FINAL LEGION GROUP LEAVES GOATHAM TODAY

General Pershing On Board Leviathan As She Brings Up Rear In Ocean Procession

Pilgrimage Of Good Will, Says General

Oldier Chief Praises Desire To Re-Establish Friendly Spirit

ABOARD S. S. LEVIATHAN, New York, Sept. 10.—The last contingents of "the good A. E. F." sailed out of New York harbor early this morning, bound for France and the memories of it holds for the two-million Americans who crossed under far different conditions 10 years ago.

Abroad the Leviathan, and aboard the second expeditionary force as he led the first, was Gen. J. Pershing, and with him many officers and men whose exploits were an indelible page in American history, from Cantigny the Aronne.

Carrying doughboys was no novelty for the giant Leviathan, during the war she carried thousands of them in record time through the hurricane-infested Atlantic. She was stripped then for grim business and the decks were packed with her decks like a sardine can in the 10 years that have rolled since the war, the big liner, like that of her passengers today, has changed somewhat and been equipped with the modern amenities in the brilliant sunshine this morning more like a floating hotel than the gaunt grim transport of 10 years ago.

The departure was different, too, she went out this morning with a sharp contrast to the stealthy slings of 10 years ago.

Ahead of her were a dozen other liners with American veterans, within a week the streets of Paris will be resounding to the strains of American doughboys. It is the return of possibility that the second A. E. F. also will make international history.

"This is the greatest pilgrimage good will ever undertaken," said Gen. Pershing. "The time is propitious for this visit of the American legion. The attitude of the French people have always been one of kindness for the American soldier. It is deep down, this feeling, it needs only an opportunity to bring it to the surface."

"I look upon this visit of the Legion as in no sense a lark. It is prompted by a desire to re-establish the friendly relations which existed during the war, and which to my mind should be a permanent heritage to pass down to posterity."

French veterans, from Marcellin to the pollux are looking forward with interest to this reunion. This pilgrimage constitutes the greatest move ever undertaken toward solidifying the good will between the people of France and the United States.

Miss Elder More Determined Than Ever To Try Flight

TAMPA, Fla., Sept. 10. (INS)—Miss Elder, 23-year-old girl, said today she was still determined to make the hazardous trip across the Atlantic from New York to Paris, in the face of recent setbacks.

MESSAGE ON OLD GLORY IS FOUND TO BE ERRONEOUS

Misinterpretation Of Government Message Friday Night Caused Renewal Of Hope But Fades With Official Word

HALIFAX, N. S., Sept. 10. (INS)—Hope for the rescue of the Old Glory, which momentarily flared up last night through the erroneous interpretation of a government message, was plunged downward again today with the official report again reading "still no word."

Considerable stir was created during the night when C. H. Harvey, agent of the Canadian marine department, reported that radio stations at Halifax had picked up a message indicating Old Glory had been found and that the government was ordering ships to her rescue.

The message read: "The air plane Old Glory was reported sighted 49.55 north 40.33 west, approximately 400 miles east-northeast of St. John's. All Canadian vessels in vicinity requested to render every assistance possible."

The positions given in the message were those where Old Glory was believed to have plunged into the pitching ocean.

OTHER FLIGHTS ACROSS OCEAN GIVEN SETBACK

Most Of Attempts Have Been Delayed With Probabilities Of Complete Abandonment; Naval Order Hinders Fonck

Wife And Air Chiefs Urge Levine To Quit

Offers Of Philadelphia And Boston Are Withdrawn In Best Interests Of Aviation

By International News Service
With the tragic results of attempted trans-Atlantic airplane flights causing an unfavorable reaction all over the world, indications were today that the majority of flights contemplated for the near future in the process of formulation would receive severe setbacks possibly resulting in ultimate abandonment.

Meanwhile, hope for the monoplane Old Glory, which was lost on an attempted flight to Rome, was revived for a short time last night when an unconfirmed report was received in Halifax that the plane had been sighted 400 miles east of Newfoundland. The report could not be verified.

Indications were that the attempt of Rene Fonck, French ace, to fly across the Atlantic in the Sikorsky biplane, Ville De Paris, would be abandoned because of the action of the Navy Department in forbidding Lieut. L. W. Curtin and ensign S. V. Edwards to accompany Fonck on the flight.

Filling Station Is Robbed Friday Night

Couch's Filling Station on Sanford Avenue was the scene of a robbery last night when a number of phonograph records, cigarettes, two motor motors and several other articles were taken by thieves who entered the place by a side window. One pane had been broken in order to release the window latch. This morning C. D. Couch, owner of the place discovered near the window several footprints which may aid police in apprehending the guilty parties.

STOCKS, COTTON SET NEW MARKS IN N. Y. EXCHANGE

Unprecedented Price Level Achieved During The Past Week; Cotton Jumps $10 On Bale Due To Crop Shortage

NEW YORK, Sept. 10.—Stocks and cotton held the center of the stage this week. Confident upbuilding of the speculative favorites in the stock market resulted in the establishment of an entirely new level of prices, which, for the bulk of the active industrial stocks, was unprecedented in the history of the stock exchange.

POLITICS BUZZ AS PRESIDENT QUILTS DAKOTA

Washington Teeming With Excitement On Coolidge Meaning Of Recent Utterance

Charles E. Hughes May Be Successor

Ex-Cabinet Head To Get Mellon Support If President Quits

WASHINGTON, Sept. 10.—President Coolidge returns tomorrow to a national capital that is fairly teeming with politics. It has all been caused by his famous "I do not choose to run" statement.

While Washington is incited more and more to accept the statement at its face value, as a flat refusal on Mr. Coolidge's part to take the nomination, politicians here hope that after he is on the ground here for a while he will amplify the statement so that there can be no doubt of his intentions. They want to know whether Mr. Coolidge definitely has barred himself from another term in the White House, or whether, though not an active candidate, he would accept a nomination if it is given him by the Republican party in convention.

The little Drummer of Bergerac

EVERY morning he parades the streets, rat-tat-tatting the gossip of the day.

He announces municipal orders, and auction sales; tells whose cow is astray, or child is lost, and what motion picture will be shown on the open air screen before the cafe on the Place D'Armes.

That's the way they get the news in Bergerac.

And that's why Bergerac STILL thinks in the mental ruts of mid-history and walks cobbled pavements laid when Black Prince Edward was sovereign in the land, and pence and pound, French coin.

Bergerac squats beside the Dordogne, among foaming eddies aching to drive turbines for mills and factories but left to sport with the monster salmon that leap its rolling waters.

The shoemaker sits before his door, cobbling hand-made boots; the carpenter adzes beams and furniture as his fathers wrought for a dozen centuries.

Bergerac was old when William the Norman raped a crown, and his returning ghost would find much unchanged there since that day.

Half of Europe cannot understand how

"That's the way they get the news in Bergerac"

America is so affluent and resourceful. Hundreds of millions yonder are mystified by the phenomenon of a wilderness so suddenly transformed into the richest and the highest industrialized state on earth.

America is great because America THINKS —because America searches possibility and is forever dissatisfied with things as they are.

We are a news-reading people. There's not a village between Atlantic and Pacific without its little sheet.

Presses crossed the continent in covered wagons—were at each gold rush—arrived at Sutter's Creek with the first prospectors—every mining camp had its journal—and a dozen printing outfits dashed across the line at the opening-up of Oklahoma.

The combined daily editions of these United States many times exceed the total circulation of ALL other countries.

There's the secret of America's successful career.

We learn facts first and make them common and simultaneous property.

The Constitution declared for an equalization of opportunity, but it took the newspaper to guarantee it.

International News Service, reaching the most readers of any evening news-gathering service, is a primary social and business force in America

MILLIONS of men and thousands of concerns rely upon I. N. S. news—base their calculations and map their plans upon I. N. S. thoroughness and accuracy.

The leading evening papers—the biggest in New England, in New York, in Chicago and in Los Angeles—the widest-read and influential dailies everywhere, exclusively rely on I. N. S. for foreign and unlocal news. I. N. S. has never betrayed their trust or violated their faith by furnishing canards, or permitting misrepresentation, propaganda or rumor admission to its wires.

I. N. S. is a purely American service, with no alien alliances and none but its own correspondents. Its representatives are the picked men of newsdom, the highest paid and the most expert reporters in all fields.

But their paramount ability is RELIABILITY—their dispatches are cross-checked and verified before transmission, and every story carries within itself the authority for any important statement, and the source of the information. International News Service tells both sides and the insides besides. It furnishes SAFE news.

Diamond Dick

For the American schoolboy who invests the hard riding two-gun cowboy of Buffalo Bill days with all the glamour that the English youth gives to the Knights of King Arthur's Round Table, and Spain gives the Cid, and for those of us adults who cherish memories of delicious stolen hours with paper-jacketed volumes of the hair raising exploits of this golden era and still have an aching fondness for the vanishing West "when yelling redskins bit the dust at the bark of a plainsman's trusty rifle," the news that the original Diamond Dick is alive today is of peculiar interest.

Twenty-one years ago Diamond Dick vanished mysteriously after a spectacular career riding and shooting on the Western plains, in the big tent of various circuses and before the crowned heads of Europe. Nobody knew where he had gone or why, but he left behind the reputation of being the deadliest rifle shot of his day and one of its best horsemen.

In a recent article in "Success", we learn of the reappearance of this "bucks-kinned centaur of the plains" in Norfolk, Nebraska, as follows: "The American Legion Post of Norfolk, Nebraska, made announcement to the effect that at their annual rodeo the original Diamond Dick, one of their fellow townsmen, would appear after a score of years of almost complete oblivion. Rodeo day came and the streets of that little West-city were thronged with people eager to discover which of their neighbors had been the famous plainsman, wilderness rider and gunman. At last the parade swung into the rodeo headed by a bucks-kinn-clad, stocky figure astride a calico pony. A hundred mouths gaped in astonishment, for the Diamond Dick of their dreams was their family physician, Dr. Richard J. Tanner!"

It seemed incredible to the people among whom he had lived for years that this quiet unassuming man could be the same Diamond Dick who had ridden and hunted with Buffalo Bill, Deadwood Dick, Wild Bill Hickok, and many other daring pioneers. This country doctor was the man who had shot pennies from the head of his assistant for twenty years without a single accident, and yet in the long time he had lived in Norfolk, he had never boasted of his skill or played the part of show-off.

He was the man who rode his horse, "Gyp", from Lincoln, Nebraska to New York City and back to Lincoln by way of Cheyenne, Wyoming, thus making the longest horse-back ride in history, a distance of 5,500 miles, which he covered in 260 days; and yet how often he must have listened quietly when unknown village horsemen told of their prowess in the saddle.

Truly, this old plainsman has given a valuable lesson in how not to swank to those who are inclined to boast of skill yet unattained.

France Crowns A New Champion

Due to a keen competitive spirit we have crowned during the past few months champions in almost every line of activity. New titleholders have ascended the thrones in boxing and baseball has crowned its share of Kings, Tennis, football and other sports have witnessed the passing of old stars and the coming of new claimants for premier honors. And while all of this was going on we were compelled from time to time to confer the title of champion on others who have attempted every conceivable feat in the universe.

There is the Texas cowboy who some weeks ago astonished everyone with his performance of drinking more than a hundred cups of coffee. Iowa has just crowned the national hog-calling champion and Florida boasts the leading oyster eater in the world, a Jacksonville policeman who consumed something like twelve dozen bivalves at one sitting. Jersey City has contributed a champion who sat for several days and nights on top of a flagpole.

The marathon dance title has changed hands frequently. We read of the golfer who played one continuous round from San Francisco to Washington and of the New Yorker who ate five dozen eggs and then complained of being hungry. There was the Kentucky mountaineer who played his fiddle for one continuous week and the young theological student who could recite by heart two long books of the Bible. Gotham has recently recognized its champion commuter, who has traveled back and forth from a nearby town until he has covered a distance equal to a trip several times around the world.

We were greatly interested several days ago in a story which concerned a problem that France has just solved. It appears that a certain elderly lady in a little French interior town was about to be feted as the champion midwife of the country when another woman in a distant village challenged the honor with a claim of having brought some four thousand children into the world. Overnight France became interested in the controversy and in the meantime others put in their bids.

One gray-haired woman of a city on the Seine claimed to have assisted nature in the birth of 5,411 squalling, red infants but the Vosges hamlet brought forth the real champion, Mme. Gomp, who for the past sixty years has brought into the world an average of two babies a week, in all 6,582. There is a tone of sadness, however, in the voices of the villagers as they proclaim their champion for she is soon to retire at the age eighty.

VEGETABLE DIET MORE POPULAR

According to a publication called Hall Economics, the American people are finding out the healthfulness and excellence of a vegetable diet. More and more the public is consuming vegetables and fruit. Probably the citizens of the country are using plenty of meat—they have always used meat, and eat a great deal more meat, proportionately, than the people of foreign lands. Americans can afford to eat meat, three times a day, if they desire it; but it would appear from the facts and figures compiled regarding the situation that there has been decided turn towards the things that grow. The St. Augustine Record, commenting upon the findings of the publication mentioned, says that the consumption of fruit and vegetables has increased seventy-seven per cent in the past ten years while the population increase was only twenty per cent. Indicates a turn for better health. The rate mentioned indicates doubling the vegetable diet in a dozen years. This indicates a remarkable change in the habits of the people, adds the Record. "It is not likely that people are eating a larger quantity of food, so they must be eating more fresh vegetables and less grain and meat. The figures

Courage And Sacrifice. Getting Away From Oil. No Vegetarian Tigers. Wm. Shakespeare's Book. BY ARTHUR BRISBANE Copyright 1927 by Star Co.

TELEGRAMS EXCHANGED between Philip Payne, editor of the New York Daily Mirror, and W. R. Hearst, his employer, and that Payne started with Bertaud and Hill on the attempted flight to Rome without Mr. Hearst's knowledge and in spite of his warnings, and that Mr. Hearst offered to pay the two pilots their full bonus if they would abandon the flight, in view of its dangers and of recent disasters.

THOSE EXPERIENCED have little hope of good news from the lost airmen. When their S. O. S. was sent out at 4 o'clock in the morning the wind was blowing hard, on a rough sea. Crashing into waves in the darkness, it is unhappily not probable that the men would be able to disengage and use their rubber boat.

HOWEVER, NO EFFORT is wasted, no display of courage without its useful effect on other men, in a short time all now living will be dead. Fortunately those that die in a good cause, courageously.

AN OIL WELL in Texas Spindletop dome yesterday "ran wild." Starting last Tuesday with 1000 barrels a day, coming from the 5000-foot level, when tools were taken out, drillers could not control the pressure and yesterday the well was spouting 1000 barrels an hour.

Wise Mr. Insull knows that cheap oil will soon be a thing of the past, and prefers to rely on old king, coal, for steady power.

A DISPATCH FROM Berlin says "not a soul in Germany takes seriously the resolution of the great powers, at Geneva, to outlaw war." A GROUP OF conspirators plotted to blow up the train taking Kemal Isha to Angora from his visit to Constantinople. The gentlemen are now on trial before Kemal's judges, and it isn't hard to guess what will happen to them. Not even Lloyd's would insure them.

MUSSOLINI WHO SAYS "I refuse to be assassinated," continues his career of ceaseless activity. Yesterday he spoke to delegates at a "congress for the scientific organization of labor" using four languages—French, German, English and Italian.

MUSSOLINI PLANS TO "apply science to all human labor including agriculture." Science has revolutionized industry, multiplying the value of a man by 10 and 100, but has done little for agriculture, the foundation of industry.

GREAT BRITAIN DOESN'T share the American belief that Russia's government is made up of incompetent wild "red" men, soon to be replaced by "conservative intelligence."

Russia now celebrating the tenth anniversary of Soviet government, recently got hold of England's secret documents outlining rearrangement of Britain's army in India and a general defense plan for Asia against Bolshevism. An important proof of ability in one group of statesmen is to buy, steal or guess the secrets of another group. Britain thinks Russia is doing pretty well.

valuation of the choicest products of the earth, and is already doing a share towards furnishing the demands. There is much room for greater development of gardens and truck farms and groves and incursions offered to those who will come and assist in furnishing the country's market basket with delicacies and substantial. Florida not only can produce an almost endless amount of fine fruits and vegetables, but has ample transportation facilities to send the stuff far and wide, quickly and securely, for the tables East and West and North.

INDIGESTION GONN

Tennessee Was Worried Considerably Until, on Advice of An Acquaintance, He Began To Use Black-Draught. "Swanne, Tenn.—For several years," says Mr. J. L. Russell, of the place, "I suffered continuously with spells of indigestion. Everything ate disagreed with me, and I was a bad way. "Nothing did me any good until I found Black-Draught. One day I went in a store where we traded to me to try Black-Draught. He said he knew of it relieving indigestion, so I decided to give it a trial. "In my case it seemed to go right to the very root of my trouble, straightened me out, and ever since that time, over thirty years ago, I have used Black-Draught. "When I have a spell of indigestion coming on, I begin on Black-Draught. I take several small doses in a regular course, and I find it usually have me well in less than a time. Now I never suffer—I take Black-Draught. "I also found it fine to break up bad cold. In the winter time, I always keep a box handy, so when I sneeze, or feel chilly down my spine, I take a few doses of Black-Draught and that wards off the cold. Sold everywhere; 25c.

Rich in historical background, packed with fast-moving action, and containing a sweet romance, "Arizona Nights," F. B. O. traction which will be at the Milane theatre, today, is an outstanding film. Critics are almost unanimous in lauding it as one of the finest western productions ever turned out of a motion picture studio.

"Arizona Nights" is admittedly Fred Thompson's greatest picture and Thompson holds an undeniable position at the top of the ranks of western players. The F. B. O. star has been given an unusual role, and his versatility enables him to carry it out most successfully.

The struggles of a small Arizona town in the mining district against outlaw attacks of a band of marauding Indians provide the central theme of the picture, and the manner in which the community is rid of the menace forms an intensely vivid story.

Fred Thompson's great horse, Silver King, again is featured. Silver King performs a number of remarkable feats which clearly show why the animal has become known to moving picture goers as "the horse with a personality."

Nora Lane plays the heroine lead opposite Thompson. Miss Lane, although a comparative newcomer to the screen, is most talented and capable. The attractive young woman well and ably amazes historical ability despite her short experience.

A remarkable supporting cast adds greatly to the picture. Several well known screen characters are in the minor roles, including J. P. McGowan, William McCormick, Lottie Williams and Dan Peterson.

Lloyd Ingraham, who directed two of Thompson's former pictures, "Don Mike" and "Silver Comes Thru," handled the western star in "Arizona Nights."

Mr. and Mrs. Louis V. Duane and Emmett Kelly have returned from Dublin, Ga., where they spent ten days.

Robert C. Thrasher left Friday afternoon for Hastings where Mrs. Thrasher and baby are visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Flake.

After the devotional exercises led by Mrs. G. C. Camp, a business meeting followed. Mrs. Burke gave an interesting report on the training school which she recently attended at Lakeland.

At the conclusion of business, a social hour was enjoyed, when the hostess, assisted by Miss Emily Priest and Mrs. Robert E. Kipp served refreshments of cake and ice cream.

position to add to their buildings and increase their facilities with little trouble. The home of the laundry is located on West Third Street and the building is of the Austin daylight type of construction with hundreds of square feet of glass composing its side walls. Flooded with sunlight the interior presents the most ideal surroundings for its employees, all of whom are dressed in white.

The local laundry has a free delivery service and maintains a downtown office in the McLander Arcade. The most efficient and courteous service is guaranteed its patrons and the plant is open at all times for inspection by the public.

The laundry is under the supervision of men who have had from 20 to 30 years experience in this business and all of the owners are making Sanford their home in order to give their personal attention and care to the operation of the concern.

Sanford Laundry Prepared To Meet Needs Of Sanford For Next 10 Years

Recently beginning its second year of operation under the present ownership, the Sanford Laundry is now prepared better than ever to meet the needs of Sanford, according to an announcement made today by John H. Ames who with Henry G. Hanney, Walter Hanney and H. D. Hanney purchased the plant a little more than a year ago.

Three features of the plant's emphasis are the sanitary surroundings, sterilization of all clothes and the process of softening of city water used in cleaning clothes. Every principle of sanitation is practiced in the laundry, said Mr. Ames, who pointed out that the most modern presses and washing machines are used, the latest piece of equipment being a washer which is guaranteed against rusting.

The Sanford Laundry, representing an investment of $162,000, is prepared to meet the needs of Sanford for the next ten years, according to the owners who are in a

MISS ELOISE BRADY HOSTESS AT PARTY FOR MISS RHODA THOMAS

Exquisite in every detail was the lovely bridge party given Saturday afternoon by Miss Eloise Brady at her home on Park Avenue honoring her attractive house guest, Miss Rhoda Thomas of Ocala.

The rooms where the card tables had been spread for play were converted into veritable bowers with quantities of fragrant roses combined with greenery. The color scheme was further accentuated by silver baskets tied with pink silks, and filled with green mints. These were placed on the card tables.

Of exceptional interest was the game of bridge played during the afternoon hours, and at the conclusion of the stated number of progressions, scores were added and the one having scored the most honors and points, received a black cutting the lucky card, there were two Spanish girl score pads. Miss Rhoda Thomas and Mrs. A. D. Brady of Titusville were both presented dainty collar and cuff sets as mementos of the occasion.

When the bridge tables had been cleared and laid with hand made cloths, the hostess, assisted by her mother Mrs. J. M. Brady served pink cream nappie moulded in the tulle bowls, fancy cut out sandwiches, olives, wafers topped with embossed flowers and iced tea.

Enjoying the cordial hospitality of Miss Brady were: Miss Rhoda Thomas, Mrs. A. B. Brady, Miss Lenabelle Hagan, Miss Marcia Patterson, Miss Marion Hand, Miss Mina Howard, Miss Sara Warren Easterby, Miss Nonie Williams, Miss Kitty DuBoise, Mrs. George Harden, Mrs. Hawkins Connelly, Miss Emily Griffin, Miss Ava Wright, Miss Margaret Zachary, Miss Carmeta Barber, Miss Claire Zachry and guest Miss Elizabeth Smith of Tallahassee. Joining the players from elsewhere were the players from tea were Mrs. Zebo Hatfield.

third place prizes are $1,000 and one year's tuition; fourth place winners receive $500; and the two fifth place prizes are $250.

On Friday evening the local contestants were: Miss Katherine Burhman, Miss Margaret Cowan, Miss Mildred Holly, Mrs. R. H. Anderson, Richard Holtzclaw, Edward Burhman, William Du Bose, Hope Huff and W. L. Carter. There were 500 voters cast, with Miss Katherine Burhman receiving 395. Mr. Holtzclaw was elected by a vote of 229, winning over Mr. Burhman by only 31 votes.

The local committee has been untiring in its effort in making this local audition a success and in aiding the contestants in every way. They are most grateful to the Sanford Music Shop for the use of the piano and also for the many courtesies extended by J. E. Marantetta, manager of the Milane Theater.

Dinner Party Given In Honor Of Mr. Stone

Mrs. J. C. Mitchell entertained most delightfully at dinner Friday evening at her home on Palmetto Avenue honoring W. H. Stone who leaves soon for Columbus, Ga.

The dinner table was centered with a pretty arrangement of cut flowers and ferns and at 7 o'clock a delicious dinner was served. Covers were laid for W. H. Stone, Merriweather G. Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Abell of Oviedo and Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Mitchell.

Miss Buhrman and Richard Holtzclaw To Be In State Audition

At the local Atwater Kent Radio Audition held Friday evening at the Milane Theater, Miss Katherine Burhman and Richard Holtzclaw were elected by popular vote to represent Sanford at the state audition which will be broadcast from station WJAX from Jacksonville on the evening of September 30 or October first.

The winners in the state audition will then enter the district contest which will be held at Atlanta, Ga. These winners will then enter the final audition which will be held in New York City. The man and woman winning first place will each receive a gold decoration, $5,000 in gold and two years tuition in a leading musical institution. For winners of second place, the two prizes are $2,000 in gold and one year's tuition.

Baptist To Stage Attendance Contest

An attendance contest will be inaugurated Sunday morning at the First Baptist Church Sunday School through the challenge presented last Sunday by Mrs. J. C. Mitchell, president of the Althean Class. This class challenges the other organized classes of the Sunday school to a membership and church attendance contest. One class has already accepted the challenge, and a number of others will also enter the contest.

The First Baptist Sunday school reports an enrollment this association year of between 1,600 and 1,100.

Hugh Dimeson has returned from an extended visit with his mother at Canton, Va.

G. E. (Pop) Lampkin left Friday for Norfolk, Va. where he will join Mrs. Lampkin and baby.

Why You Should Patronize The Sanford Laundry

Because first of all we are strictly a home industry, employing Sanford people, spending our money in Sanford.

Because sanitation is as much a part of this institution as the building itself. Sterilization of all clothes, softening of city water, scrupulous handling of all garments insure sanitation.

Because we have a free delivery service to all parts of the city—our plant is just as near as your phone—we call for and deliver. Our downtown office is in the McLander Arcade.

Because our plant is large enough to serve a city three times the size of Sanford—we are amply qualified to give you unparalleled service in all classes of Laundry work.

Because our trucks are painted bright red—are easy to identify—our drivers courteous and refined and always seeking to give you that service which is so rightfully yours.

Because your laundry is done here in Sanford—it is not taken out of town—no risk is attached to the handling of your clothes—we are here, right in town, ready to give you any adjustment that may be necessary.

Because the men who run the Sanford Laundry have had from 20 to 30 years experience in this work and there are no unnecessary risks to be taken on account of inexperience.

Because we want your business—your entire family washing or your personal bundle—you will find us fair in all things, courteous, reliable and attentive—give us a ring now!

ORLANDO DEFEAT MIAMI IN SECOND GAME OF SERIES

Minor Fromby Wins Game From Wetsell By 1-0 Score; Lehrman Stars In Field With Great Catch; Foss Suspended

ORLANDO, Fla., Sept. 10.—The deliveries of Fromby and Wetsell contained none of the vitamins conducive to fattening batting averages here this afternoon, Fromby limiting the Miami Hustlers to one lone single, while Wetsell allowed two safeties. Orlando forced over an unearned run in fourth lining to take a one to nothing verdict and make it two victories in the past season series for the Florida State league championship.

Wetsell had difficulty in locating the plate in the earlier innings, walking six batsmen. Fromby issued but one free pass during the encounter, sparkling support was given each club though the Miami defense cracked in the fourth to allow the Colts to chase in their run without a hit. Lehrman's leaping stail of Knaupp's liner for the third out the ninth featured with two lightning double plays executed by the Hustlers to pull Wetsell out of trouble.

Edmondson opened the fourth by rolling down the first base line but Tatum muffed it and Edmondson got to the bag first in the scuffle to recover the ball. Lehrman's sacrifice sent Edmondson to second and continued to third on Well's infield out. Viaw sent a slow roller to Bingham who booted and Edmondson crossed the pan as Viaw was safe.

Tinker connected for the first hit of the day but Abrams ended the rally with a hoist to Bingham. Foss, Miami third baseman who was ejected from the park following an attack on Umpire Fredericks in yesterday's affair, was not in uniform today, league officials having imposed a ninety day suspension.

TILDEN TO MEET LACOSTE TODAY IN FEATURE CARD

Johnston Plays Cochet With Outcome Watched With Much Interest; Big Bill Has Been Unbeatable In Past 2 Days

BY DAVIS J. WALSH.
I. N. S. Sports Editor.
PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 10.—Tilden is going to play Lacoste today, and if you don't think we are going to have a lot of excitement around the Germantown Cricket Club today you just don't think it will be the final day of the Davis Cup challenge round and the four finest players in the world, even considering the fact that Billy Johnston no longer is the old Bill, will draw the thing down to its inevitable conclusion. That conclusion will be reached in the first match today, provided Tilden is still Tilden, which he has been for the last two days.

The Tilden who beat Cochet on Thursday and almost unaided won the doubles match yesterday, is a fool-proof figure and, if he plays the same kind of tennis today against Rene Lacoste, the National

Tagging All Bases

By International News
The Yankees, sporting a lead of 17-2 games over the Athletics today, need to win only three of their remaining 19 games to mathematically clinch the American League pennant. The Hugmen yesterday trimmed the St. Louis Browns for the twentieth time in as many starts, and if they win the remaining two games of the series, the champions will be the first big league team to sweep an entire season's series of 20 games from a rival club.

Earl Combs, New York outfielder hit his 19th triple and leads the league in that specialty. He also is the first player in the league to make 200 hits, yet strangely enough he is not listed among the five leading batters.

For the second successive game, the Browns made only three hits. Shocker spitalled them to death and beat them 9 to 3.
The National League race remained unchanged except that the Cubs dropped further behind the

Dempsey To Give Champion Resumes Sparring Partners Work After Rest A Workout Today Due To Injured Eye

LINCOLN FIELD, Ill., Sept. 10.—(INS)—Jack Dempsey will give his sparring partners a workout today, following several days of idleness at the Dempsey camp.

The Ex-champ left his quarters early yesterday to attend court in Chicago. He made a holiday of it, going to Marigold Gardens in the evening where he refereed a series of amateur boxing matches. He spent the night in the big town and did not return to camp until this morning.

Dave Shade, Dempsey's chief sparring partner, denied today that he and Jack had been working in secret, but Dave smiled significantly as he denied the story. Shade was not a member of the "holiday party" that went to Chicago yesterday to attend court.

Leu Flynn, boss of the camp, said yesterday's diversion in Chicago was just what Dempsey needed. He said the Manassa mauler is coming along fine and can afford a day of complete relaxation now and then.

Three Leaders

The Pirates retained their lead of half a game when Vic Aldridge won a 7 to 2 duel from Pruet of the Phillies. A triple by Trayner and four bunched singles did the dirty work.

Lester Bell hit a freak homer which bounced into the stands with two on in the tenth inning and the Cardinals scored a lucky victory over Brooklyn, 8 to 0. Babe Herman of Brooklyn walloped two home runs for the second day in succession.

Eppa Japha Alpha Omega Rixey of the Reds was in great form and trimmed the Braves, 8 to 1.

With Fothergill clouting two doubles and a triple, Detroit easily downed the Athletics, 6 to 2.
Test Lyons, white Sox ace, held

Just who Tunney will use as sparring partners today is a problem.

Jack Ruddy, two Chicago light heavyweights are in camp, waiting for a workout. Gene, however, favors Chuck Wiggins, a tough, rough and ready heavy of the Dempsey kind, who deserted camp to journey to Evansville, Ind., and fight Tiny Herman Thursday night. It was Chuck who inflicted the wound over the champion's eye.

Tunney arose early today and despite the busy day he had yesterday entertaining friends who were in the marine corps with him in France, did four miles in the road. He worked four rounds on the light punching bag yesterday afternoon but chanced no sparring.

Gentlemen:—
A word of appreciation for your Lucky Strike cigarettes.
On May 29th last, I was operated upon for gastric ulcer and appendicitis. The day after I wanted a smoke real badly and asked my doctor. He advised strongly against it stating that even a slight cough would "rip me open" and cause additional pain, and if you've had the experience you know that to be so. However, I had a package of "Luckies" in my coat pocket and persuaded my nurse to get them. She did and I smoked eight that day. To make it short I smoked all the two weeks at the hospital with nary a cough or throat irritation or the least discomfort, and by the way, smoking was prohibited at the hospital but nurse kept my door closed and window open so I enjoyed my smokes to the full extent.
I am just a school teacher in a small town and not setting a good example to my pupils because I smoke, I suppose, but there is certainly "pep" in Lucky Strikes.
Sincerely yours,
J. A. McPherson
