WIFE PLEADS FOR BERGDOLL

Mrs. Grover Cleveland Bergdoll, wife of the fugitive who was America's vice president during the Civil War, has sent this message from Germany to President Roosevelt, asking that her children be spared if they are captured by the British Army. General George Custer, who has been serving as the Commissioner of Refugees in Berlin since his retirement from the Department of Justice, has been instrumental in helping the Bergdolls to escape from their persecutors. ROBBER GANG BETHLEHEM BROKEN UP

Following the seizure of a gangster's arsenal and the finding of an auto over Prohibition, B. H., and the arrest of a gangster, federal agents and marshals believe that this will end the gangster's hold on the city.

The two most notorious leaders before were those at the Al Capone and Barker, Jr. It also was believed that the Al Capone, Jr. A. W. arrested one month ago, he escaped up the Hudson River and took refuge in the woods near New York City.

PWA Grants To Depend On Plight Of City Finances

By Frank P. Dyer

The present lack of money available to the government for public works projects is due to the fact that the Office of Public Works has been unable to find enough money to meet its obligations. The situation is particularly bad because the government is unable to provide any additional funds. The total amount of money available is approximately $10 billion, which is less than the amount required to meet all of the government's obligations. average production last year," he continues. "I didn't sign up when they came around about it this year. I'm plumb sick of the AAA, PWA, CWA, and all the other A's."

"I'd like to see everybody get a job—so they can eat what they want or want so they can wear what they should—that's when farming is going to get better."

Local farm markets are up—both back when wheat went up.

I figured I'd better feed it. I ground it up for hogs. The more I fed them the more and I didn't get a dime for my wheat. Now with shorts at $1.50 and corn at $1.10, how can I feed it?"

Can't make money by selling the grain? He smiles tolerantly.

I never did sell a bushel of corn yet. I didn't have to. If I had no bushels of corn right now, I'd probably try to find some stock feed it to. That's farming."

The farmer who makes a living—keeps his debts paid, eats regularly and has a few dollars for "some things for the misuse and bad, and for overalls—is doing pretty well even on 600 acres. I don't think they are doing it on a corner section."

Each morning one of the two local men saddles "Dol," Phlegley's Hamiltonian "mixture" mare, for his tour of inspection. She stays saddled all day.

He's "up to his ears" in work. There are the spring lambs in the big pasture where 155 sheep are grazed; his Chester White and Duroc sows are farrowing, and the bean planting is on. Mrs. Phlegley's chickens didn't do so well in the drought, they sold them last fall. The other day he brought her 50 chicks from a hatchery. They bunched last winter for meat; Mrs. Phlegley had some canned stuff, and the cows amply supplied the table with milk.

Phlegley philosophizes: "Times have been better by about $8,000 to $10,000 a year. I've seen worse, too. So, after about 20 years of it, a fellow sort of gets the idea that farming is mostly letting nature take its course."

Ban May Be Placed On All Chain Letters

WASHINGTON, May 10.—(UPI)—Spurred by receipt at the White House of over 200 "send a dime" letters addressed to the President, post office officials Wednesday held over the heads of such writers the possibility of being denied the use of the mails.

The White House turned the letters over to Postmaster General Farley.

Should such a ban be ordered, postmasters and postal employees would be instructed to return all mail to senders with the word "fraudulent" stamped on the face.

Letters without return address would be sent to the dead letter office.

IT'S A GO-GO IT PLANS TO COME BYRD

central bank out of the system, with power to set monetary policies to business stability. The vote was 271 to 119.

The bill now goes to the Senate, where its future is uncertain. Lying in wait is Senator Carter Glass (D. Va.), who doesn't want Federal Reserve Governor Mariner S. Eccles to tangle with the Wilson administration. Eccles is credited with being the chief author of the new law.

No important changes were made in the bill from the form in which it was reported. An attempt to curb the enlarged powers given to the President and to the Reserve Board over the 12 district banks failed.

The strongest fight came over an attempt by Representative T. A. Goldsborough (D. Md.), to insert a "commodity dollar" amendment, although defeated Wednesday by the narrow margin of six votes, Goldsborough renewed his attempt yesterday in a parliamentary maneuver but lost again.

The vote came at the end of a two days' fight to amend the bill, led by Representative John R. Hollister, Ohio, ranking Republican member of the Banking and Currency Committee, which had died the measure.

The bill carries a provision giving the Federal Reserve Board power to change reserve requirements of member banks. Hollister moved to have this stricken out. He was defeated 78 to 44.

Just before final passage Republicans made a last effort to cut out provisions the New Deal considers vital. It was defeated 230 to 116.

One of the important features of the bill is the provision giving the Federal Reserve Board power over open market operations—purchase and sale of government securities. At present the 12 district Reserve banks operate more or less independently, although there has been a loose co-operation.

The bill permits the Reserve board to dictate to the district banks and also empowers President Roosevelt to remove board directors without cause.

The bill carries a Congressional mandate to the Reserve board to manipulate its policies in the interest of promoting business stability.

Miami Has Biggest Municipal Poll Vote

Harry E. Platt, incumbent, was among the 11 candidates defeated.

C. H. Reeder, third member of the present city commission, did not seek re-election.

WELL, MA'M, IT'S CALUMET
BAKING POWDER MAKES HER CAKE SO SPECIAL
LIGHT AND NICE!

I'VE BOUGHT SOME CALUMET, ANNIE, AND
IT ONLY COSTS 25¢
A POUND!

YES'M, THAT'S THE REGULAR PRICE
NOW. IT NEVER WAS SO LOW BEFORE!

LAST YOU'VE MAID THAT REALLY MAKE A CAKE!

I BAKED THAT CAKE MYSELF, HARRY BUT
ANNIE DID GIVE ME
A VALUABLE TIP.

TELL ME, ANNIE—HOW DOES
CALUMET BAKE SO WELL
WITH JUST ONE LEVEL TEA
SPOON TO THE CUP OF SIFTED FLOUR?

WELL, MA'M, CALUMET IS THE DOUBLE-ACTING
BAKING POWDER AND—

DOUBLE-ACTING MEANS THAT CALUMET COMBINES TWO DISTINCT
LEAVENING ACTIONS

A QUICK ACTION FOR THE
MIXING BOWL—SET FREE
BY LIQUID. IT STARTS THE LEAVENING PROPERLY.

A SLOWER ACTION
FOR THE OVEN—SET
FREE BY HEAT. IT PROTECTS
THE BATTER OR DOUGH
ALL THROUGH THE BAKING.

"That's why your baking is bound to be better with Calumet's Double-Action. Here's that famous Loaf Cake recipe—want to try it?"

Feds Will Play Islanders Tomorrow In Coastal City; DeLand Beats Cocoa by 3-0

CENTRAL FLORIDA LEAGUE

solve the mystery and the fans, who aren't let in on the great secret must cool their heels until game time.

Overtures were made toward Cocoa and DeLand yesterday seeking their support in a move begun at Daytona Beach and supported by Sanford to start playing three games per week on next Tuesday.

Daytona Beach, in the throes of a financial impasse, was searching for a new backer today, since two alleged sportmen "choked up" after having promised Manager Raleigh Fert that they'd foot the bill if he'd get them a $2000 per week ball ride.

While the Sanford-Daytona tilt was rained out, the DeLand Red Sox were making hay while the sun shone intermittently at Cocoa where the Red Sox won their eighth straight game, behind the hit pitching of "Three-Star" Hennacy.

Sunday afternoon, the Cocoa Indians will be at Municipal Park for the second time this year. It's Tige Minor's time to pitch for the Indians, and the Feds will be out to "pin his ears back" as they've done before.

Manager Barnes, who never knows until the last minute just which of his pitchers he's going to call upon to bat the six game losing streak was undisclosed this morning as to his starter in Daytona tomorrow.

"It's either going to be Doc Hardin or Sam Galatow," he said "or it might even be Bill Gold."

With those words, Joe general
