

Sanford Lookouts Split Their Weekend Tilts

Beat Daytona Beach In Ninth Inning Rally But Fall To Leesburg, 3 To 1

Brainard Hurls Islanders Game And Is Nicked For Seven Hits; Mote Gives Up Eleven In Gondolier Game

By JULIAN STENSTROM
The Sanford Lookouts divided their weekend contest with the Daytona Beach Islanders and the Leesburg Gondoliers when on Saturday night, manager Lee Head sent out a screaming single into center field to score two runners ahead of him in the ninth inning and give the Lookouts a well earned victory over the Islanders by a 3 to 1 score.

The Leesburg Gondoliers pinned the ears of "Dazzy" Mote back to his head yesterday afternoon in Leesburg when the Gondoliers struck the Sanford star for four doubles, four singles and a triple to make a total of nine hits and give the Meadow's outfit a 3 to 1 victory.

On the mound for the locals Saturday night was Big Dan Brainard. He was nicked for a total of seven hits while his mates collected 11 off the offerings of Stan Charkut and Roy Bourell. Brainard issued one base on balls and fanned five of the Islanders. Charkut fanned seven of the Lookouts but issued four free passes to the initial base.

The Daytona Beach outfit scored twice in the second inning and once again in the fifth. The Lookouts gathered a rally in the sixth and once again in the eighth and when they went to bat in the final ninth it proved fatal to the Islanders. Rodgers struck out, but Langston started the big rally with a single into center field. All Kaso dumped a punt in front of the plate and beat it out for a hit. Langston going to second base. Roy Bourell came to the rescue and relieved Charkut, but he walked Martin on four pitched balls to fill the bases. With one away, Lee Head was thrown three straight balls. Bourell then split the plate with the next two and attempted to split it with the third but it was too good and Head slashed out a single into center field to score both Langston and Kaso and win the game.

In the Leesburg contest yesterday Mote was on the mound for the locals but facing him and out-flicking him was Merrill Hubbell, brother of the King Carl of the Giants. Hubbell allowed the locals only six hits while his mates collected nine off the Lookout ace.

The locals secured their only run of the game in the initial inning when Langston singled to center field and scored when Kaso doubled to left field.

Hubbell himself was one of the batting stars of the game with a single and a double in three trips to the plate.

The Lookouts meet the Gondoliers under the floodlights at the Sanford Municipal Athletic Field in a return game. Jake Bunch is slated to be on the mound for the Leesburg nine while Crisfield hurls for the locals.

Gulls Hand St. Augustine Third Straight Defeat

It's Swamp Palatka While G-Men Down DeLand Reds, 4-2

ORLANDO, July 12.—Little Fitch Mathias scored his fourth victory of the season over the St. Augustine Saints at Tinker Field yesterday when he pitched the Orlando Gulls to a 6 to 1 victory in which he gave up but four hits.

It was the Saint's third straight defeat and it was charged against Claude Blair, new left-hander recently acquired from the Jacksonville club of the South Atlantic League. Although he gave up but three hits in five innings, Blair was removed for a pinch-batter after the Gulls had scored four runs off him.

The first run came in the second on a walk, a sacrifice, an infield out, an error by Cichon, a walk which filled the bases, and a walk to Mathias, forcing the run across. The Saints tied it in the fourth with Zupanec tripling with two out and scored on Cichon's smash through third. After that only five Saints got on base and only one to second.

Granel opened the Gull fourth with a triple, to be scored on Mathias' single. Robertson sacrificed Mathias to second and he scored when Cateca let Blair's throw fly third on Looney's roller get away from him. Looney stole third and scored on Shirley's fly to left. The Gulls greeted Carl Weigle with a run in sixth when Looney drew a walk with two out. Cole singled through third and Shirley singled to right. The final Gull run came in the seventh on singles by Savich and Granel and Mathias' bunt squeeze. Savich home. Orlando played its first "night game" here to merrily night at 8:15 o'clock with Leesburg as its opposition.

IT'S DOWN PALATKA

DAYTONA BEACH, July 12.—Daytona Beach, snowed under Palatka, 9 to 0, here yesterday afternoon as Moece Fralick, excellent big right-hander let the Aces down with five scattered hits. The Islanders shelled Eddie Smith from the hill with a barrage of Texas leaguers and gave his successors, Leo Tober, more than his share of the same sort of trouble. Of the 14 Daytona Beach hits, at least 12 were of the bumpy variety.

Fralick added considerably in winning his own game, plunking but four blooper hits in four times at bat. He struck out eight Palatkans.

G-MEN WIN 4-3

GAINESVILLE, July 12.—The Gainesville G-men took a one and one-half game lead in the Florida State League here yesterday afternoon as they downed the DeLand Reds 4-2 while the second place Sanford and third place Palatka clubs were dropping their contest.

Eibert Padgett, on the mound for the Gainesville nine, won his seventeenth game of the year, although the Reds were continually threatening to hand him his third defeat.

The Reds had two men thrown out at the plate and Gainesville had one.

The G-men took a two run lead in the first when three batters hit safely in conjunction with a walk and a hit batsman.

DeLand scored its first run in the fourth on two passes and a hit. Their second run came in the fifth on three hits.

Gainesville's third run was scored in the fourth on a hit, a pass, and an error. The fourth and final run was tallied in the sixth when W. McMurtry singled and then stole second, third and home.

Herace Williams, Jr., St. Petersburg is another former state champion who is expected to play here. Woods Beckman, San Francisco, is also expected to play here.

A HANDSHAKE AND NOTHING ELSE

Lefty "Gooey" Gomez of the New York Yankees and Dizzy Dean of the St. Louis Cardinals had a handshake for one another, but there wasn't anything said about good luck as they started as opposing pitchers in the All-Star game as pitchers for the Americans and Nationals, respectively.

WE WONDER, IF THE American Legion which last season sponsored an American Legion Baseball League, is going to take any action this summer and also have a team to represent it in the annual tournaments. Last season, as many of you know, the local youngsters were runners-up for the district championship and would have been champs had they not fallen before the Swansea Life Insurance Co. of Jacksonville.

IT IS REALLY A SHAME FOR a city of this size not to have some sort of recreational training or organized athletic departments for the youngsters here in Sanford.

YOU MAY HEAR YOUNGSTERS say I'm really glad that school is over and now we can have a good time and go out and play and possibly go off to some large summer boy's camp. Well

Traffic Jam Found Among Milky Ways By Tiny Telescope

PASADENA, Calif., July 12.—Some traffic jams in the far distant parts of the universe, where hundreds of Milky Ways get together, are being discovered by a little, new telescope which will stand alongside the giant 200-inch now under construction here.

The new telescope is a Schmidt, its diameter only 18 inches. It photographs a wide expanse of sky, contrasted to the shots of the Big Bertha telescopes which penetrate to great distances but see only a tiny spot at a time.

In one region of the sky, out in the direction of the constellation Pisces, the fish, the little telescope has spotted a jam of between 300 and 400 Milky Ways. Each is a nebula, an island universe, like the Milky Way. Dr. F. Zwicky, who located the swarm, says clusters like this represent the largest concentrations of matter known. He thinks their study will shed light

MUSICAL BROTHERS ESCAPE

ICE RINK TO DEIFY SUN

CLEVELAND, July 12.—(AP)—Construction work has been started on a 4,000-foot-square outdoor artificial ice rink to be used this summer in "Winterland," ice spectacle at the Great Lakes exposition. Protest Made To Andrews On Wage Bill

Black-Connerly Bill Is Opposed By Numerous Growers, Shippers Of This Section

After receiving a petition from the Seminole Agriculture Association signed by many of the growers and shippers in this area who wished to go on record as opposing the proposed Black-Connerly bill, Charles O. Andrews, Florida representative in the United States Senate, in a letter to the agriculture association announced that he was opposed to the bill in its present form and would continue his opposition until an amendment was added to take care of the "peculiar southern problem."

"I am naturally in sympathy with labor problems," the Senator stated, "but this proposed bill as it is written would in my opinion practically cripple citrus, agriculture, turpentine, phosphate, lumber, and many other Southern industries to such an extent that in the long run it would be unfortunate to labor also."

"I assure you that I am opposing the bill in its present form, and will continue to do so vigorously unless there is a clear definite wage and hour differential amendment provided for our peculiar Southern problem."

Attacking Cancer

Cancer, the enigma of medical science, and the scourge of humanity, a disease which claims 150,000 lives yearly and ranks second to heart trouble in its mortality record, will be attacked with all the resources of modern skill and knowledge through the Jane Coffin Childs Memorial Fund for Scientific Research: a $10,000,000 gift to Yale University for the primary purpose of research into the cause and origin of cancer.

This disease which has had a rising mortality record for the past thirty years, killing 63 persons per 100,000 population in 1900 and 107 per 100,000 in 1936, has failed to receive its proportionate share of research devoted to other fields of medicine. While it is acknowledged to be the most serious national health problem, it is interesting to note that in 1936 our government allocated $500,000 for studying diseases of domestic animals, $846,000 for cotton research and only $100,000 for cancer research.

It has been pointed out that in 3,000 years there have been no new principles in the treatment of this disease. The modern surgical method was tried by the ancients. The X-ray and radium find their counterpart in powerful caustics used a thousand years ago. It is a fact, also, that if treated early enough, cancer is one of the most easily cured diseases.

Doctors have revealed that with the present rate of increase, cancer will reach its maximum lethal potency about 1987 when the mortality rate will be 300,000 persons a year. This is very much in contrast to the decreasing menace of typhoid, diphtheria, tuberculosis, and other plagues which have been so effectively controlled that the expectation of life has risen from fifty years in 1900 to more than sixty at the present time.

The impression perhaps has prevailed among the public that huge foundations and institutions backed by the medical brains of the country have been devoting lavish sums and efforts to finding the cause and cure of this horrible scourge. Such is not the case. The fund given to Yale triples the country's total endowment for cancer research. Out of it, we may reasonably expect, will come the light and knowledge which will make the disease called cancer as simple and inconsequential as the average common cold.

Just A Farce

The Congressional investigation of alleged loopholes in our income tax laws has developed some interesting angles. In the first place the investigation was of no practical value at all. It was simply an attempt to smear certain persons and the amount of money that can be plugged will hardly pay for the cost of the probe. In the second place it showed how low politics can sometimes get when a U. S. Congressman attempts to drag the President and his wife through the mud on a technicality. The whole thing smells to high heaven.

"A legitimate campaign against tax dodgers is something that nobody can object to," says the Fort Pierce Tribune. "The unusual part about the present so-called campaign is, why was action delayed this long if officers of the government knew that tax evasion has been a common practice?"

"If there are loopholes in our tax laws, surely the Treasury Department could point them out and Congress could correct the situation in short order.

"The public might be as much interested in knowing which of our public officials are responsible for permitting tax evasion to continue in the flagrant manner they claim, as it is in the names of the tax evaders.

"In the meantime, however, if those who talk about saving pennies for the government from tax evaders, would spend a fraction of the energy and determination in saving billions to the government by enforcing efficiency and economy measures, some worthwhile results could be secured that might save the people of this nation heavy increases in taxes and provide less incentive to tax dodging.

"The private tax dodger and the economy-dodging public official will be in the same boat in public esteem before long. The only difference between the two is that the tax dodger may cost the hard-pressed taxpayer pennies, while the official economy-dodger costs him millions."

"TOO LATE TO CLASSIFY"

By RUSSELL KAY

This is the season of the year when thousands of folks who welter and sizzle under the blistering sun in the north and middle west console themselves with the thought that it might be worse and mope in their fevered brows. "It's terrible, this heat, but imagine the poor devils down in Florida!"

They just can't seem to get it through their heads that heat and humidity are one thing and sunshine is something else. They have been taught to think of Florida as a land of warmth and sunshine and conclude that since we enjoy a mild climate in winter, it must naturally follow that our summers are untearable.

They lose sight of the fact that the same Gulf Stream that tempers our atmosphere in winter plays an equally important part in maintaining an even temperature here throughout the summer.

WASHINGTON DAYBOOK

By PRESTON GROVER

WASHINGTON, July 13. — In spite of constitutional delegation of that authority to congress alone. Every once in a while a city feels it is living a historic moment. Washington had such a feeling as the senate took up the debate on the Supreme Court bill.

Debate in the senate often is not impressive and a spirit of cantankerousness prevails under most circumstances which brings the whole affair down to about the level of an election campaign meeting.

But when the lads withdrew from their Fourth of July celebration and went to work on the revised court bill, they were tampering with the fundamentals of government—and they knew it.

There are two sides to this court packing business and no matter which side you are on the logic of the opposition hits hard and demands something besides sarcastic film-flam in reply.

Both sides had the good judgment early in the debate to skin off at least part of the slag that has hidden the real metal of the issue. President Roosevelt wants men on the court with a viewpoint different from that which prevailed until a very few months ago.

That much the President or his spokesman have said, repeatedly. It is the administration contention that the justices, in interpreting acts of congress, have been injecting their own views on what is good policy for the government.

They can compare temperature readings in various cities throughout the country to prove the advantage Florida enjoys, but all to no avail.

No matter what you say it is accepted as just so much hogwash, and you might as well try and convince them that white is black.

I'm not contented in it don't get hot in Florida; it does, every so often the sun bears down and for an hour or two we may be down right uncomfortable, but it is a different kind of a heat from that experienced in the north and west that settles down on you like a blanket and smother you for days at a time with no let up day or night.

I don't know whether you've noticed it or not, but here in Florida, no matter how hot it may be out in the sun, if you get in the shade of a tree or even a telephone pole you always find it several degrees cooler. Then the nights are generally cool, just as soon as the sun goes down it starts to cool off and many times before mornin' a guy is apt to get up and grovelin' around tryin' to find a blanket.

Yesterday is a good example. I stood out in the sun tryin' to fool a fish with a castin' rod and a wooden minnow over at Bradenton Beach. I gathered in as fine a mass of sunburns as anyone could ask for, and it was so rocky hot for a couple of hours I was wringin' wet from perspiration, but there was none of that depressive feelin' you get from a hot day up country.

That's about about six at night a thunder shower came blowin' in off the Gulf and the wind with it was so cold, an hour later

Forty Deputies Hired When WPA Threatens

TAMPA, July 13.—(AP)—The Works Progress Administration planned to open all but two of its relief projects today but prepared to close them immediately if strikes developed.

Frank P. Ingram, State W. P. A. Administrator, told the Hillsborough county commission he had been informed the Workers' Alliance would launch a "concerted movement" for a county-wide strike.

Sheriff J. R. McLeod told the commission he would swear in forty special deputies to aid his regular force "in protecting the workers who want to work."

Representative Maury Maverick of Texas is one of the fortunates. "We see these officers," he explains, "to get off alone, now and then, for serious study and heavy thinking—and to get away from job-hungry as well."

The largest amounts for projects in the United States are $2,850,000 for Chanute Field, Ill.; $2,375,000 for the Air Corps Technical School, Denver, Colo.; and $1,770,000 for Fitzsimons General Hospital, Colorado.

Arkansan Constructs Net For Attempt To Snare River Monster

NEWPORT, Ark., July 13.—(AP)—Manufacture of a huge rope net to be used in an attempt to snare Newport's mysterious White River "monster" went forward yesterday.

W. E. Penix, state toll bridge collector, and friends rounded up all available rope and said it would probably take 10 days to complete the net. He said it would be 40 feet long, 15 feet wide and have a mesh of six or eight inches.

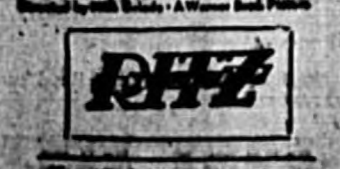

The "monster," lurking in a mile-long, 60-foot deep eddy of the river, six miles south of here, was described by half a dozen persons who claim to have seen it as being an enormous size—"as long as three automobiles."

Penix said he would enlist operators of several motorboats to help him handle the net. He said the water creature is a giant alligator or crocodile from the Gulf of Mexico gained ground with declaration of Capt. Jack Carver of the United States Army and Tom Stallings that bubbles blown up from the depths of the eddy were certainly caused by some living object.

Sanford Writer Is Highly Honored By Publishing House

By RAYMOND MONSALVAGE
"Ezekiel," the quiet little darky who has thrilled Sanford children with the story of his life, is soon to receive greater glory, when, in the early part of October, the book of that name will be published by Henry Holt and Company of New York.

The book is the product of the imagination of the talented Mrs. N. H. Garner of this city, who for the past two years has written and illustrated little books by hand. She also made small figures from pipe stem cleaners, crepe paper, and bits of cloth to further illustrate her story.

Making them originally for Christmas presents and later for Florida souvenirs, Mrs. Garner was surprised to find her work desired by the publisher. He also requested an option on two more manuscripts to be written in the near future.

A card sent out from the publisher states that it introduces "Ezekiel," who lives in Sanford, Florida with his sister Emancipation and his brother Lil' Plural and the baby Assafetida. The first edition will consist of 10,000 copies with four-color illustrations. Large displays showing the little figures and a background of Florida landscape were presented at the American Library Association convention, and all indications show that it will be a very popular children's book.

Mrs. Garner stated that she enjoys making the figures which illustrate her work, and that she expects to make additional ones which will be included in window displays for Children's Book Week in the Fall.

Many prominent persons have endorsed the new work. Margaret Vance of the Dutton Publishing Company says, "Ezekiel is a worthy grand-nephew of Uncle Remus, and Mrs. Garner is to be congratulated for the book is a find! I prophesy this to be one of the big books of the season."

Navy Film At Ritz Has Unusual Slant

Hollywood has produced many a movie against a Navy background, but "Wings Over Honolulu" is the first film to draw from the traditional pattern of such pictures. The central character is a Navy wife and, after three weeks of discussion, the Navy approved of her. This spectacular dramatic film, "Wings Over Honolulu," which opens at the Ritz Theater on Wednesday for a two-day run, has beautiful, lifelike, hearted Wendy Barrie in the leading role.

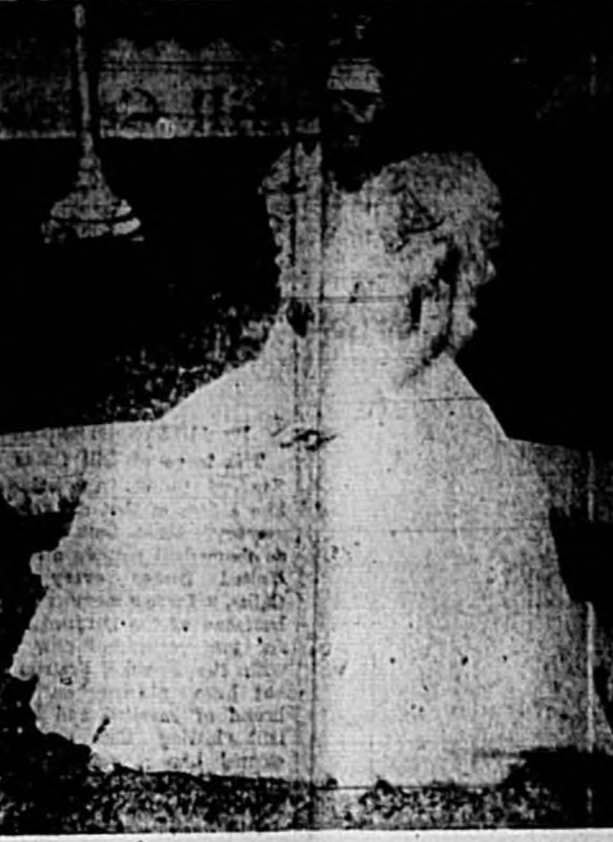

With the color, action and romance of Navy background, the picture tells the poignant story of the bride of a Navy officer—a young Virginia girl who runs counter to the social conventions of her own society.

In the picture Miss Barrie is involved in a situation which costs her husband a chance for promotion. Thinking she has ruined his career, she runs away with another man, thus adding fuel to the flames of gossip. The story reaches a smashing climax when the young

With The Jamboree

By DICK MASON

Sanford Boy Scouts thoroughly enjoyed their visit to Washington. The following are some of the highlights in the experiences of the fellows:

Chief among the activities was a boat trip down the picturesque Potomac River to Mount Vernon. The boys spent an hour looking over the grounds and the home of Washington.

All Scouts were the guests of the Washington Baseball Club at a game between the Senators and the Boston Red Sox. They were thrilled when Jimmy Foxx knocked a home run.

The Sanford boys were entertained by C. D. Maxwell, former Sanford man, who presented an unusually constructed benefit which was charged with electricity. Raymond Kader and Bill Vernon got the worst end of that.

In the opinion of many of us, probably the most enjoyable trip was one to the Smithsonian Institute.

The last major event of the Jamboree came as approximately 25,000 scouts lined Constitution Avenue while President Roosevelt and government and scout officials reviewed them.

Coffee was introduced into Europe by Venetian traders in 1615.

Crawfordsville, Ind. Firemen answered a false alarm. Fireman Frank Holland had turned in the alarm while painting the box.

Lookouts Lose 6-4; Play Saints Tomorrow Night

Ellis Clary Returns To Line-Up And Gets Three Hits In Three Attempts

Eddie Massie Leads Gondolier Hitters With A Double And Two Singles In Four Official Appearances

The Leesburg Gondoliers again played havoc with the Sanford Lookouts to take a 6 to 4 victory over the locals and make a clean sweep of the series that sent the Lookouts to third place as the Leesburgs downed the Islanders and the G-Men tasted defeat at the hands of the Reds.

On the mound for the locals last night at the Municipal Athletic Field was "The Earl of Crisfield," who was replaced by Early Wynn in the seventh inning. Both pitchers were nipped for a total of 10 hits while the Lookouts gathered 10 hits off the deliveries of "Pop" Bambert, Joe Marina and Jake Bunch.

Leading the hitting for the evening was Eddie Massie of the Gondoliers who poked out three hits, including a double, in four appearances at the plate. Jimmy Cox also blasted out two singles and a double in five trips to the plate. Leading the Sanford batsmen was Ellis Clary, Lookout shortstop, who was credited with three infield hits in three official trips to the plate.

Today, the Lookouts are in St. Augustine meeting the Saints at 4:15 at Lewis Park.

"FLYING FISH"
CINCINNATI, July 13.—(AP)—Fred Turner has a new fish story. Turner reports that, on a picnic excursion at Jupiter, Fla., he cast out a throw-line only to have a saugill snap up the hook before it hit the water. Turner hauled in the gull and freed it. Other members of the party attested the story's accuracy.

Protest Made To Andrews On Wage Bill

The agriculture industries of the state cannot absorb the increased costs of production," Mr. Schmah said, "and still maintain their solvency."

Bill Cates Nominated On Sanford Herald's Florida State Loop All-Star Nine

St. Augustine Third Baseman Started In National Game By Joe Williams Of New York World-Telegram

By JULIAN STENSTROM
The move of Bill Cates from Sanford to St. Augustine jogs like a dose of that old "change of scenery" tonic that spruces up so many ball players all over the United States every season. Cates, a former member and third baseman of the Sanford Lookouts for two years and now tied up with the Freddie Francis outfit, has been playing such a good brand of baseball and his excellent hitting this season has earned him a position on The Herald's Florida State League All-Star outfit.

Bill was selected to the all-star third base position after battling it out with Bob Pitman of the G-Men because of the fact that his hitting as well as his defensive work has given him the name of the most improved veteran in the Florida State League over his work of last season.

Last season's poor showing by the 185-pound Key West youth while with the Lookouts can be well accounted for in two ways. His eyes were giving him a great amount of trouble and an injury to his shoulder, while sliding into third base one afternoon at Harris Field in Gainesville, did a lot to impair his throwing arm.

According to the latest batting average issued by Peter Schaal, Florida State League statistician, Cates is slapping the apple around at an amazing pace of .311.

Bill began his organized baseball career in a peculiar manner, a crying to the story, Joe Williams, sports columnist and editor of the New York World-Telegram, has to tell. Joe happened to be in Sloppy Joe's place, popular bar in Key West, a few springs ago. One of the bar-keepers got to raving about his boy, who happened to be Bill Cates and who was burning up independent baseball in that section of the state.

Williams made a little deeper investigation of the situation and went not to see "Willie" Cates, as he was called in those days, play in a game. "Willie" did nothing less than slay-out two triples and two singles. According to Williams' story, that was enough for him. He took Cates to Orlando and asked Manager Casey Stengel of the Brooklyn Dodgers to give the kid a tryout. Stengel did but Cates developed a sore arm and didn't get out that season.

Bill broke in with Sanford which was a member of the Central Florida League but Williams continued to watch him all along the rough road. If Bill can carry on this season as well as he has been playing so far it may be the turning point, for Williams is still keeping tab on his discovery.

Bill was a great athlete during his high school career being a four letter man three seasons. He stood out on the football eleven, ran the 100 meters in 10 seconds, pitched and played at all points on the diamond in baseball and was an ace on the Key West basketball five. In 1932, Bill was picked on the Southern Florida all-star basketball five as a forward.

Cates prefers third base to any other on the diamond although he is an experienced catcher. He hopes to go up as a third baseman and he has still plenty of time.

Bill was selected to the all-star third base position after battling it out with Bob Pitman of the G-Men because of the fact that his hitting as well as his defensive work has given him the name of the most improved veteran in the Florida State League over his work of last season.

Last season's poor showing by the 185-pound Key West youth while with the Lookouts can be well accounted for in two ways. His eyes were giving him a great amount of trouble and an injury to his shoulder, while sliding into third base one afternoon at Harris Field in Gainesville, did a lot to impair his throwing arm.

According to the latest batting average issued by Peter Schaal, Florida State League statistician, Cates is slapping the apple around at an amazing pace of .311.

Bill began his organized baseball career in a peculiar manner, a crying to the story, Joe Williams, sports columnist and editor of the New York World-Telegram, has to tell. Joe happened to be in Sloppy Joe's place, popular bar in Key West, a few springs ago. One of the bar-keepers got to raving about his boy, who happened to be Bill Cates and who was burning up independent baseball in that section of the state.

Williams made a little deeper investigation of the situation and went not to see "Willie" Cates, as he was called in those days, play in a game. "Willie" did nothing less than slay-out two triples and two singles. According to Williams' story, that was enough for him. He took Cates to Orlando and asked Manager Casey Stengel of the Brooklyn Dodgers to give the kid a tryout. Stengel did but Cates developed a sore arm and didn't get out that season.

Soviet Fliers Land Safely In California

Establish Un-Official World's Record Of 6700 Miles In Hop From Moscow To US

Plane Comes Down With Leaky Tank

Army Officer Greets Group, Flying Them Back To Army Field

SAN JACINTO, Calif., July 14. (AP) — The Russian trans-polar fliers landed here safely after 62 hours in the air during which they flew more than 6,700 miles from Moscow to this city, establishing a new unofficial world record for the distance.

The plane landed in a field about three miles from town. The gasoline tank was leaking but the fliers made a safe landing.

Three Soviet fliers, Pilot Mikhail Gromov, Co-Pilot Andrei Yumoshin and Navigator Sergel Danilin, were unable to speak English to the townspeople who gathered to the plane.

The second trans-polar flight far exceeded the first which recently ended at Vancouver, Wash., after a hop of 5,288 miles.

Major Victor H. Stahn of the Army flew here from nearby March Field and greeted the fliers. He then took them in his own plane to the army field.

For a time yesterday, as Michael Gromov and his two companions battled a storm over the Canadian northwest, it seemed possible they would switch their course and come down in Chicago or New York. But a Canadian National Airways station agent at Uk sighted them at 4:23 P. M. E. S. T., on their original route.

Their flight over the North pole in a single-motored Ant-25 type plane of exceptional power and endurance, was a steady procession of obstacles overcome and objectives achieved. They sought the better record of Paul Godes and Maurice Rossi, who flew non-stop from New York to Syria, a distance of 5657 miles.

Hunt For Fliers May Be Given Up By Navy Saturday

Authorities Are Pessimistic Over Ever Locating Lost Pair

HONOLULU, July 14. (AP) — Naval authorities directing the vast aerial search along the Equator for Amelia Earhart and Fred Noonan, world fliers, reduced the number of searching planes today and indicated the hunt may be abandoned Saturday.

The fliers, now missing 12 days, are feared lost in the Pacific. Sixty planes from the aircraft carrier Lexington failed to locate the fliers yesterday.

Three planes from the battleship Colorado, the vessel itself a mine sweeper and coast guard cutter also have failed to find the fliers.

Many Navy officers believed the chances of finding Miss Earhart and Noonan remote; that they were lost with their ship, beneath the waves.

For days, the search was made by sea and air, first by a British freighter and the minesweeper Kewa. Finally by the battleship Colorado, which catapulted three planes into the air repeatedly to search the tiny islands in the area, and of the intervening sea.

Summer-Gram Campaign Of Florida Power And Light Co. Proves Success

With nearly 200,000 of the cards distributed throughout the state for mailing, the Summer-Gram campaign of the Florida Power and Light Company will come to a close Thursday, July 15, H. H. Coleman, manager of the company here, announced today.

The spontaneous response of the citizens of Florida to the campaign far exceeded company expectations and the original number of cards ordered had to be increased several times. Thousands of residents have mailed these cards to people they know residing outside the state, inviting them to spend their summer vacation in Florida.

Citizens of Sanford and vicinity have done their share, Manager Coleman said in reporting that thus far 430 cards have been distributed here. Of this number 270 were deposited in the box at the company's offices and postage on these was paid by the Florida Power and Light Company.

Although the campaign was launched but little more than a month ago—first announcement being made June 6—signs of its success are already apparent. Numerous reports have been received in company offices throughout the state from people who said they were impelled to come to Florida this summer by the Summer-Gram cards.

Various company indices, such as the number of customers on power lines, show that not only are there more people in the state than there were at this time last year, but that in most instances, the percentage of growth is markedly above the normal.

Manager Coleman said, "The company sought in this campaign to aid in popularizing Florida as a summer resort. It is our belief that our many summer advantages will attract thousands of summer visitors if more attention can be called to them. By having the citizens of the state actually cooperating, not only were thousands of people reached but they were reached in a most effective manner. We believe that the results speak for themselves."

Trailer Camp Plans Talked Over At Meet

Higgins, Williams Are Added To Committee Investigating Possibilities In City

Mayor Edward Higgins and Fred T. Williams were added to the committee investigating the possibilities of a local trailer camp at the regular monthly meeting of the Board of Directors of the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce last night, with T. E. Simpson presiding.

Mayor Higgins, in speaking of the proposed project, stated that the city is not financially able at the present time to construct a very large camp this year. He said, however, that a drive might be instituted among Sanford merchants to get sufficient funds for a temporary camp.

Mayor Higgins' estimate for a minimum cost for the camp is about $5,000, which will include lighting, and a bath house.

Walter Coleman stated that a camp so cheaply built would not command the higher classes of people. He pointed out that one built at an approximate cost of $20,000 would have a dance floor, a recreation hall, shuffleboard and tennis courts, electric lighting, sewerage, steam heat, and hot and cold water. Such a camp would have powerful tourist attraction, he said.

A location near the business section of town was urged by Fred Wilson, who showed that a camp farther out would tend to give visitors the opportunity of going to nearby cities to trade.

Mr. Wilson's opinion was shared by W. R. Dupree who added that a downtown location would be better because of the proximity of police protection.

J. G. Sharon pointed out that a location near the lake would be very cold in winter and such a condition might drive tourists away. If farther out, the camp would be protected from the cold by trees, he said.

The group decided to have plans drawn up for the camp which would be inspected in the near future.

At present, the trailer camp committee includes: Walter S. Coleman, L. Hawkins, Councilman, H. H. Coleman, E. H. Lacey, D. L. Thrasher, Mayor Higgins, and Fred T. Williams.

Ralph Bagwell, secretary, announced that Boy Scouts at the National Jamboree in Washington had distributed booklets advertising Seminole County in that city.

Mr. Bagwell also stated that the Greater Orlando Chamber of Commerce had issued an invitation to the Sanford body to sponsor a 45 minute radio program over WDBO Aug. 3.

River Line Purchases Equipment And Franchises Of Two Other Companies

St. Johns River Line, recently closed negotiations for the purchase of equipment and franchises of two transportation lines operating in Florida at a cost of approximately $50,000. Otto Caldwell, manager of the local terminal, reported today.

As a result of the transaction the River Line received all equipment and franchises from the Star Truck Line, operators of a system of trucks out of Orlando to points south, and the Brown Boat Line, freight carriers between Jacksonville and Daytona Beach. These additions make the St. Johns River Line one of the largest transportation agencies operating in the state at the present time, Mr. Caldwell indicated.

Repairs which will cost approximately $2500 are being made to the local terminal of the line, the local manager stated, and will include the re-roofing of the dock and replacing of all unsafe piling under the building.

Mr. Caldwell also reported that the company had placed the "City of Sanford," which had been built for several years, on a run between Jacksonville and Miami for the summer season. The Dexter, a smaller craft, is serving in its place.

Yesterday the City of Orlando left the local dock with a cargo of miscellaneous freight purporting to be company officials to be the largest shipped this season.

President's Son Peace Effort In Offers To Show Far East Crisis

His Tax Returns Halts Fighting

WASHINGTON, July 14. (AP) — President Roosevelt's eldest son, James, agreed yesterday to disclose his income tax returns in response to a republican demand.

The lanky younger Roosevelt, who is one of his father's secretaries, registered unexpectedly before the Senate-House tax committee when it renewed its study of personal holding companies, alleged to be used as tax avoidance devices.

Yesterday's testimony put into the record the names of William Randolph Hearst, publisher; President William S. Paley of the Columbia Broadcasting Company; C. F. Kettering, vice president of General Motors; and Jacob Ruppert New York brewer and baseball magnate.

NANKING, July 14. — China's national government hastened troops to concentration points, avowedly to resist what the Chinese believe is a Japanese effort to dominate the northern provinces of Hopei and Chahar. Signs of massive military preparations were evident in the capital itself. The main road through the city was loaded with a variety of military and mechanical equipment. The troops were said to be moving northward.

PEKING, July 14. — Peace negotiations were underway here, a high Japanese source said, to settle the North China crisis without consulting the national government of Nanking.

Conferees are Chinese local authorities and Japanese military leaders.

Fighting between the regular Japanese army troops and Chinese soldiers has been going on for about a week.

In Japan preparations are being made for a real war although authorities said they hoped it would not be necessary. Most of the actual fighting has been halted pending peace negotiations.

Steel-helmeted Japanese regulars swept northward over the plains below Peiping yesterday in a stunning drive that reached the walls of the ancient city, while roaring trench mortars lobbed shells at the gates of the city itself.

The smashing offensive against entrenched veterans of the twenty-ninth route army, who dug in at the edge of the walled city in a desperate battle to hold the Japanese back, had virtually ended hope that the war in North China

Was Ardent Supporter Of President In His Fight Against Court And Other Reforms

Had Been Slated For Job On Bench

Death Causes Immediate Speculation Regarding Successor

WASHINGTON, July 14. (AP) — Senator Joe T. Robinson, 64, Democratic leader and new deal legislative king-pin, was found dead in bed this morning.

The sudden death of the Senator from Arkansas shocked the capital and threw the Administration's legislative program into a turmoil.

Robinson has been a Democratic leader since 1922, and was personally in charge of the President's two major legislative campaigns to enact bills to reorganize the courts and executive departments.

His colleagues generally had expected his appointment to the Supreme Court to fill the vacancy created by the retirement of Justice Vandeverter.

Although Robinson's health has not been good, his death was entirely unexpected. Mrs. Robinson was away on a visit to her home in Little Rock, Ark.

Robinson's death caused immediate speculation about his successor as the Democratic leader. Those mentioned include Senators Byrnes of South Carolina, Harrison of Mississippi and Barkley of Kentucky.

Robinson attended the University of Arkansas and Virginia Law School. He served in the Arkansas legislature 10 years of the national House of Representatives from his home state and was elected governor of Arkansas but went to the United States Senate to fill a vacancy a few months after becoming governor.

He was chairman of the Democratic National Convention in 1920 and 1936. He was a candidate for vice president in 1928 when Al Smith ran for president on the party ticket.

The sudden death of Democratic Leader Robinson upset the Administration drive to enact a substitute for the Roosevelt court bill. The Arkansas senator not only was directing the drive to push a compromise measure through the Senate but
