PROMINENT GREEK GENERALS ARRESTED AT ATHENS TODAY ONE COMMANDER OF ARMY

WAS ALSO WITNESS

In the Trial of Cabinet Members
Who Were Executed
Tuesday

(By The Associated Press)
LONDON, Nov. 30.—A Reuter's dispatch from Athens says Generals Papoulas, Dousmanis and Valettas have been arrested. Dousmanis is one of the most prominent military figures in Greece. He has served as chief of the general staff and last September was appointed commander-in-chief of the army in its last unsuccessful attempt to stem the tide of the Turkish advance. Papoulas was also a former commander in the Greek army, and was reported on last September to have joined the Casso revolutionaries, was called as a witness with the trial cabinet members, six of whom were executed on Tuesday.

LONDON, Nov. 30.—It is reported here that a Turkish revolt, accompanied by violent fighting at some places, has broken out in Western Thrace.

The correspondent of the Times at Constantinople telegraphs that he hears the insurgents are masters of the situation and that an armed band of 5,000 having machine guns is marching towards Dedegatch and demanding the holding of a plebiscite.

A despatch to the Daily Express from Constantinople describes the situation as dramatic and chaotic. It adds that not only are the Turks reported to have revolted but that bands of Bulgarians and Macedonians have crossed the frontiers.

ROME, Nov. 30.—Indignation over the execution of the Greek ministers is growing and several deputies presented interrogations in the chamber today to ascertain the attitude of the government and to make public protest against this action by the Greek authorities.

Deputy Galli, who has done everything possible during 50 years of political life to contribute to the unity and greatness of Greece, has returned the decorations which he received from Athens and has requested that his name be removed from the street which the municipal authorities named after him. Other prominent Italians have followed suit.

Coincidentally, the new Greek minister to Italy, M. Colerigi, presented his credentials at the foreign ministry today.

New Capital Building Ready For Legislature

TALLAHASSEE, Nov. 30.—Contractors in charge of additions to the state capital declare the work will be completed some time before the convening of the Legislature next summer although they are far behind their schedule because of delay in the delivery of building material.

Both the new house and senate chambers have advanced to the stage where they are ready for the decorators to go to work on the interiors and a force of workmen is repainting and working over the furniture from the old chambers which will be installed in the new rooms. It was the original intention to place new furniture in the chambers but bids for supplying it were so high the board in charge determined to use the old equipment.

The old House chamber is being converted into a series of committee rooms.

WITH SCHOONER IN DENSE FOG,
NO LIVES LOST.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 30.—The Pacific Mail passenger ship Newport, carrying 100 passengers, bound from San Francisco for Central American points, collided with the steam schooner Svea amidships, plowing into the hold of the schooner off Point San Luis, according to radio messages received here. The Newport was able to proceed under her own steam. The accident occurred in a dense fog.

Jimmy Thornton, the popular representative of the S. P. Richards Co., of Atlanta, was in the city today calling on the local paper and stationery trade. Jimmy is like the printers—he never has a vacation.

DISMISS MURDER CHARGE AGAINST MRS. A. SHIELDS

DELAND, Nov. 30.—Mrs. Alice Shields was at liberty today after having been in the Volusia county jail here since last February in connection with the slaying of her husband William A. Shields, formerly of Moline, Ill. The charge of murder in the first degree lodged against Mrs. Shields was nolle prossed by the district attorney who informed Circuit Judge Perkins, the prosecution had found it impossible to bring the principal witnesses into court as they were out of the state. Mrs. Shields was to have been tried this week.

DELAND, Fla., Nov. 30.—The charge of murder against Mrs. Alice F. Shields in connection with the death of her husband last February was nolle prossed by Circuit Judge J. W. Perkins today at the motion of State's Attorney Decottes.

The state attorney told the court that he could not muster out of state witnesses evidence necessary for his case.

Mrs. Shields was released from custody late this afternoon. She had been confined in jail since a few weeks after her husband, E. G. Shields, was killed while the couple were enroute to their home a few miles from here.

Dismissal of the charge against her today concluded a case to which unusual interest had attached because of the manner in which she was brought into the affair. Her arrest followed an investigation by the Ku Klux Klan.

The killing occurred at night as the couple rode along the road in a horse-drawn wagon. An aged negro employed by Shields was arrested and charged with having ambushed Shields. Subsequently, Mrs. Shields wrote a letter to the headquarters of the Ku Klux Klan in Atlanta, complaining against the treatment she had received at the hands of authorities and asked that the negro under arrest be summarily handled by the Klan. The Klan through members in this section conducted a secret investigation and upon its conclusion wrote State's Attorney Decottes that if he would meet a Klansman in an Orlando hotel, he would be given a solution to the Shields murder. Mrs. Shields had in the meantime gone to relatives at St. Cloud, near Orlando.

The state attorney followed out the instructions of the letter, met the Klansman, and in company of other Klansmen was conducted into the presence of Mrs. Shields at St. Cloud. She was subjected to a lengthy questioning, and on the information gathered

Thanksgiving Proclamation

To The People of the United States at Large—

Greetings:

This is the season of Thanksgiving and it would seem that the people of Seminole County have so much for which to be thankful that a public expression would be seemly, timely and absolutely necessary to express our appreciation for all the good things, for all the blessings, for all the bounteous prosperity that has come to us during the year 1922.

In the smiling valleys of the St. Johns river all is peace and happiness and the cold weather has not only assisted the lettuce growers in many ways but it has helped win the battle against the winged warriors that sing in the night and carry spears—you know what we mean—and this glorious winter weather is typical of Thanksgiving in many ways and brings to our minds the old days of the Pilgrim Fathers when the deep snows covered the ground and the Indians lurked in the woods, only there is no snow in the woods here in Florida and the Indians are now peacefully inclined and have moved into the shadows of the Everglades where their white brothers are looking after their welfare.

The bright prospects for a big winter season, the fine prospects for the farmer and fruit grower, the great developments being made and contemplated for the coming year all make the citizens of this greatly favored county feel that the day of Thanksgiving not only comes on the 30th of November but really should be observed every day in the year and into this wonderful part of the worldly paradise we hereby invite the people to come and enjoy our incomparable climate, our fruits and vegetables, our rivers and lakes, our golf links, our hotels and our city and county generally. You will then appreciate the full significance of Thanksgiving Day.

Engine Shops and Roundhouse A. C. L. Go Up in Flames

TAMPA, Nov. 29.—Fire of an unknown origin somewhere in the blacksmith shop, about 9 o'clock last night, totally destroyed the Atlantic Coast Line's engine shops, round house, one locomotive, office and new storeroom and oil house at Port Tampa.

The fire did not extend to the engine shops, which are larger than the engine shops. No Atlantic Coast Line official could estimate the loss last night, but including the locomotive and valuable machinery in the shop, the damage is believed to be roughly $150,000 or more.

The engine shops were located north of the end of the street car line, across the yards, and east of the head of the canal. Atlantic Coast Line employees organized as fire fighters were unable to save the buildings, but kept the flames from spreading farther and had the fire under control by 11 o'clock.

All locomotives in the vicinity were saved except one which was under repair. Lathes and all other expensive machinery were destroyed, but the car shed, coal chute and other property nearby were saved. The burned buildings were of frame construction.

The oil tanks continued burning late last night, but the fire was believed to be safely under control. The location of the fire was a safe distance from the Standard Oil Company and other big oil storage tanks, all reported safe, and still farther from the phosphate elevators.

ered by the Klan was placed under arrest.

The exact nature of the investigation at that time has never been revealed, but the state attorney held the assurance of the Klansmen present that they would appear as witnesses at the trial if necessary.

The negro was released shortly after Mrs. Shields' arrest. The woman was called up for trial at the spring term of court but a continuance was granted the state because of the inability to bring witnesses removed from the state, to Deland;

TEXARKANA, Texas, Nov. 30.—Apparently beaten to death with a blunt instrument, the body of High Throckmorton, drug clerk, of Wilton, Ark., was found in Little River, one mile and a half from the home of Tom Owens, who had already been arrested in connection with Throckmorton's disappearance last Thursday.

Plucky Teacher To Bear Scars of Her Heroism for Life

ATLANTA, Nov. 30.—Mrs. Oscar Grant, the plucky little school teacher who saved about 40 children by dropping them from a second story window when the High Point community school was destroyed by fire yesterday, before she was overcome, lay in a local hospital today, swathed in bandages. She probably will bear scars from the burns for life, according to physicians.

"I don't know how I did it," she told newspapermen. "I just knew those crying children were in danger

KIWANIANS COMPLIMENT THE HERALD

An extra large attendance graced the meeting of the Kiwanis Club at the Palm Room of the Hotel Valdez yesterday and sat down to a real banquet. Secretary Lloyd's remarks to the management of the Grill evidently produced results as the menu provided was all that could be wished for.

Rev. Father Peck, who was present as a guest, asked a blessing on the deliberations of the Kiwanians and later made a few remarks along the line of civic improvement and civic pride. He was well up on this subject, which is a hobby with him and his talk made a deep impression on the members of the club who enthusiastically applauded him at its conclusion.

Prof. Lawton spoke on "Educational Week" which will be observed all over the United States. The slogan adopted for this movement is "Visit the Schools," and Prof. Lawton extended a cordial invitation to the members of the club to visit the schools of the city during this week.

Kiwanian Ed. Lane, chairman of the sign committee, reported that the handsome new Kiwanian signs were now being placed on all the highways entering the city. He stated that he had secured a number of signers to a petition to the city commission asking that the Kiwanis Club be granted a park license for the coming year, but after discussing the matter and on the club decided to pass it up for the present.

Judge Schelle Maines presented the following resolution which was unanimously adopted:

"Whereas, the Herald Printing Co., of which Kiwanian H. A. Neel is a most important factor, realizing the immediate growth of the City of Sanford, have installed a printing plant that is a credit to a city three the size of the City of Sanford, but only such a plant as will be required to meet the needs of the City of Sanford within a very short while, and

"Whereas, in keeping with the progress of the City of Sanford, the Sanford Daily and Weekly Herald have been increased in size and volume, and

"Whereas, on Tuesday, November 28th, 1922, the Thanksgiving Edition of the Sanford Daily Herald was published and presented the appearance of a metropolitan Daily, showing to the people of the City of Sanford, Seminole County and to the world, the magnificent improvement this enterprising printing company has made in its plant and newspaper, which is only an indication of the progressive improvements being made in the commercial and civic life of the City of Sanford,

Therefore, Be It Resolved; that the Kiwanis Club, being BUILDERS in fact as well as in name, feeling it a duty to recognize the efforts of its members and others in progressive building and appreciating the Sanford Daily and Weekly Herald, does congratulate Kiwanian H. A. Neel and through him the members and employees of the Herald Printing Company, and through it, in the Sanford Daily and Weekly Herald, the people of the City of Sanford and Seminole County, Florida, on the improvements made in "our own newspapers" and especially on the appearance of the Thanksgiving Edition of the Sanford Daily Herald, and

"Be it further resolved that a copy of this resolution be spread upon the minutes of this meeting, and a copy be furnished to the Herald Printing Co., for its information and for publication."

and I stayed in the room as long as I could. I had a hard time making them jump out of the window."

Mrs. Grant said the two boys who met death had refused to make the jump from the window and, "racing about the room, became lost in the dense smoke."

OVER THE DYER ANTI- LYNCHING BILL WHILE EATING TURKEY

SUSPEND TODAY

President Works Little And Will Spend the Day With Sick Wife

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Nov. 30.—Congress, with the House having passed the shipping bill and the Senate still in quandaries on the Democratic filibuster on the Dyer anti-lynching bill, has suspended activities on other branches of the Federal government over Thanksgiving. At the White House also, President Harding planned to do only a little work during the day, intending to spend the remainder quietly after having dinner with Mrs. Harding in her sick room. There was no end of the Democratic filibuster in sight when the Senate adjourned.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30.—The administration shipping bill, around which was waged the most bitter partisan fight of the present congress, was passed today by the House with 24 votes to spare. The final count was 208 to 184.

Sixty-nine Republicans broke away from the party organization and opposed the bill, while four Democrats supported it.

There never was much doubt about the result, but the margin by which it went through was much lower than estimates publicly given by most of the leaders. It was, however, just about what they figured on privately.

In the face of threats to delay, if not prevent its passage by the Senate, the measure will go Monday to the Senate committee, which plans to accept it as passed by the House and take the fight to the floor next week.

Chairman Greene, of the merchant marine committee, and Representative Edmons, Pennsylvania, ranking Republican, who shouldered the fight through the House, declared tonight that despite amendments, the measure would pave the way for putting the American flag at a high place on the seas. The general view on both sides that had an attempt been made to pass it as framed, it would have been swept to overwhelming defeat.

There was a shout of approval on the Republican side when the final vote was announced, but it was not half so hearty as that given Representative Mondell, of Wyoming, the Republican leader, who, in a closing address, pleaded earnestly with his party to stand behind the President and give the bill a sweeping majority. Mr. Mondell had the last word, and every one of the 204 Republicans who voted for it got up and cheered.

As passed by the House, no line was left in the bill relating to the subject of liquor selling on American ships, for when the question was reached yesterday in the committee of the whole, the Bankhead out-and-out prohibition amendment was put aside and a substitute offered by Mr. Edmons accepted. It stipulated that a ship, if on a particular voyage, permitted the transportation of liquor, it could not share in a subsidy for that voyage.

The Edmons amendment went out on a demand for a separate vote for the House by Representative Crampton, Republican, Michigan, an advocate of prohibition enforcement, who contended that it was not as strong as existing law and might be construed by some as wiping out the present statute. Mr. Edmons himself voted for the Crampton proposal, against which there were only a handful of scattering votes.

PLANT SALE ON SATURDAY OF THIS WEEK

HELP TO MAKE SEMINOLE COUNTY THE MOST BEAUTIFUL

Be sure to plan to go the Woman's Club plant sale Saturday. There may be some things there that you will want for your garden—there is sure to be a warm welcome, and some interesting garden talk. If you have roses, fallage plants or fall blooming flowers, be sure to take a basket or vase, no matter whether you think they may take a prize or not. We folks have a wonderful county—this Seminole, and the more we realize this, and the prouder we are of the fact the better for all of us and our children, and the strangers who are daily thronging in to cast their lot with us. Try your beautiful flowers—let us look our possibilities in the face, and see if we cannot build up into wonderful beauty our county that is already so wonderful in the more practical side of horticulture. Bring your flowers—if you happen to have something remarkable in the way of a fruit or vegetable, bring that. Who knows but that from some small beginning we may work up an annual event that all may look forward to and work up to.

to make either of their teams champions. Sport circles declared it was not the fault of the athletes that better records were not made, but lack of proper and scientific training. That this criticism has not fallen on deaf ears is indicated by the report that the sport clubs of virtually every country participating in the Ito program are already searching for capable trainers in all of the principal lines of athletics.

PRIVATE BANK OPENS UP FOR BUSINESS IN RUSSIA

MOSCOW, Nov. 29.—The first private bank in Soviet Russia, the Russian Commercial Bank, begins operations this month.

This bank has been organized as a trade bank by H. Aghberg, a Swedish financier, with the aid of American and German capital. The Russian state bank of Moscow has one member on the board and participates in the capital to the extent of 10 per cent. The founders of the bank do not intend to finance industry, but will assist in the organization of several limited companies with foreign capital for the development of vital industries.

For the purpose of banking operations in Germany a special bank, The Guaranty and Credit Bank for the East, is being organized in Berlin with the aid of the Russian state bank, through which all operations of the new Commercial Bank will pass.

REASONS FOR GIVING THANKS

As a Nation, the American People Has Ample Cause for Rejoicing at This Period.

It is three hundred years since Thanksgiving day was first celebrated on the American continent. The Pilgrim band, though they had lost half their numbers during the first winter at Plymouth, and though they were beset by hardships and by the fear of their savage neighbors, found in the survival of the little colony and in the hope of a gradually ameliorating lot just cause for thanksgiving to God. Have we, who have inherited the institutions and the spiritual ideals that they labored to establish, less reason than they to be thankful?

Like the other nations of the world the United States has reached a great social and political crisis. We have passed through a great war, and we begin to feel the burden of debt and disaster that the war laid upon mankind. Our trade is disarranged; neither financially nor economically are we so prosperous as we are wont to be. We are a little afraid of the future, for we have been shaken out of the easy and comfortable confidence in our own efficiency in which we have been used to live.

But great material prosperity is not always a matter for thanksgiving. It sometimes softens and dissipates the strength and virtue of a nation. Perhaps nations like men should echo the prayer of Agur: "Give me neither poverty nor riches." We have enough and, like the Pilgrims, we can reasonably hope for an increasing store of comforts in the coming years. Is there not ample cause for thanksgiving in the fact that, although the nation has been tried by adversity and loss and assailed by doubt and misgivings, it shows no sign of losing its heart or its head? The gospel of hard work and cheerful courage still counts most Americans as its adherents. We are working our way out of the depression that the war caused.

We do not thank God because our way is the way of fitness and of peace, but because, in the time of testing and trial, our people are able to quit themselves like men.—Youth's Companion.

THE BLESSED

By Nancy Byrd Turner

November darkens to its close, They kneel beside their flickering hearth; Without the little wistful rose Is drooping toward the barren earth. A frost had bitten the April fruit, A might had seared the summer corn, Flurry had had addition to the root The golden barley, overborne.

"But oh," he cries, "I love you, sweet! What shall we reck of wind or weather So long as we are surely meet! The sunshine and the storm together!"

Her meager little garden prayed All long July for quenching rain; The red-eyed cattle left the shade To seek their cooling creek in vain; The flowers that her hands had cherished, That made the borders beautiful bright, They bowed their lovely heads and perished.

Her tears had fallen at the sight "But oh," she breathes, "I love you, dear! It cannot truly matter whether We gain the year or lose the year, Just so we live the year together."

Then on the hearth a sunset falls And breaks to sudden leaping light; A cricket in a corner calls; Slow silence deepens down the night. The circle of his young arm makes A shelter where the dark had been; The old clock on the mantel wakes And cries "Thanksgiving in.—Youth's Companion.

"Chances Poor" For Motor Cars in China

PEKING, Nov. 28.—The degree of prosperity which enables American farmers to buy automobiles has not yet reached China. An American automobile company instructed its Peking agent to report on the prospects of selling their machines in the rural districts of China. The agent, after a careful survey of Chihli Province, in which Peking is located, replied: "Chances poor. The average gross earnings for a year's farming in this province is $60 in gold." Added to this difficulty, the agent said, there are few country roads in China.

In Peking the average income of a man who pulls a rickshaw ten hours a day, seven days a week is $9 per month.

FARMER CO-OPERATIVES TO SEEK LEGISLATION

(By The Associated Press)
DALLAS, Texas, Nov. 29.—The meeting of the National Council of Farmers Co-operatives, to be held in Washington December 14 to 16, is the result of a common desire on the part of the co-operative marketing organizations throughout the United States to obtain national legislation on rural credits and the same desire on the part of leaders in Congress in enacting into a law a rural credits bill that will meet the need of agriculture, according to C. O. Moser of the Texas Farm Bureau, and member of the council.

Virtually one-sixth of all the agricultural commodities of the United States now are sold co-operatively, he said, and the success or failure of such institutions is a matter of great national concern. There are now approximately 150 such organizations doing an annual business in excess of a billion dollars.

The conference, while designed chiefly to confer with the national leaders in congress in the matter of the financial legislation, will discuss other proper needs of agricultural credit, both from the standpoint of livestock and crop production and of marketing.

Representatives of virtually all of the large co-operative marketing associations will be present and participate in the conference, including the California fruit groups, the apple organizations of the Northwest, the wheat organizations of the North and Middle-west, the potato organizations of Maine, Michigan, New York and Wisconsin, the milk organizations of New England and Chicago as well as the perishable associations in the southern states, including those of Florida. This will include as well the co-operatives in the south of rice, tobacco and cotton.

SOUTH AMERICA SEEKING CAPABLE ATHLETIC TRAINERS

(By The Associated Press)
RIO DE JANEIRO, Nov. 29.—The South American and Olympic Games Football Championship series proved one of the most attractive features of the Brazilian Centennial Celebration. About five hundred athletes from Argentina, Chile, Uruguay, Paraguay and Brazil came here to participate.

The field meet events and football games took place in the huge stadium of the Fluminense Football Club, and during the major events the stands were filled to their capacity, which is 60,000 persons. The football games, especially, were the means of attracting enormous numbers of fans who constituted colorful and animated pictures of gay enthusiasm.

Every participating country showed special development in some lines of sport or athletics. Chile, for example, easily took first place in all of the distance foot races, the Chilean runner Plaza winning both the Marathon (40 kilometers) and the Cross Country (10 kilometers). Argentina excelled in the shorter races, the hurdles and the relay races. Brazil captured all the aquatics, rowing, swimming and water polo. Willy Scowald, Brazil, broke all South American records throwing the javelin.

Argentina and Chile broke about even in shooting, fencing and horsemanship, leading all other contestants. Although Brazil won the championship, Uruguay and Paraguay showed themselves football players of the first quality. A break of luck would have been sufficient

And the Herald force will have two hours for dinner today while the rest of the world has the whole live-long day.

Florida has passed last year's citrus record, says the reports on the fruit. And we hope that Florida will pass last year's record on prices.

Turkey is not so much when you come to think of it. Just a good fat hen is good enough and will make a mighty fine meal even on Thanksgiving Day.

All is not peace and turkey in the world today and all is not peace in Turkey, either. It begins to look as though Europe would again be torn with war despite the disarmament.

Never heard of that town, "Smackover" in Louisiana until the report came in about the riot out there yesterday but they seem to have put it smackover at that.

Cousins, of Detroit, has been named to take the place of Senator Newberry. We hope that Cousins will not develop into the stepchild that Newberry did.

Golf is a fine game if the man who invented it would invent some plan for a busy man to get away from his office in order to play golf. Just how this is done is what is worrying most of us who would like to play golf every day or so.

That brave little school teacher in Georgia who braved the flames to rescue the children in the burning school house should be rewarded in such a manner that she would know high acts are appreciated by the public.

No, Pauline, the Daily Herald is not taking a vacation today. We might have a little time to eat dinner, but not any vacation like other folks. We lead a different life from the common herd it would seem—perhaps a hard life, but it has its bright spots.

England now says that since other nations are not scrapping their battleships she will stop scrapping hers until there is more scrapping all along the line, which probably means that all scrapping of battleships will stop and some real scrapping will soon commence in Europe.

We would like to see the "barnyard golfers" getting busy on the vacant Merryweather lot on Magnolia avenue. There is nothing like having all these amusements for the tourists and this lot is a sunny one and sheltered from the cold winds of what few days in winter when there might be cold winds. It will make an ideal place for tourist pastimes.

The Sanford Daily Herald was too busy getting in new equipment and changing over to a seven-column paper to enter the contest of newspapers put on by the University of Florida this year but we hasten to congratulate the winners and hope to be in the contest next year. Last year we were one of the winners in the six-column contest.

The editor of the Herald wishes to thank the Kiwanis Club for their expressions of appreciation of the efforts of the Herald to give the people a real daily paper. The Kiwanis Club knows what we are doing and tells the world about it. The Kiwanis Club has been unusually nice to the Herald and we take this occasion to thank them for their kind expression today and upon many other days. They are helping us "to build."

A THANKSGIVING DAY BIBLE THOUGHT

Song of Thanksgiving—Oh that men would praise the Lord for His goodness, and for His wonderful works to the children of men!

come, let us sing unto the Lord; let us come before His presence with thanksgiving. For He is our God, and we are the people of His pasture.—Psa. 107:25; 8:1, 2, 7.

THANKSGIVIN' THOUGHTS

Thanksgiving day is the day, to go to your mother with hair as white as snow, And give her a hug and a good hard kiss And tell her there's nothing so good as this; To poke your feet 'neath the table there, With its wealth of good things rich and rare, With its turkey a mountain of juicy joy And the cranberry sauce. You feel like a boy, And it makes her smile just to see you eat And rub your stomach and shuffle your feet, Oh, banquet feast for the moneyed king And cafes swell for the clubman's fling, And everyone to his taste—but gee—It's the old home dinner for such as me. And the father's blessing—and the mother's smile—That makes Thanksgiving day worth while. —P. H. A., in Times-Union.

CAUSE FOR THANKFULNESS

We have so much for which to be thankful that regardless of our trial and tribulations there is never a year passes that we should not find cause for Thanksgiving and to pause and give thanks to Him from whom all blessings flow. Despite the sorrow and ill to which all human flesh is heir there is so much of goodness and so much bounty showered upon all living beings in this great country of America that there are few that can not today give thanks with hearts filled with praise for the joy of being permitted to live in America.

There are so many foreign countries today in which there will be little joys for blessings of humanity for many are starving to death, many are being ruthlessly slaughtered many do not even know the meaning of Thanksgiving and only America has made this custom great and it would seem that only America can really celebrate it in the manner that is fitting, for in America beats the great heart of humanity that only lives to right the wrongs and to benefit mankind in general.

The whole nation today has many causes for thanksgiving and in Florida and in Sanford and Seminole county we can certainly "count our blessings, one by one" and feel that God has been good to us in so many ways and on this great day we should pause and remember the Giver of All Things. We all have our joys and our sorrows, but it does seem that in this great country in which we live that the joys predominate and even with our burdens we can always look around and see the people of other nations that are burdened beyond any comparison with the people of this great country—the land of the free—in every respect. And on this great day—this typical American day, Thanksgiving Day—let us remember our blessings and give due thanks for all of them with the hope and prayer that this bounteous harvest will continue and that we shall continue to merit it in order to receive it.

NEWSPAPERS WORTHY OF BETTER SUPPORT

"Florida newspapers show a spirit of service to their communities and to their state which make them worthy of the best support that can be given them," is the opinion of Professor M. V. Atwood, of the New York State College of Agriculture at Cornell University, Ithaca, N. Y., himself the publisher of a community newspaper. This statement was made by Mr. Atwood in announcing the winners in the second annual State Newspaper Contest conducted by the General Extension Division of the University of Florida as one feature of the University State Fair Exhibit at Jacksonville, which closed last week. B. C. Riley, Extension Director, arranged with Mr. Atwood to come South to judge the contest because the New York State College of Agriculture has been a leader in the interest of country newspapers. Last year's contest was judged by Prof. Bristow Adams, also of Cornell.

In announcing his awards, Mr. Atwood pointed out the obvious difficulties in making decisions which would please all or even impress them as fair. He was, however, as a resident of another state, able to go at his work without bias, actuated only by a desire to rank the papers as his experience and judgment dictated.

There were classes for weeklies, with three ribbons for each class, and for six-column and seven-column dailies, with a single award only in each class for the dailies. The contest was open to all daily, weekly, and They're takin' home the makin' Of the "pukin'" pie so fine; That's served to us Thanksgiving' day When we sit down to dine. An' our mouths can't help but water, As we think o' days gone by; When we would sink our teeth into A "hunk" o' mother's pie.

They're takin' home the spirit Of the great world out o' doors; When the shocks with "fodder" overflow An' peace rests on our shores. So we're thankful for the mercies That are heapin' on us high; But we'd be far more thankful For a "hunk" o' mother's pie.

Sunday Blue Laws In Jax May Stop the Shows, 'Tis Said

semi-weekly papers of the state. The full list of awards follows: For the weeklies: For front page make-up—First, The Plant City Courier; second, The Highlands County Pilot of Avon Park, third, the Fort Pierce News-Tribune.

For editorial page—First, The Fort Lauderdale Herald; second, The Plant City Courier; third, The Clearwater Press.

For handling of farm news—First, The Highlands County Pilot; second, The Florida Advocate of Wauchula; third, The Mulberry Press.

For best all-around weekly—First, The Florida Advocate; second, The Avondale Enterprise; third, The St. Augustine Democrat, of Live Oak.

Of the weeklies, the Plant City Courier thus won two ribbons, a first and a second; the Highlands County Pilot won two, a first and a second, while the Florida Advocate likewise carried off two, a first and a second.

The awards for the six-column dailies: For front page make-up, The Gainesville Sun; for editorial page, The Clearwater News; for handling farm news, The Bradentown Herald; for best all-around paper, The Gainesville Sun.

For seven-column dailies: The Miami Herald swept all four classes, as it did last year.

Mr. Atwood points out that if any of the above awards seem quite contrary to the generally recognized merits of papers it may either be the result of a difference of opinion on the basis for judging or because some publisher has made up what might be called a "show paper" of an excellence far above his average.

Vice President of Council Says Must Treat All Alike

JACKSONVILLE, Nov. 30.—The question of extending the enforcement of the Blue Sunday laws to embrace moving picture and vaudeville theatres in this city, has been advanced by Lucy Mahon, vice president of the city council, because of the council's refusal to permit a merry-go-round to operate on the Sabbath. Mr. Mahon says it's a case of rank discrimination—the manner in which Blue Sunday laws are enforced.

A sizeable movement has apparently developed for a far-flung enforcement with Mahon at the head. He promises to speak in every church in the city in what he declares to be a war to bring Sunday movies and vaudeville houses under the ban. Already the opposing forces have squared off through the resurrection of a court opinion handed down several years ago.

This opinion involved the constitutionality, it seems, of a city ordinance prohibiting the operation of certain amusements and business on Sunday, but just which side of the present controversy finds support in the decision is still moot. Both claim to favor.

RIGHT WAY TO GET STRENGTH

Real Lasting Health, Strength, Energy and Vitality Must Be Built Up Through the Stomach

So many folks who are reaching for that "something" to revive their wasted strength and endurance often are led to believe that all they need to do is to take some one of the many things they hear of, which promise to put "nerve force" into their blood.

They don't realize that they must get real, lasting strength and endurance by getting their stomach and intestines in shape to get the iron and vitamins out of the food they eat, and into their blood.

That's where the secret of health, strength and endurance is. In your food. If your stomach and intestines can't digest, assimilate and eliminate properly the food you eat, you can't hope to regain your health, energy and endurance, no matter what you take. Thousands of run-down folks are putting their stomach in shape by using the new medicine known as RE-CU-MA, and soon notice that they become free from the terrors of pain, can stand long walks, harder work and really enjoy life. That's because RE-CU-MA causes the food they eat to begin immediately making rich red blood to carry nourishment to their nerves, tissue and brain, and make them healthy, robust, rosy checked and strong.

RE-CU-MA is sold in Sanford by the Union Pharmacy and the leading druggists in every city.—Adv.

OUTSIDE NATIONS MUST RULE TURKS TO BRING PEACE

Who should rule in the Ottoman Empire with its population of mixed races—Turk, Greek, Armenian? Robert Dunn, former Aide for Intelligence to the U. S. High Commissioner at Constantinople, in an article in McClure's Magazine for December, "The Big Idea for Turkey," quotes official statements of the American High Commissioner that none of the Near East races is fit for self-government. Says one report: "Among this would-be class of rulers have demonstrated their utter worthlessness. Armenians in Russian Armenia have shown how little can be expected of them. The attempt of the Greeks in Smyrna has produced continual bloodshed."

"There is no evidence," Mr. Dunn observes, "that the Armenian race, living its normal life, is in the least superior in morals, intelligence or ability in government to the Turanian, Tartar or Russian Aryan."

"No part of the old Turkish or Russian empires, except parts of Arabia occupied by Arab tribes, comprises a majority of any one race, except in isolated spots. For the last four years the American High Commissioner, Rear-Admiral Mark L. Bristol, U. S. N., has advocated good government for the entire old Ottoman Empire, including Mesopotamia; and this without any partition whatsoever, either for the benefit of individual European nations or for particular racial claims. He has advised that Turkish administration be abolished everywhere, and that the entire country be placed under an administration according to modern and civilized ideas.

"Such a government must be supplied by some European nation or by America, and it must take over Turkey with all its former boundaries. It must give the people universal education and absolute freedom of religious belief. Finally, when they are sufficiently educated to know how to vote, they should be allowed to ballot for the determination of the boundaries of such autonomous states as they desire, under the form of government that they decide upon.

"That is the big idea. England could do it. She has the trained administrators. But she could not at present carry the burden in money and men. America could do it. She has the financial power, and if she lacks the trained administrators, she could develop them.

"But America does not know the facts of the situation; like Europe, she has been long and woefully deceived about them. And America is far away and does not care."

Moonshine Still Exploded, Killing Several People

HUNDRED GALLON STILL CUTS LOOSE IN PHILADELPHIA.

(By The Associated Press) PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Nov. 29.—Three men are dead and six injured as the result of the explosion of a 100-gallon still in a stable here last night. A partially loaded motor truck standing in front of the building when firemen arrived, was aflame and muffled explosions were coming from containers that held in the aggregate 500 gallons of moonshine.

Fruit Market May Be Oversold With Citrus Products

A further upturn in citrus prices in the New York market yesterday with steadiness shown at the new higher levels in other markets, is giving rise to speculation as to whether oranges and grapefruit have been oversold as far as the movement for the Christmas market is concerned.

The lack of improvement in color and maturity, it is said, probably will operate to hold back the movement of a considerable volume of fruit which was earlier anticipated would be ready for movement by that time. In fact, it is said that all the packing houses in the state now probably will be unable to move out a sufficient volume of good, mature fruit between this time and December 15, the last date for Christmas shipments, to fill outstanding contracts and the current demand for fruit. If this be true, it argues well for a strong market for the Christmas trade.

The outstanding feature in the New York market the last two days has been the strength in the demand for good oranges and the prices paid by the purchasers there. The sympathetic rise in f. o. b. prices as a sequence is said to be a very gratifying prospect for Florida shippers, except where there are outstanding contracts for oranges for Christmas shipment which have been made recently on a low price basis. Such contracts, of course, will mean a direct loss to those shippers who made them, in the face of higher f. o. b. prices prevailing.

There are said to be a considerable number of such contracts made by a few who were unduly pessimistic a short time ago. Most of these contracts are said to have been made in southern territory, where Christmas trade in oranges is a big annual feature. Some contracts are said to be in existence guaranteeing the delivery of such Christmas oranges for as low as two dollars and twenty-five cents f. o. b. per box. Only a very few shippers in the state are said to have been thus pessimistic and to have made contracts on such a low basis, but the punishment of those who are compelled to fill these contracts with fruit then worth considerably more, it is said, is likely to be severe.

Interviews with several leading factors in the citrus business, here brought the statement that they had no knowledge of any local shippers who were thus committed to low-priced contracts, but advices from the southeastern states indicated the existence of such contracts from some source, aggregating probably several hundred cars.

With the cooler weather fruit is carrying nicely and arriving in the markets in wholly sound condition. This, together with the inability of the packing houses right now to secure sufficient volume of fruit mature enough to meet the market requirements, has operated to create a new price basis, and to lift quotations out of the recent easy levels. It is declared that the time remaining now for Christmas shipments is so short there is little hope for those who went "bear" on the Christmas market and they will have to take their punishment.—Orlando Sentinel.

MAN'S JUDGMENT OF WOMEN

Real Truth, Though Long Known, is Here Published Absolutely for the First Time.

A man notices, first a woman's face, second her skirt, third her shoes and fourth her hands. He rarely sees her hat, but probably feels it. He gets the effect of it unconsciously.

Mentally, a man is first conscious of a woman's eyes, second her voice. Beyond these two his curiosity doesn't go. But if her voice shows too much of the clever or the intellectual he begins to back off, and then probeg her eyes to see whether they belie her voice or not.

A woman's eyes often do this same thing. Her voice may say, "I am very highbrow," while her eyes are saying, "Don't you believe it!" This is the way, all over the world, men are judging women and have always judged them. But it is a great secret. Nobody knows it but a very few people who have solemnly agreed never to divulge it.

It is so universal among all men that they are quite unconscious about it.

It is here published for the first time, thus violating tradition and custom, which declare that what everybody knows should never be revealed.—Thomas L. Masson in the New York Sun.

TREES LINE MEMORIAL ROAD

People of Pennsylvania County Have Worthily Paid Tribute to Fallen Soldier Heroes.

York county, Pennsylvania, has the honor of possessing the largest stretch of road lined with memorial trees in memory of the fallen heroes in the great war in the country. The trees, numbering several thousand, have been in course of planting for two years under the auspices of the York Woman's club. They extend in a continuous line on both sides of the Lincoln highway entirely across the county. Two tablets, at either end of the 25-mile thoroughfare, were recently unveiled and dedicated. At the exercises a letter from Mrs. Warren O. Harding was received by the Woman's club, in which she said: "In the planting of 25 miles of that famous highway, you have erected a memorial that the entire country can enjoy in the years to come. May long life attend the trees you have placed in the care of the Lincoln Highway Memorial and Tribute Tree association."

Every tree is worked with the name of a Pennsylvania soldier who gave his life in the war, and the trees have been registered with the American Forestry association.

Some Water Power.

Thirty-one per cent of all water power in this country is on sites within the national forests, while all that on sites outside the national forests is dependent upon water arising in them, says the American Forestry association, which is fighting to keep the control of these forests out of the hands of the Interior department. The western mountains contain 72 per cent of our total potential water power and of this, 42 per cent is in the western forests. This power is being rapidly developed. The United States forest service has in force 174 power transmission lines and 107 power projects, with minimum discharge capacity of 800,000 horse power.

The Daring Dinner Gown.

"The late Mrs. George Gould," said a New York woman, "dressed beautifully, but she never dressed daringly. She didn't approve of daring dress."

"Mrs. Gould entertained an Englishwoman at her Lakewood place last year. This Englishwoman was very lovely. Very ultra, too.

"I was invited to dinner to meet her. She is an athlete, you know—a swimmer, a barefoot dancer, a polo player and all that sort of thing. As she passed down the long salon of Georgian court in a marvelous dinner gown I said to Mrs. Gould: "Oh, her figure is too divine."

"I think," said Mrs. Gould, "it's too divivable."

Old Sea Captain Vanishes.

Among the sea's mysteries there is none more interesting than the fate of Capt. Joshua Slocum of Fairhaven, Mass.

Captain Slocum, a retired sea captain sailed around the world in a small boat, with an old clock by way of a chronometer, and not even a dog for companionship.

Captain Slocum completed his three-year trip in 1898, rested for ten years, and then took to sea again in his thirty-six-foot Spray. He was never heard of afterward.

Ostriches by Parcel Post.

From the southeastern corner of the United States in the Florida peninsula to the far northwestern corner in the state of Washington, probably the longest straight-line distance that can be traveled in the continental limits of the country, two baby ostriches were brought to their destination alive and kicking through the medium of the parcel post. The ostrich "peeps" were about the size of full-grown brown Leghorn hens.

NEW SMYRNA WINS FROM NEW SMYRNA SLOW GAME OF BASKET BALL

Sanford High School girls won game of basket ball at New Smyrna last night with the score of 12 in what was said to be a very game with no thrills and but "pep" exhibited on either side. The court was an open one and had a recent coating of soft clay. The going very heavy and predicted a fast work. The New Smyrna girls seemed to be outclassed from the very start, although they had a fine record at first and it seemed like the Sanford girls understanding them, would lose the game. However, the Sanford girls came back so strong that New Smyrna could not get it over. The game started and there was good work on the side of Sanford. It was slow at that, according to spectators.

Many of the contests will be the most important of the year and in addition to the climax of a season of spectacular play, the day will bring to an end the football careers of some of the South's greatest gridiron warriors. Captain "Red" Warren, of Georgia Tech, one of the game's most spectacular halfbacks, will lead his team into action for the last time against the Auburn Plainsmen in Atlanta. Neither the Yellow Jackets nor the Plainsmen have been defeated by another Southern rival this year and each will bend its every effort toward victory in the annual match. The Yellow Jackets have been victorious for the last two years, but supporters of the Plainsmen who recently triumphed, 6 to 0, over Centre, feel the day has come to down their ancient foes.

ASON COMES TO LOSE WITH MANY BIG GAMES SOUTH

Alabama and Mississippi A. & M. which tied last year, will play in Birmingham with prospects for the former to add another victory to its string. Kentucky, one of the few teams that has downed the Alabama eleven this year, will go into its game at Knoxville with an edge over Tennessee which tied the Kentuckians last year. Centre's supporters took to a comparatively easy triumph over South Carolina at Louisville, and the Georgetown University eleven is regarded as a foregone victor over George Washington in their game at the National Capital. Maryland and North Carolina state, battling at Raleigh, tied last year and would appear evenly matched again, while Tulane would seem to have the edge on Louisiana State in their game at Baton Rouge. Washington and Lee plays Johns Hopkins in Baltimore and other matches find other more impressive teams playing lesser ones, or the "minors" matched among themselves.

FOOTBALL GAME IN PICTURES

Sanford and Daytona Game With Other Armistice Day Activities at the Princess Monday and Tuesday

The movie fans and the foot ball fans will be well entertained at the Princess this coming Monday and Tuesday. All day Armistice Day Mr. Herndon was busy taking many thousand feet of film into pictures of the doings of Sanford people that day. He covered the foot ball game between the Sanford and Daytona teams and those many fans that never get a chance to see the games will be able to witness the Sanford boys in action on those two nights. These pictures are an added attraction to a popular feature and two real comedies, and aside from the fact that the public will have an opportunity of seeing Sanford in the movies, the program is one that will keep you busy for several hours. Remember the time and be on hand—it's good.

SCHOOL BOY HELD GUILTY FOR DEATH

ALBANY, Ala., Nov. 30.—Earle Wells, tenth grade school boy, stepson of Charles Wells, who was shot to death in his home Monday was held responsible for the death of the elder Wells by a coroner's jury which reported today. The youth surrendered at once to Sheriff May. Evidence before the jury indicated Wells was shot by some person outside of Wells' home the bullet entering through an open door.

Day's Deeper Meaning.

Three centuries ago the Plymouth colonists kept our first Thanksgiving day. For more than three score years the date has been established and the observance nation-wide. The history and the spirit of Thanksgiving are simple and familiar, yet of a kind that spur and exalted and requiring to be many times retold. Scholars have spoken of a kinship of this feast to the Jewish Feast of Tabernacles, but the likeness is indistinct in ceremony and remote in time. It need not change the feeling that Thanksgiving day is a day distinctive and original, evolved of the genius of a strong, new people, earnestly at work and conscious of God.

A man makes a much more satisfactory guest. He never looks about the ceiling for cobwebs. The man who said variety is the spice of life never had to change tires three times in one day. For quick results, try a want ad.

Osborne has something good for the fans next Monday and Tuesday.

He will run the pictures taken by himself at the big foot ball game on Armistice day.

And that will give every one a chance to see themselves in the movies.

'Tis said that Vic McLaulin will look like Wallace Reid.

And the big Thanksgiving program at the Princess, tonight will be worth going a long way to see.

Then tomorrow night and Saturday comes the big week end features.

If you will just sum it up, it amounts to this: Tonight big Thanksgiving picture; tomorrow and Saturday, big week end specials; Monday and Tuesday, the local pictures showing armistice day activities and football game, and then by that time we will be running right into the big week end specials of next week.

With a program like this, every one should mark this next week off their calendar as movie week and no matter what night you go, if you can't take 'em all in, you will find a program supreme, a program that will be well worth several times the admission asked. But above all don't forget the local pictures, pictures made in Sanford, and the date is Monday and Tuesday of next week.

DECLARES THERE IS NO CAUSE ORDERING KLAN BE DISBANDED

ATLANTA, Ga., Nov. 29.—President Grant's action in ordering the Ku Klux Klan of reconstruction days to disband does not offer a precedent for similar action today, in the view of Fred Savage, chief of staff under Col. William J. Simmons, imperial wizard of the present Knights of the Ku Klux Klan.

In a statement here tonight concerning the move today by Senator Walsh, of Massachusetts, to bring about a proclamation by President Harding calling upon the present Ku Klux Klan to disband, Mr. Savage said: "Senator Walsh is apparently asking that the Klan be disbanded solely on hearsay evidence.

"I am not prepared at present to make any detailed statement in regard to his request but I would like to refer him to the congressional investigation of the Klan last year in which it was found that there is no analogy between the Ku Klux Klan which was disbanded by order of President Grant and the Klan as it is being operated under present conditions. President Grant's action, for that reason does not offer precedent for similar action today."

Mr. Savage stated that he could not say whether the Imperial Konvention of the Klan, now in session here, would take official notice of Senator Walsh's request.

TURKEYS TAKE BIG DROP IN PRICE IN WINDY CITY MARKET

CHICAGO, Nov. 29.—Turkey prices dropped in Chicago today due to a demoralized market as the result of liberal receipts and reports of anticipated price decreases, according to poultry men, but Chicago packers denied the charges of Mayor Curley of Boston, that they were responsible for the high prices in New England.

Thanksgiving on the Farm

Oh, the farm was bright, Thanksgiving morn,
With its stacks of hay and shocks of corn,
Its pumpkin heaps in the rambling shed,
And its apples brown and green and red;
And in the cellar, the wigwag store,
In bins that were filled and running o'er
With all the things that a farm could keep,
In barrel and bin and goodly heap,
Hung to the rafters and hid away—
Oh, the farm was a pleasant place to stay!

And here and there was the Jersey stock,
The sheep and horses—Old Prince and Jack,
The turkeys and geese and awkward calf,
And the goat that made the children laugh,
A pair of mules that a friend had sent
Out to the farm for experiment,
Pigeons and fowls and a guinea pig,
Dogs that were small and dogs that were big,
Chickens that were white and black and gray—
Oh, the farm was a jolly sight that day!

Out back of the house the orchard stood,
Then came the brook and the chestnut wood,
The chicken-wire where the children play,
The feeder barn with its piles of hay,
The walnut grove and the cranberry bog,
The wood-hack hole, and the barking dog,
The "intergreen" and the rubber's cave—
Wherein who entered was counted brave—
The skating pond with its fringe of hay—
Oh, the farm was a right good place to stay!

The big home barn was a place of joy
For the romping girl and the climbing boy,
With mows and mows and lighters to mount,
Horses and oxen and sheep to count,
Hoisting of mosses of old men,
Turning hay and fashioning pens,
Helping the men to do up the chores,
Shutting windows and locking doors,
Letting some work come in with the snow—
Oh, the farm was a jolly place to stay!

Oh, the farm was a right good place to stay!

Oh, the farm was a right good place to stay!

Oh, the farm was a right good place to stay!

Oh, the farm was a right good place to stay!

Hymn

For Summer's bloom and Autumn's blight,
For bending wheat and blighted maize,
For health and sickness, Lord of light,
And Lord of darkness, hear our praise!

We trace to Thee our joys and woes—
To Thee, of causes still the cause—
We thank Thee that Thy hand bestows;
We bless Thee that Thy love withdraws.

We bring no sorrows to Thy throne;
We come to Thee with no complaint;
In Providence Thy will is done,
And that is sacred to the saint.

Here, on this blest Thanksgiving Night,
We raise to Thee our grateful voice;
For what Thou doest, Lord, is right;
And, thus believing, we rejoice.
—From "Bitter-Sweet," by J. G. Holland.

The Spirit of Thanksgiving

As we read of old time Thanksgiving customs, we realize that the world has been traveling fast since then—away from the simple and the spiritual.

One of the customs, particularly, was quaint.

After the Thanksgiving dinner, while the family was still seated around the table, each member was asked to tell for what, in the past year, he was particularly thankful.

The older children, those in their teens, were more abstract. They were thankful for the advantages of education, of family prestige, or their social position—a bit self-centered, perhaps, as is wont with youth in its teens.

But mother and father, in their maturity of years, knew that the greatest blessings of life were health and happiness, and their recitals of thankfulness always included a word of thanksgiving that the family had been spared illness and poverty. No thought for themselves, but thankful of son's success in school, and daughter's improvement in controlling her temper.

The spirit of the day calls for just such a touch of spiritual introspection. It keeps alive that family spirit, the joy of an assembled family, the particular source of Thanksgiving to each member, along with the joy of the old-fashioned dinner.

Old-Time Thanksgiving.

A quaint account of a Thanksgiving dinner back in 1770, is given in a letter of one Jullanna Smith, written to her dear "Dear Cousin Betsey," found in an old diary:

"This year it was Uncle Simeon's turn to have the dinner at his house, but of course we all helped them as they help us when it is our turn, and there is always enough for us all to do. All the baking of pies and cakes was done at our house, and we had the big oven heated and filled twice each day for three days before it was all done, and everything was good, though we did have to do without some things that ought to be used. Neither Love nor Money could buy Raisins, but our good red cherries dried without the pitse, did almost as well, and happily Uncle Simeon still had some spiced in store. The tables were set in the Dining Hall, and even that big room had no space to spare when we were all seated. The servants had enough ado to get around the Tables and serve us all without oversetting things. There were our two Grandmothers, side by side. They are always handsome old ladies, but now, many thought, they were handsomer than ever, and happy they were to look upon so many of their descendants.

The Crown of the Feast.

"There was no Plum Pudding, but a balled Suet Pudding, stirred thick with dried Plums and Cherries, was called by the old Name and answered the purpose. All the other spiced had been used in the Mince Pie, so for this Pudding we used a jar of West India preserved Ginger, which chanced to be left of the last shipment which Uncle Simeon had from there. We chopped the Ginger small and stirred it through with the Plums and Cherries. It was extraordinary good. The day was bitter cold and when we got home from Meeting, which father did not keep over long by reason of the cold, we were glad of the fire in Uncle's Dining Hall; but by the time the dinner was one-half over, those of us who were on the fire side of one table was forced to get up and carry our plates around to the far side of the other table, while those who had sat there were glad to bring their plates around to the fire side to get warm. All but the Old Ladies, who had a screen put behind their chairs."

DAUGHERTY ASKS HELP FOR "DRYS"

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30.—Attention of federal authorities throughout the country has been officially called to the necessity of co-operating closely with prohibition enforcement agencies with a view to curbing the extensive violation of the statutes.

"Federal authorities have been instructed to push all pending liquor cases and to suggest when proper the imposition of the heaviest penalties on conviction. Their attention was specifically called to reports that some cereal beverage manufacturers were marketing a product of illegal alcoholic content.

The circular order sent by Attorney-General Daugherty to all United States attorneys follows:

"You are requested to give immediate attention to the condition of the enforcement of prohibition laws in your district: to analyze its problems, to examine the conditions of your docket in respect thereto, and to report to the department any suggestions you may have to make enforcement more effective.

"I urge upon you the necessity of adopting every means for clearing the docket and pushing prohibition cases to an early trial.

"Where possible and to whatever extent you can with propriety do so, we desire that you urge the court to give more severe sentences to violators of the liquor laws.

"Your attention is invited to the injunction features of the national prohibition act. Nuisance proceedings have been found to be an effective means of control and more frequent resort to them is desired. This department is ready, as it always has been, to assist you by furnishing forms or briefs of authorities for instituting this practice in your district.

"We are sending to U. S. attorneys in districts where breweries are located criminal informations and bills for injunction for proceedings against individuals and companies unlawfully manufacturing cereal beverages. We desire that these be filed and tried promptly. The need for this is especially apparent in injunction proceedings as the court may be reluctant to grant restraining orders if the evidence shows the nuisance to have been committed at a remote period.
