

Nation Awaits LBJ's First Official Policy Statement

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Johnson was expected to move his office into the White House today and prepare for his first address to Congress and the nation.

Johnson will address a joint session of Congress at 12:30 p.m. EST Wednesday to outline his policies in national and international affairs. The speech will be televised.

In the speech, which may be one of the most important he will make as Chief Executive, Johnson was expected to urge congressional approval of President Kennedy's civil rights and tax cut programs.

Veteran legislators were said to feel there would be no slackening under the new President of the drive for congressional approval of the two cornerstones of the Kennedy program. But whether Johnson would be any more successful than his predecessor remained to be seen.

"I think continuity without confusion has got to be our password and has to be the key to our system," Johnson said Monday night in explaining his decision to appear before Congress.

The Chief Executive met today with the world leaders who remained after attending Kennedy's funeral, including Soviet Deputy Premier Anastas I. Mikoyan, British Prime Minister Sir Alec Douglas-Home and West German Chancellor Ludwig Erhard.

But from the domestic political standpoint, his most important meeting came later in the day when he conferred with top aides and officials about his speech before Congress.

The tenor of that speech probably was indicated in the new President's remarks

Terrorists In Venezuela Fire Oil Pipeline

PUERTO LA CRUZ, Venezuela (UPI) — Terrorists dynamited a cluster of six U. S. - owned oil and gas pipelines near this northeastern port before dawn Monday, starting a fire that raged all morning. It was reported today.

The wrecked pipelines including three operated by the Mene Jando Oil Company, a Standard-Gulf subsidiary; two belonging to the Mobil Oil Company and a natural gas line operated by a Gulf subsidiary.

A Mene Grande spokesman said that act of sabotage temporarily halted oil and gas shipments through the blasted lines but did not affect the company's operations or its export shipments.

In the "oil capital" of Maracaibo, Gov. Luis Vera Gomez of Zulia State announced the arrest of "several" extreme leftist leaders as an apparent precaution against attempts to disrupt Sunday's presidential election.

Vera said those under arrest included Armando Faria Rincon, known in leftist circles as "Major David," and a number of leftists caught with explosives or subversive propaganda in their possession.

Castro-Communist terrorists have been trying to sabotage the election because parties of the extreme left were not allowed to nominate candidates.

Oswald Grave Under Guard

FORT WORTH (UPI) — Police with vicious trained dogs stood guard today at the grave of Lee Harvey Oswald to protect it from ghoulies.

The 24-year-old Communist sympathizer and accused assassin of President Kennedy generated such hatred that police are afraid someone may desecrate the hastily dug grave, or try to dig up the pine coffin.

"There is always the possibility of ghoulies," said Col. E. P. Seltzer, a retired Army regimental commander who owns Rose Hill Cemetery where Oswald was buried.

A police guard and a watch dog were stationed beside the grave. A police patrol car drove slowly back and forth inside the cemetery. It was the first time since the cemetery was started back in the 19th century that guards were necessary during the night.

Gaming Closed At Las Vegas

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (UPI) — This gambling city's downtown "Casino Center," darkened for 17 hours Monday in honor of the late President who was more crowded than ever despite the lack of gambling.

Many of the city's 120,000 went to the center — where gambling normally goes on 24 hours a day in brightly lighted casinos — to see what it looked like without the lights on.

Casinos, showrooms and bars in all the major hotels both downtown and on the "strip" were closed from 7 a.m. until midnight.

800 Political Prisoners Free

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (UPI) — More than 800 political prisoners of the Ngo Dinh Diem regime have been released from hidden prisons since the Nov. 1 coup d'etat, the new Vietnamese military government announced Monday night.

"The search for the underground jails has ended, and not a single one remains in and around the capital," the directorate — general of police said in an official statement.

Reds Say Men U. S. Targets

TOKYO (UPI) — The Communist Central News Agency of North Korea charged in a broadcast today that nine South Koreans killed last Thursday were used as live targets by U. S. Army troops during rocket practice.

U. S. Army sources announced the nine were killed while scavenging scrap metal from a firing range when a non-nuclear U. S. Army Honest John rocket exploded among them.

to a meeting of the governors of 35 states Monday night.

The governors were hastily assembled following the funeral for the meeting at Johnson's former vice presidential offices. Many were halted at airports and summoned to hear the President's 30-minute appeal for bipartisan backing in the days of crisis following the assassination.

The Chief Executive was reported to have stressed his backing for federal programs to aid education in expressing general support for Kennedy's legislative goals.

New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller, a candidate for the Republican presidential nomination, said that Johnson told the group he would urge Congress to act on the $11 billion tax cut program, presently stalled in the Senate Finance Committee, and the civil rights measure.

Rockefeller said the ovation Johnson received was "a most sincere demonstration of unity in this moment of tragedy." He said Johnson was "impressive."

Pennsylvania Gov. William W. Scranton, another prominent Republican, praised Johnson's speech and said he was sure that all the governors at the meeting would support the new President.

Later, Johnson met with Treasury Secretary Douglas Dillon and Budget Director Kermit Gordon to discuss the nation's economy and review the budget he will send to Congress in January. Walter W. Heller, chairman of the council of economic advisers, sat in on the talk.

Gov. Connally Watches Rites

DALLAS (UPI) — Gov. John B. Connally, wounded when President Kennedy was assassinated, sat up in bed Monday and watched the martyred president's funeral on television.

It was a personal loss for Connally, who did not know that Kennedy was dead until the following day. Connally was a friend of the Chief Executive and had served as his first secretary of the Navy.

The governor sent his 17-year-old son John Jr. to represent him at the funeral. His wife, Nellie, stayed with him at the hospital.

Connally was rapidly recovering and Dr. Thom Shires, chief surgeon at Parkland Memorial Hospital, said he is in excellent condition.

'Sam Benedict' Attorney Considers Defending Ruby

DALLAS (UPI) — Jake (The Master) Ehrlich, prominent West Coast criminal lawyer, said today he is willing to consider defending flashy Jack Ruby on charges of murdering the President's accused assassin.

Ehrlich is the flamboyant San Francisco attorney upon whose life the television series "Sam Benedict" is based.

Ruby told his Dallas lawyer, Tom Howard, Monday that he had a "spur of the moment" urge to kill Lee Harvey Oswald to avenge the Kennedy family and because he thought Oswald was part of a Communist plot.

Howard planned to have him plead temporary insanity and stressed that he felt Ruby had been "emotionally disturbed."

Ehrlich said he got a telephone call from Mrs. Eva Grant, Ruby's sister, and that she asked him if he would defend her brother.

Since Ruby already has retained Howard, Ehrlich said she should have him call his San Francisco office.

If the attorney asks Ehrlich to head up or organize a defense for Ruby, would he accept?

"I would give it a hell of a lot of thought," he replied.

Elrod Urges 'Plan Ahead'

By Mrs. Adam Muller

State Representative Robert E. Elrod of Orange County urged members of the DeBary Republican Club last Thursday evening to plan ahead for the coming campaigns stressing that all members of the party now registered as Democrats should change their registration before elections.

He also supported the local plan outlined by Earl Merrill, first vice president, for canvassing the area to get new voters.

Elrod spoke before the club's monthly meeting held in the Community Center with Merrill presiding in the absence of Horace Demarest, president.

Howard was not immediately available for comment, but his wife said that someone from Ehrlich's office in San Francisco had been in contact with her husband.

Howard said a preliminary examining trial probably will be held for Ruby after Thanksgiving.

Ruby, a striptease nightclub operator, shot Oswald on Sunday while millions of Americans watched on live television. The shooting took place while Oswald was being brought out of city jail under heavy guard to be taken to a maximum security cell at county jail.

Newspapers dubbed him Jake "The Master" because of the way he handles his courtroom attack. He is noted primarily for his trial histrionics and flamboyant personality.

Dallas County Dist. Atty. Henry Wade, who has a perfect batting average in murder cases—24 convictions out of 24—has said he will try to send Ruby to the electric chair.

Legal Fight Looms Over 'Birdman' MS

SPRINGFIELD, Mo. (UPI) — A legal fight brewed today over the U. S. Bureau of Prisons' refusal to relinquish a manuscript written by the late Robert Stroud, the famed "Birdman of Alcatraz."

Bureau attorney Eugene Barkin notified Stroud's attorneys Monday that Stroud's many personal effects, including a manuscript entitled "A History of the U. S. Prison System," would not be released.

Several months before Stroud died here last Thursday at the U.S. Medical Center for federal prisoners, he instituted legal proceedings to force the bureau to permit publication of the manuscript.

The 73-year-old Stroud, who gained fame for his knowledge of bird diseases, spent 54 years behind bars. His book on bird diseases won international acclaim.

Stroud died of acute coronary thrombosis at the medical center. He had twice been convicted of murder. During his lonely hours in prison, he became a self-taught expert on bird diseases. The movie, "Birdman of Alcatraz," was based on his book on bird diseases.

Children crippled and dying from muscular dystrophy can be saved through medical research — but only if you give generously to the March of Dimes.

Bravery Citations Given 2 NAS Men

Chief Petty Officer Henry S. Dilts and W. L. Rowland, civilian crash crew captain, were awarded letters of commendation for their courageous performance of duty. At great personal risk, they rescued the two pilots from an A3A which had crashed at the Sanford Naval Air Station. The letters were from Cdr. R. E. Farmer, commanding officer of Heavy Attack Squadron 3.

Dilts, who was flying in the stricken aircraft as third crewman, was cited as follows: "Being aware of the imminent possibility of aircraft explosion following an accident, you did not act contrary to basic self-survival instinct and remained in the cockpit to effect release of one of the pilots, whose foot was entrapped by wreckage. Only then did you look to your own safety. Your self discipline, courage, and crew loyalty are in keeping with the highest traditions of the Naval Service."

Rowland, on duty as crash crew captain, was cited as follows: "You directed and participated in the rescue of the pilot who was pinned under the wreckage of the crashed A3A. Severe structural damage to the cockpit area had ruptured the oxygen converter causing liquid oxygen to flow in the immediate area of probable spilled petroleum products" (petroleum and liquid oxygen is a highly explosive mixture).

"When a crane lifted the cockpit sufficient for access, you entered this hazardous environment, disconnected the battery to lessen the possibility of explosion, and comforted the stricken pilot until you had him disengaged and evacuated. Your skill and devotion to duty is indeed noteworthy."

$658,729 Is Low Bid On Project

Two years of arduous endeavors on the part of area leaders for the improvement of State Road 436 between Highway 17-92 and Interstate 4 were nearing successful culmination today.

State Road Department officials at Tallahassee Tuesday afternoon opened bids for the contract to reconstruct the highway and now are engaged in tabulations. Low bidder was Hubbard Construction Company, Orlando, with $658,729.

Altamonte Springs town officials, County Commissioners and county engineers and the Chamber of Commerce have pushed this 436 road improvement program with a "No. 1 top priority" for the last two years.

Douglas Stenstrom, chairman of the Chamber's long range road planning committee, today pointed out that this $658,729 contract "is the biggest Seminole County project the State Road Department has approved this year and probably will be bigger than any similar spending for next year this county."

Stenstrom estimated that Altamonte Springs, County and Chamber attaches have "spent more than 20 hours in pushing this program, with local conferences and trips to DeLand and Tallahassee."

Rickey Green, SRD district engineer at DeLand, informed the Herald this morning that with the tabulation of bids and awarding of the contract, the successful bidder will be allowed 15 days in which to start work and will be allowed 240 work days to complete the project.

Green said the new road job will be 2.2 miles of primary construction, lime rock with asphalt top.

It will be a four-lane highway with median. Each lane will be 12 feet wide. It will be "city construction" with curb and gutters through Altamonte Springs and "country construction" with berm and ditches elsewhere.

Stenstrom concluded the next county road project to be pushed by the county will be

Bombing Derby Postponed In JFK's Memory

The Heavy Attack Wing One tenth annual Bombing Derby, originally scheduled for Dec. 9-14, has been postponed until March 1964.

This announcement was made today by Capt. James O. Mayo Wing commander, after conferences in Norfolk, Va., Tuesday with Vice Adm. Paul H. Ramsey, commander of Naval Air Forces for the Atlantic Fleet.

According to Mayo, the postponement of the week-long fleet exercise and its associated air show and social activities was felt implicit in the spirit of the nation's 30-day mourning period for the late President of the United States, John F. Kennedy.

A message from the office of the Secretary of Defense Sunday called for cancellation of "Armed Forces band, troop and equipment participation in public events of a social or entertainment nature until the period of official mourning . . . has been ended."

In releasing this word to all ships and stations within his command, Adm. David L. McDonald, chief of Naval Operations, stated: "During the 30-day period of national mourning for President Kennedy, honors, ceremonies and official entertainment by Navy elements at all levels will be cancelled."

The Bombing Derby will be rescheduled the week of March 16-21. Complete details will be promulgated this week to all interested members of the civilian and military communities.

The Wing commander pointed out that the week of March 16 is the next practicable time when a large representation of the Wing's equipment and personnel could be brought together without conflicting with operational commitments.

Registration Cards Mailed

The more than 10,000 registered voters in Seminole County will receive a "renewal card" in the mail within a day or so from Registrar Camilla Bruce.

Electors who desire to continue their registration must sign and return these cards, with postage prepaid, by Dec. 31.

Otherwise, Mrs. Bruce said, those who fail to return the cards by Dec. 31 will be required to re-register in 1964.

Work To Start Dec. 9-15 At 17-92, Onora

Construction work is expected to be commenced between Dec. 9-15 on what is anticipated to be a multi-million dollar shopping center on Highway 17-92 South at Onora Street.

County Commission Monday approved a building permit in the amount of $800,000 for the R. M. Thompson Construction Company, of Clearwater. Zoning director Robert Brown explained that the latter figure is for actual construction of the first four units and does not include paving, sewerage, drainage, fixtures and other inside furnishings.

Termed the "Sanford Shopping Center," the plant will occupy about 15 acres of land east of 17-92 and south of Onora Street. Parking places for in excess of 1,100 automobiles will be provided.

Access will be from Highway 17-92 but mainly from Onora Street, which now appears only on county plat books and must be constructed. Also, an access will be built from Onora Road parallel to Highway 17-92.

The first units will cover about 140,000 square feet of floor space.

The first two units, according to Brown, will be occupied by a Publix supermarket and Eckerd Drugs.

Two more units are in the first proposal, reportedly to be occupied by J. C. Penney Company and McCrory's. It is understood negotiations have not been completed but are expected to be approved shortly.

Other units will follow after completion of the first four units, parking paving, sewerage, etc.

LBJ Signs First Bills; One For Higher Debt

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Johnson has signed his first two bills, the White House announced today—one of them legislation increasing the temporary debt limit from $302 billion to $315 billion.

The first bill to be signed by the new Chief Executive was an amendment to the Arms Control and Disarmament Act. It increased the authorization for appropriations and changed some personnel security procedures.

The bill raising the debt ceiling from $302 billion, effective Friday, was vitally needed because the legal debt limit would otherwise drop to the $245 billion "permanent" level on Sunday, Nov. 30.

Seminole Second In Traffic Death Rise

Seminole County is second only to Brevard County in East Central Florida for increase in traffic fatalities in 1963 as compared to 1962, Sgt. Vince Smallwood, Florida Highway Patrol safety officer, reported today.

Seminole already has tallied 20 traffic deaths this year as compared to eight in all of 1962, Smallwood said. Brevard has counted 48 traffic fatalities this year as against 29 for 19 months in 1962.

However, Seminole leads in another category with 116 deaths this year per 100 million miles traveled, as compared to 41 deaths in 1962.

Other comparisons for the first 10 months of 1963 and 1962 are: Orange County, 58 and 50, down eight; Osceola County, 12 and 13, up one; Volusia County, 29 and 30, up one; Lake County, 23 and 18, down seven; and Flagler County, six and five, down one, for a total of 166 and 182, up 16.

Smallwood was optimistic, however, in reporting that traffic accidents were reduced almost to a standstill last weekend as the FHP's "Operation Traffic Deaths" continued to Seminole County. There was only one minor traffic accident in the entire county during the time of this intensified enforcement.

Sgt. N. B. Thornhill, in charge of the enforcement detail of seven extra troopers assigned in the area, reported they arrested 50 motorists for various traffic law violations.

Senate Probes Kennedy Death

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Senate investigators today were compiling the bits and pieces of evidence they hoped would tell the full Kennedy assassination story.

Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen predicted that public hearings on the investigation might begin before Congress recesses for its Easter vacation.

"No time will be lost," said the Illinois Republican discussing the inquiry with newsmen.

Dirksen told the Senate Tuesday night, after a round of leadership huddles, that it had been decided to let the senate judiciary committee conduct the investigation.

Fruit Reshipped

LAKELAND (UPI) — Four shiploads of Mexican oranges ordered by Tropicana Products, Inc., of Bradenton, will be diverted to Brownsville, Tex., to avoid any further chance of a new fruit fly infestation in Florida.

Johnson Gets Free Hand On Wheat Sales

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Senate, moved by a letter from the dead President, voted Tuesday night to give the new Chief Executive a free hand in negotiating the proposed wheat sales to Russia.

By a 57 to 25 vote, the Senate defeated a bill sponsored by Sen. Karl E. Mundt, (R-S.D.), that would have prohibited the Export-Import Bank from guaranteeing commercial U. S. bank loans to finance the sales.

Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield, Mont., in a dramatic prologue to the showdown vote, read to a hushed chamber a letter from the late President Kennedy, written a week before his assassination, vigorously opposing the restriction.

The letter dated Nov. 13 and addressed to Mansfield said, in part, "I write to urge in the strongest terms that the Senate should not approve any legislation which government underwriting of the sales.

Calling such a proposal "against the national interest," the letter was never actually signed by the President but bore typewritten ending: "Sincerely, John F. Kennedy."

Special appreciation is due to the local site committee comprised of General J. C. Hutchison, Senator Mack Cleveland, Representative Joe Davis, Representative Jan Fortune, Sanford Mayor Tom McDonald, Chamber of Commerce President Francis Roumillat, Chamber Manager John Krider and the committee's chairman, former Senator Douglas Stenstrom.

If Seminole is fortunate enough to land the university it will mean much to every business, craftsman, laborer, merchant, etc.

It will mean the end of the mental blocks, and perhaps bury forever the idea which has prevailed in Seminole that "it can't be done."

But the university site is not all that's involved in Seminole's future. The south end of the county Tuesday got its $600,000 plus road appropriation for SR 436 and the north end got a stamp of approval on plans for the $600,000 shopping center.

Now Seminole must go to work on getting approval to four-lane SR 46 from French Avenue to Mellonville. If the university is located in Seminole it will mean re-building SR 46 to the east coast.

The locating of the university here also could bring about the construction of an access road to Interstate 4 at Lake Mary Boulevard—a project which local leaders have proposed and worked for during the past several years.

Seminole may not get the university but in making the fight it has matured as a county.

Ruling Step To Eliminate Rail Firemen

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The ruling of the presidential arbitration board in the four-year old railroad dispute was viewed today as a small but decisive step toward elimination of firemen from freight trains and yard engines.

The board's major finding was that 90 per cent of the firemen's jobs on these diesel locomotives could be abolished because other crew members could do their work.

But a detailed study of the arbitration panel's 28-page opinion indicates that even though the jobs are unnecessary it will be many years before the men who hold them can be removed from the payroll.

The board's decision is legally binding on both unions and carriers. Two unions — representing the firemen and engineers — said they would try to delay the effectiveness of the award as a prelude to a court fight to get the ruling set aside.

The ruling did not remove the threat of a new rail strike next Feb. 25 over proposals for revision of the pay system, seniority rules and other related issues. These matters were left for bargaining that is scheduled to be resumed Dec. 4 by negotiators for the unions and the railroads.

Since the ruling was a sharp setback for the firemen and engineers' unions, however, they may stiffen their stand on the other aspects of the dispute that has raged in and out of the courts and presidential commissions since 1959.

The railroads scored a decisive victory — in principle — since the neutrals agreed with management spokesmen that all but 10 per cent of the 25,000 firemen's jobs on freight and yard trains could be abolished without any added risk.

Those 10 per cent would be retained, presumably on those rare runs or yard locations where an extra man is needed to pass signals or maintain a lookout, under the ruling.

It is scheduled to take effect Jan. 25.

Churches, Clubs Offered Use Of Sanford Bank's Coin Counter

A novelty courtesy service for its depositors—said to be the only one in Central Florida—has been extended by Sanford Atlantic National Bank.

President Howard H. Hodges also announced the service will be extended to all charitable organizations, service clubs, church groups etc., who collect large sums of coins.

The service is a coin sorter and counter, especially designed for coin handling automation wherever volume coin handling problems exist.

The machine accurately sorts, counts and provides a running grand total of mixed coins from pennies to half dollars at an average rate of 400 coins per minute. It eliminates human error and saves time.

Each denomination has a large, easy-to-read counter. These denominational counters provide a running total in dollars and cents of coins being sorted and counted. A sixth counter carries a cumulative grand total of all five denominations.

Sorted and counted coins are deposited by denomination in either single or double drawers or in bags.

3 More Bodies Found In Mine

PEINE, Germany (UPI) — Rescue workers Tuesday uncovered the bodies of three of the 29 miners killed in the Mathilde iron mine when a sedimentation basin collapsed and flooded the shafts Oct. 24.

The bodies were found at a depth of 230 feet, buried under masses of mud. The search for the remaining 26 bodies was continuing and experts said it may take up to two weeks.

Eleven miners were rescued Nov. 7 after being trapped 14 days in an air pocket. Ten others had been brought to safety earlier.

Something Good Comes From It

MIAMI (UPI) — Police said a man was so overcome by President Kennedy's assassination that he turned himself in Tuesday for stealing a tape recorder.

Angel Luis Rivera called officers and told them to pick him up at bar because he had stolen a $300 tape recorder from an empty courtroom last week, according to city detective John Hayward.

Rivera later told police he was so overcome with grief by the president's death that he decided to give himself up.

Turkey Dinner Just Walks In MIAMI (UPI) — Thomas Trujillo's Thanksgiving dinner walked in Tuesday.

Trujillo said he was working in his sundries store when the 16-pound gobbler strutted in, took a liking to the place, and squatted.

"If nobody shows up in 24 hours we will have it for Thanksgiving dinner," he told city police.

Western Europe Leaders Praise New President

By United Press International

Western Europe's leaders today praised President Johnson and promised their support for him. But Communist China's allies continued to attack both Johnson and President Kennedy.

Peking, which published a cartoon captioned "Kennedy Blites The Dust" two days after the President's death, made no direct attacks itself today but transmitted those of its Asian satellites over the New China News Agency, monitored in Tokyo.

The Laotian Communist radio accused Kennedy of having been "the mastermind behind U.S. double dealing on world issues" and said "the outlook of the new U. S. President is in essence the same as that of Kennedy."

The reaction in Western Europe and even in the Soviet Union was in sharp contrast.

The Soviet press continued to praise Kennedy as a man of courage who "thought not without hesitation and somewhat belatedly, symbolized the energy and common sense of the American nation."

The European satellites echoed these views. Bulgaria's Radio Sofia called the late President a "talented and realistic statesman."

The Soviet world appeared to be withholding its comments on Johnson to a great degree and concentrating instead on charges that Kennedy was killed in a right-wing plot.

British Labor party leader Harold Wilson, who will deal with Johnson as prime minister if he wins the forthcoming national elections, said on his return from Washington Tuesday night that the new President "has a deep determination to carry on with some of the things that President Kennedy started, particularly civil rights and the settlement of the racial conflict."

Prime Minister Sir Alec Douglas-Home, who will oppose Wilson in the election, conferred with Johnson in Washington Tuesday.

Wilson's deputy, George Brown, predicted the Russians will test Johnson's will soon with new provocations in Berlin.

Dear Abby: By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: You said it wasn't proper to say "Congratulations" to a bride. One should say "Best wishes" to the bride, and "Congratulations" to the groom. Then you said the person who said "Congratulations" to a bride might as well follow it up with, "I didn't think you could land him." I think you're all wrong, Abby. A bride DESERVES to be congratulated. In this day and age it is really an accomplishment to get a man to marry her. How about when a person graduates from high school or college? If I say "Congratulations" to someone, might I just as well follow it up with, "I didn't think you could make it"?

DEAR CURIOUS: If you did, the graduate is likely to reply, "Thanks, neither did I."

DEAR ABBY: My daughter is getting married pretty soon. Her father has been locked up in the state insane asylum for the past three years. When we make the announcement and send out the wedding invitations, should we use, "MR. AND MRS. SO AND SO"? According to the law, he is not responsible. He can't sign contracts or anything like that. If we didn't use his name, he couldn't be hurt because he wouldn't know the difference. Thank you.

DEAR WIFE: Even though your husband is confined in a mental hospital, he is still alive. Announcements and invitations in such circumstances should read "MR. AND MRS." To deny his existence would be cruel.

DEAR ABBY: I come from a large family. I have several older sisters and brothers who are married and have children. I am engaged to be married and want to know if, after I am married, my husband will automatically become an uncle to my nieces and nephews? I am only trying to prove a technical point. He says that MY kin will be no kin of his, and I say they will be HIS as well as mine. Who's right?

DEAR BIG: Your relatives will become HIS relatives. If your disagreement is only technical, that's one thing. But if he has mental reservations about your relatives, maybe you'd be wise to review your engagement.

CONFIDENTIAL TO FASHION EDITOR IN WISCONSIN: Yes, I still hate pointed toed shoes. The only thing they're good for is to keep a HEEL in place.

What's on Your mind? For a personal reply, send a self-addressed, stamped envelope to Abby, Box 3365, Beverly Hills, Calif.

Jacoby On Bridge By Oswald Jacoby

The late Hal Sims was a great believer in bidding small slams only and leaving grand slam bids to others. Of course, when Sims was in his hey-day, bidding was much less developed than it is now, but even today players should be very careful about risking game and a small slam in an effort to get that extra grand slam home.

North's jump to three hearts was somewhat of an overbid and South refused to let him off the hook until they were in seven.

South won the diamond opening and led a trump to his ace. West dropped the jack whereupon South crossed over to dummy again, led a second trump and finessed the 10 spot. West took his queen and that was all to the play but not all to the hand, North was bitter about the whole thing and told South that he had made a horrible play. The argument was referred to me and while I had to agree that South's play was most unfortunate I also must explain that it was the correct percentage play.

The reason why it was correct is that when West played the jack he was surely playing with a singleton jack or the lower card of doubleton queen-jack. With a singleton jack he would have been forced to play the jack. With queen-jack he might well have played the queen. Hence the odds were that his jack had been a singleton, so South's finesse was correct in theory. So apparently was Hal Sims when he refused to bid a grand slam unless he could guarantee 18 tricks.

Play is important! Helpful tips are contained in "Win at Bridge With Oswald Jacoby." Just send your name, address, and 50 cents to: Oswald Jacoby Reader Service, c/o this newspaper, P. O. Box 489, Dept. A, Radio City Station, New York 19, N. Y.

We The Women: By Ruth Millett

When it comes to delegating responsibilities — or getting someone else to do a job for you — men are a whole lot smarter than women.

So it is no surprise that when a Houston woman decided to become a professional committee chairman — (doing the behind-the-scenes drudgery for busy people who are chairmen of all kinds of committees) her clientele turned out to be 90 per cent men.

"Women usually think they have to do all the work themselves, without outside help" is how this "professional committee chairman" explains why she gets most of her business from men.

The reluctance of women to delegate responsibility — even when it would be easy — is why housewives have always complained that their work is never done and why so few women in business become executives.

The housewife finds it hard to trust anyone to do the simplest job around the house, so she does practically all of the work herself.

Her husband, she'll tell you, is more trouble than help because he can't do the simplest job without making a big deal of it.

As for the children — well, she would rather do things right the first time than have to see to it that they do things right.

In business, it's a rare woman who depends on a secretary to the extent that most men do, so women with brains all too often waste their time on routine matters any man would turn over to his secretary or to a subordinate.

In today's world where practically everything seems to be done by committee it was only natural that someone would get the bright idea of making a career out of relieving busy people of the thousand and one details connected with being a committee chairman.

It was also only natural that when such help became available the men were the ones to take advantage of it. Men may not be smarter at work than women are, but they are a whole lot smarter about getting out of it.

Sanford Couple Observes Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Mathes, 500 Palmetto Ave., were guests of honor at a surprise celebration Sunday afternoon at the Youth Center of the Church of the Nazarene given by relatives and church friends, under the direction of Rev. and Mrs. Paul Biekes.

They were married 50 years on Nov. 26 and had planned to greet a few friends on Sunday afternoon, since some of the family could come on that day, but they did not know about the party.

Mrs. Mathes was presented with a corsage and they received many gifts and cards from friends who gathered to honor them. Refreshments of cake, fruit punch, ice cream, nuts and mints were served by members of the church. Their son, William, brought a lovely wedding cake for the party.

The couple was married in 1913 at the Parsonage of the Ironside District with Rev. William Jones officiating. They moved to Wellsville, Ohio, where Mr. Mathes was employed by the Pennsylvania Railroad. Later they moved to Steubenville, Ohio, and lived there for a number of years, moving to Sanford Jan. 7, 1957.

They have one daughter, Mrs. James Clark, of Steubenville, and three sons, David W., William E. and Ralph. Mrs. Clark and six children, William and his wife and four children and Ralph with his wife and four children were present for the celebration. The third son, David, and family were unable to attend.

Mrs. Jay Carter, ways and means chairman urged members to sell tickets for the benefit being sponsored by the chapter. The drawing will be Dec. 2 when someone will be awarded a weekend trip for two to Nassau.

Lake Monroe HD Club Hears Program On Choosing Diets

By Mrs. H. L. Johnson
Mrs. Hilda Kibbee, county health nurse, was the guest speaker at the November meeting of the Lake Monroe Home Demonstration Club.

She explained the reasons for diets and told of various ways of getting results. She suggested that those on a diet should choose correct foods, drink plenty of water, eat celery and trim all fats from meat.

Mrs. Eb Hunter, president, conducted the business session and heard reports of recent projects. The fashion show co-sponsored by the club and Midway Shoppe was reported as very successful.

It was announced that the Christmas party and installation service is scheduled for Dec. 6. Members voted to donate to the fund for the two L-H Clubs that they are sponsoring. The girls are saving to purchase beanie hats to wear in the Christmas parade.

The Christmas party for the club will be held at the home of Mrs. H. L. Johnson on Dec. 12 with Mrs. Hunter serving as co-hostess.

College Purposes

The nation's colleges have come in for a good deal of fresh comment lately, and some of it is pretty acid.

Clark Kerr, president of the University of California, thinks the massive institution he heads represents the right style for today and maybe the future—a sprawling affair with a wide catalogue of interests, deeply enmeshed in the daily doings of the world around it.

Nathan Pusey, president of Harvard, thinks the modern university needs to get back to more pure thinking and pure scientific research, unadorned by the necessity of seeking immediate practical use for such effort.

Along comes W. H. Ferry of the Center for the Study of Democratic Institutions to indict U. S. colleges on quite sweeping grounds. His remarks are sure to bring many defenders of the schools quickly to the barricades. But at least his charges ought to be well aired.

To a group of Detroit educators he said: "Judged by its output of practical wisdom and independent criticism, the college is a resounding flop."

"At least to one observer, the college is floundering in a bog of self-doubt, contradictory purposes, public relations and intellectual inertia."

"Activism has replaced thought. Anti-communism and other wholesome public relations exercises are surrogates for intellectual leadership."

Rough talk, not likely to endear the man to educational conservatives, or to magic over some liberals in the field.

But provocative notions ought not to be brushed off casually. Ferry has a lot of other ideas on the subject of the present day college. Educators unaware of his comments should seek them out, and ponder.

The layman, listening from the outside, cannot judge too well how much of this vigorous assault may be justified.

Just one idea does occur: Ferry's complaint really is against the modern society in which the university lives. The things he objects to are features of 1968 living in America.

Certainly a "separateness" from daily life was long a traditional mark of the distinctive college. Yet now it hardly exists. The schools are bound up in the practicalities of the defense and space effort. What goes on in college has become everybody's business.

Ferry says that Americans still recognize, in theory, the ancient virtues attaching to the college. He sees clearly that the practice is vastly different.

The question would seem to be: Can the college really assert its old integrity, find its time-honored detachment, in a society that beats on its doors so insistently? Ferry is asking for formidable performances from educators in suggesting the answer is "yes."

Letters

To The Editor

Editor: The Herald

These are my thoughts on a tragedy.

The date: Nov. 22, 1963. The day: Friday. The time: 8:00 p. m.

At this hour, on this fateful day, this writer is still trying to comprehend the tragic incident that fate has so suddenly thrown upon us, the United States and the world, has actually happened. It seems like a dream; no, a nightmare of unbelievable and unreal horror.

Tears are streaming unashamedly down my cheek, and an unwanted but uncontrollable feeling of hate is in my heart toward the degenerate; nothing but animal remains of human beings, who engineered and executed this dastardly, terrible and infamous deed. I feel now that hell and damnation are too good for them. I have heard reports that the prime suspect in this untimely and unwarranted assassination is an American. If this is true, that a man born here, in the land of freedom, raised with every freedom a man can ask for, can commit a crime of this dimension against his country and the world, it makes my heart sick; almost ashamed to be an American. How can a nation that was born of such faith, such single united strength, sink to the quagmire of despair and diuinity that we are mired in today.

I'm not a political leader, not a famous person, not one that knew John F. Kennedy personally, but only one of the millions that he led so capably. I did not agree with everything he did, or believe in everything he believed in. I did not even vote for him in the last election. But I loved him as an intelligent, strong, and courageous president and individual. I would have surely voted for him the next time.

I am speaking now from the depth of my heart, trying to put on paper what I feel so strongly inside. Words like sorrow, remorse, anger, hatred, and revenge somehow do not seem to be appropriate now.

I am praying now, not for President John Fitzgerald Kennedy, because I believe, with all my heart, that he does not need my prayers. He is with his God in Heaven. He has gone to meet the Supreme Being who led him as amply as he led us. I am praying for his loved ones that he left behind in sorrow. His personal family and friends, and along with them, all the freedom-loving people throughout the world.

We are the ones in need of prayer; we must go on living and working for peace. We are now without the tremendous love and service of John F. Kennedy who gave his life for our country, that we may unite again as one nation, under God, "for the people, of the people, and by the people."

Let us not slack off one iota from the fight for world peace and freedom that President Kennedy led. We shall carry on the fight in his blessed memory.

Heaven has gained what we have lost. May God Help Us. Larry L. Shook

Helen Fuller Says

Another Southern Johnson

(Editor's Note: Miss Fuller, author of a book on the late President Kennedy, also has been a close friend of President Lyndon B. Johnson for more than 25 years.)

Like another Johnson, and another Southerner—Andrew Johnson of Tennessee—Lyndon Baines Johnson succeeds to the headship of our nation in place of a slain president. The burdens this new President Johnson inherits from President Kennedy are, of course, infinitely more complex than those which President Lincoln left behind for Andrew Johnson. Perhaps it was with this in mind that John F. Kennedy chose his running mate in 1960 in the way that he did.

Many of those closest to Mr. Kennedy in his campaign for the presidential nomination were surprised and critical when he selected Senator Johnson for second place on the Democratic ticket. Johnson waged a bitter fight against Kennedy to win the presidential nomination for himself. There was no love lost between the two when the balloting came to an end. But there was great mutual respect.

The founding fathers originally provided that the vice-presidential post fall to the man receiving the second highest vote for President. Kennedy acted in that tradition. He chose Johnson as his vice-president, Kennedy said, because he considered Johnson second-best to himself to lead the nation.

History will measure both John F. Kennedy and his judgment in picking his successor. But it is possible to make certain predictions about what the short-range future will be like under President Johnson.

First, there is little chance that the new President will depart very far from the policies of the man for whom the nation is now in mourning. In a sense never before true in American history, the Kennedy policies are also Johnson policies. The vice-president participated in the making of most of them and is emotionally as well as officially committed to them.

In the controversial areas of space exploration and civil rights, Vice-President Johnson has played a militant role in advancing administration action. Any who think that, free to go his own way on racial matters, the Texan who is president will revert to his southern upbringing do not know the president's mind.

Johnson's personal philosophy derives heavily from Franklin and Eleanor Roosevelt in this as other major matters. As senator from Texas he did not always reveal this to the public. As a national politician after he became vice president, this side of LBJ became less of a secret. As president, he is likely to make this turn of mind even more explicit in domestic affairs.

Internationally, Mr. Johnson is an unknown commodity. His personal knowledge did not extend far into world affairs before 1960. His horizons have broadened through travel and access to top-level information on defense and foreign policy. There is no evidence that he is burning to change existing policies overseas. Johnson's exercise as a senator was in the field of defense. He has no compulsion to hasten disarmament. Time will tell whether he shares the late President Kennedy's consuming passion to achieve a durable peace.

The 30 days of national mourning that lie ahead will provide much needed time for the president and the country to adjust to change without distraction by partisan bickering.

Dick West Says

Chef's Specialty: Junket

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Now about this business of a head waiter accompanying members of the U. S. delegation to the NATO parliamentary meeting in Paris.

In don't understand why that should cause so much controversy. After all, there is nothing novel about it. Some waiters go off on long trips every time you give them your order.

Frequently, the temperature of the food they bring back leads me to believe they have been to Iceland.

In my opinion, taking the head waiter of the House dining room to the NATO meeting was like good thinking. Paris, as you know, is the fountainhead of fine cuisine. And head waiters are nothing if not parliamentarians.

By including the waiter, Ernest Petinaud, in the party, Rep. Wayne Hays, (D-Ohio), who headed the delegation, killed two birds with one stone.

Chances are they will turn up on the menu next week. Under glass.

What I mean is, the trip exposed Petinaud to the culinary skills of France and it exposed members of the delegation to the parliamentary talents of Petinaud.

Thus both stand to gain something from the experience. Which is more than can be said for most congressional junkets.

I frequently have lunch in the House restaurant and I can say this about it — the food may not be much to brag about but the service leaves a lot to be desired.

Actually, the quality of the food is a little concern to me. Man does not live by bread alone. Not as long as Metrecal is available.

I go to the restaurant mainly for the scenery. I sit at a table overlooking a waiter who overlooks me.

But in suggesting that the service is sometimes less than impeccable, I should in all fairness add that the meals are cheap. And so is the clientele.

You might think from the size of the appropriation bills they pass the members of Congress are lavish tipsters. Well, I hate to disillusion anyone but candor prompts me to report that certain waiters are known to the waiters as "the last of the big misers."

As for the press table, the tips that we newsmen leave our waiter every day would feed a family of five for an entire week. Five hummingbirds.

After careful consideration, there is only one point on which I would be critical of the Paris trip. They should have taken the head chef along, too.

Dr. Crane's Worry Clinic

Hal is a "happy" worker, on the backs of you taxpayers, and so are all the other government social service employees. It's time they got out on the firing line of life with the rest of us hard working voters. Please notice how welfare advocates mis-read the Declaration of Independence!

CASE R-418: Hal G., aged 36, is a Welfare Director of an eastern state.

"Dr. Crane," he protested, "I resent your attitude about welfare."

"You say that millions of welfare clients in our big cities are subnormal in intelligence. Aren't they entitled to happiness?"

"Then you argue that they determine the outcome of our political elections."

"How do you know they are low in IQ and how could such a small number determine our elections?"

Dr. H. H. Goddard and other pioneers of Intelligence Tests showed by their analysis of youngsters 45 years ago that about three percent were outright feebleminded! The percentage is even higher today!

This doesn't include the very dull borderline cases, either! And these are the chronic unemployables for they haven't enough IQ to learn a trade.

They are the unskilled labor group who need constant supervision even to rake leaves! There are now close to ten million in this group.

They have also been mating and breeding like guinea pigs for the intervening 45 years, with free medical care and support money from welfare agencies!

In Chicago, for example, my son David reported that many of the women he delivered of babies at our great Cook County Hospital had 5 to 10 children, often without ever being married, and all supported by taxpayers.

You readers of this column today may find it difficult to finance a home and even two or three youngsters. Why?

Because you are also supporting the offspring of chronic welfare families who are fed and housed and medicated at your expense.

Since they can't hold jobs, they sit at home watching TV and breeding more babies for you taxpayers to support!

As regards Hal's argument that all Americans are supposed to be guaranteed happiness, that is malarkey!

Our famous Declaration of Independence simply says that we are endowed by our Creator with certain inalienable rights, among which are life, liberty and the PURSUIT of happiness.

Look at that statement again.

It doesn't say we are guaranteed happiness but just a chance to run after or pursue happiness!

Unless we use elbow grease and stay in high school instead of dropping out, and unless we burn the midnight Masada and devote long hours to attaining a living, we are definitely NOT entitled to happiness.

So it is time welfare agitators learned to read! They should start with that simple axiom in the Declaration of Independence.

Remember, the social service and welfare workers themselves are really "relief" patrons on the backs of you taxpayers.

They are not out in the rugged competitive fighting for survival which "free enterprise" offers most of us.

No, they are "happy" workers, supported by taxes regardless of whether business conditions are good or depressed.

So it is time American voters fired at least one million government workers and let them get back into the real job of trying to pursue happiness.

(Always write to Dr. Crane in care of this newspaper, enclosing a long stamped, addressed envelope and 20 cents to cover typing and printing costs when you send for one of his booklets.)

Seminoles Gunning For Conference Title Tonight

By Julian Stenstrom
 "We're set and ready for the Bulldogs," said Seminole High football coach Jim Pigott Tuesday afternoon as he prepared his eleven for tonight's clash with the DeLand High School Bulldogs. The engagement will get under way at 8 p. m. at the DeLand Stadium.

About Sports

Thinking Out Loud

BY JULIAN STENSTROM

Lyman Goes Into Orange-Belt
 With the beginning of the 1963-64 cage season the Lyman High School Greyhounds become a part of the Orange-Belt Conference, in one sense of the word replacing the Seminole of Sanford who leave the loop for membership in the new Metro Circuit.

Lyman is pleased to have been accepted by the conference after participating for several years as an independent.

Being a member of the circuit should mean more prestige to the school since it is—in some respects—a token of recognition. Lyman has the facilities, including a gym and adequate seating for basketball. However, there are those who feel that the gym must be improved if Lyman is to remain in the conference.

Of course, Lyman—to be representative—will have to produce teams of satisfactory ability. We don't have any doubts but that the Greyhounds will be representative. Of course, there's no question but that the 'Hounds will be running in some pretty fast company.

Also, being a member of the Orange-Belt will afford Lyman a greater range of activity in competitive sports such as swimming, football, golf, track and field and others. Membership in the loop, we're confident, will foster Lyman's school spirit—which could stand an improvement right now after its football season which saw the 'Hounds win their first three and drop the final six.

But one particular reason why the school's spirit will be enhanced is because being a member of the conference will provide Lyman with permanent opponents. This will give rise to the establishment of traditions. And in a few short years this will mean much to the Longwood school.

We applaud Lyman's entry into the Orange-Belt, and The Herald's sports department will continue its interest in Lyman's activities and report them to the best of its ability.

Barr Readies 25th Annual Umpires' School

Our old friend George Barr who once operated his Umpires School here in Sanford will open his institution for young arbiters for the 25th consecutive year at West Palm Beach on Feb. 2. George, a National League umpire for 19 years, operated his school in Sanford for a number of years when the New York Giant Farm System was located at what is now the Sanford Naval Air Station.

Barr has graduates of his schools in practically every professional circuit in the nation, including the American and National leagues.

A number of Barr's students are usually members of the armed forces—sent there by the military to acquaint themselves with umpiring and in turn to train officials for service in military recreational programs around the world.

Bond Issues Passed In Three States

Voters in three states, including Florida, approved statewide outdoor recreation bond measures this month. This demonstrates a growing public awareness of the need for outdoor recreation investments now while suitable areas are still available and before land costs become prohibitive.

Pennsylvania puts its stamp of approval on what it called "Project 70" which authorized the sale of $70 million in bonds by 1970. Meanwhile, Ohio combined $250 million schools-outdoor recreation bond issue, of which $25 million is earmarked for land acquisition and improvements over the next three years.

and a single loss—and with the Orange-Belt Conference championship at stake—both Sanford and DeLand officials are anticipating one of the largest crowds of the season.

It will be the last regularly scheduled contest on a 16-game slate for the Seminole. However, school officials announced late Tuesday that the Tribe would engage the Kissimmee Kowboys in a post-season contest here in Sanford.

Cloning out their high school football careers for the Seminole—outside of the post season affair—will be backs, Eddie Kosky, Ronnie Hinson, Earl Black and Buddy Lawson plus linemen Dan McCall, Dale Alexander, Mike Glad, Jim Touby, Billy Higgins, Barry Barks, Frank Noell and John Ray.

Senior Henry Finch closed out his high school gridiron career for good last Friday night in Winter Garden when he suffered a leg fracture early in the fracas.

"Our boys are up, both physically and mentally for this game," said Head Coach Jim Pigott this morning. "We posted that photo from the DeLand newspaper of a Seminole youngster hanged in effigy and our youngsters don't like it at all."

Pigott admitted that he hoped it would infuriate his boys enough to figuratively "tear apart" the Bulldogs when the two clubs meet tonight.

As usual, Pigott said that most of his boys—at least those able to dress out—would see action tonight.

Arch Rivals To Play Saturday

By United Press International
 The Southeastern Conference offers a Thanksgiving weekend menu filled with spice. This is the Saturday when arch-rivals meet, the finals when hopes are often dashed by the fired-up underdog.

This is the weekend when Alabama meets Auburn; Georgia meets Tech; Mississippi meets Mississippi State; and Florida meets Florida State.

Anything can happen and the coaches are laying their plans. They're playing things close to the vest and not talking much about practice sessions.

At least one Southeastern Conference team has already accepted a bowl bid and at least four more are expected to be offered bids and shortly after the season ends Saturday.

LSU, which finished its regular season last weekend, has agreed to play in Houston's Bluebonnet Bowl. An opponent has not yet been named.

Florida coach Jay Graves thinks Saturday's winner in the game with Florida State will be the team with the best offense and he promptly put his Gator squad to work on defensive plays.

The Commodores of Vanderbilt will meet the University of Tennessee today for Saturday's game with the University of Tennessee.

Army, Navy To Play

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Army and Navy will get a chance to play their annual football classic at the specific request of the family of the late President Kennedy.

The game will be dedicated to Kennedy's memory, the Pentagon announced Tuesday.

After a day of conference, Pentagon officials said it was decided to reschedule the Philadelphia game for Dec. 7, a one-week postponement.

Army Coach Paul Dietzel said the postponement was "the least we could do" in memory of the late President.

Terminating last Friday's assassination a great tragedy, Dietzel said "we are very honored to dedicate the game" to Kennedy's memory.

Cosch Wayne Hardin of Navy said he and his team backed the decision "100 per cent."

"We're glad that it's going to be played, though, and not canceled," he added.

More Fighting Seminoles

BILLY HIGGINS
 Co-captain of the 1963 Seminoles, Billy Higgins, is a senior and second year varsity athlete. Billy weighs in at 170 and performs as a defensive end and inside linebacker. Wearing No. 80, Higgins is a fine leader. He likes to tackle. He also can do a fine job at quarterback and possesses a fine set of hands for pass receiving. Billy is considered an excellent basketball player and is reputed to be one of the best all-around athletes at Seminole High.

DAVID NOELL
 A junior in his second season as a varsity offensive and defensive tackle, David Noell was injured in the Orlando Colonial contest. However, Dave recently returned to the Seminole lineup and has seen action in the past several games. Noell is a big, strong and dependable performer, his coaches state. Noell undoubtedly will be one of the mainstays on next season's Tribe eleven. In addition to football, Dave participates in track. He holds the school's record for the discus event with a heave of 138 feet, 1 1/2 inches.

JOE PURDY
 Junior and first year varsity athlete, Joe Purdy is Seminole's Black Ram right guard. He weighs 174, wears No. 63, and is a converted junior varsity fullback. Joe has worked hard at his position for the Tribe this season and has developed into an excellent blocker. His specialty is trap blocking opposing tackles. Purdy is a tough, rough lineman with good speed. He has a great team spirit, his coaches say. Last year Purdy played basketball on the Seminole JayVee cage outfit.

LYOYD FREEMAN
 A senior and second year varsity man, Lloyd Freeman is Seminole's capable football. Freeman can play either halfback spot, weighs 160, wears No. 40, and has won more than his share of Seminole's games this season with his extra-point kicking. Placement boots are his specialty. But he also does the Tribe's punting, field goal attempts and kickoffs. Many fans may wonder why Lloyd isn't used more offensively. However, his value to the club as a kicker is so important it isn't worth risking injury. Freeman also performs for the track squad at SIS as a broad jumper and runner.

Lion Final Tonight With Crescent City

Playoff Luck Goes To Browns
 NEW YORK (UPI)—The Cleveland Browns will be sitting pretty if they finish in a two-way tie for first place in the Eastern Division at the conclusion of the regular National Football League season Dec. 15.

If the Browns deadlock the New York Giants, the St. Louis Cardinals or the Pittsburgh Steelers for the Eastern crown, they will serve as the host team for a playoff game in each instance Dec. 22.

Because four teams—the Browns, Giants, Cardinals and Steelers—still are in the running for the NFL's Eastern title, 10 possible playoffs were assessed and decided upon Tuesday during coin-tossing ceremonies. The results were announced by Commissioner Pete Rozelle.

The Giants were almost as lucky as the Browns in the "heads or tails" lottery. If the New Yorkers tie either the Steelers or the Cardinals, they will host the playoff game. In the event of a three-way tie among the Giants, Cleveland and Pittsburgh, the Giants draw a bye and then meet the Browns-Steelers winner at Yankee Stadium.

Only one toss was needed for a possible playoff in the Western Division, where the Chicago Bears and Green Bay Packers are the only teams still battling for the title. The Packers won the toss and will have the home field advantage in a playoff with the Bears, if one is necessary.

The Orlando Lions wind up their 1963 gridiron campaign tonight when they travel northward for an engagement with Crescent City High School. Game time is 8 p. m.

Going into their final fracas the Lions take a record of three wins, five losses and a tie. On the other side of the ledger Crescent City boasts a record of five wins and four losses.

Crescent City has more size than the Lions. They have beaten such clubs as Father Lopez of Daytona Beach, Hastings and Baldwin. One of the four games they dropped was to St. Joseph's of St. Augustine—a club Oviedo halted, 19 to 0.

Crescent City has speed and frequently shifts from the "T" to a spread formation which enables them to utilize the run-pass option most effectively. They have excellent quarterbacking and this gives Oviedo assurances the Lions will have a tough encounter tonight.

Meanwhile, the Lions have played a much tougher schedule than Crescent City. Their drills for the season's closer have been limited due to the weather but they did get in one good workout Tuesday. Jimmy Courier, Oviedo's capable quarterback, is expected to use the airplane quite frequently tonight and to utilize a number of new plays installed for last week's affair with St. Joe but did not need to use them.

Starting for the Lions will be ends Jim Heasley and Ted Bellhorn, tackles Bill Murphy and Tim Colbert, guards Arden Arndt and Jim Saucer, center Charles Miller, with Jimmy Courier at quarter, Billy Miller and Barry Gouge at the halves, and Red Brooks at fullback.

Ocala Stud Farm Sold

MIAMI (UPI)—Manager Joe O'Farrell and Thomas E. Wood of Cincinnati have purchased controlling interest in Florida's famous Ocala Stud Farm.

A spokesman said Tuesday that O'Farrell, who has been running the farm, and Wood bought controlling shares from Bruce Campbell and Jim Hampshire, both of Baltimore. Purchase price of the shares was not revealed.

The 1,132-acre farm, located at Ocala, has bred Kentucky Derby winners Needles and Carry Back. The spokesman said the entire farm, which has 21 barns and two practice tracks, is valued at $2 million.

Kortas To Play

MIAMI (UPI)—University of Louisville senior Ken Kortas, a 203-pound tackle, Tuesday signed to play for the South in the annual Shrine College All-Star game on Dec. 21.

Tribe, Cowboys In Post-Season

Athletic Director Fred Ganas announced Tuesday afternoon that the Seminole High School eleven would clash in a post season affair with the Kissimmee Kowboys at Sanford's Memorial Stadium on Dec. 8.

Kissimmee, for many years was a member of the old Ridge Conference, is moving into the Orange-Belt loop. To date the Kowboys have rolled to a season's record of eight wins against a single loss—a record identical to that of the Seminole.

The only blot on the Seminole record is a 13 to 7 defeat at the hands of the Leesburg Yellow Jackets. On the other hand, the Kowboys dropped their opening tilt of the current campaign to Arcadia. But since that contest Kissimmee has posted wins over Winter Garden's Lakeview, Leesburg, Okeechobee, Fort Meade, Sebring, Frostproof, Avon Park, St. Cloud and tonight they tangle with the Wildwood Wildcats.

Meanwhile, the Seminole have posted wins over Titusville, Orlando Colonial, Apopka, Daytona Beach, Seabreeze, Winter Park, Wildwood, Orlando's Bishop Moore and Lakeview.

The only teams both Kissimmee and Sanford have played are Leesburg and Winter Garden. The Kowboys roped the Yellow Jackets 14 to 7 while the Seminole dropped their tilt with Leesburg, 13 to 7. Meanwhile, both clubs defeated Lakeview of Winter Garden. Seminole took their contest with the Red Devils, 14 to 13 while the Kowboys stopped Lakeview 13 to 6.

"It should be a closely played contest," said Fred Ganas, Seminole's athletic director.

The Kowboys are coached by Jack Yearwood.

Ganas said this morning that officials have received tentative approval from the Florida High School Activities Association but a formal okay is not expected for several days. The formal application was filed with the state organization Tuesday afternoon.

May Start Game

BOSTON (UPI)—Second-string quarterback Tommy Yewic of the Boston Patriots may replace Babe Parilli in Sunday's American Football League game against the Buffalo Bills.

Cabinet Sells Proposed Site For University

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — The cabinet members of the federal government today approved a tract of submerged land in Indian River County which has been proposed as a site for Florida's new space university.

Turk, who owns uplands surrounding the area in the town of Indian River Shores, has offered to donate part of the property as a site for the university. Several other sites also are being considered by the board of control and no decision will be made until December.

The university site is part of several tracts of bottom lands, totaling 253 acres in the Indian River which Turk bought from the state. As the upland owner, he is the only person who can buy these bottom tracts.

Indian River county objected to sale of any of the acreage west of Johns Island and the trustees agreed to withhold sale for further negotiations between the county and Turk.

The proposed university site is east of Johns Island and the county posed no objections to sale or submerged lands in that area.

15 Of 26 Cases Diagnosed As Polio

JACKSONVILLE (UPI) — Health officials said Monday that 15 cases of polio have been definitely diagnosed out of 26 suspected cases in a Duval County outbreak, but added they hoped mass immunization over the weekend would halt the outbreak.

Officials said that 11 of the cases had been classified "clinical" and three of the 15 persons struck by the dread crippling had died.

The Sabin oral vaccine was given out on lumps of sugar Sunday to 411,163 Duval County residents and thousands of others in Clay, Columbia, Baker, St. Johns, Bradford, Union, Hamilton and Gilchrist counties.

... IN THE SANDS OF TIME—Mute evidence of the Kennedy administration is removal from the White House of President Kennedy's famed rocking chair. The chair and other personal effects were moved from the Executive Mansion as it was readied for the new White House family, the Lyndon B. Johnsons.

Kennedys To Gather For Holiday Dinner

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Mrs. Jacqueline Kennedy made plans today for a Thanksgiving gathering at Hyannis Port, Mass., and a future life away from the White House.

The 34-year-old widow of the late President Kennedy has maintained a busy pace to keep her mind occupied in these days of sorrow following her husband's assassination.

Tuesday night she and Caroline got into a station wagon and drove off, returning to the White House around 7:30 p. m. There were reports she will take Caroline and John Jr. to Cape Cod Thursday morning. They will arrive in time for the traditional Thanksgiving dinner of the Kennedy family.

Mrs. Kennedy planned to stay at her own home in the Kennedy compound. She is expected to return to the White House Sunday or Monday.

Caroline Kennedy, who is six years old today, and John Jr., who was three Monday, both will have a birthday cake with their small cousins at the compound Friday.

After her return to Washington, Mrs. Kennedy will stay at the White House for several days packing and winding up her personal affairs. That is the way President and Mrs. Johnson want it.

Mrs. Johnson said Thursday that she did not even contemplate moving into the White House until Mrs. Kennedy had carried out her last chores.

Mrs. Kennedy and Mrs. Johnson met Tuesday to talk about the problems of running the official household. Mrs. Johnson also was briefed by J. H. West, the head usher. She saw the floor plans of the house she will soon call "home."

The Johnsons will be seeing Caroline and her playmates around the White House for at least a few weeks more. The White House school with its first grade and kindergarten will continue until Christmas.

Letters and telegrams of condolence have poured into the White House for Mrs. Kennedy and the children. Flowers also have come in as well as telephone calls from all over the world. The staff is doing all that it can just to open the mail.

It gave this version of the events in Dallas: "There is no doubt President Kennedy fell into a trap. He was the victim of a plot, and . . . It is evident that the Dallas police, protectors of gangsters like Ruby, played a role you can only describe as questionable. They created a 'defendant' then allowed one of their stool pigeons to kill him."

Busman Can Keep Beard

BRADFORD, Eng. (UPI) — A judge said Monday Fais Akbar Khan, 31, should not have been fired from his job as a bus conductor because he refused to shave his beard.

Khan, a native of Pakistan and member of a Muslim sect that requires beards, was awarded $58.80 damages from Bradford Corporation.

Kennedy's Proclamation For Thanksgiving Was His Last

The proclamation: The White House Thanksgiving Day, 1963 By the President of the United States of America A proclamation: Over three centuries ago, our forefathers in Virginia and in Massachusetts, far from home in a lonely wilderness, set aside a time of thanksgiving. On the appointed day, they gave reverent thanks for their safety, for the health of their children, for the fertility of their fields, for the love which bound them together and for the faith which united them with their God.

So too when the Colonies achieved their independence, our first President in the first year of his first administration proclaimed November 28, 1789, as "a day of public thanksgiving and prayer to be observed by acknowledging with grateful hearts the many signals of Almighty God's aid and called upon the people of the new Republic to beseech Him to pardon our national and other transgressions . . . to promote the knowledge and practice of true religion and virtue . . . and generally to grant unto all mankind such a degree of temporal prosperity as He alone knows to be best."

And so too, in the midst of America's tragic Civil War, President Lincoln proclaimed the last Thursday of November, 1863, as a day to renew our gratitude for America's "fruitful fields," for our "national strength and vigor," and for all our "singular deliverances and blessings."

Much time has passed since the first Colonists came to rocky shores and dark forests of an unknown continent, much time since President Washington led a young people into the experience of nationhood, much time since President Lincoln saw the American nation through the ordeal of fraternal war—and in these years our population, our plenty and our power have all grown apace. Today we are a nation of nearly two hundred million souls, stretching from coast to coast, on into the Pacific and north toward the Arctic, a

DA Hints Ruby's Motive Sinister

DALLAS (UPI) — The district attorney hinted today that strip-tease nightclub owner Jack Ruby may have had a more sinister motive for killing accused presidential assassin Lee Harvey Oswald than vengeance for the Kennedy family.

Henry Wade refused to accept Ruby's story that he felt sorry for the widow and children and was emotionally overwrought.

"It may have been a desire for publicity, or it may have involved something far deeper," Wade said.

"Our law enforcement agencies are still checking to determine if links exist between Oswald and Ruby. As far as I know, they haven't found any. But I don't know everything they've found."

Wade and defense counsel Tom Howard squared off over whether Ruby was insane when he shot Oswald as millions of Americans watched on television.

Howard said he will have Ruby plead temporary insanity. He said a psychiatrist for the defense will examine him in a few days to help prove that the baldish, 32-year-old self-appointed executioner suffered an emotional shock from the Kennedy assassination and did not know what he was doing when he pulled the trigger.

Ruby was indicted on charges of murder with malice Tuesday by a Dallas County grand jury. Wade said he would demand the death penalty. He already had had a psychiatrist examine the former Chicago street brawler and gambler.

Johnson Tells Russia Nothing Has Changed

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Johnson has sent word to Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev that the United States stands ready now, as in the past, to make every honorable effort to solve East-West problems which could spark nuclear war.

At the same time, the new President has made strenuous efforts during the past two days to convince Allied representatives that there will be no faltering in American leadership of the non-Communist world.

White House sources said Johnson told Soviet Deputy Premier Anastas I. Mikoyan during an hour-long conference Tuesday that the United States was ready to "go its part of the way" in the search for measures to ease tensions.

These sources emphasized, however, that the new President was not willing to make any new offers of concessions which might imperil the Western position.

Any hint of this on Johnson's part, it was pointed out, would be political suicide at home in addition to being disastrously damaging to Allied morale in Europe and elsewhere.

Mikoyan, who remained here after the funeral of President Kennedy especially to sound out the new Chief Executive, was leaving today for Moscow to join Johnson's views to Khrushchev.

Johnson also conferred Tuesday with a number of major Allied representatives and staked out for himself within the next few months a full schedule of personal diplomacy.

He obviously hopes this will strengthen Western unity and thwart any Soviet efforts to take advantage of any uncertainty in the Western camp which may follow Kennedy's death.

Among those Johnson talked with Tuesday were British Prime Minister Sir Alec Douglas-Home, West German Chancellor Ludwig Erhard and President Dinko Mace-

A memorial table to the memory of the late President John F. Kennedy was set up by Gov. Farris Bryant today in the governor's office. The small memorial, in the public ante-room leading into the governor's private office, will remain during the 30 day period of official mourning for the assassinated president. Draped in black velvet, the table includes a black-framed picture of Kennedy flanked on each side by miniature state and United States flags. The table also holds a palm frond tied with silver ribbon. Governor Bryant said state flags in the capitol will fly at half mast during the 30-day period and he hopes that all flags over the state will also be flown at half staff.

Miami's Cuban Influx Slows

MIAMI (UPI) — Miami's Cuban exile colony increased by only 4,000 members during the year that ended last July 1, a study released by the Dade County Metro Planning Department showed today.

And since last July, the report continued, more exiles have been relocated from Miami to other parts of the nation than have arrived from Communist Cuba.

The report also gave Dade County's population through last July as 1,981,200, an increase of 24,770 since the July 1962 census.

More than 11,000 northerners moved to Dade during the year, the report said, twice the number for the previous year.

The influx of northerners reversed a 1960-61 trend when figures showed a net loss of 7,000 in this category, but was nowhere near the 1954 record of 50,470 newcomers.

Second Tour Of Florida Slated

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — The Development Commission has scheduled a second tour of Florida cities Dec. 3 for Northern businessmen interested in locating their firms in the state.

Commission Chairman Wendell Jarrard said Tuesday the tour will be patterned after a similar trip by Northern industrialists several weeks ago.

The inspection trip and business meetings include the cities of Tallahassee, St. Petersburg, Bradenton, Sarasota, West Palm Beach, Fort Lauderdale, Jacksonville, Miami, Lakeland, Tampa, Orlando and Daytona Beach.

Bryant To Speak

TAMPA (UPI) — Officials of the University of South Florida here said Monday that Gov. Farris Bryant will give the commencement address to the school's first graduating class Dec. 22. About 350 students are expected to receive degrees.

Nation Prays, Gives Thanks For Blessings

United Press International
Unfold thousands of Americans went to their houses of worship today to pray for their fallen leader and to give thanks for their blessings before indulging in the traditional Thanksgiving dinner.

It was the 100 anniversary of Thanksgiving as a national holiday, proclaimed officially to a war-torn country by Abraham Lincoln in 1864 and honored today with the memory of John Fitzgerald Kennedy.

While Thanksgiving is regarded as a stay-at-home holiday, millions of Americans attended football games and parades, traditional church services and gathered from afar in the homes of their loved ones.

A United Press International count at 8:30 a. m., EST, showed that 40 persons died in traffic accidents since the 102-hour holiday started at 6 p. m. local time Wednesday.

The worst accident occurred near Selma, N. C., where four persons died in a head-on collision on a rural road. North Carolina led the nation with six fatalities.

And speaking of senators, Mack Cleveland, Seminole member of the state senate, has a 25-minute sound film entitled "The Legislative Process," made during the 1961 session of the Florida Legislature.

South Seminole Junior High's civics classes recently voted on a "proposed" amendment to the state constitution which would permit a Florida governor to succeed himself at least once.

Of 276 students voting, 102 favored the "proposal" while 174 were against it. The result was particularly interesting inasmuch as former State Senator Douglas Stenstrom, while speaking to the civics classes, recommended that no change be made in the present procedure.

Johnson's Talk Impresses Free World Leaders
By United Press International
The free world reacted favorably today to the "courage and sincerity" of President Johnson's pledge to fight for the policies of the late President Kennedy.

British editorials indicated immediate reaction to the speech with such headlines as "The President Calls for Action," "A bold start," and "Continuity in the White House."

There was no immediate official reaction from the Kremlin. Private Russian sources praised Johnson's general approach.

Television viewers in 19 European nations including East Germany, Poland, Hungary and Czechoslovakia watched Johnson's speech by U. S. communications satellite relay.

British Prime Minister Sir Alec Douglas-Home, just back from Kennedy's funeral, said Wednesday night Johnson's "demeanor and action during these deeply upsetting, harrowing days . . . greatly impressed all the visitors and observers in Washington."

Cotton Bill
WASHINGTON (UPI) — The cotton bill aimed at ending the two-price system for American and foreign buyers will come up for debate in the House next week with the blessings of President Johnson.

All Seminole Gives Thanks For Benefits

In keeping with the national tradition, Seminole County residents today were observing Thanksgiving . . . each in his or her own personal manner.

Churches throughout the county were having individual or union Thanksgiving Day services. Families were united over the traditional Thanksgiving dinner, while giving Thanks to the Almighty for blessings bestowed.

Old Glory was flying at half-staff throughout the county, in tribute to the martyred President Kennedy.

Governmental offices were closed, excepting for law enforcement agencies, emergency service units and other necessary operations. The county courthouse will be closed until Monday.

All schools are closed until Monday. The Sanford Herald offers its annual Christmas gift guide edition . . . and is closing shop early to give its staff members a half-holiday with their families.

Postal service is on the usual holiday schedule. Collections and out-of-town distribution is being made. Only deliveries today will be special and perishables.

All businesses were closed excepting restaurants, bars and service stations.

In a lighter vein, jail prisoners "never had it so good." Police Chief Roy Williams and Sheriff J. L. Hobby reported city and county jail prisoners would be served turkey and all the trimmings today.

Sanford Naval Air Station was on a holiday basis but with restrictions in social matters because of the 30-day mourning period for the late President Kennedy.

And a most pleasant conclusion to this Thanksgiving Day "wrap-up" story, Kenny Harriet is flying home from Cincinnati this Saturday afternoon.

A HAPPY THANKSGIVING TO YOU FROM THE SANFORD HERALD AND ALL ITS STAFF!!!

THE TERRY CORDELL MEMORIAL TROPHY was presented Wednesday to Seminole High School by Banks Register (right) vice president of the school's 1952 graduation class. The trophy, a memorial to the late U. S. Army Capt. Terry Cordell, who was killed in action in Viet Nam, will be presented annually to a Seminole High School athlete who participates in three sports and maintains a high scholastic standing. Receiving the trophy is Steve Sewell, student president. Participating in the presentation ceremony is Capt. Cordell's mother, Mrs. Denver Cordell.

Seminole Wins Championship

The Fighting Seminoles captured the Orange-Belt Conference championship Wednesday night in DeLand with a 33 to 20 victory over a stubborn band of DeLand Bulldogs.

Seminole's fleet halfback, Buddy Lawson, scored three touchdowns on pass plays, and Harry Barks scored on another pass play, and Earl Black carried for still another.

This was Seminole's second Orange-Belt Conference title in the past three years. The Sanford club ended its regular season with a record of nine wins against one loss.

The Seminoles will meet the Kissimmee Kowboys in a post-season affair at Sanford's Memorial Stadium on Dec. 6. (See sports page).

Sanders May Get LBJ Post
WASHINGTON (UPI) — Gov. Carl Sanders of Georgia stood out on the national scene today as a political mystery man — a Southern governor President Johnson had singled out for honors and a long White House talk.

The President's preoccupation with Sanders through a busy day Wednesday created an impression Johnson seeks key use of Sanders' support in his efforts toward national unity.

Despite Sanders' denials there also was speculation that political deals and even a possible federal appointment for the young Georgia governor might develop from a late-afternoon chat between the two men.

Ruby Wonders About Friends
DALLAS (UPI) — Dapper Jack Ruby wondered today what his friends think about the man who killed the suspected assassin of President Kennedy.

Ruby, 32, was charged with murder with malice in the slaying Sunday of Lee Harvey Oswald. He was held in maximum security without bond.

The pudgy striptease joint operator made two telephone calls Wednesday from county jail. He inquired how business was going at his two clubs and what his friends thought of him now.

'I'd Gladly Give'
WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Johnson, in his first address to a joint session of Congress:

"All I have I would have given gladly not to be standing here today."

No Letup Seen In Drive For Civil Rights

ATLANTA (UPI) — President Kennedy's assassination will change neither the drive for Negro rights nor the views of Southern segregationists.

This was the consensus of a South-wide survey conducted by United Press International. In the South, as in the rest of the country, the tragic events of the past weekend first brought shock, then grief and then a quiet assessment of what's to come.

Many Southerners think there will be a change in the impetus from Washington for civil rights and watch President Johnson's administration for indications of this.

But Negro leaders vowed there would be no let-up in their drive against racial discrimination.

"The time is past," when Negro protests were a momentary emotional phenomena, said integration leader Martin Luther King, Jr.

Florida NAACP Field Secretary Robert Saunders of Tampa echoed these sentiments: "We can not sit back and wait. The (whites) may get the picture we are not going to push now."

Saunders said that Johnson's Southern background might mean that he will not push as hard for civil rights as President Kennedy, but added: "My idea is that he is aware of the racial problem and knows it is a world problem. I would hope so."

AROUND THE CLOCK
By Julian Stenstrom
If Seminole High wants a name for its post season football game with Kissimmee we'd like to suggest the "Frontier Bowl". What could be more appropriate for an engagement between the Kowboys and the Indiana.
Art Beckwith, county clerk, reminds everyone that the Seminole County Courthouse will be closed not only today but will shut up shop Friday as well. The courthouse was open for business on Veteran's Day. They'll even the score by closing Friday.
Bralley Odham, former resident and twice candidate for governor, paid us a two-hour visit to talk about Seminole County's progress, old times, and his future in politics. Odham, now an Orange County builder, advised that he has sold the St. Petersburg section of his Florida Cars enterprise and anticipates the sale of his Orlando layout very soon.
And don't be surprised if in the not too distant future you read Bralley will run for the U. S. Senate. But don't be surprised, either, if you don't. He didn't elaborate, but he said he was giving it serious consideration. But he also said that since the assassination of the President he has lessened the possibility.
And speaking of senators, Mack Cleveland, Seminole member of the state senate, has a 25-minute sound film entitled "The Legislative Process," made during the 1961 session of the Florida Legislature. Cleveland says it can be made available to civic clubs and to civic classes of the county's schools. Anyone wishing to utilize it should contact Senator Cleveland.
South Seminole Junior High's civics classes recently voted on a "proposed" amendment to the state constitution which would permit a Florida governor to succeed himself at least once.
Of 276 students voting, 102 favored the "proposal" while 174 were against it. The result was particularly interesting inasmuch as former State Senator Douglas Stenstrom, while speaking to the civics classes, recommended that no change be made in the present procedure.
And, out at South Seminole Junior High, Principal John Angel reveals that construction of the plant's new music building and cafeteria is nearing completion. The latter, by the way, will be one of the most utilized areas at the institution. The school's 1,100 students will be provided hot lunches in two shifts. It will also be used for assemblies, though it isn't large enough to accommodate the entire student body. In addition, it will be used for large-group classes. And, no doubt, they'll find one or two other ways to use it.
In case you're interested, George Touhy at First Federal has four scarce-as-hen's-teeth tickets to the annual brawl between the Florida Gators and the FSU Seminoles. And, they're available — at regular prices, too.
Today's Chuckle — The boss returned in a good humor from the Kiwanis Club luncheon and called the whole staff to listen to a couple of jokes he picked up. Everybody laughed, except one girl. "What's the matter?" grumbled the boss, "haven't you got a sense of humor?"
"I don't have to laugh," replied the employe, "Friday's my last day here."
Except for a bit of trim work here and there the $11,000 face-lifting job on the Seminole County Courthouse is completed. Not only is it quite an improvement, but it looks real nice.

LBJ Celebrates Thanksgiving With Family
WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Johnson observed Thanksgiving with his family today in the midst of a busy agenda which included a televised message to the American people.

The new president was scheduled to speak to the nation at 8:15 p. m. EST by television and radio. The White House described his talk as a "personal" address to the citizenry.

But Johnson, grasping the reins of a presidency thrust upon him by the assassination of President Kennedy, also had these appointments on his holiday agenda:

—A 10 a. m. EST briefing from Central Intelligence Agency Chief John A. McCone.

—A 10:15 a. m. EST session with photographers anxious for a Thanksgiving picture of the new chief executive.

—Holiday services at the Mt. Vernon Methodist Church in Washington, at 11 a. m. EST.

—A 3 p. m. EST meeting in his office with Secretary of State Dean Rusk and National Security Assistant McGeorge Bundy.

Johnson set a tone and a goal for his administration Wednesday in a speech to a joint session of Congress.

With his voice breaking in emotion, Johnson called on all Americans to scorn hatred and violence. Amid applause from much of his congressional audience, he appealed to lawmakers to enact Kennedy's Civil Rights and tax cut bills as a living memorial to the slain chief executive.

Johnson's busy day, climaxed by the speech to congress, was sprinkled with other activities following his return from Capitol Hill where he had risen to political fame and—in the wake of tragedy—had returned as his nation's leader.

Johnson met for a half hour with Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy brother of the slain chief executive, for what the White House called a "general discussion of administrative problems."
