politics that a military dictator is in serious danger from some lieutenant or other who thinks he can run the country better than his chief.

Francisco would "pay back" Mussolini and Hitler for the many thousands of volunteers and millions of dollars worth of equipment they have sent him.

The insurgent leader's first step in foreign policy might be to proclaim the independence of Spain and emphasize her friendship for Germany and Italy.

This presumably would bolster the prestige of European dictators by increasing their number but, for popular Spanish consumption, deny that Franco had traded Spain's independence for Italian and German assistance in his war against the republic.

Next, Franco presumably would make economic concessions to the dictatorial nations, probably allowing them to exploit some of Spain's natural resources and showing their way as much trade as a war-ravaged nation could give the "have-not" nations.

France is expected to make secret military treaties with Germany and Italy to cover eventualities in case of a general European war. He might permit troops to pass through Spain and let Germany and Italy establish secret naval bases on Spain's Mediterranean coast.

Such concessions would menace France in two ways. Troop passage would force her to patrol three borders—the Spanish, Italian and German. Naval bases in the Spanish Mediterranean would threaten to cut off communication with her north African colonies.

As the inevitable penalty of civil war, Franco would have to turn to an outside power to get money to rehabilitate his country and run his new government, and the natural spots for credit would be London and New York.

British and American observers seem to think those nations hold a trump card in an economic game with Mussolini and Hitler in Spain, after all, Hitler and Mussolini are cleming down to keep money in their countries. At the same time, London is looking for places to invest money and the United States is willing to pay cash for Spain's cork and olive oil. Franco will be sorely tempted to carry water on both shoulders.

of Tortosa, 180 miles southeast of Barcelona, and had set up machine guns and field artillery commanding the last highway to link the two sections of government territory.

The rebel guns, frowning down on the seacoast road, severed all traffic between the north and south.

In sight of the Mediterranean on the south and touching the French border on the north, rebel armies began closing the jaws of a giant trap about Catalonia, seat of the Spanish government.

But Russia last night rejected a Japanese protest that accused the Soviets of lending military aid to China in her war with Japan.

Foreign Commissar Maxim Litvinoff denied the Soviet Government had sent any army detachments or officers to bolster China's forces.

"Any declaration contradicting this fact and incapable of verification," Litvinoff declared, "could have been laid only by circles which already are well known for their systematic fabrication of all kinds of false reports with the object of sharpening relations between Japan and the Soviet Union."

The Japanese protest delivered earlier yesterday by Ambassador Morifuji Shigemitsu, warned that Russia would have to "assume responsibility for the consequences" if such aid continued.

Chocolate Beans Burn To Raise The Price

WASHINGTON, Apr. 5.—(AP)—Honeybees may like their cocoa but African Gold Coast farmers who raise it are mighty sore about present prices.

Cocoa has been the real "gold" of the Gold Coast until recently, says the National Geographic Society. In the 18th century Portuguese discoverers of the region south of the equator, hoped real gold dust would be their reward. But the golden beans of the cocoa tree, introduced from the Americas, proved more valuable than gold itself.

Now with prices running against them, 1937 farmers are burning their chocolate crops by the ton.

THE UNDERGROUND TOWN
Strange as it seems, Coober Pedy, Australian opal mining town, is built entirely underground. You could walk right over it without knowing it existed.

There are two main reasons why the citizens of Coober Pedy chose to dig their town instead of building it on the surface. Located in the Stuart Mountains of Southern Australia, in the center of an open plateau, timber is a scarcity.

Secondly, so intense is the heat of the Australian sun there during the summer months that life outdoors is almost unbearable, even temperatures prevail the year around.

All business in Coober Pedy is conducted in underground stores in the deepest post office and bank. Only for short periods each day do the miners of this strange town see daylight; their work, recreation and sleep all takes place in the odd little human burrows.

ACCIDENT IN THE CLOUDS
One of the strangest accidents on record took place a few years ago high in the clouds over Charlotte Field, Chicago, during a mass parachute jumping exhibition.

Sergeants L. C. Schneider and L. T. Burval were among five army men who jumped from 6,500 feet so that cameras might make a record of their descent. A fifty-mile-an-hour wind was blowing at the time.

Their objective was a fleecy cloud, some 1,500 feet thick, about 1,000 feet below and to one side. Just as Sergeant Schneider drifted into the cloud, Burval, his chute catching widely from the high wind swung into Schneider's shrouds from one side. Threatened with the danger of both chutes collapsing, the men fought to disentangle themselves.

Finally they separated, but a hole was torn in Schneider's silken bag. Again the wind whipped Burval into Schneider's lines, and once more they fought to separate themselves. This time they succeeded in slipping away from each other, and both made a safe landing.

Grand Jury Cracks Down On Gambling

The jury's action came at the climax of the most sensational investigation of gambling ever conducted here.

For three weeks, working from morning until night, the jury had hammered away at the bolita and lottery rackets with unprecedented vigor. When witnesses became reluctant to testify they were locked in jail until they were ready to talk.

"I don't know" and "I can't remember" were wholly unacceptable as answers to the jury's questions about gambling, bolitas and the Cuban lottery.

Witnesses swaggered boldly into the jury room at first, but after Lou Feldman, employe at El Dorado, went to jail over the weekend for refusal to talk, subpoenaes became more respected.

Those afraid of an ever-widening net fled the city, and gambling was closed by degrees when the gambling high command was convinced the jury meant business.

Jurors themselves raided gambling places. Without warning and purging all possible tipoffs beforehand, they went to El Dorado, Leo Day's bolita stand on Morgan street and Charlie Moon's negro gambling house at Central avenue and Harrison street, and made photographs.

At El Dorado, while gamblers watched, they seized and hauled away a wastebasket full of currency, an arsenal of guns and tear gas bombs, gambling paraphernalia and records.

The records covering a period of several years and understood to have included gambling "I. O. U.'s" of a number of Tampans, were closely studied.

Impetus to the inquiry was given by the murder of Tito Rubio, fire lieutenant of the gambling industry and front man at El Dorado. The shotgun slugs that blasted into him at his home early on the morning of Mar. 9 also blew the lid off the gambling industry.

The poultryman who over-crowds his brooder house is likely to be penalized with sick chicks and with underweight birds at market time.

Heaton Made Labor Chief For 8th Time

Industrial Commissioner To Head Federation's Lobby At 1939 Legislature

Approval Placed On New Dealers

Success Reported In Organizing Citrus Workers Of State

PENSACOLA, Apr. 6.—(AP)—The Florida Federation of Labor, nearing the end of its 38th annual convention, unanimously re-elected President Wendell C. Heaton for the eighth consecutive term. Heaton also will head the Federation's lobby at the 1939 state legislature to support a host of bills endorsed by organized workers.

Charles E. Silva was renamed first vice-president. The Federation endorsed the Roosevelt administration. It also advocated a state supported training ship for persons who would engage in teamanship for a living.

James Whitney, director of efforts to organize Florida citrus workers in a labor federation, reported some success.

Yesterday cattle fencing embroiled the Federation in a heated, but brief, discussion before adoption of a motion to "have nothing to do with" an "aggressive committee" proposed to endorse legislation to keep livestock off the highways; drew statements that with action would jeopardize other labor bills to be presented in the 1939 legislature.

"Your labor program will be injured if you have anything to do with this fencing proposition," said J. D. Drew of Jacksonville.

Others said labor should take a stand to "put the lives of humans above the lives and liberties of cattle on the roads."

The Federation, holding its thirty-eighth annual convention here, defeated by an overwhelming voice vote a proposal to have a salaried president prohibited from holding any other salaried job.

Had this been adopted, it would have required President Wendell Heaton to resign either from the labor office or from the chairmanship of the state industrial commission. He declines to resign as the labor president. He gets $4,800 a year as the industrial commissioner.

FFA Chapter Has Farewell Party For Two Members

A farewell party was given at the regular meeting of the Seminole Chapter of Future Farmers of America at the high school last night for Robert and George Mauser, who have been active in affairs of the local chapter and who are moving to Baltimore, Md., soon to make their home.

Robert Mauser resigned his office as president of the chapter and Harvey Hale was elected to finish the year as head of the organization. George Mauser also resigned his post as reporter and chapter members voted to install Alvin Jones in this office. Harold Glavin was elected as secretary to replace Harvey Hale.

It was also announced at the meeting that the Seminole Chapter will play a diamond ball game against the Deland chapter on the high school athletic field Thursday afternoon.

Advertising Of Referendum Will Celery Will Be Be Postponed On Planned Thursday Hospital Project

An Extensive Advertising Program Advised For Next Year

Efforts to interest members of the Florida celery industry in an extensive nation-wide advertising campaign will be revived at a meeting called by County Agent C. R. Dawson to be held at the Court House Thursday night at 8:00 o'clock.

Shortly after the beginning of the current celery season an effort was made to launch an advertising program for the industry this year but failed because "it was too late in the season."

The leaders in the industry, expressing an almost unanimous opinion that "advertising pays," advised that an extensive advertising program would be considered for next year.

Following the success of the celery postcard scheme, sponsored through the courtesy of the Florida Power and Light Company, Mr. Dawson lost no time in calling together heads of the industry to discuss a program for next year.

"In 1929," Mr. Dawson said in an invitation to the meeting "the Florida State Celery Association, Inc. was formed for the purpose of promoting the general interests of Florida celery growers and allied industries by bringing about a wider distribution of Florida's celery volume. This organization must be revived."

Declaring that the housewife is the key to the situation, Mr. Dawson distributed a pamphlet, son pointed out that this average (Continued On Page Six)

Sanford Citizens Are Chosen For Jury

Several Sanford men were among the 44 persons summoned as jurors for the regular criminal session of the United States District Court which opened in Orlando Monday with Judge Alexander Akerman on the bench.

Sanford residents who have been called for jury duty along with residents of other Central Florida cities are: Walter L. Cooper, J. C. Ellsworth, Barney Beck, H. W. Hook and H. C. DuBoise.

Yesterday afternoon H. C. DuBoise was selected as one of the 12 jurors for the trial of W. F. Duggan, former Lake county slot machine baron, who is charged by the Internal Revenue Department with income tax evasion.

This case, termed of "major importance on the docket" by Judge Akerman, is expected to continue through the remainder of the week.

Cold Weather Lashes Back At Mid-West

Snow Reported From Wyoming Eastward; Boston Experiences 25-Degree Weather

CHICAGO, Apr. 6.—(AP)—Winter weather lashed back at the Middle West today and heaped budding vegetation with snow a foot deep in many places.

Wet snow, which crippled traffic and grounded all airplanes at Chicago was general from Wyoming eastward through parts of the Dakotas, Iowa, Nebraska, Minnesota, Wisconsin, Illinois, Indiana, Michigan and Ohio.

In the East slight traces of snow were reported along with sudden drops in temperatures. Boston had the coldest weather for this date in 51 years—25 degrees.

Forecasters J. H. Lloyd of the government Weather Bureau here predicted the snow would continue heavily today and tonight in northern Illinois and Iowa and southern Wisconsin, but would move from South Dakota and northern Kansas into Kansas. At many points, he said, the rain would change to snow.

April snow reached depths of 14 inches in Wyoming, 12 in South Dakota, 10 in Iowa and five in Minnesota and Illinois.

In the snow areas temperatures were slightly below freezing. Snow drifts, closed some roads and forced schools to suspend classes.

Hobby Display Is Given By Tourist Club At C Of C

One of the most interesting exhibits ever displayed in Sanford was assembled Monday in the Chamber of Commerce Building for the "Hobby" program of the Sanford Tourist Club.

The reception room of the Chamber of Commerce Building was filled with all types of hobby displays, ranging from embroidered table linens to a collection of fancy Valentines dating back to 1913.

Walls and doors of the room were covered with beautifully designed quilts and bedspreads, while large tables were laden with numerous objects, Chamber of Commerce officials reported.

Music throughout the evening was furnished by Willard Connelly and Charles DeWane. Another entertainment feature was several exhibitions by Boy Scouts of Troop No. 14 under the leadership of A. C. Madden.

Monday night's meeting ran down the curtain on the Tourist Club's second successful season. The Club was organized on Mar. 1, 1938, under the sponsorship of the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce and since that time it has grown so as to be recognized as a very valuable asset to the city.

Since early December, regular weekly social meetings have been held in the Chamber of Commerce Building in addition to special entertainments such as boat trips, picnics. All activities have been self supporting and the club ended its year with a cash balance on hand.

Officers serving during the past year were Mrs. C. C. Earl, President; Miss Ina Fenwick, Secretary; and Ralph Bagwell, Treasurer.

Florida Bank Group Concludes Session

HOLLYWOOD, Apr. 6.—(AP)—The Florida Bankers association concluded its 45th annual convention yesterday with the re-election of all officers and selection of Jacksonville for its next convention.

George B. Howell of Tampa, president, and the other officials had not served a full year because the time of the convention and election was changed last year from November to April.

With homely metaphors that drew chuckles from his audience, Governor Cone advised the bankers to "get that pessimism out of your heads" and recognize comparatively better business conditions.

INSURGENTS SPLIT GOVERNMENT TERRITORY

Spanish Insurgent officers say their forces have succeeded in splitting territory held by the government by cutting Catalonia off from the rest of the loyalist domain. Gen. Francisco Franco's men were reported at the gates of Tortosa with machine guns and artillery commanding the last highway (indicated on map) linking the two sections of government territory. All traffic between the north and south was halted.

Routine Matters Are Considered By County Board

Commissioners Hear Many Requests At Regular Meeting

Many routine matters were handled by the Board of County Commissioners after it reconvened yesterday afternoon to continue the regular monthly meeting.

On motion, Tax Collector Jno. D. Jinks was authorized to purchase extra sections of index filing cabinets for his office after the need of this equipment was reported to the Board.

County physician, Dr. A. C. Kirk and County Red Cross Nurse Miss Frances McDougal, discussed with the Commissioners various phases of the public health program in this County.

The Commissioners also approved the report of tracks 3 and 4 at Sanlando.

On motion the City was granted permission by the Board to use the County road roller on the WPA project for improvement of the lower section of French Avenue.

The Commissioners also called for bids for removal of the old depot at Altonville Springs.

W. F. Catlin, of the State Comptroller before the Board and requested the Commissioners to furnish additional space for the local commodities distribution office. Action was deferred until investigation could be made, but Mr. Catlin was advised that an effort will be made by the Board (Continued On Page Six)

Tomorrow Last Day To Qualify For Primaries

Tomorrow is the final day for qualification of candidates for offices subject to the Democratic primaries, and is also the final day for filing the first expense reports, County Clerk O. P. Herndon said today.

Explaining that the blanks are available in his office, Clerk Herndon stated that all candidates who do not file expense reports before closing time tomorrow night will be automatically disqualified for the election.

At the meeting of the Board of County Commissioners yesterday Mr. Herndon was directed not to include names of any of the candidates "whose poll taxes are legally due and have not been paid," on the ballot for the forthcoming primary.

Mr. Herndon explained that while the legislature removed the payment of poll taxes as a prerequisite to voting privileges, it did not change the sworn statements which all candidates are required to make which provide for full payment of the taxes.

Seven Men Die In Hotel Fire As Storm Rages

Three Others Burned As 30 Are Rescued; Four Unidentified

CHICAGO, Apr. 6.—(AP)—Seven men died today in a fire that attacked the upper two floors of a hotel center at 1426 West Madison Street and then spread to the roofs of two adjoining hotels. The victims were either burned to death or suffocated.

Three other persons, including a fireman, were burned and 30 men were burned. Three of the dead were burned almost beyond recognition. Identity of four of the victims could not immediately be established. There were 123 guests in the hotel.

Firemen fought the blaze in a snowstorm. Fire Marshal Michael Corrihan said the fire started by spontaneous combustion in a third-floor room in which paint, oil and rags were stored.

The identified dead were Joseph Berto, 67, Henry Berndt, 45, Edward Haas, 40.

Reports from the city said the government had ordered the balconies of houses and all metal ornaments on buildings stripped off and converted into war materials.

Electric power was cut off suddenly in central sections of Barcelona today, stalling street cars and extinguishing lights. The electric company said the power interruption was temporary.

The rebel advance continued east of Lerida, with government troops reported to be in full retreat. A decisive battle was expected about 60 miles west of Barcelona, where rebels moving north from Tortosa and east from Lerida could converge.

Gov. Fred P. Cone broke ground last week for Lake City's new $75,000 WPA hospital approved by President Roosevelt while he was at Warm Springs.

Drastic Revision Of Labor Bill Offered

WASHINGTON, Apr. 6.—(AP)—House labor subcommittee today recommended a drastically revised wage and hour bill which would provide for a graduated minimum wage and a work week ranging from 40 to 48 hours.

The group's action ended weeks of haggling over fundamentals. The new bill would provide for creation of an independent five-member board to administer the provisions.

LAKELAND, Apr. 6.—(AP)—The Federal Surplus Commodities Corporation yesterday bought 26,000 boxes of Florida oranges, paying 65 cents a box for U. S. No. 2 grade and 55 cents for U. S. No. 3. Yesterday's purchase brought the corporation's season total to 550,500 boxes or 1,594 cars.

Neutrals Fear Effect Of War In East, West

Business Suffers In China As Opposing Armies Struggle To Capture Lunghai

France Battles Over Finances

Loyalists Reorganize Cabinet To Include All Parties

By Associated Press
The effects of the war were felt today by the neutral nations and non-combatants on two sides of the world.

While border guards in France prepared for a flood of refugees from embattled Spain, Premier Leon Blum's demand for emergency powers over France's finances passed the first crucial test when Chamber of Deputies after bitter debate voted approval of the finance bill by the small majority of 60.

In the Orient as Chinese armies struggled desperately to hold the vital Lunghai corridor in Central China against Japan's mechanized power, business—Chinese, Japanese and Occidental—suffered severely.

Behind the lines in Spain, the Barcelona government's premier, Juan Negrin, revamped his cabinet to make it a people's front with all political and geographic interests represented.

At the front, a furious battle raged for possession of Tortosa, the last scraps of territory between the insurgent forces and the government held Mediterranean coast.

Once the last resistance at Tortosa is wiped out, rebel General Franco is expected to converge on Barcelona, Catalonia's main seaport and capital of government Spain, from three directions.

Northwest from Tortosa up the coastal highway through the port of Tarragona—a distance of 95 miles; Due east 80 miles from conquered Lerida;

Southwest from the sector where the rebel left wing is now stopping up crumbling resistance near the French border.

France was said to have given strict orders to all commanders that Barcelona was not to be subjected to severe bombardment under any circumstances. He was described as confident that the "fifth column" of rebel sympathizers within the city would be able to capture it virtually without firing a shot by the time rebel armies get within 20 miles.

A manufacturing and transportation center, Catalonia now is unable to get raw materials or to export products to the remainder of government Spain.

We wonder if General Franco's march to the sea has been anything like Sherman's march to the sea.

What this county needs is a WPA project for the discovery and promotion of a good cash crop that can be grown here besides celery.

Not quite a month left before the May primary. But how many people yet know how they are going to vote—for Supreme Court Justices, for instance.

Senator Harrison Says Tax Changes Will Aid Business—headline. The best tax changes to aid business, would be to repeal about half of them.

Hospitals Treat Rich at Expense of Poor—headline in Tampa Tribune. That should be of interest to everyone who has ever had anything to do with hospitals.

No doubt the Loyalists are terribly disappointed over losing the Civil War, but it's General Franco who is going to have to pay the soldiers bonus and veteran pensions.

National advertising in The Herald last month was just exactly half of what it was during the same month last year, but taxes, newspaper, and other items of expense, were more, not less than they were a year ago. That's what you call prosperity at any price.

President Heaton of the State Federation of Labor advises his followers to concentrate upon the election of legislators for the next session. "I want it to be known as a labor session," he says. Wonder who the Labor candidates for the legislature are in Seminole County.

What Palm Beach today is on the verge of. Our retail and wholesale turnover during the winter months is in excess of three million dollars per month. As a result, West Palm Beach enjoys a prosperity which cannot be equaled by other Florida communities. But to maintain this prosperity, we must keep on buying.

The People Speak

Every once in a while Mr. John Q. People has his inning.

Every once in a while the lowly taxpayer, who has no other rights or privileges, who merely has to foot the bill, is given a chance to stand up in public and be heard.

Such a chance came in Tampa the other day when, following the gangster killing of a notorious gambling operator and an expose of underworld activities based on the infamous "Cuba" racket which had spread its stench throughout the entire city and contaminated most of the officials sworn to uphold the law, a public-spirited grand jury guided by a fearless state attorney was called into session.

The result was that the Sheriff of Hillsborough county, the police chief of Tampa, the county solicitor, and a number of deputy sheriffs and constables were indicted for their failure to enforce the laws of the state. It was the first time in the history of the county, possibly in the state, that law enforcement officers have been held criminally responsible for violations of the law.

But as if to show that this particular grand jury had not been packed with political foes of the defendants and hence did not represent the sentiment of the public as a whole, a new grand jury was summoned and promptly an appeal was made to the Governor of the State to remove from office immediately at least five of the officials who had been indicted.

The new grand jury also issued a statement declaring, "The present grand jury unanimously goes on record as heartily commending the past grand jury for its objectives for the benefit of the people of this county," and in its message to Gov. Cone the grand jury declared, "The situation has continuously become worse, until it is now absolutely intolerable to the decent people of this community."

There can be no question about the determination of the better class of citizens to stamp out these illegal rackets which breed graft and corruption in public office, provide the conditions under which lawlessness of all kinds, including murder, flourish, and undermine the character and moral stamina of a large portion of society, as well as robbing them of their meager earnings.

The Tampa grand jury has shown what an aroused public opinion can do and we have no doubt that it will have a most salutary effect upon crime conditions in Hillsborough county.

Shrine Hospitals

We are indebted to Ed Lane of this city for information revealing the quality and scope of the work being done by the Shriners of America in taking care of crippled children who come from under-privileged families.

Since 1922, Mr. Lane's figures show, more than 65,000 deformed children under 14 years of age have been cured or materially benefitted in Shrine hospitals. During the twelve months' period ending March 31, 1937, a total of 3,660 children had been placed under care and treatment in these hospitals.

Mr. Lane points out that there are eleven major crippled children's hospitals in the United States, located at St. Louis, Chicago, Philadelphia, San Francisco, Portland, Minneapolis, Greenville, S. C., Shreveport, La., Springfield, Mass., Montreal, and Honolulu, which are owned by the Imperial Council of the Shrine of North America.

The St. Louis and Philadelphia hospitals are the largest with a capacity of 120 beds each, while all the others have 60 beds each, except the one in Honolulu which has 26 beds. There are also four "Mobile" units connected with the Shrine hospitals located at Spokane, Salt Lake City, Lexington, Ky., and Winnipeg, all having a capacity of 20 beds each, except the one at Winnipeg which has 26.

One of the best features about the Shrine hospitals is that they are open to any children under 14 years of age who are deformed and in need of treatment and who have no other means of procuring it. The patients do not have to be related to Shriners, and the doors are not closed because of race, creed, or color, as is the case in so many foreign countries at the present time.

It is a great work which the Shrine organization is doing in this respect and we can think of no group more worthy of such consideration than crippled children.

MISHAPS AT THIMBLE SHOAL

Lighthouses are supposed to be aids to navigation, but the Thimble Shoal station, in Chesapeake Bay, Virginia, seems to get into everybody's way.

Strange as it seems, this important beacon has been rammed many times by vessels sailing too close. And, on two different occasions, the lighthouse has been completely destroyed by fire as the result of collisions, according to the U. S. Bureau of light-houses.

On the night of March 15, 1891, the Thimble Shoal Lighthouse was considerably damaged when an unknown steamer smashed against it. On April 14, 1898, a coal barge forming part of a tow collided with it.

Then, on December 27, 1909, the structure was completely destroyed by fire, following its partial demolition by collision with the schooner Malcolm Baxter, Sr., which was being towed by a tugboat.

The Thimble Shoal station was then rebuilt more substantially to protect it from further accidents by collision.

Lighthouse keepers on such exposed structures live a life that is far from dull. Like the crews of the Nantucket and other lightships, they know that during every fog vessels from the open sea are headed directly for them and consequently collisions are frequent.

RHODE ISLAND . . . Historically the first act of violence against England in America's fight for independence was the destruction of the British ship "Liberty" at Newport, Rhode Island, in 1769.

First British blood of the Revolution was shed when the Yankee at Providence burned the British ship "Gaspee" in 1772. Yet, in spite of these early incidents, Rhode Island was last of the thirteen original colonies to ratify the Federal Constitution.

She joined the union in 1790. Rhode Island did not adopt a state constitution until 1843, the original charter granted in 1663 by Charles II remaining the supreme law of the state for 180 years.

MAN ABOUT MANHATTAN

By GEORGE TUCKER

NEW YORK—When Xavier Cugat is with musicians, he says he's an artist; when he's with artists, he says he is a musician.

The truth is, he's both. As maestro of a rumba-tango orchestra, he has been providing dance rhythms for society's belles and dons for a good many years.

As caricaturist, he has done everything from magazine covers to the "Curtain of Stars" in Grauman's Chinese theatre in Hollywood. His latest achievements are the caricature murals in the MCA building in Chicago and those which cover four walls of the Lounge Restaurant in the Waldorf.

The little conceit of pretending he's neither fish nor fowl is, Cugat says, merely a convenience. It saves argument. Since he makes no pretension of being an artist, artists don't bother him with whys and wherefores. When he protests he is no musician, musicians find the props for argument knocked out from under them.

"The cartoonists think I should stick to my baton, the musicians that I should stick to pen and brush," he explains. "I stick to both and everybody's happy."

Born in Barcelona, Spain (he's an uncle of Margo, the actress), Cugat was playing violin concerts in Europe before he was well in his teens. When he was 14 years old (in 1915) he came to the United States as accompanist for Enrico Caruso.

It was while touring with the great tenor that young Xavier first got ink on his bow fingers. Caruso's hobby was cartooning, so here-while-hipping Xavier started drawing, too.

His enthusiasm for it almost wrecked his musical career. He gave up the latter once to join the art staff of the Los Angeles Times, doing Sunday magazine covers, but he couldn't stay away from his violin longer than that.

He thinks a dance floor is the caricaturist's most fertile field. "When politicians afflicted with familiarity and society dragged afflicted who should hang him."

FARM OUTLOOK BETTER

WASHINGTON, Apr. 5.—(AP)—Secretary Wallace, after a luncheon conference with President Roosevelt today, told reporters:

"The farm situation, judging from the figures, is relatively better than the business situation in many sections of the country. We hope the farm situation will continue to hold its present status until the business situation improves."

Approximately 1,800 tuna barges and other marine equipment are required to handle freight traffic moving in the New York City area.

TAX THE HELL OUT OF 'EM

DAYTONA BEACH SUN RECORD

Since we have been raving and ranting about useless expenditures and the resultant higher city taxes we have received numerous suggestions and quite a lot of poetry and prose on the subject. One of our readers passed this on to us and said since the statements are being mailed out he thought it would be more or less timely, and since we think so too, it is being passed on to you. We would suggest that you save it for a year as it will in all probability be more timely next year than it is right now.

Tax his horse, and tax his ass; Tax his houses, tax his lands; Tax the blisters on his hands; Tax his auto and tax his gun; Tax the road that he must pass; Tax the payroll, tax the sale; Tax his hard-earned paper-kiss; Tax his pipe and tax his smoke— TEACH HIM GOVERNMENT IS NO JOKE: Tax the water, tax the air; Tax the sun-light, if you care; Tax the living, tax the dead; Tax the unborn, ere they're fed; Tax his coffin, tax their shrouds; Tax their souls beyond the clouds; Tax them all and tax them well; Tax them to the Gates of Hell.

Judge Dismisses All The Cases He Can

ATHENS, Ga., Apr. 4.—(AP)—Judge Vincent Matthews of police court had the stripes taken off prisoners at the city stockade.

Now he is trying to see how many cases he can dismiss. If he can't dismiss the charge, he tries to put the offender on probation. "My idea," he explains, "is to let the chief aim of police court should be to make good citizens. Give the fellow another chance if you can."

This policy spells the end of the old rock-pile, pick-and-shovel basis for conducting the court.

Butler Must Have Social Background

Behind the familiar stolidity and impassivity of butting lies a field of human endeavor that may deceive any person who thinks that the household major-domo is merely a human machine.

Whatever else a butler may lack in social position or background, his cultural education must be—and frequently is—as great, or greater than that of his employers.

This fact is sharply etched in the romance of "The Baroness and the Butler," 20th Century Fox current hit opens tomorrow at the Ritz Theatre, which co-stars Annabella in her American screen debut with William Powell.

The theme of a baroness being on sufficiently familiar terms with her butler, to so much as dare a love affair, is not by any means as implausible as the cynics would have you think. Primarily the butler is the liaison officer between the house and its staff of servants.

He must be able to answer intelligently almost every question regarding the public, private or personal affairs affecting the household members of the household staff. He frequently has the fire and the help, manages the budget and books, acts as something approximating a hotel manager, and is an august judge of all affairs beyond the kitchen door.

LONDON.—(AP)—London map stores report a boom in the sale of central European maps since Hitler spotlighted that region by taking over Austria.

Contrary to popular impression, there will be no bargain sale of European maps which are out of date now that Austria is part of Germany. The map makers simply will overprint Austria with the same color as Germany and make the old maps as good as new.

BUTLER

Meals Should Be Paced By Type Of Appetizer Served

Color And Zip Are Important Item In Canapes Or Cocktails

By MRS. ALEXANDER GEORGE NEW YORK, Mar. 31.—(AP)—The appetizer sets the pace for the rest of the meal.

So, whether it's cocktail or canape it should have color and zip. Cocktails should be ice-cold, fairly small and carefully blended. Canapes should appeal to the eye as well as to the palate.

If you're serving fruit cocktail be sure all the fruit is thoroughly chilled. Juices and fruits may be partially frozen. Neither should be too sweet, however.

A combination of fruits or fruit-juices is preferable to a single flavor—especially if a few drops of lime or lemon juice are added to give zip. (Ginger ale is especially effective for that purpose. But you should not add it until just before serving time.)

Vegetable juices are equally enticing. So is clam juice. Fish cocktails generally demand an added tang which may be supplied by chopped sweet pickles, diced cucumbers or sauce. Their flavor is also heightened by mixing in crisp chopped celery, minced or finely-chopped green peppers, parsley or pimientos. If onion or garlic seasonings are used it's good to remember that a little goes a long way.

Each ingredient of fish cocktail should be chilled separately. When they're combined, the French dressing, cocktail sauce, and lemon juice may be added.

Cocktail sauces are tasty with many types of cocktails. Here's a recipe for a good all-round sauce: Mix a fourth of a cup each of chili sauce and catsup, two table-spoons each of horseradish and lemon juice and a fourth of a teaspoon each of salt, paprika, sugar, celery salt and tabasco sauce. Substitute mayonnaise for the catsup—for a change. Mix in a few chopped ripe olives, some diced dill pickles and minced pimientos—when the sauce is to be served with tuna, crab or oyster cocktail.

Canapes often are served with cocktails as well as being served as a first course. A canape of chutney sauce spread over toast points is delicious with crabmeat. Sardine paste mixed with chopped olives and spread over cheese crackers is especially good with tomato juice.

Grated cheese, lightly spread on crackers, sprinkled with a few drops of catsup and lightly browned is an excellent foil for fish, vegetable or vegetable juice cocktails.

More elaborate canapes may be planned for the afternoon cocktail party.

And don't forget the relish tray. There are lots of things to put on it—radishes, carrot strips, ham-stuffed celery sticks, cucumber slices spread with pickle relish and bits of cauliflower which have been marinated in French dressing, spiced cooked carrot and beet balls placed on wooden picks.

Everyone But Ball Players Go Jooking

By DILLON GRAHAM LAKELAND, Apr. 6.—(AP)—When the big mellow moon slides high in the sky, everyone in Florida goes "jooking."

That is, apparently everyone but the baseball players in the spring camps and there's a reason for their absence—the curfew law still stands.

"Jook join's" dot the outskirts of most of the Florida towns and they're jammed to the rafters night after night. Whether you start early or late, you always meet the milkman coming home.

These "jook joints" are small, imitation night clubs where there are no orchestras and beer is the strongest liquid sold. But there's music. You drop nickels into the big glass-cased phonographs and tunes pop out at you. They're "jook organs."

You don't stay long enough at one stand to even get well acquainted. You gurgle your beer, dance a couple of turns to the weedy melodies and then move on—to another "jook joint"—that's called an evening of "jooking."

You won't find the word "jook" in the dictionary, but it's in the records of the Florida supreme court. Recently a justice, in handing down an opinion in another case, employed a "jook joint" as a parallel example.

Eight Florida State Loop Clubs Get Spring Training Activities Underway For 1938 Baseball Year

Sanford And Orlando Lead Loop Teams In Activities To Date By Having Two Weeks Work Tucked Away

By JULIAN STENSTROM
Herald Sports Editor

The entire eight clubs in the Florida State League got underway with a "bang" in their spring training activities at the Sanford and Orlando camps today. Sanford and Orlando are leading the way because of already having two weeks of work under their belts.

In Orlando the Senators are not rated as being a contender for the flag this season since they have secured nearly their entire 1937 aggregation for another season and they completely failed in their attempt last year.

Here in our own metropolis the Lookouts are at the present displaying a team with power at the plate, a slight advantage over last season's nine which was somewhat lost in that particular spot. This year, Manager Guy Lacy has organized a team that boasts a hitting squad and one that he personally predicts can lead the way to a possible championship although Manager Don McShane's Gainesville G-Men are at present rated as the likely retainers of the State loop pennant.

Still no definite word from Leesburg but it is expected that Manager Nellie Leach's Gladiators are going to have a strong aggregation representing their city. Not satisfied with a fourth place, but a first division club last season, they went as far north as points, in Canada to secure talent. They won their first engagement this year by a score of 10 to 3 against a Tampa semi-pro nine.

Harold "Hoopus" Chapman today said that he would rather not make any statements in regard to the chances of his 1938 Deland Reds. Although training sessions are underway, more than half of the Red's signed players are not present for the daily drills.

Don McShane's Gainesville G-Men are working out daily and seem to take their drills easy because they have been rated as the retainers of the State League flag this year. G-Men, however, made a poor showing against the Knoxville Smokies at the Southern League Monday night in the University City by going down in defeat by a score of only 1 to 4.

In Daytona Beach, things have finally settled down after a large routing and raising the local fans' hopes toward the St. Louis Cardinals for not giving the coastal city a decent club to represent them. The Cards have now given them a sound club to date with Manager "Track Star" Sanders at the controls.

St. Augustine, the only players that may be retained for Lyle Judy's Joe Cambria squad concern this season is Bill Gates.

Watson Fires 8 Men From Local Baseball Drills

Another Large Cut Slated Today By Prexy And Lacy

President Henry Watson of the Sanford Lookouts announced late last night that Manager Guy Lacy has ordered releases for eight members of the squad that have been undergoing workouts daily at the local park.

Watson and Lacy said the players let go were first baseman Blondy Scroggins, infielder Billy Wells, outfielder Johnny Helms, first baseman Steve Atwood, pitcher Rudy Randall, pitcher Tom Fulton and Jake Jason and outfielder Steve Parker.

Manager Lacy stated that another cut would be made so that it will enable him to give more attention to rounding up present regulars in his position.

The local squad underwent a grueling practice session yesterday which included a long hitting session, pitcher's curves in practice and a tough infield and outfield drill. Among the pitchers working out were Bob Fisher, Frank Tills, Johnny Cook, Frank Gils, Joe Pinger, Bob Hope, Milton Lister and several others.

Participating in the infield drill were Joe Rueterio, Buck Rodgers, Harold Webb, Babe Young, Jodie Lyle, John Lacy, Leon Ady, Jack Odomo and Manager Lacy. Taking part in the outfield session were Jack Murray, Pete Mahala, Ray Clark and Jim Brown.

"Snowbird" Kille, infielder from Spartanburg, S. C., today entered the role of a catcher as he is slated to catch the intra camp game this afternoon. The talent youth is a good dependable hitter and may be kept for utility purposes and possibly a regular berth.

Lacy stated this Monday afternoon that the infield and outfield could be considered as one of the strongest in the league due to the fact that the boys have shown much talent that appears to be no 4. Infielders, including Kille, Thompson, Lacy and Rodgers, have been showing up well. The only bad news, however, is in the hitting department.

Although pitchers Cook, Fisher, Wood, Pinder and Fisher appear to have the stuff, they still lack a little ability, due mostly to inexperience. Manager Lacy said that they are all youngsters and may turn out in great fashion in the future.

The strongest department of play that the Lookouts will display this season is the hitting ability that the players seem to

IN THE FIELD OF SPORTS

By JULIAN STENSTROM

With the cutting of eight Lookouts yesterday, and probably some more today, the Sanford entry in the State Loop is gradually getting smaller and soon will not be bothered with some of the boys whom he did not think could make the grade because he had to concentrate more on those whose prospective ability he had more confidence in.

It was reported the other day that Bill "Raw Meat" Rodgers may have given up baseball in a manager's role but not entirely. The former skipper of the 1936 and 1937 aggregations has been named as a scout for Joe Engel's Chattanooga Lookouts.

The returning of Chattanooga to its old stampering grounds does mean a lot to Sanford although there are but a minor league organization. Just to have the name of Joe Engel about as much respectable because Engel has been called the most colorful prey in the national game. Revisiting some of Joe's famous public stunts, we can only be attracted to 25,000 fans at Enoch Stadium in the Tennessee city in 1936 just to give away a complete home. He lived a young female athlete to land among the New York Yankees several seasons ago and she fanned Babe Ruth and Lou Gehrig in order.

He wanted more customers to witness his regular games so he acquired some 250 canaries and had them stationed about the entire ball park. He is now working on by displaying a present. Outfielders Pete Mahala, Ray Clark and Win Brown, tentative regulars, all have hitting power and the three are making a great combination. Brown has left-handed and packs a wallop at the plate while Mahala and Clark are both long range batsmen and hit right-handed. They have plenty of opposition, however, in Jack Murray. The youngster is doing great work in the practice game and is also a heavy hitter.

The Lookouts will undergo a heavy workout today but will only have work tomorrow in preparation for the last exhibition game against Leesburg here Friday evening.

University Students See Truck Centers

GAINESVILLE, Apr. 6.—The first three days of this week the class of vegetable production at the University of Florida College of Agriculture visited truck growing centers of southern Florida for a field study of production and marketing methods. The group studied potatoes, celery, market gardens, tomatoes, eggplants, peppers, cucumbers, beans, thubark and other vegetables at Hastings, Sanford, Ocala, Winter Garden, Parrish, Ellenton, Manatee, Belle Glade and Pahokee. A trip into the commercial vegetable areas is annually conducted by Prof. Abbott for his class. ## House Votes Not To Kill Revamp Bill

Ballot Is Construed As Victory For Administration In Effort To Halt Move

Backers Believe Measure To Pass

Taber Objects To Legislation On Parliamentary Grounds

WASHINGTON, Apr. 7.—(AP)—The House refused today to kill the government reorganization bill. The vote was 191 to 169.

The ballot, a victory for the Administration, was on a motion by Representative O'Connor, New York Democrat, to "strike out the enacting clause" without which the bill would be defective and meaningless. The measure was thrown open to amendment immediately afterward. Backers of the bill said today's vote was a sure sign the House would pass the measure eventually. Representative Taber, New York Republican, objected to the bill on parliamentary grounds that it violated House rules by re-enacting a provision of the old reorganization bill which would allow the president to transfer appropriations to the new agency in event another government agency discontinued.

Yesterday general debate ended in a tense atmosphere as Chairman Sumners, Democrat, Texas, of the powerful House Judiciary committee, joined opponents in a speech reminiscent of his attack last summer on Roosevelt's ill-fated court enlargement plan.

"If we can't amend this bill as we think it ought to be," he said, "then let's kill it." He added that the current national trend against centralization of power is the "finest thing that has happened in many a day."

Sumners, whose well-timed denouncement of the court plan is believed one of the factors responsible for its defeat, said he hoped his stand on the present bill would not be construed as an attack on the administration. "The republicans have had a perfect field day out of this situation," he told the house. "But when it comes to the test and we are convinced the nation's interest is at stake, let's stand by the common people."

Senator Milton, Democrat, Indiana, told his colleagues that no votes were raised in "horror" when congress not only delegated but surrendered powers to another branch of government when it gave the supreme court power to promulgate rules for civil procedure in federal district courts.

Recall Urged For Orlando Mayor In Utilities Battle

ORLANDO, Apr. 7.—Suggesting that a recall election aimed at Mayor Sam Y. Wey might offer a turbulent but eventually peaceful solution to the wide-open verbal and legal war that has the Orlando City Council and the Orlando Utilities Commission in debate over the proposed purchase of generating equipment valued at upwards of $700,000, Utilities Commissioner Harry L. McDonald last night announced that Monday he will offer a resolution to the Commission asking that no further funds be transferred to the city treasury until the litigation has ended.

His lengthy defense of the commission's actions is punctuated often by the charge that many of the council's allegations expressed thru City Attorney Campbell Thomas, are "utterly false and libelous," "filthy and childish," and "slandering."

Chase Co. Named In Suit Brought By Control Group

Committee Seeks Collection Of Delinquent Assessments

Chase and Company, one of Florida's leading shippers of fruits and vegetables, was named defendant in a suit filed yesterday in the Federal court in Orlando by attorneys for the Florida Celery Industry Control Committee, established under the provisions of the Marketing Agreement Act of 1937.

This action was said to follow refusal by the firm to pay the one-cent per crate assessment levied by the Control Committee for the operation of the celery marketing agreement. The Control Committee seeks the collection of Chase and Co. of more than $2,000 in delinquent assessments due on the 134,384 crates of celery shipped by the firm since the agreement went into effect.

Snow Blankets Most Of U. S. As Mercury Slides

Plows Taken Out Of Summer Storage Open Most Roads

CHICAGO, Apr. 7.—(AP)—Fresh snow blanketed a wide expanse of territory between the Rockies and the eastern seaboard today in the wake of a storm that turned the calendar back to midwinter.

Rain, sleet, dust, hail and tornado winds lashed at sections of the nation which escaped the snowstorm. Heavy, wet snowdrifts three and four feet deep challenged highway crews in the Middle West. Snow plows, hastily retrieved from summer storage, opened most of the principal highways but many rural lanes were choked.

Snowfall broke April records in many cities and was the deepest of the winter at some spots. Counties in southwest Michigan reported 30 to 36 inches of snow. One death was reported from weather in South Dakota and a man was missing in a storm in Nebraska. Freezing temperatures prevailed in most affected sections. New York city had four inches of snow, the heaviest for April in 14 years. Twenty-four thousand men were called out to clear the streets.

McCroly's $25,000 Expansion Project Nears Completion

As work on the extensive remodeling program for McCroly's Store is nearing completion, A. D. Smalley, manager of the Store, and a corps of approximately 75 employees are making preparations for the formal opening on Saturday.

The remodeling and renovation of the store was estimated by officials of the Company to cost well over $25,000 and is the third expansion of the McCroly Store since it was located here when Sanford was a part of Orange County.

The renovation program included remodeling the entire front of the store, installation of modern facilities including an intra store telephone system, complete heating and ventilation systems, lounge and locker rooms for employees and equipping the entire store with indirect lighting.

At present, the Sanford McCroly store is the third largest in the State. Manager Smalley stated, with the stores in Miami and West Palm Beach alone having a larger floor space than the local store.

Mr. Smalley explained that through the expansion, the assortment of stock in the store has been widely increased and this store will now stock a large quantity of goods which formerly could be purchased only in larger stores.

Spanish Loyalists Launch Offensive

Chinese Report Japanese In Full Retreat At Railway

By Associated Press
The French government, weakened at a home by a crisis that may turn Premier Blum out of office, sought today to strengthen France's position abroad by a five power pact to shield Czechoslovakia from pan-Germanism.

French Foreign Minister Joseph Paul-Boncour proposed an agreement among France, Soviet Russia, Poland, Rumania and Yugoslavia for the joint defense of Czechoslovakia if Germany should try to extend its rule into that country.

Madrid dispatches told of a surprise offensive by the Spanish government forces to cut insurgent Spain in two. The drive was reported 100 miles southwest of Madrid and nearly 100 miles east of the Portuguese border.

Success there would compensate somewhat for the northeastern insurgent offensive which has placed the last coastal link between northeastern Spain and the rest of government territory under attack.

In the world's other war, General Li Tsung-shan, Chinese commander of the Eastern central front, reported Japanese forces "in full retreat" from Taihichwang, for nearly three weeks the center of Chinese resistance to Japanese efforts to reach the railway from north China. Elsewhere in China opposing armies were deadlocked.

Insurgent brigades last night captured the town of Balaguer, Loyalist staff headquarters, 72 miles west of Barcelona, in a drive to seize five big electric power plants and paralyze Catalonia's war industries.

Gen. Jose Moscardó's Moroccan cavalry rode into Balaguer behind a fleet of whippet tanks as a second insurgent column of Navarrese 25 miles to the north reached the outskirts of Tremp, where Catalonia's biggest hydro-electric plants are located.

Another large plant is a few miles north of Balaguer. Moscardó's northern wing was reported only about two miles from the Tremp power plant.
