RUSSIAN RADICALS READY TO START SOMETHING IN UNITED STATES IS REPORT

Make Estimate of Unemployed With View of Propaganda

TO ORGANIZE HERE

WILL START REVOLUTION IN AMERICA AMONG THE ANARCHISTS

(By The Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, Nov. 24.—Russian Soviet authorities estimate the unemployed in the United States will number five million by the end of the year and two representatives of the third Internationale have been sent to organize the Soviets here, according to official advices from Moscow. Their mission, advices said is to unite a revolutionary movement in America into one fighting body to bring about armed revolution.

ARMED INTERVENTION IN ARMENIAN AFFAIRS APPROVED BY LEAGUE

(By The Associated Press.)

TANK CORPS IS NOT THE MOST POPULAR BRANCH OF SERVICE IN ARMY

WASHINGTON, Nov. 24.—The army tank corps has suffered from many resignations and few re-enlistments because soldiers trained in this arm of the service find it easy to obtain lucrative employment in civil life, says the annual report of Brigadier General S. D. Rockenbach, chief of the corps, made public today.

The corps, returned from France in July, 1919, with a greatly depleted personnel but in the past fiscal year a net gain of 20 officers and 1,546 enlisted men was made, the report says, leaving however, a considerable shortage still to be made up.

Although the corps possessed more than 800 tanks when it left France all were in poor repair and none ready for battle, General Rockenbach states. Considerable progress has since been made in repairing damaged material and in designing and manufacturing new machines, the report added.

Technical recommendations included the stationing of the chief of the corps in the office of the chief of infantry in the war department rather than at Camp Meade, Md., as now located, and the production of a durable and light cross-country tank without which, the report asserts, "no army can count on a swift advance in the theatre of operations."

FLORIDA AGAINST DIVERSION COST

WASHINGTON, Nov. 24.—Representatives of Florida and California fruit and vegetable growers appeared before a committee of the Interstate Commerce Commission yesterday to argue their petition for the suspension of the proposed diversion and reconignment charges on fruit and vegetables as ordered by the commission. The issue, it was said, affected growers throughout the country.

Representatives of the growers contended they were not given notice of the carriers' application for changes and were not represented at the hearing upon the reasonableness of the new charges. If the diversion and reconignment charge were approved the action would not result in the desired increased revenue for the roads, they maintained, but rather in decreased production of fruits and vegetables.

BETTER PROTECTION OF LIFE AT ALL RAILROAD CROSSINGS

(By The Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, Nov. 24.—A campaign for the passage of laws in all states requiring better protection of railroad grade crossings is to be carried on by members of the Association of State Railway and Utility Commissions, which recently held its annual convention here.

A special committee appointed to investigate the whole subject said the elimination of all grade crossings in the United States "would probably cost as much as all the railroads are worth." It recommended laws requiring that every grade crossing be protected by an approach warning sign, placed in the highway at a distance not less than 300 feet on each side of the railroad tracks. The sign should be a circular disk not less than 24 inches in diameter, and properly lighted at night if deemed necessary.

Railroad companies would be required to maintain within the limits of their rights of way proper cautionary signs, to be equipped with a red light at night where necessary.

SOUTHERN MAN MAY GET POSITION SECRETARY OF AGRICULTURE MIGHT GO SOUTH OF THE MASON AND DIXIE LINE

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 24.—The appointment of a secretary of agriculture in the Harding cabinet the portfolio in which the farmers of the nation are deeply and vitally interested—is causing more preliminary discussion and maneuvering than any other prospective cabinet selection, not even excepting the premier-ship of the cabinet.

Southern Republicans are asking and expecting recognition in the cabinet. The South is an agricultural section and its primary and fundamental interest is in agriculture. On the principle that the South is more concerned in the agricultural portfolio than any other, the friends of former United States Senator Marion Butler, of North Carolina have started a movement to reach President-elect Harding with the argument that the secretaryship of agriculture is by all odds the most vital concern to southerners and that the South should be represented in the Republican cabinet with a southerner at the head of that portfolio.

A statement that has been sent to Senator Harding by S. H. Hoops, formerly chairman of the legislative committee of the National Farmers' Union, an organization that thrives in the South, says in part: "No other place in the cabinet will mean so much to our basic industry—agriculture. Every man who has held that important cabinet position heretofore has been from the West except Houston, and he does not represent the South; neither does he represent agriculture. So the time is here when the great agricultural South deserves to have this place filled by a true and able representa-

NATIONS OF THE WORLD CANNOT DISARM NOW AS SCRAP MATERIAL TOO LOW

MILLIONS LOST IN VARIOUS CROPS

Plant Diseases Ravage Fruits, Grain, Cotton and Vegetables.

(By The Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 24.—Millions of bushels of grain, fruit and vegetables and a big tonnage of cotton were lost to American farmers last year by plant disease according to figures compiled by the plant disease survey of the Department of Agriculture. The survey said that the statistics indicate that lack of prompt application of known measures of control was largely the cause of the loss.

The plant disease survey estimated the losses at 112,000,000 bushels of wheat, fifty million bushels of oats, 30 million bushels of corn; 60 million bushels of potatoes, 40 million bushels of sweet potatoes, 185,000 tons of tomatoes, 350,000 bales of cotton, 5 million bushels of peaches and 16 million bushels of apples.

BAKER REVOKES PERMIT GIVEN WESTERN UNION TO LAY CABLE AT MIAMI

WASHINGTON, Nov. 24.—Secretary Baker announced last night that he had revoked permission granted the Western Union Telegraph Company last May to lay certain cables in Biscayne Bay at Miami, Fla. The permit was issued by the district engineer at Jacksonville, and Mr. Baker directed its withdrawal by telegraph last night.

Mr. Baker made no explanation of his action. He merely authorized, through his secretary, the statement that the permit had been rescinded. The announcement followed, however, the statement in New York last night by Newcomb Carlton, president of the Western Union company, that his company had not only rights granted by act of congress, but specific permission of the war department to do certain cable work in the vicinity of Miami, with which "the navy department has for months arbitrarily interfered," at the request of the state department.

MIAMI, Nov. 24.—An armed force from the United States subchaser 154, stopped the Western Union employees from connecting the South American cable here today.

RECENT ORDER WOULD WORK AGAINST GROWERS

WASHINGTON, Nov. 24.—Claiming that recent orders of the Interstate Commerce Commission are prejudicial to the interest of Florida fruit and vegetable growers, and that recent orders of the commission work directly into the hands of California producers, practically every association interested in this industry, in the east, met here yesterday either thru legal counsel or other representation to protest against these orders.

The protest was heard by Messrs. Crossland, Ward and Towers, chiefs of divisions of the commission, informally sitting as a suspense board, who will report their findings to the full commission.

The protest was against a decision of the commission in the matter of reconignment and diversion. "Scientific Distribution" is the gist of the matter, or, in plain words, when fruit and vegetables are shipped from California and Florida they have no fixed destination; California shippers have longer to determine upon place of destination than those in Florida, because distance shipped is longer, hence more time is consumed. It is now proposed in this order that after three consignments there will be a charge on the growers and this will work a hardship on the Florida man and give the California grower an advantage.

NEW YORK CITY

New York has the reputation for being the largest and gayest summer resort in the world. Its great hotels are continually crowded; tourists come from all over the world to see sights to be found only in the Metropolis of America.

The city as a whole cannot be seen from any one spot, except possibly from the air, but a very impressive view can be obtained from the decks of a ship entering the harbor. American warships, steaming up the Narrows, pass the historic Statue of Liberty on the left and the Battery on the right, and there the wonderful sky-line may be seen by "all hands." There are so many tall buildings that from a distance it seems as though the city were just one mammoth building gradually sloping off to the right and left. New York is the "Mecca" of the American seaman. The Atlantic Fleet is now in the North River, where the great ships tug at their anchors as if they were thoroughbred steeds champing at their bits. The inhabitants of the metropolis are always hospitable to the navy man, and entertain him as lavishly, perhaps as those of any city in the country.

Coney Island, with its thousands of amusements, always offers the seaman a diversion in the summer months, as previously the theatres, dances, service clubs, and hotels entertained him in the winter months. New York creates a fascination for the heart of the man-of-warman that always has a tendency to bring him back, and hold him once he gets back.

The above picture shows one of Uncle Sam's superdreadnaughts, the Florida, passing the wonderful skyline while proceeding up the North River to her anchorage opposite 96th Street—the very heart of the city. Here the men go ashore and are lost in the big city until their leave is up. The week ends are spent at the many beaches, or in the surrounding towns, and there is always a pretty girl to help Jack pass the time.

And tomorrow is Thanksgiving.

And the Herald force will have an hour for dinner.

No rest for the newspaper for people like to read on Thanksgiving as well as other days.

Scan the columns of the Daily Herald and pick out your Thanksgiving dinner among the progressive merchants bidding for your business.

Tomorrow the men will take a hunt and come back in time to partake of a big Thanksgiving dinner that the ladies have prepared in their absence.

We should all give thanks tomorrow for the many blessings that we have received during the past year and all of us have been blessed in many ways.

This is the glad holiday time when people are in the spirit of buying and giving and it is the time to advertise. It is also the time to have sales and offer special inducements for the people to come here and trade. Sanford is the logical trading center of this part of Florida.

There have been many complaints in the past week about the paper not being delivered and there will be plenty of them this week but as soon as new carrier boys can be taught the routes they will be put on and we hope the Daily Herald will hereafter be carried to the door of every subscriber in the city every night. Sanford boys are no different from the rest but it does seem that a carrier boy can learn to carry a subscriber's paper and leave the paper without forgetting where the subscriber lives. Every daily newspaper has this trouble no matter where it is published but the Daily Herald intends to eliminate much of it in a few days.

VOLUSIA POLITICS

Editor T. E. Fitzgerald promises some real sensations when he is "brought to trial." If our good friend Ed. had backed up The News in its efforts to purify Volusia county for the past 28 years, he would not be today separated from the penitentiary doors by a thin veneer of Volusia county justice. Volusia is better today than it ever was before, freer, cleaner in every respect; but the people are demanding more, which the politicians who control the county refuse to recognize. They will go down in the dust before they will be permitted to absolutely stultify the law. Even the most patient people sometimes get tired.—DeLand News.
Gee, Volusia county must be a mess. Let him tell it Chris, and let the high and low who have been breaking the law go to jail. It is about time something happened in Volusia to turn things upside down and shake out the "cooties" that have been fattening on the body politic.

THANKSGIVING DAY

Means so much to us tomorrow and the tomorrows to come. So much has happened in the past few years to chasten our spirits and soften our hearts and while we easily forget the many blessings that have been showered upon us we should not forget to go to church tomorrow and give thanks to Him who has brought us through the shadows and the darkness and who has watched over our destinies through one of the most trying periods in history. And for us to be living today in the grandest state in the union where the weather is ideal and there is prosperity and peace and happiness and the brightest of futures should make us all realize that these blessings only come from our Creator and Thanksgiving Day has been set aside for the purpose of giving him this recognition as the Creator and the Benefactor of all mankind. It is the day of thanksgiving and rest wherever we may be whether in the city or country tomorrow some time during the day if we cannot attend the church services we should give our thanks for the privilege of living and having our being.

"THERE ARE TIMES IN EVERY PERSONS LIFE WHEN A LITTLE NEST EGG TUCKED AWAY IN THE FORM OF A GOOD INVESTMENT MEANS MUCH. YOU WILL FIND A GOOD AND SOUND NEST EGG IN THE SOUTHERN UTILITIES COMPANY 8 PER CENT CUMULATIVE PREFERRED STOCK. IT HATCHES DIVIDENDS EVERY QUARTER. THERE'S NONE BETTER."

While other countries are being torn asunder with political differences and wars and rumors of wars, while thousands are starving in many places on the earth we are happy and contented in the land of the free and living under the best government in the world.

In fact our blessings are too numerous to mention and in the midst of plenty even though we have troubles we should not fail to add our prayers of thanksgiving on the day of days and on every day in the year.

PRINTING THE NEWS.

No matter how innocent a newspaper may be in printing new items or trying to record the history each day of the community as to how the people come and go and act, there are always some folks who are so small and narrow that they can't see anything but their own selfishness in what is printed. They will laud the paper and its editor to the skies until they feel their toes are trampled upon and then without excuse or reason when they get mixed up in something or want their name kept out of the paper and it isn't done, the editor turns out over night to be a crook and a thief and the paper a rotten sheet. That class thinks its all right to tell the truth on the other fellow but when it hits them, the soft pedal must be operated to perfection, and yet the same time the same paper has shown a lot of mercy toward things that might have appeared about some wayward member of the family, but on account of the sympathy for a mother or father or wife or someone like that, the half hasn't been told. The Star knows that is the experience of every editor and he vows time and again when these small, conceited, narrow-minded people get into trouble the next time, he will treat them just like he does every other person and tell it all.—Lakeland Star.

MEXICO CITY: THE ROME OF THE AMERICAS

"In all the world one cannot find a more remarkable capital than Mexico City," says William Joseph Sholwatter, in a communication to the National Geographic society.

"Situated in a valley whose floor is a mile and a half above the level of the sea, and whose borders are surrounded by towering mountains; located where the beautiful volcanoes, Popocatepetl and Ixtaccihuatl, rear snow-capped heads above the plain and stand eternal guard over it, its situation is one of rare beauty and grandeur. Its climate is mild, the temperature ranging from 35 to 70 degrees, with a mean of 65 degrees. No man sleeps without a blanket in Mexico City, nor needs an overcoat at midday. "Prior to the conquest the lakes of the Mexican valley were extensive and the barges of the Aztecs sailed, uninterruptedly from the gates of Chapultepec to Ixtapalapa. A large number of canals intersected the ancient metropolis of Tenochtitlan and connected with the lakes in the suburbs, making it a sort of new world Venice.

"In 1607 the celebrated Portuguese engineer Martinez undertook to drain the Valley of Mexico by cutting a canal through the mountains. The work, however, was largely a failure, since it drained only one small lake and an unimportant river, leaving lakes Texcoco and Chalco still perpetual menaces to the city.

"In 1879 a huge drainage canal 30 miles long was begun, which was completed in 1900, at a cost of about $8,000,000, American gold. Its completion removed the danger of inundations from Mexico City and solved the problem which occupied the thoughts and engendered the fears of the Aztecs as far back as 1449.

"Mexico City is the most complete mixture of the ancient and the modern to be found in the new world. The old city might date anywhere from the tenth century, from its appearance. The new city is ultra modern, and you step from the sixteenth to the twentieth century by walking across the street.

"The parade ground of Mexico City is the Avenida de San Francisco. This short street extends from the Mexican White House to the Alameda, and is only about 24 feet from curb to curb. Here, at the approach of twilight, every smart equipage in the capital comes. Down the one side of the street and up the other side moves the procession at a slow walk, while everybody looks at everybody else.

"As Avenida de San Francisco unites the old and the new cities, so does the Cinco de Mayo (Fifth of May) unite the cathedral, stately of all the religious edifices on the continent, with the National theater, which was planned to be the most beautiful of all the amusement places in America. The Cinco de Mayo is the Wall street of Mexico, and the buildings which line it are modern in every respect.

"The Paseo de la Reforma, extending from Chapultepec to the Avenida de Juarez, a short avenue connecting the Paseo with Avenida de San Francisco, is one of the finest driveways of the world.

"The national pawnshop is one of the unique institutions of the capital. It was founded by Pedro Jose Romero de Terreros."

Vulcanite Shingles
Just Lay Them Down and Nall--That's All There is To It

The Shoulder of Protection keeps hot or cold air--rain, sleet, etc., from forcing its way through the roof. The Shoulder of Protection is also the Self-Spacing Device. Makes laying easy and rapid--thus saving time and money. These Asphalt Shingles are surfaced with natural colored Red or Green Crushed Slate. Each rain washes away the accumulated dust--reviving perpetually the original rich colors. Where these shingles are used the insurance rate is lowered--because they are fire-resisting. SOUTHERN COLLEGE NOTES

The Y. W. C. A. of Southern College, has taken up its work for the ensuing year with its customary enthusiasm. Could you have attended the recognition service held in the auditorium of the college Thursday evening, Nov. 11th, you would have seen a very inspiring sight. The new members, about fifty in number, all in white carrying lighted candles, marched by two into the auditorium forming two lines in front of the platform where Miss Mary Elliot, president, administered the oath and welcomed the new girls on behalf of the organization. An appropriate solo by Miss Doris Verden, followed by a helpful talk by Dr. Alderman on the Y. W. C. A. as an organization and the high calling of womanhood, completed the program of the evening. Among the new members received into the Y. W. C. A. were Miss Gladys Adams of Sanford and Misses Carolyn White and Ellen Chappell, formerly of Sanford.

The Epworth League, one of the liveliest of the organizations of Southern College, has taken up its work with its customary enthusiasm and vigor. With the help of the new members, about fifty of whom were received into the League last Sunday night, this year it is expected that the League will do some of the best work it has ever done. Among the new members coming to us from Sanford were Gladys Adams and C. L. Irwin. The League was fortunate a week ago last Sunday night in having the privilege of listening to an address by Miss Annette Gist, who has been for several years a missionary to Japan. Miss Gist pictured to the Leaguers the need for workers in the far east, and made her talk instructive as well as entertaining. After her address, she exhibited to her auditors several trinkets and interesting curios which she had gathered during her stay in the Orient.

The annual Memorial services of the Eastern Star will be held at the Masonic Hall next Sunday, November 28th at 3 p. m. All visiting members of the Eastern Star and the public are cordially invited to attend the services.

ALONG OUR TURBULENT BORDER

"No region in all North America is more frequently mentioned or more widely misunderstood, perhaps, than the Mexican border," writes Frederick Simplic, formerly American consul at Nogales, Mex., to the National Geographic society.

"From the Gulf of Mexico up to El Paso, along the Texas frontier, the Rio Grande forms the boundary between the United States and Mexico; thence to the Pacific coast the line is marked by stone or iron monuments (save a short break at the Colorado), so set that one is supposed to be visible from another. By this plan a soldier, miner or cowboy (yes, and a smuggler, too) can always tell which side of the line he is on; or, if wholly lost and he comes suddenly on a monument, he soon can get oriented.

"Adventurous, colorful and full of contrasts as it is, the 1,800-mile trip along this crooked, historic line is rough and difficult and has been made by a few people.

"The Rio Grande part of this border has caused both Uncle Sam and Mexico much work and mental anguish. During bad floods the line as formed by the river squirms around in so astonishing and lively a manner that what is Mexican soil one day may be in Texas the next, and vice versa.

"Railroads cut this long border line at Brownsville, Laredo, Eagle Pass and El Paso, Tex.; at Douglas, Naco and Nogales, in Arizona, and at Calexico and Tia Juana, in California. Only four of these railroads, however, are main lines of through traffic that penetrate the interior of Mexico; these start at Laredo, Eagle Pass, El Paso and Nogales.

"No section of the border has seen so much of adventure, tragedy and turbulent activity as Texas. The flags of France, Spain and Mexico have waved over it; for a time it flew its own Lone Star and also the Confederate flag.

"As you follow the border west, oaks, pines and underbrush decrease, aridity increases and cacti lift their thorny heads. Border counties like Brewster, Presidio and El Paso are of amazing area—larger than some of our small Eastern states. Windmills are everywhere—"big electric fans to keep the cattle cool," a waggy cowboy once explained to a London tenderfoot.

"El Paso is the only large city from 'San Antonio' to Los Angeles, a ride of 1,500 dry, dusty miles.

"The largest irrigation reservoir anywhere is the great Elephant Butte dam, which stores more water than the world-famous Assuan dam on the Nile.

"From the point at Monument No. 1, where the boundary line crawls out of the Rio Grande (at the southeast corner of New Mexico), it strikes west into a wilderness of singularly dry and empty aspect. For 40 miles along this march the traveler must carry his own water.

"To the west lie the rough, hostile foothills of the Dog mountains; near here, in the San Luis range, the line reaches a point of 6,000 feet above the sea, marking the continental divide.

"In the San Bernardino valley the line strikes the first running water after quitting the Rio Grande—192 miles to the east. Here rises the famous Yaqui river, that long, crooked stream that meanders through the vast Mexican state of Sonora and through the turbulent Yaqui Indian zone, finally emptying into the Gulf of California below Graymas.

"In the whole 2,000-mile stretch from the Rio Grande to the Pacific this line crosses only five permanent running streams, and the average rainfall throughout its length is only eight inches.

"Save the hamlets of Columbus and Hachita, the New Mexican section of this border is almost uninhabited."

SCARCITY OF VEGETABLES SENDS THE PRICES UP

There has been a falling off in squash, pepper and cucumbers during the last few days. Irish potatoes, okra and lettuce have picked up some. Egg plants and cucumbers are getting very scarce. This has tended to run up the prices of these vegetables. Egg plants have gone up from $1 to $1.25 a crate in the last few days. Egg plants continue to be the principal vegetable marketed here.

Thursday, 102 crates of egg plants have been shipped from Plant City. A few tomatoes and beans were bought here Saturday and Monday. Fifty-eight hampers of Irish potatoes have been sold here since Thursday. During the same time, 16 hampers of Irish potatoes have been sold here since Thursday. During the same time, 16 hampers of cukes, 33 crates of lettuce, 4 hampers of okra, 10 of pepper, 18 crates of squash, 6 crates of beans have been handled by the express company from Plant City.

Prices quoted by local buyers today: Beans, $3.00; cukes, $3.00 to $3.50; egg plants, $3.50 to $3.75; lettuce, $2.50; okra, $3.00 to $3.25; Irish potatoes, $2.50 to $3.00; pepper, $2.50 to $3.00; white squash, $1.50; yellow squash, $1.50.—Plant City Courier.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 24.—Schedules proposing cancellation of and increases in present water competitive rates on lumber and articles taking the same rates in carloads from shipping points in the Carolinas, Georgia, Florida, Virginia and Eastern Alabama to Baltimore, Philadelphia, New York, Boston and other points taking the same rates, were disapproved by the interstate commerce commission.

WEATHER REPORT

For Florida: Fair tonight and Thursday light frost in interior of North portion tonight.

Great weather, we'll say.

The farmers are coming into their own.

And tomorrow the average person will get a rest. The printing offices not being average, will work.

J. P. Musselwhite and son, Lawrence, of Orlando, were among the visitors to the city today.

Sanford looks mighty fine these days. There is an air of prosperity in the air that you cannot fail to note.

Some big building projects are on tap for the first of January and this city will have plenty of room for everybody next season.

If you fail to get your Daily Herald now call the Herald office, 148 or phone 64. We will deliver it up to 9 o'clock.

T. L. Cushing was among the Oviedo visitors to the city yesterday. He has been ill with rheumatism for the past year and does not get to Sanford as often as he formerly did.

B. G. Smith, of Oviedo, was in the city today and his many friends were glad to see him. B. G. is a busy man these days with his many interests and gets to town only once each month.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Coffin, of Manton, Michigan, are in the city and will spend the winter on the Walter B. Olson grove property at Lake Mary. Mr. and Mrs. Coffin are the parents of Mrs. Olson.

The hunting parties that have returned report plenty of game in the woods and fish in the lakes and rivers. There is probably no section of Florida that offers so much to the hunters and fishermen.

T. O. Charles, of Sanford, has rented the store room in the Smith building facing on the river and is preparing to start an electrical contracting business in the room. He plans to open Monday.—New Smyrna News.

The banks and the postoffice will be closed tomorrow for Thanksgiving and anyone wanting to transact business will have to do it today or wait until Friday. It is fine to work in the postoffice and the banks. They really close up on holidays.

A. G. Swank was in the city today calling at the Herald office. He is a representative of the Mergenthaler Linotype Co., being in the "trouble" department and goes over the territory helping out the various owners of machines but very few Linotypes need any fixing and he found the Herald plant in fine shape.

"Peggy" Dornier was on the job yesterday collecting alms for the county poor farm for the big Christmas that he expects to give the inmates and on the circus grounds last night had his outfit ready for the nickles and dimes. He sold his photographs recently printed by Photographer Johnson and many people gave him the money without the photograph. He made a neat sum for his charitable enterprises.

AT THE STAR THEATRE TODAY

JUSTINE JOHNSTONE in "BLACKBIRDS"

Also "ALL JAZZED UP" and PATHE NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Bona left today for St. Petersburg where they will spend Thanksgiving with the parents of Mr. Bona.

Dr. George Hyman, Judge Maines and Supt. T. W. Lawton returned today from Jacksonville where they attended the fair and enjoyed the trip very much. They also heard Billy Sunday.

Messrs. Powell, Williams and White the Lake county boosters who went to Jacksonville Monday, were here today enroute home from the fair at Jacksonville. They all seemed comparatively sober and said they had a big time in the big city.

TOOK THE CARRIER BOYS TO THE BIG SHOWS

The Herald gave the carrier boys free passes to the Sparks' Circus last night and they enjoyed it as only boys can enjoy a circus. We intend to see that the boys have a chance to see every show that comes to Sanford and their pleasure will be augmented by the manner in which they give service to the patrons. We consider the carrier boys the most important part of the paper for upon them depends the success of the circulation department. Sparks' circus is a great friend of the newspaper and they were willing and anxious to help the Herald entertain the boys. When Johnny J. Jones comes to town our carrier boys will have one big night at the shows either Friday or Saturday nights in order not to interfere with their school work but they will be the guest of Johnny J. Jones himself and he will show them the whole works.

ALBERT DORNER FEEDS THE PRISONERS

Albert Dornier is the champion long distance philanthropist and charity man in this section. He goes out home this morning and kills and dresses six chickens and together with fresh lettuce brought them to town for the prisoners in the city jail for their Thanksgiving dinner. He also remembered the editor of the Herald and Hon. Geo. A. DeCottes with a fine fat hen for Thanksgiving and while we are not prisoners we are glad to be numbered among Albert's friends. If Albert is peculiar in his way we wish there were more of them peculiar around here. He is the greatest little benefactor in our midst and spends part of his time doing something for other people. Last year he sent the editor of the Herald a nice pig for Thanksgiving and it was greatly appreciated.

SANFORD HAD TWO DAILIES AND THREE WEEKLIES

Frank Miller dropped into the Herald office this morning for a minute's chat and in talking over events past and future said that when he was a youngster here (several years ago) there were two daily papers and three weekly papers. So you see that Sanford in the early days was some town and the reason there are so many old buildings on the main streets of the city today is because this city was one of the first to be established in the early days before the freeze wiped Sanford off the map. Now we need to rebuild the old ones or tear them down and build many new ones to take the place of the old ones and new ones to take care of the constantly increasing business and we will welcome the time when the city is big enough to have two dailies and three weeklies.

Mrs. A. E. Hill is desirous that every one who has fancy work for Holy Cross Episcopal Bazaar, send it to the home of Mrs. E. D. Mobley, 708 Oak avenue, not later than Monday, November 29th. - 198-5tc

EAST SANFORD

Rev. W. T. Rancher was over from Apopka Sunday and preached afternoon and evening. His subject for the afternoon sermon was "Thought" and what thoughts did for us. Mr. Rancher hopes to be sent here again after conference as he has made many friends.

Dr. R. J. Fay, of Cameron avenue has been ill in the Fernald-Laughlin hospital; said to be improving now.

Perry Anthony, of Cameron City, was called to Atlanta by the serious illness of his mother. He left for that point Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Nash, of Alabama, are guests of Philip R. Andrews and family of Celery avenue. Mr. Nash is very enthusiastic about our truck farming and may invest in a farm. Mr. Nash and Mr. Andrews are cousins.

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Shoemaker have bought the Rivers residence next to L. P. Hagen's home on Sanford Heights and expect to move in as soon as possible.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Corley have sold their farm and residence at Moore's Station to W. A. Ozmer, of Atlanta. Mr. Ozmer is at Orlando for the winter. The Corleys bought their place of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Miller last May and paid $8,000 and sold it to Mr. Ozmer for $12,000. They have made some improvements and have some fine growing crops that are included in the sale. Mr. and Mrs. Corley will occupy the place until May we understand.

Mr. and Mrs. George Townsend, of Mellonville avenue have as their guests, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Parker and daughter of Upton, Wyo., and Mr. and Mrs. James Hill, of Custer, S. D. Mrs. Parker is Mrs. Townsend's sister. The party came through in the Parker car, a Nash, making the trip in good time without accidents. They will see Florida this winter.

Louis Knelling, of Willoughby, O., arrived here this week for the winter and has been coming here for the past ten years.

Mrs. A. Corpany has been quite ill with ptomaine poison but is recovering under Dr. Stevens' treatment.

Mr. and Mrs. Nick Zernovean and daughter were visitors in Orlando on Monday.

W. E. Prevatt brought a pair of wild turkeys home from a hunting trip to Chuluota.

TURKEYS COSTING NEW YORK MORE

NEW YORK, Nov. 24.—New Yorkers who express their annual thanks through the medium of turkey, will have to pay five to seven cents a pound more than last year. Mrs. Lewis Reed Welzmler, deputy commissioner of public markets, said today the prevailing wholesale price was 52 to 54 cents a pound, which she characterized as excessive in view of the fact that the birds are more plentiful this year than last. She also deplored the high cost of cranberries, junior partner on the Thanksgiving menu, which retail at 20 cents a pound.

LUXEMBURG REPRESENTED AT WASHINGTON

Luxemburg, latest and smallest of the countries of the world to send a diplomatic representative to the United States, has a ruler with a better popular title to her throne than perhaps any other reigning monarch. Though the little grand duchy is smaller even than Rhode Island, it has a history reaching farther into the past than many of the great nations among which it now takes a place. It has been buffeted about like a shuttlecock by the countries that hem it in, and at one time or another during the past thousand years has been under the control of nearly every one of the principal nations of the western part of the continent.

While a part of the Holy Empire, Luxemburg furnished an emperor for the German throne. Count Henry IV of Luxemburg was elected to that position in 1308 as Henry VII. Luxemburg later came under the control of Burgundy and then fell successively to Spain, Austria and the first French republic. It remained under the sovereignty of the king of the Netherlands from 1815 to the accession of Queen Wilhelmina in 1890, when the existence of the Salic law—that anti-feminist outburst of the old warrior Franks—brought the grand duke of Nassau to the throne.

Even while the king of the Netherlands was sovereign of Luxemburg, it was a member of the German confederation, with the city of Luxemburg garrisoned by Prussian soldiers. Retention of this garrison in the city after the division of old Luxemburg between Holland and Belgium in 1831, and especially after the dissolution of the German confederation in 1866, almost caused the Franco-Prussian war to start three years ahead of time. The matter was compromised by an agreement for the withdrawal of the German troops, and the demilitarization of the fortifications of the city of Luxemburg, so strong that the fortress was known as "the Gibraltar of the North." In addition the grand duchy was set up as an independent state with its neutrality guaranteed, like that of Belgium, by the powers. This guarantee was one of the "scraps of paper" of 1814.

During the World War Luxemburg was practically a prisoner to Germany, but because the inhabitants did not resist, the Germans treated them with a certain degree of consideration. The sympathies of the people were with France, however, and several thousand Luxemburgians served with the tricolor. This popular sympathy for France and the belief that the reigning Grand Duchess Marie Adelaide, had pro-German leanings made her unpopular. After the armistice brought about the retirement of the Germans, a bloodless revolution broke out, and Luxemburg added another to its long list of sovereignties by being a republic for a few brief hours. Conservative elements brought about the abdication of the grand duchess in favor of her sister Charlotte, the present ruler, and by liberalizing the constitution. Marie Adelaide has entered a convent and become a Carmelite nun.

BRUSSELS: CAPITAL CITY OF THE LAND OF THE LOOM

Brussels, conspicuous during the war, again became a center of world attention with the meeting there of the International financial congress. Brussels' fame rests partly on popular misapprehensions. Its name is linked with a carpet that is not made there, and also with a cathedral which, properly speaking, is not a cathedral at all but a church—that of St. Gudule.

But even after deducting this much from Brussels' credit, enough remains to give it a foremost place among world capitals. Were the romantic adventures of the city cast into a "movie" scenario, the title might accurately be "From Swamp Dwelling to Petit Paris."

The seventh century village on the Senne, near the center of what now is Belgium, was called Bruselle, literally "swamp dwelling," with descriptive intent. The genius of a people for making much of meager physical circumstances fully warrants the nickname often given the modern city of parks, boulevards, art galleries and a famous university.

Suffering was no new experience for Brussels. More than three centuries earlier its great square had seen Count Egmont and Count Horn walk to the scaffold, as the former recited the fifty-first Psalm, and a little later both heads were displayed to the assembled multitude on iron spikes. More gruesome still, both heads finally were boxed and sent to Phillip II of Spain so that latter-day Herod might exult at another victory over his northern subjects.

Though the Brussels carpet of modern times is not made in Belgium, Brussels was paid a deserved tribute in its naming, for when it first was manufactured at Wilton, England, the product was patterned after the tapestries for which Brussels was famous for centuries.

In addition to its weaving Brussels gained renown for its lacemaking, and its needle-made laces still find their way all over the civilized world, including a considerable quantity to the United States. The feminine culture of feudal times sought to express in the delicate designs of filmy fabric what men wrought in the lace-like architecture of its cathedrals.

There is nothing quite as handy as the desk calendar pad. They are the busy office man or woman's greatest help and have been difficult to obtain up to the present time. The Herald Printing Company has a few of them and if you want your calendar you should lose no time in ordering it now. Come in and see them today. Herald Printing Co.
