Fine Arts Festival Reveals Many Talents

The Deltona Woman's Club Fine Arts Festival, held Thursday, Jan. 9, disclosed the talents of many of the members. The fine qualities of the 53 entries in the three major categories made the judging a major task. In the sewing contest, chaired by Mrs. Brown F.

Grieves, seven members modeled dresses, which were judged on suitability for club meetings or afternoon affairs. Judges were Mrs. Andy Andrews, Mrs. Donald Tilers, and Mrs. Francis Crumb. The first place honor was awarded to Mrs. Sam Zirn, who wore a lovely green and white figured print dress topped with a full length green coat lined with orange cape.

Mrs. Louis Levine, third honor winner, wore a charming black suit with a black and white print

It was difficult to narrow the choices down to three, as all entrants were beautifully garbed in attractive, well-selected styles. Mrs. Omer Robertson modeled a beautiful blue suit and Mrs. August Fickes showed a charming din. ner dress, but these were not considered in the judging because they did not fully qualify to the rules set up for the contest. In the Arts category, chaired by Miss Margaret Rowland, there were 19 entries submitted by seven member artists. In the Knitting group, Mrs. Henry Konigsmark garnered first and third places with a lovely pink sequined shell and an equally lovely torquoise shell which combined knitting with fine lace inserts. Mrs. Maria Lewis won second place with a full length white cost.

The first and third Needle Craft honors were awarded to Mrs. Berg for a beautiful table cloth and a colorful crewel pillow, and second place was awarded to Mrs. Grieves for an attractive apron.

All first place winners will enter their winning entries in the Federation Fine Arts Festival to be held in Melbourne on Feb. 26, 1969. Five new members were welcomed into the Club and 19 guests were greeted. The February meeting will be held Thursday, February 13, and it will feature "Home Life" under the chairmanship of Mrs. Anthony Borowski. It will be conducted by two qualified persons from Jordan
