CHALKING 'EM UP

CHARLIE CHALKER

The Hunt For A New Champ
 The worldwide depression is definitely over now that the war has boosted business so tremendously in this country as well as other nations. This means that plenty of loose money is going to be floating around. In the next two or three years providing the United States doesn't get into war the boxing picture should be much like it was in the days of Dempsey, Firpo, and Gene Tunney. Of course there must be some real opposition for Joe Louis or no matter how much money is floating around the fight won't draw. A real heavy man white hope with the fighting prowess of Dempsey would certainly break all records since the second Tunney-Dempsey fight in Chicago. And if the white hope won his match in any sort of convincing fashion a return bout between him and Louis would break the Chicago record for financial return. It's coming but the man to do it hasn't shown up on the flat horizon yet. He is waiting quietly somewhere. Maybe he is working as a lumberjack; maybe he's digging ditches; maybe he's playing football; who knows. Anyhow, acquiring experience. It won't be long. He'll come to light.

ORLANDO, Jan. 16.—Lester Cole's sensational greyhound track champion of the season, Lucky Dot, is regarded as a distinct threat to the Longwood track's 5-16th mile record tonight.

Glenford Red, Big Question Friend Mose, Fanny Fay and Court Action with Big Question and Fanny Fay as the ranking contenders, were among last Thursday's field that followed Lucky Dot across the finish line in the highlight race of the season.

Adul to these six dogs the names of Halmy Bender and Simpsonia and there are the eight dogs who will chase Lusty, the mechanized hare, for 5-16th's mile tonight in the ninth race, a heat that may produce a new track record and possibly permanently elevate Lucky Dot to the unchallenged number-one spot at Am Hope four years ago.

Heart Disease Proves Fatal To William Hodges

Dean Of Senate Had Ambition To Serve Term As Florida's Chief Executive

He Ran Twice For Governor

Solon Represented Leon County In Upper House 18 Years

TALLAHASSEE, Jan. 17. (AP)—William Cabot Hodges, dean of the Florida State Senate, died today without the realization of his greatest ambition—governorship.

The recurrence of a heart trouble ended his life at 64 1/2 A. M. at his picturesque suburban home here, Goodwood. He was 64. He tried twice to be elected as governor, in 1912 as a "Bull Moose" candidate, and in 1936 as a Democrat. He was named out of the last time in the first primary by Gov. Cose, who became the 27th governor.

Hodges planned to run again this year, but physicians advised him against it and he had prepared an announcement to be published tomorrow, that he would not run. The announcement said "it goes without saying that this conclusion is reached by me with a real regret, because naturally one who has long been in public service has an ambition to round out a long career as the State's chief executive." He represented Leon county in the State Senate for 18 years, and was Senate president in 1935.

Herndon Seeks Another Term As Clerk Of Court

O. P. Herndon announced today that he will be a candidate for re-election as Clerk of the Circuit Court for Seminole County, an office to which he was elected in 1936.

"During my term as County Clerk I have tried to serve the residents of Seminole County contentedly and efficiently and will continue to do so if re-elected," he stated.

On his election as County Clerk in 1936 Mr. Herndon inaugurated a double entry system for keeping the records of his office and all accounts are balanced daily. In the annual audit for this office the State auditors had this to say: "The records were found in excellent condition and all collections were properly remitted and properly safeguarded."

James G. Sharon Enters Race For Seminole Judge

James G. Sharon today announced his candidacy for County Judge of Seminole County, a position he previously held for a number of years.

"I wish to announce to my friends that I am a candidate for the office of County Judge and will appreciate your help," Mr. Sharon stated.

"My only promise will be to discharge the duties of the office fairly, impartially, and with justice to all," he added.

During the two decades he has lived in Sanford, Mr. Sharon has taken an active part in all civic affairs. He is a member of the First Baptist Church and for a number of years was a member of the Woodmen of the World. He is also a member of the Kiwanis Club, the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce, the Town and Country Club, and the Boy Scout Court of Honor.

Two Killed In Dupont Powder Plant Explosion

Blast Shatters Windows; Sabotage Considered

GIBBSTOWN, NEW JERSEY, Jan. 17.—(AP)—Two men were killed today as an explosion of 6,000 pounds of nitrocellulose powder works plant here, shattering buildings, and shattering windows for 15 miles.

Men were believed to have been in or near the small building wrecked.

It was in a scattered row of buildings where the nitrocellulose was used in making high explosives. The shock was so severe it led to reports that the tri-state area of New Jersey, Pennsylvania, and Delaware had been shaken by an earthquake.

Company officials, state police, and the FBI started investigations to determine the cause. There was no comment on the possibility of sabotage. A man, 600 yards from the blast-torn unit, was injured.

277,070 Pounds Of Food Given Needy In 1939

The foodstuffs were purchased for the needy families by the Federal Emergency Administration of the Florida State Welfare Board, and the distribution was made through the facilities provided by the Welfare Board.

The local distribution headquarters also distributed 17,123 pieces of clothing which were made in the Seminole County sewing rooms operated through the Works Progress Administration. A total of 1958 clothing orders were filled.

In addition 460 sweaters were distributed for the WPA, 109 men's suits, 23 boys' suits and six women's suits.

The largest number of Masons to attend a meeting in some time were present for the regular session of the Sanford Lodge No. 62 F. and A. M. in the Masonic Hall last night.

And now, he added, some of these nations are trying to destroy the civilization which they helped to build.

There will be a meeting of the officers and directors of the Business and Professional Men's Association in the County Chamber of Commerce building tonight at 7:30 o'clock.

Regular relief clients having commodity cards were urged today to call at the commodity headquarters in the various districts in the county for their January supply of supplies.

The cards must be presented and the clients must furnish their own containers.

Governor Long Leads Field In Louisiana Votes

Jones Is Second With 56,503, Noe Third, Morrison, Moseley

Louisiana returns (11AES) Long 99,955 Jones 56,503. Noe 41,233. Morrison 4,590. Moseley 1,948. Five hundred and eighty-five of 1,793 precincts.

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 17.—(AP)—Gov. Carl K. Long held a slight majority in New Orleans proper last night in the Democratic primary with more than half the city vote tabulated, but his principal opponent, Sam H. Jones, was leading Long about 2 to 1 outside the city on the basis of meager, scattered rural returns.

The unofficial vote from 170 of the Orleans 331 precincts gave the younger brother of the late Huey P. Long 42,998 votes. Jones had 21,077, and State Senator James A. Noe 16,933. James H. Morrison with 4,081 and Vincent Moseley with 364 were out of the running here.

The county vote, where about three-fourths of the state's 550,000 voters live, are cast, told another story of the outcome of the bitterly contested primary, fought out amid statewide political scandal.

In the first 24 of the 1442 rural precincts reporting Jones led with 2069 votes over Long's 1158. Noe had 707. Morrison 163, and Moseley 270.

Long had a majority of only 1767 votes in New Orleans. Governor Long fought to retain his seat, maintain in power the indicted-riddled organization built by his slain brother, challenging him for the vital Democratic nomination were four anti-administrators—Attorneys Jones of Lake Charles, Morrison of Hammond, State Senator Noe of Monroe and Moseley of Opelousas.

The reform candidates through a rough and tumble campaign pledged an end to "disturbances, graft and corruption," centered their attacks on the many scandals unearthed by federal agents since now indicted Richard W. Leche resigned the governorship last June and Lieutenant Governor Long stepped in.

Long denied all knowledge of or part in the proven or alleged graft and corruption which had touched many former aides of "the kingfish." He promised reform in the "big business" tag to his opponents and, above all, appealed to the state's 600,000 voters, to preserve the Huey Long kind of rule.

The candidate campaign yesterday, or in a runoff Feb. 30 if he failed, was a major event, will be inaugurated in May and hold office four years. He cannot succeed himself.

Stormy "Jimmy" Noe was the central figure in three of the most important alterations that marked voting here. Noe, as he is better known, was shot and killed by a sniper's bullet on Jan. 17, 1938. He was arrested in another disturbance, later he was involved in a fraud-for-all fight.

His aides took a knife from the man Noe felled with one punch with the powerful arm he developed as an oil field worker years ago. His arrest came when he photographed an alleged violation irregularity—a balcony above polling booths that gave voters a view of how voters marked their ballots.

Courtesy, Efficiency Awards Also Go To J. W. Altman And To Mrs. T. C. Bolt

Mrs. Kate Manning, for six years an employee of the Yowell Company, was awarded the title "Sanford's most courteous and efficient clerk" following a tabulation this morning of the votes turned in at The Herald office on Monday, by three secret judges.

Directing local participation in Junior Chamber of Commerce Week, now being observed by the United States Junior Chamber of Commerce and its 700 affiliated organizations throughout the nation, President Harold Powers of the local organization today pointed out that the Junior Chamber of Commerce meets a young man's requirements not fully satisfied by any other organization.

Past activities and reports indicate, he said, that the organization is concerned with the business affairs of the community while a Junior Chamber is primarily devoted to civic service.

In addition, he said that the young men's organization is not a fraternal or social group and merely uses its programs of good fellowship and fraternization as a means to an end—That of securing effective action on the part of young men in worthy civic projects.

Pepper Declares State Delegation To Support FDR Statement Keeps Capital Talking About Drafting Roosevelt

WASHINGTON, Jan. 17.—(AP)—A prediction that the Florida delegation to the Democratic national convention would back Roosevelt for a third term came from Senator Pepper today.

The statement, soon after an announcement that the Ohio delegation would join the Roosevelt camp if the favorite son Senator Donahay failed to develop necessary strength, kept the capital talking about the draft-Roosevelt movement.

Pepper said he believed Florida Democrats would elect 11 delegates friendly to the President and would support him on any man of his choice, although going to the convention without official instructions.

The Republican list of contenders was enlarged by an announcement from Frank Gannett, Rochester, N. Y., publisher, he would be a candidate for (Continued on Page Four)

Kilbee Seeks Re-Election As Commissioner

W. G. Kilbee of Geneva announced today that he will be a candidate for a third term as County Commissioner from District No. 5, subject to the primary election on May 7.

Mr. Kilbee, a citrus grower and a cattle raiser and believes that his experience and understanding of the problems of the county qualify him for election to the seat of the Florida Agricultural Experiment Station, which he has held for four years.

If elected, he pledged a continuation of his efforts for the economical and efficient operation of the county government and for further reduction of taxes whenever possible.

He is a member of the Board of Directors of the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce, and has taken an active part in all projects for the improvement of Seminole County.

He asked voters to judge his qualification for re-election by his record of service as a County Commissioner.

Congressional Fight Looms On Loan To Finns

WASHINGTON, Jan. 17.—(AP)—A hot Congressional fight over a loan to Finland broke yesterday soon after President Roosevelt urged consideration of military loans to Finland through the export-import bank with assurance they would not compromise United States neutrality policies.

He asked voters to judge his qualification for re-election by his record of service as a County Commissioner.

The President's letter on Finland began by declaring that "there is without doubt in the United States a great desire to assist Finland to finance the purchases of agricultural surpluses and manufactured products, not including implements of war."

Fighting Between Allies And Germans Is Paralyzed By Extreme Cold Wave

Russian Air Raids Have Tapered Off

Congressional Chiefs Doubt Financial Aid To Re Given Finns

While the world's combat areas chilled into peacefulness, Finnish troops, fighting in sub-zero weather, were reported driving the Russians back in the Salla region, and advancing toward a new victory.

An army communique inconspicuously confined itself to the assertion "our troops are fighting successfully in the direction of Salla," on the eastern border just above the Arctic circle.

On the Western Front extreme cold paralyzed what little fighting was being done between the Germans and Allies.

The Finns held positions five to ten miles inside the Russian frontier near Leka on the East Central Front.

Sweeping air raids of the past five days tapered off into an attack yesterday on Hanko.

Congressional leaders in Washington expressed doubt whether financial aid should be voted to Finland since many members voiced fears further aid might involve the United States in European quarrels. Roosevelt expressed the opposite view yesterday.

British newspapers reported a German plan to disrupt British railways had been uncovered, and 500,000 British employees in the British Isles had been constituted a counter-espionage service watch for sabotage.

Talk in Britain was for a new cabinet post for Horie Belisha, perhaps to lead the ministry to coordinate all economic war efforts.

The warrents abated in the lowlands, and Etore Miti, Fascist party secretary, warned Italians they might be compelled at this moment to fight in the European war.

Supreme Court Reaffirms Stand On Murphy Act

TALLAHASSEE, Jan. 17.—(AP)—The supreme court reaffirmed yesterday its ruling that full title to tax delinquent lands passed to the state last June through operation of the Murphy law.

Justices held that the state's tax lien is paramount to those of cities, counties and special taxing districts—voting unanimously in a case testing the strength of municipal liens.

At the same time, the court refused to review its original opinion upholding fully the title reversion clause of the Murphy law.

L. T. Bee, a citizen, sought to restrain Haines City from foreclosing the city's liens against property coming under the Murphy law. Justice Terrell, "It is shown that the lands involved in this case had not paid taxes for many years. They were accordingly a dead asset and were returning nothing to service the intervenor's contract."

The court said the ultimate purpose of the Murphy law was to restore lands to tax rolls "at their real value and thereby enable them to bear their part of the tax burden."

Deaths of children in school systems

Deaths of children in school systems reported to the National Safety Council were from September to March of the present year 16,179 fatalities that caused disability or hospitalization of 200,000 children. Of these 7,047, or 44 per cent, occurred on school property or on the way to or from school.

A Friend In Need

If a friend of yours came to you and said that the mortgage on his home was about to be foreclosed and that he would lose his home if you did not lend him the money to take up the mortgage; and if you had the money to lend him and had found from previous experience with your friend that he would pay it back, what would you do if the person who held the mortgage came to you and said:

"Don't you lend the money to this man to pay the mortgage. I don't want the money. I want the house. If you do not lend it to him, he won't be able to pay me and then I can take his house. See? If you do lend it to him, I am going to beat you up."

President Roosevelt has suggested that the United States lend our friends the Finns $25,000,000 to help them save their country from seizure by the Russians. This money could not be used by the Finns to buy arms or other implements of war which they so badly need, but only to purchase agricultural surpluses in this country such as wheat and cotton.

But the loan would be a big help to them anyway because after all the Finns have got to eat, and if they can use some of our money to buy their food, they will be able to use their own money to buy guns. That is probably why the Russians don't like the idea of this proposed American loan to Finland, and why they are telling us to mind our own business and to keep out of the Baltic conflict.

The Finns are our friends. We have lent money to them before and they have always paid it back. Furthermore, they are decent people in every respect. They are Christians. They are democratic. And they bathe regularly. They are a small nation attacked by a big nation without provocation. If the Russians win, the Finns will lose everything they have, their homes, their country, their institutions.

We would like to help the Finns. We have more wheat and cotton than we can possibly use. We have something like 15 billion dollars worth of gold buried in a hole in the ground at Fort Knox, Kan. because we have so much we don't know what to do with it. If we would lend a helping hand to the Finns, if we would furnish them with the supplies they need, they would give the Russians the whipping they deserve, and incidentally save western Europe from the threat of communist invasion.

But we are afraid. We are afraid that Russia won't like it. We are afraid that Russia might get mad at us and send a mighty Red army half way around the world to fight us. We are afraid that the Russian navy which can't lick Finland's might come over here and sink all our battleships, or that the Russian air fleet which has managed to kill a few civilians in bombing raids on Helsinki might attack some of our cities.

So we probably won't do anything to help. We will just continue to sit on our bags of gold and scrap among ourselves over our huge surpluses of food and let our friends in other parts of the world go to hell.

Non-Traffic Accidents

Although the final figures of the accident toll for last year are not yet available, figures for 1938 are still interesting and in general reveal some improvement in most classifications. On the whole they show that substantial progress is being made in the saving of human life from non-traffic accidents usually resulting through carelessness. The following facts are released by the National Safety Council:

- 1. The 1937-38 drop in all accidental deaths was the greatest ever recorded in a single year, with 11,000 lives saved.
2. The industrial injury frequency rate among National Safety Council reporters dropped 16 per cent from 1937 to 1938, the severity rate 5 per cent. From 1928 to 1938 the decline in frequency amounted to 68 per cent, and in severity 45 per cent.
3. Deaths in railroad accidents during 1938 numbered 4,879, the lowest total on record. The railroad employee death rate per million man-hours was 45 per cent lower in 1938 than in 1928.
4. Deaths in all public accidents numbered 49,900 in 1938, representing 52 per cent of deaths from all kinds of accidents. Almost two thirds of this all-public death total was in the one classification of motor vehicle accidents, leaving 16,500 public (not motor vehicle) deaths.
5. Despite a 17 per cent increase in passenger miles from 1937 to 1938, scheduled airlines reported 38 per cent fewer passenger fatalities in domestic flying. The death rate based on passenger mileage was 46 per cent below 1937 and 84 per cent below 1930.
6. Accidental deaths of persons aged 25 to 64 numbered 48,696 in 1937. Of this total, 39,693 were men and 9,003 women.
7. Deaths from work accidents on farms numbered about 4,300 in 1938. No other single industry had this many fatal work accidents.
8. Deaths from falls numbered 26,700 in 1938, and were second in importance only to motor vehicles. Drowning, the next most important type of accident, numbered about 7,500, and fatal burns 7,400.
9. July and August were the high months of the year for accidental deaths among children under 5. July was also high for the 5-14 and 15-24 groups. Among persons over 25, however, the greatest number of accidental deaths occurred in December.
10. Among all gainfully employed people 18,500 were killed in work accidents during 1938. There were 31,000 deaths off the job, however, of these some gainfully employed persons. About 82 per cent of these off-the-job fatalities resulted from motor vehicle accidents.
11. Among 200,000 children in school systems reported to the National Safety Council, 1,000 were from September to March of the present year, 16,179 fatalities that caused disability or hospitalization of 200,000 children. Of these 7,047, or 44 per cent, occurred on school property or on the way to or from school.
12. Falls in homes caused 11,000 deaths during 1938. This was 25 per cent of all home accidents. Burns were the second most important cause of death, accounting for 17 per cent.
13. Nearly two-thirds of all accidental deaths occur from May to October, and 50 per cent of the firearm fatalities occur from October to January.

'Wonder What Those Old Fogies In Congress Will Do?

DISPELLING THE FOG BY CHARLES MICHELSON Democratic National Committee

Some thoughtful people have harbored a belief that this is a critical period in our history. They figure it is going to require statesmanship of the highest order and the most skillful administration of public affairs to pull us through. They seem to be alarmed needlessly. According to the Republican aspirants for the presidential nomination, the remedy for all our troubles is astonishingly simple. Not only have they the remedy for the familiar ills the Roosevelt administration has been warring against for seven years, but likewise they have the solution of the great unexplained mystery to us by the advent of war in Europe.

These mighty discoveries were revealed by the utterances incident to the recent banter between the County Prosecutor Dewey and Senator Taft—not to mention the comic relief afforded by the comedy teams of Ham Fish and Editor Gannett, and including the still smaller voice of Styles Bridges, who for identification purposes must be introduced as Senator from New Hampshire. All that is needed to save the country is to elect a Republican President next year.

That cure for all our woes being so plain, direct and easy of accomplishment, it is a marvel that it did not occur to the country earlier—in 1932, for example, when our ailments were most acute, or in 1938, after the Roosevelt policies had been in operation for four years.

"A Republican president," suggests Mr. Dewey (could he mean himself?) "can balance the budget." Far be it from me to question the soundness and profundity of Mr. Dewey's expert knowledge and experience in matters of finance and economics, foreign or domestic, gained in his life-work so far as prosecuting offenders in New York's criminal courts.

It is to say that Mr. Dewey's statement sounded so good that Senator Taft adopted it and elaborated it in Boston and in Chicago.

"A careful study of the budget," said the junior Senator from Ohio, "indicates that it could be balanced in about two years at approximately $7,000,000,000." Members of the nation-wide chorus of "How" Senator Taft proceeded to discuss the methods under which he would bring about the desired result, and how they did the same thing with a greater alacrity. The demonstration is the only one given in full, but it falls down appreciably as this.

over, it would be vastly more interesting, dramatic and instructive if the minority party were represented by a man with a grouch attempting a come-back rather than if it were captained by somebody of no definite opinions, little or no experience, and willing to be for, or against, anything that might attract a vote to himself or deflect a vote from the Democratic candidate.

National forces are riding hard to catch him.

CELERY SALT

"The Spice of S. H. S."

By Pick Myers

For lack of anything intelligent to say I'll open this week with a word or two on that most conventional of all topics, the weather! As Poe wrote (I hope) "The Day is cold and dark and dreary." It isn't dark and dreary, of course, but it's sure cold enough too... yes sir, shore is...
Someone suggested today that I put a poem in here somewhere to break the monotony but since I wrote a poem would be grand.

If only mine were in demand. I'll just put out a plea for a few contributions. If you happen to have anything stuck away anywhere, original or not, lemme know.

Last Friday night there was a Bunko Party given for FLORENCE WELLS at her house in honor of a birthday a week ago... all girls, three tables which makes about 12... Started at eight and lasted till 12:00... SUSAN KITTLE got high prize while LOUISE NORDBERG got the distinction of being low...
Preview of the Junior Play: Those little scenes which usually make a high school cast squirm and wriggle are as plentiful as last year's jokes in this little selection... some of them are so good the cast is waiting till the night of the performance to actually go into reality... The Young People's League gave a play at the Junior High last night where MARY BELDIN, JOE CRENSHAW, ELLEN MERIWETHER, JACK BROTHERMAN, HERRING, MATHIA WRIGHT and CLAYDA FORGUSON, who took the lead in roles, did very well, thank you, and got plenty of chuckle for their efforts... MADALYN TRULUCK (her school ain't so worse after all... after being out for about three weeks she's ready, able and willing too, as the saying is, to get back into school) is in the school play... he starts in school Monday and by Tuesday has taken up with S. H. S.'s No. one glamour girl... DAVID GATCHEL, MCKAY TRULUCK, and MACK CLEVELAND went up before an Orlando Judge Sunday night... but only for an introduction by his Honor's daughter... FLASH! Sometime after the mid-term exams S. H. S.'s prodigal daughter, BETTY LOU FLESH, who has been going to school in Gainesville, will return to finish out the year here... WALTER CONNOLLY is another new boy who is getting around... he and ESTELLE HURT have been makin' the rounds pretty regular... JACK MORRISON'S Model T, that object of civic pride and joy, used to have an anchor on it until somebody stole it... and left the Model T...
The Latin Club hay-ride to Sand-lando last Friday night brought surprises to a good many people among which... ELMORE GRADICK who was pretty tired after his "Muscular Exertion," a freshman who went home sadder but wiser, a certain sophomore who had eyes in the back of his head and GEORGE SPEER and EDWARD MULLIGAN who got their surprise when they were sidetracked and nearly missed the sets but came back singing "Well(s) All Right" and LILLIAN MONROE is threatening ruin and destruction to the little

Recreation Dances Will Be Continued

The regular weekly dances sponsored by the City Recreation Department, which have proven so successful in the past but have been discontinued for several weeks, will be resumed this Friday night in the City Hall at 8:30 o'clock. Dancing will continue until 11:30 P. M.
R. M. Hardaker, director of Recreation is now working to engage several orchestras for future dances but he says it is only by starting with recording and orchestras that the department can afford to engage the bands.
The hope has been expressed by Mr. Hardaker that a large crowd will again turn out to the weekly dances.

Wedding Anniversary on Dec. 24 with a reception in their home in Mocksville, where all their children and grandchildren were present. At present they are making their home on the Country Club Road.

Mr. and Mrs. Duke Hill and Richard Hill left this morning to return to their home in Oak Park, Ill., after visiting for the past three weeks as the guests of Dr. and Mrs. Douglas G. Scott and family.

Social Security Benefits Seen To Have Wide Range

Examination of the first 2,000 claims by the Social Security Board under the federal old-age and survivors insurance program indicates that combined benefits of a worker and his wife, providing she is also over 65 years of age, will range from $15 to $61.30 per month.

"The Board estimates," according to Mr. Paul Weaver, Manager of the Orlando Field Office of the Social Security Board, "as the result of this sample study, that monthly benefits received by a single person, man or woman, will range from $10 to $41.60. Benefits for a widow, regardless of age, and one dependent child, under 18 years of age or 19, if in school, will range from $15 to $62.40."

Board actuaries estimate that benefits payable to a retired wage earner in 1940 will average about $25 and about $38 for the combined benefit of a retired wage earner and his aged wife.

The new program also provides benefits for the widow and orphans of an insured wage earner. In case he leaves no such heirs, his dependent parents over age 65 may receive monthly

Many Licenses Revoked Due To Drunken Driving

TALLAHASSEE, Jan. 17.—Florida began the new year with 143 less drunken and reckless drivers, marking lives and limbs of fellow motorists on her highways, according to W. F. Reid, director, Department of Public Safety.

Director Reid said that since the new drivers license law became effective, 116 drivers licenses have been revoked and 27 have been suspended for thirty or more days. Drunken driving was the reason for the revocation of the majority of the licenses revoked.

The state is really bearing down on drunken driving, Reid said. A drunken person driving on the highway is as dangerous as one with a gun firing into a crowd; and while the Florida Highway Patrol is emphasizing education of the public in proper driving habits and issuing warnings for improper driving, it is very strict in the enforcement of the law against drunken driving.

Petitions have been filed with the Department of Public Safety asking for the revocation of several persons whose drivers licenses have been revoked for drunken driving, but the law makes the revocation of the license of all persons convicted of drunken driving mandatory and provides that such persons shall not be eligible for drivers licenses within one year thereafter.

Last year Arthur B. Hale, chairman of the State Road Department, stated that a survey made by the Division of Highway Planning showed that there were 17,964 motor vehicles being operated in Florida with defective lights. A report on the activities of the Florida Highway Patrol from Dec. 11 to Dec. 31, just released by Major H. N. Kirkman, captain in command of the patrol, shows that the patrol requested 1,538 corrections of defective lights to be made during the first 20 days of its operation.

The report shows that during this period the patrol put in 7,027 hours on the highways, traveled 74,460 miles, stopped 6,495 passenger cars and 2,647 commercial cars, requested 278 brake corrections and 297 license plate corrections, weighed and measured 392 vehicles, rendered assistance to 260 cars, issued 7,455 verbal warnings for reckless driving, parking on highways, no mirrors on trucks, etc., gave first aid to 44 persons, investigated 58 accidents, inspected 30 school buses, recovered 2 stolen cars, one bicycle and one rod and reel.

The patrol made 234 arrests; 51 for drunken driving, 47 for driving without drivers licenses, 29 for operating overweight trucks, 70 for reckless driving, 7 for passing school buses, 15 for having improper tags, and 3 for parking on highway, 154 con-

We made this statement on the Air

... now we repeat it in print

66 A GOOD MANY confusing things can be said...in fact sometimes are said...about gasoline. The important thing, however, for you to remember always is, to buy the product of a company in which you have the utmost confidence... a company whose avowed policy is to manufacture and sell only the finest products that skill, science, and great resources make possible.

"This is the policy of Gulf. Its gasolines, Good Gulf and No-Nox, are today greatly improved over what they were even six months ago... just as six months ago they were even better products than they were the year before. All this is done as a matter of course, and it is the result of forever keeping pace with every known means of product improvement.

"With Gulf the policy of constantly improving the quality of its products is a pledge... a pledge that you motorists will find maintained whenever you stop at the Sign of the Gulf Orange Disc."

THAT GOOD GULF

... a regular priced motor fuel that compares favorably with many higher priced gasolines. Because it's refined to meet the specific needs of the motor, it's the best. That Good Gulf Gasoline gives you the most economical, most reliable and smooth, all-around performance.

GULF NO-NOX

... a super-fine fuel that no regular grade gasoline—regardless of the claims made for it—can touch for anti-knock value. No-Nox gives lightning-like starts... permits more rapid acceleration... allows smooth, unobstructed power under all normal driving conditions.

Now... new... improved

Nazi Economy Reported Hard Hit By British Blockade

LONDON, Jan. 18.—(AP)—Five men were killed and a number were injured in a series of rapid fire explosions in a north London war plant which damaged houses as far as two miles away.

Police said the blasts were accidental and involved "no enemy action."

The explosions shattered thousands of windows and caused many ceilings to drop. Minor casualties were due to falling debris.

Meanwhile, Britain's government informed the nation that its wartime stranglehold on Germany's food and commerce already has reduced the Reich to the grating want of 1918.

Sharp-faced Ronald H. Cross, 43-year-old minister of economic warfare, before the House of Commons drew a grim picture of German privation as a result of four-and-a-half months of British economic blockading. Then, in matter-of-fact tones, he said: "We look forward to the day when we shall so strangle Germany's economic life that she can no longer sustain her war effort."

Simultaneously, the spiritual head of the Council of Europe...

Ernest William Brown, head of the British Tobacco Manufacturers' Association, presented a petition in the House of Commons...
