The GLORIOUS go FORTH

No one can deny they've taken their place in the sun—these brilliant American women. A week-day finds them, as a matter of course, light-heartedly as-suming a full share of the work and responsibility of this busy world. But a holiday sees them off with equal enthusiusm for a carefree playtime. Fresh—relaxed—youthful—they hall the freedom of field and road and beach and the pursuit of happiness.

Gone are the green veils and timid gestures of other days. Gone the dull complexions—and the dragging old-fashioned grind of duty that kept them prisoners from the sun. Nowadays woman's work is dune—and done in time for a wave and a beauty treatment.

How? By keeping herself posted on the nevert ways to do things—the time-savers, beauty builders, feminine aits and ailles. By renting, studying, comparing and experimenting—in the salverthing pages of this very neverpaper. Advantating in writing a great space of the modern woman's independence pro-

Tiring of waiting one night last March in his wife's automobile, parked near a fashionable hotel at Miami Beach, Edgar said he began to walk about the hotel grounds.

"Then I heard a voice that resembled hers," he recounted. "It came from a corner f the building. The window was half-opened. I looked in. I was amezed to see her and another man."

Edgar said he found in his petite former wife's handbag a note reading:
