Sanford delays decision on PRA

By Bill Kerns

Commission will decide Oct. 7 whether to extend deadline

SANFORD — Sanford City Commissioners will decide on Oct. 11 whether to extend the deadline for PRA Development to complete a feasibility study of a proposed hotel and conference center at Fort Mellon Park in downtown Sanford. By a 4-1 vote, commissioners agreed to disregard the original Oct. 7 deadline and will make a decision at the next city commission meeting on Oct. 11. City Manager Tony VanDerworp said by that time, he will have met with PRA Development President Joseph Pacitti concerning why the developer has been unable to complete the study, and when the study will be produced. There were provisions in the 50-year lease signed by PRA Development and the city for the commission to grant a time extension. The lease, agreed to by the city on May 10 and signed by PRA Development on June 10, called for the feasibility study to be due within 120 days after the contract was signed. Commissioner A.A. "Mac" McClanahan provided the lone vote against extending the deadline for the feasibility study. McClanahan in May voted against the city's lease with PRA

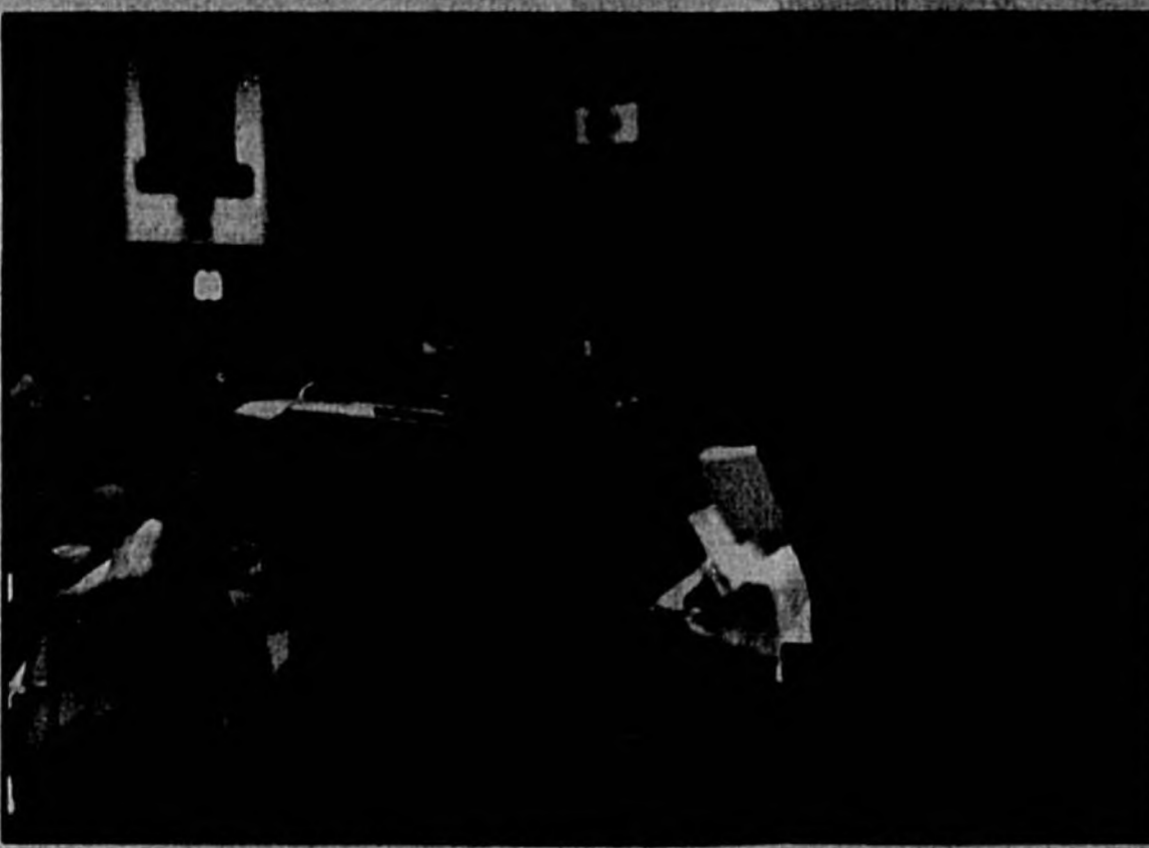

Development, saying that he does not approve of building the hotel and conference center on Fort Mellon Park. Commissioner Brady Lessard said the city should consider sending the project out for bid by other companies, including PRA Development, even though according to city attorney Katherine Reischmann the city is not required to place the project up for competitive bidding. "Hopefully maybe we'll have a solid game plan by (Oct. 11), and maybe even Mr. Pacitti will be present," Lessard said. See PRA, Page 5A

Stump Speeches

Students at Idylwild Elementary School are participating in their own version of democracy by selecting representatives for the Student Council. Those running for seats on the council gave their speeches in front of the school Monday, and the student voters will make their selections on Friday.

Third-grader Nathan Nguyen can't be accused of talking over his classmate's heads. In fact, his own head barely clears the podium.

USIA officer asks that county board support local agency

Commission last week denied request for $10,000 grant

By Russ White
Staff Writer

SANFORD — An official from the United States Information Agency has written a memo to the Seminole County Commission Chairman Carlton Henley to urge him and others on the board to continue their support of the International Council of Central Florida. By a 3-2 vote, the Board denied a $10,000 grant request by the ICCF as part of its budget trim last week. The 1999/2000 budget will be finalized tonight, and ICCF Executive Vice President Patricia Gehri says the group will appeal last week's decision. USIA International Visitors Acting Director William Morgan told the Board on Monday that its "continued support of the ICCF will ensure that the case of Central Florida retains us highly visible international profile." Morgan said that the ICCF "assists the USA in achieving public diplomacy goals that are critical to our country." He said that in the last two years, the ICCF had been host to 120 USIA-sponsored international visitors. He said that these visits had left a half million in Florida's economy — more than $68,000 in Seminole County. "I am writing to you (the BCC) to express our appreciation for the support you have given the ICCF," Morgan said. "And to urge you to continue your support of this vital organization." The BCC will finalize its budget preparations at a 7 p.m. public meeting today. Gehri and a group of ICCF volunteers plan to speak at the meeting.

City will continue state-funded weatherization program in county

By Bill Kerns
Staff Writer

SANFORD — Sanford will continue operating a countywide home energy efficiency program. The city's Community Development Department coordinates the Weatherization Assistance Program countywide, with funding from the state. During the coming year, the city estimates that 20 homes, including 15 in Sanford, will participate in the program to become more energy-efficient. The City Commission voted 4-1 in favor of maintaining the program, with Mayor Larry Dale voting against the measure. Dale said the program should be coordinated by Seminole County, not Sanford. "I think the Community Development Department has a lot more to do than to administer a countywide program," Dale said. Dale added that he is also concerned about the city's liability from operating the program. Commissioner Brady Lessard said he is also concerned about city staff taking time for residents of other cities, and that the program should be administered by the county. However, in the end he voted in favor of maintaining the program. "It's what the majority of the commission wants," Lessard said. The remaining three commissioners said that because the majority of homes participating in the program are in Sanford, and the city is reimbursed for costs by the state, the city should continue to administer the program. "I feel as a commissioner that it is our responsibility to admin- See Program, Page 4A

SANFORD — For college-bound high school students, and just as importantly their tuition-paying parents, shopping for the right school can often be confusing, time-consuming, and sometimes an intimidating experience. On Monday, Oct. 6, Seminole Community College eased the pain with "College Night '99," an annual event that attracts representatives from more than 150 colleges, universities, trade, and technical schools from around the country. From 7 to 9 p.m. school officials will be on hand to answer questions and offer advice about tuition rates, procedures for application and registration, academic programs and offerings, dormitory and housing arrangements, financial aid assistance, intercollegiate sports, on-campus clubs and organizations, and more. Some of the schools that will be represented at this year's SCC sponsored event include: University of Central Florida, Florida State University, Boston College, Auburn University, Wake Forest, Virginia Military Institute, Yale, Washington and Lee, Clemson University, Florida A & M, George Washington University, Troy State University, Dartmouth, Bryn Mawr College, Villanova University, University of Alabama, University of Ohio, University of Miami, and Bethune-Cookman College. Most visiting schools bring an ample supply of take home materials such as catalogs, brochures, and listings of academic programs, and complete application packets for admission. See SCC, Page 4A

Is there a comeback for Win Adams in the making?

A zillion years ago, in 1998, the residents of Seminole County sacked Commissioner Win Adams in favor of Carlton Henley. Today, some are asking Adams to forgive them.

The Society for the Preservation of Win Adams is urging him to run against Grant Maloy. A Draft Win Adams movement could be underway - a "We done the man, wrong song."

Oviedo Commissioner Tom Hagood is opposing Maloy, also. Two - maybe three - others are expected to run, most likely turning the District 1 commissioner's race into a demolition derby.

Maloy's backers want just that - a demolition derby. They'd like a District 1 runoff, anticipating that there would be enough Christian Coalition votes to put Maloy back into office. Hagood's best chances would be one-on-one with Maloy in the primary.

As flattered as he is to be mentioned again as a candidate, Adams may not be willing to interfere with Hagood's viable candidacy nor set himself up for defeat. When Henley beat Adams last year, some Republicans said Adams more than likely wouldn't factor into future party strategies.

Adams - or Adams' supporters - may prove this to be wrong. "If enough people want to draft me, I'm going to listen to them," Adams said Monday. "It's for the people to decide. No matter what, Grant Maloy's going to feel the heat. He has a track record this time. There'll be a major impact with a crossover vote if no Democrats challenge."

At 57, Win Adams is not opposed to a political comeback. Out of office a year, he is aware of what has appeared on the county agenda - aware how each commissioner has voted on each item. Win Adams quietly watched the day Carlton Henley was sworn into office. It was a difficult moment - a hurtful moment.

There appears to be a strong anti-incumbency mood in the county at the close of the century - and a strong desire to embrace fresh challengers. Hagood could beat Maloy, Dudley Bates could beat Dick Van Der Weide, Bob West or Don Nicholas could beat Daryl McLain.

"What's difficult to sense is if there is also a strong anti-former incumbency mood," said commissioner Randy Morris, who kept his seat in 1998 against Bob West, the acting director of the Florida Christian Coalition. "Win Adams may be in the picture," Morris said.

For Adams, now is a period of inner satisfaction. If there's a genuine Draft Adams movement, he's going to feel even more satisfied. Maybe enough to say, yes. If there's not, he's smart enough to say, no.

"At least, people are calling me again," Adams said. "Calling to say they wished I were on the commission. Calling to say I wasn't all that bad. Calling to say that they didn't vote for me last time but they would if there's a next time."

ister to the citizens who benefit from this program," said Velma Williams.

Sanford hires contractors to perform the weatherization on homes, then bills the state for 100 percent of the costs with the exception of time spent administering the project. The city is reimbursed monthly from the state.

The state issues funding to Sanford for administration of the program.

The total value of the weatherization agreements in the coming fiscal year beginning Oct. 1 are estimated at $106,807. The city will receive $27,000 of the funds for administration.

"I do recommend that we continue to administer the program," said City Manager Tony VanDerworp. "It's a relatively small program that provides a benefit to the city, and the liabilities are minimal."

The federal government created the Weatherization Program during the 1973 Arab oil embargo to assist low-income families who lacked the resources to respond to price increases.

In the beginning, the temporary measures such as storm windows, weatherstripping, and caulking were installed by volunteer labor. Today, professionals determine which measures should be used to achieve energy efficiency.

Services in the program include replacing air conditioning and windows, reducing air infiltration, and repairing holes in walls, floors, and ceilings.

Sanford has administered the program county-wide for eight years.

At Dale's urging, the commission directed VanDerworp to look into streamlining functions within the Community Development Department.

"When we're adding Countywide programs to a city department, you can not be as efficient as a city department," Dale said. "Now, if the department's function is to run programs such as this, as you guys (the majority of the commission) are telling me, then let's go after more of these programs."

said. "I hope they (PRA) come through. If the project is feasible, we can give them a fair shake."

Several members of the Society for the Preservation of Fort Mellon Park said they are tired of delays from PRA Development in producing the feasibility study.

"This has been going on too long," said Doreen Freeman. "He (Pacitti) has had more than enough time to produce a feasibility study."

Member Jay Jurie presented commissioners with lemons, each with "Larry's Lemon" written on them after Mayor Larry Dale, that Jurie said were models of the proposed hotel and conference center.

"Please don't squeeze Larry's Lemon too hard," Jurie said. "Because you might not get lemonade. It would be sour."

Dale said that he is in favor of granting the time extension for the feasibility study.

"This is a complex study," Dale said. "We can't just give up on the project now, it's too important."

Pacitti said PRA will hire a consulting firm with knowledge of local and regional markets and is asking for an extension to perform the study.

The Board of Seminole County Commissioners in May of 1998 designated Sanford as the preferred site of the county conference center, and approved the use of tourism development funding toward the project. However, county commissioners have said they also want to see results of the feasibility study.

City voters in November of 1998 approved the project by a vote of 55 to 45 percent.

PRA Development has completed the first of four phases required for the feasibility study.

The conditions that Pacitti said would make a hotel feasible in downtown Sanford include the addition of resort oriented activities along the waterfront, public improvements such as landscaping and street lighting, continued growth in downtown business and leisure opportunities, and additional transportation access improvements.

The four phases to be studied by PRA include the hotel, the conference center, merging the hotel and conference center feasibility analyses, and the ability to finance the project.

City plans call for 700 feet of open space in the eastern portion of 61-year old Fort Mellon Park.

Under a lease with the city, PRA Development will assume 75 percent of the costs to build the hotel and conference center. The public portion will be generated by Seminole County tourism funding, a special tax district to be formed in the area, and payments established in the 50-year lease between the developer and the city.

Return of the lovebugs

Lovebugs are small black flies with a red thorax that have been invading our lives for the past several weeks. They are considered a nuisance mainly because they congregate in large numbers along highways and splatter on the windshields and grills of our cars.

Damage: Car's windshields become covered with the fatty remains that can become thick enough to obscure vision. The flies can also clog radiator and cause our cars to overheat. The fatty tissue can pit our car's finish if not removed within a few days. Do not paint your house now, lovebugs can mar freshly painted surfaces.

Feeding: Adult lovebugs are harmless — they do not sting or bite. They feed on the nectar of various plants, especially sweet clover, Brazilian pepper and golden-rod. Larvae (immature insects) feed on decaying organic matter in the soil. They actually perform a beneficial function by converting the plant material into simpler organic compounds that can be used by the plants.

Flights: Two flights of lovebugs occur each year in Central Florida. The spring flight occurs during late April and May. A second flight occurs in fall around late August and September. Flight periods generally last 4 to 5 weeks. Mating takes place almost immediately after emergence of the females. Adult females live only 2 to 3 days. Usually, lovebug flights are restricted to daylight hours and temperatures above 68 degrees F. At night, lovebugs rest on low growing vegetation.

Control: There are several effective insecticides available for lovebug control, but spraying can be impractical because infestations occur over such a vast area and for a short period of time. You can control lovebugs in confined areas like porches and around your home with aerosol sprays available for other household insects. Predators have substantially reduced the population of lovebugs in Central Florida during the past several years. Lovebug larvae populations are extremely high in pasture areas, making an ideal environment for certain bird predators like robins and quails. Armadillos are thought to be predators as well, but scientific data has yet to back this up. Lovebugs are predators as well, feeding on certain beetle larvae, earwigs and centipedes.

There are several things a motorist can do to lessen the lovebug nuisance. First, traveling at night can reduce the incidence of lovebugs since they are active only in the day, usually after 10 a.m. Also traveling at a lower speed will reduce the number of bugs splattered on your car. There are many types of screens available that can be placed on the front grill of your car to protect the finish and prevent the radiator from becoming clogged. If a large screen can't be used on the front of the car, a smaller screen can be put behind the grill but in front of the radiator. Splattered lovebugs should be washed off the car as soon as possible. Cars that have been waxed recently are more protected from damage by lovebug residue. Soaking the area with water for several minutes will aid in removal too. When lovebugs are numerous, or you know you will be traveling at the peak times, you can spread a light film of baby oil or use an aerosol oil spray over the front of the hood, above the windshield, and the grill and bumper. This practice will make lovebug removal easier.

Certified chimney sweeps bring more than good luck

DEAR ABBY: I read your column faithfully and hope you'll print my letter for public awareness. Two years ago I met the man who would "sweep me off my feet." When I asked him what he did for a living, he said, "I am a certified chimney sweep."

Although I always "knew" that people who have fireplaces or wood stoves need to have their chimneys cleaned, I never realized that chimney sweeps save lives every day!

Many homeowners and landlords are unaware that chimneys — or any heating systems — need to be inspected every year.

With new heating technology, furnace appliances are more efficient. They put less heat up the chimney and more into the home, causing condensation that can damage a chimney at a remarkable rate. This can create blockages, water and structural damage to the home, as well as carbon monoxide poisoning.

Homeowners can check for many of these things by looking in the bottom of their chimney. If there is any debris or flaking inside, if they can't see to the top with a flashlight, if there are water stains or missing bricks, the homeowner should contact a certified chimney sweep to inspect the venting system. These professionals have the training to properly install, replace and repair venting systems to meet national codes for safety, and they are qualified to give the best and safest solutions to homeowners and their families.

SWEPT OFF MY FEET IN PA.

DEAR SWEET: Thank you for wanting to educate others about a danger many of us face without being aware of it. Homeowners, if you observe any of these warning signs, please contact a certified sweep and have your venting system inspected before you light your next fire (renters should contact their landlords). A certified chimney sweep is usually as close as your telephone directory.

cious gift one person can offer another is a hand outstretched in friendship.

Good advice for everyone — tears to console — is in "The Answer in All of Us and How to Deal With It." To order, send a business-size, self-addressed envelope, plus check or money order for $5.95 ($4.95 in Canada) to Dear Abby, Angus Booklet, P.O. Box 447, Mount Morris, IL 61054-0447. (Postage is included.)

DEAR ABBY: You printed a letter from a group called "The Ya-Yas," who asked you to provide some words on friendship. I would like to submit a quote from Stephen E. Ambrose's book "Comrades" (Simon and Schuster, 1998). In his book, the author describes friendships between brothers, peers, father and son, combat buddies and others.

This quote is from the chapter on Lewis and Clark: "Friendship is different from all other relationships. Unlike acquaintanceship, it is based on love. Unlike lovers and married couples, it is free of jealousy. Unlike children and parents, it knows neither criticism nor resentment. Friendship has no status in law. Business partnerships are based on a contract. So is marriage. Parents are bound by the law, as are children. But friendship is freely entered into, freely given, freely exercised."

"Friends never cheat each other, or take advantage, or lie. Friends do not spy on one another, yet they have no secrets. Friends glory in each other's successes and are downcast by the failures. Friends minister to each other, nurse each other. Friends give to each other, worry about each other, stand always ready to help. Perfect friendship is rarely achieved, but at its height it is an ecstasy."

WILLIAM FRITTE, TEMECULA, CALIF.

DEAR WILLIAM: That's a terrific quote, and I'm sure it will be appreciated by more people than the Ya-Yas. The most pro-

DEAR ABBY: I am writing in response to your advice for the woman in Sacramento, Calif., whose husband of four years spends hours with, and buys gifts for, his former wife. She stated that she is unhappy, fearful of him, and is nothing more than his housekeeper.

Please tell this woman about an organization in Sacramento called WEAVE (Women Escaping A Violent Environment). They will assist her with shelter, care, legal issues and support.

This woman needs to get out now, and present that worthless, selfish husband of hers a bill for the years of maid service she has provided him. This is not a normal marriage. She deserves to be happy with someone who appreciates her.

BEN THERE, DONE THAT IN SANTA ANA, CALIF.

DEAR B.T.D.T.: I agree this is not a normal marriage and the woman deserves a mate who will appreciate her. I was not aware there was an organization that would help women who have been threatened by their spouses — but who had not yet been battered.

When I spoke to a staff member at WEAVE, she informed me that they do help women who are suffering from emotional and verbal abuse — and that all domestic abuse organizations will help victims of any type of abuse. The National Domestic Violence Hotline, (800) 799-7233, will refer callers to an organization in their local area.

TAUBENSEE'S BLAST PUTS REDS IN WILD CARD DRIVERS SEAT

CINCINNATI - Lake Howell graduate Eddie Taubensee hit an upper-deck, two-run home run in the seventh inning to give the Cincinnati Reds a 7-6 lead and the hosts went on to a 9-7 victory over the St. Louis Cardinals to move into a tie for the National League Central Division lead with the Houston Astros and into a 1 1/2 game lead over the New York Mets in the Wild Card race.

The home run was the 21st of the season for Taubensee and also gives the catcher 83 RBI for the year.

Former Cardinal Dmitri Young drove in five runs as the Reds prepare to open a two-game series with the Astros in Houston tonight.

Mark McGwire hit his 61st home run of the season to tie the Chicago Cubs' Sammy Sosa for the major league lead.

SOLAR BEARS CUT THREE; PRESEASON SPECIAL ON TONIGHT

ORLANDO - The Orlando Solar Bears of the International Hockey League (IHL) have released three more players from training camp: goaltender Scott Fankhouser, center Mark Jooria, and right wing Mike Sylvia.

Orlando's training camp roster now consists of 27 players - 16 forwards, eight defensemen, and three goaltenders.

With the cancellation of a scheduled preseason game this past Saturday with the Houston Aeros, the defending IHL Eastern Conference champion Solar Bears concluded the exhibition season with a 1-1 mark.

Saturday's preseason contest against Houston was originally scheduled to be played at the Bell County Expo Center in Belton, Texas, but was moved due to Chaparral Ice in Austin due to mechanical difficulties with the refrigeration equipment. Additional equipment problems in Austin forced the cancellation of the game.

Tonight (Tuesday, September 28) at 8 p.m. Sunshine Network will air the first of three telecasts of "Solar Bears - The Will to Win," a half-hour special featuring the Solar Bears.

The program, hosted by Solar Bears television play-by-play broadcaster Andrew Monaco, will feature both highlights from Orlando's 1998-99 IHL Eastern Conference championship season and a preview of the 1999-2000 Solar Bears campaign.

The airdates and times for "Solar Bears - The Will to Win" on Sunshine Network are: Tuesday, September 28 at 8 p.m.; Wednesday, September 29 at 12:30 p.m.; and Thursday, September 30 at 12:30 a.m.

The Solar Bears open the 1999-2000 regular season on Friday, October 1, at the Compaq Center against Houston at 8:30 p.m. and the game can be heard live on WFNZ-AM 740 with John Dyer calling the play-by-play.

The Solar Bears will play their first home game at Orlando Arena on Saturday, October 9, against the Manitoba Moose at 7:30 p.m.

Orlando's first televised game on Sunshine Network will be the road contest with the Cleveland Lumberjacks on Saturday, October 16, at 7:30 p.m.

Smith leads Lake Brantley to district win; Lake Mary cross country teams romp in Seabreeze Beach Run

By Dean Smith

ORLANDO - The University football team made one big mistake Friday night.

They let the Lake Brantley offense have the ball in the second half.

The Cougars (2-2) had dominated the ball in the first half, keeping the ball for all but five minutes and getting a pair of touchdowns from Arturo Hunley to build a 17-7 advantage at intermission.

But the Patriots got its "broken bone" offense in gear behind senior quarterback Bryan Smith in the second half, scoring 19 points, while shutting out University to pull off a 26-17 Class 6A-District 2 to improve to 3-1 overall and 2-0 in district play.

Smith gained all 99 of his yards in the second half, scoring on runs of five and two yards and setting up Randy Casey's four-yard scoring run with a 38-yard gallop.

Senior tailback Lanter Bush finished with 91 yards and scored Lake Brantley's first half touchdown.

This Friday night, the Patriots will host Lake Howell (0-3) in a Seminole Athletic Conference game starting at Tom Story Field starting at 7:30 p.m.

In another football game from Friday night, Spruce Creek (4-0 overall, 2-0 in district) proved that it will be a force to be reckoned with in the Class 5A-District 4 race as the Hawks humbled Winter Springs (0-4 overall, 0-2 in 5A-4), 53-36 in Port Orange.

The Bears have this week off and will return on Friday, October 8th to host Pine Ridge (1-3) in another 5A-4 contest starting at 7:30 p.m.

Sanford duo no-hits Longwood

By Dean Smith
SPORTS EDITOR

SANFORD - Tom Quinn and Josh Maliczowski combined on a four inning nine strike out, no-hitter as the Sanford A's defeated the Longwood Giants, 14-0, in a City of Sanford Recreation and Parks Department Babe Ruth Baseball Fall League Bambino Division game Monday evening at Roy Holler Junior Field.

In a game played on Saturday, the Longwood Braves had defeated the Sanford A's, 10-4.

Quinn went the first three innings, striking out eight, including the side in the first and third innings, and allowed only a third inning walk to Jose Correa with one out. Correa was later retired at the plate in a run down.

Maliczowski came on in the fourth inning and retired all three men he faced, on two pop ups and a strike out.

The Sanford offense, meanwhile, came out smoking in the bottom of the first inning.

Maliczowski led off with a single to key a four-run inning that saw the first six A's batters reach before an out was recorded.

Josiah Kimmig had an RBI single and Jeff Downing an RBI double in the frame.

Sanford then put the game out of reach in the second inning, plating seven runs.

Joey Guerra had a double, while Kimmig singled in two runs and Quinn and Sergio Bryant one run each.

The A's completed the scoring in the third inning with three more runs. Quinn and Kimmig both doubled in runs, while Bryant had another RBI single.

Providing the offense for the A's were Josiah Kimmig (3-for-3 with a double, three runs scored, four RBI), Tom Quinn (2-for-2 with a double, three runs scored, two RBI), Jeff Downing (2-for-2 with a double, two runs scored, one RBI), Sergio Bryant (2-for-3, one run scored, two RBI), Josh Maliczowski (2-for-3, three runs scored), Joey Guerra (1-for-2 with a double, one run scored) and Brian Ireland (one run scored).

On Saturday, the Longwood Braves scored three runs in the top of the first inning and the Sanford A's never recovered.

Tapolnet, Gaboury and Chulab scored the first inning runs, with Steiner getting an RBI single for the Braves.

A single by Lombardi, a double by Chulab and RBI grounder by Steiner increased Longwood's lead to 4-0 in the third inning before Sanford closed to within 4-2 in the bottom of the fourth inning.

John Valentine reached on an error and stole second as Quinn drew a walk. Kimmig then doubled in a run and Ramone Espinal singled in a run to get the A's back in the game.

But the Braves started to pull away in the fifth inning with Chulab doubling in two runs and scoring a third and then capping the scoring with three more runs in the sixth inning on a pair of errors and an RBI single by McIntyre.

Sanford closed out the game's scoring with two runs in the bottom of the sixth inning on a triple by Quinn, an RBI double by Kimmig, who later stole home.

Doing the damage for the Braves were Chulab (3-for-4 with three doubles, two runs scored, two RBI), McIntyre (1-for-3, one run scored, one RBI), Lombardi (1-for-3, two runs scored), Steiner (1-for-3, two RBI), Schanbacher (1-for-2, one run scored), Tapolnet (1-for-3, one run scored).

Tom Quinn was 2-for-2 with a double, scored three runs and drove in two, but it was his pitching that was the difference as he hurled three innings of no-hit ball, striking out eight, as the Sanford A's beat the Longwood Giants, 14-0, at Roy Holler Junior Field on Monday.

In another Sanford Little League Fall Season game, the Spectrum Sport Mariners outscored the Crankshaft Rebuilders Yankees, 8-2, in a Major Division contest.

The Angels took a 1-0 lead in the top of the first inning as Danielle drew a walk and came around on a pair of stolen bases and a wild pitch.

CHARLOTTE - Despite fears to the contrary, Sanford's Jeff Blake was able to start at quarterback for the Cincinnati Bengals against the Carolina Panthers on Sunday.

HOROSCOPES

Wednesday, Sept. 29, 1999

Knowledge you acquire in the year ahead can be utilized to your advantage in the times ahead. Don't overlook any opportunities you get to further your skills in your chosen field of endeavor.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) That which others conceive can be improved upon or adapted to enhance your own endeavors. Be open-minded to all the ideas and suggestions of everybody today. Libra, treat yourself to a birthday gift. Send for your Astro-Graph predictions for the year ahead by mailing $2 and BAGE to Astro-Graph, c/o this newspaper, P.O. Box 1758, Murray Hill Station, New York, NY 10158. Be sure to state your Zodiac sign.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) Especially if you are doing something important where you are utilizing confidential information, your success today will be dependent upon your ability to be secretive. Seal your lips.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) A-though you work very well independently of others, your greatest success today is more likely to come from partnership arrangements. Team up for better results.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) If you truly believe in yourself today, you'll have the ability to accomplish whatever you set your mind to. Set aside any anxieties you might foster and accentuate the positive.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18) Working with too many assistants could dilute your effectiveness today. Chances are you'll function best when acting in tandem with a limited number of people. Restrict the involvement.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) Set your sights and priorities strictly on what you know is attainable and not on what others believe you can do. Your assessment is far more accurate than theirs.

ARIES (March 21-April 19) If you want to influence others today, communicate with them in ways that inspire them and brighten their spirits. Pointing out where they're going wrong will be viewed as criticism.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) It's totally unlike you to lean on others to get what you want in life, yet today you could be inclined to do just that. Look for rewards solely from your own labors.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) Take charge of events today instead of letting them control you and the desirable results you're seeking will not elude you. Forge your own destiny. Stay the course!

CANCER (June 21-July 22) That which needs to be orchestrated today is best done from behind the scenes, especially if you're looking out for the interests of those under your protection.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) Even if you should have a few stackers in your mist today, you'll be exceptionally skilled at heading up a team and managing those who tend to dodge responsibility.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) Don't treat indifferently something you're successfully pursuing that you think could enhance your financial position. The possibility to do so is better than usual.

WIN AT BRIDGE

Again a good day

By Phillip Alder

Yesterday, I mentioned there are good days and bad. Well, East-West had a red-letter day in this deal. East found the best defense, and West had the necessary cards to defeat the contract. How did the play go?

If you look at only the North-South hands, four spades is a fair bet, but shouldn't succeed here.

After winning the first trick with the heart ace, declarer continued with the ace and another trump. East stepped in with his king, then returned his singleton club. West covering South's 10 with the queen. Stranded in the dummy, declarer tried a heart, but West won with the jack. An immediate club ruff is fatal, because East can exit with a heart, but West switched to the diamond queen, covered by the king and ace. Back in with the diamond jack, West gave his partner the club ruff: one down.

Did you notice that declarer could have done better? He should have ducked the first trick, opening up a route back to his hand with a heart ruff. Suppose, at trick two, West switches to the diamond queen. With this layout, declarer must play low from the dummy. (If he covers with the king, East wins with the ace and returns his club, making the club ruff unavoidable.) Now, let's assume West reverts to hearts. Declarer wins with his ace, then continues with the ace and another spade. East may win with the king and lead his singleton club, but declarer wins in the dummy, ruffs a heart, and draws the missing trump. Here, an overtrick accrues, so perhaps East should cash the diamond ace when in with the spade king.

ASK DR. GOTT

Prognosis for patients on respirators

DEAR DR. GOTT: How long can a person live on a respirator? Can a patient get an infection from one? In such a circumstance, what would fluctuating blood pressure indicate?

DEAR READER: Respirators are machines that provide mechanical ventilation for patients who cannot breathe on their own. With proper care, a person can be hooked to a respirator indefinitely. Thus, these machines can literally keep patients alive when, without assisted ventilation, they would die within minutes. Respirators are a tremendous boon to individuals who need emergency ventilatory assistance. On the other hand, as you know, the machines can be used to prolong death in patients who have no hope of recovery.

Respirators are not as efficient as normal respiration; therefore, infection is often a problem. Because they cannot cough, patients on assisted ventilation cannot clear out ordinary mucus secretions; thus, such patients usually require mechanical suctioning to remove phlegm, which otherwise provides a fertile environment for bacteria to grow. Consequently, respirator patients are at constant risk of pulmonary infections that spread from the endotracheal tube, the device in the windpipe that connects the patients to the machines.

Fluctuating blood pressure is normal in everyone. In mechanically ventilated people, however, it may reflect a metabolic imbalance or improper respirator settings. Respiratory assistance is a demanding challenge that must be constantly monitored by qualified medical personnel.

DEAR DR. GOTT: For five years, I've received weekly allergy shots. Recently, a blood test showed that I have a "cold antibody." What does this mean?

DEAR READER: In simple terms, this means that your immune system has begun producing a protein antibody that acts to neutralize antigens (other proteins) that either enter your body from the environment or are made within your system. Your antibody precipitates (congeals) when your blood is cooled; other "warm" antibodies do not show this reaction.

I doubt that this unusual reaction is the result of your allergy injections. More likely, it has appeared because of an underlying disease, such as lupus or polyarteritis. Ask your allergist about this.

To give you related information, I am sending you a copy of my Health Report "Allergies." Other readers who would like a copy should send $3 plus a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope to P.O. Box 2917, Murray Hill Station, New York, NY 10158. Be sure to mention the title.
