Orange Crop For Juice Urged

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — Sen. B. C. Pearce, Earl Falgout, has been appointed to head the Legislative Council's committee on finance and taxation for the coming two years.

Pearce, who was chairman of the Senate Finance and Taxation Committee during the past legislative session, was appointed to the council post by Chairman Sen. James E. Nick Connor, Brooksville.

Senator Heads Study Panel

LAKELAND (UPI) — Florida Citrus Mutual executive vice president Robert W. Rutledge warned that at least half of the state's orange crop this year must be used for concentrated juice in order to get the best possible prices out of the fruit crop.

Rutledge said that 38,115,000 boxes out of the predicted 60 million-box crop should end up in concentrate.

"Based on an orange crop of 60 million boxes," he said, "we believe oranges can be marketed most orderly and profitably if the industry channels the crop into the uses listed" on a chart prepared by Mutual.

Boat School Set For Law Officers

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — The Florida Boating Council will hold a special three-day school this week beginning Wednesday to teach law officers how to enforce Florida's boating safety laws.

The school will be held at the Florida State Patrol Recruit Training Center here.

Personnel from the State Conservation Patrol, the Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission, and water patrol officers from sheriff's departments and municipal police departments are expected to attend.

Shoes will last longer in hot weather if the inside of the shoe is dried out occasionally with the blower of a vacuum cleaner.

Ben Bella Asks More Power To Smash Rebels

ALGIERS (UPI) — President Ahmed Ben Bella, his troops already occupying the headquarters city of insurgent Berber tribesmen was expected to be given emergency powers today for further action against the rebellion.

Ben Bella, who already has wide powers as president, premier, and head of the dominant political party, asked the National Assembly for more and was not expected to be denied.

Insurgent leaders Col. Mohamed Ou El Hadj and former Vice Premier Hocine Ait Ahmed withdrew to Michelet, another town their forces control near Tizi-Ouzou in the mountains east of Algiers.

They sought to rally their supporters to continue the fight against Ben Bella's one-man rule.

6.59 Inches Of Rain At Stuart

STUART, Fla. (UPI) — A record 6.59 inches of rain fell here during a six-hour period that started late last night, the weather bureau said.

TEGUCIGALPA, Honduras (UPI) — The armed forces today overthrew President Ramon Villeda Morales in a pre-dawn coup followed by bitter fighting.

Heavy armed regulars swarmed through the city, surrounded the presidential palace and seized public utilities.

The coup came off only 10 days before scheduled general elections for a new president. Villeda Morales would have completed his six-year term a week from next Sunday.

At 10:30 a.m., seven hours after the coup, the situation was still fluid. Civil guard units were reported as backed into the central jail building and resisting fiercely.

Rumors circulated that a military junta had been formed with armed forces Chief Col. Osvaldo Lopez Arellano at the head. This could not be confirmed immediately.

MIAMI (UPI) — Radio Honduras heard here today said the armed forces overthrew President Ramon Villeda Morales and took power today "in view of the restlessness and anarchy reigning in the country."

Altamonte Approves Planning Committee

A committee to plan a Recreation Center for Altamonte Springs was approved at Wednesday night's meeting of the Town Council. The plan was presented by Charles Pasternack who recently met with a citizens group to determine interest in the proposed building.

Serving on the planning committee with Pasternack will be Bob Newell, Lorne Jaeh and Mrs. Jean Pasternack. Mayor Lawrence Swofford will serve as council representative until Councilman Frank Gerhardt resumes activity after suffering a heart attack several weeks ago.

Pasternack reported that interest in the Center runs high and that the residents are "ready to go to work." It was pointed out that there are some 130 girls in the community interested in Girl Scouting and that an adequate meeting hall is much in demand. In addition, teenagers of the area could make much use of the facility.

The new committee will begin work immediately with expectations that planning reports will be ready by the Oct. 16 council meeting.

Killer Storm Packs Winds Of 140 MPH

SAN JUAN, P. R. (UPI) — Death-dealing Hurricane Flora will whip up a escape of Haiti with 140 mile an hour winds and flooding tides and rain about midnight, the Weather Bureau warned today.

Residents of the island republic were in grave peril from the intense storm which started its course through the Caribbean by wrecking the island of Tobago and killing at least 25 persons.

The San Juan bureau located the storm's center at 11 a.m. EST about 125 miles south of Port au Prince, capital of Haiti, near latitude 16.8 north and longitude 72.4 west. It was moving toward the northwest at about 10 m.p.h., a course and speed it was expected to maintain until it hits the Haitian peninsula.

Lowest pressure in the hurricane's center had dropped to a barometer reading of 27.00 inches.

Emergency evacuation warnings were issued for low-lying areas in southern Haiti and the southern coast of the Dominican Republic, west of Santo Domingo.

Persons in those areas were warned to seek higher ground "before rising waters from the storm tides cut off escape."

"This is an emergency warning, as storm tides will flood coastal lands to heights of eight to 10 feet above normal levels," the Weather Bureau said.

New Dominican Revolt Talked

SANTO DOMINGO (UPI) — Armed leftist bands were reported ready today to rise against the Dominican Republic's civilian junta government as soon as their leaders give the word.

"The authorities have not arrested a single member of our organization," a leftist spokesman told UPI at a secret meeting on the outskirts of Santo Domingo.

"We have arms. We did not go into battle on the first day of the coup (that ousted ex-President Juan Bosch a week ago Wednesday) because we wanted to avoid the useless loss of men and weapons."

The spokesman said the Communists had wanted to strike at once at the generals who ousted Bosch and installed a three-man junta in his place, but the left-wing Junta 14 party persuaded the Junta to wait and see what the United States would do about recognizing the junta.

House Votes Self New Round Of Junkets

By Frank Elzezer

WASHINGTON (UPI) — House members, alternately bowing and cheering, authorized for themselves a new round of junkets, investigations and official expenses Wednesday at a total cost of about $1.2 million.

when Gross' request for a roll call vote on one of the measures failed.

Among the items approved was an added $600 "stationery allowance" for each of the 43 members. This raised to a record $2,400 a year the amount a member may spend in the House stationery store, which sells at wholesale prices or below. If he does not use the full allowance, the congressman may draw the rest in cash.

Some members saw the action as evidence Congress will still be in session at Christmas. They noted that the stationery store carries a nice line of handy seasonal items such as Christmas cards, leather goods and pen sets.

Busy Girl Is Lib Methvin, With Radios, Telephones

By Jane Casselberry
 One of the busiest girls in town is Miss Lib Methvin, whose job would make her the envy of most women... she talks on the 'phone all day and orders men around.

MISS LIB METHVIN

She presides over a conglomeration of five telephones, four radios, an intercom and an assortment of switches in the dispatcher's office at the sheriff's headquarters at the county jail six days a week from 8 a. m.-4 p. m.

Her office is the nerve center of county law enforcement and Lib uses her hands and her feet to operate the equipment used in communicating with the various members of the sheriff's department and Florida Highway dispatcher in Ocala and Orlando.

All telephone calls and radio messages pass through her office and, at times, things get so hectic that she refers to her little domain as the "ulcer department."

All transcriptions must be typed up in her log for future reference and, in addition to her other tasks, she operates by remote control the doors to the jail section.

Lake Monroe Jottings

Mrs. H. L. Johnson
 Have you started airing out those winter clothes? I haven't but after that cool night Tuesday (to me) guess I had better after that cool sorry to hear about a baby cut our way being bitten by a rat Monday night. Her parents were deeply upset by it but every precaution has been taken for her. They have to get the rat now so it can be determined if it had rabies. * * * That was a wonderful ball game in Orlando Friday evening. Of course we won. Monorette Lloyd Freeman certainly knows how to kick that ball. Saw quite a few Monroe residents over there. The Richard Boyds, Myers family, Nichols family and J. C. Sapp among a few of them. And how the Beta (High School) did perform. They were simply wonderful. Lynn Giles and daughter, Sylvia, and I accompanied the band there. The next out of town trip will be to Daytona. * * * Lost, LOST. Lost. A bracelet with a very lot of sentiment behind it. Helen (Mrs. J. B.) Stapler has lost her gold charm bracelet on the Monroe School grounds. The bracelet was given to her by her children, Linda and Clark, as a wedding anniversary gift. There was one little charm on it and it says "Happy Anniversary" on it. She hopes it will be found or better, still, maybe someone has already found it and does not know to whom it belongs. You can contact her at the Monroe School during the day where she is the secretary or at night at her home. * * * Doc and Frances Warren returned home Tuesday from Miami where they spent several days attending a Beauty Convention. Southside PTO Hails Principal Southside School was named the "finest in the county" Tuesday night as Frank Mebane presided over the first meeting of the year for Southside PTO.

A hearty round of applause greeted the PTO president's remarks, as he presented the principal, who, in turn, introduced the school faculty for this year.

Lake Mary Club Benefits School Library Village Groups

Children of the Lake Mary Elementary School this term are enjoying the use of a much improved library due, in a large part, to the work of the Lake Mary Women's Club.

A drive, conducted by the club from Sept. 15, 1962 through Sept. 1 of this year to benefit the library, resulted in a total of 217 books and $286.36 being turned over to the school.

The funds were raised through sponsoring a chicken supper, a theater party and from individual donations which included $25 from Mrs. Frank Evans, president of the club and $50 from the club itself.

In addition to the 217 books collected in the drive, a donation of 45 Little Golden

The opening meeting will be a combined business and social one and all new residents of the town are invited to attend to become better acquainted with their neighbors who are members of the club and to make new friends.

The North Orlando Our Lady's Circle of the Church of the Nativity will meet at 8 p.m. today at the home of Mrs. JoAnn Sills, 11 N. Cortez Ave.

Constant nagging helps a child develop a "deaf" ear.

Books, suitable for first graders, was made and two new books, "The Life of Robert E. Lee" and "Lincoln" were donated by Dr. Frank Leone. Total books donated to the library, excluding the Little Golden Books, number 395. Approximately 300 more are needed to reach accreditation standards which would have been accomplished this year except for the large influx of new students at the school.

Principal Floyd Richards, who advises that accreditation standards definitely will be met this year, adds that the club has been a tremendous help in coping with this problem and that, altogether, books and funds, a total of some 500 books have been added to the library by this group.

New books bought include some of the "Easy to Read" series for first and second graders, nature studies and books dealing with national holidays and life in a typical small town. One new series takes the children into for-sign countries and capitols for study of industry, people, their customs and dress.

Mrs. Hazel Flynn, librarian, commended the Women's Club for its interest in our library. It has been a pleasure to come in the school this year and see the shelves being filled. I cannot say often enough how much help these women have been.

Mrs. Hugh Tillis, education chairman for the club, commenting on the project, said "Though we have eniel our drive, we plan to be of any help we can to the school library and Mrs. Flynn."

Mrs. Olin Boutwell, whose untiring efforts as chairman of the book drive contributed largely to its success, expressed her appreciation to all parents who sent books and contributed funds to help in the project.

Village Groups Meet To Plan Annual Event

The executive board of the North Orlando Civic Association met Monday night in the Civic Building with board members of other village organizations to discuss forming a community-wide group to plan and sponsor a Christmas Party for the youngsters with games, refreshments and a visit from Santa Claus.

Other organizations represented were the North Orlando Garden Club, Our Lady's Catholic Circle and the Volunteer Fire Department. Reports will be made by those attending to the individual groups.

Another meeting will be held on Monday, Oct. 14, in the Civic Building to definitely decide if the plans made Monday night meet with approval of all organizations concerned. If all agree, three members from each participating club will be appointed to serve as a planning committee for the event.

Fire Chief Bill Hahn announced that the volunteer firemen will collect toys again this year.

Voice Of 'The Peepul'

These are tough times for Joe Deans, the average citizen, as he tries to keep up with the news. Things are fouled up in so many places around the world—not to mention right here at home—that Joe can't remember what's going on where, much less figure out why it's going on or who's to blame. To make it even worse, Joe can't come close to pronouncing the names of most of the places or people involved. Nevertheless, he's giving it the old college try. And it might be interesting to talk with him and get his slant on current events.

Q. Joe, what do you think of the situation in Laos?

A. Laos? Hey, I heard a good one on that the other day. A guy says, "Boy, are things loused up in Laos!" Get it? Laos is pronounced so it sounds like . . .

Q. Yes, it's a real cutie. Now, how about Viet Nam?

A. Well, I'll tell you. You can say what you please, but that little sister-in-law of what's his name is a real doll, huh? Boy, when you put her and Jackie together, you got somethin' to look at. I mean . . .

Q. You said it, Joe. But tell me—what's your hunch on the bomb test ban treaty?

A. Say, that reminds me. Did you read about how that clown Krocshof beat the pants off our man—what's his name? Rush? Yeah. Well, did you see where Krocshof played badminton with this character and murdered him by not using a net? Bro—ther! If our guy will fall for a conny trick like that, what chance we got with 'em in anything—sports, bombs or anything? You follow me? What I mean . . .

Q. I follow you, Joe. Now, one last question. What is your considered judgment on the President's tax cut proposal?

A. He's cookin' on the front burner, Mac. Let's cut 'em till it hurts. But I see where some guy in the Senate says it won't amount to nothin' more than savin' cigarette money. And you know somethin'? This'll kill you. I quit smokin' just two weeks ago! How 'bout that, huh? Yeah, how about that?

From Ivory Towers

In a world increasingly affected by what many call the "scientific revolution," thoughtful men wonder how big a role scientists and engineers might play in the high-level decisions of government.

Dr. Glenn Seaborg, chairman of the U. S. Atomic Energy Commission, is one who thinks their role ought well to be a key one.

On occasion, scientists who have ventured into the political realm have been badly burned. Often, however, this reflected the fact that they could not or would not master its basically unscientific elements.

Obviously scientists who insist on thinking purely as scientists at all times will not make the grade as decision-makers. To be of use in the larger world of policy, they must understand it.

This requires that they develop a curious kind of double mastery that will enable them to interlace political and scientific questions.

In the present world those questions are in fact linked. Seaborg does not believe we should be wholly dependent on politicians who acquire some vital scientific knowledge—in such fields, for example, as nuclear physics.

He finds good reason to turn the process around and broaden the activities of the scientist.

"Science and technology are no longer tools to be picked up when needed and then put aside," said Seaborg in a New York speech. "They are part of the basic structure of our economy and our governmental processes. Scientific problems daily require the careful attention of the highest levels of both the executive and the legislative branches of government."

Except for those relative few who jump into politics at the outset, most politicians in this country have traditionally come from the ranks of lawyers and businessmen. Seaborg thinks it high time the scientist-engineer took a big place beside these.

In his view they have a "major contribution to make that only scientists can make." But he suggests reasonable caution in a world that could hear too much from science:

"I do not propose that scientists and engineers become a dominating force in government; nor do I think it is at all likely that they will."

"I do propose that they assume positions of responsibility comparable to the importance of scientific and technological undertakings of government, and consistent with the influence of science on government and society."

Within these sensible bounds, the scientist is clearly challenged to take up, increasingly, this wider political role. The citizen is challenged to accept him when and as he proves himself suitable for it.

Phil Newsom Says . . .

World Course Uncertain

Perhaps not since the weeks immediately following the end of World War II has world diplomacy hung as now in such a state of suspended animation.

The cold war is still with us and major issues remain but new elements have entered the picture to obscure the once sharp lines dividing the world into two camps.

The Communist world has discovered there is no such thing as equal dictators and the struggle for leadership has divided the Soviet Union and Red China.

Changes also have come to the Western world, once secure in its Atlantic Pact and aiming toward a united Europe spurred by the impetus of a new prosperity under the European Common Market.

No neither the Communist world nor Western Europe are quite sure where they are going, and for the United States the direction each finally will take is a matter of vital concern.

Within the broad framework, other elements also are bringing about changes.

In Europe there has been the gradual decline of the conservative parties which for years have ruled the destinies of the major powers and a stronger voice for socialism in Britain, West Germany and Italy.

President Charles de Gaulle of France stands almost alone as a towering remnant of the past.

And it is the collision between this towering remnant of the past and what other Western leaders regard as the course of the future which today leads to a reassessment of Western policy, military, economic and political.

Still another force at work is the growing industrial might of nations now fully recovered from the damages of war.

As industries of the United States, Britain, France and West Germany reach or surpass the ability to over-produce, they look longingly at markets within the Soviet Union. Similarly, Japan looks upon Red China.

And, agriculturally, as both Canada and Australia profit from wheat sales to the Soviet Union and Red China, the United States is led to review its own policies.

The challenges which produced the Sino-Soviet break and uncertainties in the Western world have had other side effects, which scarcely seemed possible as recently as a year ago.

The United States and Russia are aligned against Red China on the side of India.

And in the American hemisphere, Cuba although dependent upon the Soviet Union economically, politically sides with Red China in its attempts to export violent revolution.

Dr. Crane's Worry Clinic

CASE Q-44: Laura L., aged 70, has been happily married for 50 years.

"Dr. Crane," her daughter informed me, "my parents just celebrated their Golden Wedding last week.

"Then Father passed away in his sleep just last night. He is to be buried day after tomorrow.

"It was a terrible shock to Mother. For they had always been so happy and never was separated a single day during their entire marriage.

"So we children wonder what to do to lessen the shock for Mother.

"Should we take her home with us and let her visit around among us four children, each of whom might take her 2 months apiece out of the year.

"But she insists on staying on in their little cottage. She is still active and able to get around by herself.

"But wouldn't the shock be too great for her to face those empty walls all alone? Dr. Crane, can't you help us?"

Elderly people are not shocked by death as much as are the younger generations.

For they have seen so many friends, neighbors and relatives graduate via death to the classroom up ahead, that they have grown meditative.

In fact, maybe 90 per cent of their friends are gone from this earth, thus leaving only 10 per cent still here.

So they have developed an entirely different outlook regarding death.

They don't shed as many tears nor grow as hysterical as younger folks.

And it isn't because they are more stoical or less devoted to the departed loved ones.

No, it is due to a wider perspective that has developed. They have opened new windows in their souls which give them a panoramic view of eternal verities.

Younger folks tend to focus closer to themselves and thus overly magnify minor problems.

As a general rule, therefore, if your elderly remaining parent is still able to walk around and cook her own meals, she will be happier in her own little home.

That is doubly true if she lives in a small town where she is accustomed to attending a neighboring church and visiting with a few elder friends of her own age bracket.

So I urged Laura's daughter to let her mother return to her home and live there till she had readjusted.

Oh, for the first week or two, one of her children or teenage grandchildren might stay with her for company.

And even before the interment at the cemetery, let her join the children in selecting the casket and planning the funeral.

For all such mental decisions divert our attention and thus reduce our emotions.

Emotional stability is based on extroverted interests, friends, hobbies, church connections, etc.

Remember, the wind can seldom uproot a sturdy tree that has many roots in all directions, but a one-rooted tree becomes a windfall during a storm!

And don't strip all idealism from a funeral by emitting flowers; for this produces erosion of the soul!

Dick West Says Business Enters Music

WASHINGTON (UPI) — I was cheered by the announcement that one of the new works to be performed by the National Symphony Orchestra this fall was commissioned by a furniture company.

The piece is a concerto by Robert Evert, who was commissioned to write a symphonic composition commemorating a firm's 75th anniversary.

As Howard Mitchell, conductor of the orchestra, pointed out, the contribution of business firms to the library of symphonic music has up to this point been rather meager.

There have been compositions commemorating such things as Napoleon's retreat from Moscow and railroads over the Grand Canyon.

But as far as could be said, this is the first furniture company to have itself glorified by a concerto.

"This marks a new departure for a business firm, which we hope will start a trend," Mitchell commented.

I certainly subscribe to that sentiment, although I was a bit disappointed by Evert's choice of a title. He calls his composition "Anniversary Concerto 75."

I should think something like "The Bedroom Suite" would have been more appropriate.

It would be interesting to see how Evert would interpret symphonically the squeak of a chairfonier with a drawer that sticks.

Nevertheless, the commissioning of the concerto was an encouraging development and, being a forward looking chap, I have been doing some projecting of the trend that Mitchell mentioned.

I foresee a time when all major U. S. business firms will have their own resident composers.

A typical composer's career five years in a school of music and 15 years at a tractor company.

Staff composers in the construction industry will create such things as "Fugue For Flute, Harpsichord and Riveting Machine."

Composers in plumbing supply will give us "The Leaking Faucet Overture," featuring three trombones and a sump pump.

It all adds up to an exciting prospect, musically speaking. I'm just sorry that Beethoven couldn't have lived to see it.

Helen Fuller Says Nixon Available

WASHINGTON — President Kennedy's Western States "conservation" tour this week is a preview of things to come. Now that the nuclear test-ban treaty has been approved by the Senate, JFK can relax a bit from his pre-occupation with U. S.-Soviet relations and turn a part of his attention to things closer to home that will influence the voters next fall when he will be up for re-election.

Last week's trip was no doubt the first of many "non-political" visits to strategic sections of the country. As President, it is Kennedy's privilege to wander where he fancies, talking and listening to the American people. As a candidate with an eye on 1964, he was prudent in picking the West for the first in his series of "non-political" calls.

In 1960 the Kennedy-Johnson ticket lost all but 10 of the 86 electoral votes of the 13 Western states, including Hawaii. The assumption is that the Kennedy ticket will win fewer electoral votes in the 13 Southern states in 1964 than it did in 1960. The White House, therefore, is more than casually concerned with improving its dismal showing in the West next year to compensate.

All but one of the 10 Western states Kennedy visited last week will be electing a U. S. Senator next year along with a President. The incumbents are all Democrats and strong Kennedy supporters.

JFK's double job as leader of the Democratic Party is to win these Western states the Democrats lost last time and help recollect their Senators who are so important to his program.

So Kennedy went West—to talk conservation, a subject dear to Western hearts and vital to Western pocketbooks. Federal funds for irrigation, power development, reclamation and land management keep many a Western state budget in the black.

The President talked of what his Administration had done for the West in particular and how much more Westerners could expect to benefit if they would get behind other parts of the Kennedy program in which there appeared to be less self-interest for them immediately. On the side he talked politics, sized up the state situation for himself, took his own reading on Goldwater's stock in the heart of Goldwater territory.

What Kennedy heard from his own party leaders was not cause for rejoicing. If the Presidential election were today, they say, and Goldwater were the candidate, Kennedy would improve his 1960 showing in the West only in California. That is a big "only," since California now has 40 electoral votes, due to its increased population—eight more than in 1960.

Goldwater men were pleased with what JFK was hearing about them in the West last week. And they were celebrating the fact that by bringing New Hampshire Senator Norris Cotton on the Goldwater team, their candidate automatically became the favorite on the nation's first Presidential primary which will take place in New Hampshire in February. They are publicly hiding their disappointment at another development. But privately Goldwater enthusiasts frankly admit they are worried at Richard Nixon's recent move to resume the titular leadership of the GOP. He did so in a speech endorsing the test-ban treaty last week. Nixon announced that he would make other similar statements soon.

Indications are that he is available as the compromise alternative to Goldwater or Rockefeller or any of the little-known Republican governors frequently suggested as substitutes.

IS FARM BUREAU TIED TO A PARTY?

NO. WE'RE NOT. Farm Bureau is tied to the farmer! Farm Bureau spans the Nation. Our membership (1,700,000 in U. S.) is as strong in Democratic States as in Republican Ones.

Farm Bureau members meet as farmers, and, as such, decide on issues as they see them, not as puppets of any Party. This has always been Farm Bureau's philosophy in politics.

This is one reason Farm Bureau is the largest general farm organization in the world and truly the "Voice of Agriculture."

Panel Presents Discussion On Bible Reading In School

By Shirley Westworth
Some 150 parents and teachers were in attendance Tuesday night for the first meeting of the term for the Bear Lake Elementary PTA to hear a panel discussion on the controversial subject of the Supreme Court's ruling on Bible reading in the classroom.

Forming the panel were Dr. Charles Carter, director of Sunland Training Center in Orlando; Herbert Gillis, Orlando attorney and Principal George Dabbs standing in for Supt. R. T. Milwee as representative of Seminole County schools.

Dr. Carter, who was of the opinion that a minimum amount of basic religion should be received in the schools pointed out that laws are made for and by the people who also are responsible for making changes if and when they are necessary. Stating that he did not know the full legal aspects of the situation, he said that he did feel the Supreme Court's ruling needed clarification for the public.

Gillis, who stressed that the Supreme Court cannot be compared to lower court since its whole concept is based on neutrality, not hostility, flatly stated that "religion belongs in the home and the proper place of worship, not in the schools."

Dabbs, who reminded that there is less religion in the schools today than ever before, advised that the Florida laws, as they stand today, require Bible reading before the children each day without sectarian comment. This practice, he said, will be continued in his schools until he is requested to do otherwise.

The business meeting, with new president Richard Lashley presiding, was opened with prayer by Rev. W. M. Irwin, pastor of the Bear Lake Methodist Church.

Faculty members and PTA committee chairmen were introduced by Dabbs who also announced that Mrs. Beth Miller's second grade had won the attendance banner.

The group voted to hold a spaghetti dinner, a magazine subscription sale and show movies as projects for the year with proceeds to go towards stocking the school library.

The Saturday movies will begin on Oct. 12, at 2 p.m. with the first to be "Here Come the Nelsons."

A social hour and book sale preceded the meeting and program.

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Senate approved a resolution to allow another series of "great debates" during the 1964 presidential election.

The resolution, which was sent back to the House, would suspend the "equal time" provision of the federal broadcasting law to allow the debates similar to the Nixon-Kennedy discussions in 1960.

The resolution applies only to major party candidates for president and vice-president.

A Racey Story

NEW GLOUCESTER, Maine (UPI) — Ten race horses escaped from a New Gloucester fairgrounds compound and cavorted along the Maine Turnpike before being recaptured.

State police learned of the situation when a motorist stopped at the gray toll gate and asked the collector: "Is this the win, place or show window?"

Israel Renews Offer Of Peace To Arabians

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (UPI) — Israel renewed its peace offer to the Arab countries today and proposed a six-point pledge to pacify the Middle East.

Mrs. Golda Meir, foreign minister of Israel, told the General Assembly her government "continues to believe that there are no outstanding differences between it and its Arab neighbors, including the refugee problem, that cannot be settled through direct negotiations."

"To lessen existing tensions and to allay the fears of armed conflict," she said, "the government of Israel proposes to all the countries of the Middle East to pledge themselves:

"To respect the political independence and territorial integrity of all the states of the region."

Seminoles Set Up 5-Team System For Rest Of Season

By Sanford Herald Page 6 — Oct. 8, 1963

About Sports

Thinking Out Loud

BY JULIAN STENSTROM

The skinned infield is gone. Hallelujah!

Now if there was just a place for the press to sit down and keep statistics without guessing about them Sanford's Memorial Stadium would be a fine place for football.

Elsewhere on this page there's a story about Jim Pigott's three new suits — the offensive "witch doctors" and "phantoms" and the defensive "headhunters." These names have been tentatively selected by the kids themselves, but not final. If you can come up with what you believe to be three better ones

FSU And Gator Babies To Play

TALLAHASSEE (Special) — Florida State's Baby Seminoles, coached for the first time by Ken MacLean, get down to the business of preparing for their 1963 opener this week. MacLean's talented 85-man squad hosts Florida's Baby Gators here Saturday.

Much frosh practice time in recent weeks has been devoted to helping the varsity prepare for Miami and Texas Christian, but now MacLean will pick a starting lineup and work it into shape for Saturday.

This may not be the easiest thing MacLean has done, even though he compiled a remarkable 61-17-4 record in eight years at Tallahassee's Florida High.

Kim Hammond of Melbourne and Jim Perry of Logan, West Virginia are running neck-and-neck at quarterback, while Greg Baggett of Panama City Bay, and Tom Delopez of Miami Hialeah are both considered fine fullbacks. The starting jobs at halfback might go to any of eight scabbards, including Butch Riser of Sanford, a six-foot, 175-pounder. Florida already holds a 31-7 win over Auburn's freshmen and boasts a big, quick backfield, led by 6-2, 190-pound QB Steve Spurrier, considered the best prospect at Gainesville in years.

Our school officials are doing their best to teach kids good sportsmanship. If an official's decision goes against the club you're rooting for don't use the kind of language some have been guilty of using at recent junior high games. Friends, when you do these youngsters pick it up, and we know you wouldn't want to hear your kids yell the same things.

The Seminoles of Sanford will lose not one but five different ball clubs at the Apopka Blue Darters tomorrow night when the two clubs meet head-on at Sanford Memorial Stadium. Kickoff time will be 8 o'clock.

Seminole Head Coach Jim Pigott and his two aides, line coach Jim McCoy and backfield coach Dick Williams have revamped the Tribe's roster and they've come up with a five-team platoon system which they plan to use the remainder of the current season.

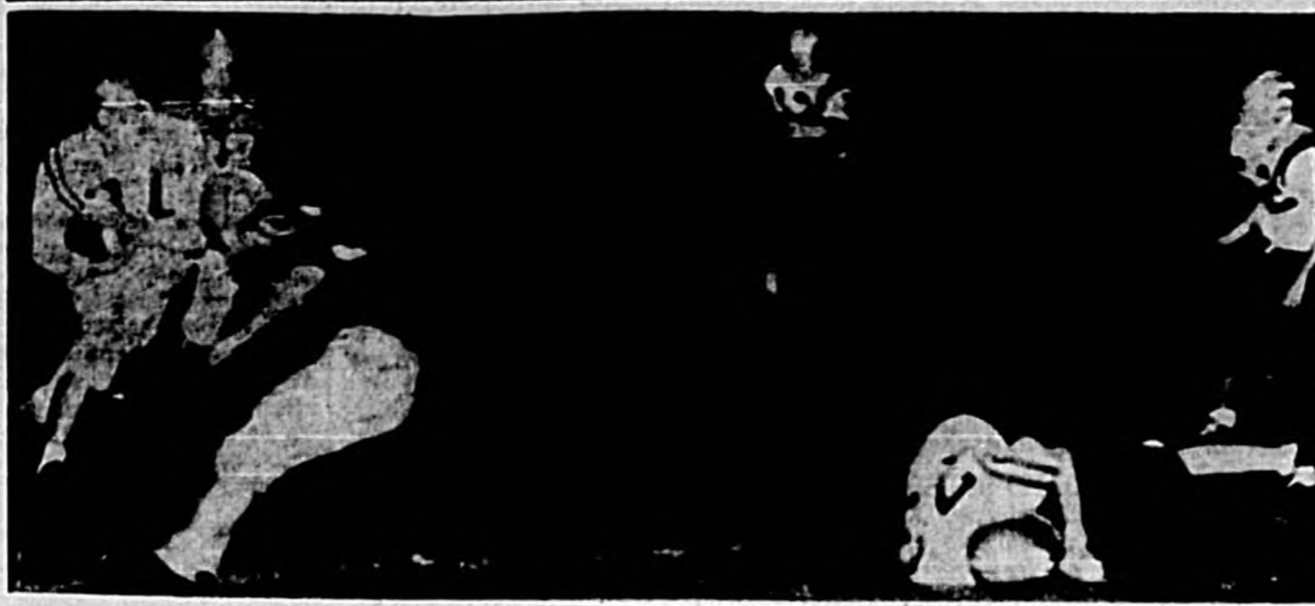

Meanwhile, the Seminoles will be going into tomorrow night's fray without the services of big Dave Noell, a tackle, who is laid up with a knee injury as a result of last Friday night's victory over the Colonial Grenadiers in Orlando.

The Seminoles' first offensive unit, possibly to be known as the "witch doctors" — if that's the name the youngsters finally decide upon — will be comprised of Frank Noell and Barry Barks at the ends, Jim Touhy and Dale Alexander at the tackle slots, the guards will be Joe Purdy and Steve Clark, and the center will be Dan McCall. In the backfield, Williams assigned Ron Hason the quarterback spot, named Buddy Lawson and Earl Black to the halfback positions, and Lee Sparkman to run at fullback.

The second offensive unit might be known as the "phantoms" — will see Mike Gray and Mike Fordham as the ends, Earnie Steele and Dave Howe as the tackles, the guards will be Steve Harris and Brad Pruden, and Steve Ballant at center. The backfield will be comprised of quarterback Al Boniface, halves Chuck Scott and Eddie Kosky, and fullback Lloyd Freeman.

The Tribe's defensive unit — probably to be called the "headhunters" — includes Larry Watson and Billy Higgins as the flankers, tackles Mike Glad and Henry Finch, middle guard Dave Golkoher, middle linebacker Joe Farless, outside linebackers Buddy Burton or Steve Harris at one spot and Billy Brown at the other. Billy Ruykema and John Ray will be the halfbacks with Danny Tillis at safety.

The point after touchdown eleven and the kickoff unit will be comprised of combinations of the three other units with Freeman assigned booting duties.

LYMAN'S GREYHOUNDS HAVE their work cut out for them in Friday's game with New Smyrna Beach. In this picture of the Lyman-Ocoee game last week Greyhound Vail Lambert (30) is shown in a run which gained five yards.

This was just before he was brought down by Ocoee's Johnny Stiles (also 30) with Blanton (12) Mitchell (62) and Seaman (78) in the picture.

Seminole JVs Seek Their 25th Win Tonight

Twenty-five victories without a loss! That's what the Seminole High School baby Seminoles will be after in Titusville tonight when they clash with the little Tarriers of Titusville High School in that city's Municipal Stadium.

Ralph Stumpf, the Seminole's JayVee mentor, said his eleven is ready for tonight's contest.

"We're expecting some stiff opposition from the Tarriers in that they dropped their only game to the baby Sandcrabs of Seabreeze High School in Daytona Beach by a score of only 6 to 0.

In the Seminoles' opening JayVee contest of the season, the Sandcrabs and the little Warriors fought to a scoreless tie in Daytona Beach—and this is the only blot in that 25-game win streak posted by the little Tribe.

Stumpf will start Dave Higginbotham and Ed Griffith at the end slots, Dave Jarrell and Captain Tommy Cason at tackle, Ron Crawford and Johnny Canavino at the guards, Dan Lee at center.

Meanwhile, Bernie Barbour, the Tribe's talented little signal caller, will open at quarterback, Rick Walstrom and Johnny Lewis will go from the halves, and the fullback will be Sonny Messer.

"We're in good shape," says Stumpf, "and we're going over there to pick up that 25th ball if we can."

'White Elephant' Golf Set Sunday

"White Elephant" golf tournament scheduled for Sunday afternoon at the Mayfair Country Club is expected to attract an enthusiastic group, according to an announcement by Mrs. Earl Higginbotham of the Sanford Woman's Golf Association.

Tea off time is slated for 12 o'clock noon and the ladies will be requested to choose their own partners and arrange foursomes. It has been requested that all those participating in the tournament be members of the Mayfair Country Club. Combined handicaps will be the line of play.

Men club members who are available as golfing partners are requested to contact golf pro Grover Todd. A fee of $1.50 per person, plus a "white elephant" gift will be the tab for the day.

The tourney will be followed by a covered dish supper. In charge of arrangements for the supper are Mrs. John Dickey and Mrs. John Crawford.

PHILADELPHIA (UPI) — South Africa's Gary Player shot a record nine-under par 63 in a tourney tune-up to join Jack Nicklaus and Arnold Palmer as early favorites among the field of 151 golfers at today's start of the $125,000 Whitmarsh Open, the world's richest professional golf tourney.

Player had one eagle, nine birdies and two bogeys in setting a new competitive course record on Wednesday at the Whitmarsh Valley Country Club in a pro-amateur tournament. The previous record on the 6,807 yard, par 72-course was 66, set in 1919 by Joe Kirkwood Jr.

Prior to Player's 30.33 performance in the pro-am, a "tired" Nicklaus and Palmer had been rated as co-favorites in the quest for the first prize money of $20,000. Many of the pros listed 43-year-old U. S. Open champion Julius Horos as the man to beat in this first annual event.

Hurricanes Set For Sanford JH

Head Coach Jim Clark of the South Seminole Junior High School Hurricanes says his club is all set for tonight's home opener with the Braves of Sanford Junior High School.

The contest will get underway at 7:30 o'clock at the Lyman Field in Longwood.

Head Coach Dan Pelham and his Braves will be meeting the Hurricanes in the first of two games on this year's schedule. Last year the two clubs split their two games with each other and tied for the mythical Seminole County Junior high crown.

So far this season Clark's Hurricanes and Pelham's Braves have each won their initial outings. South Seminole romped over St. Cloud 32 to 13 and the Braves took Oviedo Junior High late camp, 28 to 0.

A near capacity crowd is expected by officials of South Seminole for this engagement.

Series At Even Money With Dodger Victory

The Sanford Herald
Oct. 3, 1963 — Page 7

Koufax Can Do It Again, Says Erskine

NEW YORK (UPI)—Sandy Koufax is capable of breaking his own World Series strikeout record the next time he faces the Yankees.

That was the opinion voiced by Carl Erskine, the former record holder, when he wandered into the Los Angeles Dodgers' locker room Wednesday to congratulate Koufax for his 15-strikeout performance in the series opener.

"Sandy may break that record again before the series is over," said Erskine, who 10 years ago to the day had set the old series mark by fanning 14 Yankees as a member of the Dodgers.

"I'm delighted that Sandy has kept it in the Dodger family, and I think he's the man who deserves to have it," added Erskine. "He's just about the greatest strikeout pitcher of them all, isn't he?"

Asked if he was surprised when Koufax erased his mark, Erskine replied:

"I'm sure no one ever predicted that Carl Erskine would ever break a series strikeout record...but they certainly did for this fellow."

Erskine, a little taller than he was 10 years ago but just as dapper and affable, then wrapped his arms around Koufax as they posed for photographers and there was a genuineness in the way they grabbed each other.

Koufax, it should be remembered, was a starry-eyed kid on the Dodger club in Brooklyn when Erskine was the star.

Podres Tries For 2nd Win

NEW YORK (UPI)—Given a terrific left by the sensational record strikeout pitcher of Sandy Koufax, the Los Angeles Dodgers sent World Series-tested Johnny Podres against first-time starter Al Downing today in an effort to make it two straight victories over the New York Yankees.

In the wake of Wednesday's stunning 5-2 triumph in which the golden-armed Koufax set a series strikeout record of 15, the oddsmakers reduced the series to even money. They established the Yankees as 7-5 favorites to win the second game, however, which would send the teams winging to Los Angeles all even at one victory each.

The Dodgers carried a "we told you so" attitude into today's second game while the Yankees — despite a healthy respect for the fireballing Koufax — were confident they would draw even today and go on to win their 21st world championship in 28 tries.

Although today's odds favored the Yankees, many experts were inclined to believe that it is the Dodgers who now have a key advantage — the advantage of sending a classic clutch pitcher like Podres against a 22-year-old lefthander who will be appearing in series competition for the first time.

Podres, 31, is an old Yankee tormenter and, with his big variety of breaking pitches and change-ups, is especially difficult to hit when he is seen only from time to time. This accounts for his splendid record in World Series competition contrasted with season records in National League competition that are seldom much above the .500 mark.

Johnny entered today's game with a 3-1 mark in series competition, including his never-to-be-forgotten 2-0 victory over the Yankees that gave the Dodgers the 1955 series and the only championship they ever won while in Brooklyn. Podres also beat the Yankees, 8-3, in that series and had them popping the ball into the air throughout most of both games he pitched.

Podres had a 14-12 NL mark and a 3.55 earned run average this year.

A 22-year-old medium-sized lefthander, Downing has more impressive season credentials than Podres. Brought up to the Yankees from their Richmond farm club in the International League on June 2, Downing won 13 games and lost only five. He had four shutouts and struck out 171 batters in 175 innings.

Here's Koufax's SO Performance

NEW YORK (UPI) — Here is the inning-by-inning account of Sandy Koufax's record-breaking 15 strikeout performance against the New York Yankees Wednesday in the opening game of the 1963 World Series.

First Inning — Kubek swinging; Richardson swinging; Tresh called.

Second Inning — Mantle called; Maris swinging.

Third Inning — Pepitone swinging.

Fourth Inning — Kubek swinging; Richardson swinging; Tresh called.

Fifth Inning — Mantle swinging; Lopez swinging.

Sixth Inning — None.

Seventh Inning — Howard swinging.

Eighth Inning — Lutz swinging; Richardson swinging.

Ninth Inning — Bright swinging.

ODD-BALL BASEBALL — Under the topknot is Maury Wills. The Los Angeles Dodgers' shortstop, making his comedy debut with Edie Adams, is doing an interpretation of a Japanese baseball game.

Mantle Impressed By Koufax

NEW YORK (UPI) — Mickey Mantle, always quick to give credit where it's due, took his hat off to Sandy Koufax today as one of the finest pitchers he has ever faced.

"Everything I read about him was true," Mantle marveled. "And everything they told us about him also was true. Whatta pitcher! Still I don't feel too bad at what I did against him."

"He only fanned me twice. Carl Erskine once got me four times."

Mantle not only ranks as a prime judge of good pitchers but also knows a long-ball hitter when he sees one because some of the tape-measure blows he's belted never have been duplicated in all baseball history.

Liston May Go Back On Tour

DENVER (UPI) — Heavyweight champion Sonny Liston headed for Philadelphia today to discuss possible resumption of his European tour after explaining that he broke off the series of personal appearances in England because of fatigue and embarrassment about America's racial conflict.

The champion and Denver boxing promoter Milt Willner staged a formal news conference — with all questions submitted in writing — Wednesday to explain why Liston suddenly quit the tour and returned to Denver in a huff Sept. 18.

Liston said he would meet in Philadelphia with his "adviser," Jack Nilon, to discuss resuming the trip. While in the East, Liston will tape an appearance on the Ed Sullivan television show in New York Sunday morning.

Liston inferred Wednesday that he had had a disagreement with Nilon, but said Nilon still was his adviser.

In the news conference, where Willner had a professional stenographer taking a transcript, Liston said he was misunderstood when he was quoted as saying upon his return that he was "ashamed to be back in America" because of the bombing of a Negro church in Birmingham, Ala.

"I said I was ashamed of the way America was acting," he said he left England because of "a tremendous headache" and embarrassment of the many questions thrown his way regarding the Birmingham bombing.

Mrs. W. J. King, president, urges all members to attend as plans will be discussed for the fair.

Courtesy in sports even touches clothing. Women especially, should follow the white-for-tennis rule. Bright colors distract.

DeBary Resident Enjoys Vacation

By Mrs. Adam Muller

Mrs. B. D. Willenbrock has returned to her home on Lucerne Drive after a four month trip. She left May 17 by plane and her first stop was New York where she visited her son and family, Mr. and Mrs. B. D. Willenbrock Jr., in Farmingdale, Long Island.

From there she went to Cambridge, Mass. for a visit with another son and his family, Dr. and Mrs. F. K. Willenbrock. After visiting friends and relatives in Syracuse, N. Y. she went to Los Angeles, Calif. for a visit with her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Peterson.

Mrs. Willenbrock spent four weeks in Montana with another daughter and son-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lehre with side trips to Butte, Montana, Yellowstone Park, The Great Teton Mountains and Salt Lake City, Utah. In Salt Lake City she heard the famous choir and organ.

After a second visit with the Peterson's in Los Angeles, Mrs. Willenbrock headed for Florida. While covering most of the many miles by air the weather was good most of the time but the traveler was very glad to be back home in Florida again.

Homemakers

By Mrs. E. L. Johnson

October is slated as "Fish and Seafood" month. So you will get a chance to really eat your fill of every kind of fish you want. According to the Bureau of Commercial Fisheries the production of more than 300 species of fish and shellfish by the nation's commercial fishermen has been good during the summer months and there is a bountiful fall harvest in October.

Here is a recipe for

1 pt. large oysters
12 slices bacon
1 egg, beaten
3 tbsps. milk
1/2 tsp. salt

Drain oysters. Remove any pieces of shell from oysters. Fry bacon. Drain on absorbent paper. Combine egg, milk, and seasonings. Combine flour and crumbs. Roll oysters in flour-and-crumbs mixture. Dip in egg mixture and roll again in crumb mixture. Fry in hot bacon fat. When oysters are brown on one side, turn carefully and brown on the other side. Cooking time approximately 8 minutes. Drain on absorbent paper. Spread 6 slices of toast with mayonnaise. Arrange lettuce and tomatoes on top. Cover with 6 slices of toast. Arrange bacon and oysters on top. Mix cracker crumbs and melted butter and arrange a layer of half the buttered crumbs in a shallow baking dish. Pour oysters over them in a uniform layer. Then sprinkle with the salt and pepper. Cover with remaining crumbs and pour milk over all. Bake in a moderately hot oven 400 degrees for 20 minutes. Serves 8.

R. W. Ware Speaks At UDC Meeting

Members of the Norman deVere Howard Chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, held the first meeting of the season at the home of Mrs. F. E. Roumillat with Mrs. J. St. Clair White as co-hostess.

Mrs. A. K. Rosetter, chairman, conducted the ritual, and Mrs. W. L. Merritt presided during the business meeting. A letter was read from the Olustee chapter in Jacksonville telling of plans to commemorate the Battle of Oustee during the Centennial, with possibly a reenactment at the battlefield. Mrs. David Caldwell announced the district meeting will be held in Sanford in February.

R. W. Ware was guest speaker for the afternoon. He spoke informally on incidents during the Civil War relating to his family, using anecdotes to illustrate his talk. At the conclusion of the meeting the hostesses served fruit punch and cake.

Other members attending were Misses F. B. Adams, Martin Hwa, I. A. Brunley, W. R. Dyon, John Fox, Richard Gleson, Claude Herndon, W. B. Kirby, A. W. Lee Jr., G. E. McCall, H. B. McCall, Edmund Meisch, H. B. Monroe, B. L. Perkins, W. A. Perry, M. R. Steickland, J. H. Truluck, A. B. Walker, M. S. Wiggins and R. B. Wright. Mrs. Wade Shenly was welcomed as a guest.

Oviedo Girl Enrolls At Academy

By Bernice Kelsey
Montverie Academy claims an Oviedo girl as one of its 26 seniors this year. Miss Susan Slayton enrolled for her fourth year on Sept. 3 in the co-educational boarding school which was established in 1912.

Susan is the daughter of Polk D. Slayton, a citrus grower of the Goldenrod Community since 1945. Her mother was the late Stella M. Slayton who was a nurse at both the Slavia Lutheran Home for the Aged and the Lutheran Children's Home. Harvey J. Slayton of Oviedo is a brother.

Susan has been most active in school clubs as well as being a good student. She has been in the church choir all four years and for two years has been a member of the Skating Club of which she is vice president. She is a member of the French Club and vice president of the Y-Teens.

No definite plans have been made by Susan for after graduation next May 20.

She loves swimming and during the summer spent some time with friends in Ft. Lauderdale and entertained at her home in Goldenrod for a number of houseguests.

Enterprise Church Groups Sponsor Fall Festival-Spaghetti Supper

By Helen Snodgrass
Despite the bad weather last Friday several groups of the Barnett Memorial Methodist Church, in Enterprise, held the Fall Festival, in the Church Annex.

Friends from DeBary, Deltona, Osteen and Lemon Bluff arrived between showers and visited the country store and bazaar.

Children fished in the fish pond, braved the mystery house and tried their skill at the balloon dart board and bean bag. Available for quick snacks were hot dogs, pop corn and cold drinks.

The fun started at 4 p.m. and lasted until after 8 p.m. Proceeds from the project will be about $140 with each group participating. A signing where their part of the money will be used.

Other projects are being planned. The Senior MYP group will sponsor a bake sale this Saturday at the DeBary Plaza.

Church Class Plans Supper Monday

The Daughters of Wesley Sunday School Class of the First Methodist Church will hold the annual class supper and business meeting, Monday at 6:30 p.m. Hostess will be Mrs. Charles Meriwether, at her home on Celery Avenue. Mrs. Claude Herndon and her group serving as hostesses.

CHAIRMEN AND ASSISTANTS of various festival booths are left to right, front, Mrs. Aletha Evans, fancy work booth, sponsored by Circle Y; Mrs. Allen Sain, WSCS supper; Mrs. Catherine Bruce, director of Circle Y and back row, Mrs. Raymond Lawson, general festival chairman; Mrs. Elizabeth Brides, assisting with Country Store and Mrs. Kermit Wiggins, assisting with spaghetti supper. Modern Methods Changed

Many mothers and grandmothers of today's 4-H Club members were themselves 4-H'ers. But unlike their young counterparts, they pursued sewing, cooking and home-making projects in quite a different manner.

Most of the portable kitchen appliances common in modern homes were either in the luxury or non-existent class two generations ago. The electric sewing machine was heavy and limited. Now sewing machines are streamlined and can do about everything a young seamstress desires — from sewing backwards to making buttonholes.

The remarkable variety of so-called miracle fabrics, patterns and sewing notions (like the zipper) is another boon to 4-H'ers engaged in the 1963 version of home economics.

Yet to be thought of were household terms such as drip-dry, steam iron, spray-on starch, fitted sheets, aerosol can, family room and countless others.

In addition to learning how to cook, 4-H homemakers of the 1960's explore nutritional facts and fallacies. Weight control, grooming, home management, interior decoration and child care are part of the popular program supervised by the Cooperative Extension Service and local 4-H Club leaders.

Enrollment in the national 4-H home economics program last year totaled more than 1,200,000. In Seminole County there are 140 girls enrolled in 4-H home economics program. All boys, girls, and leaders will be recognized this year at their annual 4-H Achievement Day and as in the past, boys and girls will be rewarded accordingly for their work done.

Dear Abby: By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: If people wonder where the teen-age morals have gone, all they have to do is look at what they have given us to go by. What are we supposed to think when all the advertising reeks of sex, and mothers dress their daughters like little Lolitas? Who do you think are the "heroes" around town now? I'll tell you—Richard Burton, Christine Keeler and Mandy Rice-Davis. I assure you I am no prude, but I'm glad my parents equipped me with some decent morals.

SEVENTEEN IN BELFAST, MAINE

DEAR SEVENTEEN: And to your fine letter, may I add a hearty AMEN!

DEAR ABBY: What do you think of a man who has been married four years, wears the wedding band I bought for him but who covers it up completely with another ring?

SUSPICIOUS WIFE

DEAR SUSPICIOUS: I think he's probably covering up more than a wedding ring.

DEAR ABBY: A member of our family just came back from his vacation with a hair piece. He has been as bald as an eagle since he was about 30 and he went around like that for years, then all of a sudden, at the age of 55, he is sporting a full head of hair. It isn't even his color. When he did have hair it was sandy brown, but this wig is golden brown with red highlights in it. I don't have to tell you how ridiculous he looks. When we first saw him, we thought he was joking, or perhaps wearing it on a dare, but he thinks it looks great. We love his feelings for the world, but how can we tell him that he looks terrible?

HIS RELATIVES

DEAR RELATIVES: If he wanted your opinion, he would have asked you. If you really "love" him, say nothing.

DEAR ABBY: I am puzzled as to how a lady can presume to give advice on shaving. I will be 55 on my next birthday and have been shaving since I was 17. In the past 38 years I shaved once a day, and if I had to have a second time I would need to call an anesthetist. I believe you are about as qualified to give advice on shaving as was my youngest son when he was 17. When I asked him if he'd started to shave yet, he replied, "Gee, Dad, I've been shaving for two years now and I cut myself both times." Respectfully,

J. L. L.

Jacoby On Bridge By Oswald Jacoby

The late Ely Culbertson had one of the most fertile minds in bridge. His writings did much to popularize contract in its early days. One of his ideas that failed to gain acceptance during his life was the "grand slam force."

This bid was a jump to five no-trump to ask partner to bid a grand slam if he held good enough trumps. In most cases good enough trumps would be a suit that included two of the top three honors.

This Culbertson bid has gained popularity lately and today is used by almost every expert. It does not come up often, but when it does it certainly makes grand slam bidding easy.

South has a rockbottom minimum bid, or the nearest thing to one. North doesn't really care much how weak or strong his partner's opening is. All North wants to know is if North holds both the ace and queen of hearts. The grand slam force reveals this very simply. He wastes no time in shilly-shallying or getting unnecessary information. All he does is respond five no-trump.

South is now in the position of the Light Brigade. He is not to reason why, he had just to do or die.

With the ace and queen of hearts he promptly bids the grand slam. He isn't too happy with the force until he sees the dummy. Then it is all over but drawing trumps and chalking up the score.

We The Women: By Ruth Millett

There has been a lot of talk about the part that the dinner hour should play in gracious living. We're told that even after marriage it can retain its aura of intimacy and romance.

Well, that's true enough while a young married couple can still have a quiet, candlelight dinner.

But what happens to the aura of romance when the children join the group?

"Johnny, wash your hands! You, too, Judy," says mom pleasantly, the first time. The second time the order is given it's more firm, not quite so pleasant.

Then there's the problem of getting dad to the dining room. He was starved—or so he said—when he tossed his hat on the living room table. But now he's got his nose buried in the evening paper and answers the call to dinner with an irritable or absent-minded, "O.K., in a minute."

Finally, the family is seated. And then begins that evening meal, with its aura of romance.

Dad wants to know why the ketchup is never on the table. Little Johnny gulps his food so he can get back to play. Judy pushes the food around on her plate.

Conversation is hardly stimulating — since any topic brought up that is on a higher than third-grade level has to be interpreted for Junior. Yes, the dinner hour may be all soft lights and sweet music before the children arrive on the scene. But when they come to the table, dinner is about as romantic as lunch at a restaurant counter. Nothing matters but the food.

World's Fair Visit Set By Girl Scouts

By Jane Casselberry
The trip will cost $100 for each girl and they already are planning ways to earn the money, both individually and as a troop.

One of the first fund-raising projects will be a play and the cast and director already have been selected.

Travel is not altogether a new experience for this troop as the girls went to Savannah for a weekend last spring where they visited the birthplace of Juliette Low, founder of girl scouting.

Troop leaders, Mrs. Frank Russell and Miss Joan Ostrow, are introducing the girls to the new Cadette Scouting Program and the attractive new handbook which has been updated to meet the needs of the modern Miss. The new program is built around four "challenges" - the challenge of social dependability, challenge of emergency preparedness, challenge of active citizenship and challenge of the Girl Scout promise.

Mrs. Russell has been with most of the girls in the troop since their Brownie days and has enjoyed watching them grow from piglets to "tased" hairdos. They have shared countless adventures together.
