WOMEN'S MISHAP ACCIDENTAL, IS THE VERSION

Accidents Of Motor Which Struck Auto Are Not To Be Prosecuted

Not To Swear Any Warrants

Is Reported Of Danger By Leading Doctors

DETROIT, April 2—(INS)—The identity of the two men who crashed into the car driven by Henry Ford last night is known to secret police but the names of the car will not be prosecuted, it was announced today by Prosecutor M. Tooms.

It is believed that Mr. Ford was the result of an accident and not a deliberate act. Naturally our interest in the secret service agents would not take steps to prosecute if the accident is not a deliberate act.

It was learned after prosecution from the Ford in department a detailed account of the accident in which a car forced Mr. Ford to leave the car and drove into a tree near Dearborn estate.

H. Bennett, chief of the secret service, phoned me to indicate that he had drivers of the Studebaker convinced that it was "just a car accident," prosecutor Tooms said that he would not prosecute if the accident is not a deliberate act.

The king's first billionaire was and his physicians remain out of danger. Great effort is being exercised to the development of a Ford Motor Company while put the quietest in development.

It was reported to be very serious to get out of the problem facing his family means was to keep him. Ford spent most of yesterday's bedside, reading to the auto king evidenced in the newspaper account.

Last night's session was the last of the season for the Open Forum and attendance was very disappointing, according to Warren R. Smith, president, who stated that very few of the members of local civic clubs who had endorsed the Forum were present for the meeting.

He rapped the newspaper editor who allows his editorial policy to become influenced through the agencies of business and stated that the press today had lowered its editorial standard through the use of syndicated material and the allowances of private interests to dictate the policies of the paper.

James Scherhorn, former editor of the Detroit Times and a newspaperman of national fame, last night stated to an audience in the Sanford Forum that there remained in America but few great newspapers whose editorials were not subsidized, or syndicated.

Mr. Scherhorn's address was made at the Woman's Club building before a very small attendance, but his hearers were said to have been exceptionally well pleased with his speech, which was one of the most interesting delivered in Sanford this season.

P. Farrelly and P. Farrelly were guilty of second degree murder. Three other immigration officers involved by authorities were granted severance.

Auto Magnate Will Have Constant Guard Of Secret Service Men For Future

DETROIT, Apr. 2—(INS)—Mrs. Henry Ford, wife of America's first billionaire, today accomplished what her husband's associates have tried to do for several years. She has obtained a promise from the automobile magnate that he will submit to a constant secret service guard in the future.

The promise means that Ford no longer will stroll carelessly through the gates of his Dearborn estate to walk bareheaded and unguarded through Dearborn on rainy nights. That practice has been one of the manufacturer's greatest delights.

The Ford estate last night and early today resembled the headquarters of a Napoleon. Secret agents lurked in and about the grounds, watching carefully automobiles and pedestrians who approached the Michigan Avenue entrance. No one was permitted to enter without the strictest examination. Several times in the early evening large cars pulled in to the entrance only to be refused admission.

Although he is reported entirely out of danger, it is admitted that the manufacturer is in a highly nervous state from the sudden realization that he is a billionaire and the world's wealthiest and most prominent citizen. His friends declare that it is the first time in his colorful career that he did not smile scornfully at the earnest suggestions of advisers that attempts might be made on his life.

Official bulletins issued today stated that improvement is shown in the condition of King Ferdinand, but the population seemed unwilling to accept these bulletins as authentic and the opinion is expressed everywhere that the king's death is imminent.

There have been troop concentrations in Bucharest and new troops are being brought in from the provinces. Reports that Prince Carol had arrived at the king's bedside were denied.

BERLIN, April 2—(INS)—The last sacrament has been administered to King Ferdinand of Roumania, by Monsignor Dolei, the papal nuncio, according to a telegram from Bucharest today. The king passed a bad night, and pneumonia has developed.

VIENNA, April 2—(INS)—King Ferdinand of Roumania has developed pleurisy, which is progressing rapidly, and his death may be expected within the next 48 hours, according to information received here today from court circles of Bucharest.

LONDON, April 2—(INS)—Reports that King Ferdinand of Roumania is dead are without confirmation here. These reports have been current for the past 24 hours.

James Scherhorn, former editor of the Detroit Times and a newspaperman of national fame, last night stated to an audience in the Sanford Forum that there remained in America but few great newspapers whose editorials were not subsidized, or syndicated.

Mr. Scherhorn's address was made at the Woman's Club building before a very small attendance, but his hearers were said to have been exceptionally well pleased with his speech, which was one of the most interesting delivered in Sanford this season.

SHANGHAI, April 2—Eugene Chen, foreign minister in the Cantonese government, in a statement made public today accused "reactionary and counter-revolutionary elements and local ruffians" of responsibility for the foreign outbreak at Nanking.

The statement, which was issued at Hankow, present seat of the Liberal government, under date of March 31, says in part: "A commission of inquiry investigating the late events at Nanking has sent in a preliminary report establishing the outstanding fact that the disorders were the work of reactionary and counter-revolutionary elements, who during the confused conditions following the defeat of the northern rebels and their white Russian mercenaries, instigated the rebel remnants, more than 100 killed and wounded and every single foreign casualty.

MINERS STAND PAT AND SO DO MINE OWNERS

Mine Owners Declare First Move Must Come From John L. Lewis, Head Of United Mine Workers Of America

50,000 Additional Join The Walkout

No Disorders Anticipated By Either Side; Owners Seem To Be Unconcerned

CHICAGO, April 2—(INS)—No compromise is in sight today in the suspension of soft coal mining in the unionized central competitive field entered its second day.

Operators openly declared the first move for a new conference must come from John L. Lewis, President of the United Mine Workers.

"We are willing at all times to talk the situation over with union officials," said Rie Miller, president of the Coal Operators Association of Illinois. "But we cannot afford to pay the Jacksonville wage scale and survive in competition with non-union fields."

The 150,000 union miners out of work in this field have been joined by an estimated 50,000 in Iowa, Kansas, Oklahoma, Missouri and Arkansas.

The miners are as emphatic in declaring they will not work for less than they have been receiving for the past three years as are the operators in saying they cannot afford to pay them $7.50 a day any longer.

Both sides declare they anticipated no disorder.

As this is normally the beginning of the slack season neither operators nor men were unduly concerned over the situation and it was generally believed that after a suitable interval a new conference would be called.

Docket For County Court To Include 46 Criminal Cases

With most of the jurors summoned and with everything in readiness with the exception of expected witnesses, Seminole County Court is to convene Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock with a total of 46 cases on the criminal docket.

Many of the cases will probably be continued, others dismissed and some more proceed, but it is expected that the drive will cover in two weeks before adjournment.

Sheriff C. M. Hand and John Leonard, prosecuting attorney, are busy today rounding up witnesses and subpoenas for service and with the serving of final papers in civil cases.

The criminal docket is made up of minor infractions in the main, with only five liquor cases to be heard. Seven cases are booked on charges of illegal fish sealing and these are expected to occupy considerable time.

$11,500 ALREADY RAISED THROUGH Y.M.C.A. CANVASS

Campaign Will Be Continued Through Next Friday When Goal Will Be Reached, Say Leaders Of The Campaign

Approximately $11,500 is the amount turned in by team members in the three-day campaign of the Seminole County Y. M. C. A. for funds with which to operate during the fiscal year and with only the "loose ends" remaining to be collected, it is expected that when the final check is made at a meeting called for next Friday, the goal of $14,500 will have been surpassed.

Last night's meeting in the Seminole Cafe, many of the workers announced that they had been unable to complete their personal canvass in the short time allotted and that by the end of next week they will have seen many prospects and increased the team's revenue by several thousand dollars.

Much enthusiasm was shown by the workers throughout the campaign and their work has been of the highest order, according to Merrill C. Brown, field secretary of the State Y. M. C. A., under whose direction the drive was held.

This showing made in the annual report of the organization is said to have influenced a great many additional subscriptions this year and that many of last year's subscribers had doubled and even tripled their individual gifts this year.

All next week will see the workers carrying on and Friday night, set for the final report, is almost certain to see the drive well over the top. Y. M. C. A. officials say a great number of the rural districts and towns in the country are yet to report the result of their work.

Winter Visitor Rescue After Thrilling Battle With Sea Near Jupiter

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla., April 2—(INS)—L. O. Blatchford of Detroit, Mich., was found on the rocks near Jupiter today after a thrilling all-night battle with the sea.

While sledding he went through the ice late yesterday and was carried northward by the rough tide. Motorcycles, airplanes and speed boats patrolled the shore and sea until dawn revealed the sled near Jupiter. Blatchford had grounded while making for the lighthouse.

His secretary reported that Blatchford was completely exhausted but otherwise unharmed by the experience. He is head of the Sealed Corporation and comes here every winter.

SHANGHAI HAS TROUBLE WITH ARMED THIEVES

Nationalists Are Attempting To Disarm Guerillas But During Holdups Continue; Army Discussion Reported

Foreigners Continue To Evacuate Interior

Chinese Rampant In Inter- national Settlement Where Valuable Loot Is Taken

SHANGHAI, April 2—(INS)—Guerillas and armed bandits are gaining some comprehension in Shanghai, while foreign evacuation of the Yangtze ports continues without any serious disorders.

The Nationalists are attempting to disarm the Guerillas and the Chinese police are making efforts to cope with the bandits who are staging repeated hold-ups throughout Shanghai.

Meanwhile the matter of re-organized disbandment within the ranks of the Nationalists is the subject of rumor. The repeated efforts that Chiang Kai Shek has been ordered to make as military commander and that he intends to resist, are still without official confirmation.

Nationalist soldiers fired upon Guerilla bands that had occupied a theater and a monastery in the Chapei district of Shanghai Friday killing four and wounding 21. The killing was precipitated by the Guerillas who refused to surrender their arms. Thirty nine of the Guerillas were captured and are being held at Nationalist headquarters in the Chapei area. About 100 others escaped with their arms.

Armed robbers are rampant in the international settlement. On Friday desperadoes staged 10 hold-ups netting them $3,000 loot. A Chinese constable, who was off duty, grabbed with one gunman, disarmed him and then shot him down despite the fact that there were 12 other bandits in the gang.

Nationalist leaders are reported to have drawn up a list of 400 wealthy Chinese whose properties and Nationalists are planning to seize.

Latest advices from Nanking report the city quiet despite the greatest administrative confusion. Wuhu is quiet. The demonstration planned there for Friday failed at the headquarters of the Tam-pa Welfare League.

Relatives Search Here For Aged Man

Relatives of C. L. Driggs, 61, who disappeared from Ocoee two weeks ago, have asked local authorities to assist them in their search for the aged man, who is said to be suffering with illness and has probably wandered off forgotten his name and family.

His description is said to be as follows: weight, 140 pounds; height five feet and four inches; gray hair, three fingers missing from left hand, quiet in appearance and demeanor. He wore a brown suit when last seen.

Any information concerning the man should be communicated to Mrs. Louise Driggs, care of Dr. H. B. Smith, Ocoee, Fla.

America And Britain Are At Loggerheads Over Chinese Policy

United States Opposes First Brandishing In Asking Settlement Of Nanking Losses

Capital Believes Com- mon Front In China Should Be Preserved

DETACHMENT OF U. S. MARINES TO LEAVE APRIL 15

Additional Forces Will Be Sent To Chinese Waters Soon Unless Changes Are Noted In Conditions There

WASHINGTON, April 2—(INS)—The British and American governments are distinctly at loggerheads today over the question of a joint policy in dealing with the critical Chinese situation.

Officials of both governments may endeavor to minimize the differences, but the divergence of views between Washington and London are well known in diplomatic quarters—and quite possibly to the Cantonese Nationalists as well.

American opposition to any theatrical first-brandishing in China has already resulted in the British note to the Cantonese being toned down considerably, probably to the point where the American government can support it. A copy of it is now en route to Washington. It differs materially from that originally drafted by the British cabinet, according to London advices.

The differences between Downing Street and Pennsylvania Avenue might be described as the difference between firmness and belligerency. Great Britain, with a much greater stake in China, as well as in nearby India, is for an ultimatum to the Cantonese, based on the Nanking outrages, and backed up by the threat of reprisals and Sanctions.

The American government doesn't want to go that far, although being willing to subscribe to the policy up to the point of sanctions. This government would rather deal with each individual problem as it arises, such as was done at Nanking, and not lay down any hard and fast policy in advance which future events might make it unwise to follow.

The necessity of the powers maintaining a common front, or at least the semblance of one, in China, is well recognized in Washington, one official, describing the situation, paraphrased Benjamin's famous assertion of 150 years ago: "We must hang together, or assuredly we will all hang separately." It is for this reason that efforts are being made to minimize the differences between the London and Washington governments, and to get together.

LONDON, Apr. 2—(INS)—Great Britain has decided to send additional troops to China, it was learned today.

The cabinet has reached a decision to reinforce the Shanghai defense forces, which already number more than 15,000 men.

Lineman Killed At Monroe Bridge By High Tension Wire

An electrician, whose name is believed to be Robinson, was instantly killed this morning by electrocution while working on a high tension voltage line near the Monroe bridge.

The man's body was brought to Sanford and placed in the Miller and Erickson funeral parlors, where it will remain pending information from the company or from relatives as to its disposition.

The body was caught among the and it was sometime before it could be dislodged without danger to fellow workers. It fell into the river from a height of 45 feet and was then brought to shore.

Advance Man For Chautauqua Here To Help Local Club

Mrs. Morrison will work with the committee from the Sanford Women's Club which is again sponsoring the Chautauqua.

Extensive plans for the sale of season tickets have been made by the local committee, and work toward making this the most successful of the many Chautauquas which have been held here has already been inaugurated. Big teams have been organized to conduct a thorough canvass of the city, and the school children will be given an opportunity to purchase the special student's ticket from their teachers.

De Pinedo Hops Off For Galveston, Texas

NEW ORLEANS, Apr. 2—(INS)—Commander Francesco De Pinedo, famous Italian aviator who is touring four continents by air, hopped off for Galveston, Tex., at 7:30 A. M. today.

A crowd of 2,000 persons gathered at the local airport as De Pinedo turned his ship, the Santa Maria, westward on the wings of the dawn.

The Italian said his plane was in perfect condition and that he anticipated no trouble on the flight to Galveston.

Officers Prevent Mixup Between Contractor And Group Of Workmen

A serious outbreak was narrowly averted this morning by deputies from the office of Sheriff C. M. Hand when they arrived at 800 West Fifth Street in time to quiet a group of local carpenters and masons who were attempting to effect financial settlement with W. C. Colton, local builder.

Mr. Colton and the entire group were soon at the courthouse where, after charges and counter charges had been made, the matter was finally settled amicably and the men agreed to wait two more weeks for wages to be due them.

The trouble is said to have been brewing for some time and it is reported that the builder had encountered difficulties with the construction of a apartment building at the corner of Tenth Street and Park Avenue.

A short time ago the men on the job walked off when they did not receive their pay, according to good authority. Many of them stated this morning that the builder owed them for several weeks work. One man, who claimed that he was the father of eight children, said that he was unable to buy groceries with which to feed his family. Another stated he could not buy shoes and school-books for his children.

The bitter feeling came to a head at 8:30 o'clock today when a group waited on Colton at his home. He accused them of entering the house and beating him, an accusation which all the men deny. After an hour's discussion, Capt. Jack Atkinson of Longwood, agreed to arrange for the men to procure groceries for their families, giving the builder two weeks in which to meet the alleged delinquent payroll.

Insurance Man Kills Self In Jacksonville

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., April 2—(INS)—Robert E. Currier, 42, state agent for the Astra Fire Insurance Company, committed suicide in his bachelor apartment here today by shooting himself in the head with a .32 calibre revolver according to the police who said they could ascribe no motive.

Friends expressed the belief that Currier was despondent over the death of his wife more than a year ago. He was to have been married next month to a prominent Jacksonville young lady.

Prohibition Of Marriage By Divorced Persons Within A Year May Be Passed As Law

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. Apr. 1 (INS)—The prohibition of marriage by divorced persons within one year after the entry of the decree, a change in laws pertaining to the selection and impeachment of jurors, indeterminate minimum and maximum sentences in all criminal cases, regulation of the sale of fire arms, and the abolition of the obsolete common law writs of error, habeas corpus and writs which have a tendency to encourage technical delay are some of the major changes in present Florida laws recommended by Attorney General J. B. Johnson and Florida Circuit Court Judges.

The recommendations, which were made public today, were compiled by the various judges of Florida's Circuit Courts and submitted to the attorney general as required by present statutes.

The recommendations, which were announced to the International News Service today, came from Circuit Court Judges Edwin Thomas of Port Pierce, Hal W. Adams of Mayo, W. S. Bullock of Ocala, E. C. Love of Quincy, L. L. Parks of Tampa, Jefferson B. Browne of Key West, Frank A. Smith of Orlando, George Cooper Gibb, Daniel A. Simmons and DeWitt T. Gray of Jacksonville.

One of the most outstanding and perhaps most radical changes asked for present jurisdiction is that, in jury trials, both criminal and civil, a majority verdict shall prevail. Through this, in all capital cases requiring a jury of 12, eleven shall be sufficient to find a verdict, and in all other cases, five shall be sufficient. This recommendation was made jointly by Circuit Judges G. C. Gibb, H. S. Simmons and H. W. Gray, and is a departure from any system now in vogue in the United States.

Attorney General Johnson asks that the state legislature, which meets within two weeks, restrict the use of the Florida State Seal to state officials, commissions and departments, providing a penalty for its use by unauthorized persons.

The requirement that all corporations file the state report annually to the Secretary of State, the names and postoffice addresses of the officers and directors of the company in order to enable courts to keep informed as to where they are is also asked.

Judge Hal W. Adams recommends that the state's divorce laws which, at the present time, requires the complainant to be a resident of the state for two years but not a bona fide resident of the county in which he files the bill should be changed to require the complainant to be filed in the county of his residence.

"I think also that we need some new legislation prohibiting the marriage of a person seeking and securing a divorce within at least one year after entry of the decree," Adams recommended to the Attorney General.

Heads Of Proposed Departments Of State Will Not Sit In The Cabinet

TALLAHASSEE, Fla., April 1 (INS)—The Democratic caucus of the house of representatives and of the senate of the 1927 session of the state legislature next Monday night are going to be rather tame affairs, according to politicians, who are beginning to pour into the capital town in person at Florida.

Monday night, the Democratic legislators, who in Florida compose the entire membership of both houses, will convene at 8 o'clock for the biennial caucus for election of officers and attaches for the 60 day session. Judging from past years, the caucus will probably last throughout the night and until four or five o'clock the next morning—if everything runs as smoothly as predicted. If not, the business of electing officers will continue until completed regardless of the day or hour.

It is on Monday night that Democratic nominations for the 19 elective house offices and an equal number of senate offices and attaches are decided, and which are carried in to the two houses on Tuesday, at the opening of the regular session, and formally declared.

The speaker, speaker pro tem, chief clerk, assistant chief clerk, full clerk, reading clerk, assistant reading clerk, engrossing clerk, enrolling clerk, sergeant-at-arms, messenger, doorkeeper, chaplain, janitor, and five pages are nominated in the Monday night until Tuesday morning house caucus. The president of the senate, president pro tem, and other officers nominated in the senatorial caucus.

Nominations for many of these offices are already said to be "cut and dried," but others are expected to be hotly contested for.

Fred H. Davis, Tallahassee, representative from Leon county, who was the Democratic "whip" in the 1925 session of the legislature, is slated for the speakership of the house without opposition, succeeding A. Y. Miami of Jacksonville.

Probe Is Ordered Into Explosion On Board Patrol Boat

KEY WEST, Fla., Apr. 1 (INS)—Coast guard officials have ordered a rigid examination of the explosion on the coast guard patrol boat 208 while the boat was tied up at the coast guard base here several days ago.

The vessel's deck house top was blown 50 feet in the air by the blast which damaged the superstructure badly and wrenched the bulkheads from their location.

One of the ship's crew were injured. The engineer and fireman had just left the engine room when the explosion occurred. There was no one below deck at the time.

The men on deck were blown from their feet and one man was blown overboard, but suffered no injuries.

An emergency crew succeeded in saving the vessel from complete destruction.

The 298, commanded by Boatswain R. L. Daniels, has proved a thorn in the side of the rum and alien runners along the Florida Keys and only recently captured the Spanish schooner CORAL with 18 aliens on board.

Tamiami Trail In Collier County To Be Completed Soon, Says Engineer

FORT MYERS, Fla., April 1 (INS)—With three dredges battering their way through the rocky desolation of the Everglades at a rate of two miles a month, the Tamiami trail in Collier county will be finished to the Dade county line before April 6, the time limit set when the contract was awarded, according to B. Graham Copeland, chief on the job.

The big dredges working in the Everglades, the engineer said, are accompanied by a crew of 75 dynamiters and graders, the powder crews going ahead to blast the rock and the graders following to smooth it into a road. Since last August 6, crews have been working in day and night shifts, Copeland stated, and from the Everglades more than 11 of the 12 miles of road have been covered in that time, a fraction over a mile and a half a month.

When the crews reach the Dade line, a finished road will be open from the eastern boundary of Collier county to Carnestown, four miles north of Everglades. Convict gangs are working from Carnestown toward Royal Palm hammock, hard surfacing the 16 miles between the two points, which will be finished in about two months, Copeland said. A ten-mile strip of highway from Royal Palm hammock north to a point within eight miles of Naples will be completed before April 10, Copeland continued, and from the point below Naples where the present work ends, the state road department will build a road 20 miles northward to the Lee county line.

Local legislators are leaving for Tallahassee and local people are going to watch their activities there with interest.

The Times-Union says "men should be good cooks. Yes, in these days of equality and can openers, men should be good cooks."

The Adair Realty Company which went on the rocks the other day is said to have owned property in Florida. Must have bitten off more than it could chew.

Maybe that Studebaker driver hit Henry Ford's car accidentally but anyone who runs from an accident in which he has actively participated hasn't much chance in the courts.

Tampa's municipal judge and the chief of police are engaged in a row over the making of improper arrests. The city usually gets more for its money when its employees work together.

Much interest seems to be centering in the choice of the next president of the Chamber of Commerce. Many good men have been suggested but most of them are too busy with their private affairs.

If the situation were reversed and foreigners were in Georgia as in China, what would be the comment?—Waycross Journal-Herald. We have foreigners in Sanford, in fact one or two Chinamen, with whom we get along peacefully.

With the departure of the able Lloyd Voorhees, golf professional, it is to be hoped that the city will not allow the course to deteriorate so that home people will be unable to play this summer and a large sum will later be required fixing it up for next winter.

A boy contracting blood poisoning from injuries sustained while being hazed died recently in Missouri. The modern tendency in our leading universities is to get away as much as possible from hazing. There are other more practical methods for letting off steam.

Chang Kai Shek objects to the presence in Shanghai of the foreign troops. He says the International Settlement, arising with bayonets does more harm than good. Yes, when he sends his crazy yelling Chinamen over the barbed wire those bayonets will do his men more harm than good.

Seventeen year old boy and girl bandits from Miami were sentenced a year ago for breaking and entering. They escaped and a few weeks ago killed a cotton broker near Macon during a hold-up. Young for that sort of thing, but doesn't the cotton broker wish they had stayed in jail.

Democratic Or Republican?

Congressman William E. Hull of Illinois, who recently spent some time down here has told President Coolidge that it is only a matter of a short time before Florida will be counted in the ranks of the Republicans.

He says further that Florida is rapidly becoming an agricultural state and Floridians require tariff protection. The Lakeland Ledger in commenting on this statement says that it can't imagine what Florida farmers want with a tariff because we have no competition except in avocados with Cuba and bananas with Honduras.

Be that as it may, the Ledger is right in its belief that Republicans have a long way to go before they can win an election in Florida. There has been a large influx of newcomers recently with Republican ideas but even when they vote they don't vote together.

No, Congressman Hull is wrong when he says that Florida will soon be a Republican state but the extreme degree of his error is to be regretted by all good Democrats. Florida's steadfast position in Democratic columns is reacting to her own disadvantage.

Even in state politics the Democratic monopoly has a bad effect. The party does not bring out its best men because any nominee can win whether he is the best man or not.

This fact, this blind devotion of practically all Southerners to the Democratic party is going to have an important bearing upon the next National convention.

The time has come for the people of the South to quit going to the polls like sheep to a slaughter pen. Let them demand their rights in the convention and let them not be afraid to revolt if their rights are ignored.

Lordly Creatures

It seems that some dissatisfied males are looking backward with longing eyes to the Victorian era when men were men and women were timid little wiflets.

In spite of the admitted difficulty of turning the clock back, a group of optimistic married men in Chicago, who feel that masculine rights have been ruthlessly trampled underfoot by modern women, have organized the "Husband's Defense League" for the purpose of restoring man to his former place on the domestic throne.

The constitution or "bill of rights" includes such sections as "no housework except in case of sickness, or at least three children; one evening a week out with no explanations; final authority in all things."

The best solution of the problem of these recalcitrant husbands might be for them to move down to the Everglades and live with the Seminole Indians, who seem to be totally unaware of the radical change in the status of women.

The league's "bill of rights" asserts all the ancient male prerogatives which might have been all right in their day, but the obvious difficulty is that the world has changed since Shakespeare's Petruccio tamed Katherine the Shrew.

THE STATEMENT the owners of The Tribune have no other interests or alliances in Tampa other than those represented in the ownership of the newspaper, is of more significance to newspaper men than the general public.

THE REPORTER-STAR, always modest in its statements about Florida, stated some time ago that 135 cars of celery went out of Sanford in one week.

IF IT COULD BE arranged, with human life lasting twice as long as it did, the wise thing would be to postpone motherhood until 35 and fatherhood until 45 or later.

The Declaration of Independence, in proclaiming "pursuit and happiness" as an inalienable right, offered no assurance that the pursuit would be successful.

Good News of Henry Ford. Two Chinese Bosses. Useful Lady Astor. Perfect Venus Wanted. By ARTHUR BRISBANE

REASSURING news concerning Henry Ford was received direct from his family yesterday afternoon. There is said to be no doubt as to his ultimate recovery, although his injuries are serious.

THERE IS NO FURTHER confirmation of the supposition, widely circulated, that Mr. Ford's car was desperately crowded from the road and down a steep embankment by occupants of another, bigger car, seeking to injure Mr. Ford.

THOSE FAMILIAR with the scene of the accident, right off the highway from Detroit to Chicago, feel that Mr. Ford's escape is a most miraculous. A man in less than perfect physical condition could not have escaped alive, at Mr. Ford's age.

THE TWO BIG men in the Chinese revolution already disagree. One will not go where the other is thinking it might not be safe. Two governments may be set up in China, dividing the territory between them.

BRITAIN SHOULD thank this country for producing and sending to London Lady Astor from Virginia, to say nothing of the great Aster fortune. First Lady Astor showed the British women the way to parliament, now she helps to defeat an effort to legalize British race track gambling.

AN AUSTRALIAN professor wants to locate the ideal "Venus" and requests information. He has measured thousands of female beauties and finds the average waist 27 inches.

MISS BANKHURST has lost interest in votes for women, "because voting women make the same mistakes that men make." They do, of course, being human, and sometimes influenced by men.

In old whiskey days as soon as we had got the vote, district leaders in the great city sent out the order "Don't get the boys drunk around election, or their wives and daughters will vote against you."

AN INTERESTING revelation about tiger hunting by rajahs and other dignitaries in India reads as follows: The rajahs like to be photographed with rows of tigers they have killed, but do not like to be scratched or bitten.

IN THIS emergency it is quite safe to count on President Coolidge's common sense. He knows that fighting China would be like the fight against rabbits in Australia. It was almost impossible to conquer those rabbits, although they did not fight back.

MR. COOLIDGE will not invent any pedagogical fine phrases, and then get the millions of men and billions of dollars to make good his fancy words. He will say undoubtedly "I am not going to wreck American prosperity in a war with China. If Europe wants that war, she can have it."

That, luckily, is the way the President's mind works. He's practical.

The Declaration of Independence, in proclaiming "pursuit and happiness" as an inalienable right, offered no assurance that the pursuit would be successful.

The Shining Example

SATURDAY EVENING SERMON

Rev. Edward Rudicel, First Christian Church

TEXT, James 2:26, "Faith apart from works is dead." First is a picture or two. It was the year 1863; during the great American Civil War.

The suffering of the wounded had been terrible. Some of them had fallen on Friday, thousands on Saturday, and it was now Monday. All through the blood-soaked tangled woods they lay groaning and dying.

John Vaughn, a Union soldier, found a brave old farmer from northern New York lying beside his son. He had met them in the fight at Fredericksburg in December.

"Well, here we are, Vaughn," the father cried feebly. "My boy's dead, and I'll be with him soon—but it's all right—it's all right—my country's worth it!"

Some of the bodies further on were black and charred by the flames that had swept the woods again and again during the battles. Some of them had been wounded men and they had been buried in stumps.

With a start John suddenly came on the crouching figure of a Confederate soldier kneeling behind a stump. The paper end of a cartridge was in his teeth and his fingers still grasped the ball.

A broad-shouldered, bearded man in blue had just fallen asleep nearby. The body was still warm, the blue eyes were wide open, and he stared into the leaden sky.

A hundred yards further lay a dead boy from his own company. The stiff hands were still holding a picture of his sweetheart before the staring eyes. Near him lay a boy in gray with a sweet heart's letter clasped in his hand.

It was late that night before the wounded had all been moved. Through every hour of its black watches the surgeons, with their sleeves rolled high, their arms red, bent over their tasks, until legs and arms were piled in ghastly heaps ten feet high.

Multiply this scene by tens of thousands and you have a large portion of the world's history written for war constitutes much of the world's history. And while many wars have been waged merely from selfish purposes, many has been waged for the purpose of securing freedom and other highly prized blessings.

Every good thing that man today enjoys, he enjoys because someone in times past fought for it. The freedom of our land, our ad-

Mrs. Knight was presented at the convention with a nation citation for meritorious service in behalf of the local unit. This was signed by Adolph D. McCauley, national auxiliary president and Lucy Boyd.
The local unit also was presented a large silver loving cup as winner in Class B. There are 150 members enrolled. Two silver citation hands were also presented the president, one for having the most colors in the parade and the other for being cup winner.

Interest And Attendance In Revival At Methodist Church Show Increase

The revival at the Methodist Church continues to grow in interest and attendance each night. On Friday night there were about 25 in the choir and the music was unusually good. The evangelist had the congregation and choir singing "I Am Bond For The Promised Land" in camp meeting time.
Rev. Klein took his text from the fifth chapter, tenth verse of second Corinthians, "For we must all appear before the judgement of Christ." The evangelist stated that everyone no matter what his age or condition, is interested in the judgement because it is the one thing that is absolutely certain to come to everyone.
In the most serious and solemn sermon of the whole series, Rev. Klein told his audience of the necessity of preparing for the time when they should all be brought to the judgement of Christ. He pointed out that death did not change a man, that he was the same thing the next minute after death that he was the minute before, so far as his spiritual and moral condition goes. He spoke feelingly of the necessity of loyalty to salvation saying that a person who was not loyal to his church might be expected also to be disloyal to his family and his country.

In the use of a black silver dollar and brighter one, Rev. Klein illustrated the difference between reputation and character. The black dollar when dropped upon the table sounded very flat, it looked and sounded very much like a counterfeit dollar while the other rang true, but the evangelist said that he had been to the bank and had the ugly-looking dollar tested with the acid used by the government and it had proved to be good as the other, but its reputation was bad. He pointed out that he destroyed before there could be any real hope of redemption.
There will be no day services on Saturday, but the Evangelist will preach three times on Sunday at 11 o'clock the subject will be "The Pipe Line Sermon," at 3 o'clock, "Limiting God" and in the evening "Somebody's Funeral Sermon."

Chandler Business For Spring Shows Larger Increases

Metropolitan centers are seeing the past increased Chandler sales throughout the country, statistics released by the Chandler organization show.
Despite the fact that more than half the cars produced annually are sold in the smaller urban communities, Chandler sales for January and February this year in such metropolitan points as San Francisco, Los Angeles, Baltimore, Rochester, Boston, Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, Indianapolis, Milwaukee, Minneapolis and Kansas City are averaging all the way from 20 per cent to 90 per cent better than a year ago.

One basic reason for our gains in these large centers, aside from the inherent appeal of the new cars, lies in the fact that the larger communities have better facilities for removing snow and slush from main thoroughfares, said S. Black, Chandler General Sales Manager.
Since Chandler February sales were 47.3 per cent larger than those in January because of the heavy metropolitan area buying, Mr. Black anticipates proportionate sales gains in smaller communities with the advent of Spring and the opportunity for pleasurable motoring.

"The number of annual orders we have on our books at the present time and the orders our distributors and dealers have taken for Spring delivery of cars, indicate that 1927 will be a banner Chandler year and that our Spring business will be the largest we have ever experienced," he pointed out.

DETROIT TIGERS STRONGEST CLUB, WALSH DECLARES

Sports Expert Picks Winner in Younger Circuit; Mackmen Are Ranked 2nd While Senators Are Placed 3rd

By DAVIS J. WALSH International News Service Sports Editor

NEW YORK, April 2.—Largely because the Detroit ball club in all probability will be fighting for its manager this season and not with him, the writer ventures today to name the tigers as potentially the strongest team in the American league up to and including this, the present moment.

It has been an annual absurdity to declare in March what will happen in October but there is no law against a man playing smart, even if he knows better; so that particular brand of hocus nocus may well be retired from circulation.

Therefore, the clubs are listed below merely in order of their potential strength, with an easy mind or the equivalent:

- 1. Detroit. 2. Philadelphia Athletics. 3. Washington Senators. 4. New York Yankees. 5. Cleveland Indians. 6. Chicago White Sox. 7. St. Louis Browns. 8. Boston Red Sox.

The tigers have made only two changes between seasons but, speaking with malice toward none, both have been for the better. The addition of Marty McManus, his punch and steadiness is needed. The managerial trade of Moriarity for Cobb has given the club the peace and good will it never has had.

With any kind of a break, this outfit might have won at least one pennant during the last five years, but either it couldn't or wouldn't win for Cobb. This version of its failure has been common gossip for years; so much so, in fact, that the tigers were the hot tip of nearly every baseball man in the south this spring. The prophets can't go very far wrong, at that, in touting a club that has had good but manhandled pitching, fine catching, and adequate infield and three outfielders who hit over .365 not to mention a fourth who led the league during the greater part of the 1925 season.

Anything, of course, can happen in six months and many things will. The White Sox, for example, would be a far better bet at this writing if the unfortunate Mott had delayed his attempted suicide by even six weeks.

The Philadelphia Athletics have more ball players than they know what to do with and, therefore, are ranked below the pace. One man's guess on this ball club is as good as another's. But, offhand, I would hesitate to go too far with a team which doesn't know whether Cobb or Bishop will play second base; Boley or Galloway will be its shortstop; Hale or Dykes its third baseman and Branom or Poole its first baseman, to say nothing of its superfluity of outfielders.

The club has too many candidates to much managerial limber, too much uncertainty. At present, it is the greatest gate attraction in baseball; yet no one can say how good the team is until Connie Mack himself decides what men are on it.

The Senators with that wonderful outfield of Goslin, Speaker and Rice; a smart, variegated offense and fair pitching, might go anywhere, but right now they seem to have no better than a third choice. They have a most promising squad of young pitchers, but until a promise becomes fulfillment, it must take it for granted that Harris' pitching will be a bit uncertain particularly with Johnson unavailable at this time. His catching also is open to dubious scrutiny and the question of whether Meyer will prove an acceptable third baseman still is much in the air.

The writer feels that the Yankees were the best club in the league last year and they aren't now. They won't be able of ordinary pitching, a five-inning shortstop and a third baseman who no longer can move about with the abandon of a youth. The pitching has not been improved between seasons; in fact, each man on the regular staff is just a year older, which usually means a year worse. The Yanks blasted their way to a pennant but they don't figure to do it again. However, that impressive punch can't be laughed off in a high falsetto; it will keep them up with the pace.

Chevrolet Maker Optimistic About Business Conditions

An optimistic note on the spring business outlook in the automobile industry, discounting the "saturation point" bugaboo and pointing out favorable conditions throughout the country, is sounded in a statement just issued by William S. Knudsen, President and General Manager of the Chevrolet Corporation.

"In forecasting a continuance of good business prospects for the Spring months I am perhaps influenced by the aspect of our own sales which have never been better in the history of the company," said Mr. Knudsen.

"As evidencing steady growth in automobile production during this period, statistics issued by the United States Department of Commerce for the last three years covering the six months from January 1 to June 30 are interesting. The figures for these years follow:

1926 2,450,780 "With these figures showing business on the upgrade generally, there are only two reasons which could be advanced for a possible decrease in sales—first, reaching the so-called 'saturation point'—and second, a general decline in business producing a reactive tendency in buying.

"No one has ever been able to advance any reasonable formula for figuring the 'saturation point' The 'two or more' car trend is so pronounced that former theories are being constantly upset. If we knew the total area which would be occupied if all cars produced were running in that area, making it impossible for this space to accommodate any more cars, some basis would be available for figuring 'saturation.' But such a situation is impossible—and we may leave the 'saturation point' for the future to determine, inasmuch as the human mind will find it possible to open up any bottleneck traffic congestion which might develop.

HUPP EXPECTS RECORD SALES FOR THE SPRING

R. S. Cole, General Sales Head, Predicts Greatest Demand in History of The Company

DETROIT, Mich., April 2.—A demand throughout America for Huppobile eights and sixes during the next several months that will materially surpass all previous records is seen by R. S. Cole, general sales manager of the Hupp Motor Car Corporation.

In its plans to meet it, that company announces the completion of rearrangements to its plant facilities permitting an increase of 50 per cent more cars than its previous capacity.

Mr. Cole announces that indications show that sales of cars for March will be the largest of any single month in the company's entire history.

"Our recent delivery of 76 eight cylinder cars to our Chicago distributor in one driveway constitutes what is believed to be the largest single shipment of eights ever delivered to one company," he said. "This is an indication of the increasing volume of eight cylinder business."

"The automobile shows this year were by all odds the most successful for us that we have ever known, more than twice as many Huppobiles were actually sold during these shows than during any previous show period in our history. Our distributors and dealers, reflecting the general public's state of mind, are at the highest pitch of enthusiasm over 1927 prospects. We are working on plans to add steadily to our dealer organization. Because of Huppobile's reputation we are in the position of selecting from hundreds of able motor car merchandisers seeking our franchise.

"The Philadelphia Athletics have more ball players than they know what to do with and, therefore, are ranked below the pace. One man's guess on this ball club is as good as another's. But, offhand, I would hesitate to go too far with a team which doesn't know whether Cobb or Bishop will play second base; Boley or Galloway will be its shortstop; Hale or Dykes its third baseman and Branom or Poole its first baseman, to say nothing of its superfluity of outfielders."

"Miss Germany" In Galveston Contest Is Unbobbed Blonde

BERLIN, April 2.—(INS)—"Miss Germany" has been selected and she will probably represent Germany at the International beauty contest scheduled at Galveston this year.

Miss Germany with her common name of Hildegard Kwanitz, is twenty-one years old, blonde and not bobbed. She was born near Koenigsberg in East Prussia and is an orphan. "Hilde" is a fervent dancer, but she hardly smokes and hates bobbed hair. "I'll never have my hair bobbed, if I can help it," she said to interviewers. "Of course, if my finance wants it, I'll probably do it, but I don't think he will," she added with a smile.

Hildegard Kwanitz was unknown until a committee of Berlin artists and firm actors arranged a beauty contest recently. "I hesitated for quite a while before I decided to go," said Hilde in answer to questions how she liked her new title. Hilde is a good Hausfrau. She knows how to cook and do all sorts of home work German women are used to do. She has no profession, but has found a home with relatives. "I have no particular ambitions, as far as my selection is concerned. The only ambition I have at present is to make my future husband happy at home. We hope to marry in summer."

STATE HAS BEST FISHING GROUNDS IN THIS COUNTRY

Only 13 Counties Have Protective Measures, Avers Commissioner Royall; Aid Of Citizens Is Suggested

TALLAHASSEE, Fla., April 2.—(INS)—"Florida has the best fishing grounds in the United States, but only 13 counties in the state have made an effort to maintain them by protecting the fresh water fish in their respective areas during the spawning season," Judge B. Royall said today.

The 12 counties that have ample fish protection are Escambia, Santa Rosa, Okaloosa, Walton, Washington, Holmes, Calhoun, Gulf, Jackson, Franklin, Liberty and Wakulla, according to commissioner Royall. All of these counties are in the Western district of the state. Protection of bass at spawning time in a part of the Crystal River is provided by Citrus county.

"Such condition must not continue if Florida is to continue its place as the 'fisherman's paradise' of the United States," Royall declared.

"The asset of this to the state can hardly be overestimated. With its well-stocked fresh water, excelled in extent only by one state in the Union, Minnesota, and with climatic conditions that make life in the open delightful throughout the year, even reasonable safeguard should be thrown about this resource that attract thousands from other states annually.

"No section of the state can withstand the great and increasing drain that is being made on the supply of fresh water fish without better provision than we now have for conservation.

"The necessity of a closed season on salt-water fish was recognized by the state legislature several years ago and provisions were made for the state-wide laws regulating the fishing season in salt water similar provisions are necessary for the conservation of the fresh water fish of the state, if the present supply is to be maintained.

second white woman in the state to be sentenced to die in the electric chair.

As she was leaving the courtroom for the jail, 'Babe' Ruth, here with the New York Yankees for an exhibition game with the St. Louis Cardinals this afternoon, approached with Detective-Inspector Hurlbert who was showing the ballplayer around town, and offered words of sympathy to Mrs. Jackson.

AFRAID TO EAT

Bloating Spells, from Indigestion, Put an Oklahoma Man in a Miserable Fix, But He Found Relief.

Swirk, Okla.—In describing how he suffered from indigestion, Mr. S. T. Strain, of this place, says:

"I have been a user of Black-Draught for four or five years. I have been taking it for stomach trouble, I suffered with bloating and a tight feeling."

"I had spells when I could not eat much of anything. I had severe headaches. I would be nauseated and hurt a lot. I was in a pretty bad fix.

"I began taking Black-Draught. It seemed to help me considerably. I hadn't found anything that benefited me as Black-Draught did. I certainly can recommend it.

"There were times when I just did without anything to eat until I was too weak to go. I was just miserable, and when I ate, my system seemed clogged.

"I had very severe headaches. So I didn't know just what to do. I know I couldn't work if I didn't eat. Seemed like what I spit up was bitter as could be. I took Black-Draught, pretty regularly and got where I could eat, and I don't have to take it so regularly now." AC-177
