

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh*Specs And I See Eye To Eye

Ashamed Specs Allen to go hunting last week. Known him all my life, so I wasn't surprised when he showed up with no gun. Specs doesn't like to kill anything.

Couldn't ask for a better hunting companion, though. We tramp around the woods, and whenever the dogs flush a bird, I blast away while Specs just watches.

Told him once I was surprised he went along . . . feeling the way he does about shooting anything. "Well, Joe," he says, "you do what you think is right and I'll stick to what I think is right. I've no call to dislodge you for not seeing everything the way I see it."

From where I sit, open-mindedness is a wonderful quality. There are plenty of things Specs admires that I don't care for. Like his fondness for buttermilk. I'd rather have a glass of beer anytime . . . but Specs Allen and I don't let little differences get in the way of something big like friendship.

Acheson Plans Protection Of British Colony

Talks Taking Place To Defend Hongkong; Berlin To Get Marshall Plan Funds

WASHINGTON, Aug. 12—(P)—General Hoyt Vandenberg today said that Russia is the "only major military threat" to the security of the United States and the world. He also defended Air Secretary Hyming, who, he said, "has labored tirelessly to produce effective and economical military air power for the defense of this country."

WASHINGTON, Aug. 12—(P)—Secretary of State Acheson said today the United States has been discussing with Britain the problem of protection of the Crown Colonies of Hongkong against possible Chinese Communist pressure.

Acheson made the disclosure at a news conference when he was asked whether the U. S. had reached a decision to back up the British at Hongkong.

The defense of Hongkong has been a primary concern of the British government in development of its Far Eastern policies to deal with the new situation in China.

Acheson said the U. S. has talked with the British government about this matter. He said American actions obviously will depend on the developments so that this country will know what it is backing up.

The Secretary indicated he very likely will discuss the Chinese situation with British Foreign Minister Bevin when Bevin comes here next month.

Acheson's statement came shortly after J. Leighton Stuart, U. S. ambassador to China, had submitted to President Truman an indefinite proposal for a New American policy toward that country.

Meanwhile, John J. McCloy, United States High Commissioner for Germany, said the Administration has decided that western Berlin is eligible to receive Marshall Plan

Freight Rates Are Going Up Again But Car Loadings Are Falling Off

BY SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK, Aug. 12—(P)—Rail freight rates are going up again. This is calculated to cost the nation's shippers around $293 million a year. But in some quarters there is doubt as to whether the shippers will pay all of that to the railroads.

Each time rail rates have been hiked since the war—they have gone up a total of 57 per cent for a total of $3 billion a year in additional revenue—a few more shippers have turned to other means of moving goods.

It's no accident that you see more and larger trucks and heavy freight trailers on the highways. It's not just nostalgia or a flair for the romantic and picturesque that has increased the number and choice of barges on the nation's waterways. Nor is it that the shippers that put more freight barges into the airplanes—shippers find that freight rates are moving into competitive range with rail freight rates, especially in cases where speed of delivery enters into it. And there now are more miles of oil and gas pipelines in the country than there are miles of rails.

At the time the Interstate Commerce Commission was announcing the latest rate increase, for an average of about 4 per cent, the road was moving to reduce sharply its passenger and freight station

Barbara Dampier Barkley Favors Separation Of In Auto Accident Church And State

1 Others Injured As Car Hits Abutment At Monroe Bridge

PARIS, Ky., Aug. 12—(P)—Vice President Barkley called here tonight for a nation devoted to the continued protection of church and state separation. He talked only briefly on the subject that became an issue in an exchange of words recently between Cardinal Spellman and Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt.

In an address before 2,000 delegates to a lay retreat of the Christian Church at its founding home, the same ridge meeting house, Barkley said the freedom of worship comes first in the purpose of a democratic form of government.

Congress had no right, he said, to make a law affecting the institutions of religion. It is the duty of the government, and it is well, to let each man determine which such a cause can be carried out.

The Vice President made no mention of federal aid to education, the issue which stirred the exchange between Cardinal Spellman and Mrs. Roosevelt.

The problems of the world coming out of the last war, he said, can be met only by "the man" through religion. And he said that in spite of all developments that make such a prospect seem dim, as he believed the people are learning their tragic lesson."

Mystery Surrounds Daytona Beach Man

Everett Leroy Hall, of Daytona Beach who was picked up in dazed condition last night on the roadside near the Anchor Inn, at the French Avenue, Orlando Highway junction was released this morning from Fernand-Lauthmont Memorial Hospital where he had been taken in an ambulance shortly after he was found.

The steel worker is John Davis, 44, and the dead woman was identified tentatively as Mrs. Arleen Stone, 47, both of Tacoma. Davis was being held in the Polk county jail. Officers said his condition prohibited immediate questioning.

Coroner Paul Mallings said the woman had been brutally mutilated.

Deputy Sheriffs Cliff Tolson and Russell Wall said Davis' wife told this story.

Davis and the woman came to the Davis house, an unfinished residence, at 7:00 P. M. last night. Both were intoxicated. Davis ordered his wife from the house.

Watching from a window, Mrs. Davis said, she saw the couple

Alabama Considers Segregation Bill

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Aug. 12—(P)—Legislation to require racial segregation in Alabama's residential areas was introduced today in the state legislature. Bills patterned after Birmingham's new zoning ordinance were offered by Senator G. J. Owens of Marshall County and Rep. Fug Haynes of Lowndes.

The proposed new law follows recommendations made recently by Birmingham's Police Commissioner Eugene Connor.

It is expected efforts will be made to repeat an ordinance banning masks.

Major C. L. Drake has exchanged gunfire with Klansmen recently. The State Department of public safety has sent three men to Donalsonville to strengthen the five-man station.

A Klan parade planned here for Saturday night has been postponed.

THE WEATHER

JACKSONVILLE, Aug. 12—(P)—A Ku Klux Klan member promises that "Klux will pop" at a meeting of city council Monday night.

"If you want a good story, be sure and attend Monday night's city council meeting," James Beard, self-identified Klansman, told reporters.

It is expected efforts will be made to repeat an ordinance banning mask.

The bills say "it has been the invariable custom universally observed to require white and colored residents to live in separate residential areas in Alabama, since the state was first settled."

Attempts to violate this condition, they declare, have resulted in violence and destruction of property.

LEGION SUPPORT

Members of the American Legion baseball team will be seated at the upper mezzine of the Hotel Loring Park, 201 W. 18th at the meeting Monday night at 8 o'clock at the Legion Inn.

Russia Brands Marshal Tito Seen As Red Enemy

Yugoslav Government Is Accused Of Selling Out To Capitalistic Nations Of West

MOSCOW, Aug. 12—(P)—Soviet Russia denounced the Yugoslav government today as an enemy of the Soviet Union and charged that Premier Marshal Tito's regime more and more is throwing in its lot with the west.

Offsetting the extra toll to get from the latest news, plus the 300 million from a rate increase this year, the roads are going to be tapped for an estimated $300 million a year in additional costs as a result of the 40-hour week, which goes into effect next month.

The New York Central is already moving to whittle this down some, if possible. When it's 85, 700 non-operating employees go on a five-day week next month, the road is going to reduce sharply its passenger and freight station

New York, Aug. 12—(P)—Chairman of the American Management Association told the presidential fact-finders today that if steelworkers win their pay demands it could plunge the U. S. into a depression.

John M. Hancock, appearing on behalf of the steel industry, said that any wage increases granted the CIO United Steelworkers is likely to "go through the whole economy" and would lead to a national pattern of another round of wage increases.

He said "the issue facing the country and the board is Does America want more inflation? Can America stand more inflation?"

If the economy proceeds along lines that "will surely cause inflation," Hancock said it would mean "the end of our kind of economy."

"It means a disguised devaluation of the currency even if it does not reach the point of creating a fear of the value of all money—the ultimate result."

The three main fact-finding board before which he appeared was set up by President Truman to avert a general strike due to take place July 26. Its recommendation, which must be submitted to the President by Aug. 30, will not be binding on either side.

Last week Tito alerted his troops in Yugoslavia Macedonia, between Communist Bulgaria and Albania, and said his Red Army neighbors were spreading the word of their Red Army invasion there. The Yugoslav leader was quoted by his official news agency as dismissing the reports as attempted intimidation, but warned he was ready to fight any invader.

Referring to the present nature of Yugoslav-Russian relations, the Soviet news added: "There certainly strong ties bind

Local Officials Endorse Shorter Route To Oviedo

H. H. Pope, chairman of the Board of County Commissioners, today declared that he agrees with the recent statement of Mayor Frank Talbot of Oviedo that a shorter road between there and Sanford by means of a fill over Lake Jesup would be of great benefit to Sanford and Oviedo alike.

The County Commission recommended the project to the State Road Department several years ago as worth while, and in July approved the road department map showing this road as a prospective project, he stated.

Pointing out that the fill over Lake Jesup would connect with Sanford Avenue he said, "I think the road is designed as a state road far as the lake, and was not 'thrown back' as the new Orlando Highway was completed. It is not under state maintenance, however."

He said the road is a prospective project, he stated.

Two Day Hunt Ends In Negro's Arrest

GRAY COUNTY, Ga., Aug. 12—(P)—A very little negro wanted in connection with an attempted rape of a white girl was apprehended today and speeded to the state penitentiary at Columbus.

The negro, object of a wide manhunt near here for the last two days, was seized in a wooded area between this Laurens county town and Greenwood, 50 miles south of here.

He is Willis E. Tolbert, 25, of Atlanta.

The man was picked up in dazed condition last night on the roadside near the Anchor Inn, at the French Avenue, Orlando Highway junction was released this morning from Fernand-Lauthmont Memorial Hospital where he had been taken in an ambulance shortly after he was found.

Clark And McGrath Appointed By Group

WASHINGTON, Aug. 12—(P)—The Senate Judiciary Committee yesterday recommended confirmation of Attorney General Tom C. Clark as an associate justice of the Supreme Court. The vote was 9 to 2.

The committee also recommended to the full Senate the confirmation of Senator J. Howard McGrath (D-Vt.) as attorney general successor.

Chairman McClellan (D-N.Y.) at first declined to say who would replace Clark. Later he told reporters that Senators Donald R. Moore and Ferguson R. McHugh opposed confirmation.

Representative M. B. (T-Bone) Thompson (R-La.) supported Clark.

McGraw announced the appointment

Marine Scientist Will Seek Now Deep Sea Diving Record Tomorrow

SMUGGLER'S COVE, Calif., Aug. 12—(P)—A Boston marine scientist may dive deeper into the black depths of the ocean tomorrow than man has ever gone before.

One thousand feet deep, from a crane on a 100-foot steel barge nearby.

Barton, an underwater explorer since 1926, has been planning this experiment since 1938. He designed the benthoscope. Its name is taken from the Greek benthos, meaning depth or bottom of the sea, and scopos, meaning to view.

Barton can sit or kneel in the sphere, 87 1/2 inches in diameter, and weighs 7,000 pounds and its steel shell is 1 3/4 inches thick at its thinnest point. It is designed to withstand pressures due to 10,000 feet.

He sits down in a 15-inch diameter, One fused quartz window, 3 inches thick and 5 1/4 inches in diameter, looks straight ahead. Another 2 3/4 inches across, looks straight down.

The venture is a project of the Allen Hancock Foundation for scientific research of the University of Southern California, Capt. Allen Hancock, 76, is president of the USC trustees, director of the Foundation and master of the Vero IV, Marine Laboratory vessel and mother ship of this expedition.

greatest men because he went straight to his objective and never faltered at any difficulties. He

Attorney General Tom Clark whom President Truman has just appointed to the Supreme Court of the United States, is a second rate political hack who is an incompetent lawyer and the least able to fit all our attorney generals! Now that's not necessarily our idea of it. That's what former Secretary Ikes, who knows him best, says of him.

We always enjoy the Treasury statements, not because we have a natural fondness for mathematics or statistics, but because we are interested in sociological studies. The government's cash balance today is $3,857,000,000, as compared with $4,998,000,000 on the same day last year; its total deficit is $1, 721,000,000 now as compared with $1,480,000,000 last year; and its debt is $254,540,000,000 as compared with $253,246,000,000.

Meanwhile, millions of people make no provision for the future because the government has promised them old age pensions.

There was something strangely pathetic about the speech of 75-year-old former President Hoover telling the people of this country that profligate government spending can lead only to national bankruptcy and loss of individual freedom.
Like the skipper of a sinking ship ainly trying to bail out the ocean with a shallow tin cup, his words went out to millions who simply refused to listen. Hoover will not be here to see his words come true. Why should he care?
It is so much easier to swim with the current. And besides, the truth hurts.

It is with a feeling of not a little concern that we read General Bradley's statement that the French army is the backbone of the European defense system, that billions of good American dollars must be spent in arming that army. We remember so well when the French army was called the backbone of another defense system, a defense system built on the Maginot line which together were to protect the West forever from the German barbarians. Both of them crumbled like so much mud. We wonder if the French can be counted upon to use the weapons we furnish them in defense of the West.

If your business is not quite as good as it was last year, do not be discouraged for last year people were living on their "nest eggs"
accumulated during the bad war years. That at least is what a report from the Federal Reserve Bureaus. People went into their savings, sold their War Bonds, in order to continue living in the style to which they had become accustomed. This year they are trying to live within their means. It may mean fewer sales, but it may also mean lower prices. And no one can deny folks can't go on spending more than they make nowhere.

Traffic accidents are on the increase in Sanford, partly because of the increasing number of automobiles in proportion to population, partly because of the increased use of automobiles by people who have not had much experience in driving. Last year five motorists were killed in such accidents,
as compared with only two the year before. The number injured and the number of deaths probably reflects the same trend. The traffic accidents, however, may be caused by increased speed. Greater carelessness, however, is also a factor.

The Tariff Sacred Cow

Writing to the New York Times about conferences now going on in Europe, Anne O'Hare McCormick mentions barleys at Anne which have been going on since April among the contracting parties to the still unratified Inter-American Convention on Tariffs and Trade. Its members filled the hotels—the American delegation alone numbered 80, including experts and secretaries. She says:

"Although its soul-like and difficult labors were little publicized, this meeting is more important in its way than the debates of foreign ministers. It is nibbling away at the couch of bargains to international co-operation.

"The American delegates kept insisting that the United States had made a better record in free trade and lower tariffs than other nations are willing to recognize, in their arguments were weakened by the failure of Congress to renew the reciprocal trade agreements."

The Toronto Star, less restrained in utterance, says the dollar crisis has finally challenged the sacred cow of United States business. It adds:

"For years United States manufacturers and producers have worshipped at the altar of high tariffs. They sold their surplus production on the export markets of the world, but restricted imports into the United States by means of high tariffs. Today they are re-examining this policy. The dollar crisis has taught them that imports and exports go hand in hand. Unless the United States is prepared to import more, the rest of the world must buy less from the United States."

Tariffs are always a sore spot in American political thinking. They constitute largely an economic problem and ought to be treated as such, without political connotations or divisions. Originally this instant nation sought to protect its infant industries as best it could at the sacrifice of the rest of the country. But the attitude toward tariffs is changing now. Where once they seemed to aid, they are now reognized as hindering our economic life. Lower tariffs is the order of the day. For anything that obstructs the free flow of trade among the nations of the world is a force working, however obscurely, against peace.

More Husbands

More American men are married these days, maintaining a home and raising a family—and what's more appearantly like it—than ever before in the history of the country.

This statement is based upon a study of the American husband by the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, which brings attention to the impressive fact that there are now about 35½ million married men in the United States, and that some 31½ million of them are living with their wives.

"Even the small proportion—approximately three percent—living apart includes these men who are employed away from home or are temporarily absent for reasons
other than marital discord," the Metropolitan notes.

The otherwise happy situation is clouded somewhat by the fact that, because of the housing shortage, about 2½ million married couples are living with relatives or in other temporary quarters, such as transient hotels and lodges.

Other interesting collateral data revealed by the study include these:

Nearly one-third of the husbands are under 35 years of age, and about one-quarter are past 55. Of those at ages 35 to 64, 98 percent are gainfully employed, or seeking employment, as a means of meeting their family responsibility.
Although the proportion of wives who work is greater than ever before, less than one-fourth of all wives work outside the home, and these are mostly the younger ones who have been married only a short time.

"More than nine out of every ten young men in the country eventually marry," the Metropolitan says. "All in all, American men look with great favor on traditional family life. They make a home, raise a family provide for current needs, and save for their old age and for such contingencies as prolonged sickness and premature death."

In other words, folks we are keeping our collective nose in the well known grindstone.

Candy-Coated Freedom

Probably the working people of Shanghai are not very well informed about the course of history in other countries where the Communist movement has become dominant.
Gripped in poverty and various forms of age-old Oriental barbarity, many of them were doubtless eager to believe the Red "liberators" who promised them the moon.

A measure of their disillusionment is seen in the fact that the new regime has found it necessary to warn them that while they have been "liberated politically" their economic lives can only be improved gradually."

The workers are told that they "should not harbor ideas of receiving equal pay for all kinds of work," but that "there should be a reasonable wage scale." As an index of this "gradual improvement" it is reported that 200 of Shanghai's 660 restaurants catering to workers have been closed.

It is evident that the poor people of China's metropolis are being introduced to the blessings of political patronage, Soviet style. Of course there must be a "reasonable" wage scale, reasonably and heavily weighted in favor of loyal party workers. Not only the best-paying jobs, but food also must be conserved for the party elite.

Like its parent regime in Russia, the Communist dispensation in China is showing that no tyranny can establish or perpetuate itself without a rigid system of rewards and punishments in the economic field.

ment with a formal demand that Vaughan be cited for contempt.

McCarthy based his demand chiefly, however, on Vaughan's failure to make a full disclosure of his connection with the race track construction case.

The name of another Truman side—Presidential Assistant John E. Steelman—entered the investigation today.

The Senate committee is looking into the question of whether improper influence has figured in the awarding of government contracts and the administration of federal regulations.

The inquiry was touched off by reports that James V. Hunt, a former army officer and War Administration consultant, had been retained by Vaughn and other officials in attempting to help him get a Senate contract for the construction of a bridge across the Mississippi River.

A committee investigation
was started by the Senate Committee on Governmental Affairs and the Senate Select Committee on Greenwich, Conn., had been referred to Hunt as a man who could help him get some research contracts for the trust.

Flanagan said that in the fall of 1948 Armitage met with Hunt in Washington and was given a list of names which Hunt said he should check as references. These included:

Steelman, Maj. General Herman
Feldman, then deputy quartermaster
general, Maj. General H. W. Waitt,
chief of the Army Chemical Corps; Stuart Sternberg, secretary for Air; Gen.
Paul Styles Bridges (R-NJ), Col.

Army Garrison Gray as a result of the committee's inquiry.

Earlier, Flanagan produced memorandum from Hunt's office showing that Hunt had personally introduced Armitage to both of these.

Vaughan's name popped up in the hearing earlier this week during testimony by housing commissioner Elmer T. Woods. He told the committee that Vaughan called him to the White House and told him
of his "neglectful" treatment

Fascist Influence In Prize Awards,

WASHINGTON, Aug. 12 (UPI)—The Library of Congress today made public a memorandum from its Hollings award jury replying to criticism of its selection of Ezra Pound's "Pisan Cantos" for highest achievement in American poetry for 1948.

Rep. J. W. (Keweenaw) has demanded an investigation in view of Pound's wartime indictment for espionage in the camps which put him in prison, alleged Fascist leaning.
Robert Hillyer has called a rather low mockery of the Christian war dead.

The memorandum was drafted by Leone Adams, the library's poetry chairman, for a committee of the Fellows in American literature.
The Fellows, a body of writers who advise the library, make up the award group.

The 16-page reply notes that deny them the capacity to exercise literary distinction in a

As to whether the award represents the wish of the American people, the report concludes:

"The American people are assumed to wish for a free and full development of their cultural life,
as well as of their economic life.
It would not be to the interest of such development if members

Mrs. Lord Hostess To Women's Group

The regular meeting of the Women's Social Christian Service of the Ebenezer Methodist Church was held last Tuesday at 3:30 P. M. at the home of Mrs. R. W. Lord. Mrs. J. H. Wynn presided over the meeting with the devotion being given by Mrs. Ross Stewart. A study of the book "Newness of Life" was continued under the direction of Mrs. Carl Bradbury.

The regular meeting of the Tourist Club will be held at the Tourist Center at 7:30 P. M. Other activities will be dancing and group singing led by Mrs. E. S. Price. All who are interested in the activities of the group are cordially invited to attend.

SATURDAY

The tourist group will enter with their party at the Tourist Center at 7:30 P. M. Other activities will be dancing and group singing led by Mrs. E. S. Price. All who are interested in the activities of the group are cordially invited to attend.

MONDAY

The Elsie Knight Circle of the First Baptist Church will meet with Mrs. Julian Varn, 306 Ninth Street, at 8:00 P. M.

Hollywood

HOLLYWOOD, Aug. 12 (UPI)—Evelyn Barrymore, now the first lady of the screen as well as the stage, will have a world-wide celebration of her 70th birthday Monday.

The great actress will be greeted by an international broadcast. Bing Crosby will sing "Happy Birthday." President Truman will say a few words. Best wishes will be added by such figures as Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt, Bernard Shute, Somers Mugford, Van Johnson, Katharine Cornell, Alfred Lunt, Lynn Fontanne, Billie Burke, Gregory Peck, and Miss Barrymore's young grandson.

The Motion Picture Academy, which arranged the radio show, was trying to reach Winston Churchill for a message to his old friend.

Such a celebration befitting a woman whose singing figure and maturing voice has dominated the American theater for a half-century.

What is she like? Well, she lives with her son, Samuel Collyer, in a cottage in the Palos Verdes Hills overlooking the Pacific. She has kept no pictures of herself, except a John Singer Sergeant portrait of her in her 20s. She has kept no scrapbooks; she has always done Saturday matinees.

Miss Barrymore has never seen her on the screen. "Why should I?" I never saw myself on the stage," she retorts. Her favorite screen role is the nun in the forthcoming "The Red Danube." She is a strict Catholic and does not drink. She avoids all forms of exercise. Her favorite entertainment is having close friends for lunch. They include Katherine Hepburn, Flynn, Bruce, Lucille Watson, Director George Cukor, writer Zane Grey, and others.

She seldom sees Brother Lionel, who lives about 40 miles distant. They don't see eye-to-eye politically, he being a republican and she a D.P. democrat.

She adored her brother John whom she got out of many a scrape. She said recently a day never passes without a thought of John.

The roads also are expected to do something about truck competition. Railroads say that in some cases rates will be lowered rather than raised, in an effort to lure back customers back.

Already, in the New York milkshedding rates on carrying milk have come down 27 per cent. It was reported at the time that the roads acted to avoid threats of large milk truck fleets being bought by big milk companies to do their own moving of milk to the market.

The financial squeeze on the railroads, which probably led to the ICC's late hiking action, was shown by the first half earnings and revenues as estimated by the Association of American Railroads. For the six months the net operating income of the nation's class one railroads was put at $313 million, compared with $411 million in the first half of 1948. Net income was estimated at $173 million, compared with $411 million a year ago.

However, the result of the drop in their carloadings is shown even better in the figures for total operating revenues before expenses. The roads took in $4.4 billion during the first half of the year, but that was 6.2 per cent less than the year before.

Take Your Family To Sunday School
By SENATOR WALTER F. GEORGE

Too many people send their children to Sunday school. Don't send your children take them then you will be there yourself. You need the Sunday school and the Sunday school needs you. Nobody stays too young for Sunday school, too long and nobody ever gets too old. More than thirteen centuries ago a great Christian leader said that the Bible is "a stream where alike the elephant may swim and the lamb may wade." And just last year J. Edgar Hoover, Director of the F.B.I., writing on "Crime and the Sunday school," stated:

"It is quite impossible to believe that progress along the road to righteousness living may be accomplished without the guidance of the Bible. It is the source of spiritual food, the solution of life's problems, and the inspiration for Christian living."

The modern Sunday school, with its teacher training courses and graded lessons, has much to offer to students of all ages from the Cradle Roll to the adult classes. Perhaps there is no other activity in which we can engage where the rewards are so great for so small an investment, and so altogether desirable. Bible study educates both the intellect and the heart. Allusions to biblical characters, incidents, parables, and proverbs are so common in literature that often one cannot read a magazine article or newspaper editorial intelligently without biblical knowledge. Most men and women who have not attended Sunday school lack such knowledge. They are to be pitied.

In the Scriptures we learn both by precept and by historical confirmation that "Righteousness exalteth a nation; but sin is a reproach to any people." Moreover, the life of the community is enriched with its social activities under religious auspices, and its opportunities for developing leadership. And the Sunday school is more than a place to receive benefits; for those who are qualified, it is a rich opportunity for service. So, for what you can get from it and for what you can give to it, take your family to Sunday school.

Five final matches in the PGA links championships have gone extra holes since the tourney began in 1918.

What does a man mean when he says, "Let's get down to brass tacks"? He means that he thinks it's time to discuss the real issue.

And that's always a good idea! Nothing is gained by "beating around the bush." Wise men seek the issue... and settle it!

In America there are millions of people who attend and support the Church. There are other millions who do not. What is the real issue on which these two groups disagree?

This is the issue: Is man the self-sufficient master of his world, able to overcome every problem by his own strength... OR is man the noblest creation of an all-powerful God, weak in the face of life's turmoil when he stands alone, but strong when he joins heart and hand with God?

You're a man and you've seen something of life! Getting down to brass tacks... are you stronger WITH GOD or without?

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and Good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual wealth. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should stand resolutely and firmly behind the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake; (2) For his children's sake; (3) For the sake of his community and nation; (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Plane Forced Down In Ocean; Nine Missing

Fishing Trawler Rescues 51 Survivors From Atlantic Off Shannon, Ireland

SHANNON, Ireland, Aug. 15.—(AP)—A U.S.-bound airliner was forced down on the dark waters of the Atlantic ocean early today when the pilot lost his way and ran out of gas.

A British fishing trawler raced to the scene, directed by radio, and picked up 51 survivors from the four-engined skymaster — some swimming, others on the plane's life rafts.

British Royal Air Force air-sea rescue craft continued searching the area, about 15 miles off the coast of Ireland, for the seven persons still missing.

Lost and nearly two and a half hours overdue, the pilot was trying to nurse his meager gas supply until he reached land under the guidance of another American airline when his engines started cutting out and he had to ditch the plane on the ocean. The plane was on the Rome to Shannon leg of the flight.

Transocean Airlines, owners of the plane, said all the 51 passengers were Italians emigrating to Venezuela. Also aboard were an American crew of nine and two other American employees of the airline. Miss Ruth Nichols, famed aviator of the 1920's, was the stewardess.

The trawler Stalberg found the plane scattered over a quarter square mile of ocean. Most of them were on three of the plane's big life rafts. Some were floating in life belts. Many were suffering from shock.

After securing the area, the captain of the fishing boat headed for Kilbran, on the nearby Aran Islands, to pick up a doctor. He radioed to the trawler to go to Kilbran, where the nearest hospital is located.

The plane put down near the Aran Islands, 15 miles off the west central coast of Ireland at the mouth of Galway Bay. Galway is about 25 miles away.

The airliner was due at Shannon at 1:30 A. M. British summer time (7:30 P. M. EST, Sunday night). An hour and a half before the plane was scheduled to land the control tower here lost radio contact with it.

All aircraft in the area were alerted to be on the lookout for the missing plane.

Shortly after 4 A. M., the pilot of a British overseas airline reported he had sighted the lost plane flying 30 miles out at sea, west of the Irish coast.

At about the same time, a Trans World airliner, bound from Shannon to New York, arrived on the scene.

The pilot of the transoceanic plane, Capt. Edward Harrell, radioed (Continued on Page Two)

Move Gets Under Way To Reduce Appropriations Under 1949 Act

MIAMI, Aug. 15.—(AP)—The Miami Daily News said today that a movement is underway to pare the state's $740,000,000 appropriation act for 1949 before any new taxes are passed to make up an anticipated $55,000,000 deficit.

The Daily News quoted Rep. Perry E. Murray of Frostproof, Speaker of the 1949 House, as saying that he has called on Governor Fuller Warren to open up the appropriations act. "Murray said. He told the News that he urged Warren to include an exemption of the act in the special session of the legislature to be called, Sept. 7.

"Murray said flatly he did not believe $240,000,000 is needed to run the state for the next two years. On the other hand, he does not believe that $185,000,000 which present taxes will produce, will be sufficient," said the newspaper.

"What we actually need will be found somewhere between the two extremes," Murray was quoted as saying.

"We are so lacking in information for the special session that

Says 1949 Appropriation Act Should Be Opened For Study

Declaring that he would try to get the $240,000,000 Appropriations bill for 1949 opened up for study during the special session next month, Rep. J. Bradley Odham said he expected Governor Warren to limit the session to revenue measures only and in that event he intends not to vote for a single dime in additional taxes.

The committee, he said, will have to do in government what we are having to do in business," he said. "We will have to distinguish between what is essential and what is merely desirable. Before you put your name to any petition asking your legislators to vote more money in taxes, be sure the economy of your state can stand it."

Pointing out that he is in favor of helping anyone who is really hungry, Mr. Odham said that the way we are spending out money to aged and unemployed will cause most of our people to lose their self-respect. I do not want to see anyone go without necessities, but I do not want to see the taxpayers have to buy automobile for people who won't work."

Declaring that he had been unable to find out what the State Welfare Board is doing with our money, Mr. Odham said that State Welfare will cost $600,000 in 1950, cost $850,000,000 for the last year and will cost $42,000,000 during the next two. "I know of no reason," he added, "why there should have been such a big increase."

Explaining his philosophy of government as being the traditional one upon which this country was built and which provided that a man should be allowed to

ANNUAL

TOKYO, Aug. 15.—(AP)—The fourth anniversary of Japan's independence will be celebrated today without any direct reminders of their military collapse in World War II. The Japanese were told instead how much progress they have made since war.

"It was during the period that the rate of operations exceeded 100 per cent of ingot capacity for a three month period for the first time in the history of the industry.

THE WEATHER

JACKSONVILLE, Aug. 15.—(AP)—

A steel industry expert told a presidential fact-finding board today that recent high profits in the industry were unusual and would not continue.

The statement was made by Dr. Julian Backman, an associate professor of economics at New York University.

Backman continued for a second day his testimony before the three-man board named by President Truman in an effort to prevent a nation-wide steel strike.

He showed the testimony of Robert R. Nathan, one-time government economist who appeared for the CIO steelworkers' union when its side of the case was presented to the board.

"During the first quarter of 1949, reported steel profits reached their highest level," Backman conceded.

SIX YEAR SEX

PHOENIX, Ariz., Aug. 15.—(AP)—

A film of sex education designed for six-year-old children is planned for exhibition in schools, dormitory, training centers and in teacher-training courses and in the home.

The film is planned by Eddie Albert, producer of the movie "Human Growth," which was released for children in the seventh grade a year ago.

Albert said yesterday the new film, "Human Development," will become available soon. He said that when the course is completed in seven years, it will have covered all the stages of human development from birth to death.

Smuggling Is Brought Into Senate Probe

Mrs. Truman Exonerated Of Blame In Connection With Deep Freeze Case

WASHINGTON, Aug. 15.—(AP)—

Senator McCarthy (R-Wis) said today an employee of the company reported to have paid for deep freezers sent to Mrs. Harry S. Truman and a number of other notables had engaged in "attempted smuggling activities."

McCarthy emphasized that he does not think there was anything "even remotely improper" on Mrs. Truman's part.

The Wisconsin Senator made his statement at the opening of today's five percent hearing. The Senate Investigating Committee is trying to find out whether improper influence with government officials figures in the activities of persons who charge fees for help in landing government contracts.

"I feel there is nothing in the record suggesting that there was anything even remotely improper in the part of Mrs. Truman, she is the type of lady who is incapable of doing anything improper," McCarthy said.

"I don't think the perfume company's connection with John McCarran," he said.

"I am sure, for example, she was not doing what the committee is investigating, that she was not smuggling activities on the part of an employee of this company."

McCarran is a former Kansas City blithetaker who once had a White House pass and who has said Vaughan is a good friend of his.

Two weeks ago the committee began investigating a report that McCarran was involved in a customs duty incident in 1946.

The committee based its investigation on a story which appeared in the New York Herald Tribune.

The newspaper said it was reported that McCarran had been charged $1,000 duty on a supply of valuable perfume essence he was said to have brought back from France. The paper said the customs charge was made after an alert customs guard had discovered the essence.

It is known that the committee has been trying unsuccessfully to get certain information pertaining to the McCarran case from the Justice Department.

The perfume matter came up at the start of today's committee session after Chairman Howard (D-N.C.) announced that the session was deferring further testimony on the freezer episode.

Zubrod To Conduct Course For Negroes

Bob Zubrod will conduct a water safety clinic at the W. E. Howard Scout Camp for negroes Tuesday morning at 9:30 o'clock. This will be followed by the dedication of McClelland Field, named after C. P. McClelland, county committee man.

Zubrod will complete the course in life saving for instance.
