ROCHESTER, N. Y., Aug. 18.—(AP)—Sam Snead of Hot Springs, Va., Sunday won the $3000 Times-Union open by shooting 73-67—140 in the 36-hole finale for a total score of 277.

Slammin' Sam, who won the Canadian open last week, was seven strokes better than Bill Ben Hogan of Hershey, Pa., who added 72-67—139 Sunday to his previous 185 for a total of 324.

Craig Wood of Mamaroneck the National open king, was third with 287, slipping to a 78 yesterday afternoon after pushing into the lead yesterday morning with 69 for a total of 209 after 54 holes.

Snead slipped from first to trail Wood at this point by shooting a 73 Sunday morning. Hogan's afternoon round, one stroke higher than the course record left him far out in front of the field.

Snead's victory, worth $1200, brought his 1931 earnings to $2911. Hogan collected $750 to boost his winnings for the year to $12,733 and further established him as the big money man of golf. Wood collected $510.

Denny Shute, Chicago, and Harold (Jug) McSpaden, Winchester, Mass., tied for fourth with 288.

After shooting even par on the first nine of the afternoon, and with Wood eliminated from the lead, Sammy bore down on the home stretch. He took a birdie 8 on the 10th, shot par on the 11th and 12th and then began his most spectacular golf.

German Tourists In Persia Cause Alarm

LONDON, Aug. 18.—(AP)—British and Russian envoys at Teheran were authoritatively reported Sunday to have issued a second warning to the Iranian (Persian) government that it is "excessively" large numbers of Germans in that vital middle eastern land were a continuing cause of alarm to London and Moscow.

Sources here declined to amplify the report or to indicate whether a joint Russian-British move in Iran is imminent.

While there were intimations in some circles that a decisive stroke is being considered by the two Allies in the Middle East, the nature of such action was left to the vaguest inferences.

Army Maneuvers In Louisiana Opened

CAMP FOLK, La., Aug. 18.—(AP)—The spirit of troops now engaged in mock warfare in Louisiana "will make our army the best in the world," Lieut. Gen. Walter Krueger, commanding general of the third army, said in a broadcast Sunday.

General Krueger's talk formally opening third army maneuvers in Louisiana, emphasized the huge task of concentrating men and equipment for war games, the benefits they will bring in developing teamwork and coordination, and the spirit of the men and officers.

"Realism is going to be particularly stressed during the maneuvers. Whether it is day or night, the troops must be concealed. At night this means that the men and vehicles must find their way about in the dark. That rain storms and bad roads and blacked trails increase our difficulties need scarcely be mentioned."

3 Negroes Trampled In Holiday Stampede

NEW YORK, Aug. 18.—(AP)—Three persons were trampled to death and 60 were injured in the crush Sunday when 10,000 pleasure-seeking negroes were stampeded by rumors that their $125 Hudson River excursion boats were bogged.

The carefree crowd, clad in their colorful Sunday best and in high good humor, was transformed within minutes into a mauling, milling mass of fighting humanity as word spread that some held counterfeit tickets for the ship that could carry fewer than one-third their number.

Clothes were torn and heaving picnic baskets were crushed as, under pressure from thousands in the rear, the vast throng surged toward the $100 passenger steamer, State of Delaware.

Gasoline Rationing

One of the principal difficulties about collectivization or any over-centralized national government in a country as large and as diverse in its many interests as ours springs from the fact that it is difficult to issue a decree binding upon the entire country or any large part of it which will be as fair to one section as another.

Thus we find that in the attempt to reduce gasoline consumption along the eastern seaboard, Secretary Ickes proposes a rationing of gasoline to filling stations involving a ten percent reduction based on July sales. In other words, all the filling stations from Maine to Florida are expected to sell to the public ten percent less gasoline in September and the following months than they sold in July.

Now in Maine, July is a big month for gasoline sales. Crops are being harvested. The tourist business flourishes. Home folks get out their automobiles, which have been in cold storage all winter, and motor through the countryside. Gasoline sales soar throughout the summer and decline naturally when winter sets in with or without any suggestion from Secretary Ickes.

On the other hand, in Florida gasoline sales are abnormally low in July. The farmers are inactive. There are no tourists in the state to speak of. Many home folks have taken their cars and gone to North Carolina, Maine, or other points in the North or West. In the winter when everyone returns, the state is flooded with tourists, and industrial and agricultural interests are busy, gasoline sales normally increase about ten million gallons a month.

And so in Maine a ten percent cut in gasoline consumption based on July sales would be nothing at all. It would entail no sacrifices for anyone and it would save no gasoline. While in Florida such a cut would be disastrous. It would mean that throughout the winter we would have to get along on about 25,000,000 gallons a month; whereas last March we actually used 42,000,000.

We are glad to see that Governor Holland has taken prompt cognizance of this problem and has given his assurances that he will "explore every possibility to insure an adequate supply of gasoline in Florida during the vital months of the tourist season ahead."

Juvenile Drivers

How old should a child be before he is allowed to drive a car? That depends upon the child more than upon the law which classifies him as a minor or an adult. Some people are fully grown and fully capable of driving a car at 16; others have never quite grown up at 50. Not all of those who pass a driver's license test have a sufficiently developed sense of responsibility to entitle them to a car.

Mrs. Beale R. Alston, a widowed school teacher of Salt Lake City, who has recently been awarded first prize for the best letter on the subject, "How old should boys and girls be before being permitted to drive the family car?" has a good deal of interest to say that may offer helpful suggestions. "Thousands of Peter Pans crowd our highways today—children who will never grow up," she declares.

"Keeping these unsafe drivers off the road is the responsibility at once of the home and the license bureau," she writes. "Of the home, because that is where the driver is made or marred. It is true that most 16-year-old youngsters can master the mere mechanics of driving in a day, but it takes from 18 to 20 years to train a good driver, to establish the five special qualities that make up driving maturity. They are intelligent thinking, sane judgment, emotional control, unflinching courtesy and a high degree of good citizenship. No one of these flashes automatically into being at the turn of a calendar page, each is a slow growing product of inborn intelligence and lifelong training.

Courtesy is the keynote to road safety, yet it is the quality most lacking in many of our American youths. The mother who insists that her child crowd ahead of his elders to snatch the last seat in the bus or who watches indifferently while he runs his tricycle over the neighbor's garden is training, all unaware, the roadhog of tomorrow. The dad who chuckles gleefully as he tells his dinner guests of fooling a "cop" or doing 80 on a 50 mile road is unconsciously teaching little "big ears" a lasting lesson in contempt for law and safety. Emotional restraint, nervous stability, these should be built up before any child is allowed the wheel.

For too many years we have handed car keys and licenses to youngsters with a queer superstition that these things in themselves possessed the magic that could change an unthinking child into a mature driver overnight. The magic hasn't worked, therefore it is the duty of the state to keep the immature, the mentally deficient and the drunk driver from our highways. New standards must be established, new licensing procedures set up.

"In many states whenever an applicant has passed a simple test in mechanics, shifting, turning, backing, and an read and interpret a few signs, he is licensed to drive. This is insufficient. For years I taught mentally deficient boys. Wholly irresponsible, easily enraged, anxious to show off, wholly childish, many of them could and did pass driver's tests, and many of them, too, have had minor as well as serious accidents."

Dear Sir: Again referring to the letter by our government to the farmers...

One day I was sent for by people living about 1-2 miles from me...

He was as good truck farmer as we ever had. He was making a good living, but had only the necessities of life...

They all felt sure the government would reimburse them, but ten long suffering years have passed, while they all suffered, waited, struggled!

If we had lawyers employed to represent us in any case, and it took them 10 years to get our case to the jury, do you think we could ever employ them again?

No class of people on earth are more valuable to humanity than the farmers. So class on earth has more to contend with from the government than the farmer. The government has the right to regulate the farmer's business, but it has no right to take his property without just compensation.

It takes ten years to get a citrus grove in full bearing. It has to be worked, pruned, sprayed and fertilized. It is an investment of $1000 per acre. It is not an investment of $1000 per acre. It is an investment of $1000 per acre.

GOOD-BYE BROADWAY

"The other day we rode with Constantine the dentist's wife, out through the army reserve and over the causeway to an island. We could see, across the bay, the new city of Panama, built right down to the water, a city of high, pink cathedral spires, yellow and faded blue buildings, with the blue Pacific washing around its seawalls, and mountains behind and stretching into the mist on either side. You can imagine what a thrill I got from the sight.

Concerning Panama weather, Mrs. Moye writes: "We have a breezy all the time and I haven't been as hot since I came as I was here, and it has rained only a few times. It will cloud up and pour for 10 minutes or so, then the sun will come out, the water, drain away in a very few minutes, and it is as nice as ever.

"I haven't even seen the canal, except from a distance. No one is allowed near the locks. I hope to see it in a few days. I hope to leave here, or I will miss seeing a lot."

About the trip down by steamer, Mrs. Moye writes: "The boat was simply scrumptious. Beautifully furnished, deep carpets, luxurious lounge, one lounge even had a grand piano in it. The meals were something to tell your grandchildren about, and such style.

"Haiti is the filthiest place you can imagine. At least Port au Prince is, and that is supposed to be the main city. The negroes are poor and beggars mob you if they think you will give them anything. There is one gorgeous old cathedral there, built by Catholics of course. We went through that. The natives make bracelets and all kinds of trinkets and wares, and will sell them at any price, usually 15 cents."

Others have worked all day and most of night trying to save their homes and farms. They all felt sure the government would reimburse them, but ten long suffering years have passed, while they all suffered, waited, struggled!

If we had lawyers employed to represent us in any case, and it took them 10 years to get our case to the jury, do you think we could ever employ them again?

Roosevelt Believes Russia Will Stand

WASHINGTON, Aug. 18.—(AP)—After a 90-minute conference with President Roosevelt, congressional leaders reported Monday they had gained the impression Russia has a real chance of holding out indefinitely against the Nazi military machine and that Russian resistance probably will forestall any German attempt to invade Great Britain this year.

While asking not to be quoted by name, one of those present said the President appeared cheerful and confident after his recent conversations at sea with Prime Minister Churchill.

Rev. Hubert Beller, of New York urged his hearers meet the challenge of birth control. He asserted there were 2,000,000 fewer children in public schools than a decade ago, and that 60 percent of the families in United States either have no children at all or only one or two.

Miami Manicurist Gets $200 Reward

MIAMI, Aug. 18.—(AP)—Three thousand dollars in three easy $1000 bills for 45 minutes of busy sidewalk in plain view of hundreds of people Monday before a manicurist found the money and returned it to its owner.

M. A. Corralles, retired Havana engineer, gave the finder, Mrs. Mary Frank, formerly of Tampa, a $200 reward after he had proved ownership. "I was going for a cup of coffee," Mrs. Frank said, "when I saw the bills in the middle of the sidewalk near the front of the hotel shop. They were so new that I thought they were phony. They were folded in half, one inside the other. Later, I could tell by the feel that they were real."

Navy Jumps Gun, Injury Jinx Dogs Opening Practice

ANNAPOLIS, Md., Aug. 18.—(AP)—Prof. Edwin Larson jumped the gun on other eastern football teams by summoning approximately 100 Middles to Navy's first football practice of the 1941 season Monday and found that unwelcome visitors, the injury and sickness jinx, already on hand.

Two promising sophomores, Warren Montgomery, quarterback, and Charles Becker, 200-pound tackle, were unable to answer the roll call because of ailments. Montgomery has a badly infected foot and Becker has contracted meningitis. Both are expected to be out for weeks.

Navy, however, has a wealth of sophomore material to bolster its two 1940 teams which won six games, and one and lost two.

While many of their opponents have been hard hit by graduation and the draft, the Middles have lost only eight lettermen from last year's first and second eleven. With the undefeated 1940 Fieba team filling the gaps, Navy supporters anticipate one of the season's outstanding football matches this fall.

Heading the regular who turned out for the one-hour conditioning session were Capt. Bob Froude, end; Gene Flatmann and Dick Churning, tackles; Vito Vitucci, guard, and Bill Chip, Harry Warner and Bill Busk, backs.

Other veterans on hand were Alvin Cameron, Henry Booth, Phil Guthrie, Wes Gilbert, Howie Clark and Johnny Harrell, backs; Jim Donaldson and George Ringenberg, centers; John Hill and Rex Silvers, guards; Dick Ops and Joe Donohue, tackles; Larry Wanggaard, Willie Manning, Bob Keller and John McTigue, ends.

The squad practiced in shorts and light conditioning will continue until Sept. 1. Subsequent games will be played for heavy sessions.

On the Middles nine-game schedule are William and Mary, West Virginia, Lafayette, Cornell, Harvard, Pennsylvania, Notre Dame, Princeton and Army, in order.

Larson told Coach J. E. Whitcomb, U. S. N., who quarterbacked the navy team in 1939, 20 years ago, that he was at the field. Whitcomb, one of Notre Dame's famous seven players, and his successors will handle the Middles again.

Leaders of America's and Britain's war effort surround their chiefs, President Franklin D. 'Unknown' Is Struck From Taxation Roll

TRENTON, Aug. 18.—(Special)—"Unknown" is an obsolete word as far as Assessor A. M. Quincey's 1941 roll being sent to Tallahassee for Comptroller J. M. Lee's approval is concerned and his stamp's real estate has jumped from $510,000 to $1,523,436.

Assessing coveer lands at $3 to $4 per acre and farms lands at from $7 to $25 per acre, Assessor Quincey explained his roll in the process of fitting it to the governor's new tax revision program.

Personality has been boosted from $60,000 to $175,000 and some returns are still pending. Range cattle are being assessed at $10 for all ages and graded cattle at $40 to $55 per head with hogs at $2.

In spite of the fact that the county has been operating on a 19 mill total for county operations as against a 21 mill possible maximum the commissioners report they will be able to comply with the new program.

DON'T STOP AT MURDER

A newspaper is an accurate reflection of what today is doing with people... and what people are doing with today.

Murder is big-type news. So is a bank stick-up. And so is the dedication of a new library, or the launching of a new ship, or the employment of hundreds in reviving industry.

But we have read only half of the story, if you stop at murder in our advertising columns can be found in its most authentic sense.

What are people wearing? What are they eating? Why are they going? How are they going? Why are they going? What is the time to...?

Dictatorship At War's End Worries Many

By CHARLES F. STEWART
Central Press Columnist

CONGRESSIONAL opposition to President Roosevelt's foreign policy has in reality, very much obstructed the foreign policy, so long as they stay foreign.

A few spokesmen, like Senators Burton K. Wheeler and Gerald P. Nye object to them even in foreign speaking, on the ground that their tendency is to create a dictatorship.

Joseph Martin, they don't like. In general, however, the critics say they find little fault with the administration's handling of our international relations, as such. What they suspect, they explain, is that F. D. R. is acquiring, in connection with purported emergency necessities, an executive control over our domestic government, which they think the White House will be unwilling to surrender after the world emergency has passed.

Chairman Joseph W. Martin of the Republican national committee put it plainly the other day when he warned the country that he's fearful of a "post-war dictatorship."

It isn't altogether that anti-dictatorial alarmists are averse to a temporary surrender of considerable legislative authority to the government's executive branch, in the face of a crisis, with quick decisions almost imperative. What alarms them is the personality of the person in the White House to whom they're asked to make the surrender in right now.

Congressman James P. Wolfcott recently expressed his ideas recently in the course of a cross-questioning of National Price Fixing Commission, as a witness before the representatives' banking committee.

It may be interesting to know that the bill on emergency powers, which was introduced by the administration, and advocated by Roosevelt, threatened the permanent deprivation of American "free enterprise."

After the war, there's a possibility of a dictatorship in 1917 we were told that the emergency powers would be returned to the people at the emergency's end. But this time...

Congressman Wolfcott's implications were clear. President Wilson was a trusted servant, depended on not to WANE to be a dictator any longer than it was necessary for him to be in the White House, at least doesn't feel so sure of F. D. R. or his staff at all.

I'm far from saying that these dictators are justified. All I do is to mention 'em in explanation of some of the things that's being done on Capitol Hill. There undoubtedly are lawmakers who vote "no" on some of which they'd vote "aye" if they weren't skeptical of the administration's intentions today on. I'm sure of it because they tell me so.

Congressman Joe Martin, previously referred to as Republican leader in the house of representatives as well as a national committee chairman, has just appointed a subcommittee to determine if it can be shown that American "small business" will find itself at the mercy of the government's power to completely absorb, as individuals, small units, by emergency governmentalization. Joe does not speak in much of was retailers, as the small caliber industries, employing up to, but not above, 200 men.

After the war...

All these activities present a kind of a post-war and post-emergency preparedness program. The New Deal plan in an emergency situation was to be implemented as a total...

It's not that the government will absorb the small business, but that it will be able to do so if it chooses to do so.

It's not that the government will absorb the small business, but that it will be able to do so if it chooses to do so.

It's not that the government will absorb the small business, but that it will be able to do so if it chooses to do so.

Senators, Deputies Arrested In France

VICHY, Aug. 15.—(AP)—A number of French senators and deputies who were too outspoken in their criticism of Marshal Petain's administration have been placed under administrative arrest in a crackdown against Communist and other dissident elements, it was disclosed Monday.

Angered because they were removed from the payroll and deprived of other privileges, as well as practically all power, more than 750 members of parliament have formed a powerful opposition to the Petain government.

The parliamentarians, coupled with rising Communist agitation in both occupied and unoccupied zones, are the chief elements in the general unrest which Petain described in a radio speech last week.

There'll Be Some Changes Made, Says Connie

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 15.—(AP)—There'll be some changes made in the Athletics next year, says Connie Mack who isn't all impressed with his present crop of ball players although he admits there are a few promising rookies on the horizon.

Somewhere along the line he's going to get some new pitchers. "I'd like to have just one man like Bender, Combs or Plank," declared the veteran manager who once had all three.

They're the kind of pitchers they had control. When I said pitch outside to a certain hitter they did. When I said, throw the curve ball at the knees, they did. "This present day crop, ugh!"

But hurlers aren't Connie's only dissatisfaction. "There's Third Base," Pete Suder, whom many Philadelphia fans regard as a big thing.

"Suder has been somewhat of a disappointment to me," says Connie. "He can't hit and he hits into too many double plays."

There's First Baseman Dick Seibert who has been having a good season. "But you can't expect him to hit .350," says Mack.

Connie believes Outfielder Bob Johnson is slipping but "makes no mistake, he's a great outfielder. He gets more walks than some of my men get base hits." He has the finest spirit on the club.

Wally Moses has been handicapped by a shoulder injury but Connie hopes he'll be in shape next season. To replace Moses and Johnson the A's have Dee Miles and Eddie Collins.

Connie likes Collins—thinks Eddie will become a great outfielder. But Mr. Mack doesn't like the way Miles plays—thinks he goes hot one day cold the next.

Shortstop Al Brancato seems to have his post pegged down although Connie says "he can't go to his right very well" but predicts he'll be better next year.

Sam Chapman has passed the examination for the Naval aviation corps and plans to enter the service at the close of the season. And Benny McCoy, who was paid a $45,000 bonus for signing with the A's, may not be around because of draft, although at the moment he is on the deferred list.

"There'll be a lot of changes around here next year," says Connie.

NEWSPAPER MAN DIES

LAST CHANCE . . . LOW PRICES . . . LIBERAL TERMS . . .

WHY? Because a curb on installment buying in America has been ordered by the President and it is the aim of the Federal Reserve Board appointed by him to check all consumer credit, shorten terms and increase down payments. Furthermore because of government priorities many of the items which we can sell you now will be practically impossible to secure in the near future and if they are available they are going to cost a good bit more. We think it distinctly to your advantage if you are able to do so, to make your purchases now, for the following reasons:

- 1—You will save the proposed Federal excise tax on many of these items.
  - 2—You can still buy on our easy payment plan as we will continue to use this plan until government regulations stop us.
  - 3—We have the merchandise in stock for immediate delivery. No waiting.
  - 4—All this merchandise was bought prior to advance so you can still secure goods from us at the old low price.
  - 5—We add no interest or carrying charges for our time payment plan. Our cash price and time price are the same.
- Below we list sixteen of our fastest selling items, together with the terms on which you may buy them.
