

In Bid Letting 'Rocketing' Costs Obvious

By MARION BETHA
ALAMONTE SPRINGS — The skyrocketing costs of construction were obvious in a bid opening this week for the long delayed paving of Longwood Avenue and Ballard Street.

City Extends Boundaries

By MARION BETHA
ALAMONTE SPRINGS — The city has again extended its municipal boundaries with annexation ordinances in several areas. City Council has adopted an ordinance on Presview Avenue in the Orlando section of Seminole County. The property is west of Palm Springs Road and is comprised of in excess of 87 acres. The area will carry C-2 general retail commercial district zoning.

Court Trials Are Reviewed

By MARION BETHA
Cecil Gerry, who pleaded guilty as charged on May 1 to larceny of a motor vehicle, was adjudged guilty and sentenced by Circuit Judge Clarence Johnson to 30 months at a state prison. The court gave credit for time in which the defendant had been incarcerated. Assistant Public Defender Gerald Ruberg spoke impressively upon the defendant's behalf, saying he did not often receive the cooperation which was given by Gerry. Ruberg continued he applauded the frank efforts of the defendant and his candid disclosure of the events which transpired in the commission of the crime. Ruberg alluded to the defendant as a man not given to deceit and treachery. The defendant cited a co-defendant in the case, Cummings Baldwin, who pleaded guilty to the lesser offense of temporary unauthorized use of a motor vehicle and was sentenced to county jail for a year, as a trustee. Ruberg requested the court consider similar action on behalf of Gerry. However, the court noted a lengthy criminal record of Gerry, and in the case of Baldwin a misdemeanor record involved, whereas in Gerry's case it was a felony. In another sentencing before Judge Johnson, the court mailed nine months in county jail to Thomas Young, who pleaded guilty on March 20 to assault and battery. The court adjudged him guilty and gave credit for 145 days in which the defendant had been incarcerated. Young was initially charged with assault with intent to commit a felony; rape.

"PITCH IN" is the motto of Brownie Troop 836 as they proceed with their litter bags for Southside School in a clean-up program. Participating are Peter Greulich, Gary Hudgins, David Sonnenberg, Irene Kelly, Charlene Stallworth and Lynn Sonnenberg. Appeal Is Denied On Investigation

ORLANDO, Fla. (AP) — Claiming he had no jurisdiction, a judge has denied an appeal by Lake County Sheriff Willis McCall after he filed a grand jury investigation into the death of an inmate who died soon after being taken from McCall's jail. McCall's petition was denied on grounds that Orange County Circuit Judge Parker Lee McDonald did not have the power to overrule Circuit Judge W. Troy Hall Jr.'s order impeding an Orange County grand jury to examine the death of Tommy J. Vickers, 34.

Media Blasted At Meet

ALAMONTE SPRINGS — City Council Mayor Lawrence Swofford and City Attorney S. J. Davis all took a vehement verbal poke at "irresponsible journalism" in area radio and press reporting of the recent conflagration at the Seminole Jail Alai Fronton. (The Sanford Herald was not mentioned.) Mayor Swofford said he felt the coverage of the city to be unfair in that the fireman, later suspended, who dispatched the city's equipment to the fire scene was the guilty party of four violations. Further, Mayor Swofford said, the front was not paying the city for protection, as was Zayre's Department Store and K-Mart Shopping Center.

Food Stamps Increase

ATLANTA, Ga.—There were 5,901 low-income Seminole County people on the U. S. Department of Agriculture's Food Stamps program in March as compared to 5,614 the previous month, Russell H. James, Southeast regional administrator of USDA's Food and Nutrition Service reports. Taking Florida as a whole, James noted, there was an increase of 5,827 in the food programs during the month. With 15 Florida counties changing from food distribution to food stamps, there was an increase of 41,141 on the Food Stamp program with a loss of 35,514 in the food distribution program.

Federal Charges Denied

FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP) — General Dynamics Corp. has denied federal charges that the firm and four present and former officials conspired to defraud the government. A federal indictment returned Tuesday in U.S. District Court in Dallas accused General Dynamics of charging the Air Force for defective parts for F111 fighter-bombers. A spokesman for General Dynamics here said the charges were without merit. "When the case goes to trial and the complete facts are brought out, the charges will be shown to be groundless," the spokesman said.

Morris' Plan On Agenda

Sanford City Commissioner John Morris at a Tuesday afternoon commission work session attempted to revive the city districting question, which was shot down a week ago by three of his colleagues, who declined to allow city voters to be heard on the question. Morris sought to have the five-man board call itself into a special session to reconsider its actions of a week ago relative to the proposal from the Greater Sanford Chamber of Commerce legislative and national affairs committee to place the question on the December ballot in order that voters could choose whether or not they wanted to district the city to elect commissioners.

Welfare Recipients Disappearing

"Work or Else" program encourages people to look for employment. In the first nine months of the program, 22,748 welfare recipients were placed in jobs. An additional 39,124 were removed from welfare for failing to report for job interviews or for other reasons. Under the program, enacted by the 1971 Legislature and put into effect last July 1, welfare recipients are sorted into two basic groups—those who can hold jobs and those who can not. If the recipient were classified as employable, his check would be sent to the local state employment service office where he must pick it up in person.

Massacre At Tel Aviv Airport Leaves At Least 22 Dead

By DAVID LANCAHIRE TEL AVIV (AP) — Three young Japanese terrorists hired by a Palestine guerrilla movement staged a massacre with submachine guns and grenades in the passenger terminal at Israel's international airport Tuesday night, killing at least 22 persons and wounding more than 70.

Travelers, relatives, bystanders and employees at the crowded airport were hit during the wild fusillade of gunfire and explosions loosed by three gunmen who disembarked from a Paris-Rome-Tel Aviv flight, pulled weapons from their baggage and started shooting.

A police superintendent said 22 were killed and 70 injured. But officials at hospitals where the bodies were taken said the death toll was 25, and wounded totaled more than 70.

The Popular Front said the massacre was in retaliation for the killing by Israeli troops of two Palestinian hijackers of a Belgian Sabena jetliner at the Tel Aviv airport three weeks ago.

Apparently referring to the fact that the gunmen were not Arabs, the statement said the attack reaffirmed "solidarity of world revolutionary forces and proves that the Palestinian cause does not belong to the Palestinian people alone."

Israeli prime Minister Golda Meir broke off her vacation and the Israeli Cabinet held an emergency session today to discuss the massacre.

In Tokyo, the Japanese Foreign Ministry said it would send a special investigator to Tel Aviv. The ministry said it was informed by Israel that the attackers were identified as Ken Torie and Jiro Sugasaki, both 23, and Daisuke Namba, 22.

School Officials Ask Regulations Waiver

By ANN SIECZKOWSKI

School Supt. John Angel and Assistant Supt. Walter Teague came before the County Commission Tuesday with a request for waiver of Utilities regulations for the new Red Bug School now being built.

Because of heavy financial costs (approximately $70,000) the school wishes to install its own utility plant at the school. The school is located in the certified area assigned to Eagle Utilities Company.

Angel said that the only concern of the school board now is that the school be ready for opening in September — Utilities are necessary for the opening.

Pinch recommended that the Seminole School Board be authorized to construct and operate water and sewage treatment plants at the Red Bug Elementary School for a period of five years provided that the plants be operated under the direction, control and responsibility of a competent operator licensed under the rules and regulations of the Florida Division of Health and Department of Pollution Control.

Our County's Fire Predicament

Could it be that fire — F-I-R-E — is the hazard which will force Seminole County to do more than talk about consolidated government for this troubled area?

For the phenomenal growth in homes, industries and developments has created a hazard in the case of fire which makes the crazy-quilt of agencies to cope with this threat to life and property inadequate in many cases.

True, the municipalities where fire departments exist have done something to modernize their equipment and train their firemen. Several have completed mutual safety pacts which add to the protection.

But the county has spots where unincorporated villages exist and depend on protection through fire control districts or privately operated and privately supported groups.

Fires, however, break out without rhyme or reason. They are not, like crime, subject to professional analysis and the charting of outbreaks which can be broadly determined.

In Seminole County crime control is under the operation of the sheriff's office. Sheriff John Polk has done and is doing a masterful job in trying to keep his force large enough and well enough trained to meet the traditional threats to law which the burgeoning Walt Disney World has brought to all of Central Florida.

Yet when the resident of the county takes time to, and few do unless the flames are visible, think about fire protection and finds his property in a "no-man's-land" there is the very natural and human reaction of "It won't happen to me."

We believe the time has come when this very hazard should do more than has been done to force the county leadership at the governmental, civic and political level to think again, and this time with urgency, about consolidated government in terms of fire protection.

Fire fighting has gone along in recent years. More effective means and more effective application of preventive steps has done much to minimize losses.

In Seminole, however, there exist fire hazards which are known to be of the greatest danger and which could, in an instant, produce such a conflagration that even the best of fire fighting cannot contain the damage or limit the destruction.

In Sanford the ruins of the Robson Sporting Goods and Boat store are mute witnesses of this fact. In this county seat and in other older cities, similar structures are existing, constant threats.

Vigilance on the part of the municipal fire departments thus becomes a matter of importance. Inspection and enforcement of safety measures is just plain common sense.

Fires, of course, something that needs to be dealt with at once. Only in large conflagrations is their time for the mustering of forces.

Yet the mustering of forces on a county-wide plan which would leave no resident without proper protection and would do away with local red tape which halts fire-fighters at predetermined boundaries is possible. Probable?

Conclusion Jumping In Season

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Jumping to conclusions: Marriages between circus freaks are more lasting than those between movie stars. They usually are happier, too. The reason is not only that the average freak has a better character and a more attractive personality than the average movie star, although that is certainly part of the explanation. The careers of married circus freaks are less antagonistic to one another than the careers of married movie stars. And freaks aren't psychologically as dependent on audience approval as movie stars are.

Even people crowded in a subway continue their fire feeling less grumpy after they have made room for a child carrying a handful of flowers. There is always room in life for the right thing.

If every sane man on earth liked thinking better than eating, drinking or making love, I know what I'd like to be. I'd like to be the village idiot.

Stuffed shirts do not get either the credit or respect they deserve in life. They are greatly needed, object lessons in this world. They provide, with visible warnings of things we do not want to let ourselves become, no matter what else time makes of us while mutilating our dreams and goals. A stuffed shirt is a warning symbol on the road downhill to human bankruptcy. A stuffed shirt may have many admirable qualities. For example, he may be so sincere in his overinflated pomposity that he is totally devoid of hypocrisy. Stuffed-shirts in the end are always pathetic but sometimes charming in a crusty sort of way. But a young stuffed shirt is always a comic delight in a time when there are so few things for the bystander to laugh at.

The biggest mistake most men make in this world is that they wear dreams two sizes too large for them and shoes one size too small.

The only nice thing you can say about going to hell is that by the time a man gets there he is too tired to complain about the accommodations.

Blondes get the hiccupps more often than brunettes do. One of the biggest economic puzzles of my lifetime to me is how come this generation manages to spend most of its time sitting in cars and swivel chairs but still buys fewer two-wheeled suits than the previous generation did, which was supposed to have been on its toes all the time.

Humphrey's Back Against the Wall

By BRUCE BROSSAT

SAN FRANCISCO (NEA) — Standing in a blaze of television light up against a wall on a city street, Sen. Hubert Humphrey was gamely trying to explain away bad third-place showings in the last two primaries before the big one in California June 6.

He simply said he didn't try because they weren't all that important. But the reality is that his chief rival, Sen. George McGovern, scored two more victories and had more momentum for the test here with its great prize of 271 delegate votes.

Humphrey in this setting at this moment in history is something to watch. He knows he is at the crunch, that these are the climactic days in his political life.

There is poignancy in the shifting campaign scenes as the old warrior struggles valiantly against what seem to be tough odds. It is widely believed that the ascending McGovern has superior money, manpower and momentum.

Yet resilient, buoyant Hubert concedes nothing. In television actor Lorne Greene's jammed living room in a Los Angeles suburb, Humphrey smiled "We're gonna win!" as a black singer sang half a dozen choruses of "Glory, Glory, Hallelujah."

His voice charged with feeling, Humphrey went on: "I want to be your leader. I want to make you proud of your country. I'll give you everything I've got in my life."

It bothers him that many people, especially some of the young, see him as "old hat," a figure from the past. He retorts:

"My long political life is a rich and tested experience. I'm not a man with eyes in the back of my head looking at yesterday."

He clearly believes that he deserves the fullest political reward for his service and what he considers his acute social vision. Again and again, he runs through the catalogue of major social legislation enacted in the past generation. He claims either authorship or close identity with most items—Medicare, housing subsidies, Job Corps, widened Social Security. He adds:

"All those things have Hubert Humphrey's fingerprints on them."

At times here on the long trail up and down the state, he looks desperately tired. As if holding himself together by the slimmest of margins. But his bounce always returns.

At a rich fund-raiser's ranch house north of San Diego, the candidate waved his arm in a sweet air and said: "Looks like we're winning the war on poverty here."

After the Chicago vote on a Sunday morning in Monterey Park near Los Angeles, he sniffed the breakfast aroma and said:

"Thanks for the smell of the pancakes."

At a rally for blacks in San Francisco's Macedonia Missionary Baptist Church, Humphrey—stirred by some great choral singing—fold his arms and said:

"I've been on the firing line since day one. Where were you (this plainly an aside aimed at McGovern) when the swords and sabers were drawn against us?"

Humphrey just can't believe that all he has done, all he has fought for in his public life, should not culminate in his winning the presidency. He has himself in mind when he tells every listener, "You need somebody who's got guts."

He is indeed fighting Truman-style. Says a veteran Democrat here: "If Humphrey pulls it off, it'll just be Hubert himself who did it."

Offbeat Ruminations Wallace Shooting-Hand Gun Control

WASHINGTON—George Wallace probably will be "Alabama Bound" within the next ten days. He is eager to go home to the University of Alabama Hospital and to get ahead with the spinal operation to remove the bullet still lodged in him.

Orthopedic surgeons with whom I have talked are not impressed by the involuntary twitching of his foot muscles. That is indeed involuntary, protective reaction, not a regaining of control of his legs. Their prognosis is still permanent paralysis.

Which brings our democracy again to the question of survival of the free and open political system we have known. There is no way to prevent attempted assassinations. Wallace is tenth man holding the Presidency or seeking Presidential office to a murderer's target. Wallace, Andrew Jackson, the two Roosevelts, and Truman survived. Lincoln, Garfield, McKinley, and the two Kennedys fell to the gunmen.

Regular season action concludes tomorrow at the Jet Lanes in the Late Toyota loop and one terrific battle should be in the offering with anyone of five teams capable of running off with top honors.

The present leader, if you would call them that, are the Sedans who have a half game lead over the second place B-Sers.

Moving up into title contention were the Sparkplugs, who pulled off another sweep and the former leaders Beep Beeps.

Other fine efforts last week came from Jack Rogers 212, 192—574, Pat Roche 185, Marge Augusto 177, Bud Larsen 190, 194, John Knodus 200 and Millie Rogers 171.

DAV Bantams

The Chicago Teddy Bears, as expected, were easily the top team in the Disabled American Vets sponsored bowling loop, finishing the second with 105 victories and a seven game lead over the second place Hot Shots.

In finishing second the Hot Shots came close to winning 100 games as they ended with a 98-43 mark. Third place went to Kelly's Heroes with a 95-54 mark.

Top individual efforts in the final week of action were turned in by Aaron Kaufman 140—379, Mike Clark 155—365, Darrell Tate 111, Jack Doyle 106, Jimmy Miller 110, Mike Link 154—611, John Glaze 111—361, Paul Hart 113, Beth Burkart 103, Brian Dorton 112, Janell Spolski 103, Tracey Lee 112—300, Bill Dearolf 102, Ronnie Harold 116, Norman Platt 131—378, and Bill Redman 117—369.

Also were Jerry Kaiser 127—308, Larry Jones 130—357, Gema Burk 123—289, David Jones 190—394, Mich Botta 113, Billy Burkart 117—308, Richard Lewis 101, Robert Ripley 126, Kelly Dougherty 111—303, Kelly Lewis 121, Fred Burk 100.

All of you who were rooting for Doc Lee and Helen Barbour to win in the Florida State Women's Bowling Tournament can rest easily now. The tourney has concluded and Helen and Doc have captured first place.

The Sanford bowlers had a combined total of 971 to win the Class E Doubles handicap division. Doc contributed a 551 while Helen had 420. The pair bowled at the Shore Lanes in Merritt Island. The final week of action was last Saturday and Sunday.

Speaking of tournament action John Spolski competed in the Florida Men's tourney which is now in progress at Miami. John averaged 197 for his six games and should come out with something off the prize list.

Junior-Senior

David Hile exploded with a whopping 238 last week when the Hawks needed it and it helped them just pull off a sweep against the Fabulous Four.

The Hilepals also came up with a sweep last week as Mark Whitley fired games of 202, 173 and 183 for a strong 508 series. That was a mere 128 pins over Mark's average.

John and Roger Saults 173—561 also helped the Hilepals. Rick Payne had a pair of 139's for the losers.

Other top efforts in the Junior-Senior loop came from John MacGregor 182, Eddie Ryan 183, 184 and Larry Brown 224.

Keglers

Eddie Adams hit the big six in the Keglers loop last week as he opened with a strong 216 and closed with a 197 for a 614 net. That set along with a 241 game by Don Norman helped the Clowns to three wins over Lake Mary Amisco.

The All-Stars lived up to their name as they broomed the Sanford Heating & Air heaters. William O'Neal fired games 299, 211 for a 510 series while teammate Bill Powell had a 191, 190—545. High for Sanford Heating was B. Hedrick's 219—567.

Good year number one also came up with four wins thanks to the efforts of J. Cernoni 217, 203—567, A. Rollison 194 and T. Ward 185. Smith Development was led by D. Wells 202 and J. Smith 185.

Also coming up with fine performances last week were T. Patterson 192, 207—376, B. Arthur 183, B. Kelly 206, Jim Carver 211—579, Jimmy Faco 185, W. Burrows 192, Chuck Baker 195, 203—388, D. Durbin 183, and J. Bryant 242.

Local Pinpoint

Summer league action in the EARLY TOYOTA league brought forth the sparkling efforts of K. Williams 296, E. Kostival 179, G. Gilbo 190, O. Touchton 192, E. Weaver 204, R. Ortner 205, 206—600, and Eddy Webb 220—600.

D & B FENCE loop top scorers were Richard Williams 216, Kathy Baker 174, Don Gale 172, E. C. Kneeland 181, Jack Ives 174, Jim Brewer 145—627, James Bare 194 and Grace Starr 172.

Best in the DYNASTIC SUMMER LOOP were G. Dixon 185, 186, D. C. Elberry 186, Ed Mallon 213, 182—566, V. Loudermilk 173 and B. Starks 177, 173—361.

TOPS in the JET BOWLERETTES league was Ellie Oldham 175.

Night Of Dance Set This Weekend

'Dance, Ballerina, Dance'

'Music, Maestro, Please'

THE ULTIMATE in poise and grace is reflected by Susan Largen, talented ballerina who is a select company dancer in Ballet Guild of Sanford-Seminole, an affiliate of Southeastern Regional Ballet Association. The guild dancers will be a feature part in "A Night of Dance" this weekend.

BALLET GUILD of Sanford-Seminole will present a premiere performance, "The Grande Tarentelle," with all 31 dancers featured as colorful gypsies. Getting in tune are Jackie Greene, Judy Bales and Mary Ellen Van Duyn.

STRENGTH AND BEAUTY, portrayed by Debbie Russell and Steve Williams, will take on new dimensions, with artists, Susan Largen and Jerome Titshaw, also featured in the production.

The School of Dance Arts annual "NIGHT OF DANCE" will be presented again at the Seminole High School auditorium, Saturday, June 3, at 8:00 p.m. and on Sunday June 4, at 4:00 p.m.

Each year Miriam Rye and Valerie Rye Weid have outdone themselves in presenting a show that managed to be more beautiful, more entertaining and more sensational than their previous annual show. This year promises to be no exception.

The ballet portion of the show, while utilizing music from such old masters as Tchaikovsky, Offenbach, Beethoven, Tschannoff and many others, promises fascination to ballet lovers.

Sound too high hat? Never! There will also be music by Lerner and Loewe, Simon and Garfunkel, Victor Herbert, Rogers and Hammerstein and, last but not least, The Beatles.

The Ballet Guild of Sanford - Seminole will perform a new ballet this year entitled "The Grande Tarentelle" an original choreographic work by Miriam and Valerie who are the artistic directors of this semi-professional group. This fast-paced ballet will appeal to all lovers of "live" entertainment and even to the uninitiated in ballet techniques.

When the tap and jazz performers open the second half of the show with the theme, "Way Back When," veteran entertainers of the 20's and 30's will come alive with song and dance.

Seating room only has been in effect previously. Plan to attend early. Tickets may be secured from any dancer, Sanford Shoe Center or at the box office.

RAGGEDY ANNS and Andys who will take the audience "Way Back When" are Barbara Wolter and Carol Dyal (Anns) and Sandra Orwig and Sherry Neiswander (Andys).

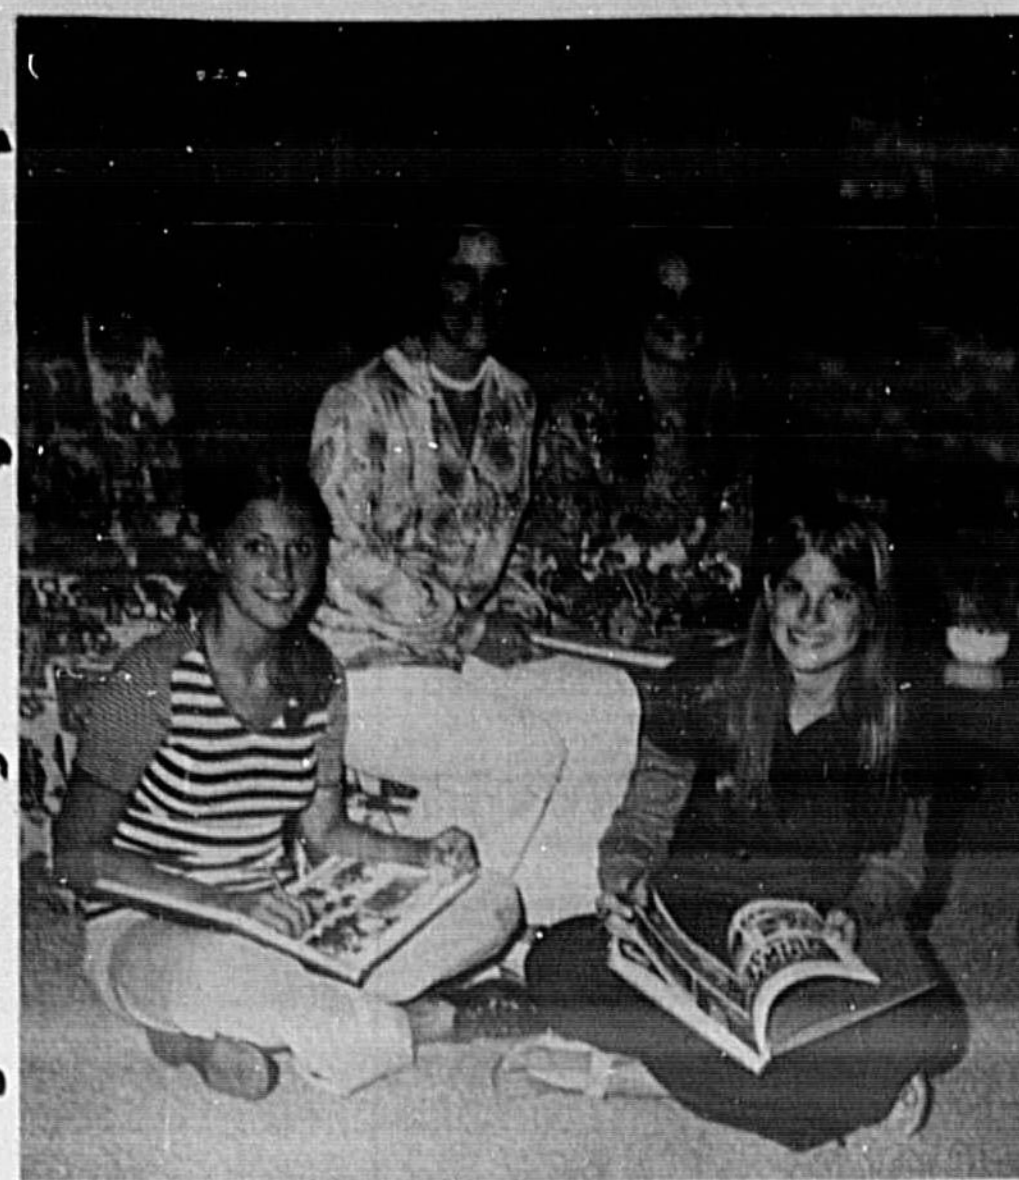

KATHY NEISWANDER and Darlene Mackey are among the 16 dancers who will open the show with a unique ladder act.

And Bob Orwig

Graduation Chatter Party Honors Miss Pip Lingle

In a colorful, festive, crimson and white setting, Miss Pip Lingle, a 1972 graduate of Seminole High School, was guest of honor at a "Coke and Chatter" party at the fashionable Loch Arbor home of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Stenstrom.

Hostesses for the delightful affair with Mrs. Stenstrom were her daughter, Miss Sharyn Stenstrom, and her mother, Mrs. W. A. Patrick.

A graduation motif was captured in the decor and refreshments. Garlands of streamers adorned the living room and Florida room with red and white floral arrangements gracing the tables which were laden with a variety of tempting party fare.

Guests enjoyed a relaxing evening, munching, sipping, and chatting and reviewing their "Sallys."

Invited guests were Mrs. Glen Lingle, the honoree's mother, Mrs. H. Glenn Lingle, her grandmother, and the Misses Marcie Anderson, Marlene Baggs, Susie Bishop, Toni Brister and Lisa Hollingsworth.

Mrs. R. Pottinger Feted At Shower

By MARY HYATT

Mrs. Robert Pottinger, member of the North Orlando Garden Club, was surprised and honored with a stork shower, May 18, at the home of Mrs. Thomas Bowersox, 64 So. Cortez.

The honoree was presented with a lovely, pink and blue corsage, a gift from the hostesses. Assisting the hostesses were Mrs. Florence Baker, mother of Mrs. Bowersox, and Mrs. Ruth Pottinger, mother-in-law of Mrs. Pottinger. Many lovely gifts were received by the enthusiastic and happy mother-to-be as beautiful packages in colorful wrappings of pink, white, and blue were carefully unwrapped by the Mrs. Carl Hyatt.

Workload Greatly Increased Judge Has 'Full-Time' Job

County Judge Wallace Hall has announced his candidacy for re-election to the office of Judge of the County Court of Seminole County. Judge Hall has stated he is "grateful for the opportunity to have been County Judge for the past four years and would like to continue to serve in this position."

preliminary hearings for felonies and estates have come before him this year. The tremendous increase in the workload of his office can be readily seen with the statistics of 5,800 cases in 1968.

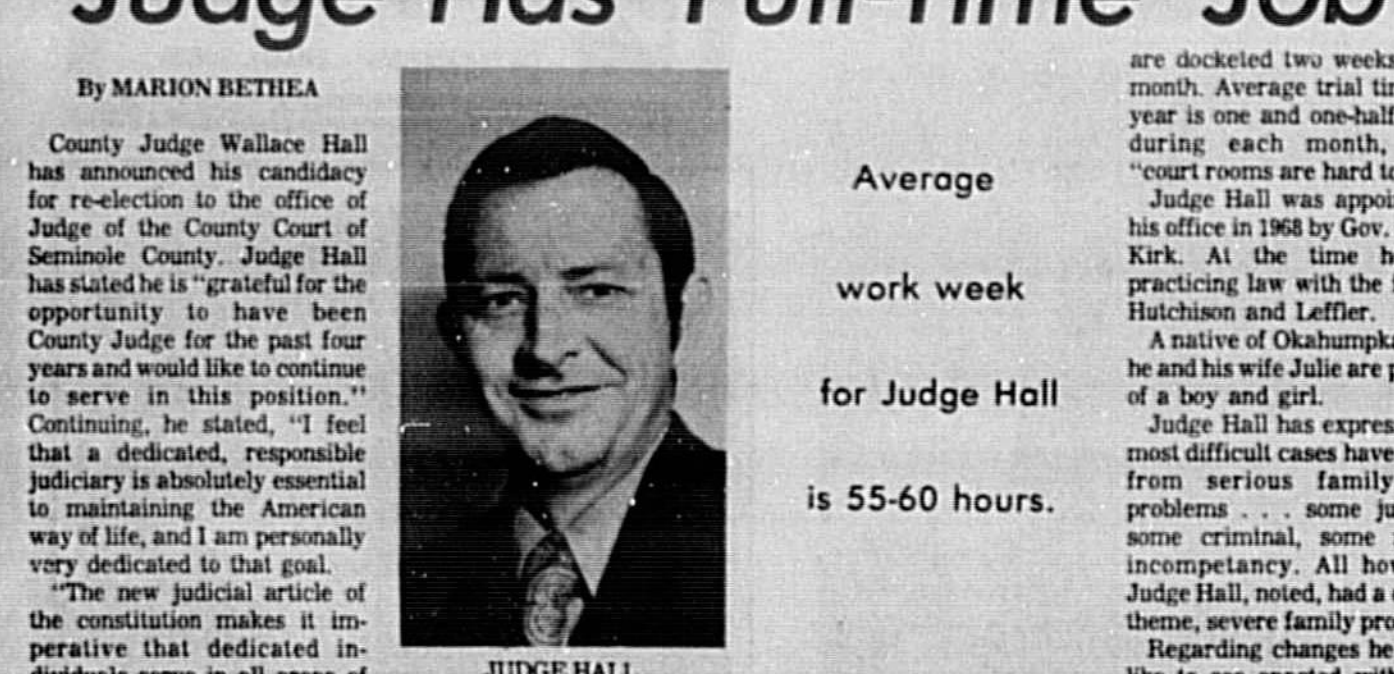

Another area in which Judge Hall is summoned is as acting as coroner, since the county does not have such. The only other individual available to act in this capacity is the Justice of the Peace.

Another instance of the mushrooming work load is within the courtroom trials. Judge Hall points out that when he assumed office four years ago, two weeks of trials were docketed every three months. Now, he says, with a big "IF" courtroom are available trials are docketed two weeks every month.

Group Honors Mrs. Herring On Her 99th Birthday

By MARVA Y. HAWKINS
222-3418

Oh how great it is to be the honoree at your 99th birthday party. Mrs. Annie Herring was given a party to honor her on this happy occasion, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Eather Hudson, with whom she lives. Mrs. Herring was born in 1873, in Chipley, Fla. She was married to the late Mr. Robert Herring. She is the loving mother of Arthur, James, Marion, Burnice Herring, Lavinia Torver, Annie Mae Jackson and Rev. Burdett Herring. She has 48 grandchildren and 56 great-grandchildren. Many more happy years to this lovely honoree.

The lovely home of Mrs. Bernice Fillmore, was the setting of a party where Mrs. Fillmore and Mrs. Jeri Straley, entertained Miss Debbie Haynes, Miss Denise Arnett and Miss Julia Cambridge with a "good luck gathering" of honorees are 1972 grads of Seminole High. The colors of red and white were used on the lovely table, with a red and white bouquet adorning the center and the cake of red and white with graduates atop to make the very impressive setting. The guests enjoyed the evening as they listened to music, and discussed future plans. Guests invited to join in the fun were Misses Barbara Jackson, Rosemary Sheppard, Sylvia Bodison, Cynthia Cambridge, Angla Bookman, Debbie George, Mary Hardy, Errama Coleman, Yvette Moore, Mrs. Rutha Haynes and Mrs. Sarah Cambridge.

Mr. Edward Blacksheare was presented an award for his outstanding leadership in the Annual Men's Day observance at the Allen Chapel A.M.E. Church, where the Rev. J. Edward Connelly is pastor. Blacksheare is an outstanding church and community worker. He is the principal of Crooms High School.

Members of Seminole High School Chorus will present a Folk Musical entitled, "It's All About Love," Thursday evening 8:00 at the Seminole High School. The public is invited to attend.

Print-out by computer of student schedules (secondary) and preparation of class lists (elementary and secondary) will be accomplished by the following schedule: Section A, June 13; section B, July 7; July 28, and D, Aug. 20, 1972. Before 4-15 is implemented, an extensive communication program will be necessary to provide adequate orientation of pupils, their parents and the general public concerning the plan.

Parent, civic and business meetings on both school and county levels as well as student assemblies, small discussion groups and individual guidance will disseminate this information. Local business men will receive special orientation dealing with the employment of students under the 4-15 plan. Printed materials to accompany this communication and orientation effort will be developed by each individual school for its program and by the county office for the overall plan.

As far as the schools activity programs are concerned, it will be impractical to present a given assembly to the entire middle school student body as in the high school level mentioned above. During the first year of 4-15 operation, more opportunities will be available in counselors to plan and coordinate group guidance, as each block of students begin school. Middle school student orientation can be handled in smaller groups than any other of the 4-15 plan.

Secondary extracurricular programs also vary from school to school; consequently, no single solution is deemed feasible as a county-wide application. Each school must develop programs and provide opportunities for student participation in those programs no session or any quarter will be considered less important than any other part of the 4-15 plan. Scheduling of athletic contests presents no problem.

Yearbook pictures will be scheduled at a time when the majority of students are available and will be completed in the next session and by normal make-up procedures. Procedures for the election of student officers will be determined by the individual school. Existing agencies and institutions such as the YMCA, county and city recreation departments will be informed of changes brought about by the 4-15 plan.

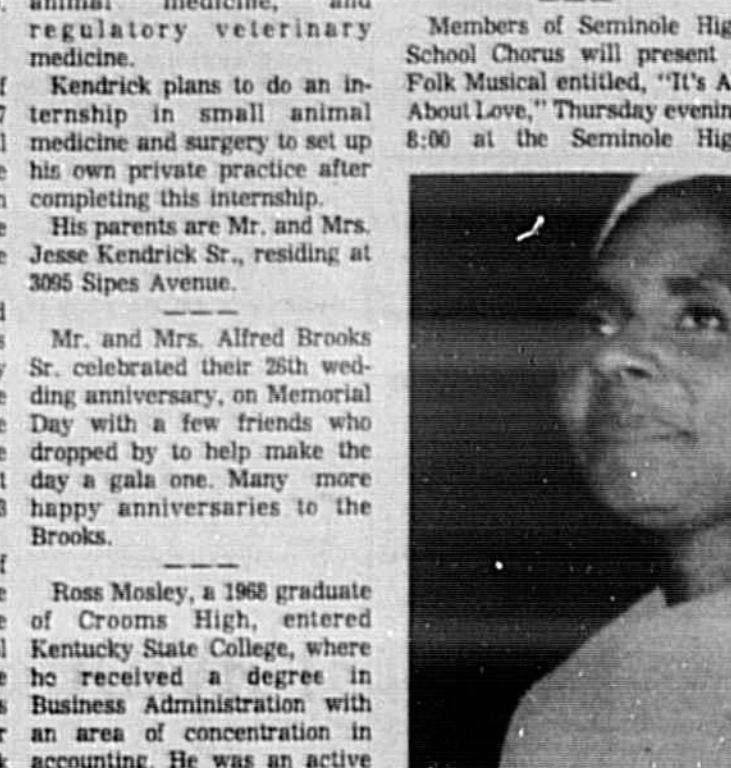

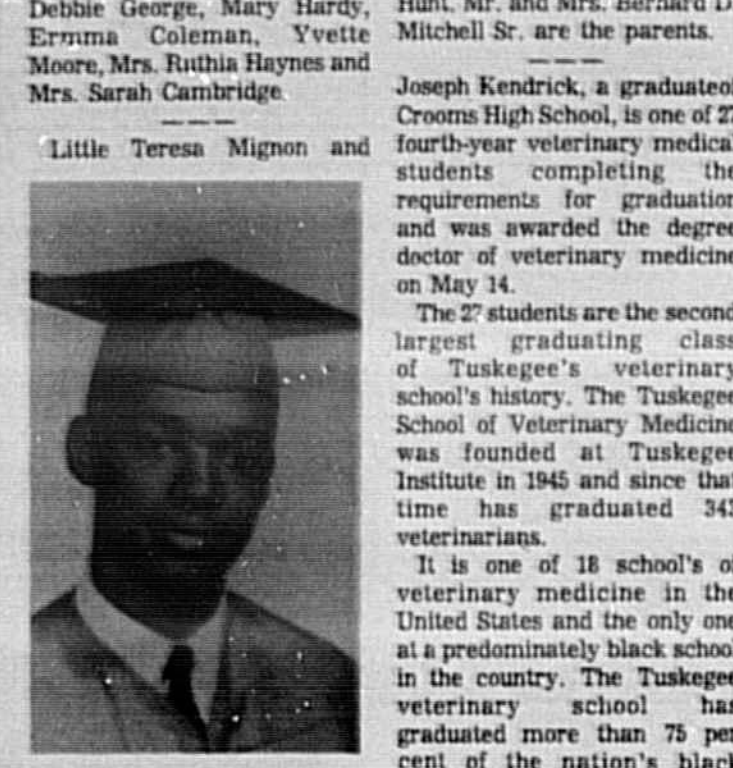

Joseph Kendrick, a graduate of Crooms High School, is one of 27 fourth-year veterinary medical students completing the requirements for graduation and was awarded the degree doctor of veterinary medicine on May 14.

The 27 students are the second largest graduating class of Tuskegee's veterinary school's history. The Tuskegee School of Veterinary Medicine was founded at Tuskegee Institute in 1945 and since that time has graduated 343 veterinarians.

It is one of 18 schools of veterinary medicine in the United States and the only one at a predominately black school in the country. The Tuskegee veterinary school has graduated more than 75 percent of the nation's black veterinarians.

Ross Mosley, a 1968 graduate of Crooms High, entered Kentucky State College, where he received a degree in Business Administration with an area of concentration in accounting. He was an active member in the student government association, on the student council board, Phi Beta Lambda business club, a member of Alpha Kappa Mu National Honor Society.

Ross spent a month touring the Far East. He visited such countries as India, Iran and Egypt. In May 1972, Ross graduated from Kentucky State College.

Tyre Completes Course

UMATILLA—W. W. Tyre, 1189 Oak Ave., Sanford, was among 46 men from four states to complete one of the most strenuous training courses for volunteer leaders of scouts. Sponsored by Central Florida Boy Scout Council, the week-long Wood Badge course was given at nearby Camp La-No-Ke.

Kenn Drupelewski, Central Florida council executive, said, "All those who have taken the course—which was first given in 1915—consider it a mountain-top of experience in their scouting careers."

The course is based on the capacity and willingness of each man to serve boys through scouting. They learn by doing, living under canvas out-of-doors.

Under 45-15 School Plan Assignment Based On Program Offered

The determining factors for assignment of students to each of the four (A, B, C, or D) yearly sessions, which make up the 4-15 extended-year, will be the educational program offered, the maximum utilization of facilities and the grouping of family members in the same session.

When student course demands in secondary schools do not warrant the establishment of certain courses in all four sessions, but are sufficient for limited offerings, the course will be assigned to a single session.

Transportation problems will be considered in the assignment process and all this will be accomplished in April, 1973, or three months before the implementation county-wide of the 4-15 plan.

The master scheduling of teacher and room assignments will be accomplished for all four sessions by the following dates: Section A, April 30; section B, May 20; section C, June 7 and section D, on June 28, 1973.

IN THE NEWS

LETTING HIS HANDS DO THE TALKING, Defense Secretary Melvin Laird makes an expressive point during a Pentagon press conference.

Unique Camping Community

Did you know that there are over 4 million travel trailers on the road today and only 600,000 campsites? This is why Saddlebag Lake was conceived. Here you own your own campsite. A beautiful oversized lot that is all yours. It is situated on gently rolling land and surrounded by pine and oak woods. For the naturally minded, the 'e' are waterfront sites. Nice to be assured of a place to call your camping home? That's for sure. Never to worry again about "Full Up" signs. What a relief! Another wonderful feature is if you aren't using your campsite, the general agents at Saddlebag Lake will help you rent it. In time it can even pay for itself. Sound like a good investment? You bet it is. Throw in a mile of beautiful snowy beach, a lovely clubhouse, heated swimming mile of beautiful snowy beach, a lovely clubhouse, heated swimming pool, boat basin pier, air-conditioned comfort stations, laundry rooms, complete underground utilities and many more extras and you've got Saddlebag Lake.

Where is it? Seven miles east of Lake Wales in Central Florida. Here's where the oranges grow and the sun shines and the air is clean. Close by are such attractions as Disney World, the Bok Singing Tower, and beautiful Cypress Gardens. Another plus is the people behind this unique camping community, publicly held Alico Land Development Company. This multi-million dollar corporation is one of Florida's largest landholders engaging in citrus farming, ranching and forestry to mention a few of its diversified activities.

Some Greek Treats

By AILEEN CLAIRE
NEA Food Editor

Greece and the Greek islands are high on the list of places to visit for Americans. Many who already have savored the art and architecture of Greece also know the deliciously seasoned meats and savory sauces. And this should be the case since Greece also boasts the art of dining, many of the basic principles of cooking and an interesting cuisine to the world. Those who try the simpler Greek dishes such as Lemon Soug, Leg of Lamb and Fragrant Casserole may not dine as late or dance around the table as much as they do in that land but the enjoyment of food and living is there.

A leg of lamb is especially good when prepared simply on a barbecue, perhaps an outdoor electric appliance this season for the outdoor cooking buff. These units come with permanent self-cleaning briquets and impart the flavor of charcoal without the ashes or residue. Whatever cooking unit is used (even the oven) be certain to marinate the meat overnight to get a fuller flavor and do not overcook.

GREEK LEG OF LAMB

- 1 leg of lamb, 5 to 6 lbs.
 - 1 cup olive oil
 - 1/2 cup Burgundy wine
 - 1 teaspoon oregano
 - 1 clove garlic, crushed
 - 1 onion, grated
 - 1 teaspoon salt
 - 1/2 teaspoon pepper
- Have butcher remove bone and butterfly lamb to make it flat for the grill. Remove any excess fat. Combine remaining ingredients and pour over lamb. Marinate overnight. Preheat grill (closed) at "High" setting for 10 minutes. Brush rack with vegetable shortening. Drain meat and place on rack. Grill 25 minutes on each side until meat is brown, crusty and pink inside. Brush lightly with marinade several times during cooking. If meat browns too quickly, turn setting to medium and cook more slowly. Makes 6 to 8 servings.

EGGPLANT CASSEROLE

- 1 large eggplant
 - 2 large onions
 - 2 green peppers
 - 2 cloves garlic
 - 1/2 cup olive oil
 - 1 pound zucchini (optional)
 - salt
 - freshly ground pepper to taste
- Peel the eggplant and cut in slices. Slice tomatoes, onions and peppers. Crush garlic cloves and add to olive oil. Brush a casserole with oil mixture, then arrange the vegetables in alternating layers, sprinkling each layer with salt and pepper and some garlic oil. Cook in a 325 degree oven for about 45 minutes or until the vegetables are tender. Makes 6 servings.

Blue Cheese Biscuits

By AILEEN CLAIRE
NEA Food Editor

Blue cheese found its way into the eating habits of many millions as an integral part of a salad dressing. It also makes a filling and healthful dessert when served with a tasty apple or pear and crackers. Those who especially enjoy the tangy taste of Danish blue cheese will want to use it in making biscuits. These biscuits go well with a summer barbecue or a summer brunch.

- BLUE CHEESE BISCUITS
- 4 strips crisp bacon, crumbled
 - 2 cups sifted all-purpose flour
 - 3 teaspoons baking powder
 - 1/2 teaspoon salt
 - 2 tablespoons instant minced onion
 - 1/2 cup firmly packed Danish blue cheese
 - 1/2 cup vegetable shortening
 - 1/2 cup buttermilk

Mix crisp bacon, flour, baking powder, salt and onion. Cut in blue cheese and shortening until particles are like small peas. Stir in buttermilk to form a soft sticky dough. Place dough on a floured board and knead several times to make a smooth ball. Roll dough to 1/4-inch thickness and cut into 2-inch rounds, using a cookie cutter. Place on ungreased cookie sheet and bake in a preheated 450-degree oven for 12 to 15 minutes. Serve hot, with butter. Makes 14 two-inch biscuits.

Budget Can Go Farther

By AILEEN CLAIRE
NEA Food Editor

Chicken is proving a monumental help in stretching weekly food budget dollars. Fortunately, chicken lends itself to all kinds of variations. One recipe that has a touch of Latin American improvisation is chicken halves, with Spanish peanut cornbread stuffing. This satisfies the heartiest of appetites and provides a big boost to anyone's protein requirements.

- STUFFED CHICKEN HALVES
- 1 small onion, chopped
 - 1/2 cup sliced celery
 - 1/2 cup butter (8 oz.) cornbread stuffing
 - 1/2 cup water or chicken broth
 - 1/2 cup salted Spanish peanuts
 - 3 (1 1/2 lb.) chickens, split into halves
 - Salt and pepper
 - 1/2 cup melted butter or margarine

Saute onion and celery in butter until golden and tender. Stir into stuffing mix with pan drippings. Stir in chicken broth and peanuts. Sprinkle chicken with salt and pepper. Place chicken halves skin side down on a shallow baking pan. Divide stuffing mixture equally between chicken halves. Spoon stuffing on the breast side of chicken. Fold leg over stuffing and wrap wing around drumstick to hold in place. Brush chicken heavily with melted butter and sprinkle with paprika. Bake in a preheated 350-degree oven for one hour. Serve hot. Makes 8 servings.

Long Island Farmers Give Ducklings Good Treatment

By THE BASCOMBS
Clay News Service

Suffolk County, Long Island, N.Y. — Long Island Duckling is thus specifically identified and justly praised on restaurant menus everywhere in the United States and sometimes in Europe as well.

Here in Suffolk County on Eastern Long Island are raised over 60 per cent of the 13 million market ducks in this country. A large duck farm may have 60,000 or 70,000 Pekings of all ages enjoying the spring sunshine at one time and eating constantly if they're happy. They probably are, as it was the Long Island farmers who discovered the best way to make a duck grow fast is to pamper him 24 hours a day.

With the development of modern machinery and with an important assist from Cornell's Duck Research Laboratory, the duck has become the product of a well-line operation that should be the envy of the automotive industry.

Typical of most duck plants and one of the most modern is the Crescent (Brand) Duck Farm established in 1910 by the Corwin family with a good line of credit and 30 Pekings. Their production line can now turn out 2,500 ducks a day. They are frozen and shipped throughout the country. Everything is used. Duck feet, for example, are frozen and shipped to the Far East where they are considered a delicacy. Duckling feathers packed in 50-pound bags are in great demand in Europe for mattresses and bedding material.

Our concern here is with duckling as a food. Properly cooked it is delicious and flavorful. The meat should be firm enough to require cutting with a knife. If it can be cut with a fork it's overdone.

BASIC ROASTING PRINCIPLES

It is important to cook the excess fat from the duckling and at the same time retain and enhance the flavor. The first principle in cooking L.I. Duckling is to use a fairly high oven heat of 400 degrees. The second is to score (cut or slash) the skin in a number of places, especially where the heaviest layers of fat are found, to allow the fat to drain off quickly. The third is to season liberally because so much of the seasoning drains off with the fat.

TO PREPARE THE BIRD

Thaw if frozen. Remove the giblets and simmer them in water to cover for about two hours. Chop to use with the broth in gravy.

Score the skin where the heaviest layers of fat are found. Rub inside with salt and season outside liberally. Roast either stuffed or unstuffed. DO NOT grease the skin, or cover with foil, cheese cloth or plastic.

ROASTING METHOD

Use a roasting pan about 2 inches deep. Place an inch of water in the bottom of the pan. Place prepared duckling on a rack so that it is an inch or so above the water. The water is to catch the hot fat, insuring against smoking and a soiled oven. Some people like their duckling a little overdone. In this case leave the duckling in the oven for an additional half hour after reducing the temperature to 350 degrees. Roast at 400 degrees, breast down for one hour, then breast up for another hour, for a five-pound bird.

DUCKLING AQUEBOGUE

5-6 lb. Long Island duckling, dressed weight
1 clove garlic, minced
1 1/2 cups orange juice
2 teaspoons grated orange rind
1 Tbsp. Kitchen Bouquet
1 tsp. salt
2 Tbsp. sugar
1 tsp. ginger

backbone. Cook quartered duck, skin side down in Dutch oven or chicken fryer over moderate heat until browned.

Add garlic and let cook one minute. Blend together and add the orange juice and rind, lemon juice, kitchen bouquet, salt, sugar and ginger. Cover tightly and bring to a boil. Lower heat and let simmer until duck is tender, about 45 minutes. Remove pieces of duck. Pour fat from broth, leaving broth in Dutch oven. Blend together and add cornstarch and cold water. Cook, stirring constantly until sauce boils. Replace duck in sauce and let heat thoroughly. Serve duck over fluffy hot cooked rice, garnished with extra water cross and accompanied by the sauce. Serves four generously.

Bourbon, Most Popular Whisky, Gives Food A Lift

By TOM HOGE, AP Newsfeatures Writer

The interest in international gourmet cookery that has snowballed in America since World War II has been equalled by a growing fondness for drinks of foreign origin — with one exception. Bourbon, the only spirit that can be made legally in the United States and no other country, is now the most popular whisky in the world, according to a recent survey by an organization of distillers.

This popularity apparently is due in part to the discovery that bourbon blends well in cookery and gives a lift to many dishes from egg specialties to desserts.

The sale of bourbon recently topped 90 million gallons a year, due in part to a resolution passed by Congress in 1964 which specified that no whisky could call itself bourbon unless it was made in the borders of the United States.

This also is due to refinements in the distillation of the spirit. President Lincoln sent a barrel to Gen. Ulysses S. Grant after the Battle of Vicksburg. It isn't.

Even the finest bourbon in Grant's day was pretty heavy stuff made for men who worked outdoors all day — said one distiller. "We began to realize about 20 years ago that many people no longer favor the 100-proof whisky but prefer something a little milder. So we began concentrating on the 80-proof range. Today more than 90 per cent of the bourbon sold runs that strength."

Most bourbon drinkers prefer their drink neat or on the rocks; but there are a number who like it in cocktails and some have their own idea how they should be made.

Actually using bourbon in cooking isn't new. It is a revival of an old custom. History tells us our pioneer forefathers used bourbon for seasoning in much the same way their descendants used vanilla or lemon extract. Today the vogue is returning, and here are a few tips put out by the Bourbon Institute.

— When adding bourbon to eggs, trinkle in slowly or the eggs will coagulate.

— For flaming, use shallow pan, warm whiskey before lighting and let fire burn out naturally.

— When sugar is added with bourbon, first make a simple syrup out of equal parts of water and sugar. Heat till it dissolves, then use as you would regular sugar. Granulated sugar does not dissolve in liquor.

Bourbon has a particular affinity for chocolate, and here is a recipe to prove it. Try it the next time you are serving ice cream.

CHOCOLATE AMERICAN SAUCE

6 ounces semi-sweet chocolate morsels
1 tablespoon butter
1/3 cup honey
1/2 teaspoon vanilla
5 ounces bourbon

Combine chocolate, butter and honey and cook over hot water, stirring until chocolate melts, stirring frequently. Add vanilla and bourbon and mix well. Serve warm. Makes about 8 ounces.

Plum Chiffon Treat

By AILEEN CLAIRE
NEA Food Editor

Fresh plums are coming into season just in time for a special Father's Day dessert treat. Serve them whole, sliced or in a fresh-baked treat. A flavorful Plum Chiffon Custard mold combines fresh California plums in a light vanilla custard and makes an attractive and tasty finish for any meal.

PLUM CHIFFON CUSTARD MOLD

1 tablespoon unflavored gelatin
2 tablespoons water
2 eggs, separated
1/2 cup sugar
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 cup light cream
1 teaspoon vanilla
1 cup unweetened pineapple or apple juice

2 tablespoons sugar
1/2 cup heavy cream, whipped
1 1/2 cups sliced fresh California plums

Soften gelatin in cold water. Beat egg yolks; stir in sugar, salt and light cream. Cook over hot water in top of double boiler until thickened and smooth. Add softened gelatin and flavoring. Stir until gelatin is dissolved. Remove from heat. Add juice and cool. When mixture begins to congeal, beat egg whites until frothy. Gradually add 2 tablespoons sugar and beat until stiff peaks form. Fold meringue and whipped cream into custard with sliced plums. Pour into lightly oiled 2-quart mold. Chill until firm. Unmold and garnish with additional sliced plums. Serve with whipped cream if desired. Makes 6 to 8 servings. (NEWSPAPER ENTERPRISE ASSN.)

AIDS THE BLIND

DENTON, Tex. (AP) — The buildings at North Texas State University will talk — but only for the blind — if the university makes use of a device invented by a student and a recent doctoral awardee.

Robert Hall, a graduate student in psychology, and Dr. John Payne, who received his Ph.D. last December, put their minds together to come up with an electronic device which sends out voice messages from buildings on campus to a receiver worn in a blind student's ear.

A Mighty Good Casserole Sausage Polenta Is Flavorable Dish

By Cecily Brownstone
Associated Press Food Editor
Cooks who are on the lookout for a satisfying main-dish casserole would do well to consider Sausage Polenta.
This flavorful dish may be served for supper with a mixed green salad. Crisp bread sticks would also be a good accompaniment.
Because we used half sweet Italian sausage and half hot Italian sausage in the casserole it had plenty of zip. But if you want a milder offering, use all sweet Italian sausage.

SAUUSAGE POLENTA
Water
1 cup enriched yellow cornmeal
1 teaspoon salt
1/2 cup grated Parmesan cheese, coarsely grated (about 1 1/2 cups)
Sausage Sauce, see below
In a medium saucepan bring 3 cups water to a boil.
In a small mixing bowl or pint measure stir together the cornmeal, salt and 1 cup cold Italian sausage in the casserole, stirring vigorously. Strain constantly, cook until thickened. Cover and cook over low heat, stirring occasionally, for 10 minutes. Remove from heat; stir in 1/2 cup of the Parmesan.

Pour into a shallow 2-quart glass baking dish, 11 3/4 by 7 1/2 by 1 3/4 inches, or similar utensil that has been rinsed with cold water. Cool; cover, refrigerate until firm.
When ready to assemble dish, remove chilled mush from refrigerator. Cut mush into 6 pieces, with a wide spatula remove from baking dish. Rinse cold dish with hot water and dry. Spread a small amount of hot Sausage Sauce over bottom

SAUSAGE POLENTA — It's a main-dish casserole made with cornmeal mush and a tomato sauce that includes Italian sausage.

Many Forms Of Camping Consider Letting The Cook Have A Little Vacation, Too

By AILEEN CLAIRE
NEA Food Editor
Family camping takes many forms in all parts of the country. Some families go the tent-and-no-conveniences route. Others drive mobile campers and pull in to campsites with electricity, recreation buildings and hot-and-cold showers. Whatever the choice, cooking continues to be the chore of a housewife really not on vacation when it comes to feeding appetites whetted by outdoor activities. Many women find the new cooking magic bags for roasting, boiling, freezing and reheating with little cleanup make the "vacation" job much easier.

COOKING MAGIC CHILI
4 cups water
1 teaspoon cumin
1 teaspoon onion flakes
1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
1/2 teaspoon garlic salt
2 tablespoons chili powder
1 teaspoon black pepper
1 tablespoon salt
1/2 teaspoon all-spice
1/2 teaspoon red pepper
1 (16 oz.) can tomato paste
1 1/2 tablespoons vinegar
3 bay leaves
1 (15 oz.) can kidney beans
2 pounds ground chuck
Mix all ingredients except meat in a 12x18-inch cooking magic bag. Crumble in uncooked meat. Twist tie shut 2 inches from top. Place in a 13x9-inch baking pan. Puncture 5-6 small holes in top of bag. Bake 2 hours in preheated 350-degree oven. Cook. Skim off excess grease. Then freeze flat in 2 serving portions in 8x10-inch cooking magic bags for camping trip. Heat in boiling water, uncovered, for 25-30 minutes to serve.

CHICKEN TETRAZZINI
1/4 pound fresh mushrooms, cleaned and sliced
5 tablespoons butter or margarine, divided
5 tablespoons flour
2 cups chicken broth
1 cup light cream
Salt and pepper
2 cups diced or sliced, cooked chicken
1 package (8 oz.) thin spaghetti
1/2 cup grated Parmesan cheese
In a skillet lightly brown mushrooms in 1 tablespoon butter. Remove from skillet and reserve. Melt remaining butter in skillet. Stir in flour. Remove from heat and stir in chicken broth. Cook over medium heat, stirring constantly until smooth and thickened. Add cream. Season to taste. Divide sauce in half. Add chicken and mushrooms to one half. Meanwhile cook spaghetti to the firm stage according to package directions. Drain and stir in the other half of the sauce.

Place in 10x15-inch cooking magic bag in a 2-quart casserole. Turn top open in a double fold. Put spaghetti mixture into casserole. Make a hole in the center of the spaghetti and pour in the cooled chicken mixture. Twist bag close to top of food and secure with twister tie and freeze. To reheat, place bag in boiling water, uncovered, for 25-30 minutes until piping hot. Open bag, sprinkle with grated Parmesan cheese and serve.
CHOCOLATE PUDDING
1 small box regular chocolate pudding
1 cup milk
1 cup miniature marshmallows
Place pudding in 8x10-inch cooking magic bag. Stir in milk. Twist tie shut. Shake bag in boiling water, uncovered, for 25-30 minutes. Cover Cook 5 minutes; remove bags with tongs, shake again. Place in boiling water, cook an additional 10 minutes. Remove bag with tongs, cool 1 minute. Open bag and stir in miniature marshmallows. Pour into bowl or pan and chill. Makes 4 servings.

Livestock Prices Up After 2-Month Slump

WASHINGTON (AP)—After slumping for two months, farm livestock prices are on the move again and soon may force consumers to gird their loins at meat counters.

The Agriculture Department reported Wednesday that live-cattle prices rose in May to an all-time high of $33.10 per 100 pounds. Hogs averaged an 11-per-cent increase, to $24.90, mainly as a result of fewer baby pigs last winter.

Meat, which makes up around 30 per cent of the family food budget, is a key cost-of-living indicator.

Although down in April, wholesale and retail meat prices for May could be pushed up again by the latest farm surge.

Government reports on the situation, however, will not be announced until later in June. Meantime, the rising livestock prices are being eyed closely by consumer-conscious Nixon administration economists.

Here it was happened: In late February, after enjoying a five-month price climb, farmers began getting less for live cattle and hogs.

Pressure from the administration, including jawboning and some rollbacks ordered by the Price Commission, subsequently led to some shrink in middleman markups. By April, retail food prices dropped generally, led by dips for beef and pork.

Now, according to the latest USDA reports, the upswing in farm prices is on again.

For example, all beef cattle in mid-May were up 4 per cent from April; hogs were 11 per cent higher. Compared with a year ago the total livestock-price index was up 20 per cent.

Although frequently erratic, farm prices can have an important impact on both wholesale and retail prices when increases on the farm occur over a sustained period.

If the higher-farm-price trend for cattle and hogs continues, as some economists predict, meat packers and retailers will be forced into passing some of their larger costs to consumers.

Any suggestions to help ease a damsel in distress? Says that Duck Pond in Casselberry is over-loaded with ducks (honest, no joke) and it's great for those who enjoy 'em... (they're the ones who have their yards fenced-in, I'm told).

However, those without fences are complaining about the ducks eating all the shrubbery; messing over everything; and chasing the dogs (while trying to protect their eggs and/or very young ducklings).

Only thought I have on the matter, what with today's lead story relating the ever-climbing cost of beef... they'd better run for cover.

Who sees "talk is cheap"? Tried calling Orlando lately? Nah, it's not a bidding 30 cents any longer. Would you believe it's more like 65 cents!

There is also an equitable measure for establishing these rates, I'm sure. However, according to the latest clocking on my Duster's odometer, from Sanford to Orlando is slightly above 200 miles.

I don't know the exact mileage to Fairbanks, Alaska... but on page 3 of the local directory is lists the charge to that area as $7.25.

Don't really know anyone in Alaska, but I might want to call Chicago, for instance... so, the operator tells me, "It's about $11.15 for the first three minutes by dialing direct, and 35 cents for each additional minute."

Now, let's chew on this morsel for a bit... it would only cost me another half-hour to check that "Chicago" — that wonderful town, approximately half-way across the country.

But, our neighbors to the south — that City Beautiful, less than a half-hour's drive away... it costs 65 cents!

Have it actually seen this one yet, but I've been told that it contained only 25 words.

Tomorrow, it'll be Western Union... and how a Sanford resident received a telegram (which was mailed from Winter Park) — on Friday, notified of its arrival on Saturday... and it cost him $4.

Have it actually seen this one yet, but I've been told that it contained only 25 words.

Talk is cheap? Don't you believe it, neighbors.

WARSAW (AP) — President Nixon wraps up his 13-day summit trip today and returns to Washington to address Congress and the American public tonight, apparently to urge support for the arms-limitation pact negotiated with the Soviets.

Nixon was to leave Warsaw today after an overnight visit and talks with Poland's communist leaders.

SAIGON (AP) — More than 1,000 South Vietnamese paratroopers launched a sweep with tanks 25 miles northwest of Hue today, trying to trap a North Vietnamese regiment.

Enemy artillery caused light casualties, and by late afternoon two government task forces were battling North Vietnamese units of 100 or more men each.

SAIGON (AP) — Ten Americans were killed in action last week, 11 were missing and 35 were wounded, the U.S. Command announced today. This raised to 416 the number of American combat casualties reported in the two months between the start of the North Vietnamese offensive March 30 and last Saturday.

FRANKFURT, Germany (AP) — Police fought a gun battle during a search for anarchist bombers today and reportedly arrested Andreas Baader, one of West Germany's most wanted men.

IRA Leaders Arrested

DUBLIN (AP) — Authorities of the Irish Republic arrested three leaders of the Irish Republican Army's Provisional wing Wednesday and today but were unable to find a fourth.

LEWISBURG, Pa. (AP) — Bobby Baker, former secretary to the U.S. Senate Democratic leader, was released on parole today and declared himself happy to be free after nearly 17 months behind bars.

Baker, 43, was picked up shortly before 8 a.m. by a private car which had driven into the federal minimum security prison farm near here. When the car reached the gate, Baker got out and spoke briefly to newsmen.

"I feel fine and I'm happy to be free," Baker said. He reminded newsmen that he has always maintained he was innocent of the income tax evasion, fraud and grand larceny charges of which he was convicted in 1967.

Yesterday's high 87 low 68. Partly cloudy with a few thundershowers mainly today. Afternoon highs mostly in upper 80s. Low tonight 66 to 72.

Cool and dry weather dominated the central part of the nation again today, with rain confined to parts of the East Coast and the intermountain West.

Temperatures slipped into the 40s as far south as northern Alabama.

Commission Chairman Drummond: Won't Beautify Downtown

By ANN SIECZKOWSKI

Richard Matz, of the Greenhut Construction Company, which is building the new Seminole County Courthouse, appeared before the County Commission to present the estimate of the costs for demolition of the old building to make room for a parking lot.

Matz presented a proposal from Paul Charles Associates in the amount of $20,000 for the demolition of the old courthouse.

Commission Chairman Greg Drummond and the other commissioners laughed when this figure was read.

"Greenhut has us by the dollar signs, gentlemen," Drummond remarked.

He then said that there should be some figures to show the difference in costs for the demolition, costs for remodeling, costs for finding other space as will be required by the passage of Article V and which is not anticipated to be available in the new building.

"And we must not forget to figure the total 'late' costs to greenhut for the over-time in construction at a figure of $400 per day."

Also to be considered, "Drummond opined," is the difference in remodeling or demolition at today's costs as compared with costs at a later date.

"We can either construct now at today's costs or allow Greenhut to take us over the costs later. These questions are worth pursuing. No need to get around their ridiculous figure."

Commissioner Sidney Vihlen remarked that the total square footage required by Article V had not yet been determined. He suggested that perhaps the square over the Masonic Building might be remediated at a lesser figure and that there might also be office space within close proximity which could be used.

"I am not going to be a party to beautifying downtown Sanford. Article V will necessitate more space than is available in the Masonic Building," Drummond retorted.

Vihlen said that now is the time to stop-look and assess the real needs. Further research was ordered.

"Straw Ballot"

The Herald's "straw ballot" on two of this area's most controversial subjects, the 45-15 year-round school plan, and the right of the residents of Sanford to vote on districting shows a margin of eight to one in both instances.

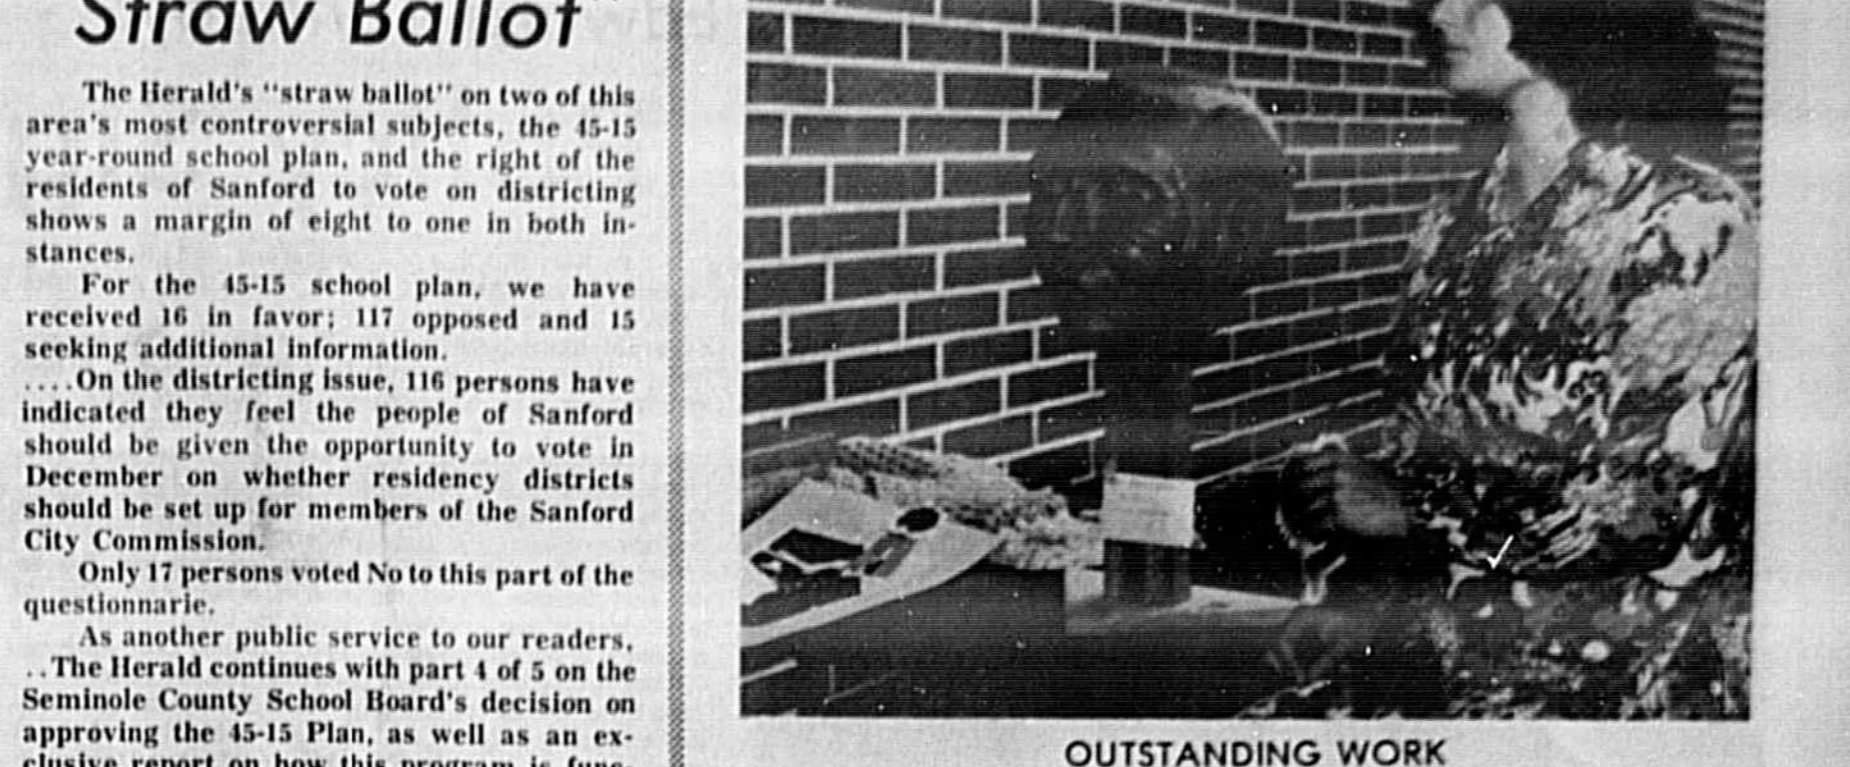

For the 45-15 school plan, we have received 16 in favor; 117 opposed and 15 seeking additional information.

... On the districting issue, 116 persons have indicated they feel the people of Sanford should be given the opportunity to vote in December on whether residency districts should be set up for members of the Sanford City Commission.

Only 17 persons voted No to this part of the questionnaire.

As another public service to our readers, The Herald continues with part 4 of 5 on the Seminole County School Board's decision on approving the 45-15 Plan, as well as an exclusive report on how this program is functioning in other parts of the county.

Both of these stories are on Page 3 of today's Herald.

No Help On 2nd Project Towers Are Without Taxation

By BILL SCOTT

Sanford city officials were a bit "taken back" by the information furnished from W.E. Knowles, city manager, that Bram Towers, 12-floor high-rise apartment complex for senior citizens, will not be paying property taxes.

Knowles informed the city commission of a letter received from S. Joseph Davis Jr., attorney representing Cooperating Parishes Inc., owner of Bram Towers, advising that the Bram Towers owner intended to claim exemption from real property taxation under the state law.

The city manager advised Father Leroy D. Soper that when the structure was built it would be a tax-paying entity.

Mayor Lee P. Moore, during two city commission meetings, expressed dismay to City Commissioners Gordon Meyer and A.A. McClanahan when they suggested the complex would be a tax-free institution.

But, at Monday's commission work session, the mayor admitted he had been wrong in the information received by him concerning the status of Bram Towers taxation.

It was also brought out in the session that a new law had evidently been passed, which would grant exemption from taxes, since Cooperating Parishes is a non-profit owner and the funds to construct the 136 apartment facility came from a U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Renewal (HUD) loan.

The structures value is placed at $2.5 million by Bram officials.

Since the city is providing sidewalks, police, fire and other services to the facility, it was first thought the complex would be paying tax for these services.

Now, according to Hawkins Connelly, Bram Towers administrator, Cooperating Parishes, owner of record, is looking for a site to locate a larger complex than Bram Towers and Connelly at one time approached the city commission requesting information about buying a portion of the city's Park Mellon park on the lakefront.

City Commission turned down the request since the Park Mellon property was given to the city with a reverter in the event it ever changes hands.

City Manager Knowles indicated today the city would not be amenable to helping on the second project, in view of the tax-free status of the Bram Towers.

Information from the city manager's office indicates a cost of $36 a person each year to the city to furnish police protection.

With the 225 persons expected to live at the towers, this would amount to approximately $8,000 a year cost for police protection alone.

Commissioner A.A. McClanahan said today the towers would provide a needed service even if it paid no taxes for its upkeep. "It will bring some purchasing power downtown," he added.

Fourth In 4 Days

DAYTONA BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Kelly Kelso, a 16-year-old Missouri high school student, today became the fourth drowning victim in four days off Daytona Beach.

Kelso's body washed up on the beach. He had disappeared Monday in this week's unusually rough Atlantic Ocean surf.

Police also identified a Wednesday night drowning victim as Edward McMillan, 27, of Silver Spring, Md., who was caught up in a runout.

Three of the four victims disappeared on areas of the beach not protected by life guards, police said.

after the publication of a book he is writing. He gave no details about the book.

Baker had been sentenced to three years in prison. Before his parole, he was held at the Allenwood prison farm, which is known as the honor farm of the Lewisburg Federal Penitentiary.

A former Senate page boy who rose to the secretary position, Baker was convicted in 1967 on charges related to the misuse of his authority. After several appeals, he entered prison on Jan. 11, 1971.

Baker's position had made him a key assistant to President Lyndon B. Johnson while latter was Senate majority leader.
