Wanted: A Job

An old man came into our office the other day. His hair was white and his figure bent with fatigue and en-

He wanted a job. Though an insurance man by profession, he had done some writing on the side, he said, felt sure he could make good as a reporter or special feature writer.

It was the first time in his life, he said, that he had been without funds, without a job, and he looked to be nearly seventy years old.

It seems incredible that in America, a land of such great resources and productivity, a condition like this could exist.

No vicious ogre has inflicted this condition on the earth. So subtle a spell has been cast by some disgruntled god.

Somehow, some way, food raised will be eaten; clothes made will be worn.

Singing Tower Recitals

Sanford residents who in the past have been accustomed to make at least one pilgrimage each winter to the Bok Tower at Lake Wales will be glad to learn that Anton Brees is there again as carillonneur and will conduct the usual seasonal program.

This season's program of recitals begins at the Singing Tower at Mountain Lake sanctuary, near Lake Wales, today.

Commencing today and continuing throughout the season, recitals will be given at 3 p. m. on Sundays and Thursdays and at noon on Tuesdays and Saturdays of each week.

With the Tower bells ringing, Florida's outstanding attractions are now all open to the public.

And there are the Inness paintings in the little church at Tarpon Springs and the Highlands Hammock, near Sebring, both of which have great appeal.

Speaking of looking the deer after the horse is stolen, Congress now proposes to prevent the sale of any foreign securities in this country by nations defaulting on their war debts.

SANFORD FORUM

Sanford, Fla., Dec. 14, 1932. Editor Sanford Herald:

I note with considerable interest, in Tuesday's Herald, the letter by Mr. S. Nelson, of Oriedo, in which he tells of people, boats and other things of the seventies and eighties, in this county. It would seem that he arrived in the county two years before I did.

Right here, it would seem to me, is a time and place for a great deal of thought, President Hoover, no doubt, would appoint a commission to investigate and study and report.

Now, can't we get together, seen out the large or grown fish for sale, and take out and destroy the four fish and give our game fish another chance to come back.

Scientific men tell us that a five to seven pound bass will spawn from 8,000 to 10,000 eggs at a time.

Years for the best solution and co-operation. M. M. LORD.

MORATORIUM

BUDAPEST, Hungary, Dec. 17.—A Christmas tax armistice extending to Jan. 15 began in Hungary yesterday.

The department of agriculture in making its final 1932 crop report yesterday said it confirmed earlier indications of substantially lower production of crops raised for sale and substantially heavier production of food crops than either 1931 or 1930.

The report showed the sharpest reduction in wheat, cotton, tobacco and rice, the leading cash crops of which there is normally a surplus for export.

The back to the farm movement was reported as having no measurable effect in increasing the agricultural output except for food crops for home use.

EARLY FOR TICKET HOLDUP BEAVER FALLS, Pa., Dec. 17.—A man and his family were held up by a band of robbers on the train at Beaver Falls, Pa., Dec. 17.

Wheat Prices Fall To New Low Level In World Markets

CHICAGO, Dec. 17.—Wheat took a whacking in the midriff in practically every market in the world yesterday.

The United States government crop report, issued Thursday, and reports that Canada and Argentina were actively competing for the world's winter wheat requirements, hammered wheat prices lower.

The Liverpool corn exchange, the oldest grain exchange in the world, saw prices lower than any recorded in the pages of history.

Winnipeg prices dropped through an heretofore record bottom. The December delivery moved the minimum to 27 1/2 cents.

At the close, wheat future delivery contracts held in Chicago at 5-8 to 3-4 cents under Thursday's close.

TANKS EXPLODE

DENVER, Dec. 17.—Four gasoline tanks of 10,000 gallon capacity each, exploded at the Union Refining plant here yesterday, causing a spectacular fire which swept an entire city block at 29th and Larimer streets.

LEESBURG—H. O. Cole Cleaning and Pressing plant moved to new location on 13th St.

DeLand Girl Chosen As Queen Of Celebration

GAINESVILLE, Dec. 17.—Miss Elizabeth Brown, of DeLand, last night was chosen and crowned queen of the Ocklawaha day exercises at the University of Florida, marking the opening of events planned in connection with the football game here today between the University of Florida and the University of California (Los Angeles).

The selection was in a local theater before a committee of eight judges. The coronation took place at a ball given by The Cavaliers, a non-fraternity dancing organization at the university.

The sponsors are: Miss Clarice Parker, Tallahassee; Miss Rachel Smith, Madison; Miss Virginia Simthers, Miami; Miss Elizabeth Carey, Plant City; Miss Constance Jlanum, Eustis; Miss Hazel Middleton, Starke; Miss Margaret Atkinson, Cross City; Miss Dol Dimmitt, Clearwater; Miss Helen Gray, Gainesville; Miss Margarite Conroy, Inverness; Miss Raymondine Ponce, St. Augustine; Miss Dot Sackett, St. Petersburg; Miss Rose May Erskine, Jacksonville; Miss Zana Durig, Daytona Beach; Miss Dot Lawlor, Bradenton; Miss Caroline Duncan, Lake Butler, and Miss Lucy Lang, Trenton.

Mrs. Heeren Speaks Before Garden Club

When the Daytona Beach Garden Club was hostess to the Arlington Garden Club Wednesday morning in the Peninsula Club at Daytona Beach, Mrs. Harry H. Heeren, of this city, chairman of the beautification committee of the Sanford Garden Club, was guest speaker and used as her subject, "Nomenclature," or a study into the names of flowers and shrubs. Mrs. Heeren was accompanied by Mrs. R. R. Deas.

The Daytona Beach Sun Record gave the following report of the meeting: "At the conclusion of the meeting many of the assembled members of the two clubs adjourned to the Prince George Hotel for an informal luncheon honoring Mrs. Heeren and Mrs. Clara J. Thomas, state chairman of the conservation committee."

Mrs. Griffin introduced Mrs. Heeren who urged a daily column on gardening similar to that in the Sun Record, in newspapers, as an aid to clubwomen. Such a column, she stated, is very beneficial since it assists in the emphasis of the proper names of plants, instead of their more popular, colloquial ones. Names of all fauna and flora of a district should be learned; after all, she pointed out, the botanical classification of a plant or flower should be a part of it in the daily life of those interested enough in it to spend hours in its planting and cultivation.

"A start should be made with the learning of general classes, and afterward the individual branches of this category could be studied. "Among helpful suggestions made by Mrs. Heeren was one that is simple in nature yet often disregarded. In planting find out the size of maturity of a tree and shrub to avoid stunting its growth through insufficient space or to prevent the injury of it through the necessity of transplanting."

Mrs. Heeren then conducted a drill in spelling of the botanical names of familiar plants. Mrs. Clara J. Thomas spoke briefly in behalf of conservation. Holly, she declared, is commonly thought to be plentiful, yet in reality it is not. Holly and magnolia blooms are protected by state law, and people should be warned not to cut them. She urged club members to spread the gospel of conservation as a part of their regular program."

Mrs. J. M. Jackson and son, Wesley, of Crescent City, formerly of this city, are spending several days here with the former's mother, Mrs. J. W. Mero.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy F. Mann will spend the week-end in Daytona Beach with the former's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Barnes.

L. I. Frazier, who has been receiving treatment at St. Vincent's Hospital in Jacksonville, has returned to his home on Celery Avenue.

Clarence Rawson, of Charlotte, N. C., was the guest Wednesday evening of his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Rawson, Mellonville Avenue.

Mrs. J. J. Mays, of Louisville, Ga., has arrived to spend a short time here with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Rowland, 2021 Palmetto Avenue.

Miss Frances Pearson will arrive Sunday on Duke University at Durham, N. C. to be the guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John F. Pearson, for the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. John Miller had as their guests Friday evening at their home on East Twentieth Street, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Carter and Mr. and Mrs. James Sanda, Jr.

Miss Lucille Bols is expected to arrive Sunday or Monday from the University of Alabama at Tuscaloosa to spend the Christmas holidays here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Bols, Park Avenue.

FLORIDA ONLY STATE TO FEEL BALMY WINDS

(Continued From Page One) and is expected to extend to the New England and the Eastern Canadian coast. It blew out of the Gulf of Mexico yesterday with a wide divergence. Between a high pressure in New England and a low pressure in the Carolinas, it was expected by the bureau to increase in intensity.

Small craft were scurrying to harbors all along the Eastern coast today by a bureau storm warning advising that rain and snow might be expected to be accompanied by high winds.

Chicago experienced the lowest in two years at 13 above. Relief shelters were packed and there were deaths from cold. New York had a similar experience.

Here are some temperature readings and weather reports: Texas. Eleven inches of snow at Amarillo, one to four inches over remainder of the state, freezing temperatures general with rain in south Texas.

Ohio. Five dead, by coasting; Mahoning River frozen for the first time in years.

Illinois. Several dead from extreme cold, trains hours behind schedule, 16 below and subject to 25 years at Hopedale, four inches of snow in southern section.

Minnesota. Cold wave moving south after low of 28 below at Ellingwood and 18 below in Minneapolis and St. Paul.

Low—25 below at Boone and minus 25 at Webster City, clear with snow flurries expected.

Montana. Warner weather forecast for mercury touched 26 below at Rock Springs.

Idaho. Several sections and low visibility in others kept airplanes grounded or caused air-transport companies to discontinue carrying passengers. Pilots who did travel said it was much warmer at elevations of 2000 and above.

Jan's of ice in the Mississippi and Illinois rivers brought the Mississippi to its lowest stage in history at St. Louis.

The weather was comfortable in California and generally along the Pacific coast, with rain forecast for the northern section. Oklahoma had a foot of snow.

It was 21 below at Wallingford, Vt., while Duluth, Minn., the coldest place in the United States on recent days, had only four below.

Law, Indiana, Wisconsin and Nebraska all experienced sudden rises in temperatures and had forecasts of snow. There was a light snow also in Montana where temperatures ranged from 14 below at Billings to four below at Missoula.

Congress was reasonably comfortable in 14 above weather at Washington, but the suburbs of Baltimore had close to zero. Shreveport, La., and Little Rock, Ark., had temperatures considerably below the freezing mark.

Mother Of Five Murders Girl In View Of Throng

Mrs. Frazier told him, he said, that Miss Marrell spoke to her as the secretary left the federal building.

"How do you do, Mrs. Frazier?" Gasque asked her as she related, "How do you do," she replied, "whereupon, she said she drew a pistol and started firing."

"I emptied my gun at her," Gasque said she told him. "If I had had another gun I would have emptied that at her also."

Frazier formerly was in charge of federal narcotic work in the Philippines.

Mrs. Frazier was calm until several hours after the shooting the police said. Then she asked permission to telephone her physician, telling him she needed medicine to quiet her nerves.

Miss Marrell was an expert swimmer and was an active member of the local Red Cross life-saving corps. She had been married but after obtaining a divorce, resumed her maiden name. She once took part in a beauty and popularity contest, finishing among the winners as "Miss Federal Employee of Jacksonville."

Mrs. Frazier gave the names of her five sons as 1, 12, 14, 17 and 19 years.

Judge M. B. Craig, justice of the peace and district coroner, said after an examination of Miss Marrell's body, that it showed 10 holes, where the bullets, from a .38 calibre pistol, had entered and gashed out of her body.

Judge Craig said he would hold an inquest, but that the date had not been determined.

Police officers said several persons who witnessed the shooting told them Miss Marrell fell after three shots were fired by Mrs. Frazier and that two shots were fired into the prone body. These witnesses were quoted as saying Mrs. Marrell did not speak, but that she screamed and that the shouts of other witnesses attracted a huge crowd of persons passing in the vicinity of the postoffice.

Gasque said Mrs. Frazier told him she and her husband had not lived together since last April.

Also the Misses Phyllis Irby, Elizabeth Wagner, Mary Buford Paull, Edith Walker, Louise Erickson, Kitty Duller, Helen Marquette, Billie Young and Dr. John Allison, Bob Act, Briggs Arrington, G. W. Spencer, George Thurston, T. H. Davis, Lee Enoch, Hot Dodson, Harry Woodruff, John Lee, Bob Hightyman, William Bender, Frank Woodruff, Red Martin and Andrew Carraway.
