

No Seminolemania Or Lake Marymania Yet, But Give It Time

By Sam Cook Herald Sports Editor

There was once a Denver Bronco fan who was so caught up with "Broncomania" that he painted his station wagon orange to match Denver's color.

Seeing the orange vehicle, a friend confronted the man and inquired as to how he expected to sell a car of that color.

"I'd rather give up my wife than this car," the man replied unashamedly.

The football rivalry between Seminole High and Lake Mary High has yet to reach "Broncomaniac" proportions, but give it time.

You won't see anyone auctioning off his wife for a ticket to Friday's game but the intensity of the third Seminole and Lake Mary duel will be evident long before the two teams kick off at 8 p.m. Friday at Lake Mary High School.

As the old cliche goes, "You can throw out the records when these two teams meet." It should apply Friday night, too.

Seminole would like to throw out its record. Saddled with the toughest opening schedule in the school's history, the Tribe goes into Friday's contest with an 0-3 record. Losses were inflicted by Titusville Astronaut (24-0), Titusville High (20-13) and Lake Howell (14-12).

Lake Mary sports a 1-1 record after taking last week off. The Rams fell to sixth-ranked Apopka (21-0) in their opener. They came back to top DeLand (14-10) in a big District 5A-4 encounter the next week.

The teams have met twice previously with Lake Mary winning both contests. The Rams ralled from a 19-13 halftime deficit to take the 1983 game 34-19 at Lake Mary. Last year in Sanford, the Rams squeezed out a 7-0 victory in an intense defensive struggle.

Coincidentally, attendance has soared with each game. In 1983, 4,300 watched the first encounter. Last year, more than 8,000 turned out for Seminole's homecoming clash.

Along with the natural rivalry, Friday's game is important to the new Seminole Athletic Conference, Lake Mary, which won the Five Star and District 4A-9 last year, would like to follow up with an SAC title. Seminole needs a win to keep its SAC hopes alive after losing to Lake Howell.

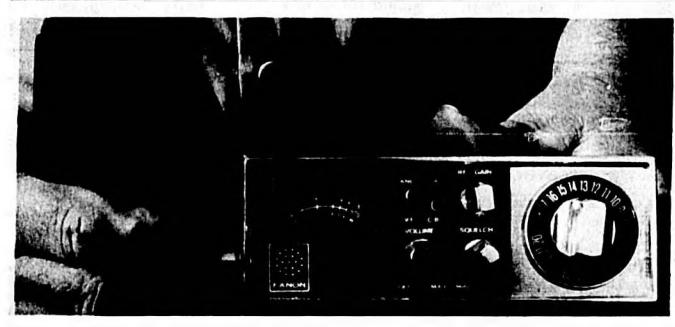

"Getting the first victory absolutely overshadows everything."Seminole coach Dave Mosure said. "Nothing could be better than for that first one to come at Lake Mary Friday night."

Lake Mary coach Harry Nelson said it is important to the SAC race and to his players from Sanford. "It's darn important to us." he said. "A lot of our kids have got bragging rights going on this one.'

Several of Lake Mary's key players hall from Sanford. Ray Hartsfield, considered the best all-around player in the county, starts at slotback and safety. John Curry is an explosive running back. Byron Washington plays wideout and defensive back. Sheldon Richards starts at defensive back. Mike Renaud handles the field goals and extra points for the Rams.

All of them attended Sanford elementary and middle schools and the chance to hang one more loss on their former classmates is all the incentive they need Friday.

Board Members Fight For Ten Commandments

HAZARD, Ky. (UPI) — Three members of a financially troubled school system say they will risk jail to keep the Ten Commandments posted on classroom walls.

"It's time for Christian people to stand up for more morals in the school system," said Charles Campbell, one of the three Perry County board members.

The board members said Sunday they have no intention of heeding the advice of the state attorney general, the state Board of Education and their lawyers to remove the Commandments.

In 1980, the Supreme Court declared unconstitutional Kentucky's 2-year-old law requiring the Ten Commandments be posted in all public school classrooms.

Perry County is one of the few Kentucky school districts that has refused to comply with the ruling.

BEIRUT, Lebanon (UPI) - A man claiming to represent the Islamic Jihad. which is holding six Americans hostage. says a deadline has been set for meeting the group's demands and announced the captives would hold a news conference.

"We would like to assure the hostages' families and world opinion that whatever happens after this deadline, the American adminstration must shoulder the full responsibility for the lives of the hostages." an Arabicspeaking man said in phone calls to two Western news agencies Sunday.

"We are waiting for this opportunity to expire, after which our attitude will be decisive," the caller said.

It was the first mention of any deadline for meeting the kidnappers' demands for release of 17 Lebanese and Iragis jailed in Kuwait for a series of bombings. Although the caller mentioned the deadline, he gave no date.

"As for the hostages in our hands, they will hold a news conference to address messages to the American administration, public opinion, humanitarian personalities and the hostages' families," said the caller, who claimed to represent the Islamic Jihad.

Longwood Village Inn Renovation Complete

By Jane Casselberry Herald Staff Writer

The $1 million-plus renovation project underway for the past year on the historic Longwood Village Inn has been completed by the owner, Centennial Properties, Inc.

The old hotel, which is the centerpiece of Longwood's Historical District, was stripped down to the bare bones before being restored to its original glory by the contractor, Walker Construction. The developer obtained a building permit from the city in May, 1984, but it was some time later when work actually got started. so the job was not completed in May of this year as originally planned.

White wicker chairs along the veranda, champagne fountains and pretty girls in antebellum gowns greeted the more than 500 persons who came to view the results at an open house a few days ago. One of the guests was Grace Bradford, a member of the Longwood Historical Commission and a former owner of the hotel. "It is beautiful," she said after seeing what has been done. Mrs. Bradford bought the hotel in 1972, renovated it and operated a restaurant there. She sold it in 1973 to Mrs. Marian St. Laurent, who later donated it to Cornell University.

"They did an outstanding job." City Clerk Don Terry said. "Everyone I spoke to was very pleased with the results. I think it will provide a focal point for the Historical District and encourage renovation of other old buildings in the area."

The inn now has several conveniences not enjoyed by its guests when it was built back in 1883 by the city's founder, E.W. Henck, president of the South Florida Railroad Co. Two of these are air-conditioning and an elevator.

The first 6-8 tenants are expected to move into the offices and multi-room suites on the second and third floors in a week or so, according to Bill Kohler, who is handling the leasing. He said the company has not yet found the right restaurant to occupy the 1,800 square feet of space designated for one on the first floor, but "we're still looking." There will also be some office space on the first floor.

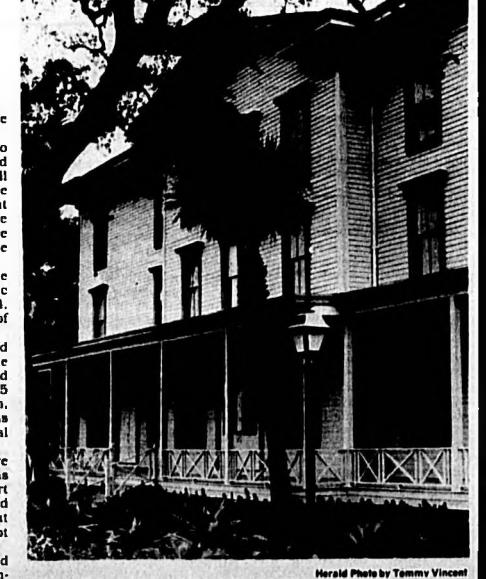

In 1976, the Florida Bicentennial Committee dedicated the Longwood Village Inn as a historic landmark along the Bicentennial Trail. In 1984. the property was listed in the National Register of Historic Places.

This provided an incentive for the limited partnership of which Centennial Properties is the general partner. The developer, who purchased the hotel property in 1984, was able to get a 25 percent investment tax credit for the renovation. but that also meant following severe restrictions laid down by local, state and federal historical agencies. Kohler said.

"As a result, there were some things we were not allowed to do," he said. "The building was literally failing apart. We replaced the support beam and the wall supports. We restored wood and pulled boards off of the porch and later put them back. We put new lights upstairs, but kept some of the old chandelters downstairs."

"The renovation work has met and exceeded our expectations." Kohler said."Walker Con-

Jordan's Hussein Talks About Middle East With Reagan

WASHINGTON (UPI) - Having offered as much as $1.9 billion in weaponry as an inducement for action, President Reagan invited Jordan's King Hussein to the White House today to survey the prospects for peace in the Middle East.

With Reagan headed for a new clash with Congress over arms sales to Jordan and Saudi Arabia, administration officials offered hope but few expectations that the meeting would help move toward direct negotiations with Israel.

The meeting with Hussein was the second in a week to draw Reagan back into the long-stalled peace process. which has become stagnated over semantics, suspicions and sometimes subtle differences in approach.

Last Monday, Egyptian President Hosni Mubarak got a cool reception from Reagan when he again prodded the United States to break the deadlock by talking to the Palestine Liberation Organization.

U.S. officials said the American position remained unchanged: No dealing with the PLO until that organization explicitly recognizes israel's right to exist and accepts two U.N. Security Council resolutions that address that point.

Stockman: 'The Joy Ride Is Over'

WASHINGTON (UPI) - Former budget director David Stockman, in an end of the fiscal year review, says "the joy ride is over" and the nation needs new tax increases and spending cuts to stave off economic disaster.

Stockman, who during his government tenure was known for his frankness, also said Sunday President Reagan's desire for a revenue-neutral tax reform package in the face of a $200 billion federal budget deficit is presposterous.

"I think the events of the last couple of weeks indicate the joy ride is over," Stockman said on ABC's "This Week with David Brinkley." "We just can't live with these massive deficits without traumatic economic dislocations.

"I think if we're going to get out of this situation and restore any semblance of national solvency and fiscal discipline, it's going to take a very major tax increase larger than we've ever had or contemplated - at least 2 percent of gross national product or about $100 billion a vear." he said.

Sen. Bob Packwood, R-Ore., chairman of the Senate Finance Committee, appeared on the same program and predicted there would be a tax reform bill this year "if the House passes it - at the very latest - by Nov. 1."

But if the Senate doesn't get it by that time. "We can't make it," he said.

Battle On To Contain Oil Spill

CLAYMONT, Del. (UPI) - The Coast Guard battled today to contain 435,000 gallons of crude oil that gushed into the Delaware River from a ruptured supertanker and spread for 20 miles, threatening water supplies and wildlife.

"It's stretching out and thinning like a piece of licorice when someone pulls it," Coast Guard spokesman Robert Mitchell said. "It is a major spill and we're concerned about

Shopping Center Evacuated After Bomb Scare; Employees Sent Home

A bomb scare at a South Seminole County shopping center ended up a bluff but offices were evacuated and employees sent home anyway. according to a sheriff's department deputy.

Employees at San Jose Center. 2234 Winter Woods Blvd., were evacuated at 9:45 a.m. from their businesses while police searched the center Friday morning for a bomb they thought may have been planted by a disgruntled janitorial service recently fired by the property's owner.

Police said a female identifying herself only as Mrs. Grace called Carolyn Louise Stansbury, a self-employed haridresser at San Jose Beauty Salon. Mrs. Grace told Ms. Stansbury that she had heard two males at the Butler Plaza Publix Supermarket saying they had planted a bomb somewhere at the San Jose Center. Ms. Stansbury then called police.

Ms. Stansbury said she did not know Mrs. Grace and did not know why Mrs. Grace would call her.

Tony Saporito, P.O. Box 2654, Winter Park, the property owner, said he changed janitorial services for the center last week and he believed the old janitorial service may be involved with the bomb scare.

A police search of the center turned up negative.

Police tried contacting Mrs. Grace at a phone number she had apparently left with Ms. Stansbury, but an answering machine with a recorded voice citation for careless driving and that "sounde., like an elderly female" answered the call.

The DelBay, a recovery ship owned by a cooperative of eight petroleum companies, was skimming up the oil that spilled Saturday from the 800-foot Sunoco Grand Eagle after it ran aground and gashed a hole in its side.

The Coast Guard used booms to block the oil from intakes for the water supplies of Wilmington and New Castle, and officials said they were confident they could prevent contamination of drinking water.

Cleanup crews boomed off creeks and waterways leading to waterfowl marshes in southeast Pennsylvania and northern Delaware, including the Bombay Wildlife Refuge, the largest on the East Coast for migrating Canada Geese.

17 Skydivers Killed When Plane Crashes

JENKINSBURG, Ga. (UPI) - A single-engine plane that crashed on a flight packed with skydivers, killing all 17 people aboard, was ordered grounded just two days earlier and may have been overloaded, federal officials said.

The parachutists were preparing for a formation jump Sunday when the Cessna 208 Caravan stalled three minutes after takeoff from a private airstrip and nose-dived onto a rural road, police said.

An Federal Aviation Administration inspector grounded the Cessna Friday after discovering its fuel was contaminated and notifying the plane's owner, Air Carrier Express Services of Atlanta, FAA spokesman Roger Myers said.

"He (the inspector) said, 'Hey, you've got a fuel contamination problem here — this aircraft should not be flown until it is repaired," Myers said. "They all agreed. At this point the FAA inspector was satisfied corrective action would be taken.

"What occurred between Friday and today, we just don't know," Myers said late Sunday.

FAA spokesman Jack Barker questioned whether the plane had the capacity to carry the 16 members of the Westwind Sports and Parachute Center who were aboard with the pilot.

But club spokesman Bill Scott said the Cessna's eight passenger seats had been removed and the plane was certified by the TAA to fly 17 people.

"That's questionable," Barker said. "If the aircraft were stripped down completely with no scats in it, then maybe. But that's certainly going to be part of the investigation."

Officials said the owner of Air Carrier Express, David Williams, 35, of Atlanta, was among those killed in the crash, and no company officials could be reached for comment on either of the possible causes of the accident.

Authorities refused to release names of any other victims until the relatives of all were notified.

Jim Burnett, chairman of the National Transportation Safety Board, arrived in Jenkinsburg Sunday night to coordinate the investigation into the crash.

Barker said the plane climbed to an altitude of 1.000 feet before witnesses saw it stall. A second plane spotted the wreckage.

"They saw the crash site and they came back, picked up experienced jumpers and then went back out," said Chuck Garwood, a jumper who missed the plane because he arrived late at the airfield.

Parachutists aboard the second plane jumped to the crash spot but found no survivors, said Mark Cook, one of those who parachuted to the site.

"Everybody was still inside in one pile," Cook said. "They were mutilated, really. There's no other way to describe it."

There was no word on why those aboard did not try to jump from the falling plane, which crashed less than a half-mile from the drop zone. All were experienced parachutists. having logged from 400 to 2,000 jumps each.

"Everyone was wearing their parachute equipment - including the headgear and boots." said Scott. "Everything was normal from takeoff. They were flying at a normal altitude for jumping."

Nation's Richest Lottery To Begin In California

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (UPI) — With dreams of becoming rich overnight. Californians will begin a modern gold rush this week in the form of a state lottery billed as the richest in the nation.

game. "If you were a gambler who wanted to win some money, this wouldn't be the way to do it." Peter Griffin, a mathematics professsor at California State University at Sacramento, said of the 25 million-to-1 odds for claiming the grand prize.

⁶ Winning the grand prize for the lottery would be roughly equivalent to winning 25 straight passes at craps, or picking the precise order of finish in an 11-horse race where all the horses

Jaycees Want Scarey People

The Sanford-Seminole Jaycees are recruiting ghosts, ghouls and monsters to help haunt their Halloween "haunted house" on the weekends of Oct. 18-20 and Oct. 25-27.

Help is needed in setting up tooms and props as well as scarey characters, according to Jaycee spokesman Al Seladi. Anyone between the ages of 18 and 35 who is interested in helping may call 322-8585 or attend a Jaycees meeting on Thursday evenings at the clubhouse at Fifth Street and French Avenue. This will also be the location for the haunted house.

Selph Named To Committee

State Representative Carl Selph, R-Casselberry, was recently elected by his colleagues to the Board of Directors/Executive Committee of the National Republican Legislators Association. The Association's membership is comprised of Republican Legislators throughout the 50 states and is managed by a Board of Directors/Executive Committee of 20 members.

"Selph said, "I am very proud to have been elected by my peers to serve on the NRLA Board; furthermore. Florida is extremely fortunate to be represented on the Executive Committee by two members (Rep. Betty Easley of Largo is the Treasurer of NRLA). were equally fast."

The lottery will be kicked off Thursday with lunch-time parades in downtown Los Angeles, San Diego, San Francisco and Sacramento along with a star-studded entertainment, fireworks and laser show at the Hollywood Bowl that night.

The show will feature such entertainers as Vicki Carr, Steve Allen, Ann Jillian and Anthony Newley.

One San Francisco market owner couldn't wait for the start of ticket sales at 12:30 p.m. Thursday. He sold about 1.000 tickets one day last week and was kicked out of the program by lottery officials.

Although the lottery has not officially started, there are already winners.

They include the state's schools, which will receive 34 percent of the lottery proceeds; Scientific Games Inc., which signed a $40 million contract to operate the instant ticket games, and Needham-Harper Worldwide of Los Angeles. which will conduct a $22 million lottery advertising program.

Other winners are 21,000 retail outlets, which have been chosen to sell tickets and will benefit from increased patronage of their establishments: an 11-station television network formed to broadcast grand prize drawings, and more than 400 people hired as lottery administrators and employees.

Voters last Nov. 6 overwhelmingly approved an initiative measure to make California the 22nd state to offer a lottery.

Then a controversy crupted over what has turned out to be a delay of more than six months past the March 22 legal deadline for starting the lottery.

Gov. George Deukmejian, who opposed the initiative on grounds that the state should not promote gambling, falled to appoint a lottery director until two months after the deadline.

Fending off charges of foot dragging, the governor contended lottery officials must be carefully screened to make sure the games are free of corruption, and that effort needed additional time.

M. Mark Michalko, 31, chief legal counsel of the Ohio lottery for five years, was Deukmejian's choice for director, at a $73,000-a-year salary.

Lottery spokesman John Schade said the California games are expected to gross $1.4 billion in the first full year of operation, compared to the $1.275 billion that Pennsylvania brought in as the nation's biggest lottery in 1984.

The lottery in the country's most populous state would rank 225th among Fortune 500 businesses for sales and 28th for profits.

Players will scratch a coating off six spots on their tickets to reveal amounts ranging from $2 to $5,000. If the same amount appears in three spots, they collect that amount.

Detente? Not Quite

Just weeks before the U.S.-Soviet summit meeting, some of President Reagan's critics are whispering a dirty word. The word is "detente." But it isn't as dirty as the critics make it sound.

Ardent conservatives worry that Reagan may listen to the wrong advice; that he will let his meeting with Soviet leader Mikhail Gorbachev lead to ways to reduce tensions between the two great powers, even at the expense of restraining cherished programs like space-based missile defense. That approach could fairly be called detente. And it strikes us as something to pursue rather than shun.

Conservatives' great concern seems to be that Reagan will consider concessions to the Soviets worthwhile. Certainly one-sided concessions would be no bargain; the test of good bargaining is whether an agreement works to the benefit of both sides.

Missile defense, or Star Wars, is the most contentious issue on the table. The Soviet view, as Gorbachev told Time magazine, is that the Star Wars project will "whip up the arms races in all areas." That contention seems overstated, though no more so than the American conservatives' argument. The head of a coalition that includes many in Congress speaks of an anti-Star Wars "propaganda campaign" in the United States. But surely U.S. experts with reservations about strategic defense are not all victims of propaganda.

To improve the prospect for arms limitations the president need not become a detentenik. But he should reject the hard right's insistence that any concession to the Soviets is intolerable. For example, presummit negotiations may open the possibility of cuts in heavy Soviet missiles in exchange for a Stars Wars slow-down. If such opportunities arise, the administration should seize them.

Patients, Beware

DON GRAFF Speculating On Where War Might Begin

The Cuban missile crisis of 1962 is the classic example of a superpower confrontation that might have exploded into nuclear war.

Since then, how it developed and how it was managed on both sides have been intensely studied for clues as to how future explosive situations might be defused.

But textbook case that it is, there is general agreement that the Cuban crisis is history that will not repeat - thus, it might not be so instructive.

For one very important thing, Frederic Mosher points out, the Soviets have corrected the gaping disadvantage in intercontinental strategic forces that compelled them to back off then.

Mosher, on the staff of the Carnegie Corp., is coordinating a joint American-Soviet study of causes and ways of preventing nuclear war.

It is joint in that Soviet specialists have been invited to participate periodically in study sessions with their American counterparts.

Underway now for two years, the project has produced a book, "Hawks, Doves & Owls: An Agenda for Avoiding Nuclear War," (Norton) that analyzes a number of scenarios considered most likely to escalate to the nuclear level.

Such as a crisis in Europe, where nucleararmed forces of the two powers are already cycball to cycball. The spark could be a new Berlin crisis, disarray in NATO, which the Soviets might seek to exploit, or an uprising in their restive Eastern Europe empire.

Another much-discussed possibility is ac- ! cidental war - human or technological error triggering a full-scale nuclear exchange. This raises a scary element of pure chance. But the ! more it is studied, the less threatening it seems.

ROBERT WALTERS Order To Disobey Orders?

WASHINGTON (NEA) - in the armed services, what happens to a colonel who doesn't follow the advice of a general? In the corporate world, what happens to a mid-level manager who doesn't follow the suggestion of a senior vice president?

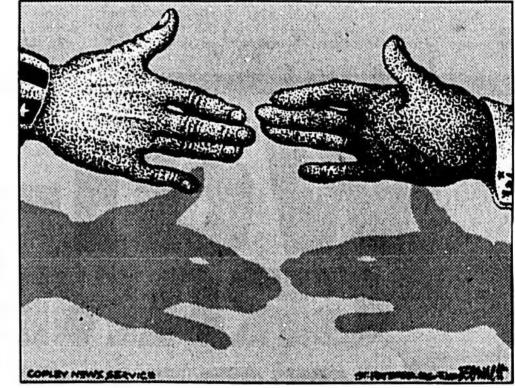

If you know the answer to those questions, you also know what happens to anybody working for the government who doesn't abide by the dictates of an executive order, a formal document signed by the president instructing all federal employees on how to perform their dutics.

But now the Justice Department is arguing in two federal courts here that agency and department heads are "legally free to ignore" Executive Order 12291, issued by President Reagan in early 1981.

When Reagan promulgated EO 12291 less than one month after assuming the presidency, the White House characterized it as as crucial to promoting the administration's high-priority goal of reducing the burden of federal regulation.

In the name of providing "regulatory relief." EO 12291 gave the White House Office of Management and Budget extraordinary authority to insinuate itself in the process of issuing federal regulations.

Specifically, the order requires every government department and agency to submit all proposed regulations to OMB, where they can be delayed, weakened or even abandoned if White House aides believe that the rules' costs exceed their benefits.

WILLIAM RUSHER Phrasing The News

One of the most blatant ways in which our liberal national media wage their unending war against President Reagan and the whole conservative trend in our national life is, of course, by the manipulation of the very terms that are used to describe events.

Thus, when Mr. Reagan in 1981 pushed through Congress a tax cut that made investing here more attractive while the inflation rate was falling to the lowest point in a decade, foreign capital poured into the United States and the value of

The latest move in this labeling game occurred a few days ago when news announcers, dropping their volces to the funeral-director level, reported that "Today, for the first time since 1913, the United States is a debtor nation." Visions of Uncle Sam in rags, with a tin cup in his palsied hand, sprang to mind. But what has really happened, as Paul Craig Roberts pointed out in Business Week recently, is perfectly simple and not all that tragic. The effect of the aforementioned heavy inflow of foreign investment capital. seeking to participate in our prosperity, was augmented by a sharp reduction in the outflow of U.S. bank loans to shaky Third World countries. Eventually the total amount owed by Americans to foreign investors became larger than the total amount owed by foreigners to us - and, lo and behold, we became technically a (net) "debtor nation." If we should, perversely, want to become a "creditor nation" again, all we need do is go back to the liberal Democratic policies that made the United States a poor place for foreign capital (or indeed any capital) to be invested. and simultaneously resume making huge loans to Mexico, Argentina and Poland.

DICK WEST Second Guessing A Doctor

WASHINGTON (UPI) - A doctor know recently showed me the floor plans for a proposed "conceiving center." which he described as logical adjunct to the birthing cent ters that have been springing up lately.

He said modern architects "can expeditiously and cost effectively provide blueprints for conceiving centers "specificially tailored to the management objectives of any one erator.

In support of that statement, he pointed to their "track record of implementing repetitive design concepts such as those used in branch banking and franchise ret taurants."

(This medico really uses words like "expeditiously." It's part of his bedside mannner.)

I don't doubt a well-built conceiving center, which includes space for conference rooms, showing X-rated movies and "bulk storage," would "create a positive community image."

But at my age, frankly, I was more interested in what the doctor had to say about second opinions.

He spoke highly of additional consultations, which are now required by some medical insurance programs, and said he would like to see the movement spread to other fields.

Now and then a cynical old joke makes the rounds again: "A hospital is no place to be if you're sick.'

Now Discover magazine reports that some 2 million patients a year are contracting dangerous infections in U.S. hospitals, hiking medical costs by $2 billion a year, and accounting for 15 percent of hospital costs nationally.

The diseases often are related to infections spread through the hospital, and often they complicate the patient's condition, along with adding an average of four days and at least $800 to his hospital bill.

One cause of the problem may be the reduction in infection control personnel as hospitals try to cut costs, and another may be reuse of equipment that was meant to be discarded after one use. the article said.

"As many as 300,000 patients die each year from these infections, which, if they were reported accurately, would make them the 10th leading cause of death in this country." Discover said.

It seems likely that the quality of infection control varies from hospital to hospital and city to city, and that the problem is more acute in major metropolitan areas where facilities are most crowded and the work is most hectle.

Pointing out the existence of such hazards, even though it adds to the always-growing host of troubles that worry modern man, is the first step toward bringing them under control.

BERRY'S WORLD

That procedure, however, apparently is illegal for several reasons. First, it represents a systematic usurpation of rule-making powers specifically delegated by federal law to agency and department heads.

Second. It undermines the carefully crafted procedures that have been designed to assure that the rule-making process is open to the public, fair and free of improper influence from special interests.

Unlike departments and agencies. OMB can entertain secret appeals for special treatment, then fashion regulations to meet the requirements of supplicants regarded as friendly to the president. (The agency has, in fact, allegedly succumbed to such pressure.)

In recent years, OMB has relied upon EO 12291 to water down or eliminate at least a half-dozen Important regulations. These Include rules on infant formula purity. water quality degradation, hazardous waste storage and worker exposure to toxic chemicals.

Agencies whose proposed rules have been mangled or suppressed by OMB intrusions under EO 12291 include the Occupational Safety and Health Administration, the Food and Drug Administration and the Environmental Protection Agency.

Now, however, the U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals has allowed the chairmen of five House committees to participate in litigation relating one instance of OMB meddling and to challenge the legality of EO 12291.

the U.S. dollar rose. This "strong dollar" naturally displeased U.S. businesses that depended heavily on exports (since it made their products more expensive for prospective foreign buyers), but it correspondingly helped businesses that import from abroad. The liberal wordsmiths, however, disliked calling the dollar "strong" - that connoted macho virtues, and therefore made the Reagan administration look undesirably good.

In due course, therefore, they came up with a more acceptable synonym: the "overvalued" dollar. And that is what the liberal media have called it ever since.

Similarly, when the liberal propaganda machine decided there were votes to be mined in the long-abandoned pits of protectionism, it was early realized that some new name would have to be found for this discredited economic nostrum. Though popular in the days of McKinley and Mark Hanna. Its 1930 form (the Smoot-Hawley Tariff Act) is credited with having given a major assist to the Great Depression by touching off an international competition to erect retallatory trade barriers. So you won't hear your favorite liberal commentator calling for "protectionism" these days. Instead, he's all for "fair trade" — and he never mentions that your personal contribution to this lofty ideal will be the higher prices you will have to pay for everything from shoes and shirts to cars, TV sets and VCRs (all "made in the U.S.A." - rah, rah!).

Once foreign capital has stocked up on U.S. investments and our bankers have finished trimming their risky loans to Third World and communist nations, the dollar will decline somewhat in value. Need I tell you how the liberal wordmongers will handle that?

I noticed, however, there was provision for second opinions at the conceiving center, where such service could indeed be valuable. Se I concluded that the concept car only spread along the lines of least resistance, as in marriage counselling and politics.

If, for instance, a marriage course selor recommended divorce, the consulting party certainly would want to get a second opinion before going into court. Perhaps from lawyer.

It might turn out that a divorce suit is the only possible remedy. But just as likely, the second counseller might advise a trial separtion or even giving it another try.

Such recommendations as poly amy, celebacy, conceiving center, ctc., should be considered with extreme skepticism, being even more drastic than divorce.

As for politics, second, and even third and fourth. opinions usually are readily available. Unfortunately they generally are offered before an election.

By the time all the returns are in It may be too late to turn back Post-election second opinions often are regarded either as sour grape or as involving a recall procedure that is too cumbersome for the average electorate to undertake.

It need not be that way. If second opinions can improve a patient condition, there is no reason they couldn't be used to improve car didates as well.

Our political system is only slightly more complicated than brain surgery.

JACK ANDEKSON Quake Compounds Mexico's Problems By Jack Anderson And

Dale Van Atta

WASHINGTON - The tragedy in Mexico City could have repercussions that, like another monstrous carthquake, could rock the United States. The disaster adds terrible new pressure upon Mexico's wretched masses to burst across the U.S. border in search of a better life.

Even before the earthquake brought new misery to millions of Mexicans, the Defense Intelligence Agency warned that Mexico is a tinder box, and a spark could send desperate refugees overrunning the border.

In the words of one warning, Mexico will be "the No. 1 security problem for the United States in the next 10 years." With this in mind. the DIA has made a secret study of how many Army divisions it would take to seal off the 1,933-mile Mexican-American border.

While the Reagan administration wants to keep illegal Mexicans out. ironically, the administration of Mexican President Miguel de la Madrid is worried that the United States wants to take more Mexicans in.

U.S. intelligence intercepted a private conversation last year between de la Madrid and two of his cabinet ministers in Mexico City. One of the ministers, according to a top-secret report, suggested that restive northern states might secede from Mexico and join the United States.

This incredible idea was accepted by de la Madrid, who said the United States would certainly welcome the annexation of the breakaway Mexican states. Divorced from reality as this may seem to Americans, it is a measure of the paranola among Mexican leaders.

In the back rooms of Washington, meanwhile. U.S. strategists acknowledge that they won't be able to slam down an iron curtain between the United States and Mexico. A secret State Department report puts it this way: "The problems of illegal immigrants, narcotics and social inequality are forces of (great) magnitude. These problems will be important to us; Mexican and American societies are becoming interwoven to the point of symbiosis."

Here are just a few of the pressures, now aggravated by the carthquake, that could cause a massive rupture in the Mexican-American border:

- One-third of all Mexicans today are undernourished. They not only live in poverty but their living conditions are getting worse. — The upper half of the popule tion hogs 90 percent of the income leaving the lower half with less and less.

 The Mexican government is of the brink of bankruptcy. It f saddled with a staggering $90 billion in foreign debts, with m credit left to satisfy the demands d a booming population.

The government is corruge from top to bottom, with 2 million bureaucrats feeding like leeches of the national income. In past con umns, I have detailed how Mexical presidents have siphoned of personal fortunes into U.S. and Swiss banks.

Supreme Court Docket Bogged Down With Familiar, Controversial Issues

WASHINGTON (UPI) - The Supreme Court returns to the bench next week facing, renewed pressure from the Reagan administration to turn back the clock on abortion and on a host of other issues high on the conservative agenda.

The justices return on the traditional first Monday in October, Oct. 7, with 87 cases already on the docket. The cases, accepted before the court adjourned in July, make up about half of the 180 or so cases the court hears annually.

The most controversial of those involve Illinois and Pennsylvania placing restrictions on a woman's right to abortion, whether the government can investigate and regulate the care of severely deformed infants and whether a union-negotiated affirmative action plan in Jackson, Mich., is constitutional.

Court watchers expect the justices to travel a middle road in the controversial cases, all of which concern issues crucial to the Reagan administration's conservative agenda.

Nonetheless, the administration has asked the court to overturn itself in its historic 1973 Roe vs. Wade decision, which legalized abortion. The administration also brought the action concerning handicapped infants and filed briefs arguing against quotas in the affirmative action case.

Attorney General Edwin Meese, in office for just seven months, has led the attack on the court. He has criticized the court in speeches and in interviews using words such as "bizarre" to describe court rulings on church-state issues and "infamous" to describe the court's Miranda ruling, requiring; police to tell criminal defendants their rights and refrain from questioning suspects who do not want to talk.

"Far too many of the court's opinions, on the whole, have been more policy choices than articulation of constitutional principles." Meese told the American Bar Association in July.

University of Virginia law professor Dick Howard said the court "is being pressed hard to undertake new initiatives by the Justice Department.

the court for four terms and is now in private practice, said the 'court hasn't changed its personnel. The thing to expect is the same results and the same trends. What we've seen in the past is what we'll see in the future."

Fein said whether Meese is successful will be hard to tell in the short run, but added Meese is not "playing for overnight" but for long term impact.

"In that sense what Ed Meese is doing is very profoundly influential," he said.

Howard did say he was puzzled by the court's acceptance of the abortion cases because they are similar to a previous case in which the court upheld a woman's right to abortion over attempts to restrict those rights.

However, he said "at the most the court will fine tune the ability of states to regulate abortion, but I don't think the votes are there to do more."

Lawrence Baum, a political science professor at Ohio State University who has written a book on the court, said the cases could have been accepted because those seeking to modify the original abortion ruling were hoping a vacancy and a new justice would give them a majority. "Also, it's possible that it is just a way to satisfy a constituency," he said. "The Reagan aministration more than most has used its participation in litigation not only to affect court policy but to make happler the constituencies concerned with cases.'

Laurence Tribe, a Harvard law professor, said a series of cases severe defects and attempts to William Rehnquist, at 61, can punish hospitals that withhold make any claim to youth. such care.

Howard called the case one of "first impression" - one dealing with issues that have not been the justices will retire or become before the court previously.

"If (the court) proclaims a right of the newborn in a way that requires strict scrutiny of any limititation of that right it would be a departure," he said.

He said such a decision would place the government in a role Brennan, 79, have in recent previously left to parents or months relterated their desire to doctors.

However, former Solicitor General Lee said he would "be two months last term while surprised if it turns out to be a recovering from prostate surreal blockbuster.'

Another inescapable issue facing the court is age.

over 75 and two others are 68 and 65. Only Justices Sandra Warren Burger, 78, show any Day O'Connor, at 55, and signs of retirement.

Because of their ages, there is the possibility that at least one of ill or die. A replacement, nominated by President Reagan. could shift the court into conservative territory.

"The Attorney General is more aggressive in raising issues. The Justice Department briefs have a bolder ring. ... But that doesn't mean the court will respond."

Bruce Fein, who watches the court for the conservative American Enterprise Institute, praised rejected administration-backed the Justice Department under practices concerning school Meese and compared it to the activist Justice Department under Franklin D. Roosevelt, which fought the court tooth and nall to preserve the New Deal.

"As we see on several fronts, affirmative action, abortion, religion and voting rights, he is directly challenging the court to rethink old cases." said Fein. "He's doing it in a concerted way. He's not limiting himself to what is filed in court but is publically speaking out."

Despite the push by the administration, few think the court will use the cases to make any dramatic change.

Howard said the "justices on the present court have something of a centrist instinct."

"I would not predict Roe vs. Wade will be overturned ... and the court will not turn back the clock on affirmative action," he said.

Former Solicitor General Rex Lee, who fought the Reagan administration's battles before involving church and state, such as students holding Bible study classes in public high schools, will give the court the opportunity to show "the wall of separation" between church and state is not absolutely insurmountable.

Last term, the court soundly prayer and the use of public funds for remedial education in religious schools.

Tribe predicted the court will use the Bible discussion cases to extend religious freedom already granted to college students to high school students and also rule in favor of a blind ministry student seeking state money for his education.

Howard also pointed to precedent in the affumative action case. He said the court has limited affirmative action in the past when it affected seniority rights and said the fact the union negotiated the plan was a "small difference.'

One case he said could have profound consequences concerns care for handlcapped infants, dubbed the "Baby Doe" case for the practice of using the pseudonym instead of identifying the child.

The case involves federal attempts to investigate and regulate the care of babies born with

Marino Meets, Beats Elway Challenge

DENVER (UPI) - For now, Dan Marino remains the class of the Class of 83.

John Elway couldn't compare Sunday in the first head-to-head duel between the NFL's two finest thirdyear pros, and his coaches admitted as much after Miami downed Denver 30-26.

"You saw today why he's the class of the AFC," Broncos head coach Dan Reeves said of Marino.

"We gave up 30 points and played as well as we can," added Joe Collier, Denver's defensive coordinator.

Both coaches had watched Marino pass for 390 yards and three touchdowns while their own quarterback ended the game without a single scoring pass. Only the 29-degree cold affected them more on this miscrable day for football than did Marino's polse, leadership and ability to find the open receiver.

Denver's proud defense hit Marino harder than he had been hit since the last Super Bowl, sacking him three times. Marino had not been sacked in three previous games.

"Denver's defense did great today," Marino said. "They had a good rush. and really pressured me. They doubled up on our outside receivers, and the inside guys were one-on-one. So we felt over the middle would work."

Touchdown strikes of 69 yards to

Football

Nat Moore, 24 yards to Joe Rose and 46 yards to Vince Heflin blistered the Broncos, now 2-2, and three Fuad Reveiz field goals ensured the Dolphins' third straight win against one loss.

Marino worked his magic despite playing in conditions that the Broncos are used to. He hit 25 of 43 passes without throwing an interception, while Elway was 18 of 37 for 250 yards.

"He loves a challenge." Dolphins' head coach Don Shula said of Marino.

'I've never seen anyone who likes to win the way he does. He's a great quarterback."

Marino's play was particularly satisfying to the Dolphins because they had chosen him more than two years ago as the 27th player - and sixth quarterback - taken in the 1983 collegiate draft. Elway was picked by the Broncos No. 1.

Marino has clearly performed better than Elway in two-plus seasons, but carly this season Elway showed he might move to the front.

Going into Sunday's game, Elway was passing at a clip - three touchdowns per game - that Marino had achieved during a Super Bowl season in 1984-85. Marino was off to a slow start, possibly as a result of a contract dispute and missed training camp.

Was Elway finally catching Marino? Would Elway move to the head of the class, as had been predicted?

In Sunday's game, at least, it was not to be.

Elway had three chances to rally the Broncos to a tie or a win in the fourth quarter, but those chances ended in a Sammy Winder fumble, a meaningless field goal and an Elway interception with 15 seconds left.

Elway declined to specify how he thought he did in comparison to Marino, saying only, "They won, didn't they?"

Lions Pelt Punchless Buccaneers

PONTIAC, Mich. (UPI) - The Detroit Lions threw two new things at the Tampa Bay Buccaneers Sunday.

"We used a 4-3 (defense) on first down," Detroit defensive coordinator Wayne Fontes said after the Lions' 30-9 victory. "And we used the Chicago defense.

"We figured if they were going to out-man us, we'd better do something."

Detroit also converted three turnovers into 17 points to improve to 3-1 in coach Darryl Rogers' rookie season. The Bucs dropped to 0-4.

"I'm pleased when we win whether we look bad or not." Rogers said. "When your quarterback is having success. whether he plays well or not, you keep doing those things."

Eric Hipple had his first sparkling day throwing the ball. completing 19 of 31 passes for 250 yards and a pair of touchdowns to Mark Nichols. Hipple also scored on a 1-yard run, and Ed Murray kicked three field goals.

Beach Run Stays Fun For Lake Mary

By Chris Fister Herald Sports Writer

What makes the Daytona Beach Seabreeze Beach Run so endearing to cross country teams is its unpredictability. That's why, although it has its critics, the Beach Run has endured as the longest running meet in Florida.

A year ago, the runners had the wind at their backs and turned in some outrageous times. Saturday, with the wind coming directly off the water, the times were more down to earth, but it was still an enjoyable and competitive meet.

"Its been around longer than any other meet," Lake Mary girls coach Mike Gibson said. You never know where the wind is going to come from. I can remember when Rick Horta was a senior and was running 14:07 early in the season. Then he got to the beach and the wind was right in the runners' faces and Horta ran around a 16:10.'

Another coach who likes his team to run at the beach is Lake who was 23rd at 16:51. Hale was followed in the top five by Anthony Surles (25th at 16:56) and Paul Evans (36th) at 17:11. Also competing for the Rams were Marc Eskin (40th at 17:16) and Ashley Morasch (65th at 17:57).

'We've still got a gap between number two and three," McGee said. "We're going to try to get the number three and four guys to pull up and go after Eric (Petersen). The gap gives other teams a chance to get runners inbetween our second and third. That hurts more in races with less teams."

McGee feels he can use the Beach Run as a gauge for hissquad.

'With the way the wind was, I would expect within a couple of weeks these guys will be running these times again. The conditions were not great, so there was no big advantage of running Mary boys coach Mark McGee. on the beach this year. It wasn't who ran on the beach in his prep that much faster if at all then a regular cross country course." Lyman High had a solid top three and, the day the fourth and fifth runners move up, the Greyhounds will be a definite threat. Junior Mike Mohler led the way for the 'Hounds Saturday as he finished fifth with a time of 16:05. Sophomore Robin Rogers was close behind as he took ninth at 16:09 and freshman Nick Radkewich was 10th at 16:13.

Tampa Bay's only offense came from three field goals by rookie Donald Igwebuike. Quarterback Steve DeBerg was also 19 of 31 for 193 yards.

Tampa's James Wilder had his sixth straight 100-yard rushing day with 104 yards in 27 carries and added 57 yards with seven passes, but it wasn't enough for the Bucs. "We didn't want to be overaggressive," Fontes said. "If you get over-penetration, that's when Wilder gets the big play against you. We wanted to prevent that."

"I was extremely impressed with Detroit and the way they played," Tampa Bay coach Leeman Bennett said. "I thought there were two key factors. The first, he said, came late in the second quarter. DeBerg fumbled and the Lions recovered and scored with two second remaining in the half. That play, Bennett said, "seemed to drain our offense."

After the recovery, Hipple hit Jeff Chadwick with a 35-yard pass to get the ball to the 4. Two plays later, Nichols beat leaped over the goal line to give Detroit the lead for the first time, 10-6.

"I thought we could get the play off - complete or in-complete," said Rogers, who had seen his team waste half its remaining 10 seconds with an incompletion.

The second key play Bennett cited was in the third period. when tight end Jerry Bell was fuled to have not had possession of what could have been a 3-yard TD toss at the start of the period. 20-yard field goal.

Tami Foss, left, and Kim Forsyth are down but definitely not out. The two Lady Greyhound volleyball standouts got off the deck to help Lyman win the Evans Trojans Invitational Saturday. Lyman ran its record to 7-0 with five consecutive wins.

Lyman Serves Notice: Evans No Longer King

By Chris Fister Herald Sports Writer

Lyman's Lady Greyhounds served notice Saturday that Orlando Evans is no longer the Florida volleyball.

They Lady Greyhounds won five straight matches - without dropping a game - en route to the Evans Tournament championship. Lyman defeated twotime defending district and regional champion Evans, 15-10, 15-13, in the final.

"This tournament was the most challenging event we've had this season." Lyman coach Karren Newman sald. "But we weren't really challenged until we played Boone the last round of pool play. They're the ones that took us the farthest. They're a good defensive team. The semifinal (win over Colonial) was pretty casy, then Evans gave us our best competition."

dominant force in Central Conference (1-0 record) play Tuesday at home against Lake Mary. The Lady Greyhounds then go up against Seminole Thursday at Seminole.

Leading the way for Lyman Saturday was senior Sheila Mandy who was selected the tournament's Most Valuable Player.

"Sheila (Mandy) played outstanding all day," Newman said. "Her serving, blocking and hitting were excellent. And she made some real key smart plays like dinking to the open spot and mixing it up with hits."

Senior setter Dawn Boyesen was also named to the All-Tournament team.

"Dawn (Boyesen) moved the ball around well." Newman said. "She kept the defense guessing and sometimes sent the ball over herself."

Newman also pointed to the defensive play of senior Donna Ball as a key.

"Donna (Ball) had a real steady tournament," Newman said. "She makes good defensive passes and always seems to be in the right area.1

In its first two matches in pool play, Lyman had a relatively easy time as it defeated Orlando Oak Ridge, 15-5, 15-7 and Lake Howell, 15-1, 15-9. Lyman then met Boone in the final pool play match and pulled out a 16-14, 15-2 victory after Boone had a game point at 14-10 in the first game.

Senior Ken Rohr paved the way for Lake Mary as he finished second with a time of 15:50. Palm Bay's Benny Bonarrigo took first at 15:41 with a strong kick on the last quarter mile.

"Ken started off in about eighth place," McGee said. "He worked his way up to the top two or three just before the mile mark, then took the lead. He led until almost about a quarter to go when the guy from Palm Bay pulled in front and outkicked him.

Sophomore Eric Petersen gave the Rams a strong top two as he finished seventh at 16:07. After Petersen, there was a bit of a gap as the next finisher was Jeff Hale Oviedo's John Newsom was the number three 3A runner in the race and he finished eightly overall with a 16:07 clocking.

Leading the way for Lake Brantley's Patriots was Jose Calvino who took 19th at 16:44.

Probably the biggest surprise of the day for Lake Mary came in the junior varsity race. Brad Smith, who had not broken 20 minutes in two previous meets. finished fifth Saturday with a time of 17:40, more than three

Howell Conducts Clinic

By Chris Fister Herald Sports Writer

Lake Howell's girls cross disposed of Colonial, 15-12, 15-6 country team journeyed to Jacksonville Saturday to see what the competition in that part of the state is like. What the competition saw was a clinic in pack running by the thirdranked (4A) Lady Hawks.

With seven runners in the top 15, the Lady Hawks compiled a team score of 32 to take first place in the Jacksonville Sandalwood invitational.

"They did a good job as a team," coach Tom Hammontree said of the Lady Hawks. "We didn't have a spectacular performance from three of them. but again that's the great thing about pack running. When one or two have an off day, you aren't sunk.'

Leading the way for Lake Howell was juntor Lisa Samocki who recorded a time of 11:04 over the 3,000 meter course. Hammontree said that would convert to around 11:45 for two miles. Samocki nudged out Orange Park's Ellie Runice for first place by two seconds. Orange Park was second in the meet at 80.

Following Samocki for the Lady Hawks were Martha Fonseca (fifth at 11:23). Jenny Bolt (eighth at 11:50). Angle Smith (10th at 12:00), Rachel Barnes (11th at 12:04), Bonnie Oliver (12th at 12:04) and Amy Ertel (14th at 12:10).

Winter Park Dominates; Trinity Prep Relay Excels

By Chuck Burgess Special to the Herald

LONGWOOD - It was just another day at the office for defending state champions Winter Park at the annual Bishop Moore Invitational Saturday. The Wildcats flashed their championship form by amassing 805 points (boys and girls) to outdistance second place Trinity Prep by 359 points at the Sharidan Aquatic Club.

If Saturday was just an ordinary working day for the Wildcats, then a few Seminole County teams must have felt like they received a bonus for their ottra effort.

Among the top county teams included 3A perennial powerhouse Trinity Prep. The Saints had some fantastic swims by Rachael Weightman, Brian and Chris Donahue, Robble

Swimming

McMichael, and Robert Penn. Weightman. leading the assault on the girls' side, won both of her events without any problems. She triumphed in the 200 individual medley with an All-American consideration time of 2:13.25 and was victorious in the 100 butterfly at 1:02.43.

Weightman was ecstatic over her two victories. "I'm happy I did as well as I did, considering it was the first time I've swam those two events in high school," the Olympic hopeful said.

Assuming the boys' leadership roles for the Saints included not one, but four outstanding swimmers. In the second event of the meet, the Saints' 200 three, Walt Morgan's Rams did to Winter Park and came out with a win and All-American status with a time of 1:41.2.

Brian Donahue (back 26.77). Chris Donahue (breast 27.34). McMichael (fly 24.3), and Penn (free 22.89) combined for the victory in what was easily the most exciting race of the day.

Chris Donahue, probably the most impressive of the Saints. won the 500 freestyle in 4:49.35 and the 100 breaststroke with a time of 1:02.15.

Also having a tremendous meet was Lake Mary which placed third, ahead of eight other teams. The Rams, scoring only 31 points less than second place Trinity, had some fine performances of their own.

Although not placing any indivual swimmers in the 'top medley relay took the challenge manage to scrape enough points from every swimmer in the consolation finals and the finals. The most dominate figure for the Ramphibians was Kelly Wise, a freshman, who scored well in the 200 and 500 freestyles. Wise placed second in the 500 free with a time of 5:27.99 and third in the 200 free in 2:02.24.

Also placing for the Rams in 200 free, 500 free, 100 breast, 100 fly and 50 free were Todd Stebbins (eighth and sixth), Joe Rosser (sixth and seventh), Steve Kostowitz (fifth and seventh), Trey Scibold (eighth). Elisa Maher (seventh), Jamie Brosnan (two fourths). Wes Simecek (eighth), and Kelly McKeel (eighth). An assortment of Lake Mary relays placed second, third. fourth. and sixth.

Mary Fonseca led the way as she finished first at 12:14 followed by Kim Hammontree (second at 12:57), Kim Laseur (third at 13:11), Cludy Oliver (sixth at 13:25), Terry Gringer (eighth at 13:27) and Michelle Mitchell (ninth at 13:41).

PENICK, POLITOWICZ EXCEL With neither one of their teams competing in a cross country meet Saturday. Seminole High's Billy Penick and Trinity Prep's Adrienne Politowicz turned in fine performances in the Threshold Run for the Kids 5K road race at the University of Central Florida.

Penick, a senior at Seminole. took first in the 16-18 age group with a time of 15:59, almost a minute faster than the second place finisher in that age group.

Politowicz, also a senior, won the women's 16-18 age group with a time of 19:10. Following Politowicz in the 16-18 group was Lake Mary graduate Jill Buddenhagen who recorded a time of 19:36.

Julie Lantis, the assistant girls cross country coach at Lake Brantley High and a former All American distance runner at the University of Illinois, took first place in the women's division with a time of 18:42.

Run for the Kids is the first race in the Track Shack Grand Prix series. The next Gran Prix race is the Windermere 10K on Sunday, Oct. 20.

West's Best: Candelaria Duels Saberhagen

United Press International

Two of the league's hottest pitchers - John Candelaria of California and Bret Saberhagen of Kansas City - meet tonight to open a four-game series that could determine the winner of the AL West

California, which beat Cleveland 9-3 Sunday behind a seven-hitter by rookie Kirk McCaskill, takes a one-game lead into the series. The second-place Royals lost to Minnesota 6-3.

Candelaria, 6-2 since acquired from the Pirates in August, has stabilized the Angels' staff. In his only start against Kansas City this season, he and Doug Corbett two-hit Saberhagen and the Royals.

Saberhagen, 19-6 in his second season, is vying for the Cy Young Award with New York's Ron Guidry. He is 1-1 against the Angels this year.

The Angels are in the middle of a season-ending 10-game road trip. They salvaged the third game of their series in Cleveland, which dropped its 100th game.

"Kirk gave our bullpen a full day's rest, and for a team of advanced age we're in good shape,"

A.L. Baseball

Angels manager Gene Mauch said. "I've got tonight and tomorrow to revel in our resiliency. We came back from two tough losses."

The Royals were burned by a defensive snafu Sunday, but hitting appears to be the more serious problem.

"We had seven runs in three games," Kansas City manager Dick Howser said. "That's the reason right there. What we have to do is snap out of it. We've got to get some hits."

Blue Jays 13, Brewers 5

At Milwaukee, Tony Fernandez had four hits. drove in four runs and scored three times to help the Blue Jays reduce their magic number to three for clinching the division. Lloyd Moseby had three hits, including a two-run homer, for the Blue Jays. Toronto achieved a season high in runs and hits (22). Yankees 4-9, Orioles 0-2

At New York, Don Mattingly hit his 32nd and 33rd homers and Joe Cowley and Dave Righetti combined on a three-hitter to lead the Yankees in the first game. In the nightcap, Don Baylor homered and drove in four runs and Dave Winfield homered and produced three RBI. New York has beaten Baltimore 11 of 12 games.

Red Sox 8, Tigers 4

At Detroit, Mike Easler went 4-for-5, including a homer, and knocked in three runs and Wade Boggs had four hits to power the Red Sox. Boggs raised his major league-leading batting average to .372. Rob Woodward, 1-0, making his majorleague start, went eight innings for the victory. White Sox 3, A's O

At Oakland, Calif., Tom Seaver and Bob James combined on a 10-hitter, leading the White Sox. Seaver, 15-11, notched his 303rd career victory and James recorded his 30th save this season. Curt Young, 0-4, took the loss. Greg Walker homered for Chicago.

Trade Pays Off Twice For Cashen

United Press International When New York General Manager Frank Cashen traded Huble Brooks for Gary Carter last December, he never suspected that both players would help him in the pennant race.

It happened on Sunday, with each player providing a key hit hundreds of miles apart.

in Pittsburgh. Carter smashed a two-run homer with one out in the 10th inning to enable the Mets to pull within three games of first-place St. Louis with a 9-7 victory over the Pirates.

In Montreal, Brooks keyed a three-run seventh with a two run triple in the Expos' 7.5 victory over the Cardinals.

Brooks was one of four players Cashen sent to Montreal 10 acquire Carter. His triple put some punch into New York's three-game showdown in St. Louis beginning Tuesday night. Brooks believes the Cardinals will win.

"No matter what the score is the Cardinals keep coming at you and playing their game." he said. "They never stop. Even, though we beat them 11 times. they'll still be in the World Series.'

Auburn Loss, Sooner Struggle May Vault Hawkeyes To No. 1

United Press International

No. 1 Auburn's loss to unranked Tennessee Saturday may have had a double impact on the No. 3 Iowa Hawkeyes.

Considering that No. 2 Oklahoma had to struggle to beat Minnesota, it's conceivable the Hawkeyes can find themselves atop the rankings after their 57-3 rout of lowa State.

But there's more.

Auburn running back Bo Jackson left Saturday's game with an undetermined ankle injury and may miss the rest of the season, which should improve lowa quarterback Chuck Long's chances of winning the Heisman trophy.

"There were 11 guys out there who knew what Jackson's number was," Tennesee coach Johnny Majors said.

And the way Long is throwing, the entire nation will know what his numbers are. Long passed for 223 yards and three touchdowns and completed 19-of-32 passes, including a 46-yard scoring toss to split end Scott Helverson, before leaving the game midway through the third quarter.

Ronnie Harmon added 103 yards rushing to lead lowa to its third consecutive lopsided non-conference win. The Hawkeyes have outscored their opponents 153-23 in their first three games.

lowa is now poised for its highest placement in the rankings since it finished No. 2 in the final 1960 ratings. "From a prestige standpoint, if they want to put lowa No. 1, fine by me," said lowa coach Hayden Fry. "There's no way to say whether we've earned it or not. All I know is we're 3-0 and our youngsters have played well."

lowa's defense, the best in the nation, forced three turnovers in the second quarter and held the Cyclones to 69 total yards the second half.

The Hawkeyes will open Big Ten play next week against Michigan State.

In other games involving ranked teams it was: No. 2 Oklahoma hanging on to beat Monnesota. 13-7; No. 4 Ohio State 48, Washington State 32; No. 5 Florida State 24, No. 20 Kansas 20; No. 6 Penn State 17, Rutgers 10; No. 7 Oklahoma State 45. STARKVILLE, Miss. (UPI) - Kerwin Bell passed for 302 yards and three touchdowns and running back Neal An-derson tacked on two more scores Saturday night to lead Florida to a 36-22 Southeastern Conference win over Mississippi State.

The victory extended Florida's un-beaten streak to 13 games and dimmed the Buildogs' hopes of capturing the SEC title. The Gators, 201, have not lost a game since losing their season-opener 32-30 to Miami in 1964.

Bell broke open a file game with 47 seconds gone in the third period when he hit wide receiver Ricky Natilei on an 43-yard bomb to put the Gators up for good 27-20. Two series later, Anderson, who rushed for 134 yards, scored the second of his two louchdowns from 7 yards out.

Bell also passed 10 yards to John L. Williams and 11 yards to light end Walter Odoms for touchdowns. Anderson gat Florida's other score on a 1-yard run and Jeff Dawson tacked on a 24-yard field goal

Don Smith, who passed for 157 yards, had romped 20 yards for a touchdown and then passed 61 yards to Kenny Rogers to give Mississippi State a 147 lead at the end of the first quarter.

Florida State 24, Kansas 20

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) - Freshman quarterback Chip Ferguson came off the bench in the fourth quarter Saturday night and threw a 48-yard touchdown pass to spark sluggish No. 5 Florida State to a 24-20 comeback victory over No. 20 Kansas.

Ferguson relieved starter Kirk Coker two minutes into the final period with Florida State trailing 20-10. On his fourth play, Ferguson connected with wide receiver Phillip Bryant for the 68 yard touchdown that broke the Jayhawks' domination.

Kanses guarterback Mike Norseth, who ran his Big Eight record to 175 passes without an interception, had four picked off in the second half. The third of those thefts, by Florida State's Martin Mayhew at the Seminole 39, brought Ferguson back to direct a final scoring drive capped by tallback Victor Floyd's syard run with 10:19 left that provided the victory margin.

Miami 45, Besten College 19 FOXBORO, Mass. (UPI) — After waiting a year, the Miami Hurricanes' defensive backfield got its revenge.

Selwyn Brown's 100 yard Interception return was the highlight of Saturday's 45-10 victory over Boston College. Last year, Miami had been victimized by Doug Flutie's Miracle Pass on Thanksgiving weekend. On Saturday, the Eagles made six trips

Inside Mlami territory, four of those journeys within the 20-yard line, but came away with just three net points. The Hurricanes defensive line was also exemplary, yielding just 58 yards rushing on BC's 32 run attempts.

"Our secondary showed that they can have an active performance and role in us winning football games." said Miami coach Jimmy Johnson.

Carter hit the first pitch thrown to him by reliever Larry McWilliams, 6-9, for his 13thj homer of the month and 32nd of the season. It followed a one-out single by Keith Hernandez. The victory went to Jesse Orosco. 7.6, who pitched 2 2.3 innings.

We wanted to go to St. Louis no more than three games behind," said Carter. "Now we have to win three out of three there."

The Mets tied the score 7.7 in the ninth when Howard Johnson? led off with his 11th home run of the season. He hit a 1-2 pitch over the right-center field wall off reliever Cecilio Guante.

The Cardinals owned a 5-4) lead, but their usually reliable bullpen faltered.

"Yesterday I got some good work from our bullpen, but they let us down today," said St. Louis manager Whitey Herzog. "That three-game series with the Mets is the most important of the season. That will give us a chance to do it ourselves. The Expos have given us problems all year. They have beaten us 11 out of 18 games."

Brooks, by the way, will have another chance to affect the pennant race. The Expos are scheduled to play their last three games of the season in New York.

A year ago, the Knights fell behind. 21-0, to ISU but rallied for a 28-24 victory. This time, however, the Redbirds' ground attack and four field goals by Paul Politi were too much to overcome.

"My worst fears were realized today," UCF coach Gene McDowell said. "It was

Gant Wins, Collects 32 Grand; Waltrip Takes Over Points Lead

NORTH WILKESBORO, N.C. (UPI) - Harry Gant won more than $32,000 Sunday, but Darrell Waltrip took over the lead in the NASCAR points race, which is worth $250.000.

"I'm in the best position I know to be right now," Waltrip said after his 14th-place finish Sunday in a 400-lap race at the North Wilkesboro Speedway. The performance enable Waltrip to wrest the points lead from Bill Elliott.

"I love a points battle," Waltrip said.

Waltrip, the points champion in 1981 and 1982, finished way off the mark last year and had vowed he'd be back this scason.

"I really missed it last year," he said. "Not being a factor when we went through the last couple of races last year got kind of boring for me. I made up mind right then, if there was any way possible. I would get back in this thing."

Waltrip got back in it Sunday in his Chevrolet, getting 126 points for a season's total of 3,626. That was good enough to take a 30-point lead over Elliott, who had entered Sunday's race with a 23-point buffer between himself and Waltrip. Gant was in third place on the points standings with 3,455.

Coach Walt Morgan was pleased to see his freshmendominated team do so well against such tough competition but said the performance could have been even better with one more swimmer. The Rams were without freshman sensation Karl Kuchma who earlier this week received a cut on his foot which required stitches.

'The loss of Kuchma really hurt us," Morgan said, "We could have picked up at least two more third places."

Another top contender in prep swimming this year. Lake Brantley, finished fourth with 354 points. The Patriots were led by freshman Lisa Moon, who won the 100 yard freestyle in 56.76 and placed third in the 50 free with a time of 25.92.

The Patriots, whose girls' team beat Lake Mary in the separated scores, also had places by Kristen Pauley (second in the 200 free and third in the 500 free). Manda Davis (third in the 100 fly), and the girls' 200 medley relay team which placed accond to Winter Park.

Probably the most surprising team to enter the meet was Jaime and Stasi Bojanowski, Kristy Keeling, Jay Adcock, and Kirby Swinehart carried the banner for the small, but effective team. Scoring individually, as well as in the relays, the Tribe managed to defeat Fort Lauderdale Stranahan, Apopka, and St. Cloud.

Obtaining the highest finish for the 'Noles was Jaime Bojanowski who placed fourth in the 100 freestle with a time of 52.59. Bojanowski also anchored the 400 free relay which placed seventh in 4:03.62.

The Lady Greyhounds' also installed a new weapon in their offensive surplus, the back row attack, where a hitter will spike from the back row. Newman is hoping the back row attack will further baffle Lyman's opposition.

WORLD IN BRIEF

Pro-Syrian Militias Gain Momentum In Drive To Tripoli

TRIPOLI, Lebanon (UPI) - Syrian-backed Lebanese leftist and communist militias inched their way into Tripoli today after another night of artillery duels and pitched battles with the city's Moslem fundamentalist defenders.

Lebanese military sources confirmed pro-Syrian militia reports of territorial gains but said the advance was confined to the city's outskirts.

The assault on the city was the third since the weekend. Sunni Moslem Voice of the Nation radio said 70 attackers were killed and 150 wounded in the first two assaults. There were no reports of Tawheed casualties - they remained trapped inside the city.

At least 307 people have been killed and 800 wounded in two weeks of fighting in the northern port city.

Rescuers: 'Give Us Our Dead'

MEXICO CITY (UPI) - An angry group of volunteers confronted President Miguel de la Madrid at earthquakecrushed Juarez Hospital to demand more help in removing victims from mountains of debris.

"We're asking for our rights," one woman yelled. "Give us our dead.'

As de la Madrid toured the site Sunday, officials announced that the death toll for the two quakes Sept. 19 and 20 had climbed past 5,200.

Ten Americans have been confirmed dead and a U.S. Embassy official said 24 other Americans listed as missing were believed killed in hotels that collapsed when the first quake rocked the city. The first earthquake - the world's strongest in five years - registered 8.1 on the Richter scale.

Workers from Mexico and about a dozen foreign countries have pulled hundreds of survivors from devastated buildings. But, despite rescue work at dozens of sites. no survivors were found Sunday. Only six bodies were recovered.

More Bodies Found In S. Africa

JOHANNESBURG. South Africa (UPI) - The charred bodies of two black men were found by police near East London today and a third burned body was discovered in Durban's Umlazi township, where Zulu tribesmen battled radical youths during the weekend.

Leading white businessmen Sunday ran advertisements on the eve of a major policy address by President Pieter Botha asking for negotiations with black leaders and an end to apartheid - the country's policy of racial separation.

The two charred bodies were found today at Queenstown, near East London, when officers scattered a black mob, police said. Police gave no further details on the killings

In Umlazi, near Durban, police fired tear gas to disperse a crowd of blacks, then found a man stabbed and burned to death.

Economy: Things Are Looking Up

WASHINGTON (UPI) - The government's sensitive economic trend detector, the index of leading indicators, recorded a 0.7 percent increase in August, the second straight monthly signal of improvement, government economists said Monday.

The August increase and an upward revision for July that also brought it to a 0.7 percent gain, were the biggest increases since February although still far from exceptionally strong. Six of the month's individual indicators will

Forget About The Windows; Seek Shelter In A Tornado

DEAR ABBY: I am a regular reader of your column in the Cape Girardeau (Mo.) Bulletin Journal, in which I read a letter from a Texan asking about tornado information. Your advice to open two windows is no longer correct, according to Robert Hamilton, meteorologist-in-charge, National Weather Service Forecast Office in St. Charles, Mo.

For many years, we also advised people that in the event of a tornado warning, to open a window (or windows) on the side of the structure away from the approaching storm.

However, in the last few years, we instruct people to stay away from windows, and immediately seek shelter in the basement, in a closet under a stairway or in any strong supporting structure.

Abby, also tell your readers never to try to ride out a tornado in a mobile home or vehicle. There is much more safety under a substantial structure, or in a ditch or culvert. Two-thirds of the persons killed in the Wichita Falls, Texas, tornado of '79 were trying to escape the storm in their cars.

DEAR BRIAN: Thank you for updating my information. And a standing ovation to all of the weather spotters who volunteer long hours, day and night, on some stormy hilltop, watching for approaching storms. It's a miserable and dangerous job, and you weather spotters deserve all the praise and recognition you can get.

DEAR ABBY: This problem has me frustrated. I'm an independent 27-year-old single woman. I have a full-time job, take courses at college at night and have little time for social life. My parents live about an hour's drive from me, but in heavy traffic, it takes two hours at least once a week - usually on the weekend. I also try to ings.

I hear this lecture for the first 30 minutes I'm there. And when I start to leave, whether I've stayed for two hours or 10, they say, "You're leaving already? You just got here. You always have to rush off. Come back when you have more time to visit."

Their constant complaining about how little time I give them makes me angry. I honestly do the best I can, but if they don't lay off, I won't visit them as much in the future as I have in the past. Please help me, I dread those visits home.

Acupuncture Has Place In Modern Medicine

acupuncture and acupressure - the pain is more than I can work? They're used successfully by millions of people in the world, so why are they not medically accepted treatments in the United States?

DEAR READER - Stimulation of certain nerves may block perceptions of stimulation of other nerves. That is, if you irritate one bundle of nerves, the brain appears not to sense information from another nerve bundle. We all perform a variation of acupressure every time we get banged on the shins and vigorously rub the general area. Also, it is well known that pinching your upper lip can relieve leg cramps.

The brain perceives pain through two pathways: fast fibers and slow fibers. Again, we all experience this during an injury, when there is immediate pain (sometimes not too severe) followed in a second or two by extremely uncomfortable pain. Briskly rubbing the affected area may diminish the second, more noticeable discomfort. Although this is probably a form of acupressure, no one really understands how it works. There are lots of theories, but no clear-cut universal explanation.

The Chinese do use acupuncture, and Western ob- 30 Hebrew mon servers have been astounded by the extent of surgery that can be 33 Something to carried out, with minimal traditional anesthesia, using this technique. Actually, acupressure and acupuncture are quite 38 inkling widely used in this country and in Europe. However, the initial enthusiasm for the methods has cooled somewhat since doctors have come to realize that only certain people appear to respond successfully to this treatment.

I believe that acupressure and acupuncture have a place in modern medical treatment. As our experience with and understanding of these methods increases, they may gain more popularity. Right now, right or wrong, the general medical orientation seems to be more directed toward traditional Western pharmacology and DEAR DR. GOTT - I have had

TUMBLEWEEDS

By James Jacoby Attacking your longest suit

first when you are playing a no-trump contract is an instinctive act. Yet, since bridge began, countless contracts have been lost through instinctive but careless plays. So it was today. Declarer quickly reached three no-trump, won the opening spade lead with the queen and went to dummy with a diamond to take the club finesse. West won the king and removed declarer's remaining spade stopper. When the club jack did not fall, the contract was down two.

How should South play for greatest safety? He should combine various plays to improve his chances. First, nine tricks will be there for the taking if diamonds divide 3-3. All South needs to do is force out the ace of hearts.

HOROSCOPE

What The Day Will Bring...

YOUR BIRTHDAY OCTOBER 1, 1985

It looks as though you're going to have an excellent possibility in the year ahead to share in something another has inaugurated. You'll make a valuable contribution, but it's not apt to be financial.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) Today you may have to choose where you should devote your efforts and resources. Put the needs of your family first and those of outsiders second.

BCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov.22) Friends will be more receptive to you today if you don't try to dominate the conversation or event. Just be part of the group instead of the big cheese.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) Something may affect your career favorably today. Don't

What if diamonds do not divide? Then the club suit will have to be attacked. If club tricks are needed, the best play is to plunk down the club ace, since there are nine clubs in the two hands. After all, sometimes the club king is singleton behind the queen. So what is the proper order of plays?

First cash the club ace. Next, play king of diamonds, a diamond to the queen, and then the ace. Since diamonds are divided favorably, declarer need look no further than two top hearts for his game-fulfilling tricks. Had diamonds not split, the clubs would have been tried. All of this is not necessarily the best way to take 10 or 11 tricks, but the contract is for only nine tricks, and giving yourself the best chance is what bridge is all about.

broadcast this news to others prematurely. CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) Make it a point today not to put on airs to impress others, and, by the same token, don't be in awe of people who think they're hotshots. AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) Be prepared to go all out today for someone you love. Even if you go to extremes, what the heck, it's for a splendid cause.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) You are likely to be the life of the party today. Have a good time and enjoy yourself, but also guard against a tendency to overindulge.

ARIES (March 21-April 19) Boldness and effort will carn you the rewards you desire today, but wishful thinking won't. This is the time to do, not talk.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) Social plans could sputter today if they include too many people. Others, as well as yourself, will have more iun if the group is controllable.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) This should be a rewarding day for you, yet it might not live up to your expectations. Strive to be realistic in situations where you hope to gain.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) Let your heart rule your head today in matters that affect you and your loved ones. Fulfilling emotional desires are more important than fulfilling material опса.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) Your possibilities for acquisition are strong today, but it won't be due to luck. Good things will only transpire if you work for what you want.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) You'll be both a doer and a talker today, yet you'll still get favorable results. However, you'll fare better if you're more industrious and less vocal.
