said: "I'm glad to give. The Community Chest is a fine idea."

FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT "Care of the aged, service to demoralized families, hospitalization of the needy sick, home nursing, settlements, guidance of youth, care of the children without a chance—these and hundreds of other services are in the hands of your local welfare organization... they must not be forgotten..."

LYNDON B. JOHNSON "One of our enduring American traditions has been the voluntary contribution of time and money to strengthen our country's many communities. Nowhere else in the world do people give so generously toward this end. Millions of Americans perform both a public service and an act of human compassion by their participation in and generosity to their United Fund or Community Chest. In doing so, they express a common desire to help their community assist the young and old, the sick and distressed."

HARRY S. TRUMAN "The Community Chest gives us a chance to make sure our help will really count. When we give to the Chest, we can be sure that we are helping our neighbors and our neighborhood in the right way. And when we do that, we are making our country a better place to live in for ourselves and our children."

JOHN F. KENNEDY "I hope that you will join in this great national effort, this great national crusade through the United Way, and give. It will make your community a happier place; it will make you a happier person, and in the real sense your country is your country. It will make our country a finer place in which to live. United, there is little we cannot do..."

DWIGHT D. EISENHOWER "We can't possibly know about all our neighbors in need. Somebody must show us the way to help them. This is the purpose of the United Community Campaigns of America. Right now these United Campaigns are getting under way in over two thousand communities across the land. They provide us with a splendid opportunity to express the traditional neighborly concern of America."

North Orlando Garden Club Begins Fall Season With Record Turn-Out

By Margaret Cosby
The North Orlando Garden Club held its first meeting of the 1964-65 season with a record turn-out of members and guests at the home of Mrs. W. W. Anderson, 20 South Edgemon Ave., on Thursday, Oct. 8. Mrs. Helen Berrie was co-hostess for the evening, and Mrs. Ewingston Harville, president, called the meeting to order promptly at 7:30 p.m. Mrs. Jane West was elected vice president to complete the unexpired term of office vacated when Etta Harville took over the presidency, since Myra Stodum had been transferred to Cocoa during the summer.

As a fund-raising project, the North Orlando Garden Club decided to sell Christmas cards. The newly-elected vice president represented the North Orlando Garden Club at the District 7 meeting in Sanford of the Florida Federation of Garden Clubs on Oct. 12. New members joining the North Orlando Garden Club at this meeting were Gladys Pliotat, Jackie Blanton and Ruth Fuller.

Zeta Xi Stages Hawaiian Luau For Rushees

Zeta Xi Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi entertained their rushees with a Hawaiian luau recently at the home of Mrs. Thomas Russell. The Marina Isle home of the Russells was decorated in authentic Hawaiian style with music of the islands in the background.

The guests, attired in colorful mu mus, bright shirts, grass skirts and leis, heartily enjoyed the elaborate feast set before them. The "Wahines" and their husbands served themselves from a low net-covered table and seated themselves informally on the floor throughout the house.

Following the meal, Mrs. Tex Horie, who lived in Hawaii several years with her husband, gave a hulu lesson. A hilarious time was had by all, with Buddy Corley and Gary Hudgens judged the most graceful and talented "hulu girls."

Members and their guests enjoying the delightful evening were Mr. and Mrs. Richard Butler, Mr. and Mrs. George Beers, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Russell, Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Lara, Mr. and Mrs. Tex Horie, Mr. and Mrs. Osborne Dorminey, Mr. and Mrs. Gary Hudgens, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Corley, Mrs. Flora Mae Wells, Mrs. Kathy Downer, Mrs. Melba Bach, Mrs. Robert Wansa, Bill French, Miss Mildred Turner and Miss Grace Marie Stuefigher.

The Azalea Club To Meet Thursday With Mrs. Moye

The Azalea Club will meet Thursday evening, Oct. 15, at 7:30 at the home of Mrs. J. M. Moye on 309 W. 16th Street. All members are asked to be present since an interesting program is being planned.

Program chairman, Mrs. Lois Wallace, showed a dozen of the projects made by members during last year's workshop sessions. Included in the group were interestingly-potted growing plants, artificial floral arrangements, driftwood creations, shell pictures and plaques, and gorgeous Christmas decorations. It was decided that a Halloween party will be held on Saturday, Oct. 31, at the home of President Etta Harville, 81 North Third Street, North Orlando, at 8 p.m. Prizes will be given for the best costumes. Refreshments were served by the hostesses and the gay buffet table was centered with a Halloween Casper-the-Ghost surrounded by little "ghost-let" candy-filled favors for each member and guest.

MRS. HELEN BERRIE, left and Mrs. Vera Anderson were recent co-hostesses for the first fall meeting of the North Orlando Garden Club. Their refreshment buffet carried a Halloween theme with a Casper-the-ghost candy-filled favor for each member and guest. Mrs. Berrie is the club's treasurer and Mrs. Anderson is past president.

Henry Wards Grandparents Twice Within Three Weeks

By Margaret Cosby
Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ward, of North Edgemon Avenue, North Orlando, are delighted to announce that they have become grandparents, not once, but twice, in less than three weeks' time.

Son, Gene, in Boston, was happy to announce the arrival of his little girl, Heather Stanton. Little Heather weighed a mere five pounds, six ounces, with everyone reported to be doing fine—and LaVerne and Henry Ward became grandparents for the first time.

Only 17 days later, daughter, Pat, had a wee baby boy, weighing only four pounds, four ounces, at Seminole Memorial Hospital. Baby Ronald Lee Scott stayed in the hospital a few weeks until he picked up a whole 20 ounces! He is now thriving at home with his mother at Grandma and Grandpa's house.

It seems as though the whole Ward family has been putting in time with those men and women in white. Grandpa Henry recently spent a few days at Seminole Memorial undergoing tests for an intestinal disorder. Everyone is glad he is back and into the swing of things again.

Not forgetting Grandma LaVerne, we're "knocking on wood" for her. Guess bowling has kept her fit. No wonder, though, that she had to give up the league.

The Sid Vihlens Host Cookout For Phi Gamma Eta

The patio pool of Mr. and Mrs. Sid Vihlen Sr., was the site of a recent bring-your-own-steak party given by the Phi Gamma Eta chapter of Beta Sigma Phi.

Each member brought the steak of his choice and cooked it to his own taste. After a delightful meal on small tables decorated in Halloween ornaments, members and their husbands enjoyed each other's company and unveiled.

Highlight of the evening was some of the members going swimming, after being pushed in the pool, costume and all.

Refreshments were served by the hostesses and the gay buffet table was centered with a Halloween Casper-the-Ghost surrounded by little "ghost-let" candy-filled favors for each member and guest.

Munday Family Home Again In North Orlando

By Margaret Cosby
The Thomas Munday family has returned to their home at 110 North Flamingo, North Orlando, after an absence of half a year. Tom had a temporary business assignment in Minneapolis. (How do you like that midwestern summer heat? Compared with anyplace, 106 in the shade is hot.) He is an electronics engineer and now commutes daily to Chrysler at Cape Kennedy and, not-so-incidentally is looking for a car pool.

Ellen, Mrs. Munday, keeps very well occupied with Carol, three and a half years, and Mike, one, who both are native Floridians born in Seminole Memorial Hospital. Ellen likes the North Orlando location because it is convenient to Orlando and Winter Park as well as Sanford.

Business Briefs

Thursday is the kickoff date for the traditional Rexall Original One Cent Sale at all Rexall drug stores including those in the Sanford area.

Considered one of the greatest merchandising events of the year, the sale will again feature scores of nationally advertised Rexall products, on sale at two for the regular price of one, plus a penny.

"A penny still means a lot to our customers. Our big 10-day Rexall one cent sale is one we can express our appreciation to these customers," a company official states, adding, "Each one cent sale offers almost 60 per cent savings on such items as medicines, toiletries, household goods, personal needs—hundreds of useful items, for every member of the family."

"And our customers appreciate the fact that they can save money and still be assured of the same fine quality they know is guaranteed by Rexall."

The sale was initiated by Rexall in 1913 and is considered to be America's Greatest Drug Store Event. In addition to regular sale items, Rexall makes available many Surprise Buys which are not on the One Cent Sale Plan, but represent big savings.

"As a special feature of our One Cent Sale," an official said, "we have available for our customers advance shopping lists."

City Rezones Section From RIAA To RIA

Despite protests from abutting property owners, City Commissioners Monday night rezoned a controversial area south of Grove Manor and north of 24th St. from RIAA to RIA. The recommendation was originally made by the Zoning and Planning Board.

The area has been the center of a storm of controversy for months because of the lack of an access road and the request of a local builder to have the zoning stepped down in order to meet FHA requirements for homes he proposes to build in the area.

The action taken Monday paves the way for subdivision dedication of land to the city from two property owners, Mrs. Margaret Bower and Mrs. A. K. Shoemaker Sr., which will allow the city to open a street from Glenway Drive into Orange Ave., giving access to the area which now has no through streets.

Property owners living in the RIAA zone protested at a public hearing that stepping the zoning of the area in question down to RIA would "devalue and degrade" their homes.

In reply to this Commissioner Earl Higginbotham asked if they felt the homes in Grove Manor were "nice enough and not objectionable." The answer was affirmative and then Commissioner Higginbotham informed the group that those homes were actually built under an R-AD zoning.

Higginbotham added that he would be willing to sell the property behind his home "tonight" to the builder in question, because "I know he builds nice homes."

Commissioners voted 2-2 for rezoning with Mayor A. L. Wilson casting the tie-breaking vote for the affirmative.

Participating in the special week are members of the Seminole County School Food Service Association.

LBJ Quietly At Work

While Senator Goldwater continues to issue bellicose statements and automatically be against anything for which the administration stands, the President is quietly at work on plans for building The Great Society he has proposed for the United States.

On the domestic scene he has task forces at work on subjects as varied as economics, social welfare, prosperity, foreign trade, education, health, transportation, government organization and Federal-state-local relationships. These experts will advise the President on fresh approaches to problems confronting the nation. From their reports the President, with his great understanding of politics as "the art of the possible," will draw a program for the betterment of the United States.

Perhaps more dramatic, but no more important, is the President's plan to reach a consensus on Russian relations with our European allies. After reaching such an understanding he proposes to confer with Premier Khrushchev in an attempt to reach lasting agreements.

Russia is definitely in trouble. China is a great worry. It is reported a million Russian troops are deployed along the border with China. The satellite countries of Europe are restless. They are less and less responsive to Russia's demands.

This would seem an ideal time to reach a new level of relationship between the two great nations of the world, Russia and the United States.

If President Johnson receives the mandate from the American people we believe his leadership deserves, he will be able to negotiate with the nations of Europe and with Russia from a position of strength, as there will be no question as to his popular backing.

This type of negotiations would be impossible for Senator Goldwater. He is suspected in Europe because of his shoot-from-the-hip attitude in world affairs, as in the case of Cuba, where he would have called out the Marines and risked war when there were other honorable solutions. He would hardly be a man to negotiate with the Russians as he has been demanding we withdraw diplomatic recognition of the Soviets — or at least threaten this action.

That Europeans and Russians have trouble understanding Senator Goldwater, the man who said "Because (the late Senator) Joe McCarthy lived, we are a safer, freer, more vigilant nation today . . . he made a contribution . . . that will forever redound to the credit of the people of Wisconsin and to your Republican organization," is not difficult to believe. Many Americans also have trouble understanding the Senator's shifting positions. During the New Hampshire primary, to quote Life Magazine, an angry Goldwater aide once snapped at a reporter "Don't print what he says, print what he means." This is hardly a man to make official statements on United States policy which could be vital to our security.

President Johnson has said he is willing to go anywhere in the world to discuss policies with foreign leaders if he thinks it will contribute to world peace.

"I will keep my hand out, and my guard up" is the way he expresses it.

To us this makes a lot more sense than the threatening talk of his opponent.

If we want to enable President Johnson to help us to The Great Society he must have the overwhelming mandate of the voters to show Congress his backing. If he is to negotiate a better world climate for us and our children, the same thing is true. The world must know the masses of Americans stand with their leader. — Walter A. Glelow

Thought For Today

The Herald welcomes letters from its readers on public affairs. The writer may use a pen name provided the letter also carries the writer's true name and address. Editor, The Herald:
Your answer to the Rev. B. Wilmer Miller certainly hit the nail on the head. In fact, your answer is the crux of the matter. To wit: "We will be in the hands of a capable leader when he is re-elected." Some of us—the majority we hope—do not want to be in anybody's hands but our own. And, we elect a president to tend to our business, not to be in his hands. In fact, he should be in our hands, as we elect him. And this is if he follows the Constitution.

Political Notebook

WASHINGTON (NEA) — A rough preliminary analysis of Lee Harvey Oswald's life by government experts has turned up some clues on what kind of man may attempt to assassinate a president.

The aim is to spot these men so presidents can be protected from them.

It may, however, take 15 to 20 years or more of detailed research to check out these hypotheses and outline the characteristics of possible presidential assassins with some reasonable measure of confidence.

There is some indication that a major present system, which relies heavily on investigating those who write crank letters threatening the president, may be the wrong approach. Some suspect that people who write crank or threatening letters to the president are not likely to carry out their threats. They probably "get it out of their systems" by writing a letter.

What then are the possible clues?

The potential assassin, these experts say, is a tormented man with what some psychiatrists call "unusual" or "strange" ideas who, during his life, has history of acting on those ideas.

Many people in mental hospitals, for example, have "unusual" or "strange" ideas. But most talk or write, never do anything to carry out their beliefs. The potentially dangerous men fall in the "action" group. But what are the "actions" of a potential assassin (other than killing) which are a "tip off" to future violence?

Take Oswald as an example. He felt persecuted and took up Marxist communism. But he didn't just read and talk. He studied Russian, went to the Soviet Union, renounced the U.S. and attempted to achieve Soviet citizenship.

Then he rejected the Soviet Union. Again he didn't just talk. He came back to the U.S. even though he would face serious difficulties here.

He didn't just think about deserting to Cuba. He went to Mexico and attempted to arrange passage.

There are many tortured people known to police and other agencies. The problem is first to separate the "doers" from the others. But even that isn't enough. There are many "doers" who don't assassinate presidents.

The potential assassin seems to be a man with a need for self-aggrandizement, a man who believes he must exalt himself. That is, he thinks he's a real big national or world leader who should have a place in history if society would only recognize his worth. Assassination may be a way to gain fame. This self-aggrandizement should show up throughout his history.

What type of man the potential assassin will pick as his target depends on whom or what group the tortured man thinks has wronged him. If he's a Marxist, anarchist or Hitlerite he may pick any handy important political figure as his target. Some of the experts suggest President Kennedy just happened to be the prominent man who was at a place convenient for Oswald to act.

Dr. Crane's Worry Clinic

Music is the universal language of God which transcends all national boundaries and breaks down iron curtains. So Nadine was wise to invest early in a piano. "An investment in knowledge," said wise old Benjamin Franklin, "always pays the best dividends."

CASE U-403: Nadine D. aged 32, is the mother of 4 daughters.

"Dr. Crane," she began, "our oldest girl is in the 4th grade.

"One day a piano salesman stopped at our home. He tried to sell me a new piano, but I felt we couldn't afford it.

"But he was very persuasive so he said he'd call back when my husband was at home and talk to both of us.

"Then he reminded us that the earlier children get the proper 'ear training' in music, the better. Well, he agreed to let us rent the piano for 6 months.

"If we liked it, we could apply the rental charge on the purchase price.

"Well, our daughter Ruth started taking lessons. So we bought the piano.

"And before the end of the first year, she played the accompaniment for her 4th grade school play!"

Music and Religion come under the category of "soul vitamins."

You American mothers are almost too careful about vitamins for the body, such as Vitamins "A," "B," "C," etc.

Yet many of you are unduly careless about the spiritual growth of your child.

In fact, you often have neither a Bible nor any musical instrument in your home, nor any encyclopedia or dictionary!

What doth it profit to have a splendid physical body but a stunted soul?

Shakespeare was a superb Psychologist who understood the necessity of soul vitamins.

such as music, for he wrote: "The man that hath no music in himself, Nor is not moved with concord of sweet sounds, is fit for treason, stratagems, and spoils."

That quotation heads Chapter X in my college book "Psychology Applied," for Chapter X deals with the psychology of music.

Children are unusually receptive to speech rhythms as well as musical rhythms when they are quite young.

Unless we catch this natural interest and nurture it at that time, those same children may settle into the rut of crude speech or lack of musical appreciation.

Dr. Robert H. Gault, in one of his textbooks, also describes what he calls "feble-mindedness by deprivation."

He is not referring to any lack of minerals or vitamins during the mother's pregnancy or the child's early growth.

Instead, he says that a child with a normal I. Q. of 100, if left to develop in a dull or unstimulating cultural environment, may finally get into a mental rut that makes him react about like a feble-minded adult.

In short, unless we nurture the child's God-given talents when they are fresh and just starting to bloom, they may wither and shrivel until that promising youngster becomes a stolid, indifferent adult.

So cultivate a liking for good music, as well as religion and correct speech, even while your children are toddlers.

Help them learn to play a musical instrument and sing. For music is the great morale builder that helps sustain the human soul during adult crises.

"Music," stated John Erskin, "is the only language in which we cannot say a mean or sarcastic thing."

So it breaks down iron curtains and bias and promotes "human harmony as well as the melodic variety.

Just read the article in the Around the Clock column. How brazen can you get, dumping two small dogs on First Street?

Here's another reason we have in Sanford and Seminole County need of a Humane Society. Dr. Bass is very cooperative in these matters. However, soon we hope to be able to help him in this wonderful work.

I had the chance to visit the Orlando Humane Society this week. It is amazing what good work they are doing down there.

With the help of the people in this county we can have the same setup. Thanks to you for your cooperation.

Dear Abby: By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I saw the bride's shoe passed at a wedding reception after the groom's best man knocked the bride over, sat on her, took her wedding veil off and put it on the groom's head backwards. I had no idea what was going on, and neither did the bride, but she looked very frightened. Later we learned it was an old German custom. This was at our daughter's wedding. We told her we didn't want anything passed around to take up a collection, but her husband took over and did things his way. We had nothing to do with what went on at the wedding. We just paid for it. Love your column.

BRIDE'S MOTHER

DEAR ABBY: Passing the bride's shoe is an old Polish custom. There are other customs, too. My father, age 75, tells me that years ago a piece of the bride's china was set up against the wall and the guests threw silver dollars at it, trying to break it. (The silver dollars went to the bride and groom.) Each nationality has its own customs. I've attended Greek weddings where candy was passed in church, Italian weddings where they threw money instead of rice at the bride and groom, and German weddings where the bride was "kidnapped" and the groom had to pay to get her back. Instead of criticizing these customs, we should enjoy them. It's all in fun.

J. V. I.

DEAR ABBY: Passing the bride's shoe is an old French custom. It originated years ago when the wedding supper took place in the bride's home. The money collected is not for the bride and groom; it is for the cook! This is the way the guests show their appreciation for the fine wedding dinner.

MRS. K. LOWELL, MASS.

DEAR ABBY: Who but the Hungarians could have dreamed up the custom of passing the bride's shoe among the guests to collect money? It was all done good-humoredly, and each male guest who donated money had the privilege of dancing with the bride. The bride's shoe was "stolen" from her, so she had to dance in her stocking feet. And the object was to take turns dancing with her to keep her away from her husband as long as possible. If they could get the groom tipsy and wear the bride out, all the better. If you can't see the humor in this,

you don't know Hungarians!

A HUNGARIAN IN N. Y.

DEAR ABBY: The person who was "SHOCKED" because the bride's shoe was passed around to collect money was definitely not Polish or she would have known the money collected was for the first baby's crib and clothes. This doesn't necessarily mean that the bride is "expecting"—but it's merely looking ahead.

POLISH IN MILWAUKEE

DEAR ABBY: Dropping coins in the bride's slipper originated in Yugoslavia many generations ago. Only small coins were donated as the object was not to collect "big" money. The purpose was to have the groom match the amount of money, and it was all a gift to the bride. It was to show that the husband was not flat broke and could well afford to take a wife.

Beauty after Forty

EDYTH THORNTON McLEOD

Some new hat styles are truly making headlines, new and becoming ones. Smooth, close-fitting, cap-like hats with just a suspicion of a smooth curl showing at the side, done in velvet, are stunning. So are small felts, especially ones in the small collection shown me. It was in the softest tone of gray, with a small curve at the edge, and banded in narrow black ribbon. Smart, and very much in the feeling of the Twenties. A dinner hat, worn close to the head to fit with the smooth, small-head collures, was in shimmering jet. This would make a headline for any woman. Another black velvet, close-fitting, cap-like affair had a point on the face with a short feather brush which gave such a flattering line.

Of course, everybody is talking about pants—pants of gilder, plaid, wool and satin. Pants to be worn at home instead of a business coat, pants to be worn for casual sports, pants even for evening wear—BUT, for ladies after forty, no, no, no! And no boots. As high and handsome as they are, they are not for you with a short, tight skirt.

Livability Counts In The Backyard

What actually counts about your backyard isn't so much its size or even its style; it's the amount of livability you can squeeze from it. For maximum results, why not gear yours to the specific interests of all members of your family, from the oldsters to the youngsters?

As your "family headquarters for fresh-air activities," it deserves to be decorated, furnished, and equipped as thoughtfully as any other part of your home. Among your desired furnishings for it may well be seats conducive to lounging and either a dining table or small stands for snacks.

Your main accessories will likely be groups of plants in beds or pots, but you may wish to supplement these with such colorful "extras" as lawn pillows or fish net and plaques.

Don't forget playtime "props" for all ages. Include especially some equipment sure to please the younger set, such as a sandbox.

Jacoby On Bridge

By Oswald Jacoby

North's four no-trump was merely a strong raise in no-trump and not a request for ace. It also was an overbid because he and his partner were playing 15-17 no-trumps and North only had 15 points himself, so that the maximum count for the partnership would be 32.

With 16 points, plus three tens, South jumped to six no-trump. A far better bid would have been five diamonds to suggest the possibility of playing six diamonds rather than six no-trump. Note that South makes six diamonds without a finesse by simply ruffing two spades in dummy.

to make N and that one line works. This six no-trump was a mighty poor contract, but also turned out to be a lay down for expert South. He needed four club tricks to make the hand, and when eventually he got around to the club from dummy and finessed his jack. Then, he cashed the ace of clubs, went to dummy with one of its many entries and laid down the king of clubs. The queen was kind enough to drop, and South had his 12 tricks. Why was this line of play correct? Because it was going to work if East held the singleton queen and one club or three clubs to the queen.

TV Previews

TV Time Show of the Night:
10-11 p.m. CBS. The Danny Kay Show. Danny's guest tonight, Mary Tyler Moore, gets a chance to show she can dance as well as do comedy. In between skits she does a dance routine titled "Ten Cents a Dance" with the Tony Chermol & Danvers. In the opening sketch, Mary and Danny portray a married couple with a TV problem. Later they do a Southern drama with Danny playing Mary's father, "Fat Daddy." Newcomer Danny Cox sings "Hills of Shiloh" and Danny finishes the show with a young group improvising a dance to a story he reads. Good show.

7:30-8 p.m. CBS. "Election Eve in Britain." This election eve study of the various forces at play within English political circles is an informative half hour. The campaign and the candidates are examined and contrasted to their American counterparts. Tomorrow night, the winner.

7:30-8 p.m. NBC. The Virginia "Felicity's Spring." (Color) is in preproduction, or have we actually seen this before? No matter, it's stock frontier. Western plot 17-C.

8:30-9 p.m. ABC. Shindig. Though some of the talent tonight is placed under the heading "folk," none of it is aimed at the purist.

Women Discuss Christmas Aid For The Needy

By Maryann Miles
The West Lake Brantley Women's Auxiliary held a meeting Thursday at the home of Mrs. Anna Nash, 530 Terrace Blvd., Forest City. The group discussed plans for helping out needy youngsters at Christmas. They are asking for donations of good usable clothing and anyone wishing to contribute may contact any of the members.

If there is more collected than needed, it will be donated to the Orlando Police Department's annual project to help the Seminole Indians at Christmas time.

The members agreed to donate either a quarter or two cans of food at each meeting for the project.

Auxiliary members also belong to the West Lake Brantley Civic Association which will have a Fall Festival, Saturday, Nov. 14, starting at 2 p. m. on the Association's beach property on Lake Brantley. An auction is being planned in conjunction with the affair. Mrs. Jeri Rigby asked each member to knit, sew, crochet or bake some item to be auctioned off with the proceeds to go to the club's charity work. Members will also enjoy a box lunch.

The auxiliary will meet the second and fourth Thursday of each month and the next meeting will be held Oct. 22 at 10 a. m. at the home of Mrs. Lil Young of Camellia Dr., Forest City.

Those present at the meeting last week were Mrs. Rigby, Mrs. Fran Dane, Mrs. Dot Van Horn, Mrs. Clara Steenberg, Mrs. Grace Sechrist, and Mrs. Young, auxiliary president.

Winter Program For State To Be Revealed

The Florida Development Commission's fall-winter promotion program will be revealed Thursday night at a dinner meeting in Deltona's Community Center off Lake Monroe.

The program is hailed as "the largest cooperative promotion between state government and private industry ever held in the nation."

Tourist promotion leaders from throughout the state have been invited to the preview.

The Deltona Corporation will host the officials at a social hour starting at 5:30 and a buffet dinner at 6:30. The preview will begin at 7:15.

Earlier that day Deltona's new golf course will be dedicated with officials from surrounding communities on hand. A buffet luncheon will be served at 12:30 at the new clubhouse. Following it several "dedication foursomes" will tour the course.

Deltona Pro Dave Wallace and other outstanding golfers will give an exhibition at 3 p. m.

Bush Settled In New Office

The County Engineer's Department has been in new offices in the County Road Department Building on U. S. 17-92 for a week and County Engineer William Bush said yesterday that the transition has been completed.

"Last week," Bush said, "we couldn't find anything, but now we're re-organized and in business."

Bush also pointed out that a number of people having business with the Engineer's office are still going to the Courthouse.

Nikita Retired As Soviet Premier

Deputy Kosygin Said Successor

Late Bulletin

MOSCOW (UPI) — Premier and Communist party leader Nikita S. Khrushchev was retired because of age and his posts taken by two aides, reliable sources said today.

There was no official confirmation.

There were unconfirmed reports that First Deputy Premier Alexei N. Kosygin became acting premier and Deputy Party Leader Leonid L. Brezhnev took over the Communist party leadership.

The reports said Khrushchev was relieved of his twin posts at a party Central Committee meeting Wednesday. According to the reports, an official announcement of the changes was expected soon.

Khrushchev was 70 last April 17.

He has been premier of the Soviet Union since March 27, 1958. Khrushchev was appointed first secretary of the Soviet Communist party Sept. 13, 1953.

The reports that Khrushchev was out as the Russian's top Communist newspaper Izvestia failed to appear on schedule. The absence of Izvestia usually indicates that a major announcement is coming.

Communist correspondents from Western nations received word to listen to the radio for an important announcement.

In the past occasions of Izvestia's failure to appear on schedule it has been published later, sometimes soon after midnight (4 p.m. EST) or later in the morning.

Burns Flying To Bank In Nassau

United Press International Democratic gubernatorial nominee Hayden Burns flies to Nassau Friday to prove that his denials of a $1.2 million bank account there in his name are not "worthless."

Burns says he hasn't got any money in any bank outside the United States but GOP candidate Charles Holley who came up with the information says Burns' denials won't be accepted by the public.

Holley says "they're (the denials) are worthless."

The Jacksonville mayor said in Lakeland Wednesday he will go over to Nassau Friday morning and instruct the Bank of Nova Scotia to give newsmen all information about the alleged cash account.

Holley, "making no charges or insinuations," showed photostatic copies of the bank account — listed under Burns' name — earlier this week to newsmen and asked that Burns explain them.

Burns threw the bomb right back, however, saying that the same "fake" records — with

Board Stays Survey Of School Facilities

By Julius Stenstrom

A school facility survey, originally scheduled to be conducted by a State Board of Education team in November, was temporarily postponed by the Seminole County Board of Public Instruction during a special meeting Wednesday afternoon.

The board's decision to delay the study was prompted by the fact that there is a possibility of a community junior college being established in the county, the effect that several federally-sponsored projects would have on the present school program, and the growth of several space projects on Florida's east coast.

The study, normally made every five years, is based on the use of present facilities and anticipated growth to determine how many new classrooms and schools will be required to meet the needs expected within the next five-year period.

The board also discussed the possibility of attempting to assist financially in providing guards at certain school crossings. While individual members of the board were in sympathy with the need for adequate safety measures and crossing guards, they were faced with the fact that expenditures of school funds for such purposes are prohibited by law.

In another action, the board established a policy, to become effective immediately, which provides that no preschool age children or any person who does not attend a Seminole County public school, may be permitted to ride

LBJ, Barry Both Mum On Jenkins Arrest

EN ROUTE WITH JOHNSON (UPI) — President Johnson campaigned side-by-side with former Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy in upstate New York today and called for his election as U. S. senator from New York.

The Chief Executive flew to Rochester, a Republican area which is a stronghold of Kennedy's GOP opponent, Sen. Kenneth B. Keating.

An estimated 3,500 persons appeared at an airport rally to hear the President speak on the first leg of the New York state campaign swing.

"The country needs Robert Kennedy," Johnson said, "and we need him with us." "New York needs Robert Kennedy in the U. S. Senate."

The swing through Rochester and Buffalo, originally designed to bolster Kennedy's U. S. Senate hopes, took on added significance after the arrest of White House aide Walter Jenkins was revealed Wednesday night.

Johnson said no one was going to win the election "by slinging mud at each other, or by tearing down our cherished institutions."

The statement, included in Johnson's prepared text for a speech in Rochester, was the closest the Chief Executive came to mentioning the disclosure Wednesday that White House aide Walter Jenkins had been arrested on a morals charge.

GOP presidential nominee Barry M. Goldwater, scheduled to make three campaign stops in Texas today, also avoided any direct mention of the incident in his speeches.

Goldwater, in a prepared speech to be given at Harlingen, Tex., accused Johnson of "using every power of his great office to cover up one of the sorriest rumors we have ever had in the nation's capital."

But the Arizona senator said he was referring to the Bobby

Fast Moving Isbell Aims At Carolina Coast

MIAMI (UPI) — Hurricane Isbell curved its 100 mile an hour winds toward the Carolina coast today.

The Weather Bureau said it expected to order hurricane warnings posted. Meanwhile, it ordered gale warnings and a hurricane watch from Charleston, S. C., northward to include the entire North Carolina coast.

"Hurricane Isbell is making a broad turn and is now moving northward about 25 m.p.h. and is expected to turn toward the northwest, probably reaching the Carolina coast this afternoon," a special advisory said.

At 9:30 a.m. EST, Isbell was centered about 240 miles east of Brunswick, Ga., near latitude 31.0, longitude 77.5.

Forecasters warned the Carolinas that the storm has the potential to produce 8-foot tides slightly to the north of where the center reaches the coast.

The land-loving storm hit western Cuba Tuesday and raced across southern Florida Wednesday, generating a dozen tornadoes that caused widespread injuries and property damage.

Tornadoes that spread scattershot fashion ahead of Isbell's northeastward slash across the Florida peninsula accounted for most of at least 50 injuries and the battering given buildings, house trailers, airplanes and vehicles near Cape Kennedy to Miami.

There was one fatality in Florida attributed to the storm, 62-year-old Paul Kertis of Lake Worth, who suffered a fatal heart attack while boarding up his home.

Isbell, ninth tropical storm and sixth hurricane of the season, also left at least four dead and heavy crop damage in western Cuba, which it crossed Tuesday.

Congress Action On Legislatures Asked

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (UPI) — The governors of 18 Southern states ended a harmonious annual conference Wednesday, marked by a turn from segregation as their main concern toward reapportionment and the battle for the presidency.

They turned down a request by Alabama Gov. George Wallace for a conference stamp of approval on the proposed constitutional amendment to make public schools exempt from federal rulings.

Conference resolutions need unanimous approval. Three governors voted against the Wallace proposal, and one abstained.

The governors passed 13 other resolutions, including one calling on Congress to cancel the effect of the Supreme Court's "one man-one vote" decision earlier this year.

The high court ruled that seats in both houses of state legislatures must be distributed on a population-or-basis. The governors asked

Two Guards For School Crossings

Two men will guard three school crossings during morning and afternoon hours, Police Chief Roy G. Williams reported today.

He said John Bellamy will guard the crossing at 18th Street and French Avenue. William Henry Benton will guard crossings at Third Street and French Avenue and at 15th Street and Sanford Avenue.

Chief Williams explained the difference in opening and closing of schools in the two areas permits Benton to handle both assignments.

The appointments followed City Commission action Monday night after the appearance of Westside Grammar School parents who made a "last resort" appeal for guards at the crossing.

Adams Due Here

Secretary of State Tom Adams was scheduled to stop off in Sanford today to visit with friends and supporters here. Adams, who is unopposed in the November election, "is not campaigning, just visiting," a spokesman said.

Board Stays Survey Of School Facilities

By Julius Stenstrom

A school facility survey, originally scheduled to be conducted by a State Board of Education team in November, was temporarily postponed by the Seminole County Board of Public Instruction during a special meeting Wednesday afternoon.

The board's decision to delay the study was prompted by the fact that there is a possibility of a community junior college being established in the county, the effect that several federally-sponsored projects would have on the present school program, and the growth of several space projects on Florida's east coast.

The study, normally made every five years, is based on the use of present facilities and anticipated growth to determine how many new classrooms and schools will be required to meet the needs expected within the next five-year period.

The board also discussed the possibility of attempting to assist financially in providing guards at certain school crossings. While individual members of the board were in sympathy with the need for adequate safety measures and crossing guards, they were faced with the fact that expenditures of school funds for such purposes are prohibited by law.

In another action, the board established a policy, to become effective immediately, which provides that no preschool age children or any person who does not attend a Seminole County public school, may be permitted to ride

GOP Asks Full Disclosure Of Jenkins Case

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Republican National Chairman Dean Burch challenged President Johnson today to make full public disclosure of what he called the "Walter Jenkins episode."

Burch read a statement to newsmen after it had been disclosed that Jenkins had resigned as special assistant to the President following his recent arrest on a morals charge. The long time aide to the President was arrested on a similar charge in 1959, Washington police records showed.

"The Walter Jenkins episode raises grave questions which only the President can — and must — answer," Burch said.

"The story up to now is only partially revealed."

"President Johnson, who talks about responsibility, now has the responsibility to explain why he covered up for five-and-a-half years — since Jan. 15, 1959 — that his top aide had been arrested on a similar perversion charge," Burch said.

Disaster Crews Were Alerted

Disaster crews in Seminole County were placed on alert shortly after noon yesterday as hurricane Isbell began its move across the state.

A. B. (Bart) Peterson, Civil Defense disaster director, said today he received the word and began at once to pass it on to his aides throughout the county. He remained in close contact with state headquarters until midnight, he added.

Peterson said the hurricane was watched closely as it passed across the state to be sure it was following the predicted path. Crews were kept on a standby basis until the storm had gone out into the Atlantic Ocean in the Vero Beach area.

Trusty Escapes
A city jail trusty, identified as Willie Lee Stokes, 34, escaped yesterday morning and police have launched an extensive search for him. Police say he lives in Orlando.

Will The Working Woman Lose Her Job?

MIAMI BEACH (UPI) — Most of the jobs held by American working women will be eliminated within the next 20 years because of the scientific revolution, a leading woman banker warned today.

Mrs. Mary G. Roebling, chairman of the Treason (N. J.) Trust Co. and the first woman governor of the American Stock Exchange, said "the industrial revolution which put women to work and it will be the scientific revolution which will put them out of work."

The speech was prepared for delivery to the national consumer finance asso.

"The economic force that allowed women to escape from the home and to work and earn a livelihood will, within 20 years, turn like Frankenstein's monster and destroy the job opportunities which are now open to most women," she said.

Mrs. Roebling defined the scientific revolution as "the hard fact that automation and the computer are steadily erasing jobs."

"Since 70 per cent of the women's work force presently is holding clerical positions they will be increasingly replaced by automation."

She urged the convention delegates to create a task force to seek a solution to the women's plight at the state and national level.

She also said women can seek higher education and professional jobs, which will be of great use in the nation's future.
