

Estimates Show 40 Percent Of GOP Voters Cast Ballots In Demo Race

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Private GOP estimates indicated today that close to 40 per cent of the Republicans who voted in the Wisconsin presidential primary crossed over to cast ballots in the Democratic race.

The effect of this crossover voting already is being debated by

Sen. John F. Kennedy, who won the Democratic primary, and Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey, the loser. Humphrey and one of his campaign managers, Gov. Orville L. Freeman of Minnesota, said Thursday Humphrey polled a majority of the Democratic vote and that GOP votes provided Kennedy's margin of victory.

Kennedy released his own set of figures Wednesday with the conclusion that the Wisconsin result would have been the same if only Democrats were allowed to vote in the Democratic primary.

Unlike other states, Wisconsin does not register voters by party and permits them to vote in either the Republican or Democratic primary.

Republicans had been braced for a heavy crossover because Vice President Richard M. Nixon was unopposed in the GOP primary and was unwilling to campaign in the state.

However, they had not expected that as many as 40 per cent of the Republicans voting Tuesday would mark ballots in the Democratic contest.

The 40 per cent estimate was based on a comparison of Nixon's vote and the Republican share of the statewide vote in the 1954 and 1958 elections for governor.

Labor Racketeer Convicted Of Conspiracy

NEW YORK (UPI) — Labor racketeer John Dioguardi (Johnny Dio) and his alleged bodyguard Theodore Ray were convicted by a federal judge Thursday of conspiracy and income tax evasion.

Dio, 46, faces a possible maximum sentence of 20 years in prison and $40,000 in fines. Ray, also 46, faces a possible 10 years and $20,000 fine.

Federal Judge Edward Weinfeld, who heard the 13-day trial without a jury on the request of the defendants, set April 28 for sentencing. He continued bail for Dio and Ray.

The government called about 50 witnesses to prove its contention that Dio failed to report large sums paid him by clothing firms to avoid union organizing. Dio was charged with three counts of income tax evasion and one count of conspiracy. Ray was charged with one tax evasion count and with conspiring with Dio to hide income.

Plumbing Is Important Yardstick In Census

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Why is Uncle Sam so curious about the kind of plumbing used by his millions of nieces and nephews? Many city dwellers who are being asked by census takers if they enjoy hot and cold running water, a private flush toilet and bathtub are probably wondering about that.

Census officials say the answer is simple. There is no better single yardstick for measuring the quality of a house than checking on its plumbing facilities, or lack of same.

Federal state and local governments, real estate men, and the construction industry all are waiting with keen interest for America's answers.

The 10 questions concerning housing now being asked at every one of the nation's 90 million households include three dealing with hot and cold water, toilets and bathtubs or showers.

At every fourth home, additional details will be sought about TV and radio sets, clothes dryers, automobiles and other furnishings.

Even though the United States is a rich nation, Census Bureau experts anticipate a significant percentage of homes will report they lack indoor plumbing.

In the 1950 census, for example, nearly one out of every four dwelling units did not have a flush toilet. This was true of more than 11 million of the almost 42 million units counted at that time.

The same census showed more than 12 million households did not have either a bathtub or shower.

There is no question but that improvement in housing has been made since 1950, but the Census Bureau believes this is all the more reason for finding out exactly what the situation is now.

Perhaps by 1970, or 1980, officials said it won't be necessary to ask such questions any more.

Lawyers Ask Governor Name Interim Judge

The Seminole County Bar Assn. has requested Governor LeRoy Collins to make an interim appointment to the vacant county judge's office and recommended Attorney Vernon Mize Jr. for the appointment.

Mize qualified as a candidate for the office Friday after the secretary of state earlier had opened qualifications until noon Tuesday after the death of Judge Wilson Alexander.

A telegram from the county bar association to the governor said "we respectfully request that an appointment be made at the earliest practical date."

Judge Alexander had handled both the county and juvenile court duties so the vacancy leaves two judicial functions on what amounts to an emergency basis for other jurists to fill in.

The interim appointment would be until the end of the current term in January, 1961. The upcoming election will be for a four-year term.

Boating Accident Hospitalizes Four

Four persons were hospitalized Sunday after a boat crashed into the shore north of the Lake Monroe bridge.

Richard Whitman of Orlando was in the boat's motor when someone yelled "Look out!" Whitman turned sharply to the right and crashed into a wooded area on the edge of the lake.

Whitman, 1235 Powers Dr., Orlando; his mother, Mrs. Mary Ann Whitman; his wife, Ruth and his 8 1/2-year-old daughter, Karen, were all taken to Seminole Memorial Hospital for treatment, the sheriff's office reported.

Damage to the boat was slight. The accident happened about two miles north of the bridge.

Way Alford was the investigating sheriff's deputy. Bob Green brought the Whitmans to the hospital.

Illinois Primary Vote To Be Heavy

CHICAGO (UPI)—Two million voters are expected to turn out Tuesday in an Illinois primary election that features fiercely fought races on both tickets.

Vice President Richard M. Nixon is alone on the Republican ballot and the Democrats are without an entry in the presidential popularity contest. Convention delegates in Illinois are not bound by balloting and the election did not appeal to the Democratic contenders.

However, Republicans urged a heavy turnout to register approval for Nixon and southern adverse reaction to his vote total in last week's Wisconsin primary.

The primary has spotlighted rifts in both parties. Six men are running for the Republican senatorial nomination and a chase for a November match with Sen. Paul H. Douglas, who is unopposed on the Democratic ticket.

West Not Fooled By Soviet Plan

GENEVA (UPI)—The West warmed Russia today it will not be fooled by the alleged new Soviet disarmament plan because "it's the same old wolf" dressed in new sheep's clothing.

"Please don't try to smuggle the old Russian plan in through the back door," British Minister of State David Ormsby-Gore told the Communist delegates to the 10-nation disarmament conference. "No matter how elegant is the sheep's clothing, it's the same old wolf."

Chief American Delegate Frederick M. Eaton asked why the Soviets had attempted to reintroduce their own plan in the guise of "new principles" for disarmament when they had been told repeatedly it was unacceptable.

THE DRIVER SURVIVED THIS WRECK, in which the automobile rolled, skidded and bounced more than 1,000 feet about midnight Saturday near Oviedo. James Hayes told the Highway Patrol and sheriff's deputies that he was blinded by the lights of an approaching car and lost control of his vehicle. The engine, seats, and other parts of the car were strewn along the road and a palmetto patch. Hayes crawled out of the wreckage with a single scratch on his forehead. (Herald Photo)

Anti-Castro Revolt Budding

HAVANA (UPI)—Revolutionary troops today were reported fanning out over their former Sierra Maestra hideouts with orders to crush a budding guerrilla offensive against Premier Fidel Castro.

According to reports reaching here from southeastern Cuba, the seasoned Castro mountain fighters were attempting to make contact with an anti-government band composed of remnants of the army of deposed Dictator Fulgencio Batista and a number of defectors from the revolutionary movement.

There was no reliable estimate available of the size of the guerrilla force. It was understood that a revolutionary officer, Maj. Francisco Tamayo, was killed recently while leading an army-militia pursuit of the counter-revolutionaries.

Warmer Weather Aids Flood Victims

By United Press International

Soft breezes and fair skies sent temperatures rising through the Midwest today and aided workers clearing the wreckage of one of the worst spring floods in history.

The swollen Mississippi and Missouri rivers ran above flood stage throughout southern Illinois and central Missouri. But high levees thwarted the likelihood of more floods like those which struck central Illinois last week.

Rivers were reported falling toward their banks in Nebraska, Iowa, Wisconsin and Kansas and officials said the disastrous floods there appeared to be over.

Temperatures rose 10 to 30 degrees early today over the central plains, northern Mississippi Valley and the upper Great Lakes.

The Southeast and the Montana-Utah area was 10 to 20 degrees cooler today.

Jaycee Prexy Stresses Community Leadership

State Jaycee President Dr. Herbert Stevens told the fourth Jaycee caucus here Sunday that future leads in any community "must come from the ranks of the Jaycees."

Stevens, of Ft. Lauderdale, said there is a "crying need" for leadership in Florida and the majority of that leadership should come from the rank and file members of Jaycee organizations.

"Leadership training is the main job of all Jaycees," Stephens said.

Approximately 150 members of Jaycee groups from the Fourth District attended the caucus at the American Legion building.

Clubs represented included Sanford, Apopka, Eustis, Lakeland, Lake Wales, Leesburg, Longwood, Mt. Dora, Orlando, Umatilla and Winter Haven.

Jaycees heard candidates for Jaycee offices in the state campaign and held an election for the vice president of the district. Roy Walker of Eustis was elected vice president to represent this district.

After the caucus the Jaycees were treated to a dinner prepared by the Jaycee wives under the direction of Mrs. Tom Largent.

Get Out And Vote, Residents Urged

Seminole County residents were urged again Saturday not to let a minority elect county officials in the forthcoming election.

Sen. Douglas Stenstrom made his second talk about voter apathy at the Seminole County Sportsmen's Assn. rally at Camp Seminole and the two candidates for the Senate seat he is vacating also were on the program.

Urging residents to get out and vote May 3, Stenstrom said that one fifth of Seminole County's eligible voters may decide this year's county elections.

Stenstrom said a reliable statistician has estimated that only 7,600 of Seminole County's 14,000 registered voters will cast their ballots May 3. He said this would let a majority of 4,000 voters decide the elections. There are more than 32,000 people in the county.

If May 3 is a cloudy day, it is figured that 1,300 voters will stay home who might otherwise come to the polls, the senator said. If it rains, even more voters are expected to stay home. Seventy percent of the eligible voters go to the polls in other democracies, he said.

The crowd attending the sportsmen's fish fry and rally heard a talk by S. Gary Bennett Jr. of Cocoa and Bernard Parrish of Titusville said he just wanted to introduce some sportsmen who came along from Brevard County for the fish fry. Parrish was polio-tickin' in the county today.

Bennett declared himself against the state inventory tax and against any increase in the sales tax. He said he had defended the Brevard County conservation program and would support reappointment.

Talks also were made by most of the candidates for other county offices.

Space Cooperation By U. S. Is Urged

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Space Agency Director T. Keith Glennan says he would like for the United States and Russia to work together on manned flight to the moon and other space projects.

Glennan, head of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration, said Sunday night the United States had made no such proposals to Russia but added, "I would like to see this happen."

"He said he thought that in the space business we have... perhaps a new mechanism for international cooperation which we ought to push just as hard as we can."

Glennan said he did not feel America would be in mortal danger even if the Soviet Union gained control of outer space.

"I don't feel that the space business is the only business with which this country must keep pace with the Russians," he said. "... unless we get on with the business of developing science and technology we could fall behind in a variety of fields."

The NASA director said the "strong nation on earth is undoubtedly the nation that will be first in outer space." If the United States lost out entirely in this field, he added, "it would mean we really had given up."

Premier Invited To Resign Post

ROME (UPI)—Premier Fernando Tambroni's Christian Democratic Party doomed his new government today by "inviting" him to resign.

He was expected to quit within hours.

Tambroni was scheduled to go before the Senate late today for a second vote of confidence—having survived his first in the Chamber of Deputies last Friday by a mere three votes, thanks to the unasked-for aid of the Neo-Fascist Party.

Even before he appeared before the Senate, Tambroni's newly-formed Cabinet was disintegrating on the issue of the Neo-Fascist support.

African Premier's Assailant Still Not Charged

JOHANNESBURG, South Africa (UPI)—Police officials conferred today on possible charges to be made against wealthy farmer David Pratt in connection with his attempt to kill Premier Hendrick Verwoerd last Saturday.

But by the close of the day, Pratt had not been brought into magistrate court for arraignment as expected.

This suggested that authorities regarded his arrest as being under terms of South Africa's emergency regulations which replaced normal habeas corpus procedures.

The 38-year-old Verwoerd lay in Pretoria hospital with two bullet wounds in his skull. Doctors said his condition was satisfactory, but medical experts feared he may have suffered some permanent damage to his speech, balance and hearing—although his secretary said such was not the case.

Police continued their crackdown against Negroes agitating against the country's South African racial laws.

Col. John Olyver and Lt. Col. J. C. van der Merwe of the Rand criminal investigation department conferred with the state prosecutors on the charges to be preferred against Pratt.

Detectives were seen visiting the fair grounds where two shots were fired at Verwoerd shortly after he made a speech Saturday during the union's 50th anniversary celebrations.

A medical bulletin issued this morning said Verwoerd had "a residual night and is making satisfactory progress. He is as well as could be reasonably expected. There are no further developments."

Vote Spending Continues Rise

TALLAHASSEE (UPI)—It appeared today that Florida's 19 candidates for governor would spend about $1,500,000 before the elections are over.

With three weeks remaining until the first primary—and the strong probability of a second primary—the candidates had spent $730,000 through last Monday. Spending for the past week was to be reported today. This was expected to add another $100,000 to the total.

The $730,000 was more than the cost of either of the entire campaigns in 1952 and 1956. In 1952, with only five candidates in the field, $570,000 was spent. Six candidates spent $673,000 in 1956, when there was no second primary.

In 1954, with only three candidates, the cost for both primaries totaled $353,721.

According to reports through last Monday, Doyle Carlton spent $213,000; Farris Bryant, $203,000; Hayden Burns, $94,000; John McCarty, $78,110; Ted David, $58,000, and Fred O. Dickinson, $54,000.

Candidates Face Busy Week As State Demo Primary Nears

By United Press International
With the first primary three weeks away, Florida's field of would-be governors launched their busiest week of campaigning today.

Hayden Burns, Doyle Carlton and Fred Dickinson planned to seek votes in the populous Jacksonville area today, Tuesday and Wednesday.

Farris Bryant worked today on an address to be delivered on a statewide television hookup Tuesday night and John McCarty said he planned to stump 70 cities in 30 counties during the week.

Here is how seven of the 10 Democratic candidates outlined their chances in a television appearance in Miami Sunday:

Bryant: "I am leading or in second place. If my friends keep working there is no question in my mind that we will win the first primary."

Burns: He said he felt that he was "running strong" and would still be in the race after May 3.

Carlton: He said he "feels real good" because of editorial endorsements of more than 80 Florida newspapers. The latest was in the St. Petersburg Times.

Dickinson: "I'm convinced I'm in second or third place now," he said. He said his campaign was picking up momentum.

McCarty: "I think I'm in the lead." He said he was encouraged by the results of several polls which he said showed him running ahead.

Jim McCorvey: He said he was getting increased support for his program of expanded state-controlled gambling.

Harvey Belsler, the Rev. George Downs and Ku Klux Klanman Bill Hendrix, the other three Democratic candidates, did not appear on the television program.

The seven who did appear agreed that no general tax increase would be necessary for Florida in the near future. McCorvey made the exception that taxes might be necessary unless legalized gambling were expanded.

All said a better distribution of representation in the state Legislature is needed.

Auxiliary Honors DeLand High Girl

Gail Holloway, of Benson Junction, was guest of honor at the meeting of the DeBary American Legion Auxiliary last Thursday night.

The Auxiliary is sponsoring Miss Holloway, a DeLand High School Junior, at Girl's State. She was selected by the high school on the basis of leadership and other qualities. Legion Auxiliaries throughout the state are sponsoring the Girl's State program, which is designed to better acquaint the students with local and state government.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sparrow, of DeLand, showed slides of their trip to Central America for the evening's entertainment. In its Pan-American Program under the direction of Mrs. P. L. Wainston the Legion Auxiliary has been studying Guatemala for the past year. The Sparrows' colorful slides of Guatemala and also of Mexico, came as the climax of this year's program. On their trip the Sparrows penetrated deep into the countries away from the resort centers, to obtain authentic pictures of native life.

Virginians Heap Praise On Hospital

Some folks from Virginia have become so impressed with the Memorial Hospital that two of them wrote a letter to Administrator Harry Weir saying, in part: "Not only is your handsome hospital perfectly located, but its excellent efficiency is tempered by the finest spirit of warmth and graciousness."

The letter from Ernest F. Campbell of Mt. Vernon, Va., and Mrs. Eugene Campagna of Alexandria, praised all members of the hospital staff and all phases of its operation. They called the nursing staff "outstanding."

This is an exceptional compliment to the hospital since the father, Dr. Campbell, a patient here for five weeks, has been on the board of the Virginia Baptist Hospital at Lynchburg for 30 years.

We are sure Mr. Weir and the hospital staff are indeed proud that their efforts received such an accolade.

WORRY CLINIC by Dr. G. W. Crane

Math is a smart high school teacher whose clever idea should be adopted all over America. It's not enough that our nervous system readers (the ones for whom they don't know how to avoid the simple fallacies in logic, they can still read the newspaper verdicts. Scrutinize this case.)

CASE #48: Sam E., aged 29, is a high school teacher.

"Dr. Crane," he began, "don't you think it would be a good idea to offer a simple course on logic to the high school?"

"A lot of adults don't even know the first principles of logic. They have never been taught the simple fallacies in reasoning."

"Do wonder they wonder stupid mistakes when they serve as jurors, do they confuse emotionalism with sound logic?"

The "ad hominem" fallacy is one of the most prevalent of all the fallacies in logic.

It occurs when a man's argument are ignored but the man's personality is blemished by disparaging campaigns and emotional appeals.

"Suppose you utter the axiom that 'two times two equals four.' 'You can't believe that,' says the 'ad hominem' critic, 'for the man who says that is a Republican (or Progressive or Democrat or a Negro, etc.)'

You readers can see that there is no logical connection between such baseless charges and the truth that two times two equals four.

Recently, for example, a clergyman wrote a full page letter of support to the editor because of my case record showing that long, rectangular church sanctuaries are not so helpful to the speaker as the square sanctuaries. He cited the fact that the long, rectangular arrangement hampers the congregation too far away from the preacher's facial expressions are not clearly visible.

Moreover, I also mentioned that during the choir in recessed balconies above, because their vision is not as good as the choir's vision to the pulpit.

My third point in that column was that $1,000,000 spent on a ritzy downtown church would produce as many new Sunday school pupils or church members as $100,000 invested in each of 10 smaller suburban churches.

This clergyman was incensed. But he didn't advance a single argument to refute any of those axioms I had uttered.

He completely ignored the psychological facts I had offered about the rectangular church sanctuary, plus the hidden choir and the $1 million ritzy downtown church.

Instead, he filled his entire letter with nothing but "ad hominem" fallacies.

"What right has Dr. Crane to talk about religion," he said, "for he is just a psychologist and a physician?"

That is exactly the same type of ad hominem appeal as if he had denied my statement that "two times two equals four," and had justified his protest by likewise saying: "Dr. Crane doesn't teach math so how can his statement be true that two times two equals four?"

Sam is quite right, therefore, in arguing that a simple course in logic should be included in high school, for about 80 percent of Americans never go beyond their senior year.

Juries often get swayed by a nylon clad knee and a few artificial tears, pathetically displayed by the seductive plaintiff and then find her "not guilty," when the logic is entirely on the other side.

High school debaters get excellent training in logic. So do law students and scientists.

But 95 percent of Americans NEVER get a single lecture on this most crucial subject, so let's include it in the high school curriculum.

Send for my "Tests for Good Teachers," enclosing a stamped, return envelope, plus 20c (non-profit). It also lets you use logic to improve classroom teaching.

ASSIGNMENT WASHINGTON by Ed Koterba

WASHINGTON — The story of men in politics often sweeps the gamut of unrelated anecdotes. Here is one day's collection . . .

On two-time losers: Political experts claim the main thing blocking Adlai Stevenson's chances for the presidency is that he's a two-time loser. The other day Sen. John Carroll (D., Colo.) said in the press and over the radio that he himself was a two-time loser, that he became a senator on his third try. He said he'd like to see Stevenson our next president.

Immediately there was a deluge of mail and telegrams seconding the motion. In fact, one wire . . . from the Draft Stevenson headquarters in San Jose, Calif. . . . asked Carroll to head a national citizens' committee to draft the former Illinois governor.

It was pointed out that the psychological effect would be tremendous . . . a once two-time loser proving that the third try could be the charm.

Somebody ought to put Sen. William Proxmire (D., Wis.) in this campaign role. He's a successful three-time loser . . .

On tactful eloquence: Sen. Joe O'Mahoney (D., Wyo.), who refused to cry "uncle" after his stroke last year, has been doing mental handstands lately. He argued so superbly at a hearing on the Mineral Leasing Act that a witness, George Abbott, solicitor for the Interior Department, said in awe: "Senator, if you will pardon a personal reference . . . as you told me at one time when you called from the hospital, you were not as active as you would like to be. Well, sir, I would like to be mildly afflicted with whatever it is that has happened to you if it would make my mystery of complicated situations . . . and the ability to reduce them simply . . . equal to yours."

On constituent letters: The other day the rubber workers of Akron held a mass meeting to stir up interest in the federal "free hospitalization" Forand bill.

Union leaders asked members to support the bill and they led the march to the state capitol with pens, paper and instruction forms. The instruction sheet was headed: "Write Congressman William Ayres, Washington, D. C."

The Republican representative from Akron received a pile of mail. The envelopes were faithfully addressed: "Write Congressman William Ayres, Washington, D. C."

On sudden tragedy: Does a man get a signal about his impending death? It was mid-afternoon and Rep. Russell Mack (D., Wash.) stood up on the floor of the House to answer a quorum call. A congressman at his side leaned over and said: "Lovely day today, isn't it?"

Rep. Mack scowled: "Not for me it isn't."

Eight minutes later he was dead of a heart attack . . .

Even Without Vote Headquarters, Johnson Has Eyes On Presidency

By DICK WEST

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Since the opening of the 1960 presidential season, I have taken political soundings at the campaign headquarters of Kennedy, Humphrey, Stevenson, Morse and Nixon.

As might be expected, this led to demands that I give equal time to Sen. Lyndon S. Johnson, who also has been casting sheep's eyes at the electorate.

The funny thing is the demands came from supporters of Kennedy, Humphrey, Stevenson, Morse and Nixon.

Well, I want to be fair about this thing but I have encountered difficulties. Johnson was told upon telephoning his office that Johnson has no campaign headquarters here.

That being the case, I decided to do the next best thing and heard the candidate in his own den. So I headed for the U.S. Senate, where Johnson serves as a real-life miracle worker and leader of the Democratic majority.

Johnson strides up to his chair, sits down on the back of his neck and coils his long legs around each other. Then he opens a small portfolio marked "floor folder" and outlines the day's senatorial business.

There is a saying that the only God knows what the U.S. Senate will do, but it is generally recognized that Johnson makes a reasonably reliable prophesy.

Currently, his powers of clairvoyance, as well as his reputation as a prime mover of legislation, are being sorely tested by the civil rights legislation. But nonchalantly slouched there behind his desk, alertly relaxed under a cross-fire of questions, he gives the impression of having the situation well in hand.

Thus far, Johnson has been running for president mainly in Texas. Some observers think he will need some help from the other 49 states, but nobody ever got rich underestimating LBJ.

According to some dope stories he has been gradually moving Texas out of the South and into the West in order to broaden his political footing.

From what I know of Johnson, I wouldn't be surprised if he tried to move it north and east, too, and perhaps even take in parts of Canada.

WASHINGTON CALLING by Marquis Childs

WASHINGTON—In the powerful, skillfully organized campaign Sen. John F. Kennedy is conducting for presidency, the candidate and those around him give off a high degree of confidence. And, above all, this is confidence that Kennedy can defeat Vice President Nixon in November.

The Kennedy calculation takes into full account the religion issue. In fact, the senator's Catholicism is made to appear as an asset, with the intimation that Kennedy will stay neatly alone in November, the Democratic hopefuls can defeat the Republicans.

The heart of the claim is a new combination similar to that put together by President Truman when he won his stunning upset victory by defeating Thomas E. Dewey in 1948. It takes full account of the likely defection of southern states and perhaps even one or two border states.

With the southern plan for "independent electors" Kennedy argues that the Democrats are likely to lose four or five southern states no matter who is the candidate. Truman in '48 lost the 39 electoral votes of Alabama, Louisiana, Mississippi, South Carolina and Tennessee, which went for the States' Rights candidate, Sen. Strom Thurmond. Yet Truman won with a total of 303 to 189.

Kennedy's case rests on his conviction that he can carry all the states in the North and West with big cities. He would include New York, which Truman lost. In the claim he puts forward with such determined confidence he would, thanks to the farm disaffection, carry a number of Midwest states, including Ohio and Wisconsin.

The case of the case is that voters who cross over for him in the primary are aware that West Virginia's Sen. Robert C. Byrd was, in his 'twenties, a member of the Ku Klux Klan. They suspect that he will try to raise the religion issue in a state where perhaps not more than five percent of the population is Catholic. The Klan versus the church calls up grisly memories of the quarrel that tore the Democrats apart first in 1924 and when Al Smith was the defeated candidate for president in 1928.

Byrd, who favors Sen. Lyndon Johnson for the nomination, reflects any suggestion that he would exploit Kennedy's religion. But he points to the returns in a poll he took of 1,200 members of the Democratic executive committee in West Virginia's 55 counties. Many were returned, he says, with written comments to the effect that a Catholic could not be elected president. Johnson led the poll by a slight margin, according to Byrd.

What makes West Virginia so important is obvious. If Kennedy can win there by as broad a margin as in Wisconsin he will probably clinch the nomination, since his victory would be exploited as an advertisement of his vote-getting ability in a state largely Protestant.

But Humphrey has a limited attraction in West Virginia. He is too closely identified with civil rights for the southern counties on the Virginia border and his liberal pro-labor record has only a narrow appeal elsewhere.

This is what Byrd is saying

Political Issue Of Man's Religion Cut Two Ways In Wisconsin Primary

By LYLE C. WILSON

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The political issue of a man's religion cut two ways in last week's presidential preference primary.

That issue induced substantial bloc voting by Roman Catholics in favor of their fellow religionist, Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass.).

Kennedy won the pockets and larger areas in Wisconsin where Catholics are predominant among the voters. Some perhaps most of these Catholic pockets and areas also have been rated as predominantly Republican in this historically Republican state.

There was a cut from the reverse edge of the religious issue. The movement of Wisconsin Republicans Catholics into the Democratic primary reduced the aggregate vote of Vice President Richard M. Nixon, who was unopposed in the Republican primary. Nixon was low man on the popular vote totem pole in Wisconsin.

This fact may not — probably will not — hurt Nixon much but, as the old saying goes, it certainly did not do him any good. He ran second to Kennedy in four congressional districts and third to Kennedy and Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey in the remaining seven.

It is not so bad as to lend much if any encouragement to those relatively few Republicans who cling to the idea that they may yet nominate for president Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York.

Rockefeller apparently is one of those who believes he may yet be nominated. He has avoided an endorsement of Nixon for the presidential nomination. His state of mind may have been better illuminated in his mid-winter statement withdrawing from the contest.

That statement followed publication of a series of polls indicating that Rockefeller could not defeat Nixon in the Republican national convention in July. Rockefeller phrased his withdrawal in the form of a charge that the party bosses were in league to prevent his nomination.

Intentionally or not, Rockefeller created a handy campaign issue for the Democratic nominee, whoever that may be. The issue will be this: That Nixon is the hand-picked candidate of the party bosses, not the people's choice, the Republican people's, that is, Rockefeller did not intend to create a handy campaign issue for the Democratic nominee, whoever that may be. Happiness Through Health Periodic Suffering By Many Women Unwarranted

(By DR. F. LEO KERWIN)

Many women suffer needlessly every month. Aside from the pain that must be endured, there is an upset of the entire nervous system. Irritability, melancholia, depression, and headaches are some of the common symptoms.

The nerves which control the function and activity of the female organs also lead to the muscles of the back, legs, and other organs in the vicinity. These nerve trunks emit from the spine in approximately the same place. Slight spinal or hip displacements cause irritation of these nerves with the attending combination of symptoms and trouble. That is why backache, legache or constipation are also associated with each period.

The Chiropractor locates and corrects these nerve irritations through spinal adjustments and by so doing removes the cause of the trouble and nature does the rest.

One of a series of articles published in the public interest to explain and illustrate the practice of scientific Chiropractic, written by Dr. F. Leo Kerwin whose office is located at 291 S. French Ave. and his telephone number is FAirfax 2-7442.

Johnson's Presidential Bid Up As Senate Okays Rights

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Senate passage of the civil rights bill brought reassessments today of Senate Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson as a candidate for the Democratic presidential nomination.

Johnson still is not an announced candidate and is unlikely to become one so long as he regards management of the Senate program this year to be his first responsibility.

However, he was reported to be under pressure to make an announcement from supporters who are worrying that Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass.) may get too far ahead and have the nomination in the bag by convention time.

Although Congress has not yet finished with the civil rights issue, Johnson got most of the credit or blame—depending on the critics' viewpoint—for the bill approved by the Senate Friday night.

Even among Johnson partisans, there was no agreement on how the two-month struggle would affect the Texan's future. Some felt he came out with the same political strength he had at the start, without damaging his support in the South and Border states and without making much headway among liberal Northern Democrats.

Others were convinced that his stature had increased because twice within three years, he had piloted civil rights bills through the Senate where none had passed for more than 80 years.

After an early flare-up when he brought the issue before the Senate, Southern criticism of Johnson subsided, particularly as Southern senators succeeded in softening the House-approved bill.

However, this same softening process offended Democrats from the populous Northern states, some of whom think the nomination of Johnson for president would be an invitation to disaster. Sen. Pat McNamara (D-Mich.) said Sunday there was "nothing in this bill that would justify thinking that Johnson was a great leader in the civil rights area."

Johnson's backers expect him to go to the convention in July with potential strength of about 550 of the 701 votes needed to win the nomination, including about 450 from Southern and Border states. If Kennedy faltered, they would hope to pick up enough pieces to put Johnson over.

Company Plans Credit Advance

MINNEAPOLIS—The Board of Directors of Investors Syndicate of America, Inc. has voted to credit advance payments with an additional two percent per annum return for the period April 1, through December 31, and to set aside as a reserve from accumulated earnings a sum or sums sufficient to permit this action.

This raises the effective interest rate on advance payments made by the company's certificate holders to four percent per annum for such period. Terms of the installment certificates, issued by the company, provide that the reserve for advance payment shall be accrued at the rate of 2% per annum, compounded annually. Thus, for the period indicated, the rate has been doubled. The future accrual rate policy on advance payments will be reviewed again by the Board near the end of the calendar year.

Florida Building Boom Predicted By Business Bureau

MIAMI (UPI)—Florida will be the only state where more homes are built in the coming 12 months than in the past year, a University of Miami Bureau predicted Sunday.

Florida also contains the two metropolitan areas where home building will show the greatest increase in the year to come, the report said. They are Orlando and Tampa-St. Petersburg.

The report by the University of Miami's Bureau of Business and Economic Research said home building in all areas of the country will decrease during the year from April 1, 1960, through March 31, 1961.

The South Atlantic area will see a decrease of about 8 percent, but home building in Florida will be up 4 percent, the bureau said.

About 102,000 new housing units are expected in the state during the forecast period, 4 percent above the 1959 volume, and the best performance of any state in the nation, the report said.

Orlando is expected to lead the country in percentage of increase in housing starts with 12 percent. The report said 10,300 new dwelling units will be started during the period.

"Close behind Orlando is the fast-growing Tampa - St. Petersburg region." The increase there is forecast at 9 percent, or 22,900 housing starts for the period.

The "more mature" area of Fort Lauderdale - Miami area is expected to remain the largest volume builder in Florida with 25,000 starts on dwellings. This would represent a 4 percent decrease from the past year.

Negroes, Threatened By Possible Reprisals

By United Press International

Negroes launched a Holy Week crusade against Southern segregation customs today with a boycott of Easter goods-laden stores that refuse to serve Negroes at lunch counters.

The Southwide move brought threats from some white store owners to fire Negro employees. And the Jackson State Times said editorially Sunday the boycott might touch off a secondary boycott by whites of stores that do not fire Negroes.

This brought a reply from Medger Evers, field secretary of the Mississippi NAACP, that such action "could reverberate in Negroes boycotting stores that fire Negroes."

Although boycotts were planned for Florida, Georgia, South Carolina, Tennessee and Virginia, the most concentrated effort was aimed at Jackson, a city of 150,000 population.

Negro leaders predicted that 70 percent of Jackson's 1,000 Negroes would participate in the boycott. However Percy Greene, a conservative Negro editor, said the move would have little following.

The White Citizens Councils called the use of economics in the racial crisis a "two-way street" and said many Negro employees will lose their jobs in the event of a boycott.

But Evers said Negroes have "just been told to save their money, not stay away from their jobs." He said "we're doing this instead of going downtown and subjecting ourselves" to laws recently passed by the Mississippi Legislature against possible sit-down protests. The laws carry a six-month sentence for violation of statutes prohibiting the obstruction of public passageways or entering premises where forbidden by signs. Mississippi is the only Southern state which has had no sit-down protests against segregated lunch counters.

Quake Recorded In Seattle Area

SEATTLE (UPI) — A "sharp local" earthquake was recorded here Sunday night by the Seismograph at the University of Washington.

Prof. Frank Neumann, University of Washington seismologist, said the quake was centered "definitely within 10 miles of the campus, possibly beneath Puget Sound" on the west side of the city.

"The shock was highly localized," Neumann said, "and not of too great intensity." It occurred at 1:47 a. m. There were no reports of damages.

One Florida oil field has already produced more than 2,000,000 barrels.

Three Seminole High girls were chosen to attend Florida Girls State.

The girls picked to attend the annual study of democracy at work are Deanna Nichols, 2118 South Oak Ave.; Penny Anderson, 124 Pinecrest Dr.; and Nicki Ashby, 1918 Hibiscus Ct. Alternates are Betsy Williams, 228 Elliott Ave. and Margaret Jones, 308 W. Fifth St.

Ten girls were chosen by their fellow juniors, and from those approved by the faculty. Lots were drawn to decide which club girls would be sponsored by the three clubs.

Florida Girls State is held in Tallahassee each summer. The girls organize themselves into a miniature state to get a firsthand idea of how our government works.

Fist Fights Among USIS Men Can Be Costly To Taxpayers

By DICK WEST

WASHINGTON (UPI) — It's a good thing that most employees of the U. S. Information Agency are peaceable men. I don't think we can afford many $20,000 fist fights.

This is what it cost us taxpayers for one unidentified information specialist to take a swing at a colleague during a drinking bout at some unnamed foreign post.

Members of a House appropriations subcommittee ran across the incident while holding hearings on the new USIA budget. They seemed to be a trifle dismayed by the expense of intramural fistfights.

According to USIA Director George V. Allen, the agency spent more than $4,000 training the lip-sy batter for an overseas assignment and more than $6,000 getting him there. After the dust-up, it ordered him home again at a cost of almost $9,000.

"Why did you not sober him up and tell him to apologize?" asked Rep. Robert L. F. Sikles (D-Ill.).

Allen replied that the USIA wanted to rehabilitate the employe if possible because he had "almost bilingual ability in five languages." This impressed me as a rare ability indeed. I have

NAS Plays Large Part In Aiding Quake Orphans

Sanford Naval Air Station men and their dependents played a large part in the recent nationwide drive to collect clothing for the orphans of earthquake devastated Agadir, Morocco.

In response to the March 10 appeal from Admiral Harold P. Smith, Commander in Chief U. S. Naval Forces, Europe, clothing came pouring into the many Naval installations around the globe.

NAS Sanford's part in the drive was coordinated by Lt. Cdr. William M. Hearn, Protestant Chaplain, with the help of the Navy Wives Club. The Navy wives donated a great amount of time to the giving and gathering of clothing.

Chaplain Hearn reported more than 2,000 pieces of clothing were left in his office. The clothing was then sent to NAS Jacksonville to be forwarded to Oakland, California, from where it was sent to its ultimate destination.

The clothes were delivered to Agadir by Naval Reserve aircraft and personnel aptly named "Angels for Agadir" by Rear Admiral Allen Smith Jr., Chief of Naval Air Reserve Training.

Moroccan King Mohammed V's 26-year-old daughter, Princess Lalla Malika, president of the Moroccan Red Cross, was the supervisor of all the welfare services which gave aid to the victims.

Princess Lalla Malika gave thanks for the clothing gifts when she said, "You have brought what we needed most: clothing and food for the babies. We need more, but above all, we need milk and food for the children."

Chances Bright That Congress May Pass Farm Bill, Aid To Aged

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Chances appeared bright today that Congress would pass a farm bill, some voluntary health insurance program for the aged and several other important measures before adjourning in July.

Senate Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson (Tex.) expressed confidence that, with administration "cooperation," Congress would enact legislation dealing with farm problems, medical care, housing, minimum wages, Social Security and mine safety.

Action also was likely on a school construction bill. A $75 million federal aid measure is awaiting House action and an even broader construction bill already has passed the Senate.

Johnson, who made the forecast before flying home to Texas for a few days rest, shares optimism with many other legislators that a voluntary medical care plan for elderly citizens will pass Congress this year.

The probability of action on this election-year issue was bolstered over the weekend by word that Vice President Richard M. Nixon wants Congress to approve at the session a "constructive alternative" to the Democratic Ford and "compulsory" health insurance measure.

Strong indications also were seen that the Eisenhower administration was working toward a compromise farm bill — primarily designed to solve the mounting wheat surplus.

Johnson said "if the administration will get in here and cooperate, men of good will can pass a farm bill." He said he was referring to a general farm measure but emphasized that the wheat surplus was the crux of the problem.

Keep Schools Open, Young Demos Say

JACKSONVILLE (UPI) — The Young Democrats of Florida went on record Saturday against closing public schools even if racially integrated.

"This resolution, and one commending Gov. LeRoy Collins for 'preventing racial strife,' passed over a scattering of opposition at the Young Democrats' convention here.

The convention honored as outstanding Democratic State Treasurer Ed Larson, Sen. George Smathers, State Party Chairman James Milligan and retiring National Committeeman Jerry Carter.

Other resolutions passed by the convention:

Recommended that the state constitution be revised to permit amendments to be made through initiative.

Favored extension of the Sunshine State Parkway to the Georgia line.

Urged party loyalty on the part of all office holders.

Favored granting leaves of absence without penalty to any state employee under the merit system who wishes to run for public office.

Robertson Set As Top NBA Pick

NEW YORK (UPI) — Oscar Robertson of Cincinnati, Jerry West of West Virginia and Darrell Imhoff of California, All-American all, will be grabbed up 1-23 today in the National Basketball Association's annual draft of the college crop.

Robertson, who set 14 major college scoring records, during his three-time All-America career will be made the No. 1 pick of the Cincinnati Royals, who can use him the most. West next was expected to be claimed by the Minneapolis Lakers and Imhoff by the New York Knickerbockers.

The draft meeting, open to the press and public, got underway at 12:30 p. m. at the Roosevelt Hotel. Each team will select in inverse order of its won-and-lost record for the past season.

The subject of possible new franchises also is on the schedule for discussion at the meeting. Proposals have been received for Los Angeles, San Francisco, Baltimore, and Pittsburgh.

WASHINGTON (UPI)—A powerfully built carnival roustabout faced a coroner's inquest today on charges he murdered former Bradley University President David B. Owen with his bare hands.

Bobbie Richard Van Over, 31, of Tampa was charged Friday with first degree murder in the hotel room strangulation-beating of Owen, 51, manager of the Santa Cruz, Calif., Chamber of Commerce.

An inquest was scheduled at the District of Columbia morgue.

Owen, who came here last week to testify at congressional hearings about proposed funds for a Santa Cruz yacht basin, was discovered naked, battered and dying with two neck bones broken in a 84-day hotel room Thursday. Owen was president of the Peoria, Ill., university from 1946 to 1952. He resigned for health reasons in the wake of a basketball fix scandal involving the school's highly-ranked team.

Van Over was taken into custody after an informant told police the road — show hand had bragged in a bar: "Boy did I work that guy over."

Officers also held Mrs. Lois Darlene Van Over, his wife, as a material witness.

5. Real Estate For Sale

"Hello, Stemp Agency?"
"At your service."

"This is Mrs. Smartbyer. Is that pretty house at the south end of Yale, on the east side, for sale?"

"Yes, it is, Mrs. Smartbyer."

"I like it because it is on a Dead End street and has such a lovely backyard—a perfect place for children."

"True, Mrs. Smartbyer, and ideal for grownups, too, because of its nearness to modern shopping centers. And the inside is as attractive as the outside—it has three bedrooms, a nice living room, a modern bath and fully equipped kitchen."

"Oh, dear, it probably costs too much for us." "On the contrary, Mrs. Smartbyer. It's only $18,900, less than most two bedroom houses, and because of the 4 1/2% mortgage it can be financed to suit your budget."

"Wonderful! When my husband gets home can we look through the house?" "Certainly, Mrs. Smartbyer. Just give us a ring and one of our salesmen will be right out to pick you up."

Africans Still Pressured By Police

JOHANNESBURG, South Africa (UPI)—The South African government gave no sign today of yielding to internal and worldwide pressure for easing of its racial policies.

Despite pleas for a reappraisal of the white supremacy laws, the government gave every indication it would carry on the line of Prime Minister Hendrik Verwoerd while he is recuperating in a hospital from an assassin's bullet.

South African businessmen, clergymen, native leaders and some newspapers have called for the white government to take a new look at the way it treats the black man.

From abroad there has been a barrage of criticism from politicians, newspapers, organizations and even some governments, even within the British Commonwealth of which South Africa is a member.

But South African police, continuing the government crackdown on native unrest, raided the native township of Rand Mornay, confiscating weapons and arresting scores of blacks.

Police and court officials clamped a lid of secrecy on the case of wealthy farmer David Pratt, 32, arrested in connection with the shooting of Verwoerd.

He had been expected to be arraigned in court Monday but did not appear, and later detectives were seen making a survey of the scene at the fair grounds where the shooting occurred.

Authorities also moved against a second news correspondent, Mrs. Myra Mackenzie, who writes for the London Daily Herald and New York Post under the name of Mrs. Myra Blumberg.

She was taken into custody, presumably for dispatches she sent to the papers, shortly before it was announced that Norman Phillips, of the Toronto Star, was released from custody on condition he left the country.

Minister of External Affairs Eric H. Louw said postal authorities at Durban had been disturbed by Phillips' cables and that the Justice Ministry ordered him "detained for questioning."

TOUGH POLICY by government continues as South African police try to put down protests by Negroes with force. This armored car is blocking the march of what grew to a crowd of 5,000 people in one protest against the white government leaders.

Longwood To Get Two Industries

Land has been sold for a 30-acre industrial park in Longwood and a $140,000 cabinet manufacturing plant is planned for the site.

Allen Harvell of Winter Park and "Slim" Carmichael of Orlando recently bought the land adjoining the McCall Fruit property and fronting on Eastlake Ave. in Longwood.

Harvell said today that he plans to move his Winter Park cabinet manufacturing business to the park in the latter part of this year or the first part of 1961. He plans a 20,000-square-foot building. Harvell plans to employ about 50 people at the new plant. The key personnel are to come from his Winter Park business and the rest from the south Seminole area.

Harvell will keep the cabinet sales office in Winter Park. Tentative plans have also been made for a metal foundry at the Longwood site. Carmichael is owner and operator of the Quick Service Tire Co. in Orlando.

Florida Air Base Use Still Being Surveyed

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Air Force said today it was still studying possible future uses for MacDill Air Force Base at Tampa, Fla., Donaldson AFB at Greenville, S.C., and Columbus AFB at Lake Charles, La.

As it has said previously, the Air Force repeated today that there is "no clear need for these bases at this time."

But the service added that "the future of all three bases still is under study."

No indication could be given, therefore, a spokesman said, as to what disposition will be made of the bases. They could be abandoned, used for Air Reserve and National Guard activities, or retained for active combat units, he said.

The Air Force, in view of expanding missile forces and cutting medium bomber forces, is reviewing its bases throughout the world. The service also has announced that air material depots at Gadsden, Ala., will be closed by March 31, 1961, and the Mallery station at Memphis will be closed by the end of this year.

The Air Force plans to transfer flying activities at Orlando AFB to McCoy AFB, at Orlando by next June, but will keep administrative facilities at Orlando AFB.

Malignancy Adds To Mayo's Ills

OCALA (UPI)—Florida agricultural Commissioner Nathan Mayo has taken a severe turn for the worse at a hospital, a doctor said today.

The veteran cabinet maker has been in a semi-conscious condition and found it difficult to recognize anyone, according to Dr. Carl S. Lytle, his physician.

Lytle said an "obscure type malignancy of the lung" was found recently and has spread quickly to Mayo's brain. The patient was listed in "serious" but not critical condition.

Mayo, 55, was admitted to the hospital the night of April 4 suffering with a fever, cough and chest discomfort. It was the third time in recent months he had been hospitalized with a lingering bronchial condition.

Today was the first time the lung malignancy was reported.

Mize Only Name On Judge Ballot

The noon deadline passed today with no further qualifications for the county judge election, the circuit clerk's office reported.

This means that Vernon Mize, Sanford attorney will be unopposed for the vacant judge's position. He qualified to run Friday.

DeBary Civic Group To Meet

The DeBary Civic Association will meet at the Community Center today at 7 p. m. Station University will present the evening's program of entertainment.

High Water Relief Promised For Seminary Area

County Commissioner Lawrence Swoford today assured a Lake Seminary delegation that a plan is being formulated to relieve flooding in that area.

Swoford said "the plan will be put into effect soon which would lower the water in Lake Seminary."

However, he declined to comment on what the plan was at this time.

A delegation of 10 property owners from the Lake Seminary area complained to the board that the high water of the lake was hurting the value of their property.

E. Y. Smith, spokesman for the group, said "we know we are the step-children of the board but something must be done about this now."

Chairman John Krider said that the board will meet with the County drainage committee at 2 p. m. Wednesday to discuss the committee's overall plan to relieve flooding in the county.

The committee presented its plan to the board at its last meeting. It calls for a series of primary drainage ditches to be built in the county.

Residents in the Seminary area also said that many arctic tanks in the area were submerged and a critical health problem is arising.

The board also heard from Bill Kilbee, who headed the plan to divert the water from the Econlochkees River into Lake Jessup.

Krider told Kilbee that the commission will meet with the South Florida Drainage District officials April 21 to solve the drainage problem in the St. Johns River basin area.

Commission Ups City Refuse Fee

The County Commission today agreed to investigate charges that a Florida asphalt plant "has not lived up to its obligation when applying for a use permit in this area."

The charges were made by a delegation of property owners in the area.

The delegation said that the Wilkins Construction Co. had applied for the construction of the asphalt plant in 1958 and was given approval by the zoning board if it agreed to live up to certain conditions, including the use of smoke screens and dust catchers.

The sand removing operation has seriously hurt the value of the property and is becoming a hazard to property owners, it was charged by owners who said that when the plant is in operation there is a heavy fog in the air.

Commission Chairman John Krider said that if the plant has not lived up to its agreement on the dust catcher or smoke screens "we will have no other recourse but to revoke the permit."

The board agreed to visit the plant and send out zoning inspectors to study the problem.

The board will meet again Wednesday at 2 p. m. to make a decision on the plant.

38 Lots Annexed At Eighth, Celery

Sanford annexed 38 lots between Eighth St. and Calvary Ave. near Scott Ave. Monday night.

The land is being developed by the Zellul for homes there. The commission spent about half the time of an unusually long meeting deciding how to allow an extension of Scott Ave. in the subdivision to cut into Eighth St. near the present Scott Ave.

The argument, which has come up in two previous City Commission meetings, centered around whether Scott Ave. resident F. D. Scott would suffer devaluation of his property by the extension curving one way toward his house, or whether Zellul would lose one lot by having the road curve another way.

The commission decision was to allow the extension which kept Scott's house from being devalued.

Navy Base Crisis Adds To U.S.-Cuban Tension

HAVANA (UPI)—The big U. S. naval base at Guantanamo was expected today to become a focus of renewed tension as a result of Washington refusal to reinstate a Cuban union leader fired there.

U. S. Ambassador Philip W. Bonsal handed a stiffly-worded note to Deputy Foreign Minister Marcelo Fernandez Monday rejecting Cuban demands for the rehiring of Federico Figueroa Larrasabal.

The wording of the note — and of two others, delivered simultaneously, dealing with other subjects — indicated the United States was adopting a harder line toward Premier Fidel Castro's revolutionary regime.

President Osvaldo Dorticos accused Eisenhower today of meddling in the internal politics of Cuba.

The Cuban president said the "White House press office, the secretary of state, members of congress, the United States armed forces and even the judiciary have been uniling their hostility against the measures of social justice and political and economic transformation which the revolutionary government had adopted."

Castro was not in Havana, and observers here were wondering why he had not replied to an earlier U. S. comment on his administration — Eisenhower's charge that he had "betrayed the Cuban revolution."

Two theories were offered to explain Castro's silence — that he was too busy trying to rout Capt. Manuel Beaton's rebels out of the Maestra Mountains or that he is saving up his answer to Eisenhower for a major May Day speech.

The U. S. refusal to rehire Figueroa amounted to a challenge of leftist Labor Minister Augusto Martinez Sanchez's March 24 declaration that Cuban workers of the base are "Cubans working in Cuban territory and subject to the laws of this nation."

Under those laws it is illegal to fire an employe for any reason. The ministry could choose to make a test case of Figueroa who was dismissed for urging workers to spy on base activities, for saying there were indications of an imminent invasion by the United States and for anti-American agitation.

The other U. S. notes rejected Cuba's protest over the United States decision not to sell more helicopters to Cuba and turned down a Cuban request that agricultural inspectors of the U. S. Agriculture Department be returned to Havana.

City Discusses Revision Of Assessment Level

The Sanford City Commission discussed last night the possibility of elimination of the personal property tax and raising the city assessment level.

Finance Director Henry Tamm was told to draw up two schedules showing what city taxes on real estate would bring in without the personal property tax.

One schedule is to show how much the city would get if the personal property tax were abolished, the real property assessed at 100 percent valuation and the millage lowered.

The other report is to show the effect on income to the city if the personal property tax were dropped and the assessment level left at its present 62 percent of valuation.

The matter was brought up when Commissioner Robert Brown suggested raising the assessed valuation on Sanford real estate and lowering the millage. Brown said this system wouldn't raise or lower the overall tax income, but would spread the taxes out on a more equitable basis.

The bulk of Sanford's taxes are paid by business and industry, and that's wrong, Brown said.

"It costs the city as much to provide its services to a $6,000 house as for a $20,000 house," he explained, "proposed raising the assessment level to 80 percent of value."

Commissioner Joe Baker proposed getting rid of Sanford's personal property tax. He and Brown agreed that it's hard to get an accurate figure for the value of a man's personal property.
