High Court Refuses Study Of Crime Gag

Baltimore Ruling Is Allowed To Stand Against Law Barring Crime Reporting

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9.—(AP)—The Supreme Court today refused to review a decision which struck down Baltimore's unique gag rule on crime news.

The court's refusal was announced in an unusual opinion by Justice Frankfurter. It said the tribunal's action "simply means that fewer than four members of the court deemed it desirable to review a decision of the Maryland court as a matter of sound judicial discretion."

In addition to nullifying the gag rule on crime news the lower court decision—given by the Maryland court of appeals—also upset contempt convictions of three Baltimore radio stations and a radio newscaster.

Frankfurter said "a variety of considerations" figured in the tribunal's refusal to review the state court's findings.

Then he went on to say that one thing that can be said with certainty about the refusal to review "is that it does not remotely imply approval or disapproval of what was said by the court of appeals of Maryland."

The crime news curbs are set forth in rule 604 of the Baltimore Supreme Court bench. Among other things they ban pre-trial publication of confessions in pending cases.

Radio stations WBFR, WCHM and WJLA and newscaster James P. Connolly were held in contempt because they broadcast news about a confession given by Eugene H. James, a Negro, who was convicted of killing an 11-year-old white girl. James was hanged. The contempt fines ranged from $100 to $500.

The Maryland court in throwing out the contempt convictions said the news curbs were "in the nature of censorship."

Big Tournament Is Being Planned By Sanford Tourists

One of the biggest shuffleboard tournaments ever held in Sanford will be sponsored Wednesday morning starting at 10:00 o'clock by the Sanford Tourist Shuffleboard Club when 18 teams, comprising 108 players, will compete at the courts on the lake front.

Play is expected to continue until 10:00 o'clock at night, and will require the services of 20 referees and 20 score-keepers. The teams will represent cities throughout north Florida.

A plate luncheon will be served at noon at the Tourist Center to players and guests, following which members will be served. The Seminole County Chamber of Commerce has invited leaders of civic and veterans' organizations to be present at the luncheon.

The Tourist Club is planning to start an amateur night program soon, and hopes to find a lot of local talent, said D. Seudder, club president.

More than 100 members of the club attended the program Friday night at the Tourist Center. Mrs. Sam Wade conducted an interesting quiz contest concerning famous Americans. How ladies sometimes are demonstrated by George Clark. A hilarious husband calling contest was staged by Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Hart and Mr. and Mrs. Sam Wade. Mrs. George Clark sang several selections, and Miss Jane McGill, pianist and pupil of Miss Madeline Mathew, entertained.

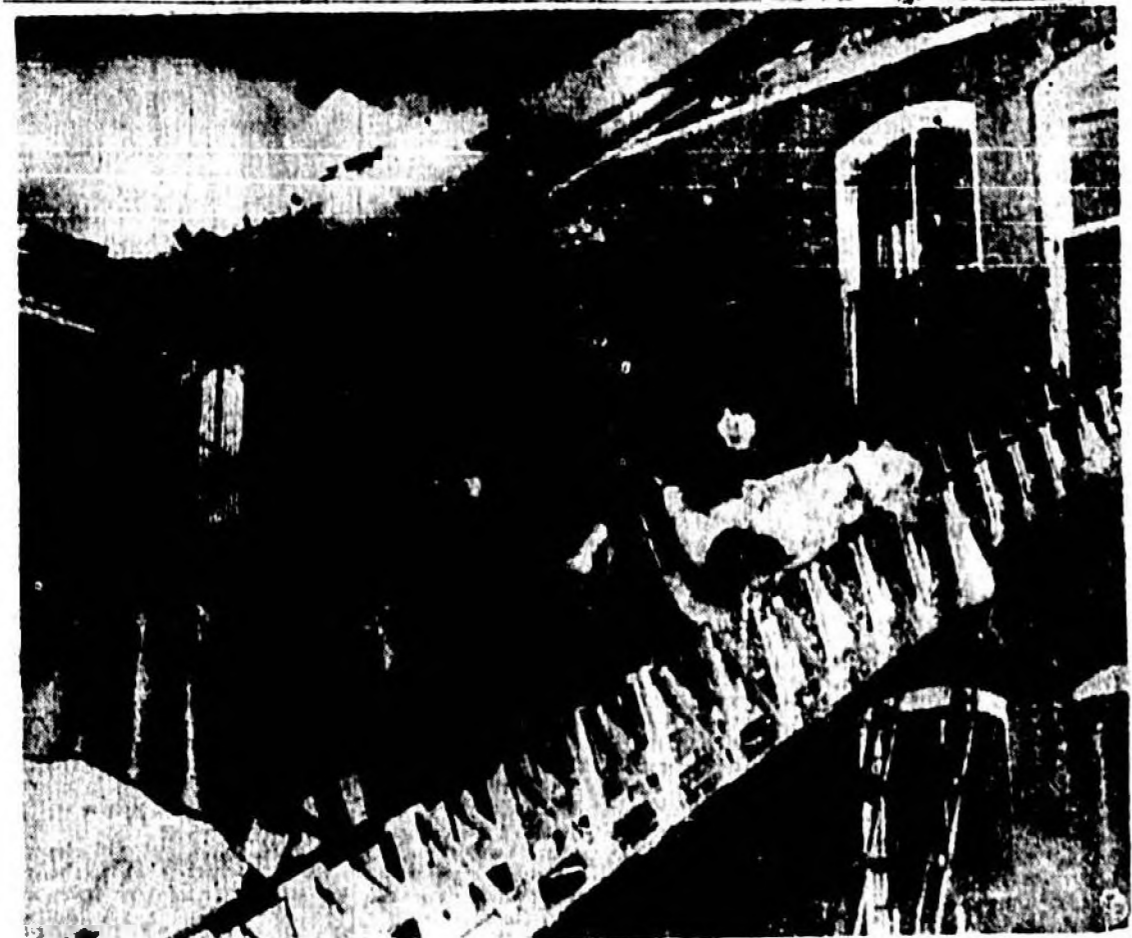

Sympathy to the bereaved family of the late Rev. C. G. McConnell of Elmira, N. Y., who died Friday, and who was a member of the Club, was expressed by Mr. Seudder.

CALIFORNIA-BEES GUN
LOS ANGELES, Jan. 8.—(AP)—Sunshine returned to southern California today in the wake of heavy rains and a five-day crop-dampening freeze.

A heavy downpour yesterday marked up 1.18 inches of precipitation. Fresh winds, snow failures, flooded streets and stalled cars were by-products of the storm.

Hospital Fire That Killed 40

While flames mushroom through the roof of the mental ward in the background, firemen carry a patient down the hallway during the fire at Myers Hospital, Daytona Beach, Jan. 7. Twenty-four persons, all but one patients, died in the blazing ward. Windows of which, as many as 100, are all boarded, hampering rescue work. Sixty-eight persons were believed in the structure when the fire broke out.

Nehru Advises Bolstering Asia As Red Defense

Commonwealth Conference Discusses Communism, War

COLOMBO, Ceylon, Jan. 9.—(AP)—Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru of India told the British Commonwealth conference today the best way to defeat Communism in Asia is to build up the prosperity of Asiatic peoples.

Nehru spoke at the opening session of a conference of the foreign ministers of eight British Commonwealth nations. The conference is dedicated to exploring means of averting a third World War and stopping the spread of Communism.

Nehru, whose government has recognized the conquest of China by the Communists, told the opening session the Chinese Reds had fulfilled to some extent the demands of the Chinese people for social justice.

He repeated statements he recently made that the tactics used in fighting the cold war in Europe could not be applied to Asia.

British foreign secretary Ernest Bevin began the conference with a review of the present international situation, a communique announced. He spoke for more than an hour, giving what a delegate called a "very general" review of the commonwealth's relations with the Soviet Union, steps needed to strengthen European stability and security, and the role of the Atlantic Pact in Europe.

The conference aims were outlined by Philip Noel-Baker, British Commonwealth minister, as the delegates assembled before a statue of Queen Victoria under a (Continued on Page Two)

Florida Democrats Decide On Assessment

JACKSONVILLE, Jan. 8.—(AP)—The state Democratic executive committee today set a two percent assessment fee based on the first year's salary of the office to be sought by a candidate in the May primaries.

Expected fireworks over any Democrats who had "bolted" the party and want to get back in did not develop.

Not a harsh word was spoken except as criticism of the Republican party.

There was nothing but praise for those who conducted Jacksonville Day dinners throughout the state to raise party funds, although some quarters had expected this might raise a little discussion.

"We ironed out that matter before we met," said former judge William V. Albury of Key West, chairman of the committee on resolutions.

The meeting adjourned after its brief session.

Police Capture Man Suspected Of Burglary Attempt

An intruder who fled from the kitchen of a home on Palmto Avenue near Tenth Street after he had been seen by the housewife, was picked up by Patrolmen Jack Hickson and S. H. Spencer, enroute near by, and at the Police Station shortly after 11:00 o'clock, was identified as the man who had entered her home.

The intruder, tall, light haired and wearing a plaid shirt, is Wilbur H. O'Harr, 21, who about 30 days ago was released "on good behavior" from Raiford Penitentiary where he had been sentenced to a three year term for breaking and entering. He is being held for investigation on a charge of attempted house robbery, said Police Chief Roy G. Williams.

A telephone call to the police station by the housewife, and a quick radio flash from headquarters to patrol cars, led to the arrest, and O'Harr was nabbed as he was hurrying toward Sanford Avenue on Tenth Street, when Patrolmen Hickson and Spencer, enroute nearby, picked up the man. O'Harr was unharmed and surrendered without resistance, they stated.

Comedian Bob Hope Injured In Smashup

RIVERVIEW, Calif., Jan. 9.—(AP)—Bob Hope was injured last night when his car skidded off a road during a rainstorm and overturned 10 miles south of here.

The comedian, who was driving, and his passenger, Fred Williams, one of his gag-writers, were hurled from the machine. They were returning from a weekend in Palm Springs.

Hope, taken with Williams to Riverdale Community Hospital, said: "I feel fine. The doc says my shoulder is dislocated but he may be underplaying it."

The physician, who requested that his name not be used, said Hope suffered only from a dislocation between the clavicle and shoulder.

The car rammed into a Walnut tree beside the highway. Williams was treated for bruises. After Hope's shoulder was X-rayed, his arm was placed in a sling. Later both left for Hollywood.

VFW MEET
Post 3283 of the Veterans of Foreign Wars will meet tonight in regular session at the Legion Hut.

MILAN, Italy, Jan. 8.—(AP)—Monty Banks, film director husband of British comedienne Gracie Fields, will be buried tomorrow in the Adriatic coast town of Cosana.

Banks, 50, died en route to a hospital in nearby Arona after suffering a heart attack Saturday on the Simpson Orient Express. Miss Fields was with him when he died. They were traveling to their home on the Isle of Capri.

ACCIDENT VICTIM
A short funeral service was held at 10:00 o'clock this morning at the Erlbaum Funeral Home for the late Rev. C. G. McConnell of Elmira, N. Y., who died Friday afternoon at a local hospital following a stroke that overtook him while he was en route to St. Paul, N. Y., on a train.

The Rev. J. B. McKinley officiated. The body was sent this afternoon to Elmira, N. Y. for burial.

Kiwanis District Meet Is Addressed By Dr. Brownlee

Leonard Usina Is Installed As Florida District Governor

The way to peace is through the incorporation of the spiritual aims of the churches in the hearts of men. Dr. E. D. Brownlee, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, told a gathering of 331 Kiwanis men at the district meeting yesterday noon, which climaxed the two day and night conference of the Florida District Kiwanis International, at the Miami Inn.

Dr. Brownlee's address followed one on a similar theme by Leonard A. Usina, a past district governor whose subject was "The Kiwanis Club and the Church." Songs were featured by the West Palm Beach Male Quartet.

"The spiritual aims of the churches," said Dr. Brownlee, "are to reach people of God, and to preserve his interest and his help with regard to men, they help to cement them of the brotherhood of man, the Golden Rule and to teach them to be kind and thoughtful."

Citing the recent advances in science, he pointed out that they would not lead to good if not in the hands of good men. "The way to peace in the world is to make men good, otherwise, there will be no peace," he declared.

The addition of the divorce problem, Dr. Brownlee told the Kiwanis men is to put love and understanding into the hearts of men and women. These spiritual qualities would also solve the juvenile problem if put into the hearts of boys and girls. He summed up his address by pointing out the satisfaction derived by industry, other to accept the principles for which the churches stand.

Clergymen Argue In Sermons If 'Mercy Killing' Is Justified

MANCHESTER, N. H., Jan. 9.—(AP)—Several clergymen devoted Sunday sermons to mercy killing in the city where Dr. Hermann N. Sander is charged with the murder of a young cancer stricken.

The clergymen were divided on the right or wrong of mercy killing as they discussed the subject from their pulpits.

Mr. Sander, 40-year-old ornithologist, Dartmouth college class captain, is free in $25,000 bail. He is charged with killing Mrs. Abbie Bonavia, 59, by injecting into her veins four cubic centimeters of air four times in quick succession.

The Rev. William W. Peck, pastor of the First Unitarian Church, told his congregation "this highly charged atmosphere is due to the persistence of the ancient belief of the early church fathers whose authority today supersedes the authority of even doctors."

Mr. Peck said he had revised his sermon after receiving a telephone call asking him not to discuss the issue. He did not discuss the name of the caller or anything further about the conversation.

The Rev. Napoleon J. Gilbert, pastor of St. John the Baptist Catholic Church, said in a sermon preached at all masses "the right

$42 Billion Budget Presented By Truman; GOP Blasts Figure

President's Budget Includes Whopping Raise For Farm Aid

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9.—(AP)—President Truman asked Congress today to approve a $42 billion budget for the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1951.

A kind of record in the annual budget report that Truman had been making for four years, the budget is the largest ever presented to Congress in a peacetime year.

The budget is $42 billion, $5 billion more than the $37 billion budget for the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1950.

Mr. Truman framed the treasury would have to borrow $1,133,000,000 of the money unless taxes are raised. But he called it "an honest budget which meets the realities of our time."

The proposed program is for the 12 months beginning next July 1, known as the 1951 fiscal year. Spending by the current year is estimated at $43,290,000,000.

The document outlining it was sent to the Capitol by messenger. It included a 7,000-word message and a series of tables and charts—on bulk about the size of a metropolitan telephone directory.

But many of the lawmakers needed only a look at it was too much. Senator J. Lee Rankin (D., Ark.) said the proposal for another $5,000,000,000 deficit, adding that much of the national debt, "accentuates the possibility for right economic conditions."

Mr. Rankin said that to make a budget that large is to make a "budget man for the next 100 years."

40,000 Soft Coal Miners Strike In Contract Fight

Nation's Highest Coal Area Affected By Low Strike Order

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9.—(AP)—John L. Lewis spoke out for day against demands for payment of a strike which he said would "upset the coal market."

The United Mine Workers' union, which has 40,000 members, demanded that the coal industry pay a 10 percent increase in wages.

The industry, which has been hit hard by a slump in demand for coal, refused to pay the increase.

When John Marston was asked in court how he wished to plead, he answered "Guilty," but quickly added, "I mean not guilty."

When it is revealed that it costs the government $10 to process (that is, to go through with the necessary red tape) in order to make a $5 purchase, we are moved to wonder how much it would cost to get a $5 treatment from a doctor working under a system of socialized medicine.

Sanford Post Office receipts totaled to $579,007 during the past year, the second year in a row that it has been the fastest growing post office in the United States.

Although the federal government is already running into debt in excess of five billion dollars a year, President Truman wants to increase federal expenditures to guarantee farmers a profit on their year's operations, to provide federal aid in education, to provide greater benefits for the unemployed and to expand the Social Security system.

Further evidence of how union lab leaders sometimes cut their own throats is given by ICC orders discontinuing one third of the nation's passenger train service on account of the coal shortage.

It is always best to do first things first, but in politics, or in a business dealing with large numbers of people, such a simple procedure is not always possible.

Sanford is a sports loving city, much more sports loving than many of the other towns and communities in Florida.

But the use of the stadium does not end there. The students of every school in the county will be eligible to use the facilities afforded by the construction of the stadium, and will be given an attractive, modern place in which to hold sports activities, both baseball and football.

The students of Crook's Academy have been playing football games in a better park. They are preparing for the construction of a field and stadium which will be held at the school.

On the construction of this stadium, Sanford must have the stadium, or else it will be left without professional baseball within a short time.

The proposed Seminole County Memorial Stadium is not only needed but is also a necessity for the City of Sanford and the County of Seminole.

There are three things we, here in Sanford, are sure to do, and that would be to offer any better proposition for which to "spend" the cigarette tax money, as they put it.

Prize be to a forward looking City Commission. I believe the one, which now guides the City of Sanford, is progressive and will not fail to investigate the why and wherefore of the proposed project.

There is no better way that we can build toward the future and to do something worthy for the residents of the area than to construct this stadium.

Taxing And Spending

Of all the controversies brought onto the Washington stage by the President's State of the Union message, together with its reception by Congress and the various interpreters of public opinion, the one of most immediate concern to the greatest number of people is doubtless that of government spending and taxation.

No crystal ball is needed to foretell that if Congress and the President work at cross purposes another huge deficit is in prospect for the next fiscal year, despite the fact that both appear to want a smaller deficit.

The taxpayer must have trembled at the policy in which Congress received the President's implication that the 1948 tax cut was the root of present federal financial troubles.

That the excess of a society founded on the importance of the individual depend in the last analysis on the training of its children was the theory back of the speech made by Dr. Elvin C. Stokman of the University of Minnesota at a meeting of the American Association for the Advancement of Science in New York recently.

The job of society, of parents and schools is the evolution of an individual who knows how to find out for himself, who seeks the truth before he acts.

Another point which might be brought out concerns the difference between facts and their significance.

Recent surveys in the American occupation zone of Germany have disclosed that a surprisingly high proportion of former Nazis may be found in German government positions, both state and local.

This might lead also to the later discovery, or conclusion, that the general proportion of former Nazis is so high among the people as a whole that "de-Nazification" won't work the way it was expected to work.

Further evidence of how union lab leaders sometimes cut their own throats is given by ICC orders discontinuing one third of the nation's passenger train service on account of the coal shortage.

Congressman Herlong Reports

Here we are, back in Washington, ready to begin the second session of the 81st Congress, which opens Jan. 2.

It was good to be in the District, and to see and visit with the finest people in the world. Every day I was at home, I visited in every county in the District.

The President will deliver his State of the Union message before this is printed. In it he will probably outline legislation he wants the second session of the 81st Congress to enact.

My family is not back in Washington with me, and I surely do miss them. Our oldest daughter graduates from high school this year, and she wanted to finish with me.

The foreign ministers met in the "rainbow" panelled ballroom of the Ceylon senate building, Colombo, just before leaving London, to talk other delegates he was feeling well now.

Mr. Truman estimated the Agricultural Department would receive $119,300,000 from customs receipts under existing legislation compared with $125,000,000 this year for use in disposing of surplus fruits and vegetables.

Truman Budget

President Truman will send Congress later on a special tax message. In his state of the union address last week he said he would propose some revisions and "moderate" increases.

But nobody expects that he will ask additions which would take much of a chunk out of the $5,133,000,000 deficit that his $12,130,000,000 spending figure anticipates.

The total cost of the cold war for the United States in the new fiscal year, the President told Congress, will amount to about $16,000,000,000. That sum will cover both national defense and international programs.

In addition he said veterans programs and interest on the public debt—both costs rising mainly from the last year—will require about $12,000,000,000.

Thus Mr. Truman estimated that a total of $30,000,000,000 or about 21 per cent of his whole budget for the next fiscal year is composed of "financial requirements" to pay the costs of past wars and to achieve a peaceful world.

"The unprecedentedly large expenditures in recent years for international programs, the president said, have been undertaken from the devastation of the war to assist free people to recovery and to restore their capacity for living with in material things and in the practice of democratic principles.

"These programs are proving to be an investment paying dividends far beyond their cost in enhancing our own security and in providing a basis for world peace and prosperity.

"The job is not yet done, the goals are not yet reached; but the progress so far achieved makes possible in 1936 a substantial reduction in the dollar cost of these programs.

In explaining his request for continuing the military aid program which is only now getting under way—Mr. Truman recalled that for the present fiscal year (which ends June 30) Congress provided $1,000,000,000 for military assistance to members of the Atlantic alliance and $250,000,000 for other nations, such as Greece and Turkey, to which the United States supplied military aid and equipment.

Against that total of $1,250,000,000, Mr. Truman said that he was asking new authority of $1,100,000,000 for the second year. Actually he proposed that he be given $644,000,000 in cash and $456,000,000 in the form of contract authority, since military equipment is often contracted for many months in advance of the time it has to be paid for.

While the President did not develop the program in detail, he said that he was asking new authority of $1,100,000,000 for the second year. Actually he proposed that he be given $644,000,000 in cash and $456,000,000 in the form of contract authority, since military equipment is often contracted for many months in advance of the time it has to be paid for.

Undulant Fever

By W. V. Biting, Touchton Drug Co. In the United States, and particularly in the dairy states, undulant fever is widespread.

It is estimated that there are about 40,000 cases each year, but because they are not recognized as such many do not receive the return treatment and sulfa drugs effective in combating undulant fever.

The disease comes from using the meat and milk of infected animals. Symptoms of the illness are fever, headache, night sweats, and general weakness.

Only a doctor, with training and experience can diagnose and treat illness, for a number of diseases appear to have the same symptoms.

a political and geographic union of Germany and Austria had been effected. Austria became Ostmark. On Sept. 1, Reichschancellor Hitler demanded autonomy of the Sudeten Germans in Czechoslovakia. Great Britain, France, Germany and Italy agreed, at a parley in Munich, Sept. 30, to the dismemberment of Czechoslovakia. Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain assured the British "peace in our time" had been achieved. However, on Oct. 5 Hitler annexed more territory in Bohemia. . . Spanish insurgents air bombed Barcelona and Valencia on Jan. 15. . . The Wagner Hour Bill was enacted June 15. . . Howard Hughes completed his record flight around the world, July 14. Time, 3 days 19 hours 14 minutes 16 seconds. . . Four days later Douglas Corrigan landed in Dublin, Ireland, on his "wrong-way" flight across the Atlantic. His intention, apparently, had been to fly to the Pacific Coast. . . The New York Yankees defeated the Chicago Cubs, 4 games to 0, in the World Series.

Following a running sea fight with three British cruisers, the German battleship Goeben was blown up by its crew off Montevideo, Uruguay, Dec. 17. Two days later the crew of the German luxury liner Colombo scuttled their ship off Cape May, N. J. . . Turning point in the search for atomic energy came in January with announcement that the uranium atom had been split into nearly equal fragments, a fusion calculated to release an immense amount of energy, nearly 200 million electron volts. . . On Jan. 26, Loyalist Spain surrendered to the insurgents. . . Pope Pius XI died, Feb. 10, and was succeeded, March 12, by Pope Pius XII. . . Italy invaded Albania April 7.  hind public sentiment. . . In a speech at a forum sponsored by Ford Hall, Dr. Potter said: "We maintain that what is morally right, should be made legally right, or else all respect for law will be gone. . . Catholic priest, the Rev. Michael J. Ahern, S. J., science professor at Weston, Mass., college, is scheduled to speak against euthanasia from the same platform next Sunday. . . In London, the newspaper Empire News quoted an unnamed British doctor yesterday as saying he performed the "mercy killing" of three patients, whose cases he considered hopeless. . . The article, printed under the title: "Why I Let Three People Die," was one of the many examples of Britain's interest in the case of Dr. Hermann N. Sander of New Hampshire, accused of putting a cancer patient to death to end her suffering. . . The Empire News, Sunday publication of Lord Kemsley's newspaper chain, said it did not necessarily agree with the British doctor's opinions, but published them as a matter of vital public interest. . . The writer, whose name was not disclosed, said he deliberately had taken three human lives "in the ordinary course of my professional practice, twice with the approval of the nearest relative, and once on his own responsibility. . . I have never for one moment doubted that what I did was right," he said. He added that this was typical of what "many medical men in this country" think about euthanasia, or mercy killing. . . He cited the three cases as a 75-year-old man with incurable cancer, a woman in her sixties suffering a rare, incurable ailment and a newborn baby "so grotesquely malformed that its only life, if it survived infancy, would be in the seclusion of an institution."
