3 Gulf States Without Power For 90 Minutes

MOBILE. Ala. (UPI) Portions of three Gulf states were without electric power for about 90 minutes Sunday. About 150,000 customers were affected but no major inconveniences were reported. Alabama, Mississippi, and Plorida were without power at mid-day when plants were cut from the main power system, a spokesman said. He said it was not known what caused the power failures.

Points as far north as Meridian, Miss., and as far west as Pensacola, Fla. felt the effects.

Mobile, was the largest city affected. The power plant at Chickashaw, Ala., which supplies downtown Mobile's electricity, however, was cut off for less than a minute. Other areas in the city were also without power.

Beckwith, 42, of Greenwood, was turned over to Jackson police Monday afternoon by U. S. Commissioner John R. Countles III on instructions from the Justice Department. He is charged with the June 12 sniper slaying of Evers, who was state field secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP). Beckwith was arrested by the FBI last Saturday night at his attorney's office in Greenwood on a federal warrant. He had been held since early Sunday as a federal

The late Robert A. Taft and Sen. Barry Goldwater are often mentioned in the same breath as the outstanding Espublican conservative heroes of the past 25 years.

It is interesting, therefore, to compare their respective party posi-tions with regard to presidential comination prospects.

Taft, of course, began immediate-ly after his re-election to the Senate in 1960 to organize for a 1952 nomination bid. He won early and widespread professional political support across the country.

This later stood him in good stead when he tangled with Dwight Eisenhower in a tough preconvention struggle for delegates. Taft held enough strength to corral 500 of the needed 604 delegate votes on the only convention ballot.

Only toward the last days of the battle did numerous delegates wedded to Taft fall away from him, accepting grudgingly the argument that he could not win the election because of his conservative views.

With Goldwater at this moment the circumstances are quite differ-

Curiously, Goldwater is far more warmly embraced as a man than the somewhat aloof Taft was. But there is much more wariness about Goldwater among the professionals.

Many, particularly in the large industrial states, start with a big question mark about his ability to win. They see him as having monumental difficulty in the big urban centers.

So, though they love him as they have never loved any prospective candidate in the last three decades, they hang back from giving him their open backing. They would delight to have him if they thought he could make it. But their doubts are deep. Those who opposed Taft fought a

Nikita To Visit East Berlin To Offset Kennedy

MOSCOW (UPI)-Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev Is going to East Berlin on Sunday to try to offset whatever encouragement West Berlin derives from President Kennedy's visit Wednesday, foreign observers said today.

The official Soviet Agency Tass took both Russians and foreigners here by surprise early this morning with its announcement of Khrushchev's weekend trip.

Foreign observers said th hurriedly scheduled visit was intended in part to aid East Germany's Communist boss Walter Ulbright, who has been waiting for years for the Kremlin to make good on promises to end Western occupation in Berlin and to sign a peace treaty with Red-held East Germany.
