State Attorney Silent On Proceedings

By BOB LLOYD

Herald Staff Writer The Seminole County Grand Jury was in session today and believed to be hearing evidence in connection with the August 1973 murder of one of two young women whose decomposing bodies were found in a trash dump at Altamonte Springs. Seminole-Brevard State Atty. Abbott Herring, who is handling the grand jury probe, was silent on what the jurors were considering but courthouse observers and sources close to the

Shorter Hours To Stay

The maximum five-hour day for kindergarten and first grade upils in Seminole County was reaffirmed this week by School Board members in spite of an appeal for longer hours from a group of parents concerned with national reading levels.

Mrs. M. Adamkiewicz representing some parents of children at Longwood Elementary school, said extending the four-and-threequarter hour day for the lower grades to the regular six-and-ahalf hour day would help raise reading level averages of the children.

"We don't have time to waste. First grade is the basis for all reading. California schools are not cutting back on the hours for their lower grades. Teachers should work around the children's short attention span," said Mrs. Adamkiewicz. She said the county has to play "a game of catchup with national average standards."

> said educational experts claim "it's not the number of hours, but how the time is used."

severe blows to the head prior to or at the time of death. No arrests have been made in the dump murders, but Sheriff's Lt. George Abbgy, working the case with Altamonte Springs police detectives, last May is known to have questioned a member of the Outlaw motorcycle gang, 29year-old Joseph Robert "Crazy Joe" Spaziano, in connection with the case.

Spaziano recently was convicted in Orange County of the Feb. 1974 rape and knife assault

Spaziano was sentenced life in prison plus five years. Police said the juvenile girl was stabbed in the eyes by her attacker and dumped in an isolated area of Orange County where she probably would have died if she hadn't been found. Surgeons were able to repair the girl's right eye but her left eye was damaged so badly that she now has only shadow vision with that eye, police said. Abbgy attended Spaziano's

He waived extradition and was returned to Florida for trial in the case. Prisoners Riot Over Food

In Tennessee State Prison

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) - Violence flared in the Tennessee State Prison Thursday night after a guard slapped a prisoner in the dining room, authorities reported. One convict was shot, four other prisoners and two guards were injured.

About 400 convicts who were outside their cells and gathered in the main compound took part in the disturbance at its peak, prison officials said. They said the slapping incident came after a prisoner complained when the dining room ran out of pork chops and began serving baloney for supper.

A fire bomb thrown into the prison library started a fire but the extent of the damage was not immediately known, officials said. They added that the commisary was looted of soft drinks. Order was restored after six hours.

Ford In New Hampshire

PORTSMOUTH, N.H. (AP) - Playing to crowds he called "just unbelievable," President Ford showed New Hampshire voters his handshaking, streetcorner campaign style with an 11-hour quest for Republican votes in a special Senate election. Candidate Ford says he'll be back next winter to seek

White House votes for himself. Ford's marathon campaign mission Thursday in behalf of Senate candidate Louis C. Wyman seemed also to be a sendoff for his own candidacy in the state that will hold the first presidential primary election of 1976. The President said he intends to enter the New Hampshire primary, which is scheduled next March 2, but could be moved up a week to keep it the first in the nation.

Chappaquiddick Records Gone

WASHINGTON (AP) - Original police records on the Chappaquiddick incident involving Sen. Edward M. Kennedy are still missing, despite assertions by two former police chiefs that they were returned to the files last April.

Officials of the Edgartown police department at Martha's Vineyard, Mass., say they cannot find the documents. "We've looked everywhere. We honestly don't know where they are," Patricia McLeod, a special police officer, said in a telephone interview.

The mystery of the vanished records was raised recently in a book by Carl Gottlieb, a script writer for the movie "Jaws" which was filmed at Martha's Vineyard last summer.

Ford Wears Bullet-Proof Vest

PORTSMOUTH, N.H. (AP) - President Ford's security agents appear to have outfitted him with a protective vest to wear on ventures into crowds after a woman aimed a gun at him at close range last weeks

Aside from that, security procedures were changed little Thursday as the President campaigned through southern New Hampshire, making 22 stops on a day long tour to boost Republican Louis C. Wyman's chances in next Tuesday's special U.S. Senate election.

Ford displayed the same zest for shaking hands and mixing with crowds as he has on previous trips, and the cordon of a half dozen agents around him was the same as in the past.

Fed Plans To Offset Default

WASHINGTON (AP) - The Federal Reserve has drawn up a contingency plan to offset the impact on the banking system of a default by New York City, Chairman Arthur F. Burns says.

"The Federal Reserve is the nation's lender of last resort," Burns said. "I and other members of the board have given repeated assurances that the Federal Reserve will act promptly to relieve liquidity strains on the banking system, whatever the cause of those strains may

The plan is keyed to loans at below market rates to maintain banks' cash flows if New York says it cannot meet payments on its debts to banks.

Democrats Reject Energy Plan

WASHINGTON (AP) - Senate Democrats apparently are as unwilling to accept President Ford's program of higher energy prices as they were when the plan was offered eight months ago.

The latest evidence came Thursday night when Democrats rejected the President's newest compromise effort, offered by telephone from New Hampshire.

"The President is trying to create pressure on Congress...to knuckle under to the President's plan," charged Sen. Edmund S. Muskie, D-Maine, after the offer was relayed by Acting Republican Leader Robert P. Griffin of

Firemen Told Purchase Control Required

could be made. At several recent council meetings it had been noted that the fire department was not adhering to the purchasing ordinance. Councilman Martin Bacon Sr., said this week there has been a systematic avoidance by the fire department of the purchasing procedure and splitting of invoices has occurred to circumvent the law.

"If the state auditor came in he would say it is pretty shoddy, if not illegal, to by-pass the bidding system," Bacon said, adding he is fighting to have a "ship-shape" operation. Mayor Walter Sorenson, a vocal supporter of the volunteer fire department said he had to question whether the recent repair of the fire siren was an emergency. An emergency, Sorenson said, is something that happens in the middle of the night when no one is available to handle the proper paper work

A move by Councilman Harry Terry to hire a full-time fire chief appeared to raise the ire of veteran volunteer firemen about as much as statements by Smith, that the volunteers would be involved in the city election this year to defeat Terry and Bacon, angered the city council.

Several volunteers, describing their remarks as "not threats," said they would not work under a paid city chief. Supporters said councilmen were "destroying our fire department." Others pointed to the fire department as one of the best in the state.

Ashler Signs Pardon

For Pitts, Lee

TALLAHASSEE (AP) - Insurance Commissioner Philip Ashler signed today a full parcon for Freddie Lee Pitts and Wilbert Lee, putting the two prisoners convicted of murder one Cabinet signature away from freedom next Friday.

"I'm conviced that there's reasonable doubt that Pitt and Lee are guilty" of murdering two Port St. Joe service station attendants in 1963, Ashler said. "This was not a precipitous decision on my part, but one that I carefully and prayerfully thought over, he said. "Nothing caused me to think that they were actually

Ashler signed the pardon on a secretary's desk outside the office of Art Canaday, Gov. Reubin Askew's legal

The pardon, which must be signed by Askew and three Cabinet officers before it becomes effective, has now been signed by the governor, Atty. Gen. Robert Shevin and Ashler. Education Commissioner Ralph Turlington is expected to sign the pardon, putting it into effect, but may wait until Monday while he reviews conflicting evidence.

Fire Injures Union Official

MIAMI (AP) - An official of National Airlines' flight attendants union was injured along with two other women Thursday by a flash fire officials said appeared to have been deliberately set.

Two men were seen running from the building shortly after the fire broke out in an apartment hallway. A can which appeared to contain gasoline was found in the middle of a stack of newspapers at the two-story apartment complex, firemen said...

Lea Rosteck, vice chairman of the Association of Flight Attendants, suffered hyperventilation and was treated and released from a hospital. Also injured were Dolly DeForge, who lives next door to Miss Rosteck, and another resident, Toni Sadali. Neither was seriously hurt. There were no indications that the blaze was connected with a strike against National by some 1,200 flight attendants.

Court Rules On Privacy Case

TALLAHASSEE (AP) - A Florida appeal court says news photographers and reporters may be guilty of trespass if they enter a home with police or firemen without the owner's permission.

The 1st District Court of Appeal ruled 2-1 Thursday that Duval County Circuit Court must try an invasion of privacy suit against the Florida Publishing Co., for publication in the Florida Times-Union of a photograph taken in a fire-ravaged home.

"Though it is conceded by appellant that the the fire marshal and police rightfully entered the premises for the purpose of discharging their official duties, there is nothing to indicate that those officials had, in the absence of an emergency, authority to invite others to do so," said the opinion written by Chief Judge Tyrie Boyer of Jacksonville.

Secrets Given Away

TALLAHASSEE (AP) - The state has given away the secrets of a computer that writes $6.2-billion worth of checks annually and has taken few precautions to keep the information from falling into the wrong hands, a legislative auditor says.

Michael Rose, staff director of the Joint Legislative Auditing Committee, told a select House committee on computers and state employe pay Thursday that the check-writing program was made public during bids on new equipment.

"Basically, anyone who could get access to the program and could get access to the Carlton Data Center could get in there and write a bunch of checks the state doesn't need written," Rose said. "The state could be out a substantial amount of money."

Carter Predicts Showdown

JACKSONVILLE (AP) - Jimmy Carter, former governor of Georgia, says Florida's presidential primary next spring will be a showdown between himself and Gov. George Wallace of Alabama.

And Carter has suggested a debate with Wallace leading up to the March 9 voting day, when delegates to the Democratic national convention will be chosen. "I'd be glad to debate with Gov. Wallace," Carter told a political forum Thursday. "I think our records as governor should be compared on the basis of race relations, the bureaucracy, tax reform and services to the people."

Doctors Say Killer Sick

FORT LAUDERDALE (AP) - Two doctors have testified that David Nyberg, a 20-year-old Arlington, Va., man on trial for a brutal satanic murder, suffers from mental illness.

Dr. Sidney J. Merin, a Tampa-area psychologist, told the 12-member circuit court jury Thursday that Nyberg "to use a layman's term, is profoundly crazy." Nyberg is charged in the murder of Kenneth Houston who was stabbed 36 times Feb. 28 in Tampa. The body was found stuffed in a plastic bag along a desolate road in Virginia.

Archbishop At Canonization

NEW YORK (AP) - Terence Cardinal Cooke, Roman Catholic archbishop of New York, has flown to Rome to attend the canonization of Mother Seton as the Catholic Church's first American-born saint.

The cardinal left Thursday night on a flight with a number of nuns of the order of the Sisters of Charity. Mother Seton was born Elizabeth Ann Bayley in New York in 1774. Married and widowed, she converted to Catholicism and founded the Sisters of Charity in 1809. Some 20,000 Americans, 700 of them from New York, are expected to attend the canonization ceremony to be conducted by Pope Paul VI Sunday in St. Peter's Square in Rome.

Alioto Gave In To Union Demands

What happened in San Francisco recently was that Mayor Alioto caved in to the unreasonable demands of the fire and police unions, in effect rewarding them for their strikes against the public safety.

He has made it a great deal harder for city officials throughout California and the nation to resist similar demands from their city employes. He has increased the public opposition to bills in the Legislature granting collective bargaining rights to public employes., And he has made it all the more important that other mayors throughout the country have the courage not to follow his example. There is one major difference between government employes and the employes of private industry when it comes to collective bargaining. The government employes are voters, and as such they have the right to help elect or defeat their bosses. As a pressure group they have gained great that he is paying an extortionate price, you know political clout in many communities in recent years. Their support or opposition can spell the difference between victory and defeat for many an ambitious politician in many a city election.

In private industry, management and labor between Egypt and Israel. In this case, of maintain an adversary relationship at the bargaining table. Management represents the has something the other wants, and each must interests of the owners of the business. Labor pay a price. represents the interests of the employes of the business. The relationship is clear-cut.

But in government the relationship is skewed when a mayor, who represents the interests of the relinquish in the Sinai, for example, or the types general taxpaying public, sits across the table from of Israeli cargoes Egypt will now permit through the same militant labor leaders who helped him get elected.

Alioto is not running for reelection this fall but his actions bespeak the political instincts of an elective official who enjoyed the support of the labor unions, including the municipal employes' unions, whenever he sought public office at the polls.

City officials must be independent. They must have the courage to defy special interests when the general public interest is at stake. The mayor of San Francisco has made it harder for his fellow mayors to do so.

Peace Comes First

The "remarkable progress" claimed by Henry Kissinger toward an interim peace agreement between Israel and Igypt was offset by the hostile rhetoric emanating from the meeting of the Nonaligned Nations Organization in Peru.

Egypt, out of deference to the U.S. secretary of state and its hope for territorial concessions from Israel, disassociated itself from efforts of its Arab neighbors to force expulsion of Israel from the General Assembly of the United Nations when the world body convenes. But the adamancy of Syria and the Palestinian Liberation Organization emphasizes the remoteness of a permanent peace in the Middle East.

The moves against Israel, which have won the support of undeveloped countries in Africa, Asia and Latin America, subvert the U.N.'s peacekeeping role and threaten its future effectiveness.

The apparent alignment of the "nonaligned" nations against the United States and its friends has brought warnings from U.S. officials of a possible reassessment of American financial support.

The desire of the developing nations for political and economic recognition is understandable, but the goal of world peace must take priority.

Ford's Dilemma

Commerce and Labor Department statistics emphasize the sensitive economic decisions President Ford faces as he enters the 1976 political year.

The Commerce Department figures supported administration claims that the nation is emerging from its economic slump, showing sharp improvement in the gross national product for the three months ending in June. The cheerful assumption is that more jobs are on the horizon to ease unemployment woes.

The contradictions suggest that economic revival and the curbing of inflation are incompatible, an argument frequently advanced by some economists.

It is the fact that any agreement at all could be arrived at following the collapse of Secretary of State Henry Kissinger's shuttle diplomacy last spring. That Egypt and Israel returned to the bargaining testifies to the realization by both sides that a fifth Middle East war must be avoided, and that any steps leading away from another battlefield confrontation, however small and uncertain, must be taken.

FBI Rhetoric Claims Mafia* On Decline

Stung by criticism that the FBI was soft on organized crime, J. Edgar Hoover devoted a good deal of time in his last years to convincing the public otherwise. Not only was the Bureau pursuing the mob, Hoover insisted, but through the magic of statistics and the propaganda of prosecutions he endeavored to show that crime syndicates were being dealt severe blows. Hoover's dead but his rhetoric lingers on. Top FBI spokesmen say today that organized crime is on the edge of extinction.

As the officials say it precisely, federation crime in America is "on the ropes." The explanation being that FBI gumshoeing has been * overwhelmingly effective. Since the early 1960s, agents say, the Bureau has been responsible for more than 5,800 major convictions of organized crime figures. "We've been so successful," says an agent on the organized crime desk, "that in Chicago, where we once arrested three successive captains, the mob has a hard time getting replacements - nobody wants to assume the risks"

Though the FBI has prolific figures as to 1 arrests and convictions of racket hoods, it has no other statistical evidence to support its claim. Agents do say, as they have for years, that the Mafia consists of 3,000 principal characters, some of whom are now in jail, yet they cannot say whether this figure is significantly lower than 10, 20 or 30 years ago. "All we know is what our informants and our investigations tell us. and that is organized crime is crumbling, it is running scared, and we believe it."

The result has been expected for years, the agents go on. Once the FBI set aside the myth of Mafia invincibility, erosion set in. "Joe Valachi was the key. When he was testifying before zoning. Our main access for the majority of these Congress and in court, the mob would have done anything to kill him. But we proved he could be protected. He died of natural causes, you'll remember (inside a maximum security

Now merely mortal, Cosa Nostra types are thin-skinned and squabbling. FBI informants say the old leaders are dying off and the young ones are rebelliously sober; i.e., the federation structure gets weaker, and the Bureau says "in 10 years we expect organized crime to be insignificant."

At a time when the organized crime controversy has returned to the front pages, complements of the missing James Hoffa, the FBI assurances should be of comfort to millions of concerned Americans. There is some question, 42 though, as to the Bureau's accuracy here. In Oxford Road. I hope and pray no one needs an fact, no crime authority contacted by this column for comment would agree with the

WORLD IN BRIEF Western Diplomats Take Dim

View Of Soviet Arms Proposal

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) - Western diplomats at U.N. headquarters view the Soviet Union's new proposal for a ban on underground nuclear weapon tests as another attempt to divert attention from the lack of progress at the Geneva disarmament negotiations. The Soviet proposal would not ban underground explosions for peaceful purposes, but it makes no provision for international inspection to insure that such explosions are not in fact weapons test.

Instead the draft provides for each country to use its 'own national technical means of control" plus exchange of seismic data.

Pentagon To Monitor Sinai

WASHINGTON (AP) - The Pentagon apparently will send some of its most sophisticated electronic gadgetry to the Sinai desert to monitor the newest Middle East peace accord.

There are to be six monitoring stations either in the desert or high above two crucial mountain passes in the Sinai, and they will all be supplied with sensoring equipment of enormous variety, all of it combat-tested in Vietnam with varying degrees of success. U.S. officials say the monitoring equipment will probably fall into three categories: -Radar capable of picking up moving troops or tanks at a distance of more than 11 miles. -Seismic sensors buried in the desert sand capable of picking up vibrations from passing troops or vehicles. -Acoustic sensors, usually concealed hand microphones so sensitive they can pick out the sound of moving troops and vehicles and distinguish them from ordinary surrounding noise.

Border Detection Eyed

WASHINGTON (AP) - U.S. immigration authorities plan to install magnetic and seismic sensors along the Canadian border for the first time in an effort to detect persons illegally entering the United States from Canada. Robert L. Stewart, assistant immigration commissioner in charge of the Border Patrol, said 35 to 40 sensors will be planted along a 165-mile stretch of the border from eastern New York through one county in western Maine. The sensors, designed to detect persons crossing the border on foot, will be in place before the 1976 summer Olympics in Montreal, Stewart said in an interview.

Season Starts Tonight It's Time For Prep Football By JIM HAYNES Herald Sports Editor

Three games are on tap tonight - Oviedo at Seminole, Lyman at Oak Ridge and Apopka at Lake Brantley,

Two more games follow Saturday in an afternoon game finding Eustis at Lake Howell and a night contest sending Trinity Prep to Fort Pierce against John Carroll. The Oviedo-Seminole encounter is the first intra-county rivalry and one which finds Oviedo cast as the underdog as usual. With quarterback Lee Ward and running backs Billy Merchant, Hureal Bell and Frank Procell heading the offense, the Lions are in a Mike position to match Seminole Bob offensively if they can get Ray cooperation from the line.

Seminole coach Jerry Posey Mike Perry (160) is undoubtedly prodding his team about a 14-8 loss to Oviedo Rich Arnold (150) last season. It was the first time Tony Harper (155) Seminole had lost to its country Big names in the Seminole offensive plans are brothers Ned and Tim Raines. The pair offer speed in abundance, both inside and out. The third member of the backfield, Herbert Branch, is no slowpoke either, so quarterback Mark Whigham has some choices when calling signals. Whigham's favorite passing target is tight end Mike Good. Lyman bites off a mouthful in Oak Ridge, pre-season Metro Conference favorite. Offensive
