

Military Leaders Are Convinced Russia Won't Start Hot War Soon

By ELTON C. FAY
AP Military Affairs Reporter

WASHINGTON (AP)—A growing impression among top American military leaders that Russia won't launch a hot war soon appears based partly on a belief the Soviet Union needs more time to put her armed forces and economy in readiness.

This is in addition to more obvious reasons, including the improved condition of the mutual defense setup in Western Europe, and the fact that Communist Russia has been doing exceedingly well with just a "cold" war of subversion, pressure on weak nations, and promoting a "little" war in Korea.

Over the weekend, Gen. Alfred M. Gruenther, chief of staff of the combined Western defense forces in Europe, pointed up what he and others had said before. In a radio interview he expressed belief the Russians would not attack this year or in the near future. In fact, he declared he did not subscribe to the doctrine that war is inevitable.

Gen. Omar Bradley, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, has commented that among the reasons the Russians have had for not starting war is the superior atomic stockpile of the United States, American airpower and the collective security arrangements in Europe. But he added "we don't know what the Soviet imperialists intend to do."

There Bradley was making a distinction between two types of assessment: intention and capability. The intentions of a foreign power are something usually evaluated by diplomatic experts. Its capabilities are analyzed and assessed by the military.

What are Russia's military capabilities? Information gleaned from a wide variety of sources, some of it apparently reliable and some merely speculation by official analysts, include these points:

1. Despite numerous "five year" and other plans, the Soviet Union's production of steel, the essence of military strength, still is at tonnage only about one-fourth that of probably is deficient in petroleum in the United States alone, not including capacities of the other Western Powers. Similarly, she probably is deficient in petroleum production, vital to the operations of planes, tanks and transportation.

2. Russia, with iron-fist control and with Soviet military leadership, has sought to prepare all her European Communist satellite nations for war. But only one, Bulgaria, seems to be anywhere near an adequate condition.

3. The Soviet Union's transport and communications system is woefully short of military requirements. Railroads over which the must shift troops for defense or offense are too few, the rolling stock insufficient and, in most cases, worn and old. Hard-surfaced roads, capable of handling military traffic in all weather, are scarce. Reports that Russia has changed the gauge of rail lines in satellite countries to conform to her own broad-gauge tracks do not appear to be accurate.

4. The Soviet Army is supposed to have a strength of 175 divisions arrayed against only about 25 in existence among the Western European Allies. But a Soviet division has an authorized strength of only 12,000 and reports indicate many divisions have an actual strength of 10,000 or less. A United States division has 18,000 men in its organic structure, not including units which are attached for combat.

These seem reasonable arguments for believing that Russia might not be ready, yet, to step out on a World War III. But no one is brash enough to deny the Soviet Army and Air Force aren't formidable fighting machines right now, or to declare positively that the U. S. S. R. might not use them tomorrow or next month or next year.

Liquor Cannot Be Sold Legally Any Time Tomorrow

TALLAHASSEE (AP)—The National Guard can't drill Tuesday in Florida.

No liquor sales will be legal anywhere between 7 a. m. and 7 p. m. There will probably be more deputy sheriffs standing around than ever before.

It's election day, and some unusual laws will be in effect. There's an old, old statute which prohibits any officer from calling out the militia "to appear and exercise" during an election, except in cases of invasion or to suppress an insurrection. So, no parades.

The law also prohibits sale of liquor while the polls are open—7 a. m. to 7 p. m.—and local officials can make the ban from midnight before the election to 7 a. m. the day after.

It's against the law to bet on the outcome of an election. Every sheriff is required by law to put a regular or special deputy on duty at every voting precinct to keep order. There are nearly 1,700 of them, more than ever before.

But no deputy or other police officer may step inside the poll (except when he casts his own vote) unless he is called in by a majority of the precinct election inspectors.

No one may hand out literature within 100 yards of a polling place. Every candidate may certify a watcher to stay in the polling place and see that the election is conducted honestly. But no watcher may step within 15 feet of a voting booth or the election officials' table.

Every election official must call out the name of the person entering a booth in a tone loud enough for the watchers to hear it. (That gives them a chance to check registration lists and send out for straggling supporters of their men before the polls close.)

Nobody can go in the voting booth with a voter—unless he is blind, illiterate or has lost the use of his hands. Then he may ask a clerk to mark his ballot for him.

All other voting must be secret, even if the voter doesn't mind. And another thing—just one vote to a voter.

NORFOLK LANDING ANCHORAGE, Alaska (AP)—"Operation instructions carried out. No sweat."

This message from an Air Force crew at the top of the world signaled history's first successful landing at the geographic North Pole.

A COMMUNIST VOTER is taken in hand by West Berlin police when he refused to go back to the Soviet sector. He was one of some 10,000 trouble-makers from East Germany who staged a hit-run "invasion" of the Allied section. They withdrew before striking clubs and water hoses. The demonstration was staged as a Red protest against plans to admit West Germany into proposed European army. (International)

Pole, the Alaska Air Command announced Sunday.

Major Gen. William D. Old, commanding general of the Air Command, said a C-47 ski-and-wheel equipped transport flown by Lt. Col. William P. Benedict, Pasadena, Calif., made the landing Saturday.

Air Force officials and scientists spent three hours and 10 minutes on the ice pack taking measurements, then flew back to Fletcher's Island, a floating ice island 132 miles away to report the historic landing, Olds said.

GUAM (AP)—Two girl stowaways who traveled 6,000 miles by plane to this far Pacific island in search of adventure were on the way back to California today, by plane, of course.

For Jerrie McDaniel, 26, Walnut Grove, Calif., and Maxine Allen, 23, Tacoma, Wash., it was a relief they came out with high hopes but couldn't find even a grass shack to live in.

They arrived late in April in a sleek B-29 Superfortress, with the help, they said, of two airman friends. After slipping off the plane undetected, they gave themselves up several days later. Without a roof over their pretty heads, the adventure had waned.

DAGGER POINT TOKYO (AP)—A 20-year-old ex-convict today held up the proprietor of a downtown pinball parlor at dagger point and made off with a 100-pound strong box.

He walked only about 100 yards with his heavy loot before police nabbed him.

Inside the strong box were some 8,000 pinballs.

FREE WKE WINNER ORLANDO (AP)—Ten-year-old Teddy Thibodeau, Dothan, Ala., won the sixth annual National Pee Wee Golf Tournament here Sunday with an 88.

He shot 43 on the first nine and 45 on the second nine. He was runner-up last year, also with an 88.

A record 118 competed in the tournament for boys and girls three through 18 years of age.

GOLF TOURNAMENT ORMOND BRACH (AP)—Defending Champion Jimmy Paul came back in the last eight holes to defeat Dayton's Beach City Champion Andy Arvey 6-5 in the 72-hole final of the first annual men's South Atlantic Golf Tournament here Sunday.

Farm Bureau Head Praises Freedom

WINTER PARK (Special)—"America operates best when hampered least," declared E. H. Finlayson, president of the Florida Farm Bureau Federation in a pre-emptive statement to farmers throughout Florida today.

"Costly government programs which take away our basic freedoms have no place in a democracy such as ours. America can continue to move forward only by the combined efforts of alert citizens working and earning their own way under the banner of competitive enterprise and private initiative," the statement said.

"While we have traveled a long way in the direction of the super state, fortunately we have the opportunity of preventing further inroads on our constitutional liberties. The citizen of the United States is free to speak his own mind, to vote for candidates of his own choosing and make his voice heard through his elected representatives on matters of national policy."

Nine Persons Killed In Auto Accidents

By The Associated Press Automobile accidents killed at least nine persons in Florida Sunday and an Air Force captain drowned while water skiing.

A three-car smashup on U. S. 17 near Jacksonville killed seven persons, including Foster Scott, 30; his wife and two children of Jacksonville; Scott's mother, Mrs. Cole Estes, Yulee; Mrs. Lillie Kummer, Philadelphia and Clarence M. Simmons, Jacksonville.

Navy Lt. Kenneth Gryka, 19, stationed at Key West, was killed in an automobile accident on the MacArthur Causeway at Miami.

An ice cream truck ran over and fatally injured three-year-old Roland Soto in front of his home in Hialeah.

The Air Force captain, whose name was withheld pending notification of next of kin, was stationed at Bartow Air Base. He was water skiing in Eagle Lake and would have graduated in flight training Saturday.

Dorothy Farabee, 12, drowned in a small artificial lake at Moore Haven Saturday.

Big Turnout Of Voters Is Reported Here

Returns Will Be Tabulated By Herald And Broadcast At Once Over WTRR

Clear skies and a bright sun prevailed throughout the day as Sanford and Seminole County voters trekked to the polls in large numbers beginning early this morning to cast their votes for their presidential preference, and for state and county candidates in the Democratic primary.

A big factor in the local enthusiasm was the fact that Sanford has for the first time entered a candidate for governor of Florida, J. Bradley Odham, who was greeted with cheers when he came to Precinct No. 3, the County Canning Kitchen on Twenty-fifth Street, this morning to cast his ballot.

Many voters, white and colored, were on hand when the polls opened at 7:00 a.m. today, including a whole truckload of Negro voters at Precinct No. 3. At 10:30 p.m. a total of 542 voters out of 1810 registered in Precinct No. 1, had cast their ballots at the store building at 805 West Third Street. At Precinct No. 3 the total was 1008 voters out of 2380 registered. Precinct No. 15 in mid-Sanford had 1,810 votes out of 2,180 registered.

The clerks and inspectors commented today on the fine condition of the registration books as prepared by Mrs. Camilla Bruce, county supervisor of registration, and Mrs. Verne Messenger, who preceded her.

Newsman Beaten Taking Pictures At Voting Place

PHENIX CITY, Ala. (AP)—Three newsmen and two anti-vice leaders were beaten or roughed up when photographers attempted to take pictures near a voting booth here today.

The anti-vice leaders were Hugh Bentley, president of the Russell County Betterment Association, who was home when a few months ago and Hugh Britton, intelligence officer for the Betterment Association.

Britton was beaten severely. Bentley suffered a cut on one eye and his glasses were broken. The reporters were not seriously hurt. They said they were attacked by a group of men around the polling place.

Bentley's son, Hugh, 14, who was blown out of his bed in the dynamite blast at the Bentley home several months ago, was knocked to the ground in today's melee.

The newsmen were Ray Jenkins and Tom Sellers, reporters for the Columbus, Ga., Ledger and Enquirer and Phil Krieger, news editor of WQDA, radio station affiliate of the newspaper.

Seventh Day Adventist Church Dedicated

Many visitors from Orlando and Winter Park were among those present at the dedication of the Seventh Day Adventist Church, Seventh Street and Elm Avenue, Saturday morning. Improvements to the church and grounds total more than $1,500 in cost were made during the past three months.

U. S. Accused Of Paying Twice For Unloading Corn

Washington Attorney Says Government Not Hooked By Deal

WASHINGTON (AP)—A Washington lawyer told Senate investigators today he arranged a contract that allowed his client to collect $27,500 from the government twice for unloading the same corn.

Grimes told the committee he negotiated the deal for his father, Edward Grimes, a director of Car, Gill, Inc., Minneapolis, which received the double pay.

Chairman Alexander (D-La.) told Grimes he thought the contract took advantage of the government and suggested the company should turn back the second payment.

The attorney denied he used any undue pressure or influence to get approval of the contract. He did say that he thought the contract was "unique."

The committee called Grimes in an effort to establish why the contract was negotiated in Washington rather than Chicago. Regional officials of the Production and Marketing Administration (PMA), a division of the Department of Agriculture, have testified the Chicago office normally would have handled the deal.

7th Day Adventist Church Dedicates Improvements

The Seventh Day Adventist Church, Seventh Street and Elm Avenue, was filled to capacity Sunday morning when the church was dedicated. The dedication followed final completion of improvements to the church which was erected in 1941.

Elder George E. Carter welcomed the assembly and outlined the history of the church which was organized here by a small group on Sept. 9, 1917. Prior to the erection of the present building, services were held for a number of years at the Sanford Woman's Club building.

Pastor H. H. Nightingale, president of the Florida Conference of Seventh Day Adventists, led in the dedication program. The sermon was delivered by H. E. Schneider, Atlanta, Ga., denomination treasurer, who served as acting pastor when the building of the church was started.

The musical program included a violin solo, "The Gate of Life," by Mrs. C. F. Cushman, Orlando, and formerly of Boston, Mass. She was accompanied by Mrs. Nightingale. Church improvements included repainting, inside and out, refinishing of two children's classrooms, new carpeting and venetian blinds, a front porch, walkways and a new lawn and shrubbery.

The Lions Club at its luncheon today in the Yacht Club, voted to sponsor one boy from this area and send him to Boy State at Tallahassee this summer. The club will cooperate with Judge Douglas O. Stenstrom in selecting one youth and paying his expenses.

Top Military Men Warn Congress On Armed Forces Cut

Proposed Budget Is Quoted As Wrecking Security Program

WASHINGTON (AP)—America's top military men have told Congress that proposed cuts in the armed services budget could disastrously cripple this country's fighting strength around the world.

Gen. J. Lawton Collins, Army chief of staff, told a Senate appropriations subcommittee Monday that House cuts already voted in military spending would "wreck" the Army's security program.

Gen. Omar N. Bradley, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, said "any further major cuts, and certainly any further delimitation of expenditures for fiscal year 1953 could be militarily disastrous."

The House has proposed limiting the military to 46 billion dollars for the fiscal year starting July 1 instead of the 53 billion requested.

WASHINGTON (AP)—A dispatch from the Far East Command of the Army to headquarters here said that "ammunition is plentiful," but is rationed "to save money and maintain ammunition reserve."

McGranery Tells Congress About Listing Reds

Thinks Attorney General Should Have Congress Guidance

WASHINGTON (AP)—Judge James P. McGranery said today the President of the United States, in time of emergency, has the right "to do any and all things necessary to preserve the life, the liberty and the property of its citizens."

WASHINGTON (AP)—James P. McGranery told senators today that he did not like the idea of the attorney general listing subversive organizations without guidance from Congress.

Now a federal district judge in Philadelphia, McGranery testified before the Senate Judiciary Committee at a second day of hearings on his nomination to succeed J. Howard McGrath as attorney general.

Veering away from earlier questioning about presidential powers, McGranery said he would prefer the federal employee loyalty program in 1947. The list is intended to serve as a guide to government departments.

Ferguson prefaced his questions about the subversive list and the security act by noting that McGranery, in his opening testimony Monday, had vigorously denounced Communism.

Biggest Turnout In Voters In Florida's History Go To Polls

Wilson Attacks WSB Authority In Wage Disputes

Says Agency Went Beyond Proper Stabilization Policy

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Wage Stabilization Board WSB today asked the 90,000 striking oil workers to end their walk-out immediately. Nathan P. Felsinger, board chairman, sent a message to the union and management with the unanimous approval of the board.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Charles E. Wilson said today he feels the Wage Stabilization Board (WSB) should be shorn of authority to recommend settlements in labor disputes.

The former mobilization chief testified at a congressional hearing that the WSB recommendations in the steel case went "well beyond the limits of proper wage and price stabilization policy."

Wilson told a House Labor Committee that Steelworkers were right to "go no more" than a nine cents an hour "catch-up wage increase" to bring them in line with increases of workers in other industries.

Wilson said too that it was "not realistic" to request the steel industry to absorb the wage increase without raising costs.

The WSB recommended a package increase of 26 cents an hour for Steelworkers who now average a little under $2 an hour. The package also included direct pay increases.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Judge James P. McGranery said today the President of the United States, in time of emergency, has the right "to do any and all things necessary to preserve the life, the liberty and the property of its citizens."

Sen. Taft Counts On Strong Backing Of Ohio Citizens

4 Other States Besides Florida Are Holding Primaries

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate today counted on strong backing of Ohio citizens for its Democratic primary.

Sen. Robert Taft's backers hoped today to show his home state of Ohio is solidly behind him for the Republican presidential nomination.

Alabama, Indiana, New Mexico and Florida also were having primaries today but in Maryland it was all over but the counting. Sen. Estes Kefauver of Tennessee won the presidential nomination in Maryland Monday but was the only name on the ballot and write-ins were not counted.

Florida Democrats had a couple of firsts. Their first presidential preference primary in 29 years was held in Tallahassee Monday. Sen. Richard Russell of Georgia was the first to be elected in a primary election that seemed sure to set a new ballot record.

All the voters in two little Florida East Coast precincts came in early and they reported their totals long before noon. At the other 1,680 polls will be opened until 7 p.m.

Dan McCarthy led for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination with 14 votes. Alto Adams was second with six. Bradley Odham third with three and Dale Spencer had one in the tabulation of the first two polling places—Brown's Farm in the Everglades, west of Palm Beach and Tindall Hammock in rural Broward County.

Sen. Richard Russell of Georgia had 29 votes in the presidential preference poll, to only one for his major opponent, Sen. Estes Kefauver of Tennessee.

Fair Weather Found Throughout State As All Candidates Predict Victories

By The Associated Press

Florida voters turned out in a steady stream early today to nominate candidates for governor and express their choice for the Democratic presidential nomination in a primary election that seemed sure to set a new ballot record.

All the voters in two little Florida East Coast precincts came in early and they reported their totals long before noon. At the other 1,680 polls will be opened until 7 p.m.

Sen. Richard Russell of Georgia had 29 votes in the presidential preference poll, to only one for his major opponent, Sen. Estes Kefauver of Tennessee.

The candidates for governor campaigned right to the end. Adams went home in Fort Pierce Monday. McCarthy stayed in Miami to solicit voters at the polls until noon, then he headed for Fort Pierce. Odham spent the last day at home in Sanford.

Kefauver and Russell, who have long before noon, stayed in Miami to get every last ballot from Dale County's numerous Democrats they could.

All of them predicted victory. Fair weather prevailed over the state and it seemed certain that the total turnout would exceed the record of 700,000 set two years ago when George Slaughter ousted Claude Pepper from the U. S. Senate.

Howell Suit For $75,300 Is Pushed Against The City

City Truck Driver, Mrs. Howell, Sued For $75,300

The $75,000 suit against the City and Frank Wheeler, City truck driver, was renewed yesterday by J. W. Spencer. The package included direct pay increases.

The original suit was filed in March by Mr. Spencer, and the Howell sought damages for injuries received by Mrs. Howell and husband, Roy Howell, Jr. of Lake Mary. Mr. Spencer filed an amended complaint at the County Clerk's office.

The new complaint, Mr. Spencer pointed out, was filed by the city residents, but no knowledge of the provision of the Charter and of the 30 day deadline. He added that on Jan. 28, Acting City Manager John Gillman, notified H. James Gut, Jr., the election apparently gave "a verdict" on the suit.

Mr. Steele in turn, it was claimed, employed the General Adjustment Board, Orlando, to investigate the case, and they in turn placed the matter in the hands of an agent, Merle Haven. Mr. Haven, it was stated, advised the Howells on Jan. 29 that the matter could not be adjusted between them if they saw an attorney about their case. On March 6, the complaint stated, Mr. Haven said that he would make an adjustment after hearing the claims of the Howells and stated that he would put the matter before a board. Several days passed and when the Howells called up to inquire about the board's decision, Haven said no decision had been reached, and that if they were not satisfied with the way he was handling the case that they had better get a lawyer.

Wilson Attacks WSB Authority In Wage Disputes

Says Agency Went Beyond Proper Stabilization Policy

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Wage Stabilization Board WSB today asked the 90,000 striking oil workers to end their walk-out immediately. Nathan P. Felsinger, board chairman, sent a message to the union and management with the unanimous approval of the board.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Charles E. Wilson said today he feels the Wage Stabilization Board (WSB) should be shorn of authority to recommend settlements in labor disputes.

The former mobilization chief testified at a congressional hearing that the WSB recommendations in the steel case went "well beyond the limits of proper wage and price stabilization policy."

Wilson told a House Labor Committee that Steelworkers were right to "go no more" than a nine cents an hour "catch-up wage increase" to bring them in line with increases of workers in other industries.

Wilson said too that it was "not realistic" to request the steel industry to absorb the wage increase without raising costs.

The WSB recommended a package increase of 26 cents an hour for Steelworkers who now average a little under $2 an hour. The package also included direct pay increases.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Judge James P. McGranery said today the President of the United States, in time of emergency, has the right "to do any and all things necessary to preserve the life, the liberty and the property of its citizens."

Fair Weather Found Throughout State As All Candidates Predict Victories

By The Associated Press

Florida voters turned out in a steady stream early today to nominate candidates for governor and express their choice for the Democratic presidential nomination in a primary election that seemed sure to set a new ballot record.

All the voters in two little Florida East Coast precincts came in early and they reported their totals long before noon. At the other 1,680 polls will be opened until 7 p.m.

Dan McCarthy led for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination with 14 votes. Alto Adams was second with six. Bradley Odham third with three and Dale Spencer had one in the tabulation of the first two polling places—Brown's Farm in the Everglades, west of Palm Beach and Tindall Hammock in rural Broward County.

Sen. Richard Russell of Georgia had 29 votes in the presidential preference poll, to only one for his major opponent, Sen. Estes Kefauver of Tennessee.

The candidates for governor campaigned right to the end. Adams went home in Fort Pierce Monday. McCarthy stayed in Miami to solicit voters at the polls until noon, then he headed for Fort Pierce. Odham spent the last day at home in Sanford.

Kefauver and Russell, who have long before noon, stayed in Miami to get every last ballot from Dale County's numerous Democrats they could.

All of them predicted victory. Fair weather prevailed over the state and it seemed certain that the total turnout would exceed the record of 700,000 set two years ago when George Slaughter ousted Claude Pepper from the U. S. Senate.

Time To Celebrate Week For Mental Health In U. S.

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP)—Is life too much for you? Has care got you down? Since this is National Mental Health Week, here are some ideas about keeping all your marbles.

Statisticians estimate that one out of every 12 children born in America today will spend some part of his life in a mental institution. This is a frightening fact.

Going to a psychiatrist isn't the solution. There are only about 8,000 psychiatrists in the country. Even if patients keep their couches warm around the clock, there are too few of these professional mind-probers to listen to all the people who want to tell their troubles. Also, getting to their car is a bit expensive for the average purse.

What is the answer? Well, let's look at the situation, and consider the possible remedies.

There are two ways to go through life—enjoying yourself in health or worrying yourself to death. Most people are firmly convinced they will never die of pleasure, and as a matter of fact the very idea frightens them. So they slowly worry themselves crazy, or treat themselves gradually into a grave, borne down by the weight of accumulated disappointments and frustrated ambitions.

The big fallacy of the human race is that it is spendthrift of its happiness, but miserly worry precisely like a miser.

This is all wrong. You should, of course, share your happiness; but, equally, you should share your worries. A happiness grows with sharing; a worry diminishes.

We've had share-the-work programs and share-the-wealth programs. What we need now is a good, nation-wide, share-your-worries program. People plagued by similar emotional, physical or financial woes could band together on the same principle as the members of Alcoholics Anonymous, a signally successful organization.

Some folks might be reluctant to share their private worries with neighbors or friends. In that case they could team up with strangers who knew nothing about them personally but suffered the same problems.

The advantage of these share-your-worries clubs is that they would put each worry in its proper perspective. The thing about your own worry is that it always looks bigger to you than it does to everybody else.

Tell your worry to another person and, somehow, it doesn't loom quite so large even to you. And the one you told it to? He can take your worry and a dozen other worries like it from a dozen other people and go right on enjoying his meals as he did before.

It is easy to laugh at the other fellow's problems. So if everybody in the world told his worries around, soon everybody would have something to laugh about.

That's the virtue of a national share-the-worries program. Once a man has something to laugh at—somebody else's woes—it is easier for him to see how silly it is to lose his mind on the treadmill of his own despair.

HOLLYWOOD By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—What's gone wrong with Hollywood's glamour? Ricardo Montalban thinks he knows, and he's altering his career accordingly.

"There have been two extremes in movie publicity," the wily Latin canted. "On one side are the sinful stars, whose scandals make big headlines. On the other side are the homey stars who are built for the next door."

"I think both extremes are bad for Hollywood. There is nothing exciting about sin; it is ugly and offensive to decent people. But it is also bad to make movie stars seem normal; they aren't normal or else they wouldn't be movie stars."

Montalban confessed that he had been placed in the "boy next door" category. He and his family have been the subjects of countless home layouts in the Movie Magazine. Finally, his wife declared, "I'm getting tired of seeing my face."

"That's when I decided to soft pedal the family angle," he remarked. "I think it is a mistake for a film personality to let the public know everything about his life. The element of mystery is gone."

"I realized this by watching television. I used to listen to the top announcers on radio. When I heard their deep, resonant tones, I imagined them to be handsome, muscular men. Then I saw them on TV. They still spoke with the wonderful voices, but they turned out to be fat, middle-aged, bald and short men."

The same is true in the movies. Valentino was great because you couldn't hear him in the silent movies. People used their imagination concerning how he sounded when he made love. Today, the quality of acting has improved tremendously, but little is left to the imagination. I think that at least in his private life, an actor should not tell everything."

Montalban, whose publicity has been in a conservative vein, will be going in for beefcake. That's the male version of cheesecake, you know. He has one of the best builds in Hollywood and doesn't mind showing it, as long as the exposure is called for in movie plots.

His first opportunity came in a prizefight picture. He struts in the waist while working in the fields for "Letter to the President." And he's currently training to appear as a trapeze artist in a future film.

Montalban has been at MGM for seven years and is now in his heat position, as far as screen vehicles. He said he hasn't been impatient about the slow build-up of his career.

"At any other studio, I would have been zoned up long before now," he said. "But I also might have been on the way down. I prefer the way MGM builds people. They are slower getting up to the top, but they stay there longer."

The hobbyists have been very good to me, but I have never been the tremendous enthusiasm that some of the other fellows have. I'm just as glad. I've seen what has happened to those fellows after the kids lose their enthusiasm."

Van Johnson tries to quiet Paul Douglas in this scene from MGM's new picture, "When in Rome," showing on the Ritz Theater screen today and Wednesday.

Checking into FABRON 821, from the Fleet Airborne Electronics Training Unit of Norfolk, Va., is Alford H. Meyer, ALAN Meyer, hails from Indianapolis, Ind., and attended the Butler University of that city. His present duties with the FABRON will be maintaining the aircraft radio gear, in the Electronics Division.

The FABRON softball team overcame the Conway nine, in winning their fifth straight game at the Orlando Recreation League. Morris Hall of the Navy, turned in a brilliant mound performance, as he relinquished but one hit to the Conway outfielders. This hit was the result of a scratch bunt, which occurred in the fourth inning. Jack Perry and Fred Moyne were the big guns of the night, and collected three for three each.

Clifford Casasu, of the FABRON Communications Department, was injured in last night's softball tilt with the Lake Conway nine. "Casey" incurred a sprained ankle while attempting a slide into third base, and is resting well today in the Station Dispensary.

F. K. Gillingham of the Station Supply Department wishes to express his appreciation to the merchants of Sanford for their willing co-operation. The policy of the Navy has always been to purchase locally thereby helping to promote better business in the immediate area. Sometimes, however, it is not possible to get the materials needed from the locality and in the case of the Sanford business men, in the event it is impossible to supply us, they are always ready to find for us the closest, quickest and easiest way to get supplies for the Station. This type of local merchant co-operation is indispensable to the Navy in its supply program. Mr. Gillingham extends his thanks and welcomes any new business with the Sanford merchants which will benefit the Naval Supply.

Gerry Cartwright, AKA, of the Station Photo Lab is preparing to enter Prep School in Baldwin, Md., near the end of this month. In September, ferries will start the fall term at the University of Southern California at the expense of the Government, as a member of the Navy's ROTC program.

Gambling Stamp Law Is Hit By Ruling

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A 9-month old federal law requiring gamblers to buy a $50 tax stamp was declared unconstitutional today by U. S. District Judge George A. Welsh.

Welsh ruled the law was a police measure enacted by Congress under the guise of a tax bill.

The decision was handed down on an appeal by Joseph Kahrigar, on charges of failing to buy the stamp.

In dismissing the action against Kahrigar, Welsh said he was not ruling on another section of the act which requires gamblers to pay a 10 per cent tax on their earnings.

Judge Welsh's action was the first judicial ruling on the constitutionality of the law, which went into effect Nov. 1, 1951.

The legality of the act had been challenged all the way up to the U. S. Supreme Court, but the nation's highest court refused to rule on its constitutionality.

The previous attack on the law was made by Hayes L. Combs, a Washington news vendor. He argued that the tax was unconstitutional because he said it amounted to a penalty in the guise of taxes.

A special 3-judge U. S. District Court in Washington dismissed the case on the ground it was being asked to issue an injunction to protect a criminal enterprise.

Philatheans Meet With Mrs. Gillon

Mrs. J. N. Gillon and Mrs. W. E. Wallace are co-hostesses for the meeting of the Philatheans Class of the First Presbyterian Church which was held at the home of Mrs. Gillon on Palmto Avenue last night.

The meeting was dedicated principally to the Blanche McKinnon Memorial Fund and a special collection was taken to enlarge the fund. Mrs. Graham Hunter gave the devotional and followed with a story called "Endless Influence of a Good Life".

The influence of the good life of Mrs. McKinnon was indicated. It was explained by the fact that the Rev. Charles, formerly pastor of the Presbyterian Church and now a missionary in Brazil, has pledged a pulpit and seats in the chapel in Brazil as a memorial to Mrs. McKinnon and the Beardsall Chapel of Sanford has pledged to send money to Rev. Charles to assist him in the work.

If you're interested in hearing the election returns in the comedy of home, then be sure to stay tuned to WTRB tonight. The baseball game being played in Jacksonville will be broadcast, but throughout the game, WTRB will interrupt to give you the latest standings both local and statewide races.

The versatile Roy Flynn again selects the most popular musical presentations on the campus of Florida State University and weaves excerpts from them into a most interesting program. "Repeat Performances" is a weekly presentation at 11:15 on Wednesdays.

"Really feel at home out here" said the Rev. Julian Hestrom on the other day as he came in to see the folks around WTRB. It's rumored that Julian will vote one of the "World Parade" broadcasts and possibly an inning or two of baseball in one of the nearby out-of-town games. It's nice to see and hear Julian again.

There's going to be an interesting article on tomorrow's "Radio Farm Digest" at 12:15. Dr. Howard Miller, Experiment Station plant pathologist, gives information about some diseases of ornamental plants and ways of controlling those diseases.

Methodist Meeting Has Final Session

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The Methodist General Conference swung into its final session today after dealing decisively with the touchy question of the church at large toward the unofficial Methodist candidates for the 1932 election.

The 720 delegates listened intently Monday afternoon to debate on the federation, which was charged with following left-wing policies. Then they voted overwhelmingly to ask the federation to drop Methodist from its title and vacate offices in the Methodist Building, New York.

Before the conference today was the question whether to drop the no-annoyance pledge required of ministerial candidates by 19 workers.

Monday night, the conference adopted a report on an end to racial discrimination in the church. A proposal that members of official boards—administrative bodies for the local churches—abstain from liquor was defeated.

The Federation for Social Action, which has no connection with the church, was set up originally to promote the church's social creed. It has turned increasingly toward politics.

Its opponents complained that the public might think statements of the federation represented church opinion. The Rev. Dr. Paul Marvin, Charlotte, N. C., charged the federation opposed the Marshall Plan, supported the Communist regime in China, and solicited funds for defense of 11 convicted Communist leaders.

The Rev. Jack McMichael, executive secretary of the federation, said a report later that the organization had urged recognition of Red China and its admission into the United Nations. He added that the federation felt legal consideration of the constitutional issue involved in the trial of Communist leaders should not fall for lack of funds.

St. Anne's Chapter Meets With Mrs. Lee

The St. Anne Chapter of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Episcopal Church met at the home of Mrs. Harry Lee on Seminole Boulevard Monday with Mrs. H. E. Tooke co-hostess. The meeting was presided over by the chairman, Mrs. Hawkins Connelly.

Plans for the Auxiliary's annual luncheon on March 19 were made. Mrs. J. N. Hubert, Sr. spoke on "Thanksgiving".

At the conclusion of the meeting a sweet course was served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. Toule and Mrs. Zack Varnell. The following: Mrs. Connelly, Mrs. W. F. Brooks, Mrs. A. M. Phillips, Mrs. Tooke, Mrs. W. T. Jackson, Mrs. Paul Chesterson, Mrs. Deane Turbayne, Mrs. Varnell, Mrs. Robert Murray, Mrs. W. V. Lovell and Mrs. Harry Lee.

Seminole Chapter 2, O.E.S. Holds Meet

Mrs. Tommy McLain, worthy matron and Robert Cole, worthy patron, presided over the meeting of Seminole Chapter 2, Order of the Eastern Star which met in the Masonic Hall last Thursday night.

Mrs. W. E. Raines, associate matron, and J. B. Jones, associate patron, were in their respective offices as all other regular officers.

Mrs. McLain announced that at the next meeting to be held on May 15, a new Bible, a gift of Mrs. H. W. Turner, past grand instructor of District 84, will be presented in appropriate ceremonies.

Mrs. Mabel Alexander, Mrs. Bennie Brady, Mrs. Mabel Brown and Mrs. Ernest Simpson were initiated as new members in an impressive initiation service after which refreshments were served to those present.

Mrs. Lucille Norton was chairman of the serving committee and was assisted by Mrs. Lewis Bradeneyer, Mrs. Claire Brown, Mrs. J. A. Logan, Mrs. J. H. Bilyray and Mrs. Theron Thomas.

Mrs. R. W. Casube Hostess To Circle

The Golden Rule Circle of the First Christian Church met Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. R. W. Casube, 409 West Eighteenth Street with Mrs. M. H. Billingsley, chairman, presiding.

Mrs. Hubert J. Bass opened the meeting with prayer and Mrs. J. R. Richard presented the devotional.

Mrs. W. P. Yealey gave reports on the State Convention held last week in Gainesville and spoke on the subject, "Triumphs in Times of Tension".

After the business meeting refreshments were served by the hostess assisted by co-hostess, Mrs. J. R. Richard to the members present including Mrs. W. H. Young, Mrs. W. P. Yealey, Mrs. J. Peras, Mrs. Charles Grieme, Mrs. M. H. Billingsley, Mrs. Hubert Bass and Joe Ellsworth, Jr.

The subject of her speech was "Spiritual Security of the Home". She pointed out the fact that too much emphasis is put on social security and not enough on spiritual security.

Chairman of the activities for the day was Mrs. L. I. Pradler. Women from all the churches of the city participated in the event.

Mrs. J. I. Pradler presided at the Council, presided over the business meeting. Mrs. Pradler was installed as vice president and Miss Mary Robinson as recording secretary.

Serving through the tea hour were Mrs. Ralph Leasing, Mrs. David Rothchild, Mrs. Charles Morrison and Mrs. Mary Dally.

Junior High School Puts On Frolics

Pupils of the Junior High School enjoyed a program of Spring Frolics Friday, an all day celebration known as "Playday". At night a coronation ceremony was held with Tommy Wyatt as king and Elizabeth Woodruff as queen.

The school band, directed by Perry Bremer and clad in uniforms of blue and gold, added much to the occasion with a 30 minute program.

Presiding over the crowning of the royal couple was John Clark. Robert Samuels was the herald and Floyd Dossy, eighth grade, was the coronator.

At the ceremony, seventh grade attendants were Jane Whitley, Donald Mathews, Penny Waller, Randall Robbins, Betty Carpenter, Alfred Stanley, Peggy Thornley and Floyd Dossy. Eighth grade attendants were Janice Kinlaw, John Bower, Diane Beard, Jane Hawkins, Mary Alice Justice and Jon Bayne.

More than 75 members of the seventh grade Glee Club, directed by Mrs. W. G. Fleming, appeared in uniform to sing seven numbers, and were accompanied by Nancy Cash and Ann Thurston.

Janice Kinlaw scored a hit with a ballet dance. Participating in special numbers were Nancy Cash, Randall Robbins, Laura Phillips and Carol Butt.

The mixed eighth grade choral group included 86 members, and accompanists were Tommy Wyatt and Paul Elliott, both of whom, together with Mrs. Fleming, were presented gifts with Barbara O'barr officiating.

Mrs. Lee Samuels had charge of the "Playday" track events, and a softball game.

New Bathing Suits Are Shown In Paris

By NADKANE WALKER

PARIS (AP) — Now they've made a briefer Bikini.

Jacques Heim did it this morning in his mid-season fashion show. With the naughtiest bathing suits and sunsuits Paris has ever seen.

Other shockers were transparent open-work lace dresses worn over bathing suits, and a pair of slippers but bathing shorts.

Heim calls the tops of his new bathing suits "beam bras" and certainly the men are going to beam when they appear on the beaches. Hardly more than G-strings, they consist of two strategically located bands or fringes across bust and hip-line.

One model wore a wicked "siren sarong" in a black tulle. Another Italia girl effect was in raffia fringe.

Besides the open-work dresses, buttoning down the front for removing on the beach, Heim also showed a transparent orange nylon skirt over a black bathing costume. His "sculptured" bathing suits were strapless one-piece outfits every curve.

After his beachwear opening, anything was bound to be an anticlimax, but Heim showed cellobane embroidered bare shoulder evening fashions.

HOLLIS SHOW
WINTER PARK (Special) — The annual Independent Women's Association show at Hollis College will open a four-night run tonight at the Annie Russell Theater, Winter Park.

This year's production, entitled "The Prince of Erata," features an all-talent cast, original plot and 18 original songs by student Howard Richards, numerous special acts and original numbers, an orchestra and a chorus.

Performances will begin nightly at 8:15 p.m. Tickets may be obtained at the theater box office each afternoon or immediately prior to each performance.

Allied Warplanes Bomb Sunchon In North Korea

By WILLIAM C. BARNARD
SEOUL, Korea (AP)—Hundreds of Allied warplanes today bombed Sunchon, a North Korean rail junction in a concentrated day-long saturation attack.

"There'll really be a major revision of Red rail schedules tonight," a Fifth Air Force spokesman said.

The full strength of four fighter-bomber wings joined in the attack. Sabre jets guarded the area while the fighter-bombers roared in repeated attacks on the vital railway link, 25 miles north of the North Korean capital, Pyongyang.

Allied planes followed the same plan used so successfully last year in the heaviest bomb attack of the Korean War when 312 Allied planes hit airfields at Sunju on the Korean border.

The concentrated attack on heavily defended Sunchon was preceded by round-the-clock raids on the major Communist railroad linking Sunchon with the Manchurian border. From Sunchon the rail lines fork to supply either end of the 155-mile front lines.

Fighter-bombers concentrated Monday on a 40-mile stretch of track between Kunu and Huichon. Pilots reported they tore up rails in 80 spots. Kunu is a junction point 20 miles north of Sunchon. Huichon is 60 air miles south of the Manchurian border.

Monday night a formation of Superforts from Okinawa, using electronic bombing techniques, rained 80 tons of high explosives on a rail bridge at Huichon. It was their second attack on the repeatedly repaired bridge in three days.

The double concentration on key sectors of a single vital rail line is a new technique to nullify the speed with which Communists repair bombed out roadbeds.

The Navy reported pilots from the carriers Valley Forge and Princeton, sent out Monday to "re-destroy" laboriously reconstructed rail lines, left 118 new gaps "for enemy repair gangs to reconstruct."

The toughest spot on the western front was the bridge at Sunchon when 40 Reds attacked an Allied position northwest of Sunchon at 1 a.m. The U. N. troops withdrew from their much fought over outpost. But later they reoccupied it without firing a shot after it was blasted by Allied artillery.

Communist artillery and mortars fired nearly 3,000 rounds at U. N. troops along the front in an unusual burst of activity Monday.

MUNSAN, Korea (AP)—Armistice delegates today held another quick session that apparently brought them no closer to truce in Korea.

The meeting lasted 15 minutes. It was the sixth such gathering of 10 Allied and Communist generals and admirals since April 28.

All have been secret. The atmosphere is coolly impertuous, a United Nations Command spokesman said.

Negotiators agreed to meet again Wednesday. There was no other hint of agreement.

Presumably they still have before them the U. N. Command proposal for a sweeping solution of the remaining disputes on truce terms—a plan the Communists have refused to accept. Three major disputes are over how to exchange prisoners, whether Russia should help police an armistice and whether Reds should be allowed to repair on a rail bridge at Huichon. ### Florida Primary

The Democratic presidential poll and governorship battle royal completely overshadowed interest in other contests on the ballot. The Democrats also are nominating candidates for the U. S. Senate, Supreme Court justice, one railroad commissioner, four congressmen and hundreds of local and district officials.

The 88,000 Republicans are nominating a governorship candidate from a record field of three aspirants—Bert Acker, Dr. Elmore Kitzmiller and Harry S. Swan. They also have contests for the nomination for Congress in two districts.

As the first primary campaign drew to a close Monday, the three leading Democratic candidates for governor filed financial reports showing they had spent $364,000 among them in their races (which is probably less than in recent past elections, although the old reporting law was not as strict and had "many" discrepancies for years).

Adams reported he had spent $151,500 and wound up with a balance in his hand of $3,084. McCarty listed expenditures of $141,115 which left him a balance of $27,487. Odham said he had spent $71,833, and he had $18,529 left in the kitty.

Adams spent $42,900 last week, and took in $20,219 in contributions. McCarty's expenses last week were $31,481, and his contributions totaled $42,900. Odham reported he spent $10,047 last week and his campaign committee jumped up to $32,841.

Kefauver and Russell had trouble restraining their tempers in a joint television show at Miami Monday night. It started out to be a one-hour panel discussion with two reporters and a professor, but wound up with the two senators firing back and forth at each other for an hour and a half.

McCarty closed his campaign with a state-wide radio speech in which he said his opponents were trying to use the same tactics against him this year that Fuller Warren used in defeating him four years ago, but he didn't think the people were going to be fooled again.

Odham wound up with an Orlando rally and a 10-station radio speech in which he repeated his determination to clean up official corruption and crime if it took changing sheriffs as often as he changed his shirt.

Adams closed with a state-wide broadcast from Tampa in which he said his election would result in giving "the government back to you, the people."

He and Odham kept up their attacks on McCarty to the end.

Bright, warm weather prevailed through the state, and early reports showed heavy voting in most cities. Lines of voters awaited their turn at many Miami polling places. The forecast called for continued warm weather today and tonight in all areas, with partly cloudy skies. Temperatures were in the mid 80s.

Florida's all-time record vote in a Democratic primary is 707,000, cast in the 1950 contest when Sen. George Smathers unseated the veteran former Sen. Claude Pepper.

In a final radio appeal this morning, Russell urged voters to support the included efforts by Kefauver to attack gangsters and racketeers in his campaign.

REMEMBER a football team that came up from the South years ago from tiny Centre College and beat the then-mighty Harvard eleven? The nickname for the valiant little Centre squad was "the praying colons" because at crucial junctures of a contest all the boys would kneel and pray. H. Pressed to say what he considered the most striking difference between the customs of his native France and America, movie maker Jacques Barr came through with, "Well, in America if you try to strike up an acquaintance with a luscious lass you spot on the avenue, a policeman promptly arrests you in la belle France, the policeman introduces you."

Big Increase In Food Prices May Come From Ruling

WASHINGTON (AP)—A court ruling that wholesale and retail grocers may seek higher price ceilings under the Caperhart Amendment may have cleared the way for a big increase in the price of many food items.

The Justice Department will be asked to appeal the decision, of the Emergency Court of Appeals 1, the Supreme Court.

The Emergency Court held Monday that the Caperhart Amendment to the Economic Controls Law applies to wholesalers and retailers as well as manufacturers and processors.

The court thus upheld the contention of Safeway Stores Inc., big food chain, that grocers are entitled to higher ceilings for such things as cereals, syrups, oils, canned and processed foods, noodles, flour, soups, condensed milk and jellies.

The amendment grants price adjustments in the ceilings of "any material" to higher than an agricultural commodity on the basis of rising costs to the seller. This permits addition to pre-Korean prices of any such costs to last July 26.

OPS had rejected the Safeway claim. The price agency argued the language of the Caperhart Amendment applied only to manufacturers and processors who have been given the right to seek higher ceilings.

James A. Durham, OPS assistant chief counsel, said that "if the Supreme Court upholds the decision it may mean a big increase in the price of food items."

"We contend that Congress did not intend the amendment to apply to grocers. The Emergency Court has held otherwise. Under the decision, the Caperhart Amendment would apply to just about everybody except farmers. It still would not cover agricultural products themselves."

Under the ruling, OPS now must consider the Safeway adjustment applications—as well as those of

ODHAM GETS IN RUNOFF WITH McCARTY

Cleveland, Herndon, Milwee, And Housholder Win

Boyle And Hobby Face Runoff Elections; Higginbotham And Meisch Also Lead

The official canvassing and the counting of the Seminole County absentee ballots will be conducted tonight at 7:00 p.m. at the Chamber of Commerce building in the office of Supervisor of Registration. It was announced by Judge Douglas O. Stenstrom. Prior to the announcement, the county election canvasser and compilation of the absentee ballots were slated for Friday. Mrs. Camilla Bruce stated that all candidates and anyone interested may witness the canvassing tonight.

Senator Lloyd F. Boyle, Mack Cleveland, Jr., O. P. Herndon, J. L. Hobby, Rayburn T. Milwee, and Karlisle Housholder were winners in their races for various state and county offices in Seminole County in yesterday's Democratic primary, an unofficial tabulation by the Sanford Herald of returns from Seminole County precincts, which did not include absentee ballots, revealed today.

Seeking re-election to the State Senate in 37th senatorial district of Seminole and Herndon counties, Senator Boyle received more votes in the rural precincts by 1,536 to 876 for his opponents combined. He had a total of 3,412 to 1,752 for A. Max Brewer of Titusville and 496 for A. T. Rosseter of Melbourne. Senator Boyle's home town and county in yesterday's Democratic primary, an unofficial tabulation by the Sanford Herald revealed today. Winning every precinct in the county except Altamonte Springs, Mr. Odham polled 2,588 votes in Sanford to 1,190 for Dan McCarty, his nearest opponent, and took the combined city and county precincts by 4,005 and 1,841.

Alto Adams, third candidate in the race, failed to show much strength, polling only 593 votes while Dale E. Spencer got 117 and Bill Hendrix 40. Mr. Odham's vote in the rural precincts alone totaled 1,417 to 654 for McCarty. Oviedo gave Mr. Odham his most impressive showing with 233 for him and only 43 for McCarty who was second high there.

Senator Russell of Georgia fared better in Seminole County than he did in the state as a whole carrying the county by nearly three to one. He polled 4,470 votes in the entire county to 1,434 for Senator Kefauver. Their other two opponents were Charles E. Compton with 87 votes.

O. P. Herndon, seeking re-election as clerk of the court also won by a better than two-to-one majority over W. H. Stempier. Mr. Herndon's vote in the combined city precincts was 2,000 to 1,205 for Mr. Stempier, and in the combined rural precincts 1,537 to 702, for a grand total in the combined county of 4,537 to 2,007 for Mr. Stempier.

In the sheriff's race I. L. Hobby of Lake Mary, an Atlantic Coast Line engineer, polled 2,547 votes and will go into a runoff with the present Sheriff P. A. Mero who received 1,790. Poo G. Williams was third with 966 votes. C. W. Charles' P. J. received 919 and J. Clay Williams 532.

Mr. Hobby won over Sheriff Mero in the rural precincts by over two to one, or 1,031 to 601, and also carried the three city precincts, receiving 1,510 here to 1,290 for Mero.

T. W. Lawton, who has served as Superintendent of Schools for over 20 years, lost out to Rayburn T. Milwee of Longwood by 2,401 to 8,501. The county precincts gave Mr. Milwee 1,873 votes to Mr. Lawton's 850 while in Sanford Mr. Lawton received 1,541 to 2,570 for Mr. Milwee.

Karlisle Housholder was elected to succeed George A. Speer, Jr. as county prosecutor attorney by 3,514 to 3,821, receiving 1,198 in the rural precincts to 1,064 for Mr. Speer, while in the combined Sanford precincts Mr. Housholder got 2,346 votes to 1,500 for Mr. Speer.

In the vote for county commissioner in District No. 1 Earl Higginbotham led the field but failed to receive a majority over his three opponents and will go into a runoff with W. B. (Brown) Miller. Mr. Higginbotham got 483 votes, Mr. Miller 407, W. G. Killee, the incumbent, 39, and C. C. Priest, 308.

Ole E. Fournaker was re-elected county commissioner in District No. 2 by 504 to 482 for his opponent, W. A. Forward.

In District No. 3 another runoff looms with John W. Meisch, who received 867 votes, fighting it out with Robert L. Carter with 877 votes. The three candidates, Victor M. Greene got 318 votes. The justice of the peace in District No. 4 L. A. Tate will go into a runoff with...

Capt. Chittenden Is Main Speaker At Kiwanis Meet

$4,000,000 Worth Of Improvements Are Slated At Station

Open house will be held next Saturday at the Sanford Naval Auxiliary Air Station in celebration of Armed Forces Day, Capt. J. L. Chittenden, station commander, told Kiwanians today. He was introduced by Chamber of Commerce Manager Forrest Breckenridge and by John Pearson, local chairman of the Armed Forces Day program.

Capt. Chittenden praised the cooperative spirit of the people of Sanford and Seminole County, and announced that it is expected that work will be started on the $4,000,000 improvement project at the Station within the next few months. This, he said, will include runway enlargements.

He defended those in charge of heavy military expenditures from charges of waste by certain politicians. Quoting from a recent article on the subject, he declared that no private business firm has the know-how to spend 119 billion dollars in 19 months without some waste. During the 19 months following the attack on Korea, the Department of Defense has been granted authority to spend this amount, he stated. The bulk of the material to fight with our construction.

He added that the Chief of Naval Material recently pointed out to a Congressional committee that a leading mail order house, following the attack on Korea, the bulk of the material to fight with our construction.

In introducing Capt. Chittenden, Mr. Pearson told of his early training as a Boy Scout, his appointment to Annapolis in June 1928, and of his election as captain of the Academy's basketball team during his senior year. He also told of his service at Pearl Harbor, Okinawa and in the Aleutians.

Dick Park, an executive director of the State Retailers Association, announced the Kiwanians with a "salam" in Negro dialect. Guests included Walter Neal formerly of Sanford and here
