BELIEF IS HELD THAT MACHADO WILL QUIT JOB

Returning Americans Believe President Of Cuba Will Step Down During Year

TAMPA, May 2.—Word brought back from Cuba in the last few days by Florida visitors and tourists indicates a widespread belief among business people in Havana that President Machado will step down and out during the year. Reports have been current in Havana and in this country for some time that Sumner Welles, new American ambassador is going to Cuba, with the hope of persuading Machado to call a general election within six months. It is said that President Roosevelt is convinced there can be no regular and established order in Cuba while Machado remains in power and that press he is willing to call an election and put himself out of the picture if it means intervention by the United States. The state department at Washington has emphasized that there is no thought of American intervention. But close students of the political and diplomatic situation in Cuba believe that the state department is merely playing a waiting game. Even Cuban refugees in Florida believe a strong man is needed to control things in Cuba. But their point is that Machado is too "strong," that he has lost his pull with the masses and that he demoralized only with the iron fist. (Continued On Page Two)

Sheriff Defended In Action Involving Victim Of Accident

E. F. Lundquist, resident of the Loch Arbor section near the spot where Leon Elliott, local garage mechanic, received injuries which resulted in his death last Thursday night, today issued a statement in defense of Sheriff J. F. McClelland, who yesterday told a Herald reporter, "I am being severely criticized by people who say that I refused to give Mr. Elliott proper attention after the automobile wreck." "Rumors have reached me that Mr. Elliott did not receive medical attention until the following day," Mr. Lundquist stated, "I wish to say that on the arrival of Sheriff McClelland, who was called out, Mr. Elliott could not be found. A search was made for him, and he was later found about three blocks from the scene of the accident. Sheriff McClelland insisted on taking him to the hospital but Mr. Elliott said he did not want to go to the hospital. On being informed that Mr. Elliott resided alone on a horse boat near the Osceola bridge, Sheriff McClelland took him to the County Jail, got him to bed, brought him a cup of warm coffee, and immediately called Dr. Perke, who arrived shortly thereafter. This was about 2:30 o'clock in the morning."

WASHINGTON, May 2.—(A.P.)—A long list of persons who have taken gold from the banks in the last two years was at the treasury's disposal last night in enforcing the right administration ban against hoarding the precious yellow metal. By eliminating the names of those who turned in their gold in the last two months, officials expected to produce a list of those who might logically be suspected. If they are found to hold more than $100 in gold each, they are liable to a fine of $10,000 and 10 years imprisonment. The loss of business yesterday brought the end of the period of grace in which gold owners were commended by executive order of the President, to hand their gold over to the government in exchange for other kinds of money. Less than a week ago more than $700,000,000 worth of gold received. (Continued On Page Four)

Need For Campaign Against Mosaic Is Stressed At Meet

If local growers expect to meet with success in their fight against mosaic disease, it will be necessary to destroy every leaf of mimosina on a waterway that may grow in profusion in many farms and groves and along almost every highway and trail in this section. This is a conclusion arrived at during a meeting of the Agricultural Committee of the Sanford County Board of Agriculture, held at the County Hall last evening under the leadership of F. F. Turner, committee chairman. Mimosina, a weed which grows in profusion in this section, is a pest which does not seem to realize the danger that it poses to the citrus industry. Buck, whose novel, "The Good Earth" has made her one of America's most widely known personalities but whose doctrinal views have met with some criticism, severed her connection with the Presbyterian Board of Foreign Missions. The facilities of the library are available to all residents of this section who are invited to make use of it as well as in the office of the body officials and workers on any matters that may come under the scope of a well regulated organization of that type.

House And Senate Can't Agree Upon Beer Legislation

WASHINGTON, May 2.—(A.P.)—The House today passed the Senate's beer and wine tax and regulation bill 81 to eight after amending it in such a way as to destroy all the Senate's favored provisions and substituting its own. The House, revolting at the Senate's action yesterday in eliminating the House provisions from the so-called compromise bill, took its third favorable action on the beverage legislation in two weeks and sent it to the Senate for concurrence. The two bodies split over the question of revenue as a major issue. The Senate insisted that the money, estimated by sponsors at $2,000,000 a year, go to general treasury. Fully nine members of the House today voted to prove an amendment providing that the funds go to the public school fund. Meanwhile the Senate took up consideration of the five tax and fifteen dollar automobile license tax bill and passed a bill by Senator Cawthorne, New Jersey, providing that rationing conditions of the state be required to pay a toll for sending their children to school. Citrus growers from Central and South Florida appeared here last night at a public hearing before a joint Senate and House Citrus Committee to oppose three bills affecting the citrus industry of the state. Former State Senator John S. Taylor, Largo, president of the Florida Citrus Exchange, and other speakers spoke in behalf of a bill which would repeal the 1927 law prohibiting use of avian spray on all citrus trees. Provisions of the bill would require a permit to use fruit sprays and make the fruit more subject and subject in size and moved to a standard to trees. Senator M. O. Harrison, Tallahassee, yesterday offered a bill in the Senate to make it unlawful for any person to offer for sale, ship or offer for shipment in Florida, any fruit or vegetable which have been sprayed with arsenic unless labeled, showing that the arsenic has been sprayed with arsenic. The bill would require labels on fruit, whether shipped in boxes, crates or trucks or in any other container or vehicle to bear a placard with letters one inch in height in red on white as follows: "This fruit has been sprayed with arsenic." Persons applying for avian sprays would be required to give a health certificate under the provisions of a measure introduced in the House yesterday, carrying by J. C. Brown, of Dale. Including among the measures introduced in the House yesterday, a bill providing for a permit for the use of avian spray on citrus trees in Florida, in certain quantities in Florida, in certain quantities in Florida, in certain quantities in Florida. Establishment of child welfare boards in the 67 counties of the state is proposed under the provisions of a bill having the House hoppers yesterday morning. The measure was by H. C. Pearce, of Putnam county.

C., field representative of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, and John P. Ingle, of Jacksonville, chairman of the advisory council of the Florida Emergency Relief Administration. ## Half Billion For Relief Of States Nearing Adoption

WASHINGTON, May 2.—(A.P.)—The granting of a half billion more from federal coffers to help the states meet their charity needs was only a perforator step away today, with the administration's $500,000,000 unemployment relief bill approved by the Senate and awaiting House consideration of minor changes. The measure provides for direct grants to the states instead of loans and sets up a federal relief administration to take over the distribution of money from the construction corporation.

Lost That Tired and Weary Feeling?

"I was tired all the time; had heavy in back and sides that kept me feeling bad; was in a nervous and weakening condition," writes Mrs. M. E. Fern, of Portsmouth, Ohio. "I lost in weight until I was very thin. During this time, I had been taking a lot of medicine and it helped me so much that I decided to take it again. I took several bottles and my strength began to return, and I gained weight. I am now in good health and I feel like a new person."

Getting Things Done

It was a month ago tomorrow that the present session of the Legislature convened...

We don't suppose such inefficiency and procrastination can well be avoided...

There were no conferences, no commissions and no delays...

On the first day the Almighty said: 'Let there be light. AND THERE WAS LIGHT.'

On the second day He created the firmament to divide the heaven from the earth.

On the third day He said: 'Let the waters under the heaven be gathered together...'

On the fourth day He said: 'Let there be lights in the firmament of the heaven...'

On the fifth day the oceans were supplied with fish.

On the sixth day the beasts were created, and, finally, Adam and Eve.

And God saw everything that He had made, and, behold, it was very good.

If there had been a board of directors to whom the plans had to be submitted...

What good luck for all of us that the creation took place in the crude old days...

And God saw everything that He had made, and, behold, it was very good.

Walking As A Recreation

A well known college finds that its students are going in for less expensive sports...

Europeans, especially the Germans, have long been the apostles of pedestrian recreation...

When the groups have penetrated deep enough into rural surroundings, an attractive spot in the woods is selected...

The trouble with the average American who seeks to take exercise is that he goes about it as if it were a business.

We would like to see the inauguration of the walking habit in this country...

SANFORD, TWENTY YEARS AGO

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Hornum entertained a number of their friends at a very delightful dinner Thursday evening...

INFLATION PLANS OF COUNTRY ARE GIVEN ANALYSIS

Danger Seen In Three Of Four Proposals Being Considered

By J. L. SWINER, Associate Professor of Business Statistics, Harvard University, NEW YORK, May 2.

The "controlled inflation" measure of the Administration designed to raise the level of commodity prices...

The reserve bank operations provided for in the President's measure are purchases in the open market by the 12 reserve banks...

In the typical instance, purchases of government securities by the reserve banks are made from member banks or security dealers...

If the member banks throughout the country make use of their increased potential lending power...

A large figure in comparison with the present total purchasing power of the country, which is represented by approximately fifty billions of currency and bank deposits...

If a substantial expansion in the "deposit currency" because of expansion of loans by the member banks...

Confidence in the banks has increased tremendously as a result of the measures taken during and since the bank holiday...

These considerations, then may permit the bankers to adopt a substantially different policy as to expanding their operations.

Uproarious Comedies At Milane Tonight

Those who are tired of the stark realism of life, the Depression—aren't we all?—will find a welcome relief in seeing "The Cohens and Kellys in Trouble," the Universal laugh riot co-starring George Sidney and Charlie Murray, which opens tonight at the Milane Theater, and anyone who has a sense of humor will find laughter galore in the sea-going comedy, the seventy of the "Cohens and Kellys" series.

Sidney and Murray have a splendid supporting cast, which adds much to the production which may be called, without exaggeration, the best of the Sidney-Murray series. Among those who add to the laughs are "gravel-throated" Andy Devine, the inimitable Jobyna Howland, Maude Fulton and Henry Armetta, while Frank Albertson and Maureen O'Sullivan lend convincing portra-ysals as the young lovers.

The story concerns Patrick Kelly, tug boat captain, and Nathan Cohen, retired business man, who comes to see him after an absence of many years. The men are just starting to have their fun when a young revenue officer falls in love with Kelly's daughter, unbeknownst to him—and Kelly hates revenue officers. Kelly's ex-wife also appears to collect back alimony, the men are
