

Lookouts Drop 5-4 Contest To St. Augustine

Ancient City Crew Secures Nine Hits Off Deliveries Of Early Wynn And Dazzy Mote

Al Kasso And Mayo Langston Lead Local Players With Two Hits Each; Martin Nearly Lifts Triple Over Wall

The Sanford Lookouts again tasted bitter defeat and fell nearly two and one-half games behind the league-leading Gainesville G-Men when Jerry Fitzgerald's St. Augustine Saints took a 5 to 4 decision from Lee Head's Lookouts.

Early Wynn for the Lookouts and Raymond Blair of the Saints began the tilt for the respective counts but Wynn did not finish for he was relieved by "Dazzy" Mote in the eighth inning with one man out.

Wynn hitted seven and one-third innings and gave up eight hits which were good for the Saints five runners. Mayo Langston up one hit in the one and two-thirds innings by now sitting on the hill.

Wynn sent five Saints down swinging, the leading only three passes to the initial sack. Mote fanned three Saints and allowed no free passes.

On the hill for the Saints, Blair hurled some excellent baseball as he allowed the Lookouts eight hits and kept them with one out in the eighth inning when the Lookouts battered him for three hits for two runs. Blair next evened off the Lookouts score with the strictest routine while he allowed only two walks.

Leading the hitting for the evening was Jack Owens, Saint backstop, who sent out two singles and a double in four appearances at the plate. Al Kasso and Mayo Langston of the locals scored two hits while "Suede" Martin recorded only one hit, but that was a triple which nearly scaled the left field wall.

The Saints began the scoring in the third frame when Vic Zanic doubled to left field and went on Owens' single to right-center field Wynn fanned Blair but the Saints won a run across when "Suede" Martin tripled to left field and scored, Moore flied out to Head to end the inning.

The Lookouts tied the count in the fourth when "with one out," "Suede" Martin tripled to the left field wall and scored when Head flied out to Cates at third base.

The Saints again took the lead when in the fifth inning Zanic led off with a walk, went to third on Owens' double to right field and both runners scored when Blair singled to right field. The next three men went out in order to end the inning.

TODAY'S SPORTING WORLD

By JULIAN STERNBOM

THIS BASEBALL SITUATION here in Sanford is getting serious enough almost to say for a new deal but when you come right down to brass tacks or what have you, you will discover some rather interesting points that will have a large bearing on the matter.

EVERY BALL CLUB IN THE United States, whether professional, semi-pro or amateur, must have a slump or two kind and sometimes it comes in the first few weeks, sometimes during mid season and then again it may be in the last portion of the year, and the club are in a bad slump now, but can't last forever.

THE BOYS ARE STRAYING away from their hitting ability and their work on the field is rapidly improving to such a degree that in several days they will be right back into their usual playing and hitting form and by the top notch in 1936 standings.

WITH "LITTLE JOE" HUNGERIO, the most improved player on the Lookouts this season, back in the lineup and doing right well playing in a new position, the third base or right fielder, and playing the game nobody's business, things are going to pick up in that direction of ours considerably and the greatest pitching staff Sanford has ever had.

AND WHILE SPEAKING of that pitching staff, you know that it has been

Eugene "Dazzy" Mote Again In Race As State League's Most Colorful Pitching Ace

Lookout Star, Native Of Calhoun, Ga. Entered Chain When Discovered By Joe Engel In 1936

Once more I give you the life history of one of the most colorful pitchers, says the great Dazzy Dean, to give you a uniform representation of the greatest national baseball star in the world, baseball.

"Dazzy" Mote who won the title of the State League's most colorful pitcher last season from the Islander's great "Moose" Fralich and who isn't making such a bad headway in that direction again this season with the Sanford Lookouts.

"Dazzy" as he is called by his teammates as well as the many fans who have heard the hurler's name shouted by umpires announcing the batteries for many games, is now at the age of 23. Mote stands 6 feet 2 and one-half inches tall and hits the scales at 174 pounds. Mote is a native of a village called Calhoun, Ga., where he has spent most of his life before a plow until he became a figure in baseball.

At the ripe age of 17, he was signed by his home team, Calhoun, as an outfielder. He played with many other clubs before he was signed by the Dalton, Ga., club of the Georgia-Tennessee League, which is a semi-pro league. Mote played the outfield for the Dalton nine for about two and one-half years. While in his second year with the Dalton, outfit he led the league in hitting for the first half with an average of no less than .340. At the beginning of the second half he was called on to pitch for the club which only had two hurlers and both were knocked out in a certain game and Mote was sent in to hurl. He did some mighty fine hurling, for one of the other pitchers was raised. Mote did nothing but pitch for the remainder of the season.

At the end of that season, he had 23 wins to his credit in 27 tilts. Not bad in any man's loop, says Mote. In 1935 Mote entered a baseball school being conducted in Atlanta, Ga., by the great Kid Eberfeld. Mote did not get a contract with any club so he returned to his home "hunting" grounds at Calhoun and pitched for that outfit which was then entered in the Keystone League.

In the opening contest, Mote was called on to take over the hurling duties, and he did things in a big way that day. He shut out the Kingston nine fanned 18 of their batsmen and did nothing else than to record a no-run, no-hit tilt. Mote hurled through the '35 season there and also the 1934 year but in 1935 he went to Atlanta and played in a City Commercial League there. He was the strike-out king of the loop with a number of 15. The closest to his record was nine.

In 1936, he again entered the

Capital Pays Final Homage To Dead Solon

Roosevelt Among Dignitaries Attending Simple State Rites In Senate Chamber

Air Is Heavy With Flower Fragrance

Large Delegation Of Solons To Accompany Body Back Home

WASHINGTON, July 16.—(AP)—The nation's great, led by President Roosevelt, paid their last respects to Joseph T. Robinson, Democratic leader of the Senate. At the stroke of noon, a throng of frock-coated dignitaries marched into the gold and marble Senate chamber for a simple state funeral. The air was heavy with the fragrance of flowers. Lined ead spectators crowded the galleries.

The dead leader's massive silver casket, almost hidden by wreaths, occupied the center of the hall. An arm's length away stood the empty chair Robinson had used during the last 24 years in the senate.

Special seats flanking the bier were occupied by near relatives including the widow and the late senator's brothers. At the presiding officer's desk, Senator Pittman, Nevada Democrat, president pro tem, and speaker Bankhead, Alabama Democrat, stood side by side.

House members filed in and stood against the walls. The diplomatic corps also entered the chamber.

Justice Butler, the only Supreme Court member in the city, was followed by uniformed commanders of the Army, Navy, and Marine Corps and Coast Guard.

President Roosevelt sat directly in front of Robinson's former seat. The Senate and House chaplains offered prayers. Hymns were sung. The largest delegation of senators and representatives ever to make a trip for a funeral will accompany the body to Little Rock, Ark., for funeral services and burial there.

Coast Guard Will Give Local Scouts 2 Of Its Rowboats

Announcement of completed negotiations with Jacksonville Coast Guard authorities for the presentation of two rowboats to the boys was given last night at the regular weekly meeting of Sea Scouts of the ship "Seminole Lion" at the Junior High School. Included in the party which went to Jacksonville were Joe Welch, chairman of the ship committee, Clifford Hill, skipper, and four members of the scout troop. Hill stated that it is enough interest is shown in the newly organized troop, a power boat could be obtained in February.

Insistence On Court Bill Is Cause Of Ire

Presidential Injunction About "Duty" Draws Angry And Defiant Answers

Opposition Ready To Continue Fight

Supporters To Seek Enactment As Soon As Leader Is Named

WASHINGTON, July 16.—(AP)—A presidential injunction that it is the "duty of Congress" to pass this judiciary legislation at this session drew angry, defiant replies from the foes of the court bill.

The armistice, called after the death of Senator Robinson, was shattered even before his funeral. "We will select our own leader and dispose of the court bill in our own way, without dictation from any source whatsoever," said Senator Van Nuys, Indiana Democrat.

Senator Burke, Nebraska Democrat, commented "If the President is determined to have the matter brought back to life, he will find the opposition ready to welcome the contest."

The President's supporters, however, said they would seek the enactment of the court bill as soon as the party leader is selected to succeed Robinson.

They still are backing Barkley of Kentucky but said they would support any man desired by Roosevelt. Opposition senators are backing Harrison of Mississippi.

Air Mail Service For Sanford To Be Greatly Improved

A quicker and more efficient air mail service is now available to Sanford which begins tonight, Postmaster R. J. Holly stated today.

A Florida Motor Line bus of Star Route 2394 which passes through this city from Orlando on its way to Daytona Beach every night at 8:25 o'clock will now carry mail to the airport in Daytona making connections with the northbound plane 64 at 10:15 P. M.

Postmaster Holly said that all mail should be in the Post Office by 7:30 P. M. if it is to go on the new schedule.

This is a great improvement over the old system wherein mail left Sanford by train 76 at 8:15 o'clock in the morning and boarded a plane in Jacksonville, Postmaster Holly said.

Filibusters

The possibility of the current congressional debate on the Supreme Court issue developing a filibuster is remote indeed, primarily because there is no need for one.

In the good old days, before air-conditioning, a filibuster in the summer time took on the dramatic tenor of a six-day bicycle race or a marathon dance.

The diet of a filibusterer is something to consider and naturally it must be limited to food and drink that is easily accessible and maneuverable.

The necessity for conserving energy is most important and a technique has been developed where the speaker leans against his chair, but caution must be used.

Naturally, in such protracted periods of speaking the voice comes in for terrific punishment and the orators have developed a low monotone which is found to work the least hardship on the larynx.

Filibustering tactics are very often dramatic, but in the realm of true statesmanship they have little place.

A Great Loss

Regardless of political allegiance, the press of the country has been unanimous in its laudatory remarks about Senator Robinson whose untimely death occurred this week in Washington.

"His unexpected death," says the Miami Herald, "has deprived the nation of one of its leading statesmen, a man who for many years has stood in the forefront of political battles both in congress and out."

"Politically his loss will be felt the strongest among those members of Congress who have been strenuously upholding the President's policies."

"Nationally his loss will be felt among those who have endeavored to lead the country into a wider field of liberalism. He will be missed by all as a patriotic leader of the people."

"The death of Senator Robinson is to be deeply regretted because we have so few statesmen that we can afford to lose his great ability as a lawyer and outstanding framer of beneficial laws."

Dinner Party Given By Mr. and Mrs. Davy

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Davy entertained recently with an Italian spaghetti dinner given at their home on Palmato Avenue in honor of Mr. and Mrs. John Roberts, of Atlanta, Ga., who are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Greene.

The rooms of the Davy home were attractively decorated with garlands of pink lilies and crepe myrtle. A color harmony of pink and green was used in the dining room. The table was spread with a Chinese lace tablecloth centered with a silver basket filled with pink lilies. Tiny cones of shell butterfly place cards marked each place at the table. Pink baskets filled with green and pink mints completed the table decorations.

First a watermelon ball salad course and miniature apples made of cheese was served. This was followed by an Italian spaghetti dinner. As an ice course Mrs. Davy served miniature flower pots filled with lime sherbet. Planted in the center of each pot was a pink rose bud. Pink and green cakes and mints completed the dinner.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. John Roberts, honor guests; Mr. and Mrs. Victor Greene, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Thompson of Elder Springs and Mr. and Mrs. Davy.

Officials Prepare For Record Enrollment At State Woman's College

TALLAHASSEE, July 14.—Repairs and improvements amounting to approximately $40,000 will be made at Florida State College for Women in the next few weeks as preparations are underway for what is expected to be a record size fall term.

This was announced today by J. G. Kellum, business manager of the college. The largest single item of the improvements will be installation of a boiler at the college heating plant. This will reduce the two already overloaded boilers furnishing additional heat in time of emergency or upon the construction of new buildings on the campus. All the college dormitories, class rooms, offices as well as the dining hall, gymnasium, infirmary, at Florida State College are steam heated. Insuring comfort with any sudden change of weather.

Other repairs and improvements will involve construction of new fireproof roofs at the college dormitories and the college nurses' cottage and Repulse hall which have been very much needed and which work has been held up prior to this time owing to lack of funds; reconstructing Jennie Murphree hall the freshman dormitory; and modernizing the electric lighting facilities in all five college dormitories.

Maltese-Cat Has Layed For 25 Exciting Years

WHITEHALL, Mont., July 14.—(AP)—Baldpate, forest supervisor, has documents to show that Monte Sigs, his Maltese cat, has had 25 years of exciting life.

Born at Jericho, Mont. in April, 1912, Monte ran away from home for a winter, was up in a coyote trap, spent a winter in Florida, tried to swallow a fish hook, suffered a fractured tail and has killed scores of mountain rats.

She is toothless now, but she still can whip Toughy, the Dick-train dog.

Rail Reports Show Gains Over Last Year

WASHINGTON, July 14.—(AP)—The Association of American Railroads yesterday reported June operating revenues of Class I carriers as $296,247,248, a 4.4 percent increase over the corresponding month last year.

The association's figures were derived from preliminary reports from 31 carriers, representing 81.2 percent of total rail operating revenues.

Freight revenues of the 31 roads were $223,161,818 during June, an increase of 3.1 percent over June 1933. Passenger revenues totaled $32,244,773, an increase of 11 percent.

Madrid's Ragtag Supporters Turn Into Strong Army

By ALEXANDER H. UHL
MADRID, July 14.—(AP)—Out of 11 months of bitter warfare has come a strong loyalist army, well disciplined, well equipped, poorly equipped peasant and workers' militia that faced Franco's professionalists last July.

The government proudly cites the new army as its principal accomplishment to date—and to anyone who saw the ragtag band it started with it is readily apparent that a tremendous task in organization has been accomplished.

In the beginning the "people's army" was little better than an armed mob and not too well armed at that. The old army with its officers was gone and the new defenders of the government were not only ignorant of military ways but instinctively turned against thoughts of discipline and organization.

"On the road to Toledo I drove up to a disorganized mass of troops retreating from Burgos, Aragon to the Toledo position. A dozen men rambled up, gesticulating wildly, and in broken sentences, demanded the car. Pointing from the windshield I refused to surrender it and demanded to see an officer."

"Officers!" they shouted. "We have no officers!"

And it was true. They were Catalan anarchists come to help save Madrid but the idea of some one in a position to give commands was foreign to their philosophy.

Today the bitter lessons learned on the battlefield of lack of discipline and organization have

Lookouts Face Tough Foes Over Weekend

Palatka Azaleas To Throw Two Of Their Aces Against Lookouts In Coming Series

Lookouts' Contest Rained Out Last Night; Play Jimmy Sanders' Outfit In Coastal City This Afternoon

The Sanford Lookouts will face tough opponents in their last three games of the week when they travel to Daytona Beach this afternoon for a tilt with Manager Jimmy Sanders' Islanders at City Field. Park Manager Lee Head of the Lookouts will take his outfit to Palatka Saturday where they will engage in a tilt with Manager Agnew's Azaleas and on Sunday, Head will bring his war-torn back to the glory city to battle Agnew's Azaleas once more, only on the home grounds this time.

In the Daytona Beach tilt this afternoon, Head will use Big Dan Leonard on the mound while he will do the catching. Facing Brainard on the hill will be the old Sanford line, Moose Pralick. Catching Pralick will be C. B. Martin. In the tilt at Palatka tomorrow Head will use either Dazzy Mole or Al Crisfield and either Mole or Crisfield will see action here Sunday afternoon. This is the opportunity for the locals to get a big lead on the Azaleas who are leading the Lookouts very close in the contest between the Lookouts and the Islanders last night was postponed on account of rain at the grounds. The contest will be played off on the afternoon of July 17. The regular scheduled game on that day will take place under the floodlights in the evening starting as usual at 8:15 P. M.

DeLand Releases Two Hurlers And Signs Holdstock

DELAND, July 16.—The DeLand Reds yesterday released two of the team's pitchers, Jim Nolan of Kentucky and Harry Lator, West Palm Beach, and signed Bill Holdstock, who played outfield with the Reds earlier in the season, but who will be a pitcher now. Since the Reds first released Holdstock he played with Leesburg and Daytona Beach. Business Manager Bill Page said he received word today from Melvin Ivey of Peoria, Ill., who had agreed to catch for the Reds, that he will be unable to report.

Boy scouts at the National jamboree consumed 13,000 pounds of bread and 900 bushels of oatmeal at one meal.

Ellis "Breeches" Clary Is Nominated On Herald's All-Star State League Outfit

Lead Loop In Stolen Bases Last Season And Also Leading So Far This Year With A Total Of Forty-Three

For his ability to play the shortstop position like a veteran of many seasons and his timely hitting, the Sanford Herald made its decision that Ellis "Breeches" Clary, Sanford Lookout shortstop, was the man to nominate on its yearly all-star Florida State League team. A native of Valdosta, Ga., "Breeches," as he is called by his teammates, attended the public schools in Valdosta. He was on the basketball and football squads as well as the high school diamond nine. In 1935, Clary was rated as the fastest prep school football player in the State of Georgia. Clary has seen action in organized baseball before his signing with the Sanford Lookouts during the middle part of the 1936 season of the state league. During the first portion of the season he was connected with the American Cardinals of the Georgia-Florida League. Clary was involved in a trade between the local moguls and the Cardinal "bosses" in which Slim McCown went to the American outfit. Clary took the stolen base honors for the league last season with a total of 24 while so far this season he has a total of 43 to his credit. Clary's nearest rival was Shaw Buck of the Gainesville G-Men who had 22. Buck was in the league all season while Clary was here only about half of the season. Clary, a youngster who doesn't smoke or drink, has some great possibilities in store for him in the future and he has been named by Bill "Raw Heat" Rodgers as the best looking prospect in this great game of baseball. Clary's stolen base record as well as his timely hitting has earned himself a place on this all-star nine and should be well remembered by other scribes in the league when the time comes for the official selecting of the Florida State League All-Star Team. According to a statement made by Calvin Griffith, youthful proxy of the Chattahoochee Lookouts of the Southern Association, Clary will be given a first class tryout with the Southern Association outfit.

TODAY'S SPORTING WORLD

By JULIAN STENSTRUM
Herald Sports Editor

Henry L. Gray, president of the Florida State League, thinks he has quite a bit of trouble he should listen in on the free-for-all exhibitions given almost daily by a team of players in the South Atlantic League. And even though some of the Sally Loop outfits are trying to take out the well known fighting spirit which always goes with a discussion of the league, other teams refuse to quit their battling and go right on with fights among themselves as well as with umpires, fans, police and their managers. They say that Savannah is the worst place in the league and from what we see in the Florida Times Union this morning by Sam Butz, the Times Union sports editor, the City of Savannah is rapidly making some money. Here's what Sam has to say: "Club belonging to organized baseball are always appreciative of co-operation from the local gendarmes in keeping down riots, assisting umpires with ever-pugnacious athletes and in general preventing any untoward incidents around the ball park. But it does seem that the peace officers of Savannah are going a bit far in their eagerness to maintain law and order. "Granting that the Savannah baseball park comes under the police department's jurisdiction, it nevertheless is the custom in most sections of the country to allow the umpires to run the game. If any situations get away from baseball's boys in blue, the other boys in blue usually turn the culprit over to the police for punishment after clearing the diamond. "Savannah is adopting a unique system. Instead of Dr. White, the league's president, collecting fines, the police put the field, the Savannah municipal court is profiting when the athletes forget themselves so far as to engage in personal combat. "Some time back Dr. D. L. Smith of Columbus and Arky Biggs of the Indians engaged in a little mele around second base. The umpire who was present that night tells us that before he could do anything whatsoever about stopping the scrap the police had rushed in and rushed out, bearing with them the two struggling players. And after all, ball players aren't very hard to separate when they take those long, harmless swings at each other. Biggs and Smith contributed $25 toward the upkeep of Savannah's streets. "Then Tuesday night Manager Bill Steinecke of the Tar and George Granger's Indian pitcher who was playing the outfield, mingled in a mild duel around home plate. Granger blaming Steinecke because he was having to hit the dirt every time the Tar pitcher let go of the ball. Again the police spoiled the fight, and drug the contestants out beneath the stands. The umpires intervened here and persuaded the police to permit Steinecke and Granger to finish the game. But they were forced to appear in court the next morning and pay $10 fines. "Now Butz has got a good point here and so the Florida State League can consider itself a well-behaved and orderly bunch of ball clubs. We do not have such things as that here and we know that none of the Sanford cops have taken anybody to jail but we do know that they are out there every night and in case anything did happen they would readily aid the umpires and let the umpire put the fines on the players."

Joe Engel Given 30 Day Option On Chattahoochee Club

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., July 16.—Clark Griffith, owner of the Washington and Chattanooga baseball clubs, said last night that he had given Joe Engel, head of the Washington Farm System, a 30-day option on a purchase price of $125,000. Griffith said the price, "about half what the club is worth," would cover all physical properties of the club and players who are not optioned to the Washington club. He declined to say what players Washington would retain should the sale be consummated. Engel, who was president of the club last year, said he will sell dollar-a-share stock to "everybody that will buy" and argument that with funds furnished by Chattanooga business men.

Japan, China Crisis Draws Near Climax

Situation In Bordering Formal Declaration Of War Between 2 Countries Involved

Crack Divisions Of Shek On Scene

Fear Felt That Melee May Result When Two Forces Meet

The crisis in North China drew today toward a climax that may determine whether there will be a formally declared war between Japan and China.

Troops of China's national government at Nanking, crack divisions of the fighting machine built by Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek, are reported to have reached Hopeh Province in North China.

Japanese troops from Manchoukuo and those regularly stationed in North China are already in the field, OIFAs are enroute from Japan proper.

The meeting of the two armies, foreign observers believed, might create a situation so disastrous that war would result. Fighting so far in the area around Peiping has been between

Ford Worker Says He Was Ousted For Joining Union

DETROIT, July 17.—(AP)—John Schipper, a national labor relations board hearing yesterday that he was discharged by the Ford Motor Company because of his membership in the United Automobile Workers Union, three days after the United States Supreme Court declared the Wagner Act constitutional.

He was dismissed, he testified, 15 minutes after he showed his foreman a newspaper account of a statement by Henry Ford, founder of the automobile concern, in which he said he had nothing against union activities, and his employees could do as they wished about joining them.

Schipper said he told Roy Meyers, the foreman, to read it, and he "just looked at me and gave me a silly grin."

Fifteen minutes later, he continued, he was sent to the superintendent's desk and was informed he was dismissed, Schipper said that when he told them he wouldn't sign his pay slip until he learned the reason for his discharge, a Ford Service man named "Walt" replied:

"I fired you for joining."

"I said I knew why I was being fired," Schipper related to the NLRB examiner, "and they asked me why, I said I was being fired because I belonged to the union."

He said he joined the UAW early in March, but kept "strictly quiet" until the Wagner Act decision was announced.

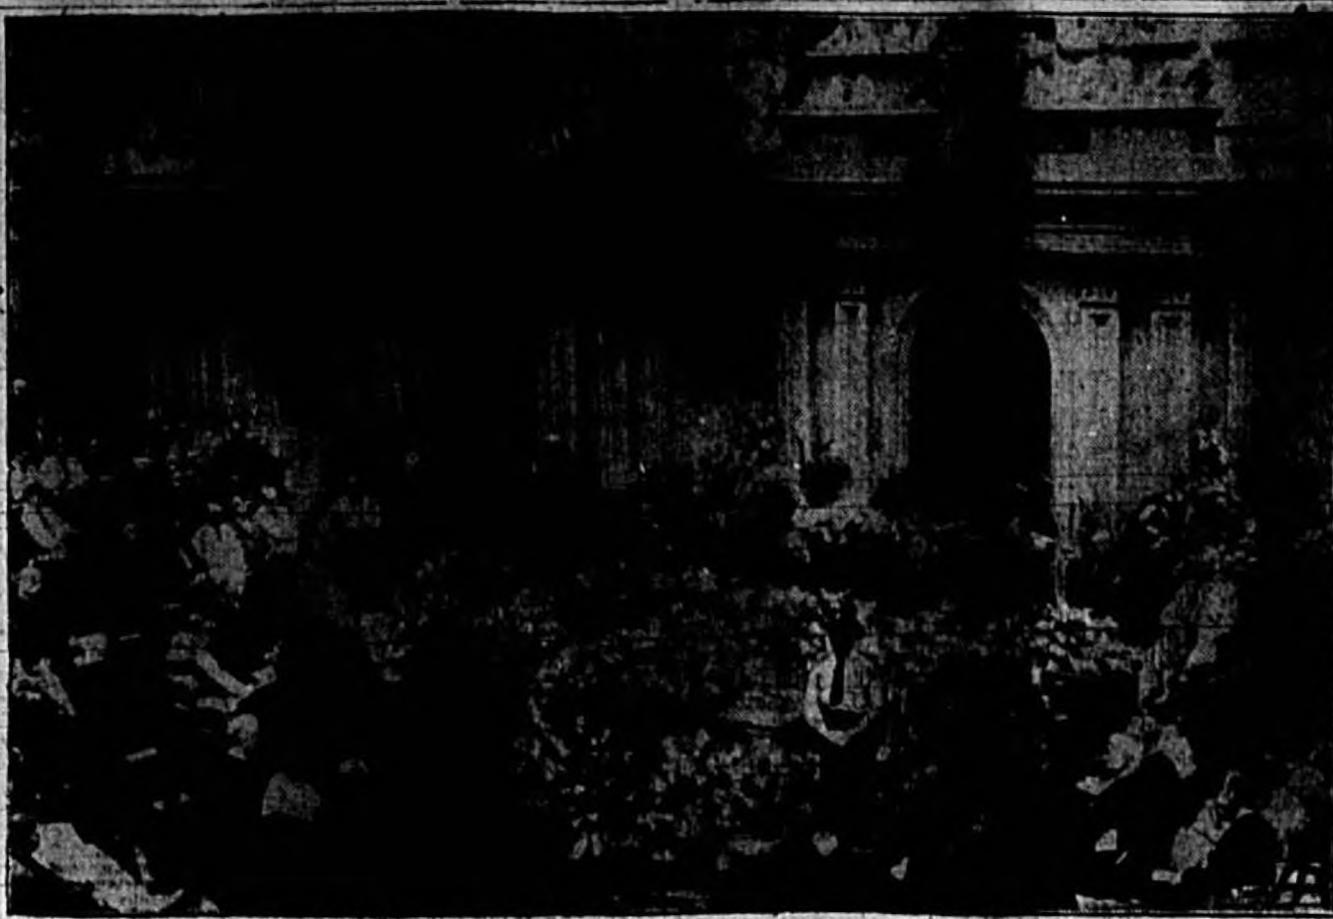

Robinson Funeral Train Hums With Talk Of Successor

ABOARD TRAIN TAKING ROBINSON'S BODY TO ARKANSAS.—The crowd of well-wishers carrying the body of Senator Joseph T. Robinson to Little Rock home for burial tomorrow, blended with a thick, warm atmosphere for the Democratic leader of the Senate left yesterday for his death.

Out of respect for the dead, the two principal candidates for the post-Senatorship, Allen W. Burdick and William F. Winter, of Mississippi, held themselves aloof from the crowd.

The party will hold a caucus in Washington Wednesday after the funeral, when the President's cabinet will hold almost entire sessions while those in attendance will be supporting

WASHINGTON PAYS LAST RESPECTS TO ROBINSON

In the gold and marble senate chamber where he helped shape affairs of state for 24 years, state funeral services were held for Senator Joseph T. Robinson, the Democratic leader, who died suddenly of a heart attack. President Roosevelt led a host of the nation's notables in paying last respects to the statesman from Arkansas whose last days were spent in a mighty battle in behalf of the President's legislative program. This picture was made during the service. In the center almost hidden by flowers is Robinson's massive silver casket. Seated in the front row just to the left of the center aisle is President Roosevelt. On the dais are the presiding officers of the House and Senate, Speaker William B. Bankhead (left) and Senator Key Pittman (right), president pro tempore of the Senate.

Cops Are Seeking Clues In Mystery Killing Of Doctor

Two Comely Women Center Of Interest In Probing Today

PROVIDENCE, R. I., July 17.—(AP)—Two comely women were the center of interest in mysterious death of Dr. George V. Webster, fashionable physician. The doctor was shot fatally in the doorway of his home early yesterday.

Police questioned, but released, Dorothea Gilligan, for eight years the secretary to the doctor, and Elizabeth Prince, a roommate of Miss Gilligan.

Officers told both young women they would be subject to later questioning.

So far no clue has been found in the mystery slaying.

The doctor told officers who took him to the hospital he would give them the details later. He died on the operating table.

His death ended his announced plan to "tell you (the police) all about the shooting later."

An absence of blood stains in the Webster home puzzled police.

Deputy Superintendent Cusick said there were no stains on the drape on which Webster lay when police arrived, nor in the vicinity.

The telephone from which he called the officers, nor in the vestibule where the shooting occurred.

There was a small stain, Cusick said, on a suit of underwear that lay on the dining room table, and he theorized that probably Dr. Webster put his hand upon it as he leaned on the table for support.

A high fence encloses the Webster home and dense shrubbery surrounds the garage, offering many hiding places for the slayer.

Cusick quoted a neighbor as saying the street light in front of the Webster home was not lighted last night, nor the previous night.

Investigations also turned to lists of patients at the homopathic hospital, as well as the doctor's private records in their search for clues to his slayer.

Many improvements were made on Camp Wikiki by the Scouts of Troop 14 at an all-day meeting held there recently. W. E. Kader, scoutmaster of the troop, announced today.

Both the business session in the Chamber of Commerce Building and the luncheon in the Valdez Hotel are open to the public, Mr. Bagwell said, but added that reservations for the luncheon should be made in advance.

Canal Project To Be Discussed At Meeting Monday

Trade Body Offices To Be Scene Of Important Discussion

Matters relating to the proposed St. Johns-Indian River canal project will be discussed at a meeting of the St. Johns River Improvement Association to be held in the Chamber of Commerce Building at 10:30 o'clock Monday morning, Ralph Bagwell, secretary of the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce, stated today.

The officers and members of the association will adjourn to the Valdez Hotel at noon for a joint luncheon with the Sanford Rotary Club.

It was stated that the digging of the canal has the whole-hearted support of Congressman Joe E. Hendricks and J. Mark Wilcox, and would give Sanford unlimited possibilities as a port and haven for wealthy yachtsmen.

Many delegates from each county in the St. Johns River Valley will assemble here, George W. Gibbs, of Jacksonville, president; Karl Lehmann, Tavares, secretary; Charles L. Heath, DeLand, treasurer; Ralph F. Bagwell, Sanford, assistant secretary and treasurer; and the following vice-presidents: H. M. Papworth, Sanford; W. P. Cochman, Jr., Jacksonville; W. P. Glynne, Crescent City; John W. Campbell, Palatka; C. M. McKenney, Orlando; Dr. Francis Dickinson, Orange City; and Benjamin F. Haines, Altamonte Springs, will be in attendance.

Both the business session in the Chamber of Commerce Building and the luncheon in the Valdez Hotel are open to the public, Mr. Bagwell said, but added that reservations for the luncheon should be made in advance.

Davy, Greene, Davy Firm Is Dissolved

Davy, Greene and Davy, distributors of Elder Springs water, have dissolved partnership today due to Mr. Davy's ill health, according to an announcement made by O. P. Davy.

Mr. Davy was unable to continue in both the retail and the wholesale business and has sold his interest in Elder Springs to Victor Greene. He has purchased all of the retail business of which he was formerly part owner.

Mr. Greene is now in charge of Elder Springs and the wholesale distribution and Mr. Davy is now the head of the retail distribution.

Bids will be received Monday for the tax certificates which have been advertised for sale but the certificates and receipts will be withheld pending

India's Worst Rail Accident Takes Big Toll

Official Estimate Of Dead Is Placed At 80, Number Of Injured At Sixty-Five

PATNA, India, July 17.—(AP)—India's most disastrous railway wreck was reported today on the Punjab to Calcutta line.

The death toll mounted as rescuers pulled scores of bodies from the tangled debris of the express train.

An official government railway estimate was 80 dead and 65 injured but an unofficial estimate was about 200 dead and 250 injured. The Exchange Telegraph agency gave the unofficial estimate, its final figure was not dead.

Hodies still could be seen in coaches.

An official government railway estimate was 80 dead and 65 injured but an unofficial estimate was about 200 dead and 250 injured. The Exchange Telegraph agency gave the unofficial estimate, its final figure was not dead.

Hodies still could be seen in coaches.

The express was enroute to Calcutta from Delhi when the engine derailed and toppled over an embankment, pulling with it seven of the nine coaches. Natives were packed in the seven coaches, about 100 persons in each car, while the European passengers were in the two rear cars and were unhurt. Many natives were killed outright. Others were burned to death in the resulting fire.

A mysterious gunman broke in to the fashionable home of Dr. George W. Webster at Providence, Rhode Island, and fatally shot the society physician after waiting several hours for him to return. Dr. Webster promised to "tell the whole story if I recover" but an hour after the shooting death sealed his secret. His family was away from home at the time.

Trailer Camp Plan Put On Display In Drug Store Window

Plans for a regulation trailer camp approved by the National Tourist Owners' Association have been placed in the window of Rounhill and Anderson's drug store. They were drawn by Percival Hutton, an architect of Winter Park.

One layout of the entire camp presents the plan of a recreation division in the center surrounded by separate spaces for each activity. There are 100 acres of land in the layout and space for 1136 cars.

Another plan shows the recreation center in detail. It contains a swimming pool, place for games of clock golf, bowling, croquet, horseshoe pitching, shuffleboard, quills, tennis, a large garden, a bath house, a club house, and an office.

At present, plans for Sanford's proposed trailer camp are being prepared by Fred T. Williams, civil engineer. They indicate a camp to be built on small lots which may be added to if larger accommodations are needed.

Bradshaw Appointed Employment Chief

TALLAHASSEE, July 17.—(AP)—Governor Cone appointed Fred E. Bradshaw of Jacksonville director of the Florida state employment service for a term "at the pleasure of the governor."

Bradshaw's appointment is to a job held by John Emerson who declined to relinquish his post as Thomas C. Ineson, Jacksonville city commissioner, when the governor appointed Ineson recently.

Ineson later declined to succeed uphild Emerson, saying he was appointed under the merit system agreed upon by the federal government and the State of Florida.

Bids Are Received By School Board

Bids for the construction of a concrete play court at the Junior High School and for two slightly used school buses were received by the Seminole County Board of Public Instruction in an adjourned session in the Court House this morning. T. W. Lawton, county superintendent, reported today.

F. A. Dyson's bid of $1288 was the lowest bid submitted for the construction of the concrete play court and he was awarded the contract.

The Sanford Buick Company's bid of $1095 was accepted for a 1936 Dodge truck chassis and Edward Higgins and son was awarded the other contract at $1850 for a 45 passenger Superior body mounted on a 1937 Ford V-8 truck chassis.

Lawton Pleased With Course Held For School Heads

Superintendent Back From Week Spent At Camp Roosevelt

The Short Course for Superintendents of Public Instruction held in Camp Roosevelt this past week was pronounced a success today by T. W. Lawton who was in attendance throughout the entire session.

A number of county superintendents were present and discussed their many current problems and also met with officials of the State Department of Education and other educational leaders to formulate plans for the improvement of the State and County programs of education.

J. A. Keller, state superintendent of Public Instruction in Alabama, and Thomas Holy, head of the school of education at Ohio State University were the guest speakers, and during the course these educational leaders gave some "splendid" lectures on the Planning of the County Program of Education, Planning the School Program, Planning the Transportation Program and the Budget, Mr. Lawton indicated.

A number of other prominent educational leaders of the state also gave interesting and helpful addresses during the week, Mr. Lawton said.
