Sanford Picks McClanahan, Eckstein

'Smear, Whisper' Campaign Unveiled

By Karen Talley
Herald Staff Writer

A last minute "smear and whisper campaign" was launched by City Commissioner John Mercer in an effort to help incumbent Milton Smith retain his commission seat, according to A.A. McClanahan, who defeated Smith Tuesday.

McClanahan will begin serving with Mercer Jan. 6 and said his acceptance speech at that night's commission meeting will include comments about alleged "unethical and unprofessional" tactics Mercer "was knee deep in" just prior to Tuesday's election.

McClanahan has already discussed the matter in some detail with the Sanford Herald. Mercer has as well, after a bit of initial hedging. Smith, meanwhile, is distancing himself from the dispute.

Mercer says although he did campaign for Smith by phone — and feels he was justified in doing so — his efforts did not involve personal attacks on McClanahan.

McClanahan disagrees and calls Mercer's alleged statements to voters "unethical and unprofessional, especially from a city representative."

McClanahan also terms "an outright lie" a statement Mercer attributes to McClanahan about his wanting a commission seat "to ease into retirement."

According to Mercer, McClanahan "said that to me," and Mercer says he "might" have relayed the alleged comment to voters during campaign phone calls on Smith's behalf.

"That's an outright lie," McClanahan says.

Results Said To Send A Message

Former city commissioner A.A. McClanahan coasted back into Sanford government Tuesday with an impressive run-off victory over incumbent District 3 Commissioner Milton Smith. Voters supported McClanahan by almost a two to one margin.

In District 4, Seminole County High School teacher Whitey Eckstein squeaked past Sanford businesswoman Dot Meadors by a 49 vote margin to take the seat incumbent Dave Farr is voluntarily vacating after eight years.

The city's newly elected commissioners will serve four year terms, beginning Jan. 6. They'll be paid $4,800 annually.

The victors expressed elation about their wins and said they're eager to assume their municipal responsibilities.

Their opponents voiced disappointment about their losses, but combined the sentiments with well wishes for the new commissioners.

McClanahan beat six-year veteran Smith by more than 200 votes, in an election that marked his fifth attempt to regain a seat after serving as city commissioner from 1971-78.

McClanahan ran unsuccessfully for a commission spot at two year intervals, from 1978 to 1984.

He received 464 votes, or 64 percent of the 722 ballots cast Tuesday. Smith garnered 36 percent of voter's support with 258 ballots. Of District 3's 2,414

Gunter Downs Goldberg In Longwood Race

By Jane Casselberry
Herald Staff Writer

Longwood Mayor Larry Goldberg was defeated 627 to 410 in a run-off election Tuesday for the District 5 City Commission seat by challenger Dave Gunter. There was a 22 percent turnout for the run-off, the same as voted in the Dec. 2 election and just as predicted by City Clerk Don Terry. Longwood has 4,730 registered voters and a population of 15,000.

Gunter, who in the last few months has not only taken Goldberg and the other city commissioners to task for their actions, but to court as well, will now get his chance at helping run the city. He has vowed to oust all of the commissioners at the polls and incumbent District 3 Commissioner Perry Faulkner also lost on Dec. 2.

In practical politics, to put through his ideas Gunter must have three votes, which will require getting the cooperation of the other three commission members he has vowed to defeat.

There were 995 votes cast at the polls plus 45 absentee ballots for a total of 1,040 votes total. Gunter, 47, of 1068 Cheltenham Court, received 60.5 percent of the vote as compared to 49 percent on Dec. 2 in the three-man race. Goldberg, 47, of 940 Waverly Drive, received 39.5 percent compared to 33.5 percent in the first election.

A former city commissioner, Bill Mitchell, the third candidate for District 5, was eliminated in the first go-round, but threw his support to Goldberg.

Gunter and Goldberg faced each other in a run-off two years ago after eliminating Mitchell, but the results were just the opposite then.

"I take comfort in the fact that the people put their trust and confidence in me," Gunter said, "and I appreciate everybody getting out again and voting for me. I'm proud to be in there to do a good job. We walked, we talked and we called over the last 10 days and the people on the street were grand and I was well received. They seemed to be interested in what was going on."

Goldberg said he was "just in shock. This past commission has done a lot of wonderful things. I don't know how or why he got the votes, but I hope and pray the commission will move forward and keep the town going forward. The present commission has worked extremely hard. I think Mr. Gunter misrepresented the facts to the people."

A 13-year Longwood resident, Goldberg is self-employed and has served as mayor this year and deputy mayor last year. He previously was on the city commission 1976 to 1979.

Gunter, who only moved to the city three years ago, is owner of Gunter Printing and is a sales representative for Lawton Brothers. He is a past member of the Seminole County Port Authority and the Altamonte Springs Code Enforcement Board.

City commissioners serve two-year terms and receive $4,200 annually. Candidates must live in the district for which they are running, but are elected by the city at-large.

Commission Denies Cosmetic Revisions

By Jane Casselberry
Herald Staff Writer

Frank L. Schrimsher, owner/developer of a $4.5 million Longwood shopping center, said Tuesday he was "surprised and disappointed" that the Longwood City Commission turned down his request to make cosmetic revisions in the design of the facade of the center, but "it's a new day and we'll adjust."

Plaza del Sol is a mediterranean style mini-mall on State Road 434.

"We will do what the city said it wanted it to look like to start with," Schrimsher said. "Our architect and engineer will give us the instructions on how to proceed in accordance with approved plan."

The original design had called for glassed-in arches and a fountain, but he said changes were proposed in response to the market place. "The trend now is to point-of-purchase shopping and shoppers are spending less time in the malls. With more women working they are shopping more like men, going directly to one or two stores where they can find the item they want to buy. So we determined the access would be enhanced by having open arches because the glass would limit access. It had nothing to do with the structure, it is just the topcoat and hat."

Schrimsher said there is some cost differential between the two designs, but as a practical matter cost was not a determining factor. It was the best way to meet the needs of the clients and the customers, he explained.

Schrimsher said the presentation of the new elevation designs compared to the original ones was shown to all of the commissioners except the mayor and all but one said they had no objections. The proposed revision had already been through the staff design review board and there were no objections.

Because of this, he said, he was somewhat surprised at the 4-1 vote to deny his request Monday night. Commissioner Ed Myers, who said he preferred the new design, voted against denying. "I can see the reason for the change," Myers said, "it would be easier to get in without the glass and more accessible for the fire department in the event of a fire."

Deputy Mayor June Lormann, who was presiding, because Mayor Larry Goldberg was suffering from laryngitis, also said she liked the revisions, but voted against them.

James Zinkel, architect for Plaza del Sol, looks shocked as Longwood City Commission denies request for changes on facade. The drawings on top are the original design and the ones underneath are the proposed changes.

In his recommendation to the commission, City Planner Chris Nagle stated the commission approved the project site plan with the building having an air-conditioned interior corridor as part of the "upscale mini-mall." The proposed architectural changes to the front building facade would enable the deletion of the enclosed interior corridor and the interior fountain, he stated. The changes are based on the applicant's desire to reduce building construction and maintenance costs and therefore leasing charges to prospective center tenants. From SR 434, the proposed facade changes should not appear substantial. Due to the overall up-scale appearance of the building, I do not object to the proposed changes from a design perspective."

Code Board Passes Hotel Issue Back

By Deane Jordan
Herald Staff Writer

Muddled communication and a questioned decision prompted a bickering Sanford's Code Enforcement Board to ask the city commission to clarify its position and city staff communications about a hotel that has been cited for alleged violations of city ordinances.

On a vote of 4-0 with new member Willie King abstaining and members Bob McKee and Ron Dycus absent, the board put the controversial issue of the Florida Hotel, 500 Oak Ave., back into the city commission's lap for clarification. The board failed to pass a motion to wash its hands of the entire issue and let the city commission resolve how much in fines hotel owner Peggy Nestor owes.

The hotel was cited this fall for a variety of violations, including lack of occupational license, fire safety hazards and parking problems. When Mrs. Nestor failed to bring the hotel into compliance with the city code, the board levied daily fines.

At issue Tuesday during a regular meeting of the board at Sanford City Hall was how much in fines does Mrs. Nestor owe the city and for what infractions.

The simple question did not have a simple answer apparently because of different decisions by the board and the city commission influencing each other, plus interloping of the city hall staff on the issue.

Donna McIntosh, counsel for the board, said Mrs. Nestor owes a maximum fine of $1,325 for not installing fire doors on Sept. 16. The fine ran $25-a-day until Oct. 13 when Mrs. Nestor received a waiver from the city commission to put in a sprinkler system.

How much she owes for parking code violations is unknown because it is not known when the cited violation ceased. The hotel was cited Oct. 15 and sometime before Oct. 30 the parking situation was cleared up, according to the city staff, though that was not relayed to officials in writing until Nov. 20. When the fine is determined, it will probably run from the 15th to the date of completion, Mrs. McIntosh said. The city had asked Mrs. Nestor to put in curbs, limestone and mulch at the hotel to help solve the parking situation.

Mrs. McIntosh said she and city commission counsel William Colbert have further decided Mrs. Nestor does not owe a fine

County OKs Flea World Expansion

By Diane Petryk
Herald News Editor

Flea World's expansion plans, subject to stipulations, got the final go-ahead Tuesday by unanimous vote of the Seminole County Commission.

Only one neighboring homeowner, Helene Pratt of Sunland Estates, voiced concern over the plan, expressing skepticism that if such expansion could be accommodated with the stipulated limit of 15,000 gallons per day septic tank usage.

County staff replied that water usage would be closely monitored at the site and explained that Flea World owner Sid Levy had pre-paid to connect to sewer service when it becomes available, perhaps in less than a year.

With resignation, Ms. Pratt indicated the Flea World expansion would reduce property values for nearby homeowners.

Commissioner Bill Kirchhoff attempted to get Levy to agree to no future development on about eight acres on the eastern boundary of the Flea World property adjacent to Sunland Estates, but settled for a verbal assurance such development is unlikely.

Levy's lawyer, Miranda Fitzgerald, said he would not be willing to encumber that property "merely because it would serve as a nice buffer to a residential area."

Levy, in the audience, said, "the land is so far removed from the Flea World development there is no chance it would be used for anything commercial." He added that it couldn't be anyway, without a request coming before the commission first.

Under the expansion plan, Flea World will grow from a 185,000-square-foot open and partially enclosed market with 2,500 parking spaces on 33 acres to a 305,000-square-foot facility with 3,500 parking spaces on 103 acres.

To be added to the market, located off U.S. Highway 17-92 at County Home Road southeast of Sanford, is a 90,000-square-foot exhibition hall, 30,000-square-foot warehousing facility and 1,000 unpaved parking spaces. But not all of the 103 acres

Man In Garterbelt Arrested

Seminole County sheriff's deputy Blair Davison responded to a burglar alarm at a home off Tuakawilla Road in southeast Seminole County at about 7:48 p.m. Monday. He found in a van parked outside that home a man dressed only in a black and red garterbelt.

When ordered out of the vehicle the man first put on pants then went to the front of the van, where Davison reported he appeared to be hiding something.

Davison saw a bag of suspected cocaine in the van and a syringe near where the suspect had been in the rear of the van.

The man was arrested and in a search of the van additional cocaine was reportedly found along with drug paraphernalia.

Employees of Circle K, 5009 Howell Branch Road, Goldenrod, have given Seminole County sheriff's investigators the names of two possible suspects who may be linked to a safecracking at that store at about midnight Monday.

The same suspects may also be linked to other burglaries and thefts from Circle K stores, a sheriff's report said.

In the Monday incident the store was entered through the roof and a safe moved from the front of the store to the back, where it was pried open. An undetermined amount of cash and merchandise was stolen from the safe.

Monday, trees that Newberg reportedly identified as his were brought to his lot by a suspect in the theft case. Monday Newberg and a sheriff's deputy went to a Christmas tree lot in Seminole County, which is operated by the man who allegedly delivered the stolen trees back to Newberg. At that suspect's tree lot additional trees, which Newberg reportedly identified through paint markings and tags as his and which he said he had not sold to the suspect, were recovered.

Deputy Acts Quickly In Alleged Rape Try

Seminole County sheriff's deputy Charles Coyne heard a police radio report describing a suspect in an attempted rape and an aggravated assault in Altamonte Springs, and while listening to the report he spotted a car that matched the description of the suspects.

When Coyne stopped that car on Blake Street in Altamonte Springs at about 2:40 a.m. Tuesday the driver got out of the passenger side door and said the "driver" had fled. Coyne, who had been watching the car, reported that no one other than the suspect had been seen in the car just before he stopped the vehicle.

The victim of the alleged assault and attempted sexual assault was brought to Blake Street where she reportedly identified the suspect as the man who hit her with a nightstick, while she was in a car with him on North Street at Marker Street at about 2:20 a.m.

The 18-year-old victim had reported to sheriff's deputies that the man tried to force her to perform a sex act. He allegedly grabbed her by her hair and hit her on the shoulder with the club when she refused. She escaped from the car and sheriff's deputies were called to the area.

Deputies reported finding a tuft of hair on the floor of the suspect's car. It reportedly looked as though it came from the victim's head. A nightstick was also found in the car, and the victim reportedly identified it along with the suspect.

Terry Carlos Philpott, 18, of 520 Lyman Ave., Winter Park, has been charged with aggravated assault and attempted sexual battery. He was being held in lieu of $10,000 bond.

Sanford Couple Charged With Theft From Mother

By Susan Loden
Herald Staff Writer

A Sanford woman has been arrested on charges of grand theft, burglary and five counts of forgery in connection with thefts and burglaries at her mother's home. And the young woman's husband has been charged with grand theft in connection with the case.

Jodi Getman Johnson, 20, of 900 Santa Barbara Drive, has been charged with two counts of burglary, two counts of grand theft, and five counts each of forgery, uttering a forgery and petty theft.

She is accused of on Dec. 13 and Dec. 14 entering without permission the home of her mother, Viki Getman, 101 E. Airport Blvd., Sanford, and stealing a purse on each occasion. In the first instance, the stolen purse and its contents were valued at $667. In the second incident, a purse containing $300 was stolen, according to Sanford police.

Mrs. Johnson's husband, James Robert Johnson, 20, of 822 Sarita St., Sanford, has been charged with grand theft in connection with the case. He is accused of receiving some of the stolen money and was being held without bond. He was out of jail on bond when arrested in this case at Mrs. Johnson's home at 900 Santa Barbara Drive at about 10:15 p.m. Tuesday, although police have the Sarita Street address on his arrest sheet. He had been released on $1,000 bond on Oct. 30 on charges of attempted burglary and burglary in connection the Oct. 17 break-in of Ideal Tune-Up, 2600 Orlando Drive, Sanford, and the attempted burglary of Budget Optical, next door.

Mrs. Johnson was arrested at her home at 10:16 p.m. Tuesday and was being held in lieu of $5,000 bond.

The arrests were made after Mrs. Getman went to her daughter's home and reportedly recovered one of the purses which she had reported stolen in burglaries to her home. Police had been contacted by Mrs. Getman and were waiting outside of her daughter's home when she went to get the purse.

Mrs. Johnson is also accused of forging five checks for $100 each, drawn on her mother's bank account and cashed at several supermarkets in Sanford.

The couple is expected to have an initial court appearance some time today.

Man Accused Of Relations With 12-Year-Old

A 22-year-old Maitland man is being held in lieu of $10,000 bond charged in connection with allegedly having sex at least twice with a 12-year-old girl in her Longwood home.

Both the girl and the suspect have allegedly told Seminole County sheriff's investigators that she agreed to have sex and let the man into her bedroom through a window on other occasions after they first had intercourse during the second week of November.

He allegedly returned to the home during the night on other occasions and was reportedly let in through a bedroom window by the girl who allegedly then consented to further sexual activity with the suspect.

John Kenneth Cheeseman, of 108 Oakhaven Drive, was arrested Monday. He has been charged with carnal intercourse and lewd and lascivious assault on a child.

Fog Shrouds Many States

By United Press International

Thick fog that forced major airports to delay or cancel scores of flights and caused a grain ship to plow into a wharf in New Orleans shrouded a third of the nation again today, stretching from the Gulf of Mexico to the Great Lakes.

The fog, which also covered parts of the Great Basin and the Pacific Northwest, was attributed to high pressure systems across the nation during the past few days that have allowed moisture and pollutants to build up in the atmosphere.

"We haven't had any major (weather) systems come through to move out the moisture," said Pete Reynolds of the weather service. "The moisture has accumulated over a period of time, and there hasn't been anything to really dry it out."

By Tuesday night, thick fog blanketed parts of Texas and Louisiana, and settled over the central Plains and Great Lakes regions. Fog also extended from the Pacific Northwest into Idaho.

Elsewhere, snow dusted northwest Utah and eastern Washington state, and up to 6 inches was expected in the mountains of Arizona. In the Northeast, snow fell in New York and central New England.

On Tuesday, fog over Salt Lake City International Airport forced the cancellation of about half of the scheduled 185 departures. Director Louis Miller said.

At Chicago's O'Hare International Airport, the nation's busiest, fog reduced visibility to one-half mile Tuesday, causing delays of up to 25 minutes on departing flights. About 10 flights en route to nearby Midway Airport were diverted to other airports as visibility was reduced to one-quarter mile.

Fog forced delays and cancellations at Lambert-St. Louis International Airport in St. Louis, Mo., and flights were delayed at Lincoln Municipal Airport in Lincoln, Neb. Offutt Air Force Base near Omaha, Neb., was nearly shut down.

An 800-foot-long Yugoslavian grain ship heavily damaged about 150 feet of the St. Andrews Street wharf on the banks of the Mississippi River in New Orleans, La., late Tuesday. Tug crewmen said the captain apparently could not see the wharf through the fog when he turned. No one was injured.

In Utah, some minor traffic accidents were attributed to the fog, which brought traffic to a near standstill on Interstate 15, the Utah Highway Patrol said. Minor fog-related accidents were also reported in Missouri.

A passenger suffered a broken leg and a flight attendant sustained a head wound requiring 25 stitches when a United Airlines Boeing 727 was shaken by severe air turbulence, the company said.

The incident occurred when Flight 482 from Seattle was making its approach to Anchorage International Airport with 102 people aboard Monday night, officials said Tuesday.

At least eight people were hurt, and the woman with the broken leg, Olyvia Westcott, 73, of North Pole, Alaska, was listed in serious condition at Providence Hospital.

The airliner "came across some severe air turbulence that shook up the plane and passengers pretty hard," Federal Aviation Administration spokesman Paul Beaulieu said.

Southern Air President To Testify In Iran Arms Scandal

MIAMI (UPI) — The president of Southern Air Transport, a cargo plane company allegedly involved in the delivery of arms to Iran and to the Nicaraguan contras, says he plans to testify willingly in three investigations.

William G. Langton said Tuesday he will discuss Southern's activities before a federal grand jury in Miami and the intelligence committees of the House and Senate in Washington.

"Am I going to cooperate? Absolutely, absolutely," Langton said. "I would respond freely to all questions at any hearing."

Chiles Supports Limited Immunity

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — Sen. Lawton Chiles, D-Fla., supported President Reagan's call for limited immunity for two former national security advisers but warned of a possible budget battle between the president and Congressional Democrats.

Adm. John Poindexter and Lt. Col. Oliver North have both been implicated in the Iran arms affair but have declined to testify before Congressional committees, claiming their constitutional right against self-incrimination.

"It's more important to get the story out than to use the information against those fellows. It's paralyzing the president, it's paralyzing the administration," Chiles said.

Chiles was in the state capital Tuesday to address a group of business and government leaders. Chiles is slated to become Senate Budget Committee chairman Jan. 3.

$10 Million Gambling Ring Broken

FORT PIERCE (UPI) — A sports gambling operation that investigators say did business worth $10 million a year by telephone was broken up with the arrest of six people, officials said Tuesday.

"Certain clients or customers were given numbers and when they called, they gave the bookie their number and placed a bet," said Lou Ericsson, spokesman for the St. Lucie County Sheriff's office.

PSC Orders $59.9 Million Long Distance Rate Cuts

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — The order takes effect to challenge the action, commission staff said. Florida customers would save up to $59.9 million on long distance telephone rates beginning Feb. 1 under a 12.7 percent rate reduction approved by the Public Service Commission.

The action approved Monday would cut the charges local telephone companies make to long distance companies for use of the local telephone network to reach long distance customers. Most of the savings would be passed on to long distance customers.

The 13 local phone companies expected to lose money under the order will have 21 days after the order takes effect to challenge the action, commission staff said.

AT&T, which controls 92 percent of the long distance business in Florida, would cut its rates by $52.5 million when the order is fully implemented. Staff said the commission does not regulate rates for 13 other long distance companies, but it was expected competitive pressure would force them to cut their rates.

More than 80 percent of the reductions would go to toll calls. The rest would be applied to WATS service.

Koop Reports To Congress

Second-Hand Smoke Linked To Diseases

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Surgeon General C. Everett Koop concluded Tuesday that healthy people who do not smoke can develop lung cancer and other diseases simply by inhaling smoke from others.

The findings, included in a report to Congress, were Koop's toughest statements yet on the now dangerous "passive smoke" was to non-smokers.

"Involuntary smoking is a cause of disease, including lung cancer. In healthy non-smokers," the 332-page study concluded, adding that the smoke also was a cause of respiratory problems, especially among children of smoking parents.

Simply separating smokers and non-smokers in the same room would not eliminate the problem of passive smoke, the study said.

There have been numerous studies on the dangers of passive smoke, but Koop said the new report was the first surgeon general's study "that identifies a chronic disease risk resulting from exposure to tobacco smoke for individuals other than smokers."

Koop, known for his strong opposition to smoking, said he hoped the report would lead to actions by government and others in the next year to curb the amount of smoke in public places.

"It is now clear that disease risk due to the inhalation of tobacco smoke is not limited to the individual who is smoking, but can extend to those who inhale tobacco smoke emitted into the air," said the report, which was the 18th study from the surgeon general's office on the consequences of smoking.

Koop called for a cooperative effort to eliminate smoke in the workplace and said new policies should not be designed to "punish" smokers. Nonetheless, he stressed that "the right of smokers to smoke ends where their behavior affects the health and well-being of others."

Simply separating smokers and non-smokers in the same room would not eliminate the problem of passive smoke, study says.

The American Heart Association, the American Cancer Society, the American Lung Association and other similar groups immediately hailed the report and called for quick passage of legislation to further limit smoking in public places.

Rep. James Scheuer, D-N.Y., and Sen. Orrin Hatch, R-Utah, said they would introduce various bills next year to limit public smoking, including on airline flights.

Hatch, who will be the ranking Republican next year on the Senate Labor and Human Resources Committee, said his bill would ban smoking on all public conveyances, such as airplanes, buses and trains.

Scheuer, a member of the House Energy and Commerce Committee, said he would propose bills to ban smoking on domestic airline flights and in most parts of federal buildings.

But the Tobacco Institute attacked the study as a political document designed to further Koop's anti-smoking campaign.

The institute contends Koop has ignored differing scientific data. Spokesman Scott Stapf said Koop was trying to "manufacture the ammunition" against smoking.

will be developed. Thirty-five acres will be dedicated to the county as a drainage water conservation easement.

Levy must also meet a myriad of conditions. He must install, maintain and pay the electric bill for a traffic signal on U.S. Highway 17-92 if one is needed due to the expansion. He must construct turn lanes and a 5-foot wide sidewalk along the property fronting U.S. Highway 17-92.

Levy must also monitor water quality and air quality at the site, pay applicable impact fees and agree there will be no market access from County Road 427 to the rear of the development.

Tuesday consideration of the expansion was part of the second public hearing on the matter. It had been heard by the county in September as part of requests for amendments to the county's Comprehensive Plan, sent to the state Department of Community Affairs, where no objection was raised, and faced a county Planning and Zoning board scrutiny. Earlier it had been hotly contested by area homeowners who said the development was too intense for septic tank service and expressed concern over its impact on the environment and area traffic problems.

Vogt's Election As Senate President A Double Blessing

Seminole County is twice blessed. First, Bobby Brantley was elected lieutenant governor of Florida. He had served ably as the state representative from the 27th House District which includes portions of Seminole County.

Then, the State Senate elected John Vogt, D-Cocoa Beach, as its president for the coming sessions. Mr. Vogt serves in the senate representing the 17th district which includes all of Sanford, Casselberry and much of the remainder of the county. It also includes portions of Brevard, Orange and Osceola counties.

Mr. Brantley describes the election of Mr. Vogt to head the senate as "exciting" and "positive." We couldn't agree more.

Mr. Vogt called for increased spending and concerns for crime four years ago, long before the bandwagon effect we saw in this fall's campaigning. Mr. Vogt was concerned about pollution and the quality of life for the citizens, not only of our district, but of the entire state. He called early for a revolving loan fund to be made available to local governments for waste water treatment plants. It has been this type of vision that has propelled him into the forefront of legislators and kept him in positions of leadership since his first election to the post in 1972.

The Florida Chamber of Commerce honored Mr. Vogt this year for his outstanding leadership in quality of life and economic development legislation. It presented the distinguished lawmaker with the chamber's Quality of Life Legislation Award. He is also credited with leadership in the passage of legislation governing growth management.

And Tuesday, the Greater Sanford Chamber of Commerce also unanimously passed a resolution honoring Sen. Vogt, congratulating him and expressing its appreciation of this fine legislator. Sen. Vogt will serve as installing officer at the Sanford chamber's annual installation of Officers banquet on Jan. 9.

We too congratulate Mr. Vogt on his election as president of the Florida Senate. We also congratulate all citizens of the 17th Senatorial District for having such a capable legislator representing their interests in Tallahassee.

We look forward to the next session of the legislature and to the administration of Bob Martinez and Bobby Brantley at the helm of our state government.

We view our twin blessings as "positive" and "exciting."

"A Peaceful Ending at Midnight" read the headline in The Times of London the January morning after King George V died in 1936. The story described a death fit for a king: the royal family's vigil, a bedside prayer by the archbishop of Canterbury, a last royal inquiry about the state of his kingdom ("How is the Empire?"), then a quiet slipping away to rest. It was almost too good to be true.

In fact, it wasn't true. "It was evident that the last stage might endure for many hours, unknown to the patient but little comporting with the dignity and serenity which he so richly merited and which demanded a brief final scene," wrote the royal physician that evening about the king, comatose and dying. And so, according to the physician's notes, revealed recently in England, the king was injected with Morphine and cocaine to hasten his "peaceful ending" in time for it to be announced "in the morning papers rather than the less appropriate evening journals." In death, as in life, a king had standards to uphold and deadlines to meet.

The news still has power to shock. Contrary to the physician's expectation 50 years ago, euthanasia is no less controversial today than it was then. Nor has a half-century of revelations about the machinery of royalty, a device for making mere mortals into persons larger than life, quite prepared us for the notion that the dignity of the monarchy required a king's death to be speeded so it could be proclaimed on the front page of The Times, not some tatty Fleet Street afternoon rag. One doesn't have to be a republican to hear what the physician reports were King George's true final words — not "How is the Empire?" but "God damn you" — as the appropriate farewell for the man inside the monarchy.

Dare: Try Hurting Yourself With This Toy

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Once again, responsibility for developing the safest toy on the market this Christmas is being accepted by a California safety organization.

Probably not even the federal government could find anything hazardous about the "Bloat Ball." Although it may not be much fun to play with, the toy apparently is recall-proof.

Which means that nobody will be snatching it from under Christmas trees between now and Dec. 25.

To quote Dale Lowdermilk, executive director of NOT-SAFE, which is offering Bloat Balls for sale for only $850 each, plus tax, "this incredible toy" has "absolutely no sharp edges."

Considering all that has happened this season that could make you subject to a post-holiday damage suit, this is no small matter. You never know when a child on your shopping list may play with the toy you bought.

Moreover, Lowdermilk assures us, with an 18-inch diameter and weighing one and a half pounds, a Bloat Ball is too large to be accidentally swallowed.

However, he adds, each "contains microencapsulated natural laxatives just in case."

NOT-SAFE apparently has thought of everything. For $850, it should.

"The Bloat Ball has only been on the market for about two weeks, but already orders are starting to flood the headquarters of the organization that developed it," Lowdermilk writes.

And no wonder, I might add. Peace of mind alone is worth the purchase price.

According to some literature Lowdermilk sent me, Bloat is a trade name for "styrodipropomethylbenzotriachloroaminoethanolivellafotoorehtslnmemrevvopolyoxydiatoolaxlaymon-tezumahop."

I hope I have spelled that correctly. I never was too good at chemical terminology. However, when Lowdermilk guarantees that the ingredients are "chemically inert" with "no artificial coloring," I believe it.

Not only is he touting "the world's safest toy" but one he claims will provide hours of

"mindless therapy."

"The Bloat Ball has undergone hundreds of rigorous safety inspections (which have somewhat affected the price) and it has been produced in a sterile environment of a scientific laboratory free of germs," he told me.

That makes them different from toys "which are mass produced in Hong Kong, sweat shops and cabbage patches." Any fool can see that.

Moreover, according to Lowdermilk, "this educational device ... is guaranteed not to frighten youngsters, excite the elderly or trigger psychotic reactions in political heads of state."

It likewise requires "no complicated assembly," including "gluing (dangerous fumes) and painting."

"Perhaps the only disadvantage is the requirement to construct a special 'play area' with padded walls, shatterproof windows, thick carpeting, soothing elevator-music, filtered ventilation and no furniture or other obstacles which could be tripped over."

In sum, a perfect gift item. I'll take a dozen, if NOT-SAFE will accept non-plastic credit cards.

ANTHONY HARRIGAN

Action Against Raiders

WASHINGTON — At long last, Congress seems ready to do something about so-called corporate raiders, a new breed of pirate whose hostile takeovers of corporations have caused crises in many American communities and plunged once solid companies into debt. Congress' attention has been concentrated as a result of the Ivan Boesky insider trading case which is rocking Wall Street.

The raiders attempt to justify their actions by arguing that they represent a needed answer to the problem of sloppy managements. In general, however, the raider hasn't any interest in a target company's products, history, the communities where it operates, or the people who work for it, whether executives or hourly workers. They are solely interested in taking over a company for its cash, and are without concern for the immense disruption they cause in our economic and social system.

The issue was clear in the case of the Goodyear Tire & Rubber Company, a famous name in American business and industrial history. A British financier attempted a hostile takeover against the wishes of management, workers, and the communities where Goodyear operates. The situation prompted the Ohio legislature to pass a law that gives the state sweeping new powers to restrict takeovers.

Robert E. Mercer, chairman of Goodyear, was opposed to the raid. He said of the situation, "I think what you are going to see is an effort on the part of some states and the federal government to put some legislation into place that puts this kind of activity on the back burner and puts it under control, so a raider just can't come in and rape and pillage and leave."

The issue is of pressing concern because United States companies may be in for a new wave of foreign takeovers. The increase in the value of the Japanese yen has prompted Japan, Inc., to aim at massive takeovers of American enterprises in the months ahead. Congress needs to act promptly in order to prevent the further loss of control of this nation's productive assets.

Something needs to be done to remove this danger to the American free enterprise system. Perhaps the best approach is a change in the law to require a delay in takeovers and to require investors in a company to own its stock for a certain period before obtaining full rights to vote on takeovers.

WASHINGTON — How do the American people judge President Reagan? Was he right or wrong in using arms as bait to win favor with Ayatollah Khomeini's Iran?

Americans are constantly polled, surveyed and interviewed about the issues of the day. Yet we have never met anybody who has personally been polled: the American mind is analyzed on the basis of tiny samplings.

For those who are tired of pollsters telling them what they think and how they feel, we have decided to conduct a genuine Peoples Poll that will allow anyone to register an opinion. We will submit the results to the White House and the appropriate congressional committees.

So here is your chance to bypass the pollsters, get your feelings off your chest and send Washington a message. If you think President Reagan was right, dial 1-900-210-3280. If you think he was wrong, dial 1-900-210-3284. The telephone

Still National Agenda

The liberals, who were trounced 49 states to one by Richard Nixon in 1972, were understandably exhilarated when, less than two years later, the Watergate scandal forced the resignation of their vanquisher. They would be less than human if they didn't hope, now, that Ronald Reagan, who drubbed them by the same humiliating margin in 1984, can be brought low by the burgeoning flap over Iran and the perhaps resignation is a bit much to hope for this time, but they certainly expect to inflict considerable damage on their exasperating enemy. A victory of this palace-coup type, engineered by Congress and the media, may not be as soul-satisfying as winning a presidential election by a landslide, but it sure beats waiting in agony for President Reagan's retirement.

From that consolation to the conclusion that conservatism itself is down for the count is only a single step, but the liberals will be sadly mistaken if they take it. It is true that Ronald Reagan is a conservative in a way that Richard Nixon never was. It is also true that the objectives pursued by Adm. John Poindexter, Col. Oliver North, et al. — an opening to Iran, the release of our hostages in Lebanon, military aid to the contras — are objectives every thoughtful conservative will applaud.

To the extent that President Reagan is weakened by this controversy, and those objectives are diserved, the conservative cause is indeed damaged — much more directly than it was by the Watergate scandal or Richard Nixon's resignation.

But it is also true that the conservative movement today is a very different thing, both qualitatively and quantitatively, than it was in the early 1970s. In the words of Sidney Blumenthal, a liberal journalist and author of "The Rise of the Counter-Establishment": "By 1980, conservative political activists numbered in the thousands, and political action committees were disabusing millions. ... The Counter-Establishment had grown ... into a vast apparatus of think tanks, journals, and institutes." And, of course, it is even bigger and more numerous today.

At 8 p.m. next Jan. 20 (the anniversary of Ronald Reagan's first inauguration), the Public Broadcasting System's television network will carry a 90-minute documentary entitled "The Conservatives," which dramatically underscores this point. This is a fast-paced and thoroughly absorbing account of the conservative movement, from its inception in the early 1950s to its political triumph almost 30 years later.

No student of American history, or of our national political processes — for that matter no political buff, left, right, or center — will want to miss this fascinating account of how a political concept was born, grew, developed political muscle, and at last won widespread acceptance. Liberals especially, who now have this same process to go through if their cause is to revive, will benefit from it.

There are candid interviews with William Buckley, Barry Goldwater, Milton Friedman, President Reagan and many others. There is important historical film footage, much of it never seen on national television before. The viewer will go away understanding at last how Buckley's founding of National Review led inexorably to the Republican Party's nomination of Barry Goldwater — and how that, in turn, laid the foundation for Ronald Reagan's election as president 16 years further on.

Caffeine Good For Breathing

By Dethia Ricks
UPI Science Writer

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Caffeine may have some benefits for asthmatics. They apparently can breathe the much more easily after consuming a few cups of coffee, a team of scientists reports.

But there are some provisos that researchers say asthmatics should heed before taking a big gulp of coffee and deep breath of fresh air.

The latest coffee study, conducted by researchers at UCLA shows that caffeine consumption equivalent to three cups of coffee per day surprisingly improved lung function for a group of adult asthmatics.

"People drink a lot of coffee in this country," said Dr. Henry Gong, the study's principal investigator. "And included among coffee drinkers are a lot of people with breathing disorders such as asthma so we wanted to see exactly what was going on."

Gong found that the amount of caffeine contained in three cups of coffee tends to open the bronchial tubes of the lungs, thus acting as a bronchodilator and facilitating easier breathing for the study subjects.

"Indeed it bronchodilates," said Gong. "But I wouldn't recommend it as a replacement for theophylline (a commonly prescribed asthma medication) unless the person was stranded on an island."

The investigation shows that each cup of coffee consumed by the 10 people in the study contained about 180 milligrams of caffeine and had a collective effect that was about 40 percent as effective as the usually prescribed dosage of theophylline.

"The bottom line was that caffeine increased lung function in the major parameters that we looked at," he said. "This included an increase in pulse rate, which told us that there was a drug effect."

"Apparently, the more caffeine consumed, the better lung function became and the more air they were able to exhale."

But even with such seemingly positive effects for asthmatics, Gong said caffeine still has a long list of drawbacks.

"Some of the people in the study suffered gastrointestinal upset, others experienced nervousness," the specialist explained.

Gong also noted that previous studies have linked excessive caffeine consumption to such disparate ailments as insomnia and heart irregularities to delirium.

Soviets control of the Persian Gulf, with the ability to shut off the Western world's lifeblood.

Finally, the president hopes to free American hostages and reduce the terrorist threat by improving relations with the regime that controls the Shiite terrorists.

THE CASE FOR PRESIDENT REAGAN — The Persian Gulf, in a sense, is our jugular vein; half of the Western world's oil flows through this strategic waterway. Indeed, the United States has declared that it will take military action, if necessary, to protect this vital flow.

As the dominant power on the Persian Gulf, Iran holds the key to its stability and security. Ex-President Jimmy Carter let Iran fall into hostile hands. President Reagan's covert approach was merely an attempt to neutralize Iran and safeguard the Persian Gulf.

The president is also concerned that, without an American presence in Tehran, the Soviets may be tempted to move into Iran during a post-Khomeini period of confusion and chaos. This would give the

Both Rafsanjani and Khalkali not only have been flagrantly anti-American, but Khalkali desecrated the charred remains of Americans killed during the aborted hostage rescue mission in 1980. He staged his glib performance before photographers. Even in Iran, he's known as "Judge Blood" for ordering the blood drained from prisoners he condemns.

As for Khomeini, he likes to call America the "Great Satan," but he can behold the real satan simply by looking into a mirror. For he is the personification of evil. He preaches the gospel of hate, abuses his own people, savagely tortures dissidents and sends children to the battlefield to clear the way for combat troops.

Americans must feel uncomfortable doing business with the likes of Khomeini.

Footnote: In future columns, we will summarize other aspects of the Iranian affair and invite your judgment. We will publish the results, of course, after all the polling has been completed.

NATION IN BRIEF

Senate Select Panel Will Probe Iran-Contra Scandal

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Watergate veteran Sen. Daniel Inouye, D-Hawaii, has been named head of an 11-member Senate select panel to investigate "anything that involves or is connected" to the Iran arms-Contra aid affair.

Senate leaders Robert Byrd, D-W.Va., and Robert Dole, R-Kan., announced the members of the panel, six Democrats and five Republicans, Tuesday and said the investigation begins after Congress convenes Jan. 6.

House leaders planned to announce the membership of a similar special House committee today. Democratic leader Jim Wright of Texas previously said the 15-member committee, nine Democrats and six Republicans, will include the chairmen of five committees with jurisdiction in the matter — Foreign Affairs, Intelligence, Government Operations, Judiciary and Armed Services.

Byrd said the committee will investigate "anything that involves or connected with the sale of arms to Iran ... and the Contras and anything that is tied to it."

Reagan: Get The Facts Out

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Reagan says he wants all the facts in the Iran arms-Contra aid scandal out in the open so that he can "get on with the business of government" and put the matter behind him.

Taking a step in that direction, Reagan suggested Tuesday that former national security adviser, John Poindexter, and his aide, Lt. Col. Oliver North, be given limited immunity to tell all they know of the scheme.

Attorney General Edwin Meese has said North was the architect and Poindexter was aware of the plan to divert profits from arms sales to Iran to the Nicaraguan rebels. Poindexter resigned and North was fired when the scandal broke.

Voyager Passes Philippines

United Press International

Worn out from fighting powerful Pacific storms, Dick Rutan gave way to Jeana Yeager at the controls of the Voyager as it soared toward Vietnam — a third of the way along on its historic non-stop flight around the world without refueling, the ground crew said.

A chase plane was to join Voyager today over Singapore to take pictures of the plane for Rutan and Yeager. They were expected to pass south of Saigon today.

Dems Seek Expanded Role For Prosecutor

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Democrats on the Senate Judiciary Committee, citing allegations U.S. officials took part in schemes to arm Nicaraguan rebels, have asked a court panel to expand a special prosecutor's probe of the Iran arms-Contra aid affair, documents showed Tuesday.

The eight panel members said "serious legal questions" are raised by recent charges that administration officials have provided various forms of military assistance to Nicaraguan rebels since before early 1985.

"The conduct to be investigated should be more comprehensive (than that set out by Attorney General Edwin Meese in his request for an independent counsel)," they said in a seven-page letter to the court panel.

The prosecutor also should investigate "the monitoring of an 'air resupply network' to Contras fighting the government of Nicaragua," the organization and support of air supply missions for them and reports that administration officials sought financial help for the rebels from foreign heads of states, the Democrats said.

"The breadth and nature of these allegations illustrate the importance of a more comprehensive mandate," their letter said. The investigation also should begin before early 1985, as Meese has requested, the letter said.

Stocks Open Lower

NEW YORK (UPI) — Prices opened lower today in active trading of New York Stock Exchange issues.

The Dow Jones Industrial average, which rose 13.35 Tuesday, was down 5.76 to 1930.40 shortly after the market opened.

Declines led advances 834-415 among the 1,454 issues crossing the New York Stock Exchange tape.

Early turnover amounted to about 10,456,000 shares.

Stock prices advanced in active trading Tuesday, boosted by a late wave of futures-related buying.

The market made its entire gain in the session's last hour, a move typifying a day of erratic trading linked to futures-related buying and selling.

Stocks opened with a flurry of buying traders attributed to carryover from a rally late Monday. Gains were quickly lost, however, and the market turned lower. At midday, losses were trimmed and blue chip issues moved higher. By late afternoon, blue chips were again showing losses.

Jon Groveman, head of equity trading at Ladenburg, Thalmann & Co., said for most of the day, blue chips were resilient while everything else "languished." Activity was "choppy" and "totally dominated by futures-related trading and tax-law selling," he said.

Clanahan said of the alleged statement, "It's the biggest falsehood I ever heard. I never said I wanted a seat 'to ease into retirement.' Maybe he has me confused with another candidate: Milton's older than I am." Smith is 67, McClanahan, 61.

Smith, meanwhile, says he knew of Mercer's calls, but not their content. "He said he'd be calling for me and I appreciated the help," Smith said. "But I did not know what he was saying (to voters) and I still don't."

Smith added that his own calls to constituents "never" included references to McClanahan.

McClanahan said he learned of

Dollar And Gold Decline Slightly

By United Press International

The U.S. dollar opened slightly lower on major world money markets in light trading today. The price of gold edged lower.

In earlier trading in the Far East the dollar closed at 164.08 Japanese yen, up 0.07 from Tuesday's close of 163.68.

The dollar opened slightly lower against all the European currencies. In London traders said U.S. economic statistics released Tuesday provided no incentive for fresh activity.

The pound opened at $1.4270, against Tuesday's close of $1.4315.

In Frankfurt, the dollar opened at 2.0155 German marks, down from 2.0232, and in Zurich at 1.705 Swiss francs, down from 1.708.

The dollar opened in Paris at 6.602 French francs, down from 6.61, and in Amsterdam at 2.28 Dutch guilders, down from 2.283.

In Milan, the dollar fell below 1,400 lire to open at 1,397.50, down from 1,401.10.

In early New York trading the dollar was slightly higher against major foreign currencies.

Gold opened 55 cents an ounce lower in Zurich at $393.75 and 25 cents lower in London at $393.75.

The morning fixing in London was $393.40, off 60 cents from Tuesday's close.

Silver opened 6.5 cents lower in Zurich at $5.395 and 7.5 cents lower in London at $5.385.

In earlier trading in the Far East, gold closed at $394 an ounce on the Hong Kong Bullion Exchange, unchanged from Tuesday's close.

In early trading on New York's Comex, a 100-troy-ounce gold futures contract for current delivery in December opened at $393.10 an ounce, off 10 cents from Tuesday's close. A 5,000-troy-ounce silver futures contract for delivery in December opened at $5.363, up one-half cent an ounce.

GNP Up 2.8 Percent For Quarter

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The real gross national product rose 2.8 percent in the third quarter of 1984, a tenth of a point below last month's estimate, the Commerce Department said today.

The second and final revision of the GNP figure from a 2.9 percent annual rate of expansion in the early estimate was attributed by department analysts to a large downward revision in government Commodity Credit Corporation payments to farmers.

During the first nine months of 1984, the nation's output of goods and services grew at a 2.4 percent annual rate, down from 2.7 percent last year.

Inflation, as measured by the GNP fixed weight price index, rose 2.6 percent during the July-September period, up from 1.7 percent in the second.

registered voters, 30 percent turned out Tuesday. This was on a par with the 33 percent of registered voters who cast ballots in the Dec. 2 first round commission election.

In this run, Smith and McClanahan emerged as the top two vote getters in a five way race. McClanahan earned his run-off spot with 325 votes and Smith, with 158.

Twenty-six District 3 absentee ballots from Tuesday's final round of polling will be counted at a special city commission meeting today.

In District 4, Eckstein garnered 298 votes to Mrs. Meador's 249. He received 55 percent to her 45 percent of the 547 votes cast. Voter turnout was 13.3 percent of District 4's 4,104 registered voters. This is close to the 14.5 percent turnout for the Dec. 2 election, from which Eckstein and Meadors emerged from a field of eight contenders. Eckstein received 153 votes Dec. 2 to Mrs. Meador's 94. Five of the six defeated candidates subsequently endorsed Mrs. Meadors, but the shows of support apparently failed to have the necessary impact Tuesday.

Six absentee ballots in District 4 will tallied at today's commission meeting.

McClanahan says he is "ecstatic" about the wide victory margin over Smith and that it "should send a message to the other commissioners."

"It's indicative that people want a change in city government," he said. "I don't think citizens have been too satisfied during the last two years, and they want a positive change. This should send a message to the other commissioners, that I plan to bring a conservative voice to Sanford government. We need to slow down on spending and bureaucracy."

Smith said he is "certainly disappointed" at the loss, "but the people have spoken."

"I would have liked to have seen certain things we've started through to their completion," he said. "But I'm also very glad I had the opportunity to serve our citizens for six years."

Eckstein said he "feels great" about the win and that his "primary objective is to put the word pride into the city."

"I want Sanford to be the standout city I know it can be, and I'll work very hard towards this end. I want all residents to have pride in their city and we'll work together to make Sanford the best municipality in Seminole County," he said.

"Specifically, I'm very concerned with young people and their recreation. I also want to get zoning resolved for elder care operations in the city. I also would like to see clean industry come to Sanford. We educate our kids for 12 years," Eckstein said. "I want them to stay here, have jobs available here. If they go off to college, I want them to return. This is best place to live and we have to keep building on that. We're a caring city, for people ages one to 101."

Eckstein also offered "tremendous thanks to my supporters and campaign workers. We didn't have the money my opponent had, but were able to win by sheer hard work."

Mrs. Meadors wished Eckstein "the best" and added now that the race is over, "All I can say is I think it's great to live in a country where people can vote and people can run for office. I think it was a clean campaign and I congratulate Mr. Eckstein. Now we all want one thing from the winner and that's good government."

When asked if she'll be back to challenge Eckstein in four years, Mrs. Meadors said it's too early to tell: "I need time to think about that." —Karen Talley

Assistant City Engineer

Fernand J. Tibbler in his report said that "the proposed modifications involved in the revised site plan do not constitute substantial engineering changes to paving, drainage, water and wastewater specifications."

Schrimsher said he thinks the commission voted the way they did because of objections from the neighboring Harbour Isle homeowners, who have objected to the shopping center from the beginning. Monday night they not only demanded the developer stick to the original design, but also complained about the workers parking along their entrance road, throwing trash on the right-of-way and trucks using the entrance to get to the construction site.

Schrimsher said Monday night that he has tried to work with the homeowners and repaired at his expense every sprinkler that had been broken by vehicles going to the construction site. He said he had also built a deceleration lane at the entrance, fenced in the site and requested workmen to clean up the trash so that traffic would not be tied up.

"I had never come across a situation where a city government and a homeowners association imposed their idea of how a building should look on the developer," Schrimsher. "The city should have a concern for health and safety of the structure, but the owner should have some flexibility in his own development."

Work on the shopping center began in September, but was later halted after Building Official "Slick" Helms discovered it was being built with a different set of plans than the ones which the commission had approved. The commission had told Schrimsher at another meeting he would have to build by the original plan or work around the changes until the second plan could be submitted and approved.

Schrimsher said he expects Plaza del Sol to be ready for occupancy in April or May, 1987. There will be space for 25 stores in the neighborhood shopping center and leases have already been signed by dry cleaners, video store, pizzeria and Chinese restaurant, he said.

for not having a city occupational license. A board-levied fine for that infraction was to be imposed unless Mrs. Nestor got a waiver from the city for the fire doors. She did get a waiver for the doors and received commission permission to put in a sprinkler system instead.

Board member Glen Domen disagreed and said he thought the board disagreed also. He said although Mrs. Nestor got a waiver for the doors, a safety violation continued to exist — thus the fine should have continued regardless of the waiver.

After board members wrangled, expressed opinions, and exchanged heated comments between themselves and Mrs. Nestor, Domen made a motion to throw every thing back in the city commission lap and let it sort out who did what, when and the fines involved.

Board member Ernest Horrell disagreed saying to do so was to make the commission do the board's job. Member Joyce Malone suggested the issue be sent to the commission for clarification and an accounting of the staff participation in the incident.

Domen changed his resolution and the board sent the issue to the commission.

alleged "rumors" being spread about him from people who called him after hearing from Mercer. McClanahan said three people told him they'd gotten calls from Mercer and the commissioner made derogatory comments about him.

McClanahan also said when he "confronted" Mercer about the calls, "he didn't deny them; he just laughed."

Mercer said he was "only telling people what kind of person McClanahan is" during the calls, and only did so "if they (voters) asked me about him."

Mercer said he began making the calls "two or three days" before Tuesday's election, although when asked Tuesday night if the calls included statements about McClanahan, Mercer initially said "I'm not sure. I don't remember."

When asked again, Mercer said "only if they asked" regarding voters' alleged questions about McClanahan. Only after a third query did Mercer discuss details of the calls.

Mercer's statements to the Herald included discussion of his possible reference to voters about McClanahan wanting "to ease into retirement." Mercer also confirmed he talked with some constituents about McClanahan's having rented a house in District 1 for four months in 1984 in order to qualify for that commission seat. McClanahan lost that race to Mercer.

While McClanahan alleges Mercer told voters the temporary residence was a "dishonest" arrangement, Mercer contends otherwise.

According to Mercer, "I didn't say he was dishonest. I said he lived in a district, but had never really moved into it."

Of his engaging in solicitations on Smith's behalf, Mercer said he "saw no reason not to. It's a free country, I can call anyone I want and campaign for anyone I want."

'Tis the season to be cautious.

We joyously supply the power that lights up your holiday season. And we ask you — please use it carefully. Always read and follow instructions that come with gifts that are powered by electricity. For example, use only grounded extension cords, don't trim hedges when the ground is wet and keep electric cords out of the way of cutting edges.

Christmas lights also should be used with care. Keep them away from flammable decorations, check for worn or broken sockets, cracked insulation and frayed cords, turn them off when you go out and use no more than three sets of lights on an extension cord. And of course, never put lights on a metal tree.

Make safety your first New Year's resolution. And have a most joyous holiday season.

Pakistani Death Toll Hits 177 In Ethnic Violence

KARACHI, Pakistan (UPI) — Troops with orders to shoot curfew violators in a struggle to bring calm to ethnic slums failed to stop a third day of violence that has claimed 177 lives, including a family of 12 who were burned to death.

The vicious ethnic battles between Pathan tribesmen and rival Muhajir refugees continued Tuesday, with sources at government hospitals putting the day's death toll at 27, including two people killed by government troops under shoot-on-sight curfew orders.

A Pathan family of 12 was found dead in the ruins of their home, apparently burned to death by a Muhajir gang. The violence began on Sunday, when 62 people were killed. Another 88 were killed in Monday's clashes and hundreds more have been injured.

Alleged Spy Called U.S. Plant

MANAGUA, Nicaragua (UPI) — President Daniel Ortega said that an American arrested on suspicion of spying was a terrorist planted in Nicaragua by the U.S.-supported Contra rebels and worked indirectly for the U.S. government.

Ortega also said Tuesday that the American, Sam Hall, 49, an Olympic diving medalist and brother of Rep. Tony Hall, D-Ohio, should be tried as a terrorist before a Sandinista Peoples' Tribunal.

Hall, a former Ohio legislator whose scorn of communism and terrorism has driven him to the battlefields of Chad and Lebanon, was arrested Friday at a restricted air base in Punta Hueco, 12 miles north of Managua.

Vietnamese Leaders Resign

BANGKOK, Thailand (UPI) — Vietnam today announced the resignations of its aging top three leaders, who helped Ho Chi Minh lead the communists to victory over France, the United States and South Vietnam.

Politburo member Pham Hung announced the resignations of President and party leader Truong Chinh, 79, Prime Minister Pham Van Dong, 80, and Politburo member Le Duc Tho, 75, at a session of the Communist Party's Sixth Congress.

Radio Hanoi quoted Hung as saying the Congress presidium unanimously approved the resignations of the three leaders "on account of their old age and health conditions."

OPEC Ministers Try To Break Quota Stalemate

GENEVA (UPI) — Saudi Arabia's King Fahd fired the head of his state-owned oil company as OPEC oil ministers struggled Tuesday to break a stalemate over production quotas for Persian Gulf War enemies Iraq and Iran.

Saudi oil minister Hisham Nazer held private talks with his Iranian counterpart, Gholamreza Aghazadeh, on the sixth day of OPEC's year-end meeting in an attempt to persuade Iran to drop its demand that Iraq be given an output quota below Tehran's limit of 2.3 million barrels a day.

"Saudi Arabia is going to reduce its production," Nazer told reporters in his first public statement that OPEC's principal producer will turn down its taps as part of the cartel's effort to force up oil prices. But Nazer did not say by how much.

A full session of the 13 oil ministers was postponed at the last minute until Wednesday. OPEC officials gave no reason for the change.

But Ecuador's oil minister, Javier Espinosa Teran, indicated

Iraq was holding up an agreement on production restraints to raise oil prices to the cartel's goal of $18 a barrel.

"Twelve countries have agreed to cut production, but one has to come in," Espinosa told reporters.

In a broadcast monitored in Kuwait, Radio Riyadh reported Saudi King Fahd asked Abdel Hadi Tahir, governor of the state-run oil company Petromin, to resign. The radio quoted the decree as saying Tahir was relieved from his post "for retirement."

Pernfors Has 1 More Mountain — Ivan Lendl

(Editor's note: Larry Castle was the Seminole Community College tennis coach for Mikael Pernfors.)

You have a dream, you have a goal. You work hard for many years to hopefully reach that goal. Hours, days, months and years are spent working hard than you ever thought you could. The progress is often slow and the disappointments are many but you press on.

Finally, the breaks start coming your way. Indeed, they start to snowball your way and finally you have made it. You are on the top. You have climbed the mountain, you have reached your goals... now what?

Mikael Pernfors was on the Seminole Community College campus last Friday for an exhibition match with Tobias Svantesson. As you know, Mike is now ranked 11th in the world and has won over $200,000 in prize money this past year.

The former SCC two-time All-American has led a charmed life for the past four or five years and, indeed, has reached the top of the mountain in his profession.

And you know what? It's not exactly what he thought it would be. To understand this, let me give you a little background.

In 1981, Mike was home in Sweden trying to somehow get the Swedish Tennis Federation to pay enough attention to him to at least earn a little court time for practice and perhaps get some good instruction.

Tennis was his passion and although he was locally well-known as a pretty good player, he was not part of that upper-level society of players which was getting all the publicity, all the breaks.

For a long time, Mike had a dream to become a top Swedish player and perhaps even turn pro. In 1981, it did not seem likely that those things would happen. Mike had heard that a good player could go to America and get a tennis scholarship and play a lot of good tennis while working on a degree.

This is what he decided to do. After all, if he could not play for the Swedish Davis Cup team (his No. 1 goal) or turn pro, at least he could use his tennis to help him get a college education.

Another Swedish player, Ake

Larry Castle
SANFORD HERALD TENNIS WRITER

Svansson, had already signed with SCC for the 1982 year. Mike knew Ake, called him, got the address and wrote a letter saying that he wanted to come.

In September of 1982, Mike arrived in Sanford. He was young, out of shape, shy and frightened. This was all new and different.

When I first saw Mike play, I was not all that thrilled by his game. In fact, I only projected him at about No. 4 or 5 on the team. Most of the players we had were bigger, stronger and had a lot more experience than Mike, and for the first few weeks it showed.

As time went by, though, I saw things in Mike that amazed me. He had unreal hand-eye coordination, tremendous foot speed and great quickness with his hands. Also, he worked harder than anyone I had ever coached. Sometimes up to eight hours a day.

By Christmas he was the best junior college player in America. For two years he was undefeated at SCC. He won two national titles and was the catalyst on the two national championship teams at SCC.

From SCC he went to Georgia on full scholarship and proceeded to win back-to-back NCAA titles. He also helped Georgia win the team crown in 1985.

Mike turned pro in the summer of 1985 and the rest is history. He moved from a ranking of No. 700 in the world to No. 11 in one year. A spot in the finals of the French Open and "Rookie of the Year" and "Most Improved Player of the Year" honors were only a few of the highlights of this incredible year.

Mike now says that it all seems unreal. He has made fabulous sums of money with his endorsements and prize money. He has played before millions of people, is known all over the world — is pulled at and tugged at by thousands of adoring fans. He has reached the top of the mountain and now is wondering — what's next?

Last week in Atlanta in the AT&T Challenge, Mike says that he did not feel motivated, did not really feel like playing. Other thoughts were in his mind, other things seemed more important. In his match against Lendl, he just went through the motions: Mike lost 6-0, 6-1.

Mike says it is no problem, though. That he will get his motivation back. This writer is not so sure. I remember when we were fighting so hard to win the national championship at SCC. It was a goal, a dream that had been my constant companion for years.

I somehow thought that things would change a bit when we won it. Nothing changed except that I missed my companion — the dream. Mike says the same thing. It was more fun working for his success than it has been having it.

He is still the same guy, only now without that mountain to climb. I reminded him that for him, though, there is one more mountain. Ivan Lendl resides at the summit.

Seminoles Blow 2 Layups, Game

By Sam Cook
Herald Sports Editor

When Seminole High basketball coach Bill Klein is old and greyer, he will look back at Tuesday night's game against Port Orange Spruce Creek as the one that got away.

With the game tied at 54, Spruce Creek had the ball at mid-court with just 15 seconds to play. The Tribe broke from a lineup and Michael "Spud" Edwards hit a speeding Roderick Henderson down the right side.

Henderson zipped in from the right side and blew a layup with 10 seconds to play. Craig Walker, Seminole's 6-8 center, followed up and missed a one-footer with eight seconds to play.

"We were lucky," Spruce Creek coach Jim Romaniasyn said. "We had trouble getting the ball, but when we got it, we knew what to do with it."

Sean Sears finally controlled the rebound and outletted to Cory Bell. The 6-0 forward hurried down the right side, pulled up from 15 feet and banked home at jumper with two seconds left to give Spruce Creek a 58-54 District 4A-9 victory before 701 limp fans at Seminole High's Bill Fleming Memorial Gymnasium.

"They gave us the inbounds play," Klein said shaking his head in wonderment. "We get a nice layup and we get a nice tip-in. Neither went in."

Despite the heartbreaker, Klein said he was encouraged by the Sanford lads play. "We did things tonight we hadn't done before," the second-year coach said. "We showed patience on defense, and we showed patience on offense, too."

"We just went to sleep for awhile in the second half. That's when we had a chance to wrap up the game. None of that stuff at the end should have mattered."

Spruce Creek won for the sixth time in seven games. Seminole, who travels to Orlando to play

Basketball

Oak Ridge, fell to 4-3. All setbacks have come to Volusia County schools. The other two to third-ranked Daytona Beach Mainland.

The missed opportunities at the end by Henderson and Walker were unfortunate. Each played an excellent game. Henderson led Seminole with 15 points, six rebounds and four assists.

Walker, in particular, was a dominate factor. The talented junior corralled 12 rebounds and swatted away eight shots while almost single-handedly controlling the paint for most of the game. He scored eight points but missed two dunks which may have made him hesitant on his short tip-in with nine ticks left.

"Walker is tough," Romaniasyn said. "But we didn't get back into the game until we started driving into the paint. We had to give up a few blocked shots to score some points."

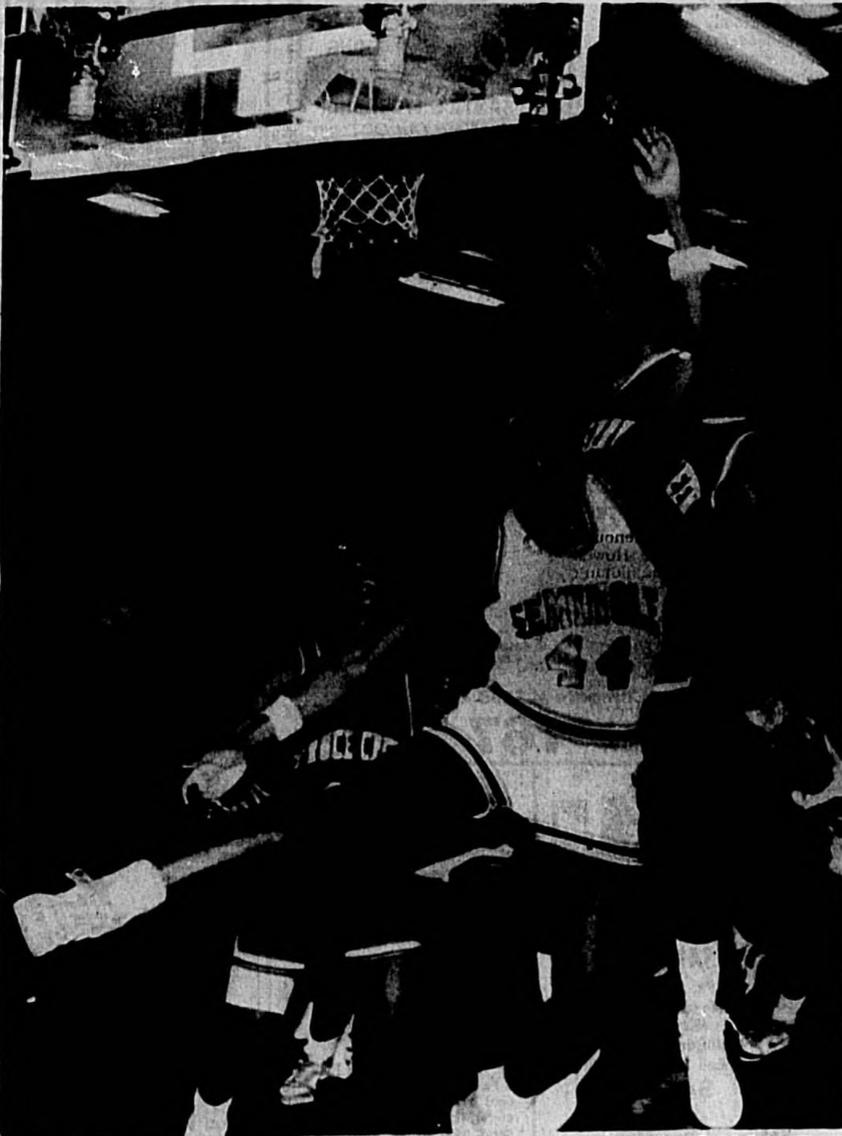

The lead seceded most of the first quarter until Henderson scored on back-to-back drives for a 14-2 lead. Sears, though, scored from the Creek's spread offense with four seconds left for a 14-14 first-quarter deadlock.

Junior Walter "Dunkman" Hopson popped off the bench to give the Noles a lift in the second quarter. Hopson took a great feed from Jerry "Stuck" Parker for a three-point play. He followed with a short jumper to cut the Creek's lead to one. Edwards then found Walker with a nifty pass for a 21-20 lead.

Seminole outscored the Creek, 9-5, the rest of the quarter. Brad Baird, a 6-10 backup center, stuck in a rebound with 54 seconds left for a 30-25 halftime advantage.

Spruce Creek crept within 43-41 after three periods, but

Tenacious Gators Rip LSU, 96-75

United Press International Florida, picked by some observers to capture the Southeastern Conference title, played like a contender Tuesday night.

Andrew Moten scored 24 of his career-high 32 points in the second half Tuesday night to lead the host Gators an easy 96-75 victory over Louisiana State.

"They'll contend for the SEC title," said LSU Coach Dale Brown. "(Coach) Norm (Sloan) has done a great job putting this team together. They're much like Norm's personality. They are very aggressive."

The Gators improved to 6-1 overall, while LSU, which reached the NCAA Final Four last season, fell to 3-2.

In other top games, Dayton defeated Ohio State 89-86 and Northwestern edged Marquette 56-54.

In the Florida-LSU game, with the score tied 33-33 with 5:20 left in the first half, the Gators went on a 15-5 run. Florida, up 48-38 at halftime, led by as many as 26 points in the second half.

"You can't do much philosophizing in a game like this, we just got kicked," Brown said. "Once a year, no matter how good, average or poor your team, you can look forward to getting beat alongside the head. We got a good whipping."

At Dayton, Dan Christl scored 19 points and Anthony Grant added 17 to pace Dayton and spoil a 41-point performance by Ohio State's Dennis Hopson. The Flyers hit 10 straight free throws near the end of the game to seal the win.

At Evanston, Ill., Shawn Watts scored 16 points, including two free throws with 22 seconds left, to lead Northwestern over Marquette. David Boone led Marquette with 17 points. It was the Warriors first loss under new Coach Bob Dukiet.

Elsewhere, Davidson nipped Princeton 58-56 in overtime. Florida State ripped West Carolina 101-76. Drake eased past Southern 81-58. Brigham Young outscored Utah State 97-93 and Montana ripped Eastern Washington 65-43.

FLORIDA STATE ROYS
CULLOWHEE, N.C. (UPI) — Randy Allen and Jerome Fitchett scored 21 points apiece to snap a 22-game road losing streak and lead Florida State to a 101-76 win over Western Carolina Tuesday.

The Seminoles improved to 4-1 in their first road triumph since a Dec. 29, 1984, win in Greenville, S.C., over Furman. Western Carolina dropped to 0-6.

"I wasn't a part of that, but this is one of those negative aspects of Florida State basketball that we had," said first-year Seminoles coach Pat Kennedy.

"And this is important to snap that streak because we're still a building program," he said.

The Seminoles placed three other players in double figures. Pee Wee Barber had 14, LaRae David had 12 and William Hunter had 10.

Western Carolina's leading scorer, Leroy Oasque with 16, fouled out in the second half along with Andre Gault and Vincent Walker. Also in double figures for the Catamounts were Chris Tipton with 15 points and Richard Rogers with 12.

Bucs Fight Off Pesky Rams

By Mark Blythe

LAKE MARY — Daytona Beach Mainland's Mike Polite only played three quarters Tuesday night against Lake Mary, but the Rams saw enough for one season. Polite scored a game-high 22 points as the third-ranked (4A) Bucs fought off a pesky Lake Mary team, 63-52, before 501 fans at Lake Mary High.

The Bucs are now 7-0 and will take on second-ranked Lakeland Kathleen and all-star Livingston Chatman Friday. The Rams dropped to 1-4 and will need to bounce back in a hurry tonight against Clearwater Countryside in the opening round of Oviedo High's Central Florida Classic Tournament at Lake Howell High School.

"The little things hurt us again," Lake Mary coach Willie Richardson said. "I don't think they (Mainland) did anything to beat us I think we just made mistakes at the wrong times."

The Rams did not give up willingly to the talent-laden Bucs and 6-7 Florida State-bound Polite who also collected 14 rebounds.

The Rams were led by junior point guard Terry "The Cat" Miller who finished with 18 points.

Mainland coach Dick Toth was happy with the victory but unhappy with the play of his third-ranked squad.

Basketball

"We just put our uniforms on tonight," Toth said. "We thought we had it won without playing."

Lake Mary played with the Bucs in the first quarter as the two teams were tied at 12 going into the second quarter.

Mainland came out and scored the first 11 points in the second quarter powered by a slam by Kenny Mackeroy.

Polite, who Mainland coach Dick Toth said he was resting, entered the game in the second period and quickly made his presence known blocking one shot and altering others while scoring six points to pace the Bucs to a 33-28 halftime lead.

The two teams played evenly in the third quarter as the Rams slowed the tempo being patient and working for good shots. Matt Napoli keyed the Rams in the third, scoring eight of the 10 points scored by Lake Mary.

Polite scored eight of the Bucs' 10 points as Mainland increased its lead to 43-36 after three quarters.

Mainland scored four quick points in the fourth quarter before a foul sent Polite to the line. Polite missed the shot but grabbed his own rebound and slammed home his next two points to give Mainland a comfortable 49-38 lead with 5:24 remaining.

Miller was then fouled and after missing the free throw the Bucs got a two on one situation where Polite put another dunk down for a 51-38 Mainland lead with five minutes to play.

MAINLAND JV CRUSHES RAMS
In junior varsity action the Bucs crushed the Rams 87-61. Mainland jumped out to a 30-6 first quarter lead and were never challenged by the outmanned Ram squad.

Henry Thomas and Shawn Lewis led the way for the Bucs with 20 points apiece. Robbie Brinchhoff added 12 more to pace the Bucs.

Lake Mary was led by both Calvin Davis and Terrance Carr each had 13 for Lake Mary.

Magee Shoots Down Patriots

Lake Brantley's Patriots stayed close to Winter Park's Wildcats Tuesday night but, every time the Pats got within striking distance, Jerry Magee put Winter Park back in control. Magee poured in a game-high 22 points, most from the outside, as the Wildcats claimed a 47-39 victory in prep basketball at Winter Park High.

Lake Brantley, 2-4, plays again tonight at 8:30 against fifth-ranked (4A) Jacksonville Rains in the first round of the Oviedo Classic Tournament.

"In the third quarter, we made a run and cut it to two," Lake Brantley coach Steve Jucker said. "But Magee can put a damper on a rally real quick. He hit some big shots from the outside."

Only four players scored for Lake Brantley with Brent Bell's 16 points leading the way. Bell was named Burger King Player of the Week Tuesday. Doug Lawson (12 points) and Darren Leva (seven) helped keep the Patriots close.

LAKE BRANTLEY (29) — Shirley 2, Bell 16, Leva 7, Lawson 12, Morris 6, Neff 6. Totals: 12 13-10 29.
WINTER PARK (47) — Magee 22, Davnie 6, Sudenmeyer 4, Wilkins 9, Hudson 2, Gear 4. Totals: 29 7-7 27.

Rams' Complete Effort Shut Outs Lions, 3-0; Lee Lifts Silver Hawks

By Chris Fister
Herald Sports Writer
LAKE MARY — Coach Larry McCorkle has been upset about his team's inability to capitalize on its opportunities in recent games. Tuesday night, though, McCorkle didn't have to break out the Roloids.

How did the Lake Mary Rams spell victory?
C-O-M-P-L-E-T-E.

The Lake Mary side turned in a spectacular team effort Tuesday night in a 3-0 victory over an up-and-coming Oviedo High team in Seminole Athletic Conference soccer before 151 fans at Lake Mary High.

Lake Mary improved to 5-0-1 overall and 1-0-1 in the SAC while Oviedo was beaten for the first time and now stands at 3-1-1 overall and 1-1-0 in the conference. Lake Mary hosts Gainesville Buchholz Thursday night while Oviedo has a big battle with 3A power Bishop Moore at Oviedo High.

The Rams received a pair of goals from junior Ernie Broenne Tuesday night while senior goalkeeper Scott Betsinger recorded his third shutout, senior defender Rick Morales did a good job in marking out Oviedo's high-scoring Greg Brick and Steve Sapp created a lot of opportunities.

"It was a great team effort tonight," Morales, who allowed Brick only one shot on goal, said. "Brick is really tough and I couldn't have shut him out without the help of the other guys on the team. They did a great job keeping Oviedo from getting the ball up to Brick."

Morales not only had the tough task of marking Brick, but had to do it carefully most of the game after being given a yellow card with 18 minutes gone in the first half. Morales said he was given the card for grabbing Brick's jersey to slow him down. Another such offense and Morales would have been given a red card which means ejection from the game and Lake Mary playing at a one-man disadvantage.

"Brick is a real danger when he gets the ball," McCorkle said. "And when you get a yellow card you have to play a little more cautiously. Rick (Morales) played the best game of soccer I've seen for someone who got an early yellow card. He adjusted and did a great job."

Two minutes before Morales' yellow card, though, Lake Mary had taken a 1-0 lead on Broenne's first goal. Tony Fiorentino flicked a pass to Broenne who made some slick moves to get by a defender and into the open where he blasted the ball past Oviedo keeper Gordon King.

Lake Mary used masterful midfield play by Sapp and Jon Brooks and strong play up front by Broenne, Fiorentino and Lee Alexander to control most of the first half. Lake Mary outshot the Lions, 19-4, in the half.

"Sapp had an awesome game," McCorkle said. "He created a lot of opportunities for us."

Lake Mary came close to extending its lead with four minutes left in the half when Broenne crossed a ball in front of the goal but Pete Kinsley's diving header went over the bar and the Rams settled for a 1-0 halftime lead.

The Rams kept the pressure on in the second half and Broenne scored his second goal 18 minutes in. In a made scramble 15 yards in front of the goal, Broenne won the ball, dribbled into the open and left-footed a shot out of King's reach and just inside the far post.

The Rams added an insurance goal with 3:55 remaining. After Oviedo's Jim Guggenheim was given a yellow card, Lake Mary had a dead ball play from 20 yards out. Two players ran through the ball and the third, Mike Kryger then slipped a pass to the first man through, Alexander, and Alexander blasted a shot into the box to make the final 3-0.

King had a strong game for the Lions as he came up with 14 saves and his booming punts also kept the Rams from completely dominating offensively.

Betsinger, who took over as goalkeeper when it was learned returning keeper Steve Kilpatrick will miss the season, made seven saves in posting the shutout.

"Knowing what Brick can do, I was kind of nervous coming in," Betsinger said. "But I felt confident because the defense played a great game. After six games now I feel pretty comfortable at keeper."

In the junior varsity match Tuesday, Manuel Roldan pumped in three goals to lead the JV Rams to a 3-0 victory over the JV Lions.

HOWELL KEEPS SAC LEAD

Dougie Lee, an exchange student from England, pumped in a pair of goals Tuesday night as Lake Howell maintained its lead in the Seminole Athletic Conference with a 2-0 victory over Lyman's Greyhounds at Lake Howell High.

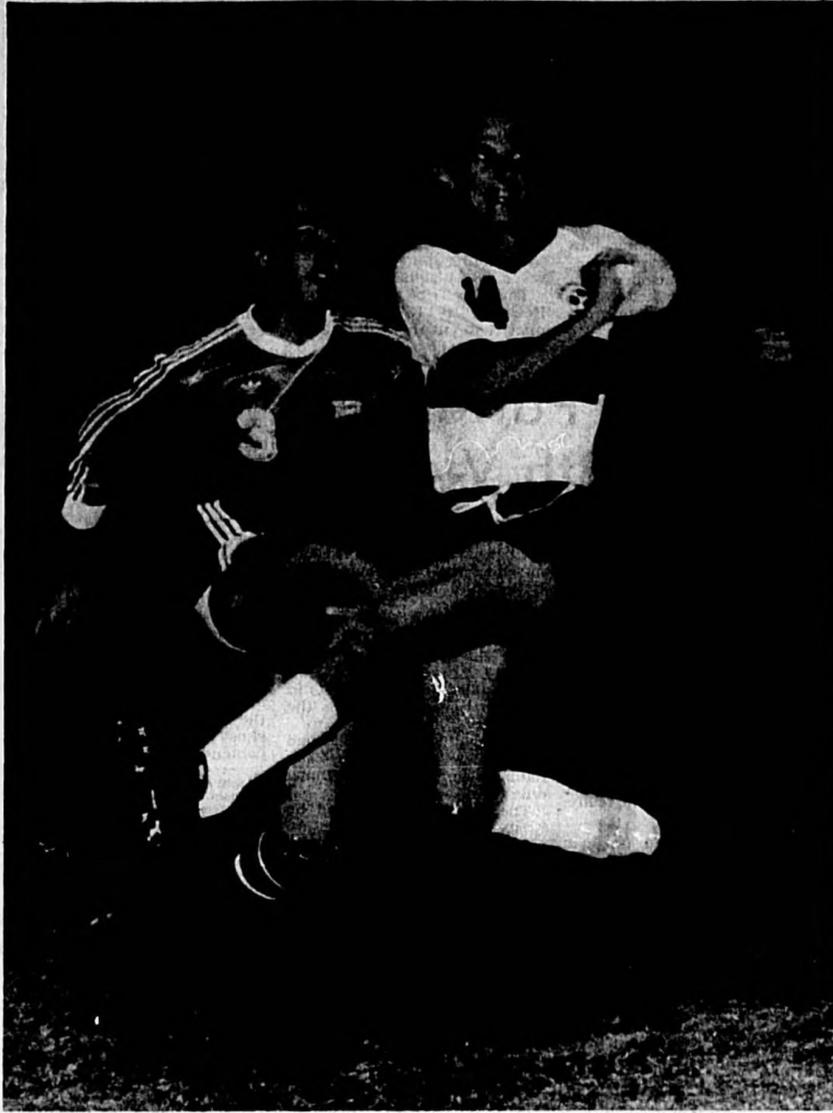

The Silver Hawks, 5-0 overall, are 2-0 in the SAC and the only unbeaten and untied team in the league. Lyman now stands at 3-1-2 overall and 0-1-1 in the SAC.

"We played just good enough to win tonight," Lake Howell coach Glen Griffin said. "I didn't feel we played up to our potential. Some of the other coaches are saying we're the best in the conference but I still think it's too early to say anything like that."

Lee scored his first goal at the 39:25 mark of the first half and it came on a nicely worked play. On a throw in, Jerry Phillips got the ball to Kenny Higgins who flipped it to Javi Ortiz who fed Lee for the score.

The Hawks took 18 shots on goal Tuesday compared to nine for Lyman. Lyman keeper Kelly Walden came up with 11 saves while Lake Howell keeper Martin Nystrom made six saves in recording the shutout.

In junior varsity action Tuesday, Greg Schicker scored with five minutes left to play to give Lake Howell the lead, but Lyman scored one minute later as the two sides battled to a 1-1 tie.

Lake Brantley's Kevin Sowers, left, and Seminole's J.J. Partlow collide while battling for a loose ball Tuesday. Brantley scored three early goals en route to a 6-0 victory.

Rumler Has First-Half Shutout, 3 Second-Half Goals In Victory

By Chris Fister
Herald Sports Writer

Sherri Rumler, a versatile Seminole High senior, shut out the opposition in the first half and had a hat trick in the second half Tuesday night as the Lady Seminoles trounced DeLand's Lady Bulldogs, 6-1, in nonconference action at DeLand.

As the goalkeeper in the first half, Rumler made three saves to keep DeLand off the board. Rumler moved to forward for the second half and made good use of her first extended amount of play on the field this season as she scored three second-half goals.

Seminole, 2-2-2 overall, returns to Seminole Athletic Conference play tonight at 6 at Lake Brantley. In other SAC action tonight, Oviedo hosts Lake Mary at 5 and Lake Howell is at Lyman at 6. There will also be a junior varsity match at Lyman tonight at 4.

"I told Sherri (Rumler) to go out and have fun tonight," Seminole coach Suzy Reno said. "Because I probably won't use her on the field against Lake Brantley. We're going to have our hands full against Brantley."

Soccer

Seminole's first goal Tuesday came 14:30 into the game when Melissa Shuckman scored on a breakaway. Three minutes later, Vicky "Spuffy" Pakovic scored on an assist from Carol Lykens. The Lady Tribe made it 3-0 at halftime when Pakovic scored on a penalty kick.

It took Rumler only one minute into the second half to score her first goal and it came on an assist from Lykens. Rumler scored unassisted 15 minutes into the second half to make it 5-0 and the sixth goal was scored by Rumler on an assist from Shuckman.

DeLand averted the shutout when Danielle Miller scored on a penalty kick to make the final 6-1.

Reno cited the play of Shuckman, Rachelle Denmark, Lykens, Jennifer Lindamood and Julia Robert on offense and Cindy Bengie, Kim Walsh, Shannon "Slick" Sundvall and Jennifer Roberts on defense.

Garzon's Hat Trick Covers Up Seminole

By Mike Andrew
Special to the Herald

Pablo Garzon recorded a hat trick to lead the Lake Brantley Patriots to a 6-0 victory over Seminole in Seminole Athletic Conference soccer Tuesday night before 91 fans at Seminole High School.

The Patriots, who improved to 4-2, scored three first-half goals in less than five minutes to take early control. Seminole, which hosts Orlando Lake Highland Thursday, fell to 2-3. Brantley entertains Melbourne Saturday.

"They got a break on their first goal," Seminole coach Carlos Merlino said. "Their right middle fielder (Dave Daniel) got open across the middle, and got a shot off. Sean (Sundvall) had the ball and just let it slip through. He's only a sophomore, and that happens sometime when you've got a sophomore in the goal. It was a learning experience for him."

That goal, scored at 36:48 of the first half, was damaging, but it was Greg Marko's goal less than two minutes later that broke the game open. When Garzon attempted a shot deep in Seminole territory, 'Noles' fullback Alex Piquer was whistled for a handball. Marko cashed in on the penalty kick, maneuvering it by Sundvall for a 2-0 lead.

"The penalty kick was the turning point of the game," Merlino said. "Our player was whistled with the hand ball, but I think he was just trying to protect himself. That was the goal that really hurt us."

To add insult to injury, Garzon came back unassisted just 44 seconds later to blast the ball by Sundvall, and the Pats were off and running.

"I'm really pleased with the way we played," Brantley mentor Jim Brody said. "We have been playing well lately, but we haven't been scoring much. Tonight, we finally got some points on the board."

Garzon scored again with 14:02 remaining in the half and added a second-half score to complete the hat trick. "This will help Pablo's confidence," Brody said. "Hopefully we can count on him as a scorer this year. Last year about this time he got into a little slump and got down on himself. I think tonight will help him stay away from that."

In a game almost completely played in the Seminole end of the field, the Patriots put on what Merlino described as a clinic.

"Lake Brantley is one of the best-coached teams I've seen," Merlino said. I've never seen a team play like they played. Lake Brantley plays soccer the way the game was meant to be played.

"Every time I look at the schedule and see Brantley," Merlino continued, "I just know it's time for a clinic, and that's what we got. This conference is so tough."

Columnist Mike Andrew plays the parimutuels every Sunday in the Sanford Herald.

Fullwood Misses Classes But Won't Lose Eligibility

AUBURN, Ala. (UPI) — All-America running back Brent Fullwood of Auburn has not attended class since early in the fall quarter, but will remain eligible for the Tigers' Jan. 1 Citrus Bowl game with Southern California.

Fullwood, a senior, said he began missing classes in October when he was sick for two weeks with the flu and stopped attending altogether when his father and stepmother were in a car accident in Florida.

Fullwood continued to play football, despite the sickness and personal problems.

"I just didn't quit school," Fullwood said. "If anyone else's parents were in a wreck and got hurt, they'd go home. That took me two weeks to handle that. Then I'd been sick for two weeks. You can't go to school when you're sick."

"I asked my teachers for incompletes. I'm coming back to school. Everybody has problems."

Under NCAA rules, for a student to be eligible during any grading period, the student must have met all academic requirements the previous grading period. Fullwood would not be eligible for the winter quarter, but it begins after the Jan. 1 bowl game.

Tiger Coach Pat Dye said Monday he was not aware Fullwood had stopped going to class. He said coaches are given regular reports on the academic status of players and those who miss classes are required to run stadium steps. But he said seniors are given some leeway.

"When they get to be seniors, 99 percent of them will go to class and do to what they're supposed to do to get their degree," Dye said. "I don't think Brent is any different than any other college athlete that goes to school four years and doesn't get a degree."

"I know he went to class prior to this year."

Fullwood, who played behind Heisman Trophy winner Bo Jackson last year, had to take 19 hours of classwork in the summer to become eligible for the fall quarter. He rushed for 1,391 yards and 10 touchdowns and was named the Southeastern Conference's Offensive Player of the Year.

Hillsman Corrects Flaw, Hits 29 As 'Noles Win Again

By Chris Fister
Herald Sports Writer
Adrian Hillsman proved she's human Tuesday night but she also showed she's a human who can really play the game of basketball.

Hillsman had a few turnovers and a technical foul in the early going as DeLand's Lady Bulldogs built a 16-4 lead. But, the sophomore sensation then shifted into high gear and scored a game-high 29 points, pulled down 11 rebounds and came up with seven steals to lead

Seminole High's Lady Seminoles to a 55-48 victory at DeLand.

Seminole, 2-5, takes a two-game winning streak to seventh-ranked Winter Park Thursday night.

"Adrian (Hillsman) got a little excited at the beginning," Seminole coach Charles Steele said. "She was dribbling into DeLand's half-court press instead of passing to the open spot. I took her out and talked to her, and we had no problem from there on."

DeLand took a 16-4 lead after

the first quarter and scored the first five points of the second period for a 21-4 advantage. With Hillsman scoring nine points and freshman Sherry Reddick six, Seminole went on a 17-8 scoring spurt to pull within seven, 28-21, at halftime.

The Lady Tribe then outscored DeLand, 16-11, in the third quarter to cut the lead to 39-37 and Seminole kept the momentum going in the fourth quarter with 18 points compared to DeLand's eight.

"We were playing zone the first quarter and just standing around," Steele said. "The second quarter we went to a straight man-to-man full court and stayed with it and did a great job. Defense won the game for us tonight."

Behind Hillsman for the Lady 'Noles, Reddick had an outstanding night with 10 points and eight rebounds while junior guard LaShon Cash added six points and five steals and sophomore forward Chineta Gilchrist added six points and ripped down a game-high 15 rebounds.

Steele said Gilchrist also did a good job guarding DeLand's C.C. Hayden. Hayden scored 14 points in the first half but Gilchrist held her scoreless in the second. Steele also said freshman Michelle Toomba turned in a superb defensive effort.

"It was a good win for the young girls," Steele said. "It was the first time they really came back. Once they settled down and started to pass the ball instead of pounding it on the floor it changed the game. Now I believe we can go to Winter Park and give them a better game than we did last time."

Supersub Dawson, Patterson Lift Lady Rams To 8th Victory

By Mark Blythe
Herald Sports Writer
LAKE MARY — Lake Mary supersub Gina Dawson and forward Cynthia Patterson spearheaded a third-quarter attack that boosted the Lady Rams to 68-49 win over the Daytona Beach Mainland Buccaneers in nonconference action Tuesday before 301 fans at Lake Mary High.

Lake Mary, the sixth-ranked team in state (4A), upped its record to 8-1 and will travel to St. Cloud Thursday. Mainland dropped to 5-2 on the season.

Dawson a reserve forward, finished with 12 points, seven rebounds, four steals and two assists. Lake Mary coach Bill Moore said Dawson gives the Lady Rams flexibility off the bench.

"She can play anywhere but point guard," Moore said. "She would be starting but it helps to have her come off the bench and put her into any position."

The 12 points is a career-high for Dawson, a junior who fills in well when other players need rest or get in foul trouble.

"My shots were falling tonight," Dawson said. "I was relaxed and received some really good passes."

Patterson, a forward, finished with a game high in both points (18) and rebounds (9).

The Lady Rams were sparked by Dawson and Patterson in the second half to pull away from a two-point halftime lead. Leading, 27-25, Lake Mary came out and outscored the Lady Buca 18-12 in the third quarter to take a 45-37 lead.

The Lady Rams put on two spurts in the fourth quarter to break the game open, power forward Sharon Bonaventure scored all of her eight points in the fourth period to pace the Lake Mary.

Point guard Gabby Olden had another fine game for the Lady Rams finishing with 12 points, nine assists and five steals.

The Lady Buca were led by Kristy Austell who tallied 18 points and Segena Mackerow who added 12. Teri Tetzlaff chipped in eight more for Mainland.

Tonya Lawson was also in

double digits for the Lady Rams scoring 14, while gathering four rebounds, four steals and two assists.

"Our depth wore them down," Moore said. "They were tired in the second half." "We've got to shoot better if we expect to be a contender."

By Chris Fister
Herald Sports Writer
Lyman's Lady Greyhounds used a strong defensive performance to claim their first win of the season, 24-20 over Oviedo's Lady Lions in the Seminole Athletic Conference opener Tuesday at Oviedo High.

Oviedo held a 13-10 halftime lead but scored just seven points in the second half while Lyman put up 14 points. Theeou Bouey's eight points were high for Lyman while Kim Boyle tossed in seven and Chandra Roberts added four.

Lyman, 1-6 overall, returns to action Thursday night at Orlando Edgewater. Oviedo, which fell to 3-6, plays again tonight at Melbourne Central Catholic.

"We broke the curse," Lyman coach Lisa Carlson said. "Now we can enjoy our first win for the next two days. We played fairly good defense and did some pressing and that's what pulled it out for us."

Jodie Switzer and Bobbie Kelley had nine points each for Oviedo but Kristin Harely, with two points, was the only other Lady Lion to score. Suzanne Hughes, Oviedo's second-leading scorer, was held without a point.

Lyman held a 22-20 lead late in the game and had the ball when Oviedo was forced to intentionally foul. Lyman made both free throws to make it 24-20, then held the ball the remainder of the game.

9:30 p.m. — Lake Mary vs. Clearwater Countryside

By Sam Cook
Herald Sports Editor
Dale Phillips may no longer call his pre-Christmas tournament the Oviedo Outlook, but the present and future outlook are promising just the same for the second Central Florida Classic.

Phillips, the veteran (196 victories) basketball coach for Oviedo High, has been holding his holiday affair for 12 years. Last year, it blossomed to 16 teams when Hempstead, N.Y. took home the top prize.

Phillips said this year's field is the best in 12 years. It includes No. 5 Jacksonville Raines and No. 9 Clearwater Countryside in the 4A poll, Gainesville Buchholz, which has just been restocked with football players, is among "also receiving votes."

"Buchholz is probably a top 10 team with its football players, too," Phillips said. "Then, Oviedo and (Stuart) South Fork also received votes in the 3A." Auburndale, with standout Terrance Barber, is another team to watch.

Phillips said interest has been shown by the Metro Burger King Tournament about a possible merger between the two fields next year. "They wanted to play their eight teams over there and we play our eight teams here. The, have the champions meet," Phillips said. "It is an interesting idea. I'm also going to look into a 24-team format. That would really be something."

The former Outlook started from humble beginnings.

"It started as just a little four-team tournament," he said on the eve of tonight's six opening games. "We're very happy with the way it has turned out. We wanted 16 teams again this year, but we had a couple of cancellations. It's a good 14-team field."

Phillips' Lions have been the surprise team in Central Florida. They are off to a 6-0 start, thanks to great balance and unselfishness from Garth Bolton, Chris Griffith, Robb Hughes, Dana Hill, Brian Wilson and Terry Campbell. All are around 10 points per game scoring-wise.

"They have worked together very well,"

Phillips said.

The tournament will be held at two sites — Oviedo and Lake Howell — starting with 5:30 games today. At Oviedo, Daytona Beach Father Lopez takes on Kissimmee Gateway, former champion South Fork battles Dunedin and Brantley tackles powerful Raines. At Lake Howell, Auburndale plays Winter Garden West Orange. Lyman meets Buchholz and Lake Mary opposes Clearwater Countryside.

Phillips will be an avid watcher of the Lopez-Gateway game. His Lions play the winner Thursday. Coaching counterpart Greg Robinson at Howell will be scouting on the Auburndale-West Orange tilt. His Hawks plays the winner Thursday.

Seminole High, which has played an NBA-like early season schedule, doesn't get a breather in the Kingdom of the Sun Holiday Classic at Ocala Vanguard. Coach Bill Klein's 4-3 Tribe takes on the state's No. 1-ranked team — 6-0 Miami High. Tipoff is 8 p.m. Friday, Dec. 26.

"(Vanguard coach) Jim Haley said it is an honor to play the 8 o'clock game," Klein said. "We know better than that. The honor is reserved for Miami High and we're supposed to be cannon fodder."

"We'll show them. It's a great opportunity to knock off No. 1."

O'Shea's Pin Grounds St. Cloud

By Chris Fister
Herald Sports Writer
St. Cloud's Bulldogs had visions of victory dancing in their heads Tuesday night, but Lake Howell's John O'Shea spoiled the Bulldogs' fun as his pin at the heavyweight division clinched a 39-30 victory for the Silver Hawks in prep wrestling action at St. Cloud.

Lake Howell remained unbeaten in dual matches and now takes off for the Christmas Holidays.

Going into the heavyweight match Tuesday night, St. Cloud held a 30-27 lead. St. Cloud could have clinched the victory with a win but O'Shea dashed the Bulldogs' hopes by pinning Mark Andrew in 1:07 for a 33-30 Lake Howell lead.

St. Cloud's hopes ended at the heavyweight division as Lake Howell's Jack Benedict won by forfeit at unlimited.

St. Cloud dominated the lighter weights Tuesday as it won three of the first four matches. Lake Howell's Jimmy Kress (128), Brian Horvath (134) and Dave Figler (140) then came through with consecutive wins to get the Silver Hawks back in the match.

St. Cloud moved back in front after Howell's Chris Cina was dealt his first dual-meet loss, and Nate Hoakins was pinned. Jose Collazo then came through with a big win for the Hawks as he edged Tom Rinehart, 5-4, at 169 pounds. Henry Heim then pinned Bill Gillette in 3:52 to keep Lake Howell within striking distance.

Marty Ballans put the Bulldogs in position to win the match as he pinned Al Valle in 3:30 at 222, but O'Shea then turned out the lights on the 'Dogs as he stuck Andrew.

America II Tunes Up For Final Run

FREMANTLE, Australia (UPI) — America II crewmen tuned their beaten boat Wednesday for its final contest in Australian waters, hopeful of emerging winners despite their loss in the America's Cup races.

The yacht, the $15 million hope of a three-year campaign, was one of eight competitors entered in a 26.8-mile exhibition fleet race on an Olympic triangle course Thursday. Competitors will be allowed to post advertisements on their 12-Meters for the first time.

"It should be fun," said John Bertrand, the San Francisco yachtsman who will skipper America II with Sailing Director Tom McLaughlin, of Madison, Conn., serving as tactician.

In contrast to America's Cup match racing involving only two boats at a time, several rivals compete in a fleet race. The outcome of the contest does not affect the Cup standings.

"We hope we do well," said America II spokesman Jack Wilkie. "But the truth is we didn't come here to win this. We came to win the America's Cup, and we're very disappointed."

For the first time in the trophy's 135-year history, the New York Yacht Club will not be participating in the semifinals. The flagship, the only hope for the return of the trophy lost to Australia in 1963, was defeated Sunday by New Zealand and eliminated from the regatta.

Other boats participating in the fleet race will be Dennis Connor's Stars & Stripes, New Zealand, the Chicago-based Heart of America, Italy's Azzurra, Alan Bond's Australia III, Great Britain's White Crusader and stabledmate White Horse Challenge.

New Zealand's fiberglass boat holds the No. 1 spot entering the semifinals Dec. 28 followed by Stars & Stripes in second, third-place U.S.A. and fourth-place French Kiss did not enter the fleet competition. America II came in fifth followed by White Crusader.

White Crusader skipper Harold Cudmore said he will make another bid for the Cup in 1990.

"We have an excellent boat but didn't get it to its absolute peak," said Cudmore. Various aspects of crewing, fitness, shore backup and the aftermath were right up there, but in the final analysis, we weren't quite good enough."

Cook Of The Week

Family-Oriented Teacher: 'I Have Always Loved Homemaking'

By Dorothy Greene
Herald Correspondent

Hospitality is the key word which describes why our Cook Of The Week is so very special, and why her guests are warmly welcomed to her lovely home in Lake Mary. "I'm a family-oriented person," says Martha Stevens, "and I enjoy it so much around the holidays when the Stevens family gets together. We draw names and have a little party with refreshments, and that has done so much to make it a family." The warmth and friendliness that is projected in Mrs. Stevens' cheerful smile is largely responsible for that "at home" feeling. "I love to entertain," she exclaims, "and I love the preparation."

One of 10 children raised on a family farm in Whigham, Grady County, Ga., Mrs. Stevens recalls, "It was a good life, one that I would want for many people because it's so rewarding. Our Christmas tree was always one that was raised on the farm. And it was a time when all the married brothers and sisters would come back home and we would sing Christmas carols around the piano. My father played a harmonica and that was always exciting; we looked forward to that." Fruitcakes that her mother baked months ahead and left to "season" were a special treat, Mrs. Stevens says. "I often helped my mother because she needed help, and that was the way I learned. It was good experience," she adds. "I helped my mother can the vegetables we raised on the farm. Of course, this added a variety to the meals in the winter time when there were no frozen foods." One of the things Mrs. Stevens still prepares as her mother did is the turkey dressing. "We've had four family reunions in recent years," says Mrs. Stevens, "and with so many children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren, it's really been great."

"I have always loved homemaking," declares Mrs. Stevens. "All the parts of it! When we came home from school, my mother would list all the chores to be done that afternoon. But we all worked together, and that's what made it so lovely. My parents valued an education, too. We did our chores, but you cleared the table and you did your homework. My mother was a teacher for three years before she married, and then we told her she had a classroom of her own!"

Although Mrs. Stevens has been retired from the Seminole school system since 1983, her goals were set years ago while attending Abraham Baldwin Agricultural College for Women where she earned a B.S. degree in vocational home economics. "My first teaching job was at Louisville Academy in Georgia for a year," says Mrs. Stevens, "where I taught a boys' class for six weeks. Just routine things like sewing on buttons, cooking breakfast and washing clothes. And, surprisingly, they loved it!" Mrs. Stevens still hears from many of her students who now have homes and families of their own, expressing appreciation for the lessons she has taught them.

After settling in Sanford in the spring of 1950, Mrs. Stevens began teaching third grade at Southside Elementary School, and that association lasted 19 years. "I will always remember how cooperative the parents were during those years," she says. "I even enjoyed staying after school to help the parents or help a child." This experience, our cook explains, is how she became aware of the special needs students have in order to grow to be responsible adults. During a leave of absence in 1970 and 1971, Mrs. Stevens earned a Master's degree in Guidance and Counseling at Rollins College, allowing her to add 12 more years as guidance teacher, at Forest City Elementary School, to an already rewarding career. "I have always tried to teach self-discipline to my students," she says, "to respect yourself and do your best." Teaching child development in her home economics courses and working with youngsters at the elementary grade level was the deciding factor in Mrs. Stevens' changeover to guidance and counseling. "I realized it was the young child who needed help," she says, "and I feel like I had a part in the lives of so many people, a thousand or more, I guess. I've worked diligently, and I've had a happy and rewarding career."

Widowed when her daughter, Debbie Rowland (Mrs. Chuck) Hudson, was only nine years old, Mrs. Stevens emphasizes that her work and her friends were the reason she remained in the Sanford area. "We knew our family would love us and find us wherever we were," she says, "but at a time like that it was great to have someplace to belong." Mrs. Stevens is the proud grandmother of three lovely girls, Jessica, Sarah and Meghan who live in Seffner, Fla. with their parents.

Since becoming Mrs. Tim Stevens in 1964, Martha has enjoyed making their home a wonderful place to visit. Tucked away in a secluded wooded area of Lake Mary, Mrs. Stevens says, "I call it my country home. Our cousin, Mary Joyce Bateman, built it, and what I enjoy about it is the pine trees and being able to look out and see all the beauty." Tim Stevens has also retired as an engineer for the Seaboard Systems Railroad and sometimes lends a hand with the cooking. "He's wonderful at barbecuing," says Mrs. Stevens, "and he loves to do that."

Being raised on a country farm, Mrs. Stevens still enjoys gardening, cooking and collecting

Chili Cook-Off 8 Teams Of Experts Mix Beans, Meat For Prizes

By Carol Gentry
Herald Correspondent
Cauldrons boiled and pots bubbled sending a spicy cloud over County Road 427 as Longwood VFW Post #8207 and the Central Florida Chapter of the Paralyzed Veterans of America held their "Second Annual 'Remember Pearl Harbor' Chili Cook-Off and Auction" Dec. 6. Eight teams of "experts" combined beans and meat with secret ingredients to create special chili that might win attention, heartburn and trophies from a distinguished panel of judges.

Each group brought a variety of experiences and recipes to this contest. The "Unforgettable Chili" team of Bill Clements, Diane Thompson, Jerry Shurman and Emily Shurman used white clams as their secret ingredient in a 100-year-old Florida recipe that had been handed down for generations through family members. "The Marine Corps Booth," manned by Lake Mary High School Junior R.O.T.C. students led by Bernie Valentine, used "Armor-Piercing Chili for All" as their battle cry. The recipe was so new that they were still experimenting with it on the day of competition. Their not-so-secret ingredients were West Indian hot sauce and Jalapeno peppers.

Some team names were as unique as their product. Where else could one find "Ragin' Cajuns," "Chief Sitting Bull with Indian Maidens" and the "Georgia's Homemade Hoosier Chili Team" in one location?

The brave judges with hearty stomachs and strong taste buds were Ed Rose, council from Altamonte Springs, Pat Clark, Channel 9 news sportscaster, and Dean LaCore, commander of VFW Post #8207. They observed, smelled and stirred mixtures before tasting each entry. Anonymous batches of chili were placed in numbered cups to ensure fair judging, then each recipe was rated individually on a scale of 1 to

Joe and Wanda Badger portray "Sitting Bull and Maidens."

Spirit Of Yule Season Won't Soothe Party Guest's Rancor

DEAR ABBY: I have one of those awkward "don't want to hurt anyone's feelings" situations, and I don't know quite how to handle it.

I have a very good friend (I'll call her Mary) who tends to get depressed over the holidays because her family is scattered across the country, and she's alone. My parents are planning a Christmas dinner for family and friends, so I asked my mother if I could invite Mary. She said "Certainly." I invited Mary, and she was thrilled to accept.

It seems that Mother had invited her friend, "Rita," for that evening. Yesterday Mother saw Rita. She asked Mother who else was coming to her party, and Mother told her, adding, "My daughter's friend, Mary, will be there." Rita said, "I'm sorry, I am not coming. I know Mary, and I refuse to be in the same room with her!"

You can see the quandary. I didn't know that Mary and Rita even knew each other. Mother said she tried to persuade Rita to tolerate Mary's presence for the one evening, but she flatly reused.

My mom and I are caught in the middle. I don't want to react to the invitation to Mary because of Rita, and my mom feels terrible that Rita will not come because of Mary.

IN THE MIDDLE
DEAR IN: The solution is simple. Mary is in, and Rita — by her own refusal to attend if Mary does — is out. No guest has the right to disinvite another guest.

DEAR ABBY: My nephew and I have this bet on, and we need you to help us settle it. If a gentleman invites a lady to go to the dog track with him, isn't it only proper that he pay for the lady's betting costs? I say it is.

Please rush your answer, because I am going to the track

as soon as I win this bet.
V. IN COUNCIL BLUFFS, IOWA

DEAR V.: There is no need for me to rush my answer because you've lost the bet.

When a gentleman invites a lady to the track, Monte Carlo, Las Vegas or anywhere to gamble, he pays the admission fee — if there is one — but unless he has agreed in advance to stake her, she's on her own.

DEAR ABBY: It seems that the more things change, the more they stay the same. As I was driving to work last week, I heard a young, pregnant girl (on the radio) talking about how her teen-age boyfriend talked her into it. She said he told her, "If you loved me, you would." So she did.

When I was a young girl (25 years ago), the same line was being used. In one of your columns I read the perfect comeback. I remember this one so well because I used it a few times.

He said, "If you loved me, you would," and I said, "If you loved me, you wouldn't ask me to." It worked every time.

Spring Offers 'Soul' Awards

The long-running R&B TV show "Soul Train" is kicking off its new awards show this spring, honoring achievement in the fields of urban, black, dance and crossover music.

Luther Vandross and Dionne Warwick will co-host the first annual Soul Train Music Awards on March 24, to be taped in Los Angeles and offered for national syndication.

(BU) Pink Floyd, who have sold more than 80 million albums worldwide and who have not worked together since 1983, are now officially defunct, thanks to a ruling by the London High Court. Band co-founder Roger Waters petitioned the court to legally disband the group. His request was that Floyd "retire gracefully from the music scene with its integrity and reputation intact, and the members should pursue some other musical direction individually."

(BU) Prince is almost done recording yet another album. He's currently doing final mixes at Sunset Sound in Los Angeles. Fans are curious as to what His Purpleness will sound like with a new band and a new musical direction.

(BU) Mick Jagger, on the other hand, is just starting his next solo LP. Jeff Beck will be playing guitar.

(BU) While the first compact disc single was a promotional gimmick — a special CD version of "36 Special" last single given away to radio stations — the CD "45" is now a reality in England.

No plans yet to distribute CD singles in the United States, though.

(BU) "Body Slam," the rock 'n' wrestling movie starring Rowdy Roddy Piper and Captain Lou Albano and featuring the music of Bachman Turner Overdrive, was being released for a limited run prior to its national opening in January.

(BU) Laid-back crooner Jimmy Buffett is making more money outside the record business than in it. His Margaritaville Store, which distributes a mail-order catalogue to some 9,000 members of Buffett's fan club, is doing land-office business selling T-shirts, margarita glasses, Caribbean jewelry and plastic pink flamingos.

(BU) Speaking of Australia, Oz-ophiles can achieve a psychic kinship with their fellow students Down Under thanks to the Countdown Student Diary, a copy of which accidentally came in the mail to Video Beat.

It's a cute little datebook filled with fan club addresses, rock star birthdays, suggested excuses for late homework and comic horoscopes. It also gives an interesting insight into the similarities — and differences — between Us and Them.

Microwave Magic

Serve Quick Drinks During Holidays

Midge Mycoff Home Economist Seminole Community College

'Tis the season for drop in visits, family gatherings and even quiet evenings at home. For a change of beverage to be served with cookies or other holiday refreshments try one of these easy microwave recipes.

When you are tired or hungry (out of steam), a hot beverage can really "get you moving again."

SPICED COFFEE
4 cups hot water
1 stick cinnamon
1 teaspoon whole allspice
1 Tablespoon sugar
Dash of nutmeg
1 Tablespoon instant coffee
Makes 4-1 servings.
Combine water, stick cinnamon, allspice, sugar, and nutmeg in 1 quart batter bowl. Microwave on 100% power 6-8 minutes, or until mixture comes to a full boil. Remove from oven, strain. Pour mixture over instant coffee in a serving pot. Stir to dissolve. Ready to serve.
This is as pretty as tasty!

SPICED CRANBERRY TEA
1 package (12 ounces) fresh cranberries

2 quarts water
1 1/2 cups sugar
3 bags black tea
2 cinnamon sticks
2 cups orange juice
Wash and sort the cranberries. Combine the berries in a 3 quart microwave safe casserole. Cover. Microwave on 100% power 18-20 minutes, or until boiling. (The berries should pop open.) Stir several times during this timing. Strain mixture to remove the pulp and seeds. Extract all the juice. Drain pulp. Return juice to 3 quart container. Add tea bags and cinnamon sticks. Cover. Microwave on 100% power 4-6 minutes, or until boiling. Allow to stand 2-3 hours. Remove tea bags and cinnamon sticks.

To serve, microwave on 100% power, covered, 10-12 minutes, or until steaming hot. Stir in orange juice. Garnish with orange slices.

If serving immediately, it can be ladled into heat resistant cups.

If it is to be served over a long period of time, it can be poured into a crock pot and kept warm on a medium temperature setting.

Hot or cold this punch is good!

CAPE COD SIPPER
1 quart cranberry juice
6 ounce can frozen orange juice

6 ounce can water
1/2 cup cinnamon red hot
Combine ingredients in a 2-quart container. Microwave on 100% power 6-9 minutes, or until the red hot dissolves. Stir every 3 minutes. Sweeten with sugar if desired.

If you wish to serve this

COLD, add 7-up and pour over ice. Call it a Cape Cod Cooler! What has lots of calories, is good for you, and is served during the holidays?

MICROWAVE EGGNOG
4 cups milk
1/4 cup sugar
1 teaspoon vanilla
1/4 teaspoon salt
2 beaten eggs
1 beaten egg yolk
1 egg white
1/2 teaspoon vanilla
2 Tablespoons sugar
Fresh ground nutmeg
In a 2 quart batter bowl, combine milk, 1/4 cup sugar, 1 teaspoon vanilla and salt.

Microwave on 100% power 6-8 minutes, or until hot. Stir. Combine eggs and 1 egg yolk. Gradually stir 1 cup of the hot mixture into beaten egg mixture. Return to hot mixture; microwave 2 minutes more. Stir once. Beat egg white and 1/2 teaspoon vanilla till soft peaks form; gradually add 2 tablespoons sugar, beating to stiff peaks. Pour eggnog into mugs. Top with dollops of the egg white mixture. Sprinkle with nutmeg.

Will make 8 (4 ounce) servings.
A merry holiday season to you all. I'll be back in the new year.

Flatter Friends With Gift Of Gourmet Chic

By Aileen Claire NEA Food Editor

Surprise gifts from the kitchen take many forms. Take a cue from restaurants and prepare special fruit or honey butters for memorable Christmas giving. Other special items to whip up at home are marinated mushrooms, chutneys and special sauces.

Everyone enjoys tasting such treats, which are inspired by specialties created by top-flight chefs or very expensive restaurants.

MARINATED MUSHROOMS OF PROVENCE
3/4 cup water
1/2 cup white wine vinegar
1/2 cup olive oil
8 cloves garlic, bruised
1 teaspoon coarse black pepper or crushed red pepper
1 teaspoon dried herb of your choice (oregano, thyme, tarragon, dill weed)
Dash salt

8 ounces fresh whole button mushrooms
Fresh herb sprigs (optional)
In saucepan, combine water, vinegar, oil, garlic, pepper, dried herb and salt. Bring to boil; reduce heat and simmer for 10 minutes. Add mushrooms; set aside to cool, stirring occasionally. Spoon cooled mushrooms into two 8-ounce jars, packing snugly. Pour liquid over mushrooms to cover. Tuck a sprig or two of fresh herb into each jar, if desired. (Fresh herb should correspond to the dried herb used in the liquid.) Cover; refrigerate at least 24 hours to marinate. This kitchen-tested recipe makes two 8-ounce jars.

HONEY BUTTER
1 1/4 pounds of butter, softened
2 1/2 tablespoons honey
1 package (10 ounces) frozen sliced strawberries in syrup, thawed

With electric mixer or food processor, whip butter and honey until soft and light. On high speed gradually beat in strawberries, blending smooth. Pack in crocks, cover. May be refrigerated up to 1 month. Butter can be served as an accompaniment to croissants, toast, waffles, crackers, tea breads, etc. This kitchen-tested recipe makes about 1 1/4 pounds.

10. Ed Rose was heard to comment, "Some of this chili sneaks up on you after five minutes or so..." There were red faces, watering eyes and perspiration as they partook of the offerings. Much water was consumed between tasting entries as judges declared that all contestants could be winners.

Known for his fondness of Chili, Pat Clark said that each mixture should be judged on texture, consistency, odor (he exclaimed that odor was the proper word rather than smell) and color. "I would have been a better judge," he said, "but Ed Rose kept eating all of the samples before I could get to them."

Winners in the various categories were as follows: Florida Native Chili, "The Unforgettable Chili Team"; Yankee Chili, "U.S. Navy Chili Team"; Most Exotic Chili, "Ragin' Cajuns"; Best Booth Award, "Chief Sitting Bull and Maidens"; and last but not least, a Most Obnoxious Chili Award went to "The Marine Corps Booth."

Runner-up teams were Ken Reed and Sons, "Georgia's Homemade Hoosier Chili Team" and VFW Post #5405 from Winter Springs. Trophies were received by all award winners.

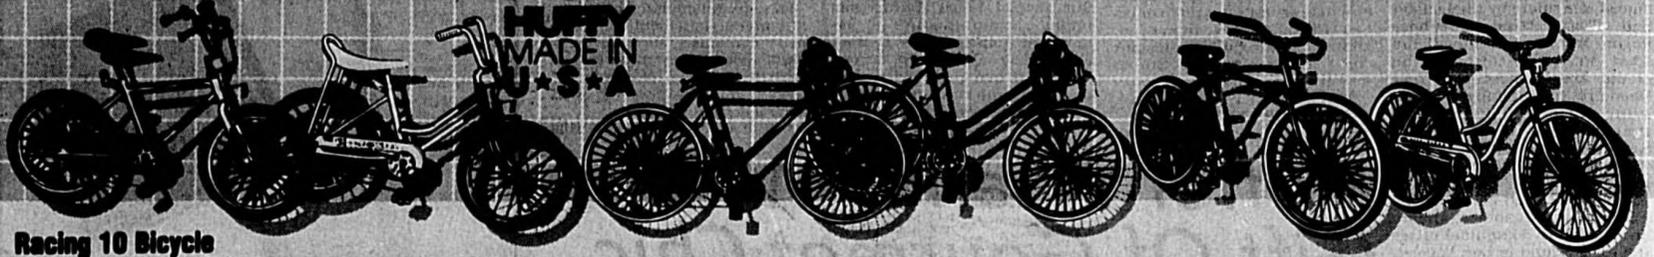

After the contest, an auction was held inside the VFW Hall. Funds from this event will be shared jointly by the C.F.P.V.A. and VFW veteran's organizations to be used for their many community service programs.

recipes. "I'm learning to play the organ now, and it brings me so much enjoyment," she says. A typical day at the Stevens' household means getting up at six o'clock and taking a brisk walk for about an hour. "Of course, we enjoy shopping and T. V.," laughs Mrs. Stevens. "and I'm an avid reader and collector of recipes." Add swimming, sewing and stitching, and some traveling to the list and you have a very busy lady, but the list doesn't end there.

Martha Stevens is very much dedicated to her activities in the Rho Chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma, an honorary teachers society, the Retired Teachers Organization of Seminole County, and is always willing to donate her time to volunteer work, most recently at the Golden Age Games. She also enjoys contributing to bake sales and will gladly collect donations for the Mothers March of Dimes effort. Mrs. Stevens is chairman of the Arts Department of the Woman's Club of Sanford and being members of the First United Methodist Church of Sanford. Mrs. Stevens adds, "The people in the church have meant a lot to us for our happiness and contentment."

Making other people happy is one of Mrs. Stevens' favorite things to do, especially if cooking is involved. Getting ready for holiday menus gives our cook a chance to call upon some old family recipes and special treats from old and dear friends. "The old fashioned fruit cake recipe was given to me by my cousin and best friend in high school, Christine Knight Whigham, of Cairo, Georgia," says Mrs. Stevens. "and my dear mother-in-law taught me how to heat the iron skillet just right for the Johnny Cake."

Listed below are Martha Stevens' very best heartwarming recipes:

LIGHT OLD FASHIONED FRUIT CAKE

Sift together:
4 cups plain flour
1/2 teaspoon baking powder
1-1/2 teaspoons salt
1-1/2 teaspoons cinnamon
1 teaspoon nutmeg
Add:
1 quart whole pecans, halved
3/4 lb. chopped candied pineapple

3/4 lb. whole candied cherries
1 lb. box golden raisins
Mix until all fruit and nuts are well coated with dry ingredients. Set aside.

Cream 1 cup margarine or butter with 2-1/4 cups sugar. Cream until light and fluffy. Add six unbeaten eggs. Beat well. Add one ounce bottle brandy flavoring. Mix this batter with fruit mixture until blended well. Turn into tube pan lined with aluminum foil. Bake in slow oven (275 degrees) for 2-3/4 to 3 hours. One half hour before cake is done, brush top with honey or light corn syrup. Return to oven to finish baking.

MARTHA'S PIMIENTO CHEESE

(Perfect for party sandwiches)
4 oz. mild Cheddar cheese, grated
4 oz. sharp Cheddar cheese, grated
2 oz. canned pimiento peppers, mashed
1 teaspoon liquid from pimientos
1 teaspoon grated onion
Combine above ingredients.
Add approx. 1/4 cup light mayonnaise and 1/4 cup light salad dressing. Season to taste: 1/8 tsp. pepper, seasoned salt and 1/4 tsp. sugar. Mix to spreading consistency. Makes one pint.

JOHNNY CAKE

2/3 cup sifted self-rising flour
3/4 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon baking soda
1 teaspoon baking powder
1 tablespoon granulated sugar
1-1/3 cups corn meal
2 eggs, well beaten
1-2/3 cups buttermilk
1/4 cup melted shortening
Combine and sift together first 5 ingredients; stir in corn meal. Combine eggs, milk, and shortening and add all at once to dry ingredients. Stir just until blended, no longer. Add oil to iron fry pan and heat. Pour mixture into prepared pan and bake at 350 degrees for 30 minutes. Cut as desired and serve hot.

CRANBERRY SALAD

1 pkg. (6 oz.) cherry Jell-O
2 cups ground cranberries
1 cup sugar
1 small can crushed pineapple
1 orange, ground in food chopper or blender
1 cup pecans, chopped (optional)
1 cup miniature marshmallows (optional)
Mix Jell-O with 3/4 cup hot water. Partially set in refrigerator. Grind orange and cranberries. Add sugar. Set one hour in refrigerator. Combine with other ingredients and let congeal.

ICED COFFEE PUNCH

2 oz. instant coffee
1-3/4 cups sugar
1 pint boiling water
dash of salt
2 teaspoons vanilla
Mix above ingredients ahead of time and refrigerate.
1 gallon cold milk
1/2 gallon vanilla ice cream
1 quart chocolate ice cream
1 quart coffee ice cream
1/2 cup Rum, optional, added to coffee mixture
Start with half of the coffee mixture; add half of the milk and ice creams to punch bowl. To refill, add the other half of the ingredients. Serves 50.

SPICED TEA

10 cups water
2 cups sugar
2 oranges, juice and rind
2 lemons, juice and rind
10 whole cloves
10 whole allspice
4 teaspoons loose tea
Boil together for 10 minutes: 8 cups water, sugar, lemon and orange rinds, cloves and allspice tied in a bag of cheesecloth. Pour 2 cups boiling water over tea. Let stand 5 minutes. Add this and juices to first mixture. Strain through a thin cloth. If tea is too strong, add a little more water. Serve very hot or very cold. Can be served hot from your favorite crock pot.

ROAST BEEF

3-1/2 lb. rump roast
Season to taste with seasoned salt, pepper and rosemary. Place in roasting pan and add 2 cups water. Bake, uncovered, 30 minutes at 425 degrees. Reduce oven to 325 degrees and bake to desired doneness approx. 2-1/2 hours (well done). Add water as needed for gravy. Serves 4 to 6. Slice leftovers thinly for delicious sandwiches.

LEMON BARS

1 pkg. lemon cake mix
1 can lemon frosting
3 eggs
1 pkg. cream cheese, 8 ounces
1 stick oleo
Melt oleo, add to cake mix. Then add one slightly beaten egg. Pat mixture into a greased 9 x 13 inch pan. Combine frosting and cream cheese; set aside 2/3 cup for later use. Beat with mixer for 3 minutes. Pour over first layer. Bake at 350 degrees for 30 minutes. Remove from oven and let cool. Spread with frosting and cut into bars.

Action When A Doctor Is Felt Incompetent

Dr. Gott

DEAR DR. GOTT — Have you personally reported an incompetent doctor to the medical board? Do you know of any case in which a doctor has been prevented from practicing?

DEAR READER — I have not reported an incompetent doctor to the medical board because I have never personally been involved with a doctor whom I consider to be incompetent. I don't agree with the manner in which some of my colleagues handle medical problems, but this doesn't mean that they are incompetent. They may not agree with what I do, either.

This is not to say that there are no incompetent doctors. I do know of physicians and surgeons who have been prevented from practicing by having their hospital privileges suspended or their licenses revoked. However, before such a devastating punishment is handed out, the alleged incompetent is entitled to a variety of legal avenues to protect himself. These include a fair hearing by the medical or ethics board of the county or state medical society, the right of legal representation to refute the charges or the mandatory use of medical or psychological treatment. For example, some doctors with drug-related or psychiatric diseases can be rehabilitated and allowed to practice their trades under supervision.

All doctors are human; all humans make mistakes. But human frailty does not necessarily mean incompetence. On the other hand, there are ways to remove an incompetent doctor from practice. These vary from state to state, so if you believe that a doctor is incompetent, I suggest that you write the board of ethics or board of censors of your state medical society to find out how alleged incompetence is handled in your community.

DEAR DR. GOTT — I had had trouble with diarrhea in 1980. I got a prescription for a bottle of blackberry brandy with something else mixed in. It helped a lot. The druggist and the doctors have heard of it, but can't get it anymore. Do you know of anything else that might work?

DEAR READER — There are many products designed to relieve diarrhea. Two over-the-counter remedies are Kaopectate and Pepto-Bismol. Other medicines, which are available by prescription in this country, contain derivatives of opium, an effective anti-diarrheal. If you have had no major trouble with diarrhea in 26 years, I doubt that you need any medicine. If you are having recurring diarrhea, see a doctor to find out why.

WIN AT BRIDGE

By James Jacoby

If you are not sure about the best way to defend a bridge hand, try breaking up the communication between declarer's hand and the dummy.

North bid two diamonds as a Jacoby transfer (used after a no-trump opening to allow the strong hand to be declarer) and then invited game. Although South had a balanced hand, he elected to play the five-four heart fit and try for 10 tricks. That was a good decision, since a diamond lead would have easily beaten three no-trump.

East won the ace of hearts and played a club. When South played low, West won the jack and played back another. South won the queen, played another round of trumps and then led a diamond, West took the ace of diamonds and now fell from grace by playing the spade queen. That looked harmless, but watch what happened. Declarer took the king of spades, cashed the club ace and then ran all the trumps. On the last trump South threw a low spade. West now had to reduce to three cards, unguarding either the spade or the diamond jack. If West threw a diamond, the king would be played from dummy and declarer would get to his hand to take the now good 10. If West threw a spade, declarer would take the spade ace and get to dummy with the high diamond to take the good spade 10. All of this could never have happened if West had returned a diamond after taking the ace.

Dreidel Cookies Part Of Hanukkah Tradition

What better way to celebrate Hanukkah, or the Feast of Lights, than by serving traditional dreidel cookies?

ORANGE DREIDEL COOKIES

1 1/4 cups butter or pareve margarine
3/4 cup sugar
1 large egg
4 cups all-purpose flour
1 tablespoon baking powder
Salt to taste
1/3 cup orange juice
4 teaspoons grated orange peel

In large bowl, cream butter; gradually beat in sugar. Beat in egg. Stir together flour, baking powder and salt; blend in dry ingredients alternately with orange juice. Stir in orange peel. Wrap dough and chill 3 hours, or overnight.

Roll out small portions of dough 1/8-inch thick on a floured board. Cut out cookies in the shape of a dreidel about 5 inches long. Place on ungreased baking sheet. Bake in a 375-degree oven for 10 to 12 minutes until lightly browned. Cool on wire racks. Spread all but handle of dreidel with Orange Glaze (recipe below). While glaze is still wet, dip toothpick in Chocolate Glaze (recipe below) and draw the proper Hebrew letters on each dreidel. This kitchen-tested recipe makes about 3 dozen cookies.

ORANGE GLAZE

1 1/4 cups sifted confectioners' sugar
3 tablespoons orange juice
1 1/4 teaspoons grated orange peel

In a small bowl, beat confectioners' sugar with orange juice and orange peel until smooth. Use to decorate Orange Dreidel Cookies.

CHOCOLATE GLAZE

1 tablespoon unsweetened cocoa
1 tablespoon orange juice
In small bowl, combine all ingredients; mix until smooth.

Party Platter

Discover Ease Of Deli-Delicious Entertaining

Fold it. Roll it. Lay it in place. These are the directions for preparing an attractive party platter of tasty and nutritious processed meats for your holiday table suggests The National Hot Dog & Sausage Council.

Processed meats offer a simple solution to entertaining — an equation that meets the requirements of a busy hostess.

Color plus texture plus goodness equals a satisfied guest.

Nothing could be easier than selecting a variety of thinly sliced loaf and roll products. Consider the variety of styles available prepackaged or in the deli: Colorful olive, pickle and pepper loaves; bologna, salami (Genoa, hard, cotto, Italian, Milano, dry, Hungarian); pepperoni; ham (spiced, cooked, honey) and Canadian bacon.

Mix textures and meat tones, laying slices in alternating patterns along the tray. To create a ruffled edge, fold thin slices of pepper loaf into triangles. (Fold a slice first in half, then in quarters.)

Make sausage rolls from any style of sliced product. For an extra flair, spread peanut butter, cheddar cheese spread or cream cheese across the slice, then tightly roll and secure with a toothpick. If you would like to make even smaller bite-sized roll-ups, cut the sausage rolls in four to five pieces.

Fillings for sausage rolls can be as simple or elaborate as time permits. For different taste sensations sprinkle grated Parmesan cheese or Italian herbs on the fillings before rolling.

CREAM CHEESE FILLING: Blend 8 ounces cream cheese with 2 tablespoons minced celery or 2 minced small sweet pickles.

A chafing dish of cocktail frank is another convenient table trick. These little bite-size hot dogs are appealing steamed and served with hot mustard dip or mixed with a tart sauce and simmered. Serve with toothpicks.

SWEET & SOUR FRANKS: Add pineapple chunks, chopped pieces of green and red pepper to your favorite sweet and sour sauce. Mix with cocktail franks and simmer.

CHERRY FRANK FLIPS: Mix one can crushed pineapple with one can chafing frank. Mix over cocktail franks or cut up regular size franks.

Treat party guests to a colorful variety of processed meats.

Another quick idea for completing your holiday party table is pasta and sausage — a great combination of flavors and nutrients. These two, whether cold or hot, are always a favorite.

Select a variety of your favorite prepared meats and combine with easy-to-fix pasta. Now there's a plentiful selection of pasta shapes to choose from including vegetable flavored, cockscrew, shell or noodle.

Here's a recipe for a pasta-sausage side dish that doubles as either a cold salad or warm entree:

SAUSAGE-PASTA COMBO DELIGHT

1 cup mayonnaise or salad dressing
1/4 cup chopped parsley
1 cup broccolini flowers, stir-fried
1 cup cauliflowerets, stir-fried
1 8-ounce cheddar or American cheese, cubed

1 cup pasta (your favorite shape)
1 cup sausage, cubed or thin slices chopped
(Salami, bologna, ham or franks)

Combine ingredients. For cold salad, chill. For warm dish, heat in oven or microwave until cheese begins to melt (1-2 minutes). Remove and lightly mix again before serving. Serves 4-5.

South Draws Into Heart-Felt Holidays

By John DeMers
UPI Food Editor

NATCHEZ, Miss. (UPI) — Each year about this time, Bobby Porter remembers his mother's cafe in Rolling Fork, a sleepy town in the Mississippi Delta where she first learned how good home cooking could be.

The owner of the Post House restaurant can, of course, think of her mother at any time, along with an aunt who operated an eatery in tiny St. Joseph, La., for nearly 50 years.

Yet it's during the holidays that Porter, like other people in other walks of life, recalls the experiences that still help her through the inevitable hard times.

"My mother operated that cafe out of a shoe box and even waited on the tables," recalled Porter, who waited on more than a few tables herself before becoming one of the most successful restaurateurs in Natchez. "She cooked and she mopped."

All the same, like her mother before her Porter is never far from her restaurant's kitchen.

Porter thought of all these traditions recently when she abandoned the building in which she raised the Post House to fame — the former King's Tavern, believed to be the oldest building in the Mississippi Territory — for a spacious new home in a stylish complex called the Canal Street Depot.

The depot itself is not without traditions, however, built as it was in 1910 by the Mississippi Central Railroad.

Falling into disrepair after passenger traffic ceased around 1950, it stayed in that shape until a recent restoration by the Germany family. The Dallas oilmen had already returned the Natchez Eola hotel to a glory beyond anything it had previously once known.

Porter opened her new Post House in September, seating 120 for three meals a day, seven days a week — and just three days after closing the original. Happily, the menu made the trip untouched, a virtual encyclopedia of down-home goodie with just a tad of European styling.

Here are Bobby Porter's recipes from the Post House for two desserts sure to turn up on any Deep South table during the holidays. They certainly will be served around town during the festive Christmas in Natchez celebration.

SOUTHERN CHRISTMAS CAKE

1 15-ounce package golden raisins
1 11-ounce package Zante currants

1 fifth bourbon whiskey
3 sticks butter
2 cups sugar
12 eggs
1 cup wild plum jelly
1 cup molasses
1 tsp baking soda
4 cups whole wheat flour
1 tsp allspice
1 tsp mace
1 tsp black pepper
2 tsp cloves
2 tsp ground cinnamon
1 cup lemon peel, chopped
1 cup orange peel, chopped
2 pints fruit preserves of your choice, chopped and drained of syrup
3 cups pecans, chopped
4 ounces candied ginger (optional)

2 cups candied chopped dates or figs
2 cups candied chopped pineapple

2 cups candied chopped apricots
Three hours before starting, empty the raisins and currants into a saucepan and pour all but 1 cup of whiskey over them. Simmer over low heat until they are puffed, stirring every 20 minutes.

Cream the butter and the sugar, adding the eggs one at a time and beating well. Add the jelly, followed by the molasses and baking soda.

In a separate bowl, blend the flour with the allspice, mace, black pepper, cloves and cinnamon. Dredge all the peel, preserves, fruits and nuts except the raisins and currants in the flour, then pour these dredged items into a large kettle.

Pour in the egg batter and stir thoroughly, then add the puffed raisins and currants. Prepare 2 tube pans or 4 loaf pans by lining them with greased brown paper. Pour in the batter and bake for 2 hours in a preheated 275-degree oven.

Remove the cakes from the oven and soak with additional bourbon whiskey — all the whiskey they will hold. When the cakes have cooled, wrap them and store them, if possible for 4 to 6 weeks before cutting.

DIKIE PECAN PIE

1 cup sugar
3 Tbsp butter
3 eggs, lightly beaten
1/4 tsp salt
1 tsp vanilla
1 cup light corn syrup
1 1/4 cups chopped pecans
1 unbaked pie shell

Mix all the ingredients but the pie shell together and pour the mixture into the shell. Bake for 45 minutes in a preheated 350-degree oven. The pie should be golden brown. If it browns too quickly, cover with aluminum foil until it finishes baking. Serves 8.

Homemade Condiments Rate High For Person Who Has Everything

Personal creations from your kitchen make special holiday gifts. Recipients appreciate the warmth and care implied by your labors, and the presents remind them of your friendship as the foodstuffs are savored throughout the winter. Homemade condiments, a good choice for holiday gift giving, are especially popular and easy to make.

Oriental Fruit Mustard blends sweet and savory flavors and heightens them with the mellow piquancy of pepper sauce. The liquid pepper seasoning adds a depth of flavor plain cayenne pepper cannot match. One batch of this mustard makes several small jars of a sauce that is ideal with chicken, ham or pork, a condiment for the table. It's also well suited to be a dip for crackers or a sandwich spread, so let the receiver know its versatile character to take advantage of all its luscious uses.

For those who love old-fashioned pickled fruits, Ginger Pear Pickles will be a favorite treat. Sweet and tart, with just the right touch of spice, the pickles go well with roasted or grilled meats as well as curries and other spicy foods. When diced, the pickles are a tasty addition to egg, chicken or turkey salad or a zesty ingredient in appetizer toppings. The peaches are also naturals with cheeses and cold cut platters. And for imaginative dining, serve them with rich vanilla ice cream.

Pickled Shallots is a hearty relish that complements cold meats, pates and cheeses. Its addictive appeal comes from a careful balance of seasonings. The savory combination is achieved with red pepper sauce, which blends flavors as it enhances foods with its own lively character. Serve the shallots with fried chicken, ham or cold salads for a delightful change of pace.

Relishes can simplify holiday shopping decisions. A jar or two of relish, wrapped in colorful paper or country-style fabric, will easily let you convey the holiday's bounty of good foods and good cheer with a distinctive personal touch.

ORIENTAL FRUIT MUSTARD

2 cups (16 ounces) brown mustard
1/3 cup flour
3 cups (24 ounces) apricot preserves
3/4 cup dry sherry
1/3 cup soy sauce
6 medium cloves garlic, pressed
1 1/4 teaspoons red pepper sauce

3/4 teaspoon ground ginger
In top of double boiler blend mustard and flour. Add preserves, sherry, soy sauce, garlic, pepper sauce and ginger; mix well. Cook over simmering water until thickened (about 10 minutes), stirring often.

GINGER PEAR PICKLES

2 cups water
1 1/3 cups distilled white vinegar
2 cups apple juice

1 cup sugar
1/3 cup sliced fresh ginger
1 teaspoon red pepper sauce
1/2 teaspoon salt
15 whole cloves
4 cinnamon sticks (2-inch lengths)
1 lime, sliced
12 medium pears, cored, cut in wedges
(bosc, bartlett or anjou)

1 cup raisins
In a large pot combine water, vinegar, apple juice, sugar, ginger, pepper sauce and salt. Tie cloves, cinnamon sticks, and lime in cheesecloth bag; add to pot. Cover, simmer 5 minutes. Add pears and raisins. Cook 10 minutes or until pears are translucent, (pears should remain firm, not mushy). Discard spices and lime slices. Let pears cool slightly; cover, chill. Flavors will blend better if pears are kept covered in the refrigerator several days before using. Pears may be stored several weeks in the refrigerator in closed containers.

PICKLED SHALLOTS

3 pounds small shallots or pearl onions
2 cups white vinegar
2 cups water
6 tablespoons dried rosemary, crumbled

2 1/2 teaspoons salt
3/4 teaspoon red pepper sauce
Drop shallots into large pot of boiling water; cook 1 minute. Drain; rinse with cold water. Cut off roots and slip skin off; set aside. In large saucepot combine vinegar, water, sugar, rosemary, salt and pepper sauce; simmer 3 minutes. Add shallots; simmer 15 minutes. Cool slightly. Cover, refrigerate. Allow to stand 2 to 3 days to blend flavors. May be kept refrigerated several weeks in closed containers.

Friends will relish something from the kitchen.

For holidays well worth remembering.

1/4 INCH TRIM

In the Publix meat department you'll find professional meat cutters who take extra steps to make sure you take home the LEANEST CUTS POSSIBLE. Our steaks and roasts, pork and lamb are trimmed to not over 1/4 INCH AVERAGE. That saves you money. Because less fat means more value for your food dollar. Look for "FACTS" brochures and displays in your Publix meat department. They'll tell you how to choose delicious meat meals that are low in fat, cholesterol and calories—but high in taste and nutritional value. And look for your favorite cuts of Publix meat—always lean, always the best.
