NEW RAILROAD BILL PROVIDES FOR WAGES SALARIES WOULD REMAIN

Rates Are Also To Be Stabilized

WOULD CONTINUE

IN EFFECT UNTIL SEPTEMBER FIRST UNDER REORGANIZATION BILL

Washington, Feb. 19.—Wages established by the railroad administration before the war would continue in effect until Sept. 1 under the railroad reorganization bill, according to a report which was presented today in the house and senate.

Under the wage provision, the reorganizing bill contains more specific provisions than any other change made in compromising the each bill of the house and the committee bill of the senate, the pay of the railway workers would be stabilized at the present levels for six months after the rail properties are returned to private control and operation.

The bill, as returned today, also seeks to stabilize railway rates at the same time, holding that prior to Sept. 1, no rates may be reduced until the permission of the interstate commerce commission is received.

The restriction upon wage changes was looked on with special interest by members of congress, railroad officials and union leaders, in view of the recent demands of the more than 2,000,000 workers for increases in pay.

President Wilson, in supporting the contention that no increases could be granted on the eve of the return of the railroads to private owners, told the labor union leaders that their demands would be considered by a commission set up by law if such a provision was contained in the railroad bill, or appointed by his own initiative if no provision was made in the bill.

The 14 railway union heads have called a meeting here to meet Monday, to discuss the policy to be adopted in dealing with such a commission. To ascertain if the railroad executives would agree to turning over the wage controversy to such a commission Director General Hines has asked a commission of railroad executives to confer with him here tomorrow.

Chairman Esch, of the house managers, said the bill would be taken up in the house tomorrow and Chairman Cammins of the senate managers, hopes to call it up in the senate later in the day.

Speaking of the wage settlement members of both house and senate expressed the belief that the bill would be adopted by both houses of congress and that it would be sent to the president with little change.

Features of the report are: Compulsory reference to an arbitration board, appointed by the president, composed of nine members equally made up of members of labor organizations, railroad officials of the public, of all labor disputes. No arrangements were made to enforce decisions, however.

Arrangements of railroad rates and tariffs so as return of 5 per cent interest on the aggregate value of the railroad property and another 5 per cent for a sinking fund.

All railway income, in excess of 6 per cent of the property value, would be divided equally between the carriers' reserve fund and the railroad contingent fund which will be administered by the commission for assistance of the weaker roads.

Government guarantee to railroad against a deficit during the first six months after the roads are turned back.

Permissive construction of railroads in accordance with a general co-ordination plan to be arranged and set forth by the United States Interstate Commerce commission.

Creation of a large revolving fund with which to pay off indebtedness of railroads and debts incurred under federal management.

Funds now in the federal railway administration's hands for meeting expenses are also reappropriated and an appropriation for the federal labor board is provided for.

Auto Campers

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Henley, from Atlanta, Ga., and their mother and brother, Mrs. Camp and Mr. Edward Camp of Marion Co., Fla., are camping for the third time this winter with their cozy Auto Camping Outfit with J. B. Ray on "Sanford Heights". Mr. Henley is on his last lap of a complete tour of the Fruit and Vegetable growing sections of the State and is well posted and a good judge of both Fruit and Vegetable soil, an influential business man and one whom we will be glad to welcome among us should he decide to invest here. Mr. Henley states that after careful investigations with a view to investing profitably and making a future home the Sanford section appeals to him very forcibly. Some one will probably interest him in a Celery farm, together with an additional Mr. Ray, who intends investing also. We are glad to have these good Presbyterians with us and hope we may keep them permanently.

AVIATION FIELD TO BE NAMED

LET THE SANFORD AVIATION FIELD BE NAMED THE AARON CLOUD FIELD

Identify The Home With The Name Aaron Cloud is the man who commercialized the Florida Orange, who put it on its going feet in all the paths of trade.

Who not only saw its possibilities in the making of a great industry and business but who got busy in the one, only practical way to make so and did it.

If you must have oranges, he said, then you must have trees to grow them on and, here is where the old man made good. Himself the very incarnation of success he went about getting the seed, orange seed. Don't you doubt it he got the seed and by the thousands sowed them into the warm and nurturing bosom of the waiting earth and lo! the Florida orange as a thing of commerce, was born.

Mr. Cloud for years sold trees all over South Florida. Set out groves for himself and others giving the Orange business an impetus and a charm that went far and wide. Millions of men and money were made to see; heard Old Aaron's call and came to know the Land of Oranges, as it was of Flowers.

Mr. Cloud on coming to Florida located lived and died within an easy half mile of the present Corporate limits of Sanford. He had been been a 49' in the gold rush of that year to California. Golden nuggets his passion then. He made good, returned to his home in Georgia and late in the last days of the year 19 or the first of the 60—came to Florida.

He had heard and read much, he wanted to see for himself. He was greatly pleased. The mild and spring like climate contrasted charmingly with the stricken fields and leafless woodlands of his home state.

He saw the Speer-grove, then badly neglected, no fence about it, wild growth springing up everywhere but, the grand and glorious trees were loaded down with ripened fruit. He saw this fruit when headed going into barrels and into boxes of all shapes and sizes. He saw it all and with an eye to greater and better things he decided he would go back and in the Spring return and make Florida his home. But the war between the nations coming on shattered his plans and not until the Spring of 66 or 67, his family and household effects in four two horse wagons made a landing here, almost with in the confines of our little city.

Let the Sanford Aviation Field be named "The Aaron Cloud Field". C. H. LEFFLER.

Fear Temper of American People

ENGLISH EMPHATIC

LABOR PAPER WELCOMES COME-BACK OF WILSON AND LOOKS FOR PEACE

London, Feb. 19.—It is impossible to emphasize the importance and gravity of the results which may follow the supreme allies council's reply to President Wilson's note relative to the Adriatic settlement, says the Mail.

"Anglo-American relations for a generation may well depend upon the terms of the reply," the newspaper continues. "This country is anxious that justice be done between Italy and Jugoslavia and is equally anxious to cultivate closest friendship with the United States which is a cornerstone of British foreign relations. We trust therefore, that moderation and clearheadedness may characterize the reply so that the very real crisis with which this country is confronted may be averted."

"Reiterating its past condemnation of the peace treaty the Herald, labor organ, interprets decisions concerning the surrender of former Emperor William, extradition of Germans accused of war crimes and the future status of Constantinople as a realization of the folly of the authors of the treaty."

"The historic talents of Premier Lloyd George," the newspaper group goes on have wrought more harm than the vindictiveness of premier Clemenceau or the boundless egotism of the American president. The dramatic reappearance of President Wilson may be a mere gesture but it may enforce its will and can, even at this late hour, insist that justice be done. Does the president mean business? If he does there is still a chance for him to retrieve some of his reputation and give Europe a tolerable peace."

Deep anxiety lest the allies send President Wilson a reply containing further cause for dissent is expressed by the Times "because in the actual mood they are now in, the Anglo-American people might believe a very little thing sufficient to make them withdraw their countenance from the peace settlement and turn their backs for a season upon the affairs of the old world."

The newspaper declares President Wilson's note on the Adriatic question raises a question which allied democracies will not allow the supreme council to settle unrestrained.

"They are not prepared," it continues, "to commit to the uncontrolled discretion of their premiers their relation with the American people and will not tolerate for a moment any conduct which might reasonably estrange Americans or injure an issue so vast and fraught with good and evil as the friendship of America for Europe. The future of the league of nations and all the moral harvest of war hang on this friendship."

Commenting on President Wilson's note to the supreme allied council the Giornale D'Italia says:

"His intervention was couched in such an ungenial form as to arouse the suspicion it was suggested only by his invincible aversion toward Italy. He must have convinced even his compatriots that he is guided only by animosity. Therefore, the allies have reacted energetically against his attitude which is offensive also to their dignity as the compromise proposals sent to Belgrade were framed chiefly by Premier Lloyd George. Mr. Wilson, who purposefully was not represented at the discussion of the compromise has no right to veto his application."

THOMAS D. BAKER, Ph. D.
Analytical and Consulting Chemist - Professional of Natural Science Emeritus, Rollins College, Florida
Private Laboratory of Rollins College Winter Park, Fla., Nov. 5th, 1919
Dear Sir:
I have completed careful chemical analysis of the sample of water that you brought me early last week, and have obtained the following results:
Total Solids 1.75 parts per million
Chloride 9.00 parts per million
Iron Ammonia 00 parts per million
Aluminium Ammonia Trace
Nitrate Trace
The absence practically of iron and aluminium ammonia in this water and its very small amount of chlorine indicates its excellent quality for household purposes. In addition to the good quality characteristics of excellent household water, it possesses special features of much value, especially those of excellent natural aeration and LOW degree of hardness.
The bacteriological analysis, resulting in an average total count in four samples of the water, of 3 bacteria per cent., and in finding no coliform or other harmful bacteria, fully confirm its good quality indicated by the CHEMICAL analysis.
Of the many waters of this and other regions that I have analyzed, I have found none superior in all good qualities to that of the "Elder Water."
Yours very respectfully,

SOUTHERN UTILITIES ORDERED TO GET BUSY BY CITY COMMISSION

Wire Conditions to J. G. White Yesterday
TIRED OF THE DELAY

PEOPLE ARE READY TO DO SOMETHING UNLESS CONDITION HERE IMPROVES AT ONCE

From Monday's Daily
After being without lights and water and gas for the better part of three days and nights the people were in an ugly mood yesterday and only waited for a match to set the spark afire to the public indignation that would have swept the Southern Utilities Co., off the municipal map yesterday. The City Commissioners have been busy for the past few days trying to get something done at the plants of this company and the rumors that the company was making ice for the refrigerators and allowing the lights and water to go was not making them any friends among the suffering public.

Yesterday afternoon the lights and water were turned on and it is a good thing they were and today there is a weak current going through the wires insufficient to run the power plants but better than nothing and the City Commissioners have wired the following to J. G. White Co., at New York, which expresses the sentiments of the commissioners and the people generally:

"Conditions at your Sanford Plant growing worse daily and are now unbearable. Entire population highly incignant and mass meeting called to be held tomorrow. No current past seventy two hours auxiliary plant also out of commission. Water situation had for past week entirely out for practically twelve hours at noon today. Sanitary conditions deplorable. State Health board have taken matter in hand and have representative on the ground. Gas entirely out today due to lack of water and electricity. Some gas in small holder but unable to transfer to large holder for distribution on account of lack of current to operate exhaust and the steam attachment for working exhaust out of commission and has been in that condition for months. Three gas engines in auxiliary plant all out of condition and two of them in this condition past year. The only gas engine which has been in operation has been continually put of business every time it rains on account of leaky roof not repaired past eighteen months. Broken down condition of these gas engines due to attempt to operate them with inexperienced men having no knowledge of operating gas engines. At the power and ice plant only one engine in operation and that in bad condition unable to develop but small percent of rated power due to condition and operation without condenser since January sixth and probably longer. Old boiler settings which are in bad condition could be temporarily repaired to conserve fuel producing more steam while using either wood or oil for fuel. We demand immediate relief for our citizens and request that either your people install auxiliary pumping plant in the next forty eight hours or give us authority to do so. The necessary equipment close at hand and relief can be given at nominal expense within specified time. The influenza epidemic had and on increase making conditions much worse. Your plant would never have gotten into this condition had proper attention been given to upkeep. Immediate action and answer requested.

She balks at being ordered around in a language that's strange to her, and dozens of German laborers in the employ of the American army of occupation have been "Gott strafing Missouri" lately. These laborers were engaged in improving the roads hereabouts with the aid of a hundred or more American mules and were having a terrible time of it until an officer of our new democratic army humbly taught them three simple English words: "Whoa!" "Gee!" and "Haw-haw!" Then, and only then, did Missouri agree to an armistice.

AUTOMOBILE LICENSE TAX

SHOW BIG INCREASE FOR THE YEAR JUST PASSED

St. Petersburg, Feb. 12.—State Auditor J. Will You has just had completed an audit of the collections of the comptroller from automobile licenses for the year 1919 which report shows that the comptroller collected a total of $401,317.40. This amount has been deposited with the state treasurer to the credit of the funds and in the amounts shown below:

Deposited to refund account	$22,225.63
Deposited to expense acct.	33,061.7
Deposited to expense acct.	53,661.77
Deposited to acct maintenance of state roads	294,169.90
Deposited to account for tye maintenance state road department	51,500.00
Total as above stated	$401,317.40

The refund account is the fund provided by law for the refund to owners of automobiles who, under the act of 1917 paid an amount in excess of $5 for license to cover a five passenger automobile for the year 1918; the 1919 legislature having provided for such refund upon condition that the applications therefor should be filed with a year from the date of the passage of the act.

The expense account shown comprises tags, the mailing, registering and handling of licenses.

After the payment of these expenses the balance under the law is deposited in the respective proportion of 85 per cent and 15 per cent to the maintenance of the state road department.

As a comparison, the figure for the year 1918 shows collections by the comptroller from automobile licenses, amounting to the sum of $338,452.50. For 1919 as above stated, the total receipts in this department were $401,317.40. The gross collections received so far for 1920 is already $491,458.81 and the year is still young.

It is to be expected, of course, that every penny of all funds handled by state officials can be accounted for, but as the audit made by the state auditor's office this year was made before the comptroller had an opportunity to make a review of the year's work and during the busiest which the office handles period during which the office handles thousands of licenses in a rush, it is a splendid showing of the accuracy and management of the comptroller.

The figures show that there were purchased $2,654 license tags and every single one was accounted for in the records of the office. This is considered a remarkable showing in view of the number of times each application and tag must be handled together with the further fact that many were exchanged where machines are charged from passenger cars to trucks, and that many duplicates have to be issued during the year. The comptroller is being congratulated upon the very flattering nature of the report of the state auditing department by those who understand and realize the nature of the work.

Nearly one-fifth of the applications for automobile licenses have been found incomplete, which necessitated the return of those applications for completion before tags could be issued. This unfortunate condition not only delayed the receipt of tags in over 8,000 instances but also increased very materially the rush and volume of work.

Snakes' Changes of Skin.
It appears that snakes change their skins several times a year before reaching the adult state. The main reason why snakes cast their skins is to provide for increased growth. The skin of a snake does not grow with the growth of the body, as is the case with warm blooded creatures. So when it begins to get too tight it is discarded.

Sanford People Should Heed Its Warning
Have you a sharp pain or a dull ache across the small of your back? Do you realize that it's often a timely sign of kidney weakness? Prompt treatment is a safeguard against more serious kidney troubles. Use Dean's Kidney Pills. Profit by a Sanford resident's experience. Mrs. W. F. Leavitt, 317 W. Third St. says: "Some few years ago I was laid off with kidney trouble and knife-like pains shot up from my kidneys. There was a dull ache in my back all the time. I had to take to my bed as I couldn't be on my feet. I suffered from terrible headaches, too. I was advised to try Doan's Kidney Pills and half a dozen boxes cured me in fine shape and made me feel like a different woman."

Died At Port Orange

L. A. Miller who resided here about one-year ago and for the past six months an inmate of the sanitarium at Port Orange died Saturday and the funeral occurred there Sunday afternoon Dr. Brownlee of the Presbyterian church officiating the interment being made in the Daytona cemetery. The sympathy of the friends goes out to the wife who is here alone three children and all of her relatives residing in Cuba. Mr. and Mrs. Miller came here from Cuba to reside and he was a civil engineer being engaged with Fred Williams for some time but tuberculosis had claimed him for its own and his sojourn at the sanitarium only afforded temporary relief and the end came last Saturday.

The sympathy of the friends here is extended to the mother and the three children in the loss of husband and father.

Children's Theology
 A little girl explained God's omnipresence by saying that he was everywhere without going there. A small boy, reflecting on the misdeeds of Satan, remarked: "I don't see how he ever got to be so bad when he had no devil to put him up to it."

Funeral of Mrs. E. T. Woodruff

The funeral of Mrs. E. T. Woodruff occurred from the Congregational church Saturday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. Dr. Brower of the Congregational church and Dr. Walker of the Methodist church officiating. Special music by the choir and a solo by Miss Mable Bowler followed by words of comfort by Dr. Brower and Dr. Walker.

Interment was made in Lakeview cemetery.

The pall bearers were F. P. Ferster H. C. Dulbosc, R. J. Holly, Edward Putnam, J. D. Hood and H. R. Stevens.

The death of Mrs. Woodruff has cast a gloom over the community where she resided so long. The family came here from Michigan about twelve years ago and have made their home here ever since and while the health of Mrs. Woodruff would not permit her to take an active interest in the life of the community that she would have liked to take, her hands were ever extended to those who needed help and she was ever ready to bear her part of the public burden. Of a retiring disposition Mrs. Woodruff was a Christian character of wonderful strength and those who knew her recognized the true instincts of wife, mother and friend.

To the sorrowing husband and son the sympathy of the community goes out today in their hour of bereavement.

Bug Holdup
 A bug may hold up a locomotive. It takes a large number to do the trick, but it has been done. Specialists in the trade believe that in England are the army worm, the tent caterpillar, the cotton worm and migratory locusts. Huge water beetles traveling in force have been known to accomplish the same feat. When these insects swarm upon the track they so effectively graze the rails that no steel can be kept turning.—Boston Post.

Many Still Read Dickens
 Charles Dickens has been ruled out by a class of the younger literary critics as a decided hack number, but the opinion by his British publishers that during the past three years the sale of his books has been almost doubled seems to refute that idea. Some of Dickens' novels sell more than 50,000 every year, and he has been dead forty-eight years. His sales during the last ten years have been larger. It is asserted, that those of any three novelists put together.

Keep Accounts
 Farming is a business the same as banking or running a mercantile establishment. There are products to be sold and articles to be bought. The keeping of a record of the outgo to the income are important considerations on every farm. The farmer should know what his income is and just how he is disposing of it. He can know this only by keeping books and the first of the new year is the proper time to begin.—Exchange.

Entered as Second-Class Mail Matter August 22nd 1908, at the Postoffice at Sanford, Florida Under Act of March 3rd, 1879

Office: Herald Building Telephone No. 81

Earthquake and flood districts have nothing on us. We are out of lights and water and gas and even ice the greater part of the time.

And yet it takes these crises in the affairs of men to bring out the best there is in us, and maybe we will all wake up and do more after everything is normal again.

And again we ask the City Commissioners: What are you going to do about it? Something must be done if the commercial life of this city is to be saved.

The Palatka News is evidently trying to incite Colonel S. J. Hibbin to "run" for congress in the fourth district. We advise Col. Sam to stick to his oil gusher.—Tampa Tribune.

Some poet wrote years ago, "This is the winter of our discontent," and if we had him here now we would show him something that would make him change his mind as to dates.

Sanford is coming. The people who have been away for some time and come back say so. The visitors here for the first time say so and the home people who hardly realize it say so.

The guide posts on First Street should do much to help the congestion and keep the vehicles moving in the right direction. The new posts look like a real city and give the streets a good appearance.

The Sanford section will soon have a fine write up in the Country Gentleman. This will be of great value to the section and coming from a reputable magazine will mean something.

Herb Fekel of the St. Augustine Record was sent to cover the Mack Sennett Bathing Girl Show by Harry Brown and Herb "wrote them up" in the Record. Bet Harry Brown's wife would not let him go and after Herb's wife reads his article it will be "curtains" for him.

The candidates are coming in droves now and early a day passed but what brings them to our door with the song of future greatness of the state of Florida in case they are elected. Sometimes we wonder just how we have managed to struggle along without these saviors so long.

Tampa and Miami are talking strong for the commission-manager form of city government and prominent business men of these cities are writing articles commending the new form of government. Business men everywhere recognize the business principles of this business form.

There is a wonderful spirit in Sanford that brings all people together, and when a family is in sorrow there is no dearth of willing hands to do all they can to alleviate pain and suffering. And it is a noble spirit and one that makes us all akin.

William Jennings Bryan was here the other day and no one in Sanford was aware of the fact. We rather expected William to come in and see us, but he passed by on the other side. Oh, well, there were times when he was right glad to see a newspaper man but times do change.

Bob Holly is still working for a hospital for Sanford. We assume he wants to read some of the sick publicity plants there—Palatka News. We have the hospital, Good, and one of the finest in the state. We worked for it and obtained it. But our hospital is not the place for the sick utility plants. There is another place prepared for them where it never frosts.

We are looking to the City Commissioners and the City Manager for relief from the Southern Utilities Co. It is their business and we leave it to them. They can be assured of the support of the citizens in whatever relief they may undertake. We want relief from the present awful condition and we want to be assured that it will never happen again in this city. Meantime this city should begin to think about a municipal owned plant and have it installed before the heavy business of next winter begins. This city will never be a real city until it owns all the public utilities.

ONLY TWO CANDIDATES

There are several dark horses being groomed from time to time to run in the race for congress in the Fourth District but they are only being bred out and will never go to the post. The race in the Fourth is between Joe Sears the present incumbent and Forest Lake of this city and will be between these two no matter how many entrants may aspire and when the votes are counted a Sanford man will be the next congressman from the Fourth. This is made necessary by the fact that the country over is calling for business men and men who know something about the financial affairs of their state and country and men who know how to meet the difficult situations that will confront this country on the post-war questions, big questions that will take big men to handle and Forest Lake is one of the big men of the state in every particular and is recognized not only in the Fourth district but in every part of Florida.

WHY TELL A LIE?

That's what Bob Holly of the Sanford Herald wants to know. He wants to know why we should not tell the truth about things like this:

If your neighbor is lazy, and his wife earns the living, and his children are hungry and half clothed, why not tell him so? If you think the public officials are inefficient, and grafting, and misinterpreting their constituents, why not tell them so? If Mrs. So and So ambles along the street exposing a yard or so of her leg, why not stop her and tell her so? If Miss Pethens has her face smeared with powder, why wait for the wind to blow it off? Why not tell her she is a freak. If you have been making love to your stenographer, and your wife suspects you, why lie about it? Why not tell the truth? If you want your friend to endorse your note, and you know you can never pay, why not tell him so?

If Miss Dimples looks like a scarecrow, and you want to marry her for her money, what shall you do? Who is a sinner and an angel, what are the matter, says Bob Holly about telling the truth all along the line. It does seem to us that some editors can be awfully unreasonable.—Gainesville Sun.

IT PAYS TO ADVERTISE

Farmers are beginning to realize that they should be business men and use the same business methods used by merchants and other business people. But most farmers don't yet know the value of good advertising. Farmers of this State can get a good suggestion from the following story of a farmer who bought advertising by the year in the Headlight published at Big Stone, South Dakota:

"There is something new in The Headlight this week. H. L. Hyatt came down from his home ten miles up the lake and inquired what our rate would be on a certain amount of advertising space by the year. We told him and he said he would take it. He said he always had something to sell or trade, or else wanted something, and he believed that a regular space in the Headlight in which he could put anything he pleased at any time would be just the thing to get results. So there you are. We have done a good deal of advertising for farmers in the last twenty years, but this is the first time we ever sold a farmer a year's space.

A good many farmers put up bulletin boards in front of their farms, and put on a notice of whatever they have to sell from time to time, which is a good idea, though in these days of automobiles the traveler doesn't always stop to read a bulletin.

"If you could put up a bulletin and then have a guarantee that 2,000 people would go past it every week for fifty-two weeks in the year, and that they would all be going slow enough to read it, it would be worth more, wouldn't it?"
"Well that is what Mr. Hyatt has done."

KNOCKING THE TOWN

A certain party said that Daily Herald was knocking the Southern Utilities Co., and in telling the world that we were a service firm; we were knocking the town. If this is knocking the town, God pity the town. If telling the truth and trying to arouse the people here with a sense of their duty and trying to bring to the officials of the Southern Utilities Co., their negligence in allowing their plant here to break down completely is knocking the town we intend to knock it until there is nothing left of the place. If we are supposed to sit calmly down here and allow this plant to shut us out from water, gas, power and lights with all the sickness prevalent at this time in the shape of influenza, if we are supposed to allow this company to ruin our business and they have already ruined the Herald's business and that of several other plants in this city, if we are supposed to allow them to give us the poor service that they have given not only this year but for years past and while we are accepting the poor service pay larger bills for this service every month, if we are supposed to do this bending of the knee we are a set of the biggest fools in the world and the sooner we wake up to that fact that we have been fooled and get busy with either a municipal plant or invite some other firm to come here and give us a plant the sooner this city will become the city that it should be now and would be if there were not so many mealy mouthed citizens living here that are afraid to open their mouth and speak their sentiments on these questions that vitally concern them.

The Herald asks today that the City Commissioners hold another meeting with the officials of the Southern Utilities Co., and give them so many days to give this city service or give up their franchise. If this city takes over the plant the citizens will be no worse off than they are now. We can at least hire competent men to take charge of it and pay them for their services. We had competent men and first class plants here before the Southern Utilities Co., ever came here with their watered stock company and the idea of squeezing all they could from the people of this city and give them nothing in return. When our home people owned these plants we raised a hell if the lights were off a few minutes or the water was not up to standard and the Herald would call their attention to the fact, so the Southern Utilities Co., cannot say that this paper is persecuting them because they happen to be a foreign corporation. This paper never had a word to say about them as long as they were giving service even if they did exact the pound of flesh.

But the Herald will put them on notice that it will continue to tell them and to tell the public about their negligence in allowing the plants here to get in the run down condition that they are in at this time and it is not only unfair to the customers to charge them for service of this kind but their present attempts to bolster up a broken down plant is unfair to their stockholders as they are spending twice as much money as they should spend because they did not and would not repair the plant two years ago when it started breaking up.

And in conclusion we would like to say that they cannot collect the money for this service and if every consumer would refuse to pay their money at the end of the month for service that they have not received this company could not collect a nickel. We pay for what we use in the meter it is true but the poor current on the wires and the poor gas makes the meter go round just the same and our bills are the same or larger for poor current and poor gas and for this reason the law would not uphold this company in their claim that we should pay according to the meter rate.

Just try this on your piano you suffering public.

GARDEN SEED CONGRESSMAN

We took a large roll of that well known congressional document home Saturday night and looked it over carefully; in fact, we watch the Record pretty close to find some of these great speeches which you read about now and then in the papers which are sent out from Washington by paid secretaries or correspondents. We have been looking and looking to see a statement of where some Florida members of the lower house has had the nerve to take a stand one way or another on the peace treaty or the railroad wage bill or even on something and about all we can find is a place in the vote of some measures where it says "Absent present, but not voting."

That is sure some way of being represented. Some folks here may like it, but it takes more than a sedate, chief justice look to satisfy us, even in a congressman. We like to see action. But even at that the Record contains some mighty fine speeches. We don't know whether they are ever made or not, but at any rate the printing office puts them up, the Records are sent out free to "my constituents," and the people foot the bill. Oh yes, and there is garden seed, too, thrown in.—Lakeland Star.

THERE IS NO SHORTAGE OF HIDES FOR LEATHER

The shoe manufacturers tell us the high price of shoes is due to a shortage of leather. Now comes the U. S. Bureau of Markets to tell us that there were more hides and skins on hand Dec. 31, than were held the year before.

Whom shall we believe? the man who is making an inordinate profit off the manufactured goods, or a government bureau which is only interested in getting at the facts? And if we believe the bureau which says "there is no shortage of leather" what conclusion can we come to except that there is profiteering somewhere?

On that particular day in December to which the report is brought we are told there was 11 per cent more cattle hides held in American warehouses than the year before; 31 per cent more calf hides; 135 per cent more horse hides; 196 per cent more kangaroo hides; 126 per cent more goat hides and 116 per cent more kid hides. In that day there were millions of hides held in storage and not being made into leather with which the people might be shod. This points directly to the manipulation of the leather market in the interest of the speculators, and against the interest of the people, and gives rise to the question, if the government can prevent the manipulation of the wheat markets in the interest of cheap bread why cannot it do the same thing in the hide and leather markets in the interest of cheaper shoes?—Tampa Times.

Mr. Rudyard Kipling sent it in typewritten copy to the editor of the National Observer, Mr. Henley, and it appeared under the title "Tomlinson" in January, 1892; but between the coming of the typewritten sheets and the appearance of the printed poem a good many things happened to the manuscript, some due to the author and some to the editor.

VOLUSIA COUNTY TAKES FIRST PRIZE AT SUB-TROPICAL FAIR

Seminole Was Not Up To Standard

TOOK MANY PRIZES

IN INDIVIDUAL DISPLAYS BUT THE BIG EXHIBIT WAS LACKING FORMER GREATNESS

Seminole County came out second best at the Sub-Tropical Fair this year and as the power has been off this paper could not chronicle the fact before. Volusia County took first prize and it was placed in the right county when it was awarded to Volusia because Volusia county had the exhibit all right and had spent money and time arranging one of the best displays of fruit and vegetables that has ever been seen at the fair.

It demonstrates that Seminole County should wake up next year and not only spend more money on a real display but the people generally over the county should take more interest in the fair. The fact of the matter is that Seminole County should have a fair grounds and put a good fair here first and then take a good display to Orlando and other fairs.

Although Seminole County did not take first prize the county did well in individual prizes as follows:

Best exhibit of Collective vegetables, $10.00, T. Jacobs, Best 1 dozen R. I. Red Eggs, $1.00, Joe Fernandez, Sweet Peppers, $1.00 F. A. Johnson, Hay and Forage $10.00, Fred Dörner, Para Grass $3.00.

DEATH OF MRS. Z. B. RATLIFF

Mrs. Douglass Abernathy Ratliff, wife of Z. B. Ratliff, died at her home on Magnolia avenue, at eight o'clock Sunday morning. The death came as a shock to the people of this community where Mrs. Ratliff had passed her early girlhood, and while it was known that she was very ill, it was hoped she would recover. A few days ago a little daughter came into the Ratliff home to gladden the hearts of father and mother, and with its coming came the influenza, and the mother weakened by childbirth, made a most valiant fight against the ravages of the influenza and the pneumonia that followed, and would have probably lived, but her heart gave out at the last moment and she passed away almost before those watching at her bedside were aware of it. Nothing that medical skill and careful nursing could do would stay the hand of the dread destroyer, and almost with the coming into the world of the sweet baby daughter the mother's life went out and the great mystery of life was unfolded for one and sealed for the other. There has been no death in this city in some time that caused such universal sorrow as the death of this young wife stricken in her twenty-first year of young womanhood with so much to live for and her life before her, and the sympathy of the many friends goes out to the grief stricken husband and wee baby daughter, and to the sorrowing parents and brothers and sisters and relatives.

Douglass Abernathy Ratliff was born about twenty-one years ago in Richmond, Virginia, and came to Florida with her parents about fifteen years ago, settling in Tampa for some time, where her father, W. W. Abernathy, was engaged in the furniture business, afterward moving to this city about ten years ago, where the family resided until last year ago when they moved to Miami to make their home. Mrs. Ratliff was married about three years ago to Z. B. Ratliff, a young man of sterling worth and character, the superintendent of the Herald Printing Co. for many years, and the young couple were happy in their home life and greatly devoted to each other. They were looking forward to the coming of the little daughter with fond hopes, and all would have been well but for the scourge of influenza that claimed the young mother for its own and left the happy home desolate but for the presence of the little one whom God wills shall remain to be a comfort to the father and the grandparents. The funeral will occur from the residence, 907 Magnolia avenue, Tuesday morning at ten o'clock.

Not here, O Death, not here;
Is there no other flower for thee to take?
All the world is thine and for its sake
Oh, come not here.
But, alas! death loves a shining mark--
and so it came.

ELDER SPRINGS WATER

THOMAS D. BAKER, Ph. D.
Analytical and Consulting Chemist, Professional of Natural Science Emeritus, Rollins College, Florida
Private Laboratory of Rollins College
Winter Park, Fla., Nov. 5th, 1918

Mr. T. O. Charles
Sanford, Fla.

I have completed careful chemical analysis of the sample of water that you brought me early last week, and have obtained the following results:

Color	Clear	Chlorine	1.75 parts per million
Reaction	Neutral	Total Solids	5.90 parts per million
Free Ammonia	.00 parts per million	Hardness	21.03 parts per million
Albuminoid Ammonia	Trace	Nitrate	Trace

The absence practically of free and albuminoid ammonia in this water and its very small amount of chlorine indicates its excellent quality for household purposes. In addition to the good quality characteristics of superior household water, it possesses special features of much value, especially those of excellent natural aeration and LOW degree of hardness.

The bacteriological analysis, resulting in an average total count, in four samples of the water, of 3 bacteria per cent; and in finding no color, or other harmful bacteria, fully confirm its good quality indicated by the CHEMICAL analysis.

Of the many waters of this and other regions that I have analyzed, I have found none superior in all good qualities to that of the "Elder Water."

Yours very respectfully,
(Signed) THOS. D. BAKER

Is a boy who crosses neat;
Who does not smoke or sweat.
A boy who respects his father and mother, also his superiors, and is polite to ladies and children;
A boy who never shirks his duty
And does his work well.
A boy who travels with a clean crowd
And they find their Boy Scout.

Weather and the Death Rate.
The general death rate is found to increase with rising temperature, and to diminish with a falling thermometer. These conclusions are reached by Doctor Ellsworth Huntington of Yale, and are a result of a study of about 900,000 deaths in New York city in connection with the weather on the day of death. The peculiarities seem to apply to all seasons. Variety in the weather is healthful and stimulating, and it is believed that some variability is as essential as proper humidity.

Cement for China.
Mix a cupful of milk with a cupful of vinegar; separate curd from whey with the whites of five eggs, beating the whole thoroughly together. When it is well mixed sift in a little quicklime and stir until it is of the consistency of thick paste. With this broken china, glass and cracks of all kinds may be mended. It dries quickly and resists the action of water and heat.
