JAPANESE PAY FINAL TRIBUTE TO DEAD RULER

Over Million Mourners Line 4-Mile Route From Death Scene To Palace At Tokio

New Rulers Head Funeral Cortège

Coolidges Are Among Those Sending Con- dolence To Family

TOKYO, Dec. 27.—(AP)—Silent and bare headed, more than a million mourners lined the four-mile route from Harajuku station to the imperial palace as the body of the late Emperor Yoshihito was returned to Tokyo tonight from the royal villa at Hayama, where he died Christmas day.

From the railroad station to the palace the streets were sprinkled with white sand as a ceremony of purification. On either side the way was fringed with soldiers and policemen—16,000 of them.

The cortège was preceded into the capital by the new Emperor Hirohito and the new Empress. The body, escorted by officers of the imperial guard, headed the cortège proper and Sadako, the emperor's empress, followed shortly in a carriage. Then came troops of cavalry, princes and princesses of the imperial families, court ladies, chamberlains, the household minister, the lord steward and more imperial guards—a spectacular scene as impressive as it was solemn.

Emperor Hirohito and his consort arrived during the afternoon and were received into the city by government officials with extremely simple ceremonies. Their coming was unostentatious and was marked by silence.

At the body was borne from the villa at Hayama; 48 mourning guns rumbled from a battleship which rode at anchorage nearby and other ships of war fired farewell salutes as the special train proceeded toward Tokyo.

The route from Hayama to Tokyo was lined with not only troops but by thousands of the emperor's subjects.

The new rulers met the casket at the palace entrance and conveyed it to Shinjuku hall. Prayer marked the end of the day's ceremony.

Hundreds of cabled condolences from other sovereigns and from Japanese abroad have been received. One was from President Coolidge addressed to the emperor's empress and to the new emperor and empress and was among the first to be received.

Commissioners To Study Tourist Plan

A discussion of the plan to establish a tourist recreation facility on land opposite the Hotel Great Lakes, together with the building of a dock in the lake north of the hotel, occupied the time of the city commissioners at their meeting this afternoon. Other items on the tourist question, nothing more than the transaction of routine business came before the Commission.

E. J. Markell, who represented the Chamber of Commerce at the meeting, asked that some action be taken on the recreation matter in an early date. The commissioners authorized City Manager B. Williams to make a survey of the requirements both for the grounds and for the dock.

SANFORD MAY BE HOST TO GROUP OF CONGRESSMEN

Rivers and Harbors Committee of Congress To Make A Tour Of Coast And May Be Guests Here Before Return

J. G. Ball, member of the St. Johns river canal board, and E. J. Trotter, secretary of the Sanford Chamber of Commerce, are to leave this afternoon for Jacksonville to meet the members of the rivers and harbors committee of congress Tuesday morning and extend to them an invitation to place Sanford and the St. Johns river on their itinerary for their Florida visit, which begins with their arrival in Jacksonville tomorrow morning.

The committee, composed of 14 members of congress, is to make a flying trip down the east coast and then up through the central part of the state to Lakeland, where they are to inspect a drainage project.

It is the plan of leading business men and the Chamber of Commerce to have the committee come to Sanford from Lakeland and then return to Jacksonville by river, allowing the members a first-hand glimpse of the St. Johns. The trip here would afford an opportunity to place before the committee the necessity for a deep channel between Sanford and Palatka, it is said.

Congressman Joe Sears is to be a member of the party and has suggested that the Chamber of Commerce extend the invitation to the committee. He also suggested that the trip to Sanford from Lakeland be made in automobiles, providing the invitation was accepted.

Arrangements will be made among members of the Chamber of Commerce to transport the congressional committee here.

Shriners Send Local Youth To Sanitarium

Roland Barnes, 10, of Wagner, is now in the Shrine Hospital for crippled children at Shreveport, La., where he is to undergo treatment for a crippled condition of his body which has existed for years, according to officials of the Sanford Shrine club.

The boy was taken to Shreveport by R. E. Herndon, who stated today that the local club has been making an effort to have young Barnes admitted for treatment for the past several months and that owing to the crowded condition of the hospital, he was forced to be put on the waiting list.

The hospital now has over 300 crippled children as its patients. They are from several southern states. Several hospitals built and maintained by the Shriners are now in operation in several parts of the country.

FAIR WEATHER PREDICTED FOR BUSINESS SHIP

Forecasts Of Optimism Tem- pered With Notes Of Con- servatism Scoured By Big Leaders Of Big Businesses

No Storms Threaten Outlook, Is Claim

If Business Is Diminished Individuals May Be Blamed Declares Judge E. H. Gary

NEW YORK, Dec. 27.—(AP)—Beacons in the banking and industrial world point a fair weather course for the good ship business in 1927. Forecasts of optimism, tempered with notes of conservatism, were available today in statements on the outlook for next year's business from heads of railroads, bank and industrial corporations. The navigable seas of commerce are not threatened by dire storms as far as can be seen, the prognosticators say. High pinnacles of production follow:

James Simpson, president of Marshall Field and Company: "In my opinion business will continue during the next months substantially on the level of 1926. Business and government have been conservatively, although progressively administered during the past year and fundamentally conditions are left in good balance, auguring well for the period immediately ahead. Merchandising activity generally has been successful. The retail sales of Marshall Field and Company have been the largest in our history."

Albert H. Cary, chairman of the United States Steel corporation: "If business shall be seriously diminished during the coming year, it will be the fault of ourselves, and not the fault of natural conditions or the lack of consideration and fair treatment by the national administration."

"The sensational possibilities for success in business have been better than before," he added. These opportunities he listed as rich resources, including cash balances in banks; yearly improvement of banking facilities since the creation of the Federal reserve board; little disagreement or dissatisfaction in industrial and lumber circles.

Alfred P. Sloan, Jr., president of the General Motors corporation, says it now seems reasonable to expect that the 1927 production of automobiles will equal if it doesn't exceed the previous four-year average. He predicts that 1927 will be a good and satisfactory year for the automobile industry.

Patrick E. Crowley, president of the New York Central lines, says that indications are that 1927 will be a year that might be termed generally satisfactory so far as the railroads are concerned in that the prospects for the volume of traffic do not, at this time, present any unusual outlook.

Employed Boys of YMCA Are Guests At Christmas Party

A Christmas party was held for the Employed Boys' Group of the Y. M. C. A. Saturday night at the home of C. E. Williams, group leader, under the auspices of the Seminole County Y. M. C. A., at which time presents were distributed from a large Christmas tree to each boy present.

Candy for the party was furnished by Chase and Company, and ice cream by the Seminole Creamery Company. Chase and Company also made each boy a present of a pocket knife.

The Employed Boys Group consists of members of the staff of the Western Union and Postal Telegraph companies and of the boys employed in various offices and business houses of the city. C. E. Williams, of the Sanford police department, is the leader.

The party is to be held each Christmas in the future, according to C. D. Wolff, secretary of the Y. M. C. A.

Earthquake shocks were felt in other San Joaquin valley towns about 1:20 this morning. At Turlock, dishes were rattled, windows shaken and many persons awakened.

Christmas Festivities Of City And County Marked With Quiet Observance

The Christmas holiday in Sanford was attended with services in the various churches of the city and by celebrations held for the benefit of children of all ages and classes and both Saturday and Sunday were free from any unusual occurrences or of any disturbance of a serious nature, according to a survey made today.

Special Christmas day services were observed during the morning hours by a number of the churches and in the afternoon hours thousands of persons took to the highways for tours of the central part of the state and for sporting events of various kinds. Others went to the movies. Many spent the afternoon out, or near, the lake.

Saturday afternoon hundreds of children were guests of the Sanford Shine Club at a Christmas party in Central Park. Y. M. C. A. groups were entertained with parties during the afternoon and evening.

No more than the usual amount of drunkenness attended the celebration of the day, according to police. A number of drunks were picked up but it was no larger than the number usually brought in on a busy Saturday night, they declare.

On the county roads, very little trouble was experienced through traffic mishaps and only a few fist fights were reported both in the city and county. None of them were reported to be of a serious nature.

It was, according to law authorities, one of the most peaceful observances of Christmas in the past few years.

OFFICERS MOVE SNOW BLANKET TO CLEAR UP 3 SLAYING CASES OF NORTHEAST

Inquest Will Be Held Soon By Jacksonville Officers Into Christmas Killings

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Dec. 27.—(AP)—Officers today moved to clear up three slayings which occurred here Christmas day.

A Behring, alleged mutilation operation victim, and his mother-in-law, Mrs. Mattie L. Harrington, as dead as a result of the principal shooting affair. William Minor, negro dish washer, was shot and killed by Alex Demos, restaurateur, on Christmas night when Demos claimed the negro came to work in an intoxicated condition and attacked Tom Demos, a brother of the proprietor, with a knife.

Behring was shot dead by Willis Harrington, his brother-in-law, after the former went to the Harrington home and mortally wounded Mrs. Harrington, police claim. The affair was laid to hard feeling between Behring and the Harrington family.

POISONED LIQUOR ACCOUNTS FOR 11 GOTHAM DEATHS

Seventy-Three Persons Sent To Hospitals As Result Of Drinking Christmas Spirits That Are Improperly Made

NEW YORK, Dec. 27.—(AP)—Poison Christmas liquor and excessive drinking today had garnered a toll here of 11 deaths, three less than last year and 73 persons sent to hospitals for alcoholism, more than 1924 and 1925 together.

Eight of the deaths were in Manhattan and three in Brooklyn. Improperly distilled alcohol was largely responsible, in the opinion of Dr. Charles Norris, chief medical examiner. Dr. Thomas W. Gonzales, assistant medical examiner, said, however, that autopsies on seven of the dead indicated that excessive drinking rather than poisonous elements was responsible.

Dr. Norris said the bootleggers were so rushed that in re-distilling liquor known to contain poisonous substances they would not take time to purify it properly.

Of 65 cases of alcoholism reported by Bellevue hospital, only 15 were considered serious and attendants said all probably would recover. Twenty of the 65 were released after treatment. Included in those admitted were eight women.

Only one victim of bad liquor was reported in Chicago over the week-end, but Dr. Heifman N. Bundesen, city health commissioner there, estimated that "poison" costing upward of $10,000,000 was distributed in that city as gifts.

Probably not more than eight per cent of this liquor was genuine, he said, and advised that "if you must drink, first take the liquor to a chemist."

In Poughkeepsie, N. Y., a railroad workman died from drinking home-made liquor.

Legion Enrolls 281 Members in Drive That Closed Friday

When the membership campaign of the American Legion closed last Friday night, a total of 281 members were on the rolls of Campbell-Lossing, according to an announcement made today by Leroy Chittenden, post commander, who stated that the drive ended with highly satisfactory results to the members and officers of the post.

The large signboard at the corner of Park Avenue and First Street was removed this morning. It contained the names of all the members of the post, both men and women. The board was completely filled with names during the campaign.

Officers of the Legion stated today that the signboard fulfilled its purpose. It was erected to give publicity to the drive and as new members joined the post, their names were painted on the board.

Activities for the coming year are to be discussed at a meeting which is to be held shortly after New Year's Day.

MADGA LUPESCU HAS PASSED OUT OF CAROL'S LIFE

Romance Of Auburn-Haired Beauty And Former Crown Prince Of Rumania Ended, Friends Of Carol Assert

Paris, Dec. 27.—(AP)—Madga Lupescu, auburn-haired beauty for whom Prince Carol of Rumania renounced his right of succession to the throne, has apparently passed out of his life.

Those credited with knowing his affairs say the romance which began with the flight of the couple from Rumania a year ago has ended. The former crown prince—now plain Carol Caraiman—has left his Neuilly villa and is believed to be somewhere on the Riviera, leaving his charming companion behind.

Carol's departure gave rise to the report that he was on his way back to Rumania, but this is not given credence in view of King Ferdinand's recovery, the return of Queen Marie from her American trip and the reiterated declaration in Bucharest that Carol's uninvited appearance there would only cause complications.

It was just a year ago this week that Carol and Mme. Lupescu, laughey of a Jewish merchant of Iaey, left Rumania and appeared at a hotel in Milan, Italy. Mme. Lupescu was said to have a husband somewhere in the background and Carol was married to Princess Helen of Greece. The match with Helen was arranged as a dynastic move after annulment of his marriage with Zina Lambino, who only recently made an unsuccessful attempt through the French court to force him to acknowledge the legitimacy of their son, Mircea.

Upon leaving Rumania Carol renounced his right of succession to the throne, and his abdication was made legal by act of the Rumanian parliament shortly afterward.

He and his companion spent some time in Milan and then came to Paris and engaged the villa in Neuilly. The house now is occupied only by uncommunicative servants and the detectives stationed as a guard by the French authorities have been withdrawn pending his return.

Mme. Lupescu is reported to be living about a mile from the villa.

Kennel Club Races May Start Jan. 15

Fred Overbach, of Jacksonville and Miami, was in Sanford today in the interests of the Sanford-Orlando Kennel Club, of which he is one of the builders. He stated that it is planned to open the whippet racing at Longwood on Jan. 15, or shortly thereafter and that the work on the plant is progressing in a satisfactory manner.

The plant is to be one of the finest in the south, according to Mr. Overbach, and the races there are to be conducted in a fair and aboveboard manner. "The racing of the whippets on our track will provide the public with clean amusement that will be of benefit to the country," he said today.

The track is being erected on the south side of the boulevard leading to the plant of the Seminole Racing Club, at Longwood. It is to be of modern structure throughout with a grandstand of concrete and steel now in course of completion.

COBB AND TRIS SPEAKER BOTH WANT HEARING

Accused Players Of American League Desire Charges To Be Aired Openly

Friends Demand A Landis Inquiry

Expressions Of All Fans Lean Toward Heroes Of Baseball

CHICAGO, Dec. 24.—(AP)—The fire of baseball's Christmas scandal smoldered today. Baseball's masters are content to let it go out. The fire victims—Ty Cobb and Tris Speaker—also want the blaze extinguished, but complete exoneration is the only extinguisher they want.

Both Cobb and Speaker, generally rated as the two greatest players of modern baseball, continue their plans for a chance to face the man who started the fire—H. B. (Dutch) Leonard, former Tiger pitcher.

Leonard, the recipient of letters from Cobb and Joe Wood, once a Cleveland pitcher, continues non-committal regarding the charges linking the names of Cobb and Speaker with a game between Cleveland and Detroit in 1910, which he said was fixed for Detroit to win.

Meanwhile there are rumblings that press charges from Cobb and Speaker's friends in Augusta, Ga., who said American League officials were "equally guilty" with Leonard in this "rotten business" because "they paid $20,000 to keep the details of the story from leaking out." The reference is to the papers reported to have been paid Leonard for letters written by Cobb and Wood which form the basis of the charges on which Cobb and Speaker are linked with the questioned game.

Miss Wills Begins Efforts To Regain Her Tennis Laurels

NEW YORK, Dec. 14.—(AP)—Helen Wills has entered upon the first eastern mid-winter tennis campaign of her career here in an attempt to regain the national tennis crown she yielded to Mrs. Mollie Mallory last season.

Also eastward, "Queen of the American courts," following the trail blazed by Tilden, took up her request yesterday against the Philadelphia in an exhibition doubles match on indoor courts and indicated to a gallery of 200 spectators that she has entirely recovered from the operation for appendicitis which forced her out of competition last summer.

Parling with Elmer Griffin, of California, she drove, with speed and excellent direction, with her volleying approaches which was a duplicate of her style when she was in her best tennis condition. She and her partner were beaten by Tilden and Young Conn, youthful Kansas City star, in three sets, 6-2, 6-4, 7-5.

Tilden donated the play for the facts from the knee injury which handicapped his play toward the close of the last campaign.

GAME IS POSTPONED

WACO, Tex., Dec. 24.—(AP)—An injury to Red Grange's knee has caused the postponement of a Christmas day football game here between Grange's Yankees and George Wilson's Wildcats. It is believed, however, that Grange will be in condition to play at San Antonio Sunday. The two teams left for San Antonio last night.

Youngest Legislator Is In Favor of State Boxing Body And Wild Life Protection

TALLAHASSEE, Fla., Dec. 24.—(AP)—Florida's youngest legislator, Fuller Warren, a student at the University of Florida, would like to see the state legislature, next April, enact laws for the creation of a state boxing commission, and a better protection of its wild life.

Mr. Warren, who is only 22 years old, in addition to creation of the boxing commission, would support any movement to legalize boxing in Florida, provided that it was properly regulated.

The youthful lawmaker, who was elected as a member of the House of Representatives by the voters of Gulf county, in the last primary and subsequent general election, has always been an ardent advocate of conserving the state's wild life, and made it an issue in his campaign.

His mother, Mrs. Grace Warren, former home demonstration agent for Calhoun county, and who is now engaged in that work in Alachua county, is a student and lover of bird life. In the summer of 1925, she was enrolled in a bird study class at the Florida State College for Women, and continued it as a student at the University of Florida in the summer of 1926.

Representative Warren, in a letter to The Associated Press, also expressed himself forcefully on the subject of taxation. He declared that he would like to see "taxes so regulated as to prevent the accumulation of a larger surplus in the treasury."

"The purpose of taxation, as I see it," he said, "is to raise money with which to carry on the various functions of government. When sufficient money has been raised for this purpose, there is absolutely no justification for further taxation."

Heavyweight Head Of Tokio Proves An Expert Swordsman

TOKYO, Dec. 24.—(AP)—Tokyo's new mayor, Hiromichi Nishikubo, is one of the most renowned swordsmen-fencers in Japan, despite his 238 pounds of weight.

Nishikubo, who was elected to succeed Mayor Izawa when the latter resigned because of ill health, is called by the Japanese the "Mussolini of Japan," as he is said to be temperamentally much like the Italian duce.

For years Nishikubo, who is 63 years old, has been a master of the sword. When Marquis Okuma came into power 11 years ago, he appointed Nishikubo as chief of the Metropolitan Police Board. The first thing the new chief did was to build a great exercise hall at police headquarters and to insist on all policemen practicing with the sword. He acted as head instructor.

Mayor Nishikubo, besides being a big man both politically and physically, he is a member of the House of Peers—is fond of sake, the Japanese national drink. At a recent dinner he is said to have performed the feat of consuming a gallon of the Japanese rice wine and going home under his own power.

Crimson Tide Men Ready For Another Stopover In Texas

ALABAMA SPECIAL NEAR EL PASO, Tex., Dec. 24.—(AP)—The Crimson Tide gathered up the molehills today, ready to break the steady westward march with another pause of several hours in El Paso. A brief rest and a workout for the team was the program after arrival at noon.

A fast scrimmage was the practice order. Departure in the evening for Tucson, Ariz., the next stop, suggested to the party that Pasadena loomed ahead but to the team and students the New Year's day game with Stanford University was for the present time in the background. Players were eating everything in sight and a glee quartet, assisted by hefty guards and tackles who somehow managed a first tenor, relieved the tiresome journey with song and cheering.

With a bit of luck and the admission of hundreds of friends and supporters were represented on the train by two tokens, one an object of superstition, the other of affection.

A floral wreath was presented to the team at Meridian, Miss., by "The Mother of Pooley" Mrs. Marie Hubert. "Pooley," fullback on last year's team, figured in the argument as to who threw the pass that beat Washington University 20 to 19 in the 1925 Tournament of Roses.

Hoyt Winslett, crack end, furnished the superstition by keeping company with a rabbit foot.

Tex Rickard Shuffles Fistic Deck And Brings Knute Hanson to the Top

NEW YORK, Dec. 24.—(AP)—Tex Rickard has given his heavy-weight fistic deck another shuffle, bringing to the top Knute Hanson, of Racine, Wis., and Paul Berlenbach, former light heavyweight champion, as prospective opponents for Jimmy Maloney, of Boston.

After signing the conqueror of Harry Persson to a contract for three fights, Rickard announced that either Hanson or Berlenbach would be the next to meet the hub contender. Berlenbach's chances hinge on the outcome of his bout with Mike McTigue next month.

There looms a subsequent fight for Maloney with the winner of a battle between Jack Sharkey, and Paulino Uscudun. The Spanish contender, only remaining European entry in the tournament, will meet his Boston foe early next year.

CLEVELAND AND DETROIT RALLY TO TY AND TRIS

CHICAGO, Dec. 24.—(AP)—Detroit, which less than two years ago gave Ty Cobb a civic testimonial banquet and presented him with a $10,000 gift paid for from the treasury of the city itself, has risen as one man to the defense of its baseball idol against charges of crookedness in baseball.

Ninety miles across Lake Erie as the crow flies, Cleveland has written the same positive endorsement across the record of Tris Speaker, whose name has been coupled with Cobb's and with that of Smokey Joe Wood, former Cleveland pitcher, in one of baseball's most astounding episodes.

Two Detroit recorders' court judges—Guy A. Miller and Edward J. Joffries—have coupled their public endorsement of Cobb with sharp criticism of Baseball Commissioner K. M. Landis for making public what they feel are calumnious charges.

Fans were just as ready to rally behind Speaker, and the telephone in his Cleveland home today continued to ring in the messages of assurance of his integrity. Speaker in a statement asked the public to base their opinion of him on "twenty years of hard honest effort for the game I have loved," rather than take "the statement of a disgruntled player who has refused to meet me face to face."

In Cobb's home town, Augusta, Ga., the city council at a special indignation meeting last night passed a resolution asserting "complete confidence in the honesty, probity and integrity of Ty and Tris Raymond Cobb."

Madison Square Garden promoter. "I'd like to see Maloney and Dempsey have it out," Rickard said. "Maloney is the type that is very apt to make things interesting for Gene Tunney."

Rickard's next show on New Year's eve night, marks the final stage of an elimination feather-weight series, bringing together Red Chapman of Boston and Benny Bass, of Philadelphia, in the main 10-round battle. The winner is to meet Honey Boy Finnegan of Boston, with recognition as champion by the New York State Athletic commission awaiting the ultimate survivor.

Babe Herman, of California, will fight Al Winkler, of Philadelphia, in the semi-final division. A return welterweight battle between Joe Dundee, of Baltimore, and Eddie Roberts, of Tacoma, has been tentatively fixed for Jan. 14. Roberts scored a quick knockout in their first clash recently on the Pacific coast.

DETROIT DEFEATED CLEVELAND 9 TO 5

have been no less positive than the Augusta council in their expressions of belief in the integrity of Speaker and Cobb.

Athletic officials at Yale University, where Joe Wood is baseball coach with another year of his contract to run, expect to listen to his story after the holidays. Wood will be asked to explain his letter to Leonard in which he spoke of a wager on the Detroit-Cleveland game of September 25, 1910.

The sum paid Leonard for the letters that are the basis of the charges has not been made public, but $20,000 is the figure generally discussed. Henry Killien, attorney for the league, said he had purchased the evidence. The investigation also has revealed that since Landis became baseball commissioner there has existed a surveillance system which keeps the players under constant observation.

Christmas Program Is Given At City Library On Friday Afternoon

Much interest was centered in the party at the library Friday afternoon for the "Story Hour" children and their friends. Mrs. ... planned a delightful program of Christmas stories, which were told by Mrs. Stevenson in a charming manner. A visit from Santa himself, and a tree on which danced nearly 100 gingerbread boys, was a feature of the afternoon. Recitations were given by several of the boys and girls, and a Christmas song by Dorothy Smith. Over 50 children were present. Owing to the library being closed on New Year's day, there will be no story hour held this year.

COLDS THAT DEVELOP INTO PNEUMONIA

Persistent coughs and colds lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified crocote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a new medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth. Of all known drugs, crocote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for persistent coughs and colds and other forms of throat troubles. Creomulsion soothes, in addition to crocote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membranes and stop the infection and inflammation, while the crocote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs. Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of persistent coughs and colds, bronchial asthma, whooping cough, and other forms of respiratory ailments. It is excellent for building up the system after colds or influenza. It is refunded if any cough or cold is not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. (Adv.)

Introducing Daniel Cupid Esq., Wholesaler

Under lightning, Mr. D. Cupid often strikes more than once in the same place. If he's ever struck as many times in a single spot as in the Mayrovitz family, of Philadelphia, love's legends contain no mention of it. Half of these principals of five matches, which are to culminate in marriage on as many successive Sundays, are related. From left to right and their fiancées are (left to right), Louis Mayrovitz and Sarah New; Charles Mayrovitz and Rose Friedman; Benjamin Mayrovitz and Ida Bernholz; Rabbi Winokur, the Mayrovitz' uncle, who is to perform the ceremonies; Pauline Mayrovitz and Maurice Rich; and the father, Melly Rich and Martin Hopkins.

Confidence

Father J. S. Ricard, noted weather expert of Santa Clara University, Calif., was so confident of his prediction that it wouldn't rain Nov. 27, the day of a big Santa Clara football game, that he wore his Panama hat to the gridiron event. He won—it didn't.

Another Queen Marie Goes Home

Because of "poetic plotting" in Bucharest in connection with the illness of King Ferdinand and the anticipated return of Prince Carol Queen Marie of Yugoslavia, daughter of Queen Marie of Rumania, has been sent back home from Bucharest, the new ex-queen. She was there visiting her mother. This shows the Yugoslavian queen with her son, Prince Pierre.

Bribes?

Mayor W. H. N. Stevens of Newark, N. J., has been indicted on charges of soliciting bribes and his pretty stenographer, Miss Margaret N. Flowers, is in liberty and a $500 bail in connection with the same charges. Miss Flowers was released on bond after she had made a statement, police said. The mayor was charged with carrying a pistol, also.

Incog' No More

The Maharajah was deposed by England after the scandal that costed about Muntaz Begum, aunt of the prince. His U. S. tour was of the incognito variety at first, the expatriate traveling under the name "T. Raju."

Those Cadets!

Has a royal heart been added to Cupid's long West Point casualty list? They say that when Princess Helena sailed for Rumania her thoughts were less on Bucharest than on the hurried Academy buildings which frowned down upon the Hudson River. It's there that she met William J. Glasgow, of Washington, honor man of his class, who is here exclusively pictured in fencing togs.

Daughter Of Former War Chief To Wed

Miss Betty Baker of Cleveland, daughter of former Secretary of War Newton D. Baker and Mrs. Baker, is going to be a December bride. Right after Christmas she'll marry John Philip McGean, Los Angeles insurance man.

A Fatal Note

This note from Erdman Olson, her sweetheart, lured Clara Olson to her death in Wisconsin, authorities of that state believe. It was found in her clothing when her body was dug from a shallow woodland grave near her home. Erdman Olson is sought on a murder charge.

It is confident that Ricciotti will be released by the Italian government.

BIBLE VERSE FOR TODAY
THE LORD BE EXALTED
The Lord Heeth; and blessed by my rock; and exalted by the God of the rock of my salvation.

PRAYER—I will praise thee, Lord, with my whole heart.
A SONNET
The world is too much with us;
Late and soon, getting and spending,
we lay waste our powers;
Little we see in Nature that is ours;
We have given our hearts away,
in a scolded boon!

This sea that bares her bosom to the moon,
The winds that will be howling at all hours,
And up-gathered now like sleeping flowers,
For this, for every thing, we are out of tune;
It moves us not—Great God; I'd rather be
A Pagan suckled in a creed outworn—
So might I, standing on this pleasant sea,

Have glimpses that would make me less forlorn;
Have sight of Proteus rising from the sea;
Or hear old Triton blow his wreathed horn.
W. Wordsworth.

It was a big Christmas even if today is a blue Monday.
After strenuous holiday, these college boys and girls will get plenty rest at school.

We can spend the rest of this week making resolutions, and use next week for breaking them.

It seems that a few people don't know that Christmas is over, judging by the spirits which they continue to show.

Frank L. Smith has accepted the appointment as senator from Illinois to fill the unexpired term of the late William H. McKinley. Now for the fireworks in Washington.

A good resolution for the new year, if you are an addict to making those things each year, would be "I'll boost—and I'll work." Combine boosting with honest effort and you'll get somewhere in this big parade.

The Palm Leaf, Fort Myers' third daily newspaper, made its bow last Monday. The Palm Leaf's first edition was a large one and its appearance was greeted by warm felicitations from many prominent people of the state and of that city. Captain Jack Doyle is owner and publisher of the paper.

Another year in Sanford's history will soon have passed. A year that is marked with progress in the land which typifies solidity. The numerous troubles which have beset certain municipalities throughout the south have not even cast their shadows upon Sanford. There was no boom, there were no bubbles to burst. Every body has continued to "save work" the year 1927 will see even greater accomplishments.

Give A Pledge For Sanford

One of the good resolutions to include with the list you are shaping up for the new year could very well be something like this: "I will do something for Sanford in 1927. I will add something to my city's general welfare."

We use that term "general welfare" advisedly. Most of us inadvertently do something for the betterment of Sanford every day, in all sorts of ways. When we improve the appearance of our homes, we help Sanford. When we spend our money in Sanford stores, we help Sanford. When we contribute something in the way of happiness to even our immediate circle of friends, we add something to the happiness of Sanford as a whole.

But our idea for the New Year's resolution has to do with some specific determination to perform an outstanding public service for Sanford. You may be skilled in the growing of flowers. Your service, then, might be the organization of flower-planting clubs whose work would be the beautifying of vacant lots and neglected dooryards.

Or you may be a good story-teller. If so you might establish story-telling hours among children who do not have the pleasure of such occasions.

The Herald could publish a long list of possible ways to help Sanford that would not require a large outlay of money. It is citizen service that does the most for a town, service contributed in sincere desire to make Sanford more beautiful, more prosperous, more happy.

In the quiet hour in which you draft your New Year's resolutions, then, get away from your personal affairs and your selfish interests until you have mapped out for yourself some creditable line of public service that you know you can, and will do. Give some thought to Sanford.

More Money Coming To Florida

More farms and more farmers for Florida, a vast increase in the amount of money for Florida agricultural development, more attention to the development of the state's natural resources—that is one of the outstanding predictions for the Florida of 1927 and the years to follow.

The get-rich-quick speculators whose idea of doing business in Florida was to buy land cheap, sell it dear, and skip will not return to this state for a long, long time. The people here have their eyes wide open and, thanks to this wide vision, they are seeing that all the wealth that was to come so easy is right at their hand in the soil of the farms and the mines.

Frank Parker Stockbridge, author of "Florida in the Making," is authority for the prediction that more outside capital will be invested in Florida in 1927 than in the last two years together. He says, too, that this money will not be put into new playgrounds and resorts, but in the soil, in agricultural and mineral products. "With the view to making Florida a producing and self-supporting state."

Mr. Stockbridge is strongly against Florida's putting so much value upon the tourist trade. He thinks that it is rankly foolish for any community to so place the tourist business above everything else it neglects to make use of the opportunities it has for other revenue. He believes in the good business of attracting new citizens rather than the transients. He would have Florida attract men who desire to invest their capital in industries that will make use of Florida's natural resources.

Sanford is in position, too, to take advice of that sort. Sanford can bid for the kind of tourist who has money to invest in substantial enterprises, and then can go about the task of showing that tourist the advantages of not only placing his money in Seminole county but of casting his lot in Sanford where the beginning of a big city is apparent to any one who will study the conditions here.

Provide reasonable pleasures and comforts for visitors, give them especially the cordial welcome and courteous attention that any of us would want if we were in a strange town looking for a place to have a pleasant vacation. Then let 1927 show the results by the big increase of money in Sanford banks, the growth of Sanford's population, and the new industries throughout the county.

Outside capital wants a good place to grow. Bring it to Sanford.

JUSTICE without strength, or strength without justice—fearful misfortunes!—Joubert.

IF YOU WOULD be good, first believe that you are bad.—Epictetus.

A GOOD CONSCIENCE is a continual Christmas.—Franklin.

NO WICKEDNESS proceeds on any grounds of reason.—Livy.

SORROWS remembered sweeten present joys.—Polak.

A NEW DAY IS HERE

DAYTONA BEACH NEWS

Over the desk of the manager of one of Daytona Beach's leading business concerns there hangs a little frame in which is the following legend:
"Help us to meet the rugged requirements with cheerful faces. Give us the patience to serve faithfully and well; and at night lean to us sound and undisturbed sleep, that we may serve better tomorrow."
It reads like a prayer. And it is. But it is not a prayer to God alone; it strikes the eye of the visitor to that office and brings to his attention the thought back of that prayer. It touches a new note in his being. It gives him a new slant on the manager of that company and the methods which he employs in his business. It puts the visitor into a mood to transact his business quickly, generously and fairly.

It also is a constant reminder to the manager that he sits there not so much to be served as to serve. It is a business text for the company and its customers, for the employers and the employees. It is, in short, the platform upon which that firm undertakes to do business.

So it is a good prayer and a good platform, for America is the keynote of modern business. "He profits most who serves best," wrote Paul P. Harris some 20 years ago when he organized the first Rotary club, and men in every country the world over are now aligned by the thousand upon the banner which bears that legend.
To be sure every business man strives to make a profit. Profit

As Brisbane Sees It

Six More Days.
The Ultimatum Stage.
Pink Velvet Puppies.
The Mikado Laughs.
BY ARTHUR BRISBANE

FOR PEOPLE THAT amount to anything, especially the young, the day after Christmas means another year almost gone.

Six more days are left of this year, then comes 1927. Much can be done in six days. The world was created in six days, and everything in it, according to Genesis. You can't hope to create a world with sun, moon, stars, fishes, elephants, microbes, and a human race, in what is left of this year.

But you can start something, if only the habit of thinking seriously about the flight of time—the years go by like the words of one of these moving light signs in big cities.

ABOUT NINE-TENTHS of all young men and women will say "No use trying to do anything between now and New Year's day." They make up the big class that will not do anything between now and funeral day.

THE BIG United States reaches the ultimatum stage in its dealings with the Nicaragua's attempt to establish a better, more liberal government. Uncle Sam tells the so-called "rebels" of Nicaragua what they must do including the evacuation of Puerto Cabezas.

ONCE WE WERE small and poor fighting England, and were glad to have France sympathize with us, instead of sending us ultimatum, ordering us to submit to things as they were.

There is no more justice in our ordering Nicaragua's liberal party to submit to an unworkable government than it would have been for France to decide against us, in 1776.

WE ARE BIG and rich now, satisfied with things as they are, and do not have time for organized money substituted for the "strawed" that Jefferson put into the Declaration of Independence.

And you may be quite sure that a well organized money talking to the government means that the hard-earned money that is in the hands of the people is being used to the benefit of the government.

OUR ONE INTEREST in that neighborhood is the Panama canal. We ought to protect that and are rich enough to do it.

We should refrain from meddling with our neighbors to the south. The richest nation in the world, lacking brains and ability to protect itself with intelligent fighting air fleet, with army and navy department, neither of which is able to carry out a simple flying experiment successfully should not tell other nations how to run their governments.

NIAGARAN REBELS might buy a dozen good bombing machines, fly to Washington and scare our administration, congress, army and navy departments out of ten years' growth. That wouldn't be much growth for us, but it would still be a self-defeating move since the war.

FASHIONABLE ladies in Paris have for their latest pink velvet puppies, very fat with bright red tongues sticking out of their mouths.

Rich American girl acquires similar toys in the way of foreign husbands. Eventually the foreign husband, like the pink velvet puppy, goes into the ash can.

IF THAT YOUNG man is not a fool, it would interest him to look across the Pacific to the harbor of Los Angeles, the southwestern door to California and the United States.

Still Limping

AUTO ACCIDENTS
ORLANDO REPORTER-STAR

Another man has been made to lie prostrate in the place he has paid the penalty of carelessness and been thrown by the flying auto, a reckless driver. It has indeed been a truck coming whizzing along and come to a halt to let a man cross the body of the fallen or woman to undertake to walk on a highway, no matter how narrow, that they may be. There are no drivers who seem to regard the prohibition as a trespasser on the streets that there is no safety zone in public thoroughfares.

There is no use pussyfooting about the situation. Heavier penalties must be imposed upon those who are guilty of reckless driving. That is the only way some men and women can be taught the lesson of reason.

Recently the driver of a gravel truck bumped into an auto and so injured the driver of the auto that he died. The driver of the truck was fined $100. The driver of the auto was fined $500. The driver of the auto was fined $500. The driver of the auto was fined $500.

A LARKY FETTER
BY LINDA L. BAKER

One born in America of generation after generation, has built a nation on the idea that all men are created free and equal in the eyes of the government and that government depends on the consent of the governed. In America or anywhere else. In such an accidental death of the present, the agitation in Japan over the signing of a ruler is understood.

THE POLAR LEGION

ATLANTA JOURNAL

As charter members of the Polar Legion, which they have recently organized, Captain Amundsen, Commander Byrd and Lincoln Ellsworth enjoy membership in a society whose roster is most exclusive. They are the only living persons who can qualify for membership, for they alone have explored the Farthest North. It was fitting that they should have inscribed on the Legion's honor roll the names of Admiral Robert E. Peary and Captain Robert F. Scott, who respectively gained the North and South Poles.

Having attained both, Captain Amundsen enjoys a distinguished record shared by his fellow-legionnaires, but this honor may not forever be his. Commander Byrd may realize his dream of flying to the South Pole, though the enterprise involves many hazards not encountered on this trip to the North. Amundsen himself has written of the South Pole, and his picture is far from encouraging to aviators. He planted the Norwegian flag at the north pole, having determined, on arrival, that the act of planting the historic event, should be equally divided among us all. It was not for one man to do this; it was for all who staked their lives in the struggle and held together through thick and thin. Five weather-beaten, frost-bitten fliers, who raised the pole, raised the saving flag in the air, and planted

A. M. Hunt, an old gentleman moved out from Commerce to the Hollingsworth settlement about ten days ago. He was one of the neighbors gathered in and around town several days, until he died Tuesday and was buried in the case of smallpox. The people who doctored him are now being quarantined.—Banks County Journal.

MISS OLIVE NEWMAN HONORED AT BRILLIANT COSTUME BALL GIVEN AT THE HOTEL FORREST LAKE

Among the many social affairs being given for members of the college set during the holidays, one of the most beautiful as well as one of the most enjoyable was the fancy dress ball given Saturday evening at the Hotel Forrest Lake by Mrs. Alice E. Hill, honoring her grand-daughter, Miss Olive Newman, a student at Florida State College for Women at Tallahassee, who is spending the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Newman.

The spacious ball room was most artistically decorated with tall French wicker baskets filled with pink roses and feathery sprays of asparagus ferns. From the many side lights and chandeliers were suspended garlands of roses and ferns.

Mrs. Hill received her guests wearing a gown of fuchsia georgette. She was assisted in entertaining by her daughter, Mrs. Robert A. Newman, who was attired in a lovely frock of Nile green georgette elaborately beaded and trimmed with ruffles of pastel metallic ribbons.

Pirates bold, ballet dancers, sheiks, demure old fashioned maidens and the courtly Colonial men with powdered wigs were in attendance, and it was indeed hard for the judges to decide which were the best costumes. It was finally decided that Miss Emily Griffin's costume of black oil cloth and trimmed with high white domes, was the best worn by the girls, while Albert Connelly, dressed as a Spanish Senor, won the boys' prize. Miss Griffin received a lovely perfume burner and a lamp, while the boys' prize was six linen handkerchiefs.

During the evening much merriment was afforded by the featured dances, one of especial interest being the balloon dance, in which the girls had inflated balloons tied to their ankles and as the balloons burst, the couples were eliminated. The couple remaining on the floor for the longest time were Miss Mary Elizabeth Puleston and Frank Woodruff. They were awarded prizes and were required to open them in the floor. Miss Puleston opened her "Jar of Jam" and found that it held a rarer snake. In another feature dance the prizes were won by Miss Katherine Ray of Jacksonville, and Stanley Vernay. Miss Ray's prize was found to contain snow balls, while Mr. Vernay's proved to be fire crackers.

The music for the evening was especially good and was furnished by the Semolee Syncopators. Refreshments of sandwiches and punch were served late in the evening.

Many small costumes were worn by the guests. One greatly admired was that of Miss Mildred Slemmons, which was a Spanish costume of yellow satin, with transparent skirt of black tulle.

Miss May Holly was dressed as a cunning bell boy, in red and numerous brass buttons. Miss Mildred Holly was attired in a stunning white Russian costume banding with white fur.

Miss Olive Newman was stunning as "The Spirit of Christmas," wearing a frock of red satin, with garlands of silver and green.

Miss Georgia Mobley was adorable as "Little Boy Blue," and Miss Ava Wright and Miss Frances Dutton were gowned as sweet old-fashioned girls.

Two picturesque pirate costumes were those worn by Miss Maude Lake and Miss Katherine Ray of Jacksonville.

Miss Charlotte Stryker wore a most becoming pink Pierette costume with jaunty French tricorn hat.

Other clever costumes of Japanese maidens, skating costumes, ballet gowns, farces, Senoritas, and pierettes were worn by the girls, and the boys were equally as attractively robed; Robert Dutton represented a stalwart Russian; Edgerton Patterson was "Mephistopheles"; Frederick Bell George Washington; Ralph Woodruff as a "cowboy"; Pearce Griffin as a Spaniard; W. A. Adams and William Moyer as sheiks; Randall Chase as a Court gentleman; Frank Chase as a pirate; Stanley Vernay as a Courtier.

The chaperones for the evening were: Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Newman, Mr. and Mrs. William C. Hill, Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Lake, Dr. and Mrs. Samuel Puleston, Mr. and Mrs. David I. Brashear, Mr. and Mrs. Robert John Holly, Mr. and Mrs. George A. Detert, Mrs. Edna M. Hill, Mildred Holly, Maude Lake, Georgia M. Holly, Ruth Henry, Kitty Du Bose, Frances Dutton, Ava Wright, Elizabeth Burnell, Margaret Peters, Lena Belle Hogan, Emily Langley, Hagan Vernay, Carmeta Barber, Emily Griffin, Sara Evelyn Williams, Also James Wright, John Schurz, William Lake, Edgerton Patterson, Robert McEwen, Harry Woodruff, Ralph Woodruff, Frank Woodruff, John Bryndley, G. W. Spencer, Jr., Briggs, Arrington, Max Stewart, Hope Huff, Joe Meisch, James Sharon, Dr. Albert Connelly, Everett, Dash, William Moyer, W. A. Adams, and all Chase, Frank Chase, Robert Dutton, William Du Bose, Stanley Vernay, Elysa Beck, Edward M. Hogan, Arthur Bridges, Ed Raleigh, N. C. D. Woodward of DeLand, Martin Tenge, Calvin Tenge, Gordon Cherry, Ed Lake, John Wilson, George Wilson, Chandler Sharon, Algerman Speer.

Also Mr. and Mrs. Richard W. Russell, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Meisch, Jr. and Mr. and Mrs. Monroe B. Hutton.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Rutledge have us their guests for the holidays. Mr. and Mrs. Harold Rutledge, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Sherwood and two small sons of Grand Rapids, Mich., and Mr. and Mrs. William Musgrove and son Billie of Lake Mary.

The Misses Mildred Holly, Olive Newman, Virginia Palmer, Mary Elizabeth Puleston, Maude Lake, Georgia Mobley, Sara Easterly, Frances Dutton, Ava Wright, Kirtley DuBose, Julia Higgins, R. F. Griffin, Margaret Peters and Messrs. Ralph Woodruff, Frank Woodruff, Albert Connelly, Jack Peters, John Edward Higgins, E. W. Moore and Robert McEwen were among those from Sanford attending the tea dance at the Rosalind Club Saturday afternoon given by Mrs. Thomas Albert Neal and Mrs. Julius Stryker, honoring Miss Charlotte Stryker.

The many friends of Mrs. W. L. Barber will regret to learn that she has been quite ill at her home on Palmetto Avenue.

Miss Helen Stinson of Rock Hill, S. C., is the attractive guest of her sister, Mrs. C. S. Jernigan at the Dacey Winston Apartment.

Mrs. P. F. Cray of Tampa is visiting in Sanford as the guest of her sister, Mrs. George Shipp at her home on Central Avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred S. Daiger Sr., who have been visiting relatives here for several days, left Monday morning for their home in Tampa.

The many friends of Mrs. T. E. King will regret to learn that she has been quite ill for the past ten days at her home on Union Avenue.

Aida loves Radames, a young warrior, but has a dangerous rival in Amneris, the daughter of the king. Incited by Amneris, the high priest Ramfis declares that Radames has been selected by Isis to be the leader of the army against Amonasro. Aida's heart is torn between her love for her father and for Radames, and she remains at Memphis.

The scene changes to the Temple of Vulcan, where Amneris and Radames are to be married. Amneris, in a fit of jealousy, declares that she will be the bride.

GERMAN FINDS SOCIAL AIR HAS BEEN CHANGED

Baron Von Maltzan And His Wife Discover Barriers Against Them Are Dropped

WASHINGTON, Dec. 27.—(AP)—Winning back a place in the sun for Germany on the social map of Washington is one of the many problems which nowadays beset every German ambassador and his wife.

The late Dr. Otto Wiedfeldt admitted that to him had been assigned the role of "ice breaker," politically and socially, and in the latter part he found the going particularly rough at times.

But the present ambassador, Baron Ago van Maltzan, and his wife find Washington a society the conclusion of peace, frankly cleared of much of the war-time and post-war debris, and what remains is rapidly giving way before the social graces and tactful procedure of what is called "the new German embassy crowd."

The Maltzans have stored decisively in the manner in which they have won a place in the capital's social life. The baroness, who comes from a well-known Westphalian industrialist family, is no stranger to diplomatic social life, and although a comparative newcomer to Washington, she has quickly taken her place among the official hostesses of the capital.

Baron von Maltzan has proven himself a good mixer by his democratic manner and his extended experience in the German foreign service. He is fond of riding, tennis and golf and begins his official day early in order to be able to spend his afternoons outdoors. He is a member of the Chevy Chase and Congressional Country clubs, Wiedfeldt a Business Man.

That the baron also continues to enjoy the complete confidence of his home government was demonstrated when Dr. Stresemann, the German foreign minister, defended him in the reichstag against attacks because the baron displayed the German colors on the embassy building here last Armistice day.

Dr. Wiedfeldt was not a "service man" and it required considerable persuasion on the part of the German foreign office to induce him to exchange his post as directing head of the Krupp corporation for the job of initiating the resumption of diplomatic relations with the United States in Washington. He referred good naturedly to his social isolation in the capital, and did not weary of comforting his immediate staff whose members not infrequently found themselves confronted by a chilly aloofness in their social rounds.

Communist Groups Cost Needle Trades Union Huge Sum

NEW YORK, Dec. 27.—(AP)—The New York World says today that communistic activities in the past year have cost the Needle Trades union approximately $30,000,000, have practically wrecked the Furriers' union, and partly wrecked the International Ladies' Garment Workers' union through strikes that could have been avoided.

A meeting called for tonight at Cooper union by the Cloak Cutters' union ostensibly to install officers, the World declares was actually called to discuss the situation and to receive assurances of support from the American Federation of Labor in combatting communism.
