that have been made and those yet to be made concerning the "re-entention of the Naval Air Station" in Seminole County.

"All decisions on strategy are being made by the Armed Forces Committee," said Krider as he reported that "there isn't much time left to submit the material requested by Naval Officials," he said "but it shows good faith to get the material to Washington in the time designated."

A letter of thanks to Senator Spessard L. Holland, Senator George Smathers, Congressman A. S. Herlong Jr., and Secretary of the Navy Charles S. Thomas has been written, said Krider.

Brady Odham commented "I think we've got a continuing job to do and I think that it's up to us to make every study and do everything we possibly can to speed a decision."

Turning to the Sanford-Titusville Canal hearing on April 10, Krider told the Board of Directors "It's what we've wanted for the past 50 years." A. L. Proposal To Make Sunday Dry Tabled For Further Study

By Mrs. Raymond Morris CASSELBERRY — Discussion on a proposed ordinance to dry up legal Sunday liquor sales in the Casselberry, oasis of Seminole County, was tabled for further study, at the meeting of the Board of Aldermen Monday night.

Establishments which would be effected if such an ordinance is adopted, are the Buckhorn Bar in the center of the business section, and the Seminole Park Raceway. Mayor Don Willson said the action was in accord with what he estimates to be the desire of at least 90 per cent of the residents. Local bars had been operating for more than two years on a limited Sunday schedule.

In November, the Buckhorn Bar was voluntarily closed on Sundays, by the owner. Since that time, package sales only had been conducted. Mayor Willson also said that opposition to Sunday liquor sales in any form here continued to increase, not only in Seminole County but in other adjacent counties as well.

A letter of resignation, submitted by Chairman Raymond Morris, was read at the meeting and Graham Wilson was appointed by the Mayor to serve out the unexpired term of Morris. A heart attack in January was the cause.

President To Pass Up Florida Vacation For Bermuda Cruise

WASHINGTON — President Eisenhower announced today that he will pass up a Florida vacation and take a leisurely cruise to Bermuda, improving his health while going to meet British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan.

The President said he expects to board a Navy cruiser at Norfolk, Va., late Thursday. He is due in Bermuda March 20.

The President, who has been suffering from a head cold, cough and inflammation of the left ear for some time, had hoped to go to Florida for a few days.

He told his news conference today, however, that he had decided not to go to Florida, but would seek out sunshine aboard a cruiser, turning what he called a very slow trip to Bermuda.

He said he plans to sail from Norfolk late Thursday unless some unexpected event forces a change in his schedule.

The chief executive seemed in much better physical shape today than at his news conference last Thursday. Last week he suffered from a hearing difficulty due to inflammation of the eustachian tube of his left ear. He also coughed repeatedly and displayed hoarseness.

Today his voice was stronger. He gave no indication of the hearing difficulty and his color was much improved.

The President underwent a one-hour examination Tuesday at Walter Reed Army Medical Center.

President Reveals Plan

WASHINGTON — President Eisenhower revealed today that the United States has submitted to the United Nations new proposals for dealing with the Middle East situation.

But the President made clear at his news conference that it is up to the U. N. to take the lead in making arrangements for negotiations aimed at settling problems of the troubled Middle East.

Mr. Eisenhower gave no details of the U. S. proposals which he said have been sent to U. N. Secretary General Dag Hammarskjöld. But he said Hammarskjöld plans to leave for the Middle East Saturday.

The President said he had not heard late news reports from Cairo to the effect that the U. N. and Egypt had agreed that Egypt will take over civil administration of the Gaza Strip.

Wants Negotiation
A newsmen asked the President whether he would like to see Egypt delay plans to take over civil administration of Gaza.

Without replying directly, the President said he would like to see arrangements made which the U. N. and Hammarskjöld believe would be most effective in bringing on negotiations to settle Middle East problems.

Other highlights of the news conference:

The President said that if Congress wants to cut his budget it will have to decide itself which programs are to be cut, eliminated or slowed down.

Aid in Poland

He said that if the United States decides to make aid available in Poland, he will ask Congress for the power to make loans to the Polish state should there be any legal ban on such loans.

As for reports of congressional grumbling because of his inaccessibility to members of the House and Senate, the President said he had never received any complaints.

Speaker Says Three Types Of Grasses Adaptable To State

Another record crowd attended the third session of the Sanford Garden Club's Landscape School last night in the court room of the Seminole Court House.

Jasper Joiner, Asst. Horticulturist for the University of Florida, Agricultural Extension Service spoke on Lawn Grasses and Lawn Management.

There are three types of grasses adapted for use in Florida, he pointed out, as he named the low maintenance grasses, moderate maintenance grasses and one high maintenance grass. In the first group, he said, were carpet, Bahia and centipede; in the second, St. Augustine and Zoysia; and in the third was improved Bermuda.

Nine characteristics are important to watch for and consider in choosing a lawn grass, Joiner emphasized. These nine characteristics are: Cold tolerance; drought tolerance; shade tolerance; maintenance; maintenance requirements; tolerance to traffic; salt tolerance; tolerance to insect and disease attack; method of propagation; and growth characteristics.

The Asst. Horticulturist then turned to the fertilization of lawns in their maintenance and the types of fertilizers to use. In choosing the kinds of fertilizer he said that a 6-6-6 or 8-8-8, or similar formula fertilizer are necessary with additional nitrogen

Eleven Dangerous Inmates Escape From Hospital

NASHVILLE, Tenn. — Eleven dangerous inmates sawed their way out of the criminal division of the Tennessee central state hospital here early today.

Three were recaptured shortly after the escape and a fourth turned himself in.

State highway patrolmen and sheriff's deputies teamed up in a search for the remainder of the fugitives, centering the hunt on rural roads near the hospital and the Nashville municipal airport.

The mental patients sawed their way through bars of a third-floor window of the criminal division hospital and lowered themselves to the ground on a rope made of sheets.

The patients were believed to have made their flight between 11:30 p. m. and 1:00 a. m.

All the men were considered dangerous, according to Hospital Supt. D. E. Hines.

Two of the prisoners, Donald Wells and Gerald Smith, escaped from isolated cells. The others fled from a main dormitory which houses about 35 patients.

reason Morris vacated his seat on the Board. Wilson said he read the letter with great reluctance, and an acceptance by the Board, a vote of thanks for his five years of service, was given Morris.

Of special interest to the residents was the announcement that the Town had received its first check, in the amount of $182, from the County Commission, its share of the Road and Bridge fund. Heretofore, the County Commission had made no refund to the Town until its attorney, Alan G. Grant, of Orlando convinced the commission that the incorporated Town of Cassiberry was entitled to its proportionate share. Julius Allen, Floyd Smith and Graham Wilson were named as a committee to supervise street maintenance.

Reporting on the Lake Triple-Queen's Mirror Lake paving project, Mrs. Frank Beisel said that approximately $4,000 had been received from property owners. Work is now in progress and ample funds are anticipated so that work will continue on schedule. The Board acted favorably on the suggestion of Mayor Wilson that the Town pay $300 for its share of the paving in front of the Municipal building. Funds for this

Altamonte Adopt Building Code

ALTAMONTE SPRINGS — An ordinance of the Town of Altamonte Springs adopting Southern Standard Building Code, with minor exceptions, was passed 4-4-4E 154 hre; rietao etaoatol upon its third and final reading at a meeting of the Town Council Monday night. Changes for the new ordinance known as No. 80 are in section one and section two setting forth the following schedule of fees to be charged for building permits: two cents per sq. ft. for living area and living additions; one cent per sq. ft. for carports, porches, breezeways and garages; one cent per sq. ft. for alterations and repairs, with a $2 minimum for any permit.

K. A. Juba and R. W. Peter representatives of the Altamonte Springs Garden Club appeared before the Council to ask permission for the club to erect shuffleboard courts in the present municipal park and suggested that the present park be turned into an adult recreation center. The Council met with full approval of this plan and at the same time agreed to spend $100 for material for backdrops for Babe Ruth and Little League Baseball.

A complete new youth recreation center and park is planned for the town's recently acquired property surrounding the fire station, extending west to Newbury Port Ave. A delegation from the Altamonte Springs Community Club, sponsors of youth activities, headed by Clifford Gilbert Jr., president, attended the Monday meeting, asking for financial support in setting up the new ball field. The Mayor and full council, with the exception of Councilman Hugo Wolf, who was absent for the meeting, offered their wholehearted support towards this project for the youth of this area.

A special meeting of the planning and zoning commission was called by Mayor Lawrence Swoford for 7:30 p. m. Wednesday, Mar. 20 for a hearing on rezoning lots 11-12 Block three Sanlando Subdivision.

At 8 p. m. a special meeting of the Town Council will be held to discuss and try to work out a solution for police protection for the town and other matters pertaining to town business will be taken up at this time.

paving will be drawn from the five per cent utilities tax fund, now being collected.

WHERE'D THEY GO
MIAMI BEACH, Fla. — A tipsy taxi driver tipped his cab into Biscayne Bay today and then tipped police that two of his passengers were in the vehicle. Police conducted a four-hour search of the bay with the aid of skin divers. Later, they gave driver Lynn Johnson, 29, a drunkometer test and tipped him into jail after they learned he had let the passengers out earlier.

NO CAUSE FOR ALARM
DETROIT @ — A furry little skunk haled up under a car Tuesday and held off 10 policemen until a Canadian cougar hunter came to the rescue. Things remained stalemated until hunter Jack Bradley, 42, came along. Bradley took a long look at the skunk, said it was decent, grabbed it and turned it over to the grateful police.

Patton Explains Change In Social Security Law

Form landowners as well as shareholders may now be self-employed for social security purposes. The income a farm landowner receives from a share-farming agreement is covered by a recent change in the social security law if the rental arrangement is for the farmer to take an important part in the operation of the farm and he actually does so, according to Byron R. Patton, manager of the Central Florida social security office.

This provision of the new law is met if the farmer participates to a material degree in the production or management of a crop or livestock on land he rents. Sharecroppers have been covered as self-employed since the beginning of 1955. The new law covering landowners applies to all types of farm rental arrangements including cash rent, standing rent, share rental and share-farming arrangements.

The landowner who materially participates in the operation of his farm should report his net earnings for 1956 for social security purposes at the time he files his income tax return after the close of the year. Farmers who would like more information regarding this new phase of the law, should contact their nearest social security office.

carriers desirable and possibly necessary. However, he did point out that organic fertilizers are desirable in some instances but not necessary.

The amount of fertilizer and the time of application, Joiner said, depends entirely on the type of grass used. Members of the class were also instructed as to the heights to which lawn grasses should be mowed. Joiner said that centipede and carpet grasses should be mowed to be one, one-half, two inch height; pennsylvania Bahia and St. Augustine to a two, two-half inch height; and the Zoysia and Bermuda grasses to half, one, one-fourth inch height.

Heavy watering every seven to 14 days is necessary, he said. Next class in the Garden Club Landscape School series will be held next Tuesday night with Sylvester A. Rose, Asst. Ornamental Horticulturist at the University of Florida Agricultural Extension Service, speaking on "Maintenance of the Landscape Planting."

Docks, Terminals Project Is Necessary To County's Economy

Hearts are lighter and optimism runs higher in Sanford now that it's known that the proposed Docks and Terminals project has met the approval of the Board of Sanford City Commissioners.

As though they were speaking in unison at Monday night's session of the City Fathers, when asked if they would support the project, the answer was—name by name—YES!

Now Sanford can begin looking up and forward. Many plans can be consummated with such an aggressive five man board handling the affairs of the city.

Without a doubt—next to the Naval Air Station—the Docks and Terminals is the most important item ever to come before the people and the leaders of our community.

Such a project completed, business will begin to hum, industry will begin to move in, and our neighbors will be visiting us instead of us visiting them.

With the Board of Sanford City Commissioners' action Monday night, the citizens can well give them a vote of confidence for looking after the affairs of their community in such a commendable manner.

Haste is now the most important matter—to make haste with careful planning and surefooted eagerness so that from the very start, Sanford will get all that it needs in the initial start.

It won't be long until the shores of Lake Monroe between Park and French Avenues will become a literal beehive—complete with building and construction erecting the proposed Docks and Terminals, and possibly at the same time with several new private enterprises underway to parallel the power impetus to expansion of Central Florida's most important City at the moment.

Those outside of the City are looking with greater favor on the project than even we, its boosters, are taking. In the far reaches of the county business men are saying "It's the greatest thing that's happened to Seminole County in its history." Another citizen on the outskirts of the county said "All of Central Florida will grow with the project—it's a boon to every business within reach of it."

So, it seems, that we haven't been blowing our horns too loudly—not when those outside of the City looking in on us are looting their horns as soon as the news spread out to them.

To have "The Wholesale Distributing Center for Central Florida" spring into life so realistically is heartwarming. And throughout the community, even into the county, there expanded a feeling of security and pride.

To wrap up two projects at one time—so to speak—the Naval Air Station and the Docks and Terminals—is an accomplishment that can be contributed to the "oneness of the citizens" as they grasp hold, for the first time in a coordinated effort to achieve only the best for Sanford and Seminole County.

With the help of the engineer who completed the survey on the Docks and Terminals project and of the city's fiscal agent, there can surely be found a way to finance the building and operation of the necessary addition to the economy of our community.

It is practically impossible to stop growth when once it starts for there seems to be a chain reaction—and that is exactly what has happened here.

Home Big Investment

The biggest investment the typical American family ever makes is in its home. Intelligent homeowners try to protect that investment. They maintain and improve the property. They insure it against hazards, of which fire is paramount. But many a homeowner has found, after calamity struck, that he hadn't adequately protected his investment at all—and that his insurance was nowhere near sufficient to make up for the loss.

The reason is simple. The cost of home construction—and that of other kinds of construction and structures—has just about doubled since 1945. The cost of furniture, clothing and dinnerware, found in every home, has more than doubled. The cost of washing and sewing machines has nearly doubled. So it goes, down the list—and the general price trend is still upward.

What can the homeowner do to protect himself against possibly calamitous loss? This is simple too. First of all, he should make an inventory of all the property in his house that might be destroyed by fire or windstorm or some other insurable disaster—not forgetting the "little things" like books and pillows and curtains and bedding, whose total worth runs to surprisingly large amounts. Second, he should see his local insurance agent and make sure that both his house and its contents are insured in line with the values of today—not the obsolete values of yesterday.

A prominent southwest newspaper highlights one of the fundamental problems of this age in a brief paragraph: "Every new service and realm of activity that the government takes over costs us more and pushes us one step closer to socialism and the end of freedom as we know it today. We have already lost much of the freedom that our grandfathers knew. We will lose more if we don't stop the growth and power and avarice of our government agencies at once."

Serious fishermen spend the off season getting ready for the following season. Gear must always be checked, new equipment selected, and a fresh supply of excuses invented.

Administration Undergoes Changes

WASHINGTON UP—President Eisenhower's administration team has undergone extensive reshuffling since the November elections. More than 20 major posts have changed hands.

So far, the second term turnover has been restricted to the second echelon of policy making officials. There have been no changes in the Cabinet itself, but there may be some coming later in the year.

One official, Assistant Defense Secretary Robert Tripp Ross, quit under fire when congressional investigators frowned at his connection with firms holding military contracts. Others resigned for a variety of personal reasons, such as health or a desire to return to private business.

If any of the departing officials quit because they didn't like Mr. Eisenhower's program of "modern Republicanism," they kept their complaints to themselves. There has been no public indication that policy differences figured in any of the resignations.

State and Defense Replacements have been drawn mainly from business and law, with a sprinkling of educators and public officials. A number of officials were promoted to fill vacancies at a higher level.

Nearly half of the going and coming has taken place in two key departments—State and Defense.

Christian A. Herter, former Massachusetts governor, came in as undersecretary of state to succeed Herbert Hoover Jr., who returned to his California oil business. Hoover hadn't gotten on too well in the diplomatic world.

Other important changes at the State Department: Andrew J. Berling, formerly of the U. S. Information Agency, replaced Carl W. McNair as assistant secretary for public affairs.

C. Burke Elbrick was named assistant secretary for European affairs, succeeding Livingston Merchant, new ambassador to Canada. C. Douglas Dillon, former ambassador to France, was appointed deputy undersecretary for economic affairs.

G. Fredrick Reinhardt was appointed counselor of the department, succeeding Douglas MacArthur II, new ambassador to Japan.

In the Defense Department, Thomas S. Gates soon will be promoted from assistant secretary to secretary of the Navy, relieving Charles S. Thomas. Murray Snyder, former assistant White House press secretary, will move into Ross's job.

Gordon Gray, who has been assistant secretary of defense for international security affairs, was called to the White House to succeed Arthur Fleming as head of the Office of Defense Mobilization. Fleming is returning to his private career as president of Ohio Wesleyan College.

Mansfield Sprague moved up from defense department general counsel into Gray's old job. Robert Becker, a Philadelphia attorney in Pennsylvania.

Foreign News Commentary

By CHARLES M. McCANN
UNITED PRESS STAFF CORRESPONDENT
Polish Communist leader Wladyslaw Gomulka appears to be in serious trouble.

His Independent Communist regime is under attack by Polish Reds who oppose his breakaway from Soviet Russia domination, by Polish non-Communists and by Moscow propaganda organs.

At the same time, the negotiations in Washington for economic and financial aid which would strengthen him in his fight for national independence are bogging down.

It is too early to say that Gomulka's control of the Polish Communist party and government is in actual danger. But it could be before long if the present situation continues.

Two-way Difficulty
It is increasingly evident that Gomulka is having difficulty in both maintaining his present independence and in avoiding an open break with the Russians.

One big reason is that Soviet leaders are fully aware now of the danger that any move toward independent Communism presents to their domination of Eastern Europe.

Another reason is that strong elements in Poland, both Communist and non-Communist, want Gomulka to take an even more independent attitude.

One result of the situation is that Gomulka and Premier Josef Cyrankiewicz have been compelled to restore to government jobs most of the Stalinist leaders who fought Gomulka's return to power last October during the surge of revolt in satellite countries.

But Gomulka and Cyrankiewicz are being attacked also by those Poles who want him to go farther toward independence.

Premier Demanded
Cyrankiewicz was openly denounced in the Polish Parliament on Feb. 27 by Antoni Woltyslak, a non-Communist who is also director of the agricultural college at Breslau—or Wrocław, as the Poles call it—in Polish-occupied Eastern Germany.

Woltyslak said that Cyrankiewicz was responsible for all the abuse of power by the Communists during Josef Stalin's dictatorship.

Some members angrily tried to shout Woltyslak down. Others applauded him. It was necessary to suspend the session for 10 minutes.

On March 1, eight leading editors and writers of Trybuna, Lu-the newspaper organ of the Polish Communist Party, resigned in protest against the policy of the ruling Politburo. These editors men resented what they regarded as a trend toward a new Stalinist policy.

U. S. Invited Talks
The Washington negotiations were invited by the United States which thought it wise to strengthen Gomulka by relieving Poland's difficulties.

But the negotiations have run into a snag. For one thing, the so-called Battle Act passed by Congress rigidly restricts the giving of aid to Communist countries.

To get around this, Secretary of State John Foster Dulles has ruled that Poland is not under Russian domination. That ruling permits some aid. But it also has been found that the government has disposed of most of the farm surpluses which were available to foreign countries.

Gomulka almost certainly will get some help from the United States. It will be nowhere near the $500 million he seeks in economic and financial aid, however.

Aspirin Brings Relief But Won't Cure A Cold

By HERMAN H. BUNDLES, M.D.

YOU can't suppress a cold by gobbling aspirin.

Yet aspirin does play an important part in alleviating some of the symptoms of the common cold—and getting relief is of prime concern to any cold sufferer.

The best way to use aspirin when confronted with a cold, is to take one or two five-grain tablets when you first notice the symptoms. During the following day, you can take three or four more—one at a time.

Mild Relief
The aspirin will probably relieve mild headaches and reduce fever slightly. This helps, of course, but it is about all aspirin can do for a cold victim.

The drug has no effect on a cold as far as infection is concerned. Actually, taking too many aspirin in a short time might be harmful.

Combats Infection
A fever is a defense mechanism of your body. In order to provide better conditions for combating an infection such as a cold, your body raises the temperature of the blood.

Swallowing a number of aspirins within a short time means that you are blocking nature's attempt to ward off the invader. From all this I think you can see there simply is no need to take aspirin throughout the life of your cold. If the dosage I mentioned earlier doesn't ease your fever and headache, you'd better see your doctor.

Secondary Infection
Better still, see him for instructions just as soon as a cold strikes you. A secondary infection is responsible for much stubborn trouble. In the event this is the case, your physician can administer penicillin or other antibiotics which often will help to bring the difficulty under control.

QUESTION AND ANSWER
Q. A.: What are the principal foods that should not be eaten in cases of gall bladder trouble?

Answer: Fats, such as eggs, fried meat, cream, butter etc. Condiments and alcohol should also be avoided. Use some skimmed milk and use salt in moderation. Starchy foods and an infection such as a cold, your body raises the temperature of the blood.

MAN, I LIVE HERE

DETROIT AP—San Francisco jazzman Turk Murphy was about to drive a truck carrying his band and its instruments on a street closed to commercial traffic when he was stopped by the law. "This is no commercial vehicle," Murphy protested. "This is my sports car, touring car, business car and runabout—besides, I live on this street." The officer permitted him to drive on.

Now Hear This!

By JACKY FENWICK

Mr. and Mrs. Colin Pemberton, of 113 Laurel Drive, in South Pine crest, entertained twenty young- sters last Monday, at a birthday party for their daughter, Little Miss Caren Pemberton was five years old, and when you stop and think that all the children present were approximately her age, you can appreciate what an undertak- ing that was! The party was held in the carport, which was deco- rated for the occasion with pink and blue streamers, centered with a huge bunch of balloons. The children kept themselves well oc- cupied, consuming enormous amounts of ice-cream, soda, and birthday cake! My children also have Winter birthdays, and I've often considered it a wonderful blessing to be living in Florida, where it is not necessary to turn your house upside down to enter- tain them with birthday parties, when the children themselves have much more fun outside!

Do want to remember to get this item in, so I'll do it right now. The Harry-Anna Home for Crippled Children, in Umatilla, is badly in need of clothing for the children. They especially need underclothes and socks. However, all types are needed. Anything in the way of used children's cloth- ing will be gratefully accepted, and a lot of us who do have chil- dren can find a few spare items around the house. It is true that some of the children there have parents, but there are also those who have not. This great need was brought to my attention by Mrs. Donald Brubaker, who has taken it upon herself to collect these things for the home. The clothes may be dropped off at her home at 2018 Mellonville Ave., or she will be glad to pick them up at your home if you will call her at 869-R. When I talked with Mrs. Brubaker, and she told me about these children, especially the ones who have no families, it seemed to me one of the most important things these children need is just someone to visit them. The visiting hours, of necessity, are very short. Just from 1:30 until 3:30 p.m., each Sunday afternoon. For the parents who have children there, this seems like so little time to spend with them, and yet, for the youngsters who do not receive visitors, these two weekly hours must seem like an eternity. So this is a frank, and outright appeal to anyone who cares at all for children, if you can find the time on a Sunday afternoon, to go out to the Harry-Anna Home, in Umatilla, and visit with them. Those in charge will be very happy to let you know which children never have visitors, and just think of how much hap- piness such a little gesture will bring. Remember, if you have any clothing to contribute, call Mrs. Donald Brubaker, at 869-R, or take the things to her home at 2018 Mellonville Ave.

Mr. and Mrs. William Pulver, of Forest Drive, have visiting with them, Mr. Pulver's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William G. Pulver, and his grandmother, Mrs. Merriman G. Pulver. When you stop and fig- ure it out, this means that at the present time they have, in their home, four generations of the Pul- ver family! The Pulvers live two little sons, Stevie and Donnie, who are quite thrilled at having both their grandparents, and their great-grandmother visiting them together. Mr. Pulver's parents and grandmother are all from Sudus, New York, and plan to be with their son and his family for about a week. Remember, the number to call, if you have any news, is 1766-R.

Eagles Expected To Make Better Showing Today

Spring Training Dreams Often Turn Into Nightmares

By OSCAR FRALEY
United Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK AP—Spring training, it is evident as the major league teams go through their warm-up paces, make for strange bedfellows and dreams which often turn into nightmares.

Take the camps of the Brooklyn Braves, one is on Florida's east coast and the other on the west coast, separated by a few miles of pines and orange groves. But to three players they must seem a million miles in the past. At the Braves camp in Bradenton, there are a pair of roommates named Bobby Thomson and Andy Pafko. That's the same Thomson whose home run gave the New York Giants the 1951 National League pennant in a movie script playoff against the Brooklyn Dodgers.

Pafko watched it all. The other is the same Pafko who stood in left field for the Dodgers that afternoon and disconsolately watched the ball sail over his head and into the stands. And just across the state, the man who pitched the ball which Thomson hit over Pafko's head—a fellow named Ralph Branca—is wearing the Dodgers again and dreaming of a comeback. Branca hasn't been a pitcher since Thomson slugged that ball. It's open to debate whether it was that blast or bad breaks which ruined him.

Big Ralph had been a good one until then. He was a 21-game winner in 1947 and one of the work horses of the Dodgers that 1951 season when Thomson's home run broke the six-foot, three-inch Branca's hearts. Since then the six-foot, three-inch Branca has been lost, pitching little over the past five years and practically none for the last two. He'll tell you that a chair slid out from under him in the spring

Ralph Gage Men's Division Winner In Shuffleboard

Ralph Gage shuffled a hot stick yesterday and emerged champion of the Men's Division of the Sanford Shuffleboard and Tourist Club shuffleboard tournament. Gage began shaky in the competition but warmed his score as he warmed his shuffling arm and grew stronger as the day progressed.

Gage beat out Abe DeNering for the coveted Brooks Trophy for the tournament victory that is given by Sanford Shuffleboard and Tourist Club President, Don Brooks. DeNering was awarded the runner-up plaque.

Mahlon Wright and Perley Friot were stiff competitors throughout the six hour tournament and were just edged by Gage and DeNering.

He came out of retirement last summer to pitch batting practice and looked so good that Brooklyn signed him. They used him only once, being involved in a heated pennant race and remembering the past. But big Ralph is back this spring.

"I'm throwing as hard as I did in 1951," he says. "I think I can make it."

The Dodgers are watching. So, too, must be the room mates across the state.

Mixed Bowling League Race Grows Closer

The close race in the Mixed Bowling League for first place grew even closer last week with a forfeit, the leading team losing two games, and the second place bracket winding up in a tie only two games, behind league leading Powell's Office Supply Co.

Powell's Office Supply took only one game last week in a battle with second place Harvey's Plumbing Co. and cut their first place lead to only two games.

Harvey's reaped the real harvest of the night by dropping Powell's for two games and took over second place. Powell's now show a second-half season record of 18-9, while Harvey's is closing in fast with 18-11.

But the golden edge of the hard earned Harvey victories was taken off by Sanford Bowling Alley when they got three games handed to them on a silver platter.

Seminole Dry Cleaners, who have a shaky 8-18 record forfeited last week to the benefit of Sanford Bowling Alley, giving the Alley a tie in second place with Harvey's. This week the Mixed League expects a revamped Seminole team that could be dangerous, and as close as the team standings now are it could easily mean a great difference in the final outcomes of how the teams stack at the end of the season.

Clyde's Grill, who have been plodding along with good improvement every week, cracked the aggressive wall of Weibolt Camera Shop for two wins. Yet much to their amazement the victorious evening meant nothing. The forfeit by Seminole Dry Cleaners edged them out of the third place spot and into a solid fourth place.

Weibolt Camera Shop is regarded as one of the fastest rising teams on the League. Joining the League at mid-season, the shutter-bugs have already moved into competition in the League and have a 10-17 record. With the win last week over Weibolt's, Clyde's Grill now boasts a 13-12 record.

Harvey's new member, Brown, took little time in carving out a niche for himself. He came up with a high game of 11 and a high series of 514—high for the league last week—and he has already established a 171 average.

Other high games were bowled by Jim Maloney—180—Hall, 174—B. Hudson, 173, and King, 169. High series were by Maloney and Hudson, who each tallied for 468. Hall had a 432 and Betts, bowling high of all the women with a high game of 169, had a series score of 417. Al Wimmer on Clyde's team made a beautiful pickup on a 5-8-10 split.

Tomorrow night Powell's Office Supply will tangle with Weibolt Camera Shop, Clyde's Grill and Seminole Dry Cleaners will do battle, and Harvey's Plumbing and Sanford Bowling Alley will draw top attention as they battle it out to see who will take over second place in the League standing.

work or so to begin looking good, and that's the main advantage Houston had over us last Sunday."

Houston's main body of players have had a great advantage in time in Florida over the Eagles last Sunday. They have been in Daytona for two weeks, while the Eagles began training a week ago yesterday, and many of their players were in St. Petersburg earlier in training.

Don Brooks, president of the Sanford Shuffleboard and Tourist Presses, presents the Brooks Trophy for the Men's Division of the Sanford Shuffleboard Tournament. Gage had stiff competition throughout the tourney and just edged Abe DeNering out for the championship. 136 Nominations For Preakness Stakes Revealed BALTIMORE, Md. AP—A list of 136 nominations for the 81st running of the $100,000 Preakness Stakes has been announced by Executive Director Louis Pondfield of Pimlico, completing the eligibility list for the Triple Crown classics.

Officials at Churchill Downs previously had announced a list of 133 nominations for the 83rd running of the $125,000 Kentucky Derby May 4, while the Belmont Stakes drew 147 eligibles for its 60th running June 15.

The Calumet Farm of Mrs. Gene Mackey topped the Preakness nominations with six horses. Its Gen. Duke, hottest development of winter racing, and Barbizon, champion, two-year-old of 1956, along with Iron Liege, Simon Kenton, Whig and Boone Blaze were named for the mile and three-sixteenths classic.

Calumet Farm's chief threat to a sixth triumph in the middle jewel of the Triple Crown is Wheatley Stable's Bold Ruler, winner over Gen. Duke in the recent $100,000 Flamingo Stakes after bowing to Gen. Duke in the Everglades Stakes.

Called Mike Stone today as she was in the midst of instructing the models. They have been selected as follows: Lee Cunningham, Station Jean Stetson, Faron, Doris Francis, VAH-1, Teresa Martin, VAH-1, Betty Guy, Staff, Hazel Rowell, VAH-3, Helen Griffin, HATU, and Mary Nelson, VAH-9. Dessert will be served in the ballroom at 1:00 p.m., and the price of admission is 75c. So line up the baby sitters, and plan an afternoon out, viewing the spring fashions.

VAH-1 wives gathered at Bert Burkholder's last Thursday for bridge and cards. Seventeen attended among them five girls new in the squadron.

Joe Fellini and Don Brubaker carried their color slides of Italy and other European points of interest to John and Spook Hook's the other night to entertain their host, hostess and wives Joan and Pully. The commentary at these sessions is always worth the price of admission, even if the photographers are not skilful, although in this case that does not apply, except in the commentary.

VAH-9 is having a party at the B. O. Q. Friday night at 6 p.m. in case you are in the squadron and didn't bring the notice home, and it plainly bids you to be at the bottom of the mess. Spare ribs or chicken will be served at eight, and dress is optional, which is always the case anyway. I've never known anyone except John King who didn't bring notices home, so hope all good miners have their sitters lined up.

It's income tax time again, so I am forced to type in the living room on the coffee table, instead of at my desk, where there is a grumpy genius at work. This time of year is not conducive to smiling faces, but is an excellent time to cook his favorite dish and keep the children quiet. I am having little success with either, but efficiency is not my forte. It's too bad that someone convincing doesn't have my privilege of putting the printed word before you. My hands are tied, because if I did give out hints on how to keep your husband happy during this trying period, Bob would do one of two things—catch on, or say why don't you take your own advice, and since it's almost certain to be the latter, better say nothing for a change. If you have a silent tongue, trouble can never touch you (tongue-made trouble). Have not met any like that, but they must exist. Guess they are so quiet that they fade in to the wall paper, or else the population thinks they are stupid. In case anyone thinks this reporter is procrastinating, you are so right as the meat is not yet thawed for dinner, that button did not get sewed on, and the peaceful life is for the novel, or the birds, take your pick.

Wasn't the Mailway Edition of this paper excellent? Hope others enjoyed it as much as I did. What happened to HATU's horn? No one blew it at all, and there is a great deal to be said for the outfit. But getting back to the edition, it was a paper well worth reading, saving, and sending away. And so, good night.

Bell's New 'Copter Meets Rugged Test

BUFFALO, N. Y. —A new Model 473-helicopter has chalked up another aviation "first" for Bell Aircraft Corp.

The rotor-winged craft, only the second of its type off the assembly line, made the initial helicopter crossing of the Andes Mountains by way of the famed Cristo Pass during a tour of 13 Central and South American countries.

Joseph Mashman, Bell's assistant director of contracts, was at the controls during the 17,000-mile tour that proved one of the most grueling performance tests ever attempted by a helicopter.

The "egg-beater" cruised at 17,000 feet for the life-saving evacuation of a critically injured girl from a Peruvian copper mining town and for its Andes crossing.

Flying through all kinds of weather and over rugged terrain, the new model known as the "Silver Hummingbird" logged a total of 250 trouble-free hours. When the four-place utility 'copter began the tour, it carried an extra set of spark plugs, fan belt and distributor points. Only the spark plugs and the fan belt were put to use, and then changed only as a precautionary measure for the high altitude Andes evacuation mission.

Only 40 hours of maintenance were required for the extended tour, which took about 11 weeks.

CHAPTER 20

STEVE started for the record-making machine when he heard his own voice issue from it. I headed him off, pushed him down on the love seat.

"Oh, no, you don't!" I said. "We'll leave it on."

"Connie, listen..." "Yes, listen!" I put my hand over his mouth. "I want to hear every word of this!"

Anita: "... just one more drink, would you?" Steve: "No, I don't think so. Anita: What's your rush?" Steve: "I've got to get home and spend the evening with Connie."

I said, "Oh, no, don't let me stand in your way!" "Connie!" "Quiet!" Anita: "... must be very lovely. What's she like, Steve?" Steve: "About five-five, weighs a hundred and twenty-two. She's right handed. Throes and bats right handed."

Anita: (Laughing) Steve: "... well, I'm to please you devoted to come to the Crescent School."

Steve: (Bantering) Gee, I hope I make the team!" Anita: "There's one team you've already made, darling..." (a pause) There... that's nice, isn't it?"

I shouted, "What's going on here? What happened? What's nice?" "She put a pillow behind my back."

"I'll murder her..." "That's already been done."

But the tape had run out. I watched the machine automatically click to a stop. I pinioned him with my eyes. He cringed back into the love seat.

"Steve," I said, "I'm not going to ask you what happened."

"Nothing happened! I left!" "No," I said calmly, "I won't ask you. Although Anita was thoroughly unscrupulous, immoral... amoral, really, she was obviously fascinating, irresistible. So I don't blame you, Steve..."

"Listen," he shouted. "Anita twisted her ankle dancing with me. It was my fault. I took her home, helped her up the stairs."

I held up my hand. "May I continue? Thank you. And in all fairness to Anita, I don't blame her. Although you have a certain inherent weakness in your character, you have a certain animal attractiveness and a rather sneaky charm that appeal to a certain class of women..."

"Connie, listen..." "So Anita probably saw that she might combine some genuine pleasure with her business. In this case rather small business, yet."

Mid-East Tensions Ease As Egypt Offers 'Full Cooperation' To UNEF

Warner Unhurt As Plane Cracks Up Near Columbia, S. C.

City Commissioner Merle Warner emerged from his demolished plane unhurt this morning shortly after 9:30.

Warner, who operates a Gulf Flying Station on First St., was on his way to attend the funeral services for his mother, who was about two miles out of Columbia, S. C. when he ran into a storm.

He started to turn back into Columbia when, as he reported from Columbia, said "I have no idea what happened."

Warner said the plane began to settle and there was nothing he could do. When the plane crashed the tail portion was torn off and it turned upside down.

The plane was the property of the "Flying Squadron", about 10 aviation enthusiasts. Dr. Henry McLaughlin, who was in touch with Warner this morning, said the plane was a total loss.

Warner was admitted to a Columbia hospital but was discharged with only minor cuts and bruises.

Top News In Brief

NEW YORK — A House Un-American Activities subcommittee questions officials and writers of several foreign language newspapers and periodicals today in its quest for legal ways to curb Communist propaganda in the United States.

WASHINGTON — House Democratic leaders today took up President Eisenhower's challenge to seek out ways in which to reduce his $11.5 billion dollar budget. They promised to wield the economy ax themselves after Mr. Eisenhower said they were welcome to try to scale down federal spending.

President Sets Out To Sea Today For Bermuda Trip

WASHINGTON — President Eisenhower, hitherto a dry land and blue skies president, sets out to sea today in hopes balmy southern breezes will wait away his winter cold.

Mr. Eisenhower, in his first voyage aboard a warship since becoming president, was scheduled to sail southward tonight from Norfolk, Va., aboard the guided missile cruiser USS Canberra. His eventual destination, after a leisurely, six-day cruise, is Bermuda where he will arrive on the afternoon of March 20 for a four-day meeting with British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan.

The President thought first of Arizona, then southern Florida, as possible rest spots before going to Bermuda conference. But early this week he decided an ocean voyage would offer a better opportunity for rest and relaxation.

Pioneer Geneva Resident Dies

Mrs. Mary H. Flynt, 90, widow of the late J. W. Flynt, died suddenly at her home in Geneva at 10 a. m. yesterday.

Born July 28, 1866, in High Falls, Ga., she was a pioneer resident of Geneva having lived there for 61 years. She attended the Methodist Church in Geneva.

Survivors include one daughter, Mrs. J. W. Kilbee, Geneva; one son, Jack Flynt, Homestead; two granddaughters, the Misses Barbara Jean and Mary Jane Flynt of Sanford; and one niece, Mrs. Gordon Baker, Columbia, Va.

Funeral services will be held at 10 a. m. Saturday at Brison Funeral Home with the Rev. George H. Carlton officiating. Burial will be in Geneva Cemetery.

Funeral services are Edward Yarborough, Gordon Flynt, E. H. Grant, H. D. Dague, J. L. Brown and L. G. Hunter.

2 Men Hurt, $1,000 Damage Is Seen In Wreck Yesterday

Two Navy men were injured and property damage was estimated at $1,000 as a result of an early morning accident yesterday on State Road 427 near the Green Valley Dairy.

A 1953 Ford convertible, borrowed from A. J. Hoffman, and driven by James F. Huriaff, 20, apparently went out of control as it rounded a curve at an alleged high rate of speed. The car went off the road for 90 yards, rolled four or five times for a distance of 23 yards smashing two trees in its path and tearing up palmetto scrub, before coming to a stop.

Huriaff emerged with lacerated hands and arms. A passenger, Raymond K. Goode, 20, received a broken right jaw.

The injured men were taken to the hospital by Chester F. Macek who heard noise from the crash at his nearby home.

Florida Highway Patrolman Gene Coffman investigated, assisted by Deputy Sheriff Arthur Williams.

Charges of "failure to have vehicle under control" are placed against the driver, said Coffman. "The car was described as a 'total loss'."

Fund Increasing Slowly; Total Is Now $13,415

The fund to sustain "the effort to retain the Naval Air Station in Seminole County" is growing slowly with additional contributions being received almost daily to bolster the total.

Newest contributions have been received from The Foodmart, Senator Douglas Stenstrom, and S. McDonough.

Total contributions and pledges recorded so far in the office of the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce is $13,415.

Chamber of Commerce Manager John Krider pointed out that all expenditures are made only with the approval of the Armed Forces Committee of the Chamber of Commerce.

Senator To Introduce Three Local Bills

Senator Douglas Stenstrom said this morning that he has three local bills which he plans to drop into the hopper at the coming session of the Legislature.

Two new bills, local in nature, said Senator Stenstrom, will be offered. The first, he said, is a bill to authorize the Board of County Commissioners to place street lights in unincorporated areas of the county where public safety requires it.

The second of the two new bills of local nature will authorize the County Health Unit locally to issue death certificates and other vital statistics and records and placing the fees collected locally in the County Health Unit Fund.

Both of these "I understand," said Senator Stenstrom, have been approved by the Board of County Commissioners.

"I also have a third bill to propose," said the Senator. It would be to authorize the Board of Seminole County Commissioners to set up a County Manager type of government if they so desire it.

Middle Eastern tensions dramatically eased today.

Egypt, in a sudden turnabout from earlier hostility, announced it would give "full cooperation" to the United Nations Emergency Force in the Gaza Strip.

In Jerusalem, in the United Nations, in Washington and other interested capitals, Israel continued to press its diplomatic campaign against Egyptian re-entry to the explosive strip.

But an authoritative Israeli source in Jerusalem said Israel does not plan anything resembling military involvement in Gaza now. Announcement of Egypt's new attitude came from government spokesman Col. Abdel Kader Hafez. He said:

"Full cooperation marks relations between Egyptian authorities and UNEF and Egypt does what she can to carry out duties placed upon her shoulders."

The Egyptian government newspaper Al Goumhouria said Maj. Gen. Hassan Abdel Latif, the newly appointed governor, planned to go to Gaza today.

Israel launched a major diplomatic offensive to keep Egypt out of Gaza, and a high Israeli source said "recent history" would be repeated if Egypt moves in and uses the area for military operations.

The mention of "recent history" was a clear reference to Israel's October drive into the Sinai Desert. It followed Premier David Ben-Gurion's warning that Israel reserved the right of action in the Gaza crisis.

Bunche in Gaza

Dr. Ralph Bunche, U. N. assistant secretary general, and Maj. Gen. E. M. L. Burns, commander of the U. N. Force, flew to Gaza today to prepare for Egypt's return to the controversial area now administered by the UNEF.

They assured Egyptian officials Wednesday that the UNEF had no plans to internationalize the strip and would make no attempt to administer it temporarily.

Bunche's statement brought dismay in Israel and Foreign Minister Golda Meir began talks with Western diplomatic representatives on their moral commitment to keep Egypt out of Gaza until a full settlement is reached.

Plane Carrying Nixon To Tobruk Develops Trouble

TRIPOLI, Libya — A plane carrying Vice President Richard M. Nixon from Khartoum to Tobruk was forced to return to Khartoum today when trouble developed in one of the engines.

A radio message said the plane returned 90 minutes after "take-off" because of "partial failure" of the No. 2 engine.

An announcement said the vice president's brief visit to Tobruk would be cancelled and that Nixon would fly direct to Tripoli after engine repairs are made or a new one is flown in for him.

It was the second time Nixon's plane had developed engine trouble on his tour of Africa. A new engine was flown in to Monrovia, Liberia, from Prestwick, Scotland, when trouble developed.

The last bill would be a permissive bill, explained Senator Stenstrom.

However, the introduction of the third bill would be the first point of a four-point program voiced by the new Board of Commissioners at the beginning of its term at the first of the year.

Other possible bills will more than likely grow out of the meeting set for next week called by the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce to which the legislative delegation has been invited along with the Board of County Commissioners and the Board of Sanford City Commissioners.

A controversial measure that has been pushed around in discussions and proposals is a bill to zone the entire county, raise funds allowed for the zoning and planning Commission of the county, and to begin a system of permits for new buildings and improvements. No definite agreement has been reached for a proposed bill to be presented at the coming session of the Legislature.

County's Population Increases 43 Pct.

MISS IRIS DAVENPORT, WOMAN'S EDITOR of the Farm and Ranch Magazine, spoke yesterday at the Sanford Kiwanis Club. Invited woman speaker.

Clothes Affect Emotions Says Kiwanis Speaker

Speaking to "Men Only" yesterday at the luncheon meeting of the Sanford Kiwanis Club, Miss Iris Davenport, introduced as the South's most invited woman speaker, said "When we don't wear the right kind of clothes we have a warped personality."

"A person warped from a personality standpoint just doesn't attract anyone—you just don't want to be with him," she said.

Miss Davenport surprised her Kiwanis Club audience when she said "We don't wear clothes for protection from the weather and the police—we wear clothes because it is the customary thing to do."

And then describing the feeling of a person, she said, "When we are self-conscious of ourselves because we are not wearing the right thing at the right time, we cannot do our best."

"Clothes affect our emotions and the emotions of those who look at us," Miss Davenport said. "It is unselfish to take care of our clothes—to be careful in selecting them, for we look at ourselves only 30 minutes of each day—all other times others are looking at us," she said.

"We want to be easy on the eye and attractive," Miss Davenport commented as she nodded her head. Miss Davenport wore a "brilliant" hat which she called "Iris Davenport originals," for she makes them herself.

"It is quite modern to dress well," said the magazine editor, "but you must have the desire to wear the right thing."

"I could be well dressed if I had a lot of money," is a fallacy, said Miss Davenport who advised her audience to "select your own clothes, your ties, your shirts. Don't take someone with you to choose what you want to wear," she warned.

"We need to wear clothes to express our personality—get something that's your own—for there's something about men's apparel that it's got to be right or it's wrong," said Miss Davenport.

"My suggestion is set a standard for dress and live up to it. And she commented, 'The man who looks all dressed up is just about as bad as the man who is untidy.'"

Miss Davenport, Woman's Editor for the Farm and Ranch magazine, was introduced by Dick Forbes.

Jaycees Prepare To Feed 5,000 At Navy Event

More than two tons of fish have been ordered for Navy Appreciation Day the Seminole County Junior Chamber of Commerce Committee planning the event were told yesterday.

The meeting, called by Harry Cannel and Garfield Willett, co-chairmen for the biggest event ever to be staged in Seminole County, to round out preparations for the feeding of 5,000 or more people who are expected to attend on Saturday, March 30.

U. N. Officials Ready For Egypt's Return To Gaza

CAIRO — United Nations officials flew today to the Gaza Strip to prepare for Egypt's return to the controversial area now administered by the U. N. Emergency Force.

Dr. Ralph Bunche, U. N. assistant secretary-general, and Maj. Gen. E. M. L. Burns, the U. N. commander, ended a series of conferences with Egyptian officials and left for Gaza on an inspection tour.

Salah Gohar, chief of Egypt's Palestine Affairs Department, said after talks with Bunche and Burns the newly appointed Egyptian governor-general would take over the administration of Gaza soon.

There was a possibility the governor-general would go there today.

Gohar said the 1949 armistice agreement provided for an Egyptian administration and that he heard no U. N. objections. He also pointed out the agreement permitted Egypt to maintain one brigade there about 3,000 troops. But whether this would be done was up to the Egyptian military authorities.

Adm. Byrd Buried In Arlington

WASHINGTON — Rear Adm. Richard Evelyn Byrd, his great explorations ended forever, was brought home to his native Virginia today for burial among the nation's heroes.

The last resting place for the renowned conqueror of the poles and spanner of the oceans was a quiet plot on the eastern slope of Arlington National Cemetery.

Byrd, the first man to fly over both the North and South Poles, was called "one of the truly great explorers of all time" by President Eisenhower. Byrd died in his sleep Monday night at the age of 68, the victim of a heart ailment brought on by years of work and adventure in the far away frozen lands that he made familiar to every man.

In Boston Wednesday night, Byrd's remains were placed aboard a train to Washington. He will be buried with full military honors in Arlington, just across the Potomac River.

Dutch, Italian Ships Collide In Mid-Atlantic

LANDS END, England — The 9,177-ton Dutch ship Waterman, carrying 800 emigrants including 312 Hungarian refugees to Canada, collided with the Italian ship SS Merit in mid-Atlantic today.

There was no immediate report of casualties.

The Waterman radioed it was in no immediate danger and said the 7,174-ton Merit also was okay. The collision happened 566 miles west of the Bishop's Rock light-house in the Scilly Islands, off the southern tip of England.

The Air Ministry said a Royal Air Force plane was standing by at an airbase near Plymouth but had not taken off since neither ship appeared to be in immediate danger.

The Waterman, which belongs to the Dutch government, was under charter to the Holland-American Line and left Rotterdam last Monday.

Several ships were reported heading for the collision scene. The sea was mild and the wind about 20 knots.

A slate of officers, originally prepared to be submitted at last night's meeting, will be recommended to the newly elected Board of Directors. The first meeting of the board will be held in April.

The Constitution adopted at last night's meeting calls for an annual fund-raising campaign in October of each year with the annual meeting of the organization set for May of each year at which time a complete report will be submitted of the past year's operation.

Growth Since 1950

Seminole County has increased 43 per cent since the Federal Census of 1950, according to a population estimate released today by the Board of Census Commission appointed last year.

The population today is estimated at 38,482 in comparison with the 26,883 in the 1950 census. The increase of 11,599 has occurred in the seven-year period since the 1950 count.

The increased population will probably result in the appointment of an additional Circuit Judge for Seminole County.

Rapid growth of the eight counties of the Ninth Judicial Circuit will probably result in the appointment of four new judges, according to the population estimates released today. This will give the Brevard-Seminole Division an additional judge. Judge Vassar Carlton who serves this division resides in Brevard County.

Under the State Constitution a circuit gets a judge for each 50,000 population. Because of the great caseload in our courts a bill was passed in the 1955 session of the State Legislature authorizing the census by a board appointed by the Governor.

The three commissioners were Walter Hayes of Orlando, G. W. Laycock of Rockledge, and D. K. Richardson of Vero Beach.

In the circuit, Brevard County leads with the greatest increase in population estimated at nearly 200 per cent. Brevard County increased from 24,453 as shown in the 1950 census to 45,502 estimated by the commission. Orange County's increase was estimated at approximately 90 per cent from the 114,960 in the 1950 census to the commission's estimate of 215,411.

The Commission obtained the services of the University of Florida Economic experts who used an accepted formula of research analysis for the estimated population. This involved consideration of telephone user increases, electricity consumers, gas sales, sales tax reports, and so forth.

Public hearings will be held in Fort Pierce and Orlando on March 28, for consideration of any additional factors which any citizen would like to present. The commission's report is then presented to the 1957 Legislature and if approved the Governor will be authorized to appoint four new judges, one of which is likely to be a Seminole County lawyer.
