

Phillies Will Win If Condition Means Anything

Graham Finds Most Of Athletes Are In Best Of Form

By DILLON GRAHAM
AP Features Sports Editor

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Apr. 7.—Just a glance at the athletes in monkey suits on the practice diamond here, you'd never suspect they are the ferocious Phillies, the can-doing Commandos, who will strike fear in the hearts of their National League rivals this summer.

No longer will they be the feeble Phils. New suits will be the punching bag of the league. New Owner Bill Cox's commando training, as directed by Harold Aronson, will take care of that.

"I know nothing about baseball," admits Bruce, "but I do know that most of the players are not in top physical condition. You can see they're slow and lousy and overweight. They're not prepared to give their all."

Most clubs are going along this Spring with the same conditioning practices they've used for years. But with their new-style commando, are going to be a new group of men. Or so Bruce says. "I will guarantee that the Phillies will be the best conditioned club in baseball," he asserts. "Whether they have the playing talent to match the others, I don't know. But if the issue may be decided on physical condition, then the Phillies will win."

It is Cox who calls all this commando training. Bruce says his drills are just a collection of the best conditioning exercises he has found in a lifetime of physical training work throughout the world.

It's really a sight to see a big and heavy old veteran like Chuck Klein, grunting and groaning through the exercises. But old and young, they like it. Bruce, a small man who doesn't look like a coach, coached track and physical education for years at Lafayette and Union colleges and in 1936 went to Austria to tutor the country's Olympic team.

The Phillies have lacked a true name on each of Bruce's exercises.

Here are a few:

Monkey squat—athletes squat with one hand on ground.

Duck shake—shaking legs like a duck takes off water.

Elephant walk—walking on hands and feet with back facing ground and abdomen on par with knees and chin.

Trigle jungle—shimmying and shaking body and arms like a burlesque stripper.

Gonilla hedgehop—jumping a long jump from a squatting position.

Charley McCarthy pivot—jerking head around shoulders.

Bruce's idea is to get every muscle working and loose, so that all are relaxed and there is no tightness. He says few athletes know how to breathe properly while sitting or running. That is, how to breathe so they will absorb the greatest amount of oxygen. So the Phils are learning to breathe, too, yet to be found.

Some ball players feel they must have a plug of tobacco in their mouths before they're ready to hit the field. But that's out at the Philly camp here in Chocolate town. No tobacco chewing, Bruce says. It's bad.

Bucky Harris, the new Phillies manager, is enthusiastic about Bruce's work. And Bucky also is enthusiastic about the Phillies' prospects. He doesn't expect a world beater, but he doesn't expect a last place club either. He thinks Cox has done a fine job in a half dozen years. He has found good new ball players for the club.

Harris plans to have Danny Mortaugh and Merrill May from last year's team, second and third. Babe Dahlgren, from the Dodgers, will play either first or short and, as for the other infielder, he's yet to be found.

The manager situation is better in the outfield where Bucky has Danny Littwiler, Earl Naylor, Ben Northey, Klein and Paul Busby. The catching was strengthened when Tom Padden from Kansas City joined Tommy Livingston.

While the pitching isn't anything to get excited about, Harris believes it will be adequate. He has Jack Kraus, lefty who won 13 for Montreal; Al Gerheuser, another left-hander from Newark; Ed Schoonboy Rows, who broke in with Harris when Bucky was managing Detroit a decade ago; Johnny Allen from Brooklyn; Charley Fuchs from Detroit, plus El Johnson, Johnny Podgajny, and Walter Heck, who went with the Phils last year, and Bill Webb from Atlanta.

"Everyone on the club, except Webb, played in AA ball or better last year. They're pretty fair players and I think they'll do all right," Bucky says.

Nothing else has been able to blast the Phillies out of the loop cellar but maybe commando training and Bucky's capable managerial hands will.

Native Troops Master Nazis In African Battles

French Moroccan Forces Fierce Fighters With Tommies

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS IN NORTH AFRICA, April 7. (AP)—This would not trade his Tommy gun for a tank, airplane or cannon, he spurns strong drink but smokes cigarettes in chains and chains his ardent desire is to have more Germans to kill or capture. That is the French Morocco native troop known as the "Goums."

"Goums" are fierce fighting men who in carving himself another place in history on the northern Tunisia front with the British 1st Army.

The Goums are Berbers from the hills of northern Morocco and in the wooded and rocky mountains of northern Tunisia, they are a real terror to the German and Italian forces, particularly when on night patrol.

For two years they were secretly armed and trained by French officers under the noses of the German Armistice Commission in North Africa. Usually the Goums fight in groups of six or 12 men. French officers and two or three non-commissioned officers command a company and the remaining officers are native.

Deeply religious, these men seldom touch spirit, but they are heavy smokers. Probably only one Goum in a hundred ever drinks wine, and when he does it is alone and in secret. It is regarded as a sign of weakness among the Goums for a man to take a drink.

Like the mountaineers of Kentucky and Tennessee and Jugoslavia, the Goums are dead shots. They are tall, thin men who can run an climb all day and then fight most of the night.

The Goums were mobilized 20 years ago, after the World War, as territorial troops without any definite enlistment period. Their purpose was to patrol Morocco and serve as a supplement to the regular army.

In action, the Goums are individual fighters. They prefer to take on such a job as destroying an enemy machine-gun nest.

Several days ago near the Jebel Abidol, one Goum returned with three German prisoners, one of whom was minus the face of one eye. French officers say the Goum had used the face to string around his neck three compasses.

Before the capture of Sotjen and several other Goums, French officers visited the Goums and asked them to demonstrate how they vanish quickly into a mountain side. The officers went back with less than half an hour an entire company and all its equipment had disappeared without a trace. The color of all clothing worn by the Goums is a combina-

Everglades Drainage Curtails Bird Life

MIAMI, Apr. 7. (VNS)—Drainage of the Florida Everglades and steady encroachment of man-made development is rapidly curtailing wild bird life in the area.

Richard Pough, of the National Audubon Society, calls attention to the fact that many species of water birds that formerly inhabited this area have practically disappeared.

The Everglades Kite is getting scarce, and it is hoped that the establishment of the Florida Everglades National Park will serve to protect this species as well as other birds. They are a distinct Florida asset and everything possible should be done to protect them, ornithologists point out.

American People Face Acid Test in Treasury's 2nd War Loan To Raise 13 Billion Dollars in Three Weeks

The Nation Dare Not Fail in This Greatest Financing Task in History—"They Give Their Lives—You Lend Your Money."

Washington, D. C.—Coming as it does upon the heels of income tax payments, the people of America will face an acid test this month when the Treasury's Second War Loan drive opens April 12 with an objective of thirteen billion dollars to be raised through sale of Government securities.

A substantial part of this huge financing, the most stupendous ever undertaken by any government in the world's history, must be loaned by people in ordinary walks of life.

High Government officials have pointed out that the nation must not fail in this duty to our men on the battle fronts who are now carrying the offensive to the enemy at every stage. It is obvious to every thinking man and woman that at this critical juncture the United States take this offensive against the dictators, the cost of war operations increases in proportion.

The American people must no longer think of war costs in terms of equipping a soldier, buying a tank or plane or a ship. We must now think in terms of the cost of battles, invasions and new offensives. Attacking armies cost more money than equipping that army and we must meet that increased cost by buying more War Bonds and Second War Loan Securities.

They Give Their Lives.

It is not only necessary that the American people lend here at home in the war effort—it is an honor to do so . . . for we here at home can do no less than attempt to approach the sacrifices of our brave men out on the fighting fronts to whom the last great measure of sacrifice is but a daily offering. They give their lives . . . we are asked only to lend our money.

And that is the theme of the Second War Loan, "They Give Their Lives—You Lend Your Money."

Financial experts who know monetary conditions in the nation point out that at the present time there is in liquid funds, cash and commercial bank deposits over and above taxes and present investment in Government Bonds, and over and

"Magnaesia, did you say?" asked the teacher.

"Yass'um, doesn't every drug-store in the country sell Milk of Magnesia?" Had she asked him what brand of paint was the most popular, he'd have probably said, "DuPont is most commonly used around here."

ARE YOU IN STEP?

You are part of America's vast Victory Army, even though you may not wear a uniform or work in a war plant.

Efficiency is the great aim of that Army . . . efficiency in fighting power, in war production, and in the use of vital materials. War is an ally of the Axis, and must be stamped out.

You can eliminate waste right in your own home. One way is by using your kitchen appliances properly. Since fuel oil is used in producing electricity, efficient use of your appliances avoids waste of fuel oil.

Here are ways you can do it:

1. Don't turn on your oven more than 10 to 15 minutes before using it.
2. Allow space for air circulation in your refrigerator and freezer compartments.
3. Turn lights out when you're not in the room.
4. Turn off the water when you're not using it.
5. Turn off the gas when you're not using it.

THE GOVERNMENT of the United States is asking us to lend it 13 billion dollars in the next few weeks. We can do it. And we must do it. Every American must realize the truth:

In this, our toughest war, we've made a good start. We've trained a lot of men—made a lot of weapons—built a lot of ships.

But it's only a start. No man or woman among us would contend for a single instant that we're doing enough now to win this war!

We've Got to Build More!

We broke all records building 8 million tons of shipping last year. But grim-faced Army and Navy men will tell you that the 18 MILLION tons we're building this year still won't be enough!

We've Got to Fight More!

From now till this war is won, America must be on the offensive. In ever-increasing numbers, your sons, brothers, husbands must go into actual battle. Our losses have already begun to mount—and they will not grow less.

And We've Got to Buy More War Bonds!

Sure we're all buying War Bonds now. But we've got to help pay for our increased fighting and building. . . . We've got to match, as best we can, the sacrifices of those Americans who are toiling and sweating on a dozen battlefronts—with the bloodiest yet to come.

Your local banks will take orders for Bonds for two weeks beginning April 12, without cost.

FROM A CAPTURED GERMAN NEWSREEL comes this picture of the repatriation of French soldiers to their homeland in exchange for able-bodied slave labor destined for the Reich. Ever alert to propaganda values, the Germans have followed the returning train with cameras. In front of the train a mother tearfully greets a son she has not seen since long before the fall of the French army. (News of the Day from International)

EMACIATED AND SICK, a French soldier is embraced by his mother after return from months of incarceration in a German prison camp. His release was not due to the magnanimity of the conquerors; it was the result of a shrewd collaborationist deal whereby the Germans received, in exchange for repatriated Frenchmen, large groups of conscript labor. (News of the Day from International)

GOING DOWN TO THE DEPOT to meet a train returning from Germany with a shipment of repatriated French prisoners, two French boys weep tears of bitter disappointment at not seeing their fathers. This picture was taken from a captured German newsreel. Soldiers were returned only after an agreement whereby French factory and farm workers were conscripted for the Reich. (News of the Day from International)

MUNCHING THE BREAD OF THEIR NATIVE FRANCE, two repatriated soldiers stand with a brother on the depot after their descent from the train which has carried them from a German prison. Their exchange was made possible only by the simultaneous shipment to Germany of able-bodied conscript labor for German farm and factory. Returning prisoners found their loved ones at home weak and emaciated. (News of the Day from International)

WEARING WAR PAINT, the former luxury liner Queen Mary is moored in Table Bay, Capetown, South Africa, after setting a new record for the run from New York. The vessel made it in 12 days, breaking the former record by 7 days. She carried troops on the trip. (International)

RETURNING TO FRANCE AFTER MONTHS as an inmate of a German prison camp, a father clasps to his breast a son who knew him perhaps only as a legend. From a captured German newsreel comes this picture of repatriated French military prisoners who were returned to their homes through an exchange agreement by which able-bodied French factory workers and farmers went to the Reich. (News of the Day from International)

OVERCOME WITH EMOTION and almost too weak to stand, a repatriated soldier weeps on the shoulder of his father after returning to his homeland. Taken from a captured German newsreel, this picture is typical of the propaganda efforts in which the Nazis build up the desirability of operations wherein able-bodied French slave labor is sent to the Reich. In the Gulf of Mexico fishing will be permitted only during daylight hours, except that night fishing will be permitted in the following areas:

2. A similar three-mile strip extending northward from East-Crille to Deer Island, near New Port Richey.
3. A five-mile wide strip extending northward from Deer Island to Horseshoe point, just above the town of Cedar Key.
4. Another three-mile strip extending northward from Horseshoe point to the St. Marks range front light, the St. Marks range being the northern limit of this area.

To permit fishermen to take full advantage of daylight in areas where night operations are prohibited, 11 previously designated overnight anchorage areas have been retained at Flagler Beach, Cape Canaveral, Manatee keys, Dry Tortugas, Sarasota, Egmont key, Big Hank key (15 miles northwest of Anclote key), an area 12 miles west of Chassahowitzka point, an area nine miles west of Horseshoe point, St. George sound.

Operators of fishing craft must obtain from Coast Guard captains of ports official identification cards to be carried at all times, but which do not constitute a license to fish.

Before proceeding to sea through an inlet or waterway or entering from sea, fishing vessels must report to Coast Guard examination vessels, announce the areas to which they are proceeding and obtain permission to depart or enter. Except in cases of extreme necessity, vessels must not enter or leave ports, rivers, inlets and sounds except by special permission.

Symon Gould Says Meat Rationing Is Meat To Him

Meat rationing, says Symon Gould, Secretary of the Vegetarian Society of New York, is "heaven-sent."

"We vegetarians are annoyed by all the fuss over the lack of meat," says Mr. Gould. "You won't starve on a diet of vegetables, fruits, milk, cheese and butter. Supplemented by proteins from the bean and nut families, that's about all your body needs."

Anyway, that's what the true vegetarian eats. And says Mr. Gould, some of the foremost men of our times, including George Bernard Shaw, Gandhi, H.G. Wells and Maeterlinck, are vegetarians.

Americans are considered the greatest meat eaters in the world—that is, all except the 100,000 Vegetarian Society members on the east coast.

"But right to our own country," continues Mr. Gould, "we have a perfect example of the effects of wrong diet. Heart trouble, bad teeth and rheumatism are prevalent, even in the young."

Vegetarians use the experience of Great Britain as a talking point. Since consumption of meat has been reduced to a fraction there, Mr. Gould asserts, the people are healthier and statistics indicate that decrease in mortality has more than offset the loss of lives by bombing.

"Many people," says Mr. Gould, "feel that it is important to eat large quantities of meat to maintain strength. Actually, however, the majority of the human race are vegetarians. Some have exceptional strength and endurance. The Chinese soldier can march 35 miles a day on a handful of rice. The Manchukuo farmer tills from dawn to dusk living mainly on thosy beans."

Farm Tools Repair Class Inaugurated

A class in farm machinery repair, limited to 15 members, which farmers may attend in order to learn more fully how to keep their tractors, tractors and other equipment in repair, will be formed to meet two nights a week at the Seminole High School farm building, Alex R. Johnson, director of the local Rural War Production Program, stated today.

James S. Webb, who owns a repair shop on the West Side, will instruct the class which will be held from 8:00 until 11:00 o'clock on Monday and Friday evenings, starting on Friday, Apr. 16.

"All persons in this class," said Mr. Johnson, "will be privileged to bring machinery to the school farm and repair it. Full equipment for welding and machine shop work will be provided."

Mr. Johnson pointed out that this course would be of special value to farmers in that there is no farm machinery, and replacements are hard to get.

Babcock Aircraft Takes Local Trainees

Recent calls by the Babcock Aircraft Corporation at DeLand for trainees in aircraft wood-working have resulted in a number of vacancies in both the day and the evening class at the Sanford School for War Production Workers, according to H. A. Speir, instructor.

Most of the trainees who have accepted positions, have gone to the Babcock plant, Mr. Speir said, but he added that other calls had come from Tampa, West Palm Beach, and Jacksonville. Civil service inquiries offering salaried positions had been received, he stated, but for this there had been no trainees available.

"Persons between the ages of 18 and 30, are preferable for training in aircraft woodworking."

Housewives Are Asked To Salvage Tin Cans

"Tin cans are going to war," was the assertion today of C. G. Campbell, associate executive secretary for Florida of the War Production Board, who with H. O. Burkman, also of the WPB, conferred this morning with the Salvage Committee of the Seminole County Defense Council, in the office of the chairman, C. R. Dawson.

"Conservation of tin is one of the most vital needs of the war effort," said Mr. Campbell. "Housewives in this county are urged by the WPB to save all tin cans, fill and paint correctly. These should be washed, labels removed, tops and bottoms bent in, and cans flattened by stepping on them."

"Take these cans to your grocer," he concluded. Members of the Salvage Committee attending the meeting were Mr. Dawson, Mrs. Daisy Knox, chairman of Home and Community Services, R. C. Williams, Nod Smith of the American Legion, and Mrs. Guida Wilson, county home demonstration agent.

Nursery School Need Investigated Here

Mrs. Marion C. Doloy, nursery school specialist of the State Board of Education, today investigated the results of a county survey made by block leaders, in regard to the needs of nursery care for children of working mothers.

"While results of the survey are slow in coming in, I believe that on the basis of what we have, I will write application for a small number of units to be established by means of the Latham fund in Washington," she said.

"It is very important that children of working mothers be cared for," she said and advised a vocational school program for school age children during the summer months.

Supt. T. W. Lawton, with whom Mrs. Doloy conferred this morning, urged that mothers who wished to have their children placed in nursery school, confer with him at once.

Canning Kitchen Turns Out 7,734 Pints Of Food

More than 7,734 pints of food have been canned at the Sanford Canning Kitchen at 114 West Second Street during the period from Jan. 20 to Apr. 1, thus breaking all its previous records, Mrs. Guida Wilson, county home demonstration agent, stated today.

"Mrs. B.A. Howard, supervisor of the kitchen, has used her equipment to the best of advantage and taken care of the needs of all who wanted to can food there," she added.

"New equipment," she pointed out, "inspired to meet the demand for canning, which has resulted in making all the canning kitchens of the County very busy."

"Mrs. Willie Mae McConaha, supervisor of the Orange Canning Kitchen, has reported that 3,000 pints of food have been canned there. Mrs. Wilson stated.

"The Lake Monroe Kitchen which opened Feb. 22, also added, has canned 786 pints. Mrs. Edna Sealy is the volunteer supervisor for this kitchen. No salary is paid to her."

"The Geneva Kitchen," is located at the Community Hall and serves the whole community. This kitchen is different from all the others. There is no supervisor, but anyone can go to the kitchen and can. This community has been carrying on this program for eight years, and during that time not one piece of equipment has been lost. A group will get together and go there for a day's work. They have a good time, and accomplish a lot, having during April, canned 910 pints."

Soviets Join Allies With Raids Of Own

Koenigsberg Is Hit As British And Americans Bomb Palermo, Sicily, Naples

(By Associated Press) Resuming the bombing of objectives in eastern Germany after a lull of several months, Soviet airmen smashed at targets in Koenigsberg, in East Prussia, Saturday night, in union with another large scale R.A.F. assault on objectives in southwestern Germany. Other Allied bombs fell at Naples, Italy and Palermo, Sicily.

The Japanese launched their second big aerial effort in five days and sent 68 raiders over Okinawa, in New Guinea. General MacArthur's fighters shot down 23 of the raiders in a sub-storm battle.

The Russian front remained generally unchanged, but the Germans threw back new attacks on the Donets River line at Kharkov, 25 miles southeast of Kharkov, and took some trenches near Belgorod.

Germany made no claims of any losses and the German high command itself took no cognizance of the report of such a foray brought by the Berlin radio and attributed to DNB the official news agency. Neither of these circumstances was regarded as proof that the Red air force did not hit the enemy on his home soil since Moscow often is silent in its activities and German leaders hardly would be eager to draw their people's attention to such developments.

They point out that Russia, in Berlin, probably has had to disclose some of these building and new construction work efforts to the German press in order to prevent the enemy from learning that the Russian may have been building up the war in eastern Germany at points beyond the actual range of the RAF and U. S. AAF.

Rayburn Asks 20 Percent Of Wages Be Held

OPA Seeks To Control Prices That Restaurants Ask

WASHINGTON, Apr. 12. (AP) Speaker Rayburn, (D-Tex.) today called for joint Democratic-Republican action to enact quickly a 20 percent withholding levy against the taxable portion of wages and salaries as a measure to help prevent inflation.

The OPA set out today to control the prices that restaurants charge for food and beverages—a move coincident with a senatorial account of a man who paid $1.50 for a quart of milk served in a Washington hotel.

Price Administrator Brown authorized OPA regional offices to set maximum prices for food and beverages served by restaurants, cafeterias, hotels and other eating and drinking places and to roll back any "abnormally high" prices.

The week April 4-10 was fixed as a base period and eating and drinking places were directed to file with local boards copies of price lists for that period.

In a memorandum to proprietors, the price administrator said he hoped they would make every possible effort to insure that customers continue to receive the greatest possible value for their money, but cautioned them:

"Any increase in prices, reduction in quantity or deterioration of quality may force the office to issue a local freeze order, fix prices for certain food items and meats, or otherwise regulate prices."

Brown, saying this was the first move by the government to hold down the cost of meals and beverages sold by the drink, estimated that Americans will spend about $2,000,000,000 in restaurants this year, double 1939's total.

The story of the $130 million came from Senator Nye (R., N. D.), who suggested that a senate inquiry into the price spread between the farmer and consumer be held to cover "legislative assistance."

Various teams who aided in the drive were Kiwanis, headed by Frank Shames; Rotary, Roy Keller; American Legion, Ned Smith; Chamber of Commerce, Roy C. Williams; Pilets Club, Mrs. Frances Swanson; East side farmers, Mr. and Mrs. Frances Merriweather; west side farmers, Victor G. Green; Oviedo, B.F. Cooper; negroes, Walter Holt.

A boy scout Corp of Honor and district meeting will be held in the annex of the First Methodist Church, at 8:00 o'clock Friday evening, Mr. Smith stated. Plans are requested to report for inspection promptly at 7:30 o'clock.

At the Scout Board of Review held last Friday, six ranks were conferred on Billy Benson; five ranks on Huston Babcock in addition to six merit badges; life rank and two merit badges to Watson Jennings; E rank and one merit badge to Malcolm McNeil; four merit badges to Bill Meriwether and one merit badge to Bill Jennings, Mr. Smith stated.

Evangelist Clyde Lee Fife, of Kentucky, assisted by Sheldon Conrad, vocalist of Kendallville, Ind., will start a revival campaign tonight at the First Christian Church at 8:00 o'clock. The Rev. V. H. Grantham will preside. Prior to the service a dinner will be held at the church at 6:30 o'clock.

A full retinue of military and diplomatic followers accompanied the German and Italian leaders. The meeting took place at Hitler's headquarters, usually advertised as "in the Russian front."

In Complete Accord "A complete agreement was reached on all measures to be taken in my respect," the announcement from Hitler's headquarters said. (While Rommel's residence in (Continued on Page Five)
