

SUB-TROPICAL MID-WINTER FAIR OPENS TOMORROW IDEAL WEATHER PROMISED

Many Thousands Are Expected to Go Thru the Gates

SEMINOLE DAY

WILL BE WEDNESDAY AND THE OTHER COUNTIES WILL HAVE SPECIAL DAYS ALSO.

ORLANDO, Feb. 13.—It's fair week in Orlando, and the City Beautiful appeared this morning dressed in its best, while the eyes of Florida are turned upon the annual combination of enterprises that assemble here each year to administer a greater measure of new life and speed to the continually rapid growth of commercial and industrial wealth in the great six-county zone; and rally ahead to nail up higher records on the passing milestones of progress—records which call for increasingly greater effort on the part of those who would take them down as the years come and go after us.

"A great aggregation of incomparable exhibits, light, color, music, races, acrobats, pageants, parades and shows" gives a brief idea of what one may expect to see when entering the Fair Grounds next Tuesday morning, the opening day of the master six-county annual meet, where, meanwhile, may be inspected a colossal harvest of choice fruit, reaped only by very worthy labor.

The gates and buildings open finally at 8 o'clock Tuesday morning, which is Orange county day. A band concert is the first feature on the program, after which a number of addresses will be delivered by some prominent speakers. Simultaneously hundreds of exhibitions will lift the curtains to show a remarkable display of manufactures, farm products, poultry, swine, cattle, fruit and various other features accomplished by a year of notable achievement in the world of industry.

On Wednesday Seminole county will appear in the leading role, with demonstrations and parades worthy of the rapid growth of the sister county, enlivened by band concerts and other fitting amusement.

Thursday, Volusia county day, will see the great industrial parade of the manufacturers, merchants, business men, clubs, fraternal and social orders. This is one of the great features of the entire fair, and Jack Hughes, supervising the parade for the Fair Association, predicted that the longest line of floats and flag-bedecked cars ever assembled in Orange county would move in this procession. Chief Dean will lead the parade with his new equipment. It will be found on Orange avenue, with relays filling in probably from Central, Church and Jackson, and parade through the city. The parades will end their march at the Fair Grounds, where three prizes—one for $100, one for $50 and one for $25—will be awarded for the three most attractively decorated vehicles. The entire parade is to be by motor.

Friday will be Marion county and children's day. A community pageant, entitled "Orlando, As You Like It," will be presented by a large cast of prominent people, assisted by a number of young ladies and children. The pageant has been arranged by Miss Florida E. Howard, superintendent of music, elementary schools, who will stage the show in front of the grandstand at the Fair Grounds. Miss Howard also is the author of the story, and in it has shown how Orlando won his name. The dancing will be directed by Mr. Ebsen, head of the Ebsen school of dancing, and Mrs. Fred Willis. Miss Beulah Roney will be accompanist, and a band will be on hand to play for several numbers. Other leading parts will be "Orlando," S. Kendrick Guernsey; "Rosalind," Miss Elizabeth Yowell; "Phoebey," Mrs. John T. Fuller; "Education," Sexton Johnson; "Christianity," Dr. McConnell; "Romance," Mrs. Fred Willis; "Illusion," Miss Gertrude Jones; "Sun Goddess," Miss Mildred Baker; "Spring," Miss Ebsen; "Sunbeams," Miss Elinor Estes.

The several groups will be: Wood Nymphs, Shepherds and Shepherdesses, Rainbow, Maidens, Sun Flowers and Spring Blossoms.

OBJECTIONS VOICED ON BONUS TAX

Farm Bureau Claims Program Would Be Unsatisfactory.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 13.—Opposition to the soldier's bonus tax schedule as drawn by the republican subcommittee of the house ways and means committee was voiced today by P. C. Atkinson, Washington representative of the National Grange, and H. C. McKenzie, tax representative of the American Farm Bureau Federation.

Mr. Atkinson in a letter sent to Chairman Fordney declared that the bonus program "violated every principle of taxation endorsed by the recent agricultural conference."

"If more money must be raised to pay a soldier's bonus," his letter said, "it should be raised without burdening the public with further annoying, business preventing and objectionable tax schemes and it should be raised by reenactment and reextension of the excess profits tax."

Mr. McKenzie, in his statement, also urged reenactment of the profits tax, stating that "this single source of revenue would produce all the money necessary for the bonus and obviate the frictions which would be developed by raising the parcel post rates, taxing gasoline and automobiles and the increase annoyance caused by the stamp tax."

"It would not only do this," he said, "but it would be very much more equitable as to the corporations themselves in the present situation."

INVESTIGATIONS PROCEEDING INTO THE DEATH OF TAYLOR, PROCEED THROUGH HOLIDAY

No Moving Picture Actresses Will Be Summoned in the Case

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 13.—Investigation by the district attorney's office into the Taylor murder will proceed today though a legal holiday. The attorney said he was uncertain what form the inquiry would take but thought it unlikely he would summon any motion picture actresses to his office.

LOS ANGELES, Calif., Feb. 13.—Henry Peavey, who was the houseman for William Desmond Taylor, murdered film director, was escorted late Saturday to the office of District Attorney Thomas L. Woolwine by two deputy sheriffs.

At the office the deputies, Peavey, Mr. Woolwine, W. C. Doran, his chief deputy, and a court reporter, were all secluded for several hours in Mr. Woolwine's private office.

A half hour after the conference began Captain David L. Adams, of the Los Angeles police department, who has had charge of the police investigation, joined the other officials and Peavey.

This was the first time that representatives of the three principal offices working on the case—that is the police, the sheriff, and the district attorney—had met in a joint conference.

Peavey has given several statements, including a very extended one taken by the police. All of his stories have had to do with the life of Taylor in the months that Peavey was employed by him and with occurrences surrounding the finding of Mr. Taylor's body, bearing a revolver bullet wound, in the doctor's home here last week.

The taking of a new statement under the circumstances existing today was deemed to mean that further investigation of the sheriff's theory of jealousy as a possible motive for the crime was to be made by all the officers employed on the case.

Other than the examination of Peavey apparently little of importance happened yesterday in the murder mystery.

Peavey left the office after having been closeted with the officials about an hour. He went out alone, the officials continuing their conference as he departed.

Undersheriff Biscailuze and Captain Adams came out a little later. "I cannot say that anything new has developed from the questioning of Peavey," Biscailuze said. "However, that does not mean that no new angle of investigation has been discovered."

POPE PIUS XI CROWNED AT ST. PETERS YESTERDAY AMID SCENES OF POMP

And Pageantry, New and Old World Stands Still for a Moment

ROME, Feb. 13.—Pius XI was crowned pope in the Basilica of St. Peter's yesterday amid scenes of pomp and enthusiasm and in the presence of princes and dignitaries of the church, the diplomatic representatives of foreign countries, members of the Roman aristocracy and a vast assemblage filling the great structure to the very doors. The ancient custom was carried out with impressive ceremonies and the newly elected pontiff now occupies the throne of the first pope reported crowned Leo I, who reigned from 795 to 816.

With the exception of Leo XIII and Benedict XV, who owing to the strained relations existing between the quiriinal and the vatican in 1878 and the world war in 1914, preferred to be crowned in the sistine chapel, the coronation of all the popes elected since the erection of the Basilica has been celebrated there.

Pius XI again blessed the crowds from the outer balcony of St. Peter's this time nearly two hundred thousand people cheering "long live the pope" and waving handkerchiefs and admission tickets to the vatican which had failed to find them room inside of the great church.

It had been officially announced that owing to the cold weather the pope would not bless the crowds from the outer balcony, but such was the insistence and warmth of the cheers lasting three quarters of an hour that the pontiff finally decided he must answer the call of his children.

Thus it was long after 1 o'clock in the afternoon when the holy father appeared on the balcony, surrounded by Cardinals Vannetti, Gasparri, Mercier and Bourne and bestowed the apostolic benediction, again waving the familiar little shake of the hand as he disappeared into the interior of the Basilica.

That Has Broken Out Anew in Several Places in Ireland

FOUR ARE KILLED

AT CLONES LATE SATURDAY AFTERNOON AND EIGHT ARE WOUNDED IN ATTACK.

DUBLIN, Feb. 13.—The evacuation of British troops and other military forces from Dublin was unexpectedly suspended today. It is believed the suspension was due to events in Ulster.

LONDON, Feb. 13.—Michael Collins, head of the Irish provisional government, has cabled the American Association for Recognition of the Irish Republic, warning it not to assist or countenance Coup de Etat which he declared was being planned against the Irish provisional government, says a Dublin dispatch.

BELEFAST, Feb. 13.—The total casualties in the affray at the railway station at Clones late Saturday afternoon when a party of Ulster constables was attacked, were four special constables killed, eight wounded and six missing. Matthew Fitzpatrick, leader of the Sinn Feiners, was shot dead.

There are many versions of the affray current, but inquiries among the Dublin train during which time they paraded quietly up and down the platform on which there also were many civilians. There was no sign of any impending attack.

When the Dublin train arrived and the constables moved toward it however, firing began from two machine guns posted on a wooden bridge spanning the railway track, and then from a motor on the station platform. A large body of armed men rushed upon the train, and after some revolver firing, ordered the frightened civilian passengers who were covering on the floors of the coaches and under the seats, to get out.

All the occupants of the train then were marched to the station platform and drawn up in two bodies—civilians on one side and the special constables on the other. Every one was searched for arms.

The civilians were ordered back into the train while the unwounded constables were taken away to an unknown destination.

Meantime the dead and wounded who fell at the first onslaught had been laid in rows on the platform. Only a few of the special constables had time to draw their revolvers before they were overpowered.

Myriads of tiny red hearts were festooned through the various rooms, and French baskets and wall vases filled with red roses, sweet peas and fern artistically arranged with lovely effect. The lights were shaded with red and cast a rich warm glow over the pretty scene. On the card tables were heart-shaped cups filled with red and white mints.

The tally cards were also decorated with red hearts and the hours passed quickly in the interesting game of bridge. When scores were finally counted, it was found that Mrs. F. E. Roumillat held high score and was awarded a pair of hand painted candles. The low score prize, a Kewpie powder puff was given Mrs. J. B. Lawson. CELEBRATION AT EUSTIS WASHINGTON'S BIRTHDAY

The committee in charge of the affairs for the annual celebration to be held on Washington's Birthday at Eustis have made final arrangements for the events of the day. The Eustis celebration is looked forward to with much interest by many, including the citizens of the neighboring towns, and preparations are being made this and next week to handle a banner crowd. All kinds of entertainment has been arranged for, and there will be something doing all the time.

The program will start at 9:30 with a get-together Band Concert by the Eustis Cornet Band, after which the parade of decorated automobiles will be held, and a cup will be awarded to the best idea in the decoration of a car.

At 10:30 miscellaneous events will take place on the main street including the following: Bicycle races, running races, Roller Skate races, Potatoes race, Slow auto race, the hose fight and the horseshoe pitching tournament. After these events, allowance will be made for dinner, and at 1:30, a regatta will take place which will eclipse any event of previous years. Some of the fastest motorboats in Central Florida will compete for the splendid cups offered.

Some of the old skippers will be interested to learn that the Yalaha Yacht Club, recently born to further the sport on our lakes of the County, will put on a race with fourteen entries including some of the sail-boats that have recently won trophies on Lake Harris. This will be a most interesting event, with a fine cup to the winner.

The Motor Boat races will em-

At 3:00 o'clock, an extraordinary aeroplane exhibition will be given over the lake, and passengers will have an opportunity to go up with the pilot afterwards. Arrangements have been made to have a race between the speediest motor boat and the aeroplane over the six mile course. The Eustis and Tavers Baseball teams will clash again at the ball park at 4 p. m. and those preferring this kind of sport will no doubt be treated with a snappy game. Allowance will be made at this point for supper. At 7:30, the splendid Eustis Military Band will give a concert on Bay Street, and prominent speakers will deliver short addresses on the meaning of Washington's Birthday. For those who appreciate a good game of basketball, the Eustis High School will play a game on the court at the rear of the High School building at 8:15 with one of the well-known clubs from out of town, as their opponents. A gala-dance is now being arranged for 9 p. m. to be held at the pavilion. The dance will end the festivities of the day, and everybody in the neighboring towns are invited to come to Eustis on Feb. 22nd, and enjoy themselves. Streets will be well decorated and stands with lunches and soft drinks, and others with the trinkets usually sold at carnivals of this kind will be present.

POPULAR DANCES BARRED BY JACKSONVILLE MINISTERS DISSAPPROVAL OF NEW STUFF

(By The Associated Press)
JACKSONVILLE, Feb. 13.—The ministers of Jacksonville churches, seventeen of them, are on the war-path against some of the popular dances, and in a signed communication to the local newspapers declare that "when dancing masters themselves become alarmed, surely it is time for fathers and mothers to stand between children and evident danger."
"We desire to express our disapproval of the promiscuous dancing of the sexes as it is being practiced in our city," said the communication. "We believe it is dangerous to the moral and spiritual welfare of our people and conducive to immorality. We would kindly but very earnestly warn every young man and woman against this form of wickedness which is undermining the foundation of society and wrecking the home life of the nation. No Christian can afford to compromise in this matter and we earnestly ask our members to abstain from this practice and to do all in their power to engage others in more healthful and innocent amusements."

The communication then quoted Fenton Bott, director of Dancing, as saying, "It is a conceded fact among all teachers of dancing that Oriental suggestiveness and broken time in the fox-trot dance music, together with the lack sufficient supervision, is responsible for the downward trend of the dance."

Mr. Bott also was quoted as having given the following nine don'ts:

- Don't permit vulgar jazz music to be played.
- Don't permit young men to hold their partners tightly.
- Don't permit partners to dance with cheeks close to or touching.
- Don't permit neck holds.
- So-called shimmy or toddle dancing should not be tolerated.
- Don't permit dancers to take exceptionally short or long steps.
- Don't dance from the waist up; dance from the waist down.
- Don't permit suggestive movements.
- Don't permit dancers to copy the extremes that are now used on the modern stage.
- "If such things as are mentioned here are not being practiced on the dance floor; then why the need of such advice from dancing masters," the communication concluded.
- "Similar statements have been to the public by other dancing masters. When dancing masters themselves become alarmed surely it is time for the fathers and mothers to stand between their children and evident danger."

WHITE MALE FACTORS PREDOMINATE IN ORLANDO

(By The Associated Press)
ORLANDO, Feb. 13.—Statistics of the Orlando police department for the month of January show that the number of white persons arrested was almost three times the number of negroes. Eighty-six whites were docketed during the month while only thirty negroes got into trouble. Four whites and three negroes were made and officials said the small number docketed on that charge indicated prohibition was becoming more effective here.

FOUND MANY PEDAL DEFECTS

The board of health of New York city has recently made a special study of the feet of the children in one of the public schools with a view to obtaining some idea of the prevalence of pedal defects among young boys and girls.

The examinations, made by orthopedic surgeons, appeared to show that such defects are much commoner than has been supposed. The number of children examined was 350. Seven per cent of the boys and 6 per cent of the girls were found to have deformed toes. Six per cent of the boys and 13 per cent of the girls had "flat foot." Forty-seven per cent of the boys and 74 per cent of the girls had "weak feet." Ten per cent of the boys and 17 per cent of the girls had ingrowing toenails. The feet of 30 per cent of the boys and 20 per cent of the girls revealed corns or other excruciating conditions. Twenty-one per cent of the boys and 2 per cent of the girls walked with their toes turned in.

Most of these troubles were of a character admitting of correction and cure, with proper treatment. If neglected, said the surgeons, some of them might cripple and impair the efficiency of the children affected.

The surgeons recommended that all growing children be examined for such defects and that those affected be watched and treated, in order that later in life they may be "foot-sound." —Philadelphia Ledger.

BELONG TO PREHISTORIC DAY

Bones of Whales Possibly Ten Thousand Years Old Recently Unearthed on English Farm.

The skeletons of two whales, dating back, it is supposed, 10,000 to 12,000 years, were found by two workmen on a farm near Peterborough, according to the Westminster Gazette. Some of the teeth and bones were submitted to Doctor Garrod of Alconbury Hill, Huntingdonshire, and he, in company with two zoological experts, visited the farm and obtained all the bones, with the result that one of the whales has been set up.

The whales were lying side by side under the peat, and just embedded in the clay. On the whole the bones are in good condition, and those that have been taken out carefully are scarcely broken. Unfortunately, the skulls are damaged.

It is believed that many thousand years ago these whales, and perhaps others, swam up a creek when the water came further inland, and got caught at the top of a spring tide in a place where they were unable to turn.

Another theory has been advanced, though it is rather far-fetched. Some years ago a prehistoric boat was dug up in the same field, and the suggestion has been made that the crew of the boat was hunting the whales at the particular period.

Transposing the Terms.

A western jury had been called upon to decide a dispute over the ownership of some cattle which the defendant had been accused of stealing. It soon became apparent to all that he was innocent, and the jury was out but a few minutes.

"Judge," replied the foreman to the usual question from the court, "we find the plaintiff guilty."

"This court is trying the defendant, not the plaintiff," interposed the judge. There was a hasty consultation in the jury box, at the close of which the foreman rose again.

"Judge," he declared, "we find the defendant not guilty. Howsomeyer, Judge, it 'pears like to us we been trying the wrong man."

Useful Fireplace.

New York Imports of Gems.

The diamonds and pearls entering this port annually would be worth literally about 30 cents to every person in the United States. The value of the cut and uncut gems entering last October was $3,440,710. In addition to the real thing imitation gems to the value of $42,723 entered during the same month.

Sixty Years a Golf Player.

Deputy Surgeon General Cooper of Norway Park, England, who is ninety-three years old, has been playing golf for more than 60 years. The venerable medical, who is still working to correct a slice, played his first round on the historic St. Andrews course 'way back in 1858.—The Argonaut.

Reform.

"When you entered politics you announced yourself as a reformer."
"I am still a reformer," protested Senator Sorghum. "But I am obliged to be discreet, owing to differences of opinion as to which particular style of reform is entitled to precedence in public attention."

markets if there was a big crop to market but even then the stuff should be put up in a guaranteed pack and be prime stuff always. If it is not prime stuff mark it in plain letters as "seconds." And then this season it might be well for the celery growers to remember that the celery crop is short. There will soon be practically no celery on the northern markets except Florida celery. Then why hurry the shipments by boarding up all kinds of stuff and trying to get it all off at one time? If the growers will take their time, keep the celery in good condition, pack the best and use ordinary precautions they will get a good price all through the season. For heaven's sake, if you ever put up a good pack of celery put it up now when you have everything just like you want it. Poor quality celery or poor quality of anything will kill the good markets and they will never come back this season. It is useless to tell the growers this again. They have heard it every year. They have seen many of the growers raise good stuff and put up a guaranteed pack and get good money for it. They have seen other growers put up poor stuff and green stuff and the market has dropped ruining the prospects of all the growers.

Go slow on your cutting this year and let your celery stay as long as it will and be in good condition. Don't board it up until it is right for boarding and don't get all your celery off at once. Keep it coming along slowly as possible and the market will keep firmer than if you ship all the celery in this section in a few weeks.

A little sound judgment used this year will work wonders toward stabilizing a market that is as uncertain and coy as a maiden accepting her first invitation to a dance.

TOO MUCH "THANK YOU."

We honestly believe that in the matter of doing things for a mere "thank you" the weekly newspapers of the country hold the record.

We say it with no desire to discriminate, for the people of Clermont are no different from those to be found elsewhere, but we feel on reflection they will agree it is true, that for the number of favors rendered, no other institution is as poorly paid as the newspaper. The church has a bazaar, the school has a concert, a club brings a paid speaker or musician to town, and does so to make money, and yet in almost every instance, the newspaper is called on to announce the date, boost the attraction, get out the crowd and whoop it up generally.

Many people do not understand that all that a newspaper has to sell is its space, or at least that part of its space not devoted to actual news happenings. And on the other hand, there are a number of these occurrences, which if not strictly news, are for the community welfare, so that perhaps, in the end, the balance is not unjust after all.—Clermont Press.

The Advocate editor is glad that he can give publicity to worthy causes. For instance it was a pleasure last week to give first page space to the coming of the Boys' Drum and Cornet Corps of the Georgia Industrial Home, and we like to boost everything promoted by home people for home benefit, but must confess that it is no pleasure to publish stuff free in our paper which is furnished by paid publicity agents, even under the guise of working for the benefit of humanity, and then we don't care to give our space to the reformers who find their way to Florida every winter who claim to be devoting their time to this "isms" or that "ism," but who really are out for the coin, having a good time and enjoying Florida's winter climate. To even pretend that these people are necessary or doing a good work would be saying that our several churches cannot guide their people and are inefficient, if not superfluous.—Wauchulla Advocate.

THE CACKLIN' HEN

(By Aunt Aggie)

I may be a little backwoodsy—some folks say I'm behind—
 But I never was much on chickens of the fancy feathered kind.
 I don't deny it's nice, like, to own a blue-ribbon pen.
 But it's lots more satisfactory to have a cacklin' hen.
 I don't mean to be cranky, on the handful o' things I know,
 For, with hens the same as people, of course good blood will show;
 But the profit you git from poultry is not in color of legs,
 Nor in the lay o' feathers, so much as it is in eggs.

 —From Oklahoma.

DAYS THAT ARE GONE

"Are you willing to work for $30 a month and your board?" asked Mr. Cobble.

"Yes, sir," replied the applicant for a job as farm hand. "But if you occasionally see me pause in my task of manuring the pigs to brush away a tear, think nothing of it. I was paid $10 a day before the war, and it wasn't much of a day at that."—Birmingham Age-Herald.

NO EVIDENCE

One afternoon a stranger debarked from a train at a hustling town in the West and headed up the street. Finally he met a man who looked like a native.

"Pardon me," said the stranger, "are you a resident of this town?"

"Yes, sir," was the ready rejoinder of the other. "I have been here something like fifty years. What can I do for you?"

"I am looking for a criminal lawyer," responded the stranger. "Have you one here?"

"Well," said the native, reflectively, "we think we have but we can't prove it on him."—Washington Herald.

The bachelor tax has been declared unconstitutional and null and void. Well, in our estimation it was a luxury tax anyhow and should be abolished along with the other luxuries.

HOME, FAST ASLEEP PROBABLY

The editor of a Missouri paper, the spotlight of whose car fell upon a spooning couple alongside the road, was thus addressed by his driver: "Where in hell's her folks?" And the editor was so impressed with the pertinence of the question that he proceeded to write a lengthy editorial on the subject, in which he not only replied to the chauffeur's question, but also desired to know "Where in hell HIS folks were," that they should allow the young couple opportunity for such disgraceful conduct. Not very elegant language, but expressive none the less, for without doubt scenes like the one alluded to above are getting to be of too common occurrence to be ignored longer. And while it is true that many of the offenders in this respect are people who have reached the years of discretion—young men and women who should know better than to parade their vulgarity—still it is a fact that a large percentage of these couples who make a practice of "carrying on" in public places are practically children, whose parents are more to blame for their foolishness than they themselves are. Indeed, one might well paraphrase the indignant editor, and inquire, Where in hell THEIR folks are. Parents who are thus carelessly ignorant of their children's whereabouts may SOME DAY be asked where they were upon such and such an occasion, and they may rest assured that no evasion will be accepted, so none need be attempted.

Dr. Adolf Lorenz the great Austrian surgeon favors corsets for women. That's nothing. Our own Arthur Yowell of Yowell & co., favors them also.

ROTARY'S ANNIVERSARY

Around the world in seventeen years. Little did Paul Harris and his friends of the first club dream that Rotary was to encircle the world in seventeen years' time. Literally it has done that. Club No. 1 organized at Chicago on February 23, 1905. Thence to Canada, to Great Britain and Ireland, to India, to Australasia, to South Africa, and back again almost to Chicago—club No. 1001 at Gary, Ind. And all without one failure being recorded among clubs—no charter ever forfeited—no dues clubs—and no clubs that do not pay dues or are not represented at the annual conventions. Is it any wonder that such an idea was to meet with either instant failure or tremendous success?

The principles of Rotary have been the possession of the civilized world for two thousand years and more. Only the application of these principles to a man's business life—as well as his social life—are new. Great teachers of the past have enunciated these principles which have been set down as a matter of history. They can best be summed up in the words of Him who first said, "Whosoever ye would that men should do unto you, do ye even so unto them."

Fortunate indeed has Rotary been in the men that she has chosen to carry the banner to countries outside those which first took up her standard. The seed has been well planted. In Austria, in Italy, in South Africa, Rotary is flourishing and the members there are finding the same common bonds of fellowship and joy in service that their brothers in other parts of the world are finding. Think what a tremendous power for world friendliness and understanding! Let us look forward to the time when in each of the principal cities of the world there will be a band of followers under the banner of "Service Above Self," each actuated by the same principles of friendship and fellowship and acquaintance and understanding without regard to religious faith or political creed—encompassing all barring none. All such clubs, whether set down in Calcutta or in Amsterdam, or in Pekin, with their radiating lines of influence, with their Inter-

WHERE IS OUR CURB MARKET?

Sanford was the first city in the state to originate the curb market and it was a great success here for some time but the farmers themselves were the first to fall down on the proposition and while we still think it is the right idea to bring growers and buyers together to the mutual benefit of both it is up to the growers to start it and keep it going. Other cities that have about one-fourth of Sanford's acreage in vegetables are putting on curb markets with great profit and success and it would be well to investigate the curb market plan here as the spring crops will soon be coming on and the curb market is a wonderful place to sell your surplus products and get the ready cash for them. Lakeland is thinking about the curb market as the following from the Lakeland Telegram would indicate:

"A prominent farmer from a nearby community has asked the Telegram to throw out the suggestion that Lakeland ought to have and support a curb or farmer's market in line with the plan now in vogue in Orlando and well known to almost every town and city outside of Florida. The suggestion is worthy of more than passing notice. If such a market could be established it would afford a trade avenue whereby the farmer could sell his produce for cash to the people of the city and take that cash to the merchant for the purchase of groceries, drygoods and all the other articles of commerce. Anyone who has ever had a knowledge of how this proposition works will instantly realize what an enormous factor a curb market would be in attracting the suburban population to Lakeland to do their trading and to exchange mutual benefits. This may be a matter for the merchants' committee of the Chamber of Commerce. If it is, the suggestion of our farmer friend is respectfully submitted for consideration and action."

WATCH THE CELERY SHIPMENTS

The grower of celery and other vegetables is apt to kill the goose that lays the golden egg each year by rushing his celery, lettuce and other vegetables in the early market just because it happens to be a high priced market. It might be all right to send as much as possible to the early

SANFORD HIGH SCHOOL DEFEATS EAST DELAND GIRLS BASKETBALL TEAM

Last Saturday night, before a small crowd at the Parrish House, the Sanford High School girls defeated the DeLand girls by a 26 to 18 score. When "Davis said we had a girls team", he meant it. The High school team by defeating DeLand begins to loom up as a champion contender. If Sanford defeats Lakeland here next Friday night, the Sanford team will have a good chance for the championship. The girls team can defeat Lakeland, if they fight hard enough and if the people of Sanford back them up.

In the game last Saturday night the DeLand team started the scoring, with a pretty throw by Miss Dutton. This goal was quickly followed by one from Miss Spencer of the Sanford team. From then on until the end of the first half one side would be in the lead and then the other. The score was tied at the end of the first half 11 to 11.

In the second half the Sanford team clearly outclassed the DeLand piling up fifteen points to their opponents seven. Miss Spencer and Miss Lake starred for the Sanford team, while Miss Custer was a shining light on the DeLand team.

LINCOLN'S CHALLENGE

"The hired laborer of 'yesterday,' labors on his own account today, and will hire others to labor for him 'tomorrow'."

There is a challenge to YOU in that significant statement of Lincoln's, and just encouragement in the fact that most of today's successful bankers, manufacturers, and farmers were "yesterday's" clerks, machinists, and farm hands. The men who bought the least "yesterday" may buy the most today. The men who live on less than they earn today, and bank the difference, are fitting themselves to fulfill Lincoln's prophesy for "tomorrow."

If you'll put forth that kind of effort, this bank will help YOU become a leader "tomorrow."

VISION

On the fall of an apple Newton saw the force that links the stars together and binds us to the myriad suns! On the movement of a tea-kettle lid Watt saw mighty moguls climbing mountain sides, and titanic liners plowing the deep!

On an electric shock received from a key attached to a flying kite Franklin saw cities brilliantly lighted and powerful machinery lifting stone and steel to build our modern pyramids of business!

Vision gave to the world PIGGLY-WIGGLY stores, where the products of the manufacturer, the packer, the canner and the farmer are brought direct to the consumer, thus saving all intermediate expenses and profits where the housewife can select with her own hands, free from suggestions or persuasion, the highest quality goods at the lowest possible prices, where cleanliness and orderly arrangement of goods make it a pleasure to shop. These are the reasons why the volume of sales of PIGGLY-WIGGLY stores continuously increase.

PIGGLY-WIGGLY will soon have a home in Sanford with the co-operation of a few thoughtful minded men and women in Sanford.

Telephone the PIGGLY-WIGGLY representative, Mr. W. A. Kay, at the Seminole Hotel and he will tell you how this may be accomplished.

BEST RACING IN FLORIDA

This is not an unwarranted statement. The Orlando race track is reputed to be superior on any in the State, and the races have always been the best that could be obtained.

Seventy horses have been in training on this track all winter. Some of them hold records in the Grand Circuit. The fame of the Orlando Fair Grounds and track as offering extraordinary conditions for favorable wintering quarters, bring turfmen and horses from Colorado, Ohio, Indiana, New York, Pennsylvania, Kentucky, Georgia, Tennessee, and other sections.

SHOALS CONTRACT WILL BE DELAYED

Debates in Congress To Take a Year or More.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 11.—Delays estimated from six months to a year or more probably will be encountered by government officials before they are in a position to turn over the nitrate plants, power stations and water dams at Muscle Shoals to Henry Ford should his proposed contract for their purchase on lease for a period of 100 years be accepted.

Despite the most expeditious action by congress in the event to accept the war secretary to accept the contract, it was estimated today by members of the house military committee attending hearing on the Ford offer, that such a delay was apparently inescapable.

Questions were raised at the hearing today by committeemen which, in the opinion of some with long experiences in legal matters, would necessarily have to be solved by the court, irrespective of congressional action unless the Ford offer was rejected.

These involved the delivery of clear titles to Mr. Ford of government owned property connected with the Musc Shoals project but which are located on lands privately owned and whose ownership claim they have legal options for the purchase of the buildings which they intend to exercise.

It was the general opinion of some committee members after hearing the testimony of Colonel John Hull, acting judge advocate general of the army, that the government condemnation proceedings before it could obtain the necessary titles to the lands for Mr. Ford and in doing this meet the owners who would perhaps test their rights in the courts.

Colonel Hull said it was his opinion that the contractual obligations were "non-enforceable" and "null and void" and could not be successfully presented either by the Alabama power company representatives or officials of the Air Nitrates Corporation, both of whom claim optional privileges and have informed Secretary Weeks that they intend to exercise them before the Muscle Shoals properties are disposed of to private concerns.

PROPOSED FREIGHT INCREASE ON FRUIT SLICED BY I. C. C.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 11.—Proposals of the Erie railroad to increase from $30 to $51 per car the charges for transferring fruits and vegetables from its New Jersey terminals to its auction center at Duane street. New York, were set aside today by the Interstate Commerce Commission. The railroad, however, was allowed to increase the charges to an average of $40 per car. The increase, which was protested by fruit shippers all over the country, and by the commission merchants of New York City, the commission held, were not justified and the schedules which have been under suspension for several months, were ordered conclosed.

JULIA HAD SAID SOMETHING

Sam Was Forced to Admit That His Better Half "Chatted About Dem Clothes."

Courtesy Dinwiddie, executive of the National Child Health council, told the following story at the meeting of the Monday evening club. It belongs to the great fund of family stories of which each home has its share.

His family had a colored woman of the name of Julia, who did the wash, according to Mr. Dinwiddie, her husband transporting the clothes to and from home. One night he started with a big bundle of freshly washed clothing. It had been raining and there were puddles along the street.

The unfortunate man slipped, the bundle hit the street, opened up, and its contents went into a mud puddle. Needless to say, he couldn't deliver the wash, and he hated to take it back home. But he was forced to "face the music."

A week later the colored man showed up at the Dinwiddie home with the clothes spick and span. The family, of course, had found out what had delayed their wash and were prepared for Sam.

That worthy, however, did not say a word about his mishap. "Sam," asked a member of the family, "didn't Julia have anything to say about the clothes when you had to take them back?"

Sam grinned. "Julia—she done chatted quite a while about dem clothes," he said.—Washington Star.

AVIATION NOT HIS OBJECT

Swede Had His Own Reason for Rejecting Offer of That Particular Brand of Liquor.

Stephen Hunter Love of Salt Lake City, prominent in the beet sugar industry of Utah and a member of the food administration during the war, was in Washington for the sugar hearings before the finance committee of the senate. Mr. Love has a great gift for story telling, and is particularly fond of Swedish stories, his intonation of the Scandinavian dialect being well-nigh perfect.

It seems that recently a picturesque old Swede employed in one of the sugar mills thought to himself that he would not mind having a little drink or two after a particularly hard day's work. So he hired himself to a bootlegger of his acquaintance.

"You got any that squirrel whisky, Yohn?" he asked. "No, I haven't seen," replied the liquor merchant, "but I can give you a little old crow. How 'bout that?"

"Sven thought for a moment; then he shook his head. "Say-da," he said. "Ay don't want to fly; Ay just want to hop a little."—Washington Post.

SOUTH JACKSONVILLE AND JACKSONVILLE MAY BE UNITED

(By The Associated Press) JACKSONVILLE, Feb. 13.—Agitation for the consolidation of Jacksonville and South Jacksonville across the St. Johns river has again been started in some quarters here.

At a meeting of the city council recently a resolution was adopted inviting the South Jacksonville citizens to join with the Jacksonville people and make it one large Jacksonville. A committee was appointed including Mayor John W. Martin, to confer with Mayor W. P. Belote across the river with a view to determining whether the question should be brought to a referendum of the voters.

The proposal has been greeted enthusiastically by the public men on this side of the river, while those of South Jacksonville remain rather non-committal. Mayor Belote for instance, says he will always bow to the public will but that in all he can say at the stage of the game.

Similar agitation has attained more or less headway several times in the past. The matter was put to a vote of the two cities several years ago but decidedly rejected.

EUSTIS PAVILION PRESENTED TO CITY

(By The Associated Press) EUSTIS, Feb. 13.—Charles Isted has presented to the city of Eustis on behalf of the Lake Eustis Pavilion Company all property on the lake front owned by the concern, including its pavilion and pier, as a result of the city's plan to construct a bulkhead and convert into a public park the property adjacent to that formerly owned by the Pavilion Company.

The city will pay to the concern $1 and in turn will be given a deed to its lake front holdings, with the understanding that the pavilion be remodeled and furnished in order that the city council Chamber of Commerce and other Civic organizations may use it for a meeting place.
