REBUKE GIVEN TO LOUISIANA VOTE METHODS

Senate Handed Report Which Says Election Practices Are Fraud Upon People's Right

WASHINGTON, Jan. 16.—(A.P.)—Louisiana political conditions and election practices today were rebuked by a Senate committee as "vicious," "abhorrent," and "a fraud upon the rights of citizens."

The formal report placed before the Senate by its special committee, which investigated campaign expenditures in the 1932 primary in which John H. Overton defeated then-Senator Edwin S. Broussard, spoke of "vice and odium attaching to the enforced collection of campaign contributions from state and city employes," and of an "invitation to corruption."

Overton's election was not contested, the committee said, and its report therefore did not touch on his right to retain his Senate seat.

Pride Of French Air Fleet Bursts Into Flames, Burning 10

CORBIGNY, France, Jan. 15.—Five high French officials and five other persons were burned to death when the giant tri-motored airplane, the Emmerald, pride of the French commercial fleet, fell in flames and exploded near here last night on a return flight from French Indo-China.

The Emmerald exploded when the pilot tried to land on a field near here and 175 miles southeast of Paris. The 10 helpless occupants were imprisoned in the cabin.

The victims: Pierre Pasquier, governor general of Indo-China; Emmanuel Chauvin, director of civil aviation in the air ministry; Mme. Caumont; M. Balasue, director of technical services in the air ministry; M. Nagous, traffic manager of the Air France company; M. Larrieu, attaché of the air ministry; Captain Bussaght, military aid of Pasquier; Pilot Lemay; Wireless Operator Quoyre; and Mechanic Campbell.

The Emmerald was on its first long trip for which Air Minister Cot sent Chauvin and two aides.

(By The Associated Press) Automobile accidents in Florida yesterday claimed the lives of two persons and brought injury to nine others, some of whom are not expected to live.

A negro CWA worker was burned to death near Clermont when an automobile he was driving collided with one driven by a white resident of that area. Four negro passengers in the car driven by the negro received serious injuries just before the car was destroyed by fire.

Henry Robinson, 48 winter visitor at Tarpon Springs, died of injuries sustained when he was struck by an unknown hit-and-run driver.

SUCCESS MARKS EARLY STAGES OF ANNUAL DRIVE

200 1934 Memberships In Trade Body Were Secured In 4 Hours

As if in answer to the glowing predictions that were made this morning as to the success of the third annual Seminole County Chamber of Commerce membership drive, was the report early this afternoon that nearly 200 of the 400 memberships that are to be sought in the next three days had been secured, although only 11 teams had reported out of 27 teams in the field.

Setting out after a lively "kick-off" breakfast at the Parish House this morning, an army of workers was spurred on by announcements that the communities of Fern Park, Slavia, Altamonte Springs, and Longwood had either exceeded, reached, or neared their quota.

Captain Gordon Barnett of Fern Park had announced that Fern Park's quota of 10 had been reached on Friday.

Captain Martin Stanko of Slavia announced that although only 13 families live in that community, and the quota there was 10 memberships, he was proud to report that 15 persons had subscribed to membership. In addition he reported having secured a membership in Goldenrod and Gabriella, and he added that residents of those communities were anxious to be represented on the directorate of the trade body.

Captain L. L. Malbis reported that Altamonte Springs' quota of 10 was assured, eight persons having purchased membership before the drive began.

Captain W. J. Wells, Jr., of Longwood reported that his community had pledged 11 of its 10 memberships, and there was no doubt but that the quota would be exceeded.

Armed with the 46 memberships thus reported, approximately 75 workers under General R. A. Newman started combing the city and county. At about 1:00 o'clock this afternoon Captain H. C. DuBose reported 28 memberships secured; Captain H. H. Coleman reported 17 memberships; Captain F. B. Borne reported 18 memberships; Captain Mrs. A. W. Knox had reported three memberships; Captain F. B. Lamson reported 23 memberships; Captain Mrs. H. M. Pappworth had reported 13 memberships, and Captain J. A. Logan of Geneva had reported one membership secured.

The drive will continue until Thursday night at 6:00 o'clock, and every person in the city and county is scheduled to be contacted and asked to join with the (Continued on Page Four)

BLOOD AGAIN SPILLED IN CUBAN RIOTS

Utmost Political Confusion Prevails Ere Hevia Assumes Role Of Island's Ruler

HAVANA, Jan. 16.—(A.P.)—Carlos Hevia, 35-year-old graduate of the United States naval academy, accepted the presidency of Cuba last night after a chaotic day during which nobody knew who was running the country.

While bullets of guardmen whizzed outside the presidential palace and three supporters of the retiring executive, Ramon Grau San Martin, fell dead in the street, the quiet, smart former agricultural secretary decided to take over the office, after he previously had refused.

Between the time Grau San Martin submitted his resignation to a revolutionary junta and the cabinet and Hevia's decision the utmost political confusion prevailed, with rumors of an army rift, fears of another revolution, and military preparations for trouble.

Col. Fulgencio Batista, commander of defense forces and former sergeant, had his troops, too, at Camp Columbia, where Maj. Pablo Rodriguez, Grau's military aide, who went to arrest the army chief, was himself arrested and held for several hours by Batista's troops.

Immediately after Hevia's final decision, the cabinet resigned in a body, and the work of rebuilding the government was inaugurated.

Dr. Antonio Guiteras, the retiring minister of war and the interior, who maneuvered Hevia into power, had his hands full lining up his leftist followers, who fought their way to the top after other factions believed they had the situation sewed up for the veteran nationalist leader, Carlos Mendive.

Hevia, despite his leftist affiliations, has ties binding him to the rightists. He has been closely connected with the sugar industry for 13 years. He is the youngest president Cuba has ever had, and is one of the few—if not the only—Cuban graduate of the American naval academy in Annapolis.

Although the smoke of the political battles still beclouded the situation last night, the following certainties emerged from the whirlwind of possibilities: First, the Grau San Martin government, the fourth since August, 1933, fell as suddenly as it was born last Sept. 10.

VIOLET CODE LAD TO STANDARD OIL

U. S. Seeks Injunction Against Firm Said To Be Distributing Contempt Premiums

WASHINGTON, Jan. 16.—(A.P.)—The Federal government filed suit in District of Columbia supreme court today against the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey, charging a violation of the oil code, and asking an injunction against the company to prevent it from giving premiums.

The action was filed on behalf of Secretary Lusk, the oil code administrator. A hearing on the suit was set for Jan. 30.

The suit was the first to be filed against a major oil company for an alleged code violation.

The specific charge was that Standard Oil of New Jersey and its subsidiaries had inaugurated a "Boys' Club Contest," and had refused to comply with a request by the oil administration to discontinue this practice.

In the contest, coupons are allegedly given children who in turn distributed them to friends, relatives, or neighbors to be presented one at a time by adults to Standard Oil stations and dealers.

Prizes are given to the boy or girl credited with the greatest number of coupons turned in in his or her name, it is claimed.

15 Coast Line Foremen Win 1933 Safety Award

Fifteen Atlantic Coast Line Railroad section foremen, living between Palatka and Kissimmee, have been awarded the coveted 1933 Safety Award for 1933. It was announced by J. A. Turner, roadmaster, who supervises their duties, today.

The card, signed by Robert Scott, director of insurance and safety for the railroad, and Mr. Turner, cited the foremen as having "directed his employees through year 1933 without casualties."

It is announced as an annual award in an effort to promote safety to employees, and it is noted that because of a prole in his part in the entire Coast Line safety program, 1933 card winners included their 1932 and previous year records.

In a brief statement accompanying the award, Mr. Scott states that "the management appreciates your splendid cooperation in promoting safety. This kind of work, indicating that you are keenly alive to our company's needs, is appreciated by me. Trusting you have found pleasure in this service, and feel well repaid by the valuable results which follow such efforts, and with best wishes always."

Agricultural Club To Hold 1st 1934 Meet

First meeting of the new year for the Seminole Agricultural Club will be held at Seminole High School next Friday night at 8 o'clock, it was announced by R. A. Borne, recently re-elected club president, today.

In his announcement, Mr. Borne stated that "every farmer who is growing vegetables should attend this meeting. The Board of Directors is working on a plan that will give you more money for your crop. You know what the prospects are at present, and you know that your only hope of getting a profit is by co-operation. I urge that you attend."

Contemplated Change In Gold Content Of Dollar, If Effective As Designed, Will Raise Price Of Things Average Man Buys

WASHINGTON, Jan. 16.—(A.P.)—From the standpoint of the man in the street the change in the gold content of the dollar contemplated by President Roosevelt will do it has the effect it is designed to produce, raise the price of the things he buys.

How long it will be before the devious train of events brings such a price rise and why they and when a boost in the wages of the man in the street will come are questions that time must answer.

A simple illustration of the general principles involved in the devaluation of the United States dollar from the gold standard and the reduction of the gold content of the dollar might be:

Suppose the United States and the major nations of the world found that potatoes were an article of value that did not change readily and they decided to use potatoes as a general medium of exchange instead of gold and silver.

SPRAGUE VIEWS ROOSEVELT MOVE WITH DISTRUST

Credit Of Nation Faces Probable Set-Back, Believes Economist

HUNTSVILLE, Texas, Jan. 16.—(A.P.)—Two guards at the Eastham State Prison Farm here were ambushed and wounded today by a machine gunner identified as Clyde Hanson, notorious Southwestern outlaw who effected the release of his pal, Raymond Hamilton, and four other convicts. The guards were ambushed when they took a squad of men out to work in the fields.

ROOSEVELT SEES DEVALUATION AS REAL STABILIZER

President Reiterates Faith In Objectives He Sees Necessary

WASHINGTON, Jan. 16.—(A.P.)—President Roosevelt's simple and direct monetary message to Congress yesterday with an implied discussion with newspapers in which it was disclosed he believed the move for a dollar whose gold content would be 49 to 50 per cent would be a long way toward stabilizing conditions.

He made it clear that he felt the move by Congress to devalue the dollar was necessary.

Eckerson Cannery May Produce Five Million Cans Of Fruit This Year

At least five million cans of grapefruit hearts and grapefruit juice will be canned at the Eckerson Fruit Cannery, Inc. plant this year, it was announced late yesterday by C. H. Eckerson, president and owner of the concern which began its 1934 production operations yesterday morning.

Approximately 200 women and men started work early yesterday. Mr. Eckerson stated, with an additional 50 women scheduled to start for work tomorrow, and probably another 50 reporting on next Monday.

It is anticipated that within 10 days, the plant will be in full production, with about 325 women and 75 men employed steadily on a single shift. Large quantities of choice grapefruit, fully half of which will come from groves in this county, have been contracted for, to be supplied daily until the

GOLD CONTROL PLAN OKEYED BY VANDERLIP

WASHINGTON, Jan. 16.—(A.P.)—Today in Washington illustrates the fact that what legislators are talking about and what they are thinking about is often two separate things, sundry legislation keeping them busy on the floor and in committee debate, while privately they discussed a quick enactment of the new Roosevelt monetary legislation.

Frank A. Vanderlip, New York banker, registered his approval of the plan embracing a dollar of 50 to 60 per cent of the present statutory gold dollar, in testimony to the House coinage committee.

Senate Republicans at a first party conference during this session decided to insist on "adequate" hearings on the Administration's monetary plans, and to offer the American Legion four-point veterans relief proposal as an amendment to the independent offices appropriations bill.

The RFC ceased its gold purchases abroad at noon yesterday, it was learned today.

Both House and Senate prepared last night to write quickly into law President Roosevelt's proposals for a 40 per cent devaluation of the dollar and for the capture of monetary gold held by the federal reserve system. Democratic leaders predicted comfortable majorities for the measure.

The President's personal message outlining his plan and asking for a two-billion dollar fund with which to buy foreign exchange, induced a momentary thrill in stock and commodity markets.

Wheat jumped more than four cents a bushel, stocks rose $1 to $6 a share, despite fears of profit taking. The closing tone was strong. The dollar declined six cents with relation to the pound sterling.

Landon comment was that President Roosevelt's move had been expected and was the logical outgrowth of his monetary program. Observers there saw no possibility of stabilization at any early date.

Paris financiers were described as recoiling to the prospect of a dollar containing but 50 to 60 per cent as much gold as previously, and like the English noted no possibility of stabilization soon.

Three executive orders were issued by President Roosevelt, modifying existing regulations that individuals as well as banks may receive licenses to deal in foreign exchange.

Lakeland Bank To Use RFC Loan For Dividend

LAKELAND, Jan. 16.—The liquidator's office of the Lakeland and State Bank and Trust company, which closed June 30, 1933, has announced that dividends will be paid a dividend of 15 or 17 per cent of the amount of a loan received from the Reconstruction Finance Corporation. The RFC advanced $51,000 on collateral held by the liquidator.

Two dividends, one of 10 and one of five per cent, have been paid. M. A. Smith is general liquidator, and Charles Clements is in charge of the closed bank's business here.

Matthews Asks Return To Rail Commission

TALLAHASSEE, Jan. 16.— Eugene Matthews announced here yesterday that he would be a candidate to succeed himself as a member of the Florida National Group I for the Democratic primary to be held in June.

Mr. Matthews became a member of the commission by appointment from Governor Hardie to fill a vacancy occasioned by the death of one of the commissioners. He has since been elected for a short term and has full terms. His first election was by a majority of 13,000 and he lost by a majority of 28,000. He was elected chairman of the commission in January 1931 and will hold that position.

MARKET REPLIES TO LATEST PLAN BY UPWARD MOVE

Stocks Have Broadest Advance In Months; Some Go Up $6 Share

NEW YORK, Jan. 16.—(A.P.)—Commodity and securities surged upward in the nation's leading markets yesterday in response to President Roosevelt's momentous message to Congress deprecating the future of the dollar.

The message, so far as the markets were concerned, appeared to have pleased both the hard money conservatives and the managed money liberals, for investment bonds advanced along with speculative commodities and shares.

Corporate bonds in the New York stock exchange experienced one of the sharpest advances of the year, and trading accelerated to the swiftest pace in three years, with the exception of one day last July. Stocks had the broadest advance in three months, in the most active trading since

Greta Garbo Believed To Be Recent Bride

WILLIAMS, Arizona, Jan. 16.—Greta Garbo and Herbes Mommolan, her director, traveling as "Mary Jones" and "Robert Smith" left only dust and doubt behind them across northern Arizona today.

Whether the Swedish film star was a bride, as Hollywood rumormongers intended to become one, remained unannounced.

The couple, definitely identified after they had registered under assumed names at a hotel at Grand Canyon, fled from all who sought to question them. They sped westward toward California after passing through Williams during the night in an automobile driven by a negro chauffeur.

Scores of amateur sleuths who joined in attempts to solve the mystery, if any, of the moonlight trip, were forced to confess failure.

REPUBLICANS IN SENATE DECIDE TO DEMAND ADEQUATE HEARINGS ON MOMENTOUS BILL

Stabilizing Our Currency

It seems fairly certain that the prevailing conception of President Roosevelt's devaluation policy is well illustrated by the following story heard in the street.

"It's simple," one man explained. "The value of the dollar has been cut in half. In other words, if you owe a man a thousand dollars, you don't have to pay him but five hundred."

"That's fine," the other fellow said, "I owe a man five hundred dollars, so now I won't have to pay him anything."

Whether devaluation assists debtors materially or not, the President's monetary program, as outlined in his message yesterday to Congress, should have a very stimulating effect upon business generally.

Investors still will not know exactly the kind of money with which their bonds and mortgages will be repaid, but they will know approximately and hence should be encouraged to extend loans.

As to the power of the plan to raise prices materially and thus assist debtors, time alone can prove which school of economic thought is correct.

The Library of Congress

The Library of Congress is not only the largest institution of its kind in the world, but it is also the most important.

"Some picture of the annual expansion of this national institution," says the United States News, "may be gained from the fact that books enough to require 2.9 miles of shelf space were added from July 1, 1932, to June 30, 1933."

Little wonder, then, that plans are under way to enlarge the facilities of the Library to care for the housing of the books, as well as for the needs of the increased number of users.

It is also estimated that the central portion of the annex will be occupied by book-stacks accommodating eight or ten million volumes.

STATE CWA ASKS U.S. TO PURCHASE SURPLUS CITRUS

Price Not To Exceed 50 Cents Bushel Is Suggested By Board

TALLAHASSEE, Jan. 16.—(AP) The federal government, through its surplus relief corporation yesterday was asked to buy at cost, approximately 6,000,000 boxes of surplus Florida citrus for distribution to relief cases outside this state.

C. B. Treadway, on whose motion the state advisory council on emergency relief voted to urge purchase of the fruit, was directed to confer in Washington with Harry L. Hopkins, federal relief administrator, on possible purchases.

A price not exceeding 50 cents a bushel was recommended by the state council. Fruit would be purchased for railway cars at the shipping point.

Lorenzo A. Wilson of Jacksonville, member of the state advisory council, said it would be a "frightful economic waste" to destroy the surplus.

Along this same line, the state council asked Hopkins to authorize the use of commodity funds allocated to this state in the purchase of Florida fruits and beef, as well as eggs.

Hopkins previously notified Florida that $200,000 was available for the purchase and distribution of free eggs to relief camps in Florida.

At the equivalent level in the foreign exchange markets, and the full inflationary effect of the devaluation is given time to work.

The immediate effects of the program, it was believed, would be largely psychological, but nonetheless important.

Furthermore, it was pointed out that some $3,000,000,000 profit in gold which will accrue to the government as result of the devaluation will eventually provide a base for currency and credit expansion.

FINE REDUCED

CAMILLA, Ga., Jan. 15.—(AP) Judge D. C. Gardner of the Atlanta circuit announced yesterday he had authorized reduction to $50 of the $500 fine imposed on Douglas Poole, former Atlanta policeman, in connection with the death of Miss Winona Patterson in a South Georgia automobile accident.

Announcement of the plan of limiting the fluctuations in the gold value of the dollar between 85 and 90 percent of its old gold parity of $35.57 to an ounce of the metal, was followed quickly by lifting the price to $34.35 an ounce, placing the dollar at almost exactly 86 percent of its old parity.

This means, in the opinion of several Wall Street monetary authorities, that the dollar would probably be kept at the 85 percent level experimentally for some time with the $3,000,000,000 equalization fund provided by the president expected to keep the dollar

"I am not at all impressed by the current reports of increased business activity," Sprague continued. "Of course, there will be increased consumption so long as the government is spending huge sums, but this expenditure cannot continue forever."

"Public works expenditures, relief expenditures, may have the effect of impeding absorption of unemployed in private industry," "devaluation of the dollar," "would have a 'pretty small' domestic effect."

"You can make out a pretty strong argument for devaluation if you take the stand that this is the end of money experiments."

$850,000,000 Increase In Borrowing Power Is Also Authorized

WASHINGTON, Jan. 16.—(AP)—An administration measure extending the life of the Reconstruction corporation for a year and increasing its borrowing power by $850,000,000 was swept quickly through both branches of Congress yesterday and was sent to the White House for presidential signature.

It received Senate approval after brief debate and two hours later went through the House by a standing vote of 186 to 1. There were no amendments.

House Democratic leaders, fearful a bi-partisan group would force a vote on an amendment to authorize the corporation to make direct loans to industry, invoked procedure barring amendments.

Senator Hastings, Republican, Delaware, asked if it was not true that the corporation was evading the law in that it was making indirect loans to industry when direct loans were prohibited.

Miss Ruth Cole Weds Cloyde H. Russell

Attracting the interest of a wide circle of friends here is the announcement of the marriage of Miss Ruth Hazelton Cole, daughter of Mrs. Ernest I. Cole of St. Petersburg, to Cloyde Harlan Russell, son of Henry T. Russell of this city. The ceremony was performed on Saturday afternoon at 5:00 o'clock by Dean Charles A. Campbell and Dr. Hamilton Holt at Knowles Memorial Chapel at Rollins College before a large gathering of friends and relatives.

Music before the ceremony was furnished by Mrs. Hazel Coffin Lenfest who rendered several organ solos, and Robert Currie, tenor, who sang several vocal solos. The bridal party entered the church to the strains of Lohengrin's Wedding March, played by Mrs. Lenfest, and departed to Mendelssohn's recessional.

The bride had as her attendant, Mrs. Martin J. Brice, of St. Petersburg, matron of honor, and Miss Verna Maxson of Winter Park, maid of honor. Richard Wilkinson, a fraternity brother of the bridegroom, served as best man while the ushers were Rodman J. Lehman of this city, M. J. Brice of St. Petersburg, and Matt Marchman and Joe Howell of Winter Park.

Dr. Charles E. Coffin of Winter Park escorted the bride to the altar. She wore for the occasion her mother's wedding dress of ivory satin which was fashioned with a high tight-fitting waist, a full gored skirt and large puffed sleeves. The neckline was square and was outlined with lace. With the dress she wore a white satin turban and nose veil and carried an arm bouquet of talisman roses, gypsophylla, and fern.

As matron of honor, Mrs. Brice appeared in a white silk gown which had a full corseted skirt. Completing the outfit were a large white hat and a bouquet of cream and pink colored gladioli and fern.

Miss Maxson's gown was of cream silk lace and her hat was of transparent straw in the same shade. Her arm bouquet was of maidenblush gladioli and fern.

Following the wedding a reception was held at the home of Mrs. Hazel C. Lenfest in Winter Park. Assisting Mrs. Lenfest in the dining room were: Mrs. John Grosenbacher and Mrs. Gus Morton of Apopka, Mrs. Martin J.

Of course they say you are always welcome But...

It is often embarrassing to ask a neighbor to let you use her telephone. Of course neighbors are gracious about lending in your household's little emergencies, but sometimes it is troublesome to both parties when an unexpected caller wants to borrow the telephone.

Possibly the embarrassment in using a neighbor's telephone arises from the fact that while one can return home or coffee in full, borrowed telephone service cannot be repaid in kind.

So seriously consider the many services your telephone renders during the course of a day, and compare its value with the small cost, you will probably agree that it is false economy to try to do without it.

It is easy to order your telephone. Just get in touch with the Business Office, or give your order to any telephone employe.

..that Chesterfield has a modern up-to-date Tobacco Factory in far-off historic Smyrna

So important is the handling of Turkish tobacco in making Chesterfield cigarettes that Liggett & Myers Tobacco Co., maintains this specially equipped plant right in the heart of the famous Smyrna tobacco section. It is the largest and most modern tobacco factory in the Near East.

Turkish tobacco, you know, is the best "seasoning" there is for cigarettes. At all times Chesterfield has in storage—at this plant and in America—about 350,000 bales of the right kinds of Turkish tobacco.

 The trade body in all Florida has been manifested for the past three years, enthusiasm was the keynote of the morning's breakfast which marked the opening of the three-day drive.

Seventy-six persons, the largest ever to turn out for a similar meeting, gathered at the Parish House at 8:00 o'clock to spend an hour listening to pep talks that were made by recognized leaders in commercial and civic life, talks that indicated an optimistic trend to the outcome of the drive.

General R. A. Newman, head of nearly 100 workers who set out today, acted as presiding officer, and Lawrence P. Dickie of Atlantic City, manager of the Southeastern Division of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States was the principal speaker.

Mr. Dickie's first comment upon being introduced was that the enthusiasm of the gathering impressed all doubts as to the success of the drive. He cautioned the workers against some of the difficulties they may meet, particularly what they might expect from chronic knockers and objectors of Chamber of Commerce policies. He stated that the answer to all objections that might arise could be that the Chamber of Commerce is not alone its officers; it is the quality of the citizens making up its membership, citizens who are vitally concerned over the future of the community in which they live.

"Human resources," he said, "can do more than anything else—it is up to you to make your city and county what you want it to be. You have all of the natural advantages for a bigger and better city. Your human resources are here, and your opportunity to enlist these resources lies before you. It is now up to you to do the job that needs to be done. I predict that you are going out to go over the top in your drive for 800 memberships in three days."

Before he closed, Mr. Dickie paid tribute to Karl Lehmann, trade body secretary whom he has known for many years. "People round this state think highly of your Chamber of Commerce and its energetic secretary. Give him your united support, and you can write your own ticket as to where you want to go as a city and county."

Other speakers included Harry M. Papworth, head of the organization, who stressed the importance of selling all prospects on the idea that they are not helping the Chamber of Commerce by purchasing a membership but rather they are helping the city and county in which they live; B. F. Haines of Altamonte Springs, vice president of the trade body, who said that today's trained army of workers should seek 1000 memberships as a goal which he saw possible of fulfillment; Martin Anderson, editor of the Orlando Morning Sentinel, who paid tribute to the work of the trade body, and asked for the privilege of purchasing a membership; Charles S. Emerson, widely known columnist, who predicted that the drive would result in the enlistment of fully 1000 members.

Introduced during the meeting were H. R. Stevens, Mayor B. O. Smith of Altamonte Springs, Martin Stanko of Slavia, F. W. Bender, John Melach, Sr., Mayor W. A. Leffler, V. A. Spear, T. L. Dumas, Mrs. J. W. Coates, of Oviedo, W. S. Coleman, J. L. Marentette, W. M. Haynes, and C. H. Ellis of Longwood, and all team captains who were present.

After a final word of instruction from Mr. Lehmann, and under orders to report at the Parish House on Thursday night at a "Victory" supper, the workers set out upon a systematic canvass of the city and county.

Today and Wednesday they are to contact about 750 persons whose names were selected as being good prospects for membership. Thursday they are to contact every person they see, old residents and new.

Seated at the speakers' table were: Rev. Martin J. Bram, John Melach, Sr., Mr. Newman, Mr. Anderson, Mr. Haines, W. H. Tunnicliffe, Mr. Dickie, Mr. Papworth, Mr. Emerson, and R. J. Holly, Jr. Col. W. S. Coleman had as guests at his table, Mrs. D. L. Thrasher, Mrs. H. M. Papworth, Mrs. Arthur Branan, Mrs. W. L. Cooper, F. W. Bender, Ray Fox, R. R. Deas, T. W. Lawton, W. D. Hoffman, H. H. Coleman, S. J. Nix, S. D. Highleyman, and Mrs. Helen T. Morse.

 The 10 cent range for fixing the gold content of the dollar would permit him to vary the price more than once within that limit. In genial mood, Mr. Roosevelt reiterated again that his objective was to obtain a purchasing power for the dollar about equal to the average level at which the nation's indebtedness was incurred so that the indebtedness could be paid off with an equal dollar.

He expects some commodity prices to go upward as a result of the new program. He is convinced of the efficacy of the managed currency, attempt and believes it was responsible for pulling the nation out of the collapse of commodity prices last fall.

The authority to purchase government securities under the two billion dollar stabilization fund is regarded by him as a safeguard. In other words, the President feels there have been private attempts in the past to appreciate the price of American bonds by dumping them on the market.

It is the understanding at the White House that some brokers with ulterior motives—a very small minority—have advised clients to sell bonds.

Secretary Morgenthau, who will be in charge of the two billion dollar fund to be set up from the potential profits of a devaluation of the gold content of the dollar, stood beside the President at the press conference but took no part in the interview.

In response to questions, it was made quite clear that the President did not regard the monetary program as involving the use of greenbacks—or rather, a starting

CUMINGS HAS DECEYED GOLD CONTROL PLAN

Attorney-General Has Affirmative Ruling On Monetary Bill's Constitutionality

WASHINGTON, Jan. 17.—(A.P.)—Congress had a far more important business today while setting out to dispatch the bill more immediately at hand—the extraordinary monetary bill.

It was given full attention in the House coinage committee, but adds its dollar stabilization hearings to polish the monetary bill.

Financial doubters meanwhile had a White House word that President Roosevelt had obtained an affirmative opinion from Attorney-General Cummings on the constitutionality of his plan for the Federal government to take over all monetary gold before he put it into recommendation for legislation.

There also fluttered to the capital from the other end of Pennsylvania Avenue the news that the postponed request for $1,000,000,000 additional in recovery program funds for this year will be made.

It was also reported that the Federal Housing Corporation, which Secretary Ickes had completely tied the hands of the Federal Housing Corporation.

One of Ickes' manifold duties as head of the Housing Corporation and in that capacity he has been told newspapermen what he thought of the comptroller general's opinion.

His eyes glinting behind silver-rimmed glasses, he said:

EXPANSION OF CURRENCY IS SEEN COMING

More Dollars Sure If Stabilization Fund Asked By Roosevelt Is Given Approval

WASHINGTON, Jan. 17.—(A.P.)—The two-billion dollar stabilization fund requested by President Roosevelt was described yesterday by some economists as a potential of a large expansion of the currency.

These students of finance, while declining to permit use of their names, explained the intricacies of foreign trade and out of it drew the opinion that for every dollar spent in buying gold or foreign exchange abroad, an additional dollar would be put into circulation in this country.

The explanation was put forward at a time that the Senate finance committee was listening to Secretary Morgenthau's explanation of the measures requested by the President to reduce the gold content of the dollar and set up the stabilization fund. The House coinage committee was hearing endorsements of the plan from Frank A. Vanderlip, a New York financier, and Father Charles E. Coughlin, a Detroit priest.

The economists explained that when the government buys pounds or francs, a London or Paris importer is buying its dollars in the same transaction to pay for things they have purchased in this country. The fund is to be created from the profit accruing to the government when it nearly doubles the value of its gold stocks by reducing the dollar's gold content 40 to 50 percent.

The Senate banking committee went to work on the bill late in the day. Meanwhile Speaker Rainey was delving into House precedents before deciding whether the House banking or the coinage committee should have the measure in charge there. Both claimed jurisdiction.

The coinage committee heard Vanderlip assert that revaluation of the dollar would not be enough to control prices. He recommended a "modern gold standard" under which no specific legal requirement would be made as to the amount of gold that must be held in reserve as backing for currency in circulation. At present there is a 40 percent requirement.

Before leaving, however, he said he favored the plan of President Roosevelt. Coughlin also praised the Roosevelt proposal for a devalued dollar and exclaimed:

But, he added, revaluation is insufficient without an increase in currency in circulation, whereby the capacity of the people to purchase the products of the nation's industries is increased. He argued strongly for remonetization of silver.

DR. WYNEKOOP IS TURNED PALE BY BLOODY EVIDENCE

Aged Woman Asks For Medical Stimulant During Court Trial

CRIMINAL COURTS BUILDING, CHICAGO, Jan. 17.—(A.P.)—A gruesome array of evidence—antique appearing operating table, bloodstained garments, a .32 calibre pistol—caused Dr. Alice L. Wynekoop to pale and ask for medical stimulants yesterday at her trial for the murder of her daughter-in-law, Rheta Gardner Wynekoop.

The elderly defendant buried her face in her hands on the counsel table as if to shut out the sight of the reminders of the tragedy. Her hands shook visibly. Her daughter, comely young Dr. Catherine Wynekoop, put medicine into a glass of water, and Dr. Wynekoop drank deeply. A five minute recess was called, and the defendant soon appeared to regain her strength after administration of restoratives.

The recess was taken shortly after Charles S. Dougherty had advanced across the courtroom holding aloft a silk shirt, stained as if by blood, for the witness, Policeman Arthur R. March, to identify as having been taken from Rheta's body. "Mother's attack in court was in no way a collapse," said Dr. Catherine. "It was just a spell of dizziness, and nothing like recent heart attacks she has undergone." Nevertheless, Dr. Wynekoop's pulse was disclosed by another physician, Dr. James Whitney Hall, to have reached 106 at the time of the attack, compared with a normal for her of 90.

BAN IS PLACED ON MASONRY IN GERMAN NATION

3 Principal Prussian Lodges Wiped Out By Premier Goering

BERLIN, Jan. 17.—(A.P.)—On the grounds that there was "no further need for their existence," Hermann Wilhelm Goering, the Prussian premier, summarily wiped out the three principal Prussian Masonic lodges and their affiliates yesterday.

They are the Grand National Mother Lodge of the Three Territories, the Grand Lodge of German Freemasons, and the German Christian Order, and the Grand Lodge of Prussia. Goering explicitly stated that while he did not wish to go into the question of whether the organizations constituted a danger to the state, he simply saw no further use for them and then left to the lodges themselves to vanish from the picture voluntarily.

He added that the branch groups do not need to seek authorization from the grand lodge, but should inform the latter of their dissolution. The disposition of the lodge property is to be made in accordance with the civil law code.

A regulation was promulgated that a fraternal order may be dissolved if its membership declines to seven. In another decree, Goering, who also is reichminister without portfolio, gave permission for all political refugees from Germany who upheld the Nazi regime while abroad, to return to the fatherland.

Under the measure, "those frightened emigrants who had fled abroad as the result of unscrupulous propaganda," will be readmitted. The refugees include Communists and Jews.

After Slaying Her 3 Children, Mother Tries To Kill Self

TAMPA, Jan. 17.—(A.P.)—Dependent over ill health, and fearing to leave her children motherless, "in a cruel world" as she told officers today, Mrs. A. P. Sanders, 26 last night shot and killed her three children and wounded herself. Physicians said she probably will recover.

In a statement to officers she said she had carefully planned the act which occurred at 9:00 o'clock last night on a lonely road ten miles from the city. BABSON SAYS GOLD PLAN IS CLEVER THING

Economist Says Nation Will Have Smaller Debt In 1936 Than It Had Last March

TAMPA, Jan. 17.—(A.P.)—Roger W. Babson, noted economist, in a statement here yesterday, described President Roosevelt's money program as "a very clever thing" and predicted that the President would finish his present term with a smaller national debt than the one at the time of his inauguration.

"The monetary move by the President will have no immediate effect on the man in the street," Mr. Babson said, "because the man in the street still has confidence in the money in his pocket and hence will hang on to it. The only way that inflation raises domestic prices is when the man in the street begins to lose faith in his money and hastens to get rid of it. Only when the man in the street loses confidence do domestic prices go up. That hasn't occurred as yet."

"The move will help foreign trade because when we trade abroad our money must be changed into gold before the other person can use it. That is not necessary when trading domestically. The gold equivalent of the dollar is really secondary to the stability of the dollar, and this move of the President will stabilize the dollar and encourage the making of contracts and greatly facilitate foreign trade of all kinds."

"Of course, in addition, the President has another rabbit in the hat which is to use this 10 percent of free gold as a basis for additional currency. By holding up the price of gold he has done a very clever thing, and with the same amount of gold, with it selling at double the price, he can issue double the amount of currency and still have this theoretically measured by the price of gold as 'new' as the currency of the past few years."

"I am making a bold forecast, but it is very possible that notwithstanding recent huge expenditures, he will go before the electorate in 1936 with a smaller national debt than he inherited on March 1, 1932."

Personal Secretary To Second Assistant To Brown Testifies That He Burned File

WASHINGTON, Jan. 17.—(A.P.)—R. L. John, formerly personal secretary to W. Irving Glover, second assistant postmaster general in the Hoover administration told the Senate investigation today that all of Glover's air mail files were destroyed in January 1933 on Glover's orders.

How a young man's $40 investment in aviation stock turned out to be worth more than $5,000,000 within four years, was disclosed yesterday to the Senate committee investigating air mail contracts.

Before the day was out, however, that same young man, Charles W. Deeds, found himself confronted with the possibility of a Federal investigation of his income tax returns.

Charges by William B. Robertson of St. Louis that Walter F. Brown, postmaster general in the Hoover administration, had gone back on a promise to give his company an air mail contract and that Robertson had been approached by a Missouri politician named "Mr. Sacks" with a promise of a contract award in return for a cut of the receipts, also were heard.

Deeds, 31 years old, who admitted having had little aviation experience, told how he made a $40 investment in Pratt and Whitney Aircraft Company stock in

JOBLESS GROUP MEETS TO PLAN MOVE FOR WORK

Committee Is Chosen To Appear Before CWA To Ask Relief

George A. Jones, T. A. Stiles, T. F. Powell, and R. P. Walthall, members of a group of persons who met at the City Hall last night to discuss the local unemployment situation, were named as a committee which is to appear before the Civil Works Administration to ask recognition on behalf of the group of unemployed they represent, and to find out what steps should be taken to secure employment through the CWA or any other authorized agency.

Gathering primarily to discuss the advisability of effecting a union of workers, either under one of more crafts or a union of all crafts, the group decided to forego such organization at this time because of the scarcity of work which they are qualified to do.

Robert J. Holly, Jr., whose salary as a State Board of Health employee is paid through the local CWA office, was one of the few speakers who recommended the creation of a union. "You've got to organize to get anywhere," he told the group of unemployed men. "If you'll do that and demand to be heard, you'll get somewhere over at the Court House. They've got to do something for you, that's all. I'm a firm believer in unions and what they can do for you, and I firmly believe that the only way you'll get anywhere is by organizing."

During a discussion in which the policies of the local CWA formed the subject, the prevailing sentiment was that the CWA should be reformed. (Continued On Page Four)
