HOLLYWOOD BY BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD — Gene Autry, who has made a fortune as a crooning cowpoke, is having a loud laugh at the people who yowled when he went into television films.

Autry, long a favorite at the movie turntable, drew strong praise from theater men when he decided to follow Hopalong Cassidy into the TV arena. His critics predicted he would ruin himself with the film houses.

But the cowboy's popularity in the theaters doesn't seem to have diminished. He is currently filming "Winning the West," one of six features he plans to make this year. He figures his audience has greatly increased because of TV. "I'm getting a lot more mail from the big cities like Los Angeles and New York," he commented. "I never had much of a following in the big towns, because my pictures never got much of a play there. But now the big city kids see me on TV."

Incidentally, since television, his mail is a lot harder to read, since it now comes from a younger audience.

"I don't know whether my pictures are getting a better play in big city theaters," he added, "but I saw one indication that they might. Recently, a first-run theater played a Charles Starrett Western. Jack Mahoney played a secondary role, but the ads billed him as the star of the Range Riders TV series, which my outfit produces."

Autry said candidly that movie Westerns are in a slump. "There have been too many big budget Westerns with stars like Clark Gable, Gregory Peck, John Wayne and Kirk Douglas," he observed. "Naturally, this cuts into the playing time of the program Westerns."

"But the program Western field is better now, because it has thinned out. Roy Rogers isn't making pictures now, nor are Tom Holt or Charlie Starrett. Now there are only four regular series—myself at Columbia, Rex Allen and Mack Brown at Monogram, Bill Elliott at marking some, but I don't think it's a series."

"But it has happened this way

Feminine Florida

By BOBIS
Released by Florida News Service

What used to be the Glorious Fourth is now the "Faded Fourth," a time of being a time of celebration and festivities this holiday has become synonymous with deaths and tragedies. And the worst part of it all is—IT CAN HAPPEN TO YOU!

Personally, I am a great believer in staying close to home during holidays such as the Fourth. But with such a long week end it is a great temptation to bundle the family in the car for a gala holiday. If you are planning to spend it away from home—temper your holiday spirits with common sense and plenty of caution.

Leave early enough so that you will not have to speed to get to your destination. If you are planning to leave in the morning, have the car packed and ready to go the evening before. When you leave on any trip, no matter how short the distance, be sure your car is in top notch condition. Make sure the brakes, tires, battery and motor are in good working order.

Next to traffic deaths, drownings, take a tremendous toll of lives. You just can't be too cautious in the water, especially when you are swimming in unfamiliar waters. Caution the children about the dangers of going out too far, and if they don't know how to swim it's best to forbid them to go into the water without adult supervision. After rating you should wait at least an hour before going into the water.

You don't even have to leave home to have a really wonderful holiday weekend. With some clever planning you can have a happy, safe Fourth right in your own back yard. Invite a group of friends over (bring a covered dish or sandwiches). Then organize games for the children and relaxing cards or charades for the adults.

If fireworks are permitted in your community, all the neighbors and friends can pool their fireworks and put on a really gigantic spectacle right there in the yard. The spritdler can act as the "accounting pool." Best of all it's easy on the pocketbook and your nerves and well-being.

Anyway, no matter where you're spending the Fourth, have fun!

Mrs. Dale Scott Jr. Entertains Club

Mrs. Dale Scott Jr. entertained members of her bridge club yesterday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock at her home on Grandview Avenue. Flamingo colored hibiscus attractively decorated the rooms.

Upon the arrival of the guests a delicious luncheon course was served after which several prizes were awarded to the winners. After scores were added prizes were awarded to Mrs. James Crapps, Mrs. Malcolm Higgins and Mrs. B. L. Perkins Jr.

Those invited to attend were Mrs. Roy Symes Jr., Mrs. H. B. Odham Jr., Mrs. Crapps, Mrs. Roy Green, Mrs. Higgins, Mrs. Edward Higgins Jr., Mrs. Perkins, Mrs. Charles Lee, Mrs. Stanley Donohoo and the hostess.

Meeting Is Held By Presbyterians

The final summer meeting of the members of the Presbyterian Church was held last night in the new Educational Building and was attended by almost 70 guests. A covered dish supper was provided by wives of the members of the church but the men paid for the privilege of sitting at the head of the table which will be used to help defray the cost of the Saturday Supper, a home group meeting by various religious groups and individuals for recreation at the Grand Shell during the Christmas season.

Those present enjoyed musical selections by Frederick Greene, Chaplain, assistant at the Naval Air Station, who demonstrated his ability as a concert pianist in a group of three numbers. Eugene Arnold, according to report, also of the Naval Air Station, was very well received in his selection.

The program for the occasion was directed by leaders, Prano Jones and company, with assistance from the church by Leasing, T. A. Co. Company, Charles Morrison and a group of the church members.

Ruby Mathews Weds Marshall Langston

Mrs. Ruby Mathews and Marshall Langston were united in marriage in a ceremony performed at 2:00 o'clock on Sunday at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Levin Edgar Stokes, 1220 Magnolia Avenue. The wedding vows were exchanged before an improvised altar decorated with white cloth, red roses, ferns and palms. The double ring service was performed by Dr. W. P. Brooks Jr. of the First Baptist Church in the presence of members of the families and close friends of the couple.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, and wore a ballerina length gown of white eyelet embroidered organza over champagne tulle. The dress was fastened with a sweetheart neckline, short puffed sleeves and self covered buttons fastened the bodice from the neckline to waist. She also wore a white hat studded with tiny pearls and at her shoulder was a corsage of sweet heart roses. She carried a white Prayer Book.

Miss Grace Morgan of Bayannah, Ga., cousin of the bride, served as maid of honor, and was crowned in soft blue shadow. She wore a corsage of white carnations. Thomas Slater of Bayannah performed the duties of best man.

Mrs. Stokes, the bride's mother, chose a dress of navy blue fabric with a corsage of white roses.

Immediately following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Howard entertained with a reception at their home on Scott Avenue. The bride's table was overlaid with a lace cloth and centered with a four tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom. White flowers were used with greenery in decorating the rooms of the Howard home.

Punch was served by Mrs. F. Z. Roberts and Mrs. W. A. Stokes of Orlando, with the wedding cake being served by Mrs. T. A. Slater. Presiding over the bride's table was Mrs. Ben Crawford of Bayannah, sister in law of the bride. Other guests assisting were Mrs. John Morgan of Savannah and Mr. Gilbert Williams of Pensacola.

Mr. and Mrs. Langston left late in the afternoon for a wedding trip through Florida, Georgia and parts of Alabama. For traveling Mr. Langston wore a black and white summer suit with white accessories. After July 15 they will make their home at 204 West First Street.

Guests from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Swearingen, Mrs. Grace Morgan, Miss Shirley Morgan, Thomas Slater and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Sturtevant of Bayannah; Mr. and Mrs. B. N. Stokes, Miss Betty Stokes of Leeburg; Mr. and Mrs. L. Z. Roberts, Mr.

and Mrs. W. A. Stokes, Miss Barbara Robert, Mr. and Mrs. Hopkins, all of Orlando, and Mrs. G. A. Williams of Pensacola.

Business driver Harry Miller scored five victories in one night recently at Leeburg Raceway. He finished 10th in the 1000 dollar to accomplish that feat this year.

Autry offered an interesting geographical sidelight. He said the Western has always been popular in the South and Southwest. But the most rabid horse opera fans are in Western Pennsylvania and Upstate New York.

Blues Crush Leesburg, 11-4, For Second Straight Win

Seminole Battle For Sixth Place In Leesburg Tonight; Byrd Will Pitch

By KENT CHETLAIN
Signs of a revival of the Seminole Blues victory machine are beginning to be discernible now. Last night the Seminoles won their second game in a row and pulled within one-half game of sixth place Leesburg. Sanford literally flattened the Packers, 11-4, before 487 paid fans at the Memorial Stadium.

George Rivers, who had a shut-out going for the first four frames, won his eighth game of the year as against seven defeats. The little Cuban yielded eight hits, one combined with a pair of passes and Buck Coe hit his second home run here scored all Joe Parise the four Packer runs in the fifth inning.

"Jolting Joe" Parise, who hit six homers the first month of the season and who has hit one every month since that time, slammed out a tremendous drive that hit the electric wire to the scoreboard outside of the park for his ninth circuit clout of the year with no one on in the sixth. The round-tripper placed Parise in a two-way tie with Dusty Rhodes for the second high spot on the club and also earned the Sanford first sacker a free steak dinner at Herman's Cafe.

Tonight the Blues will wage their battle for the top of the season and who has hit one every month since that time, slammed out a tremendous drive that hit the electric wire to the scoreboard outside of the park for his ninth circuit clout of the year with no one on in the sixth. The round-tripper placed Parise in a two-way tie with Dusty Rhodes for the second high spot on the club and also earned the Sanford first sacker a free steak dinner at Herman's Cafe.

The Seminoles started fast off Bob Keith and Leeves as Paul Eskew singled and stole second after George Kenis fanned to open the frame. Dusty Rhodes was passed and Parise lined a single to right to counter Eskew from third. Rhodes scored on Groat's infield grounder to Brady. Aleno then walked and when he attempted to steal Fundora fumbled the catcher's throw permitting Parise to cross the plate with Aleno making second safely.

In the big fourth inning the Seminoles scored six times on five hits and an error plus a couple of walks. Dusty Rhodes accounted for two of the hits with a single scoring Eskew who had doubled in Santora and Kenis. After Parise walked, Groat singled home Rhodes.

Rhodes' two RBIs ran his total for the last two nights to seven. Since his return to the Seminole line up a week ago, Rhodes has blasted out 14 hits in the last 84 times at bat for a blistering .412 average and has driven in 15 runs in those eight games on two homers.

Jay M. Walter Places Paul Eskew In Southern Outfield

Kassabian, Roberts And Cook Make Up Sanford Rooter's Northern Outfield

Jay M. Walter, Seminole Blues' bookkeeper and loyal booster of the club, selected hustling Paul Eskew of Sanford as his right-fielder on the Southern team. Walter, a member of the "unofficial bleacher club" at Memorial Stadium, became the first local fan not to nick injured John Imbra of the Blues.

Walter selected in Imbra's place the Leesburg keystone sacker, Chico Fundora, Murray Byrd and Chuck Aleno and Cook were the only other Sanford choices for the Southern team, besides the friendly bookkeeper's selection.

For the Northern team, Walter displayed his individuality by placing Ray Sondermeyer at first base, instead of shortstop, where the local player has received all of his votes so far. Red Roberts was placed in the outfield with an entirely original outer garden by Walter.

Ed Cook, Daytona Beach, and Patka's Mike Kassabian were Jay's other two Alpha picks for the Northern outfield. The two flycatchers made their debut in the All-Star balloting with Walter's selections.

Ed Levy was listed as both the most valuable player and popular star by Walter. Levy also received the nod for first base on the Southern club. For Managers, Walter chose Pep Rambert for the South and Bill Steinko for the North.

Walter likes the long ball hitting Harmon Young at third base of the North over the popular choice of Jack Cade.

Albert O. Von Herbulis, candy maker and rabid Seminole Blue fan, listed Jorge Rivero as one of his three pitchers on the Southern team. Von Herbulis' choice of Rivero was the first vote for the Little Sanford hurler in the All-Star balloting.

However, another fan wrote in Rivero's name yesterday to give the flinger two votes.

Displaying further originality, Walter voted for "Skeeter" Baller, Daytona shortstop, and Dick Renner the Daytona second baseman, Orlando's short fielder, Danny Doy, as Walter's choice for the South's shortstop.

Paul Eskew stop. Voting thus far has hit the 45 mark as balloting dropping to only three votes cast yesterday. The contest will last about three more weeks and all Sanford votes will be combined with votes from other league cities to make up the final selections for the All-Star classic that will be played in Memorial Stadium on the night of July 25.

In our conversation Monday with Charles Marian, manager of the Mayfair Inn, we asked about the rumor of Carl Hubbell's arrival in Sanford. It seems that the officials of the local club had a meeting with Marian last Friday to try and induce him to get the New York Giants, who own the hotel, to give the Seminole Blues some financial support.

During the course of the discussion Marian casually mentioned that Hubbell, a New York City farm system official, was supposed to be in Sanford to visit him Monday.

Immediately following the visit, it was interpreted by some that the Sanford club was interested in helping the local club in preparation for the possible return of the Giants here next spring.

Actually Marian told the group he didn't think the Giants were interested or could help the Blues at this time. Marian didn't block any suggested attempt that the Sanford baseball brass might meet and discuss the local ball situation with Hubbell if he came.

In the four years in Sanford the Giants lost about $100,000, Marian said, and that figure speaks for itself. Currently the Giants have assumed a mammoth task in taking over the bankrupt farm system club of the Class B Tri-State League and they should be anxious to keep them busy spending money without getting involved in Sanford.

As for the Giants returning here next year and assuming control of the local club, your guess is as good as ours. They have certainly been very cooperative in giving the Blues a bus, uniforms and concession equipment. The Giant-owned Mayfair has sub-leased the Seminole Country Club with intentions of improving it.

This seems to indicate that they are definitely interested in Sanford, but whether it means they are laying the groundwork for the return of their massive farm system next year is still another matter. However, the Sanford quarters are still occupied by the United States Navy.

According to a letter from Peter Schaal, the Herald is the first paper to get the All-Star balloting going underway. He paid high tribute to the fans of Sanford for their interest in our national pastime.

Mike Kassabian Looking over the voting for the first week we find that some pretty fair players have been overlooked in the presence of so many talented players in the North. Take for example catcher Don Poston of Palatka who is hitting .301. The limited service receiver is a steady performer who has been above the 300 circle all year and is a good catcher to boot, but has been left behind the shuffle for Ray Dunne, Deland's popular .302 hitting backup, and .300 slugging veteran Bill Robertson of Jax Beach.

"Mighty Mc" Fleischer Paces Legion To 3-0 Win Over Oviedo

By SAM JACOBSON
Mc Fleischer yesterday hurled a neat 1-hitter to lead the local American Legion Junior Baseball team to a 3 to 0 win over a game Oviedo squad. Wait Duda, the semi-pro flash, who pitched for Oviedo also turned in a creditable game. Duda yielded nine hits, but as the score shows, tightened up considerably with men on base.

Fleischer, however, was the big gun yesterday. In notching his third win of the season against only one loss, he struck out eleven batters to raise his total for four games (28 innings) to 42—an enviable record in any league. He was in serious trouble only once; in the fifth he retired the three runners on base, but the other was retired without damage.

The game shaped up early as a pitcher's duel. Although Sanford on two occasions had men on base, neither team could get into the bottom half of the fourth inning of the abbreviated seven-inning tilt.

In the fourth Sanford scored what proved to be the winning run. The Giants opened the frame with a single. He then pliffed second and came home on Larry Bates' ground ball which went through Wharton, the Oviedo shortstop.

The contest then continued scoreless until the bottom of the fifth inning, when Metts again opened with a single, and stole second. The next two batters were retired, but successive singles by Jimmy Wade, Fleischer, and Dell Sheffield combined with an error by the Oviedo center-fielder brought home Metts and Wade with two final runs. Diamond Chatter, Legion Coach, Bill Fleming, is currently out of town on a well-earned vacation. J. D. Cordell, Legion President and a director of the Seminole Blues

"stacked" evidence to be used against him and of contributing to what he called hysteria whipped up by the Nationalist China lobby. A similarly vigorous denial of any Red connections or leanings was made by Lattimore in 1950 when a Senate Foreign Relations Committee investigated charges by Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis.) of Communist infiltration of the State Department. McCarthy accused Lattimore of being a top Soviet agent and the chief architect of U. S. policy in the Far East. Lattimore retorted "Moonshine." The Democratic majority of the Foreign Relations unit, headed by former Sen. Tydings (D-Md.), described McCarthy's charges as "a fraud and a hoax." The Wisconsin senator said the Tydings subcommittee had conducted "a whitewash."

In the pre-convention maneuverings which began Monday, the Taft forces have clearly established their control of the convention machinery. Taft led Eisenhower with 470 delegates to 410 as today's contest started. That was based on the Associated Press listing of delegates pledged, instructed or

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Defense Department today identified 76 battle casualties in Korea in a new list (No. 506) which reported eight killed, 66 wounded and two missing. The list was compiled from reports of military units and is the most complete yet available. It includes the names of the fallen and the wounded, and the names of the missing. The list also includes the names of the missing and the wounded, and the names of the missing and the wounded.

Massacre

The Polish officers had their hands tied in a distinctive manner behind their backs and most of them were shot in the head. O'Konski said this technique has been used against Americans in Korea. O'Konski said the committee fixed the time of the Katyn massacre at the spring of 1940. For months after that, he said, Moscow officials were telling Polish authorities the prisoners all had been released to join a Polish army then being raised against the Germans. O'Konski said the report declares this evasiveness is being practiced at Panmunjom, perhaps for the same reason, whenever Allied negotiators attempt to locate 10s of thousands of missing Allied prisoners. The report, he said, mentions that Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway reported to the United States recently 6,000 Americans might have been strictly victims and more than 60,000 South Korean soldiers are still missing.

Truman

made a great hullabaloo against the two dams he dedicated. Saying the dams were attacked as a "method towards socialization of the electric industry," Mr. Truman declared:
"The American Medical Association uses the same slogan in its fight against better health and hospital services for the common man."
"The real estate lobby uses the same slogan in its fight against housing programs."
"In other words, every time we try to do something for the people, some special interest pops up and yells 'socialism.'"
Mr. Truman's train rolled in whistle-stop fashion through Central Arkansas toward the border of his native Missouri to dedicate the Bull Shoals and Norfolk Dams. From the platform of his special train at Newport, Ark., Tuesday night, he told several hundred persons: "This is the No. 1 whistle stop of 1952—there will be a lot more of them."
He added:
"But they will be different from 1948, since I will be working for somebody else."
The President flew into Little Rock Tuesday night in an Air Force Constellation for one of his rare appearances in the South. Arkansas was not one of those states that fell into the States Rights column in 1948.

Bloomington, Ind. Mayor Named As Sanford Manager

Formal Confirmation Of Thomas Lemon's Application Expected By Commission

Thomas Lemon, former mayor and city manager of Bloomington, Ind., has been tentatively selected as city manager of Sanford, the Herald was informed today. Confirmation of his appointment is expected at the next meeting of the City Commission which has been scheduled for July 14.

Mr. Lemon who has held the combination post of mayor and city manager of Bloomington for the past four years, was until recently a vice president and visited Sanford last Sunday and Monday at which time he was formally interviewed by all city commissioners.

Pointing out that the Commission has been deliberating continuously on the procurement of a trained and aggressive city manager for the next six months, Mayor W. A. Stempert said that the one paramount consideration that we have held all along is that the man selected as city manager must be approved by all five commissioners without reservation.

He added that more than 60 applications have been received and that 10 or 12 have been tentatively interviewed. Last Sunday three applicants, besides Mr. Lemon, visited Sanford and interviewed four members of the Commission at the Valdez Hotel. Mr. Carraway was able to see Mr. Lemon until Monday.

"The job has been offered to a man who all city commissioners feel is a natural for the job," Mayor Stempert said.

The other three applicants interviewed were Richard Price of Wayne, Pa., and Paul White of Lawrence, Kan.

Commissioner Carraway said that Mr. Lemon "will make us a mighty fine man." "It was most impressive with his experience and background," he said. "It did not take him very long to convince me that he is the best man available for the job."

Commissioner Ivey also said that Mr. Lemon was his choice as city manager. He added that he would accept the post if it were offered to him.

Commissioner John Kader indicated that he was not sure that Mr. Lemon would accept the job as city manager but admitted that a man has been tentatively approved for the post. He also said that Mr. Lemon and Mr. White were the two most likely prospects and he added that "all of the city commissioners are agreed that the man selected would be the right man for city manager of Sanford as he is young and aggressive and is a family man with two sons."

Commissioner Chase was non-committal about the appointment, but admitted that he had heard of the Bloomington, Ind. man and that the final decision would be made at the next meeting of the Commission.

Ingley Resigns

James L. Ingley, for many years head of the Sanford Atlantic National Bank, has resigned to accept a position as vice president of the Jacksonville Atlantic National Bank.

Ingley Resigns As Bank Head Here For Jax Position

Local Banker Is Made Vice President Of Jacksonville Bank

James L. Ingley, who has served as head of the Sanford Atlantic National Bank since 1933, today resigned as president of that institution and announced that he will move to Jacksonville in mid-August to accept a position as vice president of the Jacksonville Atlantic National Bank with which the Sanford bank is affiliated.

Mr. Ingley said that this decision has been made reluctantly and that he regrets the necessity of leaving Sanford, but that the opportunities afforded for greater service by his new position are such that they could not be ignored. His resignation was accepted by the board of directors at their last meeting.

In announcing his decision, Mr. Ingley expressed his deep appreciation for the valuable friendship he has made in Sanford and commended the directors, officers and personnel of the bank for their loyalty and co-operation throughout his years of association with them. He attributed the growth of the bank and its excellent financial condition to the excellent spirit which has prevailed.

Mr. Ingley was born in Pittsburgh, Pa., Jan. 7, 1897, of English stock. His parents, Albert and Mary Ingley, had moved to Pittsburgh from Birmingham, England, shortly before Mr. Ingley was born. They raised a large family, four brothers and three sisters, some of whom were born in England and some in this country.

One of Mr. Ingley's brothers, the Rev. Fred Ingley, D.D.S., T.D., was a bishop of the Episcopal diocese of Colorado until his death last year. Bishop Ingley preached in the Holy Cross Episcopal Church of Sanford during the spring of 1942.

Mr. Ingley served in the U. S. Navy during the first World War after which he was married to Miss Agnes Watts and moved to Jacksonville where he became connected with the Atlantic National Bank.

He was much interested in baseball, playing semi-pro independent baseball for 15 years and remaining an ardent fan ever since. He has also been actively interested in other sports, especially golf and tennis.

Mr. Ingley was a member of the Junior and Senior Chambers of Commerce in Jacksonville and acted as viceroy of St. Mark's Episcopal Church. The Ingleys' two children, Marguerite and Jimmy, were born in Jacksonville.

On Dec. 8, 1933 Mr. Ingley moved to Sanford and assumed his duties as executive vice president of the Sanford Atlantic National Bank under the presidency of the late Peter J. Feltner. He remained in this position until Jan. 12, 1944 when he was elected president of the bank.

Jet Bomber At MacDill Falls Killing Crew

Wreckage Is Strewn Over Quarter Mile Area Near Bradenton At 8:45 Today

BRADENTON (AP)—A screaming, flaming jet bomber crashed 25 miles southeast of here today killing all aboard.

Sheriff Roy Baden reported a boy could pick up the biggest piece of wreckage strewn over a quarter mile area and wreckage from one of the airmen was the largest portion of a badly recovered.

Baden said officials at MacDill Air Force Base in Tampa said the plane was hoisted there. The ship had taken off about 30 minutes before it crashed.

The crash occurred at 8:45 a. m. 6 1/2 miles from Myakka City. Baden said Bill Durance, a Bradenton policeman, gave this version of the accident:

He and George Gill, license examiner for the Highway Patrol, were fishing when they heard a screaming noise.

"They saw the plane in flames, it took a dive and crashed. The first there was a big puff of smoke. The ship struck a lode in the ground with such force it opened an underground spring.

When Durance and Gill reached the scene the hole already had filled with water and some fluid on the surface was burning.

Geoffrey, who was in a tree picking oranges two miles from the crash, said it seemed like an earthquake, and almost shook him from the tree.

The B-47 is a speed medium bomber flown by a 3-man crew: pilot, navigator and bombardier. It is one of the fastest planes the Air Force has.

Red Truce Chiefs Offer New Scheme

MUNSAN, Korea (AP)—Communist negotiators today offered a new plan for breaking the Korean truce talks deadlock, but an Allied spokesman said the proposal contains a "lot of gimmicks and potential gimmicks."

Maj. Gen. William K. Harrison Jr. said the Red plan "may be an important one and it may not."

The Reds indicated they would ease their demand for return of all military prisoners in United Nations stockades, provided the 20,000 Chinese captives are returned. They asked for secret sessions to discuss the proposal.

Harrison, the senior Allied negotiator, immediately called for adjournment until Friday to study it. He did not reply to the Communist demand for secret sessions.

Truman Gives UN Credit For Blocking Reds

President Criticizes 'Go It Alone' Americans In Report Delivered To Congress

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Truman today gave the United Nations credit for blocking the Red truce plan, but said "go it alone" advocates would in World War III.

The Kremlin policy of conquest in the Pacific, he said, "is not only a threat to the peace of the world, but a threat to the peace of the world."

"We can win peace, but we can't win it alone," the President said. "And above all, we cannot win it by force alone. We can win the peace only by continuing to work for international justice and equality through the United Nations."

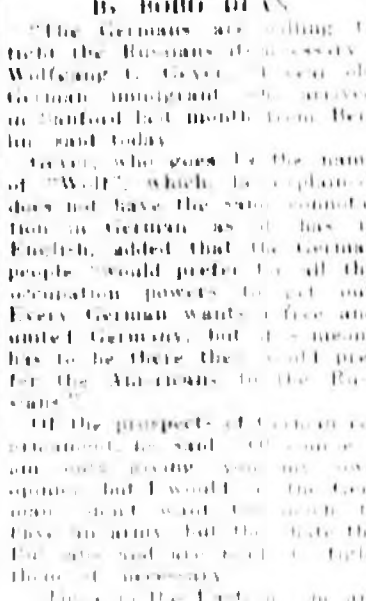

Submitting an annual report which detailed United States relations with the international community, Mr. Truman said in an accompanying letter that although these relations have been carried on mostly on a non-partisan basis, there have been partisan attacks.

Some of these attacks are made in a spirit of impudence that can only lead to the breakdown of world peace. Mr. Truman said.

Mr. Truman said that the Red plan to go it alone is a threat to the world peace. He said that the Red plan to go it alone is a threat to the world peace. He said that the Red plan to go it alone is a threat to the world peace.
