

Farms' Problems Are Explained By Bureau President

Tells Of Obstacles Standing In Way Of Food Increase

By LEO BUTNER

The Seminole County Farm Bureau of which I am president now has 80 members and is contributing its efforts to enroll every grower.

The Farm Bureau is new in Florida but not in other states, and the membership is growing by leaps and bounds.

Farm problems are greater today than ever before and without active representation at Washington where conditions are rapidly changing, especially with regard to agriculture, the Seminole grower may well find himself in an awkward position. The ruling of some bureau chief in Washington has all to do with the success or failure of growing a crop, particularly perishables. Such ruling might affect transportation, packing, fertilizer, marketing and labor.

Food production on American farms in 1942 was the largest in history. This was accomplished in spite of restricted supplies of farm machinery and repairs, a dwindling supply of farm labor and a steadily tightening transportation situation due to rubber shortages. Now the government is asking farmers to produce in 1943 a greater volume than the record production in 1942. Farmers are making every effort to discharge this responsibility but it cannot be accomplished unless steps are taken to make available to them the absolute essentials for this larger production.

We need to educate the government to recognize that while untrained people can be helpful in lessening the labor shortage on farms to meet seasonal demands, the maximum production requires men of experience and skill in the arts of producing vegetables and feeding livestock and poultry, dairy production, crop production and the handling of modern machinery and equipment. An inexperienced "hand" can be costly both in time required to train him and in the abuse of farm machinery.

The need for adequate new machinery, equipment, repairs and necessary materials and sup-

Colleges Should Get Gage Playing Back From Pros

By CHIP ROYAL AP Features Writer

NEW YORK, Jan. 12 (AP)—(Phog) Allen, the Kansas University basketball mentor, thinks the colleges should do something about getting the hop game back from the professional.

Dr. James Nasmith discovered basketball in 1891, declared Allen, "and three years later, it was stolen by the professional. Since then, the pro coach has ruled the game and I think it is about time that we did something about it."

The Kansas, who has been coaching hoopers for 33 years, made his charges during his annual pilgrimage to the big town which he admitted was only because his team collected $2,000 for playing here.

"The Eastern teams are the greatest offenders because they play the pro game almost exclusively," continued the doctor. "When faced to your metropolitan teams and you will see what I mean."

"They have copied the dribble of the pros. They use the same method of attack, charging down the floor with reckless abandon. On the defense, they think nothing of fouling a man to spoil his shot—typical of the pros."

Allen says the game as played in the west really follows the rules set down by Dr. Nasmith. "Just watch some of your metropolitan teams and you will see what I mean."

"They would be at a disadvantage with our style of play, and consequently are defeated by large scores." He said one of Nat Holman's City College of New York teams made a trip west, a few years ago, and suffered a humiliating defeat.

"Since then, we can't get any of your eastern teams out there," smiled Phog.

Continuing, the doctor said sectional play is differing more every year, and he expects it to go on that way until the rules committee wakes up and spends some time on research.

"Every time you bring up a new idea, they stifle it. I say they should stifle the pro game and let the colleges run basketball. Standardize the play all over the country, don't be afraid to change a few rules, don't neglect the high school coach's ideas, and let the colleges run the game. Dorais Believes Pro Football Is Extinct

Still coming in Carlots

DETROIT, Jan. 12 (AP)—Professional football is essentially a passing league, and that's why the many followers of Charles E. (Gus) Dorais are convinced that he will make good in the National League as new coach of the Detroit Lions.

Dorais was football's first great forward passer three decades ago while pitching serials at Notre Dame to his roommate, End Knute Rockne, and his University of Detroit eleven for 18 seasons have used the airfares for nearly a .700 winning average.

The U. S. Navy ration in 1912 and minerals not recognized as provided most of the vitamins necessary, but it was totally lacking in vitamin C.

Dodger President Says Baseball Is Morale Builder

NEW YORK, Jan. 12 (AP)

Baseball's only reason for continued existence is for morale, and if it is serving a useful function in this way then no apology is needed, says Branch Rickey, president of the Brooklyn Dodgers.

Ruffed by recent contentions from some critics that baseball has not fitted itself into the war program, the veteran major league executive told reporters: "Baseball either should be, or it shouldn't be. And if it should be, then it doesn't have to be ashamed of its apologetic about the way it is conducting itself."

"The only reason for its continued existence is for morale. That is an overworked term, but I don't know any better way of saying it, and it is exactly the word. Moral baseball is a legitimate business and deserves to be considered as such as long as it serves this function of helping to sustain the morale of civilians and servicemen, and the government agrees that it is useful."

"The only thing involved in transportation and we have taken steps to hold that to a minimum. A schedule of 154 games calls for no more travel than 150 games because in either case each club must make three trips into every other city in the league."

"As a matter of fact there seems to be some misunderstanding on the transportation score. Our problem is not pullman. The real problem is day coaches."

"When I was in St. Louis recently I got together with some railroad men who told me that they didn't believe any railroad would have a bit of trouble handling one pullman car filled with ball players."

City Court Docket Was Small Friday

City Court Friday evening

City Court Friday evening viewed a smaller docket than usual with cases of disorderly conduct in the majority.

Interpretation of the "Share the Meat Program" was evidently faulty in the case of Mayola Fudge, negro, accused of selling meat from a local store; formal charge larceny and $25 bond, estrated.

Other cases were, Coleman Robert Williams, negro, drunkenness and disorderly conduct, continued; Arthur Mickens, disorderly conduct, $10 and costs or 30 days; Malachi Holloway, disorderly conduct, $5 and costs or 30 days; Rosella Allen, negro, speeding, $5 and costs or 15 days; Theodore A. Tice, speeding, $6 bond estrated; Ulmer Franklin Cleland, drunkenness, $11 bond estrated; Marion Lowery, 2nd, to take treatment, $10 and costs or 30 days; and Nathaniel Burke, failure to take treatment, $10 and costs or 30 days.

Three Cheers for You from Our Men in Uniform

And Many Thanks from FLORIDA MOTOR LINES!

With Your Co-operation Florida Motor Lines Got 'Em Home for The Holidays!

Thanks to you, a most critical period in wartime bus transportation has been passed with flying colors.

Just before Christmas, Florida Motor Lines asked you to "Give your Holiday trips to men in the service"—and you who have learned to depend upon Florida Motor Lines for your travel needs, responded!

As a result of your postponing such trips, thousands of men and women in uniform were able to go home by bus to spend precious hours with loved ones.

While helping members of the armed forces, you also made travel smoother and more convenient for war workers and others whose trips could not wait. It's cooperation like this that makes it possible for Florida Motor Lines and other bus lines to carry on the tremendous mass-transportation job that is so completely essential to winning the war.

Now the holiday period is passed, Florida Motor Lines will make every effort to see that the service you count on is available when you need it—and with the utmost comfort and convenience that war conditions will permit.

We suggest, however, that you phone or call upon your nearest Florida Motor Lines agent well in advance of any trip. He can help you choose days and schedules that will be most convenient for you and best for wartime travel.

Axis Dealt Series Of Heavy Blows On Far-Flung Fronts

Allied Aircraft Hit Axis Base At Tripoli And Destroy Bombers Planes In Area

(By Associated Press)
United Nations airmen delivered a series of blows at the Axis in attacks ranging from far off Burma and New Guinea to North Africa. British headquarters today reported Allied bombers attacked the big Axis base at Tripoli and United States warplanes were reported to have destroyed 24 Axis aircraft in an attack on an airfield 10 miles south. A spokesman said 14 of the planes were downed in a blazing, five-mile running battle high in the air. In the New Guinea land fighting, General MacArthur's headquarters announced further gains against the trapped enemy forces on Papua beach where survivors of the Japanese invasion army, officially estimated at 15,000, were pictured as fighting the last stages of a losing battle. Delayed messages from Guadalcanal reported United States Army troops and Marines had killed an average of 10 Japanese to each American lost. Major General Millard Harmon, commanding general in the South Pacific, said it is "just a question of time" before control is won of the key island by American troops. Meanwhile indications that the Japanese have succeeded in putting their Midway air base into effective operation despite continued bombing by American warplanes were given Tuesday. Navy communications reporting an attack by 10 enemy fighters on a night of 100 B-24 bombers directed at the island of Midway. Gruntmen without fighters protecting the dive-bombers that attacked the island. The aerial engagement was fought Sunday. The communication reported, the army's Martin Marauder medium bombers, with accurate fighter escort, attacked the island and made observations difficult.

H. B. Pope Added To Atlantic Bank Directors' Board

H. B. Pope has been added to the board of directors of the Sanford Atlantic National Bank. It was announced following the annual meeting of the bank's shareholders and directors yesterday afternoon. At the stockholders meeting, J. L. Ingley, executive vice-president, presented a report of the bank's activities for the year 1942. He pointed out a number of changes which took place during that period in the operation of the bank, brought about by war conditions. One of the chief of these was the sale of over $400,000 in War Bonds in Sanford and Seminole County. Mr. Ingley further reported that on Dec. 1, 1942, the bank's deposits reached the highest point in the history of the institution. G. D. Bishop, Joe Cameron, G. W. Fraser, Mr. Ingley, R. A. Newman and E. O. Shinhoffer were re-elected directors of the bank and the following officers were re-elected: Mr. Shinhoffer, president; Mr. Ingley, executive vice-president; Mr. Fraser, vice president; A. L. Rizzo, cashier and A. F. Cullum, assistant cashier.

Laval Concedes More Of France To Hitler

The German high command said the French armor was captured in the town of Laval. The German army captured the armor in a battle which lasted for several days. Demands Mount For Passage Of New Tax System

Congressional leaders had two chief worries—the failure of a proposed income tax bill and the difficulty of creating President Roosevelt's budget message recommendation for $1,500,000,000 in new taxes or compulsory savings. One distinct possibility was that social security levies would be increased five-fold to facilitate expansion of the system as urged by the President in his message. Some kind of "forced savings" plan to yield about $6,000,000,000. Doubling of the new victory tax from five to 10 percent would yield $4,000,000,000. The 6-1/2 percent Federal excise tax—opposed by the White House—all commodities except food would yield $4,000,000,000. These suggestions fall $2,000,000,000 short of Mr. Roosevelt's goal, and Congressional finance experts said even less might be realized because the estimates are high.

Men Subject To Action By FBI For Evasion Of Draft

The local Selective Service Board called attention today to a list of registrants who have lost contact with their board and have been classed as delinquents, subject to action by the federal government. E. C. Carter, draft clerk, stated this morning, as he explained that relatives of persons knowing the whereabouts of the men in the list below should get in touch with the Selective Service office. One, while registered, Nathan Ray, 31 years old, is a resident of the Sanford area. Late registrants in the first Selective Service registration will be reported to the FBI at once, unless they complete questionnaires. Desperate Attempt Made By Germans To Hold Oil Fields

Ralph Chapman Addresses Civic Group At Meeting

Problems confronting farmers and growers of this section in view of President Roosevelt's recent farm mobilization appeal for more food production for the nation and its fighting allies were today the subject of a talk by Ralph H. Chapman, who addressed the Seminole County War Board at Hotel Maxfield. Mr. Chapman is also chairman of the County Selective Service Board. "Things have changed rapidly during the past 18 months as regards farm goals set for production," Mr. Chapman pointed out, "and it is imperative that the farmer be up to the task to produce more food and they are ready to cooperate 100 percent with the Department of Agriculture," Mr. Chapman added. "We should have a fixed year in Florida for setting farm goals at a different time than those set for the rest of the country."

Red Army Mouthpiece Declares Battle Is Violent Along 100-Mile Front

The German thrust tanks and warplanes into a stiffening stand in the Caucasus today in a desperate attempt to over their forces holding the Manok oilfields and the Black Sea coast farther west, but the Russians reported further gains were made and more villages were recaptured. Red Army mouthpieces declared the battle was becoming more violent along a 100-mile front from the Black Sea coast to the lower Don. The Russian forces were reported to be holding the Manok oilfields and the Black Sea coast farther west, but the Russians reported further gains were made and more villages were recaptured.

City Taxes On "Whistling Willie's" House Are Paid As Result Of Drive

"Whistling" Willie can now whistle again in peace—City taxes on his home have been paid. The campaign to free Willie from the dratted menace of unpaid taxes for a number of years back, stayed Dec. 31, when attorney G. W. Browner received a letter from Earl Brown, head of the Florida National Exhibits, for whom Willie had worked at various places. The World's Fair included $50 from Exhibits employees for Willie. This, he stated, was contingent upon the people of Sanford raising a like amount to pay Willie's taxes. Browner immediately started a campaign, led by himself, to raise the $50. The Sanford Herald was made responsible for this local campaign and agreed with Mr. Browner that Willie had

A New London

In the little magazine, Britain, L. A. G. Strong tells of an exhibition, held at the Royal Academy, of designs and suggestions for the rebuilding of London. He looked in, "expecting to find a few earnest students gazing silently in corners." Instead he found the large room so packed that it was hard to get near the exhibits.

All sorts of people were looking over the plans with interest, excitement and argument. Not all were English; There were Fighting French and other nationalities. Two Polish pilots with a WAAF girl liked the idea of a proper center for music and drama. "Russia has municipal opera in every town of 20,000 or more. That's the way to do." The girl thought London "might" come to it. "Must," said the Poles. London must be especially interested in the location of new hospitals. Everyone favored more, better and better located parks.

Strong says he thought he discerned five objects in the planning:

1. To secure for each of the city's noblest buildings a vista which would enable it to be seen in its true proportions.
2. To make each group of buildings a harmonious unit with reference to its geographical position—a hill, piece of open ground, river bend, etc.
3. To give ready access to individual buildings or groups and provide for the flow of increased traffic.
4. To restore London's splendid waterway, the Thames, to its pride of place in the general design of the city.
5. To provide the city with more numerous and better distributed parks and open spaces.

The new London may become a beautiful as well as powerful city. If took an earthquake and fire to make San Francisco handsome. Must our other cities be bombed before they learn?

After Neighbors

The other Americans—North, Central and South—are all getting tired of the situation down at the southern end of the hemisphere. That is to say, in Chile and Argentina. All of the other republics profess and practice the freedom and loyalty of this Western World. There may be limitations from time to time; but at least in dealing with each other and in the front they present to the outer world, our sister republics on the whole maintain their honor and independence and their harmony with the Pan American system. All but the two nations mentioned.

Yet in both Argentina and Chile a majority of the citizens are known to be ashamed of their isolation, and in favor of cooperating with their neighbors to make a hemisphere free from Old World meddling and coercion. The people there have been unable to gain internal freedom and control of their governments because of the strong-arm methods of the men in power.

Chile is the more susceptible to reason and cooperation with her neighbors, including Uncle Sam; and seems likely soon to become a full-fledged member of the family. Argentina will doubtless come too, in time, but there it may take a revolution.

Toughness

Yes, this is going to be a tough winter. It has been so already, and will be worse before it gets better. People may as well make up their minds that it will be tough at home, tough in Washington, tough on the fighting fronts, and tough everywhere. The weather will be tough and our enemies will be tough.

It will probably be pretty tough on all fronts for quite a while. Maybe for years to come. Maybe for decades. For if the things the civilized nations are getting into don't wash up this little old civilization of ours, they will at least bring it around until everybody knows he's been through something. This goes for everybody on every front until further notice—and even that notice will be very slow in arriving.

But "he that endureth unto the end shall be saved." This is everlastingly true of individuals and families and nations.

WEEKLY NEWS COLUMN BY JOE HENDRICKS

VICTORY CONGRESS—I hope they are right. Joe Martin, in introducing the Speaker, Sam Rayburn, to the new Congress, said that the 77th Congress was a War Congress but the 78th was going to be a Victory Congress. Speaker Rayburn followed him, promising practically the same thing and President Roosevelt in his address on the state of the Union said that it is certainly within the realm of possibility that this Congress would be a Victory Congress. At least I am convinced that we will be well on our way by the time the 78th Congress expires.

LET'S GO DOWN—President Roosevelt in his address to the joint session of the 78th Congress certainly let the Republicans down. They were all set to begin making speeches and telling the world that the President was going to be a "democratic" President. They were all set to begin making speeches and telling the world that the President was going to be a "democratic" President. "LATEST DOPE FROM WASHINGTON"

WASHINGTON DAYBOOK BY JACK STINNETT

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12. (W) The United States military experts, both official and unofficial, have learned to walk cautiously in their predictions of things to come.

No better example of it can be found than in the on and off the record comments here on the British Eighth Army's defeat of Rommel's famed Africa Corps. Remembering their errors in the Pacific during the fall of France, the military here, especially the staff of Marshal Erwin Rommel's great offensive, the experts have been almost beyond Gen. Sir Bernard Montgomery since he was at Alam el Halfa.

They were sure, even after the Eighth Army's great breakthrough at El Alamein and the capture of most of Rommel's Italian units, that he would make a stand at Matruh. Then the big battle was "just ahead" at Bardia, Tobruk, Benghazi. The "German force was going to make a stand at El Alamein, then Tripoli. There is no reason for this caution. For the first time since the start of the war, American fighting men got a real close-up of the Nazi fighting machine. These were men like Gen. Henry Cabot Lodge, Jr., who saw Rommel start his last great push. Writing in The Cavalry Journal, Major Lodge said: "As a man would have to be blind not to see that the German soldiers were superbly equipped for the rigors of desert fighting, German civilians have had to contend themselves with great makeshifts, but not their fighting men."

Major Joe Alesh, who was with the Senator, said: "German toughness and preparation was such that they brought with them spare parts for American and British tanks they expected to capture. Their program of maintaining their troops in perfect physical condition is another example of their exactitude." said Major Alesh. Even in extremely advanced positions, they are up at 5:15 and have 15 minutes of maintenance.

He described their tank tactics as a masterpiece of strategy and explained how they kept their supply and ammunition lines out of striking distance. "When the experts began to put together their reports with the fact that Rommel had an army of 100,000 men, at least 50,000 of which were "superbly equipped" and well trained, they couldn't say anything but that they would continue to wage his breach in retreat.

HOLLYWOOD BY ROBBIN COONS

HOLLYWOOD, Jan. 12. (WW)—You may not think Betty Grable is the greatest actress this town has ever had, but you've got to like Betty Grable. She was the first one to say what kind of an actress she is.

CHINA ABANDONS ANNUAL MEETING

MONTEVIDEO, Jan. 12. (AP)—The official visit of the United States and Canada's of Alberto Guani, foreign minister and vice president of Uruguay, may mark another significant stage in Uru-guayan foreign policy, with the little country again taking the lead in the political development of South America.

Guani refused yet to detail what he intends to discuss on his trip. Well-informed circles here, however, believe that he will take up three main questions—a Uruguayan loan agreement, at least in principle, diplomatic relations with Canada, and renewal of diplomatic relations with Soviet Russia.

Travel to national parks decreased 30 percent in 1941-42, the greatest decrease being at Yellowstone, which lost 60 percent.

Salvage Officer At Camps Does Big Job Well

ATLANTA, Ga., Jan. 12. (Special)—Army posts and camps in the southeastern states are placing hitherto practically unknown on the roster of "those who are winning the war" according to reports reaching headquarters, Fourth Service Command.

He doesn't drive a tank or man the guns in one. He isn't a "patriot," he doesn't eat his initials in a target, with a machine gun or a Garand rifle and he's too busy to drop bombs in a 100-foot circle from the bomb bay of high level Flying Fortresses and shoot a towed target to ribbons from the cockpit of a fighter plane. The reports of his myriad activities designate him as a salvage officer, known to himself as the post "junk man."

One report reaching headquarters is typical. It is from the Savannah Quartermaster Depot and brings this picture: A daily stream of Army trucks, loaded with heavy scrap, rolling through the depot area. Each truck is marked by a crew that is performing the step in salvage operations which is considered vital—getting the scrap moving to the war plants and keeping the salvage yards clean.

This report points out that hundreds of tons of metal have been shipped and that both military and civilian personnel have rolled in large quantities of rubber, aluminum and brass. Not content with surface scrap, they have mined an old dump at the plant and have dredged part of the Savannah river in a move to "recover every scrap of scrap."

It is only natural that tennis and boxing competitors should have the most cards because they compete in many more tournaments and matches a year than men in other sports.

Joe Louis has 64, Paavo Nurmi 47, Dixie Dean 44, and Fred Perry, Ellsworth Vines, Gene Tunney and Harry Wills, 37 each.

Other leaders are Henry Armstrong and Mickey Walker with 36; Wilmer Allison and Johnny Dundee with 35; Benny Leonard, George Lott and Walter Hagen with 34; Helen Jacobs 31; Mike McTigue and Frankie Parker 30; Bittay Grant 29; Bobby Riggs and Gene Sarazen 28; Vinnie Richards and Frank Shilitani 27; Max Schmeling and Glenna Collett Vane 26.

Cal Sawyer is unique among the University of Chicago sports men. He is the only successful individual performer or team the Maroons boasted in 1942. He scored an upset triumph over Raymond Greenberg in the western conference tennis singles championship.

Otherwise, it was a bleak athletic year for Chicago U. Chicago lost each of its conference basketball games, failed to score a point in indoor track and in outdoor track, finished last in the baseball race, and didn't compete in football.

R. A. F. Planes Unload 100 Tons Of Bombs On Nazi Armament Works

50-Mile - Retreat Of Nazi Caucasus Armies Reported In Red Dispatch

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14. (AP)—Motor Torpedo Boats, sinking into battle against Japanese destroyers, damaged two and possibly three enemy destroyers off Guadalcanal, the Navy reported today.

The enemy vessels presumably were attempting to carry reinforcements to Guadalcanal, strategic island in the Solomon Islands, but were forced to withdraw.

Following up a thunderous daylight assault on France and Holland the R.A.F. continued a powerful new aerial offensive last night by hitting Germany's industrial Ruhr and unloading 100 tons of bombs in 12 minutes over the Essen home of the mighty Krupp armament works.

On the Russian front, a new 80-mile retreat by Hitler's Caucasian armies was reported in Soviet dispatches today. Russian crushed Nazi counter-attacks and captured 12 more towns in the north-west drive toward the great German base at Rostov.

London heard a broadcast by the German news agency DNB admitting Soviet tanks had broken the Axis main line in the Caucasus.

Dispatches from Allied headquarters in North Africa said the French stormed and captured two strategic Tunisian heights northward of the Kairouan rail and highway junction while a French column driving into Libya from Equatorial Africa was reported to have made contact with Gen. Girard's headquarters.

United States Flying Fortresses, soaring 50 miles across the northern corner of France, hurled tons of demolition bombs into war factories at Lille yesterday while hundreds of Allied planes bombed two Nazi airfields and swept the skies for enemy fighters.

Nearly 400 British fighters participated in subsidiary and covering raids, the Air Ministry said. The Flying Fortresses swept over their targets at high altitude and the United States Army Air Force communicated numerous bomb bursts were seen on factories known to be turning out war supplies for Germany, as well as on nearby railway yards.

The two largest classes, Tipton and Saturn, each have nine models.

"Watchdogs" Of British Sea Lanes Have Good Record

(By Associated Press)
From London a report says the aerial watchdogs of Britain's coast and sea lanes flew 55 million miles in the first two years of the war, escorted 4947 convoys and made 597 attacks on enemy submarines, the air ministry reported in a new booklet entitled "Coastal Command."

The booklet published Wednesday is one of a series on the British heritage of naval skill and the R.A.F.'s aeronautical genius and fighting spirit.

PEANUT PRICES SAID AT TOO LOW LEVEL

ATLANTA, Jan. 11. (AP)—Representative J. Bush Munroe of Colquitt, Ga., accused the Georgia-Florida-Alabama Peanut Association as a "Government backed trust" and said its manager, Roy Parrish, was setting prices of excess peanuts in this section at unreasonably low figures.

The House passed a resolution urging Congress to take action to improve these prices.

Youths Get Orders For Medical Exams

Although youths of 18 and 19 years are required to report for physical examinations, none will be drafted until February, E. B. Carter, Selective Service Clerk, stated today. High school students should make a written request if they desire to finish the last half of the academic high school year before they are accepted for Selective Service, Mr. Carter advised.

Senate Charges Slow Progress On Barge Canal

OPA Offers Eastern Seaboard Slight Hope Of Lifting Of Pleasure Ban

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14. (AP)—The Senate Defense Investigating Committee today charged there had been an "excusable" delay and confusion in carrying out the barge construction and conversion program designed to relieve the east coast's oil shortage.

Yesterday an Office of Price Administration official told a special Senate committee that OPA was trying to simplify gasoline rationing, but he offered Eastern States only slight hope of a return to pleasure driving.

Meanwhile Petroleum Administrator Harold I. Ekes faulted the inventories of all gasoline and fuel oil reserves, as well as industrial and commercial consumption in the Eastern seaboard area, to a 10 days' supply. The purpose, it was explained, was to assure more equitable distribution of the product.

Charles S. Phillips, chief of the automotive supplies division, said it might be possible to relax the ban on pleasure driving after the Winter heating crisis which strains transportation facilities for the shipment of fuel oil, and estimated the remainder of this emergency period at 65 to 70 days.

But when Senator Burton (R-Ill.) said, "An oil shortage will give the nation a headache after 30 days the ban on pleasure driving will be definitely lifted off," Phillips replied, "I certainly don't" holding "Maybe Mr. Ekes will tell us we'll have to keep the ban on after that."

He said OPA was attempting to (1) simplify the rationing forms now in use, (2) provide a small procedure, and (3) provide a ban to appear personally by four local boards or other and (4) simplify the regulations.

OPA, Phillips said, was attempting to place the whole country on average rationing of fuel until a year for passenger cars, which should assure tires under the ration program for essential operation of cars for at least 24 months.
