Attorney Charges 'Jealousy' Caused Auburn Probation

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (UPI)—Lawyers for Don Fuell, barred from Southeastern Conference athletics, charged Thursday the action stemmed from "jealousy" over Auburn compiling an unbeaten season.

Roderick Beddow Sr., said Auburn, which was placed on probation for three years for illegal recruiting, and Fuell were "crucified."

Fuell, a star high school quarterback, brought action before Judge J. Russell McElroy for a writ of mandamus which would force the SEC to return his eligibility. After a day-long hearing Thursday McElroy recessed the case until Monday.

Fuell, a 195-pound sophomore, was handed a lifetime banishment from the SEC for allegedly accepting inducements to attend Auburn. The punishment against Auburn came jointly from the National Collegiate Athletic Assn., the SEC and its executive committee.

D. G. Ewing, another of Fuell's five attorneys, heatedly declared the action against Fuell was a result of Auburn grabbing football glory with an undefeated team last year.

Beddow said "at no time in it actually proved Don Fuell took gifts." He said a letter from SEC Commissioner Bernie Moore to NCAA Executive Director Walter Byers showed "certain jealousies" toward Auburn which "had grown from a baby to a (football) giant."

Beddow criticized the five-member SEC executive committee which he said "crucified this boy... We find they are men of very poor judgment and very poor discretion."

Attorney Frank Balbridge, representing Moore, said the proceedings were "useless and needless" since the most Fuell could gain would be to have Moore investigate the charges again. He said Fuell could not resume SEC play because of the NCAA and SEC penalties against Auburn.

Dag, Nasser Discuss Mid-East Tension

CAIRO (UPI)—United Nations Secretary General Dag Hammarskjöld and President Gamal Abdel Nasser of the United Arab Republic discussed Middle East tensions in a 64-hour session ending at 1 a. m. today.

Previously Hammarskjöld had met for 9 hours with U.A.R. Foreign Minister Mahmoud Fawzi in an attempt to reach agreement on the role the United Nations should play in helping to oversee peace in the Middle East.

Thursday night's meeting of Hammarskjöld and Nasser was their first since the U.N. diplomat arrived here early this week. There was no word on a further meeting.

Hammarskjöld's specific task is to get the U.A.R. and Jordan to come to terms so British forces can be withdrawn from the desert kingdom. He also hopes to work out arrangements whereby American troops can leave Lebanon.

The Arab-sponsored resolution in the United Nations seemed to point the way to the easing of Middle East tension, but since then Cairo and Damascus radio attacks on Jordan and King Hussein have continued and tension has not lessened as much as hoped.

Escaped Con Fails In Surrender Try; Gets Tired, Flees

ST. LOUIS, Mo. (UPI)—Embarrassed authorities today admitted a caller purporting to be escaped convict Henderson McCoy was the real McCoy, who apparently got tired of waiting to be arrested and disappeared again.

The suspect's frustrating attempt to surrender began Wednesday when McCoy, 30, reported and went to his brother, Charles McCoy, at East St. Louis, Ill., to give himself up.

Henderson telephoned Prison Capt. Virgil O'Malley at San Quentin, Calif., and said he was ready to come back. He had escaped from San Quentin July 25. "I'm sorry I did it. I know I did wrong, and I've got to come back and take my punishment."

At the same time, Henderson also called the FBI in San Quentin and in St. Louis and told them to come and get him, according to Charles.

Late Thursday, Charles showed up wondering what had happened to his brother. So were the authorities, who had all but written off the call as the work of a crank.

Charles explained the FBI agents never showed up after the call and we got tired of waiting so we went to St. Louis where Henderson could turn himself in.

"We got there early and decided it would be best if Henderson turned himself over to narcotics agents since he had been mixed up with dope at one time," Charles said.

"After we got to the federal building, we were told by a policeman that we were early and the narcotics office wouldn't open for a half-hour. After an hour, I

Voters Have Opportunity Tuesday To Solve County School Problems

Tomorrow is V-Day in Seminole County. The Democratic primary election and the school bond issue will give Seminole County voters an opportunity to make their voices heard.

The right to vote carries with it the duty of voting. The people of Seminole County should turn out in record numbers to express their opinions. In this day of gradual encroachment on individual rights, the ballot is one of the few rights which remains for the average person.

Voting is, and always has been, a privilege and duty of good citizenship. But it is more than that. An election is the time when the people either approve certain policies or institute new policies. The ballot box, or voting machine, is the only place where a citizen's "gripes" really count.

Tomorrow, the voters of Seminole County have a responsibility that should be accepted. This responsibility is to the present and future school children of the county. Students in this county already are attending double sessions. School officials have warned that triple sessions will be necessary next year if the school bond issue is not approved at the polls.

Seminole County is growing. Population increases will make schools even more crowded by September, 1959. The only solution to this pressing problem is a bond issue, school officials have said. Teachers are doing their best and students are cooperating. But, is it good business to have more than 1,800 students going to school in shifts? We think not.

The biggest obstacle to a successful vote on the school bond issue appears to be voter apathy. Last year, apathy prevented passage of such a measure. The people who went to the polls voted for the bonds. But too many voters neglected to vote. As a result, more than 1,800 students in Seminole County are being penalized this year.

The school bond election will not be valid under state law unless one person more than 50 per cent cast ballots. If 40 per cent of all voters in Seminole County go to the polls and vote for the measure, it will not carry. Law requires that participation be at least one-half plus one.

Tomorrow, Seminole County faces a challenge. Voters face the responsibility of assuring the future education of this county's children. Let's meet this challenge.

One Vote Sometimes Vital

By just one vote the Senate defeated a bill to curb the powers of the Supreme Court. The bill, already passed by the House of Representatives, would have forbidden the court to outlaw state legislation unless Congress gave the power in specific instances, or unless the conflict between state and federal laws were clear and certain. Whatever the merits of the proposition, it would have had far-reaching effects whose limits are hard to gauge.

This is not the first time that an important decision has turned on a single vote. Shortly before we entered the Second World War, legislation in the House all but succeeded in repealing the draft law. Only one vote saved us from an action which would have greatly encouraged Germany and Japan, because it would have indicated a lack of popular support for the war.

The Mexican War was authorized by the Senate by a margin of one vote. But for this war, California might still be part of Mexico. Instances of like narrow squeaks could doubtless be multiplied. They emphasize the importance of care in selecting senators and representatives. A single undesirable choice might prove disastrous.

TODAY'S THOUGHT
"Put it in the hands of sinners."
"For it is not ye that speak, but the spirit of your father which speaketh in you."

SPEAKING OF DAYS OF FORTY NINE--!

Hoffa Opposition Growing

Ordinarily, rather a good case could be made for the argument that a labor union's internal affairs are exclusively the business of its membership. It would be hard to defend this point of view, however, in the light of disclosures made before the McClellan committee of the Senate.

It has now become a matter of the most vital public interest that certain bold members of the International Brotherhood of Teamsters are formally seeking the ouster of James R. Hoffa as president of this largest U. S. union. They have sent to the union's court-appointed board of monitors a statement of charges revolving about the claim that Hoffa has not acted against corruption within the union.

Hoffa has now been president of the Teamsters for about six months. On the strength of testimony at McClellan committee hearings, it appears that he has done little or nothing to halt corruption. The public has been given excellent reason to accept the disident group's assertion that Hoffa's "continuance in office is a disgrace to the labor movement."

The Teamsters who set forth the charges against Hoffa said something else of great public interest: "Congress was too cowardly to help us. We must help ourselves." Whether or not the charge of cowardice is apt, the fact remains that Congress did fail to pass corrective labor legislation. It will be interesting to see what kind of support the anti-Hoffa men get from the general membership of the Teamsters union. The outcome may depend, in great measure, on that.

Letters To The Editor

Editor
Sanford Herald
Sir:
The Citizen's League wishes to express its gratitude to you for your gracious help in promoting the rally in Longwood last Wednesday. Selection of candidates for strong leadership is a serious matter and a dignified procedure, which we endeavored to do. A government, whether local, state or federal is only as good and progressive as its leaders. In our small way we hope to bring to our population a plea for careful selections of qualified, intelligent and thoughtful men and women who can rise to the occasion with courage and vision to promote what is right and helpful for his or her community. Poor thoughts make poor communities; rich thoughts make rich communities.

I will not be responsible for any charge accounts made in my name by anyone other than myself.
H. M. Pearce, Jr.

and that does not mean merely dollars and cents. The bonds of limitation can be broken by constructive thinking.

Again many thanks for the fine publicity and kind editorials. Every home in the county should be a subscriber to your Herald of good reading.

Very sincerely yours,
Hulth M. Hamilton
Publicity Chairman, Citizen's League of Longwood.

By Russell Kay
America is at war. We have been invaded and the enemy from a small beachhead in Alabama has taken control of most of that State as well as large areas of Mississippi and Louisiana. On top of that, the foe has sent crack parachute battalions that have established battle zones in Texas, Arkansas, Tennessee, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia and Florida.

No invading human army can match this enemy for ruthless brutality and destruction. It has killed women and children in three states, destroyed over a half billion dollars worth of crops and killed livestock and poultry, driving farmers from their land and sweeping everything before it.

The enemy is the fire ant. A tiny insect, not much different in appearance from the ants we are familiar with. Ordinary insecticides have no effect on them. People who have gone to the aid with DDT have been bit and treated and were killed or hospitalized as a result.

Our agricultural authorities are trying frantically to find some method of control but in the meantime the insects are increasing and taking over more and more territory. Not only do these pests destroy cultivated crops and livestock, they are also biting all small earth in the areas they invade. They threaten to wipe out our doves and quail, muskrats, rabbits, and other species.

A Texas farmer, driven from his home and land reported that the ants have as many as 365 hills to the acre and the hills are from two to four feet across. They get into building foundations, under sidewalks and even eat fence posts, they gnaw insulation from wiring, starting dangerous fires and kill young calves and chickens with ease.

A woman and two children have been killed by the ants in Florida and deaths are being reported from other states. An serious situation that the federal government, after considerable delay, has appropriated two and a half million dollars to fight the pest, but entomologists say that this won't go very far as it costs about $8 an acre to destroy the

Nancy Lane Visits Husband And Travels Through Europe

Mrs. Walter Lane is an attractive young Navy wife who teaches at Southside School.

This summer she traveled to Europe to see her husband, Lt. (j. g.) Lane who is deployed with VAIH-0. And, incidentally, took in the fascinating sights of Europe.

Mrs. Lane left New York June 30 on a TWA flight. She landed in Paris where she and her husband spent several days sight-seeing, shopping and enjoying the gay atmosphere. They traveled to Cannes and spent some time there until the Lebanon crisis called her husband back to duty.

Among the seven wives from VAIH-0 who went to Europe this summer was Mrs. W. Hazlett, whose husband is the skipper of the Sloop, Mrs. Hazlett traveled with Mrs. Lane after she left Cannes.

The two girls toured approximately 10 countries. First on the list was Italy. They had a grand time in Rome, including seven tours of such places as the Vatican Museums, the Appian Way, and the Catacombs. They visited Naples and saw Mt. Vesuvius and Pompeii.

Switzerland was Mrs. Lane's favorite. The scenery was breathtaking, and the activities there included a dog sled ride ice skating and a visit to the Ice Palace on top of Jungfrau Mountain.

Traveling through Austria and Germany, Mrs. Lane was impressed with the cleanliness of the German people. From Garmisch she went to Frankfurt where she received word that her husband's ship was in port. She flew to Athens, Greece, and then to Rhodes where she spent four days with her husband.

Mrs. Lane was on her own from then until her return. She flew back to Frankfurt. She attended the World Fair in Brussels, Amsterdam was next and then London. From London she flew home, stopping briefly at Shannon, Ireland.

Of course, Mrs. Lane couldn't resist buying loads of pretty things in different countries. Plane passengers are allowed only 44 pounds of luggage. Now Mrs. Lane is waiting for her ship to come in—with her husband and her loot.

The Glaners Class of the First Baptist Church met Tuesday night at the home of Mrs. M. G. Cleland, Mrs. J. E. Hemmerle, Mrs. Helen Carter and Mrs. R. T. Hunt were co-hostesses.

Mrs. Fred Myers presided over the meeting. Mrs. A. B. Peterson gave the devotional, and Mrs. Hadlock offered the prayer.

Following the secretary and treasurer's reports, the group captain reported on the sick and absent members.

A nominating committee to select new officers for the coming year was appointed as follows: Mrs. T. E. Hunt, Mrs. M. C. Hazan and Mrs. Berta Cottrell.

During the social hour, games were enjoyed and prizes were won by Mrs. Peurifoy and Mrs. Tadlock.

Refreshments of home made cake, ice cream and punch were served to Mrs. J. E. Hardy, Mrs. B. Peterson, Mrs. W. McLellan, Mrs. A. J. Walker, Mrs. R. L. Beard, Mrs. C. A. Anderson Jr., Mrs. H. M. Tadlock, Mrs. J. P. Lewis, Mrs. Fred Myers, Mrs. R. E. Peurifoy, Mrs. C. C. Byrd, Mrs. R. T. Hunt, Mrs. M. G. Cleland, Mrs. J. E. Hemmerle, Mrs. Helen Carter, Mrs. Berta Cottrell and Mrs. Rashil Tucker, a guest.

Bit Of Orange Flavor Produces Marvelous Lamb Chop Dish

A dish from the masters, epicureans sing out praise and connoisseurs agree too—Lamb Chops with orange slices is a recipe worth its weight in gold.

This recipe also appeals to pocketbooks and budgets. A less-demanding cut, lamb shoulder chops, is represented in this recipe.

All lamb chops are tender enough to be cooked by a dry heat method of cooking, namely broiling. However in this instance, the lamb shoulder chops are broiled to bring in a variety in preparation methods. The orange slice acts as the heating distinct usually in this recipe.

Now, know the minute you are ready to serve this recipe that

Yanks Need Six, Braves Ten

By FRED DOWN
United Press International
It's all over but the shouting for the New York Yankees and Milwaukee Braves.

The Yankees reduced their magic number for clinching the American League pennant to six when they split a doubleheader with the Washington Senators Sunday while the Braves cut their figure to 19 when they divided with the Pittsburgh Pirates.

This means the Yankees are almost certain to clinch their ninth pennant in 10 years under Casey Stengel early in a 13-game road trip beginning Tuesday night. The Braves may have to wait a few days longer but they're pretty sure to nail down Fred Haney's second straight sometime during their forthcoming seven-game home stand or at St. Louis Sept. 17 or 18.

The Yankees completed their last long home stand of the year with a 12-game lead Sunday when Duke Maas' four-hitter gave them a 7-0 triumph after Pedro Ramos shut them out for the second straight time, 1-0. The Yankees gained ground in the split because the Cleveland Indians rallied to beat the second-place Chicago White Sox, 4-3, in a game marked by a near 1st fight.

Maas drove in one run himself and Tony Kubek and Elston Howard homered for the Yankees, who won the season series with Washington, 12-10. Ramos, who pitched a six-hitter, got the only run of the opener in the fourth inning on a walk, Roy Sievers' double and Norm Zauchin's infield out.

Wes Covington knocked in all three of the Braves' runs with a single and double in the opener as Spain came within one victory of a record ninth 20-win campaign. Bob Skinner drove in three runs with a single and a homer.

Atlantic Coast Boasting About 1958 Grid Outlook

By WILLIAM A. SHIRES
United Press International
RALEIGH, N. C. (UPI)—The Atlantic Coast Conference embarks on an open football bowl policy this fall and perhaps by no means coincidental prospects are for the ACC to have two or three teams of bowl caliber.

Pre-season prospects shine brightest at Clemson and UNC. Jim Tatum's manpower at the University of North Carolina is rated just a shade below that of Clemson's Frank Howard. Clemson and North Carolina meet on the weekend of Sept. 20 and Saturday, Sept. 27, in what is being called the "championship game."

There are few quite so reckless as to overlook the rest of the conference, which for both Clemson and North Carolina includes both the traditional "top-end" rivals with South Carolina and Duke, a pair of ACC darlings, powers, and such powers as Georgia Tech and Notre Dame.

Atlantic Coast teams will range from Los Angeles' Memorial Coliseum to West Point on the Hudson and the line to be faced this fall include such titans as Auburn, Texas A&M, Navy, and Illinois.

The Orange Bowl tie-up with the Big Seven has ended, but the Orange Bowl as well as the Sugar Bowl and Cotton Bowl's undoubted ally will be watching the ACC's best representatives. All except coachable North Carolina State.

North Carolina and North Carolina State both whipped the ACC's Georgia Tech entries. Duke last fall, and Duke just edged Clemson, 24-7. It was that night N. C. State won the championship but Duke was voted the "most representative" and got the Orange Bowl bid, losing to Oklahoma.

Maize Frank Howard, boasting his 44th homer as the Chicago Cubs swept the San Francisco Giants, 6-4 and 4-1, the Cincinnati Redlegs shoved the Philadelphia Phillies five games deep in the cellar with 6-1 and 9-2 victories, and the Los Angeles Dodgers defeated the St. Louis Cardinals, 7-5.

Sports Parade

By OSCAR FRALEY
United Press International
NEW YORK (UPI)—Fearless Fraley's reflections on sports in general:

Herb Elliott isn't the best miler ever turned out in Australia. I have to go for Aussie Noah Young, who ran it in 8:30 in 1915—with a 150-pound man on his back.

The advent of the automobile put an awful dent in horsemanship. Don Blanchard and Jabbo Jablonski were two of the most rugged zugs I ever saw.

Everybody with an ear for music is betting that Althea Gibson will never be an Ella Fitzgerald, or even a reasonably facsimile thereof.

It is considered extremely difficult to play polo without horses. The Starnes used to bet on fights between three-inch betta fish—proving how bored you can get in Bangkok.

Piano movers usually are little zugs because the real weight lifters are too busy appearing their biceps.

A displaced hobnobber feels exactly like a scattered housing ball. The Gas House Gang is my nomination for the most colorful baseball club of all time.

Stanford will lose a likely quarterback prospect when young Chris Crawford is named to the Davis Cup squad next Sunday.

Women rascals always make me think of a taffy pull.

An Expensive "Belt"
The $20,000 Hickok Belt awarded annually to the pro athlete of the year is the most expensive replacement suspender ever had.

Joe DiMaggio was the most of fortlety graceful outfielder these bloodshot old eyes ever saw.

Count Turf's Kentucky Derby win was his biggest horse race thrill but all-time laurels go to Upset's win over Man O' War.

If this is the best baseball team Casey Stengel ever had, as he says, it sure can't be the worst.

I wish somebody would get busy and invent a typewriter that could spell.

Auto racing lost me the day I saw Bill Vukovich put his foot through it.

It begins to look as if Country Slaughter will go on longer than those verases of Mademoiselle from Armentiers.

If Orlando Cepeda and Ryno Duren aren't the rookies of the year then there ain't no justice, Charley.

A Passing Fancy
Bob Waterfield threw a football 68.18 miles per hour but that ain't the greatest thing he ever did. I pass on ski jumping until I grow a pair of wings—which is forever rather unlikely.

If Lawrence Berra played baseball in Japan he'd undoubtedly be known as Yogi-Homa.

Women swimmers and gymnasts run a dead heat for the prettiest of female athletes, with track competitors a cinch dead last.

Japan has the inside track for the 1964 Olympic Games. They say that money won't do it, but no standard when you consider the all-time greats of horse racing.

But personally I'll take the best runner whatever it may be that is running a distant second.

Football Injury Fatal
BEAUMONT, Tex. (UPI)—Jimmy Amason, 18, died Sunday as a result of a broken neck suffered in a high school football game Friday night.

Amason, a halfback on the James H. High School team, was injured when he made a tackle during a game against Kirbyville.

Klan To Return Photographer's Camera

ATLANTA (UPI) — Prize-winning United Press International photographer Jack Young walked today for the return "through secret channels" of equipment confiscated during a Ku Klux Klan rally Saturday night.

Young, UPI Southern Division news picture manager, was attacked by klansmen when he attempted to take more pictures than Klan leaders had authorized.

Young was held captive for almost an hour at the three-state rally, held at nearby Stone Mountain. His glasses were broken in a scuffle, he said, and the klansmen took his photographic equipment with a promise to return it "through secret channels."

"I'm still waiting," Young said. He brushed aside a Klan warning against the use of pictures or stories about the rally.

KKK members from Georgia, Florida and Alabama had gathered at Stone Mountain when Young approached and requested permission to photograph a burning cross on the mountain. This was allowed, but when the lensman attempted to snap other pictures he was seized.

His shirt was torn, but aside from being shaken up and threatened, he was not harmed.

Young, a veteran news photographer, won the 1954 George Polk Memorial Award for a picture made during riots that followed the integration of classes at the Clinton, Tenn., high school that year. The picture showed another photographer being attacked.

Spanish Classes Slated For Adults

Due to the many requests from Seminole County and southern Volusia County, an adult class in Spanish will be offered to the public.

The class will be in "Conversational Spanish" with a minimum of emphasis on grammar. It will be conducted by Edward Christensen of the Seminole High School faculty. An organizational meeting will be held Sept. 15 at 7:30 p. m. at Seminole High School. The only charge will be a registration fee of $1.

All those who are interested in this course are urged to report at that time. For further information call E. S. Douglas, director of Adult & Vocational Education, School Administration Bldg., Sanford, FL 24163.

Wesleyan College, chartered in 1836 as the Georgia Female College, was the first college in the world chartered to grant degrees exclusively to women.

Psychiatrist Reports, Judge Confused

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — What did he say?

Superior Judge Edwin L. Jefferson was wondering about that question today in the case of Francisco Paz, an ex-convict charged with stealing a shirt from a variety store.

Paz pleaded not guilty by reason of insanity to the charge and was the subject of a 12-page report by a psychiatrist, reading in part:

"Mr. Paz comprehend, the spoken word with unclouded sensorium and unimpaired sentences, except for diminished hearing of the left."

"There are no admitted or elicited appreciable delirious or hallucinations."

"The sensorium was unclouded by acute or chronic toxic infectious agents. Furthermore, he was not acting on our delusional ideation or reacting to hallucinations. Orientation as to time and place was intact. Foresight was functioning consonant with reality."

Judge Jefferson said he gathered Paz was sane and slightly deaf in one ear.

Casselberry Lions Hear Sheriff Talk

CASSELBERRY—Sheriff Luther J. Hobby, a guest of the Casselberry Lions Club Thursday night, gave a brief talk on the Florida Sheriff's Boy's Ranch in North Florida, comprising 722 acres.

Hobby said that construction of administration buildings and cottage dormitories was started Aug. 1.

The Boy's Ranch, according to Hobby, is accepting boys as rapidly as facilities can be provided for their training in useful occupations and in educational fields. The ranch is being operated on a year round basis. William Diggle, representing the local Lions club, presented Hobby a check for $10, a contribution to the general operating fund.

Joe Weimer, program chairman, presented George J. Daumbach, Lake Ellen Circle, who entertained with a selection of color slides. Daumbach's collection of stereo slides includes scenes from the Ringling estate at Sarasota; the home and gardens of Thomas Edison, Henry Ford, Harvey Firestone, Barbara Hutton and Theodore Roosevelt.

Baumbach showed many scenes taken at Bok Tower, as well as many famous estates in New England. Special glasses for viewing stereo slides were provided by Baumbach, who pre-faced his entertainment with a brief explanation of three-dimensional photography.

The next meeting of the local club scheduled for Sept. 18, will be held at Pine Castle, joining Pine Castle Lions in celebrating their annual stag dinner and entertainment. The meeting will be held at the N. C. O. Club with entertainment by members of Pine Castle Air Force Base. Casselberry Lions will meet at the fire house at 8 p. m. the day of the meeting. Car pools will be organized.

THE MURDER OF
SHERIFF THOMAS JIM HUNTER

AN OPEN LETTER:

140 West 19th Street
Sanford, Florida
September 1958

Dear Voters of Seminole County:

To make certain that I have not overlooked asking for your vote and support in my candidacy for the County Commission, District 2 in Tuesday's election, I am using this means of contacting you.

My background begins in Seminole County for I was born and educated here. I served in the Air Corps during World Wars II, after which I graduated in business administration from Stetson University. I own my home and also a small tract of land in this county and am completing my last year of a three-year term of service to the citizens of Sanford as one of their city commissioners. During 1957 I was privileged to serve my city as mayor, and based on our accomplishments, I was a recipient of one of five good government awards issued in the state by the Jaycees.

I am seeking this opportunity of serving you as your county commissioner because of my desire to take an active part in future growth of Seminole County. I feel that I possess the necessary qualifications and I solicit your assistance in advancing sound principles of efficiency, and progress in our county government.

"THINK — Seminole County's future is in the hands of your county commissioners" is my campaign slogan, and I hope that all of you will stop and think and will realize that your vote is IMPORTANT.

There are many important issues which will come before the county commission during the next four years, and I am sure that you want a man who will represent you in an efficient, economical, progressive manner — one who will have an open mind on all matters—a man who will not be a rubber stamp for any person, group, or faction, and a man who has only the best interests of Seminole County at heart.

May I close with the reminder that Tuesday is election day: The day which you must take advantage of and exercise your right, privilege and duty to vote. I sincerely hope that, at the polls you will see fit to afford me the privilege of serving you for the next four years as your county commissioner. I pledge to you my very best efforts.

Sincerely,
David M. Gatchel

Mississippi Girl Named Miss America

By CLAREN COX
United Press International
ATLANTIC CITY, N. J. (UPI)—A brown-eyed Mississippi singer, who was named Miss America Saturday night, set out today to collect the fortune that goes with the title. Mary Ann Mobley, 21, Brandon, Miss., college senior, who never had a date until she was 18 years old, became the first Mississippi entrant ever to win the beauty title shortly before midnight Saturday in a nationally televised finale to the week-long pageant.

"I used to be the biggest tomboy you've ever seen," she later told a press conference. "I had long pig tails and I wore braces on my teeth for four years. I was 16 when I had my first date."

Broadway Her Goal
Miss Mobley, who wants to sing and dance on Broadway, won the coveted title over 52 contestants from all states, the cities of Washington, D. C., Chicago and New York, and Alaska, Hawaii and Canada. She weighs 114 pounds and measures 34-24-36.

She won a total of $10,000 in scholarships, $15,000 in clothes, furs, an auto and a television set, and the opportunity to earn a small fortune during her year-long reign.

A total of $30,000 in scholarships was given to the 20 top winners among the 52.

First Step New York
The runners-up for Miss America were: Miss Iowa, Joanne Lucille MacDonald, 20, of Ames, a $3,000 scholarship; Miss Oklahoma, Anita Bryant, 18, of Tulsa, a $2,500 scholarship; Miss California, Sandra Lee Jennings, 18, of Riverside, a $2,000 scholarship; and Miss North Carolina, Betty Lane Evans, 18, of Greenville, a $1,000 scholarship.

The first stop for Miss Mobley after Atlantic City was New York City. There she will be fitted for a complete wardrobe and furs and make the necessary business arrangements for a year-old beauty reign.

Mary Ann expects to return to her family's home a year from now with a tidy little nestegg of $50,000 earned in personal appearances, advertising endorsements, television guest spots and other activities. She also will travel to Europe.

Virginia's Almond Dramatic Speaker

PERSONALITY SPOTLIGHT
United Press International
If Virginia's white-mailed Gov. J. Lindsay Almond weren't known so much for his unbending stand against racial integration, he probably would be known as one of the South's most spellbinding speakers.

It's an experience to watch James Lindsay Almond make a speech. In recent days such Almond pronouncements as "I will see the public schools close before I see them integrated," "federal troops 'will patrol empty schools' if they try enforced integration, and integration will mean 'chaos and the destruction of public education in Virginia,'" have been making news.

But if Almond, a former state attorney general and congressman were merely talking about the burning pigeons he used to raise as a hobby, he would still have an audience straining for every word. Drama at Podium

When the governor launches into a speech, he crashes his heavy fist on the podium in one instant, then flicks up an erect stubby finger at another. His booming, deep voice bellows forth and his white hair falls in his face when he builds up to a point, then, as he pushes his hair back, his voice falls to a hoarse whisper for dramatic underscoring.

His sentences, reflecting his training in Virginia courtrooms for nearly 40 years, flow smoothly, and long, complicated phrases, seem always, some how, to come out clear.

He uses colorful, if sometimes Victorian, language. Phrases such as the "massive political bloodletting" of federal encroachment on states' rights; the "judicial surgeons" and the "cynical philiberty" of the Supreme Court; the dedication of "all that I am and pray to be to the service of the people of Virginia."

Bought Legal Firm
Almond, who turned 60 this summer, began training his voice in high school at Orange, Va., at the age of 16. He had long since decided he wanted to be a lawyer. His campaign managers have said his youth was marked with studying on the kitchen table of his farm home; walking miles to a one-room schoolhouse, and helping his father, a railroad engineer, raise crops for the family.

At the University of Virginia, Almond became a boxer and once was knocked out by a fellow student who now serves in Virginia's State Senate.

He was named a prosecuting attorney in Roanoke within seven years after gaining his law degree, then was named a judge at the age of 33.

Raised Wife's Nephew
He married, and although he never had any children of his own, he raised Mrs. Almond's nephew after her brother died.

Almond gave up his judgeship in 1945 to make a successful bid for Congress, and since then has been giving up positions regularly to take higher political office.

In 1948 he quit his seat in Congress to become Virginia's attorney general, and he was re-elected in 1952. In 1957, he gave up the attorney general's office to run for governor.

Hunt Push For Slayers Of Patrolman

SANTER, S.C. (UPI)—A search continued today for the slayers of State Highway Patrolman Harry Lloyd Ray as ballistics experts in Columbia checked two guns taken from two men at Charlotte, N.C., in an effort to produce a lead in the case.

A three-state alert remained in effect in the Carolinas and Georgia for three bandits who held up the Clover hotel here early Sunday and later shot down the veteran patrolman as he tried to give them a traffic summons.

Charlotte police held John Samuel Crawford, 34, and James Clarence Clay Jr., 30, both of Charlotte, until a ballistics check could be made. The two were arrested while trying to start a car.

Ray, 31, who was stationed at Summerton, was found draped over the bumper of his patrol car at 1:10 a.m. Sunday at the intersection of Highways 301 and 15 with his blinker lights still on. He had been shot four times in the chest and stomach.

Officers said they found his summons book nearby and approximately $41 in cash was lying near the car. The shooting occurred approximately one mile from the motel where the two men had taken more than $1,000.

Ray, father of two children, had issued two traffic summonses earlier in the night near the area, and apparently had stopped the getaway car to give a speeding summons when the shooting occurred.

H. M. Gaskin, owner and operator of the motel, said the trio came into his office about 12:25 a.m., pulled guns and demanded his money. He said efforts to talk the men out of the robbery failed.

After receiving the money the bandits attempted to lock Gaskin, his wife and son, and two in-laws in the bathroom. The robbers pulled the phone wires out and sped away in the getaway car.

Gaskin said he did not see the automobile, but that he heard it "screech gravel" as it moved onto the highway. Gaskin said he then drove into town to report the robbery.

Revolt in Venezuela Ends; 23 Dead

CARACAS, Venezuela (UPI)—The second attempt in six weeks to overthrow the Venezuelan government killed 23 persons and wounded more than 100 in hours-long street fighting here Sunday.

A government communiqué said the revolt, led by a small group of officers of the military police, was brought quickly under "absolute control."

An aide to Provisional President Wolfgang Larrazabal said a "confused" situation and the anger of a loyal throng of civilians gathered outside the Presidential Palace contributed to the large number of casualties.

The army, navy and air force refused to join the revolt and it soon began to collapse. The police marched back into their barracks and the revolt was just about over when civilians, summoned into the streets by government officials, gathered in front of the palace.

Five On Crowd
There they taunted the rebels and shouted "traitors" at the barricaded police. The rebels replied with gunfire, killing many. The angry civilians, some of whom had been armed with machetes, finally swarmed into the barracks and the police surrendered.

Rebel leader Lt. Col. Juan de Dios Doncoca was granted asylum in the Mexican Embassy. Military police chief Maj. Vivar Ramirez and a third mutinous officer escaped to another foreign embassy. Junta member Arturo Ross said the No. 2 rebel, Maj. Jose Holy Mendosa, had been arrested.

Larrazabal was visiting Cumana, 300 miles away in eastern Venezuela, when the rebels marched out of their barracks before dawn, seized the Caracas radio station and surrounded the Presidential and Miraflores palaces.

The rebels were reported displeased with Larrazabal's recent moves granting more freedom in leftist political parties. He came to power in a military coup that overthrew dictator Marcos Perez Jimenez last January.

The rebels also were angered over recent dismissals of army officers by Larrazabal and his ruling five-man junta.

YOUR U. S. SENATOR

Nearly $200,000,000 for Florida!
What Senator Holland Did In The Last Congress . . .

Senior U. S. Senator Spessard Holland's record in the U. S. Senate has been a great one. A single quotation from one of his colleagues in the Senate proves it:

"Senator Holland's record abundantly demonstrates that he has truly represented the interests of the people of Florida. Greatly respected by his colleagues in the Senate for his ability, sincerity, sound judgment, knowledge, honesty, and integrity, he has served Florida and the Nation well."

What Holland Accomplished in 1958
A look at the records of the last Congress bears this out:

HE SUPPORTED:
Reorganization and strengthening of the Defense Department.
Expansion of military bases and the Warning System.
Authorization of Atomic Energy Commission construction and expansion.
Salary increases for Civil Service and Postal employees.
Annuity increases for Civil Service employees.
Act to provide greater air safety.
Emergency Housing Act to stimulate national economy.
Increased FHA Mortgage Insurance.
Stepped-up Federal Highway Assistance program . . . Florida to receive nearly $80,000,000 by June 30, 1960.
Repeal of 3% excise tax on transportation of property.
Help for small business.
FHA funds for more personnel in Florida.
Authorized Corn Acreage Allotment bill benefiting 5 counties in Florida.
Minimum farm allotments for cotton.
Three-year extension of special school milk program.
Seven percent increase (out of $1-ing) in Social Security payments.

Co-sponsored legislation to increase earnings limitation in Social Security Act to $1,500. (This was withdrawn after threat of Presidential veto but will be re-introduced at next session of Congress.)
Holland strongly supported the earlier increase in Social Security earnings limitation from $900 to $1,200.)

FEDERAL DOLLARS FOR FLORIDA
Construction: Intracoastal Waterway, Central and Southern Florida flood control, Port St. Joe Harbor, Tampa Harbor and Hillsboro River—$11,383,000.

Weika fish hatcheries, Marianna Research Center, Lake City forestry research, Everglades National Park—$2,572,144.

The above is only a partial list of what Holland has done for Florida. His influence on general national legislation was also great. He believes in keeping America strong, prosperous, and stable.

Compare his record with that of his opponent who was ousted by Florida voters in 1950 because he had failed Florida and the nation. Do so and you'll vote to re-elect Spessard Holland tomorrow.

Sanford Seeks Projects Okay

The City of Sanford last night officially requested the U. S. Post Office Department to construct a new post office "at a site recommended by city officials."

A resolution adopted at last night's meeting of the City Commission said that "traffic has been increased greatly and a new site is needed to relieve the congestion."

Sanford To Start Street Repairing; Projects Listed

The Sanford City Commission last night approved the start of a city-wide street resurfacing program, estimated to cost about $60,000.

Only about one-half of the program can be carried out this year because of limited funds, City Manager W. E. (Pat) Knowles told the Commission. Included in the program authorized last night are 15 projects.

Knowles said the city needs to start "at the north end and move south, throughout our paving system." Many of the streets included in the first part of the program were paved about 25 years ago, Knowles added.

Commissioners agreed that many of the streets are in such a bad state of repair that the city is in danger of losing them.

Estimated cost of the 15 projects approved last night is $30,000.

Following are the streets scheduled for resurfacing in this program:

- Hosalla, Sanford to Melbourne, 2,800 feet at a cost of $5,381; Grandview, North 20th St. to Sanford, 650 feet, cost $1,210; Grandview, South Hillsides to Lilly, 400, $700; Hillsides Ct. 20th St. to Grandview, North, 250, $400; Sumnerline, RR Track to Celery, 1,300, $2,400; Paloma Ave. Hosalla to Locust, 1,000, $1,920; Sanford Ave., First to Blvd., 600, $1,704.

Giant Snake Wins, Loses To Wrestler

CANTON, Ga. (UPI) — A 63-year-old retired wrestler turned showman came out bruised and shaken from a wrestling match with a 409-pound, 32-foot python today.

"Bull" Martin, of Cherokee, N. C., a wrestler for 22 years, said he was preparing to feed his python named Big Jeff when he became caught in the reptile's coils in the reptile pen of his traveling show.

Six men summoned by Martin's wife came running, and after several minutes unwound the python from Martin's body and got the reptile safely into a cage using "pliers, stakes and everything we could get our hands on."

Martin was treated at a hospital for minor cuts and a bite wound in the thigh and released. Two men who came to Martin's rescue received "nicks" from the python's mouth.

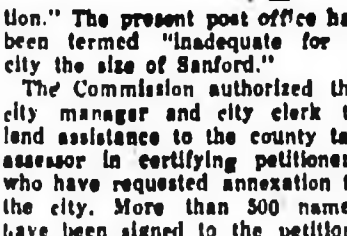

Robby Wilson, one of the men, said he rammed a long stake down the python's throat and, using this for a lever, did most of the work of uncoiling the python while the others tugged at other points along the snake's body.

Sealed Bids Asked On Roadway Work

The work includes the preparation of roadways, including the rough grading which will be accomplished by government forces; the building, mixing, finishing and rolling of sand bituminous mix on approximately five roadways (18 feet wide and 300 feet long) located in the main compound parking area.

Sealed bids in triplicate will be accepted until 1:30 p. m. Sept. 23 at Building No. 2, S.N.A.S.

Girl Found Dead; Kidnaper Arrested

FORT COLLINS, Colo. (UPI)—Authorities said they would file first degree murder charges today against a mild mannered young cement plant carpenter who confessed the mutilation slaying of a pretty secretary he kidnaped from a lovers' lane near here Sunday.

Floyd J. Robertson, 24, the father of three young children, led authorities to the nearly nude body of the stenographer, Marjorie Schneider, 18, about 33 miles northwest of here Monday.

The body, clad only in a bra, sweater and blouse, was buried in a shallow grave beneath logs and rocks more than 400 feet up the side of an incline overlooking state Highway 14. Nearby was a camp, located on Cache la Poudre River in Roosevelt National Park.

"I don't know why I did it," Robertson sobbed when officers uncovered the body.

Dr. Robert J. Schmidt, Larimer County coroner, performed a two-hour autopsy Monday night and said the girl died from "three bullet wounds in the head."

There was evidence of sexual relations before the girl's death, the coroner said.

Drink Of Kerosene Hospitalizes Boy

OVIDO, — A 15-month-old boy was admitted to Walter Park Memorial Hospital late yesterday after drinking kerosene.

Stevie Ragdale, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ragdale, was described as "out of danger" today. He is being kept in the hospital for observation, however.

The child was at the home of a grandmother, Mrs. Helge Ragdale, when the accident occurred. His mother and grandmother heard him coughing and went to investigate. He was still holding the kerosene container.

Mrs. Ragdale and the youth were taken to the hospital by the Rev. J. P. Bryant.

Class Opens Tonight

An arts and crafts class will kick off the Recreation Department's adult program tonight. The first class will feature ceramics.

Instructor Thomas Dixon will hold classes in the craft room of the recreation office in Fort Meunier Park from 7:30 to 10:30 p. m. each Tuesday and Thursday.

Local Vegetable Growers Discuss Pre-Cool Plant

Vegetable growers of Seminole County and interested persons met last night at the courthouse to discuss the possibility of establishing a vacuum pre-cooling plant in the Sanford area. Erection of such a plant would bring the Sanford Farmer's Market, already one of the state's largest (unofficially ranking third), into competition with powerful out-of-state markets.

The vacuum pre-cooling plant would insure the freshness of such perishable vegetables as lettuce and celery by their destination. The vegetables are rolled into the chamber, where all air is removed. The process also removes some water from the tissues and all heat. In this way, quality is retained until the vegetable reaches its destination.

Seminole County Agent Cecil Tucker, who conducted the meeting, said that vegetable growers in the area are considering, primarily, lettuce and a high quality pack of cabbage. Tucker told the TAIPEI, Formosa (UPI) — Communist forces today in defiance of an American decision to maintain its state of battle readiness in the Formosa Straits. Peiping said its land, sea and air forces had taken "full combat preparations."

The Soviet-built guns almost surrounding the Quemoy Island Big Quemoy, Tain and Erlian with 1,236 rounds while the Communist radio hurled new accusations at the United States and said it would repel any Nationalist or American attack on the mainland.

The U. S. Navy was sticking to its guns in spite of Chinese Communist and Russian threats but there was no new report today of American naval vessels conveying Nationalist supply vessels through the Communist blockade of the offshore islands.

A national Chinese air force plane did get through the blockade this morning and landed on an emergency strip on the Quemoy beach during the bombardment, with three American and two Chinese correspondents on board. A first attempt was thwarted when an air raid alert sounded and the plane put back to the Pescadore.

Nationalist military officials meanwhile expressed private but strong dissatisfaction at the American convoy system in operation in the Formosa Straits — especially the refusal to allow the convoys to start coming as far as five at Communist attacks.

"We can try to sneak in at night without American escort and perhaps escape trouble," one of them said. "But with an American escort we sit in a destiny in a pompous way and get shot up. It is ridiculous."

2 Bombers Collide, 13 Airmen Killed

SPOKANE, Wash. (UPI) — An in-flight collision of two B-52 bombers near Fairchild Air Force Base Monday night claimed the lives of 13 of 16 airmen, the Air Force said today.

Twelve men were killed instantly when the two eight jet planes crashed and burned in a field three miles from the base.

The other victim, Capt. Ernest C. Marker, Spokane, parachuted from the crash hot and died at the base hospital at 2:10 a. m. today.

Positive identification was lacking on one airman and the next of kin of a second airman has not yet been located, the Air Force announced.

The identified dead were: Capt. Homer W. Crump, Vancouver, Calif.; Maj. W. W. Bold, Fairchild AFB; S. Sgt. Aubrey Moore, Birmingham, Ala.; 1st Lt. Reggie Fragler, Spokane; Maj. Donald R. Staples, Turner, Mo.; 1st Lt. John Cork, Pace City, Kan.; Capt. Roy L. George, Chico, Texas; Lt. Col. Andrew B. Croo, Fairchild AFB; S. Sgt. David G. Archer, Spokane; Capt. Russell H. ### Big Vote Expected In Seminole Today

The important state primary and senatorial race between Sen. Spessard Holland and former Sen. Claude Pepper was overshadowed today in Seminole County by interest in the school bond election.

Voting in the 16 Seminole County precincts was considered steady by noon today. Officials expected the crowds to start coming as the working day drew to a close, 9,000 registered freeholders will decide the bond election. Over half of them must vote to pass the issue.

Figures at noon from four of the local precincts revealed that 1,127 freeholders, 240 had voted on the school bond issue with 732 votes, while only 620 voted in the primary. Precinct 10-Lake Mary reported over 100 votes in both categories. It has 902 freeholders.

Precinct 14 (Sanford proper), with 1,238 registered freeholders, reported 530 had voted on the school bonds by noon, and 314 in the primary. Precinct 15, with voting booths in the Sanford Armory, also contributed the first casualty of this election day. Mrs. James Lawson, 205 E. 10th St., fell on the steps of the armory and broke her arm. Mrs. Lawson was taken to the Seminole Memorial Hospital, where she will remain for several days, according to her husband. Incidentally, she had already voted.

The polls will remain open until 7 p. m. in Seminole County. R. T. Mjilwee, county school superintendent, reminded freeholders that "everyone must get out and vote if the bond issue is to go through."

In other parts of the state, voting was light until noon, when it picked up sharply around the State. Cloudy weather and scattered thunderstorms prevailed over the entire state before noon. The weather was not, however, expected to influence the voting.

Conservative Sen. Holland has been rated the favorite with most of the state's newspapers behind him. Pepper, ousted from the Senate in 1950 by Sen. George Smith, has waged a thorough campaign.

Both will have poured a total of half a million dollars into their races when all bills are paid. The primary winner virtually will be assured of election to the Senate in November, despite the bid of Republican Leland Hyzer, Miami attorney.

Gunpoint Robbery Nets Bandit $150

A masked bandit, armed with a pistol, met with no resistance last night when he held up the Deck Bar, on the Dog Track Road, just off P.R. 2.

Owners of the bar are Mr. and Mrs. McLane, who told investigating officers that the bandit entered about 10:44. He ordered the owners and two customers to the back room, and escaped through a side door after taking approximately $150 in bills and some change from the cash register.

McLane still has his leg in a cast from a similar robbery less than a month ago. That time, he resisted the invader, and was cut down with a shotgun.

Investigating are deputies Ed Banks and Seburger and Sheriff J. L. Hobbs.

Storm Reported

MIAMI (UPI)—A Navy hurricane hunter plane today spotted a "weak cyclonic disturbance" in the Atlantic about 500 miles east of the Windward Islands.

Anti-Integration Strike By White Students Ends

VAN BUREN, Ark. (UPI) — A white students' anti-integration strike at Van Buren High School ended today for practical purposes, despite a new segregation organization's efforts to pump life into the protest.

Only three boys took up stands today where as many as 42 strikers have stationed themselves. The three refused to answer questions, so it was not certain that they were students of Van Buren High.

The 13 Negroes who quit school last Friday when the strike was at its height did not return. Their parents indicated they won't until the federal courts guarantee them protection.

The segregationist organization trying to get an all-out fight against integration going is the Van Buren Citizens' Council.

VOTERS AT POLLS.—Seminole County voters turned out today to nominate three county officials and decide the fate of a school bond issue. Here, voters are lined up to cast their ballots on the bond issue. This picture was made at the Canning Kitchen, 25th St., early today. (Bergrstrom Photo)

Gov. Muskie Wins Maine Senate Seat

PORTLAND, Maine (UPI) — Major Democrats today celebrated their greatest victory in half a century.

Gov. Edmund S. Muskie became the state's first elected Democratic senator. He defeated Republican incumbent Frederick G. Payne Monday in the spotlighted contest of Maine's last earlyball election.

A Democratic governor, Clinton A. Clauson, will take over from Muskie. Two of the three congressional seats also went to Democrats.

Muskie's victory was especially significant since it was considered by some to be the final vote retribution to the Adams-Goldfine controversy in Washington. Payne, the Presidential Assistant Sherborn Adams, had admitted accepting favors from industrialist-Herman Goldfine.

Returns from all but five small precincts gave Muskie 109,392 votes to 108,317 for Payne.

Muskie, a 41-year-old waterworks man, was accompanied primarily on his record as a two-time governor — the first Democrat elected to the post in 20 years.

Democrat James C. Oliver replaced 1st District Rep. Robert Hale and Democratic Rep. Frank M. Coffin of the 2nd District was re-elected, defeating farmer Nell S. Blahop.

The only Republican congressman re-elected was Clifford G. McIntire of the 3rd District. The potato industry leader dumped Democrat Gerald J. Grady.

Women Hold Phone As Parents Plead; Young Baby Dies

FRANKLIN LAKES, N.J. (UPI) — Burial services will be held today for a five-month-old boy whose death was blamed on two talkative women who stubbornly refused to give up a party-line when the child's parents tried to call an ambulance.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Brown said they pleaded with partyliners four times Saturday morning to let them make a call to Paterson to get an ambulance and oxygen for their son, Robert Jr.

The boy died in the arms of his 18-year-old mother, Beverly, as she carried him into Paterson General Hospital after a wild, 90-mile-an-hour ride, Brown said.

Brown said he made the trip in desperation because Robert had turned "purple from lack of oxygen."

Locally, Police Chief Arthur W. Pickering, who lives across the street from the Browns, said he had a two-hour emergency supply of oxygen in the borough police car parked near his home. But the Browns didn't know it.

Pickering said he "now knows the name" of the other three parties on the Brown's telephone line and was gathering "other information."

Brown said his son was a cardiac case. He said that when Robert began gasping for breath he pleaded with persons using the telephone party line to hang up. "I kept hollering, 'Please get off the line. This is an emergency,'" Brown said. "I kept telling them my baby was very sick but they kept right on talking." He said one of the women told him she wished he would get off the line.

U. S. Note Seeks Talks With China On Formosa Issue

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Secretary of State John Foster Dulles said today he does not believe there will be a war over the Formosa Strait Islands if the United States follows its firm policy.

At the same time he disclosed that the United States today sent a note to Red China saying that it is prepared to resume ambassadorial talks to solve their disputes. He said the United States is ready to begin talking in Warsaw at any time Red China is prepared.

Dulles told his news conference that if Red China renounces the use of force in the Formosa area, the Chinese Communist action could lead to what he termed further consequences. He refused to spell those out.

Dulles made that intriguing comment when he was asked whether the United States was prepared to negotiate with Red China on the future of the Quemoy and Matsu Islands if the Peiping regime agreed to renounce force in the Formosa area. He began his answer by saying the United States is in no position to negotiate on the future of territory held by an ally, Nationalist China.

Concrete action stated. But then he continued in a vein that might hint at some U.S. concessions. He said Red China's agreement to give up use of force, if it came, would be a constructive new element that might have further consequences.

A reporter asked whether Dulles meant the United States might recommend that Nationalist China evict Quemoy and Matsu. Dulles again said he did not intend to spell out what he had in mind. He said one reason is that his ideas might have consequences involving the rights of Nationalist China.
