For Heading Off Riots

Kirk Lauds Negro Youth

TAMPA (AP) — Gov. Claude Kirk pressed certificates of commendation into the hands of more than 50 Negro youngsters today and thanked them for walking riot-torn streets to noisier tempers at the height of Tampa's racial violence last week.

"By your actions, you have integrated yourselves into the leadership of your community," Kirk told members of the City Youth Patrol.

"By your community, I do not mean the Negro community," he added. "I mean the total community."

The youth patrol—volunteers who roamed five explosive Negro neighborhoods and headed off a fourth night of burning and looting last Wednesday—stood in a vacant lot beside the rubble of a fire-gutted store building on the street where the trouble started.

All too often, under racial significance is read into outbreaks of lawlessness which turn white against black," said Kirk. "We have seen here in Tampa a unique approach to violence in the streets that might well become the pattern of other cities across the nation."

Kirk said authorities had appealed to the personal pride of the Negro community—and in the initial disorders—and they rose to the challenge.

"They took on the white helmets of peace keepers and volunteered to man the front lines

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson declared today that certainly troops must be withdrawn from conquered territory in the war-torn Middle East but firmly linked the pull-back to negotiations of a general Arab-Israeli peace settlement.

The crucial street corners where the lawless element gathered," he said.

The governor called the city's approach to the problem "the Tampa technique." That was Tampa's moment of truth. It is one thing to crush disorder—it is another and a far more difficult thing to restore order."

Kirk said the Tampa technique was not imposed on the Negro community by higher-ups, strangers or outsiders. The solution was a local solution, he said, and all who worked together were Tampanians.

Donna Sawyer Wins Holiday For Father

Donna Sawyer, 24½ Palm Beach Avenue, was the winner in the essay contest, "A Day Off With Dad," sponsored by the Standard Plaza merchants.

Her entry won her father, W. B. Sawyer, a day off from work with pay from his job with Florida Power and Light Company, or she may choose to accept the cash prize of up to $25.

In the contest, which ended Friday night, 13-year-old Donna completed the sentence, "I think my father deserves a day off from work with pay because on weekends and after work he takes us places and does things with his family instead of going fishing or playing golf by himself like so many fathers do. He helps us build things and always thinks of us in everything he does."

Hurricane Pilot Checks Area For Possible Storm

MIAMI (AP) — A hurricane hunter pilot flew out today to scout a potential storm 500 miles northeast of Puerto Rico — the fifth "suspect area" to develop in the 18-day-old season.

An aerial examination Sunday revealed a large area of clouds and a weak wind circulation, but there were few signs of intensification.

Since the Atlantic and Gulf storm season opened June 1, three tropical depressions and two other areas of suspicion have been reported.

One of the disturbances moved inland over North Carolina Sunday and weakened after bringing heavy rains and rough tides to the beaches.

A low pressure trough which has lain for several days across Cuba and south Florida continued to drop heavy rains.

Escapée Comes Back To Jail

ESTANCIANA, N. M. (AP) — Sheriff officers said Thomas Eugene Albert, 21, of Kansas City, Mo., surprised a jailer who opened the door to his cell late Saturday night and escaped from the Torrance County Jail.

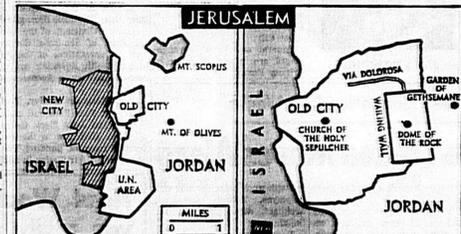

But Albert, who had been jailed in connection with an armed robbery, walked back into jail about five hours later.

"I was scared and decided to come back," the sheriff's office quoted him as saying.

PROBLEMS FOR THE PEACE MAKERS

Jerusalem's Old City contains the holiest sites of three faiths—the Wailing Wall, a remnant of Solomon's Temple; the Dome of the Rock, where Mohammed is believed to have descended to earth; and the Temple Mount, where Jews worshiped since 1948, its population is about 40,000 compared with the Israeli New City of 187,000.

At Sinai's southern tip, Sharm el Sheikh is the key to Elitz, Israel's vital oil port of the Gulf of Aqaba. It controls the narrow Strait of Tiran, entry to the Red Sea.

High ground on Syrian side of the frontier is strategically important for Israel. Syrian guns in the hills had maintained a near siege of Israeli farms and fishing villages.

Kosygin Blames U. S.

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Soviet Premier Alexei N. Kosygin blamed the United States today for the war and crisis in the Middle East, and raked U.S. policy in a major speech before the U.N. General Assembly.

"No nation wants war," Kosygin said. "Nobody doubts that the Soviet Union is ready to negotiate for peace but for renewed hostilities, unless accompanied by negotiations for a general peace settlement in the area."

Johnson spoke to a foreign policy conference of educators at the State Department. But his policy statement was set in the context of global debate with Soviet Premier Alexei N. Kosygin, at a special U.N. General Assembly session in New York an hour or so later.

Kosygin, laying down "five great principles of peace" for the Middle East, appealed to the nations there to shun another arms race, abandon "a diet of hate" and strive for a settlement.

"The world is watching," he said for the peace of the world is at stake.

The President's statement, generally accepted to support what is understood here to be an Israeli position on troop withdrawals: That is, any agreement in withdrawal of troops from Egypt, Jordan or Syria should be linked to issues of vital interest to Israel, notably Arab recognition.

Johnson for the most part was careful not to name specific countries, but it was clear he was speaking of Egypt when he referred to the closing of the Straits of Tiran—an action announced by Egyptian President Gamal Abdel Nasser about two weeks before the fighting started.

"If a single act of folly was more responsible for this explosion than the other, it is the closing of the Straits of Tiran which would be closed."

And in a statement at a news conference after the speech, Adams said that he feels the Legislature must take most of the blame for the very dangerous conditions it depicted in resolutions last Thursday.

Both chambers approved resolutions deploring the lack of safety conditions in Florida's creating Capitol and said at least $244,000 is needed to correct most of them.

At immediate steps, he recommended that no smoking be allowed in legislative areas, that all attack conference rooms and House be closed to visitors, and that all double-decked offices and committee rooms be vacated.

Creaking Capitol 'Condemned'

TALLAHASSEE (AP) — Secretary of State Tom Adams today issued a chilling report on the lack of safety conditions in Florida's creaking Capitol and said at least $244,000 is needed to correct most of them.

At immediate steps, he recommended that no smoking be allowed in legislative areas, that all attack conference rooms and House be closed to visitors, and that all double-decked offices and committee rooms be vacated.

Father's Day Turns Into Mudder's Day

Father's Day turned into "mudder's day" at Seminole Downs in Cassberry Sunday afternoon when torrential rains forced the South Seminole Jockey to postpone their amateur derby until next Sunday, at 2 p.m.

A variety of events for men, women and children again will be scheduled as well as the special races for Jaycee presidents and one for radio five jockeys.

The South Seminole Jockey recently sponsored a rain dance and some of them are beginning to think they overdid it.

City Changing Name 4th Time

TRUTH OR CONSEQUENCES, N.M. (AP) — For at least the fourth time, residents of this central New Mexico city will vote Aug. 18 on whether to change the name of their community.

In 1950 Ralph Edwards was looking for a city to change its name. He found Truth or Consequences. He was a 24 margin to do so. A legal technicality forced another vote later that year and the margin was cut to 2-1.

In 1963 a move to change the name back to Hot Springs failed by 296 votes.

Hark Back To Samson

EL CENTRO, Calif. (AP) — The barber business is going downhill, Joe Hyba says, because people just don't get shaves and haircuts like they used to.

"When I started out, 10 times as many customers wanted shaves and haircuts like they used to."

"Now the younger generation has to use for a haircut, much less a shave," he said in announcing his retirement at 65.

He's been a barber 49 years.

Rail Strike Deadline Passes: No Walkout

WASHINGTON (AP) — The no-strike period in the dispute between railroads and six shop-craft unions ended early today but the deadline passed without a reported walkout by the brotherhoods.

The unions after winning a victory on anti-strike legislation in the House Thursday, announced they would forego any strike until Congress had a chance to work out a compromise on the bill.

Congressional leaders, rather than trying to hold colleagues in session over the weekend to work a compromise, relied on the unions' pledge that a strike would not take place.

The Senate position is complicated by continuing debate on the census case against Sen. Thomas J. Dodd, D-Conn., which is expected to run until midweek.

Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield said in an interview he would confer today with Sen. Wayne Morse, D-Ore., and Ralph Yarborough, D-Tex., and Lester Hill, D-Ala., to chart a schedule of action.

Mansfield said the Senate "feels very strongly" about its version of the bill, which would extend the no-strike ban for 90 days and provide for a five-man federal board's determination of wage scales and other issues to take effect if there was no agreement between the disputants during that period. This was the proposal President Johnson submitted.

Mansfield said he will await conclusion of the Dodd census matter before appointing Senate

The local tankers grabbed a commanding lead with each event, ending up with 480 points to South Broward's 322 and Cocoa Recreation Association's 225.

Coach Don Seman presided over the "A" competitions and Little Martha McDonald as one of the outstanding SSA swimmers, but outstanding SSA swimmers, but added, "A lot of credit goes to the youngsters who took the 4th, 8th and 16th places." The SSA coach said, "This is a different team, they now have the win spirit and they are out to win everything in sight!"

The eight and under girls and boys dominated the winning ranks in their age group, both on Thursday and Friday, and headed their parents with ribbons for those two days and medals for their relay efforts on Saturday.

JACK NICKLAUS

How Nicklaus Smashed Record

SPRINGFIELD, N.J. (AP)—"I felt like an idiot, standing there with a one-in-one in my hand," Jack Nicklaus said. "But I knew what I had to do to win this golf tournament."

The bulky Golden Bear, who had a hole-in-one in the 18th hole, broke a record set by Ben Hogan's 27-year-old Open scoring record of 276 by one stroke with a paring, 23-foot putt on the final hole.

It gave him a final round 65 (five under par for the 72) and a total of 275, adding to his Open scoring record to his Masters mark of 271.

But he was more concerned with the 4th hole before walking— he won his first in 1962 in the first year as a pro—to his collection 37 Masters, a record he had to make a decision on the 18th tee, Nicklaus said.

The 18th is a 540-yard hole. "I was four strokes ahead and knew I had to beat Arnold Palmer to win it."

"Two things were going through my mind. One was that Arnie said last year, that he was thinking about breaking Hogan's record when he had that blow-up in San Francisco."

"The other was that Dick Mayer took a seven on the same hole and lost the Open in 1954."

"Those were the things I was thinking about. I knew the only way Arnie could catch me was for him to get a three and me a seven. So I was shooting for a six or better."

"So I took out a one iron— I felt like an idiot doing it— and aimed it down the right side of the fairway. I was in the rough on something that looked like a cable. So I got a drop and hit an eight iron back to the fairway."

He reached the green in three and that's what I knew I had to do the tournament won."

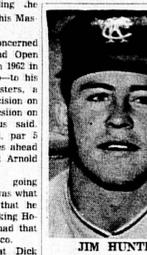

For all intents and purposes, however, he had it much easier, when he rolled off a string of three straight birdies on the three through fifth holes. That gave him a lead he never relinquished.

Palmer, who was tied with Nicklaus and Casper for second going into the final round, finished with a 69 for second place at 279. Playing in the same two-some with Nicklaus, he didn't get a birdie until the 17th, but added another at the 18th.

Casper, the defending champion, who was tied for second with two, with a 72 for 222, one stroke back of Arnie. Hunter, who hit a final round 70.

Marty Fleckman, the 23-year-old amateur from Port Arthur, Tex., who led the third round, blew sky high with an 80 for 280, putting him far back in the pack. He started with three bogeys, and also bogeyed six of seven holes on the back nine.

Hogan, 55, seeking his fifth Open title, had a final 72 for 292.

JIM HUNTER

Dark Shuttles Hunter Around

Chicago in front in the American League by 3½ games. The Sox got great pitching from Gary Peters, who won his ninth game in the opener, hitting the Yankees in six hits, and from Tommy John, who shut out the Yankees in six hits in the finale. Hank Allen's pinch single with two out in the 9th gave Washington its triumph. Batting for Mike Epstein, Allen drove in Ben Severino, who led off with walk and moved on an Ed Stewart's sacrifice. Carl Yas-tremski tied the game in the ninth with his 16th homer of the season.

World's Hold continued to torment his ex-teammates in Baltimore, driving in two runs in the first inning of the Angels' victory.

Named Manager
 KNOXVILLE, Tenn. (AP)—George Noga of first-place Evansville, has been named manager of the Southern League All-Stars, who will play Atlanta Braves in Charlotte June 26.

"I wanted Pierce to pitch to Gater, Brown," Dark said, "and have Hunter come back to pitch to Al Kaline. I didn't have another right hander in the bullpen because of that 19-inning game Saturday night."

So Dark sent first baseman Ramon Webster to the bench and put the surprised Hunter on first.

"I didn't know what was coming off," said Hunter, who has no further need for Himer's pitching arm.

"The Tigers' defeat, plus the White Sox double in Catering June 26, is the best in Catering."

Cassius Clay Stands Up Against Uncle Sam Today

CASSIUS CLAY vs Uncle Sam

HOUSTON (AP)—World heavyweight champion Cassius Clay headed into an important round against Uncle Sam today when the fighter's trial for standing still when other men called by the draft took one step forward into the Army.

If the 25-year-old fighter is convicted of violating the Universal military training and Service Act, he could be fined up to $10,000 and sentenced to five years in prison.

U. S. Dist. Judge Joe Ingraham went into the trial with no stated rulings on news coverage, but he pointed out that his courtroom is small, and "we've never had demands like this."

The case is a jury trial, but Ingraham's rulings on matters of law will be all important.

Today's first order of business was the judge's opening statement to the 150 member jury pool.

U. S. Atty. General L. Sussman said the government's case could be completed in two hours with four witnesses, all of them officials of the Selective Service System. Sussman was joined in the case by Alfred T. Gharrat of the Justice Department's criminal division and by Marine Col. Robert Todd Hays, assistant to the general counsel of the Selective Service System.

Hayden Covington of New York City was Clay's chief counsel, joined by Quinlan Hodges of Houston.

Covington predicted the trial would be a "two-day affair" at the latest. He read a double defense that Clay is draft exempt as Black Muslim minister Muhammad Ali, and that Clay and other Negroes are systematically discriminated against in draft boards, which Covington argues are unfairly loaded with whites.

Clay, a native of Louisville, Ky., made his home in Houston last year after a fight in the domed stadium. He is undefeated in 20 bouts, including 23 victories by knockout.

He was called to the Army April 28 and that day at the Houston Customs House, looked at the oath taking.

His title then was stripped from him by several boxing governing bodies including the World Boxing Association and the New York State Athletic Commission. But he remains the recognized champion in many states and throughout most of the world.

Ten days later, a federal grand jury in Houston indicted Clay. He entered a plea of innocent and went free on $5,000 bond.

Maxwell Cops Jaycee Open

MILWAUKEE, Wis. (AP)—Saxie Maxwell stood in the flush of victory Sunday after winning the Milwaukee Jaycee Open Golf Tournament and solemnly said she was ready to drop professional golf at the drop of a proposal.

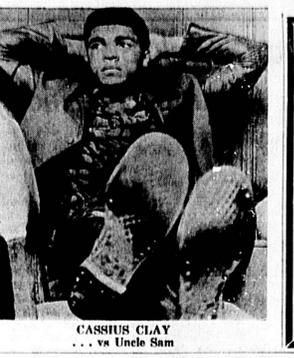

"The tour is nice," said the 25-year-old Oklahoman after pocketing $2,500—the biggest pay check of her pro career. "It's fun. It gives you a chance to travel all over and meet some wonderful people."

"But it's not the most important thing in a girl's life. To me that's getting married and having a family."

The strapping Penn heavyweights scored a two-length victory over Wake Forest's powerful defending champions and captured their first IRA crown in 67 years.

HANDSHAKE of welcome is extended John Henry Weidner (right) at the Seventh-Day Adventist Camp Meeting in Forest City by Pastor Ralph LaFave of Alhambra Springs. Weidner, one of World War II's most wanted underground leaders, was guest speaker for one of the weekend programs.

Gestapo Tactics Told Adventists

The almost unbelievable story of four years of torture and terror in evading the Nazi Gestapo was told by John Henry Weidner, one of World War II's most wanted underground leaders, during his visit to Seventh-Day Adventists at the recent Annual Camp Meeting at Forest Lake Academy.

Presented from leaving France when the Nazis swept through the country, Weidner opened a business in Lyons and on the side began assisting Jewish refugees fleeing to France. He was arrested in Lyons and then in neutral Switzerland and Spain.

Because of his underground work he was repeatedly confined to death and a five million franc reward was offered for his capture.

Under Weidner's direction his Dutch-Paris underground group led 1,000 refugees, political escapees, and Allied airmen to freedom from 1940 to 1945. He was arrested six times, tortured, and sentenced to execution but always evaded death, although nearly 40 of his underground companions lost their lives in German concentration camps.

In early 1945, as a result of his group breaking under torture, 150 of the 300 Dutch-Paris members were captured by the Gestapo in a single day. Weidner escaped by evading presentation on a Boston murder charge.

More than 200 men probed the terrain near Palomar Mountain, about 75 miles north of the Mexican border, for the missing officers Sunday.

SAIGON (AP) — A hard-core battalion of some 500 guerrillas left 45 dead on a blackened belt, fielded today after failing to storm the bivouac of a U.S. armored cavalry force.

Attempting to smash into American positions just after midnight, the guerrillas were met by the heaviest guns in the U.S. arsenal—155mm cannon raining 200-pound shells on the attackers.

Military headquarters said eight men of the U.S. 11th Armored Cavalry Regiment were killed and 31 wounded in the savage one-hour battle about 40 miles east of Saigon.

It was the only significant ground action reported in the day's communique, although there was scattered and occasionally sharp fighting elsewhere. U.S. warplanes kept up their heavy raids on North Vietnam with 130 missions Sunday, including strikes on Hanoi's rail supply lines, the showpiece Thai Nguyen steel plant north of the capital and a surface-to-air missile site.

The American cavalrymen got a brief warning of impending attack when a small light patrol ran into a Communist forceless rifle team. The U.S. patrol was evidently then surprised by a helicopter gunship for the main cavalry bivouac.

While the guerrillas of the hard-core 274th Viet Cong Regiment snatched at the U.S. line with rocketless rifles, 50 caliber machine guns and infantry assault weapons, the U.S. line called for air and artillery support.

As American flareslight lit the battlefield, a helicopter gunship strafed the Communist stragglers surrounding the isolated patrol. The 155mm cannon began to lay down a fire curtain barely 30 yards from the main American camp.

Within an hour the Viet Cong battalion pulled back into the darkness. The cavalry unit reported at daylight that 45 bodies were found and more had evidently been carried off in the darkness.

The cavalrymen also took 18 prisoners and picked up 18 weapons.

In the central highlands and in the Mekong Delta, Communist forces continued harassing mortar attacks against U.S. and South Vietnamese units. Near Pleiku, in the highlands, a mortar attack on a 4th Infantry Division post wounded 15 Americans in the delta mortar attacks were directed at militia outposts, inflicting light casualties.

Elks Lodge announced it planned to continue what was termed "one of the best games in the area."

And in Hollywood, a question was raised about the new law because of a city ordinance for bingo which applied to the city but not the state law allowing the games?

City Attorney Thomas A. Thomas and Herbert Benn, an assistant attorney general, declined to comment what the state specifically permits. The new bingo bill is not a local option measure, Thomas explained.

Bingo Bolster Burdened Budgets?

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Taxpayers in some Florida cities may soon join charities and churches in cheering about the state's new bingo laws.

A recent meeting of Florida mayors buzzed with the idea that bingo instead of taxes could be the answer to bailing out their burdened budgets.

Richard Calhoun, mayor of Fort Lauderdale City Commission Miramar, was credited with the idea. He suggested his city help finance its recreation program with government-run bingo.

When Calhoun's suggestion hit the floor, Emerson Church, mayor of Deerfield Beach, and Margaret Mayer, Rona of Ft. Meade, both agreed bingo might help rescue their city budgets.

Fort Lauderdale City Commissioner Al Forbe said, "I think I'd probably go for bingo games before I would raise taxes."

Gov. Claude Kirk signed into law 10 days ago a bill allowing bingo gambling by non-profit groups for "benevolent" purposes. The law does not exclude municipal corporations.

Jacksonville's first legal bingo game was held within 72 hours of Kirk's signing the bill. It was held at the Sans Souci Club where a $100,000 crowd played for cash prizes.

In Bradenton the American Legion, a Catholic church, the Elks and Moose lodges and the Disabled American Veterans all announced they would jump on the bingo money wagon.

In St. Petersburg, where a colony of retirees has played bingo under many names, the

Border Cops Object Of Hunt

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP) — Two U.S. Border Patrolmen who vanished while manning a routine roadblock were the object of a 200-man search today.

The officers, Theodore Newlon, 26, and George F. Azrak, 22, both of Fallbrook, Calif., were last reported heard from early Saturday when they made a routine radio call from their position.

A citizen later reported he had seen Carmen Raymond Gagliardi, one of the FBI's 20 most wanted men, about 20 miles west near the same highway, California 79.

An FBI spokesman, however, refused to speculate on any possible link between the missing officers and the reported presence of Gagliardi, 27, who is wanted for evading presentation on a Boston murder charge.

More than 200 men probed the terrain near Palomar Mountain, about 75 miles north of the Mexican border, for the missing officers Sunday.

Dear Abby: By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: Our 16-year-old son got a ticket for speeding (he has no car. It was his father's) so we took his driving privileges away for a month. It has only been five days and this boy is unbearable. He is ugly and hateful. He won't eat and he won't look at us. He answers all our questions with grunts and shrugs, and he says he is "nice" until we give him one more chance and restore his driving privileges.

My husband is a physician. He has had one coronary and avoid excitement and this son of ours is making a mess of him.

I honestly don't know how to cope with this. We have all the questions, but none of the answers. Should we give in?

DEAR UNHAPPY: If you "give in" now you will give your son the impression that all he has to do is get his way. It is not a good idea around him with his ugliness. Ignore his act. And if he doesn't eat, it's his business. Don't ask him any questions. It will only provide him with an opportunity to exhibit his surliness. Let him sweat it out. You'll be doing him a favor.

DEAR ABBY: I am the 12-year-old sister of a 14-year-old boy. I have to share a room with her and she is a murderer. How can I get her to clean up her half of the room? I have told her about this a hundred times but it doesn't do any good.

DEAR TROUBLED: I think your husband enjoys tormenting you, and if you want it that way, you could possibly minimize your problem by ignoring all references to this woman's name. What do you think?

DEAR NEAT: You can catch more flies with honey than vinegar. Be sweet. If all you do is set yourself a lot of flies, you can either learn to live with it, or clean up her half, too. I'll admit it's not "fair," but it beats fuming and stewing and fighting.

DEAR ABBY: Before my husband and I met and were married, he went with a woman for about three years. He told me that she traveled around with him for weeks at a time. Here is my grudge: After five years of marriage, my husband still keeps in the closet a large box of pictures and souvenirs of this woman. Many of the pictures are of the two of them together.

Abby, am I square and narrow-minded? Feel I must

A sweater is sent to the cleaner because it has picked up lint or stains and, when the soil is removed, the yellowness shows up. Dry cleaning does not cause it—it exposes it. This is what happened to Peggy's sweater. The whiteness was there from the start. Washable fabrics might be restored to a bright whiteness after retirement at a professional laundry.

REPORTER—How come you switched over to the Democratic Party . . .

MRS. BLANK (name withheld upon request) — I'm a school teacher.
REPORTER—I go now.

Russell Firestone strikes again! He just purchased 100 acres plus the golf course on Country Club for the merry old time of $183,000 . . . Ernie Stoward handled the deal.

Is it the Senate, for George Smathers' chair? Is it the House, for his own chair? Only Sud Herlong knows. And so will the public Saturday. Congressman Herlong's administrative aide telephoned from Washington this morning that "Sud" will have an important announcement to make Saturday at his home in Leesburg.

Associated Press, however, speculated early this afternoon that Herlong will announce his intentions to run for governor or for Smathers' Senate seat.

I had a dream the other night
Community Action got "Head Start" funds . . . Gee, if "Action" gives out all these pay raises without any program imagine what will happen if they ever got funded for something. No, I can't imagine that.
. . . I can imagine some more pay raises though.

There was a case in County Court yesterday that took about five hours to try . . . Involving an accident by 456 . . . Funny thing . . . one of the guys defended himself while the other hired an attorney . . . The guy with the attorney lost.

The Consulting Engineering firm of Maurice Colter and Associates of Miami will be in town tomorrow talking with City Manager W. E. Knowles about utilization of N.A.S. as regional airport . . . Mayor Joe Baker has already said the city will proceed with the study.

Cost of living over the nation has gone up 2.5 per cent over the last year . . . That means city employees probably will get another pay hike.
Have you asked for a raise?
See I to Mr. Pete Knowles.
Yes, he answers.
How much? see I.
Plenty, see he.
I go now, see I.

Part of that Wim-Dixie complex slated for First Street and Sanford Avenue will include a Nobody asked me, but has anyone taken over the reserved seat concession at the Civil Service Board hearing tonight?

Not Lawrence Oliver and Richard Burton, but no lesser thesians. Bill Hutchinson and Gordon Frederick take state center — 99 minutes (yep, that's what it says here!!!) will be allowed each in the wrap-up of the Joe of historians will be Mack on the board.

SIGN OF THE TIMES — A

Burglars Have No Respect For The Law

Burglars have no respect for the law these days.
Thieves were not content to break into an Altamonte Springs grocery last night but punched through a wall and ransacked the office of two law officers.

AL DAVIS

Little Dixie Market in Altamonte Springs was broken into and burglarized for the second time in less than two months.

The burglars broke through the wall of the store into the offices of Constable Gray Hall and Justice of the Peace Al Davis to ransack files and leave the office in havoc. Fluorescent lamps were broken. Damage to the constable's office has been estimated at $50. It has not as yet been determined if any official documents were removed.

The same method of operation was used in the burglary, estimated to have occurred about 3 a.m., as was used in the Longwood-Wim-Dixie burglary a few weeks ago. Today's robbery at the store and offices located at the corner of SR 436 and SR 427 was accomplished by burglars breaking in through the roof of the store, then breaking into the office and carrying the take out through the rear door.

The robbery has been determined to have been done by professionals. The whole store and offices were ransacked, records scattered on the floor, rear

Ah' For The Carefree Life...

THERE may be other reasons for being a kid but this seems to be the most fascinating one we know of . . . the carefree child's fun at being a grown-up without the adult's problems. Shm hams in top photo are pretend hobos with the typical hobos stow, showing Wayne Walker, age 7

State Plans Check Of Eating Places

Every public food service and lodging establishment in Seminole County will come under the surveillance of the Florida Hotel and Restaurant Commission within the next three months, according to Gore Hambrick, deputy commissioner out of the Orlando Commission's office.

District supervisor R. P. Donovan is sending out 10 qualified men in teams of two each to cover the area from upper Lake County to Okeechobee. The team study has been underway in Orange County for the past week with more than 1,500 accounts to be processed.

In Seminole, Hambrick said, there seems to be little evidence of violations that might bring legal notices to the more than 250 accounts to be inspected.

In the Miami area alone, according to reports, there were over 900 legal notices given.
These could bring anything from a fine to suspension of license unless conditions are corrected.

Personal trips to Orange County have been made recently by Hotel Commissioner A. R.
Braitigan, sometimes on a personal inspection tour and sometimes in conjunction with the teams.

According to Hambrick the standard housing," Brown said.
"Without it, all we can do is conferm sub-standard housing, but have no authority to go on to private property and clean it up."

"People usually have pride of ownership and those that do not will keep their property in better condition if they know they must," Brown said.

Plans Holding Up Sanford Plaza Cinema

Delay in getting plans from the architects for the proposed new Sanford Plaza Cinema "is the only thing holding up construction today," Carl Floyd of Haines City, theater chain owner, told The Herald this morning.

"We're definitely going to build the theater in Sanford but I've been promising a tentative date for starting construction.
However, once we do start we'll get it on in a hurry and it should be ready for operation within a three-month period.

Seats are already purchased," Floyd said.

"Building plans for the new movie are now being used to put up a like one in Winter Haven and start in Sanford will get underway as soon as this job is completed, which is expected any day now," he added.

The theater, to be erected Plaza, is to be 120 feet by 60 feet with 1,000 seats. It is next to Eckerd's Drug in the feet with wide-screen and rock-ing chairs. The seating for a maximum 600 audience.
