FLORIDA REVENUE RECEIPTS INCREASE SHOWING RESULTS GROWTH AND PROSPERITY

Country at Large Pays Less Taxes Than Last Year

ON COLLECTIONS

FOLLOWING FROM FLORIDA METROPOLIS SHOWS HOW WE ARE PROSPERING.

Indicative of the basic prosperity of Florida internal revenue collections for income and profit taxes in the Southern district during the fiscal year ending June 30 showed an increase of 26 per cent, while the United States as a whole showed a decrease of over $800,000,000 in collections.

Information to this effect was received by the Florida Metropolis Monday from Louis Ludlow, its Washington correspondent, who declared in a telegraphic dispatch that most states in the Union show a decrease.

Income and profits tax receipts from the Southern district of Florida in 1921 were $10,108,294.02 as against $8,027,614.62, a gain of 26 per cent. This is held to be remarkable in view of the general slowing up over the country, according to Washington advice.

D. T. Gerow, collector of internal revenue for the southern district of Florida, stated Monday morning that the increase in receipts for the last fiscal year reflected a general increase in all lines of internal revenue.

"The outstanding features of this increase," he stated, "were in income and capital stock taxes. These sources of revenue showed the greatest gains. However, every line showed some increase."

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30.—Internal revenue collections from all sources during the fiscal year 1921 decreased more than $812,000,000 as compared with the previous year, while the cost of collection advanced from 55 cents to 88 cents for each $100 collected, according to a preliminary statement issued last night by Commissioner Blair.

The increased cost of operating the internal revenue service during 1921, which amounted to about $40,000,000, he explained, was due mainly to reduced collections and increased expense in supervising regulatory laws.

Total collections for 1921 amounted to $4,505,000,705, as against $5,407,500,251 in 1920, while income and profits taxes yielded $3,225,700,053, compared with $3,056,036,003 the previous year, and miscellaneous taxes produced $1,368,210,112, as against $1,450,614,248 in 1920.

Income and profits taxes represented nearly 70 per cent and miscellaneous taxes 30 per cent of total receipts during 1921 compared with 73 per cent for income and profits taxes and 27 per cent for miscellaneous taxes during the previous year.

Receipts from the national prohibition act during 1921 were $2,152,038, as compared with $641,029 collected during the previous fiscal year. In addition, Commissioner Blair estimated that collections from fines and forfeitures for violations of the act would approximate $500,000.

New York, with a total of more than $1,000,000,000 produced the most federal revenue among the states, and Pennsylvania was second with nearly $483,000,000.

Collections in Southern states follows:

Florida: Income and profits, $10,294; increase 26 per cent; miscellaneous, $6,077,030; total, $16,180,294.

Georgia: Income and profits $28,780,502; decrease 15 per cent; miscellaneous, $8,002,581; total, $36,780,083.

North Carolina: Income and profits $38,533,800; decrease 14 per cent; miscellaneous, $8,002,581; total, $46,533,800.

South Carolina: Income and profits $20,032,343; increase 9 per cent; miscellaneous, $8,200,343; total, $28,232,658.

Tennessee: Income and profits, $25,604,683; decrease, 3 per cent; miscel-

INVESTIGATION KU KLUX KLAN IN CHICAGO

LOOKS LIKE KLAN WAS STIRRING THINGS UP IN THE WINDY CITY

(By The Associated Press) CHICAGO, Aug. 30.—Federal investigation of the Ku Klux Klan started in Chicago by Assistant United States District Attorney Clinnin, he announced today. Numerous complaints have been coming to his office since the organization of the Ku Klux branch here three weeks ago Clinnin said. Allegations that the Klan is opposed to public policy, that it makes no accounting of money it collects, that it makes profit on its regalia and therefore is a corporation operating for profit and that lawless acts have been ascribed to persons acting in the guise of the Klan will form the basis of an investigation, Clinnin said.

MINE UNION OFFICIALS IN WEST VIRGINIA ARE INDICTED FOR MURDER.

WILLIAMSON W. Va., Aug. 30.—Indictments were returned today by a special grand jury in session here against C. F. Keeney and Fred Mooney, president and secretary, respectively, of District No. 17, United Mine Workers, and C. H. Wortman, an international organizer for the miner's union, in connection with the deaths last May of Ambrose Gooslin and Dan Whitt. The two men were killed during the three days shooting in Mingo county during the week of May 18. David Robb, an international organizer for the miners, also was indicted as an accessory before the fact in connection with the death of William McMullin, a state trooper, last June. McMullin was shot while on guard duty.

Eighteen other indictments charging various offenses were returned.

STRIKE BALLOTS WERE GIVEN OUT TO RAILWAY MEN

WILL DECIDE ON THEIR ATTITUDE TOWARD THE WAGE CUT

CHICAGO, Aug. 30.—Taking of the strike vote of the railroad workers of the county was under way today.

The Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen was the first of the Big Four union organizations to start its test of workers' sentiment on whether to accept wage cuts or walk out.

Ballots were sent out to the 150,000 members of the trainmen's union, simultaneous with the dispatch of union officials and representatives to various railroad centers of the country to see that every member votes. A complete vote is asked by the union heads.

Five hundred thousand members of the federated shop crafts have already voted to walk out if their demands are not met.

The other three brotherhoods' strike vote will be started before the end of the week. The trainmen broke away from the other three brotherhoods in taking the strike vote because of the proposed wording of the ballots.

A statement accompanying the trainmen's ballots declares the vote of the membership to accept the wage reduction or "to leave the service of the railroad rather than to continue under the reduced wages now in effect," will be final and binding upon officers of the union.

The other three brotherhoods, it was said by officers of the trainmen's union, desired to word the strike ballot in such a manner so that the officers would be authorized to disregard a vote to strike if they saw fit.

Great significance was attached to the fact that the railroad unions desire to get out the vote of every railroad union member in the country. In previous votes taken by the railroad unions only about 50 per cent of the total membership had voted.

LOOKS LIKE DOVE OF PEACE HAD FLOWN AWAY FROM ISLAND

(By The Associated Press) BELFAST, Aug. 30.—Rioting, which broke out here at noon yesterday and continued until after midnight began again at 7 o'clock this morning. An hour later it was reported three more added to the wounded list. Two were killed and six wounded yesterday and last night.

Civilians placed sand bags in the middle of the street and maintained heavy fire against the police and military who were forced to abandon the streets.

DR. BELCHER RETURNED TO CLEARWATER

MAN CHARGED WITH DEATH OF MISS TURNER HAS NOTHING TO SAY

CLEARWATER, Aug. 30.—Dr. L. J. Belcher, of Tarpon Springs, held in connection with the tragic death of Miss Virginia Turner of this city, whose body was found in Booker's creek, a tributary to Lake Butler, about twelve miles from here, last Saturday about dusk, was yesterday returned from the Hillsborough county jail at Tampa to the Pinellas county jail here.

Despite rumors of possible mob violence there was no attempt at any point to interfere with the officers either when Belcher was taken to Tampa Sunday night or on the return trip here yesterday.

Belcher's lawyers have not sought to obtain his freedom on bond, nor has a date been set for the preliminary hearing. The latter matter will follow the publication of the findings of the coroner's jury, or it may be that Belcher will waive preliminary hearing and allow his case to go directly to the grand jury should the coroner's jury hold him, as it doubtless will under the evidence adduced. The Tarpon Springs doctor has not made any statement for publication. A Tribune man visited him at the jail yesterday afternoon and questioned him as to the case, but Belcher said he had nothing to state at this time. Aside from being plainly worried by the situation, he was self-possessed. He was visited also by his attorneys, Col. Thomas Palmer and W. B. Dickenson of Tampa. They and A. B. McMullen, also a Tampa attorney, will represent him.—Tampa Tribune.

Blids are now being received for construction of a new building at Bartow for the Growers' Commercial Bank. The building will cost approximately $100,000.

ARMED MEN AGAIN GATHER IN BATTLE ZONE NEAR LOGAN

On Little Coal River in the vicinity of Sharles, Clothier, Blair and Madison, armor men in excess of fifteen hundred have refused to disperse when requested by representatives of federal and state governments.

Three Physicians Declare Girl Underwent Criminal Operation CAUSED HER DEATH

BELCHER CLAIMS HE WAS SUMMONED TO BRIDGE TO DRESS FINGER OF STRANGE MAN

(By The Associated Press)

CLEARWATER, Aug. 30.—The jury empanelled by Coroner Evans to investigate the Virginia Turner case met again this afternoon with the expectation before adjourning they would have returned a verdict. Three physicians who performed a post mortem examination declared the girl had undergone a criminal operation and county officials said that this probably caused her death as apparently there was no flow of blood from the knife wound through the heart which would indicate the wound was made after death.

Dr. I. J. Belcher, of Tarpon Springs, third cousin of the girl, is in jail here and steadfastly denied any connection with the case. Belcher was arrested after it was ascertained his car was pulled from the mud at Bookers Creek bridge at three o'clock Saturday morning, a short distance from where the body of the girl was found in the creek several hours later. Officers said today that Belcher told them last night he was summoned to attend a patient with a cut finger.

He was guided to a lonely bridge where two men awaited him, one with an injured finger which he dressed. He said one man entered his (Belcher's) car and backed it into the bog and the other threw a bloody handkerchief into the rear which accounted for the blood on the seat and rug.

LETTER FROM MRS. A. E. PHILLIPS

My Dear Herald:

Our fine paper is being received faithfully away up in the hills of Carolina where we are visiting and enjoying the magnificent weather and gracious hospitality of loving friends.

I note the trial to which you have been subjected in being the recipient of that low-flung "anonymous" letter. We congratulate ourselves that we have a man at the helm who knows how to take care of the situation!

I am the child, the grand-child and the great grand child, it may be, of slave-holders! They did not introduce slavery; the north did that, but we perpetuated it.

The time came in the providence of God when these negroes, after perhaps one hundred and fifty years, should be freed. For the most part, let us hope, they had not been treated unkindly, and many a tender tale of their devotion to their masters' families can be recounted.

For instance, during the Civil war, with our men in the army and our women and children at home unprotected, these slaves might have risen up and have committed the unspeakable crime with all the horrors of a bloody insurrection!

What do we not owe them in the way of kindly feeling and appreciation?

There is a creature upon whom we may confer the title of "ignoble Southerner." He is a white man with a black heart. How much better to be a black man with a white heart!

How much better to congratulate our colored men on every endeavor for improving their condition. How much nobler to recognize that he has a heart and soul that can be appealed to by kindness and consideration.

Perhaps, nowhere else is there a finer settlement of colored people than our own Georgetown with its homes, its schools and churches.

There is one grand rule that we will be measured by at the judgment day, which may be fast approaching. It is called the Golden Rule.

May the Lord who can melt stony hearts and open blind eyes enable this ignorant, narrow anonymous letter writer to see himself as he is should be the prayer of every true hearted, broad-minded, noble Southerner.

With best wishes,
MRS. A. E. PHILLIPS.

SALARIED SECRETARY.

PALATKA, Aug. 29.—The local chamber of commerce, which recently grew out of the Business Men's Club, and added a few finishing touches designed to maintain the city's commercial body on a more successful basis, has adopted a tentative budget of $8,000 for the present fiscal year. Two thousand four hundred dollars of this amount is contingent upon an appropriation from the city for publicity purposes, and will be sliced off should the city fail to provide the money.

The budget calls for a salaried secretary and an office. A campaign to increase the membership of the organization to 300 members will be launched early in September.

DR. BELCHER IS ARRESTED FOR MURDER

OF MISS TURNER WHOSE BODY WAS FOUND IN CREEK NEAR TARPON

Lodged in the Hillsborough county jail to avoid possible mob violence from citizens of Clearwater, Dr. I. J. Belcher, of Tarpon Springs, early this morning steadfastly refused to admit guilty knowledge of the slaying of Miss Virginia Turner, whose body was found floating in the waters of Bookers creek, some distance northeast of Clearwater, and with whose murderer he is charged. Belcher's arrest occurred early last night during the course of an investigation by Detective Fred Thomas, who was employed by relatives of the murdered girl to handle the case.

The physician's arrest resulted when the detective learned that Belcher had driven out of Tarpon Springs to the vicinity of the bridge over Bookers Creek early Saturday, and had gotten his car stuck in making a return to Tarpon Springs. Blood-spots showed upon the bridge rail on the Lake Butler side of the structure, according to the detective, who stated that a rug in the car had been recently washed—to remove blood stains from the cut finger of a man patient, as the doctor is said to have explained.

Belcher was first connected with the affair, according to the detective, where the investigators were informed that the dead girl had visited a Tarpon Springs physician on Wednesday, the day of her disappearance. Belcher, when first questioned, admitted that a "Miss Davis," as he said she had called herself, had visited him Wednesday, saying that she wished him to help a girl friend out of trouble. As his help would have involved a criminal operation, the physician told the detective, who was accompanied by Sheriff George Lindsey, of Pinellas county, he flatly refused.

The detective stated, however, that the physician who assisted the coroner's jury informed the officers that a criminal operation had apparently been performed upon the young woman. The officers, although putting Belcher through a severe grilling, were unable early today to explain how the young woman's shoulder came to be broken and what motive incited the crime. The detective, however, was inclined to favor the theory that the physician, having performed an operation and finding a dead girl on his hands, possibly broke the girl's shoulder and made the knife wound in the heart to throw searchers off the trail. The detective stated that this theory is backed by the fact that, as he states, that the wound in the heart apparently did not bleed. The autopsy showed, he said, that the girl had been dead for some time before being thrown into the water.—Tampa Tribune.

FOUND BODY OF LADY FLOATING BROOKER CREEK

CLEARWATER, Aug. 29.—Miss Virginia Turner, 21 year old daughter of Arthur C. Turner, of Clearwater, was found dead, floating in the water of Brooker Creek, northeast of here, late Saturday. She left home Wednesday saying she was going to Tampa. No word had been received from her since she left. Her left arm was broken and she had been stabbed through the heart. Authorities are investigating.

The body, found by two boys while fishing, was brought to Clearwater where after several hours it was identified by Mr. Turner, who is one of the oldest residents of Pinellas county and a former county commissioner.

The girl's father told sheriff deputies that she left home intending to go to Tampa by automobile bus to visit friends. She also had friends at Tarpon Springs on the road to which place is the creek in which her body was found.

Coroner Charles Evans began an inquest Saturday night but indicated that no clues had been discovered. Sheriff deputies and the coroner express the belief that the girl had been killed and her body thrown into the creek from an automobile. Traces of an automobile leading to the water's edge were found. Officers said the car had apparently stalled in the deep sand.

A bridge about 150 feet from where the body was found gave the appearance of having been damaged by an automobile.

Whether Mr. Turner had given the authorities any information that might lead to an arrest they refused to state. Friends of the girl said she had no enemies and there had been no love affair which could have resulted in the tragedy.

The world news the day it happens, the Herald office.

FATAL SHOOTING

AT WINTER PARK.

James Murphy, negro of Orlando, was shot and killed by Rufus Burch, another negro, from Altamonte, at Winter Park, last night. Marshall Hall, a third negro, with Murphy, at the time, was wounded in the leg. One report was that the two negroes quarreled over a negro woman and another that the trouble was caused over debt. Burch is lodged in the Orange county jail.

Deputies scoured the banks of the canal from a launch during the day but found no trace of the fugitive. It is expected that the negro will endeavor to escape by the Miami canal in an effort to get to the coast to take a vessel to the Bahama Islands, his former home. According to information received by Sheriff Allen of this city, Welch held up another negro at the head of the canal Saturday morning, robbing him of $70 or $80, and Douglas attempted to place him under arrest on this charge.

Dr. Walker's Mail Delivered to California Without any Address

Dr. Walker, pastor of the First Methodist Church, of this city, has just returned from a trip that took him to California, West Virginia and other points. While in California the Herald mailed him a letter. It was mailed to Dr. Walker, First Methodist Church, Sanford. The postoffice here forwarded it to California without any street address and it was handed to Dr. Walker in the postoffice out there along with his other mail. In a way this was remarkable and showed that the office force was alive, that Dr. Walker is well known and that Herald mail goes everywhere even without any address—sometimes. Dr. Walker says that everybody knows about Sanford.

Alive? I'll say they're alive! The old outfit has decided not to "dine" on the proverbial corn willie next year at camp. The "skipper" says they will have apples and bananas rolling all over the mess hall. Mess Sergeant Eagon won't get cussed out and Tom Meredith can get three squares a day. How are they going to do it? Easy, when you got the live bunch Company D has. Put on a minstrel directed by Allison and Rudisell. Give a good show and raise "beaucoup francs" as the French say. That for a starter and follow it up until camp time next summer with other things and then, "Oh you eats."

In order to successfully carry out the above plans so as to have the best minstrel which has ever been produced in Sanford an executive committee was appointed consisting of J. G. Michael chairman; P. A. Mero, D. D. Whitcomb, W. M. Connally. This committee met last night with Mr. L. J. Allison, representing the Allison-Rudisell Production Co., of Charlotte, N. C., and plans were formulated whereby under the direction of that company the minstrel would be ready for the public during the latter part of September.

One feature about this minstrel which the committee feels will be a little out of the ordinary will be the inclusion of some fifteen of Sanford's "most winsome creatures, as t'were." At least that is what they called the bride at the wedding the other night on the court house steps. Prey Mero and "Lil" Connally were both very much opposed to having the ladies take any part at all, but finally after much persuasion, they half-heartedly consented. Anyway, the girls will be there.

Various other committees were appointed at the meeting last night, and these will be announced later. Watch this column, "The Doings of Company D," as it is called, for further news. It might be interesting. For instance, one member of the executive committee contemplates matrimony in the near future. Another has his own consent to do the same thing. You know he bought the bridal cake at the dance the other night. He's been sleeping with it under his pillow ever since.

Rotarians Met at Luncheon Today

The Sanford Rotary Club had one of the best meetings of the season today with many of the boys back home who have been taking a vacation. President Stevens was in his old place and songs and good cheer helped to digest the luncheon (accent on the lunch) and the meeting was fraught with many good things. Prof. McKey, the principal of the Sanford schools was the guest of honor and made a splendid talk on the Boy Scout movement as he had observed it in various places and especially in Key West. The Rotarians are getting ready for a big season and a most busy one.

MR. JINKS WAS DISCOURAGED

With All His Hard Work on "Filver," All He Could Do Was Make the Horn Squawk.

Mr. Jinks has been the proud possessor of a brand-new filver for nearly three weeks, and his precious treasure is never far from his thoughts. Every moment he can spare is devoted to polishing its glossy coat or tinkering with its vital in the effort to discover the cause of its occasional spells of mulish balkiness.

The other night—about two o'clock—Mrs. Jinks was awakened by terrible yowls emitted by the family cat. Now the cat was a peaceful pussy and not at all given to nocturnal vocal demonstrations. Imagine Mrs. Jinks' astonishment when she arose and discovered her husband sitting on the edge of the bed, vigorously twisting the cat's tail round and round.

"John," she protested, rescuing her pet with some difficulty, "what on earth are you doing?"

Mr. Jinks was evidently in a somnambulistic state, for he scratched his head and responded sleepily:

"Sh! won't go, honey; sh! simply won't go. I've cranked an' cranked an' th' horn squawks, an' thash all. Guess I have t' see' er up for repairs. Some thin' must be matter wizzer magneto. S'darn shame, an' ain't paid fer yet, even!"—From Nuggets.

DOG RECOGNIZED ITS HOME

Even at Sea, and at Some Distance, Animal Knew Destroyer to Which it Belonged.

Except for the serial numbers painted boldly on the bow, most persons have the greatest difficulty in recognizing one of the 300 destroyers in the United States navy from another, but there is dog aboard the destroyer Schenck No. 159 which seems in this regard to have far more than human intelligence.

This dog—of no particular breed—has been aboard the Schenck for about two years.

Officers aboard the Schenck are told in the story of how, not long ago, when the vessel went from Pensacola to Guantanamo, the dog was lost. He could not be found when the time for departure arrived, although the crew had been searching the town for him for almost two hours.

It developed that the dog, after the Schenck departed, reached another destroyer and went to sea with them.

During the voyage the two destroyers passed well out to sea. The dog was on the bridge and barked so loudly that he attracted the attention of the Schenck.

Royalty in a Freight Yard.

Lieutenant Commander Hugo W. Koehler in the World's Work says:

Our nearest neighbors in a squalid out-freight yard where we took up quarters in Novorossiisk were the former president of the Vladikavkaz railroad, the best system in Russia, who, with his children and grandchildren, occupied one small couch. The Grand Duchess Marie Pavlova with members of her former suite and their families, also had a single couch, while her son, the Grand Duke Andrei, with his son of oddly indefinite parentage and said son's mother, a famous ballerina in her day, likewise lived for months in a tiny railroad coach on the opposite side of our mudhole. The grand duchess was a charming lady, nor did the terror of her situation and the utter squalor of our surroundings take one whit from her delightful sense of humor and her quality of une grande dame.

Famous Grove Disappearing.

Mexican children gathering firewood are slowly wiping out a clump of cottonwood trees northwest of Juarez, Mex., across the Rio Grande from El Paso, Tex., which has been known as "Peace Grove" because it was there that Gen. Francisco I. Madero agreed to a series of armistices which preceded the end of his revolution. Approximately 25 trees marked the historical spot in 1911. Today, it is said, less than half this number survive the raids of the children sent to search for fuel.

The grove won its name in 1911 when Madero led his troops against the Juarez federal garrison, which remained loyal to President Porfirio Diaz. The commander of the garrison and Madero arranged several armistices under the trees of the grove.

Oil as Leprosy Cure.

So successful has Dr. P. Hooper been in the Fiji Islands in the treatment of leprosy with chaulmoogra oil, that he reports to the Journal of Tropical Medicine and Hygiene (London) that in the years 1918 and 1919 23 patients were discharged on parole, of whom one returned, and he now has six more apparently cured and ready for discharge.

Doctor Hooper believes that all cases of skin leprosy and some of the nodular form can be cured by intramuscular injections of chaulmoogra oil, cure or failure depending largely upon how early the treatment begins.

All He Could See.

A sharp-tongued, red-faced lawyer was cross-examining a witness as to his sobriety. "You were seen," he began. "Entering the Spread Eagle as soon as the doors were open or soon afterward?"

"Yes," replied the witness, "but not to drink."

"What object had you in view then?" asked the lawyer.

"The only object I had in view, sir, as I went in was yourself coming out,"—Pittsburgh Chronicle-Telegraph.

WILL STUDY MEANS TO PROVIDE WORK FOR UNEMPLOYED.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30.—Means of providing work for the nation's unemployed, estimated by the Department of Labor 5,735,000, will be studied at a conference of industrial and labor leaders to meet here next month at the call of President Harding.

Secretary Hoover, who has been asked by the President to prepare plans for the conference, was at work today on the matter with a view of submitting his conclusions within ten days or two weeks. The conference, according to Mr. Hoover, will inquire into the volume of the needed employment, the distribution of unemployment, means of lessening the number of unemployed, and measures to enable the recovery of business and commerce to normal.

FINE HARVESTING WEATHER PREVAILS IN THE STATE

GAINESVILLE, Aug. 30.—Fine harvesting weather is prevailing in Florida according to the weekly review of crop conditions in this state issued by the Federal Bureau of Crop Estimates for the week ended Saturday. Rain is needed for fall plantings, the review says.

Harvesting of corn is proceeding on a small scale. Cotton picking is general and old cotton is beginning to move.

The ground is being prepared for fall Irish potatoes; sweet potato yields are showing up lower than expected.

Harvesting of hay is in progress with ideal weather conditions.

Citrus fruit is said to be developing nicely, but rain is badly needed in some sections.

The condition of all live stock continues good.

Rain is needed by the truckers, according to the review. The bureau's reports show an increased acreage of cowpeas for hay, and the condition of peanuts and velvet beans indicates good yields.

PINCHOT ATTACKS

FORD'S OFFER.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30.—Henry Ford's terms for taking over the Muscle Shoals power and nitrate plant were assailed publicly today by Gifford Pinchot, former chief forester and conservationist.

CAN GET SOME SLEEP NOW.

Dr. G. A. Davis, of DeLand, after five nights watching the beds of patients, went to sleep at the wheel of his Ford, Saturday afternoon, and side-swiped an oak tree near DeLeon Springs. The car was wrecked and Dr. Davis painfully injured. He was taken to DeLand hospital, where his injuries were dressed. He hopes to be able to return to his own home today.—DeLand News.

FORT MYERS' SAFE ROBBED.

FORT MYERS, Aug. 30.—Burglars entered the local office of the Standard Oil company on the municipal wharf here, some time between Saturday night and Monday morning, loaded the heavy safe on a boat and escaped. The loss is said by officials of the concern to involve a large sum of money and the books.

The celebrated Kenelworth Lodge, a popular hostelry at Sebring, has changed hands and the new management contemplate much improvement and a prosperous season for the coming winter.

The new steel bridge crossing the Blackwater creek near Milton has been completed and a big celebration will be held to commemorate it on the 5th of September.

BUY HARDEN FERRY BRIDGE.

Harden Ferry bridge should be bought by the county and a more reasonable toll charged—about 25 cents for the round trip. There is no necessity for the issuance of bonds, as the county could make the purchase on time and pay for the bridge with the tolls collected. DeLand and Daytona and Orange City especially are losing thousands of dollars per year by the heavy tolls charged at this bridge. The Board of County Commissioners ought to investigate this matter and see what can be done.—DeLand News.

LOOKING FOR THE BRIGHT SIDE

The prominence of the young men involved in the alleged wholesale automobile theft plot and their popularity in their respective communities brings out the wish that the evidence yet to be presented will vindicate them of any wrong doing. The circumstances are bad enough as it is but there would be some recognition if the authorities find that those under suspicion are innocent. Of course the incidents carries its moral; the lesson is so plain it needs no emphasis. Inevitably the law of averages works out to conclusion—those who are unfortunately mixed up in questionable practices must sooner or later pay the price. In the present case, however, there is a general hope that somehow or other the silver lining will show itself.—Lakeland Telegram.

THAT BIMINI TRIP

That Bimini trip promised the members of the Associated Daily in November has awakened the boys as nothing else could do and despite that fact that all of them will be busy in November many are going even if they have to hire a substitute editor for a few days. The prosaic and staid Gainesville Sun even fulfills over the trip as follows:

"Ed. Taylor has promised a trip to Bimini to the editors of Florida when they go to Miami next November for another meeting. We urge all editors who can to attend this convention and permit themselves the Bimini trip. Bimini is one of the most beautiful little places in these parts, the fishing is excellent there, and the salt air such a tonic. A trip to Bimini should prove most beneficial and inspiring to fagged editors. We'll be there, ringing a fire gong."

PREYING ON GIRLS.

Information gathered by police authorities and welfare organizations leads to the statement that 65,000 women and girls disappeared in the United States in 1920. This is a large increase over any other year and would indicate that the business of abducting women and girls is being carried on systematically.

Thousands of girls disappear in New York City every year and many of them are never heard of again. Some of them are probably dragged into capital slavery, others are murdered or end their own lives, while many of those who are reported lost voluntarily disappear from the persons who knew them for reasons of their own.

The number of those women and girls who are evidently victims of crime is large enough to command the interest of police and other authorities everywhere. Even the smaller towns in various sections of the United States report the disappearance of girls, some of whom have doubtless been lured from their homes by persons who are engaged in the business of leading girls astray.

The Mann white slave act is a federal statute which punishes persons who are convicted of taking women from one state to another for immoral purposes, but this measure is entirely inadequate to meet the cases of fiends who abduct women, or who induce them to enter lives of sin.

Many girls in the smaller communities are lured to the cities by the enticements of a life to which they are unaccustomed, and they readily become victims of men and women who makes their business to prey on the girls who are unacquainted with the dangers of city life. Comparatively few of these girls are ever redeemed from the lives into which they are forced.

"There is one penalty to fit the crime of abduction of women, and that is execution," the Pittsburgh Post says, "No matter how many of the fiends there are, whether they number hundreds or thousands, the law should not pause until it has rounded up and executed every one of them."—St. Petersburg Times.

HOW WE LIVE.

Time after time we hear from folks who are making their first visit to Florida, "Yes, it is lovely here, but I don't see how people make a living," and time after time we tell them that there are various enterprises in our state of which they know nothing. "More things in heaven and earth, Horatio, than thou hast dreamed of in thy philosophy." They all know we have those famous crops of citrus fruits and tourists, but many of them do not know, how extensive is our mining industry, what mammoth tobacco crops are grown in the state, what excellent corn fields are made, what an enormous lumber business is found here, what quantities of fish are shipped from the state, and what great proportions our truck farming has attained.

All these things, and many more, are here, and can easily be proven if these questions visitors will take the trouble to look for them, but why hunt them up, when everywhere are indications of a happy and prosperous life being enjoyed? Should it not be enough for these visitors of ours to see that we are living the most contented life that can be found anywhere in the country?

Less poverty is to be found here than among the same number of people anywhere, and where poverty is found, it is due to one of two things, either to sickness which prevents a family from doing a normal amount of work, or to genuine shiftlessness and lack of ambition.

Florida is not a land where a man can sit idle and grow rich, but it is a land where any man can make a comfortable living if he will make the effort, and that the great majority of its people is making that effort is best indicated by the fact that while other parts of the country are suffering a business depression, Florida is enjoying a good financial prosperity, and when the business world has reached a stable and normal condition, Florida will be in a better position to make forward strides than any other of the states.—Cocoa Tribune.

RIPPLING RHYMESThe Rented Home.

The money you have paid for rent is gone beyond recall though you have paid it for a tent, or for a state-ly hall; some landlord took it, cent by cent, and left your bundle small. Some landlord took your iron men and left you feeling sore, for you were needing every yen to buy things at the store; and every month he came again, and took away some more. You've bought that residence, alack, you poor misguided gent! You've bought the blamed place front and back, and by the strain you're bent; and still the landlord owns the shack, and bones you for the rent. Not yours the roof-tree overhead, not yours the eastern pump; the landlord own the fence and shed, the whole works in a lump; when you can't pay him you must tread the pathway to the dump. When you are sick or out of luck the landlord stern appears, and clamors loudly for each buck for which you're in arrears, and hauls your dunnage in a truck to soulless auctioneers. A sane and prudent weight is he who in his own shack dwells, though it may plain and humble be, not built for blooming swells; we see him 'neath his vine and tree, and note he's wearing bells.—Walt Mason.

MANY WILL ATTEND
CHAMBER OF COMMERCE
BANQUET AT SANFORD.

Sanford's invitation to the Chamber of Commerce has been enthusiastically accepted by the local members and a large crowd will leave here tomorrow evening to enjoy the hospitality of the Celery City.

Secretary Cox reports that a great many reservations have been made. It is his opinion that more car space will be provided than necessary, and he urges that members of the Chamber of Commerce who have no car to be on hand as there will be plenty of "passenger service" available.

The cars will be in front of the Chamber of Commerce building on Oak street sharply at six o'clock. At six thirty, Orlando's delegation will move on toward Sanford and if you are a member of the Orlando Chamber of Commerce you are invited and expected to be there.—Orlando Reporter-Star.

CITY URGED TO SELLGASOLINE TO PEOPLE.*COWLES TELLS CLUB.

JACKSONVILLE, Aug. 29.—Establishmen of gasoline filling stations in all city parks where it could be sold by the city at one cent above the wholesale price, which is now 19 cents, has been urged upon the special investigating of the City Council by prominent citizens, W. T. Cowles, Sr., councilman at large and chairman of the committee told the board of governors of the Jacksonville Automobile club Friday afternoon at the Mason hotel.

What the committee's recommendations to the council will be, Mr. Cowles did not say, but indicated that the committee was determined to have the price of "gas" in Jacksonville reduced in line with the prices prevailing in other cities.

The present retail price here, according to Mr. Cowles is from 20 to 23 cents per gallon. In St. Augustine and Miami, he said, the same price is charged. But, in cities in four Southern States, Cowles said, the committee's investigations have revealed that gasoline is selling at 18 to 23 cents. A report is soon to be published by the committee. Present prices of all local filling stations will be given. He said there is a disposition on the part of some dealers to lower their prices.

Co-operation of the automobile club was pledged to the committee by President Frank O. Miller, at whose invitation Councilman Cowles spoke.

The Escambia County Game and Fish Association held an enthusiastic meeting in Pensacola recently and laid plans for the better protection of game this season. If every county in Florida would encourage the protection of game, Florida would, within a short time, come back into its own. As it is, our game is rapidly disappearing, and within a few years, without some such protection, there will be nothing for the sportsmen to hunt.

It is good for sore eyes to travel over Alachua county now and see the actual road construction that is in progress. Talk has ceased and the shovels, picks, wagons, surveyors' instruments and everything else necessary to road construction has taken its place.

AMERICA SPENDS NEAR A BILLION ON THEATRES A YEAR.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30.—Amusement-loving America spent nearly a billion dollars during the fiscal year 1921 for theatrical entertainment, according to statistics made public today by Internal Revenue Commissioner Blair. The ten per cent tax collection on theatres and places of entertainment during the fiscal year just closed amounted to $89,725,905, Blair announced.

Total tax collections during the year were $4,695,000,765, as compared with $6,407,500,251 in the previous years. With the decrease in tax collections the cost of collection advanced from 55 to 88 cents for each $100 collected, Commissioner Blair stated.

Income and profit taxes yielded $3,225,700,653, or 70 per cent of the total tax revenue. The same taxes yielded $3,956,936,003 in 1920.

Prohibition brought a neat little sum into the treasury, for during the year the collections under the Volstead and national prohibition act were $2,152,083, as compared with $641,029 in the previous year. It is also estimated by Commissioner Blair that close to $2,500,000 was collected by the department of justice in fines and penalties for violation of the prohibition act.

Tobacco netted $255,218,499 and headed the list of miscellaneous taxes. Freight transportation taxes yielded $140,019,077, and passenger transportation taxes netted $97,481,896. Milady's toilette netted Uncle Sam $5,800,768 in taxes on cosmetics, perfumes and proprietary articles, while the chewing public paid $1,332,177 in taxes on chewing gum.

D'VALERA MAY BE DISPLACED BY GRIFFITHS.

LONDON, Aug. 30.—An unconfirmed report was circulated here today that Arthur Griffiths is to replace Eamonn De Valera as head of the Sinn Fein delegation when it gets to London again to confer with Premier Lloyd George.

The above report is significant not only in that it appears to take for granted as a foreign conclusion that the Irish plenipotentiaries will go to London, but because of the implied "shake-up" in the high councils of the Sinn Fein. Arthur Griffiths has been for years contrasted with De Valera as the more aggressive and more radical. He is generally credited with being the real founder of the Sinn Fein. When De Valera was in America he was "acting president of the Irish republic." Less scholarly than De Valera, he is more direct and his personality appeals more to the masses than does that of his reserved and austere chief.

Throughout the peace negotiations between Ireland and the British government the more radical elements of the Sinn Fein party have opposed De Valera's moderate diplomacy and have looked to Griffiths to make that opposition assert itself in the decisive councils. If the report is true that Griffiths is to replace De Valera, it will mean the first real reverse of the Sinn Fein chieftain at the hands of his party, and will undoubtedly foreshadow a more aggressive policy in the conferences—provided they are renewed.

HARRISON ON TRIAL.

GREENVILLE, S. C., Aug. 30.—Tom Harrison, former club owner of Greenville, who shot and killed his wife in their home on fashionable east Washington street on the night of December 11, was placed on trial here yesterday on a charge of murder. It was admitted in the application for bail that Harrison's defense will be that he shot his wife accidentally while struggling in his own defense with Arthur Young.
