LAUSANNE PEACE TREATY SIGNED THIS AFTERNOON CRUEL AND UNJUST PACT

MEANS COMPULSORY EXCHANGE OF POPULATION OF GREEKS IN TURKEY

FAILS IN SOLUTION

Of Armenian Problem and Gives The Turks More Than Victims of the World War

(By The Associated Press)
LAUSANNE, July 24.—Lausanne peace treaty formally establishing peace between European powers and Turkey was signed this afternoon. By the treaty Turkey regains Thrace and becomes bridge between east and west. She joins the League of Nations on footing of equality. Constantinople goes definitely to Turkey. All foreign troops will be withdrawn. The treaty makes peace between Greece and Turkey.

The treaty launches one of the most stupendous and some ways most cruel human movements in history by its compulsory exchange of population, Greeks in Turkey returning to Greece and Turks in Greece returning to Turkey. It fails to solve the Armenian problem, Armenians being obliged to find new havens. Greece-Turk war produced great soldier in Ismet Pasha, who in negotiations here has shown himself to be one of the great statesmen of Europe. Ismet wanted the celebrated Lord Curzon, British foreign secretary at first stage of Lausanne conference. Ismet constantly played two cards Europe's ambition to restore peace in the Near East at almost any price and exaggerated importance Turkey possessed as world power through her geographical position.

SIGNING NEAR EAST TREATY OCCURS TODAY

(By The Associated Press)
LAUSANNE, July 24.—A great dinner to celebrate the advent of peace, was given last night by the Swiss federal council. All the delegates to the Near East conference and Joseph C. Grew, the American minister to Switzerland, were present. M. Scherer, president of the Swiss confederation, presided.

At three o'clock today the ceremony attending the signature of the treaty of Lausanne will be held in the hall of Lausanne university. The affair will be exceedingly simple. President Scherer will deliver an address; the other plenipotentiaries will affix their signatures to the various documents.

The Americans will attend, but will not sign the treaty or any of its annexes or records. It is hoped to regulate American relations with Turkey in a special treaty now under negotiation. Several points in this treaty are still in dispute and the Turco-American pourparlers have been suspended pending receipt of instructions from Washington and Ankara.

Anthracite Strike Will Not Be Called This Year by Union

BOSTON, July 24.—John Hays Hammond, chairman of the United States Coal Commission and Thomas R. Marshall, former vice president of the United States who also is a member of the commission, are agreed that there will be no strike in the anthracite fields this year; that the coal commission will not urge President Harding to call an extra session of congress over the fuel situation and that the price of coal to New England consumers will not be higher than during the last two years, according to a copyrighted article appearing yesterday in the Boston Herald. Mr. Hammond and Mr. Marshall are in Gloucester for the summer.

For the commission to recommend an extra session of congress now to deal with the fuel situation would be uncalled for and an unwarranted presumption, Mr. Hammond asserted.

QUAKE DAMAGE IN CALIFORNIA ARE SUMMED UP

Three People Injured and Thousands of Dollars Damage

SAN BERNARDINO, Cal., July 24. Inventory of the damage of last night's earthquake, completed today, showed three persons injured and about $2,000 damage in the city of San Bernardino, $2,500 in Redlands and extensive damage to the Southern California State Hospital for the Insane at Patton and the General Hospital of San Bernardino county near here. The state hospital's east and west wings were shattered to such an extent that 510 patients were ordered removed. Replacement values of the wings declared unfit for occupancy was estimated at $500,000. At the General Hospital damage consisted of demolished plaster on each of the three floors, cracked tile and damage to ornamental work.

The injured are George R. Fisher, hurt when brick and stone from the Hall of Records fell through the building next door into his room; H. H. Lee, citrus fruit specialist of the California Fruit Growers' Exchange, who was driving an automobile on a bluff at East Highlands, when the "quake parred the steering wheel from his hand and caused the car to go over a fifty foot cliff, and William M. Jones cut by falling glass.

Damage to San Bernardino consisted largely of cracked walls in various school buildings, court house and business blocks. The hall of records, which lost an immense chimney, was the building damaged worst.

Interior walls of the court house, the tallest building, were cracked through in half a dozen places. Some of the walls are a dozen thick.

At the hall of records adjoining the court house, a three story structure erected in 1892, officials of the board of education today announced that the third floor probably would have to be removed. City officials announced only one business structure, an old two story building would be condemned.

New Banking Institution Will Commence Business as Soon as Location is Secured

C. L. Carlton and George Holder were in the city today and paid the Herald office a visit to give a line on the new Sanford Loan & Savings Co. recently formed and articles of incorporation appearing in an issue of the Herald several weeks ago.

Mr. Carlton is secretary of the new company and stated that they would make a specialty of small loans since Sanford was recognized as an industrial and commercial center and they expected to do a big business here along this line.

The Sanford Loan & Savings Company is capitalized at $100,000 and the officers are: F. W. Pledger, president and treasurer; C. E. Deane, vice-president; C. L. Carlton, secretary. The cashier of the institution will be a local man and the location of the new company will be determined in the next week or more at which time the purpose to start business. All of the officials are well known in the state where they have been identified with the banking business. Mr. Pledger is now the president of a similar institution in Ocala and the Ocala Star has the following to say in regard to the new bank:

"The Ocala Loan & Savings Company Friday completed a deal by which it became the owner of the building belonging to Ray and Johnson, on the north side of the square, known as the Central National Bank building. This property was purchased by Mr. F. W. Pledger, president of the company, and will be the permanent home and headquarters of this concern. The building was built originally for a banking house by the late Herbert Ford, is well located in the center of the business part of the city and will be an ideal home for this new concern.

FLORIDA SHIPPERS WILL MEET IN ORLANDO ON AUGUST THIRD, TO PROTEST AGAINST NEW RATES

Meeting Will Include the Shippers of the Entire State of Florida

(By The Associated Press)
TAMPA, July 24.—Leading fruit and vegetable shippers of the state have been invited to attend a meeting in Orlando August 3, in order to unitedly combat the proposal of the railroads to advance refrigeration rates and require strapping of citrus boxes at both ends, according announcement of traffic manager of Florida Citrus Exchange. Protest against the proposed regulation has been made to the Interstate Commission and Southern Freight Association has set date for hearing on subject.

In order that the Florida fruit and vegetable shippers can unitedly combat the proposal of the railroads to advance refrigeration rates and require strapping of citrus boxes at both ends, E. D. Dow, traffic manager of the Florida Citrus Exchange, Monday afternoon sent notices to all leading shippers of the state, asking them to attend a meeting at Orlando on Friday, August 3, when these matters will be discussed and a plan of defense adopted. Mr. Dow's communication said:

"Widespread interest is being displayed by fruit and vegetable growers and shippers of the state in the proposal of the railroads to advance the refrigeration charges on fruits and vegetables and require the strapping of citrus boxes at both ends. Many of them are desirous of co-operating in defeating these proposals but do not understand just how they can be of assistance.

"We therefore, think it advisable for all interested growers and shippers of fruits and vegetables to meet in Orlando, Friday, August 3, for the purpose of fully discussing the proposals and formulating a plan of defense. The Florida Railroad Commission will be represented by its attorney, and probably by some of the commissioners themselves.

"It is vitally important that every grower and shipper in Florida aid in fighting these issues and we trust you will be represented at the meeting. The Orlando Chamber of Commerce is being sent a copy of these letters, and we know they will gladly

HIRAM TO TALK TOMORROW EVENING ON EUROPE

Senator Will "Tell The World" What He Saw in Europe

NEW YORK, July 24.—Senator Hiram Johnson of California, boomed by his friends for the Republican presidential nomination in 1924, returned yesterday from Europe on the Leviathan and last night was preparing for delivery at a banquet to be given in his honor Wednesday night, a message to the American people on the nation's foreign relations.

"The senator, who spent four and one-half months abroad, refused to discuss either domestic or foreign politics and declared that on Wednesday night he would set forth the attitude "which is my humble opinion, America should adopt towards Europe."

"Reading ignorance of first hand information of late developments in the political situation at home, Senator Johnson insisted he could make no comment on them until he had a chance to catch up.

He categorically refused to say whether he would be a candidate for the Republican nomination in 1924 and asserted that his address on Wednesday would not embody and statement on that subject.

"For four and one-half months," Senator Johnson said, "I wandered in Europe generally close to the ground. I visited seven countries and talked with everyone I could, in high and low places. The visit was very interesting and informative.

"On Wednesday night I will tell about my impressions and my opinions, necessarily somewhat inchoate. Then I will deliver my message to the people when I can and how I can. But, on domestic affairs, I can not say yet anything."

Immediately after his arrival with Mrs. Johnson at his hotel, the Senator set to work preparing his address which will be delivered at a testimonial dinner to be given in his honor by a committee of his supporters headed by Rhinelander Waldo and George Henry Payne.

vigorous action on the part of all the shippers of the state will be required to defend the interests of the growers and shippers. In view of the great interest that is being taken in the two matters, it is expected that more than one hundred shippers and growers will attend the Orlando meeting. —Tampa Tribune.

MANY HURT IN LIVERPOOL BY CARRIAGE

Of Duke and Duchess of York When Horses Run

(By The Associated Press)
LIVERPOOL, July 24.—One of the carriages in the procession escorting Duke and Duchess of York here today struck a large crowd of people gathered outside the Royal Infirmary running down about twenty women and children. Thirteen persons were taken away in ambulances, including seven children, who were chief sufferers. There were several broken limbs among the children, all of whom were detained in hospitals. The horses of the carriage became frightened by loud cheering and plunged into the crowd.

A peace treaty makes things look pleasant, but somehow it reminds us of the maid we once had who swept the dirt under the bed.

THREE MEN ARE SUSPECTED IN VILLA CASE

Villa Followers Threaten Revolt to Avenge Leader's Death

(By The Associated Press)
MEXICO CITY, July 24.—Gen. Eugenio Martinez, military commander in the state of Chihuahua, announced the capture by his troops, of three men suspected of having participated in the recent assassination of Gen. Francisco Villa. General Martinez' report added that four additional flying columns of cavalry had been dispatched in pursuit of the assassins.

Trouble is feared at Canutillo and federal troops in nearby garrisons have been instructed to hold themselves in readiness to act in consequence of threats of revolt by hundreds of Villa's followers because of an attempt by Mrs. Berta Villa to obtain possession of the immense hacienda owned by Villa on behalf of herself and three children.

Villa's followers, who have been cultivating the lands at Canutillo, have announced their intention, according to press reports from Parral, to retain their holdings, by force if necessary.

Villa stated a year ago that he had 1,800 armed followers at Canutillo or within close call. Federal troops have not yet arrived in Canutillo but are known to be near by. Reports that a clash has occurred between them and Villa's followers is without foundation.

Nothing has been heard with regard to Villa's hacienda from his brother Hipolito, or Luis Carral Villa, generally regarded as Villa's wife, who is reported to be in Chihuahua.

HENDERSON WITH PRESIDENT HARDING, July 24.—The navy transport Henderson bearing President and Mrs. Harding and the members of their party ploughed steadily southward Monday following the last visit to Alaskan ports paid Sunday at Sitka, when farewells and good wishes for the territory's future welfare were said informally.

The president had arranged Sunday night for the transport to stop so that he and guests wishing to do so might enjoy a fishing excursion in the Henderson's small boats. He also concluded work on several addresses to be delivered in Pacific coast states and Vancouver. ### Finland Claims Against Russia Not Passed Upon

THE HAGUE, July 24.—The permanent court of international justice in the case submitted by the council of the League of Nations concerning the autonomy of eastern Karelia Monday decided that it was incompetent to pronounce an opinion in a dispute between a member of the league and a non-member without the latter's consent. The decision was taken by vote of seven judges against three.

Finland, a member of the league, claims that under the treaty of Dorpat, the Russian government is bound to grant a certain measure of autonomy to Karelia. The Russian contention is that, in the treaty the soviets merely referred to the already existing autonomy of the territory and did not undertake any international obligations.

Russia, through foreign Minister Tchitcherin recently declared his government found it impossible to take any part of the submission of the case to the permanent court. He considered the matter a question of international jurisdiction only for Russia and rejected any idea of appeal to an intervention by the "so called League of Nations."

Polk county motorists who make occasional trips to DeLand and points beyond, are thoroughly familiar with the rough eleven miles of highway on State Road No. 3 extending from the bridge across the St. Johns river at Monroe to the brick paving about two miles out of DeLand.

One of the greatest moves made in Sanford history was made yesterday when the City Commissioners decided to own and operate their own water plant and also to own all of the city utilities as soon as possible.

HATES TO FLORIDA. This is not intended as an advertisement for the Clyde Line, although, to be fair, that line merits special consideration, because, so far as we know, it is the only transportation agency offering inducements to people of the North to come to Florida in the summer season.

The Clyde Line is offering low round-trip rates from New York to Jacksonville, which permit Northern people to visit this state in summer at reasonable expense.

In contrast to this offer of the steamship company, we have the railroads offering inducements to take people out of Florida but none to bring them in.

Florida is taking account of this discriminatory attitude and is estimating it at its full importance.—Tampa Tribune.

MORE LIFE INSURANCE.

American life insurance men have known no more promising year than 1923. Figures submitted to the Department of Commerce by 40 companies which ordinarily handle 40 per cent of the nation's insurance indicate that sales of policies are running 22 per cent ahead of 1922.

The magnitude of present sales becomes particularly significant when it is remembered that 20 years ago there was only $10,500,000,000 insurance in force in the nation.

And yet $40,000,000,000 in life insurance means less than $2,000 apiece for the lives of the nation's breadwinners, and that isn't enough.

It may be that the percentage of the affluent and thoughtful has not varied materially within recorded history, but it is time it did.

GOLF AS AN ESSENTIAL.

New York is talking about more golf links; New York, where every inch of land seems to be worth a lot of money and every chance to buy building sites brings bidders who fight for the opportunity of paying more for an acre than would be asked for a big farm in the West or an orange grove in Florida.

The Miami Herald, talking of golf links as essential to the growth of cities and the continuance of good health and good humor, says: "Golf is rapidly becoming one of the most popular of sports."

Baseball attracts large numbers of spectators, who get no exercise out of it beyond the regular "stretching" period of the seventh inning.

The Herald notes with pleasure that it is not now necessary to have golf links around the corner or across the street.

Americans the past few years; an extension of the life-limit is proclaimed by the scientists; to outdoor sports is due at least a part of the credit.

Municipal golf courses are being planned or made or talked of in many American cities. In Florida the resort town or city without links is rather handicapped.

PROTECTION? HOW?

Florida automobile owners—who have more than their share of troubles, with special taxes, license burdens, traffic regulations, and so forth—are now being annoyed, and perturbed by the necessity of complying with the inane, useless and ridiculous act of the last legislature requiring "certificates of title" to their cars.

The law is supposed to "protect automobiles from theft." In the name of Tallahassee, how?

You are required to carry your "certificate of ownership" in the car at all times. Presumably you will stow it away in one of the pockets.

By the time the records at Tallahassee can be consulted, the thief and the stolen car will have passed out of easy reach of the authorities.

PURE WATER MOST IMPORTANT

Announcement is made that the money from the sale of the new municipal bond issue in the sum of nearly three million dollars is in the banks, and that work will start at once on the securing for Miami of an adequate supply of pure and palatable water.

helping to develop the Everglades, paving streets, etc.—but after all is said and done it is doubtful if there is anything more important than providing pure water for the inhabitants of the city.

The American people are in the habit of securing water at a very nominal charge, and the payment of extra assessments for bottled water comes as a hardship on many.

Months will of course elapse before the new supply of pure water for this city will be obtained, but it is good news that work is to start at once on securing that supply.

POPULARITY OF THE EVENING NEWSPAPER.

It is a significant fact that all of the morning newspapers published in the great state of Georgia—many of them papers which had been published for a great number of years—have been suspended or absorbed by afternoon papers, except those issued in the five largest cities of the state.

Announcing the consolidation of the morning and afternoon papers in Rome and the decision to retain the afternoon field, the News-Tribune says:

Decision to continue as an afternoon newspaper is based upon the recognized fact in the newspaper world that afternoon papers are more popular than morning papers.

The consolidation in Rome was brought about by the realization that the town is not large enough to support two newspapers, consequently it was arranged that the Tribune-Herald, the morning paper, should cease publication, its afternoon competitor, the News, taking over its advertising contracts and circulation, and those bidding stock in the morning paper becoming stockholders in the News.

It is to be hoped that action of with the approval of the citizens of the community and, if given the support it deserves, we are satisfied the News Tribune will give a creditable newspaper, for the policy of practically all newspapers is to give their readers as good a paper as the income derived from its publication will warrant; indeed, it is too frequently the case that ambitious publishers suffer disaster by permitting their zeal to get the best of their business judgment by leading them into the fateful error of publishing a better—and therefore, more costly—paper than their income warrants.—Tampa Times.

CHEAPER GAS.

It is a striking illustration of business-like government that, on the very day the state law allowing municipalities to regulate rates goes into effect, the consumers of Tampa will begin getting the benefit of reduced gas rates.

This was made possible by the efficient and co-operative attitude of the City Commission and the Tampa Gas Company in getting together on the proposition. Both the Commission and the company realized the importance of bringing about lower rates without the tedious and expensive process of arbitration provided for by the new law.

If the procedure specified by the law had been insisted upon, a delay of from six months to a year would have resulted and the heavy expense of arbitration imposed upon both the city and the company.

Although the act of the legislature contemplating relief to the people from high rates does not become a law until August 1, the consumers of Tampa will be given reduced rates for gas on that day.

The Tribune congratulates both the City Commissioners and the Tampa Gas Company on this happy solution, which gives the people the great benefit of cheaper gas without delay, trouble or expense.

The Tampa Gas Company has recently manifested a public spirit and a desire to improve its service and better serve the public that are highly commendable. Its mains have been extended to give many suburban residents the benefits of gas service and they will be further extended, in other directions, until all of Greater Tampa is served.

SOAK 'EM! SOAK 'EM! SOAK 'EM!

At the Florida Development Board meeting in Orlando last week the letter written by Richard Edmonds, editor of the Manufacturers' Record, was one of the most interesting features.

Neither of these gentlemen said a word about reducing the exorbitantly unjust freight rates SOUTH OF JACKSONVILLE. The old game of Soak 'em, Soak 'em, Soak 'em is plenty good enough for the people of Florida—the people Mr. Warfield loves so well. Both told about the new refrigerator cars built especially for Florida products—and the next day there came to light the latest "Soak 'em" move of higher rates for the use of this new line of cars and an increased haul rate wrapped up in the impossible three-hoop demand. More Soak 'em!

We cannot get up a great deal of indignation about charging twenty cents or thirty cents for half a grapefruit on a dining car. We have our own opinion about the effect this has upon the people who eat on dining cars and that opinion does not coincide with those expressed by Mr. Edmonds and the Tampa Tribune.

The railroads admit in Florida that ours is the cream of their business—and north they brag about it. Yet, instead of giving us a share of the freight reductions they soak us for more at the very time they are issuing expensive pamphlets telling how they have, by their very able, efficient and economical management, managed to reduce freight rates over the whole country while not reducing wages hardly at all.

We have never been a corporation baiter. We have editorially taken the part of the railroads when it was most unpopular to do so.

The whole people of peninsular Florida need to organize for justice to themselves and only by so doing will they be able to escape the railroad yoke they are wearing—Leesburg Commercial.

Ten Veterinarians and Six Inspectors Constitute Forces

For Eradication of Cattle Tick in Various Counties.

TALLAHASSEE, Fla., July 24.—Ten veterinarians, in addition to the state veterinarians, and six livestock inspectors will constitute the force to carry out tick eradication under the terms of the act of the recent session of the legislature.

There is much preliminary work to be done before the actual work of eradicating the tick is started in the designated zones, zones two and thirteen.

Governor Hardee will name the personnel of the livestock sanitary board, which is to be solely charged with the administration of the act, to be comprised of seven members who serve without pay.

The establishment built up under the 1923 act will be the largest tick eradication force ever maintained in Florida.

The present plan of freeing the state of ticks by systematic rotation, while admittedly handicapped by the lack of funds, is supported by strong legislation than ever before had on the subject.

West Florida Wakes Up To Advertising Advantages, Hold Big Meeting

Will Act in Unison On Putting West Florida On The Map.

PANAMA CITY, Fla., July 24.—Linked by a chain of hearty co-operation and with the entire meeting characterized by a spirit of progress the west Florida County Commissioners Association held here July 18-19 a considered by far the most successful convention in the history of the unique organization and laid plans for what promises to be the most comprehensive advertising campaign and development program ever conceived by the officials of any section of the peninsula state.

Resolving to act in unison and full co-operation with one another the commissioners representing the ten counties west of the Apalachicola river plan to promulgate an official publicity campaign that will be devoted to the encouragement of immigration and the development of the taxable property value and the extension of public benefits and the improvement of the entire section as a whole.

In connection with the proposed advertising campaign the association officially recognized the Florida State Fair Association as a highly efficient medium of advertising and heartily endorsed the plans of the Jacksonville association in their attempt to hold a greater state fair and recommended to the various counties that they take advantage of the opportunity offered through the state fair to advertise their resources and advantages to the world.

A group of directors with a representative from each county are to be selected it is understood with authority to employ an advertising expert to handle the detail work and to direct the activities of the advertising campaign.

The students are endeavoring to build their own health as an exemplification of the health teachings. "Know your body and its needs. Build for strength, long life and usefulness," is their motto.

At the beginning of the course every member of the class was weighed and those more than ten pounds underweight were given a thorough special examination by Dr. Young, the college physician.

A program has been worked out by the class calling for the eating of green vegetables and fresh fruits, drinking milk, sleeping eight hours, at least thirty minutes out-door exercise, and the like.

Four Survivors Meet Last Man's Club in Minnesota Saturday

One of Them at St. Cloud. This State Could Not Attend.

(By The Associated Press) STILLWATER, Minn., Minn., July 23.—A 39-year old bottle of wine which has been present at every meeting of the Last Man Club, occupied its place of honor Saturday on the table, set for thirty-four, when three of the four surviving members of Company B, Minnesota volunteers held the annual reunion here.

Peter Hall, Stillwater, Minn., the oldest member of the club when elected president to succeed Adam Marty, organizer and president, who died last winter, accepted the honor and then in a hesitating manner spoke of something which he said had been bothering him a long time.

"But it has occurred to me as perhaps it has to you that the last banquet would be a very and occasion. Each banquet for many years has been saddened by the rapid inroads of death and I want to make a suggestion which we can consider for another year and decide upon at our next meeting."

The three present today were Mr. Hall, John Goff of the soldiers home, Minneapolis, and Charles Lockwood of Chamberlain, S. D.

ROTARY AND KIWANIS WILL BATTLE FOR BLOOD ON BALL DIAMOND FRIDAY

Series Now Stand a Tie and This Will Be the Deciding Game of the Series

Babe Ruth and Cy Williams' race for the home run honors and the closeness of New York, Cincinnati and Pittsburgh to the top of the National League standing holds much less interest for the Sanford fans than the coming battle between the Rotary and Kiwanis Clubs.

The Rotary Club, accepting a challenge issued by the Kiwanians with the idea of staging a farce comedy in order that a few dollars might be raised for some of Sanford's worthy causes, started what promises to be an honest-to-goodness ball game, a game that will decide for all times to come, the championship of the "old heads," "moss backs" and hand mowers of Seminole County.

The first game of the series, played week before last, was a short affair, going only five innings on account of rain and mud. The Kiwanians were on the long end of an 8 to 7 score.

Although these games are supposed to be full of clowns and stunts, this coming game promises to be nearer a ball game than any of the others, in fact both clubs will try to make it look like an exhibition of the national past time, instead of a boxing match.

Manager Lane is real quiet about his line-up for the game but the Rotes' probable line-up will be as follows:

Roumiltat, catcher. R. Stevens, pitcher. Rosebro, short stop. Knight, first.

Ready to back up this gang are such men as Dillrose, Henry, Haynes and other extra fast lotes.

The proceeds of the last game was given to the Woman's Club and it is expected that the handling and selling of the tickets for the next game will be in charge of the Boy Scouts, they getting the proceeds.

Remember the date and be on hand to see the fun.

LEONARD IS STILL THE KING OF LIGHTWEIGHTS OF THE WORLD, DEFENDED TITLE LAST NIGHT

Against Lew Tendler, Who Fought a Game Fight For Fifteen Rounds

NEW YORK, July 24.—Benny Leonard, king of the lightweights for the past six years, demonstrated conclusively last night his undisputed title to the throne by trouncing Lew Tendler, his Philadelphia challenger, in a slashing, bitterly fought 15-round match at the Yankee Stadium.

Before a picturesque crowd of more than 65,000 that paid a half million dollars to see the match, setting a new high mark for championships outside the heavyweight class, Leonard out-generalized, outboxed and outpunched his foremost rival from start to finish. He held the upper hand, had Tendler on the verge of a knockout at the close and the judge's verdict in his favor at the finish was merely a formality.

Spectacular as was the fight, it lacked the thrill, the suspense and excitement of their memorable battle a year ago at Boyle's Thirty Acres where Leonard hanging on at one stage, was barely able to gain a margin of victory.

Leonard fought with consummate skill. A master of ring tactics, he had his rugged southpaw challenger baffled by the speed and precision of his attack, while at the same time he made futile most of Tendler's attempts on the offensive. The champion landed three blows to one in nearly every round.

Tendler, on the other hand, seemed slow, lethargic by comparison to the title holder. Blocked in his favorite method of attack—for which Leonard apparently had perfected a remarkable defense—the challenger was left with no effective weapons. He was wild repeatedly and though he stood up gamely under a terrific battering in several rounds, he seemed in much poorer form than when he gave Leonard a smashing struggle a year ago.

Leonard evidently had learned the lesson of his last fight with Tendler. Instead of permitting his rival to get the jump, the title holder took the aggressive in the second round and quickly piled a decisive margin of points. He jumped in and around the challenger, blocking, ducking and sparring, while he shot jolting uppercuts and hooks to the head and body.

Tendler, trying gamely to stem the tide, tried rushing but the champion beat him at his own game.

For twelve rounds the champion held the upper hand with ease, then in the thirteenth he cut loose with a savage left that Leonard had Tendler in distress. Sensing the real thrill of the fight, the crowd jumped to its feet as Leonard swung rights and lefts to the head, with terrific force, drove Tendler about the ring. Once, from a right to the jaw, Tendler slipped to his knee and it seemed he would take a count, but he jumped back to his feet only to be met by another withering attack.

Vainly the challenger tried to stab with his left, but Leonard was too quick and the round closed with the challenger in full retreat.

Two hard shots to the jaw had Tendler again in distress in the fourteenth. He weathered this storm only to face another smashing attack in the final round, Leonard, trying hard for a knockout, had his opponent reeling and bloody with smashing blows and uppercuts to which he lacked the power to bring down Tendler, who fought back gamely but ineffectively to the close.

A majority of ringside experts gave Leonard every round except the first which went to Tendler by a small margin. Some gave the challenger an even break in the seventh but the fact remained that at no time did he appear to have a chance.

Leonard bore few marks of battle when he left the ring, to be lifted to the shoulders of a throng of admirers, while Tendler had cuts under his left eye and on his nose and mouth.

"Tendler is the greatest southpaw and one of the greatest lightweights I have ever seen," said the champion later. "He put up a stiff battle and even in the final rounds, when I got him the hardest, I was not able to put him down, although I tried hard."

"Leonard is a great champion," declared Tendler in paying tribute to his conqueror. "I did the best I could, but it wasn't good enough. Benny is a master ring general."

KIWANIS ALL READY FOR THE ROTES AGAIN

MANAGER LANE HAS THE BEST LINE-UP FOR FRIDAY'S GAME THAN EVER BEFORE

Manager Lane, of the Kiwanis Club base ball team announced his lineup for Friday's game with the Rotes this morning and among them were the star players of the past two games.

Friday's game will be a real game. Both managers have announced that there will be good playing by their teams and all monkey-business will be cast aside when the game starts.

Lane will do the hurling for his aggregation while Overlin will hold the backstops job. Steele and Lloyd will be in their regular positions while most of the other positions are changed a little.

Among the players that are ineligible are Neel and Lillard for insisting on playing together. Judge Shuron was barred by the umpire on account of his general appearance. The umpire refused to function when C. E. Henry insists on wearing such a big hat so unless he changes his appearance he won't be allowed to play.

Dumas will be allowed to play if he will come out to the field with a solemn face on. If Prof. McKay will not come out so dressed up he may be allowed to play again. But after all these stars will be seen in the lineup if they will follow the prescribed condition.

NEW YORK AFTER DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL MEET

CHICAGO, July 21.—New York will make a strong bid for the Democratic national convention, George E. Brennan, Illinois Democrat leader announced here today upon his return from a conference at French Lick Springs with Charles F. Murphy, New York leader, and Thomas Taggart, head of the party in Indiana.

"New York city hasn't had a national convention for many years, and Mr. Murphy said they were going to fight hard to get the Democratic meeting next year," Mr. Brennan said.

Of course, he said, Chicago will make its strongest bid for the gathering, and Brennan said he expected Kansas City, St. Louis and San Francisco to join in igniting the delegates. The meeting place usually is decided in January, Brennan said.

Democratic leaders are said to believe that their meeting next year will hold the major portion of the national interest, the Republican convention being a little more than a ratification meeting. Chicago Democrats say that even if the Republicans meet here they will continue their demands for a Chicago Democratic convention.

PARDON BOARD IS ONLY HOPE FOR NICHOLS

DELAND, July 24.—Aubrey Lee Nichols, who figuratively made his own nose, must hang by it unless the state pardon board commutes his sentence for attacking a woman in this city more than a year ago.

A sanity board acting at the direction of Governor Hardee has examined Nichols, who hails from Greenwood, S. C., and the supreme court had previously denied him a new trial.

Nichols case is a peculiar one from the outset. After committing the crime with which he was charged, he easily escaped and the search for him had virtually been given up when he was arrested in Jacksonville several months afterward on suspicion because of his having a quantity of jewelry in his possession.

RELIEVES RHEUMATISM "I can simply say that Foley Kidney Pills gave me relief from rheumatic pains, and have not used supports for the last six weeks (had to use two). The best proof you can have that Foley Kidney Pills are effective is this, that since they cleared my system of uric acid, have been entirely free of pain and depression," writes J. W. Hunter, Los Angeles, Calif.
