Seminole School Board Cleared School Desegregation Complaint Dismissed By Court

By JEAN PATTERSON Herald Staff Writer

U. S. District Court Judge George C. Young has ruled in favor of the Seminole County School Board in the controversy over its desegregation plan at Midway Elementary School.

"This court finds that... the defendant school board has in good faith implemented the desegregation plan and that it is not responsible for the lack of more white students at Midway," reads correspondence received today by school attorney Douglas Stenstrom from U. S. District Court.

Stenstrom explained that on Aug. 3, 1976, the federal court approved a desegregation plan for Seminole County which has since been implemented by the school board. The plan provides for the desegregation of schools, classes, facilities, staff personnel, transportation and extracurricular activities. It also provides for majority to minority transfer privileges.

In 1970, the desegregation plan contemplated that live in the Midway school district attend Midway Elementary if they are enrolled in the public school system.

Any black students at Midway Elementary wishing to exercise the privilege of "majority to minority transfer" (move from a school with a majority of blacks to a school with a minority of blacks) must be provided with free transportation to the school of their choice by the school board, the order concludes.

Choice of Architect Brings Pressure On Commission

By JAQUELINE DOWD Herald Staff Writer

Sanford's city commissioners — who have already reversed themselves on one major decision on the new city hall — are being pressured to change the second.

And at least two commissioners say the pressure is coming mostly from allies of the architectural firm on the losing end of last week's commission decision on the choice of architect for the new city hall — a $13 million city hall.

The commissioners say they are prohibited by law from reconsidering their decision. In March, they voted to reverse a decision on the location of the new city hall, keeping it downtown instead of building it on the lakefront at French Avenue.

The commission is scheduled to begin contract negotiations Wednesday with Watson & Company, the Orlando firm that won top spot on the city's priority list.

The local architects seeking the job of designing the new city hall were placed third — surprising everyone from the architects themselves to City Manager Warren Knowles, who said that before the four finalists made presentations to the commissioners he would have given 10-odd offers to the team of Gutmann, Dragage, Associates and Eoghan Kelley would get the job.

Three commissioners say the thought of showing slides and land the job because they didn't make a complete presentation. Commissioner Gordon Meyer, vacationing in Mexico when the presentations were made, supported the local team, Commissioner Julian Stenstrom voted emphatically against placing Gutmann even though he had a comment on his reasons.

City Commissioner J. J. Kriz said the commissioners' decision "is a mistake." He said that "Basically the presentation we made was very low-key."

Gutmann said, "We had thought of showing slides but we would be of Sanford. We thought that would be redundant and waste a lot of time."

"We felt we knew all the presentations were made, supported the local team, Commissioner Julian Stenstrom voted emphatically against placing Gutmann even though he had a comment on his reasons."

County Jail Inmate Found Hanged

Sheriff John E. Polk said a county jail inmate found dead in his cell this morning apparently committed suicide by hanging himself from a shower stall with a braided bedsheet.

Other inmates in the 10-man cell found the body of Cheng Yung Mang, 50, of Casselberry, when the body fell and awoke them at 6:40 a.m., Polk said.

Mang was scheduled for transfer to the state corrections system on Wednesday to begin serving a 15-year sentence imposed last week by Circuit Court Judge J. William Woodson on the Chinese cook's plea of guilty to aggravated battery in the Jan. 11 butcher knife slaying of Casselberry restaurant owner Mrs. Mary Johnson.

Polk said the cell had been inspected by confinement officers at 5:05 a.m. and again at 6:10 a.m.

He reportedly told the court during sentencing that he was trying to commit suicide in the restaurant kitchen following an argument on Jan. 11 and that Mrs. Johnson got in the way.

State Attorneys Criticize Shoot-To-Kill Bill

Asking to veto the bill. However, the bill has the backing of the Florida Bar.

State Atty. Eugene Whitworth said the association's disapproval, along with a review of other bills passed by the legislature, was scheduled after several state attorneys expressed reservations about the proposal.

Austin said that if the association took no position at its Wednesday meeting he would personally ask Askew to veto the measure.

The proposal, which cleared the legislature Thursday, would extend the circumstances under which deadly force is justified. It would allow citizens to use deadly force against intruders armed with firearms.

Currently, deadly force is only justified if the person has broken into the home.

Citizens would also get the right — which only police now have — to shoot fleeing persons who have committed forcible felonies such as murder, rape, armed robbery or assault.

This provision has worried opponents the most and Sen. Edgar Dunn, D-Daytona Beach, said the criminals being charged with murder today would try to use that as a defense.

Dunn said the measure intended people to perform the executions after a barroom brawl when one of the fighters tried to leave.

Austin, the state attorney who gained indictments against former Education Commissioner Floyd Christian and ex-insurance Commissioner Thomas O'Malley, said citizens have enough protection under current law.

"The law now provides honest citizens wide latitude in this regard. We don't provide when their acts are reasonable and if we did prosecute our juries would acquit," he said.

Stage Pleads Guilty To Murder, Gets Life

By BOB LLOYD Herald Staff Writer

James Douglas Stage, 20, of Sanford, pleaded guilty Monday afternoon to first-degree murder in the April 3 multiple-shooting death of Cynthia Louise Dabon, 28-year-old Seminole Community College student, at her Lake Mary residence.

Stage, told Circuit Court Judge Robert B. McGregor that he and his wife had another man, and broke a rear door glass, and cut his arm entering the residence at 338 Country Club Rd., before he killed her.

As part of the negotiated plea the court agreed that Stage will get a sentence of life imprisonment. The court set sentencing for July 16.

Stage told the court he killed Ms. Dabon and was pleading guilty because he feared the death penalty.

Earlier on Monday Stage had tried to enter the plea of guilty but told the court at that time that he was doing it because he felt he couldn't get a fair trial following a newspaper article that appeared Saturday detailing sworn pre-trial testimony of state witnesses who said they heard a woman's screams about 12:30 a.m. April 3 but didn't report hearing the screams to police until they read of Ms. Dabon's murder.

Stage pulled a copy of the Evening Herald article from his suit coat pocket and displayed it in court.

When entering the guilty plea just before 5 p.m. Monday Stage told the court that he remembers slaying Ms. Dabon one time in the back with a hunting knife "and it came out the front."

He said he couldn't remember any screams.

An autopsy report stated the college laboratory assistant, whose partially-clad body was found in a pool of blood on the living room floor of her residence, had been stabbed 17 times in the chest, neck and back.

Assistant State Atty. Claude Van Hook, prosecutor in the case, entered into the court record of the plea proceedings and the testimony of state witnesses, including persons who said they heard a woman screaming for 10 minutes. "Please stop, stop, please don't do it no more."

Also made part of the record was a transcript of Stage's tape recorded confession to Sheriff's Lt. George Abbigy in which he admitted the multiple slaying, and Abbigy's investigative report in the homicide.

Police said Stage had been living at Ms. Dabon's residence for about a month when the coed was killed.

Fourteen retiring Seminole County teachers were honored Thursday night at the annual retirement and awards banquet of the Seminole Education Association.

Special honors went to Mrs. Mildred Wright who retires from Orvieto High School after teaching for 48 years. The social studies teacher plans to celebrate her retirement with a trip to Hawaii.

Mrs. Edwin Stuart, who has taught almost as long as Mrs. Wright, 66 years, will retire after teaching for 38 years at Sanford Middle School. She plans to travel to Europe and visit her children.

Mrs. Mabel Hurston has worked as a media specialist in Seminole County for 24 years, and retires from Hopper and then travel to — where else? — Hawaii.

Mrs. Hazel Flynn and Mrs. Lucille Sawyer retire after teaching 30 years. Mrs. Flynn has taught in Seminole County for 25 years and retires from Pinecrest Elementary. She is planning a tour to Japan and the Philippines.

Mrs. Nancy Haskaway is retiring after teaching 13 years at English Estates. Retirees unable to attend the banquet include Evelyn Anderson, Mark Cannon, Patricia Hall and Rose Saar.

FLORIDA IN BRIEF

Bus Passenger Fares To Rise Ten Per Cent

TALLAHASSEE (AP) — Passenger fares on all the state's bus lines will go up 10 per cent this month while freight service will increase 18 per cent.

The increases, amounting to more than $2 million, were approved Monday by the Public Service Commission despite complaints by one commissioner that service by one bus company on package shipments was not adequate.

Greylound, the state's largest bus line, received the bulk of the increase, totalling $1.1 million in passenger fare hikes and $546,000 in freight service.

Officer Returns To Duty

Marijuana 'Garden' Is Raided

MIAMI (AP) — Sheriff's deputies raided what they termed a "well kept" marijuana garden Monday afternoon west of Sanford and arrested a 44-year-old housewife.

Anthony John Graziano, 50, of 900 N. Park Ave., Winter Park, was held in county jail in lieu of $2,500 bond on charges of burglary of a dwelling and possessing a person therein.

Investigators said also that some small marijuana plants were found in flower pots at the rear of the residence and germinating seeds were found inside an open, chest-type freezer near the garden.

One vice squad agent estimated that the confiscated marijuana plants weighed "fifty pounds, stalks and all" and that the plants would produce approximately 15 pounds of marijuana if the plants were cured.

Sanford Commission Under Pressure
On Choice Of Architect For City Hall
The city shall conduct an eight-step procedure outlined by a 1973 state law establishing policies for contracting professional services by governmental bodies.

Commissioners A.A. McClanahan and John Morris and Mayor Lee Moore all said the Gutmann-Kelley team did not make a complete presentation.

The commission can only decide on what's presented there," Moore said. "It's not our fault we didn't see anything from Gutmann. They could have brought slides and photographs."

The other three firms reported pictures of buildings they had designed and Paul Robin John of Mount Dora, who was placed second on the priority list, submitted an "idea sketch" of Sanford's new city hall.

Broward Figures Threaten Grants

TALLAHASSEE (AP) — Estimated next year's Broward County tax revenues are inflated and may throw state grants to all 67 school systems out of a total of $1.07 billion in state school grants.

The House Appropriations Committee Monday released a breakdown of the $1.07 billion in state school grants.

But Tallington challenged an assumption by state fiscal officers that the Broward tax roll will grow by 18.5 per cent. If he is right, the county school systems will get less money than the legislative figures indicate.

"My judgment the growth in Broward's tax roll will be less than they've estimated," he said. "It's possible they've underestimated in other counties, but their figures in Broward County are so significant as to possibly leave us short."

A significant overestimate of Broward tax revenues would require readjustment of school education grants to all 67 county school systems, Tallington said.

"The required local effort figures for Broward County may be wrong by $6 million or $7 million," he said. "The consequences of that are that $6 or $7 million may be spread throughout the system."

This Feminist Ignores Reality

Once you begin taxing some for the benefit of others, there is no logical stopping place short of national bankruptcy. The tendency is for more and more to want to clamber aboard the "grave train" for a free ride.

For example, there is a new twist on the feminist front called "Wages for Housework." It's a campaign based on the idea that while a woman's work is never done, at least she ought to be paid for it — in hard cash.

"Women all over the world are in a powerless situation because we don't have independent money. We work too hard and are underpaid," says Beth Ingber, a spokeswoman for the movement in Los Angeles. She is traveling around the country rallying housewives (and single "housepersons," as well) to the banner of the cause.

How much is a housewife's labor worth, and who is going to pay for it?

Whatever the figure should be, "Wages for Housework" is demanding that the government (read taxpayers) pay it, and suggests that it get the money by levying a heavier tax on the "big" corporations. "After all," lobbyist Ingber points out, "if it weren't for a wife ironing her husband's clothes and fixing his lunch and dinner, he couldn't go out to work for the steel company or whatever."

Which, of course, has an element of truth in it but which, nevertheless, is laden with misconceptions. As alluring as the pay for house spouses pitch may be, it ignores or attempts to gloss over a number of economic realities; among which are:

— Whether Ingber will admit it or not, the average housewife, shares in her husband's income just as surely as if she drew his pay herself. The roof over their heads, the food they eat, the clothes they wear, the car they drive, the recreation and entertainment they share, all are paid for out of the husband's income; this quite aside from the fact that many husbands, possibly even most, turn the bulk of their pay-over to the wife for disposal. So, just what does Ingber mean when she claims that "women all over the world are in a powerless situation because we don't have independent money?"

— A marriage is a team effort. Implicit in the marriage contract, in the absence of an understanding to the contrary, is the assumption that the man will go out into the world and work for pay to sustain the home and that the woman, as her input to the arrangement, will carry out the role of homemaker.

— Of course, there is nothing wrong with a wife receiving, as many do, a specified amount from her husband's pay to spend as she pleases. But this is a matter to be worked out between husband and wife; certainly, it is not a right to impose an added burden upon taxpayers, "big" corporations or otherwise, as Ingber would have us believe. Just how are "big" corporations, or the taxpayers in general (who would wind up paying the "Wages for Housework"), to be in the form of higher prices supposed to benefit from the fact that housewives iron their husbands' clothes and fix their meals?

— If women of the Ingber bent of mind object to the conditions and responsibilities imposed by marriage, then, obviously, the role of wife is not for them. So far as we know, no "house spouse" has been forced to say "I do" yet. So, why all the furor?

As Harry Truman once put it in another vein: "If you can't stand the heat, stay out of the kitchen."

BERRY'S WORLD

WASHINGTON — Millions of American workers are exposed to deadly, poisonous substances on the job. Yet the effort to save their health, perhaps even their lives, has been seriously hampered by cutbacks and red tape.

The best estimate is that one out of every three workers in this country will come down with occupational diseases. Toxic substances, according to another estimate, causes 100,000 job-related deaths each year.

Yet even this disturbing death figure is now considered far too low. Labor Dept. experts have just learned that most of the nation's doctors are unable to diagnose occupational diseases. This means that most deaths from occupational diseases go unreported.

The Labor experts have also discovered that occupational injuries account for an alarming 96 per cent of all reported illnesses at manufacturing places of work. Yet, industrial plants provide few health services and almost no environmental monitoring.

The Labor Dept. has appealed to Congress for more help to cope with the problem. Of 2,800 industrial hygienists in the United States, only 133 work for the department. Training programs have also been cut back.

Soviets Falling Behind U.S.?

WASHINGTON — The Soviet Union is dangerous precisely because it is a second-rate power in everything but military strength. And may be on the downhill road.

Soviet technological advances, the basis for significant economic-industrial growth except in the field of materials production and routine manufactures, cannot match those of the United States or other major Western countries.

Soviet agriculture is a shambles despite impressive inputs of capital and heavy thinking on the problems at the Kremlin level.

Soviet management does not seem to do significantly better when complete modern high-technology factories are installed ready to operate down to the last push button.

We are not here talking of economic collapse, rather of Soviet ability to compete economically in an increasingly technological world, where efficiency is a crucial factor.

It's rather that the economic system is so tied in with Soviet ideology that it apparently cannot be changed without severely straining the power structure on which the men in the Kremlin depend.

This same fumbling applies to Soviet relationships with other nations, particularly those whose actions the Russians would like to influence. Where there is no mammoth Soviet army on the border, the Soviets almost invariably lose their influence, even in fellow Communist nations.

What then happens are the Soviet Union begins to slip further behind the West in industry, as in agriculture? And when its immediate successes, as in India, Angola, Afghanistan, begin to sour — as has been the case with Egypt and a wide assortment of other nations where Soviet influence once seemed firmly in control?

Here then will be the period of danger. Having a strong military force, knowing that no nation would likely intervene given the danger of nuclear war, and having confidence in its own highly developed civil evacuation system aimed at reducing nuclear casualties imposed by marriage, then, obviously, the role of wife is not for them.

As Harry Truman once put it in another vein: "If you can't stand the heat, stay out of the kitchen."

Around

The Clock

BY ED PRICKETT

On the way to work this morning I was forced to shut my car windows after a horde of blind mosquitoes attacked without warning. The pesky little creatures buzz in and out of windows as if they owned part of Downtown Sanford.

Actually they do. At least that's the opinion of some Downtown merchants and businessmen who report they've been plagued by the mosquito problem for the past 10 years.

As a result of recent complaints, State Rep. Vince Fechtel, R-Leesburg, has gotten into the act. Fechtel has called a meeting Wednesday, June 16, of the Greater Sanford Chamber of Commerce building. It's scheduled for 7:30 p.m.

At this point it looks as if "fogging" is the short-term answer to the mosquito problem. The long-term solution is unknown, even biologists have no ready answer on how to get rid of the pesky critters without upsetting the ecology. You can't just wipe them out because fish depend on mosquito larvae as a source of food. What is left is a proposal for a fogging machine to spray twice a day. The estimated cost is $100 per day.

Over in Polk County, a similar "fogging" program has reportedly controlled the blind mosquito problem for the past 12 years. Recently County Commissioner Richard Williams wrote Polk officials. Williams now believes establishment of a special taxing district here is what's needed to raise money to impede the mosquito invasion.

Williams says the mosquito problem is limited to areas near Lake Monroe. That means some type of cooperative program between the City of Sanford and the Seminole County Commission would be in order.

Such a cooperative venture may be a pie-in-the-sky pipe dream imagined by idealists. The reason is city county projects in Seminole don't seem to turn out. I guess that's because cities don't like the county — and vice versa. The county's history is one long list of ongoing squabbles between city and county officials. That doesn't mean Sanford and county officials can't bury the hatchet on this one because they can and they should.

Area businessmen have cited huge losses because of blind mosquitoes, not to mention the unpleasantness the little beasts cause resident and tourist alike. I'm confident that Williams, Fechtel and city commissioners are capable of whipping a bunch of blind mosquitoes. All it takes is cooperation; that's not too much to ask of elected officials.

GOP Roles Are Bound To Shrink

The contest for control of Congress is always a sideshow to the main event in a presidential year. If post-World War II history runs true to form, it will also be a foregone conclusion: Whoever the outcome of the presidential race, the Democrats will emerge as the majority party in Congress, as they have in every election since 1954. The only real question is how large their majority will be.

A poll by the Harris organization finds that a landslide 52 per cent to 27 per cent, voters prefer the Democrats over the Republicans in the races for Congress this November. (All 435 seats in the House will be up for grabs in 1976 and 34 of the 100 seats in the Senate.)

A substantial 47 per cent of Americans now consider themselves to be Democrats, while no more than 20 per cent answer to the name Republican. The remaining 33 per cent identify themselves as "independents."

That is one reason the Democrats are likely to retain control of Congress, a control that has been broken only twice since 1932. Another, say the pollsters, is that for some time the public has felt it is better to have a divided government in Washington so that the legislative and executive branch could be a rein on each other.

If so, Americans have added a new form of check-and-balance to their system of government not envisioned by the framers of the Constitution.

A more fundamental reason, however, seems to lie in the way Americans perceive the two major parties. For all the regional and ideological divisions among the Democrats, which not infrequently have enabled a Republican minority in Congress to thwart or modify the programs of a Democratic president, the Democrats have been viewed since Franklin D. Roosevelt as the party with answers to the nation's problems, or at least a guiding philosophy adaptable to the changing challenges of the times.

The Republicans have been viewed as the party of reaction, if not reactionism — a kind of clean-up crew sent to "straighten out the mess in Washington" whenever the Democrats seemed to have gone too far. Republican successes have been due to Democratic excesses. The Democrats lead, the Republicans try to tidy up behind.

As one observer recently commented, if Republican philosophy, stripped to its essentials, stands for the maximum of individual freedom and the minimum of government interference in a people's lives, the party is bereft of any grand design for the nation embodying programs that will both serve that philosophy and at the same time provide practical solutions to the needs and desires of Americans.

All the great domestic legislation since New Deal days, from social security to civil rights to the "war on poverty," have been of Democratic inspiration, or have been so perceived by the public.

Letters To The Editor

An Open Letter
Open Letter to City Commissioners and Gentlemen:
Re: City Hall

I hope the Sanford-Seminole Jaycees will go all out to get the tables back and many more than we had.

For a long time I have thought Seminole County and Sanford have neglected their most beautiful natural asset.

Most progressive cities would have made this beautiful lakefront drive a beautification project. I think our lake is more beautiful than any around Central Florida. Just think how it would look if the grass was kept up and a few trees and flowers, picnic tables and benches were all along that lovely shore.

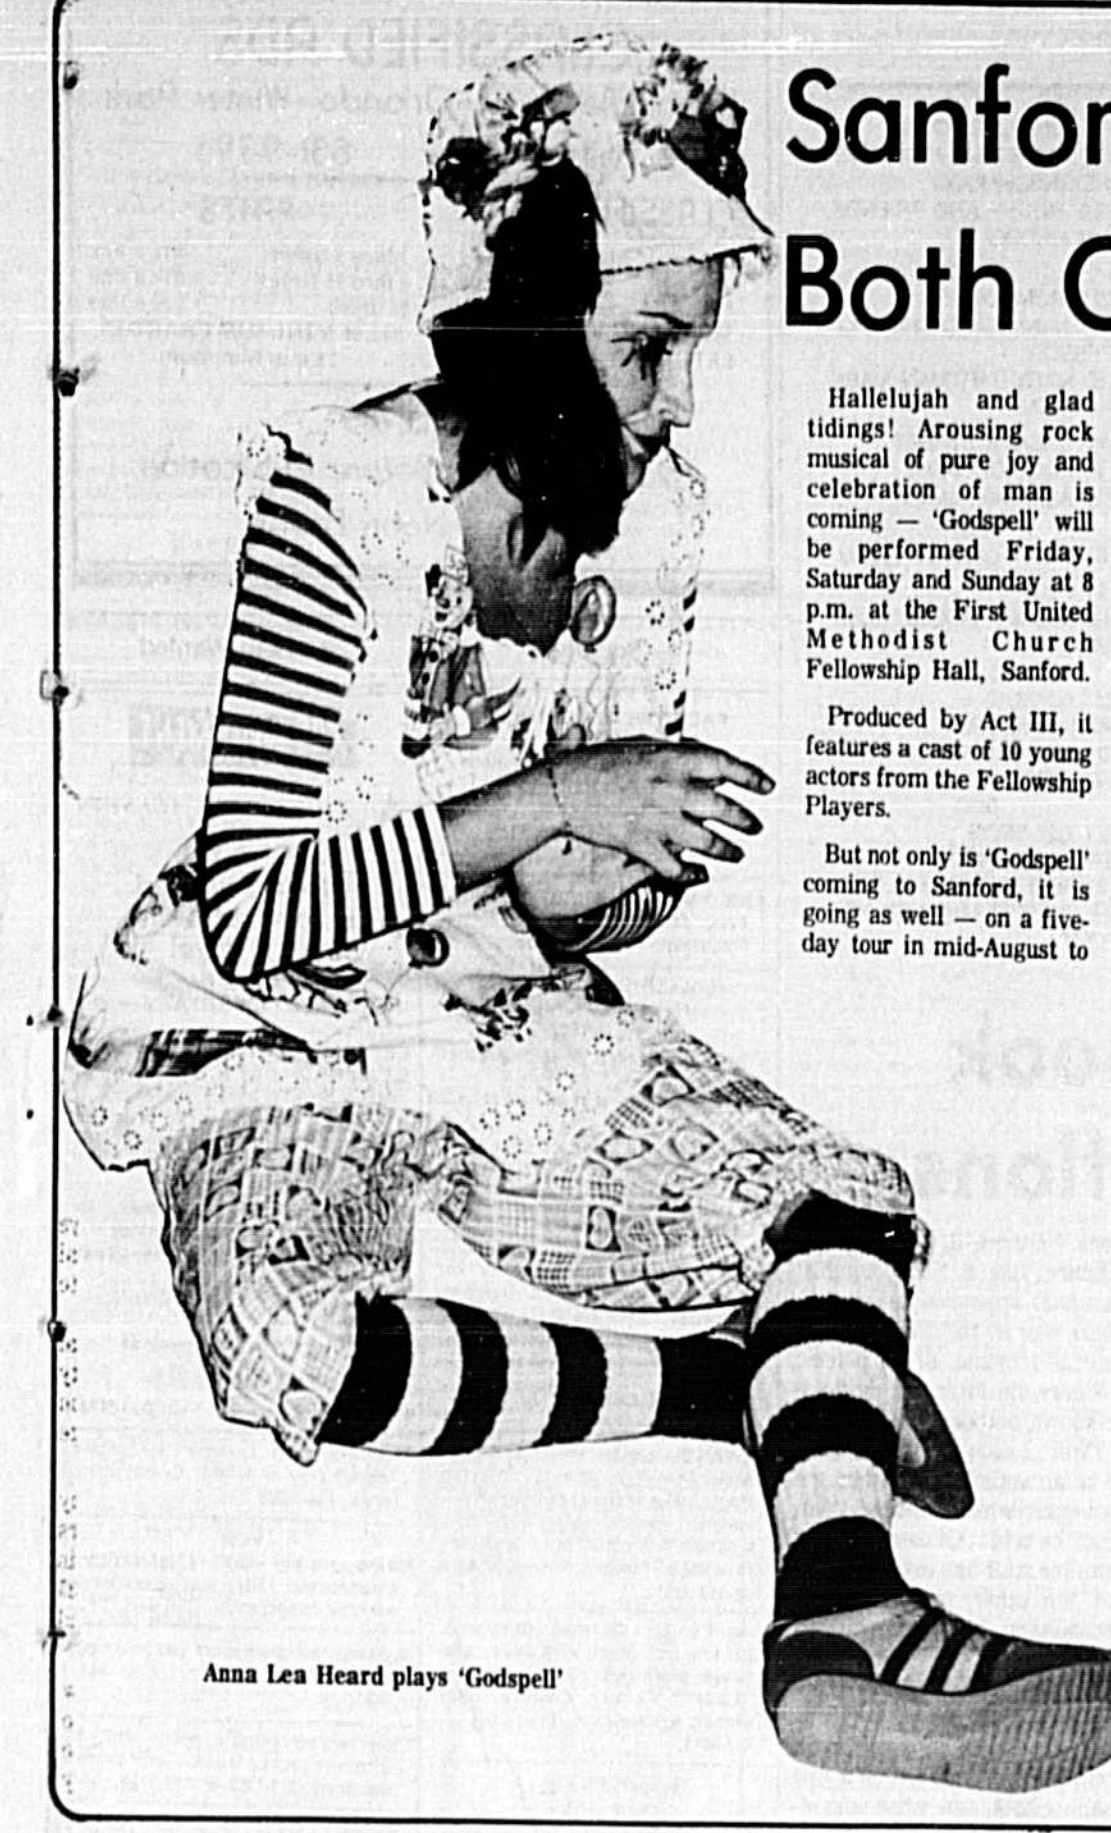

You have only to drive around Lakeland, Winter Park or Orlando and see what I mean. I think our lake is more beautiful than any around Central Florida. Just think how it would look if the grass was kept up and a few trees and flowers, picnic tables and benches were all along that lovely shore.

Thanks for allowing me to express my thoughts. I'm sure many more people have said this before.

Anna Lea Heard plays 'Godspell'

Sanford To See 'Godspell' Both Coming...And Going

Hallelujah and glad tidings! Arousing rock musical of pure joy and celebration of man is coming — "Godspell" will be performed Friday, Saturday and Sunday, all at the First United Methodist Church Fellowship Hall, Sanford.

Produced by Act III, it features a cast of 18 young actors from the Fellowship Players.

But not only is "Godspell" coming to Sanford, it is going as well — on a five-day tour in mid-August to Macon and Callaway Gardens in Georgia and Tallahassee and Jacksonville, as well as staging several weekend performances in churches around Central Florida throughout the summer.

Members of the cast, all from Sanford, include Foreman Heard, technical director for both the Fellowship Players and Act III, and Anna Lea Heard, director and executive officer of Act III.

Both have been active in the theatre for several years. Foreman was most recently seen as Stephen Hopkins in "1776" and as Gen. Henry S. Sanford and Thomas Jefferson in "The People" Anna Lea was director of both these productions.

Chip Johnson, veteran of 12 major roles, stars as John the Baptist and Judas in "Godspell."

Other cast members include Bryan Harden, Jolene Brubaker, Walt Morgan, Martha Hardwick, Alvin Deas, Anthony Sutton, Alyssa Dupree and Eloise Williams.

"Godspell" is the story of Jesus Christ according to the Gospel of St. Matthew. Its youthful cast quotes verbatim from the New Testament. However, they interpret the story in contemporary terms of modern youth crucified by an unfeeling, hypocritical establishment. The cast wears clown costumes and the Jesus with the Afrohair is very much today as well as yesterday and tomorrow. He preaches love and compassion. He is murdered.

The cast praises the Lord in a variety of showbusiness styles. There is burlesque, vaudeville, softshoe, minstrel shows, improvisation, charades, and children's games. They all add up to exultant Christianity in its most direct form. Miraculously, these young people make the New Testament alive and relevant and joyful.

It is too often said that, "Faith is in the mouth rather than in the heart." Not so with "Godspell." It is a celebration with sincerity and a touching reverence. In this day of so much uncertainty, Jesus Christ, whether he be the Son of God or simply a great historical figure, deserves more than the comic book treatment he has been getting from some contemporary quarters.

The GODSPELL Jesus is a warm, lovable man that everyone would like to call friend, and if for no other reason than this, "Godspell" is a Blessing.

Taking the play on tour will test the cast's ingenuity in overcoming technical difficulties and surviving financially on a slim budget. Although the set only consists of stage and a chainlink fence as a backdrop, packing and transporting 300 pounds of fence, 32 separate portions of framework and nine sections of stage each weighing 15 pounds is not a simple matter.

However, everything has been so organized that setting up the stage and securing the fence takes less than an hour. A new lighting board and light poles were specially constructed and can be set up in a short time. Costs include purchasing costumes, maintaining props, printing programs and paying royalties on each performance. The cast and stage crew must be fed and housed while on the road, and transport costs are high. Nevertheless, Act III is confident that attendance at the shows will at least insure their breaking even. When the group played to full houses in Sanford last August, many families had to be turned away at the door as all the seating was occupied. In order to avoid similar disappointment this year, advance reservations may be made by calling the First United Methodist Church at 322-4371 or Act III at 322-9132. All tickets are $2.

Lee-Oxford United in Marriage

Linda Vallie Lee became the bride of James Bruce Oxford on May 8 at 4 p.m. at the First United Methodist Church, Sanford, with the Rev. Leo King officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James G. Lee, 113 W. 15th St., Sanford. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Oxford, 2417 Palmtoe Ave., Sanford.

The First United Methodist Church has been the marriage site of three generations of the bride's family. Her grandparents, the late Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Gormly, were married there on Nov. 8, 1922 with the late Dr. S. W. Walker officiating.

Her parents, James and Laticia Lee, were married there on Sept. 11, 1946, with Rev. Ed McKinley officiating. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white qiana with a scooped neckline embroidered with pearls, a fitted bodice, and long fitted sleeves. Her fingertip veil was secured by a pearl-embroidered headpiece. She carried a cascade of red, white and pink roses.

Mrs. Kathy Dingle, Largo, served her sister as matron. In honor and Ms. Paige Scoggin, Lexington, Ky. served as maid of honor. Both honor attendants were wearing halter dresses of dusty pink qiana with sleeveless ruffled jackets and hand painted china lavender. Each carried a red and a white long stemmed rose.

Mrs. Carol Dudley, Mrs. Elizabeth Ganas and Mrs. Debbie Hudson served as bridesmaids. Their gowns were identical. In order to complement the bride's attire, each carried a single long-stemmed red rose.

Miss Lee Dingle served as her own flower girl, wearing a floor-length, white qiana empire style dress with ruffled cap sleeves, and a dainty pearl necklace. She carried a white straw basket filled with multi-colored rose petals.

Lamar Oxford served his bride as best man. Tom Smith, Fred Dudley, Greg Ganas and Jim Lee were groomsmen. Ushers were Denny Hinson and Dennis Dingle.

Frank Dunn was organist. Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. The couple left for a wedding trip to New Smyrna Beach.

The couple will make their home in Sanford.

Miss Kirchain Honored

Miss Cathy Kirchain, who will become the bride of David Bernosky on June 26 was guest of honor at a pre-nuptial luncheon, June 5 at the Citrus Drive home of Miss Connie Thiel.

The hostess presented the honoree, her mother, Mrs. Phillip Kirchain, and Mrs. William Bernosky, mother of the bridegroom with courages. Guests included Seminole Sun Maidens, Mrs. Sue Eardley and Mrs. Phyllis Beasley.

Garden Club Holds Social

The Altamonte Springs Garden Club will have an Ice Cream Social on Thursday evening, June 10, at the Altamonte Springs Civic Center, beginning at 7:30 p.m. This is the last meeting of the season for the club and the first time the club will meet at the Altamonte Springs Civic Center where they will resume their meetings in October. The social is a family affair and lively entertainment has been promised.

Bridal Couple Honored

Mrs. Charles Gormly entertained at the rehearsal dinner for the Lee-Oxford wedding party at the Imperial House, Winter Park, on May 7. Those attending included: Rev. and Mrs. Leo F. King, Mr. and Mrs. James G. Lee; the bride couple Linda Lee and James G. Lee; Mrs. Kathy Dingle, Mrs. Carol Dudley, Mrs. Debbie Hudson, Mrs. Elizabeth Ganas, Miss Paige Scoggin and Lee Dingle.

Piano Player Makes Awful Church Music

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: One of the reasons I used to love to go to church was the organ music. Well, our organist moved out of town, and now a piano player is playing the organ. It is punishment to listen to her.

She brags that she has never had an organ lesson in her life, and believe me, it is obvious. She is such a pleasant and willing person that nobody would suggest that he consider not getting rid of her and get an organist. I will quit coming to church, and so will several of my friends.

Our clergyman must be tone deaf. So what's the solution? This is a small town. No name, please.

CHURCHGOER
DEAR GOER: You and the others who share your view should call on the clergyman and suggest that he consider getting an organist — or educate the piano player.

DEAR ABBY: Please don't put me down and call me a stary-eyed dreamer, but I have a terrific crush on my doctor. I am a happily married young woman with a perfectly good husband and two beautiful children. So why is this doctor on my mind all the time?

I told my husband about it and he said that I should change doctors, and he said it wouldn't do any good — that I would probably develop a crush on the next one. And besides, he says, it's nothing unusual because nearly every woman is in love with her doctor. Is that true?

I am sure your doctor doesn't have a clue that I have this wild crush on him, and I know there's no chance of his becoming interested in me, but that doesn't change my feelings about him.

Any suggestions? GOT A CRUSH
DEAR GOT: Not every woman has a crush on her doctor, but it's not unusual to mistake feelings of gratitude, admiration, respect and hero-worship for romantic love.

Analyze your feelings and recognize them for what they are before your next appointment, or your doctor won't be able to get an accurate history of your normal blood pressure, pulse and heartbeat.

Everyone has a problem. What's yours? For a personal reply, write to ABBY at the Evening Herald, c/o Post Office Box 1249, Sanford, FL 32771. Enclose stamped, self-addressed envelope, please. For Abby's booklet, "How to Have a Lovely Wedding," send $1 to Beverly Hills, Calif. 90212. Please enclose a stamp, self-addressed envelope, stamped (13c) envelope.

Stromberg Six-Game Win Streak Ended By Prosser

Jack Prosser Ford derailed Stromberg-Carlson's comeback Sunday in the Sanford Little League, dumping S-C, 9-5, to halt its six-game winning streak and open up a two-game lead in the Continental League division.

Meanwhile, Seminole Sporting Goods rallied for a 3-2 decision over Medical Center in a National League contest that saw both clubs held hitless.

Meanwhile, Seminole Petroleum handed Atlantic National its 13th loss of the year, 14-6, and Flagship Bank of Seminole kept atop the American League bracket by whipping Flagship Bank of Sanford, 10-6, behind Jim Johnson's no-hitter.

Chase & Co. nixed First Federal's bid for victory in the first and second inning plus six hits in the third by Jeff Edwards had helped stake Chase & Co. to an early 8-0 lead before the Federal assault.

Picking up key hits for the losers were Allen Dague, Jack Jenkins, and Danny Hall. Losing pitcher Paul Jackson fanned 10 and permitted just three hits.

Lenford Sutton carried the old bat for UTU, rapping out a single and two doubles and scoring four runs. Allen Dague had two doubles for the winners while Dean Debose and Alfred Bookhart had key singles.

George's scored two runs on an error and another on a single by Robert Guy to spoil stellar pitching performance by Debose and Sutton, who held Stromberg to one run.

George's to only one hit. Johnson's no-hitter was backed by Wesley Steele and Chip Saunders, who each rapped out two hits. Saunders' first inning single gave Johnson all the lead he was to need, but Johnson walked three and struck out six in the no-hit gem.

HOROSCOPE

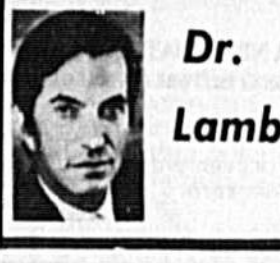

For Wednesday, June 9, 1976
ARIES (March 21-April 19) Your adventurous spirit could lead you astray today, if you engage in any form of speculation. It's not a something-for-nothing day.
TAURUS (April 20-May 20) In making an important agreement today, don't be more generous than your counterpart. The deal won't hold water unless each give equally.
GEMINI (May 21-June 20) You may volunteer to do something for another today hoping you'll later reap more than you've sown. It just won't work out that way.
CANCER (June 21-July 22) Waste not, want not is an old and wise saying. You probably won't heed it today, and will be extravagant with your resources and those of associates.
LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) You may set targets for yourself today that far exceed your capabilities. Be realistic in assessing your talents and skills.
VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) Today you'll be tempted to play the game of one-upmanship when others tell you of their achievements. You won't appreciate being upstaged by anyone.
LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 22) Your expensive whims could get the better of you today. If you let yourself go you'll buy things you don't need at a price you can't afford.
SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) If seeking information today, be sure to get it from the proper source. Things you get second-hand are likely to be distorted and exaggerated.
SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) Treat those who are deserving with charity and understanding today. But by the same token, don't let yourself be taken by someone who is just a sponger.
CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) Be democratic in group activities today and let everyone have a say. If you try to dominate the show, you'll soon be playing to empty seats.
AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18) You may support an unpopular cause today, not because you believe in it, but because you don't want to be tagged as a member of the herd.
PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) While you may be excellent at grasping small details today, somehow you tend to miss the overall picture. Don't overlook what should be obvious.
YOUR BIRTHDAY
June 9, 1976
You should have a fair share of opportunities heading your way this coming year. Explore them all carefully or you could pass up one of the better ones.

Fatigue Is Hard To Measure

By Lawrence E. Lamb, M.D.
DEAR DR. LAMB - How long do you have to rest before you regain your strength after exercise? After I have done some exercise I seem to need to rest quite a long time before I can resume exercising. I'm trying to get in shape but want to do it the right way.
DEAR READER - Fatigue is difficult to measure and quantify. Sometimes it is related to psychological factors and other times to metabolic factors. Laboratory studies of measuring muscle strength have shown that if you fatigue a muscle it will take about 4 minutes for it to recover its strength completely.
Under ideal circumstances, though, the muscle will regain about 70 percent of its strength within 30 seconds and will be recovered enough to contract to 80 percent of normal within seven and a half minutes.
Work studies have shown that it is better not to work to exhaustion and then rest. You will be able to do more work by stopping and resting a few minutes before you are excessively fatigued. The rest period to recover is much shorter when you use this method.
Anyone interested in exercise should understand how the muscles work. I am sending you an issue of the Health Letter number 1-9, Exercise, Muscles, which will give you basic information about muscles and how they work. Others who want this issue can forward 50 cents with a long, stamped, self-addressed envelope for mailing. Address your request to me in care of this newspaper, P.O. Box 1851, Radio City Station, New York, NY 10019.
DEAR DR. LAMB - What would you do if a child's mother had been given DES while carrying her baby?
My daughter was home on vacation and she has been depressed after learning, and hearing about effects on a girl born to a mother on this drug. My daughter's girl is now 13, and she is sure she was given DES when she was pregnant. I talked to our family doctor about it after she left. His advice was to ignore it. He said, if she had been given the drug

Memories Abound For Class Of '76

By Kathy Woodruff, Seminole Class of '76
After twelve years of learning, growing, and searching together, the senior class of '76 has finally reached one of its many goals, graduation. These past three years at Seminole High School have been filled with many activities and wonderful memories.
We were led into pep-rallies by our own life and drum corp. Everyone wore the traditional newspaper hats and participated in the Homecoming Pow-Wow with a "Bicentennial Skit."
The senior class had several firsts this year, among them was a Christmas Dance which proved a success and started a new tradition at Seminole High. We also put together a Senior Class Calendar with outstanding seniors pictured on the cover in costumes depicting each month. This constituted one of our main money-making projects for the year.
Our prom this year, held at the Holiday Inn Surfside in Daytona Beach, was a great success. We danced till one to the sounds of Mantra.
Soon after, the seniors started sending out the newly received graduation announcements. As proud as we were of them, it marked the ending of four years at Seminole High.
But spirits rose as we all flocked to the beach on Senior Skip Day. We celebrated Grad-nite at Disney World on May 15 and as a final ending to one part of our life we had a Senior Banquet at the Mayfair Country Club.
We face the future with mixed emotions, ready to start something new but afraid to leave the security of the past. Although we may each go on our separate paths, the class of '76 will always keep the spirit alive between us.

Principal Addresses SHS Class Of '76

To the Class of 1976: Congratulations to the graduating class of 1976. The struggle to achieve the goal is about over and the larger struggle of establishing your position in the community is about to begin. I hope that your years in Seminole High School have been such that what you receive in school will allow you to live in agreement with and with respect for your fellow man. I encourage each of you to get involved in what is going on and do not let life pass you by.
Graduating in the year of our country's 200th anniversary is an additional honor and challenge to each of you. We must turn our country around from the state of apathy and dependence of today to an era of strength and spirit. The class of 1976 has as great a challenge as any class in the history of America. Accept that challenge and realize the experience of success and pride.
The faculty, staff and administration will miss you very much.

Principal, Seminole High School

PHOTO CAPTIONS

By Meg Newman and Janie Paul
In the photo at the top, we see just a few of the money-raising cans that were used by the senior class calendar nominees in order to qualify for a picture on the Senior Class Calendar. This was the first time this type of fund-raising project was held and we hope it becomes a tradition. The photo directly above shows the senior class starting the spirit to move during a school pep rally. On the left, the "Spirits of '76" leads the Homecoming Pep Rally. Members of the "Spirits" (from left) are Charles Turner on the drum, Debbie Reagan carrying the flag and Joe Williams playing the life. In the photo at the right, Mrs. Connie Manderville, one of the senior class sponsors, gets in to the swing of things with Tom Lake at the Christmas dance.

HONORING AMERICA'S...

Graduates

1876

SALUTING ALL OF THE CLASSES OF 1976!

We are honored to salute the graduates of our Bicentennial year, 1976, and we wish them the best of luck as they prepare for the future. We wish to honor not only the men and women who are receiving diplomas and degrees, but the tradition of higher education which has been part of our culture and heritage since colonial times. We are proud, too, of the fine public and private schools, colleges and universities found in abundance throughout this great nation encouraging scholastic achievement. Heartfelt congratulations to all of our graduates. The future belongs to them; may they all be successful in their endeavors.

In Memorium - Kenneth Weinsche

He passed away like morning dew
Before the sun was high
So brief his time, he scarcely knew
The meaning of a sigh.

As 'round the rose its soft perfume,
Sweet love around him floated;
Admired he grew—while mortal doom
Crept on, unfeared, unrooled.

Love was his Guardian Angel here,
But Love to Death resigned him
Though Love was kind, why should he fear
But Holy Death is kinder?

Beginning A New Life

By JUDY HOOD

BECKY LOCKHART

As the end of our path through the 12 long years of school approaches, we the class of '76 see this not as the end, but the beginning of a whole new life. A life as the leaders of tomorrow.

As we look forward to the future we reflect upon the past, the individual and the united triumphs of the mighty class of '76. As the path grew shorter and the end grew nearer, we found ourselves in the hallowed halls of Lyman High School on Sept. 5, 1972, scared and confused freshman already filled with the Spirit of '76. We soon took control of the situation and set out to be the greatest class ever to be seen at Lyman.

To be the greatest class we needed the best leaders—and we've had them every step of the way. Class officers for this very important year were: President—Bill Gual, Vice-President—Jim Slade, Secretary—Karen Edwards, and Treasurer—Susan Kelly. They have led us with enthusiasm and determination to complete our fourth year at Lyman. It was Bill's goal for the seniors to win every spirit jug at Pep Rallies, win, for the first time in a long time, powder-puff football as Seniors, and to be the most remembered class in Greyhound history.

The seniors also ruled the Student Council. Our Student Council officers were: President—Armando Payas, Vice-President—Missy Kimsey, Secretary—Fran Gidus, and Treasurer—Ann Callan.

There was also a new addition to the Student Council this year—a cabinet. Members of the cabinet were: Public Relations Secretary—Becky Lockhart, Press Secretary—Judy Hood, Bicentennial Secretary—Laura Talbee, and Advertising Secretary—Val Mobley.

Student Council did a fine job in planning and carrying out this year's homecoming. The theme was "Greyhounds in Touch With America."

As in the past the Senior Class entered a float which was built at Judy Hood's house, and on it there was a birthday party to celebrate America's birthday, complete with presents and a cake.

Wednesday began our homecoming celebration with a 1950's day. Everyone dressed up in the styles of the 50's, bobby sox and graced hair were a common sight that day. Wednesday night was 44th night. First place went to the German Club with its skit on "1976 Pyramid" game. Second went to the junior class with the "Twelve Days of America." Drama came in third with the life and times of the greyhound who served famous American leaders such as Paul Revere, Betsy Ross, George Washington and Ben Franklin.

Thursday was "Baby Day." If anyone had come to visit the campus that day they would have thought that they had come to a nursery school. There were diapers, teddy bears, and bottles everywhere. That night was the annual Powder-puff football game and float competition. For the first time in several years the seniors claimed a victory over the juniors. The class of '76 ruled again. The final score was 14-0.

Coaches Doug Peters, Rusty Hatton, Doug Wilkerson and Mike Starks led the players. Girls participating were Mary Morgan, Rollee Lyons, Fran Gidus, Patti Pyle, Gina Kress, Laura Talbee, Kim Kruger, Shar Kosto, Sandy Simmons, Leslie Zacco, Leslie Giovannetti, Kim Stazzer, Margaret and Connie Howlett, Sue Browning, Kathy Dickman, Missy Slimick, Daphne Jones, Jackie Taylor, Betsy Ballard, Sara Starks, Maria Peredrahila, Cindy Copeland, Cindy Williams, and Liz Harris.

Cheerleaders for the mighty seniors were Clark Pickett, Kevin McNulty, Jamie Brunelle, Dana Greenwood, Henry Howard, and Scott Werley.

During the half-time of the game a parade of floats for judging was held. Many colorful floats were displayed. First place was taken by Keyettes, second went to Tech Club and third to Key.

The following day was Halloween, and since this was the big day we deemed Friday "Costume Day." There were many strange characters running around that day. Groucho Marx, Harpo Marx, and Hitler to name but a few.

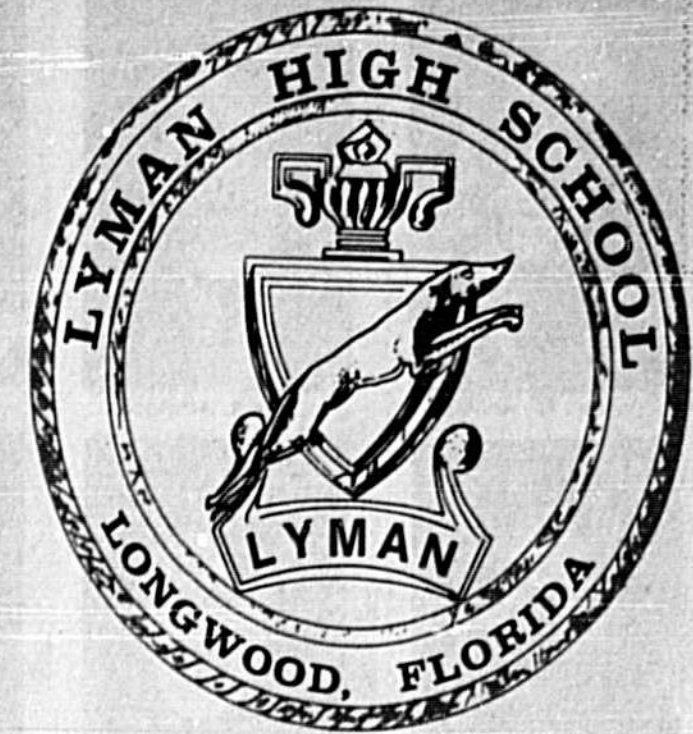

In the football game we out-played Maynard Evans and beat the visitors by a score of 7-0. During halftime our Homecoming queen for 1975 was crowned. She was Miss Diane Simpson.

Her court consisted of Missy Slimick, Kim Cornell, Lisa Henley, Barbie Nelson, and Kim Kruger. Sweethearts for the Homecoming queen were: Judy Hood, Diane Kline, Shar Kosto, Kim Kusia, Penny Petoan, Dani Smith, Laura Talbee, Cheryl Phillips, Nancy Androgini, Mary Bounds, Sandy Helsler, Debbie Kruger, Conna Santarsiere and LuAnn Holbrook.

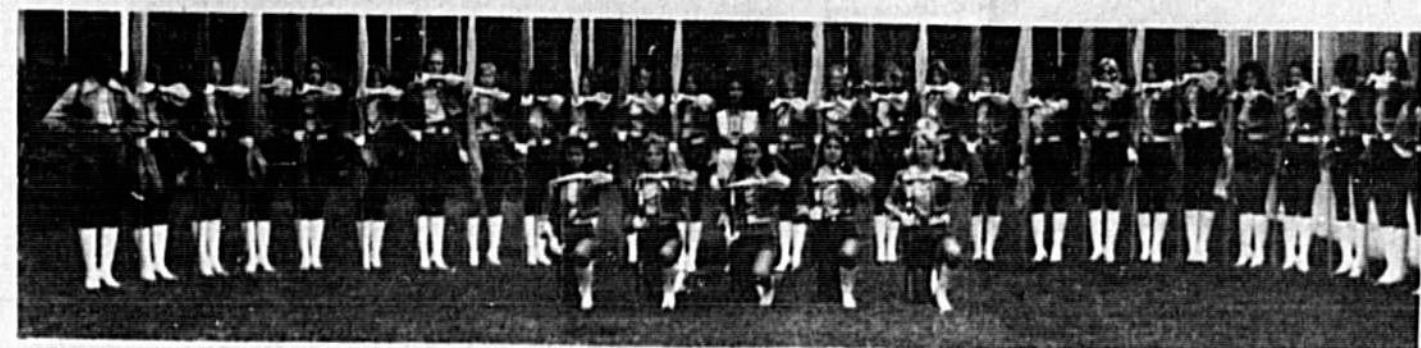

Following the game the Homecoming dance was held at a new location—the Maitland Civic Center, featuring the band "Cat Food."

Class Of '76 A New Life...

Cheerleaders for the year were Missy Slimick, Shar Kosto, Kim Kruger, Barbie Nelson, Lindy Helms and Diane Simpson. The football season came to an end and wrestling season was once again upon us. Senior wrestlers for this year were: Doug Peters, Armando Payas, Greg Lang, Jerry Human, John Nitsch, and Robert Shuster. Doug, Armando, and Greg wrestled their way to the state tournament.

The soccer team played an important part in '76's history this year. The players were: Bill Pace, Dave Dagon, Chris Donaghy, Doug Guthrie, Rusty Hatton, Mike Hockenberry, Tim Murphy, Dennis O'Keefe, Ron Prager, Bob Riazzi, and Steve Tyre. Chosen all Metro were Bill Pace and Chris Donaghy.

Seniors who participated in track and cross country were Tom Herron, Al Stanley, Jerry Human, James Barron, Doug Peters, Armando Payas and Bruce Elwood.

Swimmers were: Becky Platt, Mike Dew, Bob Brinker, Curtis Wagner, Barry Jacobson and Scott Cruickshank.

In the spring there was baseball. Seniors who participated were Craig Smith, Phil Nelson, Scott Clark, Jeff Hodges, Mickey Manning, Mike Meeks, Mike Foyck, Lonnie Peeler, Dell Hatfield, Buster Lefwich and David Fender.

Varsity basketball players included Bernard Wright, Jon Kaufman, Clyde Hudson, Kevin Horne and Randy Taylor. Letters went to those who showed their athletic ability. Chosen to receive them were Steve Ashby, Greg Sandfield, Brian Bentley, James Barron, Kevin Burns, Ronnie Duncan, Tom Herron, Jerry Human, Steve Lang, Bob Lurah, Kevin Luby, Mickey Manning, Don Miller, Armando Payas, Steve Peevrey, Lonnie Peeler, Doug Peters, Ken Place, Bob Riazzi, Craig Smith, Al Stanley, and Ken Weineschke.

Special recognition went to: Bob Riazzi - Most Improved Football; James Barron - Most Valuable Back Football; Jerry Human - Most Valuable Football; Tom Herron - Most Valuable Cross Country; Chosen for the All-County football team were Al Stanley, Jerry Human and Mickey Manning. Al Stanley and Jerry Human were also chosen for the All-Metro Team.

An important thing to select in your senior year was superlatives.

Chosen "Most School Spirited" were Cindy Copeland and Jim Tipton. Cindy is a member of Civinettes and has been a class officer. Jim is a member of Interact, in "The Company," and a member of Drama Club.

"Most Athletic" are Patty Pyle and Jerry Human. Patty is captain of the girls' basketball team and has participated in powderpuff football. Jerry holds Lyman's discus record, is captain of the varsity football team and on the first string All-Metro football team. He was also sixth in the state last year in weight lifting.

Karen Edwards and Bill Gault are "Most Dependable." Karen is a Civinette and secretary of the senior class. Bill is the president of the senior class, a member of Interact and Honor Society, and was named "Student of the Month" for the month of November 1974. He hopes to attend West Point next year.

Chosen as "Most Sincere" were Cheryl Phillips and Steve Lang. Cheryl is Keyette Sweetheart and played powderpuff football. Steve is a member of FCA, and on the wrestling team and played powderpuff football.

Lisa Henley and Armando Payas are "Most Likely to Succeed." Lisa is Civie Sweetie, Key Club mascot, yearbook editor, a wrestler and a member of the National Honor Society. Payas is president of the Student Council and has been president of the class up to his junior year. He is a member of FCA, Interact, Forensics, Tri-Hi-Y mascot and has been involved in wrestling and cross-country for several years.

"Winnest" seniors are Leslie Giovanetti and Kevin Burns. Leslie is a Civinette and captain of the Wrestletettes. She also played powderpuff football. Kevin is a member of FCA and participated in football, cross country, track and wrestling.

The title of "Friendliest" went to Missy Slimick and Lindsey Peters. Missy has been a cheerleader since her freshman year here at Lyman. She is also involved in Civinettes and was chosen as yearbook sweetheart. Doug is the treasurer of FCA and has been on cross-country and the track team for four years. He's the captain of the wrestling team and placed second in the state.

Lyman's "most attractive" seniors are Fran Doris and Bobby Brinker. Fran is a member of Civinettes and has attended Lyman for two years. Bobby is on the swim team and has attended Lyman four years.

Petra Smykowski and Chip Paschal are "Most Talented." Petra is a member of Drama, Theatians and The Company. Chip is also a member of these clubs and holds the office of President in the Drama club.

"Most Intelligent" are Sue Babish and Rusty Reiter. Sue is a member of National Honor Society and Keyettes and is listed in Who's Who Among High School Students. Last year she received the Spanish award. Rusty, too, is a member of Honor Society and Interact. He was chosen as a national Merit finalist.

Lindy Helms and Armando Payas are Mr. and Miss LHS. Lindy is a varsity cheerleader and a Civinette. Armando was also chosen "Most Likely to Succeed."

Drama was important in our senior year, also. "Barefoot in the Park" opened in November and senior cast members were Barbie Nelson as Corie Eratter, Dana Greenwood as the delivery man, Clark Pickett as Paul Brainer, and Marc Silver as Victor Velasco. The next production the club undertook was "Green-sleeves' Magic." Seniors Julie Schrader - as Princess Mary; and Susan Kelly - as Princess Matilda, were on stage for the show.

Our spring musical was "Fanny Brice." Petra Smykowski as Fanny Brice; Steve Ashby as Nick Arnstein; Chip Paschal as Eddie Ryan; Pat McGuire as Flo Zeigfield; Sue Kevittich as Mrs. O'Mally; Barbie Nelson as Mimsey; Dana Greenwood as the Stage Manager and Becky Lockhart as Emma contrived to the cast.

"The Company," an elite group of singers and dancers performed locally. Senior members were Chip Paschal, Cathy Casselberry, Marty Eblen, Barbie Nelson, Petra Smykowski and Jim Tipton.

Another group of entertainers at Lyman was the Drill Team. Liz Agalliano, Kathie Norton, Kim Kusak, Sandy Helsner, Candy Cianos, Debbie Franklin, Jan Hall, Cynthia Seay, Yvonne Kester, Kim Cornell, Cashie Brown, Sandy Simmons were '76's on the team.

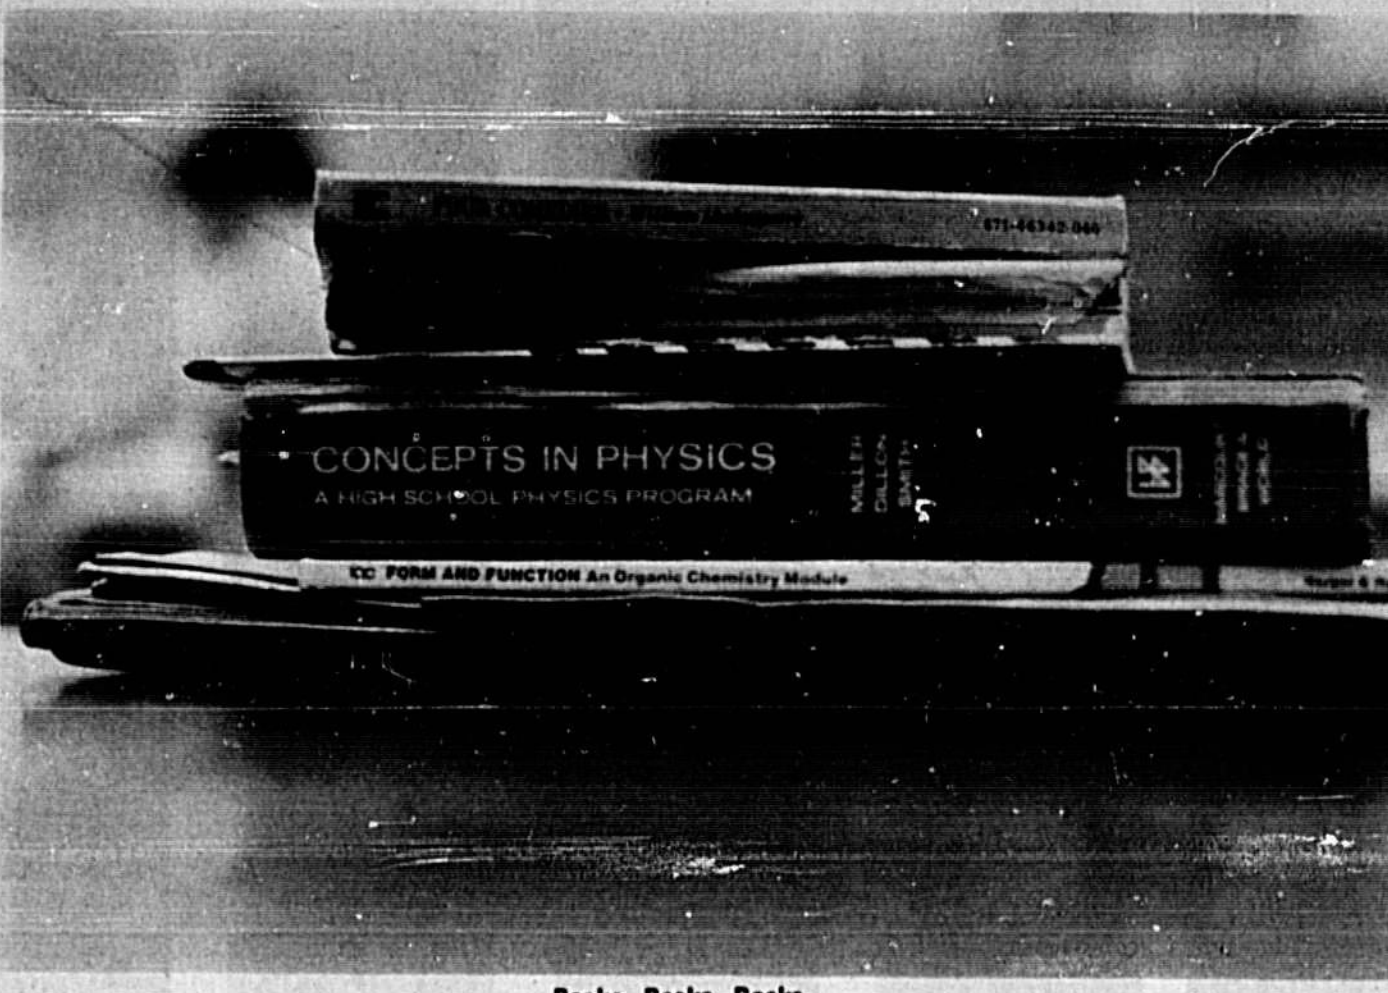

The award-winning concert choir featured seniors Val Mobley, Kurt Bergum, Chip Paschal, Jim Tipton, Jan Reed, Rodney Lark, Mike Stern, Diane Kunkler, Trish McElroy, Ann Callan, Bernice Henry, Merlin Edwards and Malachi Wilson. Activities we enjoyed as seniors included Sadie Hawkins Day, The Dating Game, Donkey Basketball and especially Prom and Grad Night.

The time we spent at Lyman was short as we look back on it now. The moments we spent and enjoyed will be some of the most important in our lives.

We are now ready, so they tell us, to leave Lyman and its meaning behind. We will go into the future aware of ourselves in the same way we came here four years ago.

The class of '76 leaves Lyman and its future to the underclassmen. We can only hope they will enjoy Lyman High School as we have.

Principal Sends Message To Class

Dear Seniors:
For all of those who have worked with you during your school career I extend to each of you, the graduating class of 1976, the heartiest congratulations and the best wishes on the new adventures awaiting you in the years to come. Even though the history of Lake Brantley High School is short, there is no question but that your individual contributions and those of your class have continued in the best of Lake Brantley High School tradition. Your achievements will be a benchmark for classes yet to come.

To list the achievements in the areas of academics, athletics and social concerns would not be possible but you each have reason to be proud of them. I know these years will be in your memories for many years, bringing back fond recollections of friends made and of events shared.

This, your graduation, is both an end and a beginning. You are embarking on major responsibilities requiring major decisions as you determine the direction you intend to take out of the many available. You each have the talents and skills with which to make those decisions and it is our hope and belief that you will find success and happiness in the years to come. With optimism, a positive attitude, and diligence of effort, you can make the future what you wish it to be.

One other unique star that can be carried with you over the years is the fact that you, the graduating class of 1976, share in that great event of the anniversary of our independence. As you graduate on this the bicentennial year determine to protect and defend the principles which have made this nation great and in so doing guarantee to classes yet to come the rights of a free people.

And now on this bright day of your graduation, Good-bye and Good Luck.
Richard A. Barnett, Principal
Lake Brantley High School

Lake Brantley High Class Of 1976

Alma Mater
School of the future Brantley High
We are proud to sing your praise
We gather knowledge through the years
In all of the modern ways
Lake Brantley High School leads the way
Lake Brantley High School here we'll stay
To try our best to learn the most
And be the finest from coast to coast

Being Second No Easy Task For Seniors

Being the second graduating class from Lake Brantley High School isn't always been easy. Having the same senior class for three years can cause problems. The class of '75 was the "ruling" class, they were given credit for setting all the traditions. They said they were something special because they were the first graduating class. Well the class of '76 is special too. We're the first class to start and finish school at Brantley. And we're graduating during the Bicentennial, which is a special year for all us LHS Patriots.

Our freshman year started off at Milwee. We all looked forward to moving to our clean air conditioned, and beautiful Lake Brantley. The big day was Feb. 5, 1973. Our first few days were spent trying to figure out where the next class was and getting used to air conditioning and music between classes. Our fearless leaders that year were Kay Steele, class president, Darlene Barkley, vice president, Susan Mitchell, secretary, Jim Smith, treasurer, and super patriot, Mr. Daugherty, principal.

The officers of '73-76 are George Daugherty, president, Wendy Weis, vice-president, Chris Miller, secretary, Tony Lemus, treasurer, Andy Herrington, Chaplain, and Terry Briganti, historian. Two other people who have guided our class are Mrs. Kline and especially Mrs. Chapman.

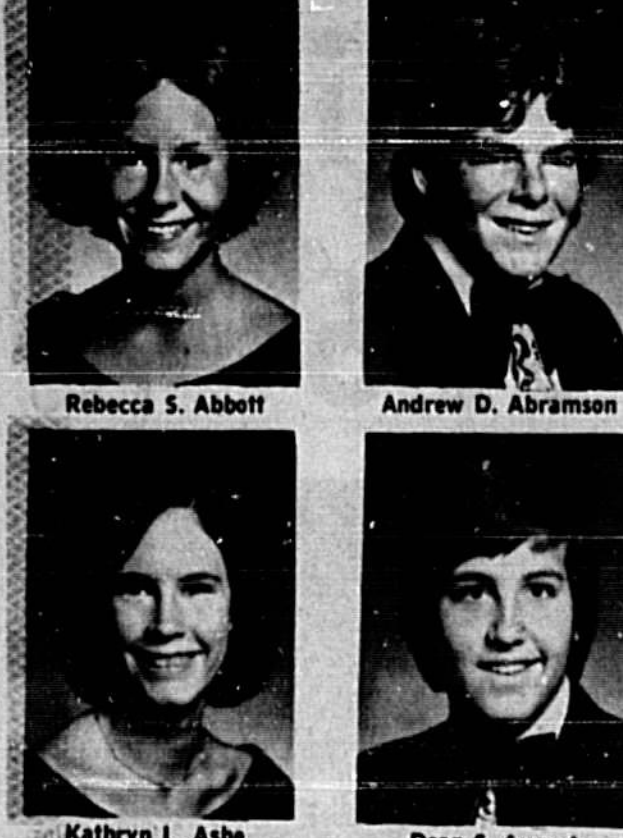

Our senior year has been very busy. Planning the Prom takes a lot of time and effort. It will be held at the Contemporary Hotel at Disney World. The Prom takes a lot of money. Some of our money raising projects have been a "What ever Blows your skirt up dance," car smash at the carnival, student-faculty basketball, and the senior variety show.

Homecoming week was full of crazy antics including the year's powder puff game, 50's day, and the annual super pop rally. Our queen was Becky Hale.

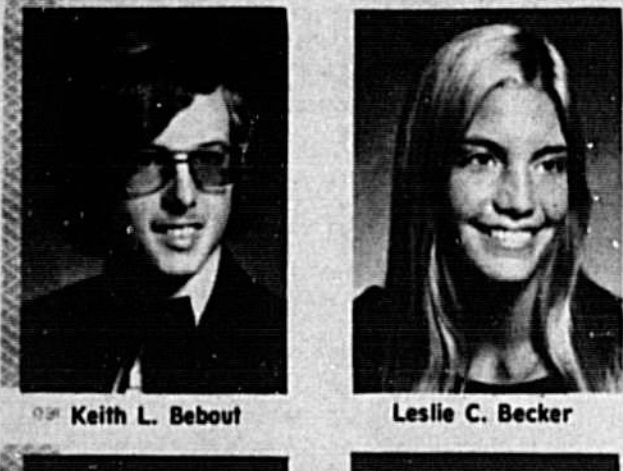

Everyone is looking forward to the June 19 graduation. We have plenty of memories. It'll be good to finally be out of school and maybe a little sad. Once again, homecoming was a big week for us, festivities

OVIEDO HIGH SCHOOL Class Of 1976

PRINCIPAL KEITH STONE

To The Graduates

You have been a very unique class in that you have had the distinction of being the "Bicentennial class" for Oviedo High School. Your class has, throughout this year, experienced an emphasis on an important era of our nation's history. I hope you have had your thoughts elevated in respect to some of the cornerstones of our nation's founding, and that this has led you to a stronger commitment to the principles upon which our nation was established.

It is my hope that you believe that your education while at Oviedo has been relevant to your desires to succeed in the attainment of the goals you have set for your own individual life. Our school staff certainly hopes, also, that your experiences while at Oviedo High have led you to a commitment of involvement as a citizen of our nation. Each of you has a tremendous challenge as you stand on the threshold of a new century in our nation's history to make your heritage ring for yourself and our entire nation.

—Keith Stone, Principal

Bicentennial Class With 300, Largest In Oviedo History

Band is the thing

"Would you believe..."

"All of Oviedo would be in a fix without the Class of '76," is the class cheer of the spirited, Bicentennial Class of Oviedo High School. The great class of '76 is the largest in Oviedo's history producing 300 graduates.

These Bicentennial graduates were led by their president, Bobby Allen who was assisted by the following officers and senior councilmen: Carolyn Arnhem, vice-president, Kim Clark, secretary, Renee Klineck, treasurer, Linda Van Espoel, Pam Duda, LouAnn Summersill, Ned Gudge, Robyn Short, Julie Giddens, Laura Smith, LeeAnn Strohl, and LeeAnn Bongiorno.

With these officers and councilmen the Seniors were led to a blazing victory over the Juniors in the annual bonfire competition with a fortress-looking 22 feet. The bonfire was decorated with a genuine fur lion, modeling his own tailor-made blue denim coveralls. It was by far the best bonfire decorations and bonfire that Oviedo has ever seen. The Homecoming events were climaxed even more with our first time Homecoming Festival instead of the traditional parade, depicting our '76 Homecoming theme, "Thank God I'm a Country Lion."

The moment in the Homecoming festivities that everybody had waited for was the crowning of the '76 Homecoming Queen and the annual dance after the game. At halftime center field of the Homecoming game, Lita Williams was crowned as the 1976 Homecoming Queen. Her escort was Michael Monaco. Lita is an officer in the Science Club, member of the Band, Math Club, and many others. The '76 Court was made up of six beautiful, deserving girls, Laura Smith, Renee Klineck, Kim Clark, Robyn Short, Judy Jones, and Carolyn Arnhem.

As the year was quickly going by the Seniors were busy ordering their graduating announcements, caps, and gowns. This year being the Bicentennial of our nation made us a special class. The Senior Council decided that not for another 100 years would there be another Centennial '76 class, so we decided on red, white, and blue color scheme for our graduating colors. This year the graduates will wear blue for men and white for women, decorated with a red, white, and blue tassel and a special Bicentennial pennant medal that will be a keepsake keyring for all the Oviedo seniors. Due to us being the largest class in Oviedo's history, we will as a first, graduate on the football field, with "Pomp and Circumstance" being played by our own top Marching Lion Band.

As scholars, our Seniors ranked high again with many getting academy appointments, scholarships and awards. For example: Jerry Zayas got an appointment to West Point, Pam Duda won the DAR award, Robyn Short was listed in the Who's Who Among American High School Students, and many others.

Keyettes

The Oviedo Keyettes this year, as always, were a great asset to their school and community. This year's club was headed by president, Pam Duda; vice president, Linda Van Espoel; secretary, Theresa Hilliard, and treasurer, Theresa Perry.

The seniors who were actively involved in Keyettes were Carolyn Arnhem, Lee Ann Bongiorno (senior board member), Sheryl Cuthbert, Suzanne Fisher, Lody Gomez, Debbie Haynes, Laura Smith, Lou Ann Summersill, Sharyn Ward, Charol Genton, Carrie Hunting, Renee Klineck, Debbie Koenig, Linda Olds, and Diane Thomas.

Murder Confession Details How Lake Mary Coed Died

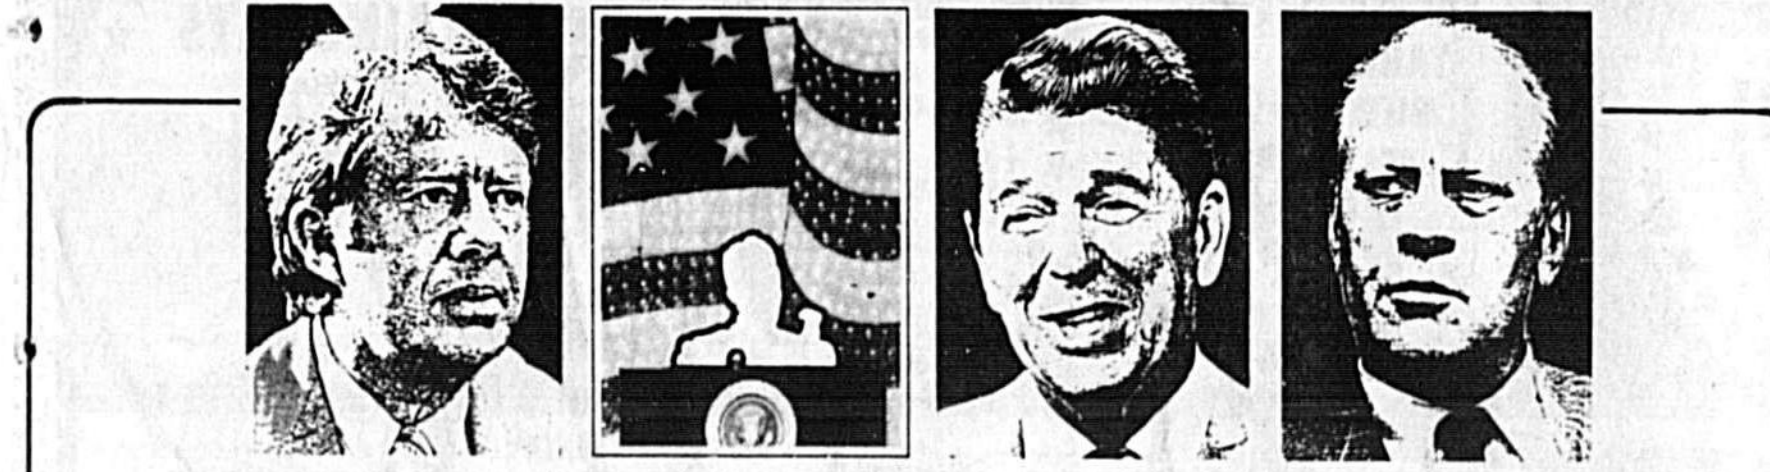

By BOB LLOYD Herald Staff Writer James Douglas Stage, 20-year-old convicted murderer of a Lake Mary woman, was transferred to state prison early today to start serving a life sentence and his confession detailing the April 3 multiple stabbing became public record in court files. Stage pleaded guilty to first-degree murder Monday in the death of Cynthia Louise Duhon, 20, of 338 Country Club Road, Lake Mary. Circuit Judge Robert B. McGregor agreed, as part of plea bargaining efforts, not to sentence Stage to death—the sentence he said he feared. McGregor ordered a pre-sentence investigation on Monday but abruptly changed his mind Tuesday afternoon saying that since he'd already agreed to meet a life sentence there was no need for the investigation for Stage, a Georgia auto theft parolee. Stage, dressed in a grey suit and in leg irons, was quietly brought to the courtroom and sentenced to life imprisonment with a mandatory 25 years to be served before he becomes eligible for parole. Made part of the court records when Stage pleaded guilty was his confession given to Sheriff's Lt. George Abbigy and Lake Mary Police detective George Myers three hours after the slaying. Stage, who had been living for a month with Ms. Duhon, a Seminole Community College student and laboratory assistant, said they had been arguing for a week off and on. The night of April 2 he said he was drinking rum and cola and they argued again. He said he left the white frame house about 6 p.m. and returned just after midnight to see Ms. Duhon making love to another man in the living room. Stage told officers he used his fist to break out a rear door glass and enter the house as the unidentified man, who police were never able to find or substantiate, ran out the front door. Stage said he locked the front door, took out his hunting knife and stabbed the woman he loved. He later fled the house, was treated at a hospital for a cut arm and then turned himself in to police. He told Abbigy that he had planned to flee to California but 'I couldn't do it. I just, I came to my senses.' His account of the murder detailed the frantic screams of the victim and her attempts to escape the knife attack. An autopsy showed she was stabbed 17 times in the chest, neck and back. Stage said he grabbed Ms. Duhon, threw her on the couch and 'stabbed her a few times.' Then he turned the stereo 'up real loud so nobody could hear her screaming.' He said she got off the couch, made it to the front door and tried to unlock it but 'I pulled her back and threw her into a chair and I stabbed her some more.' 'And then she was just sitting there, and I didn't know if she was dead or not, so I grabbed her, yanked her and she fell on the floor.' Stage later told the court he couldn't remember the victim screaming. But testimony by several Lake Mary residents, also made public in the court files, told of hearing a woman screaming for 10 minutes. 'Please stop, stop, please don't do it no more.' At sentencing Tuesday afternoon, Stage told the court he didn't tell police he 'threw her on the couch and stabbed her some more.' 'That would have hung me right there,' Stage told the court. 'I saw the evidence... that's why I pleaded guilty.' Two court-appointed psychiatrists said Stage was sane when the crime was committed and is sane now. 'Who are psychiatrists to say I was sane when it happened?' Stage asked the court. 'When advised of his right to appeal the case, Stage without visible emotion retorted, 'What use would it be?'

A HAPPY DAY FOR THE KIDS It's a happy day for all school children in Seminole County today, 'cause school's out for another summer. These youngsters of Mrs. Patty Swann's third grade class at Pinecrest Elementary school show their joy as they race for home and a summer of fun. Mrs. Swann, in the background, seems perplexed by it all and it's difficult to tell if she's happy it's all over for another year or regretting the entire scene. Herald photo by Bill Vincent Jr.)

County To Refinance $2.4 Million In Bonds

By ED PRICKETT Herald Staff Writer The Seminole County Commission agreed Tuesday to refinance last year's $2.4 million bond issue after an investment firm promised a $625,000 savings to taxpayers by the year 2002. When bonds were sold last year the county was getting 6.37 per cent interest, but an improving market has topped the interest rate to 7.23 per cent. The difference between the two rates will, officials say, provide the $625,000 windfall. Two investment companies that bid on the project have charged the third William R. Hough Co. of Orlando, with violating county guidelines during Hough's presentation which came up with the projected $625,000 windfall. A Hough spokesman denied his firm violated guidelines. 'We stayed within the guidelines,' said George Bland, Hough's spokesman. Bland handled last year's $2.4 million bond sale, the proceeds of which were used to purchase Indian Hills and Consumer Utilities. Commissioners instructed county fiscal agent Emmett Taylor to take the guidelines and Hough's offer to Jacksonville today for review by the county's utility expert.

Filling The Slot: Carter's A Good Bet; But Ford, Reagan Still Slugging It Out

By The Associated Press Jimmy Carter, at best an outsider when the primaries began, has capped his run from nowhere with a delegate haul that puts him within a few quick moves of the Democratic presidential nomination. For the Republicans, the end of the primaries means a continuation of Ronald Reagan's challenge to President Ford. Carter won only in Ohio of the three big states that held primaries on Tuesday. But he picked up more than 200 delegates, and all his rivals but one seemed ready to concede him the nomination. The one who said he won't quit chasing Carter is Jerry Brown, who bag in his home state of California and was joined with Hubert Humphrey as preferred candidates on an uncommitted delegate slate that won in New Jersey. 'I will go forward,' Brown said. 'I think the nomination is still open.' Humphrey said today he will confer with Brown and Carter before announcing his own

Jail Fire Claimed 11 Lives One Year Ago Today

By BILL CURRIE Managing Editor One year ago today (June 9, 1975), what appeared to be another nuisance fire broke out at the Seminole County jail. This one, however, wasn't just another fire started by inmates at the jail just to gain someone's attention. Before the day was out, 10 prisoners and a jailer were to die in the holocaust. The fire started when an inmate, who was to eventually perish in the smoke-filled jail, set a stack of foam rubber mattresses smoldering outside his cell on the second floor hospital cellblock. Jailer Robert O. Moore, 40, of Longwood, was pronounced dead on arrival at a hospital. He gave his life while saving an undetermined number of the 48 prisoners housed in the facility by leading and dragging them to safety. Shortly after noon, the first cries of 'fire' were heard and jailers — including Robert O. Moore who died in the fire — began moving prisoners out. Thick smoke and darkness inside the jail swelled throughout the building, making rescue attempts difficult. Moore, using special oxygen equipment, continued to lead the way for the prisoners and jailers until his life-preserving air pack was almost empty. But he went back into the smoke-filled jail, looking for more prisoners. He was found by other rescuers, overcome by the heavy smoke, on the jail floor a short time later. It was determined that the inmate who started the fire saved 10 or 15 and then went back for more. He was a helluva guy. Chief Deputy Duane Harrell said, 'He (Moore) must have managed to get the flame started by reaching through a cell foot pass-through door. Ray McCall, a 16-year-old who was being held pending his trial as an adult in circuit court on a grand jury indictment for robbery, was said to be responsible for starting the inferno. George Proudfoot, county jail administrator, said Deputy Sheriff Fred Brittain and Frank Moore had reported to Sheriff Moore that McCall was five minutes before the fire broke out that McCall was 'very mad and upset over the continuance of his trial.' Proudfoot said there had been previous trouble with McCall, including the smashing of a television set. Although the fire was confined to the hospital cellblock, intense heat caused fire that charred books, tables and materials in the adjacent 'classroom cell' that could hold at least 25 persons. Acoustical tiles on the steel walls were charred and popped off and paint blistered and hung in ripped sheets from the walls. A state fire marshal said he believed that temperatures in the hospital cells reached as much as 1,700 degrees when the foam, plastic-coated mat-

THE CLASS OF '76 Graduation Exercises Scheduled Thursday

Over 1,650 diplomas will be presented to 1976 graduates at four county high schools at commencement exercises Thursday.
