ELIGIBILITY OF MELLON AGAIN NEXES HOOVER

Minority Report Will Go To Senate Questioning Secretary's Right To Cabinet Job

WASHINGTON, Apr. 27.—Andrew W. Mellon will be branded as ineligible for the post of secretary of the Treasury and declared guilty of holding it illegally since 1921 in a minority report from the Senate Judiciary Committee, even though a majority decides in the Pennsylvania's favor it was today.

The minority report, attacking Mellon's right to remain in the Hoover cabinet and demanding his immediate removal, will be filed by Senator George W. Norris (R-Neb.), chairman of the committee, and Senator Thomas J. Walsh (D) of Montana, one of the Senate's greatest lawyers. The minority report naturally will throw the question of Mellon's cabinet eligibility back into the Senate, which will have to make a decision on an issue which President Hoover hopes to avoid by retaining Mellon in his cabinet without a reappointment.

The Senate Judiciary Committee met this morning to consider the question of Mellon's eligibility. Previously, the committee had unanimously that Mr. Hoover had the right to retain Mellon without reappointing him. This gave rise to reports that the committee would decide the Mellon controversy question that has arisen time and again in the Senate ever since the Pennsylvania went into office under the late President Harding—in his favor. Mr. Walsh said that he would decide to vote against Mellon's right to be a cabinet officer.

If the Senate should uphold this minority view, the question would be thrown into the federal courts since their contention that Mellon is violating a special law forbidding the secretary of treasury from being "concerned or interested in trade or commerce." If the courts found Mellon guilty of violating this law, he would be fined $3,000, removed from office and forever after barred from holding any federal office.

Mellon, however, has told the committee by letter that he owns stock in the Aluminum Company of America, the Gulf Refining Company and the Standard Car Construction Company. He stated that he had sold his stock in these companies and had no interest in their management when he became secretary of the Treasury.

ONLY RELIEF IS IN PAYING INTEREST, MIESCH BELIEVES

Big Grower Points To Fallacy Of Repudiation Of Obligations

Expressing the opinion that no one can profit by attempting to escape his just obligations, John Miesch, prominent celery grower, today heartily endorsed the efforts of local business men to encourage the payment of taxes so that the interest on the city's bonded debt can be paid in July.

"Although some of our bond money was wasted and spent foolishly the purchase of Sanford bonds was made in good faith and constitutes a binding obligation on the people of Sanford," Mr. Miesch said. "We will have to pay the interest on this debt and sooner or later the principal, or sacrifice everything we have in Sanford."

"If we don't pay the interest, the city will be placed in the position of making a complete default, in which event a receivership will probably be asked for and then our taxes would be increased so high that we would have a much heavier burden to carry than we now have."

"As I see it, future relief lies entirely upon the payment of taxes. If we meet our interest obligations that a goodly portion of the money has been collected, our creditors will be impressed with the fact that we have at least tried but that the bond has not been paid. On the basis of this I feel certain they would enter into any reasonable plan for future payments. However, we may be reasonably certain that they will look with suspicion upon any scheme if we tell them that more than 50 per cent of the taxes have been paid on a millage of 25 and an assessed valuation of $16,000,000."

Mr. Miesch pointed out that if no more taxes are collected for the year 1934 have been taken in at present it will show on the face of it that no concerted effort has been made to collect or pay them. Bondholders, he said, would believe that a spirit of repudiation was being manifested, and that under such circumstances they would feel that they were being deceived.

STOCKS STAGE FINE RALLY IN DAYS TRADING

Bull Market Carries Prices To High Level During Year Despite Agitation

NEW YORK, Apr. 27.—(INS)—A handful of the active industrial, utility and specialty stocks ran away with the bull market today and staged a "democratic" in the course of which prices were pushed up in active trading from 1 1/2 to 12 points. The copper and railroad stocks joined the movement, to make it nearly unanimous, in the second period, and five traces of Friday's unemployment were seen as the bulls carried the prices of their favorites to the highest levels of the year.

Columbia Gaslight was the choice of the bull leader for a best of strength in the specialties. The stock was marked up in heavy trading, showing a gain of 1 1/2 points for the day and 20 points in the week. General Gas and Electric Class A jumped 11 points to 86. United Aircraft carried its spectacular rise 5 points, higher and a few of the motor and automobile stocks pushed ahead 1 to 3 points.

Atlantic Copper and the United Fruit Company led the industrial group in their respective gains. Atlantic Copper advanced 1 1/2 points to 84. United Aircraft carried its spectacular rise 5 points, higher and a few of the motor and automobile stocks pushed ahead 1 to 3 points.

Side-tracking for the time being, all worry about money market conditions, the bulls sold high in the middle and opened everything back, then in important sections of the market, the bears were forced to cover their tracks as the market supply of stocks gradually dwindled.

The present supply of money is insufficient to meet the needs of the country, and it is expected that the new issue will be ready for the public by the end of the month.

Jack Dempsey's Promoter Plans Have Not Had Much Success Despite Claims

By Davis J. Walsh
International News Service
Sports Editor
New York, Apr. 26.—As a promoter, this man Dempsey may be one of the best in the world. Estimated on what he has done to date, but he is still far from the rest of the popular ones. He tried it yesterday when he declared that he was "considering" offers to promote a fight in at least six cities throughout the nation. Among the cities mentioned were Philadelphia, Cleveland, St. Louis, Baltimore, Asheville, N. C., and Tampa, Fla., and his boy friend indicated that he would accept a $100,000 advance, which would allow him to come down there and put on another striking fight, it is his city's contention that he can draw more Georgians than any other promoter in the world. An invitation is said to have come from the American Legion, which claims to have a 40,000 area ready for his hand. The Philadelphia bid, forwarded by George Aron, is said to have offered Dempsey the use of the municipal stadium, in case he discovers that he has a fight too big for Ebbets Field. The young man, thus, might find himself in an incongruous position of promoting a fight in the stadium where he blew the title to Tunney.

However, the fact of the matter is that so far he has no fight too big for Ebbets Field. It is a matter of record that he has no fights at all, in fact, has been doing nothing on a very substantial scale for the first several months of his career as a promoter here and the fact is a glaring acceptance that he is likely to be without particular significance to New York boxing this year. There is only one absolute exception to this statement. It calls for Dempsey to give himself up and publicly confess that he is a public fighter. As such, he can dominate the heavyweight situation and make the Garden corporation, or any other, pay to his whims. As a promoter, he itures to put on a few fights at Ebbets Field, provided he gets the men he wants. He doesn't seem to have any definite idea of what the immediate future will develop.

He may go around the circuit named, like the old patent medicine exhorter, putting on a show and then faring forth to the next stop, Niagara Falls, he says, wants him to promote a race track and he is considering that. Other points have blarneyed him with requests for personal appearances and he likes that racket too.

But if he can only get a break, he wants more than anything else to spend the summer promoting at Ebbets Field. He wants only fights that will get him money and bring him prestige.

Athletes Arrive To Participate In Penn Relays Next 2 Days

PHILADELPHIA, Apr. 26.—(INS)—Athletes from far and near arrive here yesterday for the annual two-day athletic carnival at Franklin Field Friday and Saturday evenings. The first day is devoted to the two-day program. Eighty-four runners will take part in the four-mile relay championship alone. Francis Norman, the silver medalist, will attempt to break the world's records for the two and three-mile events in the field. The star of the starter's gun, St. Clair Davidson, Canadian star, will oppose Norman, and Hugo Quist, his manager, arrives from the States.

Teams from Hawaii and Hamilton College were expected before nightfall. Other colleges' stars began arriving on the first train today. Indiana University is the favorite to win the four-mile relay which is attracting the most attention. North Carolina last year's winner is among the colleges that have entered teams.

Collett Picks Wethered

LONDON, Apr. 26.—(INS)—Queen of American golf, Miss Louie Collett, of Providence, R. I., queen of American golf, does not expect to win the British Ladies' championship at St. Andrews next month. Upon her arrival at Southampton aboard the Aquitania she picked Miss Joyce Wethered, Britain's premier woman player, to capture the title. Two other American golf stars, George Von Elm of Detroit and "Wild Bill" Mehlhorn, were aboard the Aquitania.

Pennock To Get Chance To Beat Athletics Today

All But 2 Games Were Called Off Yesterday Because of Rain

NEW YORK, Apr. 26.—(INS)—The pennant stock of the world's champion New York Yankees may rise or fall sharply as the result of the outcome of their game with the Athletics in Philadelphia today. Manager Huggins promised Herb Pennock that if the weather is not too cold, he would be allowed to pitch his first game today since Neuritis crippled his pitching arm last August.

If the star southpaw proves he has cured the ailment by beating the Athletics in Philadelphia today, Pennock will be installed strong favorite to win the flag again. He will have no easy task, for Lefty Grove is slated to oppose him.

Rain washed out all but two games yesterday. Detroit blanked Cleveland, 5 to 0, and the St. Louis Browns tied the Athletics for first place by defeating the Chicago White Sox 3 to 2.

The prospects of the Tigers were boosted considerably by the comeback of Emil Yde, the deceptive Dan who toyed with Cleveland batters. The tall southpaw enjoyed a phenomenal year with the Pirates several years ago when he first came to the major leagues. He lost his stuff and wound up in the minors again. The Pirates, who now need pitchers like nuts need salt, certainly could use him right now.

The veteran Sam Greer, again carrying the burden of the pitching burden for the St. Louis Browns, chalked up his third straight victory of the season in beating Chicago.

TALLAHASSEE—Federal Department of Commerce announced that electric current output in State of Florida has increased over 300 per cent since 1922.

Omission Of Smith From U.S. Team Caused Discussion

LEEDS, Eng., Apr. 26.—(INS)—As the members of the American and British Ryder Cup teams played their final practice rounds on the Moorway course yesterday in preparation for the opening match today, the chief topic of conversation was whether or not Captain Walter Hagen made a mistake in omitting Horton Smith's name from the American lineup for the foursomes tomorrow.

Smith, the 29-year-old "baby" of the team, who stole much of Hagen's thunder by winning most of the winter tournaments in the United States, will play in the singles on Saturday along with Al Watrous of Detroit.

Smith has played comparative few rounds with wood-shafted clubs which are required in England, and is unfamiliar with difficult and wind-swept courses of the Moorway type.

Strike Organizer Is Lodged In Jail Again

GASTONIA, N. C., Apr. 26.—(INS)—Getting in jail is becoming a commonplace thing for Ellen Deweese, young organizer for the National Textile Workers. She was locked behind the bars today for the third time within a week. This time she has Carl Reeve, a representative of the International Defense League, as a fellow prisoner.

Miss Deweese was sent to jail in default of $100 bond for leading a Loyal Mill strike parade which was prohibited. It was alleged before on the same charge, but was released within a short time on her own recognizance. Reeve is being held on the same charge. Both probably will face trial Saturday.

CHICAGO, Apr. 25.—(INS)—Clarence Darrow termed by many the "greatest criminal lawyer of the age," yesterday announced he would defend four Chicago high school girls and four youths charged with housebreaking at Waverly Beach, near Tremont, Ind.

The school children said they were at the beach, examining cottages with a view to renting one and entered none of them with no intent to violate house-breaking laws when two deputy sheriffs arrested them.

Darrow's last appearance in an official capacity in a courtroom was at the famous Scopes evolution trial in Tennessee in 1924. His last appearance prior to that had been at the Loeb-Leopold trial in Chicago.

It makes no difference what the crop is—grapes, grapefruit, grapes or other fruit—ferns, bulbs or other ornamentals—potatoes, beets, onions or other root crops—celery, cabbages, lettuce, beans, or other green vegetables—ALL respond equally well to this universal plant and land food, Humite-Humus. Your land, moreover, will benefit permanently by the use of HUMITE-HUMUS.

HOW HUMITE-HUMUS WORKS—The ready solubility of a large percentage of its 65% humus content and its high carrying power of various bacteria beneficial to plant life make HUMITE-HUMUS immediately available as a plant food when mixed with the soil, creating the healthiest and most productive root system of any plant food element known to science. This rapid root growth means resultant plant development above-ground in order to supply the root system with the nitrogen and other elements of the air which are "breathed" through the leaves or "lungs" of the plant.

No matter what you are growing, you are not producing the crops and reaping the consequent profits you should unless you are consistently using HUMITE-HUMUS.

NEW FORD TOWN SEDAN

ONE DAY ONLY

At Our Show Rooms, Monday April 29th

THE NEW FORD TOWN SEDAN is an ideal family car. Its beauty and fine car construction must be seen to be realised.

BY ALL MEANS ATTEND THIS SPECIAL SHOWING

THE NEW FORD TOWN SEDAN is designed for those who desire the convenience of moderate size and the distinction of fine car construction. It makes a modern and most convenient kind of family conveyance—powered to meet present day requirements. The body is longer than other Ford passenger cars, thus affording an unusually roomy interior. In appearance the new Ford town sedan is quite imposing. It is of the three-window, four-door type. The lines are low, long and straight. And this suggestion is emphasized by the smart French roof quarters and the belted moulding which runs sharply back from the radiator and circles the entire body. The Town Sedan is offered in a number of attractive color harmonies. Nickered headlamps, radiator and door handles provide attractive touches of brightness. There are nickered cowl lamps, too, and the smartest sort of finish strip at the juncture of hood and cowl. The plan of the body affords the utmost room and comfort. Wide doors give easy access to both front and rear compartments. There is exceptional head room. The driver's seat is wide and deep and completely cushioned. It is adjustable to the convenience of the driver—an appreciable feature on sustained trips. It is instantly and easily moved by means of a small, inconspicuous handle in the front center of the seat just above the floor. The rear seat is particularly roomy. Five persons may be comfortably accommodated in the New Ford Town Sedan. The seats are deeply cushioned in soft, pleated cloth. And the interior is trimmed throughout in harmonizing materials of rich texture. The flexible transverse springs of the chassis assure riding comfort. Houdaille shock absorbers front and rear enable one to take roads, as they come, with the utmost facility and ease. The comfort of the new Ford Town Sedan is appreciated more than ever when the trip is of cross-country duration.

In addition to the showing of the New Ford Town Sedan a complete line of Ford cars will be on display.

WORTHY MEN FOR TODAY

PRAYER—Lord, we thank Thee that Thou hast placed us in the hands of the merciful and loving Jesus Christ offering life to all.

THE CHURCH—As I tread children, when the dusk falls softly, Turn weary feet toward the shining lights of home, As to thy tenderness our hearts turn gladly, As to thy arms we come.

Outside thy doors is tumult and confusion, Within thy walls alone is peace and rest, In thy shelter of thy all-wise Wisdom, We seek thy breast.

At the county treasury can I live on $8,000 a year? he should cut down on the overhead elsewhere. —DeLand News.

And now the Tampa Tribune has heard the rumor that Miami sampled Pat Whittaker into the senate to discredit Tampa.

Florida is Cooler in Hot Times—Union announces the estimate for 1929. But not so cool, says, as during the cool season.

Tornadoes, which have been ravaging the southern states, Thursday, killed several scores of persons, Florida is not an unusual pest by the elements; it's only that the closer to home the bigger anything seems.

And what, asks one of our friends, will we do if the bond houses will not refund our principal at par. The bond houses will then be in the position of the banker who indignantly replied, when asked by a Jewish debtor if he had ever been in the pants business, "Certainly not." Well you are now," replied the Jew.

Walter Cooper, expressed it the other day when he gave as one reason for the failure to pay taxes "We have been living beyond our means." The people of Florida have got to get back to the way they were living in 1924, or 1921, or 1919, and 1920. Then and then only will they find the tax burden less.

A court of changes has recently been held from the middle of the winter, to the middle of the spring, until then had not been found. Only by the strict application of the most rigid quarantine regulations can the spread of the flu through-out the whole state of Florida be prevented.

Sanford celery farmers are showing the proper spirit of cooperation in regard to the advertising campaign, according to those who have the campaign in charge. The farmers realize that the harvest must be stimulated before they can ever again hope to get the prices they did in former seasons and that judicial advertising is the sure way of stimulating the market.

A Bay county legislature has prepared a bill which would impose a penalty of $1000 fine, one year in jail or both upon any woman appearing in the public, whether on streets or bathing beaches without stockings or well covered back. It is peculiar that the bill was introduced by a man, who would legislate what women shall wear, when no mention was made of men appearing on beaches in whatever condition of exposure places them.

The Florida legislature condemn the Chicago Tribune for its editorial declaring that Florida encouraged vice and gambling in order to bring money into the state. After all, what can be expected when racketeering has gone on for weeks at a time in Miami, St. Augustine, St. Peterburg and near Sanford in direct violation to the law, and nothing has been done about it? The Tribune editorial is just an example of the light in which any state or section is generally held which tolerates such conditions.

What Should Be Paid

Peter O. Knight, of Tampa, who is perhaps Florida's best known attorney, has recently issued a statement in which he urges the passage of a law by the legislature compelling in an equitable and fair manner the payment of all taxes now due. Mr. Knight presents a number of facts which should be of great local interest in the following article:

While in Tallahassee recently I discovered to my amazement that there was due the state and the respective counties in it on account of tax certificates certified to the state for non-payment of taxes the staggering sum of thirty-five millions of dollars, in addition to millions of dollars due for which tax certificates have not as yet been issued.

I further discovered that eighty per cent of the people were paying their taxes, and the remaining twenty per cent were not paying theirs, thus compelling those who do pay taxes to pay twenty per cent more than they otherwise would pay.

I also discovered by a study of the tax rolls that there are a number of prominent men in this state who have not paid ad valorem taxes on the homes they own nor on the property on which their businesses are situated for ten years or more.

I also discovered that, because of the ease with which an owner of real estate can permit his property to be sold for non-payment of taxes and then eliminated from the tax rolls, and remain in that condition indefinitely, the practice of using the state as a banker is increasing very rapidly and will increase more and more in the future because others who are now paying their taxes will avail themselves of the same opportunity.

It is no wonder there is a deficit in the state and county funds. And the foregoing situation shows conclusively that if the taxes that are now due to the state and the various counties in it were paid there would be no occasion to look for other sources of revenue.

Section 1 of Article IX of the Florida constitution prescribes that the legislature shall provide for a uniform and equal rate of taxation and shall prescribe such regulations as shall secure a just valuation of all property, both real and personal.

When the state sits supinely by and remains inactive year after year, permitting the present condition of affairs to exist and to become worse, it fails in performing its constitutional duty.

When we read that thirty-five million dollars worth of tax certificates have been certified to the state for the non-payment of taxes, we no longer wonder at last year's comparatively insignificant deficit of two and half millions of which Governor Carlton spoke. And apparently the situation confronting the state of Florida is not so vastly different from the problem we face here at home.

According to figures obtained from the City Clerk's office, there are at the present time some $882,099.42 in taxes which have been assessed but which have not been collected. Of the taxes assessed for the year of 1928, only $165,075.10 have so far been collected, a sum which represents barely 51% of the total. These taxes were paid by the citizens of their own free will, without any penalties, threats, or acts of coercion on the part of the Commission.

The bond interest payment which will be due in July amounts to $197,812.50, or only $34,737.31 more than has already been collected. In other words, with 51% of the taxes already paid, if only eleven percent more were paid, there would be sufficient funds on hand to pay the interest in July. We believe there are enough taxpayers in Sanford who are able to pay their taxes, but who have not done so, to make up this difference; and we believe that the future of Sanford demands that this interest be paid.

With the interest paid, it is reasonable to believe that any bond representatives possessing sound business judgment will refund principal payments as they come due at par, and there will be no pyramiding of indebtedness, no increase of bonded obligation. Unable to pay the interest, the Commissioners can hope for nothing better than a court order to force them to levy and collect sufficient taxes, or perhaps a receivership.

It seems to us that citizens who are not paying their taxes, simply on account of the uncertainty of the present situation, are only setting up trouble for the future.

Fire Proof Stockings

People who are always trying to get something for nothing or a whole lot for a little bit always make the best suckers. Experience of old-timers usually shows that you get what you pay for if you are willing to pay for it. It is the fellow who is trying to buy a first class diamond for the price that he would pay for a piece of cut glass who ordinarily gets hooked. It is always well to remember that the gold brick artist is not dead yet.

According to a dispatch from New York, Broadway is crowded this year with hosiery salesmen who are offering most attractive bargains to the gullible public. Socks and stockings which appear to be worth at least a dollar a pair are selling at the rate of six pairs for a dollar. The salesmen demonstrate the value of their product by running fingers all files through the silk, or by holding a lighted paper under it when twisted tightly into a roll.

Obviously hosiery which would stand such treatment as that must be simply superb in wearing qualities. Mrs. Bargain Fiend undoubtedly would purchase not a dollar's worth, but at least ten dollars' worth, laying in a supply which she feels sure will last her, considering the excellent wearing qualities, for the rest of her life. But she is disappointed. She finds that each time she wears a pair of the new stockings, she comes home with them full of holes.

And then someone eventually tells her that the hosiery's resistance to the point of a nail file is due not to the first class material in which the stocking might have been made, but rather to the fact that it is very loosely woven. And she learns that the hosiery doesn't burn, merely because it is rolled too tightly to be singed by so pink a flame. She has been hooked again.

MARK TWAIN SAID that the reports of his death were greatly exaggerated. That applies also to the rumored demise of the White House spokesman. He has turned up in Northampton, Mass., speaking for Calvin Coolidge. —Richmond Times—Dispatch.

JOHN TEMPLE GRAVES II

"Stern daughter of the Voice of God, O Duty, if that name thou lovest!"

It would be a strange thing if Herbert Hoover, whose past record identifies him more with economic problems than any other man, should make his greatest contribution to America in a moral rather than economic field. He has seemed to stress the national moral problems more than any other man, particularly the problem of the tariff and the problem of law.

"One thing," said Will Rogers of the Hoover speech in New York last Monday. "The man I spoken two minutes till you could tell the same man hadn't written that speech that had been in these. It was about the condition of the country but not the same conditions that Calvin used to enumerate to us."

It was of prosperity and economy that Mr. Coolidge talked most often. And those who had every reason to expect Mr. Hoover to out Calvin Coolidge in this respect are amazed to find that his major present interest seems to lie in a totally different direction. Tariff relief, immigration and the tariff have his chief attention but his deeper heart seems to be beating for the nation's interest of respect for law and civic integrity throughout the nation.

The thing is amazing from a man who had been accused in the past of absorption in commercial and industrial problems by a point of actual incapacity for moral indignation or concern. It is amazing from one whose silence in the midst of the Harding administration scandals had led even his friends to suspect that, however upright his own civic standards, he had no inclination whatsoever to lose himself in public morals. Herbert Hoover is a strange man and the half of him has not yet been told.

A surprising thing, too, is that the country seems more inclined to react favorably to the Hoover party than the Hoover economy. His ideas on farm relief, tariffs and immigration have already encountered resistance in Congress while his ideas for a new era of the country's law have increased. Americans of all political denominations.

In the New York speech President Hoover suggested a crime deterrent. American newspapers invest the acts of enforcement officers with some of the glamour of romance and heroism "which our American imaginative minds throw around those who break the law." It was a suggestion well worth making. The country needs not only law-enforcement, but also to the producers of motion pictures, novels and plays. These, more even than the newspapers, are responsible for the current dramatic situation of crime in a manner to make it actually appealing to the public and to give the criminal a status on a romantic level, moral judgment of which is being stripped.

What is needed is not a censorship of such plays, pictures and novels (for that is always a dubious move) but a development of counter production which will make the exploits of those who oppose and spurned law-breakers as dramatic and romantic as the exploits of law-breakers themselves. America lives today at such a nervous pitch that it demands excitement more even than it does decency. The only way to be made popular, therefore, only if it is made exciting. This is what Mr. Hoover has in mind. It is a thing that needs to be done and can be done.

Felds, Hendry county, Florida, has fair this season to continue the fine record of sending the first carload of watermelons out of the state to Northern markets. M. Osborne of LaBelle, Fla., whose experience and success makes him a valuable originator, is making a record of 100,000 lbs. from this week. A man it is producing the finest watermelons he has seen anywhere in the South. —LaBelle News.

The 3,000 acres of cane growing or planted by the Southern Sugar Company at the Canal Point plant in Florida the first of March is being increased daily. Plantings are being made on the north side of the canal, where seven tractors are at work, and on the south side of the canal, where seventeen tractors are plowing and preparing land for planting, making a total of twenty-four tractors being used in enlarging the acreage of cane. —Canal Point News.

You never heard of an Indian being caught in a trap? Well, he has been caught in a trap set by the strike oil. —Washington Post.

GETTING VENTILATED

SARASOTA HERALD

The tax situation in Florida is getting a good ventilation. From all appearances, it needs it. In state, county, and city, the tax situation is in a bad way. Unless something is done to remedy the situation, to bring order out of chaos, we have "the devil to pay." Most of our trouble arises out of the fact that during and immediately following the boom days money was spent too lavishly on public improvements. Part of our trouble is due to the fact that we became organized in our civic units on too elaborate and expensive a basis. Trouble also arises out of the fact that we have a cumbersome and antiquated system of taxation. The only hopeful sign on the horizon is that the matter is receiving the attention of the best minds in the state and there is a determination on the part of the administration at Tallahassee to find and apply the remedy.

We understand that Governor Carlton has gone over the situation very thoroughly, in consultation with men in an out of the state who are experts on tax problems, and will submit to the legislature for its consideration the result of his investigations. Governor Daws, Florida's industrial politician, at the instance of the state from lack of tax payment. Of the more than $75,000,000 worth of outstanding city paving liens, nearly $10,000,000 are in arrears.

HAIL GOVERNOR ROOSEVELT!

COLLETTIERI—ENGLISH

Some six months ago Georgians were informed through the press that their adopted son had been selected as the gubernatorial nominee of Democracy in that other Empire State which is located in the vicinity of Hoboken, Yonkers, and Albany. As the Democratic nominee, Franklin D. Roosevelt went from Warm Springs, Georgia, at night to the scene of the political battle, where another native son of New York was leading the Democratic fight for Presidential honors. Democracy lost in the national fight, but when Mr. Roosevelt returned to his Georgia home it was as a gubernatorial nominee of New York.

And now it is Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt who is once more at home with Georgians—once more beating where the pines and the peachtrees combine to make a tower of strength and a tower of liberty—once more where the healing waters out of the warm heart of Georgia will give him renewed strength and hasten him on the road to restored health and untimely ended physical activities. And as an aid to recovery, he will find himself surrounded by eager and affectionate friends who were won to him long before he had his latest honors thrust upon him. In such an atmosphere, the Governor of New York cannot but discover that the road to complete recovery is a delightful one to travel. If it leads through Georgia to Warm Springs.

WHAT OF RACETRACK LEGISLATION?

TAMPA TRIBUNE

Legislators express perturbation at reports that a "slush fund" is enough to Tallahassee. "This slush fund" is, according to their view, intended to combat the threatened sales tax bill, which hasn't as yet made its appearance. Neither has the "slush fund."

If there is or is to be any "slush fund" in Tallahassee this season, it will not come from the merchants. If any, it will come from the race-track interests. The future regarding the activity of the merchants against the sales tax may have been promoted as a smoke-screen by the race-track advocates to draw attention from their own designs.

At this writing, the expected pari mutual legislation measures has not been introduced. Considerable mystery attends its present status. No one seems to know just when it will appear in the open before many days elapse. Probably it will assume several phases—or disguises. It may be a local bill for Dade county. It may be a local option bill. It may be a bill applying to all the state—or it may "arrive" in three-fold form, with the idea that, where two may lose, one may succeed.

OUR GROWTH ALONG AGRICULTURAL LINES

SARASOTA HERALD

What promises to be one of the busiest shipping seasons in the brief agricultural history of Sarasota county, has gotten under way, with the first of the spring shipments of celery sent North last week. The real busy part of the season is expected to get under way this week, with carloads of celery going out by rail every day. The railroads anticipating a large shipping season have spotted hundreds of refrigerator cars for the transportation of the celery, which it is stated is of the very best. Sarasotans cannot help but marvel at the great transformation that has come over this county in less than three years, and in meeting out praise for the county's wonderful growth along agricultural lines we do not have to go any farther than the Palmer corporation. This corporation, with R. A. Thompson, manager of the Sarasota office, doing the bulk of the work, has carried Sarasota county along to a point where other sections must reckon with us seriously.

POETS OF TODAY

LAMENTATION—Oh, sympathize with Mr. Gann! He's bound to be a lonely man Where diplomats stretch out their feet And chat gayly while they eat!

When Mrs. Gann sits down to chew Beside the envoy from Peru, Her spouse, if there at all, is put Away off yonder, at the foot. Indeed, they may place Mr. Gann Beside an Ethiopian!

Feel, feel for him who thus becomes One who must talk of kettle drums Or stay at home and twirl his thumbs!

Cleave only unto him, 'twas said Long years ago when they were well; In sickness and in death, desert Him not, but stick, although it hurt.

—But for society one can Renounce all claims upon her man And elude alone to him, I ween, Who makes of her a social queen.

So when she sits to eat in clamor Beside the envoy from Siam, Her spouse must do the best he can.

Maria Corda Has Fine Role In Film

The part of a gifted actress and prima donna, denied her art by her father for a man, disapproves of the theater, is played by Maria Corda, beautiful Hungarian actress in Milton Sills' new starring picture for First National, "Love and the Devil," at the Milano today. But this situation is not the story of her own life.

Actress she is beautiful, too, taken also to a "free" country by her husband, Alexander Korde, but never to be denied her art, because her husband, instead of hampering her work, encourages it and in this instance, at least, directs it. Playing the emotional and tensely dramatic part of Giovanna, Venetian prima donna, opposite Mr. Sills, she has an opportunity which is not always afforded a feature player in pictures and she makes the most of it.

Buick Officer Tells Of Plans To Make Lower Priced Car

By C. W. CHURCHILL
General Sales Manager
Buick Motor Company

The modern American family, having played an important role in dispelling the saturation bugaboo in automotive transportation, was given a great deal of consideration in Buick's plan of adding to its line a new car in the lower priced field. Although the new car will in no way detract from the established line of Buicks, and will be sold under a different name, its manufacture will have the benefit of Buick's years of experience in building quality cars.

In recent years America has become more and more conscious of the values offered in the automotive industry. The American family has become motor-minded. With a complete understanding of these facts, gained through a quarter-century of fine car manufacturing, the Buick Motor Company, backed by broad experience in the automotive field, will shortly introduce a car, attractive in price and with quality car performance, which will fit admirably into the scheme of modern family life.

A study of automobile sales statistics for many years reveals an interesting fact about the evolution of automobile ownership in the average family. It shows that extremely few persons, once they have owned a car, ever rejoin the ranks of non-owners.

There develops the desire for ownership. Friends, relatives, neighbors, have cars. The desire becomes so strong that owners seek economy—saving with the definite goal of ownership—is adopted.

Who cannot recall the day when it was usual, if you were getting up at social affair of some sort, to make sure that each guest had transportation, so that one of the few so fortunate as to own an automobile might accommodate those without cars? What a long time it has been since we heard such an inquiry! It is taken for granted today that every family has an automobile—ones at least. Of course, not every family has a car, but it may be assumed that every family without one is wishing that it had, and that most of these families are practicing the strictest sort of thrift to have on the day when they too, will take to wheels.

Goodyear Branch Concern Announces Big Airship Plans

The tremendous airship program which the Goodyear Zeppelin Corporation, a subsidiary of the Goodyear Tire & Rubber Company, has under way is attracting world-wide attention, declared E. S. Rocky, Goodyear tire dealer at 118 Park Ave.

"Goodyear will build two airships, to be the biggest ever assembled, for the United States Navy. Each ship will be of 6,500,000 cubic feet of gas capacity, nearly three times the size of the present Navy ship, Los Angeles.

"Work is progressing simultaneously at Akron, where the huge facilities of factories, equipment and man-power of the Goodyear organization are located on the airship factory and dock and the first of the airships.

"Work on one unit of the factory is expected to be completed this summer when assembly work on the first air Leviathan can be started. Mr. Rocky pointed out that a rigid ship such as the Navy craft can be built part by part, because the big ship will not be one integral gas bag such as the non-rigid blimps are, but consists of a series of great gas cells, fitted into duraminium compartments—so that in case of an accident to three or four gas cells, the ship will still fly.

"Engineering students are watching with interest the construction work on the huge factory and deck.

"It will be, engineers declare, the highest building in the world without interior supports, 1200 feet long, 325 feet wide and 200 feet high, having eight and one-half acres of level floor space.

Accessories Insure Great Comfort For Auto Buyers Today

DETROIT, Mich., Apr. 27.—Tourists this year will travel in greater comfort than heretofore by reason of special accessories designed primarily for the motoring vacationist which the various dealer organizations are marketing, according to H. P. Dunck, manager of service sales of the Oakland-Motor Car Company.

Trunks and trunk racks will move in their greatest volume because of the increasing number of tourists who are utilizing this convenience to relieve space in the tonneau of the car for extra passengers. All-steel trunks, Ducoed in colors to match the body combination, and racks trimmed with the same type of nickel-plated molding as the running board of the car, are now being marketed by the Oakland-Pontiac dealer body, Mr. Bullock said.

Other accessories, applicable especially for summer tourists use, with which the Oakland-Pontiac dealers are stocked, include the new auto watch, which attaches to the rear vision mirror, its rim designed to harmonize with the interior hardware of the car; the thermometer gauge which attaches to the instrument panel and insures additional motor protection on long drives; the heat of the engine and spare tire locks as insurance against theft.

NEW FUEL FUND

NEW YORK, Apr. 27.—(INS)—Army engineers, working in collaboration with the Curtiss Aircraft Corporation, have produced a motor oil they believe will be adopted by aviation. The liquid, named prestone, was said to not only serve as lubricant but as an engine cooler. It has been tested in planes at Mitchell Field, N. Y., and found satisfactory, it was announced.

Big Demonstration Campaign Planned By Oakland Dealer

Following the close of the highly successful "General Motors Spring Showings" week, Sid Rive, local Oakland-Pontiac dealer, announced today the launching of a big demonstration campaign during May.

This program, Mr. Rive explained, is in response to many requests received from visitors to his showrooms on First Street during the Spring showing, asking for demonstrations of the new Oakland All-American Six and the new Pontiac Big Six.

"The distinctive appearance, attractive colors, unusual body refinements and advanced engineering features of our two lines of cars created a decidedly favorable impression upon the large number of visitors to our showrooms last week," he stated. "That the new cars are as outstanding in performance as in body distinction, we propose to demonstrate throughout the coming month.

"We have records of many tests already made at various sections of the country and at General Motors Proving Ground, at Milford, Mich., which reveal unusual acceleration, deceleration and high sustained top speed. These same qualities we are going to demonstrate on the hills and highways in our section so that local residents may see for themselves the type of performance which we could only tell them about during the Spring Showing.
