

HOSPITAL AGITATED BY DOCTORS

EACH PHYSICIAN TO WRITE
ARTICLE ABOUT PAR-TICULARS

In order to fully advise the taxpayers and citizens generally about the hospital and cost of same the Sanford physicians will contribute an article each week, the following being the first:

To the Citizens of Sanford and Seminole County:

While it is true that the Council of the city of Sanford have the authority to act in the way they choose with the money now on hand, yet at the same time it would create more satisfaction on the part of the citizens and taxpayers of the city to have a thorough discussion through the columns of our city paper and otherwise, before they should invest the money in a first class hospital that will be required. It will require perfect harmony on the part of every citizen of the city and county to make the hospital a success after the building is completed and equipped; and to do this we must begin in harmony and continue in harmony.

The article printed in last week's issue was in error by stating that the physicians of Sanford recommend a frame or wooden building. We do not recommend anything but a brick building as fire proof as possible. As to the amount of money it will require to build a hospital as recommended by the physicians of Sanford this information will be given to you later as the council in the council in its special meeting voted to employ an architect to meet with the physicians to estimate the cost of a building as recommended.

As to maintenance, to show the citizens that the physicians are ready to do all in their power to keep down any unnecessary expense they have all agreed to offer their services to the city and county free gratis, each taking their turn of service as the hospital management may direct, and let the $50.00 per month that is being paid, go into the hospital treasury, and no doubt that each one would be as liberal otherwise as the need may demand. No doubt but the churches, societies and lodges of our city and county will assist their members to meet their hospital expenses. No doubt but there will be large, as well as small donations made by our large hearted citizens who believe that charity begins at home. There should be a regeneration and possibly a re-organization of the Hospital Association with every man and woman in the city and county as members who are willing to abide by the constitution and bylaws. It should be the duty of this association to see that the hospital as an institution is properly run, and if there be any deficiency in the hospital treasury to meet its expenses, see that this deficiency is met promptly.

I believe that the city and county should be expected to pay the hospital expenses of their unfortunate at the regular rates. I further believe that the maintenance of the hospital will be solved at the proper time without any burden upon the tax payers.

It is my understanding that the present Hospital Association is ready to deed or convey their possessions to the city, which is five lots on Thirteenth street facing one of the city parks between Magnolia and Palmetto avenues, with about $2,000, with the understanding that the city build and maintain a hospital on this property.

I believe that the obligation to maintain be left out, and after the city builds up and equips a hospital, the Hospital Association should be expected to look after the management, and maintenance, as it will then belong to every man and woman in the city and county.

If the hospital has twenty five bed capacity, it will entitle us to a charter so we can grant diplomas to applicants who may finish a nurse training course in our hospital, and thereby lessen the expense for nurse hire.

I believe that a first class hospital would be one of the greatest drawing cards that the city could own because people who are looking for location for a winter residence, or a permanent home, usually come from a community where they have hospitals and know that a hospital is a city necessity.

I know there will be diverse opinions on the building and maintenance of a hospital, but the Sanford Herald has kindly consented to print any article contributed, and if you wish to be heard from on any phase it will be gladly welcomed. There will be an article from each physician in Sanford contributed, and each minister of all the churches are expected to contribute one article and give one sermon touching upon some phase of the hospital in the course of the next sixty days. So let each and every citizen of our city and county awake to a stirring interest in a hospital for our beautiful city and remember when Jesus was on earth that he was not only the greatest Teacher and Preacher, but the greatest Physician the world has ever known, and taught us to care for the sick and afflicted. Therefore; if you have one spark of pity and Christian love in your heart for our sick and injured, let us not only express a desire for a hospital, but arise and demand our city council to erect a building that will do them and us honor for the next ten years at least, one that every citizen will wish to go to when sick, and willing to support and feel proud of, because it is ours.

BRICK ROADS WILL START NEXT WEEK

ENGINEER RAMSEY GOES TO HEAD OF SOURCE AND STARTS CARS

Engineer G. R. Ramsey has just returned from a trip to the plants where the vitrified brick are manufactured and went as far as Chattanooga. Mr. Ramsey made this trip in order to find out why the brick could not be shipped at once and was fortunate in diverting some twelve cars of brick to Seminole county. He also has the assurance of the manufacturers that the brick will be kept coming and the railroads have given their assurance that sufficient cars will be furnished for transportation of same.

Mr. Ramsey also inspected other kinds of roads in Tennessee and found the asphaltum roads going to pieces. There were some districts in and around Chattanooga that wanted to try experiments in road material and used the asphaltum or penetration roads and Mr. Ramsey states that these roads after three years service now resemble our marble roads in this and Orange county, being full of holes and show a rapid disintegration. The districts that built brick roads at the same time have them intact and the many counties in that section are now of the opinion that brick of the proper kind laid according to the proper specifications will last at least twenty years without repairs.

Mr. Ramsey also brings the good news that sufficient brick is already shipped to Seminole county to start the Sanford Orlando gap, and the gap between the end of Geneva avenue and the fill at the bridge. The cement has also been shipped for the curbing and of these roads and the work will begin in the next seven days.

These new roads of the best vitrified dun lug brick cement grouted and with cement curb will when finished be the finest system of hard roads in the south.

AUGUSTINE VICTORIOUS ON FRIDAY

HEAVY TEAM FROM ANCIENT CITY DEFEATS OUR HOME BOYS

By "Red" Davis

The Sanford High School and the St. Augustine High School played the first game of the season last Friday, and St. Augustine came out victorious in the long end by the close score of 6 to 0. The old saying "To the victor goes the spoils" does not go here. This time the loser gets the credit, for when you stop to consider when a team has the opposition outweighed and also have seven players from last season carried over it is remarkable for the Sanford boys to have put up the game that they did. But not taking any credit away from the Ancient City boys, the writer would like to say that the boys failed to show anything ancient about their playing, they were in the game all the time and away from home and practically no supporters to encourage them on to victory. They fought with the determination to see that nothing else would satisfy them but victory and though they won each and every one acted a gentleman on the field and that's saying a whole lot, for it is pretty hard to play football and be a gentleman too, especially when some player steps on your hand or head.

Going back to the game, the playing off. Captain Green, Spencer and Murrell featured for Sanford. Green's work was particularly good, his twenty five yard run around the end came pretty near taking the Saints off their feet, but despite his vain attempt to make a touchdown the boys failed to make the required distance. Murrell's tackling in the first half surprised the fans, for it is doubtful if this boy would hit the beam at 125 pounds, and there was none to big for Oliver to tackle. Spencer's head work, which few realize is an important feature in a game. He also is a good student of the game. The stars for St. Augustine were Colle and Captain Case, the former making a twenty five yard gain around Sanford's left end. Captain Case made the touchdown and his all round work featured the afternoon's play.

Next Friday Sanford and Kissimmee will meet and the boys look to upset the dope this time and everything points to victory, so the boys say. Coach Hutchison and his assistants deserve high praise for the training that has been given the boys, each and every player is well measured up to deliver in the next game. The story is not complete unless a word is said in behalf of the fair sex. The young ladies gave out the school yells and they sang and they danced and they cried and they laughed but all in vain the heroes had gone down in defeat, despite the energetic efforts of the Farrars to bring over a victory.

Mr. Lawton, Superintendent
At a special called meeting of the Board of Public Instruction for Seminole county, held last week, Mr. T. W. Lawton, the Democratic nominee for superintendent presented a commission from the Governor, entitling him to the office of superintendent of public instruction for the unexpired term of D. L. Thrasher, resigned.

After being duly and properly installed the new superintendent made a few well chosen remarks, which were interspersed with an expression of his thanks to the people of the county, to the board, and all those that had a part in assisting in his appointment for the unexpired term.

The board with the superintendent then took up routine matters, after which it adjourned.

ROUMANIA IN RETREAT FROM ALLIES

ROUMANIANS AND RUSSIANS ARE NOW IN FULL FLIGHT

London, Oct. 30.—Aside from the continued progress of the Teutonic Allies in the Dobrujia region of Roumania and fresh gains by the French and British in the Somme region in France, there is little if any change in the situation in any of the theaters of war.

The Roumanians and Russians in Dobrujia still are in retreat before the German, Bulgarian and Turkish troops and are now endeavoring to make their way across the Danube at various points on pontoon bridges, according to the Sofia War Office.

On the Transylvania front the Russians and Roumanians apparently are operating successfully against the Teutonic Allies near the junction of Bukovina, Transylvania and Roumania, and to the south, near Campulung, and in the Jiu Valley have gained successes over them. In the fighting in the Jiu Valley the Roumanians are declared by Bucharest to have captured two howitzer batteries, which later were turned against the Austro-Germans. According to Berlin, the Teutons have made additional gains south of Kronstadt, and in the direction of Camulung.

Following up their advantage of Saturday, the British captured another German trench Sunday northeast of Les Boeufs, in the Somme region, while the French made fresh advances near Sailly Saillies and Blaches. Heavy artillery activity against the British positions is being carried out by the Germans in the Les Boeufs sector and elsewhere.

Again, according to Berlin, another heavy Russian offensive against the German lines along the Stokhod river in Volhynia has been put down by the German curtain of fire. Petrograd reports successful reconnaissances by the Russians along the river Stavok, a tributary of the Stokhod.

The Macedonian theatre is still the scene of somewhat vigorous fighting, especially at the bend of the Cerna river. Both sides are claiming victories in the maneuvers in this region.

Except for bombardments the bad weather on the Austro-Italian front is keeping down the operations.

In order to allay the suspicion as to his sincerity held by the Entente Allies, King Constantine of Greece has ordered the transfer of all the Greek troops from Thessaly and Epirus, except sufficient numbers to maintain order.

Giles Was Elected
The city election in Orlando last Saturday was a very spirited affair resulting in the election of James Giles over Sam Johnson. Brown and Branham were elected as city commissioners. Over 1000 votes polled and much interest manifested in the election.

Mr. Renaud comes here highly recommended from Indiana as an expert on batteries and electric parts of automobiles a part of the business that will be directed by him. The new company starts out under most favorable circumstances and expect to carry a full line of supplies and will contract for electric wiring and electrical work of all kinds. Change Firm Name
The firm of N. P. Yowell & Co. of this city has been in business for the past twelve years or more and was composed originally of N. P. Yowell, A. E. Yowell and George Speer. About two years ago A. E. Yowell and George Speer purchased the interest of N. P. Yowell who is the head of the department store of Orlando known as the Yowell-Duckworth Co., and the new firm of Yowell & Speer had never changed the firm name until recently. The old business under the new name will now be the Yowell-Speer Co., and to celebrate the new firm a big sale will be pulled off, notice of which is given in the big ad in today's issue.

AMERICANS ON BOATS TORPEDOED

MARINA AND ROWANMAN INVESTIGATED BY U. S.

London, Oct. 30.—The British steamship Marina has been torpedoed without warning, said a report from Counsel General Frost at Queenstown to the American embassy here. A number of Americans are believed to be on board. Thirty four out of 104 crew members were picked up and landed at Crookhaven, Ireland. Lloyd's agency reported that steamer anchored off Crookhaven and signalled she had picked up the Marina's crew.
The Marina was a vessel of 5,204 tons, built in 1900 and last reported arriving at Glasgow October 10, from Newport News.

Frost is securing affidavits from the survivors. Seven Americans and five Filipinos were aboard the British steamer Rowanmore, sunk Oct. 28th. Frost reported today. Several made affidavits that the submarine shelled the life boats while they were being lowered and after they had cleared the ship. No one was killed. The Rowanmore was torpedoed.

Fifty Americans Shipped on Marina
Newport News, Oct. 30.—Fifty Americans signed as horse tenders were aboard the Marina when she left here all white. Local agents said the Marina was reported leaving Glasgow in ballast for Newport News on Oct. 25th.

Mixed American and British Crew
Washington, Oct. 30.—State department dispatches from Consul Frost at Queenstown said the Marina was sunk by gunfire without warning on Saturday afternoon and was 100 miles west of Cape Clear. She had a mixed crew of British and Americans. Frost specified that the information he transmitted was provisional.

Mrs. Dwight Babbitt returned Friday from Kissimmee.

FISHERMEN PROTECTED BY A LAW

W. V. KNOTT WOULD CALL FOR CONFERENCE OF PEOPLE ENGAGED

Jacksonville, Oct. 30. — W. V. Knott, Democratic candidate for Governor issued the following signed statement relative to the fish industry and its regulations in Florida to-day:

"I am asked by some of my friends in the fish and oyster business about my views as to that great industry.
"This is one of the most important of the many wealth producing assets of this great state and should be fostered and developed by this state for the benefit of the many good men who make their living out of it, as well as for the well being of the state at large."

"Our legislation on this important subject is necessarily somewhat crude, and contains many defects which have been developed in their administrations. Some of these defects seem to bear most heavily on the fish and oyster men, about which they justly complain, and it ought to be the pleasure as well as it is the duty of all those taking part in legislative affairs to correct these expressions at the earliest practicable opportunity. I am in no wise responsible for these defects, as I was not a member of the legislature which framed and passed these laws, nor am I responsible for any friction which may unfortunately have arisen in their administration.

"Now I wish to say to my friends and all others who are engaged in this business that if I am elected Governor, which now seems absolutely certain, I shall invite the fish and oyster men, those engaged in the production as well as the sale thereof, to select from among themselves, from the several centers of the industry, good and capable men to act as their representatives and who will be called to meet at Tallahassee during the first week of the legislature of 1917, and there, in conjunction with the fisheries committees of the senate and house, frame such a measure for consideration by the legislature as will meet the requirements and necessities of the fish and oyster men, and at the same time preserve and foster the industry for the benefit of our citizens at large, eliminating all unjust and unreasonable restriction.

"To my mind, this is a logical and reasonable way to handle the situation. I shall take the fish and oyster men into my confidence, and shall listen to them and their side of the case, when preparing my message to the legislature on this subject, and will use my influence and authority to the end and that they are dealt with fairly and justly. I shall see to it too, that our fishing and oyster laws are administered in a spirit of friendly cooperation with the producer and in such manner that the state authorities and the fishermen will work together in harmony and without irritating conditions or exactions from either side.

"These are my views on this question, and if elected Governor, I shall try to put them into execution. I call upon all the reasonable, the fair minded and the thinking men engaged in this great industry to rally to the support of the Democratic ticket and triumphantly elect it, as it is only through the party and within the party that a real and lasting reform of our fishing and oyster laws can be brought about."

a nasty temper, and it becomes inflamed forthwith with anger and jealousy. He leaves the ball in a rage and goes to a dive on the outskirts of the post, where he tries to drown his sorrows in bad whiskey and worse company.

The gamblers at the resort try to cheat him at cards and a fight starts. The place is full of soldiers, who come to the aid of the young officer; and a general melee follows, which becomes so violent that a detachment is sent from the post.

Facing court martial, the young officer escapes from prison, and flees into the desert. There he is found, perishing of hunger and thirst, by a caravan of settlers, among whom is Mary, a girl of seventeen, who speedily loses her heart to the boy.

The Indian is dead, but Parker and the horse are still able to travel and the fort is reached. The rescuers save a part of the settlers from slaughter, among them Mary, who finds, when she arrives at the fort, the body of a hero lying under a flag.

In Ray's supporting cast are Lita Stanwood as Barbara, Hazel Belford as Mary, Wedgwood Nowell as Captain Turner and Joseph J. Dowling as Colonel Taylor.

Witchcraft Something Extraordinary Photodramatic directors have to do many unusual things, but one of the most unusual ever shown has fallen on Director Frank Reicher who produced the Columbia University prize play, "Witchcraft," which will be seen at the Star tonight with the brilliant Lasky artist, Fannie Ward in the stellar role.

Mr. Reicher, for some of the scenes of this production had to teach an owl to act. The owl selected was one that craved more of the seclusion of the woods than historical distinction. All the bird had to do was to sit in a tree and hoot. This it steadily refused to do, supposedly from the fact that it could not see the necessity of noise in the silent drama.

CHANDLER SIX

(F. O. B. CLEVELAND)

Chandler Price Will Advance December First

THE price of the famous Chandler Six will be advanced December 1st, 1916, and the present Chandler Model in every essential way will be continued for the forthcoming season. We have always listed the Chandler car at the lowest possible price consistent with manufacturing costs involved in producing this high grade automobile.

We had hoped earlier this season in spite of advancing costs of material to be able to continue the present $1295 price. But conditions in the industry have now come to a point where this is impossible.

Our production costs today are fifteen and one-quarter percent (15 1/4%) higher than one year ago.

Our profit margin per car has always been small. And the price must, therefore, be advanced to make compensation for increased production charges.

You may purchase your Chandler car now with the assurance of a marked saving in purchase price, and with the equally important assurance that your Chandler car, purchased now, will be up-to-date next spring.

Distinctly superior Chandler features include the "Marvelous Motor" which with minor refinements from time to time has distinguished the Chandler car for four years past and which will be continued in the forthcoming series for next season; genuine Bosch high tension magneto, the highest priced and most efficient form of ignition; Gray & Davis separate unit electric starting and lighting system; silent chain drive for motor shafts; solid cast aluminum motor base, extending from frame to frame; spiral bevel gear rear axle; and the most beautiful of all modern body designs.

HEALTH COMPARISONS

Some of Orlando citizens are receiving through the mails from Sanford printed circulars addressed to "Tourists and Home-seekers" with a comparative table of birth and death statistics. Sanford births per thousand quoted 17.3 and deaths 9.0. Miami, 20.3 and 14.7. St. Petersburg 18.7 and 20.5. Orlando 15.2 and 23.6.

Of course the circular does not tell what is plainly the fact and apparent to residents of these several towns: i. e. that Sanford's population is practically the same year in year out and the average per thousand if therefore based on an unchanging population, while Lakeland, Miami, St. Petersburg and Orlando are more or less tourist towns, where people go in thousands for health considerations and, quite naturally, some of them are old, feeble and sick when they arrive, they die and are charged up to these towns.

And, likewise the birth rate, though Sanford is prolific, as all agricultural towns are found to be, the population of the tourist towns is largely made up of well to do elderly families, past the bearing period—folks with their children and grandchildren in other places. If the Seminole circular would explain these facts it would be more to the purpose.—Orlando Sentinel.

We would advise the more liberal use of Elder Spring water, Bro. Howard. We did not get up the statistics. They are official figures and we did not get up the advertisement but "as are facts" and "figures are figures" and you can't get them out. And furthermore an Orlando man produced the statistics and had them printed. Now take an overdose of Orlando water and turn on the gas.

DEMOCRATS GET TOGETHER

The Manatee River Journal contains the list of some alleged Democrats and it is a fact against a combination of Independents, Prohibitionists and Republicans to break up the party in Florida.

We have only to look back four years to a period when dissension cost the Republican party a crushing defeat—a defeat which, however, proved a blessing to the United States. But in that instance the victory was complete, both as to legislative and executive control of the government. In the case of Florida today the Democrats have unanimous control of the Legislature but suppose we should have a Republican Governor, or a Governor elected on the Independent or Prohibition ticket? Such a condition can only come through a disruption of the Democratic party.

Florida has made wonderful progress under Democratic rule. Could we expect as favorable progress if we bolt the ticket and put in a man who represents tenets directly opposite to the principles we have been preserving under the Democratic form of government? Are we going to use the primary—the agency which we have been using to preserve the party standing—to overthrow our own principles? Did we not elect legislators a few years ago instructed to formulate for us a primary system under which we could make nominations according to law that would keep the Democratic party free from danger? Did we participate in the primary of June 6th, knowing that that primary was duly authorized under our laws and obligating ourselves to abide the result, appreciating that the primary was a part of our laws? If we did not value our choice under that impression, it would have been better not to have voted at all.

Independent candidates have appeared for county offices in many sections? Why? Is it because the aspirants are displeased with our Democratic form of government, or is it greed for office greed for personal gain? Did we have such a condition two, four, six, eight or ten—even twenty years ago? Is it not because of the turmoil engendered by Rev. Sidney J. Catts, who landed in Florida only a few years ago from a state in which he was defeated politically and assumed the role of gubernatorial aspirant?

When will it end? When the Democrats, looking the situation fairly in the face, get together, throw aside personalities and hatred for one another and poll a united vote for those whom the greatest number select in the primary. The primary was held to obliterate all save one candidate for each office, and unless the participants in the primary can see far enough ahead to decide whether they would be guided by the result of such expression, it would be better for both party freedom and individual conscience if such electors would hold off till the general election.

Rev. Catts, who has been certified by H. Clay Crawford, Secretary of State, as the nominee of the Prohibition party, has made several tours of the state since he moved to Florida from Alabama a few years ago. Possibly you have heard him in one or more addresses. Do you recall that he advanced one good reason why he should be elected to the highest office Floridians can bestow? Did he express opinions on subjects that are of interest to the welfare of the people of the state? Did he say anything concerning taxation, or state finances? Did he have any fixed view concerning drainage of the Everglades which is bound to come before the cabinet before the next administration passes? Did he know how to stand on the constitutional amendments which will be submitted to you at the election at which he asked you to vote for him? Did he state his position on the question of better roads or the matter of a constitutional convention, or did he have any knowledge of such subjects? Did he express any view except that the individuals in control are allied with thieves or words implying as much? Did he volunteer a prediction as to what would become of him if he is elected and is compelled to sit among a corps of officials the personnel of which will be practically the same as now? Since the only change in the state offices except Governor will be the succession of Ernest Amos to the office now held by Mr. Knott, what would become of Rev. Catts if the people should force him into such conspirators or "ring politicians" as he was pleased to term them?

We do not assume the attitude of dictator to any one, because every man has the right to a fixed opinion. Rev. Catts has fixed opinions regarding most people. You have a right to study carefully whether he will render you greater service during 1918, 1919, 1920 and 1921 than William V. Knott, the nominee of the June primary and a man who has labored faithfully and earnestly in the several capacities in which the people of Florida have called him in the past.—Plant City Courier.

First Step Toward Progress.

No one can hope to make any real progress in the pursuit and apprehension of truth who does not industriously ply the broom of impartial judgment, mercifully sweeping down the cobwebs of misconception and error. Part of this work we can do for others, but we must begin by removing the beam from our own eye before seeking to cast out the mote that dims our brother's vision.—Exchange.

Cat Trying to Raise Family of Foxes

Daniel Wiggins, who lives near Grainer, N. C., felled a tree on his place a day or two ago, and discovered that a mother fox and family had been deprived of their home in the midst of the roots. The old fox was killed. Wiggins carried the infants to his home and delivered them to a cat, who had just lost her little ones by drowning. The mourning cat accepted the substitute babies with seemingly perfect satisfaction.

Navigate Alaskan River.

Captain Lukens of the coast and geodetic survey has discovered a practicable channel from Behring sea into the mouth of the Kuskokwim river. This river, which is next to the largest stream in Alaska, is nine miles wide at its mouth, and is navigable for over 600 miles. Its delta extends its great submerged flats a hundred miles out to sea. It was through that dangerous delta that the surveying steamer Yukon found a channel hitherto uncharted. The newly discovered channel will enable steamship companies to send vessels up into the Kuskokwim, and thus to begin the exploitation of the mining, fishing, and agricultural riches of the region. Captain Lukens reports that in making the survey he took 14,256 soundings, over an area of more than a hundred square miles, and that in some instances he determined the position of his soundings by making observations on mountain peaks more than 60 miles away. Shipping companies at Seattle plan to build two light-draft steamships especially for river traffic on the Kuskokwim.

His wife has threatened to leave him if he persists in suing her parents, the attorney for Demetrio explained to Judge La Buy. "He would rather take a chance on not recovering the $3,000."

STEVE SPARKMAN'S VIEWS

Congressman Gives A Clear Idea of the Muddy Political Waters

Although Congressman Sparkman has represented the First district in congress for twenty years and the voters of this part of Florida have not been intimately acquainted with him there are many of his friends here who believe that Uncle Steve Sparkman is not only one of Florida's staunch Democrats but he is a man that can be trusted and his opinion of the present campaign is worth something. The following interview in the Tampa Times is one of the calmest and clearest opinions that has been given by any man in public or private life: Congressman Sparkman, who came home from Washington rather fagged out with the strain of the long and arduous session and whose health for a time after his return was not of the best, has fully recovered his strength and is indeed looking better than he has for some time with a realization of the fact that there is no longer such a strain on his mind. To a reporter for the Times yesterday he gave his views on state and national affairs. His acquaintance with the national field renders his prediction that Wilson will be elected of more than passing interest. His belief that all Democrats should support the entire party ticket in the field is no more than was to be expected of one of his sterling quality as a party man.

"What are your views as to the political situation, both state and national?" he was asked. "Do you think Wilson as well as the state Democratic ticket will be elected?" "Yes, that is my opinion," said he. "In fact, I have entertained that view from the first, and more recent developments have confirmed the opinion I expressed some time ago that President Wilson will succeed himself. He is developing great strength throughout the country, as he should, for he has kept faith with the people; has given one among the best administrations in the history of the country; has up to date kept us out of war, while at the same time maintaining the dignity and honor of the country at home and abroad. Then, too, the country is prosperous, perhaps, more so than for many years, a prosperity which being based upon sound business conditions is likely to last.

"Statements have been made that Wilson would not get the normal Democratic vote in Florida and that the state Democratic ticket, particularly its head, would not receive the usual party support. What are your views as to the correctness of those reports?"

"I cannot believe there is much, if anything, to them. I take it Democrats will support the nominees of the party, state and national. That is the pledge everyone participating in the Democratic primary made, and while of course I would not undertake to speak for anyone but myself I believe a large majority of those participating in the late primary entertain the same views and will give expression to them by their votes in November.

"It is true no doubt that some Democratic voters are not satisfied with the result of the primary throughout or with the ticket presented, but I feel sure most, if not all, of those participating in the primary will support the entire ticket. That is the only way of preserving intact the Democratic party which has done so much for the country as a whole and especially for this state. No matter what the worth of a candidate he is of secondary importance to the party. Of course, we are all more or less interested in the success of this or that candidate, but our chief concern should be for the integrity and unity of the Democratic party which cannot be had if part of the ticket does not receive the support of the members of the party. This by reason of their greater prominence would perhaps be more pronounced in the case of those heading the ticket state and national. It would be little use to have primaries and nominate candidates if those presented as the nominees of the party and whose names have gone on the ticket as such are not to receive the votes at least of those who participated in the primary and who thus stood pledged under our primary laws, and the rules and regulations of the party, to vote for its nominees.

"As I said, we all have our individual preferences in the matter of candidates and are entitled to vote for them in the primaries, but after the result is declared by those appointed under the law to act for us I do not think, no matter what my individual preferences may have been, that I have a right to ignore the result as declared by those legally acting for the party and vote in the general election for some one not legally declared to be the nominee. If each individual voter should do this, chaos would follow, as it will assuredly follow unless Democrats stand by the ticket.

"There are, of course, voters in the country known as independents, but they are largely independents from principles and are not allied with any party. Such voters should not and usually do not participate in the primaries of either one of the great parties or other means adopted for the nomination of candidates. They hence have a right to do as they deem best in supporting men or measures at an election of officers, whether executive, legislative or judicial. Of course it is needless to point out that the case of such a person is totally different from one claiming to belong to a party and who has participated in its primaries.

"These are my views, imperfectly expressed and perhaps of little value, but I am nevertheless glad to present them for whatever they may be worth to the party and its candidates."

High School Notes

During the past week the following have become members of the student body:

Herbert Russell, Sophomore from Texas.

Fordyce Russell, Freshman from Texas.

Vernon Kilgore, Freshman from Orlando.

The first exams of the year were given this week. Every day the Freshman has gone to classes on tiptoe and with halted breath. But, my! how soon they lose their shyness!

The Seniors sent for their class rings this week. They certainly believe in getting things done.

The Irving Literary Society held its meeting Friday, Oct. 20th, with a very interesting program:

Vocal solo Virginia Brady

Paper on National Hymns Alice Andes

(Musical accompaniment by Fannie Reba Munson)

Current Events of the Week Helen Peck

Reading, "Go to Sleep, My Honey Ruth Steinmeyer

Miss Edwards was appointed parliamentarian and Miss Stevenson critic.

Fern Ward, Edna Chittenden and Muriel Rhoades make up the new program committee from the Junior class.

The Boys Debating Society had their first debate on Friday, Oct. 20. Resolved that Congress did wrong in passing the eight hour law as regards railroad employees.

Affirmative—Oliver Murrell, Clifford Walker.

Negative, Virgil Smith, Watson McAlexander.

The judges, Robert Greene, Robert Robertson and Leslie Hill rendered the decision in favor of the negative.

The first debate shows that we have an abundance of good material from which to pick a winning team. With the help of the girls many victories are assured.

Yells and songs are being practiced lustily for the football and basketball season, much to the regret of our neighbors.

Boys' Athletics

There will not be much to report from the Boys' A. A. until after the game Friday. However, it may be stated here that St. Augustine has a Commercial Department in her school and therefore she has a larger bunch of material than we have.

Robert Greene.

"Jokes"

Miss S:—Helen, are you talking?

Helen—No, Miss Stevenson. I just SAID a word.

Mr. C.—Oliver, why were you tardy to class?

Oliver—I didn't get here on time.

Miss Edwards in history—What happened to Calvert before he came over to America?

Bright Senior—He died.

Miss Stevenson to Senior Boys—"Boys, I wish you wouldn't talk. I have enough to do to tend to the Babies on the other side of the room."

Lucille Rines.

Absent-Mindedness

Our intellect follows our interest. And to concentrate on any subject we must find or create some real interest in it. The creative minds of the world—inventors, composers, artists, even industrial magnates—are so absorbed in their ideal and ambitions that they seem "absent" to persons without ideals or ambitions.

Thousands Behind

Three to fifty per hour on high—that's the speed report we get from owners all over the country.

And 20 to 25 miles per gallon of gas is the economy report.

A corking good car—

A price that makes it the greatest value on the face of the earth—

That combination has kept the factory thousands of cars behind sales for weeks and weeks.

But we're getting them in right along.

Better see us about yours today.
