

Manager Shotton Thinks Phillies Are Better Ball Team Now Declares Walsh

By Davis J. Walsh
International News Service
Sports Editor

WINTERHAVEN, Fla., Mar. 15.—Just for the sake of being agreeable, the writer walked up to Bur-Shotton today and remarked that "they," meaning largely nobody in particular, had declared that Bill Kelley, the new first baseman from Minneapolis and Syracuse, wouldn't hit Major League pitching. Mr. Shotton is a somewhat amiable soul, too.

"How the—do they know?" he inquired very pleasantly. And that ended it because I didn't and don't. It seems that brother Kelley has failed to hit Major League pitching for the reason that he has yet to try. His presence with the Phillies has marked his first venture beyond the pale of the Minor Leagues. He happens to be one of the reasons Mr. Shotton deems the Phillies to be a better ball club this year, although a new manager probably knows less about a thing like that than anybody else I can think of, offhand.

However, it may be well to say that the Phillies are better, first, because they couldn't be worse, and second, because the statement is likely to be true.

The tip-off on the infield situation, a very depressing matter these many years, is that Shotton is trying to make outfielders of Russell Wrightstone, 1927 regular, and Bill Dietrick, from Portsmouth, Va., the prize exhibit of the camp. Both esteemed themselves as infielders until Mr. Shotton began getting stray ideas on the subject. Anyhow, he declared himself to day as being at ease, or maybe parade rest, over his first string infield, composed of Harry Laffayette, Fresno Thompson, of St. Louis, Heinie Sand, of San Francisco, and young Whitney, of New Orleans and San Antonio.

"Kelley never showed me a batting weakness when he was hitting all those home-runs in the International League," Shotton said.

"I am doggoned glad to get him; he may be a bit backward at first base but he's a good mark to shoot at. Thompson was the best young second baseman in baseball last year. Sand, at shortstop, has been coming on gradually but steadily. Whitney at third base looks like a find. And don't forget he hasn't hit under .300 during the four years he has been in baseball. Yes, the infield is off my mind."

Mr. Shotton didn't exactly say what was on it but he didn't have to. Everybody knows that he would give his windpipe for a couple of first class pitchers. He started out with one namely Frank Uriach, but the latter is just emerging from a Baltimore Hospital convalescent from pneumonia and may not be ready again until June if then.

The other regulars are Alex Ferguson, never as good as they thought he would be; Jimmy Ring, whom Shotton said didn't get a chance in St. Louis; Clarence Mitchell, the only left-hander in baseball with a splitter; Bob McGraw, another St. Louis fugitive, and Claude Willoughby, of Buffalo, Kansas, no less. They are not so good. In fact if Shotton's word on this infield is borne out, the pitching is the weakest feature of an indifferent ball club.

Holly And Bebout Leave To Arrange Dates For Florida Utilities Speakers

R. J. Holly, director of the Florida Public Utilities Information Bureau, and his secretary, L. C. Bebout, left Tuesday afternoon for Gainesville where they have arranged for several prominent men to speak at the University of Florida.

H. V. Faber, assistant auditor of the Jacksonville Traction Company, will address the electrical and mechanical engineering classes and the school of commerce Tuesday on the subject of "Business Administration." The heads of the various utility plants of Florida have been giving a series of lectures this season at the Florida school stressing the fact that student should have a wide knowledge of business as well as a technical course to fit them for every part of the utility business.

From Gainesville Mr. Holly and Mr. Bebout will go to Atlanta where several young women employees of the utility plants of Florida will take part in an intercollegiate contest to decide the winner for Florida. The victory will mean the winner of the competition in eastern states who will proceed to Southeastern, National, Electric Light Association meeting at Miami and the winner of the east coast will have a free trip to Atlantic City next June when the National Electric Light Association meets there.

The utility companies of Florida are stressing public speaking among the employee and a communication contest in the office of the Florida Power and Light Company.

James M. Carson Seeks Big Office On Racing Issue

"I have put in fifteen months of aggressive efforts to stop flagrant violation of the state laws," Mr. Carson declares, "and the result has been entirely successful. I do not intend now to see this victory taken away."

"I am making the race because I think the people of Florida should have an opportunity to express themselves on the issues of race-track gambling and law enforcement and reform."

"Since January 16th Sidney J. Catts has been actively campaigning in favor of what he calls 'County Home Rule,' which simply means an end to the rule of law in Florida for all time to come.

"The other leading candidates for Governor have not seen fit to take up his challenge nor to make an issue of his foolishness, and so somebody must make the fight against Catts in order to draw the lines and make the issue plain."

Mr. Shotton didn't exactly say what was on it but he didn't have to. Everybody knows that he would give his windpipe for a couple of first class pitchers. He started out with one namely Frank Uriach, but the latter is just emerging from a Baltimore Hospital convalescent from pneumonia and may not be ready again until June if then.

The other regulars are Alex Ferguson, never as good as they thought he would be; Jimmy Ring, whom Shotton said didn't get a chance in St. Louis; Clarence Mitchell, the only left-hander in baseball with a splitter; Bob McGraw, another St. Louis fugitive, and Claude Willoughby, of Buffalo, Kansas, no less. They are not so good. In fact if Shotton's word on this infield is borne out, the pitching is the weakest feature of an indifferent ball club.

"I have faith in the people of Florida and I believe they will express in an uncertain term their opinion of those who would turn the state over to the gamblers.

"I believe I can win, but whether I win or lose, I can promise that race-track gambling will be an issue in this campaign."

"For these reasons I am a candidate and shall make an active canvass."

"I ask for the support of the people of Florida who believe in the things for which I stand."

James M. Carson was born at Kissimmee, Florida, December 16, 1887, the son of Charles A. and Anna Bryan Carson. Six branches of his family have lived in Florida for more than 100 years, these including such old Florida names as the Nections, Elbanks, Broadwater, Perrys, Hawthorns and Beyans.

Cars in Orlando headquarters have been established in Orlando. Further information concerning Mr. Carson and his campaign may be had by addressing "James M. Carson, Orlando, Florida."

STUDEBAKER SALES LARGEST IN HISTORY

Both January and February set new high marks in purchases by public!

SOUTH BEND, IND., Mar. 8.—Studebaker sales continue to climb to new goals of achievement! The number of Studebakers built automobiles delivered to dealers in the United States during the month just closed, was the largest in February in history, 31% in excess of February, 1927.

Coming immediately after the greatest January sales in Studebaker history, this continued flood of public preference for Motorists appreciate Studebaker's advanced engineering.

An automobile you can drive 40 miles an hour the day the new model is delivered, that requires lubrication but once in 2500 miles—this is the highest speed and endurance records.

Public has rightly interpreted these achievements as conclusive evidence of Studebaker's

This Mark Stands for Bread Goodness

We want to tell you how proud we are of our right to use the above Insignia of the Quality Bakers of America, which stands for Quality in its truest sense and a constant source of inspiration to us to stand fast and true in our determination to give the public consistent reliable and satisfactory service.

There is a story associated with our membership in Quality Bakers of America that we believe will interest you. We will not attempt to tell all of it to you at once. We will present it to you in short talks, touching on one or two high spots each time. In this way, we hope to sustain your interest in what we think is one of the most far-reaching series of Business Letters yet given to the public.

We say far-reaching series of Business Letters because of the influence we believe they will exert in establishing a more intimate and more friendly relationship between the Public and Business—not only our business but every other business.

There is no discounting the fact that in these days the public wants to know how Business is Conducted before it will voice its confidence or give it loyal support. It wants to know who are bad of business—whether they are men who can be counted on to give them full honest value for the dollars they spend. It all simmers down to a question of Faith on the part of the people and Security and Honor on the part of Business.

We do not want you to think for a minute that we propose to set ourselves up on a pedestal, reaching far above the heads of business men in our line or in any other. That would be foolish. It would make you accept what we say with a grain of salt; in fact, you would not hesitate to classify us as blow-hards, those fellows that proclaim their virtues so blatantly nobody with any sense believes them.

In this letter we want to make this point only: We are able to conduct our business on a Uniform Quality and Service basis because we are obligated by a solemn pledge to co-operate with a body of 90 wholesale bakers who in turn are backed up in their efforts by a Central Bureau that is always helping and checking all of us for the common good of every member of Quality Bakers of America, but more particularly to see that we do not slip at any time in our dealings with the public which are maintained through the grocers, who are our earnest co-workers in the distribution of our products.

With 90 men using their combined talents to produce unquestioned Quality and to give the Public full and satisfactory Service, we are stronger as a body than any one of us could possibly be standing alone. Is not this just common sense?

BIBLE VERSE FOR TODAY

MAN'S APPEAL:—O Lord, review thy work in the midst of the years.—Habakkuk 3:2.

PRAYER:—

"Revive Thy work, O Lord,
Create soul-thirst for Thee;
And hungering for the Bread of Life,
O may our spirits be."

ON A CITY STREET

As I walked down the street today,
I passed a house where children play.
I smiled and all the world seemed gay.

But after I'd traveled a few yards more,
I came to a house with a somber door—
The creeps of death and a wreath it wore.

There was a canopy further down Arching the sidewalks with red and brown,
Where a maid was doing her wedding gown.

In the following block that very morn
I passed a house where a child was born.
And a mother was smiling her pain to scorn.

Who walks for a while on a city street
Every emotion of life will meet
From sorrow's bitter to childhood's sweet.

— By Edgar A. Guest

A diplomat, as we get it, is a man who never tells a lie unnecessarily.

We knew a girl who was so dumb that she thinks the masculine o women's is Meemus.

When everything else gets quiet, California always crackles through with a disaster.

We don't see why Doyle Carlton doesn't challenge Dr. Hathaway to a boxing match and attempt to settle it in fifteen rounds.

Sanford is to have another flower show soon. The freeze of six weeks ago has hurt Sanford flowers, but we expect to see this a first class show just the same.

When Will Rogers announced his candidacy for the vice-president, he declared that if elected he would be the early vice-president who was ever fitting on purpose.

Bob Holly Jr. has taken over the editorial management of the Eula Lake Region. The Lake Region is a great newspaper and we expect that under the able guidance of Bob Holly's son, it will be a very great paper.

The verdict in the Lake case was somewhat of a surprise to many, in the face of it a mistrial was enacted by those who had watched the case from its beginning.—Sanford gmat. Where the Signal stands.

St. John Ervine, who lost a leg in the War, declares that he prefers to be, as he is, a great writer about a leg than have his leg not be a great writer. We ven-tue the guess, however, that having the leg back wouldn't hurt his writing ability any.

The verdict in the Lake case was more than could have been expected by anyone of average intelligence. The embezzlement was obvious as if admitted, and the only difficulty was. We wish at point to say a word in praise of Millard Smith, the prosecutor, most ably represented the case. He did not allow the fact Lake was a banker and a man extraordinary prominence in community to sway him in the decision.

A Platform At Last

Ever since the gubernatorial campaign got under way some months ago with the announcement of Fons Hathaway's candidacy, there has been a noticeable lack of some indefinable something which might be expected to lend interest to so important a race. Up to yesterday there had been seven announcements for this highly important office and to save our lives we have been unable to find any reason why we should vote for either of the so-called leading candidates.

To be sure Dr. Hathaway has built roads and that is a noble achievement, but the gubernatorial office is not a road building job. We have been trying to discover what he proposes to do if elected governor. What the people at present desire is economy in government, curtailment of all needless expenditures, law enforcement, and reduction of taxation, not additional road building.

And as for Mr. Carlton, we cannot see why he is in the race at all. Undoubtedly he is an honest and conscientious citizen who likely would serve his state as well as he is able if elected, but we desire some more concrete evidence of his ability, some more adequate proof of what his policies will be if we send him to Tallahassee.

As for Taylor, MacKenzie and Appleyard, we do not believe they are taking their candidacies seriously. They are not making active campaigns and appear to be content with making strong showings only in their immediate localities. It is often said that they are in the race merely for political reasons to aid in drawing votes away from certain other candidates.

Sidney J. Catts is making a strong campaign and has succeeded in gaining the support of many citizens, not included in his 45,000 of four years ago, by his statement that he stands in favor of local option, which simply means that if he is elected the dogs and horses will run again and Florida again become a mecca for gamblers and racetrack touts. Paul Beaumont is also making the race on a pari-mutuel platform.

For these reasons we are particularly pleased to see the announcement yesterday that James M. Carson has entered the race. He has presented a platform which shows definitely and unequivocally where he stands. He is neither silent on paramount issues. Carlton and Hathaway, nor is he running as a purely political gesture like Taylor, MacKenzie and Appleyard, nor is he the tool of the gambling element like Catts and Beaumont. On the contrary he stands for law and order, opposed to horse racing and attendant evils, and is not afraid to say so.

We believe that the announcement of Jim Carson will inject a little pep into the campaign and that his clean cut platform will force other candidates to state their positions on important matters hitherto relegated to the background. We are not yet committing ourselves to any one candidate, but we like the Carson platform and feel that with such policies Florida will be a better place in which to live.

What Do They Want?

That America is still the land of promise is attested by the fact that thousands of foreigners still suffer great hardships and take all manner of risks in order to enter this country. Draastic immigration laws have served their purpose in restricting inroads through legal channels, but many thousands find their way every year into the United States by carefully running the gauntlet of government agents.

What visions the lowly Greek or Jap must hold of our country can only be imagined. The tortures aliens almost daily endure, lead one to believe this truly must be a paradise comparable to no other land on earth. Whether dodging the bullets of the Canadian Border Patrol, or attempting to swim the intervening two or three miles of treacherous south Atlantic off some Florida port, their lives are in constant danger from the time they embark from their native land until even after they have reached their goal.

Greedy smugglers pick their cargo along the coast of China of southern Italy. Aliens live like rats in musty holds of sailing vessels while rugged sailors steer for American gateways. Food is scarce and rotten, living conditions unhealthful, treatment abominable. Skippers when chased by revenue men, drop their cargo overboard like whiskey cases and go on to seek another. At best the alien arrives only to mirage.

In Montreal a Lithuanian of the gentler sex sought entrance into the United States. She gave what was probably her last fifty dollars to a man to show her how. He took her to Niagara Falls and showed her a railroad trestle. Over the yawning, howling, hungry falls she made her way across the narrow girders. She probably did not think of what would have happened if a train had approached when she was half way across, or if her tiny feet had slipped as she stepped across the dangerous water.

She reached this country safely only to be apprehended a few days later and returned to Canada. Possibly if she liked what she saw of us, someday she may repeat that thrilling walk. Or perhaps she may wisely go back to Lithuania and tell her people that the streets of America are not paved with gold and that hardships are as easily encountered here as there. We are really not all we seem to be.

I thought that my invincible power would hold the world captive, leaving me in a freedom undisturbed. Thus night and day I worked at the chain with huge fires and cruel hard strokes. When at last the work was done and the links were complete and unbreakable, I found that it held me in its grip. Rabindranath Tagore.

America is the crucible of God. It is the melting pot where all the races are fusing and reforming... these are the fires of God you've come to... Into the crucible with you all. God is making the American.—Zangwill.

Once an ingenious merchant discovered that the logical time to advertise was when business was slow and in the periodic dull seasons of the year. Ridiculous as it may seem, before that discovery the average business man slowed down in his advertising when the fall. Extensive advertising has been found to be the only remedy for the business depression epidemic between these three rush periods.

From experience merchants have learned that newspaper advertising has successfully eliminated the rush periods and spread the volume of business more evenly over the day, week, month and year. It has prevented congestion, crowding and increased business.

There are a few phases of business which have always been known to all business men. Among

OWN YOUR HOME

GASTONIA GAZETTE

Home-owning folks are the happiest people and it behoves every man to buy a home as soon as he is able to finance it.

The highest class of people are those who own their own homes. There is a feeling of security which comes from home-owning that is not derived from any other asset.

Renters do not have any special inducements to improve or beautify their property; home owners are always tinkering around trying to add a little something here and there.

"With all my heart and mind I feel like preaching to young married folks the doctrine of owning your home; even if it is necessary to go into debt to get it and taking chances on the future. Building and loan payments are not easy to make but they are possible and it is a good thing to be forced to save during the thoughtless years before they may turn into worrying years.

The smallest home can be built with an eye to additions later on. In magazines I notice how often the architect stresses the possible additions and shows how the house will look with more rooms added from time to time as they can be afforded. The principle thing is beginning at once, when we king together is a joke and mistakes are funny instead of tragic, and young hands are strong enough to do a day's work and still put in an hour's extra effort with a hoe setting out fruit trees and shrubs."—Gastonia Gazette.

Parent-Teachers Have Meeting At Chuluota

Of exceptional beauty and pleasure was the bridge luncheon given Wednesday by Mrs. Ben D. Caswell when she entertained 135 members of the Young Matrons Duplicate Bridge Club. The luncheon was served in the private dining room at the Valdez Hotel. Here the colors of blue and pink were effectively carried out in every detail. Centering the attractive yet appropriately appointed luncheon table were blue lupines and pink carnations combined with ferns. Arranged at either side of the central decoration were tall blue tapers in silver holders.

The places of the guests were designated by place cards done in quaint English Garden Scenes.

At one o'clock a delicious four course luncheon was served after which the guests repaired to the home of the hostess for the games of duplicate bridge. The cozy home was abloom with quantities of roses, snap dragons, calendula and other lovely spring blossoms.

When the games had been concluded the prizes for highest scores, lovely French novelties, were won by Mrs. Donald P. Drummond and Mrs. William C. Hill.

Covers were laid for Mrs. J. D. Woodruff, Mrs. William C. Hill, Mrs. James P. Ridge, Mrs. Donald P. Drummond, Mrs. W. Wallace Wright, Mrs. M. S. Wiggins and Mrs. Ben D. Caswell.

20—Farms For Sale

CELERY LAND SACRIFICE

I am land poor, need cash. Hence am offering my fine 22 acre celery farm, located 2 1/2 miles east of Oviedo, in Iowa City. Price $600.00 an acre, cash, about one-half of the real value. There is no better farm in Seminole Co.
Any one interested may see it now growing a fine crop of celery by G. E. Smith. This offer is made because I need the money here.
